Chapter 431 I have my sisters to back me up that's right. Boss and second boss were trained by you since they were young. That's why they're so tall! Grandpa Gu looked at Gu shouxin's back and reminisced.

When she only had two sons, her life was pretty good.

His daughter had grown up. Well, forget it, let's not talk about it.

"Father, mother, let's talk about morning exercise! I think that en 'Zi should also practice with the sisters. In the future, our Gu family's daughters will all grow up to be big and tall, and my son will be the only one who's short and unkempt. That'll be so unfair to the child!" Gu shouxin suddenly thought of his own nephew.

Lu Zheng had been by his side calling him 'uncle' every day, to the point that outsiders really thought that Lu Zheng was his nephew.

There was a difference in closeness.

"Alright! Go and tell your sister-in-law, see if she's willing to let her precious son get up early!" Grandma Gu said with a smile.

The girls laughed as well. They told their aunt that letting her precious son suffer here was the same as snatching the money hidden in her stinky socks and shoes.

"Second brother, your sister-in-law has to spend a lot of effort to make sense! I believe you have the ability!" Grandpa Gu said in a serious tone.

"Alright! Since I can't convince sister-in-law, I'll just tell en 'Zi directly. He won't dare to not come!" Gu shouxin was too lazy to talk nonsense with Zhang Shi. He might as well deal with the little guy directly.

He had already decided to let Gu en practice martial arts with a few girls first. After he finished his exams in August, he would then come and teach Gu en.

"Sisi, you're no longer the youngest among us, you're our Enzi!" Gu Xin said to Gu si.

"I'm the youngest!" Gu si didn't understand what Gu Xin meant.

"Big sister Huihui and big sister said that we should talk with our fists. You see, sister Huihui can't beat her sister, but she has to listen to her sister! I can't beat the two of them, but I have to listen to them! En 'Zi is here. He can't beat the four of us, so he's the youngest!" Gu Xin explained.

"Ai! I've bullied my brother, so my mother is probably going to kick me out of the house!" Gu si sighed.

"I won't, I'll bully you as much as I can! If a boy can't beat his sister, how will he protect his sister in the future?" Grandma Gu immediately stood up for Gu si.

"Grandma, I have my sisters to back me up." Gu si felt that it was better to touch his mother's two babies.

Grandma Gu,"Yingluo."

“Hahahaha, Qianqian sisi, you have to train your brother. Although you have your sister’s support, you can’t let your sister support your brother when he goes out, right? That’s why you have to become more powerful, bit by bit. Let your brother know that he’s not as powerful as his sister and that he only knows how to work hard! Anyway, you have to be a little stronger than him. The end result is that you and your sister are both very powerful!” Grandpa Gu laughed heartily and said.

“Yes, yes, grandfather is right. Sisi, you must be more powerful than en ‘Zi, so that en’ Zi will have the desire to improve himself. He will first make you his goal, then make me his goal. Don’t worry, even if you’ve been F * cked by him a little, I’ll hold it off for you. You’ll catch up with me again, and then we’ll catch up and improve together!” Gu Xin felt that her grandfather was right.

“According to what you’re saying, I’m in danger. When Xinxin grows up again, I won’t have the height advantage anymore. Then, should I work hard to prevent Xinxin from surpassing me?” Gu Hui laughed.

“Yeah, sister Huihui! Not only do you have to prevent Xinxin from surpassing you, but you, as the eldest sister, also have to work hard to surpass me, the second sister!” Gu Nian chuckled.

Chapter 432 Don’t bother

The Gu siblings ‘game of’ you chase me, I chase you ‘to grow up with each other was formed in just a few words!

The four sisters did not have any objections, but Gu en, who was dozing off in class, sneezed a few times.

Gu en, “ the master asked with concern, “ has the weather changed recently? did you catch a cold at night? ”

Gu en stood up in a panic and lowered his head in guilt. thank you for your concern, Sir. I’ve caught a cold, but it’s not a big deal.

He was dozing off! Master was so concerned about him, so shouldn’t he be dozing off?

“In a while, I’ll ask your teacher’s wife to boil some ginger water. Alright, sit down!” The master instructed.

“Thank you, Mister!” Gu en sat down and did not dare to doze off.

He still knew what was good for him. If he continued to doze off, he would feel that he had let Sir down.

Previously, the family of four had come to clean up Gu Nian’s Manor. However, a few days had passed and the situation in the manor did not seem like there were any wild beasts.

