

Heaven 141

Chapter 141

They entered the mission hall for inner disciples and searched for quests. Yasenia looked around and saw that the establishment was better in terms of luxury items, food and drinks, and, of course, the level of the disciples inside. That aside, it was similar to the outer disciple building.

Yasenia's group moved toward the mission board and looked around. Some missions were printed on paper, others were inside jades, and others appeared on screens. Yasenia approached one screen curiously and looked at it. Andrea chuckled and walked to her side. Using her hand, she swept the screen, and the mission changed.

Yasenia hummed and said, "Interesting."

Yasenia grabbed Andrea's arm and read aloud, "Kill all the [Silver wolves] that are attacking this town. High-level Mental Nourishing realm."

"Travel to the Forest of Life and find a [Vital Yin Flower]. For more details, speak with the employer."

"Paying for an expert dual cultivator to send me to heaven... huh?"

Yasenia asked, "What is this type of mission? There weren't missions like this one in the outer sect."

Andrea said, "Rich people with money to spare; sometimes the dual cultivator deal doesn't end well.... Although none died, there are tales of dual cultivators transforming into normal cultivators after these missions. The clients are very... voracious."

Yasenia chuckled and continued reading until she found an interesting one, "Destroy a drake nest inside the storm forest. Level necessary, middle-level Mental Nourishing realm cultivator. The contractee will give all materials harvested from beasts to the employer. Payment 1 000 credits per adult drake slain, and 20 credits for others."

Yasenia said, "How about this one?"

Evelyn said, "We can do that one if the drakes' strength isn't high. Moreover, we may find treasures along the way with you on our team. The storm forest isn't a place cultivators go to gather treasures. We may uncover some of them thanks to your treasure sense."

Angel and Kali also nodded. With a mission decided, they went to the queue to speak with the receptionist.

While they were going toward the receptionist's table, some people approached, curious about Yasenia.

Lately, Yasenia had been the talk of the Academy. Her feats in the tournament had spread around, and everyone's respect for her was increasing.

Yasenia knew that popularity might come a long way. Therefore, she didn't mind stopping for some minutes and getting to know more people. The conversation was light-hearted, and the people were quite nice. Yasenia didn't forget to use her charm and make their opinion of her even better.

Even if they were slight tricks, Yasenia didn't mind as long as she didn't go overboard. Moreover, using her charm was practically being herself. Looking at the dragoness speak, Andrea, Evelyn, and Kali raised an eyebrow, surprised to see this side of her. 'She can be a little manipulative from time to time...'

That groups left with smiles, and they were finally able to speak with the receptionist. After finalizing all the formalities, they returned to their house to get things they may need for their travel.

Angel asked, "Yasenia, why are you so friendly with everybody?"

Yasenia smiled gently at her clueless baby and said, "Now it is publicly known that I'm the headmistress's daughter. Therefore, having an excellent reputation will help me gain more influence. I wouldn't mind being someone important because I'm my mom's daughter, but I prefer reaching that level because of my effort. Moreover, having the good side of people will help me if I'm confronting someone; my credibility will skyrocket, and I may be able to get out of sticky situations easier. Furthermore, I want to gain this influence to make mom proud of me."

Angel's eyes sparkled and hugged her, exclaiming, "Wow! You think so ahead; you are so smart~. But don't worry! I'm sure mommy Tatyana is already proud, Yasenia! You don't have to worry too much!"

Yasenia smiled and picked her up, "Thanks, baby. I always love the way you encourage me. Remember to tell me if someone speaks to you, okay?" Angel smiled sweetly and gave her a smooch on the cheek.

Yasenia's eyes become tender looking at her, 'I will have to be careful. I don't want anyone deceiving my baby.'

They prepared quite fast and left to do the mission. Anna and Eve accompanied them on their trip as extra security while the rest stayed in residence.

After some days of travel, they reached a town and spoke with the mayor. After getting information about the location of the drake nest, they went toward an inn to stay there for the night and recover.

