he walked towards her and hugged her close to him " don't you ever do that again " she heard the lord whisper in her ear his arms holding her body tightly a tear escaped her eyes when she heard him she was holding back her emotions trying to not be weak but with him around she wasn't afraid to show her weakness in front of him

" it's alright," the lord said pulling back wiping her tears " I will keep you safe no one will harm " the lord spoke kissing her tears laying on the Althea rested her head on his chest while he was running his fingers through her soft hair his actions calmed her making her feel relaxed she almost fall asleep but remembered that wanted to ask him about something

" dose he has another family? " the Lord heard her say

" yes, a son he is older than you " the lord decided to not lie to her when heard his words she felt happy and sad at the same time happy to know that she has a sapling and sad because he maybe doesn't want her like her father lifting her head she looked at the lord with her blue like ocean eyes " I don't think it's a good idea " she replied bringing her hand to his lips he kissed the back of it " you know I will do anything you want you just have to ask " the Lord said to see her hid her face in his chest

" could you stop speaking like that I'm not used to it " he heard her muffled voice before she could control her voice a loud moan escape her rosy lips

" you are very sensitive Althea I don't think you will be able to control yourself let me help you " he captured her lips with his kissing her passionately she was thinking about the events of the last night so much has happened she met her father for the first time in person she saw how he looked at her it made her doubt that she was his daughter she imagined that maybe his heart will soften when he sees but instead she saw the hatred that he has for her she lived for too long without a father she should be used to it but she couldn't help but feel sad when she saw him staring at her coldly

" good morning " she heard the lord voice

" good morning, did I wake you up," Althea asked having been thinking about her father she hasn't realized that he woke up caressing her cheek lightly he looked in her beautiful blue eyes " are you sad? " he asked to see her lower her head it surprised her how he can read her like an open book but sometimes it made it easier for her

" I shouldn't be sad but I just can't help it," she said feeling better already that she have someone to speak with

" don't, it will only make things more complicated, I don't care about him let do what he wants " she paused cupping his face " but I do care about you and I don't want to lose you," she said her voice almost a whisper hearing her say that he felt very happy she has been less reserved lately

" thank you," the lord said pulling her close to Althea hid her face in his chest feeling embarrassed for saying these words
