Chapter 111

The others waiting outside entered and saw this scene. Yasenia was on top of a sleeping Kali with a happy smile and a speedily wagging tail. They couldn't help but chuckle. Yasenia looked at the side with a wide smile and whispered, "Can you girls carry the bed? I don't want to bother Kali's sleep."

Andrea chuckled and said quietly, to not wake up Kali, "You seem like a dragon that got a new treasure."

Yasenia's smile widened even more, "I got a very precious and fragile treasure~ I must take care of it with all the care in the world~."

Cecile looked at them closely and was surprised that she didn't feel an ounce of aversion toward Kali joining Yasenia's harem. Until now, her feelings toward Kali were quite mixed, she didn't want more women to join Yasenia, but at the same time, she didn't want to hurt the friend she did these months in the inner sect.

Cecile didn't know that this was because of their connection. Unless Yasenia truly loves someone, she will instinctively reject any notion of more women joining her, even if she has good feelings for that person.

That is why Cecile felt adverse feelings toward Kali before. Cecile instinctively knew that Yasenia didn't love Kali enough. Now that the dragoness is hell-bent on protecting her, Cecile's impression of Kali became what it was before she discovered that Kali loved Yasenia.

Of course, if she didn't like someone, it didn't matter how much Yasenia would love that person; she would continue disliking them.

On the other side, like with Kali, if she has a good impression of someone and they start loving Yasenia, she will feel slight aversion towards them until Yasenia accepts them or completely rejects them.

They all picked up the bed effortlessly and went towards their inn room. However, the bed was too wide for the doors. Yasenia snorted and moved her tail, "[Crescent moon]" Swish like a hot knife through butter, a wide horizontal hole appeared, big enough for the bed to pass.

The others looked speechlessly at the dragoness, who had already turned her head to look at Kali's sleeping face. They shook their heads, holding their laughter, and Evelyn said, "It seems she will also pamper Kali to the skies!" The others chuckled.

Yasenia turned towards Angel curiously. 'If she feels bad, I will have to pamper her until she can't think straight! I can't let my baby be sad...'

However, Angel didn't mind. She knew that she was her baby and that Yasenia would always pamper her. However, she suddenly felt her Yasenia senses tingling and looked at Yasenia. Seeing her eyes scanning her, she tilted her head, confused, 'Why is she looking at me?'

Yasenia saw her clueless expression and found it unbearably cute, 'As expected of my baby! I will have to reward her by pampering her until she can't think straight!' It seemed that Angel's fate was receiving the pampering of the dragoness no matter what.

If the others had listened to her thoughts, they would have answered, ‘You just want to pamper her. Do you have to make excuses!?’

They reached the inn room and put the bed down. Then, very slowly, Yasenia stood up.

After seeing that Kali was utterly relaxed and didn’t tighten the hug, Yasenia managed to get out of bed.

Yasenia put her arms forward and stretched, straightening her body and resalting her body. This made everyone focus on her beautiful curves.

Yasenia felt their eyes, and when she stopped stretching, she smiled seductively. “So, who is first tonight?”

Then she let her robes fall, leaving herself with only her panties. The rest swallowed, looking at the alluring dragoness.

Yasenia saw that they were too busy looking at every nook and cranny of her body, so she sashayed toward Cecile. This made her softness bounce with each step.

When she reached her side, she put her arms over her shoulders, and using the 12cm of difference; she buried her face in her naked breasts. Then, knowing how to arouse Cecile, she whispered, making Cecile’s privates wet at impressive speeds, “Sweetheart, tonight I won’t hold back. I will fill you until you get pregnant~.”

With her head surrounded by her white mountains and the tail caressing her spine, her mellow and sensual voice weakened her bones. Cecile whimpered excitedly and thought ‘Is there something more arousing than this in this world?’

Yasenia used her tail to lift Cecile and carried her to another room. Cecile put her legs around her waist and kissed Yasenia while rubbing her wetting core on her hardness across her robes.

When Yasenia reached inside, she used her tail and took off Cecile’s robes. Both were now naked, and Cecile was rubbing her soft lower lips on Yasenia’s standing dragon. Feeling the rubbing of Cecile’s wet and soft lips, Yasenia breathed roughly while answering her kisses.

Yasenia was impatient, and her rod was also leaking with transparent fluid mixing with Cecile’s. She pushed Cecile onto the bed, and said sultrily “Sweetheart, you are so, ahn~ Active today.”

Pah!

Cecile felt her labia spread by Yasenia’s thick member, sending a hot pleasure wave through her body. Then, her rod pushed strongly against her womb until Yasenia hilted completely, sending a big electric spark to her brain. “Aaah!!”

Yasenia heard Cecile’s moan and started to piston extremely fast.

Pah! Pah! Pah!

Cecile, who was receiving the pounding of her life, hooked her arms around Yasenia and approached Yasenia's ear. She asked while moaning, "Are you that happy, that ah! your, ah! Ah! Ah! Mmm~ That your honey joined us? Ah! AH! AH! AH!"

After she heard that, Yasenia's pistoned harder on Cecile, opening her last entrance more with each thrust.

PAH! PAH! PAH!

Cecile felt her thrusts becoming more animalistic and her cervix being opened a little more with each thrust. Then, Yasenia's strong thrust forcefully opened her cervix, and her girth entered her uterus. Cecile directly squirted, "AAHHHH!"

Yasenia didn't stop pounding her and pushed Cecile's legs, completely folding her. Cecile's inner spasms made Yasenia grunt with each thrust and shortly after she came inside of her. "I'm cumming!!"

Cecile felt her uterus filled with extremely strong life energy and Yang energy, and her eyes rolled up in ecstasy, "OOOHHHH!!"

Because of her position, Cecile's squirt splashed on Yasenia's navel toward their breasts. Yasenia deeply kissed Cecile while being sprayed by her squirt and while she filled her insides. Cecile hungrily devoured Yasenia's lips while riding the big orgasm and sinking her nails in Yasenia's back.

After she finished cumming inside Cecile, she slowly lowered her head and licked Cecile's neck while gyrating her hips and stirring her release inside her womb.

Cecile liberated her legs from her hands and returned to the missionary position. Then, she said to the loving Yasenia, moaning in comfort, "Ha... It seems that you are mmm~, delighted."

Cecile felt her hardness twitch and her licks speeding up. Cecile melted and took out her 30cm dildo. The size was a request of Yasenia because she wanted Cecile to pierce her very deeply. Yasenia's tail wagged when she saw it, and Cecile smiled gently. "Love lay down. Today I want to pamper you."

Yasenia laid on her back and opened her legs the widest she could, showing all her vulnerable spots. Then with her tail wagging and her arms forwards, she asked for a hug.

Cecile smiled gently, put on the big member, and positioned the tip. Then, she pushed her waist slowly while she lowered herself into the embrace of her dragoness. Yasenia moaned in delight, feeling Cecile spreading her entrance widely.

Yasenia closed her arms, burying Cecile in her embrace, and Cecile kissed Yasenia tenderly. Then, she asked gently, "Does my dragoness like it?"

Yasenia licked her cheek lovingly and gave her kisses. Cecile moved her waist in long motions, going out all she could of the significant length and then piercing the deepest she could. Cecile let Yasenia lick her as she wanted, and she even played with her, licking her back without stopping her waist. Yasenia giggled at Cecile's actions, and Cecile's smile curved her eyes into crescents.

Cecile wanted to stimulate her enough, so she used her hands to rub her big breasts and pinch her nipples. To her surprise, milk sprayed when she did that.

Cecile looked towards Yasenia with a lifted eyebrow inquiringly. Yasenia, now in a submissive position, said shyly, "I wanted sweetheart to drink my milk..." Even her cheeks blushed a little.

This was something that Cecile loved. Yasenia will change depending on how you treat her. The best is that it was not an act. Cecile could feel that Yasenia was indeed a little embarrassed through the connection.

Cecile kissed her cheek and asked gently, "Why does my dragoness want me to drink her milk?"

Yasenia's vagina clenched around her hardness and answered without her blush disappearing, "I want to treat sweetheart like my baby."

Cecile's heart clenched a little, 'Even if she can control herself; she still wants a baby... I'm sorry we can't give you one yet, love.'

Cecile petted her and said, trying to make it more sexual, and distract Yasenia from her thoughts, "I want to taste both of your milk types, love."

Yasenia became aroused and unplugged Cecile from her, then she cradled Cecile and presented her nipple. Cecile gently put her nipple in her mouth and sucked. Meanwhile, she used one hand and pumped her rod. Yasenia returned the favor and pumped the still-equipped rod that Cecile had. She smiled happily and moaned from time to time, "Mmm~ Is my milk tasty? Does sweetheart like it?"

Cecile didn't stop her handjob and said, "I love it. It is the tastiest milk there is, love."

Cecile sped up the handjob and gave a bite to her nipple. She heard Yasenia's moans getting louder and asked sensually, "Is my other serving prepared yet, love?"

Yasenia felt her pleasure building up and moaned. After hearing her question, Yasenia's tail wagged and said, "A little more time, sweetheart."

Cecile took both her big breasts with her hands and put the nipples together, then she bit on both of them simultaneously and sucked. Yasenia's eyes rolled up, and she moaned, "Oohhhh!!!"

Cecile continued sucking both of them simultaneously, and when she felt Yasenia reaching orgasm, she released them and lowered her head, enveloping her hardness with her mouth. Yasenia put her legs around Cecile's head and lowered her mouth to glomp Cecile's equipped member.

Cecile felt Yasenia's rod inflating, and ropes of cum spurted shortly after. She greedily swallowed that delicious cum, and electric sparks assaulted her brain, making her also discharge from her rod. Yasenia felt Cecile's flavor spread in her mouth and swallowed slowly, savoring it with half squinted eyes.

When she stopped filling Cecile's belly, she took her hardness from her mouth and returned to cradling Cecile. Cecile obeyed and sucked on her nipple with a gentle look in her eyes. Seeing Yasenia's wagging tail and her eyes radiating happiness was incredibly fulfilling for Cecile.

After doing this twice, Cecile changed positions and penetrated Yasenia again. This time Cecile gave her all, piercing Yasenia's cervix and making the dragoness cry in pleasure. However, even if her stamina was much better with her upgraded bloodline, later, when Yasenia took the reins, she was pumped full of semen until she was a spasming mess.

Their session was quite long this time, having lasted 50 minutes.

Yasenia carried Cecile, who was still awake, toward the bathroom. Cecile just hugged Yasenia's neck and buried her face in her neck, relishing in the strong sweet scent of the dragoness. Yasenia didn't speak and washed her slowly. 'I need to control my outburst of wanting children soon or there will be an accident...'

Yasenia saw that Cecile was sleeping and looked toward her navel, 'But it is very hard... I want to see this belly grow...'

Yasenia sighed, 'At least I'm much better than before, and I only release fertile at the beginning when they are fully prepared to resist...'

After Yasenia laid Cecile on the bed where Kali was, she went to the others. Two hours later, she had already done her rounds with each of them. Then, Tatyana's turn happened, in which she managed not to faint because of pleasure... Because Tatyana let her. Yasenia, with her pleasure nerves still flaring up, thought deliriously, 'I feel so good~. Mommy is the best~.'

Chapter 112

Tatyana, who was currently bathing Yasenia, sensed her thoughts and chuckled, "My little treasure is so cute~. Let's go and get Kali to the bed?"

Yasenia looked at Tatyana with fully pink eyes and nodded, then she asked, "Mommy, carry me~."

Tatyana scratched Yasenia's chin and smiled, "If my dearest daughter asks, who am I to deny you, right?"

Yasenia growled comfortably and smiled. Then, she extended her arms up from the bath. Without the smile leaving her lips, Tatyana said, "So impatient~ I have to dry you first, little treasure."

Yasenia pouted while Tatyana drained the water from the bath. Then, she took out a normal towel and dried her long black hair with care. Then she dried her face, giving a kiss to her pouty lips, making Yasenia giggle happily.

The towel passed through Yasenia's shoulders and her arms. After that, she moved to her breasts, giving gentle kisses to them, and continued downward.

Yasenia sighed comfortably.

Tatyana reached her privates and started with her penis. After drying it, Tatyana gave tap kisses to its head, making it twitch, and chuckled. Yasenia felt her little kisses and said, giggling, "Mom, that tickles!"

Tatyana went below the penis and reached the beautiful and plump lips. She carefully dried that sensitive area and gave a big smooch to those plump lips. Tatyana said, "Perfectly soft and plump~ Very good for kissing!" Which made Yasenia laugh.

Then she dried her legs, raining kisses as she went down. When she reached Yasenia's feet, she tickled them, making Yasenia directly burst into laughter, "Mom, stop! Hahaha!"

Tatyana chuckled and played with Yasenia's feet a bit more, making her little treasure laugh. After that attack that left the dragoness breathing heavily, she went to her tail and also dried the more than two-meter-long tail. "And with this, my dearest daughter is dry~."

