Chapter 211 too smooth

Because it was too smooth, she directly cooperated with the county magistrate's wife and didn't even think about small business.

"I could have made a fortune the year before last. Let's use the ox-cart and get fourth uncle to set up a stand for selling our goods. We'll put it in the drunken River Restaurant during the day, and at night, we'll put the goods in the drunken River Restaurant!" Cai Xiaolian said.

"Yes, father, mother, you go and sell it. Xinxin and I will make it at home. By the way, mother, I have a lot of New Year's snacks here, do you want to make them all?" Gu Nian asked.

"What do you have? Oh, by the way, let's find a way to seal the oil paper. This way, the things can be stored for a longer time. I remember using fire, blades, and something to seal it. The oil paper won't break." Cai Xiaolian asked again.

"No problem, I can do it. "I also know how to stir-fry sweet rice, make snowflakes, make Nougat, and steamed bun," Gu Nian said.

She didn't have the time to make it before, but if she had the time, she could make a lot of snacks.

After all, she didn't have any other hobbies. Reading, fighting, and eating were her hobbies.

This was also the reason why she was still single even though all her peers had become mothers. She had not even given her first love away.

"Alright, then let's choose a few and try it out. Isn't it the twelfth lunar month? We'll start doing it after we move. Niannian, you can practice first. I'll tell your fourth uncle about the box and the counter tomorrow. Oh right, when you try it out, write down the quantity so that I can order. I'll calculate the cost tomorrow." Cai Xiaolian said.

"Mother, mother, let me calculate!" Gu Xin, who had been silent all this while, finally found what she could do.

"Alright, Xinxin will do the divination! Xinxin is young and her brain is more flexible than mother's, so she can calculate quickly!" Cai Xiaolian had seen Gu Xin's mental arithmetic before. Recently, this girl even knew how to use an abacus, so it wouldn't be a problem to leave it to her.

"Then you all have things to do, what about me?" Gu shouxin felt that he had been pushed aside.

The three of them looked over and Gu Xin said, " "Father, didn't I just say that you'll go sell things with mother? Other than that, father, just focus on your studies."

"Zhenzhen, alright!" Gu shouxin said.

His wife and eldest daughter said that in their world, women could hold up half the sky. Yes, in their family, women could hold up half the sky.

Cai Xiaolian was a woman of her word. The next day, she went to the old house to find fourth uncle Gu to tell him about the gift boxes and the sales of the table. She also told grandma Gu and Grandpa Gu about her plan for layue.

The old couple was no longer suspicious of the second branch's food, and after hearing it, they were in full agreement.

Grandma Gu and Grandpa Gu discussed it and decided to go over and help when it was ready.

The old couple knew how expensive it was to study. The second son was studying alone while the mother and daughter were busy. They couldn't just stand by and watch. They had to put in some effort if they could.

When Zhang Shi heard Cai Xiaolian say that she had to call Gu Hui and Gu si over to help, she quit. If those two wretched girls weren't at home, then wouldn't all the work at home fall on her?

No, no.

Cai Xiaolian knew that she wasn't willing, so she offered to pay the two children.

Zhang Shi asked, how much?

"It's none of your business." Grandma Gu decided to play the villain. The money earned by the children will be saved by them. If you dare to take it, I'll ask the children to give me the money and I'll save it for them."

"Mother, then can I go? Let sisi work at home, I'm an adult, I work fast and nimbly."

Grandma Gu glanced at her. you still have the cheek to call yourself an adult? you're more hardworking and efficient than sisi when it comes to work. Why would they look for sisi instead of you? "

Chapter 212: Lan lan and brother Chuan

If Mrs. Zhang wanted to make a scene, grandma Gu would pull a long face and glare at her, and she would stop. She could only hold it in and say bad things about the Gu family.

Grandma Gu was a dignified elder at home.

Soon, it was the eighth day of the twelfth lunar month, the day when the second branch of the Gu family would move to the new house.

Their new house was right next to their previous house. They did not invite too many people to warm up their rooms. They only invited people from the old mansion. They also invited grandma Xiao and Lu Zheng. One of them was grandma Gu's best friend since they were young, and the other was someone who worked with her on the farm. Naturally, they had to invite them.

All the furniture was new, and they only needed to move some daily necessities over.

This was the first time that grandma Gu had come here since she drove the second branch of the Gu family out. She was quite satisfied when she walked into the second branch's new house.

