321 Shi qinglan, you missed qingyue's performance!

Shi qinglan had changed her clothes and removed her makeup.

Her white shirt was clean and simple, matched with a blue denim skirt, revealing her long and fair legs. Her white shoes complemented her slender ankles, making her look youthful and beautiful.

Bo Li Cheng stared intently at this pair of legs ...

He wished he could wrap the suit jacket around her legs and hide her legs, but he didn't have the guts to do so now. After all, he had just made the girl unhappy because he had torn her dress.

"Can't I change my clothes?" His voice was a little hoarse.

Shi qinglan's beautiful eyes blinked, and her fingers pinched the hem of her dress. She looked at him in confusion. is there a problem? "

Wasn't this a summer's standard for girls?

Bo Li Cheng's dark eyes lingered on her legs. After. long time, he went against his conscience and said, " I don't have any."

"Then I'll go back to the audience?" The girl tilted her head.

"Yes." Bo Yucheng's Adam's apple bobbed a few times as he suppressed the urge to hide the girl's legs.

Shi qinglan's beautiful eyes blinked lightly, and she threw a flirtatious look at Bo Li Cheng, then skipped over to the audience seats through the passageway.

Of course, she knew that the man was jealous of this short skirt.

However, as a young woman in the new era, how could she change her style just because of her boyfriend's opinion?

"Sister LAN, why did you only come now? Where did you go just now?" When the company commander saw Shi qinglan finally appear in the audience, he immediately leaned over and said in a low voice, " I've been looking for you for a long time.

"What's wrong?" Shi qinglan turned to look at him.

She opened her eyes slightly. did something happen in the company? Don't tell me the chief Instructor came to take attendance and found out that I wasn't around?"

The company commander was a man of science and Technology. He wore a pair of black-rimmed glasses, and his excitement could be seen through the lenses. goddess qingyue is here! You've missed qingyue's live performance!"

"Ah ..." Shi qinglan's Red lips parted slightly, and her beautiful eyes blinked slowly. that's it? "

She thought that something big had happened.

But the company commander was confused by Shi qinglan's question.

"Just ... Just like this?" The company commander looked at her, dumbfounded. this matter is just 'that' in your eyes? "

He suddenly started shaking her hard. do you know who she is? She was the International diva of the music industry, qingyue! Don't you think it's a pity that you missed her live?"

Shi qinglan was speechless.

She was a little dazed by the company commander's shaking. She raised her hand and gently touched the end of her eyebrow, not knowing how to answer.

The main thing was ... If she were to sit in the audience and enjoy the performance, everyone would miss qingyue's live performance!

"Captain, you don't understand." LAN Chu suddenly leaned over and smiled. Xiao Qingqing is a treasure girl. She won't care about these small performances.

"A small performance ..." The company commander raised his hand to his forehead.

He waved his hand helplessly and said, " it seems that sister LAN is not a fan of goddess qingyue. She doesn't understand our fanaticism.

As he spoke, he looked away in despair and felt that he had just played the zither to a cow and continued to appreciate it.

Shi qinglan pouted her red lips and turned to LAN Chu. She raised her hand and patted her head gently. little Chu, how was your goddess qingyue's singing? "

LAN Chu nodded like a chicken pecking at rice. it's great!

As she spoke, she pressed her palms against her lips and looked at Shi qinglan with eyes full of adoration.

Shi qinglan's Red lips curved up slightly. She was very pleased with her praise.

..

With the end of the freshmen welcoming party, the military training of Imperial University's freshmen also came to an end, and the reports were overwhelming.

Among them. the three stars were the most popular.

A photo of qingyue in a gown was posted on the internet. The starry sky was gradually becoming more and more resplendent, and the tube top style was charming and sexy.

There were also countless photos of na mu singing on a beautiful stage, but the most popular one was still the one that Shi Qing 'an had sent her flowers!

[ little tiger Bo ] goddess qingyue, I'm so cute! This figure was simply drooling ... Her waist, her legs, her breasts, I can play with them for a lifetime!

[ Yi ] the scene of brother giving me roses was so sweet that I cried! Expressing her feelings in public, what kind of beautiful love was this!

[ Shi yingjiu ] wants to eat candy, I really want to eat candy! Could there be any news from Jimei? how far had her brother and the goddess progressed? Was the relationship real?

[ mo ningxin ] needless to say, the Rose is the truth! If they weren't a couple, I would stream myself eating canned herring!

Bo Yicheng was scrolling through Weibo with a dark expression ...

Shi qinglan occupied half of the top ten most searched posts on Weibo, and a few of them were posted together with Shi qingan.

#Qingyue attending the freshmen welcoming party #

#Heavenly Queen qingyue reappears in the Golden song "Sanskrit"#

#Shi Qing an rose confesses #

#Heavenly Queen qingyue's suspected relationship exposed #

#Solid proof of an Yue couple's love #

Bo Zhicheng's long and narrow eyes narrowed slightly. He stared closely at the few Weibo hot searches, especially when he saw the comment by [ mo ningxin ]. He even sneered mockingly.

if they're not a couple, why are they livestreaming eating canned herring? " The man's voice was gloomy, and his eyes were a little gloomy.

If he didn't livestream eating a hundred cans, he wouldn't be let off easily.

"Wen mo," Bo Yicheng's cold lips parted slightly, his voice icy.

Wen mo pushed open the door of the study in qinglan waterside Pavilion and walked in expressionlessly. He nodded slightly. master Bo.

...

Bo Yucheng suddenly threw his phone on the desk.

The sound of the phone hitting the mahogany table seemed to contain all his anger.

He narrowed his eyes and said, "I don't want to see any scandals about qingyue on Weibo in half an hour.

"Yes." Wen mo answered without changing his expression.

Bo Yicheng's cold lips lifted slightly. also, there's a person called mo ningxin on Weibo. Find out her IP address and send a hundred canned herring to her. Watch her livestream and let her finish eating it!

Wen mo was speechless.

Although this request was strange and rude, the corner of his lips only twitched, and he still responded, " yes.

Only then did Bo Li Cheng's cold and dark eyes recede a little.

He twirled his fingers lightly, his dark color darkening slightly. have you checked that man's information and identity? "

"I've checked it out." yes, " Wen mo replied. He then took out his laptop and placed it on the desk in Bo Li city.

He bowed slightly and placed his hand on the keyboard, typing quickly. After a string of code was entered, the information popped up very quickly. master Bo, look.

...

Wen mo turned the computer to face Bo Yucheng.

The corner of Bo chicheng's eyes twitched slightly. He leaned forward slightly and swiped the computer in front of him, looking at the information on the screen.

She roughly browsed through all his information and background ...

Bo Zhicheng's eyes suddenly turned cold and he squeezed out the man's name from between his teeth. Qi yexi ...

322 I'll personally look for the successor of jingshi Pavilion

Bo chicheng was no stranger to the name Qi yexi.

Continent S and country A were separated by a sea, but the two forces had always been at odds with each other. The three words " Qi yexi " in country A were like the code name of an evil force. At the same time, it also symbolized the Crimson night Alliance!

"Are you sure it's him?" Bo chicheng's eyes darkened.

Wen mo replied, " I've checked the surveillance camera in the Imperial University Infirmary and found his information through eye comparison. I've also scanned his facial features and confirmed that there's no mistake. He's Qi yechan, the young master of the Crimson night Alliance.

Upon hearing this, Bo Li Cheng's heart sank a little ...

That pair of black eyes were so deep that it was somewhat unfathomable, and he was shrouded in a gloomy temperament.

How did his Lan Lan know Qi yexi ... And from the man's tone, it could be heard that they had known each other for a long time.

Bo chicheng suddenly thought of something!

He raised his eyes and looked at Wen Mo. on the day of Lan Lan's college entrance examination, were the assassins from the Crimson night League? "

"Yes." There was a rare hint of emotion in Wen Mo's eyes.

He narrowed his eyes and frowned slightly. could it be ...

Bo Li Cheng naturally had some doubts in his heart. He could not help but clench his fists lightly, cold sweat seeping out of his palms.

The man's thin lips parted slightly. ask Wen le to send more people to follow Lan Lan. Make sure she's safe.

Wen mo nodded to show that he understood. Ever since the assassination attempt during the college entrance examination, there had been more people secretly following Shi qinglan to protect her. Everyone had become more cautious.

"Is there any news from the pure world Pavilion?"

Bo Zhicheng clenched an empty fist and gently pressed it between his brows. He lowered his head slightly, a faint sense of fatigue between his brows.

