

Healing 691

Chapter 691 Happy Marriage

Ben squeezed Tilly's cheek softly and pulled her up from the ground.

He said, "Okay, you can come here every day."

Tilly said with a smile, "No, they might think that the only thing I'm interested in is tomatoes here."

Ben laughed and she didn't forget to tickle him.

It was impossible for him to argue with a tomato.

When the two returned from the vegetable and fruit garden, it was just in time that dinner was ready.

It was only then that Tilly realized that all the dishes on the table were her favorite.

Her face turned red in an instant, and she didn't need to ask that Ben must have told his parents about this in advance.

Tilly looked at Ben sweetly, and it seemed to have stars in her eyes.

Piper pulled Tilly to sit beside her and said, "Tilly, what I said is true. The dishes cooked by Albert are really delicious."

Albert said, "There is no exaggeration at all."

"I can't wait to eat when just watching," Tilly said.

"Taste it quickly and see if it's what you like." Piper said and picked up a rib for Tilly.

Tilly didn't restrain herself but just picked it up and put it in her mouth.

The way she ate had been described by Ben before that she was like a hamster, which was very cute.

At this moment, her appearance of gnawing on the rib without caring about how she looked at all was even more cute.

Ben's eyes fell on Tilly's face, and so did Albert's and Piper's.

Tilly didn't feel embarrassed at all, but was gnawing on the rib very seriously.

After she finished, she gave Albert a thumbs up, "Albert, it's so delicious. I think I can eat two bowls of rice."

People who cooked liked to hear such words the most, which will give them a great sense of accomplishment.

Piper also looked comfortable.

She didn't like the kind of girls who talked about dieting every day, as if eating extra food will make them die.

However, although Tilly's appetite was good, she was also really thin.

This made Piper even more satisfied.

Being able to eat and still thin meant that Tilly was a person who paid great attention to her self-management and will not let herself look bad.

From this, they can also see clearly what the quality of this person had.

Piper had liked Tilly very much before, and Ben had talked about Tilly with them since they were together, and they naturally knew her very well.

However, Albert and Piper's idea had always been that if their son fell in love with someone, as long as they son really loved that one, they will not have any objections.

Therefore, they were not in a hurry to meet Tilly.

It just never occurred to her that their son was so impatient that they married, which made her dumbfounded.

Fortunately, Tilly didn't have any other ideas. Otherwise, she would feel that Ben didn't pay enough attention to her, that was why they got married so easily.

Everyone had a great time at dinner.

After dinner, Ben and Tilly chatted with Albert and Piper for a while before leaving.

Originally, Piper wanted the two of them to live at home, but after she thought about it, the newlywed naturally wanted to live in a more comfortable space to be intimate. If they lived at home, they had to scruple.

After Tilly and Ben left, Albert asked, "Should we discuss with Ben and let them move back in?"

Although both of them were not the kind of people who will cling to their sons, when they reached middle age, they will naturally hope that their child can be by their side.

Piper shook her head and said, "It's a good distance."

Albert said, "If you really miss our son, why don't we have another one?"

Piper raised her hand and smacked Albert's chest gently. This guy was so old and shameless at the same time.

Piper said, "You sleep in the study tonight."

Albert immediately followed his wife clingingly.

It was impossible to sleep in the study unless his wife was with him.

*

Coming out of the Lee family, Tilly still had a feeling of being unreal.

She took Ben's hand and squeezed it now and then.

Ben's fingers were numb from her pinching, and when Tilly continued to mess with his fingers, he held her backhand.

"When we get home, I'll play with you," Ben said.

They were still in the car now.

Because they drank at night, the driver of the Lee family sent them back.

Although the driver had been working for his family since he was a child, for him, this driver was of the same generation as his parents.

He had very evil thoughts about Tilly now, and let her pinch his fingers like this to play, which was hard for him not to do something.

So, no matter what, he couldn't let Tilly continue to mess around with his fingers.

Otherwise, when the driver went back and told his parents, he would definitely be ridiculed by those two people.

Tilly didn't know what was going on in Ben's head.

Just after hearing what Ben said, she immediately approached Ben with a smile and said, "How are you gonna play with me?"

She asked innocently, as if Ben's fingers were really a toy, a toy that she could play with very happily.

Ben looked down at Tilly, lowered his voice, and said, "You'll know when we get home."

Tilly was still thinking naively now, and even, when they got home, she will polish on Ben's fingernails.

However, when they got home and when Ben pushed her against the door and kissed her, Tilly realized that what Ben said to play with her was completely different from what she thought.

Tilly was on the verge of tears.

She couldn't figure out whether Ben was playing with her or she was playing with Ben.

Naturally, Tilly was "played" miserably, and she lay limply in Ben's arms, without any strength at all.

Ben knew that if he "bullied" her like this twice in one day, and if Tilly had any strength now, she would definitely want to jump up and bite him.

So, even though he saw Tilly's pitiful appearance, and wanted to bully her even more, he still held back. Tilly fell asleep in a daze, and vaguely heard Ben's voice. He said, "Happy marriage, my baby."

Chapter 692 Will I get along well with her?

South Island.

Eden felt that he couldn't just lose like this.

Although, in Minnie's words, even if they went to get the certificate immediately, they would still be later than Ben, and they would still lose, but Eden still thought he can't just lose like this.

So, when everyone was having a barbecue by the sea, Eden suddenly suggested, "Why don't we go back tomorrow?"

Everyone looked at Eden in unison, and saw him saying very seriously. "I want to go with Minnie to get the marriage certificate."

Everyone was speechless.

Although they knew that he was irritated by Ben, plus Ben's arrogance, things were already like this, why hadn't this guy given up it yet?

Casey said, "Are you serious? But no matter what you say now, you are the third from the bottom."

Except for Damion and Amir, they had already obtained their marriage certificates.

However, none of the weddings took place.

Casey suddenly thought of this, turned her head to look at Kelvin, and asked, "Kelvin, when are we going to hold the wedding?"

"We'll hold it when we get back," Kelvin said.

Although he was in South Island with Casey now, he had already hired a planner for the wedding and had been arranging and communicating.

As for when it can be held, it depended on when the venue will be fixed.

He certainly wanted to give Casey a very special experience in their wedding.

Casey immediately cheered up when she heard Kelvin say that.

