

HC Chapter 71

The sun shone in from the balcony and Ye Yunla rubbed her hair and sat up.

She fumed for three seconds, then got up to pack and wash up.

After dropping the children off at kindergarten today, she had to go to Xie's group for a new product launch and then to Fu's in the afternoon to talk about cooperation.

She pulled open her wardrobe and chose a professional style dress.

Just after she had changed, she heard noisy voices coming from downstairs.

"Who gave you permission to live here, you have three seconds to get out!"

Xie Zhirui stood in the living room, his face full of anger.

He had come over here today to pick up LaLa to attend the launch of Xie's group.

Who would have thought that as soon as he entered, he would see a man wearing only his trousers lying on the sofa, huffing and puffing.

He was instantly furious.

And Feng Chengyu was also furious.

He had slept in the study last night, but it was overrun with mosquitoes, so he had no choice but to come and settle down on the sofa in the living room.

He was a richly raised nobleman, so he couldn't get used to sleeping on the sofa at all, and only when it was almost dawn did he manage to fall asleep.

As a result, he had just entered dreamland when he was woken up by a man's angry voice.

Feng Chengyu opened his eyes and saw Xie Zhirui, who was dressed in a suit and was a good-looking man, and his eyes narrowed.

He leaned back on the sofa and hummed lightly, "I'm Little Lara's man, so how come I can't live here?"

Xie Zhirui's face turned blue with anger, "Don't tarnish LaLa's reputation here, if you don't get lost, then I'll have security come over and throw you out."

"Humph, if you throw me out, little LaLa won't let you go." Feng Chengyu said with a big grin, "And you, who are you to barge in without knocking and without permission, this is illegal trespassing, according to the law you should be detained for at least fifteen days."

Xie Zhirui said angrily, "This is my house, do I still need your permission to enter?"

"Of course, I'm the man of the house!" Feng Chengyu shook his head and swore his sovereignty, suddenly, he snapped, "You said, this is your house?"

Last night, little LaLa seemed to say that this was her grandmother's house, could this man .....

Feng Chengyu fiercely pulled the blanket over and wrapped it around his naked body.

It's over, he actually put harsh words to his first cousin .....

Xie Zhirui was really furious.

Even though LaLa already had two children, to him, LaLa was still just a simple little girl.

Suddenly seeing strange men lying naked on the sofa in Rara's house, could he not be angry?

Xie Zhirui's two lines of sight nailed Feng Chengyu's brow like prisms of ice.

Feng Chengyu, who had just been so arrogant, realised that he had made a big mistake, and he got up and sneaked off to the study.

Upstairs, Ye Yunla had already come down.

She said in surprise, "Cousin, why are you here so early?"

Feng Chengyu giggled.

Sure enough, it was cousin!

HC Chapter 72

Ye Yunla didn't even raise an eyebrow and said indifferently, "His name is Feng Chengyu, a friend he met abroad, he just arrived in Haicheng yesterday and was homeless, so I took him in for the night."

Seeing her frank face, Xie Zhirui let out a sigh of relief and said in a light voice, "He said he was the male owner of this place."

"No, I didn't say that!" Feng Chengyu scowled and explained weakly, "First cousin, you heard wrong ..... I mean, it's not good for me to be dressed like this as a guest, I, I'll go and change my clothes ....."

He slinked away.

Xie Zhirui said in a serious tone, "Yara, you're a single mother, it's not good to leave a man at home for the night, if he has nowhere to go, you can let him sleep at Xie's house for the night."

Ye Yunla nodded good-naturedly, "First cousin, don't worry about me, I'll go to Xie's after I drop the kids off at kindergarten."

Feng Chengyu's head came up and shouted, "Little Yara, you go and work, I'll take Jing'er and Yinyin to school."

Previously when she was abroad, Ye Yunla had often left the two children in Feng Chengyu's care, and although this guy usually didn't seem too reliable, he was extraordinarily attentive to the two children.

She placed her school bag at the door and instructed, "You watch them enter the kindergarten before you leave, do you hear me?"

"Oh, LaLa, I'm not a three-year-old child, I don't need your advice.

Only then did Ye Yunla carry her bag and get into Xie Zhirui's car.

