Chapter 661 She Can Feel It

Minnie had no choice but to nod in agreement.

This put Eden in a better mood.

He could feel that Minnie was changing for him.

After buying clothes, they went to buy some daily necessities and things that will be used in daily care.

Minnie felt more and more that it was really a loss for them to travel without taking anything.

In this way, a lot of money was spent.

Eden believed that the meaning of travel was to be free and happy, and not to be entangled by so many strange things was the most important matter.

Otherwise, just tidying up and bringing all the things here would be very tiring.

Fortunately, the two will not complain to each other because of this. It was just a difference in lifestyle, so there was not so much to care about.

After taking the things back to the hotel, the two went out to eat.

For dinner, Eden booked a restaurant in a high building, which was said to be the one that people must go when they came to Ancegan.

Moreover, it was said that all couples in Ancegan will come to this place.

Legend had it that couples who proposed in this restaurant will have a very happy life after marriage and a long-lasting marriage.

At first Minnie didn't know that Eden had booked this restaurant, but after she came in and took a seat, she suddenly remembered the legend about this restaurant.

This made it inevitable for Minnie to be a little distracted and her thoughts were racing.

In fact, it was also because the surprise that Eden brought her was too great.

Eden was flipping through the menu, noticed Minnie's gaze, and looked up at her, "What's wrong? Why are you looking at me like that?"

Minnie shook her head and said, "I was just looking at the decoration here."

Eden laughed unceremoniously upon hearing this.

He stopped reading the menu, and laughed until his shoulders were shaking.

Sure enough, she can't tell lies casually. Otherwise, she will be embarrassed to death.

Minnie coughed lightly and said, "You don't believe me? I was really..."

“I know,” Eden said, “the decoration here is quite good. You can appreciate it and record it, and you can refer to it when you need decoration in the future.”

Minnie’s thoughts became more and more deviated.

In the future, where decoration was needed...?

It can’t be blamed that Minnie’s thoughts were too jumpy. In fact, Eden’s words were surely very directional.

Was there any place that will need decoration?

The most direct, of course, was a house.

Minnie was almost overwhelmed by her associations.

How could she think of something so far away?

Seeing that she was silent, Eden looked at her strangely and asked, “What’s wrong? What are you thinking?”

Minnie came back to her senses and shook her head quickly.

How could she tell Eden what she was thinking?

Was she shameless?

Minnie said, “Nothing. You can order quickly. I’m a little hungry.”

She just used what Eden said at noon at the moment.

Eden didn’t expose her, just smiled lowly and said, “Minnie, you’re so cute.”

Minnie was really blushing from Eden now.

She almost wanted to get up and go over to cover Eden’s mouth.

This guy can’t stop saying things like this to embarrass her.

After finally ordering the dishes smoothly, Minnie propped her chin and looked out the window.

The location they were in had the best view in the whole restaurant, which not an exaggeration at all.

From this location, they can overlook the night view of the entire Ancegan, and even the South Island across the sea.

Minnie looked at it and was fascinated by it.

Sitting opposite her, Eden absolutely had a panoramic view of her profile.

His eyes focused on Minnie’s face with burning emotion.

Minnie turned her head and met such a line of sight.

She was dazed for a moment, and soon she blushed.

Minnie said, "Don't look at me like that."

Eden laughed at her request.

He said, "Why don't you tell me how I should look at you?"

Minnie was choked by his question, and for a moment, she really didn't know how to answer.

When he saw that she had been silent for a long time, he began to tease her again.

He said, "Tell me about it. Maybe, if you convince me, I will agree."

Minnie was quite speechless.

Fortunately, the waiter came over to serve the food and interrupted the conversation between the two.

Minnie secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

Eden laughed and saw her relief clearly.

This woman can't really be teased.

The atmosphere in the restaurant was very good. Just in time, they ran into a couple who were proposing.

It was not a particularly lively scene, but very warm.

Even though they were far away from them, they can still feel how much that man loved that woman.

Minnie never thought of herself as someone who would be touched by someone else's love.

However, perhaps the atmosphere was so good today that she was actually a little moved.

Eden looked at her and saw that she was crying, so he laughed and said, "Is that touching?"

Minnie turned her head to look at him, feeling very dissatisfied with what he said.

