1. Moments To Cherish RAYHAN " I got music ! " Rose said , as she began setting up her portable speaker . " Good because I want to dance . " Raihana said , " Do you know how nice it is to actually feel human again ? " " I'm sure it's pretty good , babe . " Rose replied . " Come on , I think you needed it . " Lola added . " I'm surprised you even survived . Did you cry over a broken nail or not having a plushy to cuddle up too at night ? " Chris mocked . Raihana shot me a glare . " Hey , I didn't say anything . " I added . Chris smirked . " Damn ... I guess I know you pretty well ... " " She was pretty good . Actually , she could probably flip all of you on your asses if she wanted . " Delsanra said , and Raihana shot her an appreciative smile .

" And – something tells me , even if she didn't succeed , you would help her . " Rose added with a smile .. " Absolutely . " Delsanra agreed as she bent down to spread the mat . My eyes fell on her ass , and I did my best not to shamelessly stare . I wanted to do a lot to that ass tonight . e . " These two actually partner up against m . " I added , taking the buns off the rack , the cheese had melted perfectly . The food smelt great , but she smelt fucking better . " ?

Not jealous , are you , Ray ? " Lola added . " Why should he be jealous ? He's probably happy , right babe ? " Rose asked , kissing Lola on the lips before she took some of the cans . " No beer for those two . " Chris added . " Hey , you can't say that ! Besides , I have m y wolf now , so I can probably tolerate more ... " Raihana said , unsure despite her words , as both Chris and I began placing the food down .

" Oh yeah ? " Chris asked her . Their eyes met , and we were all pretty aware of the tension between them . " " Yeah ... " Raihana said , poking her eyes out at him . Chris's gaze dipped down before he looked away quickly . Well fuck , this was weird . " Um .. " Rose tried to change the subject , but the excitement on her face was obvious . " Oh , this tastes so good ! " Delsanra said , biting into a hot wing . " Ouch hot ! " " Careful kitten , I don't want you to burn yourself . " I said , taking it from her as she blew on her fingers . I gripped her wrist , sucking on her fingertips softly . Her heart thudded as our eyes met . " It isn't that hot , I can handle heat . " She said softly . " I know you can . " I replied , taking my sweet time sucking on her fingertips before placing a soft kiss on her lips . The lingering taste of the spices on her lips mixed with her own sweetness .

I moved back slowly , breaking a piece of the wing and placing the chicken in her mouth . A flash of a camera going off made me glance away from my gorgeous kitten . Rose winked at us . " Sorry , you two are just so cute . " She said , placing some chicken in a burger for herself as she tossed her phone to the ground . " Just like you love . " Lola said , caressing her back before they kissed . Delsanra and I began placing food into one of the paper plates , before I lifted her onto my lap . She smiled , placing the plate on her sexy thighs . The gap between them made me want to slip my hand right there and kiss her senseless whilst pleasuring her . She smiled softly , kissing me before she held one of the two burgers up to me .

I took it . One hand still snaked around her , as a gentle breeze brushed past us . Some old songs played on the radio , and it felt great . Once this crap was all over , I was looking forward to more moments like this . I kissed her deeply , cherishing the moment ... RAIHANA Seeing him hurt so so much , I wanted to go over to him , pull him down and kiss him the moment I had seen him . I didn't miss the way his heart had raced , the way his eyes drank me in and darkened before he forced his gaze away , leaving my stomach a knot of nerves . If I could , I would have shamelessly checked him out , goddess he was perfect .

" Ok so how long do you think you lot are down here for ? " Chris asked , did his voice always sound so good ? " Well , we are doing pretty well . I'd say there's just the one step that we really have to do . " I said , tossing my hair back as I looked into those piercing green eyes . " I can see that . " He remarked , his gaze dipping to my breasts . ' Eyes up here , Somers . ' I mind linked , biting into my burger .

Only for his eyes to flash as he watched me bite into the burgers . Ok crap , I didn't mean for him to focus on my lips ... ' You can mind – link now , Ray was saying , congrats . " " Thank you , I can shift too . ' I replied , my heart skipping a beat . ' Wouldn't mind seeing your wolf later . ' ' Is that a date ? ' I asked airily .

We could call it that if you wanted . ' His husky reply came . My stomach fluttered . I looked away , so glad , I didn't blush much . The others had been too busy with their own partners , and I was relieved . We carried on eating , making small talk , sometimes teasing one another . Although I dared not get involved when it came to Chris , I didn't trust myself ... Wait I just agreed to show him my wolf later ! Oh , why did I do that ?! " This is a change . You haven't gone for Chris even once tonight . " Rayhan said , looking at Lola . " Well , he seems to have made fewer sexist comments recently .

" Lola said , giving Chris a look . Chris smirked . " Unless you want me to ... I mean , I have many . Can I say , looking at you women tonight , I want you to put on a nice show for us Greek gods- ' She was up in a flash , startling Rose as she lunged at him . " Don't you dare ! Do you want that pretty face of yours beaten ?! " She growled , smacking him once before pushing him onto the ground . I tried not to pay attention to his abs , or refined V , as he held Lola at arms – length laughing . My gaze dipped to the bulge in his trunks and my heart thudded as I quickly looked away , picking up my beer can . I looked up , sensing someone watching me , and saw Delsanra smirking at me , wriggling her eyebrows suggestively .

suggestively . I pouted , giving her a look . She had caught me , she smiled , and I didn't need the mind link to know that she was telling me to talk to him . Well , that was inevitable anyway since I said I'll show him my wolf later ... After we had eaten , we all ended up going into the water , splashing around . We broke into two teams , Rose , Del and me o n one , and the other three together . I and Delsanra used a few spells to splash the rest , and obviously , with magic , we were winning .

And maybe we weren't splashing them but drowning them ... " That is not fair ! " Chris said , breaking the surface of the water as he shook his soaking hair . " Aww , what's wrong babe ? Can't handle some women ? " Rose teased as we all burst out laughing . " Can he ever handle women ? " Lola remarked . " I'm sure I can get Del on our side . " Rayhan said , giving her that sexy smile of his that I knew worked on every damn woman . " Hey ! No playing dirty Ray ! "

I said tossing a wave of water between him and Delsanra . She shrieked backing up as Rose caught her . Unlike the rest of us , she couldn't swim and was using her abilities t o stay afloat . They both giggled as Rayhan was knocked back by my wave of water . " Oh , I love magic ! " I laughed , when suddenly something grabbed my ankle , dragging me underwater . I screamed in alarm before I was pulled under . I looked down , only to see Chris . I glared at the smirking culprit . '

Jerk ! ' I hissed through the link , trying to free myself from his hold , I couldn't even use a spell ! He smirked , making my heart skip a beat . He let go of my leg only to grab me around the waist and pull me towards him . ' Well , we can all cheat princess . " I couldn't even think of a reply , my mind going haywire with his body pressed against mine . ' Fuck ... ' ' What ? ' ' Shit , I wasn't meant to say that . " I didn't know how to shut my thoughts off properly yet ! His chuckle came through the link , his hand reached up , brushing a strand of my hair back before he swam to the surface . My heart was a rollercoaster , and even when we broke the surface , I wasn't able t o focus . His arm left me and I felt as if I had suddenly become empty . Even when he , Lola and Rayhan were clearly planning something , the moon shining down on him as he high fived them , I couldn't think of anything but the fact that the pack playboy had won me over . Goddess help me ... I was in love with Chris .

1. My Mark DELSANRA Rayhan lifted me bridal style as he carried me out of the water . I smiled , looking up at him . I swear , this guy was not a man but a god . His long hair looked so sexy soaking wet , the water dripping down his body with his black shorts hung low on his hips . I bit my lip , running my fingers through his hair as I kissed his neck , exactly where his mate mark should be , hearing him suck in a breath . I smiled softly , moving back , tracing my finger there . Tonight was the last night where his neck would be so empty ... " Care to share ? " He asked softly , placing me down and passing me a drink . I simply shook my head . " 10 " Guys ! We are going to head off alright . " Lola said with a smirk , her arms wrapped around Rose , who was kissing her neck . They were such a cute couple . " Go get some . " Chris snickered .

" I will asshat ! " She shot back with a grin , I could tell she was not offended at all . Raihana was busy towelling her hair , and I had to admit the girl knew how to do everything perfectly . Her back was towards Chris , and in those tiny thong bottoms , even a saint would look . I hid my amusement , watching Chris discreetly as he drank a cold can of fizzy . His eyes kept on going back to her . I turned back to my own man as I sipped my drink . His hands trailed up my thigh , making me forget everything else . I wanted him . I locked my arms around his neck , holding my can in one hand . " Should we get out of here too ? " .

I whispered suggestively . His eyes flashed and I smiled , feeling him throb against me , his eyes locked with my reddish – gold ones . " Hell yeah , let's go kitten . " He whispered , kissing me hungrily . I kissed him back , moaning against his lips before we broke apart . He pulled away forcefully , glancing at Chris and Raihana . " Mind keeping an eye on her ? We're – getting some alone time . " He said with a smirk at his friend . Chris raised an eyebrow . " Not at all , I can keep an eye or two on her . " He said , glancing at Raihana , who was touching up her gloss . " Besides , we're going to go for a run .