The surrounding walls were still mud walls and looked yellow, but she heard from second brother's family that they would plant some vines in spring. By then, the walls would be green and it would look pretty good with small flowers.

Pushing open the door, they saw the bluestone floor all the way to the central room. It was surrounded by Small Stones from the River. It didn't look very good on the riverbank, but it looked quite good. Walking on this road on a rainy day, one's shoes wouldn't be stained with mud.

On the left were three rows and three roads, a total of nine vegetable fields. Well, they knew how to live. The vegetable fields were all so beautiful, but they had not planted seeds yet.

There was a row of wooden houses next to the vegetable field, which should be the henhouses, piggies, and latrines. Opposite this row was the warehouse, and opposite the vegetable field was the kitchen. There was a sink and a water tank outside the building. The new house and the old house were not far away, so there was no need to dig a well.

On the right side of the bluestone road, there was a pond. According to second eldest's wife, it was used to rear fish and plant some lotus roots. When the weather was hot, the Lotus flowers would also look good when they bloomed.

The pond was square in shape, and there was a long corridor at the corner of the wall beside the pond. At the corner, there was a stone table. On a hot day, this corner was cool and breezy.

At the end of the corridor was a large, spacious room. It was said that niannian used it to create new things. Grandma Gu had no idea that her granddaughter-in-law had changed from an embroidery enthusiast to a craftsman, but she was still very supportive of her granddaughter's change in behavior.

This house was the living quarters of the family and the central room.

On the side of the new house, except for the chicken and pigsty and toilet next to the vegetable field, the rest of the houses were large brick houses. The houses were spacious and bright with good lighting.

The weather was so good that even the sun could shine in.

"Lan lan, when big sister Xiao confirms that I've recovered, we don't have to save money anymore. Let's build a new house!" Grandpa Gu saw the love in grandma Gu's eyes and said with a smile.

"We're old, so let's leave the silver for the children! We've lived in that mud-walled house for so many years, and we're used to it." Grandma Gu was a little moved, but she still refused after some thought.

"It's precisely because we're old that we want it. When my body can take it, I'll sell my calligraphy and paintings and get the money to build your big brick house." Grandpa Gu held grandma Gu's hand and smiled gently.

"Brother Chuan." Grandma Gu was touched, but she still shook her head. no need. Xiao said that you can't work too hard even though you're feeling better.

The old couple strolled to Houyang Valley. The four Gu sisters were just about to come to Houyang Valley to talk. Hearing the noise, they could only stop in their tracks. Four heads popped out from the corner of the wall. Gu si, Gu Xin, and Gu Hui were all thinking about Gu Hui. The four sisters stared at their own grandparents without blinking.

Chapter 213: You really dare to think!

When Gu Hui saw her grandmother glancing over, she immediately retracted her head and pulled Gu Nian over.

Gu Xin pulled Gu Xin, and Gu Xin pulled Gu si.

The four sisters leaned against the corner of the wall. The older two had a yearning look in their eyes, while the younger two looked at their sisters with clear eyes.

"I'm telling you, in the future, when you're looking for a partner, you have to find someone like our Grandpa. When you're old, he'll still be able to hold your hand and care for you. We'll hold hands and grow old together." Gu Nian shook her head and sighed.

"Then do we have to find one when we're old?" Gu si asked.

that's right, sister. When we're young, how do we know if he'll still hold our hands and care for us when he's old? " Gu Xin also asked.

The corner of Gu Hui's lips curled up as she raised her eyebrows at Gu Nian. She wanted to hear what she was going to say.

uh, this ... Yingluo, " Gu Nian was at a loss for words. After thinking for a while, she replied, " you'll probably be able to tell after spending some time together.

Little ones, what's the problem? I'm just looking forward to it. I don't know how I'll know if I'm the right person!

"Then what if they get along with a few people who they think they can grow old with? All of them?" Gu Hui asked.

Gu Xin and Gu si also looked at Gu Nian in confusion.

My sister knows more boys than sister Huihui, so she definitely knows.

My sister knows fewer boys than sister niannian. She has already asked, so niannian should know.

Gu Nian looked at Gu Hui in fear and gave her a thumbs up. "Sister! You'll be my sister from now on! I'll listen to you."

She didn't even think of taking them all, but her sister Huihui really dared to think about it!

