

HC Chapter 551

Because of the wedding, Ye Yunla has become a hands-off person, leaving the company's affairs entirely in Tan Jing's hands.

But now something has suddenly gone wrong and she has to go to the company to rearrange her work tasks for the next few days.

Early in the morning, Ye Yunla drove to the office.

Just as she entered, dozens of colleagues from the company suddenly gathered around her.

"Happy New Wedding to Mr. Ye!"

"May Mr. Ye and Mr. Fu grow old together!"

"May Mr. Ye and Mr. Fu have a baby soon!"

"Hey, what are you talking about? Mr. Ye already had a baby long ago, so let's dispense with this one."

"Of course the more children you have, the better!"

"....."

The colleagues in the office all laughed and joked.

Ye Yunla touched her nose, these people only knew that she had two children, but they didn't know that the Fu family also had two.

She already had four children, and she was still having them?

Did she really think she was a sow?

"Alright everyone, be quiet, the boss is going to give out benefits." Ye Yunla cleared her throat and said, "The boss is very happy, this time every employee's salary will be increased by ten percent directly, and the dividend will also be doubled at the end of the year."

As soon as these words came out, everyone in the office boiled up.

"Wow, Mr. Ye is wise!"

"I'll be working with Mr. Ye from now on!"

The company had not even been established for half a year yet, and these employees had only been working for two or three months, so they would have been considered new trainees in other companies.

They felt more and more that coming to work for Lara Star Technology was one of the wisest decisions of their lives.

Ye Yunla smiled and said, "The sixth day of this month happens to be a weekend, so those employees who have time can ask Tan Jing to receive an invitation to my wedding."

As the words fell, the crowd in the office boiled up once again.

The wedding must be unprecedented, and the people who could attend the wedding banquet must also be the most prestigious people in Haicheng.

They had expected to be able to eat Mr. Ye's wedding candy, but now, Mr. Ye had given them the opportunity to attend the wedding banquet.

This was an honour that many people outside could not even ask for.

When the crowd was so excited, Ye Yunla clapped her hands, "Alright, all get ready for a meeting."

Everyone immediately pushed down the excitement in their hearts and went into the office with their project documents.

The meeting was mainly to arrange the work for the next few days, one was the cooperation project with Xie's group, there was also the redundant work on Ye's side, as well as the three or four projects in the hands of Yera Star Technology, several other projects were either in progress or already nearing completion, only Yelitos side was just getting started.

Sitting in her chair, Ye Yunla said indifferently, "Bring the newly signed contract over to me."

Tan Jing pushed the contract over.

The contract didn't look like much of a problem, but it split the profit of the party responsible for the project's chip in two, one half for each of Lara Star Technology and Zhuang.

But the entire framework of the chip design, which had been independently completed by Laxing Technology to the tune of eighty percent, could only get half of the profit in the end, which was tantamount to eating a big loss without saying a word.

Ye Yunla let out a laugh: "Those who are responsible for this project, take a few days off first and be paid as usual."

HC Chapter 552

The employee at the bottom froze for a moment, then continued, "But President Ye, the first report on the results of this project has to be done in three days."

"We have already completed eighty percent of the workload, let Zhuang do the remaining twenty percent." Ye Yunla tossed the contract away and said indifferently, "Tan Jing, you dock with the technical department over at Zhuang's group, dismiss the meeting. On the day of the results report, I'll go there personally."

She coldly curled her lips.

Since Zhou and Zhuang Yuan of Yelitos had joined hands to trap her, she would have to make Yelitos suffer a big loss as well.

A company as big as Yelitos could afford to take a few losses.

Ye Yunla went back to her office to continue arranging the follow-up work. Before she had been busy for half an hour, Tan Jing came in with the phone, with a puzzled look on her face: "Mr. Ye, Miss Yue from

Zhuang's group has specified that she wants to speak to you. She said that if you refuse the call, she will come to our company in ten minutes

Ye Yunla held out her hand, "Give me the phone."

She had just put the phone to her ear when Yue Yinghan's voice came over, "Ye Yunla, you're going too far."

Ye Yunla laughed lightly, "Miss Yue, tell me, how have I gone too far?"

"The chip framework you designed, our company's programmers can't understand it at all, you must send someone over as a technical advisor!" Yue Yingliang said in a cold voice, "If you refuse, then our Zhuang will also refuse to complete twenty percent of the subsequent work content."

