Her Destined Alpha By Moonlight Muse Chapter 63 – Coming To An Agreement RAFAEL I managed to persuade Maria to come downstairs . I was about to take a huge risk , but I needed to do it in front of Maria so her father’s reaction was in front of her , I just hoped that he would live up to his usual beliefs . Things were already bad ; I don’t think they could get worse anyway . ” Maria . ” Amir said , frowning at the state of his daughter , shooting me a cold glare as he pulled her into his arms . She was wearing a gown over her night dress now , her scars hidden away once more . ” Baba . ” She whispered , hugging her father tightly . ” Care to share what happened ? ” He asked me coldly . ” Let’s sit down . ” I said , allowing the father – daughter to sit side by side as I took my seat opposite them . Taking a deep breath , I told him that on her eighteenth birthday , Raihana’s witch side was revealed . How as the first – born female from Endora’s line , she was a full fledged witch , and how Delsanra is the very same witch who gave us the correct information back before that fateful battle .

He listened emotionlessly , a deep frown on his face . His arm was around Maria tightly . I sighed , telling him how Raihana lost control over Maria’s words and Maria’s reaction . I knew she was angry at me for calling her father , but she simply pursed her lips , trying to control her emotions in front of her father . ” So ... I called you ... to tell me what do you think ... You know Raihana ... Do you really think she could ever be like the witches that attacked us ? ” I asked quietly . He sighed heavily . ” L ... I have always been stuck on my resolve ... but , Mari , that’s our princess . I can’t speak for Delsanra , but Raihana ... Yallah ! You cannot turn your back on her ! ” I almost let out a whistle in relief . Thank all the gods above that he saw reason . ” With Rayhan’s mate , I would be vary , until I come to know her better ... But Maria , pushing Raihana away will only make matters worse . .

Family is an important thing ” I don’t need to be told what to do , father ! ” She said in frustration , pulling out of his hold . She looked at me , the look of hurt and betrayal clear in her eyes . ” You need to look at this with an open eye ... I am with you , Mari . You know how much I resent witches . But this is no stranger , this is Raihana , your daughter , my granddaughter ! Why not show the world that you raised her well ?

That witches can be good . You need to realise just how much I disliked this Italian ... ” ” I looked at Maria with doe eyes , hoping for a little sympathy , but she simply nodded , agreeing with her father despite the glare she shot me . ” Yet you said that we cannot defy the will of Selene and mates are made for a reason .

So , you have no choice but to accept Delsanra too . Besides , from what I could tell , she seemed like she is a good woman . I saw the way she got on with Raihana too ... I think this isn't a bad thing , besides , with two witches in the pack ... The Black Storm is probably the strongest pack around . ” Amir finished . Lalmost smiled despite the situation , typical of Amir to think of something like that under these circumstances . Maria shook her head , looking away . ” I just need time . ” She said quietly . I guess her father's words made some sense , or maybe she just didn't want to argue with him .

Either way , I hoped she'd come around . ” Take the time you need Maria , but you will only push not only Raihana away , but also Rayhan . We could all see how smitten he is with his mate , as it should be , and what have I taught you from a young age ? To respect everyone , no matter their differences . This kind of stands now . He himself hated witches ... but if he was being positive , then it was good for me . Maria left the room just as the Omega entered , placing down some refreshments . I thanked her , and she gave me a polite smile before leaving the room too . She closed the door behind herself .

I looked at my father – in – law , seeing the deep frown that had now settled on his face . ” Rafael ... You need to do something about it . Many people hate witches , as do I ... but still , it's at a different level ... The group that is rumoured to have been formed , the witch hunters , are killing witches . Keep your most trusted men by Raihana's side , and the future Luna's . ” He said running his fingers through his greying beard , his sharp eyes looked calculating as he glanced up at me . ” Raihana is currently safe at Alejandro's pack . As for Delsanra , I will make sure she's protected by the future Beta of this pack along with the delta . Don't worry , we will be fine . ” He shook his head , ” I don't think you understand what I'm saying , Rafael .

” I looked up at him , raising an eyebrow . ” Do explain . ” ” You need to weed out those who hate witches and keep them far away from the women , I assure you every pack has them I frowned , why did it feel like he knew more ... ” You know something . ” I said , my eyes flashing . If this involved my family , I needed to know . ” Well , I am not sure , but I have my suspicions about Zain . ” He said quietly . I tensed . The Alpha of Ahmar Qamar pack , his own grandson ” Then you need to be careful what you say in his presence . ” I said . ” Oh don't worry , I won't let the truth out , I can keep my mouth shut . I'm not a fool son , to out my granddaughter like that . ” ” No , I mean for your own safety . ” I said quietly . The elder man sighed heavily . “

My mate and son are dead ... If I die , it's n o big deal ... ” ” For a moment , the proud man I used to always see before me , was gone , replaced by a man whose age was clear on his face . ” For Maria . ” I said , ” And for the rest of u You are part of this family , and if you wish to stay here , you are more than welcome to do so . Maria would be happy Right now ... she doesn't really want to see me .

” I looked at my hand , playing with my wedding ring My stomach twisted and I sighed heavily ... Life was short , and I didn't want to waste even a moment being away from my mate , my beloved , m y Luna , and the mother of : my children . ” She will come around . I may not have liked you , but we both know there's nothing not to like apart from that annoying face of yours . Ah yes anyway , what I mean to say is , you have been a good mate to my daughter . She couldn't have gotten better . ” I looked up and nodded . I didn't agree , especially after all Maria had been through because of me . But for once , all I could do was hold onto someone else's words and hope for the best .

DELSANRA We reached the inn to find it was empty and run down . A large sign read ' CLOSED FOR RENOVATIONS ' but it looked dusty like it had been there for a long time . The moment the king opened the door , I felt her presence . ” She's here . ” I said , Rayhan was next to me , one arm around m y waist , and I was holding Raihana's hand tightly . ” Then I hope she's not going to fucking play hide and seek . ” The king growled as we stepped inside . The door snapped shut and I willed a ball o f flame in my hands . This was a part of me that wasn't sealed , the part I didn't understand , and that pull to fire was pleasant .

It wasn't even like I was calling o n a source , I willed it and it appeared . She stood in the corner of the room , her grey streaked hair in a messy bun . Her startling blue eyes were very noticeably rimmed with thick lashes . A cloak covered her shoulders and she looked tired .

Our eyes met , and my heart thumped as I felt her gaze bore into me . ” Why did you call for me , Delsanra ? ” It was strange for a witch not to call me a daughter of darkness . It was also clear she was not going to address the wolves in the room . I heard the king scoff as Rayhan gave my waist a comforting squeeze , sending a tingle of pleasure through me . ” I don't know if you know me , but I was sold by my father , before I was taken by Endora and made to work for her .

I am a witch who has not had any proper training . This is Raihana , Raihana Rossi , the first daughter of Endora's line . A hybrid whose powers awoke when she first shifted . We need guidance ... A teacher to train us , because we are dangerous without one . " I said with determination , hoping she understood how important this was She looked at us before smiling slightly . " Who would have thought the Rossi line was so deeply embedded with witch heritage too ? Especially since they hate us . I wonder why Hecate blessed them with this power " She remarked .

" It's no fucking blessing . " The king remarked , " More like a fucking hassle . " " She ignored him , looking at me . you when " How do you expect me to teach : you don't even have your powers unsealed ? " I frowned . She had a point , but ... " I can still learn ; we are looking for a way for us to unseal my powers , but Endora holds those answers- " " Her blood . To unseal her spell , we need her blood ; not her sons , nor the witch . Hers and hers alone . " Janaina cut in . My stomach sank So there was no hope . " If you're talking about fucking summoning her , then we are not doing that shit . I killed that bitch . We are not doing that again . " The king cut in coldly . " I said nothing about summoning her , I can help . " She shot back disdainfully . " It seems the years have not made you any kinder " " 1 " Yeah , I don't fucking do nice . " The king cut in .

" Uncle really ? " Rayhan remarked . " Zip it . " The older man shrugged , taking out a cigarette and lighting it . " You can unseal my powers ? " I asked . I looked at Rayhan , who was frowning as he turned to her sharply . " No , I cannot . Only Endora's successor can . But she will need to learn to have complete control first . However , I will only help , if you agree to help me " " And there we have it , a selfish old hag who wants something in return . "

The king remarked . I glared at him , seeing Janaina's irritation . " Seriously , do you need to comment ? " I hissed , glaring at him . " Yeah , freedom of fucking speech or some shit like that , I can do the fuck I want . Oh wait freedom of speech or not , I'd still do whatever shit I want . " He said , with an arrogant shrug . I rolled my eyes . Seriously , this man...

