341 I have an appointment with the doctor this weekend

Time flew like an arrow in the Golden autumn of September.

In the blink of an eye, Shi qinglan had already spent more than half a month at Imperial University. The theory classes had begun one after another, and the students had gradually become familiar with the pace of the University.

Bo Yucheng sent the girl to the school gate and glanced sideways at her as she unfastened her seat belt. He suddenly opened his mouth and said, "I've made an appointment with the doctor this weekend to help you with a physical examination. Remember to save the time.

"Ah?" Shi qinglan blinked her eyes in confusion.

Bo chicheng pursed his thin lips. Lan Lan, have you forgotten that you promised me to see a doctor to recuperate? "

Hearing this, Shi qinglan racked her brain and tried to recall for a moment.

Suddenly, she recalled the time when she fainted from menstrual pain during the military training. At that time, Bo chicheng had indeed asked her to see a doctor to see if it could cure her period pain, but she seemed to have agreed perfunctorily.

"I remember now." The girl replied softly.

Bo Yicheng ruffled her hair. be good, I'll personally accompany you to the hospital this weekend.

Originally, he had agreed to go after the military training, but because of the incident with the Bo financial magnate, he had to postpone it until now. After finally dealing with it properly, he immediately put the matter on the agenda.

"Alright, I'll listen to you." Shi qinglan pouted her red lips and agreed to Bo Li Cheng's request unwillingly.

After a quick Peck on his cheek as a farewell kiss, the girl got out of the car and ran into the campus happily.

All of the medical school's theory classes had already begun. Next week, actual combat classes would be open for the first time, and all the new students of the medical school would be led to visit the medical Laboratory and simulated operating theater of Imperial University.

The students were all looking forward to it.

"I've heard about the simulated operating room before I entered the school. I've been looking forward to it for a month! We can finally meet!"

It's not just the operating room. Imperial University has an examination room for every department. It's just like a small hospital!

I heard that a new batch of medical equipment has been shipped in from abroad recently. They are all the most advanced. The hospitals in China have not been put into use yet. We can have a good look first ...

"It's such a blessing to be a student at Imperial University Medical School!"

I heard that this batch of medical equipment will arrive today. I really want to sneak a look at it now ...

Hearing this, the eyes of the students who participated in the discussion lit up.

Someone boldly suggested, "then the laboratory will definitely be open today! We might really be able to take a look in the chaos! Anyone who wants to go with us can just watch from the outside and not go in."

"If we get caught by the professors in the Department, we'll be punished, right?"

Why should we be punished? We just have to follow the rules and not enter the laboratory. We should be able to see a few pieces of medical equipment from the outside while we are transporting them now.

The more they talked, the more excited they became. They felt that this was a feasible idea!

Shi Qinglan was not interested in the medical equipment. After all, the ones she had seen in the Medical Research Institute were rare. It was even impossible to see them outside the Institute.

However, one of her classmates nudged her gently with her shoulder and said, "Sister LAN, do you want to sneak in with us to take a look?"

Hearing this, Shi Qinglan glanced sideways.

There was no emotion in her eyes, and she looked uninterested. I'm not going. You guys go ahead.

"Don't, sister LAN. I'm afraid we can't even understand it ourselves. We can only praise it or say that it's awesome! Why don't you go with them and introduce them to us and help us broaden our horizons?"

Although Shi qinglan was very low-key in class ...

However, ever since her classmates found out that she had scored full marks in all subjects and the test, and that Jiang boning seemed to admire her talent, everyone naturally felt that she should know about these machines.

"Just go." Song Xi also gently pulled the corner of her clothes.

The girl's eyes were shining, bright and confident, full of anticipation, making people reluctant to reject her.

She had also been looking forward to entering the Imperial University laboratory for a long time.

After all, only third-year and above seniors were qualified to enter the laboratory to assist the supervisor after going through layers of screening. They had even fewer opportunities to visit as freshmen.

"Alright," he said. Shi qinglan shrugged her shoulders helplessly.

Cheers erupted from the crowd. Only han Yina, who was isolated by her classmates, pouted indifferently.

Shi qinglan was surrounded by her classmates as they walked towards the laboratory building.

"The medical equipment should be in school by now, right? We'll sneak a peek at the entrance of the laboratory building. We should be able to see the fresh equipment being moved down from the transport vehicle ..."

"It's still fresh out of the oven. I think you're hungry!"

Everyone hid in the nearby garden and stuck their heads out, but after looking for a long time, they saw that the entrance of the experimental building was empty. There were no signs of any medical equipment being transported.

"Could it be that our information was wrong?" A student asked doubtfully.

The information was definitely not wrong. Shi qinglan had also heard about this a long time ago, and she could not help but frown slightly.

Just then, Xie Kexin rushed to the laboratory building.

She was wearing a khaki-colored windbreaker, and she walked in a hurry, exuding the aura of a strong career woman.

“Look, look, it’s the counselor!” Someone suddenly said.

Everyone immediately looked over and saw a man in a suit and leather shoes walking out of the laboratory building. little Xie, you’re finally here.

director Li, ” Xie Kexin frowned slightly, ” the medical equipment was supposed to arrive today. What’s the situation now? ”

Boss Li was one of the investors of Imperial University’s Medical Laboratory. This new batch of medical equipment was jointly invested by him and the hospital, but at the moment, because of some issues, he had to come to the University to coordinate.

little Xie, I really didn’t expect this. Some time ago, a batch of goods was intercepted by an international logistics company, and it happened to be related to medical equipment. So, the customs checks have been very strict recently. This batch of goods is now stuck at the customs and can’t be released. I’m also very anxious.

Mr. Li’s face was a little anxious. It was obvious that he felt that the matter was tricky and he looked quite irritable.

“This ...” Xie Kexin didn’t know much about international logistics. when is the earliest that this batch of medical equipment can arrive? ”

Director Li’s expression was serious. little Xie, I’ll be honest with you. I’ve already contacted the customs and negotiated with them. They don’t have any intention of releasing the goods for the time being. It’s possible that someone above is trying to suppress it and take it.

...

Hearing this, Xie Kexin couldn’t help but turn pale with fright.

Although she was very good at carrying out tasks, she had never encountered such a big problem. then ... Then what to do! This batch of medical equipment is very valuable, and our School of Medicine also participated in the investment. We can’t afford such a loss!”

After all, the medical school was only a small hospital in the school. He had invested most of his funds in this new batch of medical equipment for the students to learn. If the goods were really taken by international logistics ...

After all, they had invested tens of millions in it!

She, a mere counselor, could not bear the consequences!

Not to mention her, even the Head of the Department could not afford it!

342 Master LAN, you're already over 30 years old, don't play young with me

Boss Li's face was full of worry, and he didn't know how to reply.

Xie Kexin was so anxious that her phone kept ringing. It was all calls from the hospital or the school, asking her if this batch of medical equipment had been properly arranged ...

Not to mention properly arranging the place, they didn't even see the goods!

"F * ck! I just wanted to peek at the medical equipment, but I didn't expect to hear such shocking news. If the counselor finds out, she won't kill us, right ..."

why is the International customs even blocked for educational resources? " who knows? it's all a negotiation between the big shots. It's not something ordinary students like us can guess!

The students gathered together and started to discuss.

Xie Kexin was so anxious that her hearing became even more sensitive. who's there? "

Her sharp voice suddenly rang out. She followed the rustling sound and looked towards the garden. As expected, she saw that this year's new students were all gathered here.

"Damn, our counselor really has sharp eyes ..."

we hid so far away and she saw us. No wonder the rumors in the yard say that there's no cheating that she can't catch!

The students gritted their teeth in frustration, but since they had already been discovered by Xie Kexin, there was no reason for them to continue hiding.

"Learn ... Senior Sister." They scratched their heads in embarrassment.

Xie Kexin immediately walked over in her high heels and frowned as she examined them. what are you guys doing here so sneakily? How much did you hear about what happened just now?"

The students were speechless.

She's here, she's here. She's here with the tone of someone who wants to kill.

Everyone was silent and didn't dare to speak, but Xie Kexin's eyes had already seen through everything. you guys are trying to peek at the medical equipment, right? "

The students who had their thoughts exposed fell even more silent.

