

HC Chapter 731

He said indifferently, "Third Elder, help me settle these two down first, and wait for me to recover from my injuries before we talk about anything else."

The Third Elder gladly accepted the order and let the Fourth Elder go and make the arrangements.

"You can also go out." Terebei faintly gave the order of expulsion.

The Third Elder's gaze swept towards the bathroom and lowered his voice, "This is the information I found out about some spies, I suggest you read it now."

Terebei's eyes narrowed as he opened the document.

On the first page were the names of a dozen spies, and in the middle he saw the name of a Chinese man, Ye Yunla.

"This Ye Yunla, is the Oriental beauty who has been frequenting the H-lands recently ....." The Third Elder whispered, "She is a special forces spy sent from China to gain access to our resources in this area ....."

"Understood." Terebei closed the file coldly, "Get out."

The Third Elder's eye waves flashed.

It was only necessary to mention one or two things about this, and it was not his part to decide whether Terebei believed it or not.

He hung his head and slowly exited the room.

After talking to the children on the phone in the bathroom, Yvonne was about to come out when she saw someone outside.

She could hear voices talking outside, but couldn't make out what was being said.

She waited for the last person to go out before she came out of the bathroom.

Terry North kept his eyes on her and he saw the little hickey that showed on her neck.

It was left over from when the two had been at their most intimate.

Thinking back now, in just a few days, he had actually accepted a woman whose name he didn't yet know into his bed.

"I don't know your name yet."

Terebei asked in a slow voice.

"My name is Yeyunara, you can call me Lara." Ye Yunla walked over to the bed and sat down, "I haven't finished what I was just about to say to you."

She looked earnestly at the man's face and said softly, "I looked around for my husband and came back disappointed time and time again, and just when I was about to despair, I saw your face. You know, the moment I saw your face, I felt that the heavens had begun to favour me again. I was most afraid that my husband would leave this world, but now I can finally rest assured that he is not dead, he is alive and well .....

The light under her eyes illuminated the gloom deep inside Terebei's heart.

Walking in this sinful land for a month, all he had seen, heard and felt was the darkest side of humanity.

He had never seen any person who had light under his eyes.

"Terebei, in fact your real name is Fu Beijue, you are from Hai Cheng, China, you are twenty-six years old, you have a wife and four children, you suddenly disappeared on your wedding day and vanished for a whole month ....."

She spoke slowly and suddenly noticed that the man's eyes were wrong.

She braked in time, pursed her lips and asked, "What's wrong, is there something wrong with what I said, don't you believe what I said?"

Terebei's face was light, "Just ten minutes ago someone said pretty much the same thing to me, they also said I was Chinese but my name was Cui Mo, my family ran a timber business and my real parents came looking for me."

"Impossible!" Ye Yunla said coldly, "I don't want to say more than necessary, why don't you have a paternity test done with the children, as soon as the results come back, you will understand everything."

Terebei raised his hand and handed over a copy of the paternity test next to his pillow, "The paternity test has already been done for me and my biological parents."

Ye Yunla took the document and flipped to the end, her face suddenly as cold as ice.

This was someone deliberately trying to set up Fu Beijue, or rather to use him, so they had found him a pair of biological parents and forged this paternity test report .....

But no matter what she says now, in the eyes of this man, it is estimated that it is just like this couple, harboring evil intentions!

HC Chapter 732

Ye Yunla ordered herself to be calm.

She took a deep breath and slowly said: "Paternity tests can be faked, but the attraction between people cannot be faked. Do you admit that you are attracted to me? Not because I am good looking, but because we were already in love, you are my husband, I am your wife, and we have four lovely children between us ....."

She said, taking out her phone and finding a picture of her four children together and handing it over.

The man's dark eyes fell on the phone screen, and the four smiling faces pierced his eyes.

In this instant, his heart felt like it had been pinched, and some suffocating pain spread to all his limbs .....

The woman was right, the paternity test could be fake, but such sudden emotions could not be disguised .....

Within a few seconds, countless thoughts came to Terry North's mind.