" Well , your royal highness , don't butt in . We need her help . We do not need to anger her . " I muttered . " She's right , Uncle please . " Raihana added . " Listen to the women , unless the Lycan king wishes me to leave ? " Janaina said coldly . " No , we will stay out of it . We need your help . " Rayhan said firmly , giving his uncle a look . " What do you want in return ? " I asked crossing my arms . " I need you to get me an audience with the coven first , with the guarantee of full protection . " " She said . My eyes flew open , my heart thudding . That was not what I was expecting ... Going back there ... " Done . "

Rayhan said confidently . Everyone's heads snapped towards him . He crossed his arms , looking at her . " I have unfinished business there anyway , and there are certain truths I want to bring forward in front of that council . This just works even better . But don't you think helping us with these two first gives us a better chance of facing them and asking for a council meeting ? " Rayhan challenged . > " 1 He had a point ... " True ... " Janaina frowned . " You have our word that we will get you that meeting . Can I ask exactly why you want it ? " Rayhan said firmly . She seemed to hesitate before she spoke . " I am tired of running , for something I have never done . Evading the coven is hard . The moment I know they are on to me , I'm fleeing once again . I've grown tired of it all . I just want to rest ... " She said , her eyes looking distant , and I nodded , glancing up at Rayhan . " Fine . We will get you that meeting . Will you help us ? " " Very well , I will . But it will take time . Learning magic takes years , and if we are to even make a dent in all I can teach you , then we must hurry . The witches uprising is growing closer . " " Uprising ? " I asked sharply , my stomach twisting in fear . She looked up , as we all exchanged looks , Raihana's heart beating in fear .. " Don't tell me you don't know ... The coven plans to eliminate all werewolves in existence . " " And how the fuck are they planning on doing that ? " The king retorted coldly . " By using every witch in their power . They have spells strong enough to render us lone witches ' puppets in their schemes if they so wished . That is why they are hunting us out ... I was once meant to be one of the high witches ... but I was framed and forced to run or die .

" I felt chilled ... Was this why they had tried to pretend to be nice to me , the reason they were searching for me ? To use me ? I felt sick at the thought , they really were just manipulative ... " Then it's time we knocked those fuckers on their sorry asses and showed them that the werewolf race is here to stay . If anyone's fucking dying , it's them . " The king growled . " Or we weed out the snakes and expose them . Not all the council is bad right ? " Rayhan said looking at me .

" It depends , not all are ... but the influence matters a lot ... " I said and Janaina nodded . " Then we rip the cotton wool from their eyes and make them see . " Rayhan replied coldly , frowning deeply . " And those who are hell – bent on attacking us , or have abused my mate , will fucking die . " For once the same murderous aura was rolling off of both him and his uncle . " Very well then . Our training begins now . " Janaina said , looking at the Alphas . "

You should leave , we will be here for a while . ” ” I’m staying . You should head back . ” Rayhan said firmly , glancing at his uncle . It was clear it was not up for any discussion . The king nodded . Looking at Janaina , he narrowed his eyes . ” Make sure you hold your fucking side of the promise , you know we always do our part . ” He said coldly . ” I know , if it was not for that deal back then , I wouldn’t be risking something like this . ” She shot back . ” You need us just as much as we need you . I said confidently . ” Of course ... ” She replied , gritting her teeth . ” Now let’s not waste time , I know the perfect place to practice magic . I hope you are all ready for a little walk ... ” ” Ready as we will ever be . ” I said , as Raihana groaned .

My stomach fluttered with nerves , this was it , the start of some guidance ... and I hoped we could cut the link that Endora had with Raihana ...

RAYHAN

She had led us to an underground cavern . The water from the sea nearby would enter the cave at times , if she hadn’t used her powers , we wouldn’t have even gotten in here . The path was made up of a rough , steep , cliff edge . We definitely wouldn’t be discovered down here . Uncle had dropped us off , checking the area out before heading back .

She had made the girls do a few simple things whilst I just observed , clearly being told to stay out of her way . Delsanra had told her about Raihana’s link to Endora , and Raihana had told her about her dreams and the spells . Delsanra had just asked her if she knew why Raihana couldn’t shift properly , and even my curiosity was piqued at this .

” It’s simple , she is neither in touch with her wolf nor her given name . ” Janaina said . ” Given name ? ” Raihana asked . ” Yes , witches don’t choose names , we have given names . At birth a spell is performed to contact our goddess and she gives her daughters a name , unique to them . Once you have your given name , I do believe it will help towards your shifting . ” She said curtly . Delsanra frowned . ” But Raihana said she felt immense pain when shifting . How does finding a name o f her witch side have anything to do with her wolf ? ” She asked .

” She can’t shift without pain because she i s lost without her given name . When she i s complete by being blessed with her given name , then in turn I’m sure she will be one with her wolf side too . ” Janaina said coldly , ” Pay attention to what I am asking of you . ” ” Yes . ” Delsanra replied , focusing on whatever she was doing . ” So , the first thing we need to do is find m y given name ? ” Raihana asked , from where she sat gingerly , her jacket laid out beneath her legs as not to get dirty . She had been very unhappy about being out here in a grimy cave , but she wasn't really in the position to act like a diva . "

Yes , once we cast the initiation spell and we are given your name , it should strengthen you , and then we can destroy the link between you and Endora . " " 1 We all looked up at her sharply , and I saw the shift in Delsanra . Once again , emotions seemed to contribute to it . Janaina looked at her sharply . " So ... they actually succeeded ... " She murmured more to herself than to us . I could hear her beating heart as she stared at Delsanra . I stood up , walking over to Delsanra , my protective instincts consuming me . " What do you mean , succeeded ? " I asked sharply .

She looked conflicted and intrigued at the same time as she stared at Delsanra , who now stood up . I pulled her into my arms , kissing the top of her head as I stared at Janaina . " You don't even know what she is and you're embracing her ? " She asked as if I was stupid . " I have a pretty good idea , and it doesn't really fucking matter . " I growled . My rage flaring up . " What am I ? " Delsanra asked , she looked up at me sharply , our eyes meeting . The unspoken question was clear in her eyes ; Why hadn't I told her ? My gaze dipped down , and I shook : my head . Fuck she was distracting me with her deep red lips and those sensual looks ...

She looked away , and I knew she was upset with me . " Born from darkness ... Do you really think you were called that for no reason ? Do you even know why you are so strong ? If you were a common witch , you would be dead by now considering how much you went through . " Delsanra's heart was thudding . " I'm sure you will tell me ... " She said quietly , staring at the elder woman . " Well back when I was at the coven , certain members wanted to breed something so taboo that no one would dare talk about it . They had caught an interesting creature-"" Stop it . "" I cut in sharply . " Why ? " Delsanra said , pulling out of my arms . The way her words had started , made my stomach twist ; this wasn't going to be a pleasant story . Couldn't she break it to her gently ? " You don't need to be so fucking harsh . " I said coldly .

" I don't sugar - coat anything , nor is she a child to hide the bitter truth from . How " about we ask her does she want to know the full story or not ? " She hissed .. " The full story , I can handle anything . " Delsanra said coldly , her chest heaving . Could she ? She didn't even look at me as Janaina gave me an icy stare . " They had caught a creature they had been after for years . One they had put spells in place to summon and lure . Once i It was in their hold , they held it captive . " " What creature ? ” Raihana whispered . ” A Demon . ” I closed my eyes as the girls gasped . I looked at Delsanra , who had paled . ” Continue . ” She said quietly . I reached for her , but she turned away . I didn’t miss the way she was trembling , her hands balled into fists . I didn’t like this ... I stared at her , but she refused to even look my way ...

Her blazing eyes trained on the older witch...

1. A Painful Truth DELSANRA A demon . Those words rang in my head , I felt sick . These things didn’t exist on this earth , did they ? ” Well , the little dark creature they had vulgar plans for , wasn’t exactly what they wanted . They wanted a male demon to breed with a witch . Sadly , they ended up with a female demon ...