"Be good! In the future, I'll help big sister earn more money so that big sister can realize this dream." Gu Hui patted Gu Nian's shoulder and nodded her head solemnly.

Grandpa Gu and grandma Gu, who were walking over, stopped in their tracks when they heard this. Great, their Huihui did not propose marriage because she did not have enough money. Things could not go as she had expected!

Grandma Gu had heard of Gu Hui's thoughts a long time ago. She had to admit that she and old Xiao had had the same thoughts when they were young. However, after meeting that person, they naturally changed their minds.

She believed that one day, a man would appear and let her granddaughter know that one man was enough for her.

Hence, she was not worried at all and was not in a hurry to correct Gu Hui's thoughts.

"What are you sisters talking about?" Grandpa Gu appeared from the corner and asked with a smile.

"Grandpa, we're asking big sister Yingluo."

nothing, Grandpa. We're just planning to go to the kitchen from Houyang Valley. We've just tidied up the small room over there! Seeing that Gu Xin was about to reveal their conversation and even ask her grandfather what he should do, Gu Nian quickly interrupted Gu Xin and chuckled.

"It's still early! Why don't you take me and your grandma to see your small room? Your grandma hasn't even gone in to take a look yet!" Grandpa Gu held grandma Gu's hand and asked with a smile, as if he hadn't heard their conversation.

"Good, good! Grandpa, grandma, this way!" Of course, Gu Nian was willing to show the two elders around.

Grandpa Gu often visited Gu nianjia's house. This was indeed grandma Gu's first time visiting Gu nianjia's house. Therefore, Gu Nian was quite fond of her.

As grandma Gu had never seen any of the equipment in the house before, Gu nianjia explained to her what they were for.

In the corner, there were rows of soap and soap that had been formed. On the wooden shelf, there were small cans of shampoo, each of which was marked with a scent.

Chapter 214: Grandma Xiao's gift

"Grandpa, grandma, what kind of fragrance do you like? I'll give priority to that kind of incense next time." Gu Nian asked.

"Is it troublesome? I saw your introduction just now. It's quite troublesome to fix the flowers. You don't have to do it for me, just make something that sells well." Grandma Gu said.

"It's the same. It's troublesome, but it's not troublesome either. Anyway, Xinxin and sisi already knew how to do it. Grandma, just say it! Her granddaughter was already fourteen years old, but she had never given anything to her grandparents! This New Year, let your granddaughter show her filial piety and send you a New Year gift!" Gu Nian said.

"I want it too, I want it too! Sister Huihui and sisi want it too. Let's make it together and give it to Grandpa and Grandma!" Gu Xin remembered that she had never given him anything before and added.

"Alright, then I'll have one with an orchid fragrance." Grandma Gu looked at the children and smiled. She usually kept a straight face and rarely smiled, except when she smiled at Grandpa Gu.

"Okay, grandma. What about Grandpa?" Gu Nian then turned to look at Grandpa Gu.

Grandpa, of course, likes the fragrance of orchids. I like fragrant orchids. Grandpa Gu glanced at grandma Gu as he spoke.

Grandma Gu pursed her lips, and the smile on her face grew wider.

Gu Nian, "Yingluo."

He had been fed dog food again without warning!

Gu Hui looked up at the sky. She couldn't stand this interaction between Grandpa and Grandma!

Gu Xin and Gu Si looked at their grandparents with silly smiles. They didn't know what they were smiling about, but they just liked it.

This was the initial love between the two sisters.

After a while, grandma Xiao and Lu Zheng came over with gifts.

Grandma Xiao gave Cai Xiaolian a basket of medicine bottles, and Cai Xiaolian was dumbfounded.

"Take it, this is your aunt Xiao's good stuff. Ordinary people don't have it." Grandma Gu said.

"Aunt Xiao, what are these?" Cai Xiaolian felt that it was strange. When their family moved, they couldn't give medicine jars, right? it didn't make sense!

"This red one will scratch you to death. Once your skin comes into contact with it, it'll itch for six to six hours, depending on how well the other party's skin can accept it! This blue one is called instant release. Hahaha, it contains Croton powder and my years of research. This black bottle was called a blind leaf. When it was sprinkled on a person's eyes, he would temporarily be unable to see his surroundings for about 15 minutes. This white bottle is filled with pills that will cause heartache for two hours. There is no need for an antidote." Grandma Xiao introduced her to Cai Xiaolian.

