His Wolf

DELSANRA

Why did I want to see him in wolf form ? Was it to try to see that he wasn't just a monster ? I wasn't sure , but I had only ever seen wolves killing ... I don't even know why those words left my lips , but they did , and he seemed to find this all so amusing as he slowly peeled that shirt off his sexylicious body .

" Eyes on me , kitten . " His words ignited the burning fire within me , and I had no way to quell it ... My heart thundered as my eyes dipped to his hands that slowly undid his belt . My chest rose and fell . I couldn't turn away . If I did , he'd just think he had one on me .

I sat back and crossed my arms under my chest . " Do carry on . " I said lightly . I crossed my legs wishing that ache that was building went away ... but no , it only grew as he unbuckled his belt before kicking his boots off and hooking his fingers into his pants to pull them down .

That was when I quickly looked away . I had seen him once as a wolf when those monsters had attacked us ... Even naked , although I don't remember looking down at him , I had been too out of it to even get embarrassed by it or notice ...

He chuckled as he kicked his pants to the side . Annoying jerk . In the silent room , I heard the cracking of bones , but it was only for a second before I saw the large shadow from the side of my eyes . I turned and looked at the huge black glossy wolf that towered over me .... Oh wow , it looked even bigger up close . His green eyes were staring intensely at me . Ok , I wanted to see it , but ... now what ?

I stood up slowly . We were nearly the same height , but there was no fear within me . I reached out , running my fingers through its fur , my heart racing when he moved under my touch , only to brush his nose against my chest . I smiled despite myself ,

" Was that a way to get close to my breasts whilst you look like a big doggy ? " I asked . I smiled softly , remembering a time when I once found an injured puppy . I have always loved animals . They were my only companions , often enough . I don't know what happened to that puppy . Amoria had tried to kill it to upset me . I remember I quickly made it run away using a spell .

That time , she beat me a lot , but I had only prayed that the puppy had gotten away . Then there were the rats in the cavern ... I was given food to survive ; after all , Endora had needed me ... I used to share what I had with the rats . All life is precious , right ? He nuzzled his snout into my neck , and I wrapped my arms around him tightly . He purred and I smiled into his soft fur .

Maybe I'd have liked you more if you were an actual animal ... not a beast ... I closed my eyes, leaning into his warmth. When suddenly realising what I was doing, I quickly let go and stepped back. He sat down and nudged me gently. "You can shift back now." I said, about to turn away when he licked my face. I gasped, a laugh escaping me. "Yucky! Seriously, you're behaving like an actual animal."

I wiped my face with my sleeve, giving him a frown that held no anger. Walking over to the sofa, I sat down and picked up my plate. "I want to eat."

He simply came over and sat down next to my legs. I looked at him thinking he looked like a huge dog, well kind of ... "If I'd had something like you years back, maybe I'd have been safer ..." I murmured. He gently rested his head down next to my leg and didn't move. I ate slowly. His warmth was comforting, his aura was powerful yet soothing, and I realised I didn't mind him in this form.

Yes, he was a werewolf ... But I hadn't been abused by one in wolf form, unlike their human counterparts. "Are you not going to shift back?" I asked, looking into his green eyes. He shook his head and I smiled. Picking up his uneaten pizza slice, "Do wolfies like pizza?"

"I asked, dangling it out. He growled playfully and I smiled, tossing it up." Fetch doggy. "He practically rolled his eyes before reaching out and swallowing it. He definitely was not a dog ... He didn't even jump, he acted all arrogant and mighty."

"You're no fun ... Couldn't you have at least jumped and caught it? Meh ... boring doggy ..." @ I finished my food off, enjoying his warmth against my lap. The moment I moved the plate, his head rested on my lap. He sure was heavy ...

"How much do you weigh? You're a fatty. You know, I can't just sit here and pet you, I need to clear this up." I remarked, running my fingers through his fur. Would his human hair feel as good? The image of him undressing ... the way his abs rippled when he reached for his belt ...

How could he eat that much pizza and still look so good? My core throbbed and he growled, startling me with his eyes staring up at me.

The intelligence within them was a stark reminder that he was not just a random huge wolf. "Excuse me." I said, easing away. I wasn't sure what caused that change in him, but it unnerved me. I got up quickly gathered the rubbish then leaving the room and the wolf behind.

Not missing his eyes fixed on me and I swear he was looking for sympathy ... I had finished taking the dishes and boxes to the kitchen and returned to the lounge area with a cloth and spray, freezing when all I saw was Rayhan's ass before he pulled his jeans up, his back towards me.

My cheeks burned as I stood there frozen. Oh my god, I just saw his ass. Oh my god ... "Come on in, Kitten ..."

" I jumped almost dropping the spray , praying he didn't know that I saw his t was ... No , don't think of his ass . I kept m y gaze on my destination , quickly spraying it and wiping it before I turned and rushed from the room before he could say anything else . I ran to the kitchen , a hand on my heart .

His ass was as fine as the rest of him , his jeans didn't lie ... I quickly washed the dishes when I heard his footsteps , praying that my heart would calm down . " What's wrong , Kitten ? " He asked , walking to the fridge and taking a water bottle out . " Nothing .