" Nice , I would ask when that plan got made , but I don't really care right now . " Rayhan said , his eyes raking over me , lingering on my boobs . " Good . " Raihana remarked . " See you guys later . " I said , placing my can down as Rayhan's arm snuck around my waist and he led me away . We walked for a little while , my arms around his waist , enjoying the moment . Everything felt so peaceful , and I didn't even realise I needed this . With the upcoming trials , I wasn't sur what would happen , but ... I giggled looking at the tent in Rayhan's pants . " That's funny . " I smirked .

" Really kitten ? Do you blame me ? You're a fucking tease . " He said , smacking my ass . I rolled my eyes . " Or you just find me incredibly tempting ... "" I don't think that's even up for debate . " He said , gripping my hips and yanking me against him . I bit my lip , my gaze flickering to his . My core throbbing at his proximity , the burning need for him only growing . " I love you . " I said softly , brushing my fingers through his hair . " Love you more than I can ever express .

" He replied , leaning down he claimed my lips in a soft , tender yet deep kiss that ignited every emotion within me . I melted into his touch , kissing him back slowly yet sensually . We broke apart slowly ; his scent , his touch , his taste leaving me lightheaded . " I want to mark you . " I said softly , looking up at him . His eyes filled with curiosity as he ran his fingers through my hair , his thumb caressing my cheek before he cúpped the back of my neck . " What you got in mind ? " " Sit down . " I commanded softly . He smirked , dropping to the ground . I climbed on top of him , positioning myself right on top of his hard manhood . I throbbed hard and I knew he could smell my arousal . "

Well , I want everyone to know your mine , although I can't naturally bite and mark you , I came up with an idea ... Do you trust me ? " " Is that even a question ? " He raised an eyebrow . I knew he did . I ran my fingers through his hair , our eyes simply gazing into each other's , as much as we wanted to fuck the brains out of each other , the bond we had was so much more ... He tilted his head , raising his eyebrows . " Dad says you shouldn't delay good things . " He remarked teasingly .

" Then we should listen to Papa Raf's words of wisdom . " I said amused , taking a deep breath . He chuckled before I moved closer , kissing his neck sensually . " This might hurt a little . " " Go for it . " He whispered , stroking my back and squeezing my ass . I knew my bite would simply heal , but I had a plan ... Closing my eyes , I sank my teeth into his neck , throbbing when he groaned . Oh fuck , that sound was so sexy ...

I tangled my hand into his hair , feeling him throb against me . I grinded slowly against him , the taste of his blood filling my mouth . I extracted my teeth , licking u p the blood as I gazed at the mark . Now here we go ... I whispered the spell I had prepped , brushing my finger over the marks my fangs had left . Swirls began spreading from the two holes where my teeth had pierced his skin , spreading out into a tribal design .

I guess I was lucky that I could design my own ' mark . ' I smiled , not finished . Along the tribal design on each side , in the ancient Tongue , symbols of our names began forming , each one curled around the tribal design in a deep green ink . Shimmering brightly against the black , I frowned as I ended with the final words , " We are one . ' Those were written in the ancient tongue too . . " All done and you are healed too . " I said , kissing his mark softly . " .

I want to see it , but I don't even have a phone . " He said , a small frown on his face . " One sec . I think I can show you . " I said .. Whispering a spell , I let him see through my eyes , a spell similar to the one I had cast where I showed him my memory . With my powers unsealed , I didn't need anything to help cast such spells . He whistled softly . " I love it . Fuck , it's perfect . " FF " I'm glad ... This here ... is my name , and this is yours ... This says ' we are one . " " I whispered , my heart beating nervously as traced each word.co I I didn't ask for his opinion on anything , but I hoped he was ok with it ...

1. Hot Under The Night Sky DELSANRA He tangled his hand in my hair , pulling me close , his lips crashing against me in a passionate , burning kiss . I gasped , kissing him back . He didn't need to reassure me ... he loved it . He flipped us over , my back now on the ground ; pushing my blue bikini top up , squeezing my breast . I moaned softly , my back arching . He broke away from my lips , kissing me roughly down my neck , leaving a trail of marks in his wake . The pain and pleasure combined made me moan loudly , and I didn't care that we were out in the open . My eyes fluttered open when he unhooked my top , tossing it aside , squeezing my breasts before licking and sucking one of my nipples . The oil that covered my body only made his hands gently glide smoothly . Pleasure rushed through me in delicious waves , every nerve in my body reacting to him , awakening a burning desire inside of me .

" Fuck Rayhan " I moaned as he sucked on the other nipple . One hand left my breast grazing down my stomach . Before he reached my lower stomach , his fingers brushed along my bikini bottoms , making me shiver in anticipation . He suddenly slipped them inside and I cried out as his finger slipped between my slick lips . I parted my legs , giving him all the access he needed , his finger playing with my clit . " You're fucking perfect kitten . " He whispers before his fingers plunge into me . I moaned loudly , pleasure erupting within me as he thrusts another finger in fucking me with them , harder and faster ..

He kissed my neck , before going lower , his plush lips leaving a trail of burning kisses between my breasts and down my stomach . He licked and sucked on my lower stomach , making me shiver with pleasure . " So beautiful ... " He murmured huskily , pushing the soaking blue fabric of my bikini bottoms aside , " And this ... is fucking perfection ... " He kissed me slowly , making me whimper . I wanted more ; I wanted him to go lower . As if hearing my wish , his tongue darted out , flicking my clit sensually . I gasped , the electrifying sparks making me moan . He didn't stop , licking and sucking it so perfectly . " Oh fuck ... Rayhan ... That's it ... God ! " " Tell me , kitten , do you like it when I lick your pussy ? " He whispered , making my cheeks burn .

" Ahuh . " I nodded . He swirled his tongue slowly , his fingers thrusting hard inside of me . " I didn't understand kitten . " He teased . " I do ... Fuck ! " I gasped when he sucked hard on my clit . " That's my girl . " He whispered , speeding up . I was in heaven ; I couldn't even think straight . The only thing consuming me was the immense pleasure that rocked my body . I cried out , my orgasm building , my stomach knotting in pure ecstasy ..

" Fuck baby , I'm going to come ! " I gasped , yanking his head up just as my orgasm rushed through me like a tidal wave I couldn't breathe or speak . My vision was darkening . His fingers didn't stop as he fucked me , my juices squirting out . " Fuck you look so fucking hot kitten . " He murmured huskily , slipping his fingers out . He reached over , sliding them between my parted lips and into my mouth . " That's my good girl , taste yourself . "

I sucked on his fingers breathlessly , my eyes locked with his . There was something I loved about him calling me his good girl . " Now my turn . " He murmured , gripping my thighs . He hoisted me off the ground , burying his face in my dripping pussy . " Fuck ! " I gasped , as his tongue lapped up my juices , only resulting in making pleasure course through me once more . I slipped my legs down from his shoulders , getting up and pulling him closer , kissing his lush lips – I could taste myself on them . He kissed me back harder , that primal hunger of his clear in his dominant kiss . I grazed my fingers down his chest , slipping them into shorts , my hand wrapping around his thick , hard shaft . Oh fuck , he was perfect . I moaned as I felt him tense in my hold . Beads of pre – cum were already coating his swollen tip as I pushed his trunks down completely .

I wanted him too ... I pulled away from his lips , satisfied when he groaned as I ran my hand along his shaft . " Fuck kitten . " He growled . I kissed his neck , my hand sliding up and down his dick as I placed soft kisses along his chest and down his perfect stomach . Every inch of him was completely lickable . I could worship him day and night . " Want me to take your cock into my mouth . " I teased with a pout . I wanted to hear him say he wanted it . His darkened eyes looked down at me as I licked my lips , bent down before him , ready to worship him in every fucking way . But I wasn't expecting him to smirk . "

Yeah , take that cock into that pretty mouth of yours , like a good little girl . " He whispered , his hand tangling into my hair . " Patience baby . " I whispered , bending down I ran my tongue along its entire length . A moan escaped me at how fucking good this felt . His groan only fuelled me further . My other hand fondled his hardened sac as I didn't leave any inch of his dick free from my touch . When I was satisfied , I finally rolled my tongue along the tip , making another sexy groan leave his lips . " Fuck ... You're good . " I took the tip in slowly , my mouth stretching around him . Fuck he was huge . Slowly , slowly I began sucking and bobbing along his length , my hand wrapped around what was not in my mouth .

