

HC Chapter 121

Ye Xueying was getting a headache from Ye Zhenyan's chanting.

It was not because she had failed to do the job, so why did she have to take the blame for everything?

She said with some impatience, "It's just one client, the Fu Group is worth ten such small clients."

"That Fu's Group project won't start until three years later, so don't mention it!" Ye Zhenshan walked around with his hands behind his back, wrinkling his eyebrows, "Right, how's the matter with the Bode Group, today is the second day, has Ye Yunla approached the person in charge of the Bode Group?"

Ye Xueying pressed her brow, "When I came to the office this morning, I thought I heard someone say that Ye Yunla was here too, and I don't know what she's here for."

Ye Zhenshan's finger tapped the desktop and said coldly, "If she can really negotiate this project for the Bodega Group this time, I'm not afraid to give her another chance"

Hearing these words, Ye Xue Ying was violently shocked.

Give Ye Yunla one more chance?

What did this mean?

Really let Ye Yunla come to work at Ye Group?

With Ye Yunla in the company, then where would she find the heart to work again when she was watching Ye Yunla all day long?

Her status as the heir would also be taken away by Ye Yunla sooner or later.

Ye Xueying opened her lips, wanting to say something, but eventually gave up.

Ye Zhenshan was also Ye Yunla's real father, so if she had anything, it would be better to discuss it with her mother.

Ye Xueying reported some more work matters and then left from the president's office. She had just come downstairs when she saw Ye Yunla walking out from the finance department.

The two sisters, met in the long, narrow corridor.

Ye Yunla curled her lips into a smile, "Xue'er, did you not sleep well this time?"

Ye Xue Ying had put on half an hour of make-up this morning and still hadn't managed to hide the dark circles under her eyes.

She strongly suspected that the person who attacked her computer last night was Ye Yunla, but she couldn't come up with any evidence.

But it didn't matter, Fu Ziyang had already gone to investigate, and as soon as she found a clue, she would personally send Ye Yunla to prison.

Ye Xue Ying sank a breath and said coldly, "What were you doing in the finance department?"

Ye Yunla smiled lazily and wantonly, "Just came over to sit down and have a cup of tea, and then I heard a big gossip."

She stepped forward with a hint of a sneer in her tone, "A nail-biting case can be ruined by you, if the Ye Group was handed over to you, I think it would go bankrupt in less than three months."

"You!"

Ye Xue Ying's features twisted in anger.

She had always been the only one to find trouble with Ye Yunla, but today this little bitch had taken the initiative to pick a fight.

Could it be that the little bitch really thought that she could successfully take down the Bode Group?

Ye Xue Ying's fingers pinched her palm as she said coldly, word by word, "Then you'll wait and see if the Ye Group will go bankrupt."

She plucked out a fierce glance at Ye Yunla, stepped on her high heels and left.

Ye Yunla hooked her hair and hooked the USB flash drive in her hand and shook it on her fingertips.

The employees of Ye's group were really used to being lazy, she had only invited her to a meal and easily got hold of the accounts book of the finance department.

But she was not an accountant, so it would take a lot of time to check the accounts.

Ye Xue Ying returned to her office with a huff, her eyes were hostile and she shouted her assistant in a cold voice.

"You go and contact the head of the Boulder Group, and smear the Ye Group as much as possible in front of him."

The assistant had a puzzled look on her face, "General Ye, you're thinking?"

"Heh, I'd rather not have this big project than ever allow Ye Yunla to enter Ye Group." Ye Xue Ying spoke coldly, "If you get this done, I will give you a million dollars, you won't have to worry about it for the rest of your life."

HC Chapter 122

The assistant was in high spirits, "Yes Mr. Ye, I'll get right on it."

.....

Ye Yunla took the account book and went back to her studio.

This was Ye's group's external account book, which was very beautifully done, and at a cursory glance, one could not see any mistakes at all.

She took a picture of the ledger and sent it to Feng Chengyu: "Within three hours, find the loopholes in the ledger."

“Little Lara, I’ve already graduated from the finance department, it’s too much to ask me to look at the books again, isn’t it?”

“This isn’t an exam, it’s the Ye Group’s ledger, there’s a prize for finding the loopholes.” After Ye Yunla sent the line over, she left it alone.

She opened her computer and started writing the code.