" I replied . Oh , he knew exactly what happened ... " Good , " " He smirked , and I swear I wanted to slap him one ... " I'm going to order dessert and hot drinks . Want a coffee ? Or something ? " Dessert ... as much as I wanted to eat more , my tummy was full . " We can make coffee here ....

" I suggested . " Yeah ... I don't really know how to use this stuff . " He motioned towards the coffee machine .. I knew he was a pampered rich boy ... This confirmed it even more . " What , did you have people waiting on you hand and foot ? "

" Well , pretty much ... And since I am the future Alpha , no one minds making me a hot drink or something . " He said , with a wink . I frowned coldly at him . Yeah , I'm sure they didn't ... With a face like that , I'm sure all the stupid women wanted to make him a hot drink .

Maybe I'll make him one and dunk it on his head . Just the thought irritated me . " Well , I can make coffee . I'll teach you . " So , you'll teach me but not make me one ? " He asked , raising an eyebrow . " Why should I make it for you ?

This place is yours , right ? Isn't it your job to make m e a coffee ? " He frowned , now seeming to realise I was washing up . " Why are you washing up ? That's not your job- " " I've done work all my life . " I said , finishing rinsing the last dish before turning the tap off .

He instantly handed me a towel . I took it , my stomach fluttering as our eyes met , remembering our moment earlier in the lounge ...

" He likes you , and it seems you like him more than me . " He said softly . He was smiling warmly , yet I didn't miss the tinge of sadness in his eyes . An emotion that made my heart ache . That wasn't true , I just ... My heart thudded when I realised what I had been about to think ... No. Just no .

The Things I'd Do

RAYHAN

I hadn't been able to sleep last night , firstly thanks to my wolf , who had been elated since Delsanra hugged him . Despite the fact she didn't have a wolf it didn't seem to bother him at all ; he was clearly just happy to have his mate .

The other reason was the fact that she clearly didn't hate wolves ; it was the human side of werewolves she hated .

That hurt , but I couldn't blame her . It was my kind who had hurt her , not werewolves in wolf form ... but for the first time in my life I was jealous of my wolf , and although I could sense his comfort , I could also sense the smugness he was feeling .

That was irritating ... Stupid cocky Alpha wolf . I swear if he didn't cut his crap about her liking him , I wouldn't allow him to see her again ... but ... she had liked i t , I had felt her calmness around him .... Damn , it seemed I'd have to spend more time in wolf form if I wanted her to accept me ... and not for fighting or running , but t o play ' doggy , ' as Delsanra would put it . The things I'd do for her .

I had gotten up early before going for a run , grabbing breakfast then hitting the gym for a bit . I had insisted on taking her t o work , which she agreed to after a bout of stubbornness .

I had showered then gotten dressed in black pants and a white button – down shirt , which I left a few buttons open at the top of and had paired with black smart shoes plus a belt . My hair was tied back , and I was wearing a leather jacket .

I couldn't believe I was going to do this , but if it means I get to spend time with her , then I'll do this happily .

I wasn't sure how she was going to take it but ... hopefully , she wouldn't get too mad ... " " You didn't need to bring me to work . " She said , looking over at me . Her hair was up in a neat bun , but despite that , a few strands framed her face . She looked as beautiful as ever , wearing a simple white blouse that was fitted on her breasts , and a black skirt that was just above her knees , paired with black tights and black shoes .

I followed her to the door and , reaching past her , pushing it open and allowing her to enter first . " I was coming here anyway . " I replied . " Ah Ana , glad to see you're feeling better !

" The manager , Coleen , said with approval before she looked me over . " My ... You will be drawing in the customers today ... " . " Excuse me ? " Delsanra asked confused , glancing back at me .

" " Your boyfriend , he offered to work here a s he knew how short on staff we were . Coleen said . " Boyfriend ... " . " Yes , you kept him hidden , and quite a handsome one at that .... I saw Delsanra's face pale before she now took in what I was wearing as if it was the first time she was seeing it . " No way ... Excuse us ... We need to talk .

" She said to Coleen , before taking my arm and tugging me to the side where the bathroom was . I let her pull me along . despite my kitten not having much strength . " What are you doing ? " " I applied here , apparently some guys on leave and I said I don't mind waiting tables with you .

" I said , taking my jacket off . " No , this was supposed to be- urgh , why are you so annoying and why are you dressed like you're going to a business meeting ?! " an " What do you mean ? This is casual .

" I said , tugging at my open buttoned shirt . " No it isn't , you look ...

" " Sexy ? Hot ? Appealing , kitten ? Tell me . " I murmured , leaning towards her . " Too much ! " Too much ? Ok , that was not how I'd describe myself . " I'm dressed casual – smart , Kitten . " " Well , you stand out ... " She frowned in displeasure . I smirked with satisfaction . " Us Rossi's have that gene . " I said , arrogantly .

She rolled her eyes . " Fine , good luck . " She said , adjusting her own shirt .