Just as the car drove out of the villa area, Ye Yunla was keenly aware that another car was following her.

Before she could say anything, Xie Zhirui said, “LaLa, when I came in this morning, this car was parked at the entrance of the district, and now as soon as I left, he followed us, it seems to be following us.”

“Someone followed me yesterday when I picked up the kids from school.” Ye Yunla’s face was grave, “It’s only been just a few days since I returned to China, who could I have offended?”

“Apart from Ye Xue Ying, who else could it be?” Xie Zhirui said coldly, “You just got twenty-five percent of the shares of the Ye Group, which is the same as biting off a piece of meat from that mother and daughter, how will they let you off easily?”

Ye Yunla wrinkled her brow, her heart a solemn cold.

“Don’t be afraid, I’ll arrange some good bodyguards for you after the launch.” Xie Zhirui said, “I will also send a few people to keep an eye on the kindergarten, I will not let the Ye family hurt the two children.”

Ye Yunla nodded, “First cousin, thank you.”

The car behind her didn’t have the slightest intention of giving up and kept following not too far or too close.

When they arrived at Xie’s Group, Ye Yunla got out of the car, which was parked in front of Xie’s.

Xie Zhirui gave Ye Yunla a placating look and led her upstairs.

This time, Xie’s new product launch was a huge event, held in the lobby on the ground floor, and before it was time, reporters from all walks of life had already arrived.

Ye Yunla went to the lounge first.

Just as she entered, she saw Xie Siqi fiddling with a small robot: “Dad, I told you that you were fooled by Ye Yunla, this product is not intelligent at all, it doesn’t understand anything I say, won’t it make everyone laugh at the launch event later?”

Xie Heng looked at her coldly, “Don’t talk nonsense if you don’t understand, stay aside.”

“Why don’t I understand?” Xie Siqi coldly snorted, “It’s just an intelligent home robot, I don’t know how to develop it, can I still not know how to use it?”

“First cousin, you really don’t understand.”

Ye Yunla walked in on her high heels.

She curled her lips into a smile and held the small robot, which was more than twenty centimetres tall, and said, “Little Xie, Little Xie, sing a children’s song to listen to.”

The little robot immediately played a song.

“Cousin, this is a product developed by Xie’s group, how can you not know to call out the robot’s name twice before issuing commands?” Ye Yunla spoke with a faint smile, “How did cousin sit in the position of marketing manager when she didn’t even understand her own family’s products thoroughly?”

Xie Siqi’s face instantly pulled down.

HC Chapter 73

“I’m the eldest Miss Xie, I’m the marketing manager, who dares to say anything?”

Xie Siqi yelled back in annoyance.

Ye Yunla’s face was light as she said, “Of course I won’t say anything, I just think it’s better to do your homework first before questioning others. Great Uncle, the launch is about to start, let’s go out.”

Xie Heng nodded his head and led Ye Yunla towards the launch.

Xie Siqi was so angry that she kicked her foot on the table, but the table was so hard that her toes were falling off in pain.

Xie’s Group had played a gimmick with this new product launch, using the title of a new concept smart product to attract a lot of people.

Even Fu Ziyang, who had just landed in Haicheng last night and hadn’t finished getting jet lag this morning, decided to come to the launch first.

Now that the smart market is blossoming everywhere and the Fu Group is planning to invest in this industry, Fu Ziyang wanted to see how other companies play first.

The assistant took the invitation and escorted him into the venue, sitting in the last row.

No sooner had the two of them sat down than Ye Yunla appeared in the spotlight following Xie Heng.

Under the countless flashes, Ye Yunla’s skin was illuminated in a crystal-clear way, and her whole body looked like it was glowing.

Fu Ziyang saw her right away.

This woman, he had seen her in photos, he knew she was beautiful.

But he had never imagined that she was this beautiful.

It was said that beautiful women were not naturally easy to mess with, but why, when he looked at this woman, did he feel an urge to get closer?

As soon as Ye Yunla appeared, the whole room was in an uproar.

After the number one beauty in Haicheng returned alive, there had been no stopping the discussion about her on the internet.