Yet they weren’t going to drop their plans , so one of the sick members who found the demon rather appealing decided to engage with it . ” Janaina looked disgusted , but I felt worse . Was that what I was ... A thing born from rape ? I wanted to be sick . If my past had been crap before , it was worse now ... I stayed rooted in my place , trying to calm my emotions as I listened to her . ” How do ” you know if it was just a few who were in on it ? ” Raihana asked sharply . I could feel her anger as she stood up and walked closer to me but stopped next to Rayhan , whose emotions were a storm right now .

I didn’t want to look at him ... Not when he had an idea of what I was , yet he didn’t tell me ? Did he want to deny it ? Did he not want to acknowledge it ? ” Because it was my filthy brother who did the act ! ” Janaina snapped with irritation . My eyes flew open as I stared at her . Wait ... This woman was ... She looked at me and sighed heavily . ” Yes , despite the fact I’d rather not be associated with the Silver line , I am Samson’s elder sister . ” She said coldly . I felt dizzy , gasping when a pair of strong hands wrapped around my wrist . The sparks that rushed through me told me it was Rayhan .

” So , once they realised the demon was pregnant , they were rather excited about their sick plans . However , when the child was born , it was more witch than demon and they were disappointed . Hence , you were shunned and considered a failure ... ” She said bitterly . I didn’t know what to think of it , I was just a sick experiment . Despite the fact that my mother was a ... démon , I wondered where she was now : -Did they let her go ? Did she escape ? Was she still in their hold ? ” What happened to her ? ” I asked quietly . ” Oh , well , a demon can’t really give birth to a human child .

It goes against the very laws of nature . She was dying from the moment you were inside of her . Demons are barely four feet tall , she was a small thing . I heard that you were draining her powers within the womb , and they had to use many spells just to keep her alive long enough ” Each word felt like a punch to the gut . If Rayhan hadn’t been behind me , I would have fallen or run . I always wanted to know about my past , but this ? ” So , she died ? Did she ... Did she say anything about me ? ” My voice came out barely more than a whisper . Did demons even talk ? I don’t even know if they had the same intelligence as humans ?

For the first time , there was an ounce of sympathy on Janaina’s face . ” She barely had any understanding . Those creatures aren’t really close to human ... But from what I heard Reginald , Samson and Eldridge laughing over , she didn’t want to give you up . Even as she was dying , she tried to protect you from them . She may not have been like us , yet she understood the bond of a mother and child . ” Her words made my eyes sting with tears , and my heart tighten with pain . My mother ... No matter what she was , she had been my mother ... and she had been abused by those witches ... by the coven ... all of them . Because those in charge back then should have kept an eye on what their people were doing . The pain inside me was growing . Rayhan’s arms wrapped around me tightly , turning and pressing me against his firm chest . I closed my eyes , burying my head in his chest . ” And how do you know all of this ? ” Raihana asked coldly .

” I only found out because I was suspicious of where my brother was going every night . When they realised I had found out , they threatened me to stay quiet , but I knew they wouldn’t let me live , especially when I was tempted to tell the elders . Why do you think I’m on the run ? They know if I manage to contact any of the others , they could be ruined . ” She said bitterly . She looked at me and sighed . ” There are two sets of witches after me , Reginald to kill me and the coven as a whole to retrieve me in this coming battle . We witches don’t have the compassion like humans , we do what is best for us ...

I am tired of running and you wish to be free . So shall we get back to our lesson ? ” ” Yeah , you really don’t have a heart . Give us a fucking minute . ” Rayhan hissed , turning and leading me out of the cave . I didn’t even want to look at him ... Was this what I was ? A thing that wasn’t even human ? He stroked my back and I suddenly pulled out of his hold . ” You knew ? ” I asked , my anger flaring , a My heart was pounding , I didn’t care if I was about to be unreasonable . ” I had a suspicion , but does it matter ? ” He asked softly . I hated this , hated it all ... ” Yes , it does ! ” I said , turning away , my eyes blurring with tears . " I don't deserve you . " I whispered the words that tugged painfully at my heart .

A low growl ripped through his throat , he spun me around and into his arms . " Don't ever say that ! You're mine , and I don't care what you are , kitten , you're all that I want . " He said , his hold on my elbows was tight and our hearts were pounding . We glared into each other's eyes . His anger faded when he looked into mine . " I love you Delsanra , every part of you Fuck , what do I need to do to show you that ? " He whispered , despite the anger that I could see in his eyes . I looked away , " I don't get it , if the bond didn't exist , would you : still love me ? " He clenched his jaw , his eyes flashing green . "

Yes . That's not even up for debate , You're my world , and I will get you the justice you deserve . Those witches who played such vile games They will pay , for everything they have done to you . I promise you that . " The wind whipped through my hair , the sea crashing against the shore and the darkening grey skies only seemed to fuel the storm within me . But through it all , his promise held . I looked down ; this man was crazy , crazy i n love with me . His fingers curled under m y chin , tilting it up . " One more thing ... You are not darkness . I f they want to see darkness , I'll show them what that truly means ... I've never seen someone who has been through as much shit as you have and is still so fucking pure .

" He whispered . I grabbed his t – shirt , standing on my tiptoes and crashing my lips against his , igniting a storm of pleasure through us both . His arms instantly wrapped around my waist and we kissed as if there was no tomorrow . His tongue slipped into my mouth , kissing me roughly . His hand squeezed m y ass and my stomach fluttered when he throbbed against me . I was done doubting everything ,

I would believe in myself and give these witches a run for their money . Just the way Rayhan was fighting for me , I'd fight for me , by his side . We broke apart , both of us gasping for breath . " Fuck kitten , you're getting better . " He smirked . I smiled coquettishly . " Oh ? Is the alpha having trouble keeping u p ? " I whispered , licking his lips sensually , kissing him softly when I felt him groan quietly . " Fuck , you know you will always win when it comes to this game . " He murmured huskily . I smiled softly . No , he would always win because he was perfect , my perfect yum yum .

" I'm ready , ready to give them hell . " I said , my eyes flashing with defiance . " That's my good girl . " He replied sexily , his gaze dipping to my lips . Oh , I wish I could be his good girl and drop to my knees , but now was not the time ...

1. Progress DELSANRA Night had fallen , and the spell to initiate Raihana was in place . She was nervous as I walked over to her . " It's going to be ok , look if it worked for m e , it will work for you . " I whispered . She nodded . Despite my truth , she didn't treat me any differently , and if Hecate was able to expect a demon hybrid , she would surely accept a werewolf hybrid . Janaina began chanting the spell , and I gave Raihana a quick hug as she stepped into the triangle on the floor .

The room seemed to still , the candles dimming . Suddenly , glowing symbols spun around Raihana , her hair flayed as if defying gravity and her eyes fluttered shut . A blinding light appeared around her and Rayhan had to shield his eyes but I kept m y gaze ahead , my heart beating . The symbols seemed to sink into Raihana's skin , and I smiled in relief as I felt the radiating aura that burned off her . She was a fire witch . A whispery voice fluttered past my ears , and I smiled , catching the word on the wind . " Serafina ... " Janaina's eyes opened and she dropped her arms as the candles all flickered .

Raihana looked at us and smiled softly . " Serafina . " She repeated . Janaina nodded , " Befitting , for it means fiery one . You have the fire element . " She looked at us and then at Raihana . " Believe that that is your true name , and with acceptance , try t o shift once again . " Raihana nodded . Her confidence made me proud . " Well Rayhan , a little privacy ? " She said , giving him a look . " You sure you are going to be ok ? " He asked her . She smiled confidently . " Please , I'm a Rossi , I'm always ok . " She replied just as confidently . He gave a small nod , smirking slightly and turned his back .

I did the same and he pulled me into his arms . Once the sound o f bones breaking came , I spun back , my heart thudding . Letting out a breath of relief at the sight o of the large brown wolf that stood there . She looked at Rayhan and I saw the smile that crossed his lips . " You got that right ... " He said , glancing at me . His smile only grew . " She can mind link . " " That's great ! " I said , hurrying to the large wolf . I hugged her tightly , she growled softly and I giggled , knowing that it was her purring . " Thank you . " I heard Rayhan say quietly t o Janaina . " I am only fulfilling my part of the bargain . " She replied . I stepped away as Raihana grabbed her clothes in her mouth and trotted off . I looked at Rayhan , the emotions I could sense from him made me emotional too . I wrapped my arms around him . " Thanks , kitten . " He said quietly .

