

Her Destined Alpha chapter 96 epilogue Part 1

96. Epilogue Part 1 THREE YEARS LATER .. DELSANRA The bell rang signalling the end of my final lecture ! This was it ; I was done for the year ! One more year left and I'd have my degree . I rushed through the hall , a guy from one of my lectures jumped aside to not knock into me , resulting in his books going flying . " Watch it snow ! " He shouted " See ya next year , Louis ! " I shouted back . " See ya ... " " He grumbled . Rushing through the open doors that led to the front of the building , I skidded to a stop , smiling as the sun hit my face . My waist – length hair blew around me , and I ed my eyes for a moment , relishing it and the scent of my mate . I opened my eyes ; he was always here , ready to take me home . "

Causing trouble in the halls again , babe ? " Raihana asked . I smiled at her . She looked as good as ever , in leather pants and a tunic , I could see her tiny baby bump . She was already two months along and had another four to go , but the pup was growing well . " Not at all , just excited that we are done for the year . " I said taking her books from her . " I can carry books , Del . " " I never said you couldn't . " I replied as we fell into step . My heart soared when I saw Rayhan standing there against his Range Rover , Chris by his side , both of them had their eyes on us .

Not a day passed when our love didn't grow . My stomach still knotted like it was the first time he was looking at me . Even now in my gingham white dress , he looked at me like I was a goddess walking the earth . My heart still pounded with nerves like a girl meeting her crush for the first time . And these sparks ... The moment his hand wrapped around my waist as he lifted me and kissed me hard ... Goddess these sparks ... They were as strong as the first time we sealed our bond .

" How was my kitten's day ? " He asked . now and I looked into his ruggedly handsome face . He was twenty – four going on twenty – five age had only made him ever more gorgeous , if that was possible . " Better now that I saw my sexy yum yum . " I replied , kissing his neck softly . Yes , that nickname stuck . He smirked . " Well , I'll make it even better tonight . " He winked at me , sending a jolt of pleasure to my core . " Ok , are you two going to get in the car or put on a sex show for the student body ?

" Chris remarked . " Get in the car , handsome . " Raihana said to him , kissing his lips . " I'm not really into the whole exhibitionist kink . " Rayhan replied , giving me a wink . No he wasn't ... But he enjoyed me putting on a show for him in the bedroom ... and didn't mind giving me one either ... I ran my hand down his chest , before yanking him down and kissing his lips .

Chris did the car's horn and I groaned . " Rayhan ! Tell the annoying banana off ! " " I told you I'm not a banana ! " " You act like one . " I complained getting into the front , Rayhan strapped me in before getting in the driver's seat . 11 " Don't tease her , Chris . " So0000 , when am I getting a nephew or niece ? " Raihana asked . " Del you said we could be pregnant buddies ! " " That was before you got pregnant earlier than we planned ! ” I replied . ” Why would you two plan this shit without us ? ” Chris asked , his arms around Raihana , her legs draped over his lap . Rayhan chuckled . “

I actually knew of their plan to be pregnant together . ” He added . ” Well , now I feel like I was left out . ” ” ” Oh , come on , handsome . How could you be left out when I can't make babies without you ? ” Raihana said seductively before climbing into his lap . Rayhan groaned , and I giggled . ” Horny and pregnant . ” ” Not in my car , guys ! ” Rayhan growled , only for them to ignore us . I smiled as he held his hand out to me and I laced my fingers with his , resting my head on his shoulder as we drove towards home . Rayhan turned the volume on high , and I had a feeling it was so he didn't have to hear even a moan from the couple making out on the back seat .

I looked out as we drove back home , a place that I couldn't even imagine life without . Every day Papa Raf was remembered , but although we are never able to overcome that loss , we learned to live with it . Life was good and although Rayhan refused to allow us to go to training at the coven , we had a few witches come to the pack to give us training , it was usually Janaina or Elizia . The coven had punished several witches , and many had their powers sealed away once the dirt in their past was brought up . It had taken time , but things had worked . I didn't see Ames much , but that was ok , we had taken different paths in life . He had moved to the States now , we would send each other a message on our birthdays , but that was it and it was enough .

I had killed his parents and his sister , and although they deserved it , he still struggled with that . Tonight , was a special night for us I was officially stepping into the position of Luna . I could never thank Mama Mari enough for letting me live for years stress -free , and although I learned my Luna duties , she wanted to see me succeed in what I wanted , and Rayhan did too . My man who put me first every single time ...