Yasenia put her arms up again. Tatyana coiled the tail around her arm to avoid letting it drag and picked her big girl princess carry. “Happy?”

Tatyana walked to the bed where Kali and the rest of her sleeping harem members were. When they reached there, she asked, “Do you want to put something, little treasure?”

Yasenia nodded, “I don’t want Kali to know that I have the male sex yet... I think it will be harder closing the distance between us if she knows...”

Tatyana sighed and nodded, “Well, that’s true. Go slowly with her, little treasure.”

Then, she took out Yasenia’s sleeping clothes from her ring and helped her put them on. While dressing her, she said, “Little treasure, if in the future, she decides to break up with you because of your male sex, do not become too sad, okay? Mom will also become sad if you do.”

Yasenia nodded, “You don’t have to worry! I will make her fall head over heels for me!”

Tatyana looked at her golden slit eyes with her red ones. Yasenia looked at them and said, scratching her cheek, “I can’t promise mom I won’t be sad... But I promise to not wallow in sorrow.”

Tatyana nodded, satisfied with the answer. “Remember, little treasure, I will always give you advice whenever you need it, so tell me if you have any problems, okay?”

Yasenia, now with her nightgown, went forward and hugged Tatyana, “Of course! Mom is the wisest~.” Tatyana hugged Yasenia back, and they stayed there a little while, just hugging each other.

Yasenia and Tatyana went to bed after a goodnight kiss.

Yasenia placed Andrea on the left, then Evelyn, using her left arm as a pillow. This made it possible to see both their faces.

Angel was on top of her using her breasts as a pillow, and Kali used her right arm. Tatyana laid next, and finally Cecile. Her long tail went between Kali’s legs, then between Tatyana’s legs, circling Cecile’s waist.

Yasenia realized that Tatyana did well in limiting her to this amount of harem members. She wouldn’t know what to do if more were to come! Her sleeping posture, speaking of mortals, was a little awkward, but for Yasenia was a piece of cake. She almost didn’t feel their weight. Moreover, her body was super soft, ensuring her lovers’ comfortable sleep when they were on top of her!

Yasenia smiled, satisfied. Tatyana was looking at everything and almost burst into laughter. She didn’t mind Kali being “between” them. Tatyana hasn’t lived more than 100 000 years to become jealous of these little things. She was curious about Cecile, but seeing the coiled tail around Cecile’s waist... She didn’t know whether her daughter did these things on purpose, ‘Does my daughter want to make them so full of love for her that they will only think of her?’ Tatyana shook her head with a smile and meditated.

The following morning, Yasenia was the first to wake up.

She opened her eyes lazily but didn't move. She first looked down and saw Angel drooling on her breasts. A smile appeared naturally on her face.

She looked to her right and saw that Andrea and Evelyn were still asleep. She didn't bother them and looked to her left.

She looked toward her arm and saw Kali's face. Her eyes softened, and she traced Kali's scars with her eyes. She lifted her gaze and looked at Tatyana. Tatyana used her spiritual sense to open a channel where they could communicate. 'Mom, do you think I should use a beauty pill on her? You have three of them. But I feel that it is wrong to use them.'

Tatyana smiled and answered, 'Little treasure, I wouldn't have given you one anyway. Remember that a beauty pill strengthens Yin, regeneration, energy purity, and physical strength. I won't help any of you in the cultivation road besides giving advice and training you all from time to time. I may also reward you... But a beauty pill is something practically extinct on these five continents. Therefore, you will have to achieve something very admirable to get it.'

Yasenia puffed her cheeks, 'But I want to cure her~ Please, mommy, I will do whatever you want~.'

Tatyana asked with a saddened voice, 'You won't listen to mommy anymore? Sniff.'

Yasenia felt her heart hit by something, and her inner struggle lasted for about one nanosecond, 'Listen! Listen! Who said I wouldn't listen to mommy!? I will beat them up!'

Yasenia and Tatyana laughed. Yasenia said, 'Well, I don't mind her appearance. I just wanted to give her peace of mind.'

Tatyana said like a tempting devil, 'Don't you think she will love you more if you treat her well now that she is filled with scars? In the future, after she recovers her beautiful appearance, she won't even look at other people~.'

Yasenia saw one white dragon on top of a moon and one black dragon on top of a black moon popping up.

Yasenia looked bewildered as the black one spoke, "That is a good idea! We will make her so in love with us that she won't even look at other people!"

Yasenia nodded, agreeing with it, but the white one said righteously, "We have to cure her as fast as possible! Our dears' well-being is our priority!"

Yasenia frowned, but she nodded. The black one countered, "But is there anything wrong with her besides her appearance? We can destroy her heart demons with our love! She doesn't need anything more!"

Yasenia and the white one thought a little. The white one answered, "But we can boost her self-confidence if we heal her! She may hate herself if she continues with her current appearance!"

Yasenia opened her eyes in realization! On the other side, the black one sneered, "We can make love with her while worshipping her body daily! What is there to be insecure about when we can lick her insecurities out of her."

The white one was about to answer, but Yasenia slapped it away. Yasenia nodded at the black one with a lewd smile and gave it a thumbs up.

Tatyana didn't know why she could see or hear those small dragons, but she was old enough to maintain her calm through the absurd episode. 'Do not worry, that is just the representation of Yasenias's struggling thoughts; it isn't a new skill or a deep plot or something, so don't bother commenting about it, okay?'

Andrea woke up shortly after. She calmly opened her light green eyes and looked to the right. Yasenias felt her wake up and looked towards Andrea. Andrea lifted her body and leaned forward, reaching to kiss Yasenias without waking Evelyn up. They shared a deep and slow morning kiss.

While they kissed, Evelyn woke up and seeing both of them kissing while sandwiching her got her aroused. Then, Yasenias lowered her head and kissed Evelyn deeply. Evelyn happily answered, letting the dragoness's long tongue fill her mouth.

Tatyana floated and went to their side.

The four women spoke a little until Yasenias felt Cecile waking up. Yasenias used her tail, still coiled around Cecile's waist, and dragged her toward her. With her eyes still closed, Cecile felt herself being pulled by the waist and chuckled lowly. She opened her eyes and saw a sleeping Angel and Kali. When she was close enough to kiss Yasenias, as Andrea did, she lifted her upper body not to bother Kali and kissed Yasenias.

Then she moved to the "awake" side, and they waited for the last two to wake up. The next one to wake up was Kali. Kali opened her eyes and looked at the unfamiliar ceiling.

Memories of yesterday returned, and her eyes widened. She was about to sit up and find Yasenias when an arm held her. She got scared and looked toward the side, only to see the charming face that stole her heart smiling at her.

That pair of golden-red slit eyes looked at her gently. Her plump lips arched in a gentle but tempting smile. Kali felt her heart-rate increasing, so she took a deep breath, and Yasenias's sweet floral scent caressed her senses.

Yasenias used her tail to push Kali by the butt, which made her let out a surprised cry. Yasenias took the chance and kissed Kali softly. She didn't enter her mouth and just put their lips together.

Yasenias knows that Kali is quite averse to very pleasurable intimacy. Therefore, she wants Kali to get used to her scent, her softness, her taste, her caresses, and her loving touches.

For once, she was going entirely on the offense! Yasenias was going to make the woman before her utterly addicted to her so that Kali could look back and think, 'So what if that happened? I'm happy now and with a person that treats me like a treasure!'

Yasenias licked the scar going across her lips, gave her soft kisses, and trapped her scarred lips with her soft ones. Kali's half-closed verdant green eyes looked into the golden slit ones while she melted in the dragoness embrace and tender kiss.

Yasenias felt Angel wake up, so she used her free arm and caressed her silky blonde hair without stopping her kiss with Kali. Angel, of course, understood the gesture and thought mischievously, looking at their kiss. 'Hehehe, you won't be able to sleep without Yasenias from now on! We will be comrades with the same curse!'

Kali felt Yasenia's hand going down her back and stiffened. Yasenia instantly changed her hand motion upwards. She caressed her upper back while filling Kali's mouth with her taste. The others discreetly looked from the side without alerting Kali and used Tatyana's mental connection to speak.

Chapter 113

Kali felt Yasenia's hand going down her back and stiffened. Yasenia instantly changed her hand motion upwards. She caressed her back while making Kali have her mouth full of her taste.

The others discreetly looked from the side without alerting Kali and used Tatyana's mental connection to speak. Evelyn said, 'Look at her go! She is very aggressive compared to how she was with us initially!'

Andrea laughed and said, 'I think we will be able to see the full offensive off the dragoness! I can't wait to see Kali head over heels for Yasenia.'

Cecile also chuckled and shared her previous night's beginning with them. After hearing it, they smirked. Angel, who was on top of Yasenia, buried her head in her softness and said through the connection, 'Wow! Her scent is... Different. Super relaxing. I might fall asleep again~.'

The others sniffed, and like Angel said, her scent, even if it smelled the same, made all their nerves relax. Cecile said, 'She must have felt Kali becoming nervous when she lowered her hand to touch her butt, and now she is relaxing her.'

Evelyn asked, 'So she is testing her limits, to break them little by little later.'

Angel said, 'Poor Kali, she must have suffered a lot.'

Tatyana said, 'She has a firm heart, little Angel. If it were you or Evelyn, the heart demons she bears would have consumed you a long time ago.'

Andrea asked curiously, 'How would we fare? Oh, her scent changed again. Mmmh~ arousing, I like this effect the most, hahaha.'

The others curiously looked at Kali's reaction, which wasn't pleasant. Kali started trembling a little, even if she didn't realize herself, and was still kissing Yasenia. Yasenia didn't stop her scent, but she stopped their saliva exchanging kisses. She looked at the blushing Kali and spoke gently, "Honey, do you like my scent?"

Kali was, like the dragoness intended, kissed silly. After hearing Yasenia, Kali subconsciously sniffed. The sweet floral scent made her feel hot but pleasant. It felt as if her whole body was being massaged softly. Kali became intoxicated, and knowing that it was Yasenia's scent, her trembling subsided somewhat.

She buried her face in the crook of her neck and took deep breaths. After some breaths, Kali's thoughts were clearer. However, this only made her love for Yasenia deepen, 'She smells so good and pleasant. I can feel my body comfortably tingling a little. Does it have aphrodisiac effects? But I'm sure that Yasenia wouldn't use something strong... Is she trying to make my fear for them lessen? How did she even know? Maybe... She guessed what I went through?'

Meanwhile, Yasenia took this chance that Kali was reflecting and lifted Angel by the butt. Angel instantly reacted and met Yasenia's lips. Angel greedily sucked Yasenia's tongue into her mouth.

Yasenia used her long tongue and filled Angel's mouth with it. Angel felt it wreaking havoc inside her mouth, and her body went limp. She also swallowed from time to time, delighted.

Kali felt some movements, and this scene greeted her. A pair of beautiful women exchanging a deep and passionate kiss. Angel saw that Kali was looking, so she stopped their kiss. She licked her lips and looked toward Kali. "Don't worry, Kali! Now that you are with Yasenia, everything will turn out all right!"

Angel sat up on Yasenia's waist and crossed her arms, saying proudly, "After all, Yasenia is the best!"

Yasenia laughed and tackled her baby to the bed. Yasenia then started tickling her while covering her with kisses. "Hahaha, Yasenia! I was talking Kiss Hahaha! I was talking seriously with Kiss Kali! Hahaha!"

Yasenia said, "How can my baby be so cute! I love you a ton!"

Kali saw how Yasenia's tail wagged, doing "S" shapes while she attacked Angel and laughed, amused. Yasenia stopped her attack and looked back at Kali with a smile. Before Kali realized that she laughed, Yasenia tackled Kali and did the same to her, leaving a heavily breathing Angel behind. Kali started laughing with Yasenia's tickles, "Hahaha, stop!" Kiss

The others saw that Yasenia's tail wagging speed accelerated and smiled gently. After that round of attacks. Yasenia sat cross-legged on the bed and put Angel between her legs. They all sat around and spoke about today's plans. Kali suddenly came to herself and remembered her appearance. 'I-I got carried away again... This never happened before, only when I'm with Yasenia...'

She looked at Yasenia and timidly asked, "C-Can I wear my veil?"

Yasenia looked at her and asked gently, "Do you still feel uncomfortable showing your face, honey?"

Kali blushed at her gentle tone but nodded nonetheless. Yasenia was satisfied because they had a lot of progress today, so she didn't insist. She took the veil from her spatial ring and motioned her to come near. Kali got closer, and Yasenia gave her a final peck, making Kali's heart skip a beat.

After Kali felt the veil on her again, she felt a lot more secure, even her posture slightly straightened. Yasenia didn't miss these details.

