Chapter 381 An even more impressive identity

Mrs. Li and Cai Xiaolian were having a good conversation, and it seemed that they would talk until the afternoon.

The four of them went to the kitchen to cook. Gu Nian asked Gu Xin and Gu Si to inform Grandpa Gu that there would be guests at their house today. They would have dinner at their house later. They could also go up the mountain to inform grandma Xiao and Lu Zheng.

They were all guests anyway, and Lu Zheng was helping their family with the wasteland reclaimers. It was fine to have lunch.

Gu Si went back to the old mansion to pass on a message to her grandfather, while Gu Xin went to explore the barren land.

"Xinxin, what are you doing here? Is it time for lunch?" Uncle Gu asked as he looked up at the sky.

"Yes, I am. There's a guest at home, so my sister told me to tell everyone that she'll have lunch with us." Gu Xin said.

"What guest?" Gu Shouxin asked.

"I'm from the prefecture, and I want to buy our skincare set. Mother and that Madam were talking very enthusiastically, and I saw that mother was quite happy. The two of them almost hugged each other and cried, 'I hate that we met too late!'" Gu Xin chuckled.

Gu Shouxin raised his eyebrows. Shouldn't this scene happen to him and little Lian? Now, it was actually taken by a woman, Hmph Hmph!

hahahaha, Xinxin, you're very interesting! Uncle Gu was amused by Gu Xin's reaction.

Xinxin, what does the guest's house do? " Grandma Gu asked.

"His surname is Li, and I think his family does everything! Mother seemed to know too. That Madam said that I'm the Li family you think I am." Gu Xin even mimicked Mrs. Li's expression and actions when she said that.

Lu Zheng, who was digging, suddenly stopped.

The Li family?

Could it be the Li family that he knew?

The House of Li Muyan, the one who had knocked Gu Nian into the river on the night of the Lantern Festival?

It would be interesting if Madam Li came to visit.

At this age, Li Muyan was suspected to be gay. Mrs. Li was eager to find a daughter-in-law to prove that her son was not gay.

Even now, Lu Zheng could still remember a saying that circulated in the capital back then, Madam Li's standard for finding a daughter-in-law was a living, female.

"The Li family that we all know? Is it the biggest merchant in the Qing Prefecture?" Fourth uncle Gu asked.

"It should be! Mrs. Li said that if her family said they were second, no one would dare to say they were first." Gu Xin said with uncertainty.

Lu Zheng, "li Muyan's mother has always been so confident."

Lu Zheng knew li Muyan and his mother. Their identities were known to the world in his previous life when he was twenty years old.

Lu Zheng had recognized li Muyan when he had pulled Gu Nian up that day.

The mother and son were not just from the Li family, the richest family in the Qing government. They had an even more impressive identity.

If Xinxin's family cooperated with Mrs. Li, there wouldn't be any problems.

"The Li family's reputation is quite good, and they have a woman in charge. We can work together." Grandma Gu commented.

"Madam Li, you're so fun! I can't imagine that such a beautiful and noble-looking Madam Li would slap her thigh when she's happy, just like uncle! The aunt and the servant girls beside her are all speechless!" Gu Xin squatted down to help pull out the grass, laughing as she spoke.

"Oh, really? Such a straightforward person? Then, Xinxin, do you think she's as loud as uncle when she's patting her legs?" Uncle Gu asked curiously.

"Don't talk nonsense!" Grandma Gu glared at uncle Gu before turning to Gu Xin. Xinxin, you're not allowed to say that to others in the future. It's impolite, do you understand? "

"Oh, I know." Gu Xin nodded her head obediently.

Uncle Gu waited for grandma Gu to continue working and not look at them. He walked to Gu Xin's side and poked her shoulder.

Chapter 382 Red, orange, yellow, green, cyan, blue, and purple

Gu Xin turned around and blinked innocently, " "Uncle, grandma won't let me tell you."

Uncle Gu glanced at grandma Gu, then turned his head back. "It's okay, just tell me quietly. If you don't tell me, I won't feel comfortable! I'm just curious, really, I won't tell anyone."

Gu Xin also glanced at grandma Gu. She raised her hand, clenched it into a fist, and extended her little finger.

Uncle Gu immediately understood and hooked it with his little finger. "I've told others that I'm big dog!"

Gu Xin: " if you lie, you're a dog!

“Have you ever seen a dog my age?”

alright, ” Gu Xin said after a moment of silence, ” if uncle tells anyone, then he’ll be a big dog!