“This person really knows how to enjoy life, to have built a Manor here! I was born and raised in the village of the three Forks. I’ve never been here before!” Grandma Gu felt that it was quite magical.

The previous owner of the manor, the high scholar master, was too good at finding a place!

“Mother, you didn’t notice it because there was no road to come from our back mountain. I took big brother and forcefully created a path based on the direction. It was the place that Xinxin had said she wouldn't go to. I was thinking of asking big brother and fourth brother to help me flatten it. " Gu shouxin pointed in a direction as he spoke, " there's a small road over there that can only accommodate two carriages. It was specially built by the high scholar from before. This small road leads to the official road from Zhou clan town to the prefecture city. From here to the official road, it will take about an hour.

"That's quite convenient. It won't be troublesome for the people of your village to travel in the future." Grandma Gu said.

"Ya! Second brother, were all the flowers in the manor left behind by that high scholar?" Grandpa Gu pointed at the large field of flowers and exclaimed in surprise.

"It should be! When big brother and I came here before, we thought it was crops. Later on, I came over with her mother and the children, and there are already buds. It seems that the weather has been good recently, so these flowers have bloomed." Gu shouxin could lie without blushing.

"Lan lan, come quickly. Look at this flower, it looks like a rose, but it's smaller than a rose. There were patterns on the leaves, but not on the moon. The color is even redder." Grandpa Gu didn't just say that, he even dragged grandma Gu along.

"Look at this one, one small flower after another, like the stars in the sky. and this Yingluo. Grandpa GU only had eyes and heart for the flowers in the flower field and his wife who was holding his hand. As for the children, well, they're all grown up now, so there's no need to care about them.

"Father, mother, go and make some tea! Let's go and see the flowers too!" All of a sudden, Gu Nian had the urge to wrap up a bouquet of flowers for her grandfather to give to her grandmother.

"Go play! You sisters should go out and take a walk around and familiarize yourself with the environment!" Cai Xiaolian nodded.

Gu Nian began to pick flowers and put them together. In fact, she was not very good at matching them.

But some of the sisters knew how to do it!

Gu si immediately understood Gu Nian's intention. She wrapped a bouquet of flowers around herself and handed it to Gu Nian. "Sister niannian, do you want to put them together like this?"

Gu Nian's eyes lit up. 'Wow, sister sisi is good. She has a good eye!'

Chapter 433 The great Zhou is one of a kind, the only one in the world

Other than Gu Hui, the other three sisters had each wrapped a bouquet of flowers. However, Gu Si's bouquet looked the best.

"Why did you ask me to make this?" Gu Hui did not think that Gu Nian was doing this for fun.

Gu Nian pointed at her grandparents and said, 'all women love flowers. Let's get Grandpa to give it to grandma!' Grandma will definitely be very happy!"

I don't like it. I guess grandma doesn't like it either. Gu Hui said.

"Sister Huihui, you're not married yet, so you're not a woman. You don't understand. If you don't believe me, why don't you try?" Gu Nian laughed.

“Why are you only called a woman after you’re married?” Gu Xin asked in confusion.

Gu si also looked at Gu Nian in confusion.

“That’s right, we are not married and are young ladies. Once you’re married, you’re a married woman, and you’re a woman.” Gu Nian said after some thought.

“Oh.” Gu Xin and Gu si nodded, not fully understanding.

Then, the sisters went to find their grandparents together.

When Gu Nian explained her intention, Grandpa Gu’s eyes lit up. these flowers are for grandma. Since Grandpa gave grandma these flowers, I have to pick them myself.

Grandma Gu looked at Grandpa Gu gently. Grandpa Gu had wrapped a bouquet of flowers for her. There was only one red rose in the bouquet, and the rest were baby’s breath.

lan lan, in my heart, you’re just like this red flower. Among the stars in the sky, it’s the only one. It’s just like you, always so brilliant and tender. You’re giving the most beautiful flower to the most beautiful lan lan in my heart! Grandpa Gu handed it to grandma Gu.

“Thank you, brother Chuan.” Grandma Gu took the flowers and smiled gently.

The girls blinked. Grandma’s smile was rare!

Grandma was the most beautiful person of her age. Her grandma was so beautiful!

“You guys go play! The flowers are beautiful, and I can smell their fragrance. Don’t pick too many, leave them here and see if you can add them to your set to add more fragrance.” Grandma Gu turned around and returned to her serious self, but she looked much gentler than usual.

okay, grandma. You and Grandpa can enjoy the flowers slowly. We’ll go and record these flowers. Gu Nian chuckled.