The reporters had originally come here to fight for the headline news on the business page, but once they saw Ye Yunla, they decided to fight for the headline news on the entertainment page as well.

As long as there was the name Ye Yunla, there was no fear that no one would click in for the news.

“Miss Ye, may I ask why you are at the Xie Group’s new product launch?”

“Miss Ye, may I ask in what capacity you are appearing here?”

“Miss Ye, you were once the heir to the Ye Group but now you no longer return to the Ye family, can you share with us why?”

“Miss Ye, .....

One question after another came like snowflakes.

Ye Yunla faintly curled her lips in a smile.

She picked up the nearest microphone and said lightly, “Hello fellow journalists, I am Ye Yunla, the chip designer of Xie Group’s new product, the integrated chip embedded in this smart product was designed by me personally .....

This chip incorporates the traditional integrated circuit model, on top of that .....

Her voice rang out quietly in the meeting hall.

The dry expertise flowed out of her mouth, making people inexplicably want to listen closely. Some female journalists who were not interested in technology were able to roughly figure out the concept behind the operation of this new product .....

“This smart product is designed to make our lives more convenient, and in the future, Xie’s group will keep updating the chip so that everyone can fully experience the convenience of life brought by the internet era .....” Ye Yunla smiled, “This intelligent robot will be available in a week, and is looking for channel partners, you are welcome to contact Xie Group’s marketing department, thank you.”

She put down the microphone and bowed to everyone present.

The scene resounded with thunderous applause.

Fu Ziyang did not applaud, his eyes narrowed and his gaze sharply examined Ye Yunla.

This woman was, indeed, outstanding.

HC Chapter 74

No wonder he could make his mother so scornful.

Perhaps it was because of his natural blood ties, he could not hate this woman.

But as soon as he thought that the purpose of this woman’s return was to stir up the Ye family, then he could only suppress that good feeling in his heart.

His mother had given him life, so he had to protect her as well.

As Ye Yunla stood on the stage, she always felt that a sharp gaze was watching her.

She followed the gaze, but all she could see was a crowd of people, and when she tried to look carefully, a microphone disliked her.

“Miss Ye, everyone is curious to know what is going on with you and the Ye family now, can you share?”

After the previous incident had made such a big fuss and then it was left unresolved, the crowd of eaters could not hold back their curiosity for a long time.

Ye Yunla retracted her gaze and replied calmly and freely, "I am the daughter of the Ye family, and that will never change. The family has already transferred twenty-five percent of the shares to my name, I am now the third largest shareholder of the Ye Group and will be involved in the management of the Ye Group."

At these words, the whole audience was in an uproar.

Earlier, when the Ye family and Ye Yunla were fighting across the internet, they thought that the Ye family would remove this daughter's name.

Unexpectedly, it was actually the Ye family who compromised one step and transferred the shares to Ye Yunla.

So, in fact, the Ye family wasn't as heartless as the netizens thought?

The moment the reporters were stunned, Ye Yunla was already being protected by Xie Heng and Xie Zhirui, and she took advantage of the reporters' inattention to turn around and walk off the stage.

In fact, she did not like to attend such occasions, but in order to survive, she could only allow herself to appear under the flashing lights frequently.

On the matter of the change in Ye's Group's shareholding, she could only take the initiative to pick it apart.

Otherwise, Ye Xueying would have sung in unison with Xu Yuying, portraying herself as a kind and pure white lotus and gaining the sympathy of netizens.

But now that she had told the netizens about it in advance, then the smart netizens would definitely find out that the shares originally belonged to her.

The other half of Ye Xue Ying's shares would become the target of the netizens' attacks.

After attending the launch event, Ye Yunla was relaxed.

She was just about to go to the lounge when a young female secretary came up to her, "Miss Ye, Mr. Xie wants you to wait for him in the conference room over there, he has a few details to discuss with you."

Ye Yunla didn't think too much about it and followed the female secretary towards the other end of the corridor.

Everyone was in the lobby for the launch event, there was not much on this side, the female secretary pushed open the door of a conference room and led Ye Yunla inside.

"You can sit down for a while, I'll go and pour you a cup of coffee."

The female secretary walked to the door and closed the conference room door gently, then, took her mobile phone and dialed out a phone number.