"They really love each other, don't they?" she said.

Eden said, "I thought it was because you were envious."

Minnie looked at Eden, and didn't refute his words.

Was she not envious?

How can that be possible?

She had already noticed her own emotions, so she didn't need to lie.

Seeing that she didn't deny it, Eden said, "You know, you don't have to envy others."

With him, she will experience perfect love.

He will let her have the happiest love experience.

Minnie said, "What I see is the appearance of happiness. What I don't see and what it looks like, only they know."

Just forgive her for being a pessimist who imagined bad things.

Eden sighed and said, "You really hurt me when you say that."

She would say that, obviously, because she would not trust him.

She won't believe that giving herself to him will have a wonderful experience.

This will make Eden think that he was not doing well enough.

Minnie shook her head and said, "You're fine. It's my problem."

As far as she was concerned, Eden had been patient enough with her.

He was good, and she can feel it.

Chapter 662 Don't do this

After dinner, the two of them were not in a hurry to go back to the hotel.

The restaurant was not too far from the hotel. Minnie was in a good mood today, so she wanted to go for a walk along the road.

It was still very hot at night in Ancegan, but the summer atmosphere was Minnie's favorite.

She stepped on a gravel road, and it was rare to have girlish movements.

On the tiptoes, she stepped on the gravel one by one, as if dancing ballet.

Eden walked two steps behind her, watching her innocent behavior that he rarely saw, which made him look at her with a little more tenderness.

This woman, when in front of him, always made herself in various appearances.

She seemed to have many faces. Sometimes, she deliberately disguised herself in front of him, and of course, some were exuded from the bottom of her heart.

Eden felt that he was really possessed.

No matter who Minnie was, she fascinated him so much.

Tired from playing, Minnie put her heels to the ground, and then turned to look at Eden, saying, "When I was young, what I liked the most was to step on this kind of road. You know, every time I step on it like this, I seem to be dancing."

Eden listened to her talking about her childhood, and watched her eyes sparkle.

Minnie's cheeks were pink from the game, and hair stuck to her face.

There was a glint of light in Eden's eyes, and a deep thought grew in his heart.

He raised his hand, brushing Minnie's hair with his fingertips and tucking it behind her ear.

Minnie was taken aback by his action, and when she came back to her senses, her cheeks flushed even more.

She raised her hand, subconsciously wanting to make it herself, but Eden quickly grabbed her wrist.

With all his strength, he pulled Minnie into his arms.

Minnie's eyes widened in astonishment, as if she didn't understand at all how it happened to this point.

She lay in Eden's arms, feeling his strength on her back.

Eden's voice rang in Minnie's ear.

He said, "Minnie, I don't want to wait. We're together now, okay?"

Minnie didn't answer right away.

In fact, her head was completely in a daze now.

Obviously, in the morning, Eden told her to travel together, get along with him well, and judge whether he was a person worthy of her emotion.

It hadn't been a day before this man broke his words.

Minnie grabbed the clothes on Eden's shoulders and said, "This is different from what we said before."

Eden heard her voice and hugged her even tighter.

He said, "I cheated, okay? Give me a chance."

As he said that, as if to prove that he was really cheating, Eden hugged Minnie even harder.

His chin was resting on Minnie's shoulder, and that look really seemed to be a little messy.

Minnie laughed at his appearance.

Her body was trembling, and in Eden's arms, she was like a person who had been tickled, and couldn't stop laughing.

Eden was helpless and frustrated by her laughter.

He was confessing his love to her in a serious manner, though the man was relatively rascal.

However, she shouldn't laugh like this.

Eden said, "Tell me, yes or no?"

Minnie laughed even more presumptuously, shaking her body.

Eden lost his temper because of her, but when his eyes touched Minnie's fair neck, he felt evil thoughts in his heart.

He directly bit Minnie's neck.

Minnie felt the touch on her neck, and froze in fright.

She hadn't expected Eden to do this at all.

And she couldn't react for a long time.

If Eden saw Minnie's expression at this moment, he would definitely be pissed off by her again.

At this moment, Minnie was like a frightened little rabbit, looking pitiful.

Eden didn't actually use any force, but he bit viciously.

In an instant, that numb feeling swept over Minnie's whole body.

