281 Don't let your precious granddaughter be taken away

The late summer of August.

The cool breeze that followed the beginning of autumn dispelled some of the summer heat. The bright sun receded, and the chirping of cicadas weakened. The freshmen of major universities in China began to return to school at the end of the month, and the curtain of military training was about to open.

Shi qinglan's luggage was brought to the living room by the servant.

Jiang Yunxi gently stroked the girl's hair. LAN 'er, if you don't sleep well in the dormitory during the military training, you can come home and stay. Let your father inform the school to bring you back.

although the school has stipulated that accommodation is required for the military training, I have already donated a laboratory building to Imperial University. It is not a big deal to apply for Day School. Shi hongxi nodded in response.

Shi qinglan was speechless.

Her red lips curved up slightly, and she looked up at her parents with a sweet and soft smile. I will take care of myself.

But even though she said so, Jiang yunzhe was still worried.

After all, a girl's skin was delicate. Even at the end of August, there was still sunlight at noon. Back then, what she hated the most was to stand in the sun. At that time, Shi Hongji was still the class monitor. He loved to punish her for her posture.

if Xiao LAN 'er is wronged in school, come home and tell me. I'll beat them up for you. Shi Fu also waved his walking stick and pretended to be fierce.

Shi qinglan smiled. Grandpa, if anyone bullies me, I'll beat them up myself.

She was telling the truth, but no one believed her.

Shi Fu mumbled, " how can you let a girl do this? how can you win against a few rough men? if you can't, let your two brothers do it!

"Yes, I can." yes! Shi qingqiao replied in a deep voice.

He was very good at beating people up, and if he was helping his sister beat people up, he would be even better at teaching those who bullied her a lesson.

Shi Fu held Shi qinglan's hand tightly and said, "Xiao LAN 'er, boys are full of hormones when they go to college. As a beautiful girl, you have to learn to protect yourself. You can't be taken away by handsome guys.

Shi qinglan could not help but feel guilty.

She licked her red lips and mumbled, " yes, Grandpa, I'll keep my eyes open.

"That's good, that's good," Shi Fu nodded with a smile.

He wasn't afraid of his granddaughter dating in college, but he was afraid that campus relationships wouldn't last long and would easily break his precious granddaughter's heart.

Shi Qing's eyes were calm. dad, mom, Grandpa, don't worry. LAN 'er has been taking good care of herself for many years. I'll let the school know when I send her to school today.

Shi Fu reluctantly let go of his granddaughter's hand.

Jiang Yunfei was once the best Actress, so it was inconvenient for her to send her off. Shi Hongqi, as an honorary alumnus of Imperial University, was also too eye-catching. Shi qinglan did not want to show off her identity too much. Hence, after weighing the pros and cons, her family decided to send Shi qingyan to send her to school safely ...

Butler Ji followed suit and placed the luggage into the trunk. Then, he watched as Shi qingqian drove Little Miss away.

"Big brother, I can go to the dormitory building by myself."

The black Bentley slowly stopped at the school gate. Shi qingxiao helped the girl carry her luggage down. Shi qinglan pulled out the handle of the luggage and looked up at the picturesque campus.

Shi qingxuan's brows furrowed slightly. I'll send you in.

Shi qinglan hesitated for a moment. She thought that Shi qinghuang was very famous in the business circle, and her photo had even been published in the annual person magazine. She was a character who was famous in the capital ...

The interpersonal relationships in University were complicated. If everyone knew her identity, there would be many people who would try to curry favor with her. It was very annoying.

"I'll go by myself." Shi qinglan insisted.

She turned to look at the volunteers nearby, and her red lips curved up slightly. if I encounter any difficulties, I will ask these volunteers for help.

Shi Qingyun's long and narrow eyes narrowed slightly.

He glanced at the volunteers and understood why the girl was so insistent. He nodded and said, " I will respect your opinion.

Hearing this, Shi qinglan smiled sweetly.

"Thank you, brother." She blinked her eyes playfully, then waved at the man. I'll be off then.

yes, "Shi qingqiao replied in a deep voice. She then saw the girl pulling her luggage and walking back to the dormitory with cheerful steps.

It was only after she had disappeared from her sight that Shi qingxun turned around and went to the office building to look for Yan Hua.

..

Imperial University was known as the most beautiful University in China.

The landscape of the garden was as beautiful as a painting. The flowers in the season were in full bloom, and there was a faint fragrance lingering in the air. The man-made lake in the campus was reflecting the bright sun with a faint ripple.

Shi qinglan dragged her luggage and strolled around the campus.

The girl's white dress fluttered in the wind, and it was slightly curved in the early autumn wind, faintly revealing her white and slender legs.

Her appearance was beautiful and exquisite, her eyes were clear and bright like a pool of clear water. Her beautiful eyes were filled with a faint brilliance, and her elegant temperament quickly attracted many eyes ...

"Where did this little fairy come from?"

"A freshman? To be able to get into our Imperial University with such looks, she's simply a beauty to eat ..."

Shi qinglan's face was too stunning.

Wherever she went, people would turn around and look at her. Some people even secretly took out their mobile phones and took a few photos of her side profile.

Brother ze, this little junior is not bad ... The senior in the red dress smiled slightly and looked at the young man with interest.

Lin Heze chuckled gently. it's impolite to comment on others so casually. Hurry up and sort out these welcome gifts.

The senior in the red dress pouted her lips in disappointment.

She looked up at Shi qinglan again and continued to organize the gifts in disappointment. hey, I want to see beautiful girls ...

Lin Heze inadvertently looked up at the figure. The girl's figure was slender, and her white dress fluttered, devastatingly beautiful.

His lips curved up slightly. Although he was amazed by her, he didn't care. He helped the girl next to him to organize the welcoming gift and sent it to her juniors.

...

However, she suddenly heard a pleasant voice ...

senior, may I ask where the dormitory building is? " Shi qinglan's voice was as clear as a stream of water and as gentle as a rock, causing ripples in the hearts of those who heard it.

The eyes of the senior in the red dress lit up. yes ...

She was about to point in a certain direction when a sly smile flashed across her eyes, and she elbowed Lin Heze.

junior, our campus is too big. This senior just happens to be free. Why don't you ask him to send you to the dormitory? "

Upon hearing this, Lin Heze turned to look at the senior in the red dress.

The senior winked at him and nudged him twice. what are you doing? I'm waiting for your help!

Shi qinglan's beautiful eyes flickered, and she opened her red lips. actually, it doesn't have to be so troublesome ...

"It's fine." Lin Heze's voice was warm and clear. He chuckled helplessly. I'll send you there.

Shi qinglan could only agree since she could not refuse.

...

282 I'm still friends with the Shi family's daughter

Lin Heze was wearing a white shirt and black pants, and his figure was slender.

The young man had a clean and fair face, soft lines outlined the outline of his face, and his every movement was as gentle as Jade. His temperament was graceful, as gentle as a summer breeze.

He helped Shi qinglan drag her luggage. I'm Lin Heze, a second-year student in Law School. That senior just now is Tong Sheng, who's in the same grade as me in the business school. She's a straightforward person, so don't take it to heart.

Shi qinglan smiled. it's okay.

She could see the senior's intention, and she could also see that the senior had no choice but to be pushed to this point.

"This is the dormitory building." Lin Heze said warmly.

He looked at the girl with a smile. you can go in and register with the dormitory Auntie. She will give you a map of the school, so you won't be unable to find it next time.

Shi qinglan nodded in thanks and took the luggage.

Fortunately, her dormitory was the first room on the left on the first floor, so it was more convenient for her to go upstairs without having to carry a box.

At this moment, in Building C, dormitory 109 ...

Han Yina, who was in bed number four, was tidying up the closet. She smiled brightly as she held the clothes in front of her. She turned around and said to another roommate behind her, " what do you think of my branded clothes? " my dad brought this back from his business trip in Europe. I heard that it's a global limited edition. You can't buy it without some status.

Han Yina had heavy makeup on and was dressed in branded clothes. Her limited-edition bag was placed on the table.

The roommate of bed one, pan wanye, chuckled. that's good, but the identity you're talking about is ...

Hearing this, han Yina raised her head arrogantly.

She smiled smugly and introduced herself, “my name is han Yina. I’m the daughter of the Han family, a wealthy family in the capital. Have you heard of me?”

“Crack-”

At this moment, Shi qinglan suddenly pushed the door open and entered.