Ye Yunla almost laughed: "The split between Zhuang's and Laxing's interests is 50/50, I've done an extra 30% for you, so I'm being generous, but that doesn't mean you can make demands with impunity. Miss Yue can of course refuse to complete the next work, but all the consequences will be borne by your Zhuang Clan alone."

After saying that, she directly hung up the phone.

Tan Jing said with some concern, "Mr. Ye, the Zhuang Group says one thing in the mall, will we offend the Zhuang family by doing this?"

"Are we justified in this matter?" Ye Yunla asked rhetorically.

Tan Jing shook her head, "It's the Zhuang's who want to sit back and get a piece of the pie, they're the ones who went too far."

"That's fine." Ye Yunla said in a light voice, "We are in the right, then we are not afraid of them making a mess, don't worry too much about this, I have everything."

The worry in Tan Jing's heart was immediately smoothed over.

She looked at Ye Yunla and admiration and praise emerged in her eyes.

She was still a year older than Mr Ye, but every time she encountered such a difficult matter, it was Mr Ye who stood in front of her.

Some people were born to be so good, not something they, mere mortals, could compare to.

Soon it was time to leave work, and Ye Yunla instinctively wanted to go to the kindergarten to pick up her children from school. Just as she picked up her bag, she remembered that the task of picking up the two little ones from school had already been contracted by Mrs. Fu.

She was just about to leave work when she heard a shriek from the office.

"Oh my God, is that guy downstairs Mr. Fu?"

"Mr. Fu is so handsome in person, much more handsome than those fresh meat that are just popular."

"I envy Mr. Ye so much, how can you find such a handsome husband?"

“If you’re as pretty as Mr. Ye, you can find one too.”

“Boing boing, I can’t even compare to the hair strands of Mr. Ye

Ye Yunla got up and looked out the window, and saw a black luxury car parked under the company.

And Fu Beijue wearing a silver suit, leaning against the car door, he just stood motionless, can attract the eyes of every passerby.

This man, after making his marriage public, really doesn’t care about the impact at all.

Is he making such a big show to be photographed by the media?

She walked out of the office laughing as the staff joked playfully, “Mr. Ye, you’re off work so early for a date?”

HC Chapter 553

Ye Yunla coughed dryly.

Her eyes looked uncomfortably at her colleagues, “Let’s not work overtime today either, let’s go to the bar and relax, and let Tan Jing swipe my card to pay for the bill.”

“Wow, Mr. Ye, you’re so nice!”

“It’s so great that Mr. Ye is getting married and we, the staff, are enjoying the benefits along with him.”

“Mr. Ye, go on your date, we’ll be off soon.”

Amidst the simultaneous ambiguous looks from all of them, Ye Yunla fled as if she was taking the lift downstairs.

She had just walked in front of Fu Beijiu when she felt countless pairs of eyes staring at her

When she looked back, she saw that all the colleagues who were just in the office had followed her downstairs, each pretending to pass by, yet very obviously squinting at her

These people, how so gossipy.

However, Fu Beijue hooked her waist and said softly: “Tired of working today?”

“Don’t you do that” Ye Yunla opened his hand, “Get in the car first, say what you have to say in the car.”

Fu Beijue gave a low laugh.

This woman used to have a consistently cool face, and ever since the most intimate thing had happened between them, she was always shy and blushing at the slightest movement.

He really loved this look on her.

He was about to pull open the door of the passenger seat when his mobile phone suddenly vibrated.

Assistant Zheng’s voice came from the other end, “Mr. Fu, Fu Nanchuan is blocked by us at the Golden Court Bar, do you want to come over now?”

Fu Beijiu wrinkled his brows.

Yesterday, when he was trying on dresses, he had left Lara behind to go over and block people, but in the end, he still let Fu Nanchuan get away.

This time

He pursed his lips and said, "Keep a close eye on the people, I'm coming."

When he hung up the phone, Fu Beijiu was full of apologies, "I'm sorry, LaLa, I have some things to take care of."

Ye Yunla frowned, "Haven't you found Fu Chuan yet?"

"He's hiding." Fu Beijue tensed his lips, "But he won't be able to hide for long."