Unlike before, she was now focused on Kali, absorbing even the smallest gestures. Evelyn spoke, "Today's tournament will be from morning to night. The participants are a total of 8192, which is two powered to the thirteen. To enter the top 1000, we need to win at least three matches. The good thing is that our scores are quite different, so fighting each other before those three rounds, is almost impossible."

The others nodded. Yasenia asked, "How are the stands divided?"

Tatyana answered, "The tournament is a little different than you think... Well, don't worry about the stands. You won't be in them for a lot of time."

Cecile asked, "Now that I think about it, I haven't asked what are the prizes?"

Tatyana said, "Reaching the top 1000 gives you an entry jade and nothing more. They will give you two entry jades if you get to the top 100."

Angel looked confused, "Why would they give two of them?"

Yasenia looked down at Angel and asked, "How much do you think an entry jade is worth, baby?"

Only now did Angel realize it. Yasenia chuckled and kissed her on her head. Angel puffed her cheeks and protested, "Don't laugh!"

Yasenia turned her around and buried her angry baby's face in her softness. Yasenia, thus, successfully made Angel forget about everything else and transform into octopus Angel. Yasenia also didn't forget to have Kali always near her.

Tatyana continued, "If you reach the top 100, you will gain one, 1000 cubic meters, spatial accessory beside the two entry jades."

That was a bigger ring than what they currently had, all of them beside Yasenia. Yasenia's ring sections were enormous. She could put an entire city in it if she wanted and still fail to fill it. Getting this into account, she has been growing a ton of different herbs, recollected from their missions, the previous excursion, or Elias's abundant herbs.

Tatyana finished by saying, "For the top 10, you can ask any blacksmith associated with the tournament to make an upgrade on any of your gear. Finally, for being first, they will give a rare shield called, [The Heart Of Glass]."

Angel's head whipped toward Tatyana, "Isn't that a transcendent grade treasure!? I have heard about it. Its hardness is high even among transcendent level treasures. Moreover, it can channel light energy with extreme efficiency!"

Then she said something that made someone have a fire burning in their eyes, "It is my dream weapon! I've always wanted it since I saw it with my parents in an exhibition in the Sun empire!"

Angel looked at the strange expressions of everyone and asked, "What's wrong?-"

TapTapTapTap

"Huh?"

Angel looked toward the sound and saw Yasenia's tail speedily wagging, she looked at Yasenia's face, and she froze, 'What is with this battle intent!? Is she preparing for war!?'

Even Yasenia's aura was leaking, "Let's go to the tournament grounds and get the shield for my baby!" Said the over-motivated dragoness.

Angel retorted, "We are not going on a shopping trip!"

Yasenia's eyes were glowing golden as she said, "That's right, baby. We are going to retrieve the object and give it to its rightful owner! My baby wants it, who else is worth getting it!? No one!"

They stood up, and changed to their robes. Kali looked at Yasenia and was a little lost, unable to understand what was happening. Andrea asked Kali, "What does Yasenia call Angel, Kali?"

Kali answered, unsure, "Baby?"

Andrea nodded and asked again, “What would an overpampering parent do when their baby wants something?”

Kali answered, trailing on her words, “Go to any lengths to get that object... Don’t tell me.”

Evelyn patted Kali’s shoulder and said, “You will see a bloodbath unless Yasenias gets that object. I wouldn’t be surprised if she used that transcendent level poison to kill the person that gets it.”

Cecile said, stating a fact, “Angel will get the shield.”

The rest nodded while looking at the dragoness, who now had her hair floating around because of the determination filling her.

Angel was stumped and scratched her cheek, “I-I should control what I say in the future.”

Yasenias heard her and exclaimed, with the [Celestial coat] around her, “What nonsense are you talking about, baby? You shouldn’t control a thing! This dragoness will give you the world if you want it!”

Angel blushed at that bold claim, and the rest almost tripped. They thought, ‘Did I miss something? Because I don’t hear the joking tone!’

They prepared and went to the tournament grounds. Yasenias had even stars floating around her when they reached the tournament grounds! She had activated the [Starry Sky]!

Tatyana looked at her, slightly speechless, and said. “Little treasure, what will happen if you tire yourself and you aren’t able to get little Angel the shield?”

Yasenias’s aura instantly disappeared, and the stars dissipated, her demeanor becoming as silent and still as a lake. The spectating people felt chills at that aura control.

“She is very strong for her low level.”

“Who is that monster!? How can someone release that amount of battle intent and then dissipate it instantly?”

“She is the one that won against Long Tian Xue. People are calling her heavenly dragoness because of her beauty and talent.”

Yasenias looked at those people, even if they were 100 meters away, and said, “I am also the person who will win this tournament!”

A ton of stares locked onto her after that statement. Yasenias looked around and sneered, “What? I’m done hiding. Want to come and have a taste of this dragoness? Let’s see how many of you can make me go all out!”

She gathered energy in her throat and, “RROOOAAAAARR!!!!”

A shockwave spread from Yasenias as her deep and resounding dragon roar exploded from her mouth! Those below the seventh level of the Mental Nourishing realm got pushed back!

To avoid trouble, Tatyana protected the people that her dragon roar would damage. Then, Tatyana sighed, ‘Dragon Pride is definitely becoming a problem... I will have to do something to put my little treasure in her place again. Well, the statement she just did may be of help...’

A woman with grey eyes and beautiful long blonde hair looked from the side with a smile. 'Interesting; I hope I can fight her. Maybe I will be able to unleash some of my strength?'

Then she shook her head and sighed, 'A shame she is still young and in the first level. I can't see myself losing to her...' Then she turned and left.

Chapter 114

Meanwhile, Kali got confused again. 'Is it necessary to show off like this?'

This time, Cecile explained with a cold face, "She doesn't want people barring our path anymore. A show of strength will deter all those low-level, high ego ants that lust for my mate. I sometimes have this urge to take my bow and shoot around."

Tatyana, who was listening, smirked, "I knew you could do it! Welcome to my ranks!"

Cecile got confused but answered nonetheless. "Um... Thank you, I guess?"

Tatyana said with a smile, "Don't worry! I will educate you, so you don't indiscriminately kill~. We don't want you to become the wrong Yandere type! You will become a nice and fluffy Yandere~. My little treasure is truly fearsome to think that you changed from kudere to yandere in just some months."

The rest couldn't help but question in their heads, 'What the hell are those terms that she randomly says from time to time?'

On the other side, Cecile was happy, 'Personal guidance from Tatyana? I couldn't ask anything better. I don't care what I become if I can protect Yasenia!'

This time, instead of going to the normal stands, they went to a private room reserved by Tatyana. When they reached their room, they looked around, impressed.

The room had a pair of red couches, a table between the couches, and a single jade crystal in the middle. The room's main color was white with some grey accents, and the furniture beside the couches was black.

After that roar, Yasenia had calmed down from her motivation burst. She reached one sofa and said, "Andrea, sit!" And Andrea sat.

Yasenia moved her soft butt and planted it on her lap. Andrea chuckled and hugged her from behind with her chin resting on Yasenia's shoulder. Yasenia felt something lacking, and at that moment, Angel approached and looked at Yasenia with her soft blue eyes. The tail moved instantaneously, lifted Angel by the waist, and then carried her onto Yasenia's lap. "Now, that is more like it! How could I not have my baby on my lap?"

Kali wanted to sit a little further, but she heard Yasenia's voice, "Honey, come sit here~ I want to ask a little about your healing skills, bloodline, and constitution."

Of course, Yasenia just wanted an excuse to have Kali near her. However, she asked what she had just said; she didn't want to lie to her, even for these little matters. She grabbed Kali's hand and asked, "So, what bloodline and constitution do you have, honey?"

Kali said, a little shy, "Umm, my constitution is called [Thousand Flowers]. My constitution is what mainly supports my [Flower bed] and makes it as effective as it is. It also gives me a very high affinity with nature and strengthens my healing skills."

Tatyana said, “That is a rare constitution. Your gardening must have also benefited from it. Little treasure, when Kali gets a spatial ring that has its environment inside to plant herbs, give them to her. She will be able to grow them better than your ring.”

Yasenia nodded, “But of course! The herbs I’m growing are for Evelyn and Kali~.”

Kali and Evelyn smiled, and Kali asked, “Which herbs do you have?”

Yasenia took out some paper sheets filled with the names of the herbs. Kali looked through them and exclaimed, “Wow! You have some very rare plants... [Poisonous Violet], [Life Sucking Grass], [Blood refining Rose]... How did you get these rare herbs?”

Yasenia answered, “I killed a half-step of the Thousand Poison Sect and plundered his treasures.”

Kali nodded, “That one you told me about b-before the...”

Andrea smirked and said, “Yes, before you were caught in our dragoness clutches.”

Kali blushed, and the rest laughed. Yasenia asked, “What about your bloodline?”

Kali answered, “Even if I sound crazy, I-I’m not lying, okay? Many people don’t believe me...”

Yasenia said, “Say it, honey. I will believe you even if you say that you have a goddess bloodline!”

Kali coughed, “Well, you are not too far off... My bloodline is [Life’s origin Nine Tailed Fox]...”

Silence reigned in the room as everyone’s eyes opened widely. Tatyana said, impressed, “Wow... Little treasure, this time you struck the jackpot...”

Angel stuttered as she said, “I-Isn’t that the rarest variant of nine-tailed foxes?”

Cecile said, “Nine Tailed foxes. They are at the level of phoenixes and dragons. However, they are normally lightning, fire, or darkness attributed...”

Kali nodded and said, “Y-yes, my variant is one of the first creatures that appeared in the world...”

Tatyana said, “No wonder your [Golden Crown] evolved... I knew you had a high-level bloodline, but I didn’t think it was also an extremely rare one.”

Yasenia’s smile widened and made space on her other leg for Kali to sit there. Then she glomped her baby and Kali in her embrace, laughing happily and thinking, ‘Our babies will be super strong~.’

Kali was surprised that there wasn’t even a little bit of skepticism coming from the girls present. Then, while Yasenia pressed her in her embrace, Kali looked at her, and her lips arched happily and made a wish with all her heart, making her bloodline respond. ‘I-It seems I truly found my home... I wish Yasenia becomes my resting place from today until the day I die.’

Tatyana’s eyes flashed white, and she was surprised to see Kali’s fate strings interlocked with Yasenia’s tightly, ‘Her fate interlocked with Yasenia’s? Well, let’s nature take its course. If this results in either opportunity or demise, I will make sure to guard my little treasure.’

An announcer appeared in the middle of the enormous coliseum. Some screens also appeared, broadcasting him on them. He was a very attractive man, with long black hair and a chiseled face. He had beautiful honey-colored eyes and a perfectly proportioned body. His voice was deep and engaging as he spoke, "Welcome to the last stage of the tournament! Our participants have been battling these days and are finally in the last stretch. Remember that there are betting sites at the side of the arena. This tournament has a total of 8192 participants! To get the entry jade to the secret realm, the participants must get into the top 1000!"

The man continued speaking, "Different from the previous stages; the participants will battle outside the ten arenas in the center. Where will they battle then? They will battle in separate fields we laid in nature! Our seniors have liberated a ton of space to make these battles simultaneous."

Some people complained.

"I haven't paid all those crystals not to know what I am seeing!"

"What the hell? how will we keep track of the participant I put my bets on?"

"Return my money! You guys are scamming people!"

The man put energy in his throat and coughed once. A soundwave spread around, silencing everybody. He smiled handsomely, and the ten one-square-kilometer arenas changed into different natural fields. "You don't have to worry about anything. On the side of your seat, you have a place to input your participant number or any other random number! You will be able to see your participant in the central arena. Then, you, the audience, will be able to vote for them!"

The people relaxed and lifted an eyebrow with intrigue, "The top nine cultivators with more votes will be transmitted through illusion and spatial formations in the nine arenas around the central one. It won't differ from watching it in person since even the auras will be replicated! This will continue until only 100 participants are left! Then, it will change to rotations in the ten arenas of the Coliseum until the winner is decided."

Evelyn frowned when she heard about how they will be sent who knows where. "Tatyana, is this even safe? I don't want surprise kidnaps to happen when we are away."

Tatyana said, "Don't worry, the referee for the six of you is me. If someone tries anything funny..."

Evelyn relaxed completely and said with a smile, "My worries were for naught! We are as safe as inside a fortress with you watching over us!"

Yasenia asked curiously, "Mom did you place any bets?"

Tatyana said, "But of course! I placed some stakes on my little treasure winning! Many teachers have also placed their bets on you~."

Yasenia tilted her head and asked, "Mom, how is my winning chance?"

Tatyana said, "Depends. Twenty-one people have a good chance of beating you in this tournament if you don't use [Day and Night]. If you use it, there are three... Nope, I would say that only two have a high chance of winning."

Angel and the others were surprised. Angel asked, "There is someone that can go against Yasenia's [Day and Night]?"