She happened to hear han Yina’s words and couldn’t help but frown slightly. Since when was there a han family in Imperial?

Ever since she had returned home, she had followed Shi hongxi and Shi qingxiao and explored the entire wealthy circle. She had never heard of the Han family.

However, pan wanye chuckled and said, “ I’ve heard of you. I didn’t expect you to be the daughter of the Han family from Beijing. You’ve reincarnated quite well.

The two of them chatted with each other.

Han Yina bragged about her brand, and pan wanye would occasionally flatter her, but her hands were busy with her own things.

“Hey, look at her,” Han Yina suddenly ran to her side.

She looked at Shi qinglan contemptuously. The girl was dressed in an elegant white haute couture dress and was packing her luggage at the moment.

The corners of han Yina’s lips curled up. When she sized her up, her eyes were full of disdain. there’s not a single piece of clothing on me that’s from a famous brand. I don’t even have a label. I wonder where I got it from.

Pan wanye followed her gaze and looked over.

A hint of rejection flashed in her eyes, but she did not show it. after all, we’ll be college roommates for four years. Don’t say that. It’s not appropriate to affect our relationship.

Han Yina pouted, feeling a little disappointed. She secretly thought that pan wanye was acting a little pretentious, but she didn’t say it out loud.

Pan wanye turned to look at Shi qinglan. Hello, I’m pan wanye from the Faculty of Arts, bed number one.

“Shi qinglan,” The girl’s Red lips parted slightly.

Pan wanye's eyebrows raised slightly. She felt a little uncomfortable when she saw her indifferent appearance, but she didn't say anything.

I'm han Yina, the medical school with the highest cut-off point. Han Yina raised her head arrogantly and looked at her. which Department are you from? "

Her tone was full of conceit and arrogance, and the way she looked at Shi qinglan was full of disdain and disdain, as if it was the best thing in the world for her to be able to get into a medical school with the highest cut-off score.

Hearing this, Shi qinglan glanced at her.

Her red lips curled up slightly, and her voice was clear but like a slap on her face. medical school.

Han Yina's smug smile instantly froze.

Her eyes froze, and she looked as embarrassed as she had looked up just now. then ... Then how many marks did you take to get in?"

Even if they were both in medical school, there would still be a difference in grades.

For example, the National top scorer was also a medical student, and he was under the tutelage of Dean Jiang boning, which was different from the others.

"Won't you know when school starts?" Shi qinglan chuckled.

She couldn't be bothered to respond to han Yina. After all, such a petty trick wasn't worth her slapping her in the face.

Han Yina sneered. I guess he came from some remote area, the kind of city with a very low cut-off score. Otherwise, why would he still be hesitating and not dare to say? "

Shi qinglan's eyes flickered but she did not say anything.

She tidied up her things and suddenly heard the soft sound of the door opening. Kacha-

LAN Chu peeked his little head out carefully.

Her clear eyes blinked twice and she asked in a soft voice, " is this Building C, Room 109? "

Shi qinglan turned around and looked at her.

LAN Chu's eyes suddenly lit up, as bright as the stars. Xiao Qingqing, what a coincidence! Why are you here? "

She immediately ran into the dormitory with her short legs and jumped up and down excitedly, dragging the pink suitcase in her hand.

Shi qinglan's Red lips curved into a smile. She rubbed LAN Chu's head affectionately. it's not a coincidence. I specially went to inform principal Yan and asked him to arrange for us to stay in the same dormitory.

LAN Chu nodded in realization.

However, han Yina laughed and sneered. you even specially came to greet principal Yan. Who Do You Think You Are? "

...

When LAN Chu found out that he was in the same dormitory as Shi qinglan, his eyes curved into crescent moons. However, when he heard han Yina's sarcastic words, his smile gradually faded.

She was instantly like an angry kitten. Who are you? " han Yina, the daughter of the wealthy han family in the capital. She's from the medical school with the highest cut-off score. She introduced herself arrogantly.

LAN Chu was baffled. where is the Han family in the capital? "

She had lived in the capital for so many years, but she had never heard of it.

Upon hearing this, han Yina's eyes flashed a little unnaturally, but she still laughed contemptuously. how could a small family like yours have heard of our rich and powerful circle? " do you want me to introduce you to the Shi family and the Bo family? the two top tycoons in the capital are the Shi family and the Bo family. Although our han family isn't the top family, we're not bad either. I'm even friends with the Shi family's daughter.

LAN Chu's eyes became even more confused.

She turned to look at Shi qinglan, only to see the girl's eyebrows raised slightly, as if she did not know her.

"There's a pancake." LAN Chu couldn't help but Mutter.

Han Yina couldn't be bothered to argue with them. Anyway, these people didn't understand the rich and powerful families in the imperial capital. No matter how much she fabricated her life experience, it wouldn't be exposed by these commoners.

...

"Xiao Qingqing, let's ignore her." LAN Chu held her arm.

Shi qinglan's Red lips curved up slightly. go and pack your things. Once you're done, we'll go for a walk around the campus.

283 Bo Yucheng, chatting happily with other young hunks?

On the campus of Imperial University.

LAN Chu's pink dress accentuated her Lotus-like calves, making her look adorable. She held Shi qinglan's arm and jumped around, feeling excited and curious no matter what she saw.

Her pink lips curved slightly, and she suddenly moved closer to the girl and whispered in her ear, " Xiao Qingqing, let me tell you a secret ...

"What?" Shi qinglan's voice rose slightly.

LAN Chu's eyes sparkled as she whispered to her, "I'm married to Bai Yuchen.

Hearing this, Shi qinglan's eyes flashed with surprise.

She looked at LAN Chu with a slight frown. you've collected your marriage certificate? "

In China, the age for marriage was 18 for a girl and 20 for a boy. The two of them were indeed old enough.

LAN Chu bit her lip and mumbled softly, " just ... Anyway, Bai Yuchen tricked us into getting our marriage certificate."

When she said this, her cheeks were slightly red, and her eyes were a little uncomfortable, but there was more sweetness in her shyness.

"Are you willing to marry him?" Shi qinglan asked softly.

In fact, she could tell that LAN Chu loved him very much. However, there was still a gap between the two of them, which made her worried.

LAN Chu nodded gently, " I ... You're willing, right?"

Although the marriage registration was a little sudden, they were already engaged. She had always subconsciously thought that she would marry him in the future, so when they really got married ...

In addition to the sweetness in her heart, it was more natural.

Shi qinglan patted her head gently. as long as you're willing. Otherwise, I'll help you break his legs.

Upon hearing this, LAN Chu looked up at the girl with a smile.

Xiao Qingqing, you're the best! she said in a sweet voice.

Even if Bai Yuchen bullied her, she would not be afraid, because she knew that Xiao Qingqing would always be standing behind her.

The two girls strolled around the picturesque campus.

One pink shadow was soft and cute, while the other white shadow was elegant. They would undoubtedly attract the attention of the students who came and went.

"Junior?" A clear and gentle voice sounded.

Shi qinglan felt a sense of familiarity, so she turned back to look.

When the girl looked back, her red lips curved into a smile. Her soft, seaweed-like black hair fluttered behind her shoulders with her movements. The elegant white figure had a high temperament, and when she looked back, her smile was charming ...

Lin Heze's eyes froze slightly, and his heart rippled.

He lifted his lips slightly and walked towards the two girls with his long legs. what a coincidence, I see you here again.

"Senior Lin." Shi qinglan's Red lips smiled.

LAN Chu blinked his eyes in confusion and looked at them with his head tilted. You guys ..."

Lin Heze gentlemanly introduced himself, " Hello, junior. My name is Lin Heze, I'm from the law school in my second year.

my name is LAN Chu. I'm a new student at the Art Institute. Senior, you know Xiao Qingqing? " LAN Chu nodded.

"Xiao Qingqing?" Lin Heze looked at her in confusion.

Then, he looked at Shi qinglan and remembered that he had forgotten to ask for her name. He chuckled and said, "we should be considered acquaintances.

"I just came to school and couldn't find the dormitory. It was this senior Lin who led the way." Shi qinglan explained to LAN Chu.

LAN Chu nodded like a chicken pecking at rice.

Shi qinglan smiled sweetly. She felt that it would be rude if she did not introduce herself. I'm Shi qinglan from the medical school.

Lin Heze nodded lightly. that's a nice name.