"Then you should go now." Ye Yunla looked serious, "I'm not worried about anything else, I'm just afraid he'll go after the children, the sooner we find him, the less danger the children will be in."

"I'll take you back first." Fu Beijue pulled open the car door.

Ye Yunla smiled and shook her head, "Since you have things to do, then I'll go to the bar with my colleagues for a drink."

Fu Beijue's eyes narrowed, "A bar?"

As soon as she saw this look on his face, Ye Yunla knew that this man was ready to start getting jealous again.

She hooked her lips and smiled, "Think of it as a bachelor party before the wedding, what, I'm not allowed to go?"

Fu Beijue raised his hand and pressed his coarse fingers onto her red lips, wiping away the lipstick, and whispered, "Of course you can go, I'll pick you up when I'm done."

"Then you go and find Fu Chuan quickly."

Ye Yunla pushed him into the car, and after his car disappeared down the road, a group of people hiding in the shadows immediately ran out.

Tan Jing said in surprise, "Mr. Ye, why aren't you going on a date with Mr. Fu?"

"Dating him is no more interesting than drinking with you guys, go, go to the Golden Court Bar, order whatever you want to drink, don't worry about the money."

Ye Yunla took dozens of employees to the bar.

This was the biggest bar in the neighbourhood and often companies would meet over here, the lobby was filled to capacity as soon as the employees of Lara Star Technology arrived.

Usually work was stressful, so once the crowd arrived at such an occasion, they let loose and drank, and the atmosphere was very nice.

For so many years, Ye Yunla's life had been all about work and children, and she rarely came out to drink and relax, and she had a good time.

HC Chapter 554

"Hey, Mr Ye, why is Mr Fu coming over too?"

Tan Jing pulled on Ye Yunla's arm, pointing over to the bar card table and said.

Ye Yunla followed Tan Jing's finger and saw a man sitting on the card table with his side face facing her, just by looking at his outline, she could tell that it was indeed Fu Beijue.

He had gone to look for Fu Chuan, but why was he at the bar?

Ye Yunla was about to get up when she suddenly noticed that there was an equally familiar figure sitting opposite Fu Beijue.

It was a woman with chestnut curly hair and a deep side face, a foreigner

Wasn't this the same woman who visited Fu Beiji in the ward that day, seemingly a psychiatrist named Catherine?

What are Fu Beijiu and Catherine doing here?

The doubt in Ye Yunla's eyes flickered away, then she got up and walked over.

"Mr. Ye, ask Mr. Fu to come over for a drink together." Tan Jing said with a squeeze of her eyebrows.

Although everyone was afraid of the aura emanating from Fu Beijue, they wanted to see Fu Beijue and Ye Yunla together even more, and it didn't matter if they were stuffed with a mouthful of dog food

Ye Yunla lost her smile: "Okay, I'll have him come over for a few drinks."

After she looked down and spoke to Tan Jing, when she looked up towards that side, she found that the man who had just been sitting there drinking was gone.

Only Catherine was left alone over there with a glass of wine

Where is Fu Beijue?

Ye Yunla walked over quickly and looked around, but she didn't see Fu Beijiu's figure either.

"Miss Ye, what a coincidence."

Catherine put down her wine glass, her gaze deep as she looked at Ye Yunla, the corners of her mouth curled with a smile if anything.

Ye Yunla frowned at her, "Where is the person you were drinking with just now?"

"Just now?" Catherine raised her eyebrows, "I have been drinking here alone, there was no one with me, Miss Ye is mistaken."

Ye Yunla's brow furrowed tighter.

If it was her alone, it was possible that she had misread it, but Tan Jing had clearly seen it too.

From that angle just now, Fu Beijue should have seen her too, so why did he leave without saying a word?

Ye Yunla said indifferently, "Why is Miss Catherine drinking here alone?"

"I'm too tired from work, so I took the opportunity to come over from work to relax." Catherine drank half a glass of wine, her eyes fell on Ye Yunla, her tone inexplicable, "Miss Ye, I really envy you, you are only two years older than me and you already have a happy family with four lovely children, Brother Beijue loves you so much, you are the happiest woman in this world."

Ye Yunla always felt that her words sounded strange.

She said lightly, "You will also meet the one you are destined to and have children of your own, it's nothing to envy."

"Is that so?"

Catherine bowed her head and drank bitterly from her glass of wine.