Wen mo shook his head. not yet. I've already placed a bounty on a few of the world's top hackers to find out the whereabouts of the heir of the jingshi Pavilion. Other than the world's top hacker S, no one else has been able to find him.

Bo Yicheng nodded slightly and hummed. continue looking.

Wen mo responded and turned to leave the study.

Bo Yicheng leaned back slightly and closed his eyes to rest for a moment. After a long time, he slowly opened his eyes and glanced at the laptop on the desk that he had modified.

"Ha ..." He sneered and said in a cold voice, "is it so difficult to find the successor of the pure world Pavilion?"

He didn't believe that he wouldn't be able to find it even if he did it himself!

He flipped open the laptop and tapped the keyboard lightly with his well-defined fingers. The sound of typing was crisp and clean. Even though it was just the process of entering code, it was like the attack of a weapon.

..

At the same time, in the bedroom next door.

There was a weekend off after the freshmen finished their military training, so Shi qinglan followed Bo Li Cheng back to the qinglan waterside Pavilion.

Seeing the rumors flying all over the place, the girl gently rubbed her forehead with a headache. what kind of silly thing is this ...

Shi qingan actually swiped her hand to add #An Yue's love line #to Weibo's hot search, triggering another wave of discussion.

Shi qinglan sighed and turned on her computer.

Her Jade-like slender fingers were jumping on the keyboard. She was quickly entering the code, trying to hack the Weibo to clear her scandal, but halfway through, she found that there was nothing ...

Shi qinglan slowly typed out a:

Even the netizens were dumbfounded! This was because they had discovered that all the relevant news had disappeared while they were browsing Weibo!

[ fan fan ] was shocked! What was this black hole ...

[ Qing er ]?????? Did I transmigrate or did something happen to Weibo? why are all the hot searches gone?

[ Li Zi ] can you guys try and shoot out ****?

[ 22 ]? What are you talking about?

The confused netizens started to scroll through Weibo like crazy. However, all the news about qingyue and Shi qingan's scandal had mysteriously disappeared, leaving only a few hot searches about qingyue herself ...

Shi Qing 'an seemed to have evaporated from the freshmen welcoming party.

[ lime ] I feel like there's an evil force ...

[ nine chestnuts ] and it seems to be related to qingyue! Could it be that one of her sugar daddies was angry after seeing the scandal?

[ big orange ] I think the commenter above might be right.

There was a constant discussion about this matter on the internet, but it was only a discussion. If anyone mentioned the an Yue couple again, they would undoubtedly be swept away by the underworld forces and disappear completely.

Shi qinglan's brows furrowed slightly. She gave Nan zhiyue a call. you were the one who dealt with the scandals on the internet? ”

“How is that possible?” Nan jiyue shrugged helplessly. do you think that the public relations department of xingtian entertainment is so efficient? ”

They were indeed trying to suppress the popularity of the scandal ...

However, they only controlled the comments and bought some fake reviewers to divert the attention. They were even communicating with Weibo to remove the hot searches, but before they could come to an agreement, the hot searches had already disappeared.

“Don’t tell me that the one in your family ...” Nan jiyue guessed.

Shi qinglan’s charming eyes were glistening. She had probably guessed that it was Bo Zhicheng’s doing. Only the Bo and Shi financial magnates had the power to hack Weibo.

probably, ” she replied softly.

Even if Bo Li Cheng didn’t do it, she would do it herself. After all, this was a rumor that had been made up out of nothing.

anyway, it’s fine as long as the scandal has been cleared up. I’ve spoken to the public relations department and asked them to pay close attention in the future. If there are any signs of rumors about you, they’ll strangle it in time.

Nan zhiyue’s Red lips curled up slightly, and her tone gradually became a little meaningful, ” but it seems that the one at home is jealous.

“Don’t mess around,” Shi qinglan’s voice was cold.

She didn’t have the time to joke with Nan zhiyue. Thinking of the torn dress, she still felt a chill down her spine.

...

Nan jiyue nodded and immediately became serious. by the way, brother Yan has been asking about your whereabouts recently. It seems that he has an urgent matter to discuss with you. Go online when you have time.

“Brother Yan?” A trace of doubt flashed across Shi qinglan’s beautiful eyes. Suddenly, she thought of the batch of goods from continent S. I know.

After hanging up the phone, she directly logged into the pure world Pavilion.

The pure world Pavilion had its own special system. Not only did it have an intelligence network, but it also had a communication network between its members.

This system was a program written by Shi qinglan five years ago, and its firewall was indestructible. Countless people had tried to break through the firewall of the pure world Pavilion, but no one had ever succeeded.

“Di di di ...”

Shi qinglan had just logged into her SVIP account when a flashy red and green profile picture started to flash.

She opened the dialog box and it was indeed Jiang Yan.

Jiang Yan was a big Boss active in international freight. He controlled countless sea, land, and air routes, as well as countless private cargo planes and private cargo ships. He was definitely the most impressive existence in this aspect.

what happened?” Shi qinglan typed on the keyboard.

When Jiang Yan saw that the avatar finally lit up, he almost fainted in excitement. He immediately replied, “brother, you’re finally online!

...

323 Shi qinglan, I’m an enemy of the boss of continent s

Shi qinglan’s Red lips curved up slightly.

She sat cross-legged on the bed lazily, her Jade-like fingers on the keyboard, typing smoothly and neatly.

“What’s wrong?” She said without much emotion.

However, Jiang Yan was instantly excited when he saw her online and almost jumped out of his computer. It’s Alive! It’s really alive this time!”

“What live?” A brother beside him looked at him in confusion, his eyes full of disdain.

Jiang Yan turned the computer screen around.

He pointed at the chat box with the head portrait on it and said, “our master LAN, the master LAN who hasn’t appeared in 800 lifetimes, is finally online!

“F * ck!” Everyone in the base suddenly burst out swearing.

Jiang Yan happened to be at the pure world Pavilion base at this moment. Many of his brothers were gathered here. Seeing that their successor, jinglan, was finally online, they immediately gathered in front of the screen to take a look.

“It’s really alive!” Yu mu rolled up his sleeves and said, “master LAN hasn’t shown up for so long. I almost suspected that he was killed by some enemy and is ready to take revenge.

“Additional suggestion.” Gu Yan nodded indifferently.

They were all high-level big shots of the pure world Pavilion and had top achievements in their own fields. They were existences that could only be seen but not reached.

Yu mu was obsessed with car racing. He had won the world racing Championship three years in a row and was known as God mu internationally.

Gu Yan, on the other hand, was quite accomplished in the pharmaceutical field. He had the patents for countless new experimental drugs in his hands. He had even set up a multinational pharmaceutical company and dabbled in medical equipment.

The three of them had joined the pure world Pavilion earlier than Shi qinglan and were considered to be the closest to her. However, they had never met her in person and had always treated her as a brother. They had never thought that she could be a woman.

I have to quickly reply to master Lan’s message. It’s rare to catch him. I can’t let him slip away again. Jiang Yan sat back in front of the computer.

He immediately typed on the keyboard, ” master LAN, you have to give me justice!

Shi qinglan replied with a question mark nonchalantly.

Soon, she received a barrage of comments from Jiang Yan, mixed with countless silly emojis.

“It’s the new weapons and medical equipment that continent s developed some time ago! Didn’t I detain it for them? Later, you took the order and said that you wanted to transfer this batch of goods to F country. I was also the one who escorted them!”

“Because of this, the boss of continent s almost killed me! He actually sent someone to drop a bomb on my company!”

“Fortunately, only the toilet was blown up. The cesspit exploded and my assistant’s face was covered in shit! If my assistant wasn’t so unlucky as to stand in front of me, I would be the one with shit all over my face!”

[ I’m f * cking stupile.jpg.jpg ]

“pfft-” Shi qinglan could not help but laugh out loud.

Although she had never been on good terms with continent S’s boss, she felt a little happy when she saw Jiang Yan’s comments.

This man’s style of doing things was quite to her taste ...

If it weren't for the enmity between the two families, she would be quite willing to be friends with the boss of continent s based on his style of doing things and his superior level. It was also quite pleasant to spar with him occasionally.

"Master LAN, why aren't you coaxing me?" Jiang Yan felt wronged.

The corners of Shi qinglan's eyes twitched slightly as she typed on the keyboard nonchalantly, a smile on her lips. you're the one who's messed with. You're blaming him? "

Jiang Yan's screen was filled with greetings.'Master LAN, you're helping an outsider! What's your relationship with that Lord in continent s? why are you always on his side?"