That was a quick change , I guess she accepted it . She shook her head , walking off , and I wouldn't deny that my eyes were fixed on that ass of hers . I liked her in skirts . " Could we get another coke ? " " With some ice ? It's kinda hot in here ? " " Sure . " I said walking off . " Damn , he's so fucking hot . Shall we ask for his number ? " Fuck yeah , look at that .

" Now I know what she meant about good luck .

The place was packed with women , and everyone seemed to know it was because of me . Where the staff had looked excited about the rush , they were now beginning to look disgruntled . I also hated the fact that my kitten was rushing around taking order after order .

We hadn't gotten a break since morning , and I had to admit this was not my type of job . I wasn't used to serving others , heck I was an Alpha and the only people I would usually serve were my mate and mother . Although I usually wouldn't mind the attention from all the gorgeous women , there was only one woman whose attention I wanted . Delsanra's .

One who wasn't even looking at me ... " Table 10 , sweetcheeks , " Gwen said with a big smile , although she had been a bit hostile to start with , something about the other day I came in here .

When I said Delsanra and I had an argument , and that was the reason for her annoyance , she took a liking to me instantly the moment Delsanra had begrudgingly nodded .

Table 10 was the most annoying . Consisting of a bunch of young women who were flirting openly , and although I kept a smile on my face , I was getting tired . " Help me , kitten . " I said as she walked past me .

" No. " She said , glancing at the table . Her mood had also gotten worse as the extra work or if I was lucky enough to have made her jealous ? It wasn't the aim , but if it worked , then hey , why not ? " Please baby ?

" She gave me a withering glare and stepped closer to me , motioning me to bend down . " Call me that one more time and I swear I will chop your sausage off , barbeque it and force – feed it to you .

" She said making me internally flinch . Her eyes were full of a burning rage that made all my amusement vanish . She was pissed and I had no idea what I had done . " Hey , are you " I'm working , don't talk to me . " Turning , she stormed off . " What the ... " " Oh , come on handsome , do you really not know why she's angry ? " Donovan said , passing me the tray . " No. " I said , quietly watching Delsanra give a couple a small smile as she took their order .

" She's jealous . " He chuckled . Despite the fact that his words made my stomach somersault , I knew it couldn't be the truth . I'd love it if she was , but the staff here thought we were a couple ... when we weren't .

If Donovan knew that , h e wouldn't say she was jealous . " Hm . " I didn't say more as I got back to work . " Mind if we get your number ? " A pretty blonde asked . She was probably one of the prettier women here , but still , nothing compared to my kitten . " I'm taken . " I said , with a small smirk . " Heart and soul .

" " Oh , come on , I'm not asking you to commit ... " She whispered , leaning in . " No thanks , " I said firmly , my smile vanishing . I disliked pushy women . I began clearing the table , the other two women were simply watching me as the three exchanged looks . " What about just coming out for some drinks when you're done ?

" The redhead suggested , placing her hand on my arm . Before I could even reply , I felt a powerful surge of energy swirl around us . My heart thundered at the sheer force , and it was then that I saw the cracks appearing in the window behind the table . " Move !

" I shouted , grabbing the two women who were closest to me . I pulled them from their seats , before grabbing the third , turning and shielding her just as the glass shattered . Shards flew everywhere as screams erupted in the diner ...

Jealousy

DELSANRA

He shouldn't have come here , since morning , the women who have been coming in have been eyeing him up like he was a piece of meat . To begin with , I thought it was amusing because usually only women are perved at in this manner .

But after about the fifth woman , I'd had enough . It became irritating and the way he'd talk to them , take their orders , and flash them those sexy smiles of his . I didn't miss some of the comments in passing as they asked him for his number , gave him theirs , or simply talked about him . Some women kept ordering things just so they wouldn't have to leave , and it was just building up inside of me .

Now he was over there , I didn't miss how that gorgeous blonde leaned closer to him , whispering something suggestively , or the way Rayhan looked down at her , obviously paying attention to what she was saying . That was his type , the type of woman he deserved , not someone riddled with physical and mental scars . But why did I even care ? It's not like I wanted him .

My anger only grew when I saw the redhead place her claws on his arm . The searing pain ripped through my chest and my eyes burned as I glared at her hand . " Move !

" Rayhan shouted , dragging the two women out of their seats , pushing them away and pulling the blonde into his arms as he turned his back towards the glass that shattered behind him . He looked in my direction , his ; grey eyes filled with concern and surprise .

I simply glared at him coldly , not missing how his arms shielded the stupid blonde . I turned and walked out , not bothered about the chaos that ensued ... It was only one window . No one was hurt . That's what I told myself to hide the guilt and fear that was rushing through me . I had never lost control like that with my powers sealed ... I could have hurt someone . I tried to ignore that thought .

This is why I needed to stay away from everyone . I entered the women's bathroom , splashing my face with cold water . I stared into the mirror , my heart thumping . He saw ... he knew it had been me . The image of his arms around the woman made that same blistering rage fill me one again , and I gasped when the mirror cracked . I backed away from it , looking at my distorted reflection .

