

Heart Stealer Young Master Bo #Chapter 331 - Read Heart Stealer Young Master Bo Chapter 331

331 How many points did Shi qinglan score?

In an exam hall in the teaching building of the medical school.

Shi qinglan sat in front of her desk obediently, her hands gently placed on her thighs, and she looked at the students gathered in front of her with her clear eyes ...

“Are you sure you want me to answer this set of papers?”

She asked tentatively, looking a little troubled, “ why don’t you guys discuss and help me with a new set of papers? I really don’t think it’s appropriate for me to answer this set of papers.

“pfft-” counselor Xie Kexin couldn’t help but laugh.

She was holding a sealed kraft paper bag in her hand, which contained a set of assessment papers. It was the set that professor LAN had written.

“It’s not like you’ll lose a piece of meat if you cook.” Song Xi looked at her in disdain and said fiercely, “ you’re so lazy.

She couldn’t help but purse her lips as she spoke.

He looked as if he had been angered to death by Shi qinglan.

She really couldn’t understand why she didn’t take the assessment. She was clearly more familiar with medical knowledge than her. Wouldn’t it be better to get a high score and slap these people in the face?

When they were in Pi City High School, he was still showing off to her. Why was he so ” (^) after they went to university?

“You stinky girl ...” Shi qinglan opened her beautiful eyes.

She and song Xi looked at each other. Song Xi opened her eyes wide in dissatisfaction. hurry up and take the exam!

He was so fierce that he could not help it. Hiss ... He was so scared.

Han Yina and the other students were also invigilating Shi qinglan. Their test results had been released, and the teacher would come to select the students later, and the results would be announced at the same time.

Therefore, everyone had come to the classroom in advance to wait and acted as Shi qinglan's invigilator.

"Senior Sister, quickly give her the test paper." Han Yina urged.

She couldn't wait to see Shi qinglan make a fool of herself, to see her sweat profusely from the questions.

"Alright," he said. Xie Kexin shrugged helplessly.

She didn't know why Han Yina was so insistent on being slapped in the face. She handed the kraft paper bag to Shi qinglan and said, "good luck."

Shi qinglan was speechless.

She looked up at Xie Kexin and took the kraft paper bag with complicated feelings. After opening it, she saw the familiar paper.

Shi qinglan wrote her name on the paper, then stared blankly at the paper, her pen spinning back and forth between her Jade-like fingers. She could not help but fall into deep thought ...

If she got full marks, would that be considered cheating?

Hence, the girl hesitated and did not know how to start writing. However, when Han Yina saw this, she thought that the girl did not know how to solve a question at all. Let's see how she's going to continue with the godly doctor's character profile.

Han Yina couldn't help but roll her eyes in disdain.

Song Xi saw that she was a little anxious and couldn't help but urge her in a low voice, "Shi qinglan, hurry up and write ..."

Shi qinglan did not know how to write it.

He put down the pen very hesitantly and wrote slowly. In the end, he braced himself and began to answer the questions seriously.

After the girl started to get serious, she started to write smoothly ...

His clear handwriting was as beautiful as a copybook. Even when he was drawing the structure, the brushwork was as exquisite as printing. Every step was done as perfectly as a God!

"F ... F * ck." The other students couldn't help but exclaim.

They all gathered around Shi qinglan and watched her finish the entire paper with their own eyes. They felt as if they had opened the door to a whole new world!

so this structure can be drawn like this ...

“This is the answer to the last question! I actually didn’t think of that! What a beautiful answer!”

“Ah ... It seems that professor LAN has set up a lot of questions for me. I only realized it when I saw Shi qinglan answering the questions.”

The students couldn’t help but exclaim and discuss.

Han Yina’s eyes were wide open as well. She looked at Shi qinglan’s paper in disbelief. this ... How is that possible?”

Although the questions had been leaked after the assessment, it was possible to cheat if they participated in the questions and did the same set of papers later on.

However, han Yina knew very well that it was impossible in a medical school.

This was because there was no standard answer for anything in the medical field. Even when faced with the same condition, every doctor could give different judgments or treatments.

Not to mention the drawing of the problem ...

Even if Shi qinglan had already searched for this picture on the internet and had memorized how to draw it, it was definitely not a simple task to draw it to such perfection. It was definitely not done on the spot!

“Are you satisfied now?” Shi qinglan raised her eyes and looked at han Yina.

She passed the set of papers to Xie Kexin, who took them and started to read through them. The other students were all focused on Shi qinglan and did not notice the admiration in her eyes ...

“You ... How did you do it!”

Han Yina could not help but feel a chill in her heart, because she realized that she seemed to have underestimated Shi qinglan’s strength.

Shi qinglan raised her eyebrows and leaned back lazily. I’ve already warned you that this is unfair.

Han Yina didn’t understand what he meant by unfair.

She had seen Shi qinglan finish the paper with her own eyes. There was no possibility of her cheating. She had done it all by herself! And these answers couldn't be found on the internet!

"Senior, Shi qinglan, she ... How many points?" Han Yina's eyebrows moved slightly, and she couldn't help but look at Xie Kexin.

Xie Kexin raised her eyes and blinked at her in confusion. of course it's a perfect score. Do you even need to ask? "

Upon hearing this, han Yina instantly felt as if she had been struck by lightning!

She clenched her fists tightly, and her unwillingness and jealousy gradually spread from the bottom of her heart. She was extremely resentful about this matter.

...

this is a test set by professor devil LAN ...

"I almost cried during the exam, but Shi qinglan actually got a perfect score! No wonder she didn't come to take the assessment!"

"She might have been pardoned by our Academy long ago, so she didn't come to participate in the assessment. I didn't expect that she would be tricked."

my sister tianlan is my goddess ...

Han Yina's face turned paler and paler as she heard the compliments. No matter how unbelievable it was, she had to believe that Shi qinglan had scored full marks!

now, you should apologize to me publicly. Shi qinglan suddenly stood up and looked at han Yina with her red lips slightly pouted.

Han Yina's face turned even paler when she heard that.

The students could not help but wonder, 'apologize? Why did he apologize? Is there anything else that I don't know about?'

Han Yina instantly felt that she had lost face.

Her expression became a little unnatural. She pursed her lips and said reluctantly, " I'm sorry. she spoke quickly and confusedly.

"What did you just say?" Shi qinglan deliberately leaned closer.

...

“I’m sorry!” Han Yina gritted her teeth and raised her voice. Shi qinglan, I’m sorry!

“Oh ...” Shi qinglan deliberately dragged out the last syllable, and there was a hint of slyness in her sweet voice. She laughed and said, “but, what did you do wrong that you have to apologize?”

332 Let’s see who dares to bully my, Jiang boning’s, student!

“You ...” Han Yina glared at Shi qinglan in exasperation.

Of course, she didn’t have the face to admit what she had done. After all, her classmates from medical school were all here. If she admitted it publicly, it would be equivalent to slapping her own face!

However, Xie Kexin smiled and said, “I forgot to tell you about the situation. Han Yina created a side account and started rumors on the school forum to slander her classmates. Principal Yan has personally dealt with this matter and asked her to make a public apology to Shi qinglan!

Hearing this, the classroom couldn’t help but burst into an uproar.

They looked at han Yina in shock. They had not expected that the recent false accusations against Shi qinglan had come from her mouth ...

“I ...” Han Yina had no way to explain herself.

She clenched her teeth tightly, resentment and unwillingness spreading in her heart. She raised her head and looked at Shi qinglan with red eyes.

Shi qinglan’s Red lips curled up slightly. I’m waiting for your apology.

Xie Kexin even handed her a microphone. han Yina, I’ve already prepared all the props for you. You don’t even have to run errands at the radio station.

This was something that principal Yan had specially instructed.

After offending professor LAN, han Yina would be considered lucky if she was only slapped in the face and not expelled. She deserved to be punished.

isn’t it too much to slander a classmate?”

“Han Yina and Shi qinglan are roommates, right? What kind of deep hatred was it that she had to pour dirty water on him like this? And the rumors in school are so bad!”

han Yina, quickly apologize to Shi qinglan!

it's really hard to tell what's in a person's heart. Not to mention, you'll never know what kind of people are on the other side of the screen through the internet.

Han Yina didn't feel embarrassed when she heard the criticism and discussion. She just felt that she had lost a lot of face!

