

Healing 451

Chapter 451 Let me explain

River, Miles, and Matilda still stood where they were. At this moment, the three of them had wine glasses in their hands, watching the situation like spectators.

What Luis said made all three of them show mocking expressions.

River said, "So generous. People who don't know everything will think she's his real granddaughter."

Miles smiled contemptuously, and said, "There's nothing unusual about this kind of speculation."

Kate was naturally not Luis' biological granddaughter.

However, that didn't mean she can't have Luis' child.

Matilda laughed lowly, "Aren't you two too bad?"

River shook his wine glass and looked at Matilda's innocent eyes.

He said, "Miss Duncan, you are very kind."

The reason why they said that was because they had known some secrets. Otherwise, how could they talk about it without evidence?

Matilda's face darkened, and she could certainly know the meaning behind his words.

If the three of them were not in the same camp now, Matilda would definitely have a verbal battle with River.

Glancing at River, Matilda looked towards the stage. Luis had finished his flattering introduction to Kate, and now he was getting off the stage with Kate.

Some people had begun to talk to Luis and Kate falsely.

Today, Luis made such a big scene and came to brag for Kate, and the guests would naturally cooperate.

River lost his patience. He had already grasped the information he should get on this trip, so he didn't have much patience to stay here any longer.

He looked at Miles and asked, "Let's go?"

Miles raised his eyebrows lightly when he heard this, and said, "Let's go."

Matilda looked at Miles, then at River, and suddenly frowned, feeling disgusted and surprised at the same time.

Miles immediately knew that she was thinking wrong. He raised his hand helplessly and flicked Matilda's forehead, saying, "Let's go. Do you still want to stay and drink?"

Matilda was speechless.

Angrily glaring at Miles, Matilda was the first to walk towards the door with her dress lifted.

She didn't bother to greet Luis or Kate, and River and Miles didn't even think about it. The three of them just left in such a bold manner. That gesture didn't give the host any face at all.

Kate had been talking with everyone. And she had been paying attention to Miles and the others from the corner of her eyes.

Seeing that they were leaving now, she immediately became anxious.

How could she let them go so easily?

The reason why there was such a big scene today was that, on the one hand, the two things announced were true. And on the other hand, it was specially arranged so that she could get closer to Miles in the future.

Who would have thought that Miles brought Matilda over here, which obviously proved that she was wrong.

Kate bit inside her cheek angrily. At this moment, she wished she could rush over and strangle Matilda to death.

She really wanted to do this, but the moment she raised her foot, she heard Luis cough. Then, she instantly stopped what she intended to do.

Kate just watched Matilda and Miles leave like this, so angry that she couldn't hold back her expression.

As the three walked to their respective cars, River said, "Would you like to have a drink?"

Miles gave a low laugh, and said, "River, your invitation is trying to misunderstand me that you came here specially for me."

Matilda was listening, and she couldn't help but burst out laughing.

Wasn't that what she thought just now? But, because of Miles, she didn't say it directly.

Unexpectedly, Miles said it himself.

Miles heard Matilda's laughter, and was really annoyed and helpless that she couldn't take his feelings into consideration.

River looked at Miles with interest, and then his eyes fell on Matilda's face again.

He said, "For you, not really. As for whom, Miles, you should know."

Miles' eyes narrowed suddenly, looking at River dangerously.

Did he like Matilda?

Can he bear it?

Miles said, "If this is the case, I don't think there is any need to go for a drink with you."

After speaking, Miles pushed Matilda into the car without any hesitation, and said to River in an arrogant tone, "River, we'll go first."

River just watched Miles and Matilda's car leave, gritted his teeth, dumbfounded.

He had never known before that Miles was so childish.

He opened the car door and got in. The driver in front asked River where he was going.

River was so angry that he laughed out loud. Looking up at the driver, he said, "Go home."

On the other side, Matilda tilted her head and looked at Miles, saying, "Explain it."

She didn't think that Miles just took her here as a companion on a whim, but believed even more that this was a premeditated plan by Miles.

It was included that Miles didn't show Luis respect. It wouldn't be as simple as being irritated by Luis.

Thinking of this, Matilda looked at Miles very intriguingly.

Her eyes looked threatening, as if to say: if Miles didn't explain this clearly, then it will never end.

Miles touched his nose and said, "Actually, there are some things, if you know too much, it may not be good for you."

Matilda was very angry at what Miles said. She chuckled lightly, and said, "Okay, Mr. Hayden, you think I'm a fool, don't you? Since you don't want to say, I'll check it myself."

After being touched by the way Miles protected her, at this moment, Matilda seemed to be furious again.

She turned her head away and didn't pay any attention to Miles. After the car reached the urban area, she asked the driver to pull over the car. Regardless of what Miles said, she got out of the car, hailed a taxi, and left by herself.

Miles squeezed the space between his brows. Why was she so angry?

He sat back in the car again. Without any hesitation, he said directly to the driver, "Follow her."

Even though he knew Matilda's skills, Miles was still worried. He had to see her reach the destination safely before he could rest assured.

Matilda knew that there was a car following her all the time, and she was so angry that she wanted to drive faster and get rid of Miles.

However, she knew that even if the taxi driver had good skills, this taxi will limit his performance, so she can only give up.

She just let Miles follow behind her. Until she got home, the car stopped. Matilda got out of the taxi, and walked into the gate without looking back, but Miles grabbed her arm.

Matilda turned her head. She didn't struggle or get angry.

She just looked at Miles like this, and said with a smile, "What? What do you want to say?"

Chapter 452 Don't try to hide from me

Miles could sense her anger in her tone.

He sighed and tightened his grip on Matilda's arm a little more.

He said, "I can tell you. Don't be angry, okay?"

Matilda thought it was funny. There must be some misunderstanding.

She said, "It's not necessary to be so humble, as if you're forced. Mr. Hayden, you should know, if I really want to know, I can let you say it naturally. If you don't want to, I have nothing to insist on. At most, I'll feel I have been used and insulted for nothing. It let me know my position in your heart."

As she said that, Matilda raised her free hand and poked Miles' heart. It can be said that it was extremely mocking.

Hearing Matilda's words, Miles felt suffocated.

However, even so, he still didn't let go.

Matilda felt it amazing at the moment. Judging from her relation with Miles, she would always easily let him talk about anything she wanted to know.