Minnie finally came to her senses, and subconsciously backed away, but was no match for Eden's strength.

She struggled slightly and said, "Eden, can you let me go first?"

God knew how delicate her voice was when she said this.

Eden took a deep breath, almost dying.

He was afraid she wanted to torture him to death.

Eden stood up straight, but did not let go of Minnie. His arms were still on her back, wrapping her tightly in his arms.

Minnie felt a little helpless, but just let him hold her.

Eden pursed his lips, and liked Minnie's cute appearance even more.

He looked at Minnie and said, "You haven't answered me yet. Should you agree?"

Minnie's cheeks were hot and her eyes showed that she wanted to flee.

After such a day, even in the past, if Minnie didn't know whether she had feelings for Eden, then she would be really stupid.

However, even though she knew what was going on in her heart, Minnie still wanted to escape.

She knew that what she looked like now was actually very hypocritical, and it was really speechless.

It was also very unfair to Eden.

However, if she unarguably took that step, she was really not brave enough.

Eden obviously didn't want to force her to be with him before.

However, Eden was also very clear about Minnie's temper. If he didn't force her, she will probably always treat herself as a little turtle who huddled in the shell and won't come out no matter what.

Originally, Eden did intend to spend a long time with Minnie.

However, seeing Minnie's envy for other people's love tonight made Eden decide that she should not be allowed to envy others.

She must have what others had, and she deserved to have it.

So, just now, when he saw her being so happy on the gravel road like a little girl, Eden decided to guard her happiness well.

He raised his hand to caress Minnie's cheek and said, "Minnie, your eyes can't deceive anyone. Whether you like me or not, I can see clearly. Don't try to deceive me, and you can't deceive me."

Minnie felt the feeling of being cornered once.

She subconsciously wanted to look away, but Eden's control was too strong, and she couldn't look away at all.

Minnie had no choice but to look at Eden and meet his gaze. After a long time, she said, "Eden, don't do this."

Chapter 663 I'm going to suffocate

In fact, Eden was somewhat soft-hearted.

Even though he wanted to force Minnie a little bit, he was still reluctant to push her too fast.

Eden scolded himself inwardly that he was useless.

He wanted her to agree, but he was unwilling to be cruel to her.

He didn't even know when he became such a merciful person.

Taking a deep breath, Eden said, "Are you really unwilling to be with me?"

Minnie bit her lip lightly. In fact, a battle was going on in her heart.

She can't lie to herself about the fact that she liked Eden.

And she already knew that there was no point in lying.

What was more, the way she looked at him that she can't control at all made her even disqualified to lie.

After a while, Minnie said, "Eden, will you really never leave me?"

Minnie couldn't explain why she asked this question.

In fact, in her opinion, it was too naive to talk about eternity in this era.

Most of the time, people enjoyed the happiness of the moment more, and wouldn't think about such distant things.

But, to her, it was always important.

If there was no possibility, it was best not to "provoke" each other. Otherwise, it will be rather sad.

Eden listened to Minnie's words, and from her eyes, he could see that she was deeply worried.

Eden stroked Minnie's cheek lightly and said, "I'm really happy that you ask this question. I think, for me, I must promise you that I'll always treat you well, love you forever, and always protect you. But, Minnie, I'm not here to give you this answer. It's your choice whether to trust me or not."

Minnie looked at Eden in amazement. It was really unbelievable that his answer would be like this.

However, because of this answer, Minnie burst out laughing.

She said, "Eden, am I going to be held on by you?"

He had already seen through her thoughts, understood all her worries, and used his way to give her a promise.

Indeed, as Eden said, if he was really so straightforward that he will always treat her well, she may think that he was unreliable.

However, now, he let her choose whether to trust him or not, which made Minnie feel extra at ease.

Minnie looked at Eden, and there was a little tenderness in her eyes.

She said, "Eden, since that's the case, let's try it."

Minnie herself was very surprised when she said this.

She couldn't even believe that such words were really said by herself.

However, when her voice really came out of her throat, it gave her an unprecedented sense of relaxation.

Minnie herself felt it a little funny too.

Since when had she really been trapped by this matter?

The corners of Eden's mouth curled up sharply.

He still maintained the posture of holding Minnie, but when he looked at Minnie, there was uncontrollable ecstasy.

The strength on the arms tightened a little unconsciously, and even Minnie felt a little pain.

Minnie struggled a little, trying to get out of his arms.

However, Eden did not give her this chance.

He still hugged her so tightly and said, "Don't move around. Otherwise, I'll want to do something else."

All of a sudden, with wild imagination, she unconsciously thought of more extreme things.

Her face turned red uncontrollably, and she really didn't dare move anymore.

Eden saw that Minnie's face was unnaturally red, so he gave a low laugh and said, "What are you thinking about?"

Minnie dared not answer, because she almost died of embarrassment.

If Eden knew what was in her head, he would laugh at her unceremoniously.

However, Minnie obviously didn't understand that her blushing today was very unnatural.

It was so unnatural that Eden could already guess what she was thinking without even asking.

The corners of Eden's mouth curled up, and he raised his hand to pinch Minnie's chin, saying, "At first, I wanted to be gentle and give you a little time to adapt, but now it seems that I'm too slow. And it seems to make you very dissatisfied."

Minnie was dumb.

Why did she feel that she could understand every word of what Eden said, but couldn't understand anything when they were connected together?

Minnie looked at Eden and said, "What are you talking about? I don't understand."

Eden laughed, but didn't expose Minnie.

He only thought she looked so cute when she asked it.

How can she be so cute?

Eden said, "But, maybe, I can do something else to make you happy."

Minnie just found that she couldn't keep up with Eden's train of thought at all.

Why was this guy so weird?

Eden said, "Baby, I'm going to kiss you now."

Minnie's eyes widened, but before she could react, Eden had already bowed his head and pressed his lips to hers.

The warm and soft touch, just sticking to her lips, was a feeling that was completely unfamiliar to Minnie.

She didn't know how to react, let alone how to respond.

This feeling was really strange.

She thought she would push Eden away.

However, she didn't.

Instead, she was dazed for a moment, then closed her eyes, and tightly grasped Eden's clothes with both hands.

Her reaction completely pleased Eden.

He hugged her even tighter. Originally, he just wanted to have a taste of it. Who would have thought that the woman in his arms was too cooperative, which really encouraged him.

Eden no longer suppressed himself, no longer tried to restrain himself, but obeyed what he thought and kissed her in a more passionate way.

Ancegan was a very warm and open city, and it was common for couples to kiss on the street.

However, because Eden and Minnie were outstanding and eye-catching, they naturally attracted a lot of attention.

Someone whistled at the two of them as they passed by.

Only then did Minnie realize that the two of them were still on the street.

His face became even more red. Minnie raised her hand and pushed Eden, saying, "I'm going to suffocate."

Chapter 664 The Useless Little virgin

Minnie felt that she might really regret acting impulsively.

Although they were already developing in a direction beyond her control, after she nodded and agreed to Eden's request to be together, she found that what she thought that would be uncontrollable had turned into a completely different matter.

This was not uncontrollable, but completely incredible.

Minnie really didn't understand why Eden would have such great enthusiasm for kissing.

After she nodded in agreement, his hands never left her body.

If it wasn't for the fact that she really felt that kissing on the street was very embarrassing, and she still wanted to save face, he might have wanted to pull her over and kiss her hard every time he took a step.

Minnie raised her hand and patted Eden's hand, saying, "Don't hug me like this. I'm feeling hot."

When Eden heard this, he hugged her even tighter.

He said, "No, I have to hold you tighter. Otherwise, I'll think I'm dreaming."

How could this guy be so childish?

Minnie said, "I won't run away. What are you worried about?"

Now that she had promised to be with Eden, she will never regret it.

Unless, he really didn't like her anymore.

Eden insisted and said, "You're my baby whom I have finally won. How can I not hold you tightly?"

Minnie's face turned even redder.

She hadn't gotten used to Eden calling herself that.

Every time he called her baby, she wanted to cover his mouth.

Eden, on the other hand, never got tired of it.

He always got close to Minnie's ear affectionately and called her baby.

Every time Minnie felt that her whole body couldn't help but tremble.

To this man, she was really powerless.

Finally, the two returned to the hotel.

Only then did Minnie realize that agreeing to Eden in Ancegan was simply a big mistake.

This guy, after entering the room, still refused to let her go.