I didn't need to ask what he meant , helping Raihana by summoning Jantaina . I rested my head on his chest , I loved him , s o much . Things weren't going to be easy for us , not yet anyway , but they were beginning to look up . Although I knew it would be harder from here on out , at least we had got the ball rolling ..

RAYHAN

Three weeks had passed since we had first been stuck with Janaina . The girls were making immense progress . From control t o spells , they were pitched against each other , and although Delsanra's powers were locked away , Janaina was teaching her to tap into her other abilities . At will , she was able to shift , and we learned her firepower was easier in this form . Janaina also taught them to use their elements without spells.co Although Delsanra's element was not fire , her demon side gave her total control of fire , and hence she was Raihana's ultimate weakness . Every ball of flame that she cast at her had no effect on Delsanra , she just ate the flames away .

I learned that witches who passed on their abilities did not mean they passed on the same element , just as Raihana's was not the same as Endora's had been . The woman was an earth witch , but she had resorted to dark magic , more than anything else . Watching the girls grow , focus and train was impressive . I was sometimes their opponent , but both were women I didn't want to hurt , and it frustrated Janaina .

I even felt comfortable enough to leave them for less than half an hour when I would pop out for supplies or food . I had become an errand boy , but I didn't mind if it meant my mate and sister were getting the help they needed . Getting alone time with Delsanra was hard too . Sometimes we'd sneak away , but I couldn't go too far either , knowing Raihana was here and we needed to stay vigilant . But sometimes I needed a taste of my kitten , a kitten who would tempt me more and more daily . I couldn't wait for the day we could get back to having some alone time .

Over the last few weeks , I sometimes saw Janaina watching Delsanra with a tiny hint of a smile on her face , but it was rare , and she'd cover it up . I didn't get why she couldn't just accept her as her niece . But it seemed witches had a totally different mind – set when it came to family . Speaking of family ... Dad said Mom wanted to speak to me . Things had been tough at home . Mom had been silent , struggling with the new news , but I also knew she was in a lot of pain .

Mom was very protective and caring . She was reserved around others , but she tried doing her best for them . I know she wasn't perfect , but I also knew nothing was black and white . Mom was the way she was for a reason , losing some of her closest people to witches had been hard for her , nevertheless , I had hope she'd come around ... The fact that she wanted to talk to me today was a positive sign . The connection down here was crap so whilst the women practised , I climbed the cliff , sitting right above them as I dialled Mom's number . " Ya hayati ... " Her soft voice came , my heart ached at how tired she sounded .

" Mom , how are you ? " " Not angry with me ? " She asked gracefully , but I knew behind her cool front , she was worried . I smiled slightly . " I can't be angry with the woman who brought me into this world . You got upset  . I get it . I just hope you change your mind . " I said quietly . She sighed , " I assure you , three weeks without Raihana , I regret my words ... but I just need a little time to understand all of this . I will work on it . " Guilt riddled her voice , although she wasn't ready , I was glad she was willing . " Your father said you three are with a witch who is helping the girls . Is it true ? "

" Yeah , and guess what ? I haven't even told Dad this , but you can put me on speaker so he hears too . " " 1 " Oh ? " " What is it , son ? " Dad's voice came . " The first night here , the witch who is helping them , performed a certain ritual . It helped Raihana get in touch with her pre-ordained given name , and with it , she was able to shift at ease . She can mind link too . " I said softly . I heard Mom's gasp and her weak laugh of happiness . I hoped it would bring her some relief that , thanks to a witch , Raihana could tap into her wolf side . Dad chuckled . " Oh , now that's good news !

This witch is the one that Alejandro and Kiara learned about our history from . " He explained to Mom . " I see ... Yeah , it was going to take Mom time , but we were ready for it . " When will you return home ? " Mom asked hesitantly . " Once the girls have learned a good level of control , there are a few important things we need to do before we do come home ... " 1 I said quietly . " Will you be waiting to welcome us home ? "

She was silent for a moment . H " Of course . I couldn't stop the smile that crossed my face . " Then I cannot wait . Anyway , I'll speak to you guys soon , love you . " " I love you too , Rayhan . " Mom said . " Take care son , love you and give the girls my love . " Dad added . I hung up staring out at the glittering water . The sun was up more often these days ... Yeah , we had a lot to do before we got back home ; unlocking Delsanra's powers , dealing with the link Endora had on Raihana . The coven , we needed to put a stop to them before they attacked , according to Janaina we had under a month . Dad had also told me that Grandad had mentioned the witch hunter group that was attacking witches . He was also going to see if he could get any information from Zain . To think that he may know more about them , maybe even have links with them , made me sick .

But then again , wouldn't he have recognised Delsanra ? Maybe not ... She was older and healthier now . But still ... I would get to the bottom of that too when the time came . I answered a few texts from the girls and Chris , mostly they were just having their usual banter , with Rose saying Chris was becoming a better man . He asked a few times about the training , never once did he directly mention Raihana , but the way his texts were phrased , it was obvious he was being careful not to . ' So , I was thinking , should we do something ? Like it's been ages since we saw you guys , I'm sure you lot need a break right ? Maybe a barbecue and a catch -up ? ' Rose text . I frowned , I missed them .

' I guess we could use some supplies from home . ' I replied . ' Yes ! ' Lola texted with a string of emojis . I glanced at my phone , seeing Chris had seen my message but he hadn't replied . ' See you three in a few nights . ' I text , " I frowned , I missed them . ' I guess we could use some supplies from home . ' I replied . ' Yes ! ' Lola texted with a string of emojis . I glanced at my phone , seeing Chris had seen my message but he hadn't replied . ' See you three in a few nights . ' I text , turning it off . Hoping he got the hint that I wanted him there too . Raihana too ... I slipped it into my pocket , thinking I'd ask the girls what they wanted from back home and tell them to bring me a few charged battery packs ...

1. Next Step DELSANRA We were just sitting and eating the food Rayhan had brought us when Janaina approached . Over the last few weeks , I could tell she was nothing like Samson .. Despite her stoic behaviour , she was different . And I could sense her pride when either Raihana or I succeeded in something . She even remarked that she would be known as the teacher of two of the strongest witches of our time . " I think we are ready to do the unsealing spell of your powers . " She said , looking between Raihana and me . She smiled confidently . " Oh , I cannot wait ! " " There's no chance that Endora might try to sabotage it ? " Rayhan asked sharply . " No , she can only make a link when Serafina is in an intense emotional state or when asleep . " " And I will not let her . " Raihana said , drinking some of her j20.

" And then , once my powers are released , can I deal with getting rid of Endora ? " I asked . That was something I was looking forward to , after everything she had inflicted upon us all ... " Yes , and this time cut off her link completely . " " Janaina said . She removed a necklace from around her neck . " This necklace was taken from her neck before she was killed . She had spelled this rock ... but it contained her blood . The spell she used upon you ... this is the key .

" I " Wait ... how do you have it ? " I asked sharply . " Or more like , why do you have it ? " Rayhan asked . Janaina raised an eyebrow . " I knew she sealed your power , and I foresaw your escape ... I knew the time would come when I would need this ... " She smiled as she stared at the selenite rock , a triumphant look on her face .

My heart thumped as I looked at her .. " So back then , when you asked for the Lycan king to do you a favour in return I It was to help Delsanra ? " Rayhan asked . Speaking the words that I was thinking . " Aww ... " Raihana chimed in . Janaina shot us all a cold glare , her deep blue eyes piercing into Raihana , but something inside warmed me at that " " I am only doing this for my revenge . " She said curtly . " Of course . " Raihana said in a tone that clearly meant that she didn't believe her . It had been tough on her . She had been near tears in the first two weeks when she snapped a nail or when couldn't condition her hair properly .

Unlike me , she had never lived rough , and although Rayhan had gotten several thick blankets for her , she had awoken annoyed a few nights and saying she refused to sleep . Janaina had ended up using a spell to make her sleep simply so the rest of us could rest , I felt bad for her but Rayhan said it was fine . Over the weeks however , I saw the change in her . She was so exhausted by the end of the day , she'd curl up and sleep with appreciation . Her nails were cut short and she didn't argue about it , her long hair was always pulled back and her face was now makeup – free .

Although the first few days she would apply some sneakily from the case she had carried in her handbag , she had also settled for some flats . She was trying her best , as was I , and the friendly rivalry we had was fun . Rayhan got possessive every time I shifted and didn't allow her near me . It had gotten annoying , and until I snapped and asked for a reason , I wouldn't have known otherwise .