This emotion I was feeling ... what was it ? I jumped as the bathroom door was pushed open . I spun around in fear to see none other than Rayhan , I didn't miss the way he looked me over with concern on his face before his gaze flitted to the mirror behind me ... " Are you ok ?

" He asked , entering the bathroom and shutting the door behind him . I turned away from him , not forgetting the scene from earlier , my chest heaving as I tried to control my emotions . My stomach sank when I realised what this feeling was – Jealousy .

My blood ran cold at that realisation ... I was jealous of other women talking to him , but I shouldn't be ... It's not like he was mine . " Delsanra .... " He murmured softly , placing his hands gently on my shoulders . My heart thudding under his touch , I couldn't deny the tingle that went through me . " Go away . " I said , my lips trembling as I tried to control the anger . " I'm dangerous , I wouldn't come near me if I were you .

I shrugged him off , moving closer to the sink again , not able to handle his closeness . " You are not dangerous . Look at me . " He said . I ignored him until he turned me firmly and cupped my face with the same hands that had been wrapped around someone else moments earlier ... Sending another sliver of irritation through me . " I'm yours . Only yours . " His voice was soft but sincere . His words made me freeze .

How ... How did he know that he was the cause of what happened ? I pushed his hands off of me roughly . " Don't get so ahead of yourself , you were not the reason . " I lied , turning my back on him , gripping the sink basin .

He didn't reply , stepping up behind me . I gasped when his hands went to my waist . " There's nothing wrong with feeling kitten . " He whispered . angry , My heart was betraying me , I could feel the heat of his body behind me . My entire body was covered in goosebumps .

He leant down , burying his head in my neck , making my breath hitch . " I liked it . " He whispered ; my eyes widening in surprise . His hands ran across my stomach and waist , and I gasped when he pulled me into him .

My heart was going crazy , and the feeling of his body was making me dizzy . " At least it means deep down there's a part of you that wants me , and I will wait for it . " " He wasn't showing his usual cocky self ; he wasn't looking down on me or mocking me . I could sense the genuine emotions in his voice , and when his lips touched my neck , sending a delicious spark through me , my eyes fluttered shut .

He placed a feathery kiss there , making me sigh softly . The feel ... I had never felt such a pleasant feeling and I leaned against him ; his hand gripped my waist just below my breast , his finger brushing the underside of my boob , so close yet so far ...

I wanted more ... My entire body was reacting to him as if he was a conductor and my body was the orchestra giving birth to a symphony of pleasure . His lips didn't leave my neck as he placed another kiss just above the last one .

My hand grabbed his , my legs felt weak , but before I could lose myself completely , the cold reminder that he was a werewolf returned to me and I realised what I was doing . I pulled out of his arms suddenly and backed away from him , my chest heaving . " Don't . Don't try to get close to me . I was meant to be alone , I have been alone all my life and I will always be alone ...

" I turned and rushed to the door , unlocking it and exiting the bathroom . The rest of the day had gone by without a hitch , another long shift done . Luckily , no one had gotten hurt . The window had been boarded up and I had cleaned the glass up .

The girls had left slightly alarmed , but they had been well enough to thank Rayhan and to pass him their number , which I saw Rayhan toss in the bin . The place was now empty , and we were just cleaning up . Coleen was talking to Donovan and Rayhan .

I had avoided him as much as possible . My feelings had confused me , and I realised that if I couldn't control myself , I might actually hurt someone ... He ignited something strange inside me and the anger I had felt , it alarmed me .

And then here I was , trying to unseal my powers ... But wouldn't that also make me a threat ? Maybe once I managed to , I needed to get my hands on some Grimoires and go somewhere isolated and live my life away from humans ... " Well , head out for the day ! We've done great here tonight ! " Coleen shouted , getting everyone's attention . " Ana , you're getting a bonus for bringing your boyfriend to help !

" " He ... " I didn't bother correcting them . What good would it do ? " Hmm . " I said , I could feel his eyes on me , but I refused to look at him . " Make sure you're in the correct colours for tomorrow . It's the boss's daughter's sweet 16 tomorrow , remember !

" Oh yeah , great ... I was meant to get a red dress , because that was the theme . With everything going on I had forgotten . " Well , go have fun for the rest of the night . You two can come in at 5 pm tomorrow . " Colleen finished .

" Sure , see you tomorrow ... " I replied . I grabbed my jacket from the back , and although I wished he somehow wouldn't be there when I stepped out , I was wrong . He was leaning against the wall near the entrance , on his phone .

He looked up instantly and gave me that small smirk of his , slipping his phone back into his pocket . He held the door open for me , and I didn't miss Gwen's saying something about being a true gentleman . If only she knew his truth ... but I couldn't deny he was different ...

A sudden memory of my past returned with a vengeance as he held the door open , waiting for me to step out , and I shuddered . Ignoring the fact he was about to speak , I quickly hurried away , not waiting for him .

He had parked around the corner , and the moment he unlocked the doors , I got in quickly . I felt him watching me after he had closed the door and turned the ignition on , but he said nothing as he put on soft music and drove out . " Want some coffee ? " He asked after a moment . I didn't reply . Last night I had left him hanging after the promise of coffee too ....