She reached out and took the microphone with trembling hands. Her palms were covered with cold sweat, and she hesitated, not knowing how to speak ...

Xie Kexin swung her ponytail and walked over.

He turned on the microphone for her and said, " I'll have to take up some of your time. After the school's investigation, we found out that the rumors about Shi qinglan, a new medical student, were spread by her classmate, han Yina, using her alternate account on the forum.

after a critical education, han Yina has recognized her mistake and is ready to make a public apology. Next, let's give our time to this student who has learned from her mistakes.

Xie Kexin's voice was transmitted through the microphone ...

Soon, it echoed in every corner of the campus. Many students could not help but stop and wait curiously for the next part.

Han Yina didn't expect the counselor to be so decisive, and her face couldn't help but turn pale.

However, Shi qinglan was also looking at her with a sweet smile. She leaned against her chair lazily and looked up quietly, waiting for an apology.

"I ..." Han Yina finally muttered.

She closed her eyes and realized that she would be embarrassed if she did not apologize. So, she braced herself and said, " Shi qinglan, I'm sorry. I shouldn't have misunderstood you.

"Misunderstanding?" Shi qinglan raised her eyebrows slightly.

There was a slight chill in her beautiful eyes, and when she looked at han Yina, there was a faint warning. She lowered her eyes slightly and casually rolled up her long hair that fell on her shoulders with her fingers.

The girl smiled sweetly. ah ... I remember that principal Yan said that if you don't apologize, you'll be expelled ..."

Han Yina's heart skipped a beat. She bit her lip and took a deep breath. I shouldn't have posted false remarks about Shi qinglan on the forum. I'm here to clarify that those were not true. I'm here to solemnly apologize to Shi qinglan-I'm sorry!

Shi qinglan finally lifted her chin in satisfaction.

However, han Yina glared at her unwillingly. Only she knew how embarrassed she was when she apologized just now!

The whole school didn't expect this to be the case ...

She had followed the post to scold Shi qinglan and had even thought of her as such a terrible person, but she did not expect that it was all han Yina's doing!

f * ck! Isn't han Yina too disgusting? ”

I thought Shi qinglan was really being kept as a mistress, and he even bought her education or something. I was so angry a few days ago!

“So, all of this is fake? Damn it, sister fairy has finally been cleared of her crimes. My hands are hurting from all the keyboard man attacks I've been throwing these past few days!”

han Yina is really disgusting. She can't clear her name ...

I didn't expect there to be such a person in Imperial University!

Not long after school started, han Yina's reputation had been tarnished by herself. She glared at Shi qinglan indignantly.

“Shi qinglan, don't be too smug.” She gritted her teeth and lowered her voice to declare war on Shi qinglan.

Shi qinglan raised the corner of her eyes lazily. Oh? ”

Han Yina was so angry that her chest heaved up and down violently, especially now that the other students around her were looking at her with strange eyes. She really wanted to get back some face!

“School has just started. So what if I get a perfect score in the entrance exam? It's impossible to treat and save people solely based on theoretical knowledge. We'll see how it goes in the future!”

Hearing this, Shi qinglan's smile deepened. I'm afraid that han Yina has forgotten about acute cholecystitis.

my medical skills are just average. I might not be able to show my skills, but I can at least do some basic first aid. I'm not like some people who flinch when they see someone faint.

"You ..." Han Yina was extremely vexed.

She really did not expect Shi qinglan to be able to save people back then. Otherwise, she would not have pushed her to save them, but would have done it herself. If that had happened, the one who was being praised as a miracle doctor might have been han Yina!

"Isn't it just a needle?"

Han Yina didn't take it to heart. in a while, the teacher will come to choose the students. Even if you get a full score, so what? the most famous person in our medical school is Dean Jiang boning of the Medical Research Institute.

it's a pity that he only has one spot under his name, and the National top scorer with full marks has already been decided.

"He's destined for meteoric success because he followed Dean Jiang boning. You'll never be able to beat him even if you get a full score in one test!"

"So, what are you so proud of?"

Shi qinglan couldn't help but chuckle. She didn't show any smugness from the beginning to the end, but she didn't know why han Yina was so full of herself and had such a bad intention towards her.

...

han Yina, stop talking. Song Xi couldn't help but frown. I don't want my face to hurt even more later.

She knew about Shi qinglan's results and was also aware that the person han Yina had mentioned with a perfect score was Shi qinglan!

"Your face hurt more?" Han Yina laughed. I don't believe that there's anything more embarrassing than being humiliated by Shi qinglan!

However, at this moment ...

A deep voice suddenly rang out. you're young, but you're not a small-mouthed person.

Jiang boning walked into the classroom with his hands clasped behind his back. His spirited eyes glanced around and then landed on han Yina. in this day and age, there's actually someone who doesn't know his own strength and dares to declare war on LAN girl!

"Let me see ... Who is so audacious that they dare to bully my, Jiang boning's, students?!"

333 Shi qinglan is my, Jiang boning's, student!

Jiang boning's voice was filled with a sense of vicissitude.

He was wearing a long robe and had a kind of celestial-like floating feeling, but because of that pair of bright eyes, he appeared vigorous, and the mature aura of a superior person gave people an invisible pressure.

All the students turned their eyes to him.

When he saw that it was actually Jiang boning, his excitement suddenly surged to the top of his head. it's ... It's President Jiang boning!"

Han Yina couldn't help but look at him with admiration.

The name Jiang boning was undoubtedly an outstanding existence in the medical field. Not only did he symbolize the Medical Research Institute, but he was also the top and most authoritative expert in the medical field!

When all medical students and even senior practitioners faced Jiang boning, they were like fans in the fan circle who had seen their idol!

"Dean Jiang, why are you here?" Xie Kexin immediately went up to him, her attitude respectful and full of admiration.

Jiang boning reached out and gently stroked his little stubble.

He raised his eyebrows slightly and looked at han Yina sharply. I heard someone bullying my people from far away! I'll support you!"

When the most dignified old man said such words, not only did it not make people feel out of place, but they also envied this behavior of protecting his children.

Han Yina raised her eyes and met Jiang boning's gaze. She could sense a few traces of anger from his wrinkled eyes.

She asked in confusion, " you ... Your people?"

Jiang boning glanced sideways at Shi qinglan, then narrowed his eyes at them. what? " The Academy didn't tell you?"

“What did he say?” Han Yina had a bad feeling.

She noticed that Jiang boning seemed to have noticed Shi qinglan, and some kind of speculation began to spread in her heart ...

However, just as she was wondering about something, she saw Jiang boning looking at Shi qinglan with dissatisfaction and waving at her. LAN girl, come here.

“Dean Jiang.” Shi qinglan smiled sweetly.

She walked to Jiang boning’s side and held his arm. When her weak and boneless little hand pulled on his sleeve, she seemed to be acting coquettishly.

Only then did Jiang boning shake her hand with satisfaction, and then his expression became serious again. He looked at the students in the classroom and solemnly introduced to them-

“This is Shi qinglan, a student of mine, Jiang boning!” The old man’s voice was firm and unquestionable.

His big and vigorous palm gently wrapped the girl’s small hand, and that intimate gesture was as if he treated her as his own granddaughter.

“What ... What?” Han Yina was shocked.

She widened her eyes and looked at Shi qinglan. Just as she was still trying to accept the truth, she heard the counselor, Xie Kexin-say-

Dean Jiang is right. Student Shi qinglan is the National top scorer who scored full marks in the college entrance examination this year. Naturally, she’s the only student that Dean Jiang boning has accepted this year.

Hearing this, han Yina’s back was instantly covered in cold sweat.

Her arms were covered in goosebumps as she looked at Shi qinglan in disbelief. why ... How could it be you!”

It had been more than half a month since he had met Shi qinglan during the military training.

She had never known that Shi qinglan was the legendary top scorer, and that she was also Dean Jiang boning’s student!

“Why can’t I?” Shi qinglan’s Red lips curled up slightly.

When she raised her eyes to look at han Yina, her delicate eyes glimmered, and her determined temperament revealed a little sharpness.

Han Yina was still in shock for a long time.