Tatyana nodded and said, "You have even met one of them; his name is Jaxon. The guy that was with Gerd and the other children."

Angel frowned and said, "But he couldn't pass my barrier. Yasenia can blow it up with one hit in her [Day and Night] mode."

Yasenia sighed and patted her baby, "Do you think he went all out, baby? If what mom said is true, he probably is with Gerd and the others for something more than allying with the demons."

Angel squinted comfortably at her pats and leaned back. Kali spoke at this moment, "U-Umm... Shouldn't we be going to our assigned areas?"

Yasenia nodded and made Angel stand up. Then, she stood up, and the rest followed.

Cecile reached a desert-like area. It was filled with rock pillars, and the terrain was uneven. 'This can be disadvantageous for me. Being ranged in terrain with many hiding places will be a problem....'

She reached her designed point and could see her opponent one kilometer away. It was a girl with a longsword, blue cultivation robes, and long black hair. 'That design... It is the same as that half-step that fought Andrea, so she is from the [Azure dragon] sect. She is an eighth-level cultivator.'

Cecile looked towards the jade, and a number floated above it, "13405", That was the number of people seeing her right now. "I wonder how many spectators do the others have?"

The announcer's voice suddenly resounded through the entirety of the area. "Since most of our spectators have already chosen their participants, we will start in Ten! Nine! Eight! Seven!..."

Cecile started preparing and put on her [Chilling Wind Coat]. Freezing winds began revolving around her and her crystal blue bow. The winds made her icy blue hair wave, and her robes floated around. "[Space Vision]."

Cecile's pupils shrank, and she saw her opponent cover herself with an earth and metal attributed coat. Cecile frowned, 'She is practically in her best environment; I will have to begin strong. If I have problems, change into the defensive.'

"...Two! One! START!"

Cecile sprinted towards the tallest pillar; she wanted to have high ground to shoot her with her arrows.

She moved like a gale bouncing around the smaller pillars and getting altitude. Her opponent charged toward her and easily saw through her tactic, so she used her earth movement skills to speed up towards it, basically surfing on the rocks.

The pillar they were heading to was enormous, more than one hundred meters in diameter. It went straight up almost one kilometer.

While running, Cecile aimed and shot one silver [Moon Arrow] after another. Her arrows weaved paths between the pillars with devil-like accuracy, reaching the other cultivator. The arrows easily broke the sound barrier and traveled the distance between them in less than a second.

Thanks to her developed mind, the girl could easily erect earth walls to protect herself. However, “[Moon Gale arrow].”

An arrow shot more than twice as fast and with a silvery wind vortex around it. The girl could only erect a normal earth wall, and the arrow smashed through it, “[Azure dragon claw].”

She used her sword, and a blue aura spread around it. The sword and the arrow clashed in an energy explosion, making the girl stagger one step and throwing her off the earth board she was surfing on.

Cecile reached it and used her space attributed skill [Blink]. Her body disappeared and appeared atop the pillar. The girl was surprised, ‘What a masterful control of the space element!’

Cecile looked down, and her blue eyes gained a silver glow. “Since you have the terrain advantage, I will just destroy it [Moon Phoenix Feathers].”

A phantom phoenix appeared behind her. It had a beautiful silver plumage, and its eyes were icy blue. White flames danced around its body.

Chapter 115

A phantom phoenix appeared behind her. It had a beautiful silver plumage, and its eyes were icy blue. White flames danced around its body.

The phantom phoenix extended its wings as Cecile pulled the bow string. When Cecile released the string, the phoenix flapped once.

The other girl saw the multitude of silver feathers with white flames around them shoot towards her and used a strong defense, “[Azure dragon’s metallic scales].”

Her metal and earth energies formed a thick metallic blue scaled shield before her. The two skills clashed in a giant explosion making the surrounding explode in rubble.

BANG!* BANG! BANG! *BANG!

The arrows continued hitting the shield until the shield was about to burst. However, it held. The shield was in tatters, but it managed to block that attack.

Cecile used her [Space Vision] and saw through objects. She lost the girl in that attack and was trying to find her.

After looking around, she found the girl sneaking toward the back of the pillar. Cecile moved fast and rained arrows on her again.

Cecile controlled the rhythm of the match perfectly and didn’t let the girl come near the pillar. After more than ten minutes of back and forth, the girl was frustrated and tired, “I will just charge at her then. [Azure Dragon Scale Armor]”

When Cecile saw her charging at her with armor, she smirked coldly. ‘Do you think you are Yasenia? Charging at me directly is....’ She pulled her bow in a full moon and said, “...Plain suicide, [Moon Phoenix feathers].”

Cecile released the bow and started firing her attack continuously; the phoenix behind her flapped its wings majestically with the same cold eyes that Cecile had.

The girl opened her eyes and exclaimed in her head, ‘She can use that attack continuously!?’

A rain of feathers dropped like a comet rain making explosions everywhere. The girl could tank some of them but eventually got overwhelmed by them. She was about to go to safety behind the pillars, but Cecile's voice ended the match, "[Flashing Moon Arrow]."

Cecile pulled the bow a full moon, and a silver arrow with white engravings appeared. When she released the string, the projectile transformed into a silver beam and reached the girl instantly.

Tatyana appeared when the girl had the arrow a meter from piercing her forehead and caught it, "Cecile wins!" Then she disappeared again. The girl swore that she saw her life flashing before her eyes. She slumped to her knees, breathing heavily.

The people watching her in the coliseum cheered, and her viewers increased. Cecile stored her bow and thought, "I hope the others are doing well."

And they were. All of them won without much difficulty.

Angel fought against a shield and sword user. Their defensive approach was like giving her sweet milk- Cough a candy, like giving her a sweet candy. She managed to set up the big formations easily and won.

Evelyn now was more proficient with her elemental armor, and her strikes were fast and powerful.

Andrea was like a tiger with wings now that she had the [Solar Charge]. She literally overran her opponent, charging at them frontally and using all her damaging auras.

Kali used Tatyana's advice in the use of summons and overwhelmed her opponents.

What to say about Yaseenia, who, like Andrea, almost stomped the level nine cultivator she was against.

Angel was quite happy about her win. She looked at her jade and saw the number 412, "Woah! There are more than before~ Hello, new viewers! If any of you have a camera, please record my fights! I want to show them to my girlfriend later!"

The number dropped to 246. She puffed her cheeks and asked, "Why did they leave? Are they jealous that I have the best girlfriend in the world? Hmph, let me tell you, my girlfriend is super beautiful and...."

Well, our little baby was having the time of her life. A message popped up, reminding her to move to her next position. Angel obeyed and walked to it while bragging about Yaseenia.

She reached a place filled with bubbling mud and trees around; It was similar to a swamp. Angel frowned and asked, "This is not poisonous, right?"

Tatyana appeared beside her and patted her head, "Don't worry, there are only places where the depth suddenly increases, be careful with that."

Then she disappeared. With Tatyana's confirmation, Angel stepped forwards confidently... Only to disappear with a splash. Tatyana burst into laughter, 'Didn't I just warn her? She is such a cutie. Let's join her this night with my little treasure.'

Angel hastily swam out of the mud. She looked around to see if someone had seen it, and suddenly she remembered her jade. Thankfully, her face was covered in dirt because she blushed crimson in embarrassment. The number has jumped to 1432, “Do you guys want to see me hurt myself? Meanies! I will tell my girlfriend!”

The people watching her at the arena were laughing, but they better pray that Angel doesn’t truly tell Yaseenia.

A male cultivator at the sixth level arrived. He had a giant sword, similar to Yaseenia’s previous sword. Angel sneered, ‘Of all the weapons, you use the one I’m most familiar fighting against? Courting death doesn’t make it justice. You are blatantly telling me to beat you to a pulp!’

The second round would only begin when all the participants ended their battles. In this round, they had to wait for half an hour. Angel had already cleaned herself of the mud and was ready to fight!

The announcer said, “This round, the people with the most viewers have been! Tenth Tang Luo Xuan, with 53 413 viewers!”

Angel listened and was surprised, ‘So many!’

The announcer kept presenting people, and suddenly, she heard the announcer say, “Third, we got Yaseenia, a disciple from the Academy. She is the lowest leveled cultivator, just at the first level, but she is an overwhelmingly strong dragoness with divine beauty! She had 478 951 viewers!”

Angel smiled like a flower and said, “That is my girlfriend! See? I told you she was awesome!”

Again, the announcer’s voice sounded around, “In the second place, we got Isla! One of the inner disciples from the Heavenly Sect! She is also a personal disciple of the sect leader! Her cultivation level is at the half-step of the Mental-nourishing realm, and she has defeated Unification realm practitioners before. She had 512 347 viewers!”

The coliseum exploded in cheers. Then he said, “Above them all, there is Jaxon! He is an inner disciple of the Demonic Sect, and his master is the demonic sect leader himself! This big man has also been seen fighting against Unification realm experts and oppressing them with brute force! He had 523 543 viewers!”

Angel frowned, ‘That bad guy is the strong one that can beat Yaseenia... Hmph, that is only because he is almost a whole realm above her. My Yaseenia is still the best.’

Angel prepared when she heard the countdown of the announcement, “[Prismatic coat].”

Rainbow-colored lights surrounded her for a moment, and then they stayed glowing with white light. Angel observed her opponent and saw fire and magma covering him.

“...Three! Two! One! Begin!”

The man stomped the ground and charged toward Angel. Angel sprinted to the side. Following the same principle as her [Glass nodes], she created light glass platforms that could float in the mud under her feet, making her run at impressive speed.

The man shortened the distance, and Angel took out her big oval shield. The shield covered most of her body and had green edges, similar to glass. She put five [Glass nodes] in a semicircle before her, and after passing over the [Glass nodes], she turned and chanted, “[Glass shield formation].” ‘This should block his charge.’

After the shield covered her front, she channeled her light energy to her shield, “[Focused light-beam]” She changed the glass to a convex form and shot a powerful light beam.

The man charged frontally and shouted, “[Magma eruption]!”

He slashed with his saber once, and a wave of hot magma shot forward. The beam and magma wave collided and exploded, canceling each other. The man passed through the explosion while frowning a little, ‘That beam is stronger than I thought. I will have to be careful....’

Angel managed to insert some [Glass nodes], but she needed more time. Her shield lit up and erupted in another beam, “[Focused light-beam].”

The man was very close, so he saw it coming and was able to evade it. ‘I’m near her. She doesn’t have time for another attack.’

The man attacked her frontally. When the saber and shield formation collided, a big clang resounded.

Angel smirked, and the man frowned.

‘He needs eight hits.’

‘I need eight strikes.’

The man tensed his muscles, his body exploded in a burst of fire, and he shouted, “[Fire barrage]!”

His sword clashed eight times extremely fast, but he heard a silvery voice chanting. “[Glass Golem Formation]!”

Ten golems instantly surrounded him! He locked onto Angel and charged at her. However, one of the golems reached between them. “Move out of the way! [Magma Eruption]!”

He slashed toward the golem strongly, and he released another magma wave. Angel’s silvery voice chanted, “[Golem Explosion]~.”

A laser beam hit the golem, exploding violently after shining with rainbow colors!

The explosion stopped the magma wave and stopped the cultivator for some seconds. The man tried to pass through the explosion, but that delay made enough time for the other nine golems to reach him. The man fought with them while trying to reach Angel, but he couldn’t move around with enough agility because of his giant sword, so he had to fight them. ‘This is bad! Kill them fast!’

The man used different fire and magma skills, destroying them very fast. Nonetheless, a strange dome appeared around him.

Angel has used this time and built up a big formation. “[Glass Prison formation], [Light Prison formation], and combining them, there you go~ [Laser Prison formation].”

The man was first surrounded by a transparent glass dome, which instantly got covered by white light. When he managed to destroy the last golem, both formations combined and created the laser prison. This prison had been upgraded with Tatyana’s help, and now it was even more aggressive.

Countless lasers rained onto him! He tried to maneuver and block them while charging at Angel. But it was too much for a single person. While trying to escape that death trap, Angel gave him the finishing move, “[Focused Laser formation]!” A giant laser beam fired at incredible speeds. The man got scared, ‘That is too strong!’

However, did he even have to worry when Tatyana was the referee? Tatyana appeared and destroyed everything in the area instantly. “Victory for Angel! Good job, cutie!”

The man fell to his knees, and Angel started jumping around joyfully, making her big breasts bounce, ‘Mommy Tatyana praised me! She praised me! So happy~.’

When she stopped bouncing Cough jumping, she looked at the viewers and saw an impressive 25 679 viewers! “Did you guys also like my fight! There are so many new people~ Hello! I’m my girlfriend’s pampered baby, Angel!”

The views dropped to 3 420 instantly, and Angel pouted, “Why do they leave when I mention my super, hyper, ultra...” Well... Let’s leave Angel with her fun and move to Evelyn, shall we?