" Delsanra ? " I hated when he called my name . It felt like he was talking to me as an equal ... and I knew I was abusing that , if it was anyone else ,

I'd be beaten by now .... but maybe that's what I needed to see ... To see the ugliness , he hid behind that face that was carved to perfection right down to that beauty spot on his cheek .

He didn't push me again as we stopped at a drive - thru and bought two coffees and some donuts . " Kitten ? " Did he not understand silence ? " Kittycat ? " Seriously ? " Pussycat ? " Urgh , he was so annoying . Shut up .. " My little fiery snowflake ? " Did he realise how fiery and snow didn't even go together ? " Please grace me with your beautiful " voice , my elven princess . "

He really had stupid names ... He sighed , and I saw from the peripheral of my eye that he reached out to me before changing his mind and dropping his hand . It seemed he had finally gotten the hint . I looked ahead into the darkness as we headed to his place .

The cold outside , with the light splatter of rain and the loud howling of the wind , contrasted with the pleasant hum of the music and the steam from the coffee . The urge to reach for the cup was growing .

No , I am not going to be bought by bribery ... I frowned , staring ahead , when suddenly I saw a white glow split in the sky . " Watch out ! " I shouted , but I didn't need to ; he had slammed his foot on the brakes .

One of his arms shot out and pinned me back in my seat as the car screeched to a stop .

The smell of burning rubber was strong , followed by a blast of glowing white lightning that was coming right towards us . Rayhan glanced outside before his eyes blazed green as he pulled me into his chest , wrapping his arms around my tiny frame , shielding me from the rain of shattered glass , His arms enveloped my entire body as if I was something precious that he wanted to protect ....

The emotion I felt in my chest was ... foreign . But before I could even relish the feel of his warmth around me , he let go , brushing a piece of glass from my hair . " What the hell was that ... " He murmured , dusting the glass from my legs gently before getting out of the car , I got out too . In the headlights of the car ,

I saw the mark on the ground just in front of the car . My stomach sank as I realised what it was ... Why were they so desperate to find me ? " It's a locating spell ... They're looking for me . " I said , quietly glancing up at the cloudy night sky .

" You mean they're coming ? " He asked . I nodded , making sure to keep my face passive , my heart clenching painfully . " It's a powerful spell , and as I'm hiding myself ... it's hard for them to locate me .

They will track this mark , it pinpoints me and is kind of like a loophole to the spell that I've used . Give it a week at most before they find me ... You should go , Rayhan ... because when they do come , they won't spare you .

" " Our eyes met , and I knew that , despite everything , I didn't want him to get hurt because of me . I owed him that much ... " Walk away , Rayhan . Go home . " I turned away , I needed to run ... once again . But his next words made me freeze . " I am home . Wherever you are , kitten , that's my home . "

A Touch Of Lipstick

RAYHAN

We had gotten home , showered and were sitting with fresh mugs of coffee made by my kitten and some store – bought brownies that were lying around . The spell had shaken her , I had seen the fear and despair in her eyes and the way that flicker of hope had faded from them .

We were now sitting on the rug in front of the fireplace . Our mugs in hand , the smell was welcoming , mixed with hers that I had become so used to ... ” So , you really want to know ? ” She asked . ” Yeah , I’m sure I’ve been clear enough . ” I said tilting my head as I looked at her .

The black top she wore was clingy and I was trying my best not to focus on the fact she was not wearing a bra , the fabric clinging to her boobs . Paired with leggings the full black outfit made her look even smaller than usual . She nodded and took a deep breath .

” I was an illegitimate child born of an affair or something . I have never known my birth mother . She left me on my father’s doorstep when I was a baby . All I know is that , from the start , I was called the daughter of darkness .

Maybe my mother was a dark witch I don’t know , but I disgusted everyone . My own so – called family treated me poorly . I can’t really blame my stepmother knowing her husband had had an affair . I was that horrible reminder ...

The coven sealed most of my powers , considering me a danger ... One of the high witches of the coven in Salem made sure I learned to read and write . She was probably one of the rare ones who treated me well , but when we moved to England , there was no one to watch how my family treated me .

They stopped my studies and pushed me into cooking and cleaning .

My elder half sister and stepbrother made it a daily pastime to bully me ... ” I listened to her speak about her past in an emotionless voice , as if she was immune to these memories . Her gaze was fixed on her mug as she took a deep , shuddering breath and continued . ” When I was thirteen , I was sold to a warden , ”

A warden is a male born of a witch mother . So her family sold her ? ” He was trying to revive his dead wife ... being a dark witch , necromancy is a strong point , but if you aren’t trained things can go terribly wrong . I practised many dark spells , he even brought sacrifices to use .... after all , every life cost another ...

" The pain and guilt in her eyes made my own heart clench . She had been a child forced to commit crimes against her own . will . Yet they called her darkness . " I ended up killing him and reviving some sort of monster .

I don't know if it had any essence of his wife left ... but ... I had to kill i t too . I escaped from there and it was shortly after that when Endora found me ..... ST From one abuser to the next . She had been through way too much shit .