The sisters parted ways with the old couple.

sister Huihui, did you see that? our grandma likes it! Gu Nian nudged Gu Hui.

“That’s strange, my mother learned from the new daughter-in-law in town and wore a big red flower on her head. She was scolded by grandma! And you said that just looking at the flower head would make you feel pain, right? sisi, do you remember?” Gu Hui asked, puzzled.

“Sister! That’s because our mother doesn’t look good wearing it, just like the grandma of the Guo family. It’s only natural for our grandma to have a headache! However, this is a gift from our grandfather. I’m thinking that even if Grandpa gives grandma a stalk of grass one day, she’ll like it.” Gu si said.

“Yes, sister Huihui, that’s the truth. Didn’t eldest uncle say before that Grandpa and Grandma have a relationship that even giving each other a bean of sheep dung can make them feel good? there’s no one like that in the great Zhou Dynasty, and there’s only one like that in the world.” Gu Xin added.

“Pfft!” Gu Nian laughed at her uncle’s words. Xinxin, did Grandpa and Grandma hear what he said? ” she asked Gu Xin. Grandma didn’t shout for you. Boss, get out!”

“Uncle is talking to fourth uncle behind Grandpa and Grandma’s back! His uncle was very envious! First uncle told fourth uncle, ” fourth brother, if a lady gives you a bean of goat’s feces one day and you don’t find it annoying, but like it instead, then that lady is the right person! Of course, you can also give a bean of sheep dung to the girl you like. If she doesn’t hit you, she’ll definitely be willing to marry you.” Gu Xin even mimicked uncle Gu’s way of speaking.

Chapter 434 I’ll be taught by uncle one day

” hahahaha, yingluo, i finally know why our fourth uncle is still not married even though he’s already 20 years old. so it’s because he’s delayed by eldest uncle. ” Gu Nian laughed so hard that she could not even straighten her back.

gu hui was also speechless. what was her father thinking!

Gu si glanced at Gu Xin. She felt that sister Xinxin would become strange after hearing her father’s words too much.

“No, sister. Fourth uncle really did meet a girl who gave him Daddi and he didn’t find it annoying.” Gu Xin said in a serious tone.

“What?” The Three Sisters looked at Gu Xin.

it’s true. I overheard fourth uncle and first uncle complaining about this at the end of the year before last. Gu Xin said, a little embarrassed. She had eavesdropped on many people’s conversations. Actually, she didn’t do it on purpose. She just happened to overhear it. The things she heard the most were her uncle’s words, ” at that time, fourth uncle took a fancy to a girl. He was very happy with her and fourth uncle told that girl that he wanted to buy her a gift. In the end, our Father lost the bet again, so he asked first uncle and fourth uncle for help.”

“Eldest uncle and fourth uncle gathered some silver to pay back father’s money. after that, fourth uncle had no more money to buy gifts for the girl. he also did not dare to ask his grandparents for it. he was afraid that his grandmother would beat his father if she found out. Then, fourth uncle went to apologize to the girl. the girl happened to be herding the cattle and got angry. she said, ” fourth brother gu, you’re so stingy. you’re not as generous as me. look, i’m giving you the cow dung i collected today! ” Don’t come looking for me in the future, and we’ll cut off all ties!”

“Then, fourth uncle came back with a basket of cow dung. “He complained to uncle. He didn’t hate the girl, but he felt that it was a pity. She was such a generous girl. She didn’t feed the pigs at home, so she had to rely on cow dung and a few people’s feces to fertilize the crops. She even sent a basket to their family.”

“Eldest uncle also said that the girl was generous and even brought fourth uncle to scold our Father! they said it’s because our father gambled, and they’re missing a generous fourth sister-in-law!”

The three Gu sisters looked at Gu Xin, not knowing what to say. Sooner or later, Xinxin would be taught the wrong way by her uncle (father).

Gu Xin blinked her eyes. the feces of animals are quite precious. You guys don’t know this, but my uncle and I would go to the village’s small island in the middle of winter before dawn to sneak back. We were saving them for fertilizing the crops in spring! Big Uncle said that if we use this feces as fertilizer, the crops will grow well!”

gu nian looked at gu hui and gu si. ” i feel like you two were picked up from the streets. xinxin is uncle’s biological daughter. ”

Gu Hui and Gu si,”Yingluo.”

gu xin: ” sister, i’m so similar to you. if i’m uncle’s biological child, then you are too. ” gu nian laughed helplessly. The little girl has learned to talk back! Good good good, no matter who gave birth to us, we’re still sisters, alright!”