His hand became tighter in my hair and he began fucking me harder and faster . My lips burning , yet the pleasure I felt was turning me on all over again . I moaned against him , sucking my cheeks in and wrapping myself around him completely . Even when he began thrusting harder , his dick hitting the back of my throat , I just wanted more . My pussy throbbed for a release that only he could give me . My eyes never left his face . Watching how sexy he looked lost in pleasure . "

Fuck ... God that's it Delsanra ... Fuck ... " Just as I felt him nearing , I grabbed the back of his sexy ass as he rammed into me , his moves becoming jerkier , his body heat radiating off him as he came in my mouth as his orgasm tore through him . " Fuck ... " He groaned . Yanking me back and staring down into my eyes . I swallowed it all down , licking my lips sensually . " Tease ... " " 1 He pulled me into his arms and bit into my neck , sucking hard as I moaned loudly , only for him to crash his lips against mine , kissing me roughly . " Turn around , kitten , on all fours , I want to see that ass of yours as I fuck you until you drop . " He murmured , groaning against my lips .

I ran my hand along his shaft , realising he was already getting hard . The joys of having such a big sex drive ... but I wasn't complaining . He could do me all day and I'd be happy . I obeyed , turning around . I wriggled my ass , looking over my shoulder as he made quick work of removing his swim shorts completely . I bit my lip , trailing my eyes over my perfect man . He delivered a sharp slap to my ass , making me gasp . " Fucking gorgeous . "

He murmured , rubbing his dick between my ass cheeks . I bit my lip , feeling his tip , which was moist with precum rub against my back passage . It sent a different kind of sensation through me and I arched my back . He seemed to pause , before thrusting ever so gently against it . A small sigh escaped me before he went lower and slammed into my vagina with one rough thrust . Even with my dripping pussy ,

I felt him stretch me out , his hands gripping my hips as he began fucking me hard and fast . Fuck he was good . The sounds of our lovemaking , our skin meeting , and the sighs of pleasure that left our lips moulded with the song of the sea kissing the shore . His hand tangled into my hair , keeping my head arched back as he fucked me rough and fast . I could barely breathe , wave after wave of pleasure wrapping me in endless euphoria , " Fuck , I'm coming ! " I moaned . He tapped my ass hard , making me whimper , sending a shooting wave of pleasure to my core . " Not yet , kitten ...

" He growled , before adding in a breathless grunt . " I can come in you right ... " " I nodded and he sped up . Yanking me up , his hand wrapped around my throat , the other hand finding my clit as he fucked me from behind . " I can't hold out , baby ! " I moaned wantonly . " Hold on . " His command came and I bit my lip , fighting my release . He bit into my neck , sucking hard , making me gasp . The pleasure was threatening to spiral and when he began ramming into me faster , his movements becoming jerkier and harder , I knew he was nearing . " Come for me , kitten . "

He whispered huskily , and I let myself go , crying out in pleasure when my orgasm ripped through me , just as he shot his come into me . It was out of this world and I saw stars , my eyes stinging with tears brought on by my intense orgasm . " I love you , baby girl . " His strong arms wrapped around me , supporting my body from falling face forward to the ground . " I love you too , Rayhan . " I managed to whisper . Life with Rayhan was really , truly perfect ...

1. A Promise Under The Moonlight CHRIS The moment we were alone ... The tension between us grew . Although my entire fucking body told me to go over there , yank that tiny thong off her and take her right here again and again until I dropped , I knew I couldn't do that . Why the fuck was she so fucking tantalising ? She finished putting her gloss away and stood up . " So , shall we shift ? " " Yeah , let's ... " I said , my eyes unable to leave her gorgeous brown ones . She held my gaze , reaching behind her when I realised she was about to take off her bikini , not that it left much to imagination ... " Fuck . " I muttered , dragging my eyes from her tits and turning my back on her . I knew she was smirking , and I quickly pulled my shorts down , shifting . The crack of bones behind me , told me she had shifted too . I turned to look at her ..

My own wolf growled at the sight of her . She was fucking gorgeous . Her glossy brown fur , those glowing eyes ... Yet something about them was still doe – like i f that was even possible . She had her head held up high , as if displaying her full beauty , and yeah , I fucking liked it ... Ok , now even my fucking wolf wants a piece o f her ...

' You're fucking gorgeous princess . ' ' I know . ' Came her proud reply . I walked over to her , smirking in my head at her reply . Our eyes locked and I nuzzled my nose into her neck . She responded perfectly , leaning closer to me , and I wondered why we couldn't have this connection as humans . Why couldn't I pull her into my arms and tell her I cared ? So fucking much that she was all that I could think of ... I don't know how I was going to survive when her mate came along . ' Shall we run handsome ? Or are you planning on worshipping my gorgeous form all night ? ' ' I'd rather worship your human form . '

Ok fuck , why do I speak without thinking ? ' Yeah , let's run . ' I added quickly leading the way . She didn't reply , but she was beside me in seconds , running along . Neither of us spoke , sometimes nudging the other , trying to slow the other down . She did it more often , trying to run ahead , and although I could easily beat her , I let her win .

Because for this woman , I was ready to lose every fucking time if it meant she'd be happy . ' Come on slowpoke ! What's the point of such a big wolf if you can't run faster ! ' She teased . ' Oh yeah ? I'll show you what this body is good for ! ' I growled . I pounced , making sure I wasn't rough as I knocked her to the ground . We rolled over , her laughter filling my head . ' Chris you jerk ! ' ' Whatever you call me is fine , anything sounds good in that gorgeous voice of yours , princess . ' I shot back . We finally came to a stop , with her pinning me down .

' I win . ' She said victoriously . You already had long ago ... Our eyes met and she narrowed hers , ' You didn't let me win right ? ' She asked suspiciously . She moved back slightly , before she suddenly shifted . My eyes widened in shock as she straddled my huge wolf completely naked . Fuck Ri ... ' Raihana ... ' I couldn't stop myself from running my eyes over her ... She was ... fucking lush . From her ample tits , her dark pink nipples that made me twitch , her curvy hips and thick thighs ... and core that was pressed against my fur Fuck if heaven was a woman , it would be her . ' I love you , Chris . ' She whispered , her eyes holding so many emotions .. My eyes flew open and I shifted back , my heart thundering as those words registered .

Before I could even respond , she bent down , her hands on my chest , her gaze flickering to my lips . I couldn't stop myself . Her scent was creating a haze around me , her lips were the forbidden fruit that I craved , and my hand tangled in her hair , pulling her closer . I had rejected her once ... I couldn't do it again , I didn't want to . Behind that confidence was a glimmer of uncertainty , one I wanted to remove , and so , I claimed her lips in a deep , passionate kiss . Yes , this was what I fucking wanted , the only woman I wanted . Our lips moved as one , perfectly in sync . The sweet taste of her mouth was one I had missed . I ran my hand down her back , not caring that she wasn't wearing anything . Her soft whimper only made my hard dick throb .

Her damp core pressed against my abs , only fucking tempting me further . I sucked on her tongue sensually , not wanting to rush this . Would I get to taste her again ? Was this our last kiss ? Her arousal hit me like a fucking drug , and I kissed her harder , hungrier . I wanted to feel every inch of her . She moaned , reacting to my touch , I squeezed her ass . Fuck I had never seen a more fucking beautiful woman . I love you , princess . So , fucking much . My heart tightened and I tensed when I realised what I had just thought . When had I fallen in love ? I froze and she slowly moved back , her eyes filling with hurt .

I shook my head , sitting up and wrapping my arms tightly around her , crushing her breasts against my chest , not caring that she was now right on top of my fucking hard on . She needed to know how she made me feel ... but ... I kissed the top of her breasts softly before looking into her eyes , touching my forehead to hers .. ' You're only eighteen Ri ... You haven't found your mate , this isn't what you want . ' I said quietly . It was fucking taking my all to fight the urges that were consuming me . Who would have thought someone like me would be doing my fucking all to refuse what I truly wanted ? But she was more than that . She wasn't someone I wanted to hurt or simply use . ' I don't care ... I don't want them . ' She whispered ..

Our noses brushed and I closed my eyes . This was fucking hard " You might ... I don't want to make things harder for you , princess . " " Why don't you let me make my decisions for myself ? " She asked . " Because I don't want to influence you into making a bad fucking decision . You deserve way fucking better . " Her eyes were filled with hurt , but she was strong . Despite the emotions that stormed through her , she held herself together . " You have no right to tell me what I deserve , or what is best for me . " She whispered , slowly moving back . Her pussy pressed against my dick , and I clenched my jaw from groaning out at how fucking good it felt . " Tell me one thing , Chris ... Do you love me ? " I tensed , I knew the answer , but ... I didn't want to hold her back . I looked away , my own chest tightening at the fact that I couldn't even tell her . Her hand reached for my face , and she smiled softly , turning me to face her . " I'm pretty good at sensing a person's emotions , Chris . But if you think the mating ball will make me change my mind ... then fine . Let's wait until then . " She said , leaning forward . She kissed me and fuck , I kissed her back . My hand tangled in her hair , and the fear that she was probably going to be taken away from me fuelled that kiss . It was hungry , rough , confused and fucking perfect . Our emotions were creating a storm , and I didn't see a way out , or a future for us . She was an Alpha female , a fucking hybrid , a queen . I didn't fucking deserve her ; her mate should be a fucking Alpha ... ' No . You are the one I want . '

Her soft voice came through the link as she broke away from me . She understood me without me even fucking speaking ... " It's getting late ... I'm going to head back to the cavern . " She whispered , slowly sliding back , making me hiss as she slid off my fucking cock , a small smirk crossed her lips as she looked down at me . " Well ... It's better than I imagined ... I guess that can make up for the fact that it's been a little slut . " I smirked , leaning back on my elbows .