Uncle Gu pursed his lips and nodded.

Gu Xin glanced over at grandma Gu, ” “It was very loud. Mrs. Li and my mother were having a good time talking and they took a few photos! I’m afraid she’ll hurt herself!”

Just as uncle Gu was about to say something, grandma Gu walked over and glared at him. “Boss, are you going to work or not? I won’t do it. Go back and carry the baby. Let your wife do it!”

“No, no,” Uncle Gu shook his head like a rattle-drum. I don’t want to carry a baby. The baby will cry when it’s on me. I’m determined not to carry a baby.

“Then hurry up and get to work!” Grandma Gu gave uncle Gu a kick, almost causing him to fall to the ground.

In the end, uncle Gu fell to the ground, rolled nimbly, and then stood up straight, as if he had practiced this action hundreds of times.

“Hehe, mother, I’m going to work. You should take Xinxin back to rest!” Uncle Gu scratched his head and smiled smugly.

Grandma Gu: ” one day, I’ll kick you to the ground and make you unable to roll. I’ll make your brothers and nieces laugh at you. You’re such a terrible thing!

Grandma Gu’s heart was stifled. Although she was strong, her son was not weak either. The key was that this kid grew up like his father and had a pair of long legs. She could not catch up with him when he was ten years old. She could only catch him off guard and catch him off guard.

In the end, it was useless to catch him off guard now. This kid rolled on the ground and could still jump up. His movements were so clean and neat!

When it was time for dinner, everyone took their hoes and shovels and carried wild grass home.

She had placed all the weeds in the second branch of the Gu family. Gu Nian had said that she was useful, so what was she going to make?

Walking into the door of the second house, the mother and son, as well as grandma Xiao and her granddaughter, heard laughter coming from the main room.

“Little Lian, you don’t know this, but my son’s servant girl and manservant are lazier than me when it comes to naming. His two servant girls and two manservants added together are spring, summer, autumn, and winter. I have red, orange, yellow, green, cyan, blue, and purple ones. My son’s manservants are called ah Chun, ah Xia, ah Qiu, ah Dong. Mine is a little more complicated than his. They are called big red, little Chen, big yellow, little green, Big Green, little LAN, and big Zi. I love to be famous. Right? Big Shot!” Mrs. Li’s voice was bright and cheerful.

"Thank you for your love, Madam!" A woman's voice and a maidservant's voice answered. It was Hong Hong and da Zi, who had come with Madam Li today. Hong Hong was Madam Li's dowry maidservant and was the same age as her. Da Zi was a little girl, only eighteen years old.

Uncle Gu, who was standing at the door, thought, "I like this way of naming."

Lu Zheng, who was at the door, thought, "it's indeed Madam Li, and her famous colorful servants!"

In the house, Cai Xiaolian thought, I really want to know what your son's name is?

"Mother, we're back!" Gu Xin ran in happily and smiled widely at the red and purple clothes beside Mrs. Li.

Chapter 383 I'm not selling it, I'll give it to you

There were two round tables in the bright and spacious kitchen.

The coachman outside was also invited in for a meal. Mrs. Li was not a trifle person, and often ate at the same table with the servants when she was out discussing business.

After Mrs. Li ate the zahaijiao potato slice, she was instantly interested in the zahaijiao.

Most of the people in Qing Zhou could eat spicy food, and this leftover sea pepper was especially good for rice. Mrs. Li wanted to buy it and bring it back to her own restaurant.

"Sister Luo, it's not that we don't want to sell it to you, but when we sold it to Drunken River Restaurant, we signed an agreement not to sell it to anyone else. I'm really sorry." Cai Xiaolian said, embarrassed.

The recipe for the slag sea pepper and cake had been bought by the Cheng family alone, and there was an agreement to sell the recipe.

"That's a pity!" Mrs. Li said regretfully.

She wasn't afraid of County Magistrate Cheng, but the Gu family were only villagers. If County Magistrate Cheng wanted to mess with them, it would be as easy as turning his hand over. She couldn't harm them.

"What's there to pity!" At another table, Uncle Gu put down his bowl, swallowed the food in his mouth, and said, "Sister-in-law, when Brother Ye came last time, didn't you ask his people to learn it? You can also ask the big shots around Madam Li to learn it! Besides, it's simple, and you'll learn it after eating it a few more times. You can give it to Mrs. Li. If you don't sell it, it won't go against the agreement."

"Oh, right! We won't sell it, but we'll give it to Aunt Luo." Gu Xin said.