"It doesn't matter, my enemy." Shi qinglan answered without hesitation.

Everyone in the circle knew that the jingshi Pavilion had a feud with continent s. There was no special reason for it. It was simply because the big bosses on both sides were too awesome. The more the big bosses looked at the big bosses, the more they disliked them.

Jiang Yan tutted. by the way, that man recently put a bounty on a few of the top hackers in the industry to find out your whereabouts, but you know those noobs. They didn't find anything.

Shi qinglan was not surprised at all.

After all, she had just rejected that man's order some time ago and even intercepted the batch of goods and transferred them to F country.

Anyone would be furious about this kind of thing. If that master really found out her whereabouts, it was not impossible for him to kill her.

"He even offered a reward for S, but I thought you couldn't check yourself, so I rejected it." Jiang Yan continued.

Every field or system had its own chain of contempt.

This chain of contempt said that civilization points were called rankings. Five years ago, the hacker circle had set off a bloody storm. They had attacked each other's firewall with all their might, determined to determine the winner and the loser to make a ranking.

S appeared at that time and swept through all the hackers' firewalls, while her own wall remained unbreakable.

At that time, qinglan was only 13 years old, and she was purely young and energetic. She wanted to attack and play, but she was offered to the altar by the hacker circle. No one dared to compete with her for the first place all these years, except ... C?

A hacker named Y had attacked her firewall, but the two of them were evenly matched. C had disappeared halfway through and had never appeared in the hacker circle again.

"I'm not short of money recently, so I don't plan on taking any orders." A sly smile flashed across Shi qinglan's eyes. but ... In the future, if that Lord from continent s orders, please let me know."

She wanted to test him out. She was a little curious about who that man was.

"Alright," he said. Jiang Yan agreed readily. then let's add each other on WeChat, in case I can't find you in the future.

After all, jinglan rarely used the pure world Pavilion's communication system.

Shi qinglan gave Jiang Yan her WeChat number and soon received a friend request. Jiang Yan immediately added her to a WeChat group called " White Horse Club.

[ Yu mu ] welcomes the arrival of Lord LAN!

[ Gu Yan ] Hello, master LAN.

[ Jiang Yan ] master LAN, you're the only one left in our group! Isn't the group name especially cool?

Shi qinglan was speechless.

The corners of her charming eyes twitched slightly. She felt a little disgusted when she saw this strange group name, and she felt like she had entered a duck's nest.

There were a few other brothers in the group who were busy with other things and did not say anything. For example, Jing Chu was busy playing games and killing people.

Shi qinglan pursed her red lips, " It's just alright."

...

Although she didn't understand why a group of men named the group as the White Horse Club, after all, the White Horse Club was a place for men to sell their bodies, for girls, it was a paradise to admire handsome men.

[ Jiang Yan ] Lord LAN! I was tricked by continent s several times to help you escort the goods! My company's firewall has been hacked into pieces, you have to compensate me for this!

"It's a small matter," Shi qinglan's Red lips curled up slightly, and she agreed without hesitation. I'll set up a new firewall for you.

[ Yu mu ] f * ck, f * ck, f * ck, I want this treatment too!

[ Gu Yan ] do you have a company?

[ Yu mu ] 'F * ck, you're all CEOs of multinational companies, but I'm the only one who drives a broken car, poor and weak.

Shi qinglan did not reply to the WeChat group.

Her Jade-like fingers tapped on the keyboard. She first hacked into Jiang Yan's company system and then began to set up a firewall for him ...

Her white jade-like fingers fluttered like butterflies, her movements clean and crisp, but her hands were shockingly beautiful.

324 Continent S's boss and the heir of the jingshi Pavilion face to face

At the same time, in the study next door.

Bo Yicheng lifted his hand to unbutton two buttons, his white shirt slightly unbuttoned, revealing his sexy collarbones and fair skin.

His other hand was on the table, typing on the keyboard. Even though he was only using one hand, he was still confident and wild.

"Swish-"

He was searching for jinglan's IP address, the heir of the jingshi Pavilion, on a global scale, but he suddenly found her signal at this time!

Bo Li Cheng's long and narrow eyes suddenly narrowed.

He tugged at his tie slightly and noticed that jinglan had logged into the jingshi Pavilion system. He immediately put both hands on the keyboard, and his well-defined fingers sped up ...

"I don't believe that I can't get your IP today."

Bo Li Cheng's ink-black eyes were slightly cold. As he looked at the codes jumping on the screen, his eyes couldn't help but turn cold.

Robbing his goods and so arrogantly ...

He had to find this jinglan and teach her a good lesson. He had to let this successor of the jingshi Pavilion test the power of continent s!

The code quickly flashed across the screen ...

Bo Yicheng pursed his thin lips and chased after jinglan's IP address. Suddenly, he pressed enter without hesitation.

"The imperial capital!" The shocking information of the city was displayed.

A cold glint flashed in Bo chicheng's eyes. He did not expect that the heir of the jingshi Pavilion was not in country A but in the imperial capital like him ...

It was a coincidence that the sphere of influence of the Bo Financial Group was in the capital, and Jing LAN had accidentally fallen into his territory.

However, after finding out that the imperial capital had only narrowed the scope of his influence, thin mist city continued to try to track down jinglan's specific address. However, the other party seemed to have discovered his search and actually began to attack back.

The code on the screen refreshed faster and faster ...

Continent S's boss and the heir of the pure world Pavilion fought back and forth, and they were locked in a fierce battle. They were evenly matched and did not give in to each other. However, they did not expect the signal of shock to suddenly disappear.

"Escape?" Bo Yicheng's thin lips coldly parted.

There was a flash of surprise in his dark eyes. When he saw the other party's IP information suddenly disappear, the atmosphere around him could not help but become a little cold ...

There had never been such a rule in the hacker world.

Or, don't let anyone catch a glimpse of your IP address; Otherwise, if they met, they would fight head-on to determine the winner.

She had never seen someone like jinglan who ran away when she couldn't win. She was acting shamelessly like a woman, where was the manliness of a man?

“Ha ...” Bo Li Cheng could not help but scoff coldly.

His eyes darkened as he looked at the code that he was halfway through typing. There was a hint of displeasure between his brows, and he felt even more unhappy in his heart.

He needed his wife to coax him to be happy ...

Thus, Bo Yucheng suddenly closed his laptop, got up, and strode towards the bedroom next door.

Shi qinglan’s palms were slightly covered in cold sweat.

She didn’t expect that when she was helping Jiang Yan build a firewall, she would be caught and chased. The key was that the other party’s skills were no less than hers and they were even more ruthless when attacking her.

The best strategy was to escape!

She wasn’t a man anyway, so she didn’t have to follow the rules of the hacker world. It was a woman’s right to act shamelessly and act coquettishly, so she was afraid.

what kind of person is this? he’s so abnormal ...

Shi qinglan bit her lower red lip lightly, and a trace of annoyance flashed across her beautiful eyes. After all, she had never met a strong rival who was on par with her in the field of hacking.

“Buzz ...” The phone suddenly vibrated.

Jiang Yan noticed that Shi qinglan had suddenly gone offline and that the firewall had stopped working halfway. He poked at her profile picture and asked privately, ” master LAN, master LAN, what happened? ” someone’s tracking my IP address. I’ll go offline first and build the firewall another day. Shi qinglan lowered her head and replied to Jiang Yan on her phone.

Jiang Yan cursed in his heart. He didn’t expect that someone would be so bold as to chase after his master Lan’s IP address.

Shi qinglan had not expected this either, and she still had some lingering fear.

“Crack-”

But at this moment, the bedroom door was suddenly pushed open.

Shi qinglan's eyes flashed with panic. She glanced at the code on the screen and immediately closed the computer. Then, she turned off the screen of her phone and put it aside.

When she looked up, she saw Bo Li Cheng striding towards her.

"A-Cheng?" Shi qinglan's Red lips parted.

Bo Yucheng saw the girl sitting cross-legged on the bed. His long legs straddled the bed, and he pressed her down and kissed her domineeringly.

Shi qinglan didn't know what triggered him, but she wrapped her arms around his waist and closed her eyes in response.

".."

Until both of them started to breathe heavily.

Bo Yucheng was just about to let go of the girl, his hot breath spraying on her neck, his black eyes looking aggrieved.

"What's wrong?" Shi qinglan raised her hand and touched his head.