She hugged Kelvin's neck and said, "Kelvin, you are so nice. I love you so much."

After speaking, Casey kissed Kelvin on the cheek.

How lucky she met such a good man who was successfully chased by her, becoming her husband.

Just thinking about it, Casey couldn't help feeling sweet.

Kelvin pinched Casey's face gently and said, "I love you too."

Eden was struck dumb.

He found out that Casey was here to pull the rug out from under his feet.

Now they were obviously discussing whether to go back tomorrow, but why did they start discussing her and Kelvin's wedding?

Suddenly, however, Eden's eyes lit up.

An idea suddenly occurred to him.

However, if he really did that, he would probably be envied by Casey.

But, Eden couldn't take care of that much anymore.

Since he was a child, he had been embarrassed by Casey quite miserably. This time, even if he holds grudges against her for the rest of his life, he still intended to do so.

Eden was already very happy just thinking about it, and the excitement on his face couldn't be hidden at all.

This appearance of Eden really left everyone speechless.

Even Minnie looked at Eden strangely and asked, "What's wrong with you? What are you excited about?"

Eden took Minnie's hand, put it to his lips and kissed it, saying, "Honey, let's go back tomorrow, okay? Please."

How could Minnie bear this? There was nothing she could do about it.

She could only nod her head and said, "Okay, it's up to you."

Eden held Minnie's face in his arms and kissed it so loudly that it made everyone even more speechless.

Minnie blushed immediately, raised her hand and pushed Eden. She was really ashamed by his action.

Walter had not spoken, and his eyes had been on Eden.

As for what Eden was thinking, Walter could know without asking.

After all, they grew up together. If Walter didn't know Eden, how could it be possible?

He narrowed his eyes, picked up his bear and took a sip.

This guy, actually having such an ulterior motive, was really not afraid of being beaten by them.

April looked at Walter suspiciously, not understanding how his expression suddenly changed into this.

It was dangerous, as if he was planning something.

However, April didn't bother to ask.

Sometimes, she really didn't understand some of his ideas.

However, these were not important anyway because Walter will answer her questions.

Everyone had made a decision and will go back to Innisrial together tomorrow.

Tonight's party ended early, not like the previous few days when they can't wait to be high until dawn.

Early the next morning, everyone set off directly from South Island and flew back to Innisrial.

When the plane entered the area over Innisrial, Casey thought of an important thing.

She tugged on Kelvin's sleeve and said, "Kelvin, will we be beaten to death by Patrick when we come back like this?"

Kelvin looked at her amusedly and said, "Didn't you say that if he wants to do something, he will do it to me but you at all?"

Casey thought so, but when she thought about it again, she became unhappy.

She said, "But, you're my husband. If you're beaten by Patrick, I'll feel sorry for you."

Kelvin laughed. Finally, she still had conscience and loved him.

He said, "Don't worry. At most, he'll just scare you."

When Casey heard what Kelvin said with such certainty, she looked at him strangely and asked, "How do I feel that you know Patrick so well?"

Kelvin said, "I don't know him well. But it's just reasoning."

As soon as Casey heard the word "reasoning", she was not interested.

She shook Kelvin's arm and said, "Shall we go back to Hayden's Mansion later?"

She brought gifts to Aimee, of course, and the two little guys in Aimee's belly.

Anyway, now that Patrick had already knew about it, she didn't have any scruples, and directly prepared two gifts for the babies.

Kelvin nodded and said, "Okay."

Obviously, Walter and April went back to the Hayden's Mansion together too.

Eden was going to take Minnie home.

He had to go to get the marriage certificate immediately.

So, they were not with them.

After getting off the plane, Eden and Minnie parted with them.

Minnie was really dumbfounded by Eden's anxious look.

She said, "Your parents haven't met me yet, and they don't even know me yet. Is it really appropriate for you to decide to marry me like this?"

Eden held Minnie's hand and said, "What's wrong with this? Isn't the most important thing is that I love you, and I just want to be with you? Besides, hasn't my mother met you before? By the way, you've seen her too, or do you think you can't get along well with her?"

Chapter 693 I want to make it clear to you first

Hearing Eden's words, Minnie could only be dumbfounded.

How can this be described like this way?

She and Mariam had indeed met, but, can that be the same?

They didn't even have a proper conversation, nor did they have a good understanding of each other's temperament.

It was not that Minnie thought that Mariam would dislike her. She just didn't have much experience with elders, and now, because of Eden, she had to directly change her relationship with a pair of elders. This was really stressful for her.

Eden said, "You don't have to think so much. My parents have their life. Although they're very keen to arrange blind dates for me, they don't really care about me in other things. Now, if we can be together well, they won't care so much. In the days to come, we live our lives. You just need to pay attention to whether I'm your favorite person, and whether I let you down, all the focus can be placed on me."

When Minnie heard Eden say this, she was actually shocked.

She knew before that Eden would be a little willful.

However, it never occurred to her that he would be like this when he became self-willed.

Telling her not to care about his family? Just thinking about it, she thought it was impossible.

However, Eden took it for granted.

Minnie didn't know how to describe her mood.

Now, she was already with Eden, and it seemed that it was really meaningless to think about so many things.

They soon arrived at Eden's home.

However, unfortunately, neither of Eden's parents were there.

Eden didn't call to ask, but just took his residence permit and went to get the marriage certificate with Minnie.

Minnie still wanted to discuss it with Eden, at least, after meeting his parents.

However, Eden was very stubborn. He directly held Minnie's face with both of his hands and asked, "Baby, do you want to escape marriage?"

Minnie looked at Eden suspiciously, and was really dumbfounded at what he said.

She said, "I have already been here with you. If I want to escape, I have nowhere to escape."

Although Eden felt that what she said was true, he still felt uneasy.

He immediately hugged Minnie and began to act like a baby.

Eden said, "Baby, let's go get the certificate right now, okay? Let's go."

Minnie had no temper at all when he said so.

This guy was really clingy. It was killing her.

When Mariam came in from the outside, she saw such a scene.

She couldn't believe her eyes.

Her son was acting shamelessly to a girl in his arms.

Mariam really felt that it was too embarrassing.

She coughed lightly, but ended up interrupting Eden's behavior.

She walked over and said to Minnie with helplessness, "Minnie, this bastard is sometimes unreasonable, so don't spoil him."