" Oh yeah ? Well , I assure you , it aims to please . " Our eyes met , and we became serious once again . " One blood moon ... and if after this , I still want you ... " " Then who am I to deny the princess what she wants ? " I replied softly . Our eyes met , and she smiled softly . Our silent agreement was made . If she still wanted me after this mating ball , then I will not only fucking tell her how I feel , I'll fucking make her feel it . But until then ... I watched her walk away , not even caring that I was staring at her , the sway of her hips and that ass ... Fuck she was heaven ..

1. Entering With A Bang DELSANRA Two weeks had passed since that day , I had asked Raihana how the night had gone , but she simply said ' Time will tell . ' I could sense her pain , but at the same time , there was a determination in her . We had been planning the break – in of the coven , and it was finally time . Rayhan had set the plan and the king had demanded i n , despite the fact Kiara had given birth the same night as our barbecue to two gorgeous little baby girls .

She had gone ten days over her predicted due date much to the surprise of many , making the twins pregnancy almost as long as a usual werewolf pregnancy .

Rayhan didn't argue when the king had said he didn't have a say , and I knew it was because of me and Raihana that he had agreed . Although he mocked the king for running away from father duties . They had named the elder girl Skyla Silara Rossi , from the pictures that the king had shown us with great pride that he tried to hide , I could see she had gorgeous black hair and green eyes . The younger twin was names Kataleya Tamia Rossi , she had soft brown hair and dark eyes . Both were absolutely gorgeous and I could tell the Rossi gene was indeed strong . Alongside the king , Chris and Lola were also joining us ... Another ten men from Rayhan's pack had arrived too , and the king had brought ten as well , but these were more for backup and for lookout purposes . The plan was set , and we were ready to do this . I could feel my abilities festering within me , ready to unleash hell upon all those that hurt me . We weren't going to march up to the covens ' doors and ask for permission to enter , we were going to do a teleportation spell : One that was going to transport us into the main hall of the coven's castle . I had picked the date and time knowing when they would all be in the vicinity . " So , the plan is ; get in , seal off anyone's escape routes , and announce the truth , right ? " Raihana said , adjusting her black pants .

" Pretty much . " Chris said to her , like the rest of us , we were all dressed in comfortable clothing and shoes . " Everyone knows the plan We stick to it . The main thing is , to allow Magdalene and Edward to hear the truth . Reginald might be the High Elder , but Magdalene was ultimately the strongest . " I said . And the rest nodded . " Ready kitten ? " Rayhan asked me , he looked so fucking sexy in all black jeans , t shirt , boots and a leather jacket . His long curly hair framed his face , and those stormy grey eyes of his stared into mine . " Ready . " I said , placing my hands on his shoulders .

I kissed his lips softly , about to pull away when he pulled me tightly against him , making me sigh . He kissed me harder , his hands digging into my waist . I knew he was worried for me , but I wasn't , I wasn't alone anymore . I believed in us . " Let's get this shit done . " The king said , cracking his knuckles . " Ready girls ? " Janaina asked , holding her hands out to me . The spell was all set up , but it was going to take all three of us . It wasn't easy magic , and we wanted to reserve our energy for when we were inside . We were currently not too far from the castle , just outside of their radar .

We placed our hands in hers as everyone took their place inside of the circle . It was only the seven of us that were teleporting right inside . Everyone held hands and the three of us began chanting the spell . Power surged forth and I felt the strong pull and swoosh , everything darkening around us before I felt the jolt as we came to a stop Instantly , I pulled my hand away from Rayhan's and Janaina's , creating a barrier as several forces hit it with full power . Wow , they sure had reacted fast

" Nice move Del ! " Raihana said , quickly whispering her spell and sealing the entire area in a bubble of power . The glow of her power coated the walls of the hall we were in . The coven elders , who had been seated around a table , were now all standing , their eyes filled with anger and rage . Perfect , as assumed they were all here ..

All the council members were here , as were Amoria and Elinai . Alongside them were Danaina – the fire witch , and Elizia , both of whom had come after me all those months ago ... Only this time the tides had turned ... The only person I wish wasn't here was Ames . There were a few others around , but apart from the healer woman , I didn't know the rest . For a few seconds , no one moved or spoke . The council seemed stunned as they stared at all of us . They were probably shocked that we had managed to penetrate every barrier placed on this place . Their eyes settled on Janaina . " Well looks like it's a fucking full house "

The king remarked , smirking coldly breaking the silence . " What the ... " Ames muttered , his heart racing as he stared at our group . Our eyes met , and his were full of hate as he stared at Rayhan's hand on my waist . Oh , Ames ... if only you knew who the real enemy was ... " I hope you have come to attest for your crimes , Janaina . " Magdalene said coldly .

She stepped forward , whilst Amoria and Elizia instantly stepped forward next to her . I frowned . Of these witches , Elizia and Magdalene were the only ones I had hopes would listen . I could sense their emotions , as they looked at the seven of us . " I have come to tell you the truth . " Janaina replied , staring at Magdalene . There was tension between them , I could see that , but at the same time , something told me there was more between them . There was hostility , distrust and betrayal . Something told me these two had perhaps been friends long ago . " Kill them ! Don't fall for their words !

" Reginald ordered . Agatha , Amoria , Eldridge and Elinai all stepped forward . " Let us speak ! If you have nothing to hide , then there is no fucking harm in listening ! Rayhan growled , his Alpha aura rolling off him in waves . . " Stay out of it , mutt ! " Samson hissed . " You fucking stay out of it , or I'll fucking rip you to pieces . " The king growled back venomously . His aura was rolling off him i n waves just like every other of the wolves there , and together they were a force to be reckoned with . " We left , but the fact that we came back here means something . We could have snuck in , you know that .

We're here because we want a meeting with the entire council . " Rayhan said coldly . His words were sharp and clear , his eyes blazing green as he stared at Edwards and Magdalene . " Exactly , I'm not asking for trust ... I'm asking for a chance to prove that I was framed and driven from here . " Janaina said quietly . " She is a snake , Magdalene . " Samson spat , yet his face was pale . I felt the shift in me and , smiling coldly , looked at him . Gasps filled the room and I raised an eyebrow . " Want to share the actual truth about how I was born ? " I hissed .

Magdalene looked sharply between them all , and I saw the flicker of uncertainty in her eyes . " We all know the story , some creature of darkness trapped Samson ! " Elinai hissed . " Wrong ! " I snapped . " There are always two sides to a story . Edward said , frowning . " Everyone sit down ... " " No ! " Reginald thundered . " I am high elder and what I say goes ! Kill them ! Look at her ! Associating with this scum ! " " Now ! " I shouted , glancing at Raihana . The four wolves with us shifted as they lunged at those trying to attack . Rayhan knocked Zelda aside , the smell of blood filling the air . I chanted a spell , hearing Raihana chant the same , our focus was on the culprits alone . The rest would keep everyone at bay and Janaina would handle Magdalene . " You should have died in the womb ! " Samson spat as he ran at me .

I blasted him back , wrapping the magical chains around him . I was only going to pin them down . As for the witches ... I flicked my wrist as Amoria chanted a spell , Rayhan's large wolf knocked her back , growling dangerously , cutting off her half cast spell as I jumped out of the way of the blast of water that had rushed at me . Rayhan's anger was raging around him , and it was almost as if I could see it . He growled at her , slamming her to the ground , and I knew if it wasn't for me , he would have ripped her to pieces already . I wanted to be the one to deal with my so called family ... I finished the spell and bound her with chains made of magic . I wasn't sure it would hold for long as she was a strong witch , but we didn't need too long .

I made sure her mouth was covered , we didn't need them casting any more spells . I looked around to see that we had those who were the most dangerous bound , whilst the rest were held back by a barrier Raihana had created . Magdalene and Elizia were the only ones that no one had touched . They had made a barrier around a few of their people , a barrier that Ames and Edward were behind , along with a few others . " Just listen to what we have to say .

" Rayhan said coldly . I bent down , grabbing his rucksack and tossing him a pair of joggers , my cheeks burning with annoyance as I saw several women's eyes fall on him despite the damn situation . Urgh , how were wolves so shameless ? He simply pulled them up , tying the string . He glanced at me , smirking slightly , before turning back to Magdalene . " We haven't killed any of your people yet . All we want is one fucking chance to show you the truth . " He said coldly . The display of power and dominance was clear in his words . " If it were up to me , I'd kill everyone who hurt Delsanra here and now , but for you to get the fucking picture we haven't ... Not yet anyway . " " I don't understand , " Magdalene said icily . " Yeah , well then sit the fuck down and pay attention , class has fucking commenced . " The king added . I dared not turn , knowing he was probably as naked as Rayhan had been !