I had studied hard , and next year when I received my degree , I was going to focus on helping our kind . My people , many suffered from trauma but not many talked about it and there were things you couldn't just talk to normal therapists about . Not only children , but adults too . I looked at Rayhan , his ear glinted with a crystal stud . I smiled , thinking he was so strong , so perfect , so loving , yet the world had begun to fear him .

The Merciless Alpha , that was what I had heard some call him . But even then , he didn't care , running the pack with a just and fair rule . We arrived home , but before I even got through the front door , Kiara took my arm , dragging me upstairs and away from Rayhan . ” Kia ! ” I said , ” Food first ! ” ” You can eat later ! ” She protested with a pout . ” I'll bring you food . ” Six – year – old Dante said with a wink . ” Hey back off . ” Rayhan warned him . ” Sure , Ray .

” He taunted before walking off . ” What the hell do you teach him ? ” I heard Rayhan ask King Burrito . ” 1 ” How to be a fucking gentlemen . Not . ” The king replied mockingly . I shook my head , as Kia dragged me to Maria's room . It seemed like this was where I was getting ready . ” Girls ! ” She exclaimed as Katalaya and Skyla – ran past , almost knocking into us . ” Sorry , Mama ! ” Skyla said in a sing – song voice . ” Sorry , Mama . ” Kataleya repeated , before both giggled , clearly not sorry . I smiled as Kia pushed me into the room , just as I heard Raihana tell the girls to be careful . ” Sky , Kat , careful ! Your sister is carrying a pup . ” I heard King Burrito growl . ” I didn’t see a pup , papa . ” Skyla replied innocently . ” In her belly . ” ” She ate a pup ! ” Kataleya gasped dramatically . I heard the king groan and Rayhan chuckle as Raihana tried to explain . I smiled as Kiara laughed . 11 ” They will make him go white soon . ” ” I’m sure he’ll still look handsome . ” I said amused , as Raihana now entered , turning some music on . ” Ok , makeup . ” She said .

” I’ll get to your hair . ” Kiara said , the sound of fireworks going off made us shake our heads . 11 ” The men are already going crazy . ” Guaranteed that was Chris . ” Raihana said . ” Without a doubt . ” I replied , and we all started laughing . ” Look what I got you , Delsanra . ” I looked up only to see Dante standing there with a plate of pastries , a cocky little smirk on his face showing how proud he was of himself . ” Oh , my gorgeous little Churro ! Thank you ! ” I said , my eyes sparkling as I reached for it .. ” Rayhan won’t be happy , kiddo . ” Raihana added as she began opening a few eyeshadow palettes .

” Delsanra said she was hungry . ” Dante said , passing me the plate before giving me a small smirk . He really was a cutie , and although he really did seem to have a bit of an infatuation with me , I was sure half the time he just liked to irritate Rayhan , knowing he’d get a reaction . ” Oh , your dress is divine . ” Kiara murmured as I bit into a cinnamon roll . ” Thanks , it turned out better than I thought it would . ” I said , smiling when Dante gave me a small kiss and left the room after getting a shake of the head from his mother . ” Of course it did , babe , we can’t have anything less than the best !

” Raihana said , reaching over and taking an iced bun from the plate . ” How’s the pregnancy going ? ” Kiara asked her . ” It’s good . I just want sex like all the time . ” Raihana said , making both of us smirk . ” Oh ? I’m sure Chris has no issue with that . ” I teased . ” Obviously not . ” Raihana blushed , lightly biting her lips . ” Being Luna doesn’t get easier though , does it ? ” Kiara smiled knowingly as she got to work on my hair .

” There’s always an expectation and a demand , but when you are born to be a Luna , there is no way you would do any wrong . You got this hun . ” ” True ... Baba Amir was happy to know I was pregnant , and he said he was coming back from his world tour earlier to spend time with his great grand pup . But the expectation of having a boy is high . ” Raihana murmured . I frowned , sensing her worry . It wasn’t often Raihana was like that . I reached over and took her hand . ” Don’t ever feel like you need to do more . Girl or boy , this child will be perfect . ” I said firmly . She smiled confidently . “

Goddess , you’re just like Chris . he said the same . ” 11 ” And he isn’t wrong , besides I’m sure if it’s a girl ... He wouldn’t mind making another few . ” Kiara teased . I giggled at that . ” Oh , I’m sure he wouldn’t , ” Raihana said , rolling her eyes . ” I’d like to see him ” pregnant though ! It isn’t easy ! ” ” And what about you and your – yum yum ? ”