Bo Yicheng pursed his lips, then lowered his head and buried it in the girl's neck, rubbing it coquettishly. I was bullied.

Shi qinglan could not help but laugh when she saw his expression.

She had rarely seen Bo Li Cheng like this. He was usually a Black-bellied and fierce big-tailed Wolf, but now he was like a little puppy who was complaining to his wife, looking extremely pitiful and aggrieved.

...

"What a coincidence, I was bullied too." Shi qinglan wrapped her arms around Bo Li Cheng's neck, her red lips pouting slightly.

Upon hearing this, Bo Li Cheng suddenly raised his eyes.

The coquettish look he had on his face disappeared almost instantly. He frowned slightly and looked at the girl. who dares to bully you? "

It was a small matter if he was bullied, but it was a big deal if his wife was bullied.

Bo Li Cheng's ink-black eyes were dyed with coldness. He had completely lost the mood to coax her. At this moment, all he could think about was how to teach the person who had bullied her a lesson ...

"I'm fine." Shi qinglan's Red lips curled up slightly, and her smile was a little sly. I didn't let him take advantage of me.

Although she had been found out to be at the capital ...

However, when they were attacking each other just now, she had thrown a virus into the other party's computer. Perhaps it was already slowly eroding the computer files now, so it was hard to say who was at a disadvantage.

"Yes." Bo chicheng replied in a deep voice.

He wrapped his arm around the girl's waist. if anyone dares to bully you again, let me know. I'll help you teach them a lesson.

"Alright," he said. Shi qinglan's voice was soft and sweet.

...

However, that was, after all, a contest between hackers. She didn't know if Bo Li Cheng understood this, but she just needed to go into battle herself. If she couldn't win, then it was simple.

In the end, Bo Yucheng did not complain about being bullied. He hugged the girl and kissed and hugged her for a long time, until he could not bear it anymore if they did not separate, then he got up ...

After all, it was still daytime, and it was not good to live in broad daylight. Some things were more appropriate to be done at night.

..

Imperial University had officially started.

The senior students also returned to school one after another.

The Bo financial magnate's company building was on the way to Imperial University, so Bo Zhicheng personally drove the girl to the school.

The metal-black Maybach stopped steadily at the school gate. Shi qinglan was about to unbuckle her seat belt and get out of the car when the man suddenly held her waist. Lan Lan, have you forgotten something? "

325 Shi qinglan's new identity-professor LAN

Shi qinglan's beautiful eyes blinked.

She looked at the man in confusion, but before she could react, she saw a black shadow coming down on her.

Bo Yucheng placed one hand on his waist to unbuckle the seat belt, while his other hand held the girl's waist and locked her in his arms. He kissed her passionately and domineeringly, until the girl started panting ...

"You ..." Shi qinglan bit her lower red lip.

At this moment, her eyes were moist, and her lips were red and delicate.

The girl looked out of the window nervously ...

Although the windows were specially designed so that people outside couldn't see the situation inside, there was still the windshield in front of the car, after all, so it was easy to notice the people coming and going at the school gate.

Shi qinglan bit her lip. someone will see!

Her voice was a little coquettish, and there was a hint of complaint in it, for fear that the students passing by would see this situation.

Her small hand pressed against the man's tight chest and pushed him away in annoyance. She immediately opened the door and got out of the car, running away quickly.

"Ha ..." Bo chicheng's Red lips curved up slightly.

A sexy and magnetic laugh spilled out of his throat. His lips were still stained with the girl's sweet taste. The soft touch just now seemed to have not dissipated, and it was a lingering aftertaste.

He gently licked his lower lip. Perhaps it was because of his passion, but the corners of his long and narrow eyes were slightly red. At this moment, he looked devilish.

Until Shi qinglan's figure disappeared from his sight ...

Only then did Bo Li Cheng start the Maybach again and drive away.

"Stinky|Oh." Shi qinglan's eyes were filled with annoyance.

As she jogged, she raised her hand and gently wiped her lips with the back of her hand, afraid that others would see through her.

At this moment, she suddenly heard someone shout, "sister Qing!

Upon hearing this, Shi qinglan immediately stopped in her tracks and looked over.

Jiang Zhi slung his school bag over his shoulder and strode toward her like a hooligan. it's really you!

"Brother Jiang." Shi qinglan's Red lips curved up slightly.

She had heard that Jiang Zhi had also been admitted to Imperial University. However, due to the strict management during the military training, they had not met.

"I thought I was wrong." Jiang Zhi's lips curled up evilly.

The teenager, who had taken off his high school uniform, looked even more attractive. He was wearing a loose black t-shirt with red and white letters printed on it. He was wearing a pair of hip-hop pants and sneakers.

The teenager's eyes flickered, and he looked behind Shi qinglan as if he was looking for someone. After a long while, he asked, "isn't the short legs with you?"

Hearing this, Shi qinglan's charming eyes raised slightly.

She smiled. brother Jiang, you're quite well-informed. You already know that we're roommates without even meeting each other?"

Otherwise, Jiang Zhi would not have asked this question.

After all, she and LAN Chu were not from the same college. If they didn't deliberately meet up or have public classes, the possibility of them meeting was not very high.

"Ang." Jiang Zhi responded nonchalantly.

There was a hint of unnaturalness in his eyes, but it disappeared in an instant.

The young man looked up at the sky and casually kicked the grass under his feet. who asked her to slip away from Lin city without a word?"

He had wanted to look for her during the summer break, but he couldn't find her. He thought that he would be able to see her after school started, but Imperial University was too big, and it wasn't that easy to find someone.

Shi qinglan's Red lips curled up slightly. I didn't continue living on campus after the military training. You can go to the art college to look for her.

Jiang Zhi pursed his lips and pretended not to care.

He raised his hand and wiped the corner of his lips with his thumb. He sneered coldly, "who wants to look for her? I'm just afraid that she's too stupid to go missing.

After all, there was no news of LAN Chu after the college entrance examination. This girl had been strange and uncertain, and he had never heard her mention her family. He was really worried that she would lose him.

"Is that so?" Shi qinglan's eyes were filled with deep meaning.

Jiang Zhi's eyes flickered and he straightened his back arrogantly. what else can I do? "

He deliberately raised his voice as if he was very confident.

Shi qinglan raised her eyebrows slightly. Although she had noticed something, she did not expose him, but she felt that it was a pity ...

Jiang Zhi probably didn't know that LAN Chu was married.

then you can rest assured. Little Chu 'er is fine. You don't have to worry. Shi qinglan said.

Jiang Zhi retorted loudly, " who said that I'm worried about her!

They had been classmates for three years, and it was rare for them to get into the same university together, so they symbolically asked about the basic situation.

"Alright, alright, I'm not worried." Shi qinglan shrugged her shoulders. then don't come to me to ask about little Chu 'er's whereabouts in the future.

As she spoke, she raised her hand to her lips and made a zipping gesture. Then, she blinked her beautiful eyes. no comment.

As soon as she finished speaking, the girl strode away with her slender legs.

Jiang Zhi grabbed his school bag and tugged on the strap on his shoulder. He followed her casually. the teaching building is on the way.

However, the two of them were not in the same teaching building.

Jiang Zhi waved goodbye to Shi qinglan, raised his hand to look at the time on his watch, and then rushed into the building ...

Shi qinglan looked at the back of the seemingly handsome but actually in a sorry state and tsked softly. Then, she leisurely walked into the teaching building.

“Swish-”

However, at this moment, his phone started vibrating.

...

The girl took out her phone and answered the call. Hearing the other party’s chatter, she replied, ” I know. I’ll come over.

..

At the professor’s office of the medical school at Imperial University.

Shi qinglan sat in front of her desk, her long legs crossed lazily as she looked up at the old man who was smiling at her.

“Little girl, please reconsider.” Jiang boning’s slightly white eyebrows twitched a few times, harboring ill intentions.

He put his hands behind his back and bowed slightly. help the medical school set a set of papers. You have to show some respect for the freshmen entrance exam. I’ve never been a professor before, so I’m not good at setting questions.

As the best University in China, Imperial University was different in every aspect. It would rather have no students than have bad ones.

Therefore, even if everyone had scored high in the college entrance examination and received an admission letter from Imperial University, they could still face the danger of being expelled at any time when school started ...

On the first day of school, all the freshmen had to be tested by the Department and pass the entrance test to test their standards.

This forced the new students to learn some basic knowledge by themselves before they officially came into contact with this major.

Shi qinglan’s Red lips curled up slightly. Dean Jiang, I came in as a student. You want me to set the questions? ”

...