The A-F project wasn’t really complicated, it was mainly the design that had a few twists and turns that, if not sorted out, would fall into the mundane and overlap with products currently on the market

Ye Yunla was busy until five o’clock before she was ready to go to kindergarten.

But at that moment she received a phone call, she scanned it, smiled and put it through: “Mr. Li.”

“Miss Ye, I’ve sent the electronic contract to your email address, your electronic signature on the contract will be effective.”

“Thank you, Mr. Li.” Ye Yunla said as she walked away, “I’ll treat Mr. Li to dinner tomorrow after the Ye Group’s shareholders’ meeting.”

“Miss Ye is too polite, it’s just a handful, how can you take it as a thank you.” Mr. Li said after a pause, “An hour ago, the assistant general manager of your Ye Group contacted me and said he wanted to have a meal with me alone.

The general manager of the Ye Group was Ye Xueying, which meant that Ye Xueying had sent her own assistant to contact the people of the Bode Group.

What the purpose was, it was self-evident.

Ye Yunla sneered, “The specialties of Haicheng are good, Mr. Li can go and try them tonight.”

“Good, then I’ll listen to Miss Ye.”

.....

Ye’s Group.

“Mr. Ye, Mr. Li has agreed to dinner!” The assistant rushed into the office happily, “It’s at 7:30 pm.”

The depression in Ye Xueying’s heart was swept away.

After so many days of bad luck, there was finally one good thing that could come out of it.

She walked back and forth in the office a few times, pursed her lips and said, “It’s not appropriate for me to appear in this matter, you go to the appointment alone, remember, make sure to convince Mr. Li to refuse to cooperate with the Ye Group!”

“Mr. Ye, don’t worry, I’ll do my job!”

The assistant calmly went to the appointment.

At 9pm, the assistant called, "Mr. Ye, I've asked Mr. Li, he said that the Boulder Group is planning to cooperate with the Zhuang family and has not considered the Ye Group, Missy has lost the bet and will not be able to join the board again, so you can rest early, Mr. Ye."

"You've done a beautiful job on this matter, I'll credit your account tomorrow."

Hanging up the phone, Ye Xue Ying curled the corners of her mouth.

Throwing Ye Yunla out of the board meeting was only the first step, next, she would take back the shares in Ye Yunla's hands little by little.

The next morning, Ye Xue Ying arrived at the company refreshed.

It was the third day of the bet, and the board meeting had been held today as an exception, and the entrance to the meeting room was very busy.

Some people who knew the insider information had already spread some words out.

"I heard that Boulder Group signed a contract with the banker"

"I've long said that it's impossible for a company like the Bode Group to cooperate with the Ye's, only Missy dares to have such daydreams!

HC Chapter 123

Ye Yunla walked into Ye's Group with her small leather bag, and the people around her swept in with strange looks.

"Missy has just gotten her shares in the Ye Group, and she's being thrown out of the board.

"What's so tragic about it, it's not because she didn't understand the situation clearly and spoke out of her mouth, no, it's backfired on her."

"It seems that it's better for the Second Miss to be in charge of the Ye Group, the First Miss is better off staying where she is cool"

"You've forgotten so quickly that yesterday's tender case was scuppered by the Second Miss?"

"....."

These voices fell on deaf ears for Ye Yunla.

She walked into the lift and went straight up to the conference room on the top floor.

She stood at the door of the conference room and swept a glance, it was good that everyone was there.

She stepped on her high heels and just took a step in.

Yu Dong gave a cold laugh, "Missy, if the case of Bode Group is not negotiated, you will not be qualified to attend the shareholders' meeting again in the future."

Zhang Dong nodded, "The company is having an internal meeting today, Missy should probably leave."

“This is the bet you proposed yourself, since you lost, then you are willing to gamble and accept defeat.”
Ye Zhen Shan said coldly, “Get out!”

On that day, Ye Yunla’s words were clanging and he thought that this daughter could really negotiate down this case of the Boulder Group.

But early this morning, everyone in the circle was saying that the Bodega Group had cooperated with the Zhuang family.

He should have expected that Ye Yunla, a straw man, would have what it takes to persuade the head of the Bode Group?

He shouldn’t have expected too much from this daughter!