"Right, they even gave out the recipe for the cake. The Li family's pastry shop makes better cakes than the stuff in Drunken River Restaurant! Those few from the Cheng family were simply disgusting! Even if we don't earn money, we can at least give it away to disgust their family!" Grandma Xiao said with hatred.

She hated concubines the most in her life. That Cheng family actually dared to let her family's old Gu's granddaughter be a concubine. She was so angry that she wanted to poison her.

"Second brother, second daughter-in-law, Mrs. Li is very sincere in cooperating with us. It's also okay to give her the slag sea pepper and the cake recipe. We'll have many opportunities to work together in the future." Grandpa Gu said with a smile.

He had been staying in the village all these years, but it didn't stop him from understanding the Li family!

The Li family was indeed worth cooperating with.

"Her mother, niannian, what do you think?" Nine thousand years old didn't ask Gu Xin, because she had already made her stand clear.

"I don't have any objections," Gu Nian said indifferently.

sister Luo, let's talk about business. This is a free gift to you, but niannian is thinking of using something else to replace the rice and flour. When the time comes, you'll have to pay for it! Cai Xiaolian thought for a moment, then nodded.

What Zha hai Jiao used the most was cornmeal. Wasn't the cornmeal not born yet?

Although she had a good conversation with Mrs. Li, she had a good conversation with Mrs. Cheng in the beginning.

Mrs. Li's family also had a son. Although Mrs. Li's son sounded like a silly and sweet boy, she had to draw a clear line so that her niannian would not suffer the same grievances as Cheng Rui.

"No problem!" Luo Shi said readily. She could also tell now that the Cheng family had done something to make the Gu family unhappy. Xiao Lian had not said anything before, but now that she heard it from others, how could she not understand?

With Mrs. Cheng's personality, she was okay at first, but after a few times, her sense of superiority and pettiness would show without a doubt.

The Gu family must have noticed this.

As for what exactly happened, she would slowly understand in the future.

Seeing that Madam Li had started to eat again, uncle Gu picked up his bowl with some pity. She was so happy, why didn't she bid?

Chapter 384-marked

Madam Li had signed a contract with the Gu family. Every month, the Gu family would provide at least 5000 toothbrushes, 2000 sets of toothpaste, shampoo, soap, and soap for 10000 Yuan each.

There was no need for packaging. The Li family was in charge of the boxes. They had sent them over at the beginning of the month, and the cooperation would start on the first of February.

The Gu family didn't need to care about the specific sales. They only needed to care about the production.

The price was still acceptable. One silver tael for one hundred toothbrushes, so it was a total of 50 silver taels.

Soap and soap were priced at one tael of silver, five dollars, and one tael of silver, ten dollars, respectively, for a total of three thousand taels.

The shampoo cost one tael of silver per bottle, and it cost two thousand taels.

Although he knew that the price would rise greatly after Mrs. Li took it to pack, she still had to put in some effort to pack it. Moreover, she had her own sales channels.

For example, if they bought it themselves, it would be five taels of silver for a set, and they had to order it from master yang. The jar for toothpaste and shampoo was burned by them in a ceramic shop. The soap box and soap box were also made of wood, but the cost was also hundreds of Wen.

Now, they only needed to make it. They didn't need to pack it or sell it. The Li family would send someone over to help pack it.

The two sisters had spent half a month to earn more than five thousand taels. If word of this got out, people would be shocked.

If it wasn't for the fact that she was worried that she wouldn't be home before dark, Madam Li would have wanted to talk about life with Cai Xiaolian!

She reluctantly took the jar of Zha hai Jiao and the cooperation contract home.

At the Gu family, the four sisters had already started work.

The sky had just turned dark when Mrs. Li arrived home.

She happily ran to Li Muyan's courtyard and saw her silly son in the courtyard, holding his chin with both hands and looking up at the moon. She felt a headache.

Shouldn't this be a girl's expression when she was thinking? The reason was with his son?

"Son, mother has good news for you!" Mrs. Li walked over, sat down, and said with a smile.

"Mother, have you found a girl who frivolously took advantage of me?" When Li Muyan heard this, he immediately became spirited.

"No, I didn't! Mother has found her long-lost good sister!" Mrs. Li calmly shook her head and then said.

"Oh." Li Muyan was stunned again. He looked up at Mrs. Li. I remember that you're the only daughter grandfather and grandmother had. The rest are all sons! Where did they get their lost daughter?"