Although she was a student and Jiang boning was a professor ...

But at this moment, the professor was standing in his office with his back bent, and the students were happily occupying the professor's office chair.

"I'm hurt," Jiang boning fearlessly waved his hand. don't you know if you're a student or not? "

In fact, he didn't think that he could really teach her anything. He just wanted to keep an eye on her at Imperial University. After all, the pavilion closest to the water enjoyed the moonlight first. He was waiting for the opportunity to capture her and take over the Research Institute.

326 The questions were actually set by professor LAN!

Shi qinglan's charming eyes raised slightly.

She raised her eyes to look at Jiang boning and said with a faint smile, " how can you be responsible for setting the questions for the new students? "

Although Jiang boning's medical attainments were extremely high, and it was not difficult for him to do surgery and write papers, he had never been a professor before. It was difficult for him to set questions for students and even give them homework.

"It's all because of that grandson Yan Hua ..." Jiang boning grumbled, " he insisted that I'm the school's star and wanted me to show off my skills to the children.

Shi qinglan nodded her head lightly in understanding. that's right.

The news that Jiang boning had joined the School of Medicine of Capital University as a professor had caused quite a stir in the medical field.

After all, the status of the Medical Research Institute was unparalleled by other organizations, and as the Dean, he undoubtedly attracted attention. It was the students 'good fortune to be able to do the questions he set.

"What do you mean by that!" Jiang boning was fuming with anger.

He turned around, walked to the sofa, and sat down. He laid down lazily like a salted fish and began to act shamelessly. I don't care. You set this question!

Shi qinglan's beautiful eyes glanced at the little old man.

If the big shots in the medical field knew that the Dean of the Medical Research Institute was so childish, they would probably be shocked.

"What benefits will you give me if I set the questions?"

Shi qinglan's Red lips curled up slightly, and a hint of slyness flashed in her eyes. you won't force me to go back and inherit the Research Institute within four years? ”

Hearing this, Jiang boning immediately jumped up from the sofa.

He immediately took small, quick steps toward Shi qinglan and placed his hands on the desk. no! You brat, stop dreaming in broad daylight! You have to let me inherit the Research Institute!”

The little old man was so angry that his cheeks were puffed up.

It was not easy for him to find such a talent. Her medical skills were highly recognized in the industry, and she was also very capable in management. Furthermore, she had the pure world Pavilion and the Shi financial magnate as her backing.

Only when she took over the Medical Research Institute would no one dare to touch her.

Shi qinglan's Red lips twitched. since I'm the one who set the questions, I don't have to participate in the assessment, do I? ”

Upon hearing this, Jiang boning's eyes suddenly lit up.

He understood the meaning behind the girl's words and nodded without hesitation. of course! I'll pull off the head of anyone who has an opinion!”

“Alright then.” Shi qinglan raised her eyebrows.

After all, she had been setting questions for the Imperial University Medical School for the past two years, so it wasn't difficult for her to set more papers.

She casually picked up the pen on the desk, tore a piece of paper, lowered her head, and began to write. After a quarter of an hour, she handed the draft paper to Jiang boning ...

“I'm very lenient.” She tapped the table with her fingertips.

After all, this was the entrance exam for new students. If the questions were too difficult, it would be boring if no one knew how to answer them. Therefore, she only picked a few basic knowledge, but she needed to go around it a little before she could solve them.

Jiang boning nodded his head repeatedly. Alright, alright, alright.

Of course, he would not have any objections to the questions that Shi qinglan had set. He immediately asked his assistant to edit the papers and print them out to arrange for the entrance examination for the new students.

..

The assessment for the medical school was scheduled to take place in the afternoon.

As the most popular major at Capital University, the medical school had its own building. The freshmen of various major were gathered in a classroom, waiting nervously for the test papers to arrive ...

“Did you guys hear? This time, it’s professor LAN who set the questions!”

“Who’s professor LAN? A professor in our medical school? I don’t think I’ve ever seen this person on the list of professors.”

Taking advantage of the fact that the invigilator and the test papers had not arrived, everyone started discussing in whispers, feeling curious.

“You guys don’t even know professor LAN? She’s the most devilish professor in our medical school! It’s said that she’s been the one who set the final exam questions for the past two years. There was a senior who complained to me in tears after the exam, and he was so difficult that he wanted to repeat a year.”

These words set off quite a big wave in the examination hall.

Everyone was already nervous because they had to answer the medical paper without learning anything. When they heard that the question was set by such a perverted professor, they were even more flustered and at a loss ...

“Professor LAN?” Song Xi also raised his eyes.

For some reason, she thought of Shi qinglan. After all, her name also had the word “LAN” in it. However, she quickly threw this thought to the back of her mind, feeling that it was not very realistic.

Speaking of which, he didn’t seem to have seen her coming to the exam ...

Han Yina shrugged her shoulders fearlessly. so what if he’s professor LAN? he can’t possibly make things too difficult for a new student, right? ”

“Then you’ve underestimated professor LAN ...” A student shook his head helplessly. you’ll have to feel it for yourself later.

Han Yina pursed her lips slightly, still unconcerned.

She had self-studied some medical knowledge before entering the school, so she was not completely a novice. It should not be a problem for her to deal with the basics.

She was not as nervous as the other students. She looked around nonchalantly and realized that Shi qinglan was not there.

tsk-" han Yina sneered.

She glanced back at the people who were afraid of professor LAN and raised her voice slightly. I say, don't worry. There are still people who haven't come to take the exam and are planning to help us.

"Ah?" The students looked at han Yina in surprise.

Everyone knew the tradition of Imperial University. Although the entrance examination did not require one to pass the test, since it was difficult to answer the paper without learning anything, truancy or poor results would be enough to disqualify one. Moreover, the examination results would directly affect the selection of the next teacher.

Everyone was curious about who had the guts to do so.

Han Yina smirked sarcastically. it's Shi qinglan, the one who made it to the top of Weibo's search list during the military training.

Hearing this, the students immediately looked around the examination hall.

They had all seen Shi qinglan's video on Weibo, so they knew what she looked like. They realized that she was not there!

"She's so bold ... Aren't you afraid of being dissuaded?"

...

Han Yina said mockingly, " after all, she already has some medical skills. It's not a problem for her to be admitted to the hospital directly. But she's different from us. She has the right to be arrogant.

however, it could also be because she was afraid of embarrassing herself. After all, she had bragged about her medical skills before. If she doesn't even pass the exam, wouldn't her image as a godly doctor collapse? "

Han Yina continued to tease Shi qinglan.

Song Xi couldn't help but frown and look at her. instead of being jealous of others, it's better to care about whether you can pass or not.

The other students were not in the mood to discuss Shi qinglan.

After all, they had all seen the emergency video ... Moreover, he was kneeling while watching. His looks and medical skills were impeccable.

If he had the time, he might as well worry about his own assessment ...

“You’re a dog.” Han Yina could not help but sneer.

She didn’t know that song Xi and Shi qinglan knew each other, but because of her words, she had directly classified her as an enemy camp.

“Be quiet.” A clear voice suddenly sounded.

The counselor, Xie Kexin, walked into the examination hall with the test papers in her arms. She pursed her lips and scanned the examination hall. prepare to start the examination.

...

327 If someone wants to be slapped in the face, don’t blame her for being impolite

Xie Kexin was very young. After she graduated from her master’s degree, she stayed at the University as a counselor and occasionally did some medical research with the professor. She had also published many papers and was very prestigious in the medical school.

And Xie Kexin’s fiery eyes were famous ... No one had ever been able to successfully cheat under her watch.

She opened the sealed bag in front of everyone and glanced at the examination room with a sharp gaze. if anyone dares to cheat ... I’ll donate my body to understand.”

Those who studied medicine lacked corpses for dissection and research.

The students could not help but gasp. it’s okay to be forced to donate a corpse, but senior, you’ll be arrested!

Xie Kexin smiled and did not refute. She took out the test papers from the sealed bag and was about to start distributing them when she suddenly saw han Yina raise her hand and shout, “report!

“What is it?” Xie Kexin raised her eyes and looked at her.

Han Yina suddenly stood up. senior, there are students who didn’t attend the assessment. Will they be expelled by the school for such behavior? ”

Hearing this, Xie Kexin’s eyes became serious.

She pursed her lips and scanned the examination hall. She did a rough count of the number of people and did not find anything wrong. who didn't come? ”

“Shi qinglan!” Han Yina said with confidence.