It was time she actually got to live her life ... " You've been through a lot . " I said quietly . " Well , after hearing what else I have to say , I'm sure any sympathy you feel for m e will be gone . " She said , with a more sardonic smile . coffee . " Try me . " I challenge , taking a sip of my She had magic in her hands , no pun intended , the coffee tasted so damn good . " You know how you keep saying that if it wasn't for my help , Endora would have done much worse ?

" " Hmm , " I nodded " Well , I'm the one who gave Endora the power she had , I contacted the witches of the past . She wanted access to some dark magic , magic that I now know how to use .

She would force me until I reached my limits , I wasn't allowed to stop until I had retrieved the answers she sought . See this hair , I was born with brown hair ... She started pulling on my life force for some o If the spells , this is the result . Her greed for dark magic and power drove her humanity from her ...

" She shivered and took a deep breath . " Sadly , apart from what I was taught as a child , everything else I've been taught was dark magic . I guess I really am the daughter of darkness ... and now it seems the coven wants me , probably to punish me , to get the spells from me or to use me . God knows .

" Her voice was pained , despite how much she tried to hide it . Her face held bitterness . Her mug rested on her knee as she drew shapes distractedly i fur with her other hand . rug n the : " She tortured you and forced you to perform those spells for her .

I don't see how you can even be blamed for that . Let alone hold that against yourself . " I said , reaching over . I ran my fingers through her damp white hair . " You should never have gone through any of that , I promise you , from now on you're not alone . You don't need to accept me as your mate . But as a friend , I am not letting anything happen to you . We will get through this one way or another . "

" Our eyes met and I saw the storm of emotions in hers .

My hand was still threaded in her hair until she reached up and slowly moved it away . # " I don't want to give you false hopes . " She whispered , looking down . I knew what she meant ...

The chance that she'll never be able to accept me . I didn't believe that though . She may not realise it , but she was already letting me in . She didn't get repulsed at my touch .

She was opening up to me ... I didn't care how long it would take , I'd wait . Even if it was so goddamn hard ... " You don't need to worry about me . " I winked at her , running my fingers through her hair .

" I'd like to think we're friends at least , and friends help each other . " " " I have nothing to repay you with and a witch- " " Always repays her debt . Well , this isn't a favour , I'm just a friend standing by your side . And if you really want to repay me , you can keep making me these amazing coffees .

" I raised my mug before downing it in one go . Our eyes met , and she gave me a faint smile . But even that one small gesture was enough to make my heart race , it lit up her face and she looked breath – taking . I reached over , pulling her closer by the back of her head and kissing her forehead softly .

" Things will get better . I promise . We will figure something out . " I swear ... it will . No one is going to continue to hurt my Luna and get away with it . It was the following day , and I was waiting outside Delsanra's room .

We were meant to be getting to work . This morning I had stopped at the shops to get myself a red button – down for tonight , and I had picked out a dress for her .... but she seemed to be taking forever . " I don't think this fits .

" Her voice came . I raised my eyebrow , impossible ... " Let me see . " I said . " No- " Yup , I just opened the door and stepped inside only to stop dead in my tracks . If she had looked gorgeous before ... I don't know what to call her right now .

She looked stunning , she had applied a little of the makeup I had brought for her , I could see the touch of shimmer on her lids with the mascara and eyeliner , thanks to Rose for helping me out with what to get . She had her hair up in her usual bun and the dress looked just perfect , as if it was made for her .

It had a boat neckline and long fitted sleeves , the dress was fitted to her waist emphasising her perky round breasts and tiny waist , then flared out . The top layer of the skirt was slightly shorter than the underneath net layer . She wore the black tights I had gotten for her and the black heels .

She stood with her toes turned in , tugging at the skirt of her dress looking completely unsure . " It looks a bit ... " " Too fucking sexy ... " I murmured . I swallowed hard , trying not to stare at her body .

Our eyes met , our hearts were racing in sync and it took all my willpower not to pull her close and kiss her . I looked away , trying to distract myself from the lust – filled thoughts that were threatening to consume me , and spotted the open make – up on the bed . " One more thing , and then you're done . . " I have never worn something like this . "

I glanced at her . It wasn't overly fancy , yet I could see why she would say that . She had spent her life with barely anything . She stroked the fabric of the sleeve . " This must have been expensive ? " She asked suddenly . " Not at all . " I said , grabbing the liquid lipstick .

" Umm , I didn't use that because it seems messy ... " She said , stepping back . " No , my sister wears it all the time ... It dries up , once its on the lips , even if we made out it wouldn't budge . " I replied with a smirk . Her cheeks flushed as I opened the tube .

I hope watching Raihana countless times taught me something ... Yes , I am an Alpha who is about to put red lipstick on my mate ... I smiled slightly as she looked at it nervously . " I ... let me try . H " You lost that chance , kitten . Now don't move . " I said , taking hold of her chin .

I swear Raihana put something else on first ... A pencil or something ? No idea , anyway let's do this . It was way harder than it looked . I have no idea how Raihana did this in a moving car ... it was a talent in itself . But the best part was the closeness ,

I got to admire the shape of her lips ... her cupid bow ... how soft her lips were ... After a few painstaking minutes , I had to admit I did a n impressive job , having outlined her lips perfectly with the lip colour before filling them all in .

