

Her Billionaire 642

Chapter 642 Six Months Old

Skyler was stammering, but he spilled the truth in the end. He was hit in the chest? Veronica stiffened up, and a chill ran down her spine. She could feel her heart starting to palpitate. She turned her attention to the scenery outside the window in an attempt to hide her pain from everyone. "And then what happened?" she asked.

"We were surrounded by enemies. Matt and I trusted Troy to watch our backs, but that b*stard ran away before we even knew it. We took Matt and left the hotel, but Zac's men kept coming after us. Then, the car fell into the river, and... and..."

Skyler started sobbing and clenching his fists. Tears welled up in his eyes, and he couldn't speak.

Caleb approached Skyler and patted his shoulder. He told Veronica calmly, "We've sent our men to search for him. You should stay calm. Getting agitated won't be good for the baby."

Caleb was a police officer. He thought he wouldn't get affected by something like this after the many similar cases he had gone through, but this incident still got to him.

"You guys can take your time with the search. There's no rush." She heaved a sigh and tried to hold her tears in. She put on a tough look and turned around. "As long as I don't see his body, he's still alive."