Cai Xiaolian, "hehe."

You must be joking!

"You're a woman who often runs around outside. If one day second brother has something to do and doesn't accompany you, and you meet some shady people, use this to deal with them! It won't kill you, but it'll let you run away!" Grandma Xiao said again.

"Aunt Xiao!" Cai Xiaolian put the basket on her wrist and held grandma Xiao's hand in excitement. from now on, you're my aunt!

You know, Cai Xiaolian had also thought about this problem. She often went to the county with Gu shouxin and saw several bullies. Her martial strength was not high, so it was a little dangerous to be alone, especially in the future when she was making more and more money. Even if she hired a special guard, she couldn't be protected all the time.

Great, her cheap mother-in-law's sister had sent over protective supplies. There were five bottles of each type, which could be used for a long time.

Chapter 215 he has other plans

Grandma Xiao presented her gift, and so did Lu Zheng.

His gifts were well-behaved and did not cross the line at all. Two jars of wine, a box of tea leaves, and a set of books. Almost all of them were for Gu shouxin.

Gu shouxin was quite satisfied with this. This kid had lived in the village for so long, but he didn't deliberately approach him like before. He couldn't find any fault with what he had done.

Cai Xiaolian and Gu Nian were eager for him to only get close to Gu shouxin. Anyway, they were very confident in nine thousand years old. This little brat would not be able to beat him.

Grandma Gu and grandma Xiao went to the yard to have a chat.

The men were warming themselves by the fire in the central room.

Gu Nian began to cook. The main course for lunch was Laba congee, which corresponded to the day.

After a while, someone else came in.

Gu shouxin opened the door and saw that it was Madam Cheng with her children.

Since Lord Cheng didn't come, Gu shouxin could only call Cai Xiaolian to greet Madam Cheng and take Cheng Rui to the central room.

The Gu family didn't invite the Cheng family, but she didn't know how Mrs. Cheng knew. Since she was here, she naturally had to greet her well.

There were two tables for lunch. Considering his cooking skills, there was naturally no problem.

Gu Nian had even prepared a new dish for the new lunar month. She taught the chefs of drunken River Restaurant how to cook at the end of every month. She had already started teaching them in the month before the lunar month.

After the meal, the people of the old mansion and grandma Xiao went back home because Mrs. Cheng and her mother were there.

"Miss niannian, can I take a look at your small workshop? I was very interested when Huang 'er mentioned it last time." When Gu Nian had some free time, Cheng Rui looked for her and asked, "

"Sure, let's go!" Gu Nian was not afraid of people visiting the laboratory.

"I'll go with you!" Gu Hui, who was at the side, frowned and glanced at Cheng Rui. Then, she looked at her sister-in-law and the county magistrate's young master and young lady who were playing happily in the long corridor. She followed them.

The three of them went to the laboratory together. Cheng Rui was much more obedient than Cheng huaijin. He only asked questions about things he didn't know or was curious about, but he didn't touch them.

Gu Hui crossed her arms as she walked beside Gu Nian. Her expression was calm, just like grandmother Gu's.

After sending the Cheng family off in the afternoon, Gu Hui called Gu Nian to the side. "The eldest son of the magistrate seems to be interested in you."

"Eh? Sister Huihui, you're so sharp?" Gu Nian asked in surprise.

"My intuition tells me that he might really be interested in you, but he also has other intentions. You shouldn't have introduced him in such detail." Gu Hui said.

"You think he wants to learn how to make the things in my lab?" Gu Nian asked.

"I don't know. I just feel that the way he looks at you isn't that pure. It's good to be on your guard. This is your ability to settle down and not let others learn it! Especially those men with impure intentions!" Gu Hui shook her head.

"Sister Huihui, thank you for your concern! But I'm not afraid, really. He could not learn it. However, you don't have to worry about him liking me because I don't like him. Hehe, he's too young." Since Gu nianzhen treated Gu Hui as her sister, she did not hide anything from her.

he's three years older than you, right? and he's still young? " Gu Hui asked in surprise.

"I'm not talking about this age, but the age of the heart. You see, even his thoughts were seen through by a sixteen-year-old girl like you, isn't that a little too bad!" Gu Nian explained.

Gu Hui replied, 'Huahua, I don't know if you're belittling me or others. However, you have to be careful!"