Her heart was racing and only then did I realise how close we were standing . My hand still holding her chin , I slowly looked into her eyes , my own stomach twisting . As I tried to control my emotions , I swallowed hard when I saw her gaze flicker to my lips before she looked away .

" Now you look like a sexy little doll . " I whispered . Her heart hammered as she looked into my eyes .

" As I said , the most beautiful woman I have ever set eyes on . " One who I want to kiss the very breath out of .

She raised an eyebrow as she tugged free , her cheeks tainted with a hue of pink , she turned and looked in the mirror .

" I ... Thank you ... " She said hesitantly . I gave her a warm smile . " Now if you're done , shall we get to work ? I can't even use the car , we need to hurry . " I said . She nodded , grabbing her jacket . Coleen hates anyone being late . " Let's go , " " 1 " Got it . " I sure was going to enjoy watching her tonight ...

Her Destined Alpha chapter 25 by Moonlight Muse

/ Her Destined Alpha

The Alpha Princess CHRIS I can't believe the Alpha wanted to see me at their own place .... The Alpha mansion was huge , and it wasn't a place that any work was usually conducted . The Luna was precise on that ... no work allowed to be discussed on her premises .

But today the Alpha had called me regarding work . Since Rayhan had left for his training , me and the girls rarely came to the mansion , or as some of us men joked , the Alpha princess's prison . Raihana , the only daughter of our Alpha and Luna , didn't really walk around the pack grounds often .

She didn't train nor did she take part in any of the fighting events . I now glanced around the large garden . The security was tight , there were guards lining the outer walls of the mansion . I knew that was the Luna's doing because she was still scared of witches .

I knew when Rayhan did end up bringing Delsanra home that it was not going to be easy . I glanced at my watch , ten minutes early ...

Seriously , why did I bother to come here early anyway ? I was about to knock when I heard the sound of someone grunting and then a pained whimper . I frowned as I slowly made my way around to the side of the house and noticed someone climbing through a window on the first floor .

I only caught a glimpse of a boot before they vanished inside . Weird . My instincts sharpened . Backing up , I rubbed my hands together and broke into a run before I jumped , flipping in the air , and grabbed onto the ledge .

I swung in through the open window to what looked like an office . I instantly saw a woman rummaging in the desk drawers . She gasped when she spotted me . I realised it was none other than Raihana , and by the looks of it , she was the only one in here ...

Why was she sneaking into her dad's office ? She quickly shoved the drawer shut , running a hand through her glossy waves that were slightly tousled . Her exotic doe eyes with those thick lashes gave me a judgmental once over .

Those pouty , glossy lips of hers caught my attention . My gaze trailed down ... Dang she was super curvy . She wore a brown leather skirt with a black strapless top that did not leave much to the imagination . Her perfect legs were covered in sheer black tights , and she wore thigh - high boots .

" Seriously , what are you doing in here ? " She asked . Her voice snapped me out of my thoughts , and I realised I had just been eyeing up Rayhan's sister ... fuck man . No wonder she wasn't out and about much . I don't think I'd be the only one admiring her .

She was fucking gorgeous , and I mean really fucking gorgeous . " Can I help you ? " She said , bringing me out of my thoughts once again . " Hi to you too Raihana . You've grown . " And I don't just mean your tits . Fuck . She raised an arched brow and looked me over .

" I don't really greet egotistical trash , but ... hi ... now let me rephrase . Why are you in dad's office ? If you've come to see him , go to the front door . " She remarked , wrinkling that cute button nose of hers . " Excuse me ? Trash ? Really , Raihana ?

" " Yes really , now don't avoid my question . She said , wrinkling her nose once again . " . I had just showered . What the hell was with that face ? " I've just showered , princess . " She simply shook her head and turned away .

Damn . Her ass was big , this girl sure was blessed with every fucking thing *** " Since you're here to see dad , I'll show you down . " Funny how she's acting like I'm in the wrong . She was the one who had snuck through that window .... " Sure , mind if I take a piss first ? " I asked the moment she opened the office door . She stopped , raising an eyebrow . Her gaze flickered to the front of my jeans before she glared at me with those gorgeous eyes of hers .

" Seriously don't you have any manners ? " She asked with distaste . I gave her a patronising smirk . " Well , it's a part of human nature , so either you were thinking of me taking a piss , or my dick . If it was the latter , job done . " I remarked mockingly with a wink .

" Why would I want to think about your dick when I've heard so much about it from your countless whoring escapades that I could practically draw a picture of it if I wasn't bored out of my mind hearing about it . " She shot back .

" Oh yeah ? What's the point of drawing a picture of it from hearsay , I wouldn't mind posing naked for you if you want me to . Was I flirting with her ? Fuck maybe ? She rolled her eyes , scoffing as she gave me a once – over . " Hun , it was an example . I mean , why would I even want to draw something so overused and even more overrated .