"Miss Ye, the matter you ordered has been done ....."

She stood in the corner and made the call, completely unaware that behind her, stood a four-year-old child.

Fu Ziyán's eyebrows knitted up tightly.

The launch hadn't ended yet, and he saw this woman leave and followed her.

He didn't know why he had followed it here .....

But unexpectedly, he heard such words .....

There was only one big family in Haicheng surnamed Ye, and this person called the person on the other end of the phone Miss Ye, so that would be his mother, Ye Xueying.

Why did his mother have someone trick Ye Yunla into coming to this conference room?

HC Chapter 75

Fu Ziyán stood at the end of the corridor, his face indifferent.

This woman had brought disaster to the Ye family four years ago, and four years later she had frequently struck out at the Ye family, so it was reasonable for her mother to want to teach this woman a lesson.

It was fine to let her mother take her anger out.

I hope that after this incident, this woman will be more peaceful and not always antagonise her mother.

Fu Ziyán turned around and walked away.

On the other hand, there were four strong men walking towards him.

"This job is really a beautiful job, the employer said that woman is the number one beauty in Hai Cheng, how many magnificent noble sons can't catch the beauty, actually can fall into our hands ....."

Fu Ziyán's footsteps fiercely stopped.

He raised his head and looked at the four people walking over.

The four men were all over one meter eight tall, each with a cross face and an unkind gleam in their eyes.

No matter what these men did when they entered the office, that woman, Ye Yunla, would not be able to gain any advantage.

The four men didn't even notice that there was a child standing in the corner and continued to lower their voices and talk.

"I just saw that woman at the meeting, her legs are so long and her breasts are so big."

"Stop speculating here, our main task is to kill that woman, otherwise we won't get the five million behind us."

"It's just a matter of killing a woman, how simple it is, I want to have a good time before I kill her anyway ....."

Fu Ziyán's eyes turned grim in this instant.

Mother actually wanted Ye Yunara's life!

No matter what, Ye Yunla was her mother's own sister, how could she do something so cruel.

Fu Ziyang took a step back, took out his phone and found a number to dial .....

Ye Yunla sat in the conference room, bored, watching the news on her phone.

The speech she had just made at the conference hall had made the news.

Xie's group's new products hadn't attracted much attention, and the netizens were obviously more interested in her becoming the third largest shareholder of Ye's group.

"Who said before that the Ye family's mother and daughter were snakes and scorpions and came out to be beaten!"

"That's right, if you really have a heart of gold, how could you give up half of your shares? If it were me, I would never spit out what I ate."

"The shares in Ye Xueying's hand originally belonged to Ye Yunla, and when Ye Yunla came back, Ye Xueying only gave up half of her shares, and she didn't return her status as the heir! Twenty-five percent of the shares, worth more than one billion, your ancestors combined could not have made that much money!"

"So miserable or Ye Yunla, persecuted and pretending to be dead for four years, and still not getting back what belongs to her when she returns! It's said that those shares were Ye Yunla's real mother's inheritance and ended up in the hands of her stepmother, hey, I'm anxious for her."

"If Ye Xueying had some conscience, she should have spat out the shares in her hands!"

"Unfortunately, she has no conscience!"

"....."

Ye Yunla flipped through the messages on the internet and the corners of her mouth curved up slightly.

Now, it was useless even if Ye Xueying was selling misery.

One day, she would make Ye Xueying take the initiative to return her mother's inheritance.

Just then, there was a sudden knock on the door of the conference room.

Ye Yunla put her phone away and said in a light voice, "Come in."

Four big, brawny men entered in a single file.

She frowned and was about to ask what was going on when the last man to enter, closed the door to the conference room.

The four men, walking in a semi-encircling formation, approached her.

Ye Yunla's sense of smell was always keen, and she already sensed that she might have stumbled into some kind of trap.

She stood up alertly and gripped the glass of water in her hand.

“Yeyunara is it?”

HC Chapter 76

The pugnacious man in the lead spoke with an evil smile and asked.

“Who are you and what do you want from me?”

Ye Yunla did not move and continued to back away.