“Dad, no matter how you say it, sister is a shareholder of the company, it’s really not appropriate to kick her out.” Ye Xue Ying smiled and advised, “Sister holds twenty-five percent of the company’s shares in her hands, so it shouldn’t be a problem to let her become the manager of the customer department, right?”

Her voice was gentle, but she was hiding a hidden arrow.

As soon as those words came out, the shareholders in the conference room exploded.

“The position of Account Manager is very important and not just anyone can be it!”

“The company’s big clients are all negotiated by the account department, if Missy goes to the account department, I guess all of Ye’s Group’s clients will be scared away.”

“In short, I don’t agree with Missy entering the client department.”

Everyone nodded their heads in unison, their attitude was clear now.

Ye Xue Ying curled her lips.

Her botching the bidding meeting yesterday had caused discontent in the shareholders’ meeting, but with Ye Yunla cushioning the day, no one should mention her little shit.

Her gaze swept over, only to find Ye Yunla with a lazy smile, as if she didn’t care at all what the board of directors had to say.

“Have you guys finished?”

Ye Yunla pulled out a chair and sat down.

She blandly curled her lips, the wanton cold smile on her face daring people to say anything more.

Ye Zhen Shan was a little annoyed by this look on her face, “I told you to get out, can’t you hear me?”

“Before a prisoner dies, he also has the right to plead his case, right?” Ye Yunla laughed lightly, “Don’t you want to know why the Bode Group is working with the Zhuang family?”

The Zhuang family was also an old Hai Cheng group, not a large multinational company.

HC Chapter 124

The crowd was indeed also curious as to why the Boulder Group had chosen the Zhuang family to work with.

Ye Yunla's pretty phoenix eyes poked around everyone present, then tapped on her phone and played a recording.

"..... Mr. Li, the Ye Group is actually very bad internally, and the top leaders' favorite thing to do is to cheat big clients Big companies like yours are the meat and potatoes in the eyes of the senior leaders, if you sign a contract with Ye Group, it will definitely bring incalculable losses to Boulder Group"

When the recording was played out, everyone in the conference room was very confused.

But when it came to the end, especially when the recording started to denigrate the senior leadership of the Ye Group, everyone present had anger on their faces.

"It's just a load of nonsense!" Yu Dong slapped the table, "Eldest Miss, where did you get this recording?"

The end of Ye Yunla's eyes ticked with a hint of laziness, "Then we'll have to ask Xue'er."

The crowd's eyes stabbed towards Ye Xue Ying in unison.

Ye Xue Ying bit her lower lip, her face full of disbelief.

Other people didn't hear it, but she knew very well that the voice in the recording was her assistant.

She no longer had the heart to think about why Ye Yunla had a recording of her assistant's conversation with Mr. Li, because, everyone's eyes in the conference room fell on her.

She pinched her palm hard and spoke slowly, "Sister, I also want to know what this recording is about, why would someone slander our Ye Group's image in front of Mr. Li?"

Ye Yunla laughed lightly, "Xue'er, can't you even hear your assistant's voice anymore?"

She got up and her voice gradually became sharp, "In order to stop the Boulder Group from cooperating with the Ye Group, you sent your assistant to slander the Ye Group in front of Mr. Li, so that's why the Boulder Group finally chose to cooperate with the Zhuang Family!"

"You're spitting blood!" Ye Xueying roared in aggravation, "Sister, it's normal for you to fail to negotiate the case of the Bodø Group, because the Bodø Group was originally a difficult bone to chew, and everyone didn't blame you, how can you attribute your failure to me? I am the heir of the Ye Group, I can't wait for the Ye Group to become a business partner with a large consortium, how could I possibly make a mess out of it?"

"Sis, it's too childish for you to get a recording from anywhere and say it's my assistant! Last night, my assistant accompanied me to a dinner party and didn't have time to meet Mr. Li at all!"

Ye Xueying's words were true and did have some truth to them.

The crowd immediately took Ye Xueying's side.

“Eldest Miss, why spew blood when no deal has been made?”

“Second Miss has been with the Ye Group for four years and although she has not achieved anything great, there is no way she would do such an underhanded thing.”

“Isn’t she herself a senior member of the Ye Group, how could she possibly let her assistant smear her image?”

With a few words, the crowd decided that Ye Yunla had created the rumour.