Kiara asked me . I smiled as I stared in the mirror . About that ... ” We will when the time is right . ” I replied , blushing lightly . ” No pressure . ” Kiara replied . ” But how much do you want ? Any number ? ” ” I haven’t really thought that far ahead . ” I replied with a small pout . ” Hmm , we all know Uncle loved you pregnant ... I bet he wants to impregnate you again . ”

Raihana teased making Kiara blush before we all started laughing . I smiled , I truly had made some really good friends . I had a family that was irreplaceable . It was much later , and everyone had finally finished getting dressed . Music was blasting through the house , the sound of shouting and excitement filled the air , strong smells of expensive fragrances and delicious foods mingled pleasantly . ” My sexy beast , please make sure they don’t dirty their dresses . ” Kiara’s voice flitted in through the window . Mama Mari entered the bedroom with a soft , graceful smile on her face . I stood up and she came over to me , gently cupping my face . ” You look beautiful ... I am so proud to have been gifted a daughter like you . “

She said . ” Thank you , Mama Mari . ” I said softly , hugging her tightly . She hugged me back , and although I lost one mother and papa Raf , I still had her ... She stepped away . ” Well , I’ll send Rayhan up . ” She left the room and I turned away , gazing into the mirror . Everyone was already outside , Rayhan and I would be going together . I missed him , I hadn’t seen him all afternoon . I waited in the room patiently for my king . I looked in the mirror in our bedroom , at my reflection . The fact that I was actually becoming Luna officially , ready to take my place by Rayhan’s side , seemed surreal . I took a deep breath just as his scent hit my nose and I felt his intense gaze upon me .

Her Destined Alpha chapter 96 epilogue Part 2

97. Epilogue Part 2 RAYHAN I had been itching to see my kitten all afternoon , but Mom , Ri and Kia refused to let me . ” The documents and passports are here ... and your stuff is all packed . ” Rose said to me , holding out an envelope . She was dressed in a green evening gown . ” Thanks . ” I said to her . She gave me a smile before lifting their two – year – old son , Shane , that they had via surrogacy . 2 ” Hey kiddo . ” I said , ruffling his blond locks .

He looked a lot like his mummy . Lola came over , wrapping her arms around her mate and kissing her lips . ” Rayhan , go get Delsanra , and then both of you make your way outside . ” Mom said , she was dressed in a dusky blue gown with sequins all over it , with a slit and ruffled sleeves . I was glad as the years went by she returned more to her usual self . Although I know losing Dad was hardest on her and still affected her . ” Looking good , Mom . ”

She gave me a smile , ” Thank you , ya Hayati . ” She – said softly , cupping my cheek for a moment . I looked towards the stairs , before making my way up them , only to see the little ass making his way upstairs already ... ” Oi ... ” I said . Dante turned , cocking a brow . ” What ? ” He shot back . ” Where are you going ? ” I asked . This kid had an infatuation with Delsanra , and it was annoying . No matter how much I loved him , he was like her fucking shadow when he was around , and that was pretty often . Our families always spent time together .

He was dressed in a shirt and black pants , his curls tumbling over his forehead and his piercing red eyes staring into mine . One thing was fucking sure , he was a Rossi through and through , and his arrogance showed it . ” To Delsanra . ” He stated as if it was obvious , which it fucking was . ” That’s my mate , kid . “

” Dad ‘ said people can have two mates . I froze , staring down at him , did he fucking just say that ? My eyes flashed green , and he simply looked at me like I was a cockroach on the damn wall . ” Yeah ... rarely , and I assure you , a twenty two – year – old woman is not going to be mated to a six – year – old pup . ” He smirked , ” There’s sixteen years difference between Mama and Dad ... Twenty – two take away six is ? ” With those words , he turned to carry on up the stairs , but I lifted him up and headed back down them . ” Let me down , Rayhan ! ” ” Uncle ! ” I growled , following my nose until I found Uncle standing in the corner , holding a cigarette . Clearly hiding away from his daughters . He raised an eyebrow , before smirking as he looked at Dante , who I had under my arm .

” This- ” I struggled to find a word to suit the asshat . ” Fucker . ” Uncle added helpfully . I smirked , as Dante rolled his eyes . ” Yeah that . ” I couldn’t bring myself to call the kid that . I loved him , but he fucking grated on my every nerve . ” Had some messed up mentality that Delsanra may be his mate . ” ” I Uncle smirked . ” Seriously Ray , scared of competition with a six – year – old ? ” ” A six – year – old who acts fucking twenty . ” I shot back . ” So , I’m old enough for Delsanra ? ” Dante added , smirking . I glared at Uncle who frowned at his son . ” Do not give Rayhan shit . ” He growled . I dropped him and turned to walk off when his little irritating voice came after me . ” I like Delsanra . “

” You really need to rein it in , Dante . ” Uncle was saying . I sighed , it was definitely his infatuation with her other appearance and her being sweet and caring towards him didn’t help . I walked up the stairs quietly , making my way to my room . I stopped in the open doorway , watching her standing there , smoothing her dress out . She looked fucking ethereal ... In a metallic gold dress that hugged her curves perfectly , it wrapped around her , the gold fabric only covering one breast . I throbbed as she turned towards me and I saw the sheer net fabric sprinkled with gems that covered her arms and right breast .