The four big men approached step by step, “We heard that Miss Ye is the number one beauty in Hai Cheng, we have come to see how Miss Ye actually sits on the throne of the number one beauty.”

The big man in front raised his hand violently and yanked on Ye Yunla’s wrist.

She was prepared for this and smashed the glass water cup with a thud, cutting across the man’s wrist with a sharp piece of glass.

“Stinking female cousin, how dare you backstab me!” The brawny man was furious and rushed over to him with quick steps.

Ye Yunla grabbed his arm and gave him a fierce over-the-shoulder slam.

This man was too heavy, estimated to be two hundred pounds, and it took almost all her strength to slam the man to the ground.

“This twat actually knows kung fu!”

The three remaining brawny men looked at each other and laughed coldly, fortunately they had been prepared.

Saying that, the man standing behind took advantage of Ye Yunla’s inattention and snapped a bottle of powder out of his pocket and sprinkled it over to her side.

Ye Yunla only felt a strange fragrance hit her.

Before she could react to what it was, both legs suddenly started to get weak and her head became a little dizzy.

“Heh, stinky bitch, hot enough, it’s just a pity that you’ve met us brothers.”

The big man who had been thrown to the ground climbed up and sneered as he approached Ye Yunla.

Ye Yunla held on to her breath and kept backing up .....

The big man quickly stepped forward and twisted her chin as he said with an evil smile, “I wanted to give you a painful time, but who told you to be so insensitive, so don’t blame us. A female cousin like you, you should have been fucked by many men, then be good and cooperate with us, otherwise, I will let you know what it means to be worse than death!”

Ye Yunla’s eyes went cold.

All her strength was stored up in her knees and she gave a hard thrust.

The big man let out a howl of pain.

The four men finally realised that Ye Yunla was not a good fighter at all.

Trying to get this woman to be bullied meekly was simply not possible!

They looked at each other and decided to stop playing these tricks and just take this woman away and finish her off!

Ye Yunla's reaction was already very slow.

She felt like she would be planted on the ground in the next second.

But no.

Little Jing'er and Little Yinyin were still waiting for her, she couldn't be ruined like that.

"It was Ye Xueying who sought, sought you out, right ....." Her tongue was in knots as she opened her mouth, and she braced herself for a breath, "How much did she pay you guys, I, I'll pay ten times!"

"If you were better behaved, perhaps we could still talk, but, you are too ungrateful, today you must die!"

A few big men came over with ruthless faces, their bodies exuding a murderous aura.

Ye Yunla's heart sank a little.

She originally thought that Ye Xueying wanted to find someone to ruin her, just like five years ago, to find a man to have sex with her.

But unexpectedly, it was to kill her.

Her two arms were grabbed, her mouth was stuffed with cloth and then a cap was put on her.

Immediately afterwards, they got a wheelchair from somewhere and held her down in it.

The drugs took effect and she didn't have any strength to struggle at all.

She was pushed out of this building as a disabled person, and the security guards would probably just let her go .....

Ye Yunla was really a bit desperate.

HC Chapter 77

Four burly men pushed the wheelchair outside.

Just as they pulled open the door to the conference room, they saw a dozen security guards coming this way down the corridor.

"Who are you people?"

The head of the security guards walked over with his baton.

The burly man in the lead said calmly, "This is our young lady, her leg was injured in a fall, we are picking her up."

Ye Yunla tried to open her mouth to speak, but her mouth was stuffed and not a word could come out.

She wanted to struggle to cause a movement, but found that her bones were soft and she could not even move her fingers a bit.

But, this was her only chance!

She rolled over and tried to roll out of the wheelchair, but was held down by the big man by the shoulders.

The big man remained calm: "If there's nothing else, we'll leave first."

The head of security really didn't see anything wrong and let her go straight away.

Ye Yunla's heart plunged straight into the abyss of despair .....

"Stand still."

Just then, a low, cold child's voice rang out.

Fu Ziyang walked out from behind the security guard.

He had purposely gone to get the security guards to come over, but he didn't expect that this group of losers would not care about anything, so he could only step in himself.

He walked over coldly and raised his hand to take the hat off Ye Yunla's head.