"She's not their daughter! She is my good sister! The two sisters with different surnames were surnamed Cai. I'll bring you to see your aunt Cai if there's a chance in the future. She has two beautiful daughters. One is still young, and the other is of marriageable age this year. You can say that they are married!" Mrs. Li said with a smile.

"I don't want to see him! Mother, don't tell me all these strange girls! I've already found a girl who's going to take responsibility for me, so don't try to persuade me! Mother, you'd better pay more attention to your son. Don't go looking for your long-lost sister, go and find your daughter-in-law! I've been searching for two days, and you won't let me go out to look for it myself. Really," Li Muyan said gloomily.

"Are you sure you don't want to see your aunt Cai's daughter? She's really pretty and cute, sensible and gentle, and can do a good job of Yingying."

"I won't see him, I won't see him! Mother, you've had a long day, go back and rest! I'll go find that girl tomorrow!" Li Muyan didn't wait for the person to finish speaking. He pulled his mother up and pulled her out of his courtyard.

"Alright then! In the future, you can't beg mother to introduce aunt Cai's daughter to you!" Mrs. Li rolled her eyes and smiled.

"Don't fool me! I won't! There's already a girl who left a mark on my mouth. I won't betray her and find another girl. Mother, give up! Good night!" Li Muyan said righteously.

Chapter 385 The imperial examination is very important

The next day, Li Muyan didn't listen to his unreliable mother and sneaked out.

He didn't go out often, not because he was sick or embarrassed.

On the contrary, he was in good health and good-looking. The girls who had seen him all liked him.

He had a bad habit, according to the Warlock, that he was unlucky and could not go out often.

His courtyard was personally decorated by a famous Warlock to bless him with good luck.

In any case, strange things would happen every time he sneaked out. For example, during the Lantern Festival a few days ago, he just wanted to see the lanterns, but he was chased by three ferocious dogs for no reason.

But this time, no matter what, he had to go out and find that girl, even if he was chased by the dog again.

On the Gu family's side, they had already completed the land reclamation and were now preparing the seeds.

The other families had already started to prepare for the spring plowing after the beginning of spring. The Gu family was slightly later, but they were not worried. After all, everyone in the family was a strong laborer.

Other than digging potatoes, Gu Shouxin was always stared at by the whole family while he read. Even Zhang Shi would often carry Shiren over to see if Gu Shouxin was reading seriously.

In Zhang Shi's view, the second brother was not reliable. Who knew if he was deliberately pretending for a few months and was about to make a fool of himself again?

It was very important for second brother to take the imperial examination.

If the second child got a scholarly honor, her Enzi might be able to go to a better school. If the second child got a better score, her Ninja would be able to go to a better school when it was time to study.

Now that the second household was able to earn money on their own, she was not worried that the old couple would secretly favor the second household and give the second household silver.

In any case, without the problem of money, she could still get along well with her second son's family. Although she still felt that the two girls of the second branch were the same as her own two girls, not as precious as her two sons, it did not stop her from looking forward to her second son's high school.

She even thought that it would be great if her second son didn't have any sons for the rest of his life. She had two sons. If she let her second son adopt one, then wouldn't his things belong to her?

She also told herself that as long as Cai Xiaolian didn't give birth to a son, she must stand on Cai Xiaolian's side. In the future, when the second child became successful and wanted to take in a concubine after seeing that he didn't have a son, she, as the elder sister-in-law, must teach the second child a good lesson.

Of course, the Gu family did not know about her strange thoughts and were all busy.

All the potatoes had been dug out. Gu Nian asked Lu Zheng to pile them up in the empty room at home. She would teach him how to plant them in a few days.

Lu Yang did as he was told and gave the Gu family and the second branch a hundred pounds of potatoes each.

Grandma Gu brought uncle Gu to plant the crops that they usually planted while Gu Nian brought Lu Zheng and fourth uncle Gu to plant sweet potatoes and corn.

The sweet potatoes needed to grow, so Gu Nian brought them to do so first.

Because of his trust in the Gu family, Lu Zheng brought all the sweet potato and corn seeds that old master Zhou had left.

Gu Nian planned to interbreed and plant these two in the newly opened wasteland.

Grandpa Gu and Zhang Shi cooked for everyone every day, while Cai Xiaolian and the other three sisters prepared the Li family's order.

Knowing that the second branch was going to pay the two girls, Zhang Shi did not urge the two sisters to work. Every day when she got up, she let the two sisters go to the second branch to work. She happily guessed in her heart how much the second branch was going to pay the two girls. In any case, it couldn't be too little, or she would make a fuss.