He raised his chin slightly, and the warm sunlight shone on his white face, outlining his warm outline. His side profile had a sense of purity that was unique to a teenager.

"Are you guys walking around the campus?" He asked gently, " I just finished my shift as a volunteer and I'm free now. Do you need my senior to walk around with you? "

Lin Heze chuckled. what if you get lost again? "

At the mention of getting lost, Shi qinglan touched the tip of her nose uneasily, her eyes darting away.

Before she could reply, LAN Chu nodded. Xiao Qingqing and I have been walking around this place for a few rounds. I didn't expect her to be so bad at directions ..."

Shi qinglan was speechless. He refused to admit it.

She was just not familiar with Imperial University.

Lin Heze smiled gently. then I'll show you around. Actually, there are many famous scenic spots in our school ...

Boys from Law School were always popular in University.

After all, a liberal arts background was much more attractive than a Science and Technology man, and Lin Heze was the man of the moment in their batch. He entered Law School as the top scorer and received a lot of scholarships.

Not only was he the president of the Student Union, but he was also the president of the debate club. With his gentlemanly posture and gentle tone, he could refute the other side's debater until he was speechless.

In addition to his clean and handsome appearance, he attracted many fangirls in Imperial University, but he was still single.

Therefore, the matter of Lin Heze accompanying his junior sister to walk around the campus ...

It also quickly spread throughout the Imperial University.

Bo chucheng knew that the girl was reporting for school today, so he specially drove to Imperial University to look for her. After looking around the huge campus, he finally found her beautiful figure ...

At this moment, Shi qinglan was talking and laughing with Lin Heze.

Lin Heze gently introduced, " there are many interesting clubs in Imperial University. If you're interested, you can participate in the club culture Festival in October. My debate club welcomes you.

...

"Debate club?" LAN Chu muttered in a low voice.

She pouted her pink lips. if I were to participate in the debate, I'd probably anger the other party to death.

Lin Heze raised his eyebrows slightly. why? "

"Because I'm full of nonsense! it's the most unwise thing to reason with a woman. I think debating is the same ~"LAN Chu's little expression was a little proud.

Lin Heze couldn't help but chuckle helplessly, and the two of them chatted happily.

Bo Li Cheng's deep eyes looked at the three people walking side by side, a strong sense of jealousy gradually spreading in his heart ...

He leaned lazily against a tree, his red lips curved into a smile from the girl's anger. Then he lowered his head and took out his phone, typed a few words on the screen and sent a message.

Shi qinglan's phone suddenly vibrated.

She lowered her gaze and took out her phone. Bo Yucheng's words were filled with jealousy. you had a good time chatting with other young hunks? "

Seeing this, Shi qinglan suddenly raised her eyes.

Lin Heze sensed that something was wrong with her, and he turned to ask, " what's wrong with little junior sister Shi? "

...

Shi qinglan's beautiful eyes scanned her surroundings. The man was tall and dressed in a suit, leaning against a tree. His elegant and Noble aura stood out, and she found him very quickly.

The girl pursed her red lips. I have something to do.

"Eh?" LAN Chu blinked her eyes in confusion.

Shi qinglan retracted her gaze and looked at Lin Heze. . 'm sorry, senior. I have to take my leave, but ... Can I trouble you to send little Chu 'er back to the dormitory?"

"It's fine." Lin Heze nodded lightly and did not ask further. leave this to me.

After Shi qinglan thanked him, she ran towards Bo Li city in small steps.

284 Bo Li Cheng, you want to get married?

Shi qinglan's footsteps were light and quick, like a small butterfly pouncing towards Bo Zhicheng. ah Cheng, why are you here? "

A bright smile hung on her pretty face.

She even took the initiative to hold the man's arm, her beautiful eyes blinking.

Bo Yucheng pinched the girl's chin and gently lifted her face. you had a great time chatting with a young and handsome senior, huh? "

His low and hoarse voice was overflowing with jealousy.

Shi qinglan sniffed the air and felt it was sour. She took the initiative and wrapped her arms around the man's waist. no, ah-Cheng is the most handsome man in the universe.

Bo Li Cheng was so angry that he smiled slightly.

He lowered his head and gently bit her lips as a punishment. Then, he warned her by her ear, " if I don't leave a mark on you, people won't know that you're a married woman.

Shi qinglan licked her lips gently.

Her red lips had been slightly bitten, and there was a faint taste of blood, but it did not hurt much.

"Are you jealous?" she teased playfully.

Bo Yucheng's long arm was around the girl's waist, and he gently pinched her soft waist. what if you're jealous? "

"Compensate me?" The man's deep voice rang in her ears, and that magnetic voice had a bit of enchantment.

Shi qinglan recalled the night he had made her cry ...

She subconsciously rubbed her waist and immediately stretched out her fingers to swear, "I promise that I will put an end to all peach blossoms while I'm in college. I will never make my boyfriend jealous again.

"Change your words." Bo Yicheng's Red lips parted slightly.

"Change what word?" Shi qinglan blinked her eyes.

She recalled what she had just said in a daze. She didn't think there was anything wrong with the words.

However, the man said, " it's my fiancé ... Bo chicheng is Shi qinglan's fiancé."

Upon hearing this, Shi qinglan's face turned pink.

She gently bit her pink lips and avoided the man's gaze when she looked up at him. She recalled that LAN Chu had already registered her marriage with Bai Yuchen ...

"You didn't propose, didn't propose, and didn't even give me any betrothal gifts. Where did you get a fiancé?" The girl couldn't help but Mutter.

Bo Yicheng laughed softly. you want to get married? "

Shi qinglan instantly felt like her tail had been stepped on, and she exploded like a little wild cat. who wants to get married!

The man's Red lips curved up slightly, but he did not expose her thoughts.

His large palm gently stroked the girl's head, his slender and white fingers casually running through her hair, helping her comb it one by one.

"There's no hurry." Bo Yicheng said in a deep voice, " your family just found you and can't bear to marry you off.

He wanted to gain some favorability in front of the Shi family ...

He would wait until the right time to ask for her hand in marriage. Otherwise, it would be difficult to marry her if he acted rashly.

"I'm not in a hurry." Shi qinglan mumbled.

Bo Yucheng accompanied the girl to walk around the campus for a while, then sent her to the dormitory. aren't you coming with me to stay at the qinglan waterside Pavilion? "

Shi qinglan gently pursed her red lips.

She thought about it for a while and winked at him. the school requires accommodation during the military training. After it's over, I'll move out secretly and sneak to the qinglan waterside Pavilion to find you.

"Alright," he said. Bo Yicheng's voice was low and hoarse as he responded softly.

He had finally waited until the girl went to college. This way, she would have a reason to leave home and return to their qinglan waterside Pavilion.

He cupped her face in his hands and lowered his head to kiss the girl's lips. Their hot breaths intertwined ...

Pan wanye happened to come to the balcony to dry her clothes.

When she saw Shi qinglan kissing a man outside the dormitory building, her pupils shrank in surprise, and some emotions flashed through her eyes.

The man was dressed in a suit and leather shoes, and he was wearing an extremely luxurious watch that was worth about eight figures on his cold white wrist. His temperament was elegant and Noble, and he looked like he was definitely not a simple character ...

However, pan wanye did not stay on the balcony for long.

She quickly dried her clothes and returned to the dormitory. She closed the balcony door and looked so natural as if she had not seen anything.

Bo Yucheng finally let go of the girl reluctantly and kissed her gently between her eyebrows. hurry back to the dormitory.

"Yes, yes." Shi qinglan's face was slightly red. She nodded slightly, then turned around and walked into the dormitory Hall.

Pan wanye was sitting at the desk reading a book at the moment. Even when the girl came back, she did not ask anything ...

The military training that every college student had to go through arrived as scheduled.

The next morning, a piercing whistle suddenly pierced the sky, waking up the students who were sleeping.

all students, gather on the field! The broadcast in the dormitory sounded, echoing with the chief instructor's deep, demonic voice.

Shi qinglan had always been a light sleeper ...

When she heard the whistle, she suddenly opened her eyes. There was a faint drowsy look in her eyes, but she quickly woke up.

She nimbly got off the bed and gently pushed LAN Chu. little Chu, you're up. The military training is calling for you to gather.

"Oh ..." LAN Chu muttered softly.

She sat up unwillingly and rubbed her sleepy eyes. ah, it's only so early. Why are you gathering? "

All of a sudden, there was no notice at all.