When Mariam saw Minnie, she was in a particularly good mood.

This was her future daughter-in-law. She finally had a daughter-in-law.

No need to envy anyone anymore, Mariam was satisfied when seeing Minnie.

Eden was ruthlessly complained about by his mother, so he was really speechless.

He looked at Mariam and said, "Mom, I'm talking to Minnie about getting marriage certificate. Why are you making trouble?"

As soon as Mariam heard this, her eyes lit up, and she said, "I thought you were going to embarrass her about this. If it's the case, what are you still writing about?"

Minnie was at a loss for words.

For a second, she thought that Mariam could talk to Eden well that he shouldn't be so anxious about this.

However, in the next second, Mariam heard that.

This shocked Minnie.

Could it be that the Mccoys all had such a temperament?

It turned out that they were all indeed anxious.

Mariam had already taken out her mobile phone and went to call her husband.

"Honey, you must push down everything today, and you'd better be back in the afternoon. It's a good thing, of course it's a good thing. Our son and daughter-in-law are going to get the certificate later.

Hurry up," Mariam said.

Minnie was already dumbfounded.

This was really settled like this, and there was no way to change it.

Eden happily watched his mother finish the phone call and said, "Mom, Minnie and I'll go to get the certificate first. Wait for us to come back."

After speaking, he took Minnie and left home.

Minnie was still a little dazed.

It was so subversive of everything she had ever known.

In fact, Minnie didn't want to go back on her word and didn't regret to marry Eden anymore, nor did she just use some scheming tricks to hold Eden in suspense so that she would let go and marry this man.

She just hadn't reacted yet.

All of her and Eden's progress was too fast.

She had seen a lot of problems between mother-in-law and daughter-in-law before, and the problems of being unwelcome when married into a wealthy family, though she herself will not underestimate herself or belittle herself.

However, she was very clear that there was a wall between herself and Eden.

What was more, the blind date between them was arranged with a purpose.

At that time, Minnie only wanted to destroy the blind date, that was, she didn't want to be a puppet in the hands of others.

But, unexpectedly, she was with Eden.

She didn't know if those people knew about this now.
She couldn't imagine what it would be like when they found it out.
Minnie looked at Eden and said, "Eden, have you really thought about it?"
Eden took Minnie's hand, put it to his lips and kissed it.
He said, "I have thought about your thoughts. Can't you really feel it?"
Minnie can naturally feel it.
It was just that she was really scared that one day she would hurt Eden's sincerity.
Taking a deep breath, Minnie said, "Eden, in a moment, there is one thing that I need to clarify with you first."

Chapter 694 Why do you change the name?

Eden and Minnie did not go directly to the registry.
Because Eden just went to his home to get his residence permit, Minnie's needed them to go to the place where she lived to get it.
When Eden heard Minnie say that, he nodded and became serious.
Going to Minnie's apartment, Eden became serious and said, "Just speak. I'll listen to whatever you say."
Minnie took a deep breath and asked Eden to sit down on a sofa, while she take a chair and sat on it.
She said, "My background, in fact, you should be very clear."
Eden nodded and said, "It's written on the information."
Whether it was when Mariam brought him the photos, when she asked him to go on a blind date, or later when he went to check something himself, it was very clear.
Minnie said, "My parents are gone. The person who asked me to go on a blind date with you is my uncle, the current boss of SilverRise Mining, Attwell Thomas."
Eden nodded and was no stranger to this name at all.
Minnie said, "He's a very ambitious and purposeful person. Everything he does is absolutely purposeful. It's him who asked me to go on a blind date with you. Because of his connections, he sent my information to your mother."
Eden didn't make a sound, but there was distress in his eyes.
He didn't need to listen to what Minnie was going to say next, because he knew what she would say.
This made him very uncomfortable.
Minnie didn't look at Eden, because she really didn't dare to.
She continued, "He wants to use me to relate him with your family, and even, maybe at that time, he will hope to use your family to relate with the Hayden family, the Lee family..."
Minnie bit her lower lip, thinking of what Attwell said to her and what he did to her after her blind date failed. It was extremely sad.
He was her uncle. It was no exaggeration to say that Attwell was already her only relative in this world.
However, it was her relative who told Minnie to take off her clothes, climb onto Eden's bed, and seduce Eden, so that he could get a lot of benefits from Eden.
Minnie had no idea how she left her family.
She just got two fingerprints on her face from Attwell.
He called her a waste, a disaster and a useless person.
What Attwell kept saying was that he had already taught her the method. How can she be so ignorant and why can't she sleep Eden by herself?
She had let him down so badly.

Minnie actually wanted to ask Attwell how he had the nerves to say that.

However, she couldn't ask.

Now thinking of the humiliation she suffered at that time, she felt suffocating pain.

At that time, Minnie told herself that no matter what, she should not fall in love with Eden.

However, who would have thought that after going around for so long, they were still together now.

She also went to Eden's bed according to Attwell's wish.

But so what? She wasn't going to tell Attwell about it.

Innisrial was not a big city. Especially, Eden's marriage, such a big event, will definitely be a big sensation and will be known by the whole city.

At that time, Attwell will find her.

Of course, Minnie wasn't afraid that Attwell would find her.

For her, Attwell beating her, scolding her and insulting her was something she had become accustomed to.

She just didn't want Eden to be used by Attwell.

For her, being able to be with Eden was a very lucky and happy thing.

Minnie didn't want Eden to have to suffer just because she was with him.

Minnie said, "You know, when Attwell is shameless, there's nothing I can do about him. Eden, I..."

"Minnie," Eden interrupted Minnie and looked at her. It was the first time he called her name so seriously since they were together. He said, "Look."

Minnie kept her head down all the time, but when she heard this, she raised her head and looked towards Eden.

Eden could see the trauma inside her eyes.

He said, "Minnie, what do you think I am?"

Minnie didn't realize for a moment what he meant by asking this.

She looked at Eden, thought for a while, and said, "The one I love."

Fortunately, this answer made Eden very satisfied.

He smiled and said, "You still have a little conscience."

If Minnie had given any other answer, he promised he would have punished her badly.

Minnie just understood Eden's thoughts.

She blushed suddenly, and said with helplessness, "Eden, you should finish listening first."

Eden said, "Listen to me first."