Ye Yunla gave an unhurried smile, “Xue’er, you just said that you and your assistant attended a dinner party together last night?”

Ye Xue Ying lifted her chin: “That’s right.”

She and her assistant had already discussed the caliber of this matter, so she was not afraid of wearing it out at all.

“Then, what is this again?”

Ye Yunla took out her phone and tapped on a circle of friends.

She pushed the phone to the middle of the table, “This is the friend circle that Mr. Li posted last night at eight o’clock, he is having dinner with your assistant.”

“What?!”

Ye Xue Ying’s face changed and she picked her phone up.

It was a picture of Mr. Li and her assistant together, and in the background behind the two was the restaurant clock, exactly at eight o’clock at night.

“The recording can be faked, Mr. Li’s circle of friends, I shouldn’t be able to fake it, right?” Ye Yunla hooked her lips and smiled coldly, “If you all don’t believe me, I can give Mr. Li a call on the spot.”

HC Chapter 125

Those words of Ye Xueying seemed extremely ridiculous in front of Mr. Li’s circle of friends.

Mr. Li, the executive president of the Boulder Group’s branch in Haicheng, was also the object of all the businessmen in Haicheng’s courting.

There was no way that a person of his status would cooperate with Ye Yunla in posting a fake friend circle.

The crowd in the meeting room looked at Ye Xue Ying with a little more scrutiny in their gaze.

“Second Miss, that means that you really sent your assistant to slander Ye’s Group’s image in front of Mr. Li?”

Ye Xueying pinched her palm with a death grip as she let out a long breath and said, “I didn’t It was my assistant who did it without permission, it has nothing to do with me”

This explanation was too pale and feeble.

The two biggest directors, Yu Dong and Zhang Dong, all had disappointment in their eyes.

“Even if my assistant hadn’t invited Mr. Li to dinner, there’s no way the Boulder Group would have cooperated with Ye.” Ye Xue Ying braced herself for the last bit of breath and said, “You simply can’t put the reason for the failed cooperation talks on my assistant!”

As long as the cooperation talks didn’t work out, then, Ye Yunla couldn’t be on the board!

However, at this very moment...

The mobile phone placed on the conference room desktop vibrated.

Ye Yunla smiled faintly, “Mr. Li is calling.”

She pressed the connect button and a clear voice came from the other end of the line, “Miss Ye, the electronic contract has been filed and I have sent the project information to your mailbox, please pay attention to it.”

“Thank you Mr. Li, I hope we have a good cooperation.” Ye Yunla hooked her lips and smiled, “I still have some things to take care of here, I’ll treat you to dinner later.”

The other end hung up the phone sharply.

She held the phone as her gaze crossed the faces of everyone present, “Now, are you still going to kick me out?”

“No way!” Ye Xue Ying shouted out of breath, “The Bodega Group has cooperated with the Zhuang family, how could they possibly sign a contract with you, you don’t need to pretend here!”

“Xue’er, are you so tolerant of Ye’s cooperation with the Boulder Group that you still don’t want to believe the facts when they’re all laid out in front of you?”

Ye Yunla snapped her fingers and the door of the conference room was pushed open, her assistant laid out a copy of the printed documents in front of the crowd.

She said in a cold voice, “This is the internal information of this project of the Bodega Group, non-partners simply cannot get it, Xue’er, what else do you want to say now?”

Ye Xue Ying’s face was pale and her lips were about to be bitten through.

It was clear that her assistant had already spoken to Mr. Li last night, so why Why would something like this still happen today?

Where exactly did it go wrong

“It’s you! You deliberately dug a pit for my assistant to jump into!” Ye Xueying’s eyes widened, “Mr. Li had long since negotiated a partnership with you, yet you deliberately lured my assistant to have dinner with Mr. Li! Ye Yunla, how could you be so vicious, in order to drag me into this, you actually set up such a trap!”

Ye Yunla shook her head, “So all you uncles and uncles, do you also think that I deliberately set it up for Xue’er to jump in?”

The people present knew who to stand for as long as their eyes were not blind.

Yu Dong mused, "Since Missy has signed a contract with the Boulder Group, then from now on, Missy is the manager of the account department.

HC Chapter 126

Zhang Dong also spoke up, "Missy is holding a high amount of shares in the company and has negotiated such a big project, Missy is qualified to be the account department manager, I have no problem with that."