Minnie felt that if this went on like this, he might have to follow her into her room.

So, the two can only stay in the living room.

The hotel provided fruit. Eden held Minnie in his arms directly, and peeled the lychees for her one by one.

In order to prevent Minnie from using the heat as an excuse to push him away, Eden deliberately turned on the air conditioner to a very low temperature.

Minnie was dumbfounded.

Now, she didn't feel hot anymore, but cold.

Minnie was almost speechless by Eden's childishness.

After eating another lychee, Minnie said, "Can I go back to the room and take a shower first?"

Although they all showered and changed before going to dinner, in Ancegan, as long as people went outside for a while, they can say that taking a shower was a waste of time.

Minnie really can't stand the sticky feeling on her body.

Eden nodded upon hearing this, and said, "Okay."

He carried Minnie up and sent her to the door of her room.

Minnie was dumbfounded again. "Do you want to send me to the bathroom?"

Eden raised his eyes when he heard this. Obviously, he thought Minnie's proposal was very feasible.

Minnie looked at his expression and knew what he was thinking.

She immediately faltered. How could she speak so fast to say such words?

Minnie said, "Well, Eden, I was joking just now. You don't really think about it, do you?"

Eden pushed her against the door and said, "If I say I don't want to, I must be lying to you, but I can wait for you to be willing for it."

Minnie stopped talking now.

She was worried that if she said something more, she would really irritate Eden.

Eden didn't want to scare her, so he patted her on the back and put her down.

He said, "However, come out and chat with me in a while. Don't fall asleep directly."

Minnie nodded, then turned around and entered the room.

Eden chuckled lowly.

He himself wondered if he was possessed by something.

Otherwise, how could he be so patient with a woman?

When Minnie returned to her room, her heart was still beating uncontrollably.

How to describe it?

In fact, every word of what Eden said seemed to be overwhelming.

He was jumpy more than she thought.

Most of the time, Minnie thought that she already knew Eden very well, but sometimes, she was shocked by him.

Like just now, he told her so bluntly that he wanted to do it, but because he respected her, he was willing to wait for her.

Minnie suddenly found that Eden really never seemed to use any tough methods against her.

He seemed to have given her all his tenderness.

Was she not moved?

How can that be possible?

Being treated so sincerely by someone like this was so good. How could it make her not be moved?

So, falling in love with Eden was actually a matter of course.

Minnie covered her face and got into the bathroom.

Standing under the shower, Minnie suddenly thought, if Eden really wanted it, she would probably give it too.

As soon as this idea came up, Minnie was frightened by herself.

She was not a conservative person, and thought it was very normal for others to get into this topic so quickly.

It was just that Minnie will think more when it would happen to her.

In the past, without someone she liked, she would not think about how this would happen to her.

Now, with someone she liked, she would hope that they would take their time.

So, this idea greatly surprised Minnie.

Did she actually, already like Eden to this extent?

As soon as this thought came into being, Minnie became even extraordinarily delicate when taking shower.

It usually took only ten minutes to take a shower, but this time, it took a full hour.

Eden had already showered and changed into pajamas, and was watching his phone on the sofa.

After announcing that he and Minnie were together in the chat group, he began to transfer money in the group.

However, soon, Eden was pissed off.

Represented by Walter, he directly ranted against him in the group. "When you are together, you still have time to chat in the group, which means you have no night life, useless little virgin."

Chapter 665 Don't Forbear

Eden was almost blown away by the words.

He can only keep sending messages in the group.

"What do you know!? I cherish my little man!"

"Such a beautiful thing, of course, should be kept on the wedding night. I don't want to be like you!"

"You're just envious of me. It's a big success as soon as I make a move. You're just jealous of me!"

However, in the next second, Eden was kicked out of the group chat.

Eden was extremely speechless.

These guys were unreasonable. Was it plausible to kick him out of the group if they can't defeat him verbally?

However, Minnie took a shower too slowly.

Eden checked the clock and couldn't believe his eyes.

He didn't have any strange thoughts now, but was really worried about Minnie's physical problems.

Could it be that she fainted in the bathroom?

Eden became tensed.

He stood up from the sofa and strode towards Minnie's room.

In the next second, the door of the room was opened.

The moment Minnie saw Eden, she was a little dumbfounded.