The big burly man directly grabbed his hand and said coldly, "Little brat, our family's young lady has a noble status, not something you can touch."

Fu Ziyang raised his head and swept a cold eye across.

His eyes were covered with coldness, and he had learnt the essence of Fu Beiji by nine points.

The one meter eight tall man was so hardened by this look that he let go of his hand.

Fu Ziyang directly took off Ye Yunla's hat.

A woman with a cloth stuffed in her mouth appeared in front of everyone's eyes, and it was clear what was going on .....

And the light came in vain, and a child just burst into Ye Yunla's line of sight.

She opened her eyes extremely wide, looked at the child and murmured out, "Jing'er ....."

Why did Jing'er come here?

But Fu Ziyang didn't even look at her and said coldly to the security guard, "This is a deliberate kidnapping, you guys take care of it."

He finished speaking and left, leaving only a back.

Ye Yunla came to her senses with a jolt.

This voice was not Jing'er's.

But why did this child look so much like Jing'er?

Before she could think more, a dozen security guards were already tangled up with four big brawny men.

Although the men were tall, they had no weapons in their hands, so the security guards easily tied up the four men with their electric batons.

At that moment, Xie Zhirui arrived in a hurry.

"Yara, what's going on?"

Ye Yunla didn't have the strength to speak and shook her head feebly.

The head of security hastened to clarify the situation.

"It must be Ye Xueying's doing!" Xie Zhirui's face turned blue with anger, "Counting on you again and again, do you really think that all our Xie family members are dead? I'll take you to the hospital first. This time, I won't let the Ye family off the hook!"

Xie Zhirui carried Ye Yunla to the car and drove quickly to the hospital.

The good news was that she had only been hit by some fainting-inducing medicine, and would slowly heal after taking some medicine.

Lying in the hospital bed, Ye Yunla's face kept appearing before her eyes.

If it wasn't for this child today, she would have been killed.

It was that child who had saved her.

HC Chapter 78

.....

Ye family.

Ye Xue Ying viciously smashed something to the ground.

"A bunch of trash!"

Her chest rose and fell violently in anger, wishing she could smash everything in the room.

How could it be that they couldn't make it work again and again?

It was just a woman, was it so hard to kill a woman?

"Alright Xue'er, don't be angry." Xu Yuying walked over and patted her back, "This time it was at Xie's building, with the security guards around, it was indeed difficult to do anything, so I can't blame them. Now we should think hard about how to gag those four men, lest we shake our Ye family out."

Ye Xue Ying snorted coldly, "If they want to be extinct, feel free to shake the Ye family out!"

When she found these people, she had controlled their children first, forgive these people for not daring to speak out.

She spoke coldly, "Ye Yunla, the little bitch, has too hard a life, she must use some extraordinary means. I'm really afraid that one day she'll find out about the two children, and by then, I'll really be completely finished."

"Don't mess yourself up yet, during this period of time, you should not go to the Fu family or to the Fu Group for the time being ....." Xu Yuying said slowly, "Never let Ye Yunla find out about your relationship with the Fu family ....."

Ye Xueying nodded, she was about to speak when her phone vibrated.

She glanced at the caller ID, Fu Ziyang.

Her eyes fiercely let out wild joy.

Even though Fu Ziyang was the kindest person in the Fu family to her, but for so many years, Fu Ziyang had never taken the initiative to call her!

With a feeling of excitement, she put the phone through.

"Mother, I arrived in Haicheng last night, is it convenient to meet now?"

Ye Xueying nodded desperately, "Ziyang, I'm so happy that you called, I'm going to Fu's house to look for you."

She hung up the phone and was about to go and change her clothes.

Xu Yuying admonished beside her, "Xue'er, Ziyang is the future heir to the Fu family, you must hold on to this child to your death. Take a step back, even if you can't hide what happened back then, as long as Ziyang is around, no one will do anything to you, do you understand what I mean?"

Ye Xueying nodded, "Mom, just rest assured, Ziyang especially respects me, he obeys my words and never dares to disobey."

She changed into a new dress before driving to the Fu family.

She was the mother of the Fu family's two young masters and came to the Fu family every few days, and the villa's servants were all very familiar with her.

"Miss Ye."