Chapter 216: I'm not that stupid

"Don't worry, sister Huihui. I won't be tricked by a little kid." Gu Nian promised.

"Back then, sun Yumei from the Lotus Village also told her brother that she would definitely not take a fancy to our village's Wang tiezhu. Unfortunately, she was coaxed over, and the Wang family almost used up all of the dowry her brothers had given her. As for her, she almost lost two lives, and she still hasn't recovered!" Gu Hui said.

"I'm not that stupid." Gu Nian said.

"This isn't a matter of being stupid. second uncle is such a smart person. In the end, because of a woman, he became like this. You've seen it for yourself all these years. It took more than ten years to recover!" Gu Hui said.

sister Huihui, I really don't know what to say to your sudden concern! Gu Nian facepalmed.

"Gu Nian, don't doubt me. My instincts are very accurate. Anyway, I just think that he has a plan for your ability. You're so smart, you know how to do so many things, and you're pretty. It's not a bad idea to marry you. However, once he finds someone more useful than you, no matter how much he likes you, he'll make you suffer and even abandon you." Gu Hui said.

"He's talking about marriage, as if there's really something going on between us." no, sister Huihui, you're only two years older than me. Why do I feel like you're twenty years older than me?" Gu Nian complained as she placed her hand on her forehead.

"Forget it! Anyway, I've seen a lot of such situations. The feeling that the county magistrate's eldest son gives me is a bit like those unfaithful people in such situations. Of course, there are both men and women. I can't help it if you don't believe me. I'm leaving. Didn't you say you were going to make some candy tomorrow? I'm going back to sleep!" Gu Hui waved her hand and left.

"It's not even dark yet, why don't you go back to sleep?" Gu Nian laughed.

Gu Hui only waved her hand and left without looking back.

Seeing that their older sister had left, Gu Si and Gu En also said goodbye to Gu Xin and went home.

"Sister!" Gu Xin was having fun and ran over with a red face.

"Xinxin, do you like that swing?" Gu Nianxiao asked.

"I like it! It's fun sitting on the swing, I know what it feels like to fly!" Gu Xin nodded her head happily.

"It's good that you like it! By the way, Xinxin, do you think eldest young master Cheng is a bad person?" Gu Nian asked as she wiped the sweat off Gu Xin's forehead.

They have a little koi fish at home.

"No! Brother Xiao Yang said that brother Cheng Rui was very impressive. He was the top student in school, the gentlemen liked him, and his family liked him. This isn't a bad person, right?" Gu Xin was stunned for a moment before she replied.

Gu Nian said, 'Yingluo should be! Alright, go wash up and wipe your sweat!'

"Niannian, Xinxin, come here quickly! I'll show you something good." At this time, Cai Xiaolian called for the two of them in the central room.

The two of them went in, and Cai Xiaolian placed the basket of small medicine bottles that grandma Xiao had given her on the table in the central room.

Gu Shouxin was using a bamboo tube the size of an index finger to store the powder.

"Father, What is this?" Gu Xin was not around when grandma Xiao delivered the gifts.

"They specialize in dealing with bad people. Father will put you three in a small bamboo tube, and when the time comes, we'll sew a secret compartment in each set of clothes. When you encounter danger that you can't solve, you can scatter the powder in this small bamboo tube." Gu Shouxin explained.

Xinxin, this will scratch you to death. It's the Pixiu, " Cai Xiaolian explained to Gu Xin the uses of the medicinal powder.

Chapter 217 rushing to be food

On the first day of moving, the mother and daughter of the Gu family got their hands on a big killing weapon. They thought about their beautiful life in the future and slept soundly.

The whole family was still thinking that the first person to use this powder would be Cai Xiaolian. After all, she had been out a lot.

In the end, the first person to use this powder was Gu Xin.

After moving, the family started to prepare to sell New Year's goods.

They planned to sell it from the 12th of December to the 29th of December. They should be able to make a lot of money in ten days.

Every day at dawn, Cai Xiaolian and Gu shouxin would drive the ox-cart from home to the county town with goods.

After being reminded by grandma Gu, uncle Gu also bought some from Gu Nian's private house. He then went to Zhoujia town to sell them.

Originally, fourth uncle Gu also wanted to sell it like this, but because of Cai Xiaolian's various designs, master yang had a lot of work to do, so fourth uncle Gu could only work with master yang.