She had just mocked Shi qinglan for not being able to do anything even if she got a perfect score in the assessment, but in the blink of an eye, she had been slapped in the face!

sister LAN is indeed sister LAN. I really didn't become a fan of the wrong person ...

he's a super genius who scored full marks in all subjects. He scored full marks in the entrance examination and his level of first aid in acupuncture is so high. Such a God should be a professor. Why is he a student? " no wonder he didn't take the test at the beginning. He scored full marks in all subjects and was reserved by Dean Jiang. What test is there? "

I'm on my knees in front of sister LAN. Sister LAN is my goddess from now on!

When the students looked at Shi qinglan, their eyes were filled with envy and admiration, all of which came from the bottom of their hearts.

Song Xi's eyes also flashed with a faint light ...

She looked at the girl with bright eyes, but her lips were pursed and she didn't smile. She still looked a little reserved and proud.

"I hope some young people have some self-awareness and recognize their own level." Jiang boning pointed at han Yina, intentionally or otherwise.

He snorted coldly and said, " after all, little Lan's medical attainments are far beyond some people's. Those who can't even do basic first aid can't reach her! If you really want to continue in the medical field in the future, you'd better restrain yourself and learn from her!"

Jiang boning's every word was like a slap to han Yina's face.

His words were the highest instructions in the medical field, and his attitude was the most authoritative guidance in the medical field.

Anyone with a brain could understand how much Jiang boning valued Shi qinglan at this moment. He would even support her without reservation in the future and bring her into the Medical Research Institute in no time ...

Song Xi thought,"I've really hugged the right thigh!" (^-^)\

“LAN girl, let’s go.” Jiang boning looked at han Yina deeply, held Shi qinglan’s hand, and turned to leave.

Han Yina was so shocked by Jiang boning’s words that she broke out in cold sweat.

She had been a little happy that she had been admitted to Imperial University’s medical school and had been able to get close to Dean Jiang. Perhaps she could leave a good impression on him and have the opportunity to enter the Medical Research Institute ...

He didn’t expect that he would offend Jiang boning so thoroughly when school had just started!

With Dean Jiang boning’s words, she might not even be able to choose a good mentor.

This could be considered as cutting off half of her career in the medical field, and her future development was even more blurred.

Speaking of which, han Yina really deserves it ...

it’s not the first time she’s caused trouble for sister LAN. In the end, I didn’t expect that the bronze tier she thought was actually a King tier.

...

in short. it’s always right to be cautious with your words and actions. Let’s talk less and quietly hug sister Lan’s thigh ...

Han Yina could hear the buzz of discussion in her ears.

However, she was still in a daze. Looking at Jiang boning’s back as he carried Shi qinglan away, she felt like her head was about to explode!

“I told you to stop acting.” Song Xi’s lips curled.

She herself was a living example. She had once courted death like this, and in the end, she had been slapped in the face by Shi qinglan.

She had learned her lesson now!

Song Xi glanced at han Yina, then greeted the counselor and jogged to catch up with Shi qinglan and Jiang boning.

The medical school instructors came into the classroom one after another ...

Xie Kexin announced all the students ‘results, and a student-teacher duo would be selected based on their results. Han Yina’s results were only considered average.

The professors heard some rumors and didn't dare to offend Jiang boning by taking the initiative to accept Han Yina. In the end, after everyone had chosen their supervisor, an inexperienced Associate Professor was forced to accept her.

...

334 Where did you get the business card of the heir of the Research Institute?

Shi Qinglan let go of Jiang boning after she left the classroom.

She put her hands behind her back and looked up at the old man with bright eyes. Dean Jiang, you came at a good time.

"Stinky girl, don't joke around with me." Jiang boning glared at her angrily. Those who don't know would think that you're very respectful of your teacher! If you have the ability, go back and inherit the Research Institute!"

She was usually impudent, but now she was pretending to be well-behaved.

Shi Qinglan's red lips pouted slightly. Why did you inherit the Research Institute at such a young age? There are only a bunch of old men in there ...

Hearing her words, Jiang boning almost passed out from anger.

Just as the two of them were talking and laughing, they suddenly heard small steps behind them. Dean Jiang!

Jiang boning and Shi Qinglan immediately stopped and turned around.

He saw Song Xi running over with his short legs. A few strands of his fringe floated up because he ran so fast, making him look a little dazed.

She immediately raised her hand to press down her hair, then straightened her back and looked up at Jiang boning. Jiang ... Dean Jiang."

"What is it?" Jiang boning looked at the little girl suspiciously.

Song Xi pursed her lips nervously. She looked at the old man cautiously. Dean Jiang, I'm here to acknowledge you as my master.

"Acknowledge a master?" Jiang boning furrowed his brows.

He only accepted Shi Qinglan as his student, and there was only one student quota under his name. This was something that the entire imperial capital knew.

But this girl in front of him actually came to ask him to be her master?

"It's ..." yes, "song Xi replied without much confidence.

As she spoke, she glanced at Shi qinglan with a glint in her eyes.

The girl's Red lips were smiling, and her clear and lively eyes were sparkling with light as she looked at her with a smile.

For some reason, song Xi suddenly became tough. She took out an exquisite little box from her bag, opened it, and took out the business card that Shi qinglan had given her at the airport.

"Dean Jiang, please take a look at this." She handed it over.

Jiang boning took it suspiciously and lowered his head indifferently, but his eyes widened when he saw the business card clearly.

He could not help but be surprised. where did you get this business card? "

Song Xi looked up at Shi qinglan again. He bit his lower lip and said weakly, " a noble person gave it to me ... She said that I can take this business card to you and ask you to be my master."

The more she spoke, the softer her voice became, and she was a little unconvinced.

After all, she had never seen the real business card of the Medical Research Institute, and she didn't know if this so-called business card of the heir was real or fake.

"A noble?" Jiang boning glanced at Shi qinglan.

The girl looked up at the ceiling, pretending not to know anything, but she still touched the tip of her nose guiltily and looked away.

Song Xi was so nervous that his palms were sweating. Dean Jiang, this business card ... Could it be a fake?"

"That's not the case." Jiang boning glanced disdainfully at Shi qinglan, who was standing beside the taxi. it's just that you're a little cheeky, my benefactor.

He didn't have any intention of taking in a disciple!

He had come to the medical school of Imperial University to be a professor, and had even claimed to have Shi qinglan under his wing. He had simply wanted to keep an eye on her every day, so that she could inherit the Research Institute!

In the end, this girl ...

He had forcefully stuffed a real disciple into his life!

“Then ...” Song Xi nervously tugged at the corner of his clothes.

Shi qinglan’s voice suddenly floated over. song Xi is very talented. Consider taking him in.

Jiang boning raised his hand and pushed his glasses, ” ...

The way he looked at Shi qinglan couldn’t be any more disdainful. His expression was as if he had eaten garlic, but he couldn’t express his bitterness.

“Alright, alright, alright, I’ll keep it.” Jiang boning waved his hand rather helplessly, his response was both reluctant and perfunctory.

But song Xi still shrieked in surprise.

“R-really?” She blinked her eyes and looked at the old man.

Jiang boning put his hands behind his back and looked at song Xi with a stern face. since the person on the business card wants me to take you in, I’ll make an exception and take you in as my disciple today.

but let’s get the ugly things out of the way first. Our Medical Research Institute has never done charity. If I find out that you’re not talented enough or have bad intentions, I may expel you at any time.

Song Xi’s eyes sparkled, and he nodded like a chicken pecking at rice.

He did not know if she had actually heard what he said, but she was so surprised that she did not know what to do as she looked at the old man in front of her.

“Alright, we’ll talk about the rest after the class officially starts.” Jiang boning waved his hand, not wanting to waste too much time.

He really wasn’t a patient teacher.

It was only a few years ago when he saw that Shi qinglan was extremely talented that he taught her a few things. However, most of the things she learned were from her own research, and it had little to do with him to achieve what she had today.

“Thank you, Dean Jiang! I will work hard!”

Song Xi bowed deeply to him with a particularly straight posture. His tone was clear, and his eyes were firm when he straightened his back.

Jiang boning and Shi qinglan turned around and left. Song Xi jumped around in excitement. ah ah ah ... I've succeeded! I've actually become Dean Jiang's student!"

The girl looked at Shi qinglan with adoration and gratitude, and then looked forward to her university life with joy.

..

Shi qinglan did not have anything else to do.

She lowered her eyes and sent Bo Li Cheng a text message, preparing to go home. After that, she was asked to wait at the school gate for him to pick her up later.

...

The metal-black Maybach stopped steadily at the school gate ...