...

Shi qinglan patted her head gently. be good, get up.

After that. she changed into the military training suit that she received yesterday. LAN Chu also changed into it in. daze, but his belt was tied messily. Xiao Qingqing ...

The girl pouted her pink lips and began to act coquettishly.

Shi qinglan had no choice but to help her tie her belt. The other two roommates had also changed their clothes. Han Yina was very anxious after being woken up, but pan wanye's face was expressionless.

All the students had gathered on the field!

Every ten dormitories formed a company of soldiers, half male and half female. The chief Instructor strolled solemnly in front of the dense square formation. from now on, the military training for the new students of Imperial University officially begins!

"The instructors will be reporting to each company soon. Before that, everyone stand in a standard military posture! I'm sure you've all learned it during military training in middle school!"

Imperial University's strict military training was well-deserved.

The students had already woken up in a daze and gathered together. Now, they were forced to stand in a military posture, but they did not dare to complain.

Shi qinglan straightened her back slightly. She had received even more rigorous training at the pure world Pavilion, so she stood tall and straight when she stood in the military posture. Her tall figure was even more outstanding at this moment.

“Xiao Qingqing, you’re so powerful ...” LAN Chu mumbled.

...

She couldn’t keep her hand close to the thread on her pants, and she would let go once she relaxed.

Han Yina rolled her eyes disdainfully and sneered. what’s there to be proud of when you’re standing in a military stance ...

Shi qinglan ignored him and only pouted her red lips.

At this moment, the instructors began to report to the companies one after another. The girl looked up and saw a tall figure ...

The man was wearing an army green uniform, his posture straight and outstanding, and he strode towards her with his long legs.

285 The new instructor turned out to be yingluo

It was Shi qinglan’s first time seeing Bo Li Cheng in a military uniform.

The man’s figure was tall and straight, and his army green uniform perfectly outlined his long body. His shoulders were wide and his waist was narrow, and his legs were long and slender, revealing a hint of abstinence.

“Wei is dead! ‘This ...’ He’s too handsome!”

“Oh my God, what kind of godly instructor is this! This man has captured my heart and softened my legs. I’m going to faint ...”

“F * ck! Even if I’m a man, I’m convinced by her looks!”

“I can’t take it anymore, my nose is bleeding ... My breath is flowing out from my nose.”

There was a flurry of discussion in the company. The girls were undoubtedly infatuated, and even the boys felt a sense of admiration when they saw the man in the military uniform.

Shi qinglan's beautiful eyes were glistening.

She raised her eyes to look at the god-like body, and her red lips curved up slightly without a trace.

LAN Chu also blinked her eyes in confusion. She tugged at the corner of the girl's clothes. Xiao Qingqing, isn't this ...

After all, the situation was not appropriate, so she did not finish her sentence.

Shi qinglan replied softly, "I didn't know it would be him either.

LAN Chu immediately revealed an expression of realization. She blinked her eyes excitedly at the girl and her pink lips curled up into an auntie's smile.

Hehehe got it, got it, she knew everything ~

"From today onwards, I will be your instructor." Bo Yicheng's deep voice slowly emerged from his throat. your surname is Bo.

The magnetic male voice instantly mesmerized a group of girls, and they screamed again and again. It was unknown how many Wayne had died.

Bo Li Cheng's voice and aura were too cold.

His cold and hard face revealed a few suitable edges. There was not much emotion between his brows, which made him look even more manly in his military uniform. His self-introduction was also concise and straightforward.

"Now, we'll get into a military stance."

The man's long and narrow eyes narrowed slightly. He lowered his head and glanced at the timer in his large palm. half an hour.

Upon hearing this, the girls instantly adjusted their posture and stood straight.

In the face of the handsome instructor, they had no complaints about the military posture. In fact, each of them was more serious than the other.

Han Yina's gaze towards Bo Li Cheng was filled with admiration.

She had been extremely repulsed by the military training, worried that her delicate face would be tanned, but she did not expect the instructor to be so handsome!

Therefore, she subconsciously held her head high and puffed out her chest, trying to attract the instructor's attention ...

Shi qinglan's Red lips curved slightly, and her beautiful eyes were smiling.

She lifted her pretty face slightly and stood in a standard military posture, but her eyes were wandering around the man's body, and she even threw him a flirtatious look.

"Some students, please don't look around."

Bo Li Cheng strode steadily as he patrolled the company. When he saw the girl flirting with his eyes, he reminded her heartlessly in a deep voice.

Shi qinglan opened her eyes and looked at him. Her clear eyes seemed to be saying, "you actually dare to be fierce to me?"

Bo Yicheng's Red lips curled up slightly. the first female student from the right in the second row, look straight ahead and don't look around.

The man said as he walked to the side of the second row.

Shi qinglan almost wanted to step on his military boots, but she could not do so because there were other students around.

"This student seems to have a lot of opinions about me."

Bo Yicheng's deep voice rang in her ears. He bent over slightly and his large palm suddenly wrapped around the girl's hand.

Shi qinglan instantly felt a little electric current running through her fingertips.

She felt like she was having an affair in public, so she subconsciously wanted to pull her hand away, but the man held on tightly.

The man's voice was calm and emotionless. stick your middle fingers to the middle of your pants, and keep your fingers straight.

As he spoke, he proudly corrected the girl's standard posture that didn't need to be corrected.

Shi qinglan gave the instructor a sidelong glance. I know.

"You have to shout 'report'." Bo Li Cheng said unhurriedly.

Shi qinglan widened her eyes and stared at him. Her clear eyes were filled with displeasure, but the man slowly straightened his back, acting like an instructor who had no desire to live and did whatever he wanted.

The girl bit her lip. report.

"Yes." Bo Li Cheng nodded slightly in satisfaction.

He casually walked away from the girl and pretended to check on the other students' military postures.

Pan wanye had recognized this man long ago. She had accidentally seen him kissing Shi qinglan on the balcony before ...

An unfathomable emotion flashed in her eyes.

ah ah ah, the instructor touched her hand. I want to be touched too ...

I'm going crazy. The instructor is too gentle to personally correct the student's military posture. The way he held his hand was so seductive!

Two girls standing behind Shi qinglan were whispering to each other.

When they saw Bo Zicheng pass by, they also secretly bent their fingers and moved their hands away from the seam of their pants for correction ...

However, the man only glanced at her coldly and warned her coldly, "your posture is not up to standard. You'll be punished for another five minutes.

Hearing this, LAN Chu couldn't help but chuckle.

...

Bo Yucheng indifferently swept his gaze over and recognized her as Bai Yuchen's dainty wife who had once occupied his wife's bed.

"You'll also be penalized for an additional five minutes for violating company discipline."

LAN Chu could not laugh anymore. She pouted her pink lips and looked at Shi qinglan coquettishly.

Bo Yicheng's cold lips parted slightly. you'll be fined another five minutes for looking around.

LAN Chu was speechless. Blue shiitake mushroom.

If you have the ability, go and punish your wife!

The sun at the end of August was still bright and warm. and the military training suit was stuffy with long sleeves and long pants. After standing in the military posture for half an hour, many students were already sweating.

"Time's Up." Bo Yicheng's deep voice rang out.

The man's tone was calm and slow. other than the three students who are going to be punished, the rest of you will rest for ten minutes.

Upon hearing this, the students instantly relaxed and moved around.

One of them reported to her and went to get a glass of water. Pan wanye took out a cooling sticker to share. everyone can stick this on your body. It'll be more comfortable with the cooling effect.

...

The students thanked him profusely and shed tears of gratitude.

Pan wanye also gave Shi qinglan a cooling sticker. qinglan, this is for you.

"Thank you," she said. Shi qinglan's lips curved.

Pan wanye chuckled and asked casually, " it's alright, but qinglan, do you know the instructor? "

Hearing this, Shi qinglan's eyebrows raised slightly.

The curve on her lips gradually disappeared as she looked at the girl. I don't know her. Why are you asking this? "

Pan wanye smiled and shook her head. it's nothing. I just felt that he seemed to take extra care of you when you were standing in the military position just now.

"Did I?" Shi qinglan shifted her gaze away without a trace.

Pan wanye didn't ask any more questions and continued to post to cool down the other students, while han Yina took the opportunity to brag to everyone.

"Hello everyone, which Academy are you from?"

She put on the cooling pad that pan wanye had given her and even used a small fan to cool her face. She touched her slightly red skin and gossiped with the others.