Minnie stopped her voice and looked at Eden.

Eden said, "Minnie, I'm with you and I'm not kidding with you. We those friends, from childhood to adulthood, have been attacked verbally. Walter and I are rumored to sleep three women in one day.

But, let me tell you the truth. I have only one beloved woman, and it's you since I was a child. I don't know how to make you believe that I'm sincere to you. I originally wanted to spend time to prove that I love you very much, I love you more than you imagined, and I'm more serious than you imagined. And I am the one who wants to spend the rest of my life with you."

Minnie bit her lip lightly, and her eye sockets became a little wet and red.

She didn't know how to describe her mood at this moment, though she had never doubted Eden's feelings for her.

However, Minnie was very moved to hear him say these words to herself so straightforwardly.

Eden looked at her distressedly, but he still didn't want her to be sad.

He reached out and stroked Minnie's cheek, wiping away her tears.

He said, "Minnie, so, no matter what Attwell Thomas or Attbad Thomas says, I don't care what kind of relationship he has with you. Even if he's your father, if he treats you badly, I'll not show him with respect. No matter how he bullies you, I will pay back ten times or a hundred times to him."

Minnie was amused by Eden's words.

She sniffed and said, "Why do you change his name?"

Chapter 695 Let's go home first

Eden saw Minnie laughing, and the anger that surged up in his heart just now was finally suppressed.

With Minnie's posture just now, he even wondered if this woman was going to break up with him.

If she dared to speak like this, Eden believed that he would definitely be domineering to her and let her uncle go bankrupt.

Naturally, it couldn't be done now, so he had no choice but to find another chance to do so.

Eden said, "You should have told me this a long time ago. You are my woman, so I can protect you well.

Or do you think that you will only drag me down and bring me something bad? Minnie, do you look down on me too much?"

Minnie was speechless at what Eden said.

She really didn't know how to answer this question.

But the answer was actually very clear to Minnie.

She didn't look down on him.

All along, she just didn't want to be Attwell's pawn to be used by him without limit.

If it was her who suffered, then it was easy to accept.

She can't be any better or worse.

But now, the person in front of her was Eden, the person with her was Eden, and the person who wanted to marry her and spend the rest of his life with her was also Eden.

Now that she had seen her heart clearly, she knew that she can no longer refuse this man.

She wanted to be with him forever.

However, the premise of all this was that Eden had to think clearly.

With such a disgusting person behind her, in the end, should she be chosen by him?

Eden reached over and pulled Minnie into his lap to let her sit down.

He rested his chin on Minnie's shoulder and said, "Okay, even if he finds out, I can make him bankrupt.

How he bullied you, I will pay back a hundred times. You really think I will be used by him?"

Minnie thought so too.

With Eden's temperament, if he really wanted to do something, Attwell might not be able to sustain at all.

She couldn't hold back and laughed out loud.

Minnie said, "Eden, I've suddenly figured it out. Maybe I was really too worried before, so I didn't think it through clearly. Now I've figure it out."

Eden kissed her face and said, "Then hurry up and get the certificate with me. Otherwise, I'll really deal with you."

Minnie immediately got up from Eden's lap, ran into the room, and took out her residence permit.

The two happily arrived at the registry, but were told that Minnie's residence permit was fake.

Minnie looked at the staff in astonishment, unable to believe what she heard.

Fake?

How was it possible?

How could the residence permit be faked?

However, the staff also looked at Minnie with puzzlement, wanting to know what was going on.

Minnie's face completely darkened.

Attwell suddenly came to her mind.

This must have been done by Attwell.

Before, her residence permit was indeed in Attwell's hands.

However, Attwell returned it to her before she went abroad.

When she was abroad, she didn't need it, and after returning to her motherland, she didn't need it either.

She never thought that for so many years, she would have such a fake residence permit in her hand.

Eden's face was also dark.

After listening to Minnie's conjecture, Eden even thought of killing him.

Why Attwell did this? The answer was obviously self-evident.

After he did this, no matter who Minnie married, she had to go to him and get back the real residence permit.

That would give Attwell the opportunity to extort Minnie hard.

This guy was really planning for a rainy day, and thinking very long-term.

Minnie was simply overwhelmed by this incident.

She looked at Eden, not knowing how she should face him.

Eden patted Minnie's head and said, "It's not your fault. What are you afraid of? It's just a residence permit, and there are ways to solve it."

Minnie still couldn't help feeling guilty, and tears kept falling down.

She didn't know how to describe her feeling.

Originally, she was sacred, because he felt that being with Eden like this would make him entangled in dirty things in the future.

But now, she and Eden happily came to get their marriage certificates, but this happened.

Minnie really felt sorry for Eden.

She said, "Sorry, Eden, I didn't know something like this was going to happen. I..."

"It wasn't your fault in the first place. Why do you have to apologize?" Eden raised his hand and rubbed Minnie's head, saying, "Let's go. We can't get it for the time being, so we'll go to solve other things first."

It was just a residence permit. Can it make him and Minnie unable to get married?

Minnie nodded, and left the registry with Eden.

Someone passed by the two of them, looking at them with a very strange expression.

Generally speaking, those who came to the registry might just get married, so they must be sweet when they got their certificates, and they can't wait to get intimate.

Moreover, they might still admire the newly issued marriage certificates.

Or, the people who came to the registry were for divorce. If the situation was a little bit worse, they may fight each other.

As for Minnie and Eden, they didn't look happy at all, but they were still intimate, which was rare to see.

After the divorce, they might find out that they truly loved each other?

Then they remarried on the spot?

Minnie was very depressed.

It was the first time she knew that her mood could be affected like this.

Being held in Eden's arms, Minnie thought, did God send her down to experience all kinds of difficulties? Otherwise, how could her life be so absurd?

Eden tilted his head and kissed Minnie's face, saying, "Babe, don't think so much. Let's go home first." Minnie nodded. Besides that, there was really no other way.

Chapter 696 Not all of them are women

Everyone knew that Eden and Minnie went to get the marriage certificate.

And everyone was counting the time and waiting for Eden to post it online.

However, there was no news from Eden.

This made everyone feel it very strange.

Didn't they go to get the certificate?

Why were they missing?

So, led by Walter, a group chat was created, including everyone except Eden and Minnie.

Walter asked, "Can it be that she's escaped from marriage?"