(FLASHBACK – A WEEK AGO)

" Rayhan ! Why do you do that ! " I snapped . I was shifting a lot easier now and it helped with my powers . He pouted slightly , frowning deeply . " Because when you're in that form , you're tempting ... to everyone . " He said unhappily .

My eyes flew open in surprise , and I raised an eyebrow . That was a joke ... " Very funny , Rayhan . " I shook my head and was about to turn away when he pulled me into his arms , I could feel his hard – on pressing against my stomach . " It's the truth , kitten . " He said , his eyes flashing green , before he kissed me possessively . I knew from his words that he was telling the truth , but it was hard to believe until I had asked Raihana , and she had laughed and agreed with him , looking a little amused . After that , I didn't blame my poor jealous yum yum .

(END OF FLASHBACK) Everything had been set up for the spell and I was feeling nervous ... I knew the extent of my powers , although it was for fleeting moments , Endora used to channel it and use it herself . I just hoped the teaching I had been given was enough . " Just make sure you keep control of your emotions and powers . " Janaina said , I nodded as Raihana clenched and unclenched her hands , taking a deep breath . " Ok ... I'm ready . " " " You girls have got this . Good luck . " Rayhan said , pulling us both into his arms , kissing Raihana's forehead before letting go of her . He cupped my face , kissing me deeply .

" This is it . " I nodded , my heart pounding . It didn't feel real , this was really happening ... " I love you . " I whispered . " I'm going to answer that after this spell . " He replied with a wink , kissing me once more . Despite his calm and confident exterior , his heart was racing , and he was worried . He kissed me harder and I could only reciprocate it , the pleasure at his touch simply consumed me . We broke apart , breathless . Tiptoeing , I kissed his cheek and moved back . He cast Raihana a smile , caressing her cheek before backing away from us as Janaina stepped forward .

" Remember , this spell is going to take a lot from us all . I will keep the barrier raised with you two inside . Keep going , even when your body wishes to give up . " Janaina murmured . She took off the crescent – shaped selenite necklace and murmured a spell , before she was able to turn the tip . She stepped forward , pouring the few droplets of blood that had been inside the rock into the centre of the wheel symbol that we had drawn in the centre of the pentagon .

It fizzled out and she quickly backed away , chanting a spell and sealing us inside . " I will succeed . " Raihana said with confidence . " I know . " I said , giving her a small smile . I was nervous , but I had confidence in us . " Let's get this done , sister . " She smirked with a nod at me . I took a deep breath and stepped forward , taking my position at the tip of the fifth point of the star , my bare feet touching the point .

The blood seeping out of the wheel would soon reach me ... We only had one shot because the blood was only enough for one try ... We couldn't mess up ... But I had told Janaina not to tell Raihana that , not wanting her to feel the pressure that was riding on her shoulders . She took a deep breath , her powers blazing as she began to whisper the spell ... I closed my eyes , ready .

The Veil RAIHANA I would give it my all . I wanted to do something , be more than just the Rossi Princess , I wanted to be the best version of myself . Be worthy of more ... The pain inside my chest at the loss of someone who wasn't even mine to start with clawed at me every day , so I put my all into learning what Janaina taught us instead . I missed him , but why ? We were nothing ... I wanted to show the world I was more ... That I was worthy ... and I would .

Even though Endora couldn't interfere , she tried to . I often felt that presence in my head . Now that my link with my wolf had strengthened , she alerted me to Endora's presence , and I was able to push her away . I also knew she would try to interfere with this spell , but I was not going to let her . I began chanting the spell , looking at the woman I considered my best friend now . Although we hadn't known each other for too long , the bond we had was perfect .

She was the sister I never had , the friend I yearned for , and I was never going to let Endora ruin this . I would free her from her shackles . I chanted the spell that Janaina had drilled into my head , a spell that we ourselves had put together with snippets of different spells .

The exact spell Endora had used on Delsanra was lost , but Janaina was confident we didn't need it . Just the way Endora broke the councils ' seals on Delsanra , it was doable with a strong witch . I felt my power storm around me , my eyes fixed on the blood that now ran through the lines of the symbols . Despite it only being a few drops , it was now enough to cover the entire diagram . The candles blazed high , and I chanted louder , seeing the glowing chains that now surrounded Delsanra , symbols running along the chain links . They wrapped around her entire body , across her neck , forehead , torso ... I kept going , feeling Endora's presence in my head ; her anger , her screams that were trying to break my concentration , but she didn't know me well enough .

Despite my temper over trivial things , I didn't get riled up quickly over most things . Even when the Wendigos and Manangals attacked us when we were visiting Uncle Al's pack years ago , I was calm . Things like this didn't bother me . If only Endora knew that , she'd have realised she was fighting a losing battle . I watched the chains around Delsanra tighten . She was lifted from the ground , her head dipping backwards as the chain trembled . I kept going , feeling the strain on my power , but I didn't stop , doing my best to shut Endora out . I was sweating .

The urge to wipe my itchy forehead was strong , but I didn't stop , watching the symbols grow as I kept going . My hands raised readying for the exact moment when I was to perform the next step ... When I saw the first crack in the chain , I chanted the next part of the spell louder , motioning with my hands outwards . My powers blazed and I felt the agonising pull as if something was being ripped from me . My head was bursting with pain , but I kept my focus on Delsanra . The chains were shattering but ... my vision was darkening ... No ... No ... I had to keep going www . ' I can help ... ' Her snake – like voice hissed in my head . Hell no . I wasn't going to fall for that ... I slammed her out of my mind . The chains were breaking . Delsanra's eyes flew open , blazing bright orangey – red , and the surge of power I felt from her was ... shocking . Her eyes snapped towards me and she frowned in concentration , closing her eyes . I felt her exude so much power that I was barely able to keep my stance . I gasped , realising she was working on breaking the seal too . Endora's scream of rage was echoing in my head , and just as I felt like I could no longer keep going , Delsanra let out a scream , shattering the rest of the glowing chains .

The blast knocked me back , but before I even hit the wall , Delsanra raised her hand , slowing me down . Her eyes glowed , her hair flowing around her as she landed on the ground gently . The moment her toes touched the floor , a wave of power trembled the very ground we were standing on . She gave me a small smile , and I smiled back . We had done it . s DELSANRA Raihana's eyes fluttered shut as I lowered her to the ground , she had done it . I had powerful and free ... Janaina never felt so ... lowered the barrier just as I reached Raihana , lowering her head gently to the ground .

She had fallen unconscious , but the amount of power she had used had been immense . " It's done . " Janaina said , sounding awed . I looked at her sharply . She sounded a little too surprised . I stood up , instantly being pulled into Rayhan's arms . My core throbbing as his body moulded against mine . I hugged him tightly as he whispered ' I love you kitten ' in my ear , making my heart flutter . I tilted my head up and his lips claimed mine in a sizzling kiss .

" Weren't you expecting us to succeed ? " I asked Janaina , once I had moved back , despite his hold never loosening on me . " There was a lower percentage that it would succeed ... But I was hoping you two were capable enough ... " " I frowned , but didn't say anything more , I kind of understood her point , but at least i t was done . ANE " Now is the best time to seal Endora away " She said , looking down at Raihana . Whilst Serafina is weakened , Endora's hold on her is probably strong . " " " I hope you didn't just put my sister in danger . " Rayhan said coldly . " No. Not more than she was already in . " Janaina replied icily . " But we don't have much time , Delsanra . You know the plan . " I nodded , kissing Rayhan's cheek .

I moved back , knowing we had no time to waste . Raihana helped me , and now I will help her . The spell we were going to use was one where I would enter the place between this world and the afterlife , to find the crack Endora had created in the veil between the two and block it . The crack Endora was abusing the link between her heritage and the blood ties she had with Raihana . " Is there no other way ? " Rayhan asked quietly .

I could sense his conflict and reluctance . " I will be ok . " I said . " Trust in us . " " I don't like the risk ... " He said quietly . I cupped his face , " How can anything keep us apart ? You would rip apart the world for me . Do you think I wouldn't do the same to return to you ? " I said . He gripped my wrists , pulling them towards his chest , a frown crossing his face . " Then remember ... I will follow you and bring you back if need be . " His voice was quiet , but the promise in it was absolute . My heart thumped , and something told m e he would stick to that . I raised an eyebrow , running my hand slowly down his chest .