Unexpectedly, this time it was be so difficult.

The more this happened, the more it made Matilda feel that the trick behind this was not simple.

Her expression became serious. Looking at Miles, she asked, "Or, are you planning something dangerous?"

Miles' eyebrows twitched, and a look of unnaturalness flashed in his eyes.

Although it was very fast, it was still noticed by Matilda.

Her tone became serious, not giving Miles a chance to fool herself, "You'd better tell me all your plans."

Matilda had a feeling that Miles' plan had something to do with her.

Moreover, it may be because of her that this plan came into being.

Whether it was true or not, at this moment, Matilda just didn't want Miles to keep hiding it from her.

She said. "Miles, I can check it myself, but telling me when the time comes is two different things."

Miles' complexion became grim, and he was very helpless for Matilda's persistence.

Raising his hand and pinching the space between his brows, Miles said, "Being in this industry, I've heard about Kate's stuff for a long time. You and her can be regarded as having a feud. I'm afraid she might do something bad to you. So, I investigated her."

He didn't think about it before he checked it, but after he did it, Miles had to pay attention to it.

Kate maintained a public persona in the industry, which was not a big deal. She was a star, so she had to do that to attract fans.

But she shouldn't have done what she shouldn't.

Miles said, "After that day, I found out that she was checking you. After thinking that your background is ordinary, she is going to do something to you."

Matilda snorted lightly, feeling that Kate was simply too naive.

She said, "So, what did you do?"

Miles said, "I had someone bring message to Luis that his unfulfilled wish can be fulfilled this time."

Matilda was startled, then looked at Miles suspiciously, saying, "So, you mean that Luis' return to the arena with great fanfare this time is all because of you?"

Miles gave a low laugh, and said, "If you want to understand this way, it's not impossible."

Matilda couldn't help but looked Miles up and down. Staring into his eyes for a long time, she finally came to a conclusion, "Mr. Hayden, you are quite capable of causing trouble."

Matilda had never experienced Luis' heyday, but she knew very well that Luis would not eat out of his hand easily.

She was curious what kind of bait did Miles give to make Luis jump in without hesitation.

However, what made Matilda even more puzzled was...

"Why does he hand over all his property to Kate?" Matilda asked.

Miles said, "The answer to this question, River and I should have already told you."

Matilda looked at Miles speechlessly, and after a while, she asked, "Are you sure? That's not your fabrication, your guess?"

"Of course there is evidence to say that," Miles said.

This was found out by River.

Miles said, "River found me to cooperate. This time, the bait is to sacrifice the interests of the Knight family on the surface, but in fact, it is to let River annihilate Luis in one fell swoop."

"In other words, this is a joint plan of the two of you." Matilda snorted lightly. If she hadn't been sure that she was not deaf, she probably wouldn't have believed what she had heard.

Miles didn't go into details, but still thought it was full of danger. The less Matilda could know, the better.

Matilda could probably guess what Miles was thinking, so she smiled lowly and said, "Okay, now I know everything I want to know. You can go back."

Miles was a little dumbfounded.

He raised his hand and flicked Matilda's forehead, saying, "Isn't it too heartless to drive me away like this?"

"What? Do you want to stay with me?" Matilda said.

Miles was silent for a moment, but the light in his eyes made Matilda understand his thoughts.

He was very serious in thinking if it was feasible.

Matilda really wanted to roll her eyes at Miles, and she did.

She said very bluntly, "What are you thinking?"

She was a little tired. Today's shooting task was exhausting, and then Miles took her to the King family. Now, she just wanted to remove her makeup, apply a mask, and then go to bed.

However, Miles still held her hand tightly.

Matilda frowned and looked at Miles, puzzled, "What?"

Miles actually wanted to ask if it was inconvenient for her to live with another man.

However, judging from Matilda's mood today, Miles can be sure that if he really said that, he might be beaten up by her.

After weighing it, Miles said, "Go back."

Matilda didn't want to roll her eyes at Miles anymore today. Anyway, he was already very abnormal for her.

Out of the most basic politeness, Matilda still said to Miles, "Mr. Hayden, take care."

After speaking, Matilda didn't care whether Miles left or not, but turned around and entered the gate directly.

Miles was so angry that he can't lose his temper.

She was really relying on the fact that he indulged her.

Without staying any longer, Miles returned to the car. His phone rang, and the caller was River.

Miles' face turned cold, but he still answered the call.

River's voice came from the other end of the phone, "Having done the escort, shouldn't it be time to talk about business?"

Miles suddenly felt a little regretful now. Why he didn't think deliberately and chose this guy as his partner?

Miles said, "I'll be there in half an hour."

River laughed on the other end of the phone, with undisguised joy in his voice, "Don't worry. I've decanted a good bottle of wine. I can wait for you."

Miles was even more speechless.

He didn't think there was any problem at first, but now hearing River say that, Miles somehow felt that there was something wrong.

After hanging up the phone, Miles fell into deep thought.

He didn't know if it was too late to cancel the cooperation with River now.

As Matilda walked into the gate of the villa, she met Ash who looked gossipy.

Seeing that the bastard had no good intentions, Matilda wanted to bypass him and go back to her room.

But this bastard who deserved to be beaten was just so blind, and he stood in front of her.

Matilda was not in a hurry to go upstairs. Instead, she crossed her arms and looked at Ash, "What? What do you want to say?"

"Matilda, are you with Miles?" Ash's expression seemed to say: "Don't try to hide it from me. I've seen through everything. You'd better tell the truth. Otherwise, don't blame me for not showing you respect."

As Matilda heard that, the corners of her mouth curled up, and she just looked at Ash with threats.

Ash sensed the danger immediately and jumped back a step, eyeing Matilda defensively.

Matilda said, "So curious? Shall I tell you what is my relationship with Miles?"

Ash immediately shook his head.

He had been living so well recently that he even dared to gossip about Matilda. He was looking for death.

Matilda said, "It's okay. If you want to know so much, I won't be stingy, but, Ash, did I tell you I don't mind losing a good brother?"

Chapter 453 Dark face

As Ash heard Matilda's words, he wanted to run away immediately.

He smiled silly and said, "Matilda, I remembered I still have a report to finish. I'll go write it first."

After speaking, Ash ran upstairs in a hurry.

Matilda watched Ash running away, and shook her head speechlessly.

This bastard had been too idle recently. That was why he was so infuriating.