As soon as she came down, the servants spoke in unison and greeted her respectfully.

Ye Xue Ying enjoyed this feeling very much.

Unfortunately, the only people who knew that she was the real mother of the young master of the Fu family were these servants of the Fu family.

How good it would be if the whole world knew that she had given birth to two children for the Fu family .....

Ye Xueying sighed and walked quickly into the villa.

She knew that Fu Beijiu was not at home during the day, so she was extra comfortable and sat down on the sofa in the living room in a familiar way.

And at that moment, Fu Ziyang appeared at the stairway.

Ye Xue Ying's face was piled up with a customary fake smile: "Zi Yan, come over here and let mum take a look, I haven't seen you for over a month, you seem to have lost weight, the foreign diet should be very uncomfortable ....."

She walked over and reached out to touch Fu Ziyang's face.

Fu Ziyang coldly dodged.

He stood on the steps, keeping his eyes on the same level as Ye Xueying.

He tensed his jaw and spoke coldly, "Mother, I'll ask you a few questions, and you answer truthfully."

Ye Xue Ying's heart thudded.

She knew that Fu Ziyang did not actually like her, but, Fu Ziyang had an extremely good upbringing and had always treated her, his mother, with respect, and had never spoken to her in such a tone.

But now, Fu Ziyang's tone was cold and his eyes were cold and intense, just like Fu Beijiu.

She swallowed a mouthful of air raw and spoke, "Ziyang, what do you want to ask?"

"Did mother want to kill Ye Yunla?"

HC Chapter 79

Fu Ziyang's pair of eyes stared coldly at Ye Xueying.

She felt a cold chill creeping up from her backbone, creepy.

For the first time, she felt that Fu Ziyang was even more terrifying than Fu Beijiu.

She bit her white lips and slowly spoke: "Ziyang, did you misunderstand something ..... Ye Yunla and I are close sisters, even if I hate her, there is no way I would kill her, I ....."

"Mother, since I've come to ask you, it means that I already know certain facts." Fu Ziyang walked down the steps and said word by word, "I just want to hear a word of truth, why did mother kill?"

Ye Xue Ying had never felt such fear before.

Even when Fu Beijue had spoken coldly to her, he had never stared at her with such eyes.

Why would a child who was only four years old have such a killing power?

She pushed down the trepidation in her heart and said slowly, "Ziyang, it's not me ..... I never wanted to hurt Ye Yunla, it was your grandfather who couldn't tolerate her ....."

“Zi Yan, do you know that Ye Yunla forced your grandfather to take out twenty five percent of the shares, from now on, Ye Yunla is the third largest shareholder of the Ye Group and has the right to run the Ye Group. She has returned to China this time to take revenge on the Ye family, and the Ye Group will definitely be played bankrupt when it falls into her hands.”

“Ye’s is your grandfather’s life’s work, how can he tolerate being trampled on, so your grandfather asked me to find someone to do away with Ye Yunla ..... Zi Yan, I’m really not as vicious as you think, I also did this to make your grandfather feel relieved ..... I’m sorry, I was wrong, Ziyan, can you forgive mum?”

Fu Ziyan narrowed his eyes and looked at her coldly, “You mean that grandfather wanted to kill his own daughter?”

Ye Xue Ying nodded her head forcefully, “In fact, your grandfather didn’t want to either, he was forced to do it by Ye Yunla ..... Ziyin, if you can help us get back those shares that were taken away, your grandfather will stop.”

Fu Ziyan’s cold eyebrows lightly restrained.

He took a step and sat down on the sofa, his aura so outward that people did not dare to approach.

After a few seconds had passed, he spoke in a cold voice, “The conflict between Grandpa and Ye Yunla has nothing to do with Mother, as well as vicious crimes like today’s, which I do not want Mother to commit again. If there is a next time, don’t blame me for disowning a murderer as a mother.”

Ye Xueying bit her lip to death.

She had, surprisingly, been threatened by this little bastard.

She had worked so hard to bring up these two little bastards, but in the end, she had raised two white-eyed wolves.

Fu Zi Ling had been giving her looks all day long.

And now, Fu Ziyan has even started threatening her .....