Chapter 386 Mrs. Li's parents are reliable

Mrs. Li worked very fast. On the 20th day of the first lunar month, she started to bring all kinds of jars and boxes to the village at the crossroads.

The villagers once again began to gossip about the Gu family's second son.

It's already the spring plowing and the second household still wants to do business? If he didn't farm, what would he eat for a year?

They were still selling vegetables? Or something else?

In the Gu family, except for Zhang Shi, who liked to go out and gossip, no one else liked to gossip with others. In addition, they were busy, so no one came to ask.

Every time Mrs. Li came, she would bring a cart of things. Every time she came, she would ask her stupid son, who was lying in bed, if he wanted to come and see aunt Cai.

Li Muyan shut himself up.

The last time he sneaked out to look for the lady who had stamped him, he was so unlucky that his horse stepped on his foot. It didn't break, but he still had to lie in bed for a month to recuperate.

At this time, his mother still wanted him to see aunt Cai. Unless it was the girl who gave him the seal, he would not see anyone!

By the 28th day of the first month, all the finished products were ready.

Gu Nian had also finished planting the sweet potatoes and corn with Lu Zheng and the rest. She also had the time to look at the various boxes that Mrs. Li had sent over.

"Wow, isn't this toothbrush a little too extravagant?" Gu Nian exclaimed as she looked at the thousands of different boxes in the storeroom.

Some of the boxes were ordinary wooden boxes with paint on the outside, some were wrapped in brocade, and some were even lined with gold.

There were patterns on the boxes, and they looked very beautiful. On the bottom left side of each box, there were words: "your heart, my thoughts. this Madam Li used the names of the two sisters. Looking at it again, there were also words "beautiful outside, intelligent in middle, yearned for day and night. this was the name with Huihui and sisi in it!

Gu Nian did not know what to say when she thought about how the toothbrush that she had used in her previous life was packaged in such a way.

this is nothing. Look at this one with toothpaste and this one with shampoo. Cai Xiaolian pointed to the side.

"Waa! What a beautiful jar! This thing can be used to store small things after it's used up! Even if it's clean, it can be used as a decoration!" Gu Nian asked in surprise.

Cai Xiaolian pointed at the words on it.

Seeing objects and thinking of people, red bean lovesickness, fortune and wisdom dual cultivation, intelligent mind and clever thoughts, unforgettable thoughts, eternal thoughts, heart and mind, one heart and one mind

"Pfft!" Gu Nian could not help but laugh when she saw the two of them. mother, you can ask Mrs. Li to do the same after we've made the toilet paper!

"She had her maidservant, big yellow, find all kinds of words about Hui nianxisi. You're still complaining to me, why did you give Xinxin a name with grass? How good would it be if you didn't!" Cai Xiaolian said helplessly.

"Hahahaha, Yingluo, this Madam Li is really interesting. Big yellow, hahaha, I really want to know her big yellow's inner thoughts!" Gu Nian chuckled.

Cai Xiaolian facepalmed. Red, orange, yellow, green, blue, purple, she had seen them all. Madam Li always brought two with her. The first four were her dowry servant girls, around twenty years old. The last three were little servant girls, and they all looked good. It was just that their names were really hard to describe in a few words!

"It's not only on this, it's also on the soap box. I say, let's give it a name! Mrs. Li said yes. How about we call it Huixin missing? Damn, I don't even know what to say!" Cai Xiaolian then pointed to the soap box and soap box next to her.

"Mother, do you know what Mrs. Li and her son's names are? I really want to know!" Gu Nian asked curiously.

"Madam Li's surname is nie, and her maiden name is Yusheng, Luo Yusheng. The Sheng in the word" Xiao "is not the twelve zodiacs, but the Sheng in the word" blowing." As for her son, uh, every time she mentions my silly son, my stupid son, and my simple-minded son, I've already set an image of her son as a silly and sweet one." Cai Xiaolian said with a sigh.

hahaha, Yingluo, but Madam Li's parents are still reliable. Luo Yusheng, what a nice name. Gu Nian could not help but laugh.

Chapter 387 About the packaging

On the 29th day of the year, Mrs. Li brought the people from the Li family's cosmetic store to pack the things.

Gu Xin and Gu si loved to listen to Mrs. Li's speech. They felt that this style was very familiar, so they also helped to pack the things in the warehouse.

Meanwhile, Gu Nian and Gu Hui were working on their perfume in the laboratory.