However, Aimee was so busy these days that she had no time to care about Ash.

It occurred to Matilda that she had not seen Aimee for a long time and had to ask her out sometime.

Back in the room, Matilda removed her makeup, put on a mask, poured herself a glass of red wine, and rested on the couch.

Matilda operated on the phone, and some information was quickly displayed on the screen. All the relevant information about Luis, including how many women he had, was listed in detail.

Soon, Matilda discovered that among them, Luis had a lover who bore him a child in Wecline, and, among all Luis' offspring, this child was still alive.

But it seemed that Luis didn't know about it.

Matilda studied the child's information carefully, and it turned out that he was born three years after Luis separated from his lover.

Normally, no one would associate him with Luis.

This made Matilda very curious. What method did his lover use to hide this from Luis and give birth to this child?

Matilda sent the information to Aimee and asked her to check it out for herself.

Aimee just woke up right now, and after seeing the message from Matilda clearly, she turned serious.

Matilda had not been in the country before, so she didn't know much about Luis' situation, but she knew what kind of person Luis was.

Aimee's brows furrowed tightly, and she silently tapped on the phone screen for a moment, telling Matilda not to get involved in this matter.

Patrick came over, and saw that Aimee's face didn't look good.

Sitting beside Aimee, Patrick asked, "What's wrong? Your expression is so bad."

"Really?" Aimee turned her head to look at Patrick, "Is my face dark?"

"Looks you're not happy," Patrick said.

Aimee handed the phone to Patrick and said, "I'm worried about her."

Patrick scanned the message from Matilda, and scowled.

What was Miles doing? How did he get Matilda involved?

Aimee saw that Patrick's expression was not getting better, so she asked suspiciously, "Darling, don't tell me that you are also involved."

Patrick handed the phone back to Aimee and said, "I didn't mean to hide it from you."

How many messages had she missed?

Aimee thought for a moment, then said, "Are you trying to annex the King family?"

Patrick said, "Miles is taking precautions. Kate wants to harm Matilda. If we wait for her to make a move before taking action, it will be too late."

Aimee nodded, agreeing with this statement.

She said, "However, I hope Miles will not use this to trick Matilda."

Chapter 454 How to make it like this

Patrick knew what Aimee was worried about.

He touched Aimee's head and said, "Don't worry. Miles won't."

Even if Miles liked Matilda now, he will definitely not have that kind of perverted possessiveness.

If Matilda really didn't have feelings for him, he would naturally not force Matilda to be with him, let alone do anything to hurt her.

These were the men of Hayden family, affectionate but restrained.

Aimee said, "I don't think Miles will do it. I know him well, and I know he won't do anything to hurt Matilda."

In fact, Aimee was more worried about Matilda.

Matilda had been avoiding, unwilling to face these. Aimee was worried whether she will directly choose to hide herself.

Patrick didn't know what happened to Matilda to make her the way she was now.

He can't possibly play any role in it.

Patrick said, "Aimee, let the two of them solve it themselves."

If they were not fated to be together, no matter how hard they forced it, it will be useless.

In the past, Patrick did not believe in it, but now he believed very much that fate will bring them together.

Just like him and Aimee, it was a kind of fateful connection.

Aimee nodded and stopped thinking about this question.

She thought back to Luis again. With a straight look on her face, she said, "Darling, although Luis claimed that he quit in the early years, he secretly cultivated a lot of power and did a lot of things. If you want to bring him down, it's not an easy thing."

"I know," Patrick said, "he's not an easy guy to deal with, but we're confident."

Aimee felt relieved.

She looked at Patrick and said with a smile, "If you need my help, please let me know."

Aimee knew that the reason why Patrick didn't tell her about this before was that he didn't want to worry her. So, she didn't want to do so much, and didn't want to participate so much.

However, her ability was very extraordinary. As long as Patrick needed, she can help him achieve his wish.

Patrick said, "Okay, if there is a need, I will definitely tell you."

Certainly, he didn't want to involve Aimee. After all, Aimee was pregnant, and this kind of thing was exhausting. He only wanted her to eat and sleep well.

Aimee had been very tired recently because of April. Patrick really didn't want her to work so hard.

The two chatted for a while, and Aimee went up to check on April's situation.

*

Ash got a call from Mikayla in the middle of the night.

At this time, he was doing data, and when he saw the caller ID, he was stunned for a moment, as if he didn't expect Mikayla to call him.

They hadn't been in touch for a long time, but he suddenly received a call from Mikayla. He was really in a daze.

It was a few seconds late before Ash answered the phone.

Over there, Mikayla's voice sounded a little drunk, "Ash, let's drink!"

Ash didn't say something.

What was this girl doing?

Ash stood up from his chair, and his voice was serious, "Mikayla, where are you now?"

No one knew if Mikayla had heard what Ash was asking. She kept giggling and repeating it, "Ash, drink!"

Ash had no choice but to quickly locate Mikayla with his mobile phone. Seeing that her location was at Homelux, he was a little relieved.

However, after he breathed a sigh of relief, Ash became unhappy in an instant.

Did she make trouble out of nothing at home?

Without any hesitation, Ash ran out of the room and down the stairs.

Coincidentally, Matilda came down from upstairs and asked suspiciously when she saw him, "It's late at night. Where are you going?"

It seemed that the house was on fire by what he looked like.

Ash didn't bother to explain to Matilda, but just said, "I'm going out for a while." Then he disappeared.

Matilda frowned, and quickly understood that it was probably only Mikayla who could make Ash run out in such a hurry.

That familiar feeling surged up again, and Matilda sighed softly, feeling inexplicable.

Why did it seem that everyone was looking for their love, but she was the only one who had no interest in it.

Matilda even had some doubts about whether she was really abnormal.

Stopping thinking that way, Matilda went upstairs. She really didn't want to think about it anymore, because today was already too much for her.

Before she could go upstairs, Matilda heard the roar of a car.

Sure enough, Ash couldn't hold back his feelings anymore.

Ash didn't even change his shoes, but rushed out of the villa, heading towards Homelux.

Fortunately, there were no cars on the road now, and, and there were green lights all the way.

Ash arrived at the Homelux in less than half an hour.

He rushed upstairs.

He couldn't care less about being polite, but pressed his fingerprints, opened the door, and rushed in.