.....

The grandparent and grandchild stayed in the manor until the afternoon and returned the way they came. Except for Grandpa Gu and Cai Xiaolian, the others were all carrying a bag of flowers.

Gu Nian was going to use it to extract a new flower fragrance.

This time, li Muyan had made a new bottle according to Cai Xiaolian’s design, and it was already in mass production.

Cai Xiaolian also designed several bottles, which would be bottled according to the type of flower fragrance, and the price would be even more expensive.

However, no matter how expensive it was, the Gu family still had to sell it at this price. They didn’t care that Madam li would raise the price. Cai Xiaolian even reminded Madam li that if it was too high, more people would buy it in the future, and their family couldn’t mass produce it. In the end, the trouble would still be the Li family. After all, it was the Li family who sold the things!

Meanwhile, Cai Xiaolian and yang xiaohuan’s furniture store was about to open.

Chapter 435 En ‘Zi and her grandfather are the same type of person Master yang was one of the best carpenters in Taoyuan County. His house was very large. He and his daughter only had four rooms for daily living. The rest of the rooms were for him and his disciples to do wood work.

many apprentices had already finished their apprenticeship, but as long as master yang gave the order, those apprentices would come back to work. anyway, the salary was the same wherever they worked. they might be able to learn more things from their master!

As a result, the Yang family was now a small workshop.

Cai Xiaolian had designed several types of furniture that combined ancient and modern styles. Master yang had determined that these would sell well. Now, the Yang family’s Wood storage room was full of furniture that had already been painted and dried.

At the end of February, a Yang family’s furniture store in Zhou town opened for business.

The three shops were connected, and there were all kinds of furniture inside. There were sofas, beds, folding tables and chairs, multi-purpose desks, and all kinds of wall cabinets.

Yang Xiaohuan stood at the counter, dressed in a refreshing outfit. Master Yang's grand-disciple acted as a waiter and introduced the guests.

On the first day of business, Cai Xiaolian, as a business partner, had to come and take a look.

Second sister-in-law, come and take a look. We have 16 orders in just one morning! Yang Xiaohuan called out to Cai Xiaolian excitedly.

"There will definitely be more in a while. I see that the customers in the shop are quite interested! Your father's Grand-disciples didn't learn the craft, but they clearly know the principle. They introduced it without any ambiguity!" Cai Xiaolian praised.

The joint furniture store they had discussed on New Year's Eve took nearly two months to open.

This was also thanks to Master Yang's many apprentices, and the apprentices' apprentices were also many. As a result, there were more craftsmen, so it was easy to make samples.

Their business model was that customers would choose samples in the store, and it would take half a month to a month to deliver the goods. Some would take two months.

"Second sister-in-law, you said that you wanted to find special workers, and I even said a few words to you! I didn't expect you to be completely right. Business is so good, we don't have the time to deliver our own goods. We'll probably be busy with orders." Yang Xiaohuan was glad that she had listened to Cai Xiaolian's words. Otherwise, they would have to deliver the goods themselves.

"We'll make it bigger and bigger in the future." Cai Xiaolian laughed.

"I believe in your second sister-in-law!" Yang Xiaohuan said firmly.

.....

At noon, the Gu family's sisters came over.

"Mother (second aunt), Aunt Xiaohuan!" The sisters came in and greeted the people at the counter.

"How was it? Did you see the Yingying you were talking about? Does it look good?" Cai Xiaolian asked with a smile.

"It's alright!" Gu Hui said.

"Your skin is so white! Mother, your skin is really good if you eat tofu and drink soy milk often!" Gu Nian said.

But he's not as gentle as brother said. He's fierce and can even scold the Auntie who wants to take advantage of him. The key is that he won! Gu Si said with lingering fear. Fortunately, she was younger than her brother by less than two years. It was time for her brother to get married. Otherwise, such a fierce sister-in-law was so scary!

Yes, yes. My son is the same type of person as grandfather. Gu Xin nodded.

“Why?” The crowd looked at Gu Xin in confusion.

“Uncle said that Grandpa only sees the good in grandma. In grandpa’s heart, grandma is good in every way and there’s nothing bad about her. enzi is this kind.” Gu Xin explained.

Cai Xiaolian and the other three sisters were already used to it. Gu Xin often spoke of her uncle’s words.

“Hey, mother, isn’t that Meng Meng?” Suddenly, Gu Nian saw a group of people outside the shop. One of them was Meng Meng.

Chapter 436 So many cars!