On the 15th day of the 12th lunar month, uncle Gu went out to sell the goods on the third day. He came back earlier than the previous two days, just past noon. He thought that there was not enough new goods here, so he went to the mountain to get some firewood.

Gu Xin and Gu si stayed in the kitchen every day. Gu Nian asked the two little girls to go out and walk around while they followed her uncle up the mountain.

The two little girls carried their backpacks and followed.

you two, don't go any further. It's winter and the wild beasts in the mountains have nothing to eat. Don't be in a hurry to become food! When they arrived at the mountain, uncle Gu instructed the two little girls.

"Oh!" The two of them answered obediently and picked up some small branches and dead leaves not far from uncle Gu.

After filling up a small backpack, the two of them carried it back and ran back into the forest after filling it up.

"I feel like you two aren't as smart as your sister! How much can this little back hold? It's easy to run around? You can play on the side or go back to the courtyard!" Uncle Gu looked at the little girl running back and forth three times, her face red, and said somewhat speechlessly.

uncle, we're not tired. This is sugar water. It's warm. I've got a new gourd. Drink it! Gu Xin passed uncle Gu a glass of water.

Uncle Gu wiped his sweat, raised his head and finished the gourd in one gulp, then returned the gourd to Gu Xin, "My daughter is still the best! Look at Enzi and Ninja, they don't know how hard it is for their father. One only knows how to play and the other only knows how to cry! Al!"

Gu si: "father, just bear with it for two months. If he doesn't cry, what do you want him for?"

Uncle Gu: "Yingluo can laugh. Hahahaha, Yingluo, go and play. Don't delay me from chopping wood!

Gu Xin pulled Gu si and ran away.

She thought of the small waterfall in the forest. Ever since she met Xiao Yu, she hadn't been here for a long time. She suddenly wanted to go there.

The small waterfall was not far from where uncle Gu chopped wood, so the two sisters went there.

However, just as he reached the small pool, he found a big guy drinking water on the shore. Hearing the movement, the big guy turned around.

"Ah!" The two of them shrieked in fear and fell to the ground. Wasn't the big cat that the villagers had described drinking by the water?

The little girl was so scared that she didn't even know how to run away.

When uncle Gu heard the cry, he ran over without thinking.

"Sisi, it's coming, it's coming!" Gu Xin trembled in fear.

"Sister Xinxin, are we rushing to be food?" Gu Si was crying.

The big cat stared at Gu Xin and walked towards her step by step. It didn't act like a tiger hunting its prey, but just walked towards her slowly.

Chapter 218 escape

"Girls, quickly run!" Uncle Gu ran over with an axe and shouted when he saw the big guy.

When he raised his axe and stood in front of the sisters, the big guy jumped up and uncle Gu threw his axe at their heads.

In her panic, Gu Xin touched the small bamboo tube that Cai Xiaolian had sewn into her clothes. She opened the lid and threw it at the big guy.

After moving, not only did Gu Xin practice the horse stance, but she also practiced shooting darts. She learned quickly and was quite accurate, so the powder pill ended up in everyone's mouths.

“Roar ~”

The big guy suddenly stopped and roared.

The sun shone through the forest and onto the three humans and one Tiger. If one looked closely, one would see that uncle Gu’s neck was stained with the nearest powder.

Taking advantage of the moment when the big guy stopped moving, uncle Gu threw the axe directly, then picked up one child in each hand and ran away quickly.

Mother, you haven’t come out of the mountain for more than ten years, and now even the big cat in the back mountain has come out. You scared your son to death.

Oh my God, please strike that big cat with lightning and let me run back to my mother’s side!

“Roar ~”

The big tiger caught up with them and caught up with them in no time.

Gu Xin and Gu Nian, who were being carried by uncle Gu, saw the big guy that was about to catch up to them.

Especially when they saw the big guy jump up and glare at the back of uncle Gu’s head with his big mouth open, as if he wanted to bite off uncle Gu’s neck. The two sisters were so scared that their eyes rolled back and they fainted.

“Aiyo!” Uncle Gu was tripped by a stone and fell.

Gu Xin landed in a short thicket with thorns, while Gu Si’s head was cut by a sharp stone, causing her to bleed non-stop.

As soon as the man fell, the big guys missed.

The big guy turned around, and uncle Gu just got up and pushed the two children further away, facing the big guy.