April said, "Don't talk nonsense."

Walter said, "Do I? If it's not possible, what's the reason? With Eden's temper, how can he be so quiet?"

After all, Ben had just received his marriage certificate, and he was in a very good mood.

So, Ben said very kindly, "Maybe, they just haven't done it yet. There are too many people in the registry."

Miles said, "Today is just a normal day. How can there be so many people?"

Walter said, "I agree."

Damion said, "Can't your two brothers learn from Ben? Why are you so bad?"

Walter said, "Don't worry. When you're down and out, we'll continue as before."

Damion said, "Thanks a lot."

Ben said, "Walter and Miles have always been unhuman, and it's not like you don't know it."

Miles said, "Don't forget Patrick. He'll only go too far than us."

Patrick said, "The money has been transferred."

Everyone in the group chat, except Patrick, was speechless and sent many apostrophe.

Aimee said, "Honey, you're like this. I'm really afraid that it will be bad for our baby."

As far as Patrick's wickedness was concerned, if the two babies inherited Patrick's temperament, they will become two little scheming people.

Ben said, "Aimee, hurry up and deal with Patrick. I've never seen him bully people like this."

Patrick said, "My money is not for humanistic concern. I'm clearly celebrating it for Eden and Miss Thomas."

Everyone once again sent a lot of ellipsis.

No one believed in his nonsense.

Sure enough, Patrick said, "However, if they fail, it can be regarded as encouragement so they can make persistent efforts."

Everyone was at a loss for words.

Fortunately, they didn't usually provoke Patrick. Otherwise, maybe they will be targeted by this guy.

Aimee couldn't stand it anymore, so she could only send another message.

Aimee said, "Honey, what goes around comes around."

He was bullying Eden like this now. In the future, if he was bullied by Eden one day, let's see if he will be pissed off.

Patrick didn't care one iota about that.

He was in a good mood today. Since Aimee had already spoken, he will barely be kind a little bit.

Patrick said, "You guys were hiding something from me before. Tell me today, and if you confess it yourself, I'll be reluctant and not bother with you."

However, as soon as these words were sent, the group fell into a dead silence.

Immediately afterwards, there was a message of quitting the group chat.

In the end, only Aimee and Patrick were left in this group.

Aimee was dumbfounded.

She said, "Honey, you're really a talent."

After speaking, Aimee also quit the group chat.

Patrick was struck dumb by his wife.

Touching his nose, Patrick decided to go home with Aimee.

He might make his wife unhappy.

After taking the car key and walking out of the office, he opened the door and saw a woman standing outside the door.

Alina held a document in her hand, seemed to be frightened by Patrick's movement to open the door, exclaimed, and took a step back.

However, wearing high heels, she seemed to have not stepped on firmly, and fell directly to the ground.

"Ah..." Alina let out a cry of pain. Her face turned pale instantly, and then, she raised her head and looked at Patrick, looking so pitiful.

In particular, tears welled up in her eyes, and they were about to fall, but they didn't.

Her expression, as it seemed, was accusing Patrick of why he didn't hold her up but let her fall to the ground like this.

However, because Alina's appearance was inherently weak, even if she looked at Patrick with such an expression, it added a little fragility to her face.

But if it was another man, he will probably be attracted by her face and blame himself that how can he let such a woman fall to the ground.

However, Patrick's face was gloomy and terrifying.

He didn't speak to Alina, but directly took out his mobile phone and called Trace. "Come here right away!"

Trace was in the toilet right now, having a stomachache, and he was about to collapse.

He really didn't understand how could he have diarrhea when he didn't eat anything.

However, now that Patrick called him, Trace didn't dare delay for a moment, so he just pulled up his pants and ran over.

When he saw Alina who had gotten up from the ground and was looking at Patrick pitifully, he was in a bad mood.

Why was this woman here?

Resisting the urge to rush to the toilet again, Trace came to Patrick and asked, "Mr. Hayden, what happened?"

Patrick frowned and looked at Trace, saying, "I also want to know what happened and why someone else came up on this floor."

In Patrick's office, except for himself and the Haydens, only Trace can come up here in the Hayden Group. His assistants and secretaries all worked on the floor below.

If employees in other departments had any problems about work and needed Patrick to sign documents, or if they had any work reports, they will go directly to the lower floor.

But this woman was able to come to this floor.
Patrick's anger was at its peak.
He naturally knew what this woman was up to.
From the moment she appeared, she hadn't been at peace.
However, Patrick didn't pay attention to her little tricks at all.
To him, she was nothing more than an employee of the Hayden Group.
As long as there was no problem with her working ability, he will certainly tolerate her.
Otherwise, if he fired every woman in the company who had unreasonable thoughts about him, wouldn't he be a psychopath?
What was more, not all of them was women.

Chapter 697 I'm not familiar with you

Trace looked at Patrick in horror, and then at Alina with an annoyed look on his face.
He said, "Tell me yourself, how did you get here?"
Alina seemed to have been frightened stupidly. Her whole body was shaking and her head drooped, as if she was lifeless.
Trace's question made her droop her head even more in fear, and she didn't dare to raise her head at all.
Patrick narrowed his eyes, but he was too lazy to waste time on this matter.
He said directly to Trace, "This is left to you. You know what to do."
After speaking, Patrick left.
Trace was also angry.
Although Patrick had a bad temper, he had always been easy to get along with.
It'd been a long time since he looked so angry.
Trace's stomach started growling again.
He looked at Alina and said, "Come with me." Alina gritted her teeth, almost wanting to die of anger.
Now that Patrick was gone, it didn't make sense for her to continue staying here.
So, Alina can only go out with Trace.
Trace brought Alina to the downstairs. When all the assistants and secretaries saw that Alina came down from upstairs, their pupils dilated and they looked at Trace in disbelief.
Everyone asked with their eyes what was going on.
How could Trace bother to answer their questions now.
He directly led Alina into an office, and then he went to solve the stomach problem first.
When he came out of the toilet, an assistant stopped him and asked, "Trace, what's going on? How did she get up there?"
Trace glanced at the man angrily and said, "Are you asking me this? Who am I going to ask? There are so many of you. Haven't you noticed that someone has passed there and gone up?"
He was not in the office before, but why were these guys so unreliable today?
That person was also a little confused. Logically speaking, if someone was going up by the elevator, they could see it.
However, not today.
Trace said, "Okay, in the future, you must keep an eye on this kind of thing. Mr. Hayden is in a hurry to go back today, and he hasn't come to ask for your responsibility, so, be careful. During this time, don't provoke Mr. Hayden.”

With Patrick’s posture today, if they did something wrong and annoy Patrick, they may really be fired.

Trace returned to the office with a cold face.

He said, “Tell me, how did you get there?”

Alina was afraid of Patrick, but she was not afraid of Trace at all.

She wanted to get close to Patrick with all her heart and wanted to marry Patrick, and she was sure that with her youthful beauty, she could naturally attract Patrick’s attention.

She firmly believed that Patrick would fall in love with her.

As long as she succeeded, the special assistant would be just a piece of shit for her.

In front of Patrick, she drooped her head and dared not speak, showing a look of pity.

In front of this special assistant, she didn’t need to be like this.

Alina said, “I wanted to go to Mr. Hayden to sign a document.”

She said it confidently, without realizing what was wrong with her at all.

Trace was incredulous when he heard that she was still being stubborn now.

Even though this woman had just joined the company not long ago, she should have learned the rules of the Hayden Group during the induction training.

Now, she was actually able to say these things so confidently.

Trace really wanted to “applaud” for her.

He said, “You don’t know the company’s rules? Everyone in the department, even the supervisor, can only reach the secretary floor. You are leapfrogging. Don’t you understand?”

“However, I saw that everyone was busy, so I didn’t bother them.” Alina said.

Trace felt like he was going to laugh out loud.

He didn’t know what was in this woman’s mind.

He just thought it was weird.

Why was it so funny? She apparently plotted against Patrick but described it in such a gentle and considerate way.

Trace said, “It’s our job to handle the work you have to report to. Whose position do you want to replace?”

Alina clearly heard Trace’s mockery of herself.

She said, “Didn’t I just go up for a while?”

Trace said, “It seems that you don’t realize your mistake at all.”

Alina said, “I am not wrong.”

Trace laughed angrily at her words.

He didn’t bother to talk to her anymore, so he said directly, “Okay, since you’re so persistent, Hayden Group can’t afford to have an employee like you.”

“What do you mean!?” Alina finally realized what was happening, and immediately panicked.

However, Trace didn’t give her another look, but directly dialed the internal number and called the supervisor of the personnel department to come up.

The supervisor quickly ran up, when Trace personally asked him to come up and deal with the person.

This incident can only explain one thing that this person offended Patrick.

So, no matter what, it was impossible for that person to stay.

After seeing clearly that it was Alina, the supervisor was sweating on his forehead.

At the beginning, when Alina was able to enter the Hayden Group, he was helpful in it.

However, now he absolutely cannot reveal this matter by himself.

Otherwise, he might not be able to stay in this company too.

Trace said, "Mr. Thompson, take her away and expel her under the second-level regulation."

Hayden Group had different grades for different dimission, from resignation to being fired.

The second-level regulation was to deduct all items other than the basic salary from Alina's work during the company.

Alina finally realized the seriousness of the matter.

She can't just leave like this, absolutely not.

Alina looked at Trace and said, "Mr. Short, I know I was wrong. I will definitely strictly abide by the company's rules and regulations in the future. Please, don't fire me."

However, Trace had already started his own work and ignored Alina.

Seeing this, Alina could only look at Eli Thompson, the supervisor.

Her tears finally burst down, and she said, "Uncle Thompson, please help me. If you can get me into the company, you must have a way to keep me, right? Uncle Thompson, you have such a good relationship with my father. You can't really drive me away."

Eli wanted to raise his hand to slap her right now.

She was restless herself and got into trouble, and now she actually wanted to drag him down with her.

Absolutely detestable.

Eli shook off Alina's hand and said, "Don't talk nonsense. I don't know you well."

Alina said, "Uncle Thompson, how can you say that? You obviously took my father's favor, and even took the antique porcelain vase my father gave you. How can you deny it?"

Chapter 698 He Let the Man Leave

Although Trace was already dealing with his own work, he could clearly hear the conversation between these two people.

He raised his eyes, looked at Eli, and said, "It seems that you have received a lot of benefits."

Eli was going crazy the moment he heard Trace's voice.

He no longer knew how he was going to meet Trace's eyes.

Now, he only had one thought, that was, he wanted to kill Alina.

However, Alina didn't think it was a big deal, but nodded in response to Trace's words.

"Yeah, yeah, Mr. Short, you can't just fire me," Alina said.

Although Alina revealed the relation and looked like a fool, her purpose was actually very simple, that was, to drag Eli down no matter what.

Eli was in this position, so she didn't believe that he had no right to speak at all.

There was no way she just got fired from the Hayden Group.

Otherwise, even if she was the daughter of the Simmons family, she will only be the object of ridicule in the future.

Eli really hated Alina right now.

He gave her a hard look, and said to Trace, "Mr. Short, I actually have a little friendship with her father, but we're not familiar with each other. Really, I really have never done anything to harm the company."

Trace said, "Really? Then I have to look it up, but I'll wait to report this matter to Mr. Hayden, and then follow his orders to do things. As for you, I think, it's best to take her to go through the resignation procedures immediately. If, twenty minutes later, she is still in the company, I believe Mr. Hayden will not be happy."

Eli was almost dumbfounded by Trace's words.

He didn't dare explain anything now, nor did he dare think about it.

He grabbed Alina's hand and said, "Hurry up and follow me."

Alina was really crazy now.

She shook off Eli's hand vigorously, and rushed towards Trace.

She yelled at Trace, "Who are you to just fire me?! I don't agree!"

Trace didn't pay the slightest bit of attention to Alina's anger.

He just continued with his work without giving Alina a look at all.

Anyway, he'd already started the clock.

If the woman was still there twenty minutes later, he will use more severe methods to drive the woman away.

Seeing that Trace ignored her, Alina became even more angry.

She shouted loudly, "I want to see Mr. Hayden! Only Mr. Hayden can fire me! Don't exceed your duties!

I won't admit it! I won't just leave!"

Trace sneered, and finally gave Alina a look.

He said, "You want to see Mr. Hayden, huh..."

Alina took a deep breath, lifted her proud chin, and said, "Mr. Hayden will never fire me. You can't make decisions for him."