"I don't have any opinion either."

Most of the people in the meeting room agreed, there was no possibility of any reversal at this point.

Although Ye Zhenshan was dissatisfied with Ye Yunla's high and mighty look, at least, Ye Yunla had helped turn the tide for the company.

With this project in hand, the company would not have to worry about its revenue for the next six months.

He blandly clapped his hands and said, "Fine, then let Yara be the account manager and the current account manager be your assistant."

"Thank you, Daddy."

Ye Yunla smiled good-naturedly and sat down in her seat.

Watching this scene, Ye Xue Ying's gums were bleeding with anger.

She held back and held back, but the Qi and blood in her chest still kept flowing backwards.

She finally couldn't help herself and spoke up with a mouthful of fire: "Dad, the current account manager is a doctor who has returned from overseas studies and has been an employee of the company for seven or eight years, isn't it too rash to just let him become sister's assistant?"

"What Xue'er said also makes sense." Ye Yunla nodded her head fervently, "Chen Yu Heng has a sea turtle PhD and an MBA, it's indeed too condescending to let her be an account manager, I think the general manager position is quite suitable for her."

Ye Xue Ying's eyes went wide.

She was the General Manager of the Ye Group!

What did this bitch Ye Yunla want again!

"Xue'er, you graduated from a second college, you studied design in college, and you have nothing to do with company management in the slightest, I think you can step aside and give up your position." Ye Yunla hooked her lips and smiled, "You've been in the position of general manager for four years and you've contributed nothing to the company Oh, I didn't say that, it was Yu Dong who just said that. Since you don't have the ability, you should give the position to the right person, don't you think so?"

“Nonsense!” Ye Zhenshan slapped the table fiercely, “You’ve only just joined the board and you want to meddle in the personnel arrangements of the company?”

Ye Yunla pursed her lips, “Dad, I’m doing this for the good of the company.”

“Don’t use this crowning excuse against your sister!” Ye Zhenshan said in a cold voice, “Don’t think that just because you’ve just signed a big client, you can do whatever you want in the company.”

“Since dad has to say that, then I can only spread out the internal affairs of our Ye family.” Ye Yunla looked like she had been forced to do nothing, she took out a document from her bag and threw it on the table, “Yu Dong, Zhang Dong, you should be able to read the books, this is the Ye Group’s annual financial statement for last year, take a closer look and you will know why I am here to force Xue’er to step down from her position as general manager.”

Dong Yu and Dong Zhang looked puzzled as they flipped the account book open.

But three minutes later, their faces changed in unison, shooting straight at Ye Xue Ying’s eyebrows like sharp swords.

Ye Xueying’s heart stuttered, her intuition told her that this account book had a lot to do with her

She tried to snatch the account book, but Yu Dong directly threw it to the next shareholder

In less than ten minutes, the books were passed through the hands of all the shareholders.

Yu Dong was the first to stand up: “Second Miss, in vain we trust you so much, is this how you play with our trust in you?”

Ye Xueying’s lips turned white: “Uncle Yu, I didn’t do anything, Ye Yunla must be framing me”

“It’s clearly written down in the account book, how is she going to frame you?” Zhang Dong was full of disappointment, “On the pretext of the project at least one hundred million was withdrawn in the finance department, we trusted you to sign the project book, and what happened to you, embezzling public funds and falsifying the accounts, what qualifications do you have to sit in the position of general manager?”

HC Chapter 127

A dozen pairs of eyes filled with anger, drowning Ye Xue Ying.

She did not expect at all that there would be such a drama today.

How could the accounts of the finance department be found out when she had asked someone to do it?

It was Ye Yunla!

This bitch had taken away half of her shares as soon as she returned, and now she was forcing her to step down as General Manager!

Clearly, clearly today she wanted to get rid of this little bitch from the shareholders’ meeting!

Why was she the one who forced her to resign from her position?

Why did this little bitch have to go against her!

Ye Xue Ying's fingers were shaking.

Her lips turned white and she trembled violently, "This is Ye Yunla deliberately making fake accounts to set me up, I didn't do any of these things"

"Since Xue'er feels that I deliberately framed it, that's fine, then let the police investigate." Ye Yunla skinned a smile, "Do you dare to call the police?"