"Boss, the second elder has a request to see you."

The escort outside stood at the door and knocked gently, reporting in a low voice.

Terebei handed the phone back and said in a slow voice, "This matter, I will send someone to investigate, go back and wait for my news without worry."

Ye Yunla let out a sigh of relief, he had already taken the first step towards success by not refuting her words in one breath.

She had just stepped out of the master bedroom when Louis came over to lead her downstairs, saying as he walked, "Miss Ye, you're really something, this is the first time I've seen Miss Isabelle in a state of anger."

Ye Yunla pursed her lips and didn't answer as she stepped on her high heels and walked outside.

"Next time Miss Ye comes over call ahead and I'll pick you up." Louis was incomparably attentive, his gaze sweeping over Ye Yunla's hickeyed neck, his heart even more certain that this woman, even if she didn't become the chief's wife, would definitely be the boss's most favoured lover ..... If he can coax this woman, he will definitely have a bright future in the future.

Ye Yunla slowly stopped her steps as she frowned and said faintly, "You now belong to Terebei's inner circle?"

"I don't have that kind of power, I've just been temporarily transferred into the villa to be in charge of registering people coming and going." Louis rubbed his hands together and said, "If I get the chance, I hope to be Miss Ye's personal escort."

Ye Yunla hooked her lips and smiled, although this Louis was greedy for money, he was very good at understanding the times.

She took out another wad of dollars from her bag and stuffed it over, "As soon as Isabel comes over, you call and let me know, one day when I do become your chief's wife, I will definitely promote you."

"Yes, Miss Ye, I'll make sure to get this done!"

Louis happily escorted Ye Yunla out of the villa.

By this time, several of the Second Elders had already entered the master bedroom.

Even though Terebei was already lying on the bed with serious injuries, an overpowering aura still permeated his body, making everyone who entered not dare to make a move.

The Second Elder brought over a stack of documents, "This is the revenue report for the last quarter, please read it."

Terebei turned his head and said indifferently, "Bring over the financial report from my study."

The escort led the way and quickly fetched two thick books of statements.

Terebei threw the two books directly at the Second Elder: "The figures in the books vary by as much as one billion, tell me, did you swallow this billion or did you use it for something else?"

HC Chapter 733

The Second Elder's entire body shook, "You, what are you saying, why can't I understand?"

"Then why don't I send a few people to your house to look for them?" Terebei's voice was cold and chilly, "August was fooled by you for more than ten years because he couldn't read these books. If he can't, do you think I can't either? I can't count the money you embezzled during August's reign, but within just one month of me taking office, you've swallowed a billion, and that's ten billion in a year! No wonder the Black Party is getting worse by the day, with people like you in the middle!"

The Second Elder had no prior mental preparation and was completely unable to think of any words of rebuttal or explanation, his whole body was shaking like chaff.

The Third Elder on the other side calmly stepped forward, "Is there some kind of misunderstanding in between?"

The Fourth Elder followed suit, "The Second Elder's family is so poor that they can't even afford a mansion, how could they possibly embezzle such a huge amount of money?"

Terebei's eyes swept over, "It seems you are all anxious for me to settle accounts one by one."

Once again he tossed over a few copies of the information on his pillow.

"The Third Elder is slightly accomplished in diplomacy, but every foreign politician who comes to H-land returns home claiming to have suffered death threats in our territory, and some are forced to transfer hundreds of millions in ransom money ..... Third Elder, this matter should be your tacit approval?"

"Fourth Elder, you are responsible for the construction of all the buildings destroyed in the H territory, but the civilian building on the southeast side has been constructed for three years, and it is still uninhabitable, with countless people living in the streets, how are you going to explain this matter to me ....."

A questioning words down, the third and fourth elders also instantly dripping with sweat.

"Third Elder and Fourth Elder you two, I will have someone go ahead and investigate thoroughly, as for Second Elder ....." Terebei sneered, "You should leave the financial side of things alone, lest the Black Party be hollowed out one day."

The second elder was full of incredulity, "I have been in this position for over twenty years, what would I do if I didn't do this?"