" There's far too much I want to do .: for m e not to return . " I whispered , my gaze trailing down his chest , my hands grazing those divine abs of his . I saw him swallow and smiled seductively , my fingers teasingly dipping into the band of his jeans . Reaching up , I kissed his neck . " Oh ... and I have a plan for this handsome neck of yours ... I think everyone needs to know you're taken . " I said , possessively . His eyes flashed green and he gripped my hips tightly , kissing me once again . We could never get enough . The incinerating pleasure I felt at his touch , the way he made my core throb , my body flutter and react , it was all just so ... perfect . " Can't wait to see what you've got in mind . " He said huskily , his fingers slipping under my top , grazing my lower back . I shivered in pleasure before pulling away . I couldn't wait either , but right now , Raihana needed us .

It was an hour later , and we were ready . Raihana lay before us , she still hadn't awoken , having exhausted her abilities . Rayhan was sitting behind me , his legs sprawled ahead and I was tucked up against his chest . Although Janaina had scolded him , his presence helped , so she didn't argue after warning him not to be a distraction . I sat there , eyes closed , hands upwards . The spell cast around us was a combined one by me and Janaina . Like all spells , there was a risk , and with this one , there was a strong chance I could be pulled into the other world and die . However , with my powers unsealed , the chance of that was low .

I whispered the spell , feeling the pull , and knew I was no longer a part of my body . Everything was dark , and I felt myself being sucked into that darkness . I could hear myself chanting , but it was coming from around me . I was moving faster and faster until I could hear the rush of wind in my ears . It was so dark that I couldn't even see anything . It was just nothing . Then suddenly , I saw a faint light getting closer and closer .. I felt a rush and I was suddenly standing before the light .

It was a large crack of radiating beams , in this dreary darkness . The sound of talking , laughter , and merriment flitted through , along with a delicious scent , second only to Rayhan's , and a whisper of temptation to cross through pulled me further . My mind felt light and I smiled , reaching out for the light ... Wait ... Didn't someone tell me not to fall in for that ? I felt suddenly confused . What was I doing here ? The feeling of fingers gently ghosting along my hips made me blink . The faint sparks of their touch made reality slap me in the face . Rayhan . Raihana . Endora . I backed away , my heart thundering as I realised what I had been about to do ... Cross over " Fuck ... " " Oh interesting ... " A whispery voice came . – My stomach twisted and any light headedness that had settled on me vanished . " So , it didn't work ... What a shame . I guess we will do this the hard way . " I knew who that voice belonged to and the anger that I felt inside me blazed like a phoenix reborn from the ashes ...

1. No Way Back DELSANRA " Endora . " I said coldly , the blistering rage I felt swirling around me , burning bright i n the darkness before the veil . Her outline became clear and soon her face sharpened , a face I never wanted to see again . She looked the same yet different ... " Delsanra . " " It's a shame you're not burning in the pits of hell . " I said coldly , circling the woman .. I could feel her tension , her lips pressed into a taut line . Her fists clenched tightly . " I am not so easy to beat ! " She hissed . " You're dead , Endora . No matter how much you claw your way to the place between both worlds , there is no return for you without the help of powerful witches ... " I said , approaching her . My heart was racing , but it wasn't in fear . Her dark orange eyes held unmasked resentment . " Stay back ! " She hissed .

So , she too knew I was far stronger than her ... " I won't , because I am done with your selfish plans . You almost made Serafina kill those whom she loves ! You made me commit so many evil deeds ! Do you think you deserve anything but the most severe form of punishment ? " I asked in disgust . " Don't think just because your abilities are unsealed that you can defeat me ! " She hissed . " I don't think I can , " I said softly , stepping up right before her . The flames that danced around me made her step back . " I know I can . " " We could have been strong . " She spat , but I knew that she already knew she was not going to get far .

" I'm not a fool . The thing is , even if you had treated me well and kept me by your side , I wouldn't have ever agreed to your sick plans ! " I snapped coldly . " Don't you see it ! We are both daughters o f darkness ! Hybrids ! " I looked at her in disgust . From all the memories I had ; her Telling me I was pure evil , pure darkness , that I should be grateful that she was letting me live .. Yeah , I wasn't falling for . any shit . " Oh please , even if I am considered darkness , I'm not .

My mother wasn't evil , the witches were , the ones who subjected her to so much ! " I hissed , my anger bubbling strongly . Endora seemed to realise her words weren't going to work and rolled her eyes . " You are as stupid as my sons were ! " She spat . Her gaze fell on my neck , and I smirked coldly . " No , more like we aren't stupid enough to fall for your crap . The thing is , Endora , I'm here for a reason , and I don't have any time to waste with the likes of you . ” said , readying myself for the very spell that would cut her tie with Raihana . ” There’s nothing you can do ! ” She hissed , but the fear was clear in her eyes . I smiled confidently .

” ” Actually , I can . ” I whirled around , chanting the spell that I had worked so hard on , a spell that would cut the soul link that a witch had with her ancestors . When our abilities begin to drain , we can call on our ancestors to help us , but this would remove that link from Raihana , and with it , end Endora’s control . Despite it being one of the strongest bloodlines in history , with Raihana’s consent , it was the only option and one she too felt was the right thing to do .

Endora’s hold was far too strong ... She tried to attack me , but with Raihana having inherited half her powers , she was far too weak , and with my full potential unsealed , she didn’t stand a chance . The flames blazed high around me , a blinding force began spreading around us , and soon they began to materialise into swirling lines . The blinding glows from the threads were of every colour possible , some looped across each other , some connected and spiralling off elsewhere . Weaving all around us like the roots of a tree Spreading into the vast darkness that surrounded us .

These were the threads that bind us ... the link to call upon our own ancestors ... I looked down , seeing that there were t three very different lines that connected me ... Two passing through beyond the veil ... one was a glowing deep red , the other was a smoky glittering black ... it stood out from all the ones around us . The third was a blinding white and it spiralled back the way I came . Rayhan ... the string that connected my bond with Rayhan ... I now understand when people talk about breaking the bond or a rejection ... there was actually something connecting us so deeply that it was wrapped around our very souls .

THE I looked at the black string , I knew what it was ... My demon side ... My heart thundered as I stared at it , before remembering I needed to focus on the spell at hand . My blazing eyes snapped to Endora , who was pale as she tried to counter it . It was then that I saw it ... The thread that connected her to Raihana glowed brightly and was crossing into the darkness away from the glowing entrance of the crack in the veil . Keeping the spell intact , I whispered another . “

Don’t do it ! ” She shrieked , lunging at m e , but before she reached me , motioned my hands apart , feeling the extreme force of the thread I was trying to break burn within me . I didn’t stop , whispering the last words of the spell . Endora’s scream of rage and anguish filled the air , ringing in my ears , my head pounding at the sheer level of her shrieks .

She rammed into me , not caring for the flames that were burning her skin .

" If I can't have her , then I will have you ! " She hissed . She began chanting a spell , her hands tight around my throat , but I simply glared at her . An earth – shattering blast knocked her far back , slamming her into some of the threads that were still woven around us . Hitting the ground , I walked towards her , grabbing her by the front of her black dress . " I think if the god of death himself cannot contain you ... I will do the favour for him ! " I hissed . A spell that Endora used to use on me years ago came to the front of my mind . I chanted it , watching the flames – wrap around her , my own pain and memories returning to the forefront of my mind . She shrieked in pure agony . " Stop it ! Stop it ! You cannot beat me ! " She hissed . "

This is the spell you loved to punish me with , right ? Do you know ... the flames didn't really work on me ... I'm sure you are feeling it so much more ... " I said , watching the never – ending flames eat away at her . Now to send her to Hades himself ... I dragged her up , ready to push her through the veil as she struggled and writhed in my hold . " No ! No ! I need to kill my sons for disobeying me ! You cannot defeat me ! " I ignored her , dragging her towards the shimmering veil . The crack was inviting me to it ... I looked away . Focus Del ... This was the part I had planned on my own ...

I didn't want to risk Endora finding another way back to hurt those that I loved I dragged her past the crack in the veil to an untouched part of it . " W – what are you doing ?! " " Do you know that when you made me contact the ones beyond the grave for answers ... you allowed me the chance to learn the darkest of spells ? " I looked at her coldly . " You – you can't ... You cannot open a gateway ... " She looked horrified , and I smiled wryly . " Oh , I assure you I can .