286 Bo Yucheng, I heard that someone is trying to woo my wife?

The new students were always very active.

After all, they had come to an unfamiliar city and were starting a new life in the University that they had been looking forward to for a long time. The students they had met during the military training were the first company they had when they first arrived in an unfamiliar environment.

“Hmph, I became a man of science and Technology under the coercion of my parents.”

I’m in finance. My mother said that this is a good way to make money. I don’t think my family has much to inherit ...

wuwuwu Mathematics Department. Just thinking about it makes my head go bald!

I’m in the chemical industry. I wanted to apply to medical school, but I didn’t deserve to get the highest score at Imperial University ...

The students started to talk about the Department.

Every major in the University had its own shortcomings, but the common characteristic was that they all made people bald.

Han Yina was surprised. ah, you like medicine too? Coincidentally, I’m from the medical school with the highest cut-off point!”

Hearing this, Shi qinglan gave him a sidelong glance.

Then, han Yina continued to boast, ” I’ve wanted to study medicine since I was young. When I was in my first year of high school, my goal was to study at the Imperial University’s medical school. Fortunately, my hard work paid off. No matter how high the cut-off score was, I still succeeded.

No ordinary person could enter Imperial University.

Hearing han Yina’s words, some people inevitably felt a little uncomfortable. getting into medical school isn’t necessarily the best.

my score is more than enough to apply for medical school, but I still prefer media, so I applied for news transmission.

even the noob here has to score at least 680 points. This student here, do you have a full score? why are you acting so cool? ”

Han Yina’s words inevitably caused some anger.

However, she pouted nonchalantly. you have so many excuses for not being able to get into medical school. What a bunch of lemons.

She felt that the medical school was the best in the capital University, so she thought that the students who mocked her were jealous.

The first two students who were punished had already finished.

However, LAN Chu was still standing as a punishment. Her petite body was forced to stand straight, and a few drops of sweat slid down her pink face.

“Xiao Qingqing ...” The girl pouted.

“Be good, I’ll fan you.” Shi qinglan could not open the back door for her, so she fanned the door beside her.

LAN Chu felt extremely wronged. She knew that Bo Li Cheng was taking revenge on her on purpose. When she went back, she was going to complain to her husband!

“Xiao Qingqing, he bullied me on purpose.” The girl mumbled in a low voice, her black grape-like eyes overflowing with tears.

Shi qinglan smiled. I know, I know. I’ll teach him a lesson for you after the military training.

LAN Chu nodded her head like a chicken pecking at rice. If she could move now, she would raise her hands and feet in agreement.

Shi qinglan continued to fan her ...

Bo Zhicheng stood tall, his hands behind his back as he patrolled the company. His eyes inadvertently swept over the girl, and his red lips curled up slightly.

“The instructor laughed! He’s actually smiling!”

Oh my God, he’s making my heart melt with laughter ...

but why do I feel like the instructor is smiling at that girl? she’s the one who touched her hand because of her improper military posture.

I think I’ve seen her before on the day of registration. She was wearing a white dress and I thought she was a fairy. She’s really beautiful!

I don’t know her name ... I want to chase.”

One of the boys looked at Shi qinglan with a dull gaze. He was attracted by her soul-stirring demeanor and muttered, ”

However, he immediately felt a cold intent rising from his body.

Bo Li Cheng’s long and narrow eyes suddenly narrowed, and he coldly swept his gaze over the boy, his black ink-like eyes exuding a dangerous aura.

"Now, everyone gather." He said in a deep voice.

The boy inexplicably felt a cold air sweep over him and climb up his back. Goosebumps appeared on his arms.

When he heard the instructor call for them to gather, he got up and subconsciously looked in that direction, just in time to meet the man's cold eyes!

hiss ... he couldn't help but draw in a cold breath.

That's strange. Why did I suddenly feel so cold in August?

Bo ye Cheng's thin lips pursed into a line. He looked at the boy with a deep gaze. all the boys will run five kilometers with weights while the girls will jog two laps around the field.

The boys' eyes widened in shock.

They looked at the sandbag in shock and instantly wailed, " the instructor suddenly became ruthless ...

"There's no justice in being handsome, and there's also no justice in giving orders!"

I love the instructor so much. The difference between men and women is too big. The boys carry weights while the girls jog slowly, and the boys run five kilometers while the girls run one kilometer.

the instructor is handsome and considerate of girls ~"

The boys complained as they went to the assistant instructors to get sandbags. Most of them were not delicate and wanted to leave a good impression in front of the girls during the military training. Although they said that they were unwilling, they were still very active when they moved.

Only the boy Bo Li Cheng was staring at ...

Just as he was about to bend over to get the sandbag, a military boot suddenly stepped on the sandbag he wanted to get.

The boy was stunned. He looked up at him. teach ... The instructor."

"Take this," Bo Li Cheng used his military boot to kick the other sandbag, the heaviest one of all.

The thin boy almost fainted on the spot.

...

But he didn't dare to refute at all. He bent down to pick up the sandbag and carried it on his body with great effort, almost breaking his thin waist.

"He's too weak," Bo Li Cheng said coldly and heartlessly.

The boy who was suddenly attacked almost vomited blood. He looked at him with tears in his eyes. instructor ...

Bo Zhicheng expressionlessly shifted his gaze away. She was so weak that she was not worthy of being his love rival. He was too lazy to bother with her.

The boy picked up the sandbag and ran with weights while crying.

The girls also consciously gathered into a small square formation. Just as they were about to run around in the field, they suddenly heard a scream.

"Ah! Someone fainted!"

This ear-piercing scream instantly attracted everyone's attention.

"What's going on?" Bo Li Cheng strode into the crowd.

He squinted his eyes and glanced around. He saw a girl who had fainted on the ground for some reason. She was clearly unconscious.

The other girls around her retreated and circled around her. They didn't dare to touch her, but they were curious.

...

"Did you get a heat stroke? what should we do?" The girls felt anxious and helpless when they saw this.

Someone said, "she was right beside me when I was standing in the military position just now. I saw that she was already uncomfortable at that time.

"Call the medical team." Bo Li Cheng ordered in a deep voice.

The two girls nodded and went together.

Fortunately, Imperial University had a medical team for the military training, but it would take some time to find them.

Shi qinglan's charming eyes narrowed slightly.

She looked down at the girl who had fainted and felt that it was not a simple heat stroke. She was about to go up to the first aid ...

However, she suddenly heard a girl say, " isn't that han Yina the top student who got into medical school with super high scores? The medical team won't be here for a while, so why don't you come and help!"

Upon hearing this, han Yina broke out in a cold sweat.

287 Shi qinglan really thinks she's the reincarnation of a miracle doctor!

Han Yina stood there helplessly.

She clutched the corner of her clothes gently with both hands, and her palms couldn't help but break out in cold sweat. I ... I ..."

"What are you still doing there? Didn't they say that he liked medicine since he was young? Don't tell me you haven't even studied basic first aid?"

that's right. He was just acting cool and saying that he was amazing!

Han Yina bit her lip tightly.

She felt extremely embarrassed when she heard these words. Her face could not help but turn red. She opened her mouth and argued, " I'm just a freshman who just entered the University. I haven't started to systematically study medical knowledge!

"I ... It's not that I don't know first aid, but the medical team is coming soon. We can just wait for them!"

However, even though she was quibbling, the others still mocked her. However, they were more concerned about the girl's condition.

But at this moment, a crisp voice sounded ...

"Get out of the way." Shi qinglan's Red lips parted.

The students looked over and saw the girl standing outside the circle with her hands in the pockets of her military pants.

She only opened her mouth to say two words, but her whole body inadvertently revealed a sharp edge. The girl's temperament was elegant and otherworldly, and the unquestionable tone in her voice inexplicably made people submit to her.

Everyone subconsciously made way for her ...

Shi qinglan walked in and looked down at the girl who had fainted. Just as she was about to squat down to check, han Yina suddenly grabbed her. what are you doing? ”

“Let go.” Shi qinglan’s beautiful eyes narrowed.

Han Yina refused to let go. the medical team will be here soon. You’re just a new medical student like me, and you’re not even proficient in medicine. What are you doing here, acting all high and mighty? what if you cause trouble? ”

Upon hearing this, Shi qinglan frowned slightly.

She couldn’t be bothered to argue with han Yina, so she simply shook off her arm and squatted down beside the patient.