Chapter 116

Evelyn has been quite lucky these first two encounters. Since she almost didn’t manage to pass the previous examination due to bad luck, she has been paired with the weakest and luckiest in the tournament. Her first opponent was a level four cultivator, who she easily overpowered. And the second one was a level five cultivator, and the girl didn’t have a chance against our mischievous spark.

Evelyn waited in place for her third opponent. She was on a small hill with some trees around. She crossed her fingers and hoped to be against a melee cultivator, ‘This environment is too good for ranged ones!’

She saw a level eight cultivator and frowned. ‘Another level eight? What the hell is a level eight doing here? I’m only level two!’

Evelyn sighed, frustrated, ‘How do I manage to win? The previous one was extremely close, and I managed to win because my opponent fought too defensive, giving me too much freedom...’

However, she suddenly saw lighting coursing through him. Evelyn blinked, then blinked again. She looked at the sky and said, “Thanks to Yasenias’s melons! I thought I was done for!”

The man who was walking calmly almost tripped when he heard her, and Tatyana directly burst into laughter, ‘I see that she has her priorities straight! Oh! Yasenias won against that half-step. Well, she isn’t pulling any punches. She finished him off with [Midnight]. Her control is getting better and better; she now can use it once in a while without injuring herself~. So proud of my baby daughter~.’

Tatyana looked around, ‘The others are doing nicely. Kali has improved her control a lot~ If she keeps winning, she will meet with Angel in two matches. Cecile is completely overpowering her opponents because of her new [Moon Arrow] and new technique. Andrea is lucky she surrendered once against that girl; she won’t meet with half-steps until later. However, her opponent next to this one has an interesting trump card...’

Evelyn looked at her jade and saw an impressive 45 645 people viewing her. ‘Why are there so many people watching me?’

Meanwhile, in the coliseum, there was a group supporting their general! Even if they idolized one person, their general always gave them pictures of her! They must confirm that their general wins the necessary three matches to enter the secret realm... so she can share photos of their idol later!

Of course, this group was the S.L.U.T.s that managed to come to the last stage of the tournament!

The man looked at Evelyn and found her familiar. Well, you don't see many people with electric blue hair and violet eyes. "Oh! You are one of the girls that normally goes with that dragoness, right?"

Evelyn was about to ignore him, but her interest piqued, "What about it? Do you want something from me?"

The man said with a vicious smile, "Of course! I'm Tang Yuan, the cousin of Tang Luo Xuan!"

Evelyn rolled her eyes and said, "Are you going to say that you will make me pay so that Yaseia knows about your pain for losing your female cousin? Moreover, you will then say dramatic lines like you loved her or something, so you will try to force yourself on me?"

Tang Yuan was stumped, and Tatyana thought, 'She has potential. I shall teach her my fourth-wall-breaking skills. More annoyance to the author.'

Evelyn felt something breaking so hard that she couldn't help but feel pity for someone. However, those feelings passed fast, like an illusion.

Evelyn returned to herself and heard the man say arrogantly, "Since you know your fate, how about you become a good pet and follow my orders? I won't mistreat you if you behave yourself."

Evelyn sighed and asked, "Can I ask you a question?"

Tang Yuan was about to answer, but Evelyn interrupted him, "Nevermind, I will ask anyway, so you don't need to answer. Why do all of your speech patterns seem the same as the others? Do all of you have the same skill of making sounds unable to pass from one ear to another?"

The man asked, "W-What do you mean?"

Evelyn shook her head, "I even have to explain the joke... Since sound doesn't travel through the void, it is impossible to pass from one of your ears to another!"

Tang Yuan's brain gears rustily turned, and it suddenly clicked. Tang Yuan became so angry that he took out his longsword, and his body created purple electrical bolts. "You want to die!?"

Evelyn kept provoking, "By the way, your sister, cousin, or whatever seemed to have the same problem. We couldn't let her continue living an unbearable life without a brain, so we ended it. Who would have thought that your Tang family would repay goodwill with hatred!"

The man was about to charge when the announcer's voice brought him back to his senses.

“We will start the last eliminatory round! Those who win this match will get the entrance pass! Juniors, this is the last stretch! Ten! Nine! Eight!...”

The man couldn't help but sweat coldly, 'I almost charged! I would have been directly disqualified. Control yourself!'

Evelyn tsked her tongue, 'I almost got him out with just words! I would have been able to brag about it later.'

Evelyn used [Thunder Light armor] when the countdown was five, and the electric blue armor covered her chest, wrists, and legs. Tang Yuan knew about this, so he looked surprised at her armor but now wasn't the time to speak, and he surrounded himself with purple bolts.

“Three! Two! One! BEGIN!”

Both stomped the ground and charged at each other.

Tang Yuan used a movement technique, and he accelerated in a straight line. Evelyn wasn't left behind; with her [Flash Lightning steps] and [Thunder charge], her speed was the same as Tang Yuan!

Sword and spear collided, and blue and purple lightning bolts flew around. Tang Yuan used another lighting technique, and his swinging speed soared. Since he was of much higher cultivation and very aggressive, Evelyn decided to be on the defensive.

She managed to barely block his attacks by spinning her spear and letting the strength of his attack slide her backward. She mastered this momentum management technique after fighting against Yasenia's heavy attacks.

Tang Yuan frowned and continued to attack her, creating metallic sounds around. 'I feel like hitting cotton! How is she doing this!?'

The exchanges between spear and sword continued with Evelyn continuously sliding back. Tang Yuan observed and saw his lightning bolts entering her body and smirked, 'I'm part of a demonic cultivation sect. Do you think that those currents are normal?'

Evelyn continued receiving attacks and absorbing his electrical currents, 'The bolts are different; they seem to attack my meridians instead of my body... I have to be careful while absorbing them.'

After 3 minutes of going back and forth, Tang Yuan frowned, 'Why aren't any wounds appearing on her skin? Even between lighting cultivators, lightning is damaging....'

He changed his rhythm and sent a powerful attack, “[Demonling lighting].”

Countless small lightning bolts shot when he swung his sword vertically. Evelyn was surprised and twisted her body, dodging most of the attack. Moreover, she spun her spear, creating a simple defense, “[Thunder shield].”

Even with this, many of them landed on her. Purple currents ran around Evelyn's body as she thought internally, 'Now is your turn, [Lightning Devouring Body]!'

All the small lightning bolts that entered her body were decomposing at incredible speeds and becoming nourishment for her. Even if it paled in comparison with natural lightning or Heavenly lightning, it was still something.

Tang Yuan jumped backward and said, “You can absorb lightning. Is it your constitution?”

Blue electrical currents appeared on her, lighting up the surroundings. Then, she thrust forwards extremely quickly, using [Lightning Stab]. Tang Yuan saw her spear flash and barely deflected it. He prepared a counterattack, but Evelyn had already recovered her stance and was channeling another skill.

“[Thunder Swipe].”

She made a horizontal strike with the spear and used the length advantage to carry the most momentum. Tang Yuan stepped backward to avoid it, but the spear stopped in front of him.

“[Lightning stab].”

Evelyn’s stab went extremely quickly toward his throat. He moved and let it stab his shoulder; blood splashed!

He grunted in pain and used his sword, aiming at the spear, “[Lightning slash].”

Evelyn hastily pulled back the silver spear, but she wasn’t fast enough, and the sword clashed with it.

CLANG!

Her spear got flung sideways, and she almost lost grip of it. Tang Yuan didn’t lose the chance, “[Demonling lightning pierce].”

He lunged toward her stomach, directly towards her Dantian! Evelyn lowered her waist, and the strike landed on her armor.

BANG!

The armor stopped the blade while shattering but managed to block most of the damage. However, the strength of the slash sent her flying. Tang Yuan followed after her, Evelyn tried to recover before he reached, but he was fast! “[Demonling lightning steps].”

His speed soared while charging at her and reached her side rapidly. He swung with his sword, and Evelyn dodged, piercing the spear into the ground and abruptly changing directions. ‘That was close!’

Evelyn took a deep breath, and she felt a sharp pain in her chest, ‘That hit to the chest broke some ribs... If I had my coat instead of armor, I would have been done for... Crap, he is stronger than I thought.’

Tang Yuan didn't stop his pressure and continued his attacks. Evelyn was barely blocking, and his slashes became stronger as time passed. 'I can't continue like this! But using my trump card now is too risky....'

The exchange continued for another minute, and Evelyn's ribs hurt a lot. Evelyn needed some time, so she used [Light charge] and sped away after blocking his attack. Tang Yuan followed, and a cat and mouse game started. Evelyn couldn't find a way other than using her trump card. 'Before it is too late for even that, I might as well go out with a bang!'

The blue electrical currents became thicker and changed color to white. Evelyn pointed her spear at Tang Yuan and used [Luminous charge].

BOOM!

She left a crater on the ground as she sped up like a white electric spark.

Tang Yuan knew that something was coming when she started gathering energy, so he also buffed himself "[Lightning Demonling Body]!"

The purple bolts around him took a blackish color, and his sclera turned grey. Then he used [Demonling lightning steps] and accelerated towards Evelyn.

Both had similar speeds as they charged toward each other. BANG! They collided, and the weapon collision created a crater.

Evelyn's meridians were working overlock, making the energy spin around her body quickly. "[Luminous spear]!"

Her spear got covered by the white lightning, and she attacked with it rapidly. She pierced, did a rising strike, spun the spear, and continued her barrage.

This time, Tang Yuan was having difficulties blocking her attacks, 'What an impressive technique! She has more strength than me!'

After exchanging uncountable attacks, Evelyn felt her body reaching the limit. "COME ON! ONE MORE PUSH! [LUMINOUS PHANTOM]!"

Her attack created phantom spears that attacked simultaneously, and her blue hair blew in the wind!

"[LIGHTNING DEMON CLAW]." Tang Yuan also used his finisher technique. His weapon swing created another two phantom swords and swung as strong as possible.

Both were overexerting their bodies as they clashed weapons.

BANG!

After one clash, they stepped once backward and gathered all of their energy, reaching the climax of the encounter!

"BREAAAK!"

"DIEEEE!"

BOOOM!

Chapter 117

...Both were overexerting their bodies as they clashed weapons.

BANG!

After one clash, they stepped once backward and gathered all of their energy, reaching the climax of the encounter!

“BREAAAK!”

“DIEEEE!”

BOOOM!

A giant explosion followed the weapon collision, and two bodies were launched backward. They tumbled through the ground, splashing blood and with serious injuries. After flying some hundred meters, they came to a stop.

Both stayed immobile on the ground for some seconds until one of them twitched. It was Tang Yuan! He put a hand on the ground and lifted himself with a painful grunt. ‘That was close... I thought I would lose. I swear I’m going to kill her! How can she fight to this level, only being in the second level?’

He walked to the side, limping, and picked up his sword. Then he walked towards Evelyn.

Tatyana was paying attention to them, ‘Come on, little girl, wake up, rise yourself and fight.’

Tang Yuan continued walking toward the still Evelyn. They were some hundred meters away, so even if he was going fast, he needed some time to reach Evelyn’s side.

He walked near, and Tang Yuan reached the still motionless Evelyn. Then, he raised his weapon. Tatyana focused, wanting to see a single twitch from Evelyn, but she saw nothing.

The sun shined on the sword edge, and he thrust downward to Evelyn’s heart!

Tatyana looked but didn’t see movement from Evelyn. She appeared and stopped the sword, then she said, “Tang Yuan wins! Go to the medical recovery team before going to the next battle.”

Tang Yuan bowed painfully and said, “Thank you, senior. May I also carry her, senior? I don’t want to waste any more of your time.”

Tatyana looked into his eyes, and he felt as if death was looking straight at him in the eye. “Trying to lie to me? Don’t go too far, child, or don’t blame me for being ruthless. Do. You. Understand?”

Tang Yuan nodded hastily and almost pissed his pants. ‘Terrifying, demons are like beautiful celestials compared to her gaze!’

Tatyana carried Evelyn to the infirmary, and when she reached, Evelyn woke up. Seeing herself in Tatyana’s arms, she asked, completely exhausted, “What... happened? Did I ugh... win?”

Tatyana looked at her and said, “You lost. You had absorbed so much of his lighting at the beginning that you couldn’t cushion the last attack correctly because your meridians and body were full. The shockwave hit your broken ribs badly and made you faint.”

Evelyn was surprised at the beginning, but then sadness and guilt crushed her. She put her forearm over her eyes and asked with a brittle voice, “W-What about the others.”

Tatyana answered calmly, “They all made it.”

Evelyn started crying, be it the physical pain she was feeling or the sadness of not making it. “I won’t be a-able to Sob go with Yasenia?”

Tatyana answered, “Who knows... What are you going to do, Evelyn?”

Even if she was crying, Evelyn’s voice carried conviction. “Train! I will grind my bones if it is needed! I refuse to get stumped by one loss!”