The inn was quite rowdy, and the people inside were quite ordinary, be it in strength or appearance. Therefore, when Yasenia entered, the whole inn became quiet. Some females and males were blushing, and others began muttering things like, "Goddess.", "A celestial maiden.", and other over-the-top things. Yasenia approached the counter and spoke to the young woman there.

The young woman saw the big beauty sashaying toward her, and her face became redder by the second. She stuttered, "H-H-hello, I-I help you? I mean, m-my name Leia-"

Yasenia chuckled and said, her voice mellow and slightly deep. "Take a deep breath, do not hurry."

Leia was just a mortal, so Yasenia's laughing face, followed by her gentle tone, was a Cupid arrow straight to her heart. She took a deep breath, and thankfully Yasenia remembered to control her scent, so she just smelled it as if it were perfume. 'S-She smells so good.'

With rosy cheeks and a shy tone, Leia said. "Hello, how may I help you?"

Yasenia asked, "What kind of rooms do you have? We want to stay here for the night."

Leia's eyes sparkled, and Yasenia's wives' eyes twitched behind. Before Yasenia made another mortal unable to love again in her whole life, Andrea stepped forward and placed an arm over Yasenia's shoulder.

Only now did Leia register that there were other people besides the dragoness. She left out an involuntary gasp when she saw Andrea's tall frame. Yasenia looked up at Andrea questioningly. Andrea said, "Leave this to me, love. You are going to make the poor girl fall head-over-heels for you if you continue speaking."

Leia blushed hard and looked down, ashamed that she had been seen through so easily. Yasenia hugged Andrea's waist and said, "I always try to speak normally, but this happens."

Evelyn to Yasenia's other side and rolled her eyes, "Do you really think that your speaking manner is the problem?" Yasenia was, of course, teasing the cute girl. She knew 100% what she was doing.

Leia looked at Evelyn and thought, 'I'm more beautiful than her...'

Yasenia was about to respond to Evelyn when she caught the tone that Leia looked at Evelyn. Her playfulness disappeared, and she became expressionless, "Give my wives and me a room to stay. You can give the two maids another room."

Leia was startled at the 180° change. She was about to ask what she did wrong, but a chill ran up her spine when she looked at Yasenia's slit golden eyes. Andrea and Evelyn raised an eyebrow at her abrupt change but didn't say anything. They knew how sharp Yasenia really was, so this little girl must have thought something disrespectfully of them.

With Yasenia now speaking commandingly, the conversation moved fast, and they got the room keys swiftly. When they reached, Evelyn asked, "What's wrong?"

Yasenia hugged Evelyn and tackled her onto the bed. Evelyn let herself fall backward and hugged her. Yasenia placed her face on her neck and growled while licking her neck. Evelyn smiled tenderly and patted her, "What's wrong, Yasenia?"

Yasenia raised and sat on the bed, placing Evelyn in her lap. Then she kissed her cheek and said, "Nothing~. I just want to love you~."

The others sat around the bed, and no one insisted on the question. They spoke about how to reach the nest tomorrow and went to sleep. Yasenia carried them to the room for Anna and Eve one by one and filled them full, leaving Evelyn for last.

Yasenia and Evelyn were naked on the bed, and Yasenia was penetrating her.

Pah! Pah! Pah!

Evelyn moaned with each thrust and devoured Yasenia's lips. Her insides felt full with the thick penis of her dragoness inside. "Ah! Ahn~, mmh~."

Yasenia was growling and licking Evelyn's teeth and lips. Evelyn loved these kinds of kisses and reached orgasm fast. "Aaah!!"

Her body convulsed, and she bit Yasenia's tongue as the pleasure filled her body. Yasenia moaned, feeling Evelyn's inner contractions and orgasmed, releasing fertile seed inside her dear's uterus. "I'm cumming~!"

While riding the orgasm, Yasenia's thick and hot semen invaded her uterus, filled with life energy. Fireworks exploded in her mind, and Evelyn squirted, her body spasming, her legs straightening. "OOHHHH!!!!"