" I said . I dropped her to the floor , the flames still burning her . The agony and pain on her face were clear , but her anger still overruled it . I closed my eyes , chanting one spell I refused to tell Endora ... A spell that I had once attempted to perform but I had missed a few vital words ... The spell that had eaten at my life force and the reason my hair had turned white . A spell that she had wanted me to perform for her ... and in turn , she had been ready to let me die in the process ...

She watched in pure horror , realisation settling in as she stared at me with pure hatred and rage . " You ... with this spell I could have got the very first witches to earth so easily ... I know . It's why I would never have told you . My power stormed around me , and even when she tried to grab me , it was futile ; her hands were not even able to touch the surge of blinding force that emanated from me . How the tables have turned . ” I will change ! Please ! Delsanra !

” She shrieked . The first cracks in the veil appeared , and I could feel the pure heat that came from within . The burning flames could be seen , and I smiled . ” Look Endora ... the lowest pits of hell await you . ” I whispered coldly . Leaning down , I grabbed her by her arm and dragged her to the veil . I didn't wait to hear anything from her , ignoring her shrieks and struggles . The power that this spell was taking from me was far too much .

My chest tightened , and I used my full force to knock her through . ” If I'm going , so are you ! ” She hissed . She yanked me by my hair , but I held my ground . The ghostly feeling of someone's hands tightening around my waist told me Rayhan was waiting for me . I raised my hand , blasting her through the veil , and instantly let it snap shut . The last thing I heard was her scream of despair before I was met with complete darkness . The only light came from the hundreds of threads that swirled around me ; their glows dimmed . I did it ...

Her Destined Alpha By Moonlight Muse Chapter 69 – Silent Love
DELSANRA I staggered away from the wall . I had actually done it ... Endora was gone ... for good . I looked down at the two lines that led through that crack that still promised happiness ... I walked towards it slowly , brushing my finger along the black string ... My heart racing as I looked at the barrier . I grabbed onto the string , tugging it gently . I thought I heard a sound from beyond the barrier . My heart thumped louder as I approached it , by any chance ... Could my mother be there ? On the other side ? ' You can do this kitten ... ' Rayhan's faint voice came from somewhere far away , and I hesitated , my eyes flitting to the crack ... I won't cross through . I just ... I needed to see ... I inched closer , feeling a slight tug on the black thread .

A little whimper filled my ears and my heart pounded faster . ” Hello ? ” I whispered , reaching for the veil . My fingers were only inches from the crack . When small slender hands pushed my hand away from it . I gasped as the hands waved , motioning me to stop . I fell to my knees , my heart thudding as the owner of the hands , peered through the barrier . My heart was clenching as so many emotions exploded within me . She was small , maybe just under four feet tall . Her skin was a pale , pinky – white . Her eyes were large and doe – like , a brilliant shade of red, rimmed with beautiful thick lashes . She had a button nose and pouty plump lips , her hair was dark red , cascading around her shoulders and down her waist .

She had a tail with a pointy tip and her small red dress was wrapped around her curvy yet delicate figure . Everything , including her pointed ears and those fangs , told me she was who I thought she was . She tilted her head , looking at the thread that bound us , her eyes widening as they too were blurred with tears , just like my own were . " Mama ? " I whispered . z She smiled and nodded , her tears streaming down her cheeks as she glanced behind her , treading to the tip of the veil , before reaching out and cupping my cheeks . Pain suffocating me , I closed my eyes the moment her small hands cupped my face .

Her hands were soft ; I could sense her nervousness , her excitement and her worry . I felt a soft warmth envelope me from her gentle touch . " You're my mum . " I whispered . Her eyes widened and she smiled , nodding . I wrapped my hands around her tiny wrists . The happiness that consumed me knowing I was meeting my mother ... the sadness knowing it was the only time ... the pain , remembering what she had been through ... I cried softly , as she simply cupped my face , brushing away my tears was futile as only more took their place . Her own tears were streaming down her cheeks as she gazed at me like I was the most amazing thing that existed . She suddenly tensed looking around and I realised the crack was growing , the whispering and chatter becoming louder . She was about to pull away but hesitated . " Already ? " I whispered , knowing that we had to separate . She nodded , slowly moving her hands away . How could you love someone you had never met before ? The pain in my chest was choking me . I reached out to her but she stepped back , waving her hands , warning me to stop .

She looked around , then pointed at me slowly before placing her hands on her heart . I smiled sadly , placing my hand on my chest , then I pointed at her and formed a heart with my hands . I didn't need to say the words . I knew she understood , because no matter what , a mother would . She smiled before looking around as the crack began to deteriorate . I kept my gaze on her , and she held my gaze until it snapped shut , forever . The weave of threads vanished and I was left alone in utter darkness .

I bent down as pain consumed me , tears spilling down my cheeks . ' Come home kitten . ' Rayhan's soft voice was far ... My home ... with those that still lived ... I stood up . Taking a deep breath , I focused on returning to my mate . Endora was finally gone . Forever . My eyes flew open , I was still in Rayhan's arms . " You did it . " Janaina's voice barely registered as I turned and hugged Rayhan tightly , breaking into soft sobs . His arms tightened around me , caressing my hair as he gently rocked me . " It's going to be ok . " He whispered . I didn't know if he even knew what happened , but all I needed was his comfort , his embrace ... his love . Because he was probably the only person who could ever understand me so deeply .

He shifted my position , making me straddle him as I hugged him tighter . He kissed the side of my face , my salty tears on his lips . I looked into his eyes , and he stood up , cupping my thighs , he carried me from the cave . Neither of us spoke . He simply walked away until we were a distance away , when he finally sat down on the ground , placing me in his lap and wrapping his arms around me tightly , as if shielding me from the entire world . My safe place .

I clutched onto his shirt , letting my emotions out . He whispered words of comfort and sweet nothings . Not once did he stop caressing my hair , placing soft kisses on my cheeks , lips , nose , forehead and head . My comfort . I don't know when I stopped crying , or when I had fallen asleep , but when I opened my eyes , we were still sitting there , his jacket now also wrapped around my shoulders . It was still warm , but night had fallen and a cool wind was blowing . " I'm sorry ... " I whispered . " Don't be . " He said softly , cupping my face and kissing my lips sweetly . I looked into his grey eyes that held such love for me and smiled . " Won't you ask me why I'm crying ? " I asked softly . " No , because I know when you are ready , you will tell me . " He replied . I rested my head against his shoulder , inhaling his soothing scent , and closed my eyes . I remained silent for a bit before I spoke . " After I cut the connection between Endora and Raihana , I decided to send her to a place she can't try to return from ... She was hell - bent on returning , so I had to be sure ... and then ... I met her ... " I whispered , my tears threatening to leak from my eyes once more .

" Your mother ? " He asked softly . I looked up at him and nodded . He cupped my face , kissing me passionately , and I kissed him back , my heart racing as I kissed him back , my heart racing as I sobbed against his lips . He tried to move his head back , but I refused , kissing him until I His arms enclosed me once more . " I'm sure she was happy to have been able to meet you . " He whispered . I nodded , " She looked happy . " I whispered . " I'm sure she's looking down on you ... and I'm sure she's happy her beautiful daughter is alive and living her life . " I simply nodded , unable to speak ...

A comforting silence fell between us , and only when we heard footsteps did we turn . " I'm sorry ... but you used a lot of your magic , I brought food . " Raihana said softly . I looked up and moved away from Rayhan , standing up . She smiled , placing the large plate down before standing straight once again . " 1 " Thank you . You took a big risk for me . " She said softly . " For us all . " I corrected . We smiled at each other before hugging each other tightly . A shaky laugh left her , and I couldn't help but smile . We were both free . " I'm kind of jealous that you made her smile . " Rayhan's sexy voice made us break apart . We exchanged looks before bursting into laughter at the jealous pout on his face .

" Oh , come on , I might make her smile but I'm sure you make her experience a whole lot more . " Raihana said , sitting down . I smirked before climbing into my yum yum's lap . His eyes widened in surprise at the look on my face and I knew I had shifted . I smiled seductively , subtly pressing down on his dick . " A whole lot more .