God bless, I’m so big, it’ll be full after eating me, let the two children go!

He was highly focused and got into position to fight the Tiger with his bare hands. The big guy opposite him also got into position, treating the human in front of him as a meal.

“Pfft!”

The moment the man and the Tiger confronted each other, the tiger’s tail suddenly wagged.

“Pfft! Pfft! Pfft!”

Now, uncle Gu saw the most unforgettable moment of his life.

The big cat had diarrhea!

At this time, he didn’t forget to wipe his eyes and take a closer look. He couldn’t help but Mutter, “”Brother Hu, you’ve already pooped and you still want to eat us?”

“Roar ~”

“Pfft! Pfft! Pfft!”

The big cat roared and pulled back.

Uncle Gu wanted to laugh, but he knew that it was not the time to.

Since this big cat had diarrhea, it was probably like a human. Its legs would go soft from diarrhea. How was he going to carry the two girls back?

Which way is the fastest?

“Roar ~”

This scream was even louder than the previous one, but it was definitely enough to scare uncle Gu to the point that his legs went soft.

Uncle Gu quietly took a step back. He had already calculated that he would first pick up sisi, then pick up Xinxin, and roll down in Xinxin’s direction. That should be the best escape route.

He only hoped that the big guy in front of him could drag on a little longer.

Unfortunately, his hopes were dashed. The moment he moved, the big cat pounced at him.

Uncle Gu quickly rolled in Gu Si’s direction.

The big cat landed on the ground and knelt on its front hooves.

“Owwuuu!”

It wasn’t a tiger’s roar, but a wail from a body that had suffered a great impact.

Uncle Gu didn’t have time to think too much. He picked up Gu si, whose forehead was still bleeding, and quickly went to pick up Gu Xin, rolling down in the direction he expected.

Chapter 219: The first person to try

Uncle Gu couldn’t care less if the two girls were injured. He rolled down to the ground and didn’t see the big guys chasing after him. He carried a child on each side and quickly ran down the mountain.

After running down the mountain, he met a few strong men from the village, who were holding all kinds of sharp farming equipment in their hands. One of them was a Hunter from the village, who was carrying hunting items on his back.

“Enzi’s father, there are big cats in the mountains, right? I just heard a tiger’s roar!” The Hunter was older than Gu shouxin. Seeing Gu shouxin’s appearance, he asked seriously.

“That’s right, that’s right, brother Dachuan, there are too few of you. Call a few more people together. I’ll send the two children to aunt Xiao’s place and come to find you!” After Gu shouxin finished speaking, he ran towards the village entrance.

The two girls were frightened and injured. There was no medicine at home, so he had to send the children to grandma Xiao to have a look.

She ran all the way to grandma Xiao's place. The door was open, and Lu Zheng was drying herbs in the courtyard.

"Uncle Gu, what's wrong?" Lu Zheng saw Gu Xin, who was being carried by uncle Gu, with blood stains on her clothes and cuts on her face.

"I've met a big cat. Xiao Yuan, quickly find a bed for me to put the child down and let aunt Xiao take a look." Uncle Gu didn't hand Gu Xin over to Lu Zheng and carried her on his own.

"Uncle Gu, please follow me." Lu Zheng brought uncle Gu to the guest room on the side.

Grandma Xiao, who heard the commotion, also came out and quickly followed the two girls to see.

After uncle Gu put the child down, he let out a deep breath. Then, he suddenly realized that his neck was a little itchy. He scratched it a few times, and the more he scratched, the more itchy it became.

"Boss, they were frightened. The injuries on their faces and hands are all superficial. They'll be fine after I stop the bleeding and apply some medicine. I'll prescribe some medicine for the two girls to calm their nerves so they can sleep well at night." Grandma Xiao said after looking at it.

"That's good, that's good!" Uncle Gu was still scratching his neck, and his hands were starting to itch. He felt that both of his hands were too busy.

"What's wrong with you?" Grandma Xiao looked at uncle Gu in confusion.

"Maybe I ran into some insects when I was dealing with the big cat! I was too nervous and didn't notice." Uncle Gu said.

"Let me see." Grandma Xiao stood up, looked at Gu shouxin's neck, and couldn't help but smile.

She scratched you to death and gave it to second brother's wife, but the first one to try it was actually first?

It was really amazing.