Xie Kexin crossed her arms in front of her chest. it's all good now. You guys didn't see the medical equipment, so I can't do anything about it.

Hearing that the counselor didn't have any intention of punishing them, the students looked up at her. s-senior, you don't blame us for peeking here? "

"You guys didn't break any rules, how can I punish you?"

Xie Kexin looked at them unhappily. that's enough. You won't be able to see the medical equipment today. Hurry up and go back to write your thesis. Our hospital is very strict with these written documents.

"Oh ..." The students couldn't help but feel a little dejected.

They were a little disappointed that they didn't see the medical equipment. Not only would they not be able to see it today, but they might not be able to see the legendary latest medical equipment when they officially visited the laboratory next week.

However, at this moment, han Yina, who had been isolated since the start of school, suddenly spoke up. senior, I might have a way.

Xie Kexin couldn't help but look up at her.

Han Yina pursed her lips. I know that everyone might not like me or believe me, but I really have. way this time ... I know someone who does international logistics. He's very good and has a lot of say in this area. He might be able to help us."

Hearing this, Shi qinglan also looked up at her, and her charming eyes could not help but narrow a little.

Her classmates also looked at her curiously ...

“Who are you talking about?” Boss Li also rushed over. He was not willing to give up any hope at this moment.

Han Yina lowered her eyes and thought for a moment. She suddenly said a person’s name, “ his name is Jiang Yan.

“Jiang Yan?” Shi qinglan could not help but frown.

Xie Kexin didn’t know who she was talking about, but boss Li had been in contact with international logistics for a long time. How could he not know that han Yina was talking about the most awesome Big Boss in this field!

“Who did you say you know?” Mr. Li looked at her in shock.

Han Yina couldn’t help but hold the books in her arms tightly and said with a certain tone, “ I can try to contact Jiang Yan. He’s the most authoritative person in the International logistics. No matter which customs this batch of medical equipment is stuck at, he should have the right to speak.

She really didn’t expect anyone in Imperial University to have a relationship with Jiang Yan. do you really know Jiang Yan? ”

“Not really, but I can contact him.” Han Yina did not dare to be too confident this time. I can only try.

Although she did not dare to promise the success rate of this matter.

However, there was no one else here who could get in touch with Jiang Yan. In this aspect, she was already more useful than anyone else. If she could really invite him, he might be able to help her win back a round.

Shi qinglan could not help but chuckle. She looked at han Yina with a sweet smile. how do you know he’ll be willing to talk to you? ”

Brother Yan had never been a nosy person.

Han Yina couldn’t help but frown. Shi qinglan, I know you don’t like me, but this matter concerns the entire medical school. It’s fine if you can’t help, but there’s no need to fan the flames. I know Jiang Yan might not be willing to help, but at least I can contact him. Can you? ”

Hearing this, Shi qinglan’s eyebrows raised slightly.

She lowered her eyes and smiled slightly, a hint of mockery and sarcasm in her smile. What a coincidence that she could really contact Jiang Yan.

if you can really contact Jiang Yan, then try it. It's better than us being stuck here. President Li said, " Jiang Yan does have a way. If he asks, the customs definitely won't dare to block the goods.

Han Yina nodded. I'll try, but you guys might have to give me some time. I'll go back to the dormitory and think of a way.

Xie Kexin had never expected that she would entrust such an important matter in the hospital to han Yina.

Even if the other students didn't like her, they didn't dare to say anything. After all, han Yina might really be able to help now ...

The students dispersed one after another. Han Yina went back to her dormitory, while Shi qinglan took out her phone as she walked toward the school gate.

"You know someone called han Yina?" She opened Jiang Yan's chat box and threw a question at him.

Jiang Yan's hand trembled in fear when he received the message from the boss.

He racked his brain to recall the girls he had flirted with before, but he could not remember such a green tea name ...

"I don't know him, eh?" Jiang Yan replied frankly.

...

Shi qinglan's eyes glimmered. She pursed her red lips and could not help but have some doubts in her heart.

Then why did han Yina say that she could contact Jiang Yan and even know that he was an international logistics boss?

there's a batch of medical equipment at Imperial University that's stuck at customs. Can you get it out? " Shi qinglan's Jade-like fingers tapped on the screen.

Jiang Yan laughed. master LAN, when did you become so nosy? What does his University Business have to do with you?"

He had indeed heard that Imperial University was stuck.

Shi qinglan's eyes drooped slightly as she replied nonchalantly, " I'm studying in this school. This batch of goods belongs to our Department.

Jiang Yan was speechless.

He couldn't help but roll his eyes. master LAN, don't joke with me. The heir of the Medical Research Institute lied to me and said he was studying in a medical school at a University? You're at least in your thirties, don't act young with me. "

343 Master LAN, are you going to the capital for a gay meetup?

Shi qinglan's eyes glistened.

She pursed her red lips and looked at Jiang Yan's message helplessly. no one believes the truth these days.

The girl's voice dragged out a little, full of helplessness, and then she sighed.

"Alright, actually, it's my sister who's studying at Imperial University." Shi qinglan shrugged her shoulders and could only type out a lie.

Speaking of which, she joined the pure world Pavilion six years ago and topped the hacker rankings five years ago with the identity of S. At that time, she was only in junior high school. It was normal for her to be misunderstood as being in her thirties.

It was really hard to believe that she was only eighteen years old.

we've been brothers for so many years. I can tell that you're just playing with me. Master LAN, if you're really a college student, I'll cut my head off and cook you a hot pot.

Jiang Yan sent a voice message this time.

His voice was clean, but it was a little low, with a bit of banter, arrogance, and unruly tone.

"Are you going to help or not?" Shi qinglan typed and asked.

"Help! Since master LAN has already spoken, would I dare to not help?" Jiang Yan laughed heartily and replied, " master LAN, don't worry. I promise to personally escort this batch of goods to Imperial University!

Hearing this, Shi qinglan's eyebrows raised slightly.

Jiang Yan was going to personally escort the goods to Imperial University. Didn't that mean that they were going to meet?

master LAN, master LAN, let's go to the capital to meet up. Your little brother Yan and I have been online friends for six years. We've met up with almost everyone in the pure world Pavilion, but you're the only one left. Jiang Yan said happily.

Shi qinglan refused without hesitation, " No.

Jiang Yan felt as if a knife had been stabbed mercilessly into his heart when he saw the full stop in the cold words.

He clutched his chest like a drama queen and continued to speak in a voice that was tearless, " master LAN, you're so cruel ...

"We'll talk about it when we have the chance." Shi qinglan pursed her red lips.

After all, Jiang Yan didn't believe in her age and had treated her as a man for so many years. He had even mentioned his sister to fool him just now. It would be awkward if they suddenly met like this.

However, Jiang Yan's thoughts were a little off ...

Ever since jinglan joined the pure world Pavilion, other than training alone with old Pavilion master Xiao, she had basically never come to country A's base. In the entire pure world Pavilion, only the old Pavilion master and the little young master had seen his appearance.

Other than that, he had ruthlessly rejected anyone who wanted to meet him. Could it be that jinglan was too ugly to meet people?

Of course, Shi qinglan didn't know that Jiang Yan's impression of her had become that of a strong man.

you can look for my sister directly after you go to Imperial University. I won't be going with Shi qinglan, a new medical student. She lied to him in a serious manner.

"Alright." Jiang Yan sent an 'OK' emoji.

Han Yina started to think about it after she returned to her dormitory.

Her fingers, which were painted in red, held the phone tightly. She looked down at her WeChat list, hesitantly swiped the screen with her fingertips, and entered a group chat called [ long ye ].

Every bar or nightclub had a WeChat group like this.

When young men and women gathered in the group, they could ask their brothers and sisters out for a night gathering at any time. The group was also a popular place to pick up girls and date. Han Yina had once seen Jiang Yan in this group ...

He found that flirtatious and wild red and green profile picture.

Han Yina was about to click on it, but her fingers suddenly paused. She then swiped back to the page and changed her profile picture to a selfie. She even specially used a certain photo software to modify her face a few times.

He saw the beauty whose profile picture was photoshopped to not look like him ...