She was their mother, how could these two little bastards treat her like this?

Ye Xue Ying’s chest rose and fell violently in anger.

She could no longer hold back her anger and gritted her back teeth and spoke, “Fu Ziyan, I gave birth to you and raised you, how dare you say such treacherous words?”

Fu Ziyan looked at her out of shape and was filled with disappointment.

He really could not understand why such a woman would be his and Fu Ziling’s mother.

He had fantasised about motherly love like many children did, but Ye Xue Ying could not give it to him.

She was always pleasing and flattering to him, there was no love in those eyes.

This woman only wanted the power and status of the Fu family, and he and Fu Ziling were her tools to achieve her goal.

Even if he had realised this long ago, he had no way to expel this woman from his life.

Because, this woman had given birth to him.

Because, his flesh and blood body, was given by this woman.

Because, without this woman, there would be no him.

HC Chapter 80

“Mother, I don’t want your hands to be stained with sinful blood, that’s why I said these words to you.”
Fu Zi Yan pursed his thin lips, “I’m sorry, it’s because I spoke too disproportionately, please don’t take it to heart, mother.”

Ye Xue Ying let out a fierce sigh of relief.

She was afraid that Fu Ziyan would open his mouth and kick her out.

Luckily, the little bastard didn’t dare.

She eased her emotions and spoke in a light voice, “Don’t worry, I will never lay a deadly hand on Ye Yunla again.”

She had just sent someone to deal with Ye Yunla today, and Fu Ziyan had found out about it, which could only mean that someone in the Fu family was watching her.

These things that affected her image, she absolutely could not order them personally anymore.

Otherwise, Fu Ziyan’s attitude towards her would get worse and worse.

“Why are you here again!”

Fu Zi Ling walked down from the first floor, and once she saw Ye Xue Ying, her entire small face was written with unhappiness.

Ye Xue Ying’s emotions, which had easily calmed down, were once again enraged.

But she knew that she had already lost her temper for the first time and must not lose her temper a second time.

She squeezed out a small smile and said, “Little Ling Ling, I heard from the housekeeper that you have been studying behind closed doors these few days, how is your learning going?”

“What does it have to do with you?” Fu Ziling looked at her with disdain, “Hurry up and disappear from my house, I don’t want to see you again for a second.”

Fu Ziling’s attitude was extraordinarily unrestrained and arrogant as Fu Beiji was not at home.

Butler Qiao lowered his head, not daring to say a word, because he knew that the person the young master hated most was this Miss Ye.

Every time Miss Ye came to the Fu family, the young master would throw a tantrum.

Ye Xue Ying stiffened and said, “Little Ling Ling, I know you don’t like me, I’ll leave now, don’t be angry.”

She stood up, and after a pause added, "Zi Yan, the matter that mother asked you to do, I hope you can help solve it as soon as possible."

She finished speaking, and only then did she leave the Fu family.

Fu Ziling fell back onto the sofa and spoke discontentedly, "Big brother, what kind of help did that woman ask you for again?"

"She's our mother, not that woman, so show some respect." Fu Ziyang said coldly, "Let me ask you, have you met with Ye Yunla recently?"

At the mention of the name Ye Yunla, the coldness on Fu Ziling's face instantly dissipated.

He sat on the sofa, wiggling his two short legs, and his soft, sticky voice rang out, "Auntie Yunla came to our house last night, and made me super delicious noodles, I really like Auntie Yunla, if only she could live in our house ....."

Fu Ziyang's face changed, "You said she came to our house yesterday?"

"Yeah, what's wrong?" Fu Ziling blinked, "It was dad who brought Auntie Yunara here."

Fu Ziyang's heart sank.

No wonder Grandpa had gone after Ye Yunla.

This woman, she was really pervasive and defenceless.

It was surprising that she had even hitched a ride on Daddy's line .....

"Big brother, what's wrong?" Fu Ziling came over, "I suddenly thought of something, you said, if we let Daddy and Auntie Yunla get married, then won't I be able to see Auntie Yunla everyday?"

Fu Ziyang frowned coldly, "Do you know who Ye Yunla is, and you dare to let her marry into our Fu family?"

"I don't care who she is, I just like her!"