"Whenever you spit out all the money you have embezzled, when will you be reinstated."

Hearing these words, the Second Elder's entire body froze.

Every cent he had embezzled down had bought heavy weapons, and the basement of his house was a heavy weapons warehouse, but he really couldn't take out a single cent.

The Second Elder was about to say something else when the Fifth Elder on the side tugged on his sleeve. Silence fell in the master bedroom.

Trebei swept his gaze over and continued, "Eighth Elder, from now on you will be in charge of the financial side of things, and Ninth Elder, you will be in charge of the town's reconstruction project."

These two elders were the youngest and had never had any real power in their hands, so when they heard that Terebei had given them such an important job, both of them were overjoyed and said respectfully, "Yes, we will definitely live up to our expectations."

The meeting lasted for two hours before it ended, and when they emerged from the master bedroom, everyone was drenched in sweat.

The Second Elder looked at the radiant Eighth and Ninth Elders and spoke coldly, "Don't you forget that it was the Grand Elder who promoted you up in the first place, and by working for Terebei, you are betraying the Grand Elder."

The Ninth Elder said indifferently, "Terebei is the leader of the Black Party, and it is our duty to work for the leader."

The Eighth Elder also said, "Second Elder had better quickly raise one billion to hand over, once the chief gets angry, the consequences will be serious."

After the two men finished speaking, they walked out of the villa with big strides.

The Second Elder was so angry that he almost lost his breath.

"Second Brother, don't be anxious." The Third Elder walked over and said in a low voice, "The couple I found will soon come in handy ..... As long as Terebei is dead, everything will be fine ....."

HC Chapter 734

The internal turmoil of the Black Party soon made the local news.

"According to reports, the second elder of the Black Party has been removed from his position after his corruption was revealed and is now raising money around to fill the corruption hole ....."

"The third and fourth elders have been ineffective in their work and have made huge mistakes during their tenure and are now being investigated ....."

"The Black Party is ostensibly undergoing a power adjustment and division within the party, in fact it is the conflict between the newly appointed chief and the eldest elder that is gradually intensifying ....."

As she watched the news, Ye Yunla's face became increasingly gloomy.

She, an outsider, could feel the tension of the situation, and Fu Beijue, as the chief, was in the middle of a whirlwind, so she was afraid that times would be even worse.

"Yara, I know what you're thinking." Feng Chengyu turned the TV off straight away, "If Fu Beijue had completely mastered the Black Party, you would have just gone over there and I wouldn't have stopped it. But now, he has made enemies everywhere, and it can be said that eighty percent of the people in the Black Party want to assassinate him. If those people knew that you were his wife, do you know how dangerous you would be?"

Ye Yunla fell silent.

Although Fu Beijue did not believe her words, the man's care for her was evident to almost everyone.

If she was arrested and threatened by Fu Beijue's political enemies, that man would probably back off much, much more in order to save her .....

He had already been through too much in the past month or so, and she couldn't put him in another dilemma.

"You're right, I can't go over to him in this situation right now." Ye Yunla nodded, "Let's wait for three days first, the situation should improve in three days, I'll take the children to see him then."

She had to awaken Fu Beijue's memory as soon as possible.

Only then could that man draw away from the Black Party, leave the H-land, and return to Hai Cheng to live an ordinary and mundane life .....

Feng Chengyu let out a sigh of relief and said softly, "I have already contacted a famous psychiatrist in the industry to come over, next time you go to see him, take the psychiatrist with you."

Ye Yunla was moved in her heart, "Thank you."

With a psychiatrist around, perhaps we can take the opportunity to implement hypnosis, which will awaken memories faster .....

Ye Yunla turned on her computer and searched the internet for news about the Black Party .....

And the two children, Fu Ziyan and Ye Jingzhan, were not idle either.

Since they were sure that Terry North was their daddy, they had to do something for him.

"Your daddy is so good, do we still need you guys to do something?" Karl said with a big grin as he wrapped his arms around his chest, "However, there is quite a mess within the Black Party lately, especially that Grand Elder, who is particularly odious. I even heard someone say that the Grand Elder wants to marry his daughter to your daddy."