Only then did she muster the courage to send Jiang Yan a friend request.

Jiang Yan had just contacted the customs and forced them to release the batch of goods from Imperial University. Then, he asked his assistant to book a plane ticket for him.

“What the f * ck, brother Yan, you’re going to the capital to meet master LAN?” Yu mu looked at him in shock and envy.

Jiang Yan raised his chin slightly. although my master LAN refused to meet me, I can still see his sister. It’s equivalent to meeting him.

As he spoke, he even shook his collar smugly.

Yu mu couldn’t help but Tut. He pouted and said, ” how come I’ve never heard that master LAN has a younger sister? ”

He remembered that master LAN didn’t seem to have any family.

Jiang Yan was stunned for a moment. His hand that was shaking his collar suddenly stopped and he took a deep breath after a long time. I think so ... But who can understand the big boss’s mind? maybe she’s his godsister?”

Yu mu shrugged his shoulders and didn’t comment.

He threw a flirtatious look at Jiang Yan. when I see master Lan’s sister, I’ll take a photo and see.

“Leave it to me,” Jiang Yan’s lips curved into an evil smile.

He then packed up his things and prepared to escort the goods to the customs. He even sent a text message to Shi qinglan to report his schedule.

buzz ... the phone suddenly vibrated.

Jiang Yan had just finished sending Shi Qinglan a text message when he saw a red dot pop up on the contact list. He realized that it was a friend request from Long Ye. This sister's profile picture was quite pretty, so he swiped and accepted it.

Anyway, he already had a bunch of pretty girls in his circle of friends.

He was almost three years old and still unmarried. Jiang Yan's biggest hobby was to pick up girls, which was why there was such a flirtatious group chat. However, he had always been among thousands of flowers and didn't touch a single leaf.

Han Yina almost screamed out of excitement.

She didn't expect Jiang Yan to accept her friend request so quickly, and her hand trembled with excitement.

She pursed her lips and hesitantly sent Jiang Yan a cute wink emoji. Hello, brother Yan ~”

Jiang Yan was very familiar with such an opening.

He replied perfunctorily and complimented her casually, "Hello, sister. Your profile picture is really beautiful.

...

Flirting with girls was something he could easily say.

However, Han Yina didn't know that. She was still immersed in the joy of Jiang Yan complimenting her, thinking that he really thought she was beautiful.

She couldn't help but feel a little smug, and the corners of her lips curled up unconsciously. I heard that brother Yan is in the International logistics business? ”

Jiang Yan was on his way to the airport at the moment. For convenience's sake, he raised his voice. Hmm? ”

The man's voice was magnetic and a little deep. Han Yina thought that he was teasing her, and her heart melted instantly.

She threw a few more coquettish emojis at him. Brother Yan, I'm actually a new student at the medical school of Imperial University. I've been through a lot recently. The hospital was planning to take us to the laboratory next week to see a new batch of medical equipment, but I didn't expect to hear from the teacher that this batch of goods was held at customs, aww, aww ~”

Jiang Yan lowered his head and glanced at it indifferently.

Although he was a scumbag who loved to pick up girls, he had never fallen for them. He had always not let go of beautiful girls and was used to seeing these girls act coquettishly, but he still had some ability to judge.

He could tell that the girl had flirted with him for that batch of goods.

344 Jiang Yan is really here!

Jiang Yan's eyes flashed with coldness.

His flirtatious eyes slightly narrowed, and he suddenly thought of a person that master LAN had mentioned to him about this matter.

"Han Yina?" Jiang Yan sent these three words.

Han Yina was so excited that she almost dropped her phone. It took her a long time to calm down before she finally recovered from the surprise of her brother knowing her name ...

"Brother Yan, you've actually heard of me?" She simply sent a voice message in her sweet voice.

However, Jiang Yan couldn't be bothered to listen and directly turned it into text. He couldn't help but raise his eyebrows lazily when he saw this line of words.

He had never heard of such a minor character.

At most, he had heard the name 'green tea' from master LAN. When they chatted, he was even more certain that she was a green tea.

Han Yina immediately sent a new voice message. brother Yan, are you willing to help me? I heard that brother Yan is super good at international logistics. This is definitely something that can be solved with just one word. If brother Yan is willing to help me, I'll treat you to a drink when you come to the capital ~"

She deliberately pinched her throat and spoke in a coquettish tone.

That gentle, undulating, and soft voice was charming and sexy. Normally, it would be easy for her to seduce a man.

However, a certain scumbag still coldly and heartlessly reposted the message. He was really not interested in listening to this voice message that lasted for 30 to 40 seconds.

Jiang Yan frowned slightly. who told you to come and find me? "

When Han Yina saw this sentence, she was a little stunned. She tried to figure out the meaning of the man's question and took a long time to type a message.

It's a friend I made in University. She said you should have a way, so I'm bold enough to ...

This time, it was a text message. When Jiang Yan saw this, an unknown light flashed in his eyes.

Han Yina was a new student at the medical school of the Imperial Capital University, and so was Master Lan's younger sister. She said that she was introduced by a friend, could it be ...

Jiang Yan didn't know what their relationship was.

Although he didn't really like this green tea, he was afraid that he would accidentally offend Master Lan's younger sister's classmate, so he gave an ambiguous answer, "You don't have to worry about this matter anymore."

His original intention was for her to leave this matter alone. He had already promised Master Lan to help him deal with this matter.

However, Han Yina thought that Jiang Yan had agreed to her request!

She stood up excitedly and clenched her phone tightly with both hands. Her expression was a little excited. Brother Yan, thank you so much!

"No need to thank me." You're not the one I'm helping anyway.

Han Yina instantly felt that Jiang Yan was extremely warm. He had agreed to help her so considerately and didn't even bother being polite. If Brother Yan comes to Imperial University, I'll treat you to a drink ~"

Jiang Yan glanced at the message and ignored Han Yina.

Han Yina bit her lip lightly, but the corners of her lips couldn't help but curve up. She pressed her phone to her chest like a young girl in love. Brother Yan ...

He praised her beauty and agreed to help her with such a big favor without hesitation. Maybe he really liked her!

She had long heard that Jiang Yan liked beautiful women, and as an international logistics giant who owned a multinational group, not only was he extremely good-looking, but he was also worth a lot of money. If she could take the opportunity to get close to him ...

Han Yina didn't dare to imagine how she would reach the heavens in one step!

She immediately reported to Xie Kexin that Jiang Yan would help and looked forward to Jiang Yan's arrival with joy.

He heard that the medical equipment would arrive on Friday.

The students in the class ran to the laboratory building excitedly to wait. Even President Li and Xie Kexin had been waiting there since early.

I didn't expect han Yina to really be able to contact Jiang Yan.

"I went back to Baidu that day and checked on Jiang Yan! He's really one of those really awesome big bosses, he can be called an international logistics giant!"

"And he's super handsome! He's still single and unmarried, yet he's a mature old man. He's simply the legendary overbearing President!"

The students discussed Jiang Yan excitedly.

Han Yina's lips couldn't help but curve up slightly. She covered her mouth and chuckled. actually, I met him by chance. I didn't expect brother Yan to agree to help so readily.

Upon hearing this, Shi qinglan's eyes could not help but raise slightly.

She leaned lazily against a tree with her arms crossed in front of her chest and her long legs crossed. She looked up in han Yina's direction and was not interested in their conversation ...

However, after hearing han Yina's words, her beautiful eyes rippled, and she couldn't help but laugh softly.

"If director Jiang can really deliver the goods today, student han, you'll be my benefactor!" Mr. Li held her hand in excitement.

Xie Kexin also nodded in agreement. yeah, I've been working hard for a long time and I really can't think of a solution. It would be great if Jiang Yan could really bring the goods here today.

Han Yina smiled, her attitude humble.

She smiled slightly. I'm also a part of the medical school. It's only right for me to do something within my capabilities. After all, I caused trouble for the hospital in the past. Just take it as atonement for my sins.

"That must be enough to atone for his crimes." Xie Kexin agreed.

This incident not only changed the counselor's opinion of her, but even the other students looked at han Yina in a different light.

Although everyone did hate her before ...