Tatyana made a small smile and said, “Good. It seems I won’t have to clean your butt and wipe your tears! If a single loss stumped you, I would have been quite disappointed. There is only one thing left to do, grow stronger, Evelyn.”

Tatyana looked into her teary violet eyes and said, “In the cultivation world, the thing that gets you to the top isn’t the talent, the riches, or the opportunities you gain. The most influencing factor is a constant effort and comprehension abilities! Do not get discouraged. I already told Yasenia. Do you know what she said?”

Evelyn sniffed and looked at Tatyana with reddish eyes from crying. Tatyana smirked, “Yasenia said, ‘Tell my dear that she doesn’t have to worry! This dragoness will get her a pass even if she has to leave her skin and bones on the arena!’”

Evelyn started crying and laughing simultaneously, “She is Sob always like this, hahaha. How Sob Did you give birth to such a perfect daughter? Didn’t the Heavenly Tribulation strike you?”

Tatyana burst into laughter and said, “The Heavenly Tribulation? What tried to attack me were the World Laws! Thankfully I’m resilient, and they didn’t get me~.”

Evelyn was so surprised that she stopped crying and hiccuped, “How did you Hic provoke the World Laws!? No, no, no, how Hic are you still alive!? Doesn’t someone always die when Hic the world Laws attack them!?”

Tatyana patted her back once, dispelling the hiccup, and smirked, “Well, for now, that is my secret~.”

Evelyn suddenly remembered Tatyana’s role and asked, “Wait, aren’t you the supervisor? What are you doing here? Why is my life filled with questions when I’m around you!?”

Tatyana laughed again and disappeared, leaving a confused Evelyn behind. Tatyana thought, ‘If she can shout like that, she should be okay.’

Tatyana reached her previous spot and asked Ying Yue, who acted as a referee on her behalf, “Did anything happen?”

Yang Yue said excitedly, “My empress! Little princess is so talented; I’m so proud of her. You must let us teach her! Once we teach her strategy, politics, economy, and other things, She will be an excellent ruler beside your esteemed self!”

Tatyana’s smile widened, and she said, “Right? My little treasure is the best, she...”

Tatyana started bragging about Yaseña, and Ying Yue listened excitedly.

Meanwhile, Kali sighed in relief after passing the third round. ‘I was lucky enough to be in a forest environment. When I summoned [Golden crown], the match was practically over. How are the others doing? I should try to reach the top 100 in the worst scenario of any of them losing without getting an entry jade. I selfishly entered their group... Will they like me more if I manage to get them that?’

She reached her next battlefield and looked around. “A meadow?”

There were some small hills surrounding the area and some tall bushes around. The grass was green, and she could see almost everything.

A Tigerkin beast-man stood with two big beasts beside him on the other side. One was similar to a blue tiger and the other to a white crane. Their sizes, however, were quite big. The tiger was three meters tall and eight meters long. The crane was even bigger, with 5 meters in height and 10 meters in wingspan.

Kali was surprised, ‘A beast tamer? They are quite rare; this is my first time fighting against one in my 26 years... Thankfully I’ve read about how to fight against them....’

Kali started strategizing, ‘The man is in the sixth level of the Mental Nourishing realm, one more than me. The beasts are both middle-level third-ranked beasts. To stop the [Blue Tiger], I will need between 7~12 treants depending on its strength. The problem is the [Icy Wind Crane]... I will need my archers to maintain it at bay, but I don’t know how many.’

Kali looked at the cultivator, ‘Then the cultivator. He is above my level, but beast tamers are normally weaker than normal; I could stall him by myself. The match should go in my favor if I manage to summon [Golden Crown]. I hope the crane isn’t too much trouble....’

The announcer countdown started, and Kali wrapped herself in her elemental coat, “[Mother Nature coat].”

Vines wrapped around her, and her defense, strength, and affinity with flora strengthened. Kali observed the blue aura surrounding him, ‘Water attributed. The tiger is also water attributed, and the crane is Wind and Ice attributed.’

“...Three! Two! One! BEGIN!”

The Tigerkin jumped onto the tiger, and the tiger ran forward.

Kali started with a [Root wall] and used [Poisonous spores] inside of it. The tiger saw the roots appearing and leaped toward it, claws first. At the same time, the Tigerkin slashed from the tiger’s back, and they collided with it. A big collision sound spread around, and they managed to destroy most of the wall, but it stopped their charge. Moreover, those destroyed roots released the spores covering them.

Meanwhile, Kali used [Dryad summoning] two times in a row. Twelve dryads appeared, eight archers and four casters. The Crane flew over the wall and flapped its wings, sending sharp freezing gales toward Kali.

The four casters summoned weaker root walls blocking most of its attacks. However, the crane didn't stop flapping its wings, sending more and more gales.

Kali used [Nature's blessing], reinforcing two of the archers. The two archers shot arrows toward the crane through the gales, making it take evasive maneuvers to dodge, and slowing its attacking speed.

Meanwhile, Kali sent the other dryads to spread around to avoid the freezing winds and attack from different angles. She then began her [Treant Summoning].

The Tigerkin and tiger continued their attacks on the first root wall while covering themselves with water. This managed to stop the spores from doing more damage.

After some more attacks, they managed to destroy her wall and advanced toward Kali. However, ten Treants had already grown on the other side of the wall. Kali left her dryads dealing with the Crane and focused on the tigerkin and [Blue Tiger]. "[Root entanglement], [Nature's blessing]."

Roots grew from the ground and tangled the tiger's legs. However, it only slowed down its charge since its physical strength ripped them from the ground. Two Treants got reinforced and attacked the charging tiger with their fist.

Thanks to the lost momentum due to the entangling, the two Treants managed to stop it when their fist collided with it. The Tigerkin took the chance and jumped off its back, speeding toward Kali.

Kali didn't make the treants lose focus and sent all of them toward the [Blue Tiger], ignoring the tigerkin and keeping the beast busy.

At this moment, all the archers stood in position, and their attacks shot continuously, making the crane completely busy. With the crane now more distracted because of the arrows, she could free two caster Dryads and ordered them to create another root wall in the tigerkin's way. Then she started her [Golden Crown] summoning.

The Tigerkin felt the large fluctuations of nature and life energies, and thinking he wouldn't be able to destroy the wall in time; he tried to climb it with his innate agility instead of going through it. Bad choice; the dryads used the roots that formed the wall and entangled his legs! He fought off the roots easily, but the fluctuations had already peaked by the time he managed to overcome the wall.

With the Crane being held back by the dryads, the tigerkin's mistake, and the tiger fighting the Treants, Kali summoned the [Golden Crown]. A three-meter-tall female with green skin and a floral dress appeared; her body proportions were more voluptuous than before, resembling someone.

The [Golden Crown] instantly created a staff decorated with three coiling branches, and a green aura exploded outward from her, filling everything with her presence. All the summons strengthened, and the area became her domain!

Then, Kali charged with the [Golden Crown] behind her toward the Tigerkin, longsword in hand. "Let's do this!"

Then, Kali charged with the [Golden Crown] behind her toward the Tigerkin, longsword in hand. “Let’s do this!”

The Tigerkin also charged toward them and whistled. The crane dove straight down without minding the arrows.

The dryads didn’t let that chance slip and fired a barrage of arrows toward it. They hit it and tore inside its body, making blood splash. The crane hissed in pain but followed its master call and continued diving.

Kali frowned without stopping her run. ‘Does he not care if it dies? Then... I’m sorry.’ “[Arrow Enhancement: Parasite root].”

The wood the dryads summoned for their arrows took a greenish, blue shade. The dryads shot another round of arrows, landing on the Crane.

This time, the Crane directly screeched as it felt the arrows lodging into its skin and spread roots inside its body, absorbing its vitality.

The Tigerkin continued his run toward Kali with determination filling his eyes. Kali didn’t lower her guard and clashed swords with him.

CLANG! A loud metallic sound followed, and the strength of the tigerkin almost sent Kali! Her feet slid on the ground for tens of meters, and she still felt numb in her arms, ‘Such strength!’

The Tigerkin stomped on the ground, approached Kali rapidly, and attacked, utilizing the gap created by Kali’s misjudgment.

However, the [Golden Crown] came between them and used her staff to stand up to him. He didn’t change the course of his attack and used a sword skill.

The staff and sword met.

CLANG!

To the tigerkin’s surprise, the three-meter-tall [Golden Crown] stood her ground! Thanks to the surprising strength of the summon, both came to a standstill! ‘No way, her summon is stronger than herself? What kind of summon is this!?’

Kali’s [Golden Crown] was her trump card. It was a skill that wasn’t in the library of the Academy, and she got it from a scroll in an auction house. Moreover, the skill mutated thanks to her bloodline.

The [Golden Crown] was not only an extremely apt commander. The higher Kali’s cultivation level, the wiser it became. Kali had vaguely noticed that [Golden Crown] learned from others and gained more sentience as more time passed. Therefore, while training, she always takes her out.

Moreover, after her traumatic event happened, she always poured her troubles on her, making the [Golden Crown] more than a skill. For Kali, the three-meter tall lady was more like a family member.

The [Golden Crown] swung her staff expertly and exchanged attacks with the Tigerkin. The crane reached right at this moment!

It was riddled with wounds, and most of its plumage had fallen. One wing was broken, and its visible skin had roots swelling its skin as if worms were wiggling inside of it. However, using its wind attribute, it managed to reach its master's aid. However, the Tigerkin didn't care and shouted, "Slow down this summon!"

Kali was behind the [Golden crown], observing him, and when she saw the crane's eyes, she was surprised; they had an unusual glow. 'He isn't a beast tamer; he is a beast enslaver!'

A beast enslaver was the demonic type of a beast tamer. In comparison, beast tamers fight with their beasts and treat them like family. The demonic ones use curses and rituals to enthrall them. This ritual has some risks to the caster since it could backfire, but the beast will obey unconditionally when successful.

The method to differentiate them is looking at the beast's eyes. They would normally release black fumes from their eyes when A beast enslaver put them under their control. However, this characteristic was hard to see from a distance.

The Crane attacked the [Golden Crown], and she faced off against the crane. It was just a matter of time before she killed it with how weakened it was.

Nonetheless, thanks to this, the tigerkin was able to attack Kali. Kali, however, sneered, "Get him."

The dryads that were focusing on the Crane changed objectives toward the tigerkin! Parasite arrows fired from eight directions, and roots emerged from the ground. The tigerkin opened his eyes, and Kali lunged toward him. Her voice beautifully echoed as if it was a sound coming from nature itself. "[Forest dance]."

Her footwork became elegant, her eyes glowed verdant green through the veil, and her long chestnut-colored hair danced with the wind. Her sword flashed time and time again with swift, precise, yet elegant strokes. Tatyana raised an eyebrow and filmed her, 'I bet little treasure will like this. Her moves are elegant, beautiful, and, most importantly, deadly. It seems like an original skill too~ A talented child for sure.'

With the twelve dryads and Kali's deadly dance, the tigerkin was completely overwhelmed. One arrow hit the back of his knee, another on his waist, and Kali's sword slashed his arm, producing painful screams from him.

When he was on the floor, almost immobile, she said, "Kill the Crane."

The man furiously shouted, "STOP!" However, the [Golden Crown] leaped upward and made a rising strike with her staff. The sickening sound of crushed bones was heard when the staff impacted under the chin, followed by its head exploding.

The tigerkin became furious, "Why did you kill it!? Do you know how much resources it costs to enslave one of those!?"

Kali saw that the [Azure Tiger] was almost done with her Treants. Therefore she decided to finish the match. She pierced the sword toward his forehead with the intent to kill. Tatyana appeared and stopped the lethal strike. "Kali wins! Not bad, Kali. Keep it up."

Kali smiled under the veil and bowed, "Thank you, senior."

Tatyana disappeared, and her voice resounded playfully, "So serious~."

Kali looked toward the still shouting tigerkin and said, "I hate people enslaving others and using them as disposable pieces. You already have an entry slot, was making your Crane go through all those attacks even necessary?"

The tigerkin cursed and said, "That is my problem! Why did you kill it when you had already won!? I wouldn't mind if it happened during the battle, but you clearly did it on purpose to fuck me over!"

Kali turned and said while leaving, "That's right, I did it on purpose. I rather kill it than let you use it as materials for the next ritual. I hope you go broke and live in misery."

As she said, Kali's reason for killing it was not letting use it as material for the ritual. Since it normally uses other living beasts as a sacrifice. That wounded Crane was the perfect material. She didn't mind if it was right or wrong; she followed her beliefs and didn't have any regrets.

More curses followed that statement. "I'm going to kill all your family and * your loved ones!"

Kali stopped and turned toward him. The veil covered her face, but a terrifying aura surrounded her, similar to the wrath of nature itself.