" She tossed back at me . Dang " Ouch . That hurt . " I whispered , placing a hand on my chest . " Good . " She whispered back mockingly . Now you know where the bathroom is right ? I'll let Dad know you're here .

" She didn't wait for a reply before she walked off , and I won't lie , I almost whistled at the site of that booty . ' Nice ass . ' I said through the link . I frowned when I felt nothing , weird ... ' Raihana ? ' Nothing ... I didn't even feel a block ... It was just as if there was nothing there ... I headed downstairs after a quick stop at the bathroom and saw her on her phone . " Finally . " She remarked , tossing her hair .

The whiff of coconut and magnolia filled my nose . Why was her behaviour actually amusing me ? I was now perving at Rayhan's baby sister , although she was anything but a baby ... Ok , Lola would so kill me right now " Chris !

" Alpha Rafael called , a smile on his face as he stepped out of one of the several doors that led to the entrance hall . He is probably the nicest Alpha I have ever come across , and I have met a lot . " Alpha . " " Drop the Alpha son ! Do I need to keep telling you ?

" He said , meeting me with a hug . He had really been there for me since my parents died . Although I didn't let on , it had hit me hard . I have two younger siblings , so it was kind of tough . One was now mated and gone but hey , I'm dealing , and the Alpha is amazing .

" Come on into the lounge . " He said , Raihana , will you mind getting us some drinks ? Your mom and some of the staff have gone shopping . " The Luna wasn't home ? Interesting .

probably why he just decided to call me here . " Ok . " She said , narrowing her eyes as she gave me a look , which I returned with one of my own . The Alpha chuckled at our exchange , she walked off and I had to fight myself not to follow the sway of her hips with my eyes .

" Is all cool ? " I asked dropping onto one of the luxury sofas . The place was very regal , decorated with marble , gold filigree patterns , grand chandeliers and furniture pieces that cost thousands per item . " Actually , not entirely . " He said , his smile fading .

Ok , shit , not what I was expecting . If this was about Rayhan , I swear he better make it up to me when he gets home . " What I say stays between the two of us . " He sighed , clasping his hands in front of him " I had originally wanted Rayhan to have returned by now , but he is stubborn and well ... I trust you , Chris . I am a very good judge of character and I feel like you are someone I can't trust .

" " Thanks . " I said with a smirk when the door opened and in walked the sexy little doll . She strutted over , placing the tray down . If I didn't look away , she would have given me a full – on view of her breasts . I made sure my gaze was on the Alpha and not his daughter's tits .

" Close the door , Raihana . " Alpha Rafael said . She did so and then sat next to her father , who wrapped his arms around her protectively . I didn't miss the worry in his eyes when he kissed the top of her head . What the hell was going on ?

" Tell me , Chris , how much do you know about witches ? " I tensed , my face paling . Fuck he knows . My heart was thundering as I looked at him , a look of sympathy and understanding on his face .

" A little , " I said . Shit Rayhan , you dipshit , I swear if I'm put in a tight position ... He seemed to be waiting for an answer , so I picked up one of the glasses of juice and sat back . " Do you want me to tell you what I know ? " Raihana smirked .

" Duh . " I frowned at her , trying not to pay attention to the way she was twirling a strand of her hair around her finger . " Witches are elemental , although they can use spells of other elements , they are in tune with their own elements a lot more and can use it with ease . Some witches have more than one element and this can combine into a new element , such as water and air , you get ice .

Only females are witches , their male counterparts are stronger than humans and are referred to as wardens . They can perform some spells if given the correct tools . Apart from that , they hate our kind ... and we don't get on ... What else did he want me to say ? " And do you know how a witch bloodline's work ? " Rafael asked , as Raihana passed him a glass of juice .

" Usually through their female born ? " I asked . I had no idea where this was going . " Yes , usually the eldest daughter of the witch would be the strongest and inherit some of their mother's powers . So when the previous generation passes on , the first female of the next generation's powers will increase . " Alpha Rafael explained while drinking his juice .

I didn't know that , but why the hell were we discussing this ? And how did he knows o much ? " Umm , no offence , but is there a point for me to know all this ? " I asked . He looked at me , his Alpha aura now rolling off of him . " What we speak of today is to never leave this room . " He said , his Alpha command absolute and I found myself bending my head to him . " Understood .

" " I replied . Confusion ripped through me , and I wondered what was going on . " Good , there's a reason for this , Chris . I will understand if you do not want to be a part of this , but you are one of the ones I feel is open – minded enough to understand .

" He looked at his daughter and I could hear her heart racing . For a moment the confident sassy Raihana was gone , and she looked older , a frown on her face and a pout on her lips . I was confused but I stayed silent where was this going ?

" Endora had three sons and no daughters .

" Alpha Rafael said . I frowned , I know that ... It hadn't been confirmed openly to the world , but everyone knew the current Rossi line was born from a witch – werewolf hybrid mother . It was then realisation hit me like a tonne of bricks .

My eyes snapped to the brunette beauty before me , a small humourless smile crossed those pouty lips . " You are looking at the first – born daughter of Endora's line ... Surely you can work the rest out ? " My mind was spinning as I realised what this meant .

Fuck, no way..