However, this time, han Yina had helped him a lot, after all. In terms of the matter and not the person, she had indeed made a contribution.

"Tsk." Only Shi qinglan could not help but sneer.

Her red lips twitched slightly, and she nonchalantly straightened her back and left the tree. She slipped her hands into her pockets and walked toward han Yina.

The girl said with a faint smile, " brother Yan? "

"What's the problem?" Han Yina glanced sideways at her.

The smile on Shi qinglan's lips became even more meaningful. She looked up at the sky and said, " I didn't expect him to have such a unique taste.

...

He actually liked someone like han Yina?

Han Yina could hear the sarcasm in Shi qinglan's tone. She could not help but frown. you even care about other people's feelings? "

Shi qinglan, no matter how much you hate me, you have to admit that I'm the one who made a contribution this time. I'm not like you, who only knows how to talk and not say a word when you really need help.

This time, han Yina finally dared to talk back to her.

Hearing this, Shi qinglan's Red lips could not help but curve up a little. Her beautiful eyes looked at her with a little coldness.

han Yina, you'd better remember what you said today. After all, you don't have much time left to show off. Don't cry out loud if you get slapped in the face. The girl's voice was slightly cold.

Han Yina could not help but sneer. how is that possible? ”

She was 100% sure that she had won this time. After all, Jiang Yan had made it clear that he would interfere in this matter.

At this moment, Mr. Li's excited voice suddenly sounded. Jiang Yan ... Jiang Yan is really here!”

345 Jiang Yan's face-slapping:

They saw a few trucks driving into the campus and Jiang Yan jumped out of the front passenger seat.

The man's face was extremely handsome, and he had a more mature manliness than the other men. He wore loose dark-colored clothes and strode towards his classmates with his slender legs.

“Brother Yan ...” Han Yina's eyes froze.

This was the first time she had seen Jiang Yan. She had only heard of his handsome and mature appearance but had never seen him in photos.

The man was more charming than she had imagined. He exuded a hormonal aura, especially the wild but bright smile on his lips at this moment, which hit her heart.

“Director Jiang.” Boss Li immediately went over to greet him respectfully.

Jiang Yan glanced at her indifferently, and Han Yina immediately lowered her eyes shyly, raising her hand to tuck her hair behind her ear.

The man glanced sideways. bring the goods down.

Several drivers and assistants immediately got out of the car and carefully moved the medical equipment out of the car.

Mr. Li's eyes were wide open. He thought that he would definitely lose this business deal and didn't expect to see this batch of goods again. He shook Jiang Yan's hand excitedly. thank you so much, Mr. Jiang.

“No need.” Jiang Yan shook his hand and stuffed it back into his pocket, acting like a boss. I only promised my friend to help. If you want to thank someone, thank him instead.

In fact, he wasn't interested in these things at all. If master LAN didn't say anything, he wouldn't even bother.

After all, Jiang Yan was an international logistics giant ... Other than Jing LAN, no one else dared to ask him to personally escort the goods.

"Yes, yes, yes." Boss Li nodded his head in a flattering manner.

He then turned to look at han Yina. student han, this matter is all thanks to you. You're our hero!

The other students couldn't help but echo.

"Yup! Let's not talk about other things. This time, han Yina is really amazing. She has helped our hospital a lot ..."

"My impression of her is starting to change."

"She's actually a good person. We treated her so badly before, but she's still willing to stand up for us!"

Han Yina accepted their unreserved praises.

Her soft lips curled up slightly, then she walked shyly to Jiang Yan and said in a sweet voice, " brother Yan, it's all thanks to your help this time. I thank you on behalf of Imperial University Medical School.

Jiang Yan glanced at her indifferently. ?

He squinted his eyes lazily. you're Shi qinglan? "

Hearing this, han Yina's delicate body stiffened. Even her smile froze on her face. She couldn't react for a moment.

The other students, director Li, and Xie Kexin didn't know why Jiang Yan would ask this question either, so they blinked in confusion.

"Shi qinglan?" Han Yina only came back to her senses after a long time.

She looked up at Jiang Yan and bit her lip. brother Yan, I'm han Yina. We were on WeChat the other day ...

"Oh." Jiang Yan nodded in realization.

So this was the little green tea. She didn't look very good, but her photo editing skills were quite good.

He smirked evilly. then, little girl, you might have misunderstood something. I was invited by Shi qinglan to help.

Upon hearing this, Han Yina suddenly froze like a bolt of lightning on a clear day.

She looked up at Jiang Yan in surprise, her eyes clearly at a loss. you ... What did you just say?"

How could Shi Qinglan know Jiang Yan?

She was the one who had asked him for help on WeChat, and Jiang Yan had agreed to it. How did it suddenly become Shi Qinglan?

"May I know which one of you is Shi Qinglan?" Jiang Yan looked up.

Hearing this, Shi Qinglan's red lips couldn't help but curve up a little. She had been sizing up Jiang Yan at the side, and when she heard his question, she walked over to him casually.

The girl smiled sweetly and her voice was clear. I am.

Jiang Yan immediately looked at the girl.

Shi Qinglan was dressed in a simple white t-shirt, a loose and comfortable short black jacket, and a pair of jeans that accentuated her long and slender legs. She looked clean and tidy.

She didn't put on any makeup, but her delicate face was as delicate as snow. Her black hair fell on her shoulders, like a lotus out of the water, with a clear temperament and delicate appearance.

"Brother Yan," The girl's voice was like a stream of water.

Her red lips curved up a little, her hands were in the pockets of her coat, and she looked up at the man a little lazily.

Jiang Yan lowered his eyes and looked at her. you're master Lan's sister? "

Although the girl looked very young, there was a kind of temperament in her bones, and the sharpness around her was difficult to hide.

As an international boss, Jiang Yan felt a little shorter in front of this girl. He sensed a familiar aura from her, the feeling of being led.

"Yes." Shi Qinglan responded with a sweet smile.

The students around them were all dumbfounded. President Li and Xie Kexin were even more stunned. Han Yina felt as if she had fallen into an ice cellar.

Didn't they say that han Yina invited Jiang Yan?

Then ... What was the meaning of this?

"I'm sorry I didn't tell you." Shi qinglan's Red lips curled up slightly, and she lifted her chin slightly to point in Jiang Yan's direction. I invited brother Yan. I'm sorry for the misunderstanding, han Yina.

Upon hearing this, han Yina cast her a jealous look.

She clenched her fists tightly, and her red-painted nails almost dug into the flesh of her palms.

"Originally ... So it was this student who invited you." Boss Li was the first to break the strange silence.

Xie Kexin also gradually recovered from her shock. She frowned slightly. the LAN order ... Wait, qinglan, if you're the one who invited Mr. Jiang, why didn't you say so earlier?"

...

The credit was almost taken away by han Yina.

Shi qinglan's Red lips curled up slightly, and her smile had a hint of teasing. don't you know now? "

If she had told the truth just now, han Yina would have retorted in a hundred different ways, and no one would have believed her.

She knew all too well what preconceived notions meant.

"I'm indeed here for Shi qinglan." Jiang Yan said, " han Yina did look for me, but I had already promised someone else at that time, so I told her that she didn't need to worry about this matter anymore. I'm afraid she misunderstood, right? "

Although he wasn't sure about the relationship between han Yina and his master Lan's sister, he could guess it after observing everyone's reaction. especially han Yina's ...

"?! Big sister LAN is too f * cking handsome!"

the perfect interpretation of these four people who have hidden their true strength. As expected, ruthless people don't say much. They just threw a bomb without saying anything!

I really did believe han Yina's lies before. To be honest, if it wasn't for Big Boss Jiang's clarification, I would've really thought that he was invited by han Yina. After all. she's always been ...

doesn't that mean that han Yina almost stole sister Lan's credit? ”

...

346 Jiang Yan, Qianqian wants to hit on master Lan's sister

Han Yina's impression of Shi qinglan, which she had tried so hard to change, crumbled again in an instant.

She clenched her fists tightly, her heart filled with jealousy.

Why did all the good things go to Shi qinglan? Why did she even know a Big Boss like Jiang Yan?

However, no matter how much she couldn't figure out the cause and effect, she had already become invisible at this moment.

“Shi qinglan, thank you so much!”

that's right. It's all thanks to qinglan's help that our medical school managed to recover a loss of tens of millions.

President Li and Xie Kexin surrounded her and thanked her profusely. They even insisted on treating Jiang Yan to a meal to express their gratitude, but Jiang Yan politely rejected them, so they couldn't force him.

The medical equipment had already been unloaded from the truck.

President Li and Xie Kexin watched as the teachers brought the things into the laboratory building. The students also took the opportunity to take a look.

“Thanks.” Shi qinglan raised her head slightly.

Jiang Yan's lips curled up slightly. He looked down at the beautiful girl who didn't have any makeup on. your brother asked me to come.

Upon hearing this, Shi qinglan's eyes drifted down without a trace.

She then lowered her head slightly and pouted her red lips. yes, my brother mentioned this to me before, but he couldn't come because he had something to do.

He made up the lie in such a serious manner that he didn't even blink.

Jiang Yan stared at the girl without blinking. No matter how many girls he had flirted with, he had never seen a girl like this.

Even though he was not wearing any makeup, he could still smile and attract people's souls. He was obviously young, but his whole body inadvertently revealed a sharp edge, which even made him feel like he was being subdued ...

your brother refused to meet with me. I wonder if you'd be willing to do me the honor of being the host and treat me to a meal? ”

Jiang Yan's eyes were serious. His voice was deep and magnetic, which was the most suitable for flirting with girls.

Shi Qinglan immediately guessed the man's meaning.

She raised her pretty face slightly and chuckled lazily. I'm sorry, brother Yan. I still have a date with my boyfriend tonight.

Hearing this, Jiang Yan's eyes flashed with shock.

He didn't expect the girl to already have a boyfriend, and she didn't hesitate to expose his feelings and reject his request.

“Alright,” he said. Jiang Yan's lips curved into a helpless smile.

It was rare for him to meet a girl who suited his taste so well. He thought that she would be the Terminator who would make him stop his lustful thoughts, but unfortunately, she was already taken.

As expected, it was not easy to win over a beautiful and outstanding girl.

Jiang Yan couldn't help but look a little disappointed. Then remember to help me tell your brother that I've completed my mission. I'm still waiting for him to come and meet me one day.

“Alright,” he said. Shi Qinglan nodded without even blinking.

She cursed in her heart, “in fact, you're gay.”

..

Jiang Yan didn't rush back to country A after escorting the goods. After all, he was also Chinese, so he stayed in the capital for the time being.

The weekend to see the doctor arrived as scheduled. Shi Qinglan had wanted to sleep in, but she was woken up by Bo Zhicheng early in the morning.

The man sat on the edge of the bed and leaned over to look at the girl. His fingertips gently brushed her curled eyelashes. Lan Lan, it's time to get up.

His voice was low and hoarse, with a hint of enchantment.

Shi qinglan's brows furrowed slightly. She rubbed her sleepy eyes and crawled out of bed unwillingly.

After washing up and having breakfast, she followed Bo Yucheng to the hospital.

The man had already made an appointment in advance. He went straight to the gynecologist's room through the VIP passage and was invited into the consultation room.

Xu Cong was spinning the pen nonchalantly.

He leaned against the seat with his legs crossed, his white coat draped over the back of the chair. On the computer screen was information about Shi qinglan-this was the doctor Bo Li Cheng had invited.

Xu Cong, the top gynecologist in the International medical field, was known as the friend of women without exaggeration. He had been doing medical research in M country and had only returned to China at the last minute because of an invitation.

In addition, he was also a good friend of thin mist city for many years.

"Tsk, I haven't seen you for a few years and you already have a girlfriend." Xu Cong looked at the screen with great interest and raised his hand to touch his jaw.

Kacha-" the door was suddenly pushed open.

A nurse led the two of them into the clinic.

Bo Li Cheng's long arm wrapped around the girl's waist, affectionately holding her as they walked in, and Xu Cong immediately got up.

He couldn't help but tease, " yo, you're quite lucky with women.

Bo Zhicheng's brows furrowed slightly, his deep eyes suffused with a slight chill, as if he was extremely dissatisfied with the man's teasing.

fiancée, Shi qinglan, " he introduced.

In other words, it wasn't that he had met her by chance, but that he had already decided in his heart that he would marry no one else but her.

Xu Cong raised his eyebrows. He didn't expect his big brother Cheng to be serious.

Bo Li Cheng turned his head slightly, and when he looked at the girl, the coldness in his eyes faded a little. Even his voice was deliberately softened. Lan Lan, this is my brother, Xu Cong, a gynecologist.

"Hello," he said. Shi qinglan smiled and nodded at him.

Xu Cong looked down at the girl and had to admit that he was still amazed by her appearance. sit down.

Bo Yucheng sat down beside Shi qinglan.

Xu Cong simply asked about her period, but Bo Yucheng answered first because he really did not want his girl to talk about these topics with other men ...

...

If it were not for Xu Cong's absolute authority in Gynecology, he would not have let this man come to see his woman.

Xu Cong knew his limits and only asked some basic questions, such as menstrual interval, the degree of menstrual pain, the state of the period, and so on, which did not involve privacy.

"Let's go for an examination first." Xu Cong made a bill and then winked at Bo Yucheng. don't worry, I don't have the hobby of being a hooligan to my brother's woman. I've specially arranged for a female assistant.

Bo Zhicheng glanced at him coldly. After taking the list, his cold lips parted slightly. at least you're tactful.

If Xu Cong dared to examine Shi qinglan personally, he would probably skin him and roast him over the fire.

"Tsk." Xu Cong felt that he valued his lover over his friends.

Bo Yucheng accompanied Shi qinglan to do a full set of examinations, basically doing all the examinations that could be done in Gynecology.

Shi qinglan sighed helplessly. Although she knew that her condition was special and difficult to treat, and even beyond the scope of medicine, she chose to cooperate to make the man feel at ease.

Dr. Xu, the results of the lady's examination are out.

The nurse returned all the reports to the office and handed them to Xu Cong before she turned around and left.

Xu Cong lowered his head to read these materials. He didn't think it was a big deal when he was in period pain, but the more he read, the more serious his eyebrows became ...

...

A lot of the data showed that there were abnormalities, but they were so abnormal that he couldn't even judge the condition from the report. His heart couldn't help but sink a little.

347 What's wrong with Lan Lan's body?

"Crack-"

At this moment, the office door was suddenly pushed open.

Xu Cong immediately restrained his solemn expression and looked up at the two people who had come in. He put the examination report aside, pursed his lips, and did not speak first.

"What's the problem?" Bo chicheng's brows furrowed.

He noticed that Xu Cong's expression was not quite right. Although he deliberately covered it up, there was still a hint of embarrassment between his brows.

Xu Cong raised his eyes and sized Shi qinglan up seriously ...

The girl gently pursed her lips and turned her head slightly without looking at Xu Cong. Her twinkling beautiful eyes seemed to be a little repulsed. She was repulsed by the idea of coming to the hospital for a checkup.

Big brother Cheng, I'll talk to your wife in private first. Xu Cong's deep eyes fell on the girl.

Bo Yicheng's brows furrowed even more, his gaze slightly cold. is her condition very serious? Let me see the report."

Xu Cong glanced sideways at the reports that had been thrown to the side.

He didn't directly hand the papers to Bo Li Cheng, but first looked at the girl for her opinion.

Shi qinglan took his hand and said, " ah-Cheng, it's just menstrual cramps. Many girls are born with cold bodies and are prone to menstrual cramps. How can it be serious? "

Her eyes flickered and she felt a little guilty.

Although she should not hide anything from Bo Li Cheng, what had happened back then was already in the past and completely over. She still did not want others to reveal it, because it would not benefit anyone.

"Lan Lan," Bo Li Cheng's eyes darkened slightly.

Shi qinglan's Red lips curled up slightly. I'm a doctor myself, I know my body's condition very well. Let's go home.

As she spoke, she got up and wanted to leave, but Bo Zicheng's arm around the girl's waist grabbed her and pulled her back without hesitation.

Shi qinglan had no choice but to sit back in her seat. She looked at Xu Cong from the side and closed her eyes helplessly.

"Miss Shi, if you're really a doctor, you should know that your condition isn't as ideal as it seems."

Xu Cong raised his hand and pushed his gold-rimmed glasses. if you want to avoid talking to me alone, then I'll be direct.

"No need," Shi qinglan's Red lips parted slightly.

She closed her eyes and pursed her lips. After thinking for a long time, she said hesitantly, "I'll talk to you in private.

Xu Cong nodded slightly, then glanced at Bo Li Cheng, who was clearly unwilling to do so.

However, he could also sense that the girl was deliberately hiding something, so he could only get up and leave for the time being to let Xu Cong speak to him alone.

Shi qinglan only opened her eyes slowly when she heard the door close behind her. what did you want to ask me, Dr. Xu? "

Xu Cong had seen too many patients who hid their situation.

His gaze was locked on the girl, and he placed his hand on his chin as if he was in deep thought. ah-Cheng isn't here right now. Miss Shi, if you're hiding anything from me, you can tell me now.

Hearing this, Shi qinglan's Red lips curved up slightly.

She looked up at Xu Cong and chuckled so naturally that she didn't seem to be lying. I've said what I should. Didn't you see the rest of the situation in the examination report, Dr. Xu? "

Xu Cong could not help but frown.

He took back the examination sheets that were placed at the side and looked down at the data that puzzled him.

miss Shi, what kind of special drug did you inject in the past? " Xu Cong could not find any other explanation.

From the ultrasound results, there was nothing wrong with her organs, but some of the data on her body showed abnormalities. However, it was not a pathological abnormality. It did not seem like there was any illness, but it did not make sense no matter how you looked at it ...

The only explanation Xu Cong could think of was that she had been injected with some harmful drug before, which caused some data disorder, which led to menstrual pain.

"No, I didn't," Shi qinglan's eyes were as clear as spring water.

When she looked at Xu Cong, she was calm and confident. There was no trace of flaw in his cold eyes.

Xu Cong said coldly, " miss Shi is not telling the truth.

Shi qinglan lowered her eyes and chuckled. that's the truth.

Of course, Xu Cong believed in medical data more than her words, but no matter how he tried to look at her, he could not see any signs of lying between her eyebrows. She covered it up very well.

"Miss Shi, I'm trying to help you, but I'm also trying to help my own brother." His tone became serious. you should know that it will be difficult for you to get pregnant in the future with your body. If you don't take good care of your body, have you thought about what to do in the future? "

Hearing this, Shi qinglan's fingertips felt a little cold.

She couldn't help but clench her fists and clench the corner of her clothes. She didn't say anything, but the corners of her eyes suppressed the brilliance in her eyes.

"What kind of drug did you inject yourself with?" Xu Cong pressed.

Shi qinglan insisted, " I didn't. Maybe it's because of the abuse I suffered when I was young, so I used medicine more frequently.

Of course, Xu Cong did not believe that it was that simple. After all, ordinary drugs would not cause such data. He could not help but feel a headache at her attitude of hiding it. He closed his eyes and raised his hand to massage his temples.

"Alright," he said. He used the tip of his tongue to touch his cheek.

Realizing that he couldn't get any useful information out of her, he swiped a business card over. if one day you decide to treat your illness, my contact information is on this.

Shi qinglan did not refuse this time and accepted the name card.

In fact, she had also studied Gynecology. Over the years, she had subconsciously taken care of her body. In fact, she did not need Xu Cong, but if she did not accept it, she would definitely be interrogated by him again.

"I'll call ah-Cheng in," Xu Cong stood up.

Bo Yucheng then strode into the ward. He had just been anxiously pacing back and forth in the corridor. Now that he was called back to the office, he immediately asked, " how is it? "

Xu Cong gave Shi qinglan a meaningful look.

He bit the corner of his lip. it's nothing. There's no disease in her body. It's probably an illness that she had when she was young. I'll prescribe some medicine for her to recuperate.

Bo Li Cheng's eyes looked at Xu Cong with a deep gaze.

He had noticed that the two of them were acting weird, so he did not believe that the matter was simple. However, he did not ask directly because Shi qinglan was present.

miss Shi, the hospital needs your identification card to register for the medicine. Is it convenient for you to come with me? " The nurse suddenly said.

Shi qinglan looked up at the man, pursed her red lips, and followed him with her identity card.

Bo Yucheng realized that Xu Cong had deliberately sent her away, and his long and narrow eyes narrowed slightly. you can tell me now.

Xu Cong clenched an empty fist and gently placed it at the corner of his lips.

After a moment's hesitation, he handed the report to the man. take a look at it yourself.

Bo Li Cheng immediately snatched the report from his hands.

He lowered his head and read the data. Although he had never studied medicine, the countless abnormal arrowheads behind the data were enough to prove that there was something wrong with the girl's body!

"What's wrong with her?" The man's voice suddenly sank.

348 If you don't drink the medicine obediently, I'll feed you with my mouth

Xu Cong looked at Bo Li Cheng calmly.

He pursed his lips. there are no abnormalities in her organs. These data only shows that her body is abnormal, but it's not a big problem. I suspect that she might have been injected with some special drug that affected some of her physical indicators.

Hearing this, Bo Li Cheng's eyes darkened.

His black pupils were unfathomable, as dark as a deep pool, seemingly calm but terrifyingly quiet.

can you determine what special medicine it is? " He pursed his thin lips into a line and asked in an extremely deep voice.

Xu Cong shook his head. she won't tell me anything.

He had never seen such abnormal data before, nor had he heard of any medicine that could cause such a situation.

It might not even be a potion ... It was also possible to mix countless types of potions together, which made it even more difficult to judge.

"I know." Bo chicheng's eyes narrowed slightly.

He clutched the report in his hand tightly, filling up the girl's heart. other than menstrual pain, will it affect her body in any other way? "he asked.

Xu Cong gently touched his chin and thought for a while.

He pouted. it's not a big deal, but it's hard to say if I can get pregnant in the future.

Upon hearing this, Bo Li Cheng's heart calmed down a little.

It was fine even if she was not fated to be pregnant. At least, it would not affect her health, as long as her body was fine.

let her drink the medicine I prescribed for her first. If she's willing to reveal anything one day, contact me again. Xu Cong's eyebrows raised slightly. she's really tight-lipped.

It was obvious that he didn't want to reveal anything to anyone.

Bo Li Cheng nodded slightly and responded in a deep voice.

He left these reports with Xu Cong and did not take them with him. Then he turned around and went to the window where the medicine was taken and found the girl.

..

Clear water Pavilion.

Shi qinglan glanced at Xu Cong's medicine and saw the familiar formula. Her red lips could not help but Twitch slightly, and then she casually threw it aside, obviously not intending to drink it.

However, Bo Yucheng picked up the medicine again, his long and narrow eyes narrowing slightly. you're trying to avoid drinking medicine, huh? ”

This medicine is useless ... Shi qinglan mumbled softly.

This was the prescription she had developed in the Medical Research Institute. She had stopped drinking it after a year of no effect.

Bo Zhicheng's eyes darkened. I'll help you boil the medicine.

As he spoke, he took the medicine into the kitchen, and a bitter smell quickly filled the living room.

Shi qinglan's brows furrowed slightly as the man placed the bowl of black medicine in front of her. be good and drink it.

Bo Yucheng sat beside the sofa, his long arm around the girl's waist to prevent her from running away, while his other hand held the medicine.

Shi qinglan's beautiful eyes flashed with a touch of disdain.

She looked down at the dark-colored Chinese medicine and couldn't help but hold her breath. She didn't want to smell the bitterness. ah Cheng, I've really taken this medicine before. It really doesn't work ...

The girl was struggling not to let her taste buds suffer.

However, Bo Yucheng clearly did not believe her. He only looked at her with a slightly deep gaze. Lan Lan, be more obedient. Only by drinking the medicine obediently can you recuperate your body.

Shi qinglan raised her hand and pinched her nose gently.

No. her voice couldn't help but sound like a baby's.

She had really tried this medicine before, and it really did not have any effect on her body. It was not that she was being unreasonable and did not want to treat her illness.

However, Bo Yucheng did not believe in heresy and wanted to try. He only wanted to nurse her body. Whether she could get pregnant was secondary. He just did not want to see her suffer so much during her period.

"Lan Lan, you don't want to drink?" His voice was low.

Shi qinglan sneakily raised her eyes to look at the man, and her eyes immediately met with his pitch-black pupils.

Before she could say anything to resist, she saw Bo Li Cheng suddenly lift the bowl of medicine and put it in his mouth. Then, he placed the bowl to the side and pressed her down on the sofa, kissing her lips.

"Oh ..." Shi qinglan could not help but widen her eyes.

A bitter taste instantly spread between his lips and teeth. Bo Yucheng slowly passed the Chinese medicine in his mouth into the girl's mouth.

Shi qinglan's little hand tugged on the man's white shirt, and she was forced to swallow the mouthful of Chinese medicine. Just like that, she finished the entire bowl ...

"If you don't drink it obediently in the future, I'll feed you like this."

Bo Yucheng's voice was low. He bent down to pick up a Honey Orange, peeled it, and stuffed it into the girl's mouth.

Shi qinglan pouted her red lips in dissatisfaction. do you think it's enough to force me to drink the medicine and feed me an orange? "

Upon hearing this, Bo Li Cheng turned to look at the angry girl.

She made a "yup" gesture and pressed her cheek against it, her red lips pouting. I need at least two to calm down.

Bo Li Cheng laughed in anger at her arrogant and cute appearance.

He casually peeled the candied tangerines and stuffed a few more into her mouth. I'll cook the medicine for you before you go to class tomorrow morning.

Shi qinglan was speechless. The honey Orange suddenly wasn't sweet.

She opened her eyes and looked at the man. Thinking of the bitter taste in her mouth just now, her facial features could not help but frown slightly. this medicine ... How long do I have to drink before I can stop?"

"Drink it until your body recuperates,"

Bo ye Cheng's eyes looked at her deeply. After. while. his red lips opened slightly. unless ... Are you willing to tell me why your body has become like this?"

Shi qinglan's eyes flickered when she heard this.

...

Her red lips curved up a little, and she smiled. what else could it be? he was abused in the orphanage.

His tone sounded relaxed, but it made one's heart ache.

Bo Zhicheng's heart was suddenly stabbed, and the pain passed through the blood that gushed out of his heart to his fingers, making them cold.

Of course, he did not believe that Shi qinglan's body was like this because of the abuse she had suffered in the orphanage. However, he could tell that she had no intention of telling him for the time being, so he did not press her further.

"I'll help you recuperate." Bo Yucheng pulled the girl into his arms, his chin gently stroking the top of her hair.

His voice was slightly hoarse as he said, " Lan Lan, we both have assets to inherit. You still have to give birth to my child.

Shi qinglan closed her eyes and breathed gently.

She had always been aware of her body's condition and had been trying to find a way out. However, after two years of research, she had not been able to find a solution. Otherwise, as a doctor, she would not have let herself suffer from menstrual pain.

How could it be so easy to adjust all the data of her body to that of a normal person ...

However, in order to put Bo Yucheng at ease, she still replied softly, " mm, I'll take my medicine obediently in the future.

Bo Yucheng could not help but hug the girl even tighter. The scorching heat was transmitted to her body, wrapping her whole body and warming her up. There was a faint bitter fragrance lingering between them ...

...

349 Qi yexi, what exactly do you want to do?

Late at night, the moon was high above the Willow branches.

Shi qinglan had already fallen asleep in bed. Her long, curly eyelashes cast a faint shadow on her eyes, making her look as quiet as a porcelain doll. Her slightly opened cherry lips were even more alluring.

Bo ye Cheng's eyes looked at the girl deeply ...

He cupped her face gently with his large palm, and his fingers slowly rubbed against her skin. He loved it so much that he could not let go.

His eyes were fixed on her, and his dark eyes were filled with heartache.

He had once thought that he had never missed her childhood and youth.

However, when the data was placed in front of him, he could not figure out what she had gone through to make her body look so fragile.

Come to think of it, even if they were all in Ying city ...

However, before Shi qinglan had moved into the qinglan waterside Pavilion, they did not see each other every day. He would often go to continent S for business trips, and the girl would often disappear mysteriously for months.

Even though they had known each other for so long, she still seemed to have countless secrets, waiting for him to slowly explore and uncover them.

Lan Lan, what happened to you ...

Bo ye Cheng's low voice was a little hoarse, filled with deep affection and heartache. He lowered his head and kissed her gently between her brows.

After making sure that the girl was asleep, he gently lifted the quilt and got out of bed. He helped her cover her up and then went to the corridor with his phone.

“Help me investigate something.” Bo Yucheng made a call.

After giving the order to investigate Shi qinglan’s past to Wen mo, he stood tall in the dark corridor. After a long silence, he turned around and returned to his bedroom.

He pulled the girl back into his arms and closed his eyes.

..

The Maybach stopped steadily at the entrance of Imperial University.

Bo Yicheng’s large palm gently wrapped around the girl’s soft and boneless little hand. I’ll pick you up from school tonight. You can go home to drink your medicine.

Hearing this, Shi qinglan’s Red lips pouted.

Bo Yucheng took the opportunity to lean in and give her a light Peck on the lips, tickling the girl so much that two pink clouds floated past her cheeks.

“Go on.” His red lips curled up slightly and he chuckled.

Shi qinglan was afraid that he would press her down on the passenger seat and kiss her like before, so she immediately pushed the door open and got out of the car in a panic.

Bo chicheng immediately started the car again and left.

Today was the day for medical students to tour the laboratory building. Shi qinglan slung her bag over her shoulder and walked leisurely in the direction of the laboratory building.

But a Phantom suddenly appeared in front of her.

Shi qinglan noticed a figure passing by in front of her. She suddenly stopped in her tracks and looked up with her eyes fixed.

“We meet again, my ... Shi ‘er.”

Qi yexuan’s Scarlet lips slowly curled up, and the corners of his lips held a hint of an evil yet somewhat treacherous smile.

He raised his hand and lazily unbuttoned the top two buttons. The collar of his shirt was slightly open, revealing his cold white collarbones and silver necklace. His every move was a little flirtatious.

Shi qinglan’s eyes turned cold. why are you here? ”

Upon hearing this, a low and sexy laugh slowly rolled out of the man's throat, containing a bit of enchantment.

Qi yexi chuckled and looked at the girl. what's wrong? You haven't seen me for a long time. Don't you miss me when you were young?"

Shi qinglan's cold eyes were filled with rejection.

She narrowed her eyes slightly and looked at Qi yehan. move aside, I have to go to class. I don't have time to reminisce with you.

Qi yexuan's eyebrows couldn't help but rise slightly.

He slipped his hands into the pockets of his suit pants and smiled nonchalantly. Xiao Shi 'er is really unreasonable.

Just like before, the ice beauty was a little difficult to deal with.

Shi qinglan was not in the mood to chat with him. Seeing that he had no intention of moving away, she pushed him away and strode away.

Qi yexi followed her unhurriedly. Xiao Shi 'er, don't walk so fast ...

He deliberately dragged out the last part of his voice, and there was a hint of frivolity and flirtatiousness in his voice.

Shi qinglan could not help but frown. She did not want him to follow her into the teaching building, so she stopped and looked up at him.

Qi yexi, what exactly do you want to do? " She took a deep breath, and her voice turned cold.

The smile at the corner of Qi yexuan's lips involuntarily spread to his entire face.

Evil and treacherous, he was like a terrifying vampire from hell. He slowly approached the girl. don't you know what I'm trying to do? "

Shi qinglan hid the brilliance in her eyes, leaving only endless coldness and unconcealed vigilance.

Of course, she knew that Qi ye's intentions were not simple ...

In the past, she had used some means to imprison Qi yexi and had even doubled the things he had done to her.

Now that two years had passed and Qi yexi had returned from his seclusion, how could he not come to seek revenge from his former enemy?

you want to take revenge on me ...

Shi qinglan's Red lips curled up slightly. The determination in her eyes made her look very imposing, and her whole body exuded an endless sharp aura.