Ye Jingzhan's eyes narrowed, "I don't think daddy agreed to it, did he?"

"Haha, how should I know that." Carl said mysteriously, "But Miss Isabelle is the number one beauty of the Black Party, her beauty and body is no worse than your mommy's, in case your daddy loses his memory, he might really marry a stepmother back for you oh ....."

"Shut up!" Ye Jingzhan said coldly, "If you have nothing better to do, take all the top three missions on the black web."

Carl: "....."

He was a tool man, call him when needed and let him come in, let him get the hell out of the mission when he wasn't needed, he was so miserable.

“Jing’er, I’ve tapped into the surveillance of the Black Party’s core military area.” Fu Ziyang’s fingers tapped on the keyboard as he said in a deep voice, “I’ve listened in on their meetings, at least half of the people at the meeting were against the New Deal Daddy issued. There are at least two officers who have proposed a rebellion, and a few more senior officers have already started contacting foreign parties .....

Ye Jingzhan’s expression became increasingly grave: “In other words, Daddy is in a very dangerous situation.”

“The H realm is not a place to stay for long.” Fu Ziyang’s face was full of worry, “We have to help Daddy recover his memory as soon as possible and take him away from here.”

HC Chapter 735

“I’m afraid it’s not that easy.” Ye Jingzhan let out a bitter laugh, “Daddy has served as the leader of the Black Party, there is no way he can get out in one piece, he can either die in the power struggle or completely cleanse this area and hand it over to the next leader in peace.”

There was a moment of silence in the study.

The mood of Fu Ziling and Little Yinyin, who were playing in the cottage courtyard, was also very low.

The little girl was holding a small shovel and her long curly eyelashes were smeared with teardrops.

“Sister, why are you crying?”

Fu Ziling put down the toy in his hand and hurried over to coax his sister.

Little Yinyin’s voice was muffled, “Second brother, I miss daddy, I miss daddy so much .....

“I miss daddy too .....” Fu Ziling’s voice was also choked with sobs, “But mommy said daddy forgot about us, even if we met daddy, daddy wouldn’t know who we are .....”

When he said this, Little Yinyin cried even harder.

Golden beans kept falling out of her grape-like eyes .....

“Then I’ll ask mommy to take us to see daddy, okay, don’t you cry .....”

After Fu Ziling helped his sister wipe her tears, he stomped off to the living room to look for his mommy, Ye Yunla was handling her work with a serious face.

The little one pursed his lips and gently returned to the courtyard: “Sister, mommy is busy, I’ll talk to mommy when she’s done.”

Little Yinyin didn’t say anything either, just lowered her head and wept silently, tears rolling down one by one.

The way she was crying silently made Fu Ziling’s heart ache .....

He gritted his teeth and said in a low voice, “Sister, don’t cry, second brother will take you to find daddy.”

Little Yinyin raised her head, her watery eyes full of dismay: "But mommy says it's too dangerous for daddy to be there ....."

"Didn't big brother and Jing'er come back safely when they went back to look for daddy last time?" Fu Ziling lifted his chin and said, "I'm still older than Jing'er, I'm capable of protecting you. Sister, are you going?"

Little Yinyin blinked her eyes, intent surfacing in her eyes.

Fu Ziling lowered his voice and said, "Let Uncle Feng's driver take us there, we'll come back immediately after we take a look at Daddy, it probably won't take more than an hour, Mummy won't find out."

Little Yinyin nodded surreptitiously and said with suppressed excitement, "I'll go upstairs first to get the present for Daddy."

She stomped upstairs and stomped back down, Ye Yunla gave her a look, "Yinyin, run slowly, don't fall."

The little girl said sheepishly, "Mummy, I won't run so fast next time, can I go out and play with my second brother?"

Ye Yunla nodded gently.

Fu Ziling had already convinced the Feng family's driver, and the two little ones secretly climbed into the back seat of the car as it slowly drove towards the H boundary.