"Aunt Xiao, what happened to me? Did you get bitten by a bug?" Uncle Gu asked when he saw grandma Xiao's expression.

"No." Grandma Xiao shook her head, then said to Lu Yang, "Yuanyuan, go get a pack of ear grass for your uncle Gu.

"What ear grass?" Uncle Gu asked.

you've been poisoned. Did you get your hands on the powder when Xinxin scattered it?" Grandma Xiao asked.

I think so. The big cat ate everything. Xinxin is very smart. I can only run with them if I throw something at it. Uncle Gu said as he scratched.

"Yup! But boss, you'll need at least six hours. Even if you were soaked in the ear grass, you would still have to scratch for two hours. I'll scratch my whole body. I won't say anything about the things I've researched." Grandma Xiao said, shaking her head.

"What?" Uncle Gu's movements paused, and then he scratched even more fiercely.

"Uncle Gu, here, the ear grass!" Lu Zheng came in with a medicine bag and handed it to Gu shouxin.

Chapter 220: I have to scratch for two hours

After asking about the usage, uncle Gu asked grandma Xiao to help look after the two children, and then hurried home to take a bath.

Oh my God, it's going to take two hours. Kill him!

.....

After uncle Gu left, grandma Xiao applied medicine for the two children, and Lu Zheng helped by the side.

When he saw Gu Xin's bloody face, he couldn't help but think of his previous life.

In her previous life, on the twelfth lunar month before Gu Xin's death, Cai Xiaolian and Gu Nian invited Gu Xin to decorate Cai Xiaolian's house.

At that time, on account of being Xue er's concubine, she had already stabilized her position in the rear residence and had money in her hands, so she bought a house for Cai Xiaolian and no longer needed to rent it.

Gu Xin went there happily, but ended up being tricked into her stepmother's house.

The Lin family couldn't attract Gu Xin by themselves, so they asked the Gu family's mother and daughter to bring Gu Xin over. In order to lure him over, the Lin family's son was tempted by Gu Xin and wanted to do something to her.

Gu Xin used a hairpin to cut her own face. In her agitation, she lost her child and forced her stepmother's son to retreat.

That was also the only time he scolded Gu Xin. He called her stupid, so stupid that there was no cure for it.

He had already been used by the mother and daughter once, so why would he fall for it again? However, even he himself felt heartache.

At that time, he had a falling out with his childhood friend Xue Er because of his concern and Xue er's words.

Xue Er said, "even though they are sisters, their paths are different." Xue Er said, "Lu Zheng, don't forget, even though she's only been with you in this life, she was trained by the brothel for six years. Don't you know how they train people?" She was just a plaything from a filthy place. Even if Gu Nian was only a concubine, she was still a good concubine. She had never seen so many filthy things and she, Gu Xin, was not comparable to her. You're questioning me now because of that dirty thing?

Lu Zheng remembered that he had punched Xue Er, knocked out his teeth, and then stabbed him with his sword. From then on, he had not spoken a word to Xue Er.

Later on, he crippled his stepmother's son's legs and poisoned him until he became mute. Then, he sent him to a place where those men who didn't care about meat or vegetables went.

However, after doing all this, the wound on Gu Xin's face left a scar and their child would not be able to return.

After that incident, Gu Xin was no longer in high spirits. She was betrayed and used by her family and lost her child.

He had spent half a year's time to make her slowly regain some energy. Who knew that his silly woman would have such extravagant hopes for family love? she was dazed again.

"Yuanyuan, Yuanyuan? What are you thinking?" Grandma Xiao's voice interrupted Lu Zheng's memories.

"Nothing, I was just wondering if their injuries would leave a scar." Said Lu Zheng as he regained his senses.

"Tsk, you don't believe in my strength? 'Xin' er was scratched by a thorny tree, but she'll be fine in a few days. As for si 'er's forehead, once I use my ointment, it'll disappear in a month at most.' I've already applied the medicine. Let's pack up and send the child back. We don't have any clothes for young ladies to change into. Your uncle Gu probably left the child with us. When he's done soaking the ear grass, the Gu family will find someone." Grandma Xiao said with a smile.

"Then I'll get a carriage." Lu Zheng was about to get a car.

"No need, we can each carry one. It won't take long. By now, the villagers have probably all gone to Li Zheng's house to discuss the matter of going up the mountain to kill the Tiger." Grandma Xiao said, waving her hand.