The big orgasm continued for some minutes until Evelyn relaxed. She sighed with utter happiness and looked at the golden-pink-eyed dragoness, "Did that woman thinking I'm ugly bother you?"

Yasenia's body flinched, and Evelyn wound her arms around her neck and her legs around her waist, "Why so, love? You know it is normal to think I'm not a pretty woman because I'm not."

Yasenia frowned and said, "You are beautiful."

Evelyn laughed loudly, "You are so childish with this, hahaha."

Yasenia pouted and gyrated her waist, moving her release inside Evelyn. Evelyn loved feeling her semen moving inside herself; she felt so full of love. Yasenia said, "I don't know why it hit me so badly her thinking bad of you. I normally wouldn't have minded that much and ignored her..."

Evelyn pushed Yasenia and changed to the cowgirl position, making semen drip from her entrance and smearing Yasenia's penis. Evelyn smiled and said, "look at me, love. I have no boobs, my butt is flat, and my facial features are below average. I completely lack any womanly charm."

Yasenia, however, thought differently. She found her little breasts adorable, her facial features made Evelyn approachable, and she didn't mind her butt being small. Moreover, sexually, her vagina was comfortable, and so was her ass.

Therefore, Yasenia's answer to that was grabbing her waist and lifting her until the penis popped out. Then, she penetrated her butt and thrust upward.

What followed was Yasenia filling Evelyn's every hole multiple times until Evelyn could only taste the dragoness, feel the dragoness, and think of the dragoness.

The next day, they went to the mission. Yasenia was completely refreshed, and Evelyn acted lovely and shy for once.

When they reached the nest, Yasenia, Andrea, Evelyn, and Kali made time for Angel to create her big formations.

After surrounding the area with them, Yasenia activated [Day and Night], Evelyn [Thunder Light Overcharge], Kali the [Golden Crown], and Andrea her [Solar domain]. Without difficulties or anything special happening, they managed to destroy a nest with 54 adult drakes in it, earning a hefty sum.

The journey lasted for two weeks, in which they also managed to get various medicinal wild plants and some rare metals, diversifying Yasenia's inner garden with new flowers and some regular animals, like rabbits, deers, and mortal wolves.

Thanks to Yasenia's treasure sense, they could also get a hand on some rare equipment dropped by dead cultivators. However, everything was worse than what any of them had. Therefore, they decided to resell it.

Yasenia looked at the mixed forests and biomes inside her ring, which were now with some growing plants and animals, and smiled, satisfied. 'It is transforming nicely. Moreover, the seeds I planted are starting to sprout~ With this, even if we are stranded, we will have medical plants and food.'

Yasenia revised her life-saving treasures, 'I have five given to me by mom when I left the house...'

Yasenia revised those live saving treasures. 'Two teleportation treasures of 1000km each. They will also transport me into safe areas. I have two talismans that can release a strike from mom to another cultivator. Mom told me to be careful with these since they are very destructive. Finally, this one looks like a completely black doll, and I don't know what it does... Mom told me always to keep it near, so I will obviously keep it close.'

Yasenia focused on the five life-saving treasures stored near those. 'These ones I got from the cultivators in the Cloud Layers. They are five simple teleportation treasures 100km distance each into a random place.'

Yasenia looked at her final life-saving treasures. 'And finally, the ones I got from that shorty who looked badly at mom, he only had one, which creates a defensive dome that lasts a lot. Do my dears have treasures like these? I will ask when we return.'

After those two weeks doing the mission, they returned home. Yasenia and the others entered the house.

Inside, a woman with black-raven hair that reached under her soft butt greeted them; her red eyes and mouth were smiling while looking at them. Yasenia's face lit up, and she jumped toward her, practically flying through the room.

Tatyana chuckled and caught her dear daughter. "Welcome home, little treasure."

Yasenia buried herself in Tatyana's embrace as she acted spoiled, "Mom, I missed you~."