The girl walked over and saw Wen le getting out of the driver's seat. He went around to open the door for her with a smile on his face. miss Shi, master Bo sent me to take you home.

Shi qinglan got into the car suspiciously.

Wen le started the car and drove towards the qinglan waterside Pavilion. The girl looked up at the driver's seat and asked, " why did they send you to pick me up today? "

She had thought that Bo Li Cheng would stop by after work.

Wen le replied naturally, " something happened in the company. Master Bo is in a terrible state and can't leave, so he sent me here.

"What happened?" Shi qinglan could not help but frown slightly, her beautiful eyes showing a hint of worry.

Wen le thought that since they were going to get married sooner or later, the Bo family should give her at least half of it. Moreover, master Bo didn't tell her to hide anything, so he told her everything.

"Master Bo's computer was hacked and many of the confidential documents were swallowed by the virus. He's fighting with the code." Wen le grinned cheekily as if he was gloating.

He didn't think it was a big deal.

After all, he was very clear about master Bo's skill level. Other than the mysterious s from the pure world Pavilion, he could defeat anyone. Even if he really met s, as long as he played seriously, they would at least be a draw.

...

"A hacker?" Shi qinglan's eyes flickered.

She lowered her eyes and thought for a moment. Her Jade-like slender fingers tapped on her lap. you can drive me to the company.

"Ah?" Wen le looked at her through the rearview mirror in a daze.

"To the company." Shi qinglan's Red lips parted slightly, looking very certain.

335 Shi qinglan, shall I help you to try to get rid of the virus?

The Bo financial magnate's office building.

The air pressure in the CEO's office was extremely low. It was as if there was an invisible cold air being released. Even Wen mo held his breath and didn't dare to make a sound.

Bo Zhicheng had one hand on the office desk, his sleeve was slightly removed, revealing his well-defined wrist. The expensive watch on his wrist had also been taken off and thrown to the side.

"Master Bo ..." Wen mo pursed his lips.

He could see that the man was in a bad mood, probably because the business documents that had been corrupted by the virus could not be completely recovered.

He tried to call out to the man, but Bo Yucheng only raised his hand to tug at his tie and unbuttoned the top two buttons in a slightly irritated manner. His collar was wide open, revealing a dispirited sexiness ...

"Do you have a copy of these files?" His cold lips parted slightly.

Bo Yucheng had shut down his computer and gone to sleep last night. The soft fragrance in his arms had made him let down his guard, and he had forgotten that the person he had fought with before was a hacker. Even if he had escaped, it would not have been so easy.

After returning to the company today, he realized ...

The computer had actually been invaded by jinglan's virus. After a night's work, the business documents were almost completely devoured!

Bo chicheng used his code to compete with the virus for an entire day. Fortunately, his level was not inferior and managed to recover at least half of the documents. However, there were still many important documents that could not be found.

"No, I didn't," Wen mo replied honestly, "the documents on your computer are top-secret, and some of them were sent to the company before you had time to review them ... That's why there's no backup."

Upon hearing this, Bo Li Cheng's expression suddenly turned even colder.

He clenched his fists so tightly that the veins on the back of his hands were popping out. The aura around him was even colder.

"Master Bo, there might be one more way." Wen mo suddenly thought of something and looked at the man with a serious expression.

Bo Yicheng's long and narrow eyes narrowed. what? "

"S from the pure world Pavilion." Wen mo replied without any expression.

Upon hearing this, Bo Yucheng's dark eyes darkened slightly. He lowered his eyes slightly, his slender and white fingers tapping rhythmically on the table, as if he was seriously thinking about something ...

S of the pure world Pavilion was undoubtedly the top hacker.

Five years ago, he had a very high reputation in the circle, and his skill level was definitely above anyone else.

Although thin Hill City had technology that was on par with S's, these viruses were, after all, from the pure world Pavilion and were personally implanted by its successor, Jing LAN. It was likely that only the people from the pure world Pavilion had a way to cure them.

However, S wouldn't accept the order so easily. After all, taking his order meant that he was going against their heir ...

if you think it's okay, I'll put out a reward to the pure world Pavilion and ask S to take the order to help us recover the documents.

Shi qinglan had just walked to the door of the office when she heard Wen Mo's words. She raised her eyebrows slightly.

Wen le smiled and touched his nose. miss Shi, this is master Bo's office. If you want to go in now, you'd better let me say hello to him first, right? "

After all, he had felt a lot of pressure in the company today ...

If Shi qinglan had barged into the office directly and got involved in the fire, it would have affected their relationship, and he would have committed a great sin.

"Yes." Shi qinglan nodded in response.

Wen le nodded and knocked on the office door.

Bo Li Cheng was thinking about Wen Mo's idea when he suddenly heard a very careful knock on the door. knock, knock, knock ...

He suddenly raised his eyes and looked at the closed door unhappily.

"Master Bo," Wen le's voice could be heard from outside the office.

Bo Yicheng's eyes turned slightly cold. He was about to ask him to get lost when he heard him say, " miss Shi came to the company to look for you.

Hearing this, the man's eyebrows moved.

He restrained the cold aura around him a little. He raised his hand to button up his shirt and put on his tie again. come in.

Wen le heaved a sigh of relief and turned to look at the girl.

Shi qinglan thanked him in a low voice. Wen le then helped her open the door and the girl walked into the office ...

Bo Zhicheng rolled down his sleeves.

He raised his eyes to look at the girl. When he met her bright eyes, the coldness in the bottom of his eyes disappeared almost instantly. His entire body quieted down as if his hair had been smoothened.

"What are you doing here?" The man's voice was slightly hoarse.

Shi qinglan walked to Bo Zicheng's side, and he immediately wrapped his arms around her waist and sat her on his lap. I missed you.

The girl's voice was soft and sweet, and there was a hint of coquettishness in it.

Wen le and Wen mo looked at each other and left the office immediately, leaving them some alone time.

“You miss me?” Bo Li Cheng’s eyes looked at the girl deeply.

Shi qinglan wrapped her arms around his neck and pouted her red lips. you didn’t come to pick me up. Wen le said that something happened in your company, so I came to see if I could help you.

Upon hearing this, Bo Li Cheng could not help but chuckle in a low and hoarse voice.

He ruffled the girl’s hair helplessly and affectionately. silly girl, just wait for me at home.

“How’s the handling?” Shi qinglan asked softly.

Bo Yicheng thought that Wen le should have given him a general idea, so he didn’t hide it. most of the documents have been retrieved, but some of them have been eroded too thoroughly and we’re still thinking of a way.

Shi qinglan lowered her eyes and glanced at the man’s computer.

There was still a lot of code on the screen, and the traces of virus invasion were very heavy. It was obvious that the problem had not been completely solved.

“Let me try?” The girl’s Red lips smiled.

Her eyes were glistening, and the corners of her eyes were like a little fox, so charming that it made people’s hearts itch.

Bo Li Cheng’s brows raised slightly. Lan Lan knows how to hack? ”

...

“Oh, I know a little. I self-taught a little when I was bored.” Shi qinglan’s fair cheeks puffed up slightly.

Bo Yicheng chuckled in a low and hoarse voice.

He indulged the girl. After all, the computer was already in such a state. Even if she made a mistake, it would just be a failure. It would not cause any more damage.

“You can try.” Bo Li Cheng raised his chin slightly.

Shi qinglan slid down from the man’s body and pushed him to the side with her small hands. Then, she sat down on the president’s office chair without any restraint and slid the computer in front of her.

The girl's operation was very skilled ...

Her Jade-like slender fingers tapped on the keyboard, and her speed of entering code was extremely fast. It was as if she could write a program without thinking.

Bo Li Cheng stood at the side and watched.

His dark eyes were slightly deep, and he could not help but be a little surprised when he saw the girl's operation. He could feel that her skills might not be inferior to his ...

"Give me some time," Shi qinglan's Red lips parted.

When the girl was serious in her work, her whole body inadvertently revealed a sharp edge, and her eyes were full of self-confidence, unlike the coquettish and lovely look she had just now.

...

"As long as you want." Bo chicheng's Red lips curled up slightly.

336 Master Bo's sockpuppet in continent S is suspected

Shi qinglan quickly figured out the computer system.

He quickly found the invasion point of the virus, but the more he attacked, the more strange it felt.

This virus's program was very advanced, and it was difficult to crack it. The level of the person who designed the virus was definitely not inferior to her.

Most importantly, she felt that this virus was a little familiar.

It seemed to be a program she had written and thrown into his computer after she had escaped from the boss of continent s that night.

Shi qinglan suddenly looked up at the man.

She couldn't help but slow down her typing speed. The corners of her charming eyes lifted slightly, and she looked at him with a faint smile.

"What's wrong?" Bo Li Cheng's hair stood on end from her smile.

Shi qinglan stopped. She leaned back lazily and crossed her arms in front of her. this virus is quite powerful.

Bo Li Cheng was not surprised by this result.

He strode over with his long legs, picked the girl up, and sat back on the chair. Then, he held her in his arms. it's okay. I'll think of another way to solve it.

Shi qinglan's eyes flashed with an elusive light.

She leaned against the man's chest and looked at him with a smile. ah Cheng, who did you offend to write you such a high-level virus program? ”

At the mention of jinglan, a hostile aura rose around Bo Li Cheng.

However, he still restrained himself in front of the girl, and his voice deepened a little. nothing, just an irreconcilable enemy.

“Absolutely irreconcilable?” Shi qinglan's voice was long.

Her red lips curled up slightly and she rubbed against the man's chest even more. is it an enemy in the business world? ”

“No.” Bo Li Cheng denied without hesitation.

“Then ...” A sly glint flashed across Shi qinglan's eyes. Her fingertips slid across the man's chest, and she drew circles on him like a Little Vixen. are you the enemy of another character? ”

Bo Li Cheng sensed that the girl seemed to be testing him.

His red lips curled up a little, and his arm around her waist tightened involuntarily. Lan Lan, are you trying to expose me? ”

“I'm just curious.” She pouted her red lips in a coquettish manner.

After all, the virus program in the computer was indeed written by her for the boss of continent S. No one else should be able to write this program, nor would they have such a high-level virus.

“Are you going to tell me or not?” Shi qinglan's voice became even more tender.

At this moment, she was sitting on the man's lap. One of her Lotus-like arms was around his neck, and the other hand was gently poking his chest. That Little Vixen-like look was simply too torturous.

Bo Yicheng chuckled in a low and hoarse voice. if you want to know, strip it yourself.

Upon hearing this, the slyness in Shi qinglan's eyes intensified. Her soft, boneless hands suddenly grabbed his tie and pulled the man into her arms, then she took off his suit jacket ...

“Strip yourself, huh?” She raised her voice slightly.

Her Jade-like fingers began to unbutton his white shirt, but the man raised his chin slightly to cooperate with her movements.

Bo Yucheng even held her wrist and slowly moved it down to her waist. Then, he pressed his thin lips to her ear and reminded her in a low voice, “Lan Lan, untie this.

Hearing this, Shi Qinglan’s delicate body trembled.

She almost fell off Bo Li Cheng’s body. She had wanted to test him and tease him, but she didn’t expect that her status was not high enough, and her legs were still softened by the man’s flirting.

“Boring.” Shi Qinglan pouted her red lips.

She let go of the man’s clothes and freed her other hand from his grip. She looked away.

Bo Zhicheng’s voice was filled with pampering and indulgence.

He let the girl slide off his body. Shi Qinglan pulled a chair over and asked, “The virus is so powerful. What are you going to do with these important documents?”

Bo Li Cheng’s eyes darkened slightly.

However, he was not gloomy. He just lowered his eyes, his long eyelashes casting a faint shadow at the bottom of his eyes. His tone seemed to be a little displeased. If Lan Lan can’t do it, then I can’t do it either.

Shi Qinglan snorted in her heart.

However, she still had a sweet smile on her face. She looked at the man with one hand on her cheek. I may really have no way. The person who designed the virus is obviously very powerful. Why don’t ...

“What?” Bo Li Cheng looked up at the girl.

Shi Qinglan pretended to be deep in thought. I heard that there’s a hacker called S in the Pure World Pavilion. She seems to be very powerful and should be able to help you solve the virus problem. However, the appearance fee seems to be a little high. It should be at least a billion ...

Bo Yucheng watched as the girl racked her brains to help him think of a solution.

His heart couldn't help but soften a little. He couldn't help but pinch her face. This amount of money isn't a problem, but S's temper is weird and his whereabouts are uncertain. It's difficult to get him to take orders.

Shi Qinglan smiled leisurely. I happen to know a friend from the Pure World Pavilion. Maybe I can get her to say hi.

Hearing this, Bo Li Cheng's brows could not help but raise slightly.

He did not doubt the girl's connections. After all, she had a lot of big bosses around her. It would not be strange if she knew people from the Pure World Pavilion. However, S was not someone who could accept orders just by asking ...

Moreover, he hadn't made it clear to the girl that the person who implanted this virus was the heir of the Jingshi Pavilion, so it would be even more difficult for S to take the order.

"You don't believe me?" Shi Qinglan's tone was slightly raised.

She saw the man's silence and couldn't help but pout like a spoiled child. She leaned closer to him, held his arm, and shook it gently. Believe me, you can try to spend one billion to place an S bounty. What if she suddenly has a sudden impulse and takes the job when she sees money? "

Bo Yucheng was still thinking about how to tell the girl that this was not an easy task, but when he heard her soft voice and her coquettish look, his heart softened, and he could not say the words of rejection ...

"Alright," he said. The man indulged her and replied in a deep voice.

It was just an order. At most, S would reject him. However, this small matter could make the girl beside him happy for a long time.

Hence, in front of Shi Qinglan, Bo Li Cheng put up a white list reward for the Pure World Pavilion and transferred one billion Yuan to the middleman trading platform without hesitation to get S out of the mountain to help him solve the virus.

...

"It's done," Bo Chicheng turned to the side and looked at the girl with a faint smile.

Shi Qinglan took a closer look at the screen, then secretly took out her phone, logged into the Pure World Pavilion system, and accepted the call.

If she didn't make this Dog Man bleed a little, she wouldn't be able to take this lying down.

One billion was already too cheap for him.

After she had completely removed his cover, she would punish him by making him sleep on the sofa in the living room for a year! Don't even think about climbing into her bed and getting into her blanket for a year!

"Are we going home?" Shi qinglan looked at the man with a sweet smile.

"Alright," he said. After that, Bo Yucheng closed his computer and no longer cared about this stupid virus. He hugged the girl and left the company like an incapable ruler. Before he left, he instructed Wen le to keep an eye on the jingshi Pavilion order.

337 Bo Li Cheng asked S:Are you willing to meet?

Clear water Pavilion.

Bo Yucheng still had some follow-up matters to deal with. After coaxing the girl, he went to the study room. Shi qinglan ran back to her bedroom happily, and then her phone vibrated.

tsk ... she immediately reached for her phone.

He saw a red dot on the top right corner of the White Horse Club WeChat group, and they were already talking to each other.

[Jiang Yan] f * ck, f * ck, big brother actually took the order!

[Yu mu] master LAN is awesome, a 1 billion order at once, I'm simply a fish with pickled vegetables.

[Gu Yan] the order from the master of the Bo financial magnate?

Shi qinglan didn't pay attention to these group messages. She pursed her lips and was about to make a move, but Jiang Yan suddenly came over and sent a private message. it's a little abnormal for master LAN to suddenly accept the order ~~~"

The three wavy ships behind them were full of sluttiness.

The corners of Shi qinglan's eyes twitched. it's a lot of money. It's convenient.

"Is that so?" Jiang Yan looked at the screen suspiciously, clearly not believing her Grand words.

In the past, the people who had placed orders with s were not stingy, especially some big bosses abroad. There were also some rich Bo family tycoons.

There were so many billion-dollar orders, but he had never seen her take them before.

“I heard that you’re currently in the capital, right?” Jiang Yan began to make a bold guess. you know that man? ”

Otherwise, she really couldn’t understand why he suddenly took the order.

After all, he was also a hacker, but his skills weren’t as good. That day, after jinglan suddenly went offline, he followed her trail and found out that it was actually continent S’s boss who had almost caught up to his whereabouts.

And jinglan had thrown a vicious virus into his computer.

Coincidentally, this old man from the Bo financial magnate was also here to cure the virus.

The corners of Shi qinglan’s eyes lifted slightly. She recalled what Bo Zicheng had said in the office today, and her red lips curled up slightly.

The girl chuckled. we’re not close, but we can’t live under the same sky.

“Tsk.” Jiang Yan threw a few silly emojis over and stared at the screen, trying to see if there were any flaws.

However, jinglan had always been the kind of person who didn’t talk much and wouldn’t talk much with them. The few words she threw out were also very straightforward.

Jiang Yan touched his chin and continued to probe. I heard that the master of the Bo financial magnate seems to be a golden Bachelor in China. He’s popular with both men and women, and he’s extremely handsome and has a good figure ...

Shi qinglan’s eyes flickered slightly when she saw this.

Then, a message popped up on the screen, ” master LAN, don’t tell me you were bent by his handsomeness when you went to Emperor LAN and fell under his suit pants? ”

Shi qinglan was speechless.

The disdain in her beautiful eyes was not concealed at all.

She could not help but frown slightly. She lowered her eyes and replied seriously, ” Bo Yucheng is not a Bachelor.

After sending the message, she blacklisted Jiang Yan.

Jiang Yan didn't understand what she meant. He was dumbfounded and was about to ask Jinglan when a red warning dot popped up after the message was sent.

[the message has been sent, but it was rejected by the other party.]

"F * ck!" Jiang Yan couldn't help but curse. He raised his hand and touched the tip of his nose. why are you so fierce just because I made a wild guess? "

Could it be that he accidentally found out the truth and hurt master Lan's pride as a man, making him angry out of embarrassment?

In that case, would master LAN be on the offensive or on the defensive in front of master Bo?

However, Shi qinglan did not give him any chance to imagine. After blocking him, she ignored him and began to deal with the virus ...

To be honest, when she designed the virus, she really didn't think about how to overcome it, but she gave herself a difficult problem.

..

At the same time, in the study next door.

Without the girl's help to soothe his fur, Bo Yucheng's aura involuntarily darkened again. Staring at the computer that had been damaged by the virus, his eyes were a little sinister.

"Jinglan ..." He gritted his teeth and narrowed his eyes at the screen.

Whenever he thought about how he had been tricked by Jinglan, the enmity he had for the pure world Pavilion would deepen.

"Swish-"

However, at this moment, his phone suddenly vibrated.

Bo Yicheng's cold eyes glanced at the screen. When he saw that it was a call from Wen le, he picked up his phone and swiped the green button.

"Speak," he said. The man coldly spat out a single word.

Wen le's surprised and silly voice was suddenly heard. f * ck, f * ck, f * ck, master Bo! S actually accepted the order!"

Upon hearing this, Bo Li Cheng's long and narrow eyes suddenly narrowed.

He tightened his grip on the phone and raised his voice. what did you say? ”

“It’s true! S has accepted the order!” Wen le was so excited that he almost jumped up. we actually managed to invite a living S!

He had never dreamed that S would talk to him one day.

A trace of surprise also flashed across Bo Yicheng’s deep eyes. did he say anything else when he accepted the order? ” what else can we say? of course, we’ll take the money and go to work! Wen le didn’t understand what old master Bo meant.

But Bo Li Cheng’s eyes darkened.

Indeed, he didn’t expect S to take his order. After all, even if one billion was a large sum of money, S wouldn’t go against the next Pavilion master of his organization for this money.

...

There was a strange look in the man’s eyes.

He suddenly recalled what Shi qinglan had said in the office and connected the dots. S had indeed accepted his order!

“S didn’t say anything?” Bo Yucheng asked again in a deep voice.

“No, I didn’t.” Wen le touched her head in confusion.

Bo Zhicheng frowned slightly. He could not help but wonder about the identity of Shi qinglan’s friend from the pure world Pavilion ...

Good relationship with S? Otherwise, how could she persuade him to take the order?

Moreover, not only did they have a good relationship, but they must have a very deep background in the pure world Pavilion or had an absolutely high status. Otherwise, S would not take the risk of going against jinglan.

“Master Bo, is there a problem?” Wen le said uncertainly, afraid that she was celebrating too early.

Bo Yucheng placed his wrist gently on the desk, his well-defined fingers tapping on the table from time to time, the sound without any rhythm.

The man pursed his thin lips into a thin line and said coldly, " contact the pure world Pavilion and ask if S is willing to meet me. I can go to the city he's in.

He wanted to know what kind of relationship this S had with his Lan Lan, or what kind of role that so-called friend had.

...

"Ah?" Wen le was even more dumbfounded.

"Go and do it." Bo Yucheng instructed in a deep voice. Then, without giving him a chance to be dumbfounded, he hung up the phone.

Shi qinglan had spent an hour researching the virus ...

Although she had written the program herself, she had never left a way out for anyone or herself when she downloaded the virus, so it took a lot of effort to remove it.

After finally retrieving the virus removal file, she logged into the pure world Pavilion system and was about to hand in the mission to thin city when she suddenly received a message from him. are you willing to meet? "

Would Lan Lan agree to meet him?

338 You're the boss of continent s?

Shi qinglan raised her eyebrows slightly.

When she saw the message on the screen, her red lips curled up without a trace, and the corners of her lips held a hint of a smile.

The girl was half-leaning on the table lazily with one hand on her cheek and her head slightly tilted. Her other hand was placed on the side of the table, and her Jade-like fingers were lightly tapping on the table.

"Just a meeting ..." She dragged out the last syllable.

A sly smile flashed across her eyes. When she looked at the news again, her charming eyes were as charming as a Fox's.

"Alright." Shi qinglan typed on the keyboard to reply to the message.

Since Bo chicheng wanted to meet, then she would go as s. Maybe she could also dig out his other identity ...

Bo Li Cheng did not expect S to agree so readily.

He had been thinking about how to explain to Shi Qinglan that he had to go on a business trip to a land, but the address she had sent him was ... Tomorrow night, eight o'clock, Imperial Palace entertainment club.

"The imperial capital?" Bo Li Cheng's eyes darkened.

The foundation of the Jingshi Pavilion was in country A. It was a coincidence that the heir, Jinglan, and the top hacker S were both in the capital of China.

..

Imperial Palace.

The nightlife was extravagant, the lights were gorgeous, the dance floor was full of swaying slender waists, and the dynamic music beat the drums to make people sway.

The exquisite wine glass was filled with beautiful wine, and the lights flickered, creating a mysterious and ambiguous atmosphere ...

In a high-class private room, Bo Li Cheng casually fiddled with the wine bottle in front of him, mixing his cocktail lazily and casually. Suddenly, he raised his hand to look at the time on his watch.

It was 7:55 pm. There were still five minutes left.

"Mo, do you think S will really come?" Wen Le nudged Wen Mo, who was standing beside him, with his shoulder. He guessed with a smile, "Is he just trying to trick us?"

After all, S's presence in the capital was quite a surprise.

Wen Mo straightened his back expressionlessly. Even after being hit, he did not change his posture and ignored Wen Le.

Wen Le continued to talk to himself, "What will the president look like if he comes? This middle-aged man should be the one with such amazing hacking skills, right? A bald, beer-bellied, hobo man?"

"You're very noisy." Wen Mo said coldly.

Wen Le glanced sideways and saw his cold and disdainful gaze. She could not help but pout in disappointment. You're really a blockhead.

Seeing that the person next to him was ignoring him, he didn't ask for a snub and quietly waited for the answer for five minutes.

At the same time, in the main hall of the imperial capital's kun Palace ...

A slender figure suddenly appeared. It was Shi qinglan, dressed in a simple white t-shirt and a short, loose black jacket that covered her figure. Her black tights touched her slender legs and she wore a pair of ordinary canvas shoes of an unknown brand.

She tied up her long hair and hid it in her baseball cap. The brim of the hat was slightly lowered so that one could not see her face clearly. She was also wearing a black mask on her face, and only her tender and white hands could be vaguely seen.

"Please show your membership card." The receptionist said as usual.

Shi qinglan raised her hand and lowered the brim of her hat. She deliberately lowered her voice before replying, "I'm meeting someone."

After matching the secret code of the private room with the front desk, Shi qinglan was then led to the door of the private room. Sir, this is the room.

"Yes." Shi qinglan deliberately spoke in a hoarse voice. Her voice was magnetic, and it was hard to tell if it was male or female. thanks.

The person who led her to the door of the private room turned around and left. She immediately put her hand on the doorknob and pressed it down hard ...

At this moment, Bo Yucheng had just mixed a cocktail.

Suddenly, he heard the sound of the private room's door being opened. He casually closed his eyes and saw a young man walk into the private room.

The young man had both his hands in his pockets, and his standing posture was somewhat arrogant and unbridled. Then, he strode over to him.

damn, this top hacker looks a little young ... Wen le's eyes widened in shock as he stared at the man.

He had thought that it would be a bald man who would pick his feet, but it turned out to be a genius young man who looked like he had just come of age!

"S?" The corners of Bo Li Cheng's eyes lifted slightly.

His eyes also flashed with some surprise. His slightly deep eyes sized up the young man in front of him. He was different from what he had imagined.

"Yes." Shi qinglan's voice was hoarse and low.

Her eyes were slightly lowered, and her eyes were covered by the brim of her hat, but the red lips hidden behind the mask were slightly curved.

Bo Li Cheng's gaze swept past her indifferently. sit.

Shi qinglan sat down on the sofa without any hesitation. Her hands were still in her pockets as she leaned back lazily. She had no intention of taking off her mask and hat.

"Mr. S is indeed mysterious." Bo Yucheng also slowly sat down beside her, his tone somewhat profound.

Shi qinglan raised her chin slightly, and the brim of her hat was raised higher along with her movement. isn't master Bo also hiding his true self? "

There was a sense of probing in his low and hoarse voice.

Bo Yicheng's Red lips curled up slightly, his fingers twirling gently. it seems that Mr. S has already guessed it.

A look of surprise flashed across Shi qinglan's eyes when she heard this.

She didn't expect Bo Li Cheng to admit it so quickly. She had wanted to test his identity, but he took the initiative to take off his identity?

"You're the boss of continent s?" Shi qinglan's eyes narrowed slightly as she raised her hat a little.

That pair of charming eyes now had a bit of coldness. She was looking at the man with half-closed eyes, with a sense of scrutiny and sizing him up.

Bo Yicheng laughed lazily. yes.

As he spoke, he bent down to pick up the cocktail and casually shook it.

Just as he was about to taste the wine, he didn't expect the glass to be suddenly snatched away by the teenager beside him. He raised his eyes slightly and looked over.

...

The young man's eyes were still squinted. Although his gaze and temperament were cold, his long and curled eyelashes exuded a girly aura.

"I made the wine. Mr. S, would you like to try it?" His red lips curled up slightly.

Shi qinglan lowered her eyes and glanced at the glass of wine. A trace of rejection flashed in her eyes, and she immediately put the glass back on the coffee table.

She deliberately lowered her voice and said, " I don't drink.

"I'm being presumptuous." Bo Zhicheng was still smiling lazily. He picked up the glass of wine and took a small sip, looking like a demon when he was competing with others.

Shi qinglan's cold eyes were fixed on him.

Her lips behind the mask suddenly curved up, and she asked with a faint smile, " I heard ... Master Bo seemed to have said that you can't live under the same sky as the heir of our pure world Pavilion?"

Bo Zicheng's Adam's apple rolled slightly without a trace.

He raised his eyebrows slightly, then raised his head and finished the cocktail. He licked his lips flirtatiously. you're right to say that.

Shi qinglan's eyes flashed with some unknown meaning.

She sneered and looked up at the lights in the room. we can't live under the same sky

...

...

What would happen if he found out about her identity in the future?

339 Sister Lan's hacker S's avatar is exposed

Bo Li Cheng sensed the change in the young man's mood.

His long and narrow eyes slanted slightly. may I ask why Mr. S agreed to take my order? "

Shi qinglan suddenly looked up at the man.

After meeting S, this was the first time Bo Li Cheng and S looked at each other. Previously, the youngster had used the baseball cap to cover his eyes and wore a mask, clearly not wanting to expose his appearance.

He had deliberately chosen an occasion like the seal Palace, probably because he wanted to blend in with the blinding Lights to hide himself.

The young man raised his eyes to look at him, his exposed eyes were slightly charming. Although they looked cold, the upturned shape of his eyes and the shimmering light in them could not be hidden.

"A sudden impulse, and my eyes opened at the sight of money."

Upon hearing this, Bo Yucheng's dark eyes deepened, because he suddenly remembered that Shi Qinglan had also used these words to persuade him back then.

His eyes landed on the young man, and he did not hide his probing intentions. "Aren't you afraid that your heir, Jinglan, will find trouble with you?"

"She doesn't care about this." Shi Qinglan's voice was low.

As she spoke, she lowered her eyes again and raised her hand to press down the baseball cap. However, she did not expect that someone would suddenly hold her wrist, and her raised arm froze.

Bo Yicheng deliberately dragged out the last syllable. "Really?"

He lowered his eyes slightly and sized her up without leaving a trace ... No, he was sizing her up.

Somehow, he felt that there was something interesting about this.

"Master Bo," Shi Qinglan moved her wrist slightly, trying to break free, so she had to lower her voice to remind him.

Bo Yucheng's red lips suddenly curled into a smile.

He held the girl's wrist in his large hand. There were two layers of fabric between them, so he couldn't tell if it was the familiar feeling.

So he deliberately moved his body closer ...

"Mr. S, why don't you want to take off your mask?" Bo Yucheng's voice was slightly low as he took the opportunity to gently sniff the scent around the girl.

Her body was surrounded by a faint cherry blossom fragrance, mixed with a bit of Milky sweetness, and he was familiar with her breath.

She remembered what happened in the office ...

When Shi Qinglan first took over the computer, she was very familiar with it. He even suspected that her technical skills were on par with his.

Then, he took the initiative to mention S from the Jingshi Pavilion and frankly said that he had a way to get S to take his order ...

I heard that Master Bo is attracted to both men and women. He's the Golden Bachelor of the imperial capital but he doesn't get close to women. I'm good-looking and I'm afraid that I'll turn Master Bo gay. However, I don't have any plans to be gay.

A sly look flashed across Shi qinglan's eyes, and the teasing tone in her voice was obvious. She had obviously done it on purpose.

"Mr. S said I don't get close to women?" Bo chicheng's Red lips curved up slightly.

When he looked at the girl, his black eyes darkened. haven't you tried enough whether I'm close to women or not? "

Shi qinglan's heart skipped a beat when she heard that.

A glint flashed in her eyes as she turned her face away slightly. Her lips under the mask were slightly pursed, showing a little nervousness.

Although she didn't expect to protect her avatar this time ... But wasn't Bo Li Cheng finding out a little too quickly?

"Lan Lan?" Bo Yucheng suddenly moved closer to the girl, his hot breath inadvertently spraying on her neck.

Shi qinglan subconsciously shrank her neck and moved to the side, and the intimate call made her heart tremble slightly.

She lowered her voice and wanted to struggle. master Bo, you got the wrong person. I'm a real man.

"Then can you take it off for me to see?" Bo Yucheng's tone was teasing.

As he spoke, he reached out his long arm and put it around the girl's shoulder. His fingers gently pinched her coat and pulled it out.

Shi qinglan immediately raised her hand to cover her shoulder and pulled on her coat to prevent the man from pulling it. master Bo, please have some self-respect. If you want to be gay, the two men over there are quite suitable.

Upon hearing this, Bo Zhicheng's eyes narrowed slightly as he glanced at her.

Wen le and Wen mo looked at each other and said, " master Bo, we'll go outside first.

As they spoke, they immediately turned around and left the private room.

At this moment, there were only the two of them left in the private room. Bo Yucheng's arm was still wrapped around the girl's shoulder, and that intimate posture, accompanied by the light in the bar, faintly revealed a bit of ambiguity.

"You're the only one left now." The man's voice was low.

They were very close to each other, and the faint cherry blossom fragrance on the girl's body was even more familiar to him. The lingering smell almost made him certain that it was her.

Shi qinglan moved to the side again because of the man.

However, Bo Li Cheng continued to pursue her until he forced the girl to a corner of the sofa, his long arms suddenly moving down to hook around her waist.

"If you're not Lan Lan, why are you running?" The man's voice was low and magnetic, with a hint of teasing.

As he spoke, he suddenly reached out and picked up a glass of wine.

His slender and fair fingers gently held the wine glass and casually brought it to the girl's lips. I personally mixed this wine. Mr. S, are you interested in trying it? "

One drop ... Let's see if she still wants to hide it.

Shi qinglan's eyes were slightly lowered as she looked at the glass of wine. The bottom of the wine glass was transparent, and there was a faint layer of blood-red floating on it. The wine looked like it had a high alcohol content.

The girl bit her lower lip. Just by smelling the wine in the wine glass, the corners of her eyes turned slightly red.

She opened her mouth. I can't drink with a mask on ... Ah!"

But before she could finish her sentence, Bo Li Cheng's hand around her waist suddenly moved up and directly removed the baseball cap.

Her black hair fell like a waterfall over her shoulders.

The girl's bright and full forehead was exposed, her Willow eyebrows were beautiful and meaningful, and her eyes were even more charming. Only the mask covered the lower half of her face, not revealing her appearance ...

...

However, it was enough to only reveal the upper half of his face.

Bo Yucheng couldn't be more familiar with his girl's appearance. His fingers gently rubbed the corner of her eyes. aren't you going to take off your vest? "

Hearing this, Shi qinglan bit her lower lip lightly.

She glared at him with her eyes wide open and raised her hand to take off her mask in annoyance. how did you find out so quickly? I thought I could at least hide for a little longer.

“Fun?” Bo Yucheng’s voice continued to exude a bewitching tone.

His long arm wrapped around the girl’s waist, and his large palm suddenly clasped the side of her waist, suddenly pulling her into his arms.

Shi qinglan lost her balance and fell into his arms. She could feel the man’s broad shoulders and warm chest.

“It’s just alright.” She pouted her red lips slightly.

Indeed, when she agreed to meet him, she didn’t want to hide her identity. She just wanted to test his identity as the boss of continent S in thin air city and play around to see if he was smart enough to strip her of her horse.

After all, the fact that S was willing to take the order already explained a lot of problems

...

She had nothing to hide. how did you find out? ”

...

340 How old were you when you swept the hacker world five years ago?

Bo Yucheng could not help but chuckle in a low and hoarse voice.

His long and fair fingers casually rolled up the girl’s Black hair that fell on her shoulders, lazily winding it around and then suddenly letting it go.

He pressed his thin lips against the girl’s ear and said, ” Lan Lan, I’m familiar with the smell of your body and every inch of your skin. If you want to hide your identity in front of me, I’m afraid I’ll recognize you even if you change your skin.

Hearing this, Shi qinglan’s face turned a suspicious pink.

She naturally heard the man’s vicious words, but she still didn’t understand where the mistake was.

Naturally, she would not have thought that she had underestimated a man’s beast Valley in front of the woman he loved ...

He understood everything when he smelled her scent.

“When did you learn hacking?” Bo Zhicheng could not help but chuckle helplessly, his tone still indulgent.

Shi qinglan was helpless. I was really bored and self-taught.

She probably didn't need to say anything else. After all, the deeds of the top hacker in land s had long been spread like wildfire five years ago. It was impossible for Bo Li Cheng not to know about it.

“You were only thirteen years old five years ago.” Bo Li Cheng's deep voice had a hint of emotion. thirteen years old ...

At that time, she should have just entered junior high school.

Shi qinglan did not really want to reminisce about the past with him. She pouted her red lips and said coyly, “ I'm hungry.

After class, she came straight to seal Palace without eating.

Bo Li Cheng helplessly ruffled her hair. if you didn't eat, why didn't you ask for a later time? ”

Even if he didn't know that S was her, he was sincere in wanting to see S. Even if it was a little later, she would still wait.

I didn't expect to drag the class in college. Dean Jiang is giving a lecture in the afternoon. The little old man is so long-winded ...

Shi qinglan sounded like she was complaining, but her soft voice sounded like she was acting coquettishly with someone close to her.

Bo Yucheng indulgently curled his lips. what do you want to eat? ”

“I'm fine with anything.” Shi qinglan's eyes suddenly lit up.

So, the two of them got up and discussed with her what to eat for dinner, then affectionately hugged her and left the room ...

Wen mo and Wen le were waiting for them in the corridor.

Wen mo stood straight like a bodyguard. Wen le, on the other hand, leaned against the wall and played with his mobile phone. He was so bored that he kept yawning.

Until the door of the private room was suddenly pushed open.

“Master Bo,” Wen le immediately straightened his back, but when he cast a glance at the door, he was suddenly stunned.

His master Bo had actually come out with miss Shi in his arms.

Wen le’s mind was full of question marks. She looked at the scene in shock. master Bo, miss Shi ... You guys ...”

When had Shi qinglan entered the private room? what had he missed?

Wasn’t master Bo chatting with S just now? Why did it become him and miss Shi when they came out? A living person?

“What a coincidence,” Shi qinglan waved at Wen le.

She looked at him with a sweet smile. When she smiled, her eyes curved like crescent moons, and she was as charming and cunning as a little fox.

“You ...” Wen le looked at her in confusion.

He looked at the girl’s outfit again. It was exactly the same as S’s, a black coat and black tights. Except for the baseball cap and mask, they were exactly the same!

Wen le could not help but curse. f * ck!

At first, he thought that the world-class top hacker S was a bald man, and when he saw people, he thought that s was a genius teenager. Now, he had turned into a young girl who had just come of age!

“Miss Shi. you ...” Wen le buried his head in his hands. how old were you when you swept through the hacker world five years ago? ”

“Thirteen years old.” Wen mo spat out the words expressionlessly.

Wen le’s expression cracked as he looked at her in shock. He felt as if a tornado was coming.

F * ck, f * ck ... When he was 13, he was still playing with finger and power functions. He almost wiped out the entire hacker circle.

“Don’t let anyone else know about this.” Bo Yicheng’s cold lips parted slightly as he instructed in a deep voice.

Wen le was still in a state of confusion. I ... I know, I will never tell anyone!”

There were many forces around the world that were tracking her.

After all, the identity of a hacker was special. It could be used for both good and bad things, but it was useful to everyone. If one could win against a good hacker, it was equivalent to winning more than half of their field.

Bo Zhicheng left seal Palace with Shi qinglan in his arms.

Wen le was still in a state of confusion. Scratching his head, he could not figure out what had happened. how could miss Shi be an s? ”

She was only 13 years old when S swept through the hacker world. How did she do it at 13?

And since she was.... Why did he scam one billion from his master Bo? F * ck, one billion! He had never seen so much money before!

..

Bo Li Cheng led Shi qinglan to eat the coconut chicken.

The rich chicken soup was wrapped in a faint coconut fragrance. The soup was thick and the chicken meat was tender. It melted in the mouth and left a fragrance in the mouth.

“I’m full.” Shi qinglan gently touched her belly.

She leaned lazily against the back of the seat, waiting for the man to go home to shower and sleep after paying the bill. However, Bo Yucheng had no intention of taking out his wallet at all. He looked at the girl with clear eyes.

“What’s wrong?” Shi qinglan’s beautiful eyes blinked.

Bo Zhicheng pursed his lips slightly, his eyes drooped slightly, and his low voice sounded aggrieved. Lan Lan ... You’ve already squeezed me dry, all my money is with you.”

...

Shi qinglan was speechless.

She didn’t ask for his wallet or bank card.

However, she heard the man say in a low voice, ” you extorted a whole billion from me. I can’t even afford a coconut chicken that costs a few hundred dollars.

Shi qinglan was speechless. Bullshit!

The Bo financial magnate's assets were worth hundreds of billions of Yuan. A billion Yuan was just a little bit of skin.

However, she could tell that her stinky brother was looking for trouble, so she immediately got up and left. if you can't afford it, then you can press yourself here to wash the dishes. If I don't pay, if I don't have money, you can try to make me pay.

The girl ran out of the dining room with a bottle of yellow peach yogurt in her hand.

Bo Li Cheng's gaze was slightly deep as he watched the girl's back as she fled, a low and hoarse laugh rolling out of his throat ...

"Silly girl." He bit his head helplessly.

His dark eyes were full of indulgence. He lowered his head and took out his wallet from his pocket. please pay.

The waiter immediately came over to settle the bill respectfully.

...

After Bo Yucheng paid the bill, he chased after her in big strides. The girl was immediately standing outside the dining room, enjoying the cool breeze. The autumn night breeze was a little chilly, lifting the black hair behind her shoulders a little, making her figure look a little thin ...

"Put it on." The man wrapped his suit jacket around her.

Then, he hugged her into the car and helped her open the door to the passenger's seat before walking to the driver's seat and stepping on the accelerator to leave.

The black Maybach drove steadily towards qinglan waterside Pavilion.