When he came last time, he had already registered his fingerprints, just so that if anything happened to Mikayla, he could arrive as soon as possible .

Sure enough, as soon as he opened the door, he saw Mikayla sitting on the ground, surrounded by wine bottles.

The room smelled of alcohol, making Ash frown unconsciously.

He walked over, pulled Mikayla up from the ground, and made her face him, "What's going on? How did you get this way?"

Mikayla blinked for a long time before she realized it was Ash.

She laughed immediately, and waved her hand towards Ash, "Ash, you are here. Let's have a drink."

Ash looked grim.

He took away the wine bottle from Mikayla's hand, and said, "Come with me first."

He dragged Mikayla directly and rushed into the bathroom. He took the towel and wet it. Without even wringing it dry, he directly put it on Mikayla's face.

Ash deliberately we it with cold water, and Mikayla was shocked by the coldness.

Immediately, she screamed and kicked Ash.

Ash was in pain, but he didn't let go of Mikayla. Instead, he clasped her wrist and continued to wipe her face with the wet towel.

Finally, when Ash thought that Mikayla had recovered a bit, he said, "Tell me, what's going on? Why are you drinking so much?"

As Mikayla heard Ash's words, she burst into tears immediately, sobbing, so pitiful.

Chapter 455 Follow Me

Mikayla sniffed, looked at Ash very dissatisfied, and said: "You bully me, woo woo woo, even you bully me. How can you bully me? Why am I so miserable? Why are you bullying me?"

She was really heartbroken, just fell to the ground and burst into tears.

Ash looked at her like this, feeling very uncomfortable.

He never knew how to comfort a girl. The last time Mikayla cried, he could still find a way to solve it. At least, that time it was related to Aimee.

But this time, Mikayla cried so that Ash was anxious and at a loss.

He said, "Mikayla, don't cry. Tell me what happened first."

Mikayla couldn't listen to Ash's words at all, so she just sat on the ground and cried so pitifully.

Ash had no choice but to squat down, reach out, and caress Mikayla's face, trying to wipe away her tears.

However, it didn't help. Mikayla just cried even more sadly.

Ash never knew that a girl could cry so much.

She looked at Ashton with wet eyes, and the tears began to sputter. It was painful and confusing.

Ash had no other choice but to be with her like this.

Finally, when Mikayla was done crying, she sniffed and wiped her face with her hand to dry the tears.

However, her face became very funny after being wiped by her like this.

Ash looked at it, inexplicably finding it too cute.

He couldn't hold back, but just laughed out loud.

Mikayla looked at Ash in astonishment, unable to believe he was actually laughing.

Seeing that Mikayla was about to cry again, Ash quickly said, "Don't cry. Don't cry. I'm not kidding you. I just think you're cute."

Mikayla's tears really just kept in her eyes.

She looked at Ash, and finally believed what he said.

"Really? Am I really cute?" Mikayla asked.

Ash smiled and said, "Of course, you're super cute."

Mikayla was comforted by Ash. She curled her lips, looked at Ash, and said, "Okay then, I will forgive you."

Ash breathed a sigh of relief. Okay, okay, it didn't upset her too much.

He pulled Mikayla off the ground, rewashed the towel, and wiped her face.

Ash said, "Hey, tell me, what's going on?"

Mikayla bit her lower lip, as if she didn't want to say more.

Ash said, "Tell me, okay? If someone bullied you, I will take revenge for you."

Mikayla still didn't speak.

She felt so humiliated that she didn't even want to talk to Ash.

Ash didn't continue to question her.

He said, "It seems that you really don't want to tell me."

Mikayla still didn't make a sound, just raised her eyes and glanced at Ash secretly, saying, "I still want to drink."

"No." Ash turned serious.

As soon as he came in and glanced at it, Mikayla had drunk at least a dozen or more.

If she kept drinking again, he was afraid that he will be killed by Aimee.

Mikayla flattened her mouth and said, "But, I feel uncomfortable."

Ash said, "I will take you to vent, okay?"

Since there was no way for Mikayla to tell him what happened, the most important thing now was to appease Mikayla's emotions.

As for who bullied her, Ash naturally had his own way to find out.

Mikayla nodded, looked obedient at the moment, and said Ash, "Let's go quickly."

Ash was amused by her appearance, raised his hand and touched her head, saying helplessly, "Why do you love to cry so much?"

Mikayla was very puzzled by this question. Obviously, she didn't love to cry.

Moreover, the thing that made Mikayla even more puzzled was it seemed that every time she cried, it was in front of Ash.

If this went on, will he feel that she was a fool who can do nothing but cry?

Mikayla didn't want to impress Ash that way.

"I usually never cry," she said.

However, after saying this, Mikayla felt that there was something with this.

What did this mean?

She never cried but only cried in front of Ash? Didn't this prove that she only cried in front of him?

Moreover, will he think too much that she...

Mikayla glanced at Ash's expression secretly, and was relieved to see that he just smiled without any other special reaction.

Fortunately, she didn't scare him.

Mikayla coughed lightly and asked, "Ash, where are you taking me to?"

"Want to do something exciting?" Ash asked.

"What?" Mikayla became interested, and her adrenaline was already soaring as she heard the word "exciting".

Ash smiled, but didn't answer.

The mysterious smile on his face completely aroused Mikayla's interest.

Mikayla looked at Ash eagerly, and said arrogantly, "Ash, you have already attracted all my interests. If you don't meet my standards, I will be very disappointed."

Ash was still smiling, unaffected by what she said.

Mikayla pursed her lips. Anyway, he had already said it, and when the time came, if Ash couldn't meet her demands, he would see.

Ash led Mikayla out of Homelux without delay.

He drove the car to an amusement park.

Mikayla looked at Ash suspiciously, and asked, "It's late at night. What are you bringing me here for?"

Ash said, "Of course I am looking for excitement."

"But, it is not open." Mikayla frowned. What kind of excitement was he looking for?

Could it be that the two of them climbed over the wall and entered?

Ash laughed lowly when he heard this, and said, "Don't worry. I won't let you make this trip in vain."

Mikayla was still full of doubts, but, seeing that Ash said so firmly, she followed Ash's pace without any hesitation.

Satisfied with her obedient appearance, Ash held out his hand towards her and said, "Follow me closely."

Mikayla was a little dazed, and didn't react for a long time.

It wasn't until Ash took her hand and walked forward that Mikayla came back to her senses.