Tatyana carried her big girl, and they moved to the living room, sitting on the big sofa. Yasenia was, of course, all over her mother, smelling her scent, wagging her tail, and growling lovingly.

Tatyana scratched her under the chin and massaged her long tail. Angel sat beside them and asked, "How was the journey?"

Tatyana patted Angel as a greeting and then returned to focus on her daughter. Seeing Tatyana debating whether to speak about it or not, Yasenia licked her neck and pleaded, "Can you tell us, mom?"

Tatyana's struggles crumbled, and she recounted her journey briefly. "I went to the dragon's territory inside the Forest of Life to return the thing I bought in the auction. I owed them something, and with this, I don't owe them anything."

Andrea asked, intrigued, "What did you need from them?"

Tatyana said, "I needed Royal dragon blood from an alive dragon. It had to be of the peak sixth rank, directly from the Patriarch of the dragon race in that forest. Moreover, it had to be willingly given. So I made a deal with them. Before you ask, I needed that blood to give birth to my beautiful daughter, isn't that right, little treasure?"

Grrr~

“Who is the most beautiful?”

Grrrrr~

Yasenia became a growling blob under the ministrations of her mother. Kali, who saw this for the first time, almost had nasal bleeding, ‘How can she be so cute!?’

To be honest, the others weren’t much better, even if they had seen her like this more often.

With Tatyana back, the days passed faster, and another week went by. During this week, Yasenia was mainly making progress with Kali. Now, Yasenia could coil her tail around her without Kali feeling uncomfortable.

More than that, Kali had become quite addicted to having Yasenia’s tail around her while they were intimate. She also liked pressing their bodies together.

Feeling Yasenia’s soft body was something she enjoyed more and more. It felt extremely good to have Yasenia’s body surround her.

With rigorous training and... “Effort” at night, Evelyn advanced to the third level, catching up to Angel again. Our baby didn’t take it this nicely, also increasing her efforts. Andrea was closer to the eighth level, and Yasenia was also approaching the second level speedily.

Kali, who observed their progress, felt they were practically flying through the levels and decided to ask about it. When they were relaxing in the living room, she asked, a little timidly, “Umm... How can you girls advance this fast? At this rate, Angel and Evelyn will catch up to me shortly....”

Yasenia, who was beside her, hugged her and whispered into her ear seductively, “Dual cultivating~ Do you want to do it? We can start by doing it the non-sexual way~.”

Kali opened her eyes wide under her veil. More than embarrassed, she was surprised, “You are willing to dual cultivate with me?”

Yasenia sighed, ‘Even after these weeks, she still has this “I’m not worthy” mentality... Well, at least I feel like we are progressing.’

Yasenia turned Kali’s head and lifted her veil to her lips’ height. Then, she kissed her, Kali was surprised and a little embarrassed, so she tried to push her away. This only ended with her hands sinking in Yasenia’s softness, making a moan escape Yasenia’s mouth.

Kali blushed, and Yasenia separated, laughing huskily, “You are taking the initiative~ I’m joyfully surprised~.”

Kali hit her shoulder repeatedly, completely embarrassed.

The others chuckled, and Andrea advised, “Kali, dual cultivating with Yasenia is above pleasurable. You should start with the non-sexual way, or you may have a mental breakdown because of pleasure.”

Kali stopped hitting Yasenia and looked at them. Evelyn nodded, “Yasenia’s sexual prowess, described by Alaia, is like a succubus and incubus combined into one. We are always left almost dry of our Yin energy.”

Kali was stunned, but then something clicked and turned toward Yasenia. “Wait... You are dual cultivating daily with all of them and drying all of them of their Yin energy daily!?”

Yasenia nodded while laughing, “That’s right, honey. Your dragoness is a beast in bed!”

Kali was stupefied and then frowned, “This isn’t normal. No matter how strong you are, you shouldn’t be able to... Yasenia, what happens when you go without sex for a long period of time?”