" I said , tracing a finger over his lips . " Fuck , kitten . " He muttered , throbbing hard . Raihana giggled as she picked up a sandwich piece . sandwich piece . " I'm so hungry ... for sandwiches ! " I said , about to pull away when his eyes flashed . " I don't think so , kitten . " He murmured huskily , one hand tangling in my hair as he pulled me closer , his other arm tightening around my waist . I loved when he became dominating . " What are you going to do , punish me Alpha ? " I teased . " OK ! I'm GOING ! " Raihana shrieked before she ran off with her sandwich , but neither I nor Rayhan noticed , our lips crushing together in a hot , heated kiss . The hidden relief that we had overcome this huge hurdle filled us both . I grinded against his dick , kissing him back with everything I had ...

1. Teasing RAYHAN A few days had passed , and it was the day that Lola , Rose and Chris were popping down . We had told Janaina , who had only agreed if the girls managed to come to a certain level in their training . With both of them at their best with no seals or mind intrusions , they were learning fast , and she had begrudgingly told us that we may enjoy one night . She herself was going to see if she could find any answers regarding the witch hunters or anything regarding the matter .

I was grateful to her for trying and for everything she was doing with the girls . I hoped that one day , when everything was sorted , she could live the life she wanted . With her gone , we had full reigns to do as we wished , and I actually was looking forward to it . The others were going to bring the meat , the grill and everything else we needed . The weather was hot , and I think the three of us were looking for some normality . Being out here , constantly training and learning , wasn't easy . Delsanra was handling it best , but that only showed that she'd truly had a rough life . " Guess what .

" Delsanra said , wrapping her arms around me from behind . " I'm sure you'll tell me . " I replied , enjoying the sparks that rushed through me at her hold . Was it bad that I wanted her to wrap her hand a lot lower ? " I have some good news . " She whispered seductively in my ear . I felt my dick harden , I unwrapped her arms from around me , turning and pushing her up against the wall . " Oh yeah ? What's the good news kitten ? That you're teasing me so fucking much that I want to take you right here . " I murmured huskily , running one hand up her thigh as I pressed myself against her . She bit her bottom lip , her gorgeous blue eyes sparkling with anticipation . " Wait until tonight ... but ... the good news is ... I know a contraceptive spell . Sooo you ... can ... " She ran her hands down my abs before she cupped my balls . Fuck . I throbbed hard as she smiled .

Come inside of me . With no worries . She finished , reaching up and kissing my lips , just as we heard Raihana's footsteps . " Ok , can you stop making out with her all the time , Rayhan ?! We need to get ready ! " Raihana retorted . I raised an eyebrow as Delsanra smirked , did she not see that it was her friend who seduced me ? " Get ready ?

" I asked , watching Delsanra walk off , my eyes on her ass . " Yeah , it's the first time in a while that we can have some fun and be ourselves . " Raihana said , brushing her hair back . I didn't reply . When I had told them that Chris was coming , I had heard the way her heart had raced ... The way she tried to play it off as if it was no big deal ... Even Chris had changed , Lola said there'd not been one woman he'd entertained lately and he was often lost in thought . The only time he lost it was during draining , when he and Blake ended up matched . I didn't get what his problem was with Blake , but Dad and Lola had to break it up .

I watched Raihana run her fingers through Delsanra's hair , saying she was going to curl it but there was no electricity . " Girl , we don't need electricity , look . " Delsanra said , whispering a spell as she grabbed the plug for the curler . " Oh perfect ! " Raihana replied happily and got to work . I raised my eyebrow , who would have thought ... magic was coming so easily to them . I was proud of them . " Rayhan , can I do something with your hair ?

" Raihana asked . " No. " " His hairs gorgeous open . " My kitten added , her eyes running over me appreciatively . " It's grown over the last month , hasn't it ? " Raihana added . " I actually like it . " Delsanra added . I smirked . " Exactly , so you don't need to add your opinion Ri . "

She rolled her eyes . " Fine , so I told Rose to get one of my bikinis and she picked one out for you too ... I made sure it's your colour ... " She said t o Delsanra , making me freeze . " What ? " I asked . " What ? It's hot ? " Raihana retorted . " So you two are going to be parading around in bikinis ? " I asked . It was my turn to run my eyes over Delsanra Well ... I was looking forward t o this ... She blushed lightly under my intense gaze , and Raihana snickered .

" Seriously , you two are so sexed up . " " In love . " Delsanra corrected her . I zoned them out , trying not to imagine Delsanra in one or I'll be fucking hard in n o time . I walked out of the cavern , thinking about Chris again . What the hell was I supposed to say to him when she was going to be literally torturing him ? She really wasn't an angel . Night had fallen and the other three had arrived . Chris and I were already grilling the steaks , lamb chops , chicken wings and fillets . Mom had been the one to marinate it all for us , along with some desserts she had made . In her own way , she was trying , and I really appreciated it . I think this time away had helped , and I just hoped once we returned things weren't so bad .

The girls had gone into the cave as Raihana wanted her stuff . I didn't miss how Chris ' gaze kept on flickering towards the cave , which was a little away from where we were at . " Impatient much ? " I remarked , as I flipped open the two cooler bags that contained the drinks . " Of course not . " He replied cockily . I glanced at him , both of us were dressed i n shorts . The weather was warm ; the perfect night for a barbeque and a swim . The water was hitting the shore gently and I was looking forward to spending some time in it with Delsanra later . " So , what's the game plan for tonight ? " I asked , taking out the cheese slices and layering the buns . " Game plan ? " He cocked his brown . " " Come on man , you're quicker than that . " " He means Ri . " Lola added . I turned only to see she was alone , wearing a black NIKE swimsuit with little shorts and her hair tied up . " She isn't a game or nothing . " He replied . " What is that , like a test question ? " " No ... If you like her , I was just wondering . " I shrugged . This conversation was weird . " She'll find her mate . " He said , but the bitterness was clear . I didn't know what to say to that . It was o n them . " Well ... it's between you two . " I said , running my fingers through my hair .

He looked at me surprised , before he smirked . " What is this , giving me indirect permission to do as I want ? " He mocked . " Yeah , because I know you . " I said , not phased . Yeah , I knew him , I also knew he caved for her . I heard a laugh , I turned along with Chris and Lola . The three girls were walking together , but my eyes instantly honed in on Delsanra ... She was in the middle , in a sky blue bikini that left her killer body on perfect display ... Fuck Her eyes met mine and she placed her hand on her other arm – not realising she was squeezing her breasts together even more tantalisingly

. Her entire body was fucking oiled up and fuck did I want her I heard Chris mutter a swear and Lola chuckle , but I was too lost in my kitten to even bother looking at the others . Her hair had been curled , she had some eye makeup on and some gloss ... She ruffled her hair , blushing lightly as those startling blue eyes that matched her bikini met mine . A body chain fell between her breasts and circled her waist . She stopped before me and I swallowed hard . " Hey ... " " I said , unable to string two fucking words together . I pulled her into my arms , making her gasp when her chest hit mine . " How about we skip the food ... and I enjoy you instead ? " She blushed , her fingers reaching up and playing with the necklace that hung around my neck .

Tiptoeing she kissed my neck , before her lips brushed my ear . " As much as I like the sound of that , how about dinner first , dessert later ? " " Guys ! We can hear you ! " Raihana said , both of us ignored her , our lips meeting in a passionate , hungry kiss . I squeezed her ass , loving how it wasn't all covered by the tiny fabric , throbbing against her stomach . Our tongues teasing with the others , fuck she was too good . She moaned against my lips , sighing softly . " Ahem , guys ! " Lola said , grinning as she shoved me a little . " Come on , friend time , remember ?! " " Yeah , I mean , I get they look smoking hot , but let's not get ahead right ? " Chris said . I didn't miss Raihana ruffling her hair , it seemed they hadn't really spoken . "

Ok sorry . " Delsanra said , kissing my chest before pulling away . I now turned to look at the others , Rose was in a turquoise bikini with a kaftan over it , but it was Raihana who made me raise my eyebrow . Wearing a barely – there metallic bikini set , actually , I don't think you can even call it that . " Isn't that like five sizes too small for you ?

" I asked frowning , sure I get that she was mega confident , but she was practically naked . " Rayhan don't . " She said unhappily . " Yeah , I don't get why you're complaining . I'm the one who's going to be trying not to stare at her . " Chris's voice came through the link . I glared at him only to find him busy flipping the chops . I did not want to think of my friend staring at my sister . " Relax handsome . " Delsanra said , " Come on I'm hungry . " I kissed her neck , deciding to just enjoy the evening.