Ye Xue Ying's face was ashen as she fell into a chair.

Seeing her like this, what else did the crowd not understand.

The heir to the group, the second largest shareholder, had been involved in false accounting, if the police were called, she would definitely be detained and thoroughly investigated.

If Ye Xueying dared to call the police, the crowd could still choose to believe her for once.

But instead, she fell into a chair with a pale face, shaking all over.

Dong Yu shook his head in disappointment, "Dong Ye, I don't think the Second Miss is suitable for the position of General Manager."

"If we let Second Miss be the general manager again, we don't know how many fake accounts we will have to make out." Zhang Dong said in an exasperated voice, "One hundred million has been diverted in one year, and each of our shareholders' dividends will be a few million less, this loss, shouldn't Ye Dong make it up to us!"

"Dong Ye, your Ye family must give us a statement on this matter!"

"Second Miss, you'd better leave of your own accord, it won't look good if you make a big fuss"

The people around you said one thing and I said another, various voices buzzing in their ears.

Ye Xue Ying's chest was fishy sweet, she rolled her eyes and directly fainted.

The conference room was suddenly tumbled over with people.

Ye Yunla snorted coldly.

If she had known that Ye Xue Ying was so forbidden, she should have taken action long ago.

By driving Ye Xueying out of the Ye Group, Ye Xueying's energy would be focused on how to return to Ye's in the future, instead of staring at her two children all day long.

Because of Ye Xueying's fainting spell, the board meeting was forced to be suspended.

After Ye Yunla reported to the client department, this was when she called Mr. Li to make an appointment to have dinner together.

"Thanks to Mr. Li for his help this time." Ye Yunla raised her red wine glass and clinked her glass with Mr. Li, "Next time, if Mr. Li needs any help, just ask."

Mr. Li took a sip of his wine and smiled, "I have a favor to ask Miss Ye right now."

Ye Yunla put down her wine glass and nodded, "Please go ahead."

She had met Mr Li by chance when she was attending an event abroad, and the two of them had some work-related dealings and were very good business friends.

This time, the Boulder Group had given Mr Li full responsibility for the project, and she had merely mentioned it and Mr Li had agreed to cooperate.

So no matter what Mr Li asked her to do, she would do her best.

Who would have expected-

Mr Li snapped his fingers.

The waiter in the restaurant walked over holding a large bouquet of roses.

"Miss Ye, if you really want to help me, please accept this bouquet of roses."

Ye Yunla: "....."

How could she not see that Mr. Li had a crush on her?

"Ahem!" Mr. Li's scalp tingled at her eyes and he hurriedly explained, "This is what Young Master Feng Chengyu Feng asked me to send on his behalf."

Ye Yunla:

HC Chapter 128

He had already left the city, but why was he still so haunted?

She pursed her lips, "Fine, I'll take it then."

Mr Li relaxed with a smile, "Miss Ye, although Young Feng is a bit of a womanizer, he really cares about you, I think you can consider being his girlfriend."

"Hey, hey, hey, Mr Li, it's just one project, I'm not going to have to give my life to that dead bastard Feng Chengyu!"

Mr. Li laughed out loud, "I'm just a small suggestion, it's up to you whether you listen to it or not."

Ye Yunla propped her chin up speechlessly.

She had introduced Mr. Li to Feng Chengyu, and he had been recognised by the senior management of the Boulder Group, and had been able to rise to the top of the career ladder ever since.

This was also the reason why Mr. Li was willing to work with Ye's Group.

But if she had known that Feng Cheng Yu's bouquet of flowers was waiting here, she should not have asked Mr. Li for help.

As Ye Yunla and Mr. Li talked, a pair of eyes stared at her unblinkingly.

Fu Ziyang sat in the corner by the window, looking at Ye Yunla with a complicated expression.

I don't know why, but seeing Ye Yunla talking and laughing with another man, he had a very uncomfortable feeling in his heart.

It was an emotion that had never been felt before.

"Young Fu, Young Fu?"

The woman sitting opposite him plucked up her voice and shouted twice, seeing him come back to his senses before continuing, "Are you sure you want to invite Master Alice for a lesson? Master Alice may not have that much time"

Fu Ziyang nodded indifferently, "One lesson a week is enough, when can the lessons start?"