Yasenia tilted her head, “I don’t know....” She looked at Tatyana and asked, “what would happen, mom?”

Tatyana said, “Depending on the time you go without sexual intercourse... How did you feel when you went without it after you left the house?”

Yasenia saw that Anna and Eve took out a notebook, so she answered truthfully, “I found everyone more attractive... I fell in love easier... And I had the urge to masturbate quite a lot of times. I even had wet dreams, ejac- Cough sometimes squirting while I slept.”

Anna and Eve approached Yasenia, taking her pulse one after another. Although Yasenia had a calm face while she hugged Kali and had her pulse taken, she was internally sweating, ‘I almost gave myself away trying to be honest! I hope Kali won’t doubt anything....’

Thankfully for Yasenia, Kali was too focused on the diagnosis and confused it as female ejaculation, so Yasenia would have been completely safe even if she had said it normally.

Although Tatyana had an idea because of her deep experience, she looked at Anna and Eve, who were actual healers, and asked, “Well, what is your diagnosis.”

Anna said with a serious face. “Putting it simply... Young miss’s constitution seeks for Yin or Yang energy bursts to upgrade her Yin and Yang quality. Those wet dreams are a defensive mechanism to relieve her. If young miss didn’t masturbate or have those wet dreams, she would practically jump at someone she found attractive until her lust was satiated.”

Anna smiled at the worried women and said, “However, she must spend a lot of time without having intercourse for this to begin happening. Masturbation will always be a nice way to avoid this, so there aren’t real risks.”

Anna said, chuckling, “Young miss partners, I recommend emptying young miss regularly, or she will-”

Yasenia interrupted, “I won’t. I am a loyal dragoness!...” Yasenia looked at her five present lovers, who looked at her with raised eyebrows, and her expression became strange, “...I’m loyal to my harem!”

Andrea teased, “I see, then, my love. Can you explain to me how your harem grew to its current size?”

The others chuckled and looked at the dragoness, who had her eyes darting around.

Yasenia stood up and walked toward Andrea seductively, “How did it grow? It didn’t~ All of you were born to be my mates~ I didn’t add anyone; our destiny brought us together~. What do you say to that, daa~ling~?”

Andrea laughed as she said, “You are so-”

However, she stopped speaking when she saw Yassenia hastily looking northeast and her face distorting with the purest form of wrath she had ever seen.

“ROOARR!!!” Yassenia’s aura exploded tyrannically as her deep draconic roar reverberated, carrying so much killing intent that they had chills run up their spines.

Her aura shockwave blasted everything nearby away, and the red inside Yassenia’s irises consumed the golden instantaneously. Then they heard Yassenia roar wrathfully in the northeast direction. “WHO DARES TRY TO CUT MY CONNECTION WITH CECILE!? I’M GOING TO DESTROY YOUR WHOLE RACE!”

After hearing her, fearing the worst, Tatyana’s face became murderous. ‘How dare they not keep up their word!?’

She instantly took out her fastest ship and transported everyone, including the maids, on top of it. Then they sped toward the Ice Nirvana Mountain, breaking through space fabric.

Going back one day, Cecile was taking a break from meditating, walking around the Ice phoenix palace alone on top of the mountain. She had sent Clara away to get the ceremonial dress she would wear tomorrow for the ritual, and Madeleine was discussing some important things with the Phoenix elders.

Cecile looked around. The buildings had very artistic forms, with engravings of phoenixes and predominant blue and white colors. On top of the houses, there were different blue parasol trees, possibly for the phoenixes to land. She liked the decoration a lot.

Cecile reached a viewing site where you could look down the mountain. They were extremely high, so she could see a cloud sea below. The way it moved was very aesthetic, ‘I wish Yassenia were with me here....’

Cecile chuckled and thought, ‘To think I would miss her so much after not seeing her for some weeks... I miss her, I really do. Well, tomorrow is the ritual, so I shouldn’t stay here much more.’