With external rebels creating unrest and internal conflicts gradually intensifying, the guards around the Black Party were getting tighter and tighter.

The driver's car stopped on the road and said worriedly, "Second young master, young miss, we'd better go back, it's not safe here."

A word was said, but no response was received.

When the driver turned around, he saw that the two children who had been sitting in the back seat were gone.

HC Chapter 736

Fu Ziling took Little Yinyin into the H boundary unhindered.

"There are so many guards here uncle, it doesn't look that dangerous." Fu Ziling looked left and right and lowered his voice and said, "Sister, I've looked at the map, Daddy's place is just ahead, let's go there."

Little Yinyin's eyes lit up with a ray of light and she followed Fu Ziling as he darted towards the core villa area.

There was a military vehicle listening at the entrance of the villa, Isabelle was sitting in it, her face full of irritation and resentment.

Before, when August was in power, she could enter and leave this place whenever she wanted.

But now, she was actually stopped outside.

She was the first lady of the Black Party, but she couldn't even get into the main camp of the Black Party, she felt like a joke in everyone's eyes.

With a cold face, Isabelle ordered in a deep voice, "Turn around and go home."

One day, she would make Terry North beg for her on her knees!

The car had just turned around when Isabel saw the two children running from the corner.

"Stop the car."

She ordered coldly, one eye locked on the two approaching children.

She had seen the two boys at the villa before, and had thought then that both boys looked almost identical to Terry North.

Now that she had seen the two boys, one male and one female, it struck her once again that these two children were almost identical to Trebek.

Did all Asians look like this, and that was why she felt the resemblance?

Fu Ziling took her sister's hand and smiled sweetly at the guard at the entrance of the villa, "We'd like to see Mr. Trebei, can the guard go in and pass the message?"

The two charming children standing at the entrance softened the hearts of the guards who dealt with war all day long.

The guard bent down and said softly, "Do you know who Terebei is?"

"Yes, he's a big hero, he's the chief here." Little Yinyin cocked her head and said innocently, "We especially like him and want to meet him, can we?"

The little girl's soft, sticky English was like a milk candy rolled in shredded coconut, so it was impossible to refuse her little request.

"Yes, wait a moment, I'll go in and report."

The guard turned and went into the villa to inform them.

The scene caught Isabel's eye and caused the anger in her eyes to flare up again.

She had just told these guards to go in and report, but they had coldly rejected her and told her to leave.

In the eyes of these guards, she, the grand lady of the Black Party, was no better than two inexplicable children.

If she couldn't do anything to Terebei, could she not deal with two little bastards?

Isabelle pushed open the car door and her high heels stepped heavily on the concrete floor.

Hearing the sound, Fu Ziling jerked his head around, he felt the strong hostility from this woman and hurriedly shielded his sister behind him.

"These two little things have bombs hidden on them, arrest them!"

Isabel fiddled with her bright red nails and coldly gave the order.

The two guards she had brought over also got out of the car and approached the two children step by step with a cold face.

“We don’t have a bomb!” Fu Ziling shouted loudly, “We don’t have anything on us, don’t arrest us, we are not allowed to be arrested .....

He kept backing away with his sister, the little girl’s eyes filled with panic.

The guards guarding the outside of the villa did not make any move, their duty was to protect the villa from intrusion, as for what was happening outside the villa, it had nothing to do with them.

Although they sympathised with the two children, they didn’t want to offend the Grand Elder’s daughter even more .....

HC Chapter 737

Isabel’s two bodyguards stepped forward, one grabbed a child, picked him up and lifted him in the air.

Fu Ziling kept struggling, “Witch, let go of us, let go, when our daddy comes out, he will definitely help us to take revenge!”

When he was angry, he spoke in Chinese, which Isabelle could not understand at all, and although she could not understand, she could guess that the little bastard should be cursing her.

She said coldly, “It’s too noisy, tell them to be quiet.”

The bodyguard did as he was told and backhanded a slap across the face, and the right side of Fu Ziling’s face instantly turned red.

He stared blankly, unable to believe what was happening before his eyes.