They were holding hands.

This feeling was very strange, and Mikayla had never felt it before.

However, it was so sweet. It spread in her heart. There seemed pink bubbles in her mind, which made her curl her mouth up.

Chapter 456 Capitalism?

Mikayla thought that Ash was going to take her to climb over the wall, but she didn't expect that Ash led her straight to the main entrance.

The security seemed to have been waiting for Ash for a long time. Seeing them coming, he immediately opened the door and let them in.

Mikayla looked at Ash and asked suspiciously, "Ash, what are you going to do?"

She didn't notice how this amusement park looked like just now, but now she thought there was something wrong. It should not be open yet. She remembered that Innisrial's amusement park should not be there.

Mikayla asked, "Is this new?"

"Yes," Ash said, "It hasn't opened yet, but all the facilities have been completed. Come on, be the first customer and experience it."

Mikayla was almost sober from the wine at the moment, and when she heard what Ash said, she immediately became interested. Her eyes lit up, and she couldn't wait to try.

However, soon, Mikayla realized a problem. Now that they came here in the middle of the night, the staff had already left work, and no one provided them with security facilities. Wasn't it too strange?

However, when Mikayla asked Ash what they were going to do first, Ash said to her directly, "Bungee jumping. Dare or not?"

Mikayla didn't say something.

Was it so exciting?

Mikayla swallowed and said, "Really? To do this? "

She was a little apprehensive. Was it impossible? In the middle of the night? Do bungee jumping?

Ash said, "If you don't dare, you can tell me. We can go to play something else. For example, merry-go-round, or bumper car."

Mikayla was speechless.

Can she tolerate it?

This was absolutely intolerable!

Did he think she was timid?

Mikayla said, "Whom do you look down on? Whoever doesn't dump is a rotten egg."

After speaking, Mikayla pulled Ash and strode forward.

Ash didn't expose her true idea, but let her pull him away.

As a result, after Mikayla walked for a long time, she realized that the direction seemed to be wrong?

What was happening here?

Mikayla turned her head and asked, "Where's the bungee jump?"

Ash sneered and said, "Let's go. I will take you to the scene."

Mikayla snorted and said, "Ash, don't brag. You'll be humiliated if you don't dare to dump."

Ash said, "Are you looking down on me?"

Mikayla raised her eyebrows, looked at him arrogantly, and said, "I'm just stating a fact."

Ash laughed angrily at her words, raised his hand and flicked her forehead, "What is the fact? I will let you know what is a fact."

Ash pulled Mikayla in the right direction, and Mikayla realized that she went in the wrong way just now. For a moment, she didn't know whether to be embarrassed or to be speechless.

What the hell? He didn't show her the map in advance, so she didn't even know the exact location of the bungee jumping. She couldn't be blamed for going the wrong way. If she knew the exact direction, she wouldn't have gone wrong.

Finally, as they reached the bungee jumping place, Ash said, "Give you another chance. If you dare not jump, tell me. I will not laugh at you."

Mikayla was even more irritated when she heard him say that.

She glared at Ash and said, "Wait a minute. Don't be scared by me."

After speaking, Mikayla strode towards the elevator.

Ash curled his mouth, amused by her cuteness.

The two took the elevator up, and the staff was already waiting there. When they saw them coming, they called out respectfully, "Mr. Torres."

Ash nodded slightly towards the staff, and said, "Give us protective measures."

"The two of you want to dump separately, or together?" the staff asked.

Ash didn't answer immediately, but looked at Mikayla, asking for her opinion.

Mikayla immediately wondered how two people dumped together.

She had seen two people hugging each other and jumping off together.

If it was before, Mikayla might still choose this one, but now she was so agitated by Ash, and she was completely determined to win.

Mikayla rolled up her sleeves and said, "I'll dump by myself."

She didn't want to be looked down upon by Ash.

Ash knew what she was thinking, and didn't feel any displeasure, so he directly said to the staff, "Prepare according to what she said."

"Okay, please wait a moment." The staff said.

Mikayla finally asked curiously. "Ash, this amusement park shouldn't belong to your family, right?"

Ash touched his nose and said, "You can say that."

To be precise, it should be his.

However, he only paid the money, and left the rest to his family.

And he was the real boss.

Mikayla sighed, "It is really capitalism."

Ash pinched her face and said, "Okay, let's get ready first."

Bungee jumping was not a particularly safe activity. It can be said that it was dangerous.

It was still night when they came here, so it became even more dangerous.

Therefore, protective measures must be taken.

Mikayla nodded, and said obediently, "I see."

Ash didn't hold back, raised his hand and touched her head, saying, "Be good."

Mikayla blushed for no reason, blinked and looked at Ash, looking shy.

Ash had never seen Mikayla like this before. She looked even more charming under the darkness of night.

For a moment, Ash was very impulsive and wanted to directly pull her over to kiss.

However, he didn't do it and wouldn't do it.

Mikayla was still very young. Ash even had such an idea, so he disliked himself very much.

What was he thinking? It was simply too outrageous.

Mikayla watched Ash's expression change, but didn't think too much about it. Just in time, the staff was ready, and Mikayla couldn't wait to walk over to ask the staff to put protective props on her.

She shouldn't be underestimated by Ash. She was such a powerful girl. She can't be timid.

Chapter 457 I can wait as long as I want

When Mikayla was ready, she turned her head to look at Ash, and asked, "How about it? Do you want me to jump down first to set an example for you, or do you want to come with me?"

She looked very arrogant, as if she had already jumped.

Ash was helpless. Why did this girl was so vengeful? He just deliberately provoked her. Why did she just go against him like this?

However, she was strangely cute.

Mikayla didn't know what Ash was thinking. Seeing that he hadn't spoken for a long time, she said, "Forget it. I'd better jump by myself. I'll come up to accompany you later."

After speaking, Mikayla stood in the waiting position.

Ash actually had some worries at first. After all, he didn't know whether she had ever bungee jumped.

Ash had no idea about Mikayla's guts.

He was afraid that Mikayla herself didn't know how brave she was, so she would go bungee jumping recklessly, and in the end, she would be scared out of her wits.

Now, however, Ash had no such worries.

Because, if she was timid, she will be so scared that her legs will go weak just by taking the elevator up. Mikayla was still very excited. Obviously, she was full of interest in bungee jumping, and she didn't feel scared at all.