" Fine speak . " Magdalene hissed . " And put on some trousers ! " " Now I fucking don't want to . " He shot back . " Uncle ! " Raihana whined . I sighed , as Rayhan glared at his uncle . " Seriously ? " He muttered . " Fucking prudes ... " I shook my head , and Janaina massaged her temples . " I will start with why I ran away back then . I wasn't in the wrong about anything . It wasn't just because I wanted freedom . " Janaina said . " I ran because I witnessed something I never should have .

I discovered something no one wanted me to . " " What was it ? " Edward asked quietly . Magdalene's power was on the brink of her fingertips , and I knew she was just waiting to react if anyone tried to make a move , I stayed ready too , and I knew so were the wolves around me . Lola was at my back with Rayhan to my side , both on alert ... Chris and the King were watching Raihana's back . The room was silent , all eyes on Janaina , who took a deep breath and began telling them exactly what she had told us back in the cavern ...

76. Destruction DELSANRA It had been painful , but I had kept my eyes averted when she had shared her memories with the room using a spell . I kept my eyes on Rayhan , who took my hand , kissing it gently as he tried to keep my attention on him . The pain as those events were described once more ... It hurt so much ... Remembering my mother hurt . Even if she wasn't human , she was a being  . " That's ... " Magdalene whispered . "

It isn't true ! These are lies ! Implanted in her mind by herself ! " Reginald spat . " Then how about we read Dad's memories and yours ... She hasn't had a chance to implant anything in your minds , right ? " Ames asked quietly , making me look up sharply . " Do it . " Edward said to Elizia , who nodded and walked towards Reginald . " Elizia ! I am the high elder . There are serious consequences for disobeying me . " " " " Do it . " Magdalene whispered coldly .

" Don't believe it , there was more to it ! " Samson said , his face was white . " Shut it ... We will get to your crimes soon enough . " Rayhan said quietly , but the dark look in his eyes made my heart thunder . Something told me Samson would not make it out tonight , and I wasn't worried about it . The people in the room were hushed . Fear , panic and confusion swirled around them , festering within them and so clear that everyone's emotions were moulding a s one .

The hushed whispers were spreading , and with it the distrust towards the elder was clear . I closed my eyes when Reginald's screams subsided and his memories played in the room . I felt Rayhan place his hands on my ears , and I looked up at him as most of the sound was drowned out . I rested my head on his chest , not wanting to hear the anguished cries and sobs of my mother . A creature that didn't even have the same mental capacity as us , it was disgusting that they had used her like that ... Fresh tears threatened to spill , but I refused to allow them . When the scene changed , Rayhan removed his hand , and I turned , we could see him talking to Eldridge and Samson . " Find Janaina and kill her . She knows far too much . " He was saying , he looked a lot younger here . " Yeah , she needs to die ... " Samson agreed . " She's strong ... what if she evades us ?

" Eldridge spat . " If she was here , she would be one of the appointed ones . She is " 1 strong . " " I will soon be appointed a high elder ... We will find her ... " " It's all lies ! " Samson cut in , but no one listened as the scene shifted to him and Eldridge planning to trap me with their son . Before it shifted once again to him and Samson talking in a dark , rainy street . " We should keep it . What if , when she's older , she has some powers ? We can't call it a complete failure . " Reginald whispered , holding a bundle in his arms . It took me a few seconds to realise it was me .

" I can't take it ! What will the council think ?! " Samson hissed . " Nothing . They will think you were seduced , and then you kept an eye on her and saved your child from her before she killed it . " Reginald answered icily . " That is an order , " " " Elinai ... She won't forgive me ! " " Of course she will , she has no choice . You accepted her even though she was a widow . Take her and choose any lie to tell your family . She will believe it . " Reginald said . " We can both agree that you had fun with the demon . " I almost felt sick at those words , and I wasn't the only one , as all eyes turned on Reginald and Samson .

Elinai's included . My heart was pounding , and I knew that no matter how many people I had killed unintentionally in life ... Samson was one I would do so willingly . I was going to be the one to end him myself . A few more memories played out , and everything I knew and Janaina had told us , was revealed . The scene shifted and Reginald started struggling . What did this scene include that he didn't want us to know ? " We need her for the plan . Without her abilities , we may not win against the mutts " 1 " Now ! " Reginald thundered . Before we could probe further into his memories , the entire ground shook violently , throwing Elizia backwards . My eyes snapped to Eldridge , her eyes blazing as she broke her restraints . " Enough is enough !

" She hissed . I jumped back as the entire ground began to crack , Rayhan grabbed me by the waist and jumped just as the ground gave way . " Don't let them get away ! " Magdalene thundered . " Amoria ! " I snapped my head towards Amoria , who was staring at Samson with an uncertain look in her eyes . My heart skipped a beat Would she realise her mistake ? The spell that bound them broke . The ground crumbling beneath us was enough to break our concentration . Everything was in chaos , even when Rayhan placed me on a safe spot , I cast a spell focusing on the ground . Where was Eldridge anyway ?

It had to be her ... For her to actually cast such an immense spell meant she had it set up beforehand , because the coven's castle was woven THE with magic . They had indeed planned ahead . Zelda and Danaina were fighting with Janaina . Raihana was fighting against Elinai and three other witches with her uncle . Magdalene was shouting something as she tried to steady the ground . " You won't live after that . " Samson hissed from behind me just as Rayhan grabbed him , slamming him against the wall behind us . " You mean you won't ! After everything you've done , it's still not enough . What you put Delsanra through no amount of pain will ever be enough . " Rayhan said coldly . " Rayhan ... I want to deal with him .

" I said quietly , placing my hand on his back . " Delsanra ! I am still your father . There is nothing you can do . I looked into those cold blue eyes . How was he possibly my father ? Our eyes met , and I didn't care about the havoc behind me . The ground was still shaking , and a fleeting glance told me things were getting out of control . But I was going to do this quickly . I wasn't going to waste precious time on someone like him ... " You were never my father ... When you sold me , it was the final straw , and I realised I had no one ... But even then , I decided to survive for me ... and I'm glad because if I hadn't I wouldn't have met Rayhan ... Go to hell , Samson . I hope you're punished for all the crimes you commit .

" I raised my hand , and flames blazed around him . " May you rot in the flaming pits of hell for eternity ... " I whispered , turning away from his body that burned with flames . His shrieks pierced the air , the smell of burning flesh was strong . However , I didn't care . In fact , his screams of agony were satisfying . I slowed the flame down , making sure he met his death slowly and painfully . These flames were from my mother's side ... No magic spell would put them out . Samson didn't deserve redemption ... I glanced back at him , watching his skin melt off , no longer able to scream as the pain overcame him . I felt nothing , I hated him . I watched everyone fighting and trying to contain themselves . The entire castle was shaking , and certain parts of the ceiling were caving in . To my surprise , I saw Amoria trying to hold it up . " Delsanra , help me !

" She said , her voice strained . I was about to go to her , but Rayhan grabbed my arm . " I don't trust her . " " I know , but I'll be fine . Lola ! " I shouted , seeing a huge part of the stone fall towards her . She jumped aside just as the chunk of the ceiling crashed to the floor . " We need to get everyone out . Judgment can wait ! The building is collapsing ! " I shouted .

" Everyone make your way out ! " Magdalene shouted . Samson's writhing had stopped , yet he was still breathing as he slowly burned to death ... Soon his heart will stop too ... Our eyes met , but I knew he couldn't see me . He was in far too much pain ... I raised my arms , ready to keep the ceiling up when I saw Ames's leg trapped under a large boulder down below . " Rayhan , help my brother ! " " I'm not leaving you , kitten ! " He shouted back , knocking a large stone aside .

The sheer force of the magic all around was making it difficult for anyone to move or make sense of everything . For a moment , I wasn't sure who was on whose side . The air was thick with dust , sand and rubble . " Rayhan please ! (Dear Readers Latest chapters uploaded everyday on https://allworldbeauty.com/ Visit daily for latest updates)

" After a moment of hesitation , Rayhan nodded , shifting as he ran towards Ames . I closed my eyes , focusing before I raised my arm , summoning a huge surge of power , blasting all of the rubble and dirt outwards as I blew the entire roof off the building . " Well , fuck ... " I heard the king marmur " I thought you'd manage that ... But in the process ... you forgot to watch your back , dear sister . " Amoria's voice hissed from right behind me . My head snapped back as she made to plunge a dagger into me . A loud growl rang from behind us , as both Lola and Rayhan knocked Amoria backwards .

I flinched when I heard the sickening crunch of her head . I really was naïve ... There was no way she would change ... " This is why I'm not fucking leaving you ! " Rayhan growled , shifting back . " We need to get out of here . The entire fucking place is coming down . " " He lifted me up bridal style , as Lola's wolf grabbed Ames before the entire side of the building crumbled down where he had . been moments earlier . I didn't argue , he leapt from the castle as more parts crumbled down . " We need to make sure they don't escape !