“Now you know how to behave?” Isabel stepped forward and raised her hand to hook Fu Ziling’s chin, “Not bad looking and quite strong, just the thing to give to father as a drink .....

Before she finished her sentence, Fu Ziling opened his mouth and bit down on the back of her hand.

“Little bastard, loosen your mouth!”

The bodyguard was terrified and hurriedly squeezed Fu Ziling’s jaw and carried him a step away.

The back of Isabel’s hand was bleeding from the bite, and her features were twisted in pain.

She smiled sarcastically, “Give me a beating and then crack his teeth one by one .....

Another bodyguard spoke up and inquired, “Miss, do we have to knock this girl’s teeth in one by one too?”

“Such a pretty little girl, what a pity to lose her teeth.” Isabel sneered, “Clean her up and send her to the slums later, so they know what happens when they offend me.”

“Yes!”

The two bodyguards were Isabel's inner circle, and over the years, they had countless lives on their hands.

Even if these two children were tortured to death by them, they would not feel anything.

The bodyguards raised their hands and were about to break open Fu Ziling's mouth .....

"Bang!"

The sound of gunfire suddenly rang out.

A bullet broke through the air and directly hit the bodyguard's hand. The bodyguard rolled on his knees in pain, and Fu Ziling took the opportunity to escape from his clutches.

Little Yinyin was still being controlled by another bodyguard, so Fu Ziling rushed over and bit the bodyguard on the thigh.

The bouncer instinctively slapped him across the face .....

Before that slap could reach Fu Ziling's face, he received a shot in the thigh and his whole body rolled to the ground.

Little Yinyin almost fell to the ground when a tall, upright figure quickly came over and scooped the little girl into his arms .....

"Daddy ....."

Little Yinyin looked dumbly at the face wearing a golden mask and suddenly lost her voice and cried out.

Fu Ziling clung to Terebei's legs and also cried out in hindsight and fear .....

The child's cries filled her ears, making Isabel's face even colder, she clenched the back of her teeth, and said word for word: "Terebei, both of them are the most heartfelt guards who grew up with me, how dare you make a move against my guards, you are definitely going against me, against my father, are you?"

"Did I say that I was not to lay hands on innocent people on my land?" Trebei spoke coldly, "Get out of my sight."

Isabel was furious, "These two little bastards have offended me, and I must let them die. Terebei, give me the two bastards, and I will not tell my father about your injury to my guards today."

Trebei's dark eyes clouded with an icy chill: "You mean you originally intended for these two boys to die?"

"Of course, they rushed me and bit my hand, they had to die!"

Isabelle's face was filled with murderous anger.

HC Chapter 738

The colour of Terry North's eyes was cold to the core.

The girl in his arms shivered, tears rolling down one by one into his neck.

A piece of his heart seemed to burn, boundless anger burning up.

He bent down and pursed his thin lips, whispering, "Be good, close your eyes."

Little Yinyin's eyes were full of teardrops, and when they closed, strings of golden beans rolled down.

Terebei bowed his head, "You too, close your eyes."

Fu Zi Ling obediently closed his eyes.

"Bang Bang!"

Immediately afterwards, gunshots rang out, two in a row, and Isabelle screamed out in shock.

She looked incredulously at her two guards, who had just injured their wrists and legs, but now they were actually ..... A life was lost like that .....

These were two of her most trusted guards, who had done many untold things for her.

To think they died just like that .....

"Terry North!" Isabelle screamed, "From now on, I'm at odds with you, just you wait!"

Terebei rippled and said indifferently, "Don't keep me waiting too long."

He glanced at the two corpses lying in the doorway and ordered in a light voice, "Dispose of them cleanly."

After saying that, he scooped up Fu Zi Ling who was also on the ground into his arms and walked into the villa with the two children in his arms.

"You can open your eyes now."

As soon as his words fell, both children couldn't wait to open their eyes, their foggy eyes lit up with a radiant light.

Such a light reminded him of the light under Ye Yunla's eyes, like a withdrawal .....

"Daddy, we finally see you."