"You haven't been here the whole time, have you?" Minnie asked.

Eden pulled Minnie over, checked her carefully, and after making sure she was fine, he breathed a sigh of relief and said, "You scared me to death. I thought you passed out in the bathroom."

When Minnie heard this, an unnatural blush appeared on her face.

She said, "Women take a shower slowly."

Hearing this, Eden looked at Minnie suspiciously and said, "But you took a shower very quickly before."

How could he remember that so clearly?

She really felt that she was ashamed.

Minnie said, "That's because I was in a hurry at that time, so the speed was a little faster."

Eden was skeptical, and really didn't know what other women were like, so naturally, he could only follow what Minnie said.

Minnie was relieved to see that Eden didn't ask any more questions.

She said, "But what are you doing at the door of my room?"

Hearing her tone, Eden knew she was thinking too much.

So, he badly wanted to "bully" her.

He said, "What do you think what I'm doing?"

What Eden said was too suggestive, and it was impossible for Minnie not to think about it.

She coughed lightly and said, "Hey, it's actually quite late. Why don't you go back to your room and rest? I'm sleepy."

However, as soon as she said so, Minnie was directly hugged by Eden.

Minnie exclaimed, and wrapped her hands around Eden's neck automatically, subconsciously adopting a posture to make herself safe.

Eden liked her subconscious actions very much.

He tightened his grip on Minnie's waist and said, "Little liar, let's chat."

Minnie had no choice but to let Eden carry her to the sofa.

Eden sat down directly on the sofa, but didn't put Minnie on the side, but directly on his lap.

This action made Minnie feel ashamed.

She struggled subconsciously, trying to get off Eden's lap.

However, she heard an extremely unnatural muffled grunt from Eden.

Although she had no experience, she was not an idiot, so she clearly knew what Eden's voice represented.

In an instant, Minnie didn't dare to move anymore.

Eden was tantalized badly, and became uncomfortable.

He suddenly felt regretful. It was late at night but he didn't sleep. Why did they have to chat?

He was probably going to sleep in the bathroom right now.

However, even if he was asked to let go of Minnie, he refused.

Not only did he not let go, but he hugged her even harder.

Minnie looked at Eden helplessly and said, "Eden, don't hug me like this. I feel a little uncomfortable."

Although the air conditioner in the room was turned on very low temperature, Eden's body was surprisingly hot.

If it wasn't clear that Eden didn't have a fever, Minnie would really feel that his body was terribly hot.

However, it was precisely because Eden did not have a fever that Minnie felt that it would be even more dangerous if it continued like this.

Eden held Minnie tightly and pressed her into his arms.

He said, "Baby, you smell so sweet."

As he said that, Eden rubbed his nose against Minnie's neck, smelling the fragrance from her very much.

Minnie was going crazy from being "tortured" by Eden.

She lay in Eden's arms in an extremely weird posture, not daring to move or speak.

Her whole body was in a state of rigidity.

Eden sensed her stiffness, couldn't hold back, and laughed out loud.

He patted Minnie on the back and said, "Baby, why are you so cute?"

Minnie just wanted to cover Eden's mouth.

She didn't think she was cute now at all.

On the contrary, she wanted to find a place to hide herself.

This guy was simply too annoying.

The two came to the living room to chat, but in fact and in the end, they didn't talk about anything.

On the contrary, Minnie seemed to be really tired lying in Eden's arms, and fell asleep just like that.

Eden's mouth curled up when he heard Minnie's steady breathing.

He was finally with her.

Reluctant to be separated from Minnie, Eden turned off the lights with the remote control and adjusted the air conditioner to a suitable temperature. Then, he hugged Minnie and fell asleep together.

Of course, with such a posture, it was naturally impossible to sleep well.

Not long after, Minnie started to move around because of numbness in her hands and feet and because she stayed in the same position for too long.

Her movement woke Eden up from his sleep.

At the same time, he woke up with his evil thoughts.

However, the sound of Minnie just waking up seemed to seduce his soul.

Eden clasped Minnie's waist, buried his face in the crook of her neck, and said, "I might, really, die in your hands."

Minnie naturally understood what he meant, and after a long silence, she finally said, "Eden, you can do it. You don't have to forbear it."