“What is she doing ... To save people?”

I think so. But at least he’s much stronger than han Yina. At least he’s willing to give it a try.

“Be quiet.” The girl’s Red lips parted slightly, and her voice was cold.

Although her classmates didn’t know if they could believe her, the medical team wasn’t here yet, and they found out from han Yina that she was from a medical school, so it wouldn’t be a problem to let her try.

Everyone held their breath and looked at her.

Shi qinglan’s eyes drooped slightly, and her soft, seaweed-like hair slid down her shoulder to the front of her body. Her Jade-like slender fingers gently rested on the girl’s wrist, and her eyes focused on feeling her pulse.

The patient shivered slightly and occasionally spoke nonsense. He was in a coma at the moment.

“It’s not a heat stroke.” She spoke her judgment.

She retracted her hand from the girl’s wrist and used the back of her hand to test the temperature of the girl’s forehead. She turned her head slightly to look at Bo Li Cheng. if we wait for the medical team to arrive, we might be late.

Bo Yicheng’s voice was deep and clear. you save her.

He trusted the girl unconditionally and believed in her medical skills even more.

Shi qinglan nodded gently. Her beautiful eyes scanned the surrounding students and suddenly noticed a hairpin in LAN Chu's hair. She stood up and took it off. I'm borrowing it.

no problem. Xiao Qingqing, you can use it however you want! LAN Chu nodded like a chicken pecking at rice, smiling with his eyes curved.

It was an exquisite and resplendent Pearl hairpin.

The design was similar to a brooch, with a very thin silver brooch on the back. Shi qinglan did not carry the needles needed for acupuncture with her, so she could only use this thing as a replacement.

Shi qinglan rolled up the patient's sleeves, revealing a section of her snow-white arm. Just as she was about to perform the acupuncture on her ...

"Shi qinglan, what are you doing!" Han Yina immediately stopped him.

She knew that Shi qinglan was a medical student, but she was still a little flustered. what if you kill her? " What was he doing? Acupuncture? What if I make a mistake?"

Shi qinglan looked at her with a half-smile.

She curled her lips and her charming eyes were filled with certainty. I've never inserted the wrong needle.

Han Yina obviously didn't believe what he said.

She grabbed Shi qinglan's wrist and said, " no, the medical team will be here soon. If anything happens to this girl in your hands, the entire medical school of Imperial University will be embarrassed.

He would rather this girl not be rescued in time than ruin his reputation.

After all, Shi qinglan was from a medical school. If she caused any trouble, han Yina might be dragged down with her.

heatstroke accompanied by acute abdominal pain, fear of the cold, shiver, fever, and delirium. The initial judgment is acute cholecystitis. If this disease is not treated in time, it is easy to cause infection. Will you be responsible? "

Shi qinglan's voice was slightly cold, and when she looked at han Yina, there was a little coldness in her eyes. The determination in her eyes was obvious, and it gave people an invisible sense of oppression.

Han Yina stammered, " you ... How did you know? How can you tell with just these symptoms?"

Shi qinglan's eyes narrowed slightly, too lazy to explain.

Of course, she couldn't make a complete judgment based on these symptoms alone, so she first checked the pulse of the girl who had fainted.

The illness was rather urgent, and it was accompanied by a heat stroke, which was somewhat dangerous.

han Yina is really annoying!

I'd rather let this little sister try. She looks beautiful and kind, and she seems to be very confident.

"The situation is so urgent, let her try!"

that's right. It's much better than just waiting for the medical team to come. What if we miss the best time for rescue? "

The students around them could not help but start discussing. They were unhappy with han Yina for stopping Shi qinglan from saving the girl.

...

"Are you going to let go or not?" She was getting impatient.

Bo Zhicheng also narrowed his cold eyes. He turned his head slightly to look at the assistant Instructor, then raised his chin slightly to signal for them to take action.

Naturally, han Yina also heard the voices beside her. She also felt very uncomfortable to be gossiped about like this ...

Before the assistant Instructor could do anything, she immediately let go of Shi qinglan's wrist and said, " fine, let go. It's your responsibility to kill her anyway. Besides, I've already stopped you!

I don't believe that a broken hair clip can save people. Do you really think that you're the reincarnation of Hua Tuo and have medical skills? " if he's really that good at medicine, why would he come to college? he could have just gone to the hospital to treat people!

Han Yina crossed her arms in front of her chest and looked at Shi qinglan arrogantly, her eyes full of contempt and disdain.

Shi qinglan had no intention of paying her any attention.

He bent down and half-squatted beside the patient. His slightly cold fingers gently pressed on her arm, and after finding the acupuncture point, he swiftly applied the acupuncture.

The resplendent Pearl hair clip glittered under the sun ...

But at this moment, in the hands of the girl, it was a treasure to cure and save people. Her beautiful eyes were slightly focused, and her expression was serious. Her long, curled eyelashes cast a faint shadow at the bottom of her eyes.

...

Shi qinglan pursed her red lips and was very focused. Her Jade-like slender fingers pinched the needle behind the hair clip, and her wrist moved up and down very steadily. Someone could not help but take out their phone to secretly record ...

288 I will get principal Yan to punish you!

Shi qinglan was dressed in a military green military training uniform.

Her side profile was exquisite and charming, and the outline of her face was pretty and charming. At this moment, she looked even more charming when she was treating the patient.

Even the students from the neighboring company came over to watch ...

When the last needle fell, the tip of the needle was inserted into an acupuncture point on the patient's arm. He twisted it gently and turned it slightly.

"Pfft ..." The patient suddenly woke up.

She stood up and spat out a pool of black blood. Shi qinglan immediately kept the needle. At this moment, she suddenly heard an anxious voice, "make way, the teacher from the medical team is here!

Shi qinglan's rhythm was not disrupted by this exclamation.

She frowned slightly and placed her Jade-like fingers on the girl's wrist to feel her pulse. She could feel that the situation had temporarily stabilized.

she vomited blood. Why did she vomit blood ...

"Did I save the wrong person? I don't know much about acupuncture. Will something happen if I accidentally hit the wrong acupuncture point?"

I don't know. This pool of black blood looks really scary.

Everyone was talking about it worriedly. The medical team finally arrived and squeezed into the crowd. Then, they saw the patient vomit blood.

The teacher in the lead furrowed his brows. what's going on? ”

Han Yina was a little frightened by the pool of black blood. After a while, she came back to her senses. her! It was her! She said that she could save people, so she used a hair clip to randomly insert a few needles!”

Hearing this, the medical team teacher's expression became even more solemn.

The medical staff carrying the stretcher rushed over and immediately lifted the patient onto the stretcher. The girl had already woken up, but she was still in a daze, not knowing what had just happened.

“You claim to be able to cure and save people?” The medical team teacher looked at Shi qinglan. and then you caused her to become like this? ”

Upon hearing this, Shi qinglan frowned slightly.

Her red lips parted slightly. I didn't harm anyone. This girl has a heat stroke accompanied by acute abdominal pain. The initial diagnosis is that she might have acute cholecystitis. If she's not treated in time, the death rate of infection will be very high.

“If she didn't harm anyone, how did she vomit blood! Do you vomit blood easily when you have acute cholecystitis?” The teacher was furious.

The patient had already been taken away by the other medical staff.

The teacher glared at Shi qinglan. which Academy are you from? ” teacher, she's from a medical school, so she must have come into contact with some crooked medical skills before. I tried to stop her just now, but she insisted on acupuncture!

Han Yina said in a hurry. Not only did she push all the blame to Shi qinglan, but she also cast herself aside.

The girl who was being criticized had clear eyes and didn't react.

The teacher said angrily, ” medical school? Even a first-year student in a medical school dares to lie about being able to treat illnesses and save lives now?”

"I was the one who asked her to save me," Bo chicheng suddenly opened his mouth.

He strode over to the teacher and stood in front of Shi qinglan. He narrowed his eyes and said, "student Shi qinglan participated in the treatment with my permission.

The medical team's teacher looked at him in confusion.

"You?" He couldn't help but sneer. he's just an instructor. How can he compare to professional doctors like us? If you let her save her just because you said so, will you be responsible if something happens to the patient?"

Hearing this, Shi qinglan could not help but feel a little annoyed.

She was about to speak when she heard Bo Yucheng's cold voice. I was the one who asked her to save him. I'll take responsibility for anything that happens.

"Alright ... Good, good, good!" The teacher placed her hands on her hips. I will report this matter to principal Yan and the Dean of the medical school. You two can just wait to be punished!

As soon as he finished speaking, he suddenly turned around and left.

LAN Chu frowned slightly. She ran to Shi qinglan's side with her short legs and held her arm, shaking it gently. Xiao Qingqing, that girl just now should be fine, right? "

"I'm fine." Shi qinglan's Red lips curved up slightly.

She ruffled the girl's hair and consoled her gently, "you'll be fine after you spit out that mouthful of black blood. Don't worry.

Han Yina sneered sarcastically.

She sneered contemptuously. you still dare to brag at a time like this? aren't you afraid that you'll blow your own trumpet? "

Shi qinglan cast her a sidelong glance indifferently.

She didn't want to argue with han Yina, but LAN Chu stood on his tiptoes with his hands on his hips. He looked up at her, unwilling to admit defeat. if you're so capable, why didn't you save her just now? " my Xiao Qingqing has saved the person and you're making a lot of noise after the fact. Do you have any cat cakes? "

Han Yina rolled her eyes in anger. I'm not capable, but at least I won't make people vomit blood.

The two of them refused to give in and argued endlessly.

Fortunately, most of the students present were upright. They did not accuse Shi qinglan of making the person vomit blood. After all, many of them had agreed when she had wanted to save the person ...

Compared to throwing the blame, everyone was more worried about the girl's condition.

Because of Shi qinglan's incident, the company's military training had to be suspended for the day. The medical Teacher reported the incident to the academic Affairs office, and Shi qinglan received a notice of punishment.

"Wayaya, I'm so angry! They've gone too far!"

the medical team came so late that they almost delayed the first aid. Xiao Qingqing, you're so kind to save her, but you're still being punished!

LAN Chu was pacing back and forth in the dormitory with his hands on his waist. His small, porcelain-like face was flushed red from the anger.

Shi qinglan raised her brows slightly, looking nonchalant.

She was not surprised at all when she received the punishment notice, but she was not worried about it at all. Instead, she was thinking about Bo Li Cheng ...

Hmm, I'm curious what punishment he'll receive. He doesn't have a military rank in the Army, nor a title in the school. Is he going to be fined?

...

That's fine, a few hundred million Yuan fine shouldn't be a problem.

"Xiao Qingqing, why aren't you worried?" LAN Chu was so anxious that he stomped his feet. they're simply going too far!

Pan wanye chuckled. it's useless to worry now. If I had known that something would happen, I wouldn't have been so kind to save her.

"What do you mean by saving people out of goodwill?" Han Yina rolled her eyes.

She sneered contemptuously, "I think you just bragged too much, but you didn't expect to slap yourself in the face, did you?"

"Du, du, du-"

At this moment, there was a knock on the door.

The dormitory manager walked into the dormitory and sized up the four people inside. Shi qinglan is in this dormitory, right? ”

Shi qinglan raised her eyes when she heard that.

But before she could say anything, han Yina immediately answered for her, ” yes, she’s here. This is Shi qinglan!

As she spoke, she pointed at the girl rudely.

...

The dormitory manager nodded. the academic Affairs office just called and asked you to go over.

“I know. Thank you, teacher.” Shi qinglan responded.

She got up and wanted to leave, but LAN Chu grabbed the corner of her clothes. Xiao Qingqing, please be fine ...

“Believe me, it won’t happen.” Shi qinglan curled her lips.

After consoling the girl, she left the dormitory. Even when she was called for a conversation, her back was still sharp.

?289 Yan Hua, what happened?

The matter gradually fermented in the school.

Someone had posted a video of Shi qinglan saving a patient with acupuncture on the campus forum. The girl’s exquisite side profile had attracted a wave of fans, but then the patient spat out a mouthful of black blood ...

Everyone’s comments suddenly changed direction.

I thought she was a beautiful and kind little fairy. How did she end up like this? it’s so scary to vomit black blood!

Oh my God, don’t try to be brave if you don’t know medicine. What if a good girl is cured by. quack ...

you really can’t judge a book by its cover. On the day of registration, I heard that there’s a super good-looking freshman in our batch. I was looking forward to seeing a photo, but I didn’t expect to see it under such circumstances.

I also heard that she seduced senior Lin as soon as she arrived ...

"Which senior Lin? The president of the Student Union, Lin Heze? F * ck, I beg you, quack, don't Sully my Prince Charming!"

The campus forum was abuzz with discussion, and the other companies that had not suspended their military training also began to gossip during their break.

At the same time, in the academic Affairs office ...

Bo Yicheng sat lazily on the chair of the academic Affairs director, his long legs crossed casually. Although he was wearing a well-ironed military uniform, he looked a little unruly and wild at the moment.

"Stand up!" The Dean roared.

He had heard about what had happened today, so he had informed the instructor to come to the academic Affairs office to receive his punishment. He had not expected this man to be so presumptuous as to directly occupy his position.

Bo Yicheng's Red lips curled up slightly. Are you sure? "

His well-defined fingers gently rested on the desk, and he tapped it twice. The smile on his lips was a little cold. let me stand in front of you and listen to your reprimand ...

"I'm afraid you won't be able to handle it." The man's tone was wild.

The Dean of Academic Affairs was quite angry with him. He had been in the office for so many years and had followed many freshmen in military training, but he had never seen any instructor as presumptuous as him.

Bo Li Cheng's narrow eyes narrowed slightly.

He seemed nonchalant, but when he opened his mouth coldly. his words were vaguely vicious. I advise you to withdraw Shi qinglan's punishment, otherwise ... Be careful of your position as the head of teaching."

Upon hearing this, the director felt as if he had just heard the biggest joke in the world.

He had been the Dean for many years without any merits or mistakes, but he had put in a lot of hard work. He had slowly climbed his way through the ranks, so how could he be threatened by a small instructor?

"Are you threatening me?" The Dean sneered. alright, I'd like to see how my position as the Dean can be lost!

Shi qinglan doesn't have a medical certificate, and she saved someone without permission, causing the patient's condition to worsen with acupuncture. As an instructor, you connived his actions, and you even dared to be so disrespectful to me ...

"Even if I fire her, it'll be a light punishment! If the patient's family were to file a complaint, she might have to go to jail for a few years!"

"As for you, don't even think about military ranks! I'll inform the chief Instructor, so you don't have to stay in the Army anymore!"

Upon hearing this, Bo Li Cheng's dark eyes turned cold.

He raised his chin slightly and narrowed his eyes at the Dean. His cold lips parted slightly. you say ... You want to fire her?"

"They're just new students who haven't even entered the school yet. It's just military training and they've already caused me such a mess! What's wrong with firing her?" The Dean of Academic Affairs asked back.

Bo Li Cheng suddenly stood up, his black eyes filled with coldness. These words seemed to have touched his bottom line.

He did not care if he would be punished ...

After all, he wasn't from the Army to begin with. He only wanted to accompany the girl for military training, so he informed the school to be an instructor.

However, if the matter involved Shi qinglan, Bo Yucheng would always lose his mind easily. Anything related to girls was his bottom line that could not be crossed!

"Do you know who she is?" Bo Li Cheng said coldly.

He slowly approached the Dean, his deep eyes showing a bit of danger. Even the words that came out of his mouth were full of oppression. she ...

"Bang!" At this moment, the door was suddenly kicked open.

Shi qinglan kicked the door and walked into the office. She was elegant and cold.

She was a little annoyed by the disturbance, but she did not expect to see Bo Li Cheng when she walked in ...

The girl's figure clearly paused. She turned back slightly to look at the footprints on the door, then lowered her head and touched the tip of her nose. She didn't know if it was too late to retreat to the corridor and go in again.

Would Bo Li Cheng despise her for being too violent?

"You're here?" The man's Red lips curled up a little, and his voice turned from cold to pleasant.

Shi qinglan pursed her red lips and replied, " yes.

Bo Yicheng's cold eyes swept over the head of teaching, and he didn't continue to pay attention to him. He walked steadily to the girl. I will handle this matter.

He had come to Imperial University to protect the girl.

Now that something like this had happened on the first day of military training, if he could turn back time, he would still make the same choice and allow the girl to treat the patient with acupuncture, just because ...

He knew that she was a doctor and that she wanted to save him.

"I believe you." Shi qinglan's Red lips curved slightly.

There was. little certainty in her charming eyes. but ... I'll also settle this matter."