Cecile began thinking about Yassenia’s face. She remembered her smiling face, when she pouted, her laughing figure, swishing tail, and seductive glances. Cecile rested her elbow on the viewing site, and her face gained a gentle smile, more beautiful than the background beside her.

However, this scene wasn’t missed by someone. This person stood there, stunned at Cecile’s beautiful features while the winds blew her beautiful blue hair. ‘Who is this woman? Not only is she stunning, but her bloodline is also extremely high grade!’

Curious and attracted to her, he walked toward her.

Cecile heard steps, so all the expressions on her face disappeared, returning to her normally indifferent face. Expressionless, she turned around and saw a tall and handsome white-haired young man approaching. The man smiled while he presented himself, “Hello, beautiful lady, I’m the son of the Ice Phoenix elder, Feng Yuan. May I know your name?”

Cecile didn't want to give even a spark of hope to the man before her, so she said coldly. "I'm Cecile. I've come from the academy to receive the [Glacial Rebirth] Ritual as a reward from my [Soulmate]'s mother. Nice to meet you."

The man was startled and then laughed, "You couldn't think of a better lie to avoid me? The [Glacial Rebirth] is something outsiders won't receive no matter what they offer. Who is that powerful person that can give you that chance?"

Cecile answered flatly, "The headmistress of the Rising Talent Academy."

The man looked strangely at Cecile. 'Does she think this lie is even believable?'

Feng Yuan didn't attend the tournament because the phoenix elder had already secured an entry jade for him. Therefore, he wasn't aware of the last events of the event. "I say, everyone who knows that woman is aware that she doesn't have a child-"

Cecile, a little impatient, interrupted him. "Everything I said is real, and I don't have to prove anything to you. I've come here with teacher Madeleine if you don't believe what I told you is the truth. Go speak to her." Then she turned and left.

Feng Yuan stopped her by flashing in front of her with snowflakes around him. "Let's not be so hasty~. I still don't even know your name."

Cecile frowned, 'I couldn't see him. He is much stronger than me...'

Chapter 143

...Cecile, a little impatient, interrupted him. "Everything I said is real, and I don't have to prove anything to you. I've come here with teacher Madeleine if you don't believe what I told you is the truth. Go speak to her." Then she turned and left.

Feng Yuan stopped her by flashing in front of her with snowflakes around him. He let his scent out, trying to entice Cecile, and said. "Let's not be so hasty~. I still don't even know your name."

Cecile frowned, 'I couldn't see him. He is much stronger than me...'

Then, his scent reached her, and she almost retched. 'He is trying to entice me with his scent? Truly incomparable with Yasenia's, it makes me want to gag.'

It was not that he smelled bad; on the contrary, if any other cultivator would have smelled, they would have found it quite refreshing. But for Cecile, it was the same as if her nose got buried in trash.

This was because of her body's natural reaction. Not only was Feng Yuan's bloodline of lower grade than Cecile herself, but Cecile's body was accustomed to Yasenia's powerful and sweet scent, which was leagues above his. It was like smelling appetizing dishes for months and suddenly opening a garbage can.

Not retching instantly and maintaining her cool was a big achievement for Cecile!

Cecile looked into his blue eyes, pronouncing everything clearly, without being able to hide her disgust in her tone. "If you do something stupid, you will regret it. I wouldn't have minded speaking to you if you didn't come to seduce me. But your blatant intent is literally oozing from each pore of your body."

Cecile warned, her voice now icy. "Either give up on seducing me and speak to me normally or scram before I call teacher Madeleine. I just want to take the ritual silently and return to my lover's side."

The man frowned, "I've been trying to be nice to you, but it seems that you are treating my kindness as weakness. Do you think I don't dare do anything? You are in my territory!"

Cecile shook her head and said, "I'm not treating your kindness as weakness. I'm speaking like I would to a birdbrain."

The man was about to scold Cecile when he saw her take out a wooden stick and break it with her fingers.