"Where's Huihui and niannian?" Mrs. Li only saw the two young ladies and didn't see the elder lady, so she asked.

"They're researching something new! It's said that it's a better kind of dew, the kind that can last for a long time." Cai Xiaolian explained.

Before the food was ready, Cai Xiaolian had to mention it to Madam Li so that she would have some assurance.

If we are working together for a long time, sister Luo, you should prepare the money and packaging!

"It'll last longer! Huihui and niannian are really amazing! Little Lian, once you've made it, let me know immediately so I can prepare the shelves and the packaging! It's not that I want to criticize your family, but you don't care about the packaging at all. Do you know how much money you lost previously? That's all shiny silver!" As expected, Mrs. Li's interest was piqued, and she brought up the issue of packaging again.

"Sister Luo is right. With sister Luo's advice, I've been thinking hard about the packaging. Sister Luo, come with me. I'll show you my homework!" Cai Xiaolian said humbly.

How could she not know how to package it?

It was just that most of the packaging she knew didn't have the raw materials in ancient times!

She just wanted to draw out the appearance, bring up the materials, and let Mrs. Li figure it out on her own.

Xiao Cheng, Xiao LAN, remember to listen to miss Xinxin and miss sisi. How they split the loot is how they want to split it! Madam Li warned the maidservants and old women she had brought today.

"Yes, Madam!" The two maidservants responded.

Red, orange, yellow, and green were her accompanying maidservants. They were about the same age as her and were maidservants.

Qing, LAN, and Zi were maidservants who had been trained a few years ago, and they were also close to twenty years old.

"Aunt Cheng, sister Xiaolan, these are boxes of soap, packed according to the smell. Each piece is covered with oil, and you can remove the oil paper after putting it in the box." After Mrs. Li and Cai Xiaolian left, Gu Xin introduced them to each other.

"These are boxes of soap, but there's no flower fragrance. The toothbrush is here. My sister said that this box is full of head toothbrushes. Auntie Luo said that you can prepare the handle yourself and just insert it. The toothpaste and shampoo here were also based on the taste. I've already marked it." Gu Xin pointed to a few more spots and said, "sister sisi and I will help you guys install it too. Which one do you guys think is suitable?"

"How can we let the two ladies do it themselves? we have enough people here." The maidservant, Xiao Cheng, hurriedly said, "however, I just need the two ladies to take a look at each of us and see if the method of putting on the clothes is correct.

"Then I'll show you this operation with sister sisi. It's very simple." As Gu Xin spoke, she called Gu si along and started with the toothbrush.

Other than Xiao Chen and Xiao LAN, there were four other servants and four maids.

The task of packing was actually very simple. Copying Gu Xin and Gu Si's actions, the ten of them quickly got to work and even divided the work.

Two servant girls came to the toothbrush, as girls were more careful.

The four manservants were packing soap and soap. Although they were all the same products, there were several kinds of packaging. Some were wrapped with patterns on the grease, some were in wooden boxes, and some were in porcelain boxes.

There were also several types of toothpaste and shampoo packaging.

Chapter 388 How to distinguish between husband and son in Madam Li's mouth

Cai Xiaolian brought Madam Li to the study, where Gu shouxin happened to be reading a book.

Oh, second brother is at home. Second brother Gu, sorry for disturbing you! Mrs. Li waved at Gu shouxin with a smile.

Gu shouxin said, "I'm not disturbing you. I'm going to find my brother." You guys do as you please!"

Every time he heard Mrs. Li speak, Gu shouxin couldn't help but think of his cheap brother. But when he saw Mrs. Li's face, he completely dispelled this idea.

He put it on a General's wife in his previous life and instantly felt that Madam Li was the general's wife.

She looked dignified and had a noble temperament, but the condition was that she couldn't speak.

The moment she spoke, she felt that it didn't match her face and temperament!

So, he decided not to stay here.

"Your husband is quite motivated." Mrs. Li said with envy.

sister Luo, I've never heard you mention your husband. Is he really like the rumors? does he really not care about his family's business? " Cai Xiaolian asked curiously.

"Aiyo! Don't mention that bastard anymore, really. That bastard, a species that's rarely seen in hundreds of years, you'll know when you see it in the future. Come, come, come, let me see the results of your recent efforts!" When Mrs. Li talked about her husband, her face was full of disdain. It was obvious that she didn't want to talk about him.

Alright, since the others didn't want to talk about it, Cai Xiaolian didn't ask. She took out her work from the bookshelf.

There were two desks in the study, one for Gu shouxin and the other for Cai Xiaolian.

In his previous life, before Cai Xiaolian got married, her family was rich, and her major was an art major that burned a lot of money. She could still clearly draw things.

"Eh, what kind of bottle is this?" Mrs. Li's attention was drawn to the painting at the top. She took the bottle and looked at it carefully.

"I've been thinking about this recently. It's a shampoo bottle. I thought it would be troublesome to scoop it into the can with a spoon. Wouldn't the fragrance of the shampoo dissipate if I open and close it? I thought I could just press it like this without opening it. Usually, the fragrance won't go out, or the shampoo won't get wet because of the water."

sister Luo, look at this. This bottle was made by yourself. Can the craftsmen on your side make it? "

Cai Xiaolian explained to Madam Li.

Gu Nian was a good worker, but she did not have the time. She was too busy and Cai Xiaolian did not want to tire her out. Therefore, she took out the blueprint and asked Mrs. Li to think of a solution.

we can try that. My unlucky bastard is quite good at it. Mrs. Li said as she looked at the blueprint.

Cai Xiaolian: " Zhenzhen, may I ask if the bastard sister Luo is talking about is your husband or your son?

little Lian, remember this, " Mrs. Li said without raising her head. whoever I add the word 'unlucky' is my son. Whoever I don't add the word 'unlucky' is my father. My son's life is filled with misfortune, he's very unlucky."

Cai Xiaolian,"hehe."

I guess your husband and son are not biological!

"Ya! Little Lian, your drawing skills are not bad! This bottle looks real, but the color is hard to get. I have to go back and let the pottery master take a look." Mrs. Li continued.

"There's more down there! he just didn't know if the li family burned colored glass or not? If it's burning colored glass, it'll be another good packaging item." Cai Xiaolian asked.

Chapter 389-everyone has a heart for beauty

"That's right!" Mrs. Li slapped her thigh. no, I won't be staying at your house today. I have to go back quickly and let my unlucky fellow figure it out. If it's Liuli, it's quite pretty. Girls would also like it if it's used to store these things."

"Sister Luo, there's no hurry. I believe that young master Li is smart and will be able to do it soon." Cai Xiaolian glanced at Madam Li's leg. She really wanted to ask, does it not hurt?

"Little Lian, I'm not boasting, but my unlucky son can't go out to play. He's locked up at home all day and has come up with a lot of things. He's really powerful." Mrs. Li said with a smile.

"Why can't young master Li go out and play?" Cai Xiaolian asked curiously.

"It's what the warlocks say," bad luck brings bad luck, and you'll be unlucky when you go out." He had often sneaked out since he was young, and all kinds of strange bad luck could fall on him. It's fine at home, but we also spent a lot of money to buy things to put at home. My family's unlucky fellow is well-versed in both literature and martial arts. My family has invited many teachers to teach him. He is proficient in the six arts of a gentleman, rites, music, archery, and books. As long as he doesn't go out, he will be an excellent young man. He couldn't do it outside the door, he was bound to be unlucky. Our family built a horse farm for him to learn riding and shooting. At home, he can even ride a horse and shoot through trees with a hundred steps, but when he goes out, he's already been stepped on by his own horse a few times." Mrs. Li said calmly. She had gotten used to it over the years.

Cai Xiaolian was so shocked that she couldn't close her mouth. Sister Luo, are you sure you're not joking?

"Then will I be like this for the rest of my life? Or is there a way to change your fate?" Cai Xiaolian asked again.

"It's not a lifetime, just eighteen years! He's 17 this year, and was born in the winter month. There's still a year and ten months left." Madam Li said.

"That's good, that's good! If I'm like this for the rest of my life, wouldn't it be a pity for many young ladies?" Cai Xiaolian rejoiced.

"eh? Why is it such a pity?" Mrs. Li didn't know how to react.

"sister Luo, with your looks, young master Li must be very handsome. He was also well versed in both literature and martial arts, proficient in etiquette, music, archery, calligraphy, and mathematics. Such a good man was the object of admiration for many girls! wasn't it a pity for these girls that he couldn't go out? At my age, I also like to look at pretty girls and young men with sons." cai xiaolian said in a serious tone.

Yingluo, hahahahahahahaha! Mrs. Li laughed wildly without restraint and slapped her thigh a few times. little Lian, I like people like you. You're right, I also like to look at handsome girls and handsome men, they're pleasing to the eye and delicious! Great minds think alike! If I were a man, I would definitely snatch you away from second Gu! I'll take you and your precious daughter back to my house!"

cai xiaolian:

You can't beat my nine thousand years old.