Ash said, "Okay, I'll wait for you up there."

Mikayla stood still. She took a deep breath, and the next second, she opened her arms, waiting for the command of the staff.

It was impossible to say that she was not afraid at all.

However, for Mikayla, at this moment, standing at such a high place, letting the night wind blow on her face, made her very comfortable.

Her previous grievances seemed to have been wiped out in half at this moment.

Mikayla suddenly felt that she was an idiot for drinking and getting drunk at home, crying and making noise.

It was not a big deal, but she felt like it was the end of the world by then.

Now look! She was still fine.

Most importantly, at this moment, the person by her side was Ash.

Mikayla opened her eyes, followed the instructions of the staff, and jumped down.

This feeling of jumping down was very exciting.

It was a thrill Mikayla had never felt before.

She didn't suppress her emotions, but yelled loudly the moment she jumped off.

As her voice pierced the night, Mikayla felt a physical and mental release.

This feeling made Mikayla even feel happy.

The time of bungee jumping was actually very short, and the exciting feeling was only at the moment of jumping off.

Soon, Mikayla was picked up by the staff below so that she could land.

Mikayla raised her face and looked towards the top.

She could see Ash's figure. At this moment, she suddenly didn't want to go up to watch him jump off, but wanted to stand here and wait for him.

Mikayla asked the staff to convey her thoughts to him. Ash had no objection, and jumped off the top directly.

Mikayla's gaze had been fixed on Ash's body. The moment he jumped down, she didn't know why, but she just felt very moved. And the warmth in her eyes made her feel that the tip of her nose was sore, and her whole body was shaking because of being moved.

After Ash undid the protective device, Mikayla rushed towards him, regardless, and went directly into Ash's arms.

Ash was taken aback by her action, then smiled, and teased, "What? Are you scared now?"

He knew that Mikayla was not scared, but she was not in high spirits now, which made him a little at a loss.

Not knowing how to comfort her, Ash could only distract Mikayla in such a clumsy way.

Mikayla heard what he said, but she didn't come to get angry with him. Instead she said, "I'm not scared."

Her voice was soft and delicate, with a nasal sound, which was cute and pitiful.

Ash couldn't resist his instinct, raised his hand and landed on Mikayla's back. Stroking her back, he said, "Okay, okay, I know you're not scared. Do you want to do it again?"

Mikayla raised her head from Ash's arms and looked at him. Her eyes were wet, and she looked a little pitiful.

When she looked like this, she seemed to easily be bullied

Ash really wanted to do something to her.

However, he didn't let himself be such a beast after all.

Ash said, "Why are you crying? Could it be that you are afraid that I will fall from above?"

Mikayla immediately said, "You are not allowed to talk nonsense."

Ash chuckled softly, "Okay, okay, I won't talk nonsense. Let's go and play something else, okay?"

"I want to play the big pendulum," Mikayla said.

"Okay," Ash said.

Ash reached up and wiped the corner of Mikayla's eye, drying her tears.

He said, "Today, no matter what you want to play, I will arrange for you."

Mikayla said, "What if I want to go to the haunted house?"

Mikayla will definitely go to the haunted house in every amusement park.

Since this amusement park was not yet open to the public, it meant that no one had entered the haunted house here yet!

Mikayla was thrilled just thinking about it.

However, at this time, she just didn't know if all the staff can come here.

Ash heard this. Without any hesitation, he said directly, "It takes some time to prepare. Can you wait?"

Mikayla nodded vigorously and said, "I can wait as long as I want."

Ash said, "Then I'll arrange it."

He made a phone call and made the arrangement.

Mikayla stood not far away, watching Ash making the phone call. She really thought he was very handsome.

She didn't realize it herself. At this moment, when she looked at Ash, her eyes were full of light.

Ash turned his head, and met Mikayla's shining, adoring eyes.

At this moment, there was a voice in Ash's heart: it's her.

He won't give her to others.

With this in mind, Ash put the phone back in his pocket, walked over, and held Mikayla's hand with a domineering look she had never seen before.

Ash said, "Let's go to the pendulum first."

Mikayla was attracted by the way he held her hand.

It wasn't the first time they held hands, but this time, it was inexplicable that Mikayla had a feeling that she was his.

Chapter 458 To make her play happily

Because there were two customers in the amusement park, Mikayla and Ash played almost all the items very quickly, except for some water-related items that Ash did not agree with Mikayla to play.

The clothes she was wearing today was a white shirt. Although there will be raincoats provided, it was not completely possible to avoid getting wet.

Ash didn't want anything embarrassing happened to Mikayla.

Mikayla could understand it, so she didn't insist anymore.

However, she was actually more curious about what the haunted house was like.

Ash revealed a little bit to her, saying that inside the house was really very scary.

Mikayla didn't believe it.

She can laugh out loud when watching ghost movies alone, so there was no possibility of being frightened at all.

Mikayla patted her chest and said to Ash, "Don't worry, Ash. I will protect you."

Ash described the haunted house as a scary place, which naturally made Mikayla think that he was afraid of ghosts.

Mikayla didn't get the thrill of victory on the bungee jumping, but at this moment, she was aroused to win again.

Ash was helpless. He was actually not afraid of ghosts, but when planning this amusement park, he directly put forward a request to make this haunted house into a world-class level of horrible one.

Although it was midnight and he called the staff here temporarily, this did not prevent this haunted house from becoming a more horrible level. At least it was the top level in Innisrial.

Mikayla strode towards the haunted house without thinking about what she would face next.

She was still very happy, and can be arrogant in front of Ash again.

As the two walked to the haunted house, Mikayla said again, "Ash, don't try to save your face. If you are afraid, just tell me. I can protect you."

Ash was very helpless, but what could be done? He had made it clear that he liked her, so naturally he had to pamper her.

Based on her idea, Ash leaned towards her, made a pitiful and helpless look, and said, "It's all up to you."

Mikayla couldn't hold back, and laughed outright.

Suddenly, she thought that Ash was downright cute.

With him like this, she almost thought he was the one for her.

Holding Ash's shoulders proudly, Mikayla said, "Ash, let's go!"

Ash curled his lips and walked into the haunted house with Mikayla.

In fact, letting the staff come back to work in the middle of the night will naturally make many of them unhappy.

However, no one can resist a truth, that was, the attraction of money.