Bo Zhicheng raised his eyebrows slightly and raised his hand to caress her hair.

Seeing this, the Dean stomped his feet in anger. great, you two! I was wondering why this little instructor wanted to protect you for no reason. You guys actually dare to date!"

"An instructor falling in love with a student, that's another crime! Principal Yan will be here soon, you guys can just wait to be punished!"

Hearing this, the smile on Shi qinglan's lips disappeared.

Her eyes were cold as she narrowed her eyes and looked at the Dean. another crime? "

"Yes, I've committed another crime!" He said angrily.

Shi qinglan's lips curved into a half-smile. the premise of adding another crime is that I have to be guilty first. May I ask where I'm guilty? "

...

The Dean of Academic Affairs threw his phone on the desk.

The video of Shi qinglan's rescue had already gone viral on the school's internet and was currently playing on her phone screen.

pfft! the patient in the video spat out a mouthful of black blood.

The director of Academic Affairs used his finger to poke at the screen. this female student is still being treated in the hospital! He's in the middle of surgery! You're still not going to admit that you're in the wrong even now?"

of course, she needs surgery for acute cholecystitis. If I didn't save her in time, she would be lying in the mortuary right now, and the medical team of Imperial University would be the one to be punished!

Shi qinglan's voice was clear and melodious. Although she was still young, her words exuded a sense of Majesty that made people submit to her.

"You ..." The Dean's chest heaved in anger.

However, at this moment, a serious and steady voice suddenly sounded, " what exactly happened? "

Yan Hua then walked into the office with steady steps.

290 Yan Hua personally smacked Shi qinglan in the face

Yan Hua heard that a student had gotten into an accident during military training.

Before he had time to understand the cause and effect, he rushed to the office and was stunned when he saw the two people standing there as punishment.

He had a subtle expression. little ancestor? Why are you ..."

Shi qinglan's brows raised slightly. She slipped her hands into her pockets nonchalantly and looked at Yan Hua with a half-smile.

Yan Hua furrowed his brows slightly and turned to look at another big Buddha. When he saw Bo Li Cheng wearing a military uniform, his brows furrowed even more. This was clearly the uniform of the military training instructor of Imperial University.

principal Yan, you've come at the right time. We're waiting for you to be the judge of this matter! The Head of Department immediately walked up to Yan Hua.

Yan Hua asked in a low voice, " what exactly happened? " a student of the sixth company fainted during military training today. This student, Shi qinglan, doesn't have a legal first aid certificate or a medical certificate. She broke the rules and saved the patient just because she's a new medical student, " the Dean of Academic Affairs said sternly.

"The student vomited blood and was sent to the hospital. He's still in the operating room!"

as for this instructor, he's even more excessive. Not only does he condone such behavior, but as an instructor, he's also in a relationship with a student!

Like a machine gun, the Dean scolded the two from head to toe. His words were fierce but not exaggerated.

you don't have a physician's qualification certificate? " Yan Hua glanced sideways at Shi qinglan, only to see that the girl's eyes were as clear as mirrors.

However, no one had ever asked her for a medical certificate.

If the identity card was really taken out of the archives, the entire medical field would be shaken again. After all, not many people knew that the heir of the Medical Research Institute had just come of age.

"Principal Yan, how do you think we should handle this?"

their attitude towards admitting their mistakes is extremely bad. They don't even know who they are and even dare to talk back to me and threaten me!

Seeing the principal's serious expression, the Dean knew that the two criminals couldn't escape, so he began to complain even more.

However, Yan Hua suddenly became furious. who allowed you to punish these two people without permission? "

"Principal Yan?" The Dean looked at him in confusion.

Yan Hua took a deep breath. He was so angry that the veins on his forehead were throbbing. Shi qinglan is the top scorer in the National College entrance examination this time. I went through so much trouble to get her to come to Imperial University, and now you've caused me such a mess during the military training? "

Hearing this, the Dean couldn't help but be surprised.

He frowned and looked at Shi qinglan, sizing her up. her? " The top scorer with full marks on all subjects?"

Shi qinglan's Red lips curved up slightly.

The girl's features were like a painting, and at this moment, she was looking at the Dean with a sweet smile. This soul-stirring and charming appearance did not look like an invincible University bully at all.

“So what if he’s the top scorer of the college entrance examination?”

“Doesn’t the college entrance examination’s top scorer have to bear the responsibility for treating a patient and causing problems? Even for someone of President Jiang boning’s status, if he wanted to perform acupuncture to save someone, he would have to show his medical license first!”

“Who does she think she is? She was nothing, not even fit to be a nurse! You’re just a new medical student. Do you really think you’re the reincarnation of a godly doctor? you can just take out a hair clip and insert needles?”

“You shut up!” Yan Hua suddenly shouted.

He felt a terrible headache, and the blue veins on his forehead twitched in anger. He couldn’t help but raise his hand to his brow bone.

Yan Hua’s voice sank. director Zhou, you’d better not let me hear you say something like that a second time, especially in front of director Jiang. You’d better keep your mouth shut.

Director Zhou frowned. principal Yan, are you trying to cover for her? ”

“Cover up?” Yan Hua seemed to have heard a joke.

even Dean Jiang admires Shi qinglan’s medical skills, ” he growled. if she doesn’t have a medical license, I’m afraid that no doctor in the world is qualified to treat and save people!

Director Zhou widened his eyes in shock.

He seemed to have heard something incredible from Yan Hua. how is that possible? She’s just a freshman ...”

Yan Hua shook his head in despair.

He narrowed his eyes and looked at director Zhou. do you know who came up with the perverted end-of-term questions in our medical school for the past two years? ”

“Who ...” Director Zhou had a bad feeling in his heart.

Yan Hua turned to look at Shi qinglan, his eyes deep. those difficult questions were all set by Shi qinglan. Do you think a genius like him is worthy of saving people? ” Could he be considered the reincarnation of a divine doctor? Will there be any problems with the treatment?”

Director Zhou’s eyes were still filled with disbelief.

Shi qinglan was just an 18-year-old girl. It was too much for Dean Jiang to admire her medical skills. He had also heard about the final exam two years ago ...

At that time, she was only 16 years old, and an underage girl gave a group of Masters and even PhDs from medical schools an exam question?

but the patient clearly vomited blood after she applied the acupuncture ...

“Ring!” At this moment, the phone rang.

Director Zhou was in a daze for a moment. He immediately strode over and picked up the phone. Hello, this is the academic Affairs office of Imperial University.

this is Imperial hospital. I’m calling to inform you that the patient with acute cholecystitis that you sent in today has had a very successful surgery. Fortunately, she was rescued in time. Otherwise, such a dangerous situation might have been life-threatening.

The person on the other end of the phone said, ” I’d like to ask who performed the acupuncture on the patient. Could you please ask her to come to the hospital? the prognosis of the next surgery may require this doctor’s participation in a consultation.

Director Zhou was a little dazed.

He looked up at Shi qinglan in. daze. Even though he had personally received a call from the imperial capital hospital, he still felt that this matter was. little surreal. but ... But ...”

“May I ask if there’s something that’s difficult for your school to disclose?”

“No.” Director Zhou was dumbfounded. it’s just that the people who participated in the rescue were only freshmen from our school ...

After hearing this, the people from the Imperial hospital were silent for a long time.

After a long while, the other party said in surprise, ” Imperial University is indeed a gathering place for geniuses. It turns out that even the medical attainments of the freshmen in your University are comparable to that of a Chinese doctor? ”

Director Zhou was speechless.

...

He was at a loss for words, but no matter how much he wanted to refuse, the imperial capital hospital still insisted on inviting Shi qinglan over. Director Zhou had no choice but to agree.

After hanging up the phone, he still felt a little puzzled ...

since Shi qinglan really knows medicine, it's against the rules for instructors to be in a relationship with students. Shouldn't they be punished? ”

Yan Hua massaged his throbbing temples.

He closed his eyes and said deeply, ” punishment? Why don't you first ask who this instructor is? if you dare to punish him, you can do it, and I'll let you be the principal!”

Director Zhou looked at Bo chicheng in confusion ...

The man's Red lips curled up slightly, and his handsome face revealed a hint of coldness. After hearing the voice, he casually raised his eyes.

His lips curled into a smile that sent chills down one's spine. I forgot to introduce myself. I'm the Bo financial magnate, Bo Zhicheng.