"Daddy, I missed you so much, do you still know me?"

The two children looked at him with open ebony eyes, stubbornly forcing back their tears.

Terebei's heart instantly softened into a pool of water.

Even if the two children did not explicitly say so, he could still guess whose children they were; these two pairs of eyes were simply identical to Ye Yunla's.

He put the children down and asked in a soft voice: "Did your mummy send you here?"

Fu Ziling shook his head, "Mummy said daddy had lost his memory and didn't remember us, and forbade us to come over ....."

Little Yinyin blinked her big eyes and asked again, "Daddy, do you still remember me?"

Meeting the child's clear, glazed eyes, Terry North's heart throbbed.

He didn't remember.

It was true that he did not remember the two children.

But the inner turmoil, the inner emotions, the tenderness that overwhelmed ..... These could not be faked.

These two children must have a close blood relationship with him.

He could question Ye Yunla's true motives, but he could not doubt the mood swings that these two children had brought him.

Even without looking into it, his heart had already believed Ye Yunla's version of events .....

But now he was in a trap, one wrong step at a time, and he couldn't let the children and Ye Yunla risk their lives along with him.

HC Chapter 739

He lowered his voice and said, "It's not safe here, I'll have someone send you back first."

Little Yinyin immediately grabbed his sleeve: "Daddy, you haven't answered my question, I don't want to go ....."

Fu Ziling almost cried out: "Daddy, you really don't recognize us anymore right, you don't want to recognize us do you ..... Ooooooooooooo, daddy you're so hateful, mummy has worked so hard to come and find you and you don't remember us ..... Daddy, you drove us away, you'll regret it, you'll definitely regret it ....."

Terry North's heart felt like it was on fire.

He just didn't want to put a few kids in danger with him .....

And he had to find out what was going on .....

If he went back to the kids without finding out, something like this could happen again, and next time, he might not be so lucky.

"Don't cry." He clumsily helped Fu Ziling and Little Yinyin wipe away their tears, "I'll come and see you when I'm done ....."

"You're lying!" Fu Ziling cried up and down, "You don't even remember me and my sister, there's no way you could have gone to see us ....."

Little Yinyin huffed, "Daddy, I'm so hungry, can I eat before I go back?"

Terry North lowered his voice, "Don't call me daddy when there are other people around, understand?"

His expression was serious.

Fu Ziling suddenly recalled the words of his big brother, who seemed to have said that more than half of the people around daddy were daddy's enemies.

He nodded, "Okay, my sister and I won't call you daddy."

"Good boy." Terebei stroked the two children's heads before ordering the servants to bring up the food.

The two children sat obediently at the long dining table, with a dozen or so different kinds of meals in front of them, all sweet treats that children love to eat.

At that moment, Louis hurriedly came in from outside: "Boss, Miss Ye is outside asking for a meeting."

The two children were first delighted, and then hung their heads sheepishly.

They had sneaked out of the house and had expected to return within an hour, but they had given forgotten .....

Ye Yunla waited anxiously at the door, but fortunately Louis returned quickly and respectfully led her inside.

"Miss Ye, Miss Isabel has just arrived as well, but she didn't even make it through the door." Louis reported the situation in a whisper, "And just now, the boss also shot down Isabel's two most trusted guards."

Ye Yunla asked as she walked, "What exactly happened?"

"Two kids came out of nowhere and bit Isabelle's hand, and she had the two kids' teeth knocked out just as the Boss appeared." Louis described the scene just now in graphic detail, "The boss shot and directly disintegrated those two people without any mercy, this time there is a breakdown between Isabel and the boss, the Grand Elder will probably have follow-up actions ....."

Hearing these words, Ye Yunla was a little alarmed.

If Fu Beijue came a step later, the two children might have to suffer from Isabel's poisonous hands .....

She took a deep breath, suppressing that backlash of fear, and walked into the living room with big steps.

The east side of the living room was the dining room, and from her angle, she could just see the man stroking little Yinyin's head, and the sound of the little girl's silvery laughter.

How long had it been since such a heartwarming scene had been seen.

"I always used to think that the Boss was cruel and bloodthirsty and had no mercy for anyone, but I never thought that he would actually like these two children who came out of nowhere." Louis whispered, "But these two children have offended Miss Isabel, I'm afraid they will be in danger in the future, I don't know if the boss can protect them ....."

Ye Yunla pursed her lips and took a step into the restaurant.

As soon as she entered, the two children who were just laughing immediately bowed their heads, looking as if they had done something wrong.

She was sharp-eyed enough to see that the side of Fu Ziling's face was a little puffy, and should have been slapped by Isabelle.

This slap, she would return it sooner or later.

Now was not the time to feel sorry for the child.

Ye Yunla walked in and pursed her lips as she spoke, "Mr. Trebei, thank you for helping me take care of the two children, I'll take them back now."

HC Chapter 740

"Daddy, I don't want to go yet ....."

"Daddy, I'm not full yet ....."

Fu Ziling and Little Yinyin spoke at the same time, the two of them opened their wet eyes and looked at Terry North pitifully.

The man's cold, hard heart instantly softened into a puddle of water.

His voice was low and soft as he said, "Finish eating first before you go back, and eat slowly."

At the side, Ye Yunla's whole body froze.

Even if the two children had called out for daddy, this man had actually answered?

Didn't he question her words before, why would he accept two children .....

Fu Ziling pulled at Ye Yunla's clothes and whispered, "Daddy said that as long as no outsiders are around, he can call him daddy."

When he said this, his eyebrows were all radiant with light.

Only after losing once can one know how happy it feels to have a daddy to protect .....

Ye Yunla looked incredulously at the man sitting at the dining table.

The two people's eyes were in mid-air.

The two people's eyes met in mid-air, and in the bright, clear air, the lines of sight made contact and mingled.

She looked into the depths of his deep pupils, and for a moment, it was as if she understood .....

Even though memories can be erased, the pull of blood and emotions can never be removed .....

Just at this moment, an untimely voice came.

"Mo'er ....." Mrs. Cui walked in from the doorway and was about to speak when she saw three people she didn't recognize in the dining room, she was surprised, "Mo'er, who are these people?"

Terebei's sharp gaze swept over, "It's none of your business who they are, if you want to tell me something, just say it."

Madam Cui's heart trembled at his sharp gaze.

She dared not probe further into the identity of Ye Yunla and the two children, and smiled dryly, “Mo’er, have you decided when you will return?”

Terebei nodded his head and said, “There is no intention of going back for the time being.”

His voice was very cold and deep, without any of the tenderness he had when talking to the two children.

Mrs. Cui hesitated for a few seconds before bracing herself and speaking, “Mo’er, I know your status now is different from before, so it’s really not possible for you to go back. But your father and I are getting older, and the family business is becoming increasingly unmanageable ..... Since you can’t help us, why don’t you have a child for us to take back to inherit the family business ..... I’ve been staying here for two days and I think the Grand Elder’s daughter, Miss Isabelle, is just fine, I’ve asked her what she wants and she doesn’t reject you, so why don’t you .....

No sooner had she finished her words than she felt a sharper line of sight coming from her.

She turned her head and saw the stunningly beautiful young woman in the restaurant with two cold eyes that looked like they were hiding two snowy knives.

Mrs. Cui inexplicably shivered.

She suddenly remembered the rumours from those guards at the villa that Terry North had a mistress outside .....

Could it be this woman?

She took a deep breath and pretended not to care as she continued, “Mo’er, the legal system in this place is not perfect, and no one would dare to say much about a man having a few women. But Miss Isabelle is of noble status, you’d better not make it too obvious .....

Terebei already had no patience to deal with the Cui family, and when he heard Madam Cui say so, a face was instantly tinted with cold ice: “I know everything you said, Louis, send Madam Cui out.”

Louis hurriedly came over from the doorway and said respectfully, “Madam Cui, please do.”

One Terebei had made Madam Cui a little overwhelmed, and with the addition of Ye Yunla, she simply didn’t dare to stay in the restaurant any longer.