“Hey! Meng Meng! This way, this way!” Gu Nian waved her hand and shouted.

Cai Xiaolian looked at Gu Nian in surprise. Could it be that this girl had taken a fancy to this young man?

She had said that this was one of her favorite characters in the book.

“Aunt Lian, miss Gu, what are you doing here? Buying things? I’ll help you bring it back, I’m looking for second uncle!” Meng Meng ran over with a small bag, looked around the furniture store, and then asked.

“This is their fourth uncle’s master’s shop, and we’re here to support him. Oh, this is the children’s aunty Xiao Huan. Look at ran ran. Cai Xiaolian paused for a moment. Yang xiaohuan was about the same age as Meng Meng. She couldn’t let people call her aunty!

“Miss xiaohuan, it’s a pleasure to meet you! I’m Meng Meng, we’ll probably have more dealings in the future! I’m here to seek refuge with second uncle!” Meng Meng closed fist saluted.

“Nice to meet you!” Yang xiaohuan also cupped his fists.

“By the way, mother, did father go to Taoyuan County today? Why don’t we sisters bring them to the manor to make arrangements? We’ll be coming back from the back mountain later?” Gu Nian said.

“Alright, you guys go ahead! I’ll be going back to the village with your aunt xiaohuan later.” Cai Xiaolian nodded.

They already had the Indenture contracts of Meng Meng and the others, and Gu shouxin believed in Meng Meng. Moreover, the sisters were all good at fighting and had four killing weapons on them, so she had nothing to worry about.

It was good to take the main road to the manor and not have to pass by the village at the crossroad. She really had a hard time dealing with the inquiries of the women in the village.

“Meng Meng, let’s go! Us sisters will take you to the place my father told us about. We have a donkey cart, so you can ask the old man and the woman to sit with us. I see that you have an ox-cart, so why don’t you put all your things on it?” Gu Nian immediately made arrangements.

“Alright! Then I’ll have to trouble you, miss Gu!” Meng Meng nodded.

He had seven women with him. Four of them were older, in their twenties or thirties. There were two young girls who looked to be in their teens. One of them was about the same age as Gu Hui and looked very delicate and pretty. She should be the fiancée who had betrayed him.

It was a little crowded with eleven people in the car. Gu Hui pulled Gu Si to sit outside and drove the car with Meng Meng.

“Miss Hui, you’re looking down on me! Did he think that this car wouldn’t work? I’m telling you, other than riding a Dragon, I’ve never ridden on any other car!” Meng Meng said unhappily, thinking that Gu Hui was disdainful of his driving skills.

“Have you ever rushed a Tiger carriage? Have you ever rushed a pigcar? Have you ever driven a goat carriage? Have you ever driven a dog cart?” Gu Hui looked at Meng Meng, speechless.

“What? There were also Tiger carriages, pig carriages, sheep carriages, and dog carriages? Pigs, sheep, and dogs are fine, but this Tiger chariot ... Miss Hui, don’t you talk big! I don’t believe you can!” Meng Meng’s eyes widened. How could this girl be better at bragging than him?

“I didn’t say that I was rushing! Didn’t you say that you’ve driven all kinds of cars except for the Dragon carriage? I’m just asking you.” Gu Hui glanced at Meng Meng indifferently.

Meng Meng’s face turned red as he blew his hair. Miss Hui’s brain is so flexible. Other than cows, horses, and donkeys, she managed to get so many carriages.

“Brother Meng, my sister and I have never taken this road before, so we came out to see the scenery.” Gu Si said with a smile.

She couldn’t say that it was crowded inside, so she could only use this excuse.

Meng Meng scratched his head and laughed awkwardly. It turned out that he had misunderstood. She didn’t despise me for not driving well!

Gu Nian, who was in the car, did not expect Meng Meng to be like this.

As expected, once a person experienced a great change, their temperament would change.

If Gu Nian had not read the book and knew the name of Lu Zheng, as well as Lu Zheng’s attitude, she would not have believed that this dumbass was the decisive and fearsome great general under the male protagonist in the book.

Chapter 437 This girl is brainless

Gu Nian looked at Meng Meng’s fiancée, who was sitting beside Gu Xin.

Meng Meng’s fiancée’s name was Jiang Yao. She was pretty and looked calm. If she was outside, no one would be able to tell that she came from a Bandit’s lair.

Gu Nian then looked at Jiang Yao’s hand. It was quite soft and not rough at all. It was also very fair and clean, unlike the other four women and the two young girls who were obviously used to working.