And I won’t fucking lie that I stared at her trying to see her nipple . Only to realise she had some sort of sticker over it . She laughed , and I swallowed hard . ” Got distracted somewhere ? ” She teased , doing a slow twirl . I dragged my eyes up taking in the neckline to her gown , which looked like a nécklace , and then looking at her gorgeous face . With her shimmery eyes , deep red lips and her hair styled in an elegant up – do , she looked fucking gorgeous , and my pants felt a little too fucking tight . I can’t really blame Dante ... ” You are the fucking embodiment of the goddess of beauty and sex herself . “

I said snapping the door shut . Her eyes widened , her gaze going to the open window .
" Rayhan ... " " Delsanra ... " I imitated her breathless tone , closing the gap between us .
With the years that had passed , she had become even stronger , more confident , her moments of fear and triggering moments became far and few . She had kept us together when we lost Dad . There were days that Mom had it hard and she would push her way into Mom's room and wrap her in her arms whilst spending the night with her . She never boasted about what she did , but she had been a true Luna , the pillar of this pack . My hands went to her hips , and I looked into her eyes . " I'm so fucking proud of the woman you have become , kitten . Goddess , I was always fucking proud of you , but you have accomplished so much in the last few years . " I whispered , my nose brushing hers . " All because of you . " She whispered . That wasn't true , but it was one of the things we would argue over . " You look incredible by the way . " She added , looking me over . Her scent invaded my senses , her warm fresh breath making me want to do so fucking much to her . I kissed her slowly yet deeply , relishing in the sparks that coursed through us . Her hands went to my chest , her body pressing against me as our lips caressed the others , she was the most precious thing to me ... We broke apart when she gasped for breath , and I smirked sexily .

" I got a gift for you . . " I said , moving away from her . I went to my wardrobe , reaching to the back where I had kept the small box . I took out the envelope with our travel documents and passed them to her . She looked curious , taking a seat on the bed and opening the envelope . Her eyes widened . " Venice ? " "

Yeah , think we both deserve a holiday . " I said winking at her , as I crouched down before her . " Venice , then Paris and then Dubai . Six weeks , baby girl . " I said softly , as she looked through the envelope . Her heart pounded and I could sense her excitement , although we had gone on a few holidays , nowhere for that long . " That's Thank you ! " She said , flinging her arms around me and knocking me onto my back onto the floor . Her lips met mine in a passionate kiss . I chuckled against her lips , squeezing her ass .

" When do we leave ? She asked . " Tonight . " " I replied . " I need to pack ! " " All done . " I said making her freeze . She smiled and got off of me but the excitement never left her . She opened the box and I smirked watching her take out the satin blindfold , yeah I guess over the years we tried out a few kinks ... " This ... " She trailed off , taking out the diamond end butt plug and cuffs . " Just a few toys to keep us occupied on our private jet . "

I whispered with a wink , making her eyes flash red . The desire in her eyes matched mine , and I knew we were going to have fun . " Sounds like a plan , " She whispered , running a hand down my chest . I smirked , taking the box and envelope from her , slipping it into my duffle bag . " There's something I wanted to ... give you too . " She hesitated , I turned back to her , trying to ignore the sweet , tempting scent of her arousal .

" Oh yeah ? " I asked , pulling her into my arms . " It's ... well , it's not here ... I mean , it's not a physical thing . Well , not yet anyway Umm " I cocked a brow , not expecting her to be so flustered . " Use your words , kitten . " I teased , " Just how you do in bed , like the little good girl you are . " 11 She blushed , smacking my chest lightly . " Well ... I was thinking ... I know you've never brought this up but ... I want to have a mini yum yum . " It took me a moment to realise what she had just said . My heart thundered as I stared down at her . " You want a pup ? " I asked , stunned . " Don't you ? " She asked softly , looking into my eyes intently . " Well ... " I looked away . I was twenty – four , set as Alpha , I did want kids one day but that was if she was ready ...