Ash paid ten times the salary for them to come and work at this time.

As soon as the reward was paid out, no one complained immediately.

In addition, Ash gave three days of paid vacation for them. They can travel domestically, and apply for reimbursement.

It can be said that in order to make Mikayla happy, Ash spent a lot.

However, Mikayla did not know all of these.

She just felt a very different corporate culture.

When Mikayla and Ash walked into the first scene, the music was already very scary, and the countdown time in the music told her that the ghosts were coming.

Mikayla was not afraid of this. She was still very excited, and wanted to see if there was any bug in the ghosts here.

When watching ghost movies or going to haunted houses, Mikayla's favorite thing was to find the bugs in them.

Now, she had such a mood.

However, when the first ghost rushed over, Mikayla was really scared.

Mikayla was still very calm compared to other girls who would be almost scared to cry, but she was very clear that her heartbeat had never been so fast before.

Mikayla's footsteps were frozen, and she didn't recover for a long time.

It can be said that this was the scariest ghost Mikayla had ever seen.

She completely forgot that she had said she wanted to protect Ash.

It wasn't until the ghost of this scene left that Mikayla came back to her senses and remembered that Ash was by her side.

She turned her head, looked at Ash, and asked, "Ash, are you okay?"

Ash didn't have any problems, and knew that she was just scared to death.

However, since he promised to let Mikayla take good care of him, Ash dutifully performed the look of being frightened.

Seeing that he was actually frightened, Mikayla instantly felt better.

She giggled. It was okay that Ash hadn't recovered yet. Otherwise, if he noticed the way she looked like just now, she didn't know how embarrassing she would be.

Mikayla looked completely unfazed, patted Ash on the shoulder, and said, "Don't be afraid. It's all fake, deceitful. There's nothing to be afraid of."

Ash found it funny. Did she feel that he didn't realize that she was afraid, so she came to comfort him so arrogantly?

How can she be so cute?

Ash nodded and said, "Okay, I'm not afraid."

However, his voice was trembling, and his hands were tightly clutching Mikayla's clothes, looking weak and pitiful.

Mikayla became happier in an instant. Forgetting how scary it was just now, she pulled Ash to the next scene.

Ash had now sort of grasped how timid Mikayla was.

Although it was possible that she was frightened just now because she didn't expect it, from Mikayla's reaction, it can basically be judged how courageous she was.

According to Ash's speculation, Mikayla will have no problems in the first three scenes, but in the fourth scene, it was very likely that she will be really scared.

Ash hesitated again whether to let Mikayla play until the end, or wait until the fourth scene, take her in a different direction, and leave directly.

Soon, though, Ash made a choice.

Mikayla had so much fun playing here. With the proof of the first scene, she was even more eager to try the subsequent scenes.

Ash didn't want to disappoint her. Since he had brought her here to have fun, he just wanted to make her happy.

Therefore, even if Mikayla might be scared, he still had a way to protect her.

With that in mind, Ash didn't stop Mikayla from rushing towards the fourth scene excitedly.

Chapter 459 You are very bad

For Mikayla, the previous three scenes were indeed very scary.

She can also feel the degree of horror as Ash said.

However, Mikayla still felt that if this was what Ash said, a world-class haunted house, then she would think that it was not enough.

Moreover, Mikayla had actually adapted to the current level of terror, even a little tired.

If the next would be much the same, Mikayla would lose interest.

However, just when Mikayla was about to see whether it would be a big surprise for her or a big disappointment for her, and when she opened the door of the fourth scene, the props that came directly to her and scared her to step backwards.

This kind of horror that came out without any warning made Mikayla feel a little dazed.

She even became a little overwhelmed. Her heart seemed to have jumped into her throat, and she screamed uncontrollably.

And the next second, when Mikayla just came back to her senses, the ghost in the fourth scene rushed towards her directly.

Mikayla was completely overwhelmed and was beaten back again and again.

Ash was right behind her, grabbing her shoulders as she stepped back.

His warm chest gave Mikayla a sense of security, but the shock in front of her still made her froze.

Mikayla was so frightened that she lost her voice. The scene in front of her made her unable to even blink.

She was totally scared as if her spirit had freed itself from her body.

Ash couldn't see Mikayla's expression, but could feel her current state from the stiffness of her body.

He raised his hand to block Mikayla's eyes, raised his eyes to look at the ghost, and signaled him to back off.

Mikayla's eyes were blocked, and there was no such horrible picture.

She just recovered from the panic.

Taking a deep breath, Mikayla said, "Wow, that's scary."

She still hadn't forgotten that she was flaunting her boldness in front of Ash.

However, at this moment, she was actually frightened into such a state, which made her feel too ashamed.

Mikayla felt that she had to save her face.

She turned her head, looked at Ash, and said, "Hey, Ash, don't be afraid. Don't panic. I will protect you."

Ash saw that her face was already pale with fright, but she was still pretending that she was very bold. He felt a little distressed and found it a little funny at the same time.

This girl was so cute that he wanted to hug her.

Ash didn't reveal her true feeling but continued to let Mikayla lead him along.

After Mikayla had a critical blow, she was not as arrogant as before.

She now recognized Ash's words very much.

The horror of this haunted house was world-class.

With this early warning, Mikayla had made herself prepared mentally.

She no longer foolishly thought that she was the boldest one.

Even, Mikayla was able to presuppose that it should be more terrifying than it really was.

There were a total of seven scenes in the haunted house. Starting from the fourth scene with the critical attack, each of the subsequent scenes was progressive, and each of them had an unexpected horror.

Even though Mikayla had prepared for that, she was still unavoidably startled.

Later, she stopped pretending. She had a showdown that she was just scared.

So, by the seventh scene, Mikayla was hiding directly behind Ash.

She took his arm and walked gingerly behind Ash.

This was because, although Mikayla comforted Ash not to be scared every time, she found that apart from looking weak and helpless, as if he was very frightened, in fact, his breathing rate did not change at all, and his expression did not change at all. He didn't look terrified at all.

Mikayla began to wonder if Ash wasn't timid at all.

Thinking about it this way, Mikayla figured it out. As the owner of this amusement park, Ash described this haunted house as a very terrifying one. In other words, he naturally already knew every scene in this haunted house.

After Mikayla figured this out, she thought she was so stupid for an instant that she believed Ash's nonsense.