This Meng Meng was quite good to his fiancée. He actually left her to do nothing. Looking at the hands of the two little girls, it was obvious that they were used to doing work since they were young.

Jiang Yao sensed Gu Nian's gaze and frowned unhappily.

my name is Gu Xin. What are your names?" Gu Xin asked as she looked at the two girls who were around her age.

"Miss Xin, my name is Meng Yan. Meng Meng is my big brother." One of the girls with a round face greeted Gu Xin with a smile. Her smile was silly, quite similar to Meng Meng's.

"Miss Xin, my name is Zheng Ling." Another girl who was slightly thinner said.

"Then I'll call you Yanyan and Lingling! You guys also call me Xinxin! That's how our family calls people. This is my sister niannian, and the ones outside are my cousins Huihui and sisi." Gu Xin laughed.

"alright, xinxin!" Meng Yan was as friendly as her brother and her smile towards Gu Xin became even more intimate.

Zheng Ling was a little shy and called out "Xinxin" in a low voice.

"Did you just shout when she asked you to? Are there no rules? You've already been sold by Meng Meng and you've already signed the Indenture. These are the two ladies of the main family, you don't have any manners at all!" Jiang Yao scolded.

Her voice wasn't loud, and her voice was pleasant to the ear. However, her words didn't sound that great.

The shy Zheng Ling shrank back a little.

Meng Yan pouted unhappily and looked at Jiang Yao. "Xinxin asked us to call her. Sister Jiang Yao, if you don't want to follow us, you can just leave! Other than my big brother, who else would like to keep you!"

The four women were on Meng Yan's side, and they didn't like Jiang Yao.

Jiang Yao glared at Meng Yan and said, 'do you think I want to stay? I don't have a place to go, do I?'

Gu Nian thought, 'is this girl stupid? she knows that she's signed a contract to sell herself, but she still dares to shout in front of me and Xinxin?'

"Alright, alright, you guys stop quarreling! This was not the village. What did it look like? Whoever doesn't want to follow can leave, but if you want to follow, then be obedient." The oldest of the four women spoke up and looked at Gu Nian. miss Nian, I'm sorry to have embarrassed myself. We've only just met. I'm really sorry!

"it's fine." Gu Nian smiled as she shook her head. may I know how to address you, aunties?" In fact, my family is also from the countryside. My father invited you here only to plant crops and take care of my Manor. You don't have to be so polite."

"My surname is Meng, and I'm the aunt of Meng Meng and Meng Yan. The three of them are my sworn sisters. The people in the village call us aunties, second Niang, third Niang, fourth Niang. I'm ranked third. This is my big sister, second sister, and fourth sister! Miss Nian, you can call me whatever you want!" Third lady Meng said readily.

“Then let’s shout along with everyone! Sanniang, do you all know Kung Fu? I see that you guys are in good spirits!” Gu Nian started chatting with the others.

Gu Xin, on the other hand, was talking to the two new girls in a low voice. No one paid any attention to Jiang Yao, which made her extremely angry.

She wanted to flare up, but she was afraid of third lady Meng and the others. She was also a little afraid of Gu Nian, so she held it in and her little face turned red.

Chapter 438 Saving the big guy

Meng Meng was relieved to hear that they were chatting happily in the car.

He was so afraid that his aunt and sister would not get along with the two Gu ladies, but he was also afraid that they would be wronged. Now, it seemed that they were doing well.

He chuckled to himself.

Gu Hui and Gu si turned to look at Meng Meng, who looked like a fool. Their expressions were complicated.

Gu Si was young and sat in the middle, so Gu Hui and Gu si were in the same direction.

Meng Meng was very sharp and immediately noticed their gazes. He turned to look at the two sisters and smiled.”Miss Hui, miss si, you guys go in and chat too! It’s so lively inside!”

Gu si wanted to go in, but her sister felt that it was too crowded inside. If she went in, her sister would sit with this big guy. She felt that it was inappropriate because every time her sister was alone with a man of the same age, that man was very likely to be beaten up.

Moreover, this big guy was a little silly. She was worried that he would say something silly to make her sister beat him up.

Therefore, she had to make herself suffer and go with her sister to save the big guy.

When they arrived at the manor, Gu Xin and third mother Meng were already familiar with each other.

From their conversation, Gu Nian learned that third mother Meng and the other three knew Kung Fu. Third mother Meng was Meng Meng’s aunt. She grew up in a Bandit’s lair. When she grew up, she went down the mountain to play and got married. After three years of marriage, she wrote a letter back to the village to ask her parents and brothers to bring people to save her because she had broken her husband’s leg.