Less than a second later, Madeleine fell from the sky, her light purple hair floating around and wrapped in a black aura. Her eyes exuded killing intent, ready to slaughter anything in her path. Behind her, five phoenix elders appeared in human form, a little confused as to why Madeleine suddenly burst here.

Madeleine's black and blue eyes looked at the man before Cecile and flattened him onto the ground using a speck of her aura to avoid killing him. Then, she focused on Cecile and asked worriedly, "Are you okay, Cecile? What happened?"

Cecile related everything, word for word, not hiding even her insults. When she finished speaking, the elders had ugly faces.

The thing was that among the elders, Feng Yuan's father was present!

However, unlike some may think, after hearing the story, he looked at his son with eyes filled with disappointment. Even when he was stronger than Madeleine, he asked politely with a sigh, "Miss Madeleine, can you let him go? I even told him not to mess with the guests... To think that he didn't listen and didn't even have the basic common sense to believe what the little chick told him... I must reeducate him later."

Madeleine, of course, nodded and lifted the pressure, letting him stand back up with slight injuries.

He looked at his father, and when he was about to protest, that elder disappeared and touched his forehead, making him faint. Before Feng Yuan fainted, he heard him say, "We will speak later about this."

Cecile was looking intently at the phoenix elder because she picked up something from the elder's voice. Unsure, she asked, "Would it be possible for senior to be the majestic phoenix that carried me to this mountain?"

Surprised, the elder raised his blue eyebrow and laughed, "That's right, little chick. You even warned me to avoid these things from happening. Who would have thought that my child would be the one making the blunder? I'm sorry for the trouble."

Cecile was overwhelmed receiving the apology from such a senior and answered a little flustered, “Do not apologize, elder. I just didn’t want the situation to get a turn for the worse, so I called for master’s aid. Senior doesn’t need to punish him; after all, nothing happened to me.”

The elder caressed his blue beard and nodded, “Your parents raised you nicely, little chick. Wait for a moment.”

He disappeared, carrying his son with him, and then reappeared, alone. He smiled and said, “Let me show you around. There are quite good sights! Well, I’m a little tired of them after seeing them so many millenium, Bahahaha!”

Cecile smiled gently and nodded, not caring about Feng Yuan anymore. They began walking around, and the elder explained the history of some of the buildings. He showed Cecile a lot of beautiful and mesmerizing snow landscapes. Cecile was having a lot of fun listening to him.

Midway through the walk, the elder sighed and said, “His attitude is mainly my and his mother’s mistake... You know how hard it is to get pregnant, so we treat every child nicely. Even then, we can have a child every one thousand years or so on average. However, we had been unlucky lately; before we knew it, more than 10 000 years had gone by since our last child. However, my wife got pregnant with little Yuan not so long ago.”

The elder smiled bitterly and said, “Because of our joy, we spoiled him since birth. However, we went overboard. Even when relatives told us to be more strict, we didn’t listen. Time passed, and as he matured, we saw that he was becoming arrogant.”

The elder shook his head and said, “Thankfully, we realized and weren’t blinded for too long. Since then, we’ve tried to right his wrongs, and he is now much better than before. I just hope we can turn him into a majestic phoenix we and him can be proud of. This event, however, will become a setback, sigh....”

Cecile nodded, completely understanding, ‘With so little fertility rate, it is normal to spoil the children.’ Cecile said, “I’m sorry, elder, maybe I could have handled that a little better.”

The elder patted her head and said jokingly, “Bah, don’t worry. I will just have to beat him up some more times, Bahahaha!” Cecile smirked slightly.

Meanwhile, Feng Yuan was breaking everything around his bedroom, where the elder had left him. “So what if they are from the Academy? Just a bunch of humans, can they compare to us, phoenixes!?”

Angered, he went outside, transformed into his phoenix form, and flew off. He had a 20-meter wingspan and blue feathers. As he was flying, a mental message entered his mind, ‘Brat, don’t think I have forgiven you! Moreover, