" what took so long Althea " came the lord voice making almost want to open the door and run turning around she saw him sitting on the chair with his legs crossed one above the other staring coldly at her

" I... I " she tried to say something but nothing came out of her lips

" you what speak Althea, " the lord said as he stood up walking towards her

Althea closed her eyes for a second trying to calm herself " I apologize for being late my lord, do you need something " Althea said lifting her head her blue like ocean eyes meeting his red ones

" I don't remember that I have done anything that worth to apologize for " she spoke to see the amusement look on his face

closing the distance between them he pushed her against the door as he brought her lips close to her ear " am I not intimidating to you or perhaps it's because that I keep forgive you every time you do something hmm answer me Althea " he brought his face close to hers to look at her face

she could feel his breath on her skin as he trapped her with both of his arms on the sides of the door now she was really afraid of him she didn't see this said of him before that's what the old lady warned her about that if kept on pushing she will see the ugly said of him