Her ex-husband was a scholar and a mommy’s boy. The relationship between her mother-in-law and her daughter-in-law was not harmonious, so her mother-in-law found a concubine for her ex-husband.

She was used to the freedom in the village. In their village, one man only had one wife and no concubines, so she could not stand it anymore.

The key was that the concubine had tried to trick her in all sorts of ways, and her ex-husband still believed her. As a result, her ex-husband had hit her. She was not to be trifled with. She had been doted on by her parents and brothers since she grew up. She was also the daughter of her parents when they were old. She had never been treated like this before. She immediately fought with her ex-husband and broke his leg.

In the end, if it wasn't for her father bringing her brother and a group of brothers from the village, her husband's family had even planned to send her to the Yamen. However, although her maternal family was not rich, they won in their ruthlessness. Her husband's family could only happily divorce her.

The three sworn sisters were the women she had saved when she was robbing others. The aunt was a girl who had been sold to a rich family as a concubine. The day third lady Meng met her, the aunt was being beaten by her husband. Third lady Meng knocked the man unconscious and looked at the aunt, who was beaten black and blue and as thin as a stick. She only said one sentence, "sister, come with me. I'll take you away. The aunt nodded without hesitation and followed third mother Meng.

The second mother's situation was the most similar to the third mother's. She met a heartless man and gave birth to two daughters in a row. One of them died young while the other was born in poor health. Even before her mother-in-law was unhappy, her husband was already unhappy. He hit her and her daughter when he was drunk. When the third mother and the second mother met, the second mother's daughter was seriously ill. Her in-laws did not give money to treat her illness. Her husband even hit her. As a mother, she was strong. She held a knife and wanted to kill her husband, but in the end, she was not as strong as a man. When she was almost hacked to death by her man, sanniang helped, but her daughter was not saved in the end. Her heart was like dead ashes, and she wanted to go with her daughter, but she was knocked unconscious by sanniang and brought back to the village.

Therefore, the second mother looked a little silent and depressed.

Chapter 439 regret

The youngest, fourth mother, was only 25 years old. At 15 years old, she was sold to a rich family's foolish young master as a wife.

This foolish young master was not a cute fool. He was the kind of fool who would go crazy and kill people. There were more than a dozen little girls who had been harmed by him.

The fourth mother's family was not so poor that they could not afford to eat. On the contrary, she had a cousin who was studying in school. However, her parents had passed away. As she grew older, her grandmother and aunt knew that the family spent at least a hundred taels on buying a wife for their son. Therefore, the fourth mother, who had no parents or brothers, was sold.

It was even a life and death contract. Her family would directly remove her name from the genealogy, which meant that she no longer existed in this world and would not affect her cousin in the future.

When third mother met fourth mother, she had brought the first Mother, who had learned some martial arts and had some Foundation, out to Scout. They happened to be looking at fourth mother's family, which had bought her. They happened to see fourth mother being hit in the head by the foolish young master with a blunt weapon, and blood was flowing.

The two of them didn't say anything and directly hit the head of the foolish young master. They took fourth mother away and returned to the village after they were done scouting. A few days later, their brothers in the village came to Rob them.

They were all pitiful women. Since they had entered the village, they didn't want to go back. They definitely wouldn't go to their in-laws' house. If their parents' family had taken care of them, they wouldn't have been so miserable. Therefore, they abandoned their original identities and became sworn brothers with third lady Meng. They also took the Meng family's surname. They could be considered a new life!

Gu Nian felt that they were really lucky to have met third lady Meng at the critical moment of life and death and been saved.

Moreover, Gu Nian's opinion of Meng Meng's stronghold had changed. At the same time, he understood why some people in the stronghold wanted to jump to other strongholds. Meng Meng's stronghold really robbed the rich to help the thieves. They only robbed the unscrupulous rich and had a bottom line.

Because of third lady Meng's existence, the matter of looking for the wife of the bandit chief was probably not allowed to happen.

The bandits were naturally unwilling, and those who stayed behind were people like Meng Meng.

As for Meng Meng's fiancée, Jiang Yao, Gu Nian had found out from the conversation between the four ladies of the Meng family that Jiang Yao had fainted in the mountains outside the village a few years ago and was saved by Meng Meng's mother. When she woke up, she took the initiative to ask for shelter. She was willing to be a slave or a maid, even if it was just a wife of a Bandit.