She advanced and went beside him while hearing him curse. "What the fuck do you want!? You are lucky that participants can't be killed, or I would even-"

STAB

"[Parasite Roots]."

"GRAAAH!!!" He swung his fist toward Kali, but the [Golden Crown] blocked it with her staff, then she spun it once and tapped the ground. Roots grew from his feet and coiled around his body, immobilizing him.

Kali's voice was bone-chilling cold as she said, "You are lucky I want to advance in the tournament, or your life would have been forfeited."

The tigerkin couldn't answer since the parasitic roots damaged his insides badly. Moreover, Kali used her medical knowledge to damage the most painful spots.

She continued messing with his insides until the man fainted because of the pain. She took out her sword and left. Tatyana appeared with Ying Yue after she left and chuckled, "How troublesome, little Kali, this also counts as decalcification, but... something entered my eyes, and I couldn't see what happened. His injuries are obviously because of the battle. He also isn't dead... Well, she can pass, right? Ying Yue?"

Ying Yue rolled her beautiful eyes and said monotonously, "Yes, my empress who has even destroyed all life in a continent has been blinded by a dust mote."

Tatyana looked at Ying Yue and said, "You dropped quite a big bomb with that beautiful mouth of yours, huh?"

Ying Yue looked confused, “Aren’t only the two of us here?”

Tatyana sighed, “Well, you are not wrong... Let’s go to send Angel where Evelyn is. The cutie has given her all, but a level eight cultivator is still too strong.”

“My Empress is right. However, she was able to damage him quite badly. All of the princess’s mates are very talented.”

“They are, but it is also true that the dual cultivation with Yasenia purifies their energy and makes them stronger. Even if the effects aren’t immediate, they have been piling up these months, and they are beginning to show.”

Ying Yue asked, surprised, “Is it doing so much good for them?”

Tatyana nodded, “Yes, they can fight two levels above what they could have fought without Yasenia’s ‘nourishment.’”

Ying Yue frowned, “That is dangerous; if dual cultivation sects know of it, they will try to get her without minding the consequences.”

Tatyana nodded, “Andrea has already talked with them about it. She is quite responsible for everything surrounding Yasenia.”

Ying Yue nodded in praise.

While they spoke about Andrea, the woman was reaching her next area. It was filled with ruined buildings, some tall, others completely in debris, and other almost intact. The location was wide, and, like any other city, there were places devoid of buildings. ‘Let’s see who am I against....’

On the other side, a level nine dragon-man appeared. Unlike Yasenia, he had horns, wings, and scales surrounding his neck. The scales were red, matching his eye and hair color, and he was as tall as Andrea.

He carried a giant white club made of bone material and carvings all over its length. He also had black armor covering his body, with a place in the back to pass his one-meter-long red tail and wings.

Andrea raised her eyebrow, ‘A dragon-man! Should I put Tatyana’s advice to use?’

Andrea laughed as he looked at him. The Dragon-man frowned, “What are you laughing at?”

“I was thinking about my lover, who is a dragoness.”

The man’s interest piqued, “Are you talking about Lady Yasenia?”

Andrea’s plan crumbled, ‘I can’t taunt and insult you if you are so respectful toward my dragoness!’

She shook her head and decided to go for the honorable battle, “More than knowing her... I’m one of her mates. My name is Andrea.”

The man’s eyes shone in reverence and bowed, “It will be a pleasure fighting with Lady Andrea! My name is Argon! A proud [Fire Dragon-man]. However, might I say something disrespectful?”

Andrea nodded, and the man said, “I have observed that Lady Yasenia likes females. Although I don’t want to get in the way of Lady Yasenia’s happiness, I hope you convince her to find a male to continue her bloodline in the future. A bloodline of the level of a superior dragoness like Lady Yasenia should be spread!”

The announcer’s voice started the countdown, but neither of them moved. From their little conversation, Andrea trusted this dragon-man’s character. Andrea asked with a raised eyebrow, “Do you consider yourself worthy?”

Chapter 119

...The announcer’s voice started the countdown, but neither of them moved. From their little conversation, Andrea trusted this dragon-man’s character. Andrea asked with a raised eyebrow, “Do you consider yourself worthy?”

The big dragon-man became flustered and shook his head frantically, and even his tail seemed to be denying it. “I am proud of my [Fire Dragon] bloodline, but I’m unworthy of Lady Yasenia’s favor!”

Andrea almost laughed out loud, ‘He is quite cute despite his size.’

Andrea asked, “What do you think of my [Sun Eating Tiger] bloodline? Is it worthy of her?”

The dragon-man man nodded but then shook his head, “It is! But it is also a shame that Lady Andrea is a female. You won’t be able to impregnate Lady Yasenia. Such a pity....”

Andrea laughed and said, “I will tell you one secret that should make you quite happy.”

Argon listened attentively. Andrea said with a proud smirk, “I have both female and male sexes. Better yet, I’m able to get her pregnant.”

Argon looked stupefied for a second and then laughed out loud, “As expected of Lady Yasenia’s mate! Extraordinary even in that aspect! Then, Lady Andrea, I hope you have hundred of descendants with Lady Yasenia. A tiger and a dragon, quite fitting!”

Andrea laughed and took out her red and gold halberd, “Argon! It has been a pleasure talking with you. Let’s have a fair match!”

Argon spread his wings and prepared his giant club! “Can I speak with my clansmen about Lady Andrea’s peculiarities? I think they will be overjoyed discovering that a worthy mate such as you is by Lady Yasenia’s side!”

Andrea shrugged and said with a grin, “Sure, why not. It isn’t something to be ashamed of. Since I’m with Yasenia, it is something I can talk about with pride. Prepare yourself! I’m attacking!”

Then Andrea stomped the ground and shot toward him. Argon also lunged forwards and flapped his wings to gain more speed.

Halberd and club collided, and the ground sank under them. Andrea felt like a carriage just rammed her and was sent flying backward! She laughed while thinking, ‘Such strength! Truly the dragon race is absurd!!’

Andrea flew through one building and used the ax part of her halberd to stop her momentum. Argon went through the building as if it was made of paper making a big explosion of rubble and dust. Andrea shouted, “[Chromosphere]!”

A molten substance surrounded her silver armor, and the heat around her soared. Argon followed suit, “[Fire Dragon Armor]!”

Andrea's eyes opened as she saw how his chest and wings got covered in fire armor. 'Armor!? He has evolved his coat!?'

However, she wasn't cowed! Andrea grinned and charged toward the Dragon-man. Andrea shouted as she swung her halberd toward Argon. Argon swung his club, and they clashed weapons!

BANG!

Argon's strength made her feet slide on the ground, leaving a trail, but she avoided the strike from blasting her away like before.

Argon praised, "Impressive battle arts! Here I go! [Draconic fire charge]!"

Andrea slammed her palm on the ground, "[Molten Wall]!"

Argon roared as he swung his club toward the gory wall. A big explosion occurred, and the wall was ripped open.

However, his club rebounded, destabilizing him. Andrea already expected it, so she put strength in her legs and jumped, "[Solar descent]!"

Her energy locked on Argon, blocking his movements briefly.

This moment was all Andrea needed to fall on him with her halberd and imposing momentum. Argon used his armored wings and protected himself.

Andrea's strike cut through the wings, and the halberd landed on his chest.

CLANG!

After the metallic sound of the halberd hitting his armor, Argon's feet left the ground and flew backward, roaring in pain because of his damaged wings.

Andrea stomped the ground and chased after him with her newly acquired [Solar charge]. A golden glow surrounded her, and it grew in intensity the further she charged.

Argon backflipped three times, killing the momentum, and stabilized enough to see Andrea's approach. He swung his club toward Andrea with all his strength.

Andrea stopped her charge abruptly in front of Argon and transferred all her momentum to her halberd, doing a horizontal swing. Sun energy radiated from her as she swung her weapon!

Argon and Andrea clashed weapons again.

BOOOM!

A giant sun energy explosion sent Argon flying backward like a cannonball, with his black armor cracked.

However, the feedback of the heavy collision fractured Andrea's right arm. Nonetheless, she was uninjured in the rest of her body.

Knowing the strength of the dragon-man, she wanted to finish quickly now that she had the advantage. Therefore, she didn't stop her pursuit and used her [Sun charge] again.

Argon looked at Andrea, and his eyes flashed, 'Using the same skill twice in a row isn't very smart, Lady Andrea.'

Andrea reached his side and made the same motions, swinging the halberd strongly against him with the intention to finish him off here. Argon used his club, doing a rising strike, and he chanted in his baritone voice, "[Draconic reflection]."

His club runes lit up as the club flashed extremely quickly toward Andrea's weapon.

When the club and the halberd were about to clash, Tatyana appeared in the middle and caught the two weapons, killing all the momentum with her hands and stopping them easily. Andrea was confused, "Is something wrong?"

Tatyana chuckled and said, "Argon wins!"

Andrea was stunned. Even if he had his two wings almost cut off and other serious injuries, Argon laughed spiritedly. Then he kindly explained, "Lady Andrea, my last attack is a technique from my clan. It doesn't prevent the damage we receive, but it reflects the attack with threefold strength to the attacker! You would have badly injured me, but the rebound of your own attack...."

Andrea's eyes widened in fear, "I would have either died or had my arms and frontal armor blown apart..."

Andrea shook her head with a smile and said, "Argon, it is your win. It has been a pleasure fighting with you."

Argon shook his head, "I was lucky! I would have probably lost if you hadn't repeated the attack twice. I was already beaten down. I must say, I haven't been sent flying in a while! More so by someone with lower cultivation than myself, hahaha."

Andrea smirked and said, "Well, that is something I experience daily! Yasenia is a brute and loves making us fly in all the meanings of the word."

Tatyana chuckled, and Argon burst into loud laughter, "Lady Andrea, I hope we see each other in the secret realm! Farewell!"

Tatyana carried Argon to the medical area, returned, and sent Andrea where Angel, Evelyn, and Kali were. Andrea smiled at the others and asked, "Hello girls, how did you do? Are you injured?"

Angel shook her head and laughed mischievously, "Evelyn didn't manage to get her entry jade~."

Evelyn rolled her eyes and rubbed Angel's temples with her knuckles, "Do you think you can laugh at me freely!? Here, take this!"

Angel shouted, "Ouch, ouch, ouch! Evelyn, I'm going to tell Yasenia!"

Evelyn laughed fearlessly, "Who do you think she will take sides off? Me who didn't manage to get the jade or you!"

Angel said with full conviction, "It is obviously me! Let's see if you can escape if I fake some tears!"

Evelyn almost coughed blood because she could totally see Yasenia take Angel's side. "Andrea, Angel is bullying me~."

Andrea and Kali laughed at their interaction. Andrea said, “You didn’t get it, but I don’t see you worried.”

Evelyn freed Angel and said with a snort, “Do you think Yasenias will let any of us fall behind when going to a place like a secret realm?”

Angel also snorted, “As if! Evelyn just has to sit and wait for Yasenias. Furthermore, Cecile is also out there!”

Evelyn and Angel looked at each other and laughed. Evelyn hugged Angel from behind and said, “I hope she doesn’t meet with any of the two strongest before that... If she does, maybe I won’t get the jade....”

Evelyn said, “Say Angel, can I fondle your tits?”

Angel looked at Evelyn, stupefied, “Here?”

Evelyn said with the most serious face that Angel had seen Evelyn do. “It will heal my poor and hurt soul.”

Angel was trying with all her Mental Nourishing realm mental capacities to see a single hint of Evelyn’s usual joking expression, but she didn’t see anything! ‘She is telling the truth!?’

Angel said with a stutter to her perverted friend, “S-Sure do whatever you want.”

Andrea looked at Angel with a strange face, ‘Do you know what you are saying, little Angel?’

Poor Angel chose the wrong set of words. Evelyn’s eyes shined with happiness as she pushed Angel onto the resting bed, and her hands sneaked with expertise inside her robes.

Angel opened her eyes as Evelyn’s hands massaged her breast with pinpoint accuracy. She opened her mouth to protest, but a moan escaped instead of words, “Ah~.”

Evelyn let out a perverted chuckle as she kneaded, pinched, and rubbed Angel’s breasts. ‘Not as big as Yasenias’s, but they are also a big pair of heavenly melons! Oh~ the feeling of my hand sinking in softness is heavenly~.’

Andrea and Kali looked from the side, speechless, as Evelyn sent Angel to heaven with her breasts alone. ‘She is an expert!’

Evelyn stopped after some minutes, completely satisfied. Angel was breathing heavily on the bed. She regained her wits and blushed crimson, “EVELYN I’M GOING TO SPANK YOU UNTIL YOU CUM!”

Evelyn felt a shiver of pleasure and fear go up to her spine. Evelyn asked Andrea, trying to ignore the fuming Angel, “Did I go too far?”

Andrea chuckled and patted her head, “Well, expect a spanking session the next time you are together with Angel and Yasenias at night.”