Trace felt even more amused when he heard this.

He looked at Alina's face that had become distorted with anger at the moment.

He said, "You don't deserve to replace Mrs. Hayden!"

After finishing speaking, Trace pressed the intercom directly, "Notify the security department, and send someone over immediately."

Alina had never been humiliated like this, even if the person in front of her was Patrick's special assistant.

But, like her, he was just an employee here.

How can an ordinary employee make decisions for Patrick?

She simply couldn't take it.

What was more, after she left the company, she was still the daughter of the Simmons family. No matter what, she was more noble than this flunkey.

Now, she was kicked out of the company by such a person. How could she bear it?

Alina was so angry that her face was livid, but she finally realized the fact that no matter how unwilling she was, she had to leave the Hayden Group today.

A trace of resentment welled up in Alina's eyes.

She said to Trace, "Just wait and see!"

She couldn't believe that she couldn't seduce Patrick.

After she successfully climbed into Patrick's bed, she was the first to deal with this flunkey.

The office finally fell silent.

Trace's stomach started to make trouble again.

He hurriedly stood up from the chair and ran to the toilet.

The more he thought about the incident, the weirder it got.

He still had to investigate carefully.

Without the help of others, this woman, even if she had the ability, can't reach the floor.

Moreover, it just so happened that he had diarrhea today, and it just so happened that this woman came up while he was using the toilet.

All of this was too much of a coincidence.

When Trace came out of the toilet again, he suddenly thought of one thing.

He immediately returned to the office, picked up his cell phone, and made a call.

Not long after, a young man walked in.

Trace looked at the man in front of him and said, "You and Alina are from the same university, right?"

The man's expression immediately became tense. He hesitated, and couldn't even speak clearly.

Trace said, "So, Alina asked you to give that cup of milk tea to me?"

Trace thought about it carefully just now that he didn't eat anything strange today, so the only strange thing was that this man gave him a cup of milk tea.

However, Trace didn't think much about it at the time, and didn't even suspect that there was something wrong with this cup of milk tea after going to the toilet so many times.

The young man finally confessed everything.

He and Alina were indeed classmates in the same school, and, when they were in school, he had a crush on Alina.

It was just that his personality was relatively dull, so he didn't dare pursue Alina at all.

Knowing that she worked in the same company with him made him very happy.

Although Alina would come to him, she talked to him about the Hayden Group.

Because he worked in the company a year earlier than Alina, and he had done well, it can be said that he wanted to work here for a long time in the future.

Therefore, when Alina first approached him to inquire about the company, he didn't think much about it at all. He really thought that Alina was coming to just consult.

He was even happy that he and Alina would soon be working in the same company.

He was also imagining that when they can get along in the company for a long time, maybe Alina will fall in love with him, and they can build a family together.

However, today Alina brought him two cups of milk tea, one for him and the other for Trace.

Moreover, Alina specified which cup of milk tea was his and which one was Trace's.

He felt it very strange, but didn't ask any questions.

As long as it can make Alina happy, anything was fine for him and he can do anything to her.

Unexpectedly, now he was called by Trace.

He said everything and didn't hide anything.

Trace also knew what his character was like, so naturally the young man wouldn't know what Alina wanted to do at that time. Otherwise, he would definitely discourage her from doing so.

Trace wouldn't take it out on innocent people, even if he made himself sick with diarrhea.

Now that the matter was cleared up, he let the young man leave.

Chapter 699 It depends on your ability

Hayden's Mansion.

When Patrick came home, he saw Aimee basking in the sun and reading a book in the yard.

He walked over, put his arms around Aimee's shoulders from behind, rubbed his chin on the top of her head, and said, "Why don't you take a break?"

"I'm very energetic today, so I just want to read a book." Aimee said.

Patrick said, "It looks like you're in a good mood."

Aimee chuckled and said, "I'm in a good mood. Isn't it good?"

Patrick said, "I thought you were going to be angry with me because of the things in the group."

Aimee was really amused by Patrick's words.

She looked at Patrick and asked, "So, you came back early because of this?"

During this period of time, Patrick had been busy in the company. Although he commuted and came back according to the normal time every day, he was already much busier than before.

Patrick said, "Yeah, I let Trace handle things."

His eyes fell on Aimee's stomach and he said, "I don't know when they will come out. I really want to leave the company to Walter and Miles right now."

The two of them went too far. They just left the company to him, and insisted that they would not take the business back until after Aimee gave birth.

Aimee said, "I see, if Matilda and April are also pregnant, the three of you will leave the company to grandpa."

Patrick chuckled and said, "How do you know? We haven't thought about it that way."

Among the three of them, Miles was more concerned about his career.

However, what Miles cared about was only his own career.

All his efforts were on his entertainment company.

It was almost impossible for him to come back to manage the family company.

Needless to say, Walter.

In order not to manage the company, he went abroad directly at that time.

Patrick thought, Walter had been abroad for so many years before, and now, no matter what, it was his turn to manage the company.

Aimee said, "You just make things difficult for grandpa."

Patrick said, "Anyway, I'll be 'free' soon, and it depends on who is gonna make things difficult for grandpa."

Aimee was speechless. Was this something to be proud of?

With Patrick's tone, he was quite looking forward to it.

Her due date was in autumn, in October, and their babies were Scorpios.

Although Aimee didn't really believe in horoscopes and felt that there was nothing wrong with Scorpio, people of other zodiac signs may have a lot of thoughts about Scorpio. At least Aimee liked the energy of Scorpio very much.

She rubbed her belly and said, "There are still more than three months left."

If it went well, it will be October, which happened to be the long holiday.

Patrick said, "I'll have to work hard for another three months."

Aimee touched her belly and said, "Babies, did you hear that? Your father dislikes you for being born too slowly."

Patrick immediately said, "But, I definitely don't mean to ask you to be born immediately. You have to stay in your mother's womb obediently, you know? Don't hurt your mother."

However, just as Patrick finished speaking, Aimee felt her stomach being hit hard.

Obviously, it was one baby who seemed to be dissatisfied with Patrick's words, and kicked Aimee hard to express his or her protest.

Patrick was speechless.

Did this little guy do it on purpose?

Was she or he trying to contradict him on purpose?