Her red lips parted slightly, and her voice was clear and melodious. that depends on whether you have the ability or not! she said word by word.

Upon hearing this, Qi yexuan's smile also faded.

When he met the girl's eyes again, there was a little coldness in his misty peach blossom eyes. let's see if I have the ability ...

...

There was an endless chill in his deep voice.

Qi yechan could not help but take a few steps closer to Shi qinglan. He leaned in slightly and said. "miss Shi, don't forget that you fell into my hands before ... However, it's not like he's never suffered a loss before."

Shi qinglan could not help but clench her fists.

Thinking of the past, she held her breath unconsciously, and even her fingertips gradually became a little cold.

Qi yexi curled his lips. I heard that miss Shi went to the hospital.

Shi qinglan suddenly looked up at the man, her beautiful eyes widening. you're spying on me? "

"Is it difficult to track someone in a public place like the hospital?"

Qi yexi chuckled indifferently. what? Even the heir of the Medical Research Institute couldn't figure out how to treat it. Can those quacks at the capital hospital do anything?"

Shi qinglan could not help but clench her fists even tighter.

She didn't respond to Qi yexi's question, but the rise and fall of her chest when she breathed was obviously much more obvious.

"Thanks to you," Her red lips parted slightly, her voice slightly cold.

...

That year, when she had first fought with Qi yexi, she had fallen into the Crimson night Alliance's trap and been kidnapped. She had experienced a whole month of torture and had even been injected with countless drugs.

Initially, the Crimson night Alliance had only used her to threaten the pure world Pavilion

...

However, Shi qinglan refused to say anything. She did not even send any distress signals to the pure world Pavilion. No matter how she was treated, she remained unyielding and did not even cry out in pain.

350 Let's see if you can touch me

Qi yexi had thought that she was just enduring silently.

It was only when he was tricked by her that the Scarlet night League was taken over overnight. He was then tied up by Shi qinglan and locked up for three months, enduring a punishment that was even more brutal than the abuse she had ever suffered.

When he whipped her, she stabbed him directly.

He had injected drugs into her to force her to confess, and she had poisoned him directly, almost taking his life ...

From then on, the hatred was no longer just between the Scarlet night Alliance and the pure world Pavilion. Qi yexi had even sworn to be absolutely irreconcilable with Shi qinglan. He had come here to seek revenge!

"Ha ..." Qi yexuan suddenly chuckled.

He looked at the girl with great interest. little Shi 'er is still the same as before, cold, stubborn, and unfeeling.

He really wanted to see her cry and beg for mercy.

It was a pity that she didn't even see a single tear for a whole month. Even if he was happy to hear her cry out in pain, the most he could do was to whip her until she groaned.

"If you just want to reminisce, I still have the surveillance video of young master Qi being imprisoned in the prison of the pure world Pavilion."

Shi qinglan's Red lips parted slightly. if you want to see it, I can get it out for you anytime so that you can reminisce.

The aura around Qi yexuan couldn't help but become much colder.

He narrowed his eyes. Shi qinglan, do you really think that you're still my match after two years? "

"Then try and see if you can touch me." Shi qinglan's aura also gradually dissipated.

The girl's back was straight, her charming and beautiful eyes were filled with determination, and her tone was so cold that it was unquestionable.

She had always been proud and unyielding, and had never yielded to anyone. Although she was occasionally arrogant, she always used enough strength to prove that she was not just arrogant.

"Alright," he said. The corners of Qi yexuan's eyes lifted slightly.

His peach blossom eyes were filled with a flirtatious look. I hope that when the time comes, miss Shi will still be as proud and unyielding as she is now.

Shi qinglan's Red lips curled up slightly, and she looked at him with a smile that was as beautiful as a flower.

The confidence in her smile was like the summer sun, bright and resplendent. She immediately turned around and strode toward the laboratory building, leaving only a slender back view for Qi yexi.

"Even if I can't touch you ..." Qi yexuan said meaningfully.

There were plenty of people around her that could be touched. He didn't believe that she would just stand by and watch her friends!

Qi yegun's eyes looked deeply at the girl's back, then he lazily turned around and left without any emotion.

..

Shi qinglan had to return to the laboratory building after class.

Suddenly, he felt a breeze behind him, accompanied by the sound of footsteps and the girl's cheerful voice. Xiao Qingqing!

LAN Chu jumped in front of her with the books in his arms.

Shi qinglan immediately squatted down, a smile in her eyes. little Chu 'er, did you just finish class too? "

LAN Chu nodded like a chicken pecking at rice. what a coincidence!

She looked up at Shi qinglan with a bright smile on her face, and then followed her around the campus.

“You’re not even staying here, making it hard for me to see you.” LAN Chu’s pink lips pouted in grievance.

Shi qinglan tilted her head slightly and looked at her with a smile. aren’t you going home to live your life as Mrs. Bai? ”

She didn’t believe that Bai Yuchen would let LAN Chu stay in the school.

Upon hearing this, LAN Chu’s porcelain-like face seemed to blush. She bit her lower lip. you only know how to make fun of me.

Shi qinglan’s Red lips curved slightly as she chuckled.

LAN Chu raised her head and blinked at her. hehe, Xiao Qingqing, have you heard that the Union is planning to hold a social party for the new students? ”

“What?” Shi qinglan’s tone rose slightly. I’ve never heard of it.

Anything that involved alcohol had nothing to do with her. Speaking of which, it was impossible for a normal person to get drunk just by touching a drop of alcohol. She probably had this attribute because of the drugs injected into her body.

LAN Chu was so excited that his eyes were full of stars. But I heard that there’s milk tea and desserts for free every year at the social gathering!”

The glutton attribute was exposed without any concealment.

The girl tugged at the corner of Shi qinglan’s clothes. Xiao Qingqing. my father-in. law will definitely not agree if I go alone ... Will you come with me? I want to drink milk tea and eat cake.”

Of course, free desserts couldn’t be wasted!

Shi qinglan looked at her helplessly. tell your husband to buy some for you. The party is meant for single people, and you’re not worthy.

LAN Chu pouted her pink lips in disappointment.

She was about to say something when she suddenly heard a frivolous voice behind her. short legs!

“Ah!” LAN Chu’s tail was stepped on by this title.

She turned around like an angry little wild cat and reached out her claws to scratch the young man. you’re the one with short legs!

Jiang Zhi immediately lifted his shirt up a little.

He gestured with his hands that his waist was now at LAN Chu’s chest. It was simply the most adorable height difference in the legends.

“Are you sure my legs are short?” He raised his eyebrows wildly.

LAN Chu glanced sideways at Jiang Zhi and stomped on his shoe. so what if you have long legs? ” tsk ... Jiang Zhi chuckled in amusement.

Short legs were short legs. She was only 1.6 meters tall, but she was never willing to admit that she was short.

Jiang Zhi lifted his chin slightly and greeted her. sister Qing.

“Yes.” Shi qinglan nodded gently.

Jiang Zhi raised his hand and pressed his big palm on LAN Chu’s head. what a coincidence. It’s so rare for us to meet in school. Do you want to go out and have a gathering? ” Get a beer and make a skewer?”

“I’m not going out for barbeque with you. I have a date tonight.” LAN Chu raised her pretty face slightly and smiled.

She was looking forward to the candlelight dinner, and her eyes were as bright as stars.

a date? ” Jiang Zhi was obviously stunned.

“Yeah,” LAN Chu’s pink lips curved up slightly. Finally, there was something that she could hold her head high in front of him. a single person like you will never understand the fun of dating!

As she spoke, she blinked and looked at Shi qinglan. Xiao Qingqing, I’ll be leaving first since I’m a man who values sex over friendship.

“Go on.” Shi qinglan’s Red lips curved up slightly as she looked at her.

LAN Chu waved his hand happily, and then strode towards the school gate with his short legs.

Jiang Zhi was still in a daze. when did you get a boyfriend behind my back? ”

Hearing this, Shi qinglan's eyebrows raised slightly.

...

She patted Jiang Zhi's shoulder gently and looked at him with a meaningful gaze.

Jiang zhixi savored the meaning in her eyes and was a little confused.