" For me , you never mentioned it , saying there was no rush , but I think it's high time we had one . " I looked into her startling blue eyes , cupping her face . " That would be an amazing gift ... " I whispered . She smiled . " And I think we'll have plenty of time on this holiday to make one little perfect yum yum . " She whispered . Oh , we fucking would . " What about your last year in Uni ? " " I will manage , and I know I will have support . Don't worry . " She said , her hand on my chest . I smiled , taking her hand , kissing it gently and nodded . Yeah , she would have support because I'd always be there for her , we all would . " Shall we ? " My eyes widened , before she burst out laughing .

" Go downstairs , Rayhan . " She said . I gave her a look , fuck she made me go blank . " Yeah sadly ... " I remarked , smacking her ass . She glared jokingly at me before I slipped my hand around her waist and led her downstairs . The party was in full swing , Delsanra had said a few words as Luna and we had toasted her before eating and drinking . The dance floor was full , Skyla and Kataleya were dancing together . Dante the little asshat , was on his tablet at a table . Rose and Lola were dancing , their little one fast asleep and being taken care of by one of the omegas . Raihana and Chris were sitting in the corner fucking making out . Me and Del were sitting around with Mom , Marcel , Kiara and Uncle Al . " I love how all of your dresses coordinated so nicely . " Delsanra was saying , looking at Mom and Kiara .

" I know , I think the pictures came out amazing ! " Kiara added , holding out her phone . Kiara was in a pink gown , now that I think of it , there was a pattern going on between Mum , Kiara and Raihana , only my kitten was different . But then again , she would fucking stand out , even in a sack . " He's changed . " Uncle Al said quietly staring at Leo . We all glanced at him ; he was nearly sixteen but looked twenty already . He was well built ; tattoos littered his body . His hair was shaved from the sides and back , the rest put up in a hair tie . Unlike the rest of us men in suits ; he was in black pants , a black top and a leather jacket , smoking a cigarette . " He doesn't listen . I just about managed to get him to come . "

Marcel said quietly . Mom looked sympathetic ; she had offered Leo to come to stay with us for a while , but he had flatly refused . " Yeah , I'm seeing myself and I don't like it . " Uncle Al muttered , smoking his own cigarette . Leo looked towards us , I knew he'd probably heard us . His eyes were filled with hatred as he stared at me , I knew it was me that he resented ... He'd gone to Uncle Al's pack , but this was the first time in years that he had come here . He looked away , and Delsanra placed a hand on my leg . I looked down at her . Ever since I had gone to the Sangue Pack ... Leo had never been the same with me .

I knew he hated me for what I had done that night , but even when I tried to explain it two Christmas's ago , he told me to fuck off . But regardless of the fact , like Dad would have wanted , I'll keep trying with him . " You look fucking fine , Amore Mio. " a " Thanks baby . " Kiara whispered back , kissing him . Uncle Al tilted his head , looking at Mom . " You keeping the girls tonight , Mari ? " " Yes . " Mom replied with a smile .

Uncle smirked . " Love you . " He said . She smiled back , and I smiled , loving the bond they had built . " You really ask for too much . " Kiara scolded him . " I fucking don't . " " I love the company . " Mom added . A moment of sadness washed over us . Delsanra and Kiara took mom's hands , smiling gently at her . Uncle turned to Delsanra , smirking as he caught me staring at her breasts . " Once again , congratulations spitfire on the position , but if you ever get bored of Rayhan , I'm sure Dante would love to have you as his queen . " He snickered . Everyone burst out laughing as I glared at Uncle . " No thanks , I'll keep her entertained . " I said , standing up . " Let's dance , kitten . " " 1 " Hmm ... Only if you sing for me . " She whispered . " As you wish ... "

I pulled her into my arms , mind linking the DJ to change the music . I took her hand , wrapping my other around her waist as we began to dance and I began to sing . Pouring my emotions and love into that song Others joined us on the dance floor , and even when the first drops of rain began falling , no one cared , enjoying the highs of this night . Delsanra locked her arms around my neck loosely , and I pulled her against me , grinding against her . Under the night sky ,

I claimed her lips in a sizzling kiss . Our journey hadn't been easy , but it had been worth it . No matter how hard life gets , or how dark , things will always get better . We broke apart , turning our gaze up as the first stream of fireworks erupted in the sky , illuminating Delsanra's face as she gazed at the sky , a beautiful smile on her face . " To Alpha Rayhan and Luna Delsanra ! " Chris shouted as another stream of fireworks went off .

" Congratulations Luna . " I whispered , wrapping my arms around her once more , our lips meeting in a sizzling kiss , setting off our own fireworks that erupted within US ...