"Every Saturday afternoon for two hours." The woman smiled, "Fu Shao remember to prepare the children's piano in advance, so it's smoother to play."

Fu Ziyang shook his head, "I'm not the one learning, it's a woman who's not too far behind you."

He remembered that his mother had taken piano lessons when she was a child, which was why he had arranged piano lessons for her.

The piano could cultivate the emotions, and he hoped that his mother's restless heart would settle down after spending her days with the piano.

He hoped that his and Fu Ziling's mother would be an elegant and generous woman.

And not a calculating person at all times

"See you on Saturday, then, Young Fu."

The piano teacher put away the information and turned to leave the restaurant.

Fu Ziyang sat in his seat, his gaze involuntarily looking in Ye Yunla's direction again.

He had very mixed emotions towards this woman.

Although this was his blood relation's great aunt, yet, there was a deep grudge against his mother.

That was why the Ye family had never formally introduced him to Ye Yunla.

He had wasted a lot of effort to find out about Ye Yunla, but he could only find out about her life trajectory before she was eighteen, and the four years she had lived abroad seemed to have been deliberately erased.

Ye Yunla was talking to Mr Li about the project when she suddenly felt a strong gaze fall on her.

She wrinkled her brows and followed the gaze, and saw a tiny child sitting in the corner of the window.

Just as she raised her head, the child whipped her head around so that she could only barely see a side face.

This side face, so familiar

It resembled Jing'er, yet it was not Jing'er.

It seemed to have been seen again somewhere

Right!

Ye Yunla's eyes were wide.

That day at the Xie Group's new product launch, it seemed that she had been saved by this child.

After she was discharged from the hospital, she had asked her cousin to check the whereabouts of this child, but no news could be found.

I never thought I would meet him here.

After saying sorry to Mr. Li, Ye Yunla took a step and walked towards Fu Ziyang's direction.

HC Chapter 129

When he saw Ye Yunla coming, Fu Ziyang got up coldly and left.

He had just taken two steps when his mobile phone vibrated, he scanned it and the note was "mother".

He pursed his lips, which were the same as Fu Beijue's, and put the call through.

Just as he pressed the connect button, a choked sob came from the other end of the phone: "Ziyang, I'm finished, I'm finished this time"

Fu Ziyang's eyebrows twisted: "Mother, what's the matter, speak slowly, I'm listening."

"Ye Yunla designed to harm me, I was forced to resign from my position as the general manager of the Ye Group, and I will never be able to enter the board of directors again" Ye Xueying cried and hissed, "I am the heir to the Ye Group and the second largest shareholder of the company, I am not willing to Zi Yan, you help me, you must help me"

Fu Ziyang's eyebrows knitted tighter: "How could this happen?"

How could a major shareholder of a company be forced to withdraw from the board of directors for no reason?

He slowly said, "Mother, did you do something to offend the board?"

"I, I" Ye Xueying broke down and cried, "Last year when you celebrated your birthday, in order to buy you a birthday present, I I diverted a hundred million from the Ye Group's public funds Ye Yunla found the evidence from somewhere and forced me to leave my job in public"

"Embezzlement of public funds, this is indeed unforgivable." Fu Ziyang said indifferently, "Mother don't cry, this was originally your fault."

"Zi Yan, how can you say the same thing as those people It is true that I was wrong, but is she right, Ye Yunla? She deliberately dumped the evidence in front of so many people and used every means to force me to quit the board! She's a hungry wolf, desperate to nibble away at everything in the Ye family! Ziyin, I've come to this point just to buy you a birthday present, you must help me this time!"

Fu Ziyán's brow was filled with indifference.

Last year for his birthday, the birthday present he received was a piece of jade.

He knew a little bit about jade, and the piece of jade that his mother had given him was at most two million.

But now, his mother was saying that she had embezzled a hundred million dollars of public money because of him.

Such a big black pot, his mother just dumped it on his back without hesitation.

This was his mother.

A selfish and self-serving woman.

Fu Ziyán kindly smiled: "Then mother, how do you want me to help you?"

"To make Ye Yunla spit out everything she ate!" Ye Xue Ying gritted her teeth and said, "Zi Yan, I know you are smart, you will definitely have a solution! I'm your mother, I've suffered so much, you must help me get justice!"

Fu Ziyán held the phone without making a sound.

"Zi Yan! Do you hear me speaking?" Ye Xue Ying's voice was a little frantic, "If you don't help me, then I'll have to take matters into my own hands!"

"Okay, I'll help you."

Fu Ziyán hung up the phone indifferently.

His mother's methods were too cold and cruel, and he did not want to get blood on her hands.

If he must deal with Ye Yunla, then let him do it.

He would make this woman pay the price without making a sound.

Fu Ziyán stopped in his tracks and stood at the door of the restaurant, waiting.

Ye Yunla quickly chased after him and was visibly relieved to see that he hadn't left yet.

With a gentle smile on her face, she bent down and spoke softly, "Little friend, do you still remember me?"

Her voice was gentle, like the rain on the eaves of an autumn day, falling drop by drop on the green stone floor, spreading out in a ghostly manner.

Fu Ziyán's irritable mood calmed down strangely.

He lifted his head and locked eyes with Ye Yunla, his voice very light: "Remember."

Ye Yunla's smile deepened: "You helped me last time, I haven't said thank you yet, why don't I give you a gift."

“No need.” Fu Ziyan stared at her, the corners of his lips suddenly turning sharp, “You only need to answer one question for me.”

Ye Yunla froze for a moment.

The aura on this child was too powerful.

And this stern-faced little look, why did it look a little familiar?

HC Chapter 130

It was as if she had seen it somewhere before.

She waved the strange thoughts out of her mind and squatted down to say gently, “Okay, you ask.”

“Why do you want to deal with the Ye family?”

Fu Ziyan spoke one word at a time, each word as sharp as a blade.

Ye Yunla was completely frozen.

This child was her saviour, so when she happened to meet this child, her heart was filled with joy.

Only then did she notice that the child’s gaze towards her was filled with an icy chill.

It was not at all like the eyes of a four year old child.

Her scarlet lips tensed as she spoke in a faint voice, “How do you know about the Ye family?”

“Ye Xueying, she’s my mother.”

Fu Ziyan’s voice was cold, his tone extremely light, the coldness between his brows growing.

He was calm enough, but it was as if Ye Yunla had been struck by lightning.

Crackling!!!

Numerous thunderstorms struck down from above her head.

She opened her lips, her voice a little hoarse: “You’re Ye Xue Ying’s real son?”

Fu Ziyan nodded, his voice low: “Because of you, my mother is now hospitalised, are you very proud of yourself?”

Ye Yunla looked at the child in front of her, who was about the same height as Ye Jingzhan, and her heart lifted up in shocking waves.

This child, looking just four or five years old.

But four or five years ago, Ye Xueying hadn’t been pregnant at all!

How could an additional child have appeared out of thin air?

Ye Yunla opened her lips with difficulty, “How old are you?”

“I’m not obliged to tell you that.” Fu Ziyán’s brows were cold and solemn, “You’d better stop before it’s too late, or else I’ll make you pay for your actions.”

The cold aura under his eyes stabbed at Ye Yunla without mercy.

Having experienced so much right and wrong, Ye Yunla had long since forged a body with a bronze wall, and in the past four years, she had never feared anyone’s eyes again.

But now –

Like a million arrows piercing her heart, pain ripped through her heart.

She covered her chest, and beads of sweat seeped from her forehead.

“I won’t stop until I get back what belongs to me.” Ye Yunla stared at her brows and said in a calm tone, “Little friend, this is a matter between adults, it’s best for you to stay out of it.”

“My mother’s business is my business.”

Fu Ziyán gave her a deep look, turned around and walked away.

Ye Yunla’s heart felt like a piece of flesh had been sliced away raw, as if something very important had been taken away from her.

She stared at Fu Ziyán’s back with a complicated expression on her face.

This child was so defensive of Ye Xue Ying, so I guess he should be Ye Xue Ying’s own son.

If this child was around four and a half years old, then she happened to be locked up in the Ye family’s warehouse when he was born.

It is indeed impossible for her to know about Ye Xueying’s pregnancy and birth

But why, when she had been back in Haicheng for so long, had she never heard of Ye Xueying having a child?

Also, if Ye Xueying had a son, then why did the Ye family still want her to marry into the Fu family?

A family like the Fu family could accept a woman who had given birth to a child?