Meng Meng's mother was the wife of the chief at that time. How could she let a little girl be the wife of the chief?

A few years ago, Jiang Yao was only 13 years old. She was quite pretty. Meng Meng's mother wanted third mother Meng and the others to take care of her, but she refused. When she found out that the chief had a son, she immediately expressed her desire to marry him, and that was how they got married.

However, no one knew about Jiang Yao's past. She said that she could not remember her future after she woke up.

When the couple was still around, Jiang Yao was pure, innocent, and kind, and the couple quite liked her.

After that, the couple died, and the people in the village were unstable, so Jiang Yao slowly showed her impatience.

Gu Nian felt that Jiang Yao probably had not forgotten her past. However, her status was probably not high. Otherwise, she would not have said that she would be the wife of a Bandit. She was only a Bandit's wife to seek protection in this village, which had many men.

She must have never liked Meng Meng from the beginning to the end and was even waiting for an opportunity to escape.

In her previous life, didn't she betray the village and offer herself to use the people of the village to find herself a shelter?

Gu Nian regretted that he did not see the results of the book. According to his nephew's personality, a traitor like Jiang Yao would definitely come out and pester Meng Meng after he had achieved success.

What a pity!

Chapter 440 Another two companions

As for Zheng Ling, she was an orphan. Back then, she was adopted by the second-in-charge of the village and had the same surname as the second-in-charge. When she was adopted, she had a Bell on her, so she was Zheng Ling.

Gu Nian was already very satisfied after getting to know the women. As for the men, well, she would leave them to her father!

When they arrived at the manor, Gu Nian assigned Meng Meng a task.

There was only one courtyard in the manor. The seventy-odd of them definitely could not live in this courtyard. Otherwise, their family would not have a place to stay even if they wanted to come over to play for a few days.

Apart from the family of four and the rooms reserved for the old couple, Gu Nian left the rest of the rooms to Meng Meng and third mother Meng.

Gu Nian then pointed to an empty space that was specially reserved for the people in charge of the manor to build houses.

"Meng Meng, you guys can build your own house, right?" Gu Nian asked.

don't worry, miss Nian. There will be no problem with building a house. Before third uncle Jiang and fourth uncle Jiang went up the mountain, they specialized in building houses for people. Before seventh uncle du went up the mountain, he had top-notch carpentry skills in their local area. Making a bed, a table, and a bench would not be a problem at all. First Mother and second mother can do embroidery. Give us two months and we will definitely build our own house." Meng Meng patted his chest and promised.

As Gu Nian listened to the thumping sounds, she wanted to ask, 'brother, don't you feel pain?'

She noticed that Jiang Yao looked at Meng Meng disdainfully when he was talking. She didn't even want to look at him.

Gu Nian was not happy. 'This is the general. You're just a little girl who came out of nowhere. What right do you have to look down on him?'

Their parents are your saviors!

"Alright! Then you guys can arrange it later! Sanniang, don't let anyone pick the flowers in the flower field. I have some use for them. If you have time these days, pick some for me and ask Meng Meng to send them to my house." Gu Nian instructed third mother Meng.

"Alright, miss Nian, you can rest assured with me watching over you! They're all men and don't like flowers and plants. It's just the two little girls and Jiang Yao, I'll take care of them." Third lady Meng said.

At first, she was still against signing the slave contract. However, after talking to Gu Nian, she felt less conflicted.

It wasn't a death contract, and it was only for two years. The Gu family had the ability to arrange for more than seventy people to be good citizens and provide them with a place to live. It was better than living on the mountain.

In their village, many of them were forced to go up the mountain. Their names were long gone from their household registration. They didn't even have an identity, so they didn't have the freedom to enter and leave.

Although they didn't want to be servants, if they wanted to be good people, they had to go through this stage. Her big nephew was not stupid. He was thinking for the more than seventy people in the village!

Gu Nian waited for everyone to arrive before explaining the rules of the village to them again. After that, he brought his sisters home.

When it was time to part, her little koi fish was a little reluctant to part.

She waved to her new friends, Meng Yan and Zheng Ling, indicating that she would come over to play when she was free.

Gu Nian's heart ached for her. In her previous life, she was a poor little girl who had no friends. In this life, she finally made a friend, Cheng Huaiyu. However, the Cheng family was not good. Now, she had two more friends.

Meng Yan and Zheng Ling both looked good. One had a personality like a silly girl who was like her own brother, while the other had a reserved personality and seemed to be a little precocious, but her eyes were clear and she was an innocent child.