She was no longer arrogant in front of him. Instead, she cowardly pushed Ash to the front, and said pitifully, "Ash, I'm scared."

How could Ash bear her submissive look? He immediately smiled, raised his hand and rubbed her head, saying, "Let's go. I will protect you."

The two entered the final scene.

According to the rating, the horror of the last scene was hell level.

At that time, when the scene was formulated, many people actually raised objections, and everyone was very worried. With such a level of horror, what should they do if something went wrong.

Therefore, in fact, many people did not agree with this setting.

However, since Ash wanted to build a world-class haunted house, he naturally cannot let it have such a name in vain.

After inspecting other haunted houses, he finally decided to set it according to the original idea.

Of course, when it started operation officially, every customer will take a test in advance, and provide relevant medical examination and test certificates to ensure that their body had no problems. At the same time, the customers will also be required to sign relevant documents, to take responsibility for their own choices.

However, Mikayla came over but did not provide these.

After the amusement park officially opened, the haunted house item needed customers to make a reservation in advance.

All these processes will take at least one week to complete, and there will be professionals who will judge which room the customer can enter based on the evaluation of the various indicators provided.

Mikayla didn't know this, and didn't know what kind of responsibility Ash was actually taking to keep her happy.

Fortunately, Mikayla was really bold. Even at the hell level scene, she was just frightened and didn't have any uncomfortable reactions.

After they finished the whole haunted house, Mikayla sat on the bench and breathed heavily, then looked at Ash and said, "Ash, this haunted house is really amazing."

World class? It can be said that it was completely in line!

Ash brought a bottle of water, handed it to Mikayla, and said, "You're amazing too. Not intimidated."

Mikayla gulped down a whole bottle of water, then squinted her eyes, looked at Ash, and said, "Ash, you are dishonest. You actually pretended to be scared in front of me. You are very bad."

Chapter 460 Have impact on the impression

Ash smiled even more when he heard Mikayla's words, and said, "It seems that you have figured it out. You are not stupid."

Mikayla was silent.

She was so tired. What should she do? She didn't want to talk to him anymore.

She was really angry suddenly. What should she do?

Mikayla snorted softly and said, "You are so unkind. Be careful. You won't have a girlfriend."

Ash said, "Really? Do you want to have pity on me?"

Mikayla hadn't fully recovered yet, and didn't understand what Ash said.

Looking at Ash suspiciously, she was wondering why he wanted her to pity him?

Ash saw her dazed eyes and knew she didn't understand anything.

He didn't continue the topic.

Mikayla had had enough scared moments today.

He didn't want to scare her any more.

Ash said, "Are you tired? Do you want to continue?"

"I don't." Mikayla shook her head and said, "I'm a little hungry. Is there anything to eat here?"

"Maybe there are only some vegetarian food. Can I take you to eat something else?" Ash asked.

He didn't ask anyone from the catering department to come over. If Mikayla wanted to eat there, he might have to cook himself.

However, in the kitchen, it can be said that Ash was a disaster.

In their villa, and in the place where they used to live abroad, there was a sign on the kitchen: Ash Entry Not Allowed.

Although Ash was very dissatisfied with this, there was nothing he can do. Apart from the reason that he had blown up countless kitchens, there was another that this sign was posted by Aimee herself.

For Aimee, kitchen was a very important place.

She will absolutely not allow anyone to go to destroy it.

Ash naturally didn't dare to have any dissatisfaction with his master's instructions, so he could only accept this obediently.

So how could he possibly let Mikayla know about such a disgrace?

Mikayla didn't think that much, and didn't know what Ash was avoiding.

She was very hungry now. As long as she can eat something, in fact, she didn't care what to eat.

Ash said, "Let's go. I will take you to eat delicious food."

They played in the amusement park all night, and it was already early in the morning, just in time for breakfast.

Ash knew that there was a restaurant where the food was particularly delicious, and the time was the most suitable.

Mikayla didn't have any objections, and walked along with Ash obediently.

Still, she said, "Ash, don't go somewhere too far. I'm really hungry."

She was afraid that if she didn't eat any food, she would have stomach cramps.

Ash said, "Don't worry. We'll be there in twenty minutes."

Mikayla didn't say anything more.

Twenty minutes later, they arrived at the restaurant.

It was open from seven in the evening to ten in the morning.

They sold midnight snack mainly, plus breakfast.

Mikayla was attracted by the smell. Her stomach growled, and she swallowed uncontrollably.

Ash laughed lowly, and couldn't like more her greedy look.

On the way here, Ash had already texted to the owner, asking him to prepare a small pot of seafood porridge first. And he would let Mikayla order the rest when they arrived.

In this way, when they arrived, Mikayla can eat a bowl of seafood porridge to fill her belly.

Mikayla burst into tears when she saw the porridge.

The most amazing thing was that the temperature of it was just right. It was still hot, but it was exactly the temperature that can be put into her mouth.

Mikayla looked at Ash, knowing that all of this was his arrangement. She felt her eyes were hot in an instant, and really wanted to rush over to give Ash a bear hug.

Seeing Mikayla's satisfied look, Ash was also very happy.

After she had eaten half a bowl of porridge, he pushed the menu to her and said, "What else do you want to eat?"

Mikayla's hunger had subsided at the moment, and she began to browse through the menu slowly.

She actually knew this restaurant which was already very famous.

However, its opening time was not convenient for the students to come here.

Especially, during the period when she lived in school, the restaurant just became popular.

She wanted to come over several times, but there was always no chance.

Unexpectedly, the first person to bring her here would be Ash.

Although Mikayla knew this was just a coincidence, she had to admit that she had a sweet feeling and was very happy.

According to her own preferences, Mikayla ordered a bunch of dishes. After she was satisfied, she gave the menu to Ash to let him have a look.

Ash was also hungry, so he added two more snacks and placed an order.

While waiting, Mikayla continued to eat the seafood porridge, while recalling the scenes in the haunted house.

She said, "Ash, first of all I have to admit that your haunted house is really perfect. It can be called a world-class horror, but I still have a little suggestion."

Ash leaned back on the back of the chair and said, "Tell me."

"It's possible that it's because of the time we came here that made me feel this way. But I remember that in the sixth scene, the props used by the female ghost were scary, but for people who are more bold, they will feel that the props are a little fake. And the fluorescent color used there had some plastic texture, which especially affects the impression."