" I shouted . " They won't ! Stay here ! " Rayhan said , placing me down before he rushed inside again . I looked around , I needed to put a barrier up before someone escaped . Another ground – shaking blast knocked me off my feet , and I tumbled over , before the king grabbed my arm , pulling me up just as large cracks appeared in the earth . My heart thundered , looking at his terrifying form . His glowing red eyes looked into mine for a second before he was gone in a blur , ripping apart Zelda before he bit into her heart , destroying it . Fuck Eldridge !

She was fucking strong . " This is my fucking call ! " Janaina hissed , chanting a spell . A large gust of wind came rushing towards the castle , and I knew she was going for the source of the spell . I looked around . Everything was a mess , but it seemed most people had stepped down . Chris was holding Raihana , who was bleeding from her arm .

The king had ripped up a few more people who had tried to attack him to pieces , growling at the rest to stay back . I looked back at the castle that was falling apart , hoping all those who were inside were now out . Amoria wasn't dead . Her heart hadn't been ripped from her chest ... I needed to talk to her . One final time before I pass my verdict ... Looking around , I snuck inside , ducking and diving from the boulders of stone that crashed to the ground . I blasted a few away , my eyes trying to adjust and see through the cloud of dust and the falling debris , searching for Amoria . " Looking for someone , little sister ? " Her sinister voice came from behind me before pain erupted in my head ...

Tell Me Why DELSANRA I almost fell to my knees from the pain , but I focused on my own power , letting it roll off me in waves . She was slammed away and I whirled around , glaring at her . " I actually thought I'd give you a chance . " I hissed . " I don't need a chance , Delsanra . I want you dead ! " I raised my hand before she could even stand up . Her body was bloody and she wasn't fully healed , but the hatred and anger in her eyes was clear .

" You killed Cheyne ! You killed Dad ! Because of you , Dawson is dead ! You destroyed our family ! " She hissed . I didn't know what to feel , I was truly disappointed in my so – called family . Even in the end , there was no remorse . " Delsanra ! " Rayhan's voice came from a distance . Fuck I had just left . I could hear the worry i n his voice , it was dangerous . I needed to be quiet . I looked at Amoria as she tried to contain her balance , the ground shaking violently . " I'm ok , Rayhan ! I'm coming ! " I called out before turning back to Amoria . " I didn't destroy anything . It's a shame that even now , you think I'm the one in the wrong . Cheyne was spelled by his own mother , and he tried to assault me ... I injured him , but it was Dawson who killed him . " She scoffed , dragging herself to her feet . " No one would ever want to fuck something like you , don't give yourself so much importance !

" " Think what you want Amoria ... Dawson tried to rape me and my mate killed him . He deserved it and if the need arose , I'd happily kill him myself . As for Samson , for everything he did to me and r my mother , he deserved so much more ... I was hoping you would have even an ounce of remorse in you , but clearly not . " I was a fool to even think there was hope . The anger that raged within me was blinding me and her next words broke the fragile hold I had upon it .

" Fuck you , Delsanra . I wish I could have snapped your head as a child , I wish I could have drowned you in boiling water ! I wish , oh how I wish I could have killed you ! " She hissed , lunging at me , her powers whirling around her . I closed my eyes not even bothering to utter a spell , my powers unleashed , her agonising screams pierced the air . I opened my eyes , watching her entire body impaled with black shards of magic . I reached forward , ripping her heart from her chest . It engulfed in flames , incinerating in my hand completely . I stepped back , my heart thundering , I had killed both my sister and father Dawson was dead too ... One by one , my abusers were being taken care of ... Another piece of rubble fell , crushing half her body beneath it .

I was about to turn when I heard a thud , his scent hitting me before I saw him . " Fuck Kitten ! " He growled from behind me , pulling me into his arms as another large piece of the wall fell inwards . " I was managing ... " I said quietly , looking at Amoria's body Even until the end . I hoped that perhaps , just perhaps , there was an ounce of regret . " Let's discuss that later . " Rayhan said , his green eyes blazing . " I told you to stay put ! "

He lifted me bridal style , but I didn't reply , sensing his annoyance and anger . I knew he was scared to lose me , but I was not weak ... When we were finally out again , I could see the group attending to injuries or just standing around staring at the huge castle , which had once been impenetrable . They had planned for far too long ... for them to have embedded every corner of the castle with magic in case the need arose ... Glancing around , I realised Raihana was the only one from our group there . " What happened ? " I asked , my heart thundering . " 1 " Eldridge , Elinai and Reginald got away . " Rayhan said coldly . " Uncle's gone after them . " " Rayhan , you're a good tracker , why- "

" I was not going to fucking leave you in there . Besides they used a spell ... " He said angrily . I didn't blame him for his anger , those three needed to pay , yet I also knew half of that anger was because of me . " Fear not , we will track them . " Magdalene said quietly , " Elizia , Lilith and Lavania have all gone too . " She raised an eyebrow before whispering a spell . A small portal opened , she slipped her hand inside and pulled out some pants , tossing them at Rayhan . " Wolves ... learn some modesty ... " She said curtly , she clearly didn't like them . "

There's more . " Rayhan said to her just as she was about to turn away . " More ? " She asked . " The way Delsanra was treated , her truth , what you know is not anywhere close . You need to see it ... and you need to be ready to deal with the consequences . " Rayhan said , slipping the pants on . " I think after everything we have discovered with Samson and Reginald , it is important to listen . What's more , they had a plan ... One where we have no idea what it is . " Edward said quietly . " I agree with Elder Edwards and the Alpha , mother . " " 1 I looked up to see the healer witch approaching , and now I realised why she had looked so familiar . She resembled her mother rather a lot . To think Magdalene's daughter was a healer ...

Magdalene had a reputation , power and status . If . anyone was able to talk to the coven on board , it would be her . " Very well , have the injured taken care of ... Those who are able and want to be a part of the meeting may . Let them gather in the open grounds at the back . There , I myself , will perform the spell to read her memory . " Magdalene said quietly . Everyone began moving , and Rayhan pulled me into his arms , kissing my forehead . We were getting somewhere ... I looked up at Rayhan , who was frowning deeply , and my heart skipped a beat ... I messed up ... " Rayhan ? " I called .

He looked at me . " Yeah ? " My heart sank at the anger he was trying to contain . I looked away , frowning slightly . " Nothing . " " 11 " What is it , Del ? " " Nothing . " I said coldly . He sighed , and I simply frowned . " We should make our way to the clearing . I said curtly . " 11 " Kitten . " " We'll talk later , Rayhan . " I whispered , feeling a sting of hurt . He didn't reply , simply exhaling sharply . Taking my hand , he kissed it softly , before leading me away . I looked at the back of his head , my heart tightening . I didn't want him to be angry at me , but I also knew that no matter what , he'd still love me , and knowing that ... I was not going to regret what I did ! I frowned deeply , knowing that sooner or later we were going to have to talk .

78. My Survivor RAYHAN Fuck , when Raihana told me Delsanra had run inside , the fear I felt ... For the first fucking time , I was pissed off with her . This was meant to be done together , and she went off on her own . I get that she's strong , but I can't lose her , does she not fucking get that she is my entire fucking life ? The moment the side of the building collapsed ; my heart almost stopped . Was she ok ? I needed to get to her . That was all I could think of , and she just played it off like it was ok ? It was fucking not ok . We were all standing around in the open ground , the cloud of dust beginning to settle . Those who were able to walk around in some way were going so . Many who were too injured thanks to the collapsing building were taken elsewhere . The hostility was growing . After all , we had killed a few people in the process , but they did fucking deserve it . Some were looking at us tentatively , others were whispering , the other third of them seemed hesitant and curious . Janaina was quiet , I knew she wasn't happy that the others got away . Uncle had come back . There was no scent for him to go on , and he was probably as pissed as me . That last memory we had begun to see before Reginald and Eldridge unleashed chaos , showed that they were planning an attack on us . That was another thing I wanted to know from the witches , who exactly was in on it ? What were they planning , without even knowing the entire fucking truth ? Had Reginald made matters worse or were they all simply in on this attack , I wouldn't relax until I knew what their reasons were for attacking . I knew Janaina had mentioned it before , but still , I wanted the facts . If there was a way to stop it all , then we should fucking take it , but the coven needed to fucking weed out their toxic evil villains .

Delsanra was quiet , and I was staying quiet in case I flipped out . She had been reckless ... so fucking reckless . Magdalene and Edward were talking quietly , and despite being close by , I couldn't hear a word , probably a spell . " Can we talk .. ? " Delsanra whispered , placing her hand gently on my waist . I looked down at her and I fucking swear my anger lessened considerably just by looking into those startling blue eyes of hers . I cupped her face , my other hand pulling her closer by the waist . Bending down slightly I claimed her lips in a passionate , rough kiss , one that I knew held my frustration in it . But there was something so fucking good about kissing her ... She kissed me back , her arms locking around my neck , her hand twisting into my hair . Her lips fighting for dominance , something she could never win . I felt myself , harden slightly against her , wanting to fuck her right now . To release this fucking frustration that was messing me up . Groaning lowly , I pulled away before I ended up supporting a full – on hard – on . " Sure , we can talk- " " " Can we have everyone's attention .