"Little Lian, let's get down to business. Don't joke with me!" Madam Li stopped laughing and glanced at Cai Xiaolian.

cai xiaolian only wanted to say,"your husband must be blind. he can't even see such an interesting soul and beautiful body, why would he find a concubine?"

"Once this thing is made, I'll give you 10% of the profit for every batch. If you have any other ideas, it'll be best if you can make it. If you can't, I'll find someone to make it, and I'll still give you 10% of the profit. What do you think?" Mrs. Li resumed her business-like demeanor and said in a serious tone.

Chapter 390 I don't see you paying me

"Sister Luo, don't you need to discuss this with your family?" Cai Xiaolian was worried that the other members of the Li family wouldn't be willing to split it this way.

"No need! I'm in charge of the Li family's business now! My mother-in-law is my aunt. Although we're not blood-related, she treats me like her daughter. My family's bastard doesn't know how to do business at all, he has no right to speak at all. so, you don't have to worry." mrs. Li waved her hand nonchalantly.

"Not biological? is it you or your mother-in-law who isn't biological?" Cai Xiaolian asked subconsciously.

Based on her understanding of Mrs. Li, if she wasn't related by blood, she definitely wouldn't be related to her cousin. She definitely wouldn't be related by blood.

"This isn't a big secret. We're already so close, so I'll tell you! As for me, my grandmother picked me up. She said that when she died, she would tell me where I was picked up. in the end, after raising me for a few years, the whole family doted on me. when my grandmother passed away, she forgot to tell me where she picked me up from. I'm living quite well in the Luo family, so I didn't think of looking for her. you've already thrown me away, why would i go and find me?" Mrs. Li really didn't look like she wanted to find her family at all.

Cai Xiaolian felt that she hit it off too well with her. Not only could they chat together, but even their backgrounds were the same. They were both children of the same family who had been picked up, and similarly, they did not want to look for their relatives.

It was just that the reason for not looking for relatives was different.

In the evening, after Mrs. Li left with her things, the Gu family made a table and invited the people from the old mansion over for dinner.

second brother, sister-in-law, you've cooperated with the Li family and the goods have been taken away. It's the end of the month now. Don't you think it's time to pay the two girls? " Zhang Shi's face bloomed with a smile.

"Wife, what are you talking about? you're really going to do it!" Uncle Gu turned his head and looked at Zhang Shi sternly.

"Could it be that it was fake? Didn't second brother and sister-in-law say that they would pay the two girls? i didn't force them to give it to me!" Zhang Shi was anxious. She really wanted to say,"father, don't be so stupid. This is silver, silver."

"We're helping out as a family, and there's still a need to talk about wages? Then, during the period when you were pregnant and taking care of your child, father helped you cook, mother helped you with the housework, and Huihui helped you wash your clothes, right? why didn't you give it to me? it's winter, and xinxin helped sisi hang the clothes to reward her. i don't see you giving xinxin any money!" Uncle Gu said.

"how can it be the same? I'm here to give the Gu family a grandson." Zhang Shi said, feeling wronged.

"What's wrong with grandson? Our Gu family's daughter is already so powerful. Look at your precious grandson and son. He only knows how to eat and play outside instead of going to school. Look at your precious little grandson, Ninja, who only knows how to cry and sleep. Which part of her granddaughter was inferior to her grandson? I didn't say that you won't give birth to a precious daughter for me, and you still think that the two stinky boys are amazing children? You're making it seem like someone doesn't have a grandson." Uncle Gu was speechless.

Gu en, who was gnawing on a chicken leg, felt offended.

gu ren, who was playing by himself in the cradle at the side: She blew a snot bubble and couldn't understand what the adults were talking about. She always felt that they were talking about her.

The four Gu sisters thought,"it's not in vain that we forced ourselves to appear in front of you from tall to short because of your obsessive-compulsive disorder!" Father (uncle) is awesome!

“Big brother, don’t say anymore! This daughter and son were both treasures. We can’t let Huihui and sisi do the work. besides, this was something the sisters discussed among themselves.” Gu shouxin tried to mediate.

“See, see, second brother is right. Scholars are different!” hearing that gu shouxin was going to give it, zhang shi was too lazy to argue with uncle gu. she looked at gu shouxin and cai xiaolian with a smile. ” second brother, sister-in-law, how much do you plan to give? ”