Evelyn didn’t know whether to be happy or scared about her current situation. ‘Angel spanking me while Yasenias ravages every one of my holes? Will I die of pleasure? Heavens, lend me strength!’

Kali interrupted, pointing at the screen that had Cecile on. "Look, Cecile's next opponent is reaching."

They saw that Cecile's next opponent was a half-step and frowned. Kali said, "It seems that Cecile won't be able to enter the top 100."

The others nodded, and Andrea sighed, "No matter how strong she has become, it has only been a few days since then. It is impossible to reach her full potential, much less fight against a half-step."

They turned their sights toward Yasenias. She was standing in place with the giant sword pierced in the ground beside her and her arms crossed under her breasts, emphasizing them. Evelyn commented, "How many people do you think are taking photos of her right now? I mean... I'm sure they can be sold quite highly, and I speak from experience."

Kali looked at Evelyn doubtfully and asked, "You won't be the S.L.U.T. general by chance, right?"

Angel, who had already relaxed, said, "You are right! How did you know?"

They couldn't see it, but Kali's face was slightly blushing, 'I can't tell them that I bought some photos, right?'

Evelyn, however, was very keen. "Did you buy some of the photos?"

Kali stiffened, and the three of them chuckled. Andrea said, "Well, the best ones and the ones where Yasenias appears nude are inside Evelyn's ring. You can ask for them later. They are quite the sight. Especially when Yasenias purposely makes poses...."

Andrea stopped talking because she was becoming aroused.

Angel was looking at space while blushing, remembering some of the photos.

Evelyn was almost drooling looking at one of them...

Angel suddenly remembered something and said to Kali, "Wait!"

Kali, who was about to peek at Evelyn's photo, froze. Angel said, "I think Yasenias wanted you to see her naked in person first... I think you shouldn't look at the photos."

Kali had a lot of curiosity but respected what Angel said. Evelyn even stored the photo when Angel stopped speaking.

Andrea and Evelyn didn't know why Angel stopped Kali from looking, but they trusted Angel and didn't contradict her. Angel was thinking, 'Since Kali has been... Through that. I think Yasenias wants Kali to get used to her first and then reveal that she has the male part... For us, it might be strange, but for Kali....'

Andrea said, "Look, Yasenias's opponent arrived. Is that...?"

Kali said, "A harpy, an extremely lustful beast-human race. They have wings in their arms covered with feathers and talons as legs. They don't wear any clothes and try to mate with everything they find attractive."

Evelyn said, "Well, she is dripping looking at Yasenias...."

The others focused on the Harpy's nether regions and had strange faces because Evelyn wasn't exaggerating.

Chapter 120

Evelyn said, “Well, she is dripping looking at Yasenia....”

The others focused on the harpy’s nether regions and had strange faces because Evelyn wasn’t exaggerating.

Angel said, “Thankfully, Cecile isn’t here. I think she would have charged inside directly, bow in hand.”

The others nodded. Kali said, “That harpy is in the half-step. Moreover, I think I’ve seen her somewhere....”

Kali went to the list of participants and found her. She read aloud, her voice changing to a more disgusted one the more she read. “Here she is! Gahanna, a blue feathered harpy from the Poppy Sect, is at the half-step and has mostly won by sucking her opponent’s energy....”

The other three faces turned ugly. Andrea asked, “She is one of the people that have been forcing themselves on other participants in battle? But she is female, and unless she has a special constitution, she can’t absorb Yin energy. Has she been doing that to females?”

Kali nodded her head, filled with disgust and some hostility, “She has... But she didn’t absorb their energy; she just played with them. Gahanna has only... ‘attacked’ males. However, for some reason, she is aiming for Yasenia.”

The others knew why, but they would let Yasenia explain the things about herself to Kali. Evelyn said, to clear some doubts, “I think it should be because of Yasenia’s [Celestial Yin and Yang constitution]. Yasenia has Yang energy which Gahanna should be able to absorb...”

Andrea chuckled and said, “If it comes to that... ‘Battle.’ Don’t you think Gahanna would have dug a grave for herself?”

Angel and Evelyn opened their eyes in realization and laughed. Evelyn said, “Although I don’t want to see Yasenia touched by this bastard... It would be interesting to see that.”

Angel explained to Kali briefly, “Yasenia is too good in sexual arts~. However, don’t worry, Kali! I’m sure that Yasenia will know how to treat you when you advance the relationship! She is always super gentle~.”

Kali nodded, a little expectant but more afraid than expectant. ‘I-I hope she isn’t disgusted by my b-body’s scars...’

In an arid place filled with rocks of all sizes, two beast human females were looking at each other.

One of them had a dragon tail, and her seductive figure could charm everyone under the heavens. Her long, black hair and dress moved with the wind, making a beautiful picture. She had an imposing giant sword at her side, with a core glowing with ominous red light. Her face was expressionless as she looked at her opponent.

On the other side, there was a female with wings as arms and talons as legs. She was naked, showing her slim body and private parts. She was looking at her opponent like a predator would at their prey.

She had blue feathers and black hair, her eyes were sharp, and her facial features were somewhat distorted because of the lustful expression she was making. “I really wanted to meet with you, Yasenia~! Those people from the righteous side wanted you to join them, but I see they failed miserably~ How about becoming my cultivation partner? We can have a very good time together~.”

Yasenia looked at her with the same expressionless face without answering.

Gahanna tilted her head and said, “Not answering? Why so serious? I’ve seen you speaking with other participants. Am I so scary~? I just want to make you feel the most pleasure you felt until today~.”

Yasenia continued unresponsive. ‘This harpy is dangerous. I feel that the moment I relax, I will be done by her.’

However, a sneer couldn’t help but appear on her face, ‘The most pleasure I’ve ever felt? Is she trying to compare with mom? Delusional Pidgeon, I’m going to go all out because of that stupid statement.’

The announcer’s voice sounded, “This is the last round before entering the top 100! Our participants have come a long way to reach here. Let’s see if they can get that second jade entry!”

The crowd in the coliseum counted with him, “Ten! Nine! Eight!...”

Yasenia and the harpy used their energy coats.

“Since you don’t want to speak... I will make you scream in pleasure, hahaha~.”

Yasenia looked at the sky and saw that sunset was approaching. Then she focused her dragon eyes and saw that Gahanna’s coat was completely different than normal, ‘Is that... A blue smoke of some sorts?’

Tatyana, who was paying attention, frowned slightly, ‘That’s dangerous, especially for Yasenia. Gahanna has evolved her coat completely and changed its nature. If Yasenia doesn’t pay attention... Yasenia’s instincts will take over her reason.’

Gahanna licked her lips, ‘It is the first time I taste a wild dragoness~ will you be able to ‘Keep up’? fufufu~.’

Yasenia picked up the sword, and when the countdown ended, she began walking toward Gahanna ‘Enough holding back; if I lose this, Evelyn won’t be able to come to the secret realm with me.’

“[Starry Sky].”

White lights began gathering around her.

“[Celestial Coat].”

A golden-silvery glow surrounded her.

[Wanning Moon].”

Her sword gained a silvery glow.

The harpy didn't move from her place, nor did she take out any weapons. She observed Yasenia's aura increase and smirked, 'Not bad. I will have to use aerial maneuvers if I want to win comfortably.'

However, suddenly Yasenia's energy release became absurd as energy began spinning around her in a vortex. Gahanna opened her eyes, stupefied. 'What is happening!?'

Meanwhile, Tatyana smirked, 'Seems I was worried for nothing; she is going all out. This will be my first time seeing this mode. Show them little treasure, show the world what my daughter is capable of!'

Evelyn in the infirmary smirked and said, "It seems I'm going to go with you girls."

Angel smirked and nodded, "Behold! Our beloved dragoness strongest state!"

Andrea said, completely awed, "One thing is listening about it. Another is seeing for ourselves what an absurd aura release."

Kali was stupefied. 'What kind of girlfriend did I get!?'

Yasenia roared. "[ABSORPTION OF CELESTIAL LIGHT: DAY AND NIGHT CYCLE]."

Yasenia's eyes turned silver as a phantom black sky appeared. All the energy around Yasenia inflated and exploded violently!

BOOOM!

A visible shockwave expanded from Yasenia at vertiginous speeds.

Gahanna was terrified, 'How can someone at her level release such an aura!? She feels more like a senior!'

Yasenia's aura explosion made the smoke gathered around Gahanna to be blown away. Worse, Gahanna felt like a steel wall impacted her body and was blown away by the shockwave more than a hundred meters.

Then, Yasenia spoke, her voice like a whisper, but it reached everywhere under the phantom night sky, "The [Moon charge]s into the [Moonless night], illuminating the world with her presence."

Yasenia spun once with her sword, deploying her silver domain. Then, as she pointed her sword forward, her leg muscles inflated and stomped the ground, gaining sound-breaking speed instantly!

The ground below her feet exploded, sending rocks flying everywhere, and she transformed into a silver meteor!

Gahanna used her wings and hastily took off to the sky. However, Yasenia's speed right now was absurd and reached her even before she separated 5m off the ground.

Yasenia used the momentum of the charge to jump toward her and tackle her. Even feeling the dragoness lunging toward her with her spiritual sense, Gahanna could not dodge.

Yasenia's shoulder hit her square on the chest, transferring the fearsome momentum of the dragoness. Gahanna felt like a mountain had just rammed her!

Her ribs cracked, and her inner organs tumbled as she flew away like a bullet. While midair, Yasenia chanted, her whisper echoing again, “The [Crescent moon], illuminating the sky, the [Shooting star]s guiding our life.”

When Yasenia landed from her jump, she did a horizontal strike. A giant 150m wide crescent attack shot from her sword. She used the sword’s weight to spin, and her sword-tail slashed horizontally, creating another [Crescent moon] attack. Then, the cycle repeated, sending attack after attack toward the harpy.

Gahanna, who just had the air and almost had her life knocked out of her, managed to stabilize. When she lifted her head and saw those attacks flying toward her, she paled, “Monster!”

She flapped her wings, gritting her teeth through the pain, and evaded the first crescent. She saw the second one and maneuvered in the air to dodge it again. However, there weren’t just two attacks!

Crescent after crescent shot at her, but Yasenia wasn’t done yet. The stars in the phantom sky started falling—one by one, like shooting stars.

Gahanna despaired. ‘How can her meridians support this amount of energy release!?’

She dodged the first shooting star, but a crescent was waiting for her! She moved to the side, but a wing got cut off! “AAAAA-!!” Her shout of pain was cut short because a shooting star impacted her from above.

BOOM!

The star exploded, and Gahanna shot down heavily to the ground. She had one wing cut, her ribs broken, and her front charred. Gahanna spat blood and tried to stand, but a crescent was already in front of her face. Her face now had only fear left, ‘How can someone at level one be so strong....’

Before the crescent hit her, Tatyana appeared, and with a wave of her hand, everything vanished, as if it were just an illusion. She smirked as she said, “Overwhelming win for Yasenia!”

The people in the coliseum exploded in cheers. “What was that! I felt the shockwave of her aura from the stands!”

“Those attacks are monstrous. They are nearing the Unification realm in strength if they aren’t already there!”

“Isn’t she at the FIRST LEVEL of the Mental Nourishing realm!? She is not a genius. She is a heavenly genius!”

“No wonder people call her heavenly dragoness!”

“The academy picked up a gem! When she grows up... I have chills just thinking about it.”

Inside the infirmary, Kali looked with wide-open eyes, still unable to comprehend what had just happened.

On the other side, Andrea burst into laughter, “Absurd, completely abnormal! What was that? Is that what we are following after?”

Angel also chuckled, “You have only seen the beginning of the skill! The last attack is what is the most absurd thing.”

Evelyn shook her head and said, “I still remember her fighting off against more than 110 cultivators. How she cut through them.... I still have chills remembering it.”

Kali stuttered, “W-What did you say? Beginning? 110 what? W-Where am I? Did the cultivation rules change while I slept?”

The other three burst into laughter.

Meanwhile, on the destroyed rocky arena, Yasenia deactivated all her skills. Her eyes and aura returned to normal. Then, she turned and left, not looking at Gahanna again. Her interest in the harpy was null.

Tatyana then carried Gahanna to the infirmary. Gahanna looked at Yasenia’s back while thinking. ‘Why didn’t she even look at me? I really wanted to make her my cultivation partner....’

The last 128 participants gathered. Yasenia looked around and didn’t see any of her dears, ‘Even Andrea lost? Who did she lose against?’

Yasenia felt someone looking at her and turned. It was a blonde woman with an extremely beautiful face. She had grey eyes and had 175cm in height. Her body was slim, with not many curves. However, her aura was profound.

A single thought filled Yasenia’s mind. ‘Strong.’

Those were the feelings Yasenia got from that woman. ‘Is she the other one, apart from Jaxon, that I can’t win against... I think she is....’