Magdalene said clearly , " Let Delsanra step forward and I myself will probe her mind . " Delsanra looked up at me , and I gave her a small nod , kissing her forehead . " Do you want everyone to see , or ? " I asked softly . " I'm ok with them seeing . " She said softly . " You got this . " I said quietly , walking forward with her . " You know how the spell works , this won't take long . " Magdalene said to Delsanra , who simply nodded . I kissed her cheek from behind softly before moving back ever so slightly , my hands still firmly on her waist . No matter how annoyed I was at her recklessness ,

I couldn't part with her , I was going to be right here for my kitten . Magdalene whispered the spell , and soon memories of long ago began to play . From the lower angle , I could tell this was Delsanra as a child . " You stupid bitch ! " Another girl , I recognised as Amoria , scoffed . She herself was clearly under ten , for sure . " Please don't hurt me . " A child's voice whimpered . My kitten's voice . One that tugged at my fucking heart . " You are a monster ! " Amoria hissed , before she began hitting Delsanra . Magdalene frowned deeply as the scene shifted . This time , Dawson and Amoria were beating her together , whilst Elinai drank tea , ignoring them The next one was of Samson dragging her by her hair and throwing her against the wall ... Dawson touching her thigh , telling her that one day he'd be using her ... I couldn't fucking watch this , I felt sick . My anger was beginning to grow and Magdalene motioned for me to move back . I shook my head , trying to control myself for Delsanra , because no matter how fucking angry I was , I couldn't leave her . I closed my eyes , my hands tightening around her waist .

The next memory was of a screaming Delsanra as she was doused in scalding water . My eyes blazed and all I wanted was to tear every fucking member of this coven to shreds . I felt a hand on my shoulder , snapping me from my thoughts . I turned sharply only to see Uncle Al , his brows furrowed . ' She's strong , so be strong for her . ' He said through the link . As Alpha King , he could link other Alphas . I simply gave a small nod , I was fucking trying ... His hand never left my shoulder , and despite my heaving chest and the anger that was consuming me , I fought my instincts . The memories only got worse , and I could tell Magdalene was getting paler . Her lips pressed in a tight line , and her nostrils flared Delsanra's brother was watching too , looking fucking confused . Many looked ashamed , whilst others simply looked uncomfortable . Delsanra whimpered , and I pulled her close . " Is this hurting her ? " " I'm just probing past the spell that Amoria seemed to have cast ... " Magdalene said quietly . Her voice seemed to lose some of that hostile tone it had held not long ago . The next one was Delsanra being sold off to someone as she screamed after her father . The next one was her being beaten by the man who wanted her to bring his wife back from the dead . I couldn't look at this any longer . My heart was racing . I just watched Delsanra , who was simply calm . " Is she ok ? " I growled . " I've made sure she cannot see what I am probing and seeing . It's clear that it was the wise thing to do . She has suffered . " " " F " Suffered is a fucking understatement . " Uncle growled . " She was a fucking kid who you should have fucking taken care of ! " " We did not know ! " " A leader fucking should know what's happening . " He hissed . I didn't say anything . The urge to show them hell by tearing them limb from fucking limb and making them feel the pain was fucking growing The scene changed , and I realised these were werewolves . " Enough . " I said , I didn't want everyone to see her tied up naked . " When it comes to your own ? " " I will handle them . I don't want her to be seen in this state .

" I said quietly . " Understood . " Magdalane replied . She was about to end the spell when Uncle cut in . " Hold that shit ... " He said , suddenly staring at the memory that surrounded us . " I know that face ... " I looked up , seeing that it was one of the werewolves who was throwing a dagger . My heart was fucking racing , Uncle frowned . " I don't know ... It isn't a fucking Alpha , but I've seen that one and the third in the back . " " Then it seems she has suffered from wolves who were under your leadership too . " Magdalane said coldly . " We know and I'm dealing with it . " I replied venomously . " Oh , we fucking will . " Uncle said coldly . See if you can get any more faces . Skip that memory . " * " Can you change the spell so not everyone can see them ? " I asked quietly . She looked around , and Janaina stepped forward . " I'll cast a cloaking spell , may I see too ?

" She asked . I looked around , hesitantly . " Fine , just the five of us , " I said glancing at Edward , Uncle and the two witches . Magdalane nodded and the memory shifted again . Any annoyance I had felt towards my kitten was gone . The suffering she had been through was painful . In the next memory , we couldn't see anything properly . Her screams pierced the air before she was choked off , and I could tell she was drowning from the way her voice was coming . I felt cold , was that ... what I thought it was " Fucking waterboarding ... " " Uncle's disgusted voice came .

Suddenly light surrounded her and she lay on a dark , wet floor , coughing and gasping for air . " Fucking bitch . " A voice came in the dark . It was far and hazy , but I knew it was because she was half out of it . She cried out as the man began kicking her . I turned my head away . How much had she gone through that I didn't even know ? Edward was shaking and Janaina had a hand to her throat , taking deep breaths . The next memory showed a cold , dark room . Her whimpers and shuddering breaths told me she was scared and in pain . I could see her legs covered in cuts and blood coming out of them .

" Well well well ... It looks like you are still being a little bitch . You are just dirt . " A man growled . His voice seemed distantly familiar , but I wasn't sure where I had heard it . My heart skipped a beat as I tried to focus , yet it was his next act that made my mind go blank . " Now you know the drill right bitch ? Delsanra didn't say anything as the man unbuckled his pants . My heart was pounding , not knowing what was coming , only to see in the darkness of the room as he started urinating on her . I closed my eyes as Magdalene cut the memory sucking in a sharp breath . All five of us couldn't even string two words together . It had been too fucking painful .

79. Ames RAYHAN The elders and Janaina were in tears , my own eyes burning with pain , anger and sorrow . I pulled Delsanra into my arms , kissing her forehead softly . Her eyes were still glazed as Uncle cleared his throat . I glanced at him as I hugged my precious snowflake tightly . To my surprise , his eyes were glittering with unshed tears . " Fucking dust . " He muttered , unable to look me in the eye as he turned away . I couldn't say anything , kissing my kitten gently .

She had been through so much . When I find them ... they're dead . My heart was racing , and I felt sick to my stomach . She blinked , her eyes fluttering open . " She's been through far too much , at the hands of both our kinds I think there are many things that are needed to be done . " Edward said gravely . " 1 Janaina nodded , undoing her spell , and Edward turned to the crowd gathered around .

" This is the doings of our people , of our elders ... Return to your homes , we will decide on the true punishment for those who have committed these heinous crimes , as well as what is to be done from here . " Magdalene said . " There's also the fact that the coven is planning an attack on werewolves , " Delsanra said . Unlike the five of us who needed time to come to terms with what we had seen , she was her usual strong self . " Hmm .. " " 1 " We want answers ! " Delsanra said , glancing at me . I couldn't let on that I was still fucking reeling with what she had gone through , so I turned to Magdalene . " Yeah , we know you're planning an attack on our kind , so I want to know why ? Three years ago , it was witches who attacked us , but we didn't class the entire species as our fucking enemies . Care to share why the fuck you think it's ok to prepare to attack us ? " I asked icily , trying to push those memories from my head .

" Spoken like a true fucking Alpha . " Uncle added . " Because of the witches your people are hunting ! " Magdalene said , sighing . " They are a group of werewolves , not the entire kind . " Delsanra said quietly . "

My love , a werewolf , is the one who has protected me . I have been hurt by both sides . Does that mean we should wage war on all witches ?

" The thing is , this is going to lead to more bloodshed . How about you contact your higher – ups , fill them in , and then I have a proposal ? " I said clearly . My voice was calm , yet the power that I emitted meant business . My eyes met Magdalene , before she sighed , nodding , and looked at Edward . " Very well , let's do that . " DELSANRA The moment Magdalene walked off after saying that we all needed to eat something and rest while she called for a meeting , Ames approached us hesitantly .

" Delsanra ... " " He said , looking up at Rayhan , who glared back coldly . I could sense Rayhan's anger and hostility , but also Ames ' guilt and pain . " Let's walk ? " I said softly . I looked up at Rayhan . He gave a small nod and was about to walk off when I grabbed his hand . " 1 " The three of us . If he could involve me in everything to do with his family , then I am going to do the same . Even if he was mad at me ... His grey eyes looked into mine , and he reached over , running his fingers through my hair before he kissed my lips deeply , his other hand on the small of my back as he pressed me into him . We broke apart after a few moments and I looked at Ames . " Come on . " I said . He fell in step with me . His gaze kept going to Rayhan , whose hand never left my waist . Looking up at him , I tried picturing him from his point of view . He walked with an arrogance and dominance . His eyes were intense and his entire posture , the aura that rolled off of him , he radiated power . He was the ultimate Alpha ... and with it , my core knotted and my cheeks burned . God , he was so damn sexy ... I quickly looked away . " Ames , my mate , or you can say my partner Rayhan Rossi . Rayhan , my younger brother Ames , the only one who ever cared for me . " I said quietly . Although things had changed between us , he was still my brother . Rayhan gave him a nod and Ames returned it hesitantly . " One who seems to have been manipulated . " Ames murmured sorrowfully . " Don't blame yourself . When I was brought back , I knew you had probably been spelled . " I said softly , reaching out , I took his hand . " You are the only biological sibling I have left . If you want , I'm sure we can get to know one another . " 11 He glanced at Rayhan , who kissed my neck , sending off a rush of tingles . " I'll give you two a little space . " Rayhan said , moving away from us .