Hearing this, Xie Kexin's eyebrows raised slightly. She walked to her desk with the test papers in her arms and chuckled. Shi qinglan? ”

This set of papers was personally written by professor LAN, so it was abnormal for her to participate in the assessment. Who dared to persuade her to withdraw?

“This student, you'd better not worry about other people's Affairs.” Xie Kexin handed out the papers. now, the entrance exam will officially begin. The exam time is one hour.

Han Yina did not expect such an answer.

She frowned and sat down unwillingly. She could only put this matter aside for the time being and planned to find an opportunity to argue with him after finishing the paper.

However, the more she answered, the more anxious she became, and her forehead was covered in sweat ...

They were all basic questions, but the way the questions were set made her confused and her palms were covered in cold sweat.

“This set of questions is too perverted!”

“I understood all the questions. They were all the most basic things, but why can't I answer them?”

now you know professor Lan's power. Even if you test us with the most basic knowledge, you can still kill us without us noticing!

The students took their stationery and left the exam hall one after another, discussing it over and over again. They wanted to cry but had no tears. Some people even went to the forum and specially opened a post-talking about how professor devil LAN ruthlessly destroyed a flower.

This batch of new students was the most delicate flower in the medical school ~

[ qingzhi ] hahaha, the people from the art college are here to mock me ruthlessly! Our assessment is a display of talent, and it's very fun!

The School of Economics and Management from Yuhua thousand mountains sent their condolences.

[ addiction cleansing ] I thought mathematics was bad enough, but I didn't expect that there was still the devil professor LAN in medical school, hahahaha ...

[ moxue ] professor Lan's name was indeed well-known throughout the entire Imperial University. She had ruined a medical school!

This post was filled with very happy discussions. It was simply the source of happiness for the other academies.

But at this moment, a new post suddenly appeared-

[ didn't Shi qinglan, a new student of the medical school, come for the assessment? ]

The title looked normal and harmless, but when the university's alumni ridiculed the medical school, it undoubtedly attracted everyone's attention, and the number of views suddenly increased.

Han Yina posted this post after she left the exam hall.

She spoke in a very innocent tone. I don't think Shi qinglan from our Academy came to take the assessment. I've seen the video of her doing first aid before, and I think she's pretty good, but I don't know why she didn't come to the exam ... Could it be that he was delayed by some emergency treatment? After all, she can directly treat illnesses and save lives. Even if she doesn't go to college and is expelled, it won't matter."

[ Luo Huan ] sister fairy didn't participate in the assessment?

[ Guagua ] don't, what if you're persuaded to leave! I haven't had the chance to appreciate her beauty up close!

[ dongye mizi ] not to mention anything else, her looks were really high! He was so handsome when he was doing first aid that my legs went soft ...

[ little Baba ] are the people upstairs sick? How much money did Shi qinglan spend to buy a water Army to boast about skipping the exam?

[ sunflower ] to be honest, I felt that she spent money to wash it on purpose. Who the hell would believe that she used a hair clip for acupuncture? She didn't even dare to take the exam because she was afraid of ruining her image as a godly doctor.

[ fingertip flick ] she should have left long ago. If she didn't participate in the assessment this time and didn't drop out of school, it meant that there was an inside story! ex

[ battle ] he might have spent money on the college entrance examination! I'm very curious how much it costs to buy an Admission Notice from Imperial University.

[ lemons only ] a group of lemons upstairs.

At first, the post did not cause any negative comments.

Han Yina did not expect that Shi qinglan would gain a lot of fans because of her first aid. At first, they were all on her side, so she hired a bunch of internet ghostwriters to start dissing her ...

She was also dissing him, but she was wearing a smaller one.

Shi qinglan, Jiang Zhi, and LAN Chu had arranged to have dinner together. While they were waiting for their meal in the canteen, Jiang Zhi was scrolling through his phone in boredom.

“F * ck his mother!” He almost exploded in anger when he saw the post and almost smashed his phone into pieces. He suddenly stood up.

Hearing this vulgarity, the students all looked at him.

Her gaze then fell on Shi qinglan, who was sitting opposite Jiang Zhi. Isn't that Shi qinglan from the medical school ...

“She's the one who didn't take the entrance exam?”

“She's actually eating in the canteen. Why didn't the Student Union invite her for a chat? Why hasn't this kind of person been fired yet?”

I heard that she spent a lot of money to get into the University of God ...

she's probably a kept woman. That's what everyone's saying now. She doesn't wear any branded clothes and doesn't look like she's from a rich family. She must be a kept woman to be able to afford Imperial University's education, right? ” as expected, people are only willing to keep beautiful women ...

“It's so disgusting. So you're not taking the assessment because you're afraid of exposing your intelligence? How could Imperial University have such a student?”

...

The students started discussing maliciously.

Although Shi qinglan did not hear it clearly, she could tell that something was amiss. She frowned slightly and asked, “ what happened? ”

LAN Chu bit his straw and looked up at him in confusion.

“F * ck, I’m so angry! What kind of silly ...” Jiang Zhi took a deep breath. Forget it, I can’t swear.

After a long while, he sat back at the table and handed his phone to Shi qinglan. sister Qing, you should take a look at it yourself.

The girl took the phone and scrolled through the forum.

Shi qinglan’s eyes turned cold when she saw the things mentioned in these posts and the increasingly outrageous direction of discussion.

“Let me see.” LAN Chu also leaned over curiously.

She frowned slightly. what’s all this? Our Xiao Qingqing does not need to be kept! Besides, can you buy the National top scorer with money?”

Shi qinglan held her phone gently. She could not help but feel a little cold as she browsed the posts. heh ...

She suddenly threw her phone away and sneered indifferently.

...

“Messing with me?” The girl’s Red lips curled up slightly, and her Jade-like slender fingers tapped on the table. did anyone bring a computer? ”

It wasn’t convenient for her to operate the mobile phone, and the efficiency would be lower.

“This young master has brought it!” Jiang Zhi immediately took out his laptop from his bag and handed it to her solemnly. sister Qing, take care of her!

Shi qinglan’s eyes raised slightly.

With a faint smile on her lips, she opened the laptop, put her wrist on the table, and began to trace the ID of the other party ...

Since someone wanted to be slapped in the face, don’t blame her for being impolite.

328 Shi qinglan taught han Yina a lesson

Shi qinglan’s clear eyes were slightly cold.

Her eyes were focused on the computer screen, and her fingertips danced on the keyboard like butterflies. She followed the forum post that slandered her and soon tracked the address ...

“Han Yina.” Shi qinglan’s beautiful eyes narrowed.

She could not help but feel a chill run down her spine. She was not surprised by the results of the investigation. heh ...

The girl’s Red lips curved up slightly, but the smile on her lips was a little cold and a little cunning.

“Then don’t blame me for being impolite.” The smile on Shi qinglan’s face grew wider and wider, like a little wild cat that had come up with a wicked idea, and she continued to type on the keyboard ...

At the same time, in Room C109.

Han Yina was smugly scrolling through the forum posts. From time to time, she would use her alternate account to mock him. The viciousness in her eyes was not concealed at all. She hid behind the screen and turned into a keyboard warrior.

Shi qinglan is so evil. Not only is she financially supported by an old man, but she also spent money to buy her education. During military training, she even schemed and broke an arm of a classmate from the same company ...

She continued to spread the rumors without any intention of being responsible for her own words. She only cursed Shi qinglan viciously, not caring about the truth.

tsk-” han Yina laughed sarcastically.

Seeing that the trend on the forum had been completely led astray and many people were following suit to criticize Shi qinglan, she was simply too pleased.

But at this moment-

Just as han Yina was about to continue posting to defame her, a ferocious female ghost’s face suddenly appeared on the phone screen!

The female ghost’s hair was disheveled, and her face was frighteningly pale. Her eyeballs had been gouged out, and two lines of bloody tears flowed from her empty eyes. Her mouth, which was full of blood, was opened exaggeratedly.

ah! han Yina suddenly screamed.

She was so frightened that she immediately threw away the phone in her hand and fell from the chair in shock. Her butt was in great pain, and her knee was bruised when it hit the table.

“Ah! Ghost...A ghost!” Han Yina covered her ears with both hands and screamed. Her face was so pale that it looked like she had seen a ghost.

Pan wanye was reading a book. When she heard the shrill cry, she couldn't help but look back. She sized up han Yina with a calm gaze and frowned in slight disdain. what's wrong with you? ”

“Ghost ... Ghost! There's a ghost!” Han Yina's voice trembled as she pointed at the phone that she had thrown away. a female ghost suddenly appeared on my phone screen!

Hearing this, pan wanye's brows furrowed even more.

She shook her head helplessly and ignored han Yina. She put on her headphones, turned the music to the loudest volume, and continued reading her book.

Han Yina fell to the ground, her body trembling violently.

The pair of empty eyes that were scared gradually focused. She tried to look at the phone and picked it up with trembling hands.

She had smashed the phone's inner screen.

“No... That's impossible.” Han Yina gradually calmed down. She swallowed her saliva. it must be a prank ... Right, how could there be ghosts! This is definitely a prank!”

She was obviously browsing the school forum and did not see any messy websites. How could a female ghost suddenly appear?

With that thought in mind, han Yina turned on her phone screen again. As expected, it was her phone screen. There was no female ghost.

“Was I hallucinating just now?” Han Yina furrowed her brows slightly and opened the school forum again.

The interface on the screen was still normal, and there were no other pictures.

However, when han Yina clicked on the post that had blacklisted Shi qinglan, her screen suddenly turned black!

“Delete it.”

Two blood-red words suddenly appeared on the black screen, followed by another sentence, ” otherwise ...

“There's a price to pay for spreading rumors!”

Then, the picture of the hideous female ghost appeared again, accompanied by a line of warning words in blood!

ah! han Yina threw her phone away and screamed again.

Her butt rubbed against the ground as she backed away, trying to get as far away from the phone as possible. She was almost scared out of her mind by the prank.

Pan wanye took off her headphones and deliberately threw them on the desk to make a loud noise, showing her dissatisfaction.

“Annoying.” She mumbled softly.

Then, she deliberately made a sound to show her displeasure, packed her things, and left the dormitory with her books.

Han Yina was still immersed in her fear.

Her whole body trembled violently, and her back was drenched in cold sweat. Needless to say, the sweat on her palms made her hands and feet cold, and the fear in her heart was magnified infinitely.

Who was the one playing a prank on her ...

Who was it?

ring ... at this moment, the phone suddenly rang.

Han Yina was so shocked that she shuddered. She immediately turned around to look at the phone. Her mind was filled with the female ghost who was crying blood. She was afraid that the phone would ring when she picked up the call.

She quietly hid under the desk ...

ring ... but the phone's ringtone kept ringing.

People kept calling her, but han Yina didn't dare to pick up. She hugged herself tightly and bit her lip.

knock, knock, knock ... the sound of knocking on the door suddenly sounded again.

The fear in han Yina's heart was nowhere to be found. She opened her eyes and looked at the tightly shut door. She had a feeling that the female ghost had come to find her. She was afraid that if she opened the door, it would be something unclean.

The dormitory manager was waiting anxiously outside. She raised her voice and shouted, " is there anyone in C109? "

Hearing this, han Yina gradually came back to her senses.

Her dormitory was very far from the living room, so she usually communicated with the dormitory manager and was very familiar with her voice.

...

"There is ... There are!" Han Yina immediately climbed out.

As if she was grabbing onto a life-saving straw, she rushed to the dormitory door and opened it. She grabbed the dormitory supervisor's sleeve tightly and said. " Auntie, there's a ghost ... Wuwuwu, there's a ghost!"

The dormitory manager glanced at her inexplicably.

She sized up han Yina's pale little face. the Qing Dynasty is already dead. Why didn't you pick up your counselor's call? She wants you to go to the principal's office."

"Counselor?" Han Yina was stunned.

She looked back at the phone on the ground and frowned at the dormitory manager. why are you going to the principal's office? "

"How would I know?" The dormitory supervisor Auntie was rather helpless. your counselor called and said that he couldn't contact you. He asked me to see if you were in the dormitory and inform you.

Only then did han Yina realize that there was no danger.

The dormitory manager helplessly pulled away the hand that was holding her sleeve. hurry up and pack up. Your counselor is rushing me. I've completed my task.

As she spoke, she returned to the hall to continue watching her drama.

Han Yina took a deep breath to adjust her emotions. She looked at herself in the dressing mirror and raised her hand to wipe the cold sweat on her forehead. She tidied up a little and went to the principal's office.

...

329 Yan Hua helped Shi qinglan slap han Yina in the face!

In the principal's office.

Yan Hua's face was cold and hard, and there was a bit of seriousness between his brows. He paced around the office with his hands behind his back, and his forehead twitched in anger. this is too much!

"There's actually someone who dares to say that you bought your education? Let him spend money to buy me a top scorer in the country with full marks!"

Hearing this, Shi qinglan lifted her eyelids indifferently.

She was lazily lying on the sofa with her long and fair legs crossed. She held a cup of white tea in her hand and took a few sips from time to time. teacher, please calm down first.

"Calm down?" Yan Hua couldn't help but raise his voice.

He opened his eyes and looked at the girl. He was so angry at how calm she was that he almost turned around. you're the one who's being slandered, but you're the one who's trying to calm me down? "

The campus forum of Imperial University was very influential.

The Student Affairs Office was immediately put in charge, and the matter naturally reached Yan Hua's ears. At that time, he was so angry that he jumped up and down.

Shi qinglan's Red lips curled up slightly. She lowered her eyes and blew on the tea. it's easier to get wrinkles if you're too hot-tempered.

Yan Hua was speechless. He took a deep breath.

However, seeing that the person involved was not flustered, he gradually calmed his emotions and looked at the girl with his lips tightly pursed.

"Du, du, du-"

At this moment, there was a knock on the door.

Yan Hua's aura suddenly turned cold and solemn. He narrowed his eyes and stared at the office door. come in.

Han Yina was a little nervous as she waited in the office corridor.

After all, she didn't know why principal Yan suddenly looked for her. She was looking forward to it, but she was also a little nervous ...

The office door was pushed open.

Han Yina walked in and immediately saw Yan Hua standing with his hands behind his back. There was a bit of anger in his eyes, and her eyes turned ...

She had seen Shi qinglan drinking tea in the principal's office!

"You ..." Han Yina's eyes widened slightly. She looked at Shi qinglan in shock and could not help but feel a little surprised.

After all, Yan Hua was a big Shot in the education World.

He usually did not care about the school's trivial matters, and it was difficult for even the more prestigious professors to see him. He did not expect Shi qinglan to be so carefree and drinking his tea in his office.

"What a coincidence, roommate." Shi qinglan's Red lips curled up slightly.

She looked up at han Yina lazily and charmingly, a faint smile on her lips.

Han Yina and Shi qinglan looked at each other. When they met the light in his cold eyes, they felt an inexplicable sense of pressure, and a chill began to run down their backs ...

"What are you doing here?" Han Yina frowned slightly.

Hearing this, Shi qinglan could not help but chuckle.

She didn't reply, but Yan Hua's cold and deep voice suddenly rang out. han Yina, shouldn't you be wondering why you're here? "

Han Yina's heart skipped a beat.

She looked up at Yan Hua and couldn't help but gently pinch the corner of her clothes. When she met the man's serious gaze, she felt a little scared.

"Principal Yan ..." Han Yina pursed her lips. may I know why you called me to your office? "

Yan Hua's brows moved slightly as he looked at her deeply.

He lowered his head and took out his phone from his pocket. He seemed to be adjusting some interface. Suddenly, he threw it on his desk and it made a deep " Dong " sound.

"See for yourself." His voice was cold and solemn.

Han Yina noticed that the atmosphere in the office was a little tense. Her gaze gradually shifted to the phone, then she walked to the desk in shock, picked up the phone, and lowered her eyes to look at it.

“This ...” Her eyes suddenly widened!

The page that Yan Hua had shown her was the post that had slandered Shi qinglan, which made han Yina nervous instantly.

She pursed her lips and a hint of panic flashed in her eyes. principal Yan, may I know why you're showing me this? ”

Hearing these words, the air around Yan Hua suddenly turned cold.

He furrowed his brows tightly and looked at han Yina. He slammed the table and said with force, ” you still dare to ask me what I mean! Don't you know what you've done?”

Han Yina's heart sank completely.

His secret had been exposed, and a sense of guilt spread from the bottom of his heart, making his heart beat faster.

I don't understand what principal Yan means ...

Han Yina still pretended not to know anything. what's with this post? ” Why was qinglan being criticized so badly? I didn't pay attention to the things on the school forum before.”

Yan Hua looked at han Yina with a cold expression.

His deep and solemn eyes were so sharp that they seemed to be able to see through people. you still dare to say that you don't know what's going on? ”

Han Yina's eyes flickered.

However, she thought about it. She was clearly using an alternate account, so it shouldn't be so easy to be exposed. How could principal Yan know who the person who posted the thread was?

“Principal Yan.” Han Yina smiled. are you mistaken? ” Did Shi qinglan tell you something?”

She glanced at Shi qinglan as she spoke.

The girl's hand that was holding the small teacup paused slightly. She looked up at han Yina and couldn't help but find it even funnier.

However, han Yina seemed to have decided on this in her heart ...

Since she had not exposed her identity, it was highly likely that Shi qinglan had complained about her and slandered her. Otherwise, why would she be in the office?

...

“Principal Yan.” Han Yina said politely, “actually, qinglan and I are roommates. There were some misunderstandings during the military training, so it’s understandable that she misunderstood me for posting negative comments about her ...

“Preposterous!” Yan Hua suddenly stopped her with a cold voice.

He had found out about this on his own. After finding out that someone had posted a thread to defame Shi qinglan, he had immediately found a hacker from the pure world Pavilion to track down the ID and found out that it was han Yina!

He had called Shi qinglan to his office to ask about this matter, but she had not said anything and had even planned to solve it herself.

“Principal Yan ...” Han Yina still wanted to say something.

However, Yan Hua threw a document at her feet. take a look at it yourself. After you’re done, you can consider whether or not you want to admit that this post has anything to do with you!

Seeing this, han Yina couldn’t help but break out in a cold sweat.

She looked up at Shi qinglan, who was still idle, and slowly bent down to pick up the document. Her hands were shaking so much that she almost dropped it ...

Because this was an IP tracking document!

It was clearly written inside that the IP information traced from the ID of the forum post was indeed C109!

And it clearly pointed to han Yina’s phone number!

...

Even if it was a side account, she had to use her real information to register, so it was easy to track her down!

“What else do you have to say?” Yan Hua’s Qi sank into his dantian, and his sonorous words were filled with dignity and oppression.

Han Yina's face turned pale.

330 Yan Hua, do you know who Shi qinglan is

Han Yina's heart was weak, and her palms were covered in cold sweat.

She clenched the document in her hand tightly. The white paper was slightly wet from her sweat and she could not help but tremble ...

"You're slandering your classmates without any evidence! Is this how your original school taught you?" Yan Hua stared at him.

The man was wearing a black suit, and the aura around him was already strong and oppressive. At this moment, his eyes were locked on han Yina, making people feel as if they were being punished, and they couldn't breathe.

"I ..." Han Yina's voice trembled slightly.

She clenched her fists tightly, and her eyes gradually turned red. She glanced at Shi qinglan unwillingly.

Han Yina bit her lip. principal Yan, I didn't do it on purpose. I didn't mean to defame her by posting this ...

"I'm not blind, and I'm not stupid enough." Yan Hua's voice was cold and deep, obviously not believing her weak explanation.

Han Yina lowered her eyes. Tears were welling up in her eyes. She was so flustered that she didn't know what to do.

She thought that she would be fine after she registered an alternate account ...

Who would have thought that principal Yan would personally help Shi qinglan deal with such a small matter and even investigate her?

I demand you to make a public apology to Shi qinglan.

Yan Hua stood with his hands behind his back, his dark eyes looking deeply at han Yina. His tone was unquestionable. if you're not willing to apologize, don't blame the school for being merciless and expelling you!

Upon hearing this, han Yina suddenly raised her eyes. I ...

Of course, she was not willing to make a public apology. When she heard Yan Hua's punishment, her heart sank.

This was the highest school in Huaxia, Imperial University!

If she publicly admitted that she had posted to defame her roommate, how could she still have a foothold in school for the next four years!

“Principal Yan.” Han Yina bit her lip and looked at him with slightly red eyes. I didn’t mean to defame Shi qinglan by posting that. I was just stating the truth. She didn’t take the assessment! Why is it that she doesn’t need to be punished for not participating in the assessment, but I have to apologize to her for disclosing this matter?”

Hearing this, Yan Hua frowned.

His brows furrowed even more. you’re saying that you doubt Shi qinglan’s decision to not take the assessment? Do you know who she is?”

“Who could she be?” Han Yina retorted, “we’re all ordinary freshmen who got into Imperial University together. The school should naturally treat everyone equally. No matter who she is, she should take the test!

Yan Hua couldn’t help but find this funny.

He took a deep breath and closed his eyes to adjust his emotions. even so, we have to have the same IQ to be treated equally! Your medical school’s examination paper this time is ...”

“Principal Yan.” Shi qinglan’s Red lips parted slightly.

Yan Hua’s words came to an abrupt end. He frowned at the girl and saw her lazily put down her teacup and get up.

Shi qinglan walked up to Yan Hua and smiled. you don’t have to tell her about this.

She really didn’t want her classmates at Imperial University to know about her identity as professor LAN. After all, she had chosen to come to Imperial University to study. How could she study with her identity as a professor?

I’m afraid it will cause a commotion among the students ...

Moreover, she would be in more trouble. If she didn’t handle it well, she might be frequently consulted by her classmates. She really didn’t want to have such trouble.

“Guilty.” Han Yina couldn’t help but sneer.

Of course, she would never have thought that her classmate, who seemed to be on the same level as her, was already worthy of being a professor.

Shi qinglan looked at han Yina with a deep smile. you're saying that you're not happy that I didn't take the entrance exam? ”

“Of course.” Han Yina could not help but straighten her back. She felt that she was in the right in this matter. if you had participated in the entrance examination, of course I wouldn't have said anything.

“Alright,” he said. Shi qinglan's voice was clear and crisp.

She turned slightly to look at han Yina. give me a set of questions. If I can get a full score, I'll pass the test. But you have to make a public apology for posting negative comments about me!

Hearing this, han Yina couldn't help but frown.

She looked at Shi qinglan with great dissatisfaction. I'll set the questions? I'm just a freshman who just entered the school. How would I know how to set the medical examination paper? Aren't you deliberately making things difficult for me?”

Shi qinglan's eyes could not help but turn cold.

There was a faint smile on her lips. When she looked up at han Yina, she couldn't help but find it funny. you're not happy that I didn't take the assessment, and you can't say anything when I ask you to test me. What are you blabbering about here? ”

“You ...” Han Yina was stunned.

She gritted her teeth in anger. Shi qinglan! Didn't you want me to come up with the questions to save time? After all, even if I can come up with questions, they're all basic questions. It won't take you much effort to answer them!”

“If you have the ability, then do our set of assessment papers! That set of questions was of a very high standard and also very difficult! As long as you can get full marks, I, han Yina, will apologize to you publicly!”

Hearing this, Shi qinglan could not help but frown.

She raised her hand and gently touched her chin, a hint of awkwardness flashed in her eyes. you want me to do that set of assessment papers? ”

“Is there a problem?” Han Yina directly replied.

Shi qinglan pursed her red lips and shook her head after some serious consideration. I think it's a little unfair ...

After all, she was the one who set the paper. Of course, she already knew the answers. How could this be considered an assessment?

“What’s so unfair about it?” Han Yina pouted. don’t think I don’t know that you’re just trying to escape! That set of papers was written by our medical school’s devil professor LAN, and his level is extremely high. It’s more than enough to beat you!”

cough-” Yan Hua suddenly coughed violently.

There was some surprise in his eyes. He looked at han Yina with a complicated expression, then subconsciously glanced at the girl beside him.

Shi qinglan’s expression became even more complicated. devil professor LAN? ”

Did she already have the title of abbess miejue now ... Ah, could it be that the questions were really too difficult?

“Yup,” Han Yina didn’t notice anything wrong.

Of course, she would never have thought that Shi qinglan was professor LAN. She even felt that her idea had checkmated her.

...

“Then we’ll do as you say.” Yan Hua immediately slammed the table. let Shi qinglan do the paper set by professor LAN.

Shi qinglan was speechless.

Her eyes widened in surprise as she looked at Yan Hua. Her clear eyes were filled with complicated emotions and a hint of disdain. principal Yan ... Aren’t you being a bit too much of a bully?”

“I think principal Yan is very fair.” Han Yina laughed coldly. Shi qinglan, you’re not going to be able to escape this entrance exam! Don’t you ever answer a zero and embarrass yourself.”

Shi qinglan was speechless.

He didn’t really want to talk to her, and his feelings continued to be complicated.

Doing his own paper to participate in the assessment, he always had an inexplicable feeling of cheating, and he felt a little uncomfortable in his heart.