She was the one who had love, but that person lived in darkness, she could never have love of her own in this life

Ye Yunla was thinking about Fu Beijiu and was about to give him a call to ask what was going on when she heard a commotion coming from the entrance of the bar.

Suddenly a dozen bodyguards barged in and blocked all the exits of the bar.

Then, a man in a suit, surrounded by a crowd of people, walked in.

As soon as she saw the visitor, Catherine's fingers twitched and she pursed her lips, "I'm going to the bathroom."

She put down her glass of wine and left in a panic.

Ye Yunla's brow furrowed even tighter.

She had clearly seen Fu Beijue drinking with Catherine just now, so why was Fu Beijue coming in from outside the bar now?

The more she thought about it, the more bizarre it seemed.

HC Chapter 555

Fu Beijiu's cold eyes panned the entire bar.

Every exit here was blocked by bodyguards, so he didn't believe Fu Nanchuan could fly out.

At this moment, a beautiful figure appeared in his gaze.

He frowned, then walked over quickly, "La La, why are you here?"

"Didn't I say I came to the bar for a drink with my colleagues?" Ye Yunla pursed the corners of her lips and said, "Have you been here for a while, or have you just arrived?"

Fu Beijue didn't know why she was asking, but he still answered seriously, "I've been searching for Fu Chuan's trail in the car outside the bar, and I just came in here, why?"

Ye Yunla's nostrils sniffed and did not smell any alcohol on Fu Beijue.

And just now, she clearly saw that Fu Beijue had drunk at least two glasses of whisky

Could it be that she had really been mistaken?

When she was confused, a shriek suddenly came from the direction of the bar's bathroom.

Fu Beijiu's eyes were cold and he walked over quickly.

Ye Yunla frowned and followed.

"This is the ladies' bathroom, what are you guys trying to do?"

Catherine stood at the entrance of the women's bathroom, glaring at the three or four black-clad bodyguards standing in front of her with a face full of anger.

The lead bodyguard's voice was cold, "For the last time, get out of the way!"

"No!" Catherine braced her hand against the door and asserted herself, "If you dare to barge in, I will report you for indecent assault and molestation."

The three or four bouncers were furious.

But they didn't dare to barge in, in case there was a woman inside using the toilet, then they would really be jumping into the yellow river.

"Ta-da."

The sound of leather shoes buckling on the ground came, followed by Fu Beijiu's cold, penetrating voice: "Miss Catherine, are you sure you won't be let out?"

"I'm sure."

Catherine lifted her chin in a fearless manner.

"Bang!"

There was a sudden loud bang from the women's bathroom, the sound of a glass window being cracked.

Catherine let out a visible sigh of relief and smiled as she moved out of the way, "Since Mr. Fu has a fetish for going to the ladies' room, please come in."

Fu Beijiu's face turned blue: "Chase!"

Four or five bodyguards rushed into the ladies' room and jumped out of the window, and the sound of cars honking on the road soon rang out.

Catherine hooked up her lips, "Mr. Fu, I advise you to be merciful."

"I also advise you, don't keep company with the devil." Fu Beijiu coldly opened his lips, "Beware of drawing fire to yourself."

“Then let’s see who the fire actually burns on!”

After throwing down these words, Catherine carried her bag, stepped on her high heels and walked away.

Ye Yunla frowned and walked over, “Beijue, what’s going on, do Catherine and Fu Chuan know each other?”

“Know each other.” Fu Beijue said in a deep voice, “Catherine came to Haicheng to open a psychological clinic, I thought she was trying to expand the market, but now I realise that she was trying to cover for Fu Chuan.”

Ye Yunla’s brow knitted tightly.

This person, Fu Chuan, was just too difficult to deal with.

She paused and said, “Catherine and your mother seem to have a very good relationship, let your mother stay away from Catherine in the future.”

This matter, Ye Yunla did not say Fu Beijiu also knew.

His face was heavy, like a dark cloud sweeping in from the sky.

The year he was fifteen, he had lost his father because of Fu Nanchuan.

HC Chapter 556

Now, he did not want Fu Nanchuan to ruin the happiness that was within his grasp again.

The uneasiness in his heart grew stronger and stronger, making it impossible for Fu Beijiu to calm his mind.

When the two of them drove back to the Fu family home, the man’s face was still covered in a layer of cold frost.

Ye Yunla beckoned little Yinyin over.

The little girl read her mummy’s eyes and climbed onto Fu Beiji’s body on all fours, saying softly, “Daddy, are you unhappy today?”

The cold frost on Duke Fu’s face melted away with the speed visible to the naked eye.

He lifted the little girl up and put her on his shoulder, and said softly, “Daddy was just thinking about work, he’s not unhappy.”

Little Yinyin said with a smile on her face, “Daddy, I want to lift it up high!”

Little Yinyin’s silvery laughter was heard in the living room as Fu Beijiu lifted the little girl up and threw her in mid-air, then caught her with both hands.

“Daddy, daddy, I want it too!”

Fu Zi Ling was not afraid of death and rushed over and grabbed Fu Bei Jue’s trouser leg.

Perhaps it was because he was in such a sullen mood just now that Lord Fu Bei's patience also improved. He put little Yinyin down and said with hooked lips, "The four of you line up, one by one."

"Yeah, great!" Fu Ziling happily climbed on top of Duke Fu, "I love it when Daddy lifts me up, I'm so happy!"

Fu Beijiu was a little sweaty.

He had lived with his two sons for four years, but it was true that he never seemed to have any parent-child interaction with his sons

It was only slightly better after he met Ye Yunla.

The missing fatherly love of Jing'er and Little Yinyin needed to be made up, and why wouldn't Fu Ziyan and Fu Ziling need to be made up?

Fu Beijue tossed Fu Zi Ling up and caught him, and after a few rounds, he looked at Ye Jingzhan: "Come on, Jing'er, it's your turn."

Ye Jingzhan pulled at the corner of his mouth, "I don't like to lift high."

"There is no child who doesn't like to lift high."

Fu Beijue picked him up and threw him into the air without a second thought.

Ye Jingzhan was so scared that his eyes were closed.

Fu Ziling covered his stomach and laughed out loud, "I finally know what Ye Jingzhan is afraid of, he's afraid of heights!"

"I'm not afraid of heights."

Ye Jingzhan opened his eyes, only to be thrown up again, his face turning white with fear.

Ye Yunla also laughed.

No wonder Jing'er refused to go on the Ferris wheel when we went to the amusement park last time, it turned out that he was afraid of heights.

The boy had hidden his heart so well that she, his own mother, only now realised that her own son was afraid of heights.

It seems that in future, she will have to put more thought into her children.

Mrs Fu stood on the stairs of the first floor, a pleased smile floating at the corners of her mouth.

Her smile had just surfaced when her mobile phone vibrated. As soon as she saw the caller ID, Madam Fu's hand shook for fear that the people downstairs would hear the phone ringing, and she hastily pressed the phone off.

But the next second, the call came in again.

Mrs Fu took one look at the warm and harmonious scene downstairs, biting her lip tightly as she walked into the study to put the phone through.

“Most people in Hai Cheng have received the wedding invitation from the Fu family, why didn’t I receive it?” Fu Nanchuan’s voice carried a hint of gloom, “Am I not qualified to attend my own brother’s wedding?”

Madam Fu’s breath choked for a moment.

Bei Jue was now all over Hai Cheng looking for Fu Nanchuan’s whereabouts, how dare he ask to attend the wedding at this time?

She took a deep breath and said, “Nanchuan, hurry up and leave Haicheng, go as far away as you can, don’t appear in front of your brother again, just think of it as mum begging you, okay?”

“I only have one last request, and that is to attend my own brother’s wedding.” Fu Nanchuan said in a cold voice, “After the wedding, I will leave Haicheng immediately and will never come back for eternity, just such a small request, you can’t even grant me?”

HC Chapter 557

The wedding was approaching day by day.

These few days Ye Yunla and Fu Beijue had been busy with the wedding, until the day before the wedding, the company called.

“Mr Ye, today is the presentation of the results of the Yelitos project, do you want to attend in person?”

Originally, Tan Jing did not want to make this call, after all, the whole city knew about the fact that Mr Ye was getting married.

However, there were too many problems with this project, and she was afraid that something might happen if she went over to report the results

The company has easily developed to its present size, so it can’t somehow be stepped on.

Ye Yunla nodded and said, “I’m ready to leave now, we’ll meet up at the entrance of Yelitos.”

She had long since vacated her time today.

Yelitos and the Chuang family were looking for trouble, so she would go and take care of it one by one.

“Want me to go with you?” Fu Beijue said in a low, soft voice as he wrapped his arm around her waist.

Ye Yunla smiled, “A little thing, no need for you to accompany me, well, I’ll go first.”

But Fu Beijiu did not let go of her waist, his voice was dull, “Farewell kiss.”

Ye Yunla: “.....”

The two of them had shared the same bed every day for the past few days, hadn’t they kissed enough?

But this man had a rogue look on his face, as if he wouldn’t let go until she gave him a kiss.

She had no choice but to stand on tiptoe and give the man a sloppy kiss on his cheek

“Daddy mommy is not ashamed, actually kissing in the living room!”

Fu Ziling's voice, suddenly sounded in her ears.

Ye Yunla was startled, and when she looked down, she saw the four little ones standing beside her and Fu Beijiu at some point, their four pairs of eyes gleaming at them.

She instantly made a big blush: "Aren't you guys blowing up balloons"

"Hehehe, mummy seems shy" Fu Zi Ling burst out laughing, "Why isn't Mommy shy when she kisses me?"

This question, how can one answer Ye Yunla pulled the corner of her mouth, suddenly wanting to gag this boy Fu Ziling.

Ye Jingzhan said indifferently, "Second brother, didn't you say you wanted to compete with me in blowing up balloons, go on."

Fu Ziyang nodded, "I'll be the judge."

Little Yinyin applauded, "I'll cheer you on!"

Fu Zi Ling's desire to win was so strong that he immediately tossed the matter aside, and the four children went back to blowing up balloons.

Ye Yunla gave Fu Beijiu a fierce glare, "If you dare to do such a thing again regardless of the occasion, I'll never speak to you again."

Fu Beijiu touched his nose and coughed, "Wife, I was wrong, I won't dare to do it again."

The sound of "wife" seemed to carry an electric current, hitting Ye Yunla's heart directly.

Her heart melted into sweetness.

For the first time, she knew that the feeling of being in love was really so sweet

She pursed her lips and smiled, "I'll go and work first, see you tonight."

She carried her small leather bag and stepped on her high heels to go out.

Half an hour later, Ye Yunla arrived at her destination.

HC Chapter 558

As soon as she pushed open the car door and got down, Tan Jing greeted her and said with a very exaggerated expression, "Wow, Mr. Ye, I haven't seen you for a few days, you seem to have become beautiful again! A woman nourished by love looks springy, today's results report, we'll definitely succeed!"

Ye Yunla: "....."

Her personal feelings, is there any necessary correlation with work?

"Yo, isn't this Miss Ye, who is about to get married?"

A sneering voice came from behind her.

Ye Yunla looked back and saw Yue Yinghan pushing open the car door and coming down, an unknown gleam in those eyes.

Yue Yinghan walked over and said with his arms around his chest, "Miss Ye, it seems that Fu Beijue is not sincere with you either, otherwise why would he let you come out to run around for work the day before the wedding day?"

Ye Yunla's eyes were clear and she smiled, "Speaking of weddings, I suddenly remembered that I hadn't handed Miss Yue an invitation to the wedding."

Yue Yingliang grunted, "I'm not interested in attending a wedding."

"Feng Chengyu will come to the wedding." Ye Yunla pulled back her lips and smiled, "Unfortunately, it's likely that Miss Yue and Feng Chengyu will not meet."

These words were like a poke to Yue Ying Han's lungs, and her face turned red with anger.

Feng Chengyu

It was a taboo inside her!

But Ye Yunla, however, deliberately brought up this name to cancel her out.

She sneered, "Good, very good, when the results presentation meeting comes later, I would like to see how Miss Ye can still laugh."

After she finished, she flung her hand and left, the assistant and secretary behind her hurriedly followed.

"Miss Ye is awesome!" Tan Jing was full of admiration, "This Miss Yue is relying on the Zhuang Group and her own mother's patronage to go around acting like a bully, this is the first time I've seen her defeated."

Ye Yunla tugged at the corners of her lips.

She tossed Yue Yinghan aside and walked towards the Yelitos conference room.

This results presentation was mainly about the chip piece, and the members present were all in charge of this piece, and the person presiding over the meeting was the new regional president of Yelitos in Haicheng, Mr. Zhou.

"Thank you all for taking time out of your busy schedules to attend the first phase of the Yelitos results presentation" President Zhou said a few opening words before moving on to the main topic, "The chip design for this project was a joint collaboration between Lara Star Technology Company and the Zhuang Group, Miss Ye, Miss Yue, may I ask which one of you will report the results first?"

"I'll come first." Yue Yinghan said first, then ordered her assistant to open the presentation.

She looked at the big screen and methodically began to report, "The chip framework this time follows the traditional VerilogHDL language to build the modules" The final formation of the register transfer level, all modules were divided into countless small intervals, we, Chuang's group, completed eighty percent, the remaining twenty percent was completed by Lara Star Technology Company. Miss Ye, please proceed with your report."

Yue Ying Han hooked his lips in a smile and sat firmly in his seat.

The crowd in the conference room all showed smiles of approval, this proposal was novel in its construction and unique in its modules, something they could not have come up with even if they had racked their brains

And Tan Jing's face had completely changed, she almost pointed at Yue Ying Han's nose in anger and cursed.

The content of Zhuang's group's speech was all written by Mr. Ye who stayed up all night, how did Yue Yinghan have the face to say that it was the fruit of her labor

"There's nothing to be angry about." Ye Yunla patted the back of Tan Jing's hand and lowered her voice and said faintly, "It's also her ability to steal the chip design from my computer."

Tan Jing couldn't do so calmly, "So what should we do now?"

Ye Yunla gave her a reassuring look before looking at Yue Yinghan.

Yue Yinghan stared at Ye Yunla without fear, her eyes all smug and arrogant.

She had stolen the results of Rara's technology, so what?

Who let Ye Yunla not know what was good for her and had to go against the Zhuang Group?

"Miss Yue, your speech was wonderful." Ye Yunla gave a gentle clap of her hand, "However, I have a few questions I would like to understand."

HC Chapter 559

Ye Yunla's eyes were clear and her face was calm, without the slightest trace of anger after her programme had been stolen.

Looking at her like this, Yue Yinghan suddenly panicked.

Could it be that this little bitch Ye Yunla had a second, more perfect plan?

She steadied her mind for a moment and said, "This is not the time to ask questions, you should hurry up and report your work results."

"What is Miss Yue afraid of?" Ye Yunla curled her lips nicely, "Is she afraid that if I ask a question, she won't be able to answer it and reveal herself?"

"You, what are you babbling about!" Yue Ying Han's face turned blue with anger, "Ask whatever you want, I'm the one who has nothing to fear."

Ye Yunla clicked her knuckles and asked indifferently, "This chip scheme design, how many modules are there in total?"

Yue Ying Han's entire body froze.

She then only memorized the speech, outside of the speech, she didn't know anything

"Close to a thousand." The assistant reminded in a small voice at the side.

Yue Yingliang grunted: "Close to a thousand modules, the common labour of all our technical staff at Zhuang's Group."

Ye Yunla nodded and continued to ask, "This project is going to be together with the Internet of Things, may I ask if this is reflected in your scheme design?"

Yue Yinghan subconsciously looked at her assistant.

But her assistant was only slightly knowledgeable in this area, and she was completely unable to understand such profound logical points as which design reflected which concept.

The assistant lowered her head and avoided Yue Yinghan's gaze.

Yue Yinghan clenched her fist in anger and said coldly, "Miss Ye, you have so many questions that I refuse to answer."

"Miss Yue is unable to answer, right?" Ye Yunla slowly stood up, she pointed to the speech that had not yet been closed, her gaze clear and calm, "IoT is a new technology that is currently used in most chip designs in the market, in the application process, it is actually very complicated, from the initial chip design, it is necessary to embed this technology perfectly, firstly, the link between the cognitive level and the transmission level"

She stood in front of the screen, talking eloquently and calmly, exuding a convincing aura.

Everyone in the meeting room was attracted by this aura from her, and everyone listened to her speech with rapt attention.

This was clearly Zhuang's speech, but when Yue Yinghan was speaking, they only thought it was very good, very good, but they couldn't tell what was good about it.