" I'd like that ... " Ames said , watching Rayhan , who had stopped a few metres away . " Delsanra ... Are you sure it's safe to be around him ? " I smiled gently . Safe ? " Safe ? Ames , he IS my safe place . I have never seen happiness in my life until I met him . " " But Delsanra , he's a werewolf . His kind are beasts no matter what we say . How can you trust him ? ” I wanted to get angry , but how can I ? When I myself had said so much hurtful stuff to Rayhan .

Despite him standing a distance away , I knew he was hearing this crystal clear . ” Because , he wanted me when the world wanted me dead , he fought for me when I myself gave up . He protected me when I needed someone . He is my life , my world and my all . Ames , I can't imagine life without Rayhan . You saw what I've have been through , right ? Well , my every happiness is tied to him . Thanks to him , I got a family to call my own ; friends , respect ... He gave me more than I ever could have hoped for , and above all , he loves me , and I love him . ” I said softly . I heard Rayhan suck in a breath , knowing my words affected him too , but they were the truth . Ames stayed silent for a moment before he gave a crooked smile . ” If I had an argument ready ... it's gone . We've never given you anything but pain , and if someone can make you that happy ..

. I mean , you look so much better than you used to ... I'm glad you found a home , Delsanra , a family to call your own . ” He said wryly . I smiled sadly . Why did this feel like a goodbye ? ” But even if elder Magdalene agrees to withdraw the battle plans , I don't think I can associate with their kind . ” He said quietly . I felt a dull ache inside , but I got it . We just weren't meant to be able to fix that bond . ” So , you will cut all ties with me too ? ” I asked . ” No ... I mean , Mom abandoned me too . Dad's dead , Amoria's dead ... I just ... I know they were horrible to you ... and I hate them for it , but it's going to take me time to get myself figured out ... ” He looked pained , and I realised that he must have known that I killed Samson .

I mean , I did it there in front of everyone . In the end , I was the sister who ran away from home to him . Even if they had been awful towards me , they had been good towards him . ” That's fine , I don't mind if you don't want to stay in touch Ames , I'm just glad you are ok . ” I said , giving him a fake smile that I knew looked genuine enough . He shook his head , taking my hand , to my surprise . ” I want to stay in touch with you Delsanra . When you go back , I still don't want to cut everything off ... If you want , we could exchange numbers ... ” ” That would be great . ” I said softly , seeing a small ray of hope . I get that I was never going to have this perfect relationship with Ames , but that was ok too . ” Great . ” He said , dropping my hand .

We smiled at each other , and I turned to Rayhan just as he turned back . Our eyes met , and he gave me a small smile that washed away any sadness that had settled inside of me . He held his hand out to me and I walked over to him , taking his outstretched hand . My gaze fell on it and I smiled at the differences in the size of our hands . I raised his hand to my lips , kissing it softly , before holding it to my chest . " I'm sorry ... for running off ... Forgive me ? " I asked softly . He raised an eyebrow . " No need to apologise , but I'm still mad . " He whispered , his eyes glinting , and I pouted . " Well , there's nothing more I can do to " I trailed off . Oh , I knew a few ways to get rid of his anger ... I blushed lightly . My head had become so dirty ! I blame him . He made me think dirty little things I wanted to do  I became serious once again looking up at him .

His smile had faded too . " Kitten ... You're my fucking all . I cannot lose you . Please , before doing anything recklessly , remember that your life is tied to mine ... If you get hurt , it hurts me way fucking more .. " I sighed . " I get it ... I'll try not to do that next time , but have faith in me , Rayhan , I can handle this . " I said softly . " I know , but this wolf will always worry about his little kitty cat . " He said with a sexy smirk . I smiled . I know he will , and because of that , I would be careful . Not only for him but for me too , because I wanted to spend many more years with my yum yum . " Guys there's food , that we've checked , it's all edible , and then the meetings going to start in thirty minutes . " Lola said , coming over . She was dressed in some pants and an oversized top . We nodded and followed her ... The sun was now high in the sky , shining bright like a beacon of hope , and I hoped that a solution was found....

80. Agreements RAYHAN We were all seated in the large drawing room of Magdalene's home . It was just several members of the coven . Clearly , it wasn't an open event , a large screen had been connected to the heads of the coven in Salem . Three elders were sitting there , each one emotionless , yet you could tell they wer not pleased . Magdalene had already filled them in on everything before we had even entered . When we had come in , we had taken our seats . Raihana was sitting next to Chris , and although I had no idea what went down between the two that night of the barbeque , one thing I was sure of , something had happened . There was an understanding between them , yet at the same time , I saw the fact that they wanted one another , but clearly weren't going for that . I sat back , and now all eyes turned on me . " " You had a proposal , Alpha Rayhan . " Magdalene said , her eyes flittering to Uncle .

Despite knowing he was the king , it was clear he was just going to watch in with minimum input . " I get that there's a group out there that's hunting witches , but there are also witches killing werewolves .

However , we can't judge every single witch or werewolf down to these two groups , can we ? " " It's probably Reginald . Who is targeting the wolves . " Someone inputted . " Maybe , let him continue . " One of the men on the video call said coldly . " I don't know what the situation is with America and your agreement or condition there , but if the new council here in the UK is free of corruption and are willing to agree to the offer that I put on the table , it's simple . We won't interfere in your lives , you won't interfere in ours .

We will make sure our people know that we are at peace with yours , and you will do the same . And if ... Anyone who breaks these rules will be trialled and held responsible for their crap , because we all know that every species has monsters . We have had our fair share of them , and I am sure we saw earlier today that even you had a lot of snakes in your midst . " I said clearly . My eyes flitted from one council member to the next , making sure they all understood what I was saying . " How can we know you will uphold your promise ? " One of the elders spoke . I looked at the screen , my eyes flashing green . " If I wanted you all dead , you would be .. Trust me , despite that it may have been unknowingly , you all let an innocent child fucking suffer under your protection . So , you really don't have much scope for arrogance . We are fucking looking past your damn mistakes and trying to fucking help both sides . Take it or leave it . Because if it's war you want , we're ready for it . " " " And don't forget , this time , the B werewolves will have witches on their side . " Raihana added . " Is that a threat ? "

One of the men said , looking at Raihana . " If you want it to be . Put aside your damns ego and decide what is best for your people . " I said sitting back , placing my arm around my kitten's slender shoulders . " After what I saw ... What Reginald has done to the castle , breached our defences and left us literally for dead , they need to be tracked and held responsible . Everything we learned from Janaina , Delsanra and the Alpha , it's clear that many crimes have been committed under our noses . For the betterment of our people , a peace treaty sounds fair . " Edward said . The three men seemed to be deep in thought for a moment before nodding curtly . " When you were sent to England , I gave Reginald the reigns to be in charge ... With him gone , it is in your hands , Magdalene . Choose your council and the decision is " One of them said . yours . " If you think a treaty is better than war with the wolves then so be it . Do they guarantee their people won't attack ? " " As I said , you have our word . " I said firmly . " I can vouch that they keep their words , even though I dislike them . " Janaina added . The men now turned to her before Uncle sat forward taking a drag on a cigarette that I had no idea where he got from .. " I give you my word too

, I'm behind the future Alpha of the Black Storm Pack ." Uncle added . The men nodded slowly ." Very well then , and what of you , Janaina Silver ? Despite it all , things are cleared , you should return to the coven ." 11 " I don't think so , I will be leaving , I mean 11 " We need members on this council who can be trusted , Janaina we were once friends . Don't you think you could stick around and help rebuild this coven and to make sure the same things do not happen again ? " Magdalene asked , frowning . Janaina frowned , and I knew she was considering it . "

There should be rules and regulations for everything to be clear and elders being chosen wisely . The fact that this council had several corrupt members at the head is disgusting ." She said coldly , " Reginald was smart , he chose some of those members . You can't blame us – for that ! " One of the men on the screen snapped , clearly offended by her words .. " A true leader accepts their mistakes ." Delsanra said confidently . She had been fairly quiet observing and listening , but now she stared at the men on the screen firmly ." The thing is , you let it slide , surely there were red flags ... Elder Dylan ... I personally remember pleading with you at one point to not send me home with Samson . A lot needs to be changed within your system .

Make those changes , accept your wrongs and either take control or I'm sure there are many that can take the position as leaders and actually do good for their people ." She said frowning slightly . The man on the left clenched his jaw , and the one in the middle raised an eyebrow ." We will conduct a clear out here too ... Magdalene , Edward , I will leave the rest to you . When you find Reginald and the others , they will be trialled- " " They won't be alive to be trialled . When I get my hands on them , they're dead ." I said coldly , my eyes flashed green as once again anger flared inside of me .