Patrick licked the corner of his mouth lightly and said, "Is it resistance? All right, after you come out, let's see how I deal with you."

However, there was another kick.

In a different direction, it was obvious that another baby's little foot kicked it.

Aimee was also dumbfounded by the reaction of these two little babies.

Why were they arguing with their own father?

Aimee rubbed her stomach and said, "Okay, my dears, don't quarrel with Dad."

The little babies in the belly really didn't kick Aimee anymore.

Patrick bit inside his cheek, sort of keeping that in mind.

Did he treat these two babies so well that they started to be against him before they were even born?

Patrick can already imagine when the two of them were born and able to talk and talk back, what the war between him and them will look like.

Aimee looked at Patrick and said, "I don't care about anything else. Anyway, you can't bully my babies."

Patrick pinched Aimee's face gently, and was dumbfounded even more.

He said, "So, you can let them bully me?"

Aimee thought about it, and it seemed that there was nothing wrong with it.

Although she didn't answer, she had expressed all her thoughts very clearly with her expression.

Patrick wanted to pull out the little guys in Aimee's belly immediately and "beat" them up.

It was the two of them who had snatched away his wife's preference for him.

Aimee saw the fierceness in Patrick's eyes, smiled, and said, "Okay, I won't tease you anymore. You know, the person I love the most is you."

Of course she will love her babies and be a good mother.

However, for Aimee, the person she loved the most must be Patrick.

Finally, because of Aimee's words, Patrick was coaxed.

Patrick lowered his head and kissed Aimee's lips.

"I love you too," he said.

Their ideas were very consistent that they must prioritize each other, followed by their children.

Children will grow up one day and meet their beloved one.

And the two of them were the most important people to each other.

They can accompany each other until the old age.

Patrick's eyes softened unconsciously.

He kissed Aimee's cheek endlessly.

Finally, Patrick still couldn't hold back, and hugged Aimee.

Just kissing her face and mouth was not enough.

What he wanted was truly more things.

Aimee realized what Patrick wanted to do, and although she was still shy, she didn't refuse him.

However, the present time was really embarrassing.

After returning to the room, Aimee said, "Don't do it for too long. We'll have dinner soon."

Patrick, on the other hand, gave a low laugh.

He stuck to Aimee's ear and said, "It depends on your ability."

Chapter 700 I love you very much

The Mccoy family.

Eden and Minnie came home with no joy on their faces.

Mariam looked at the two people suspiciously and asked, "What's wrong? Is there too many people, so you didn't line up?"

Eden collapsed on the sofa and said, "There are not many people."

Minnie looked at Mariam apologetically, and explained the matter to Mariam.

She was very anxious and nervous.

She didn't know how Mariam would look at her when she knew what was going on.

She dared not even think about it.

Mariam was not surprised after listening to Minnie's words.

She smiled and said, "Attwell did it, so it's quite normal. It's okay. Let's eat first. We'll settle it, and your marriage will not be delayed."

Minnie was very astonished, because she really thought that Mariam was going to have problems with her.

However, from what Mariam said, she seemed to be very familiar with Attwell. Oh no, it should be said that she knew Attwell very well.

Minnie really wanted to ask Mariam a question.

However, she dared not do so.

She was really afraid the answer she would get was something she couldn't bear.

Mariam knew what Minnie was thinking, so she smiled and said, "Attwell approached me directly before, and he forced me to take your photo."

Minnie hadn't expected this to happen.

She always thought that Attwell used some tricks, and the middleman handed over her photo to Mariam.

Mariam said, "You don't have to think so much. Since I force Eden to go on a blind date, I won't accept any girls. You have gone through layers of screening."

Minnie became even more puzzled when she heard what Mariam said.

According to her statement, her photo cannot be sent to Mariam with her complicated background.

Mariam said, "As for me, I don't value family very much. You are with Eden now, so you know that. If I want to find a good match, Casey is the only one suitable. Although I like that girl, she doesn't like Eden at all. I can't have the cheek to tie her up and let her marry this bastard."

When Eden heard Mariam say that, he became unhappy.

He said, "Mom, you're talking as if I like her."

"What rights do you have to like her?" Mariam said.

Eden was speechless.

Mariam coughed lightly and said to Minnie, "Minnie, don't get me wrong. I didn't mean that. I just talk back out of habit. Of course, the most important thing is his own feelings. None of it matters."

Minnie nodded, but still glanced at Eden indistinctly.

She suddenly felt that Eden's position in the family was quite miserable.

Mariam continued, "So, if I only value family background, there are too few choices."

Minnie nodded, but still didn't understand why she was chosen.

Even if the requirements were relaxed, how could it be possible for Attwell to catch Mariam's eyes with his appearance.

Mariam said, "I don't regard Attwell as your family member. He's a bastard at all. I also know what he did to you, but, you're a nice girl. I like you very much, so, no matter what, I still hope that you and Eden can give it a try."

Minnie suddenly didn't know what to say.

Mariam's words were a kind of affirmation to her.

This kind of affirmation was really very important to Minnie.

Her eye sockets were a little wet and red, and she looked at Mariam with gratitude.

Mariam gave her a comforting look and then said, "Look, my vision is very good. You and Eden are together now, so you just listen to what a mother says."

Eden was dumbfounded.

He was already with Minnie anyway, so he let himself go a little bit.

Eden said, "Mom, you are so confident, but you don't know how hard she tried to disturb our blind date in order not to be with me."

Minnie felt a little embarrassed in an instant.

If others knew how she treated Eden at that time, they would probably think that she was striking a pose to impress him and shameless.

However, Mariam said, "That means Minnie has seen through you."

Eden was dumbfounded and just wanted to ask was she still his real mother?

Minnie's depressed mood was easily dismissed by Mariam.

All of a sudden she was free of all worries.

Maybe, being with Eden will face Attwell's various entanglements in the future, but at this moment, Minnie really felt very happy.

She loved Eden, and also liked Eden's mother.

And she liked the vibe in his family.

After all these years, Minnie finally felt that God was treating her well again.

In her world, there was sunshine.

This feeling made Minnie very strange, but also very fortunate.

She unconsciously squeezed Eden's hand tightly.

Now that she had grasped his hand, she will never let it go in this life.

Eden turned his head to look at Minnie, and could feel her change.

He bent the corner of his mouth and said without sound, "I love you very much."