But now, as Ye Yunla broke apart and rubbed each link and spoke carefully, they then understood that the program could still be designed in this way

Each step was perfect, and each link fully demonstrated the wisdom and ingenuity of the chip designer

After the presentation, thunderous applause rang out in the conference room.

"Miss Yue." Ye Yunla turned her eyes and said indifferently, "I would also like to ask one last question, the chip solution that I personally designed, why did it become the fruit of your Zhuang Group's labour?"

The eyes of the crowd fell on Yue Ying Han's face in unison.

Without Ye Yunla's speech to make a strong contrast, they wouldn't have believed a word of these words.

However, just now, Ye Yunla's speech was simply too convincing, unless it was a proposal designed by her own hands that she would be so familiar with and speak with such confidence, right?

On the contrary, Yue Yinghan's face already stank to high heaven.

HC Chapter 560

How she hadn't expected things to turn out the way they did.

"As the saying goes, like mother, like daughter." Ye Yunla smiled blandly, "If I can forgive Ms Zhuang, I can naturally forgive you as well, after all, you are still young."

As soon as these words came out, the crowd looked at Yue Ying Han with a little more contempt.

Previously, Zhuang Yuan had forced herself to attend Ye Lithos' celebration party, falsely accusing Ye Yunla of plagiarism at the celebration party, only to end up being the one to plagiarise herself.

This was something that everyone present had witnessed with their own eyes.

As a result, now, they actually witnessed such a similar thing once again

"You, you don't talk nonsense!" Yue Yinghan gritted her teeth, "I'm not a programmer, of course I can't tell these things clearly, if we let our company's technical director report the results, his performance won't be worse than yours."

Seeing that Yue Yinghan was still sophomoric, Ye Yunla was outright angry and laughed.

She said with a cold hook of her lips, "It seems that we can only let the police intervene to investigate properly and see from what path the proposal book in Miss Yue's computer was obtained."

Yue Ying Han was so angry that her internal organs were about to explode.

She wanted to retort, to throw dirty water on Ye Yunla's head, but after thinking about it, she couldn't figure out what she should do to reverse the situation

"Alright!" Mr. Zhou frowned and slapped the table, "A little thing, it's not necessary to make a scene like this."

Ye Yunla sat back in her chair and said blandly, "It is indeed a little matter, as long as Miss Yue apologizes, I can leave this matter alone."

Mr Zhou gave Yue Ying Han a look.

Yue Yinghan almost vomited blood, but she knew clearly that if the police intervened, then she would most likely be held legally responsible.

She gritted her teeth and said angrily, "I'm sorry Miss Ye, it's because I'm young and don't know what to do, please forgive me."

Ye Yunla's eyes were cold and elegant, as if she really did not take this matter to heart.

Mr. Zhou spoke in a slow voice, "Miss Ye is very talented and her attainments in chip design are beyond the reach of ordinary people, so in that case, let's leave the remaining 20% of the module design to Miss Ye."

Ye Yunla smiled again, "Mr. Zhou, have you read the contract?"

Mr Zhou frowned, "What's wrong?"

Did what he said now have anything to do with the contract?

“It’s clearly written in the contract that each of Lara Star Technology Company and the Zhuang Group is responsible for half of the project, my company has already exceeded the task, the remaining modules of the project have nothing to do with my company.” Ye Yunla said these words without softness or hardness, with a calm and self-possessed demeanour.

“That’s not right for Miss Ye to say.” Mr Zhou said with a stern face, “We are partners, we should help each other, since Miss Ye has the ability in this area, then she should shine in this area.”

“Heh!” Ye Yunla laughed lightly, “I worked so hard to complete all the work, and then Zhuang’s group carved out half of the profits, Mr Zhou, do you think I look like an ingrate?”

Yue Ying Han said angrily, “Ye Yunla, is that how you talk to General Manager Zhou?”

Mr. Zhou and her mother were friends, and she usually had to respectfully address her as Uncle Zhou, but Ye Yunla actually used such a tone to talk to Uncle Zhou!

Ye Yunla raised her eyebrows, “I was just calmly stating the facts, I didn’t have any personal emotions.”

She directly dragged her chair away and stood up, saying indifferently, “Mr. Zhou cancels the cooperation with the Zhuang Group, and I can complete the next twenty percent of the work. But if the Zhuang Group has to come in for a piece of the action, then there is no way I can complete the remaining twenty percent instead.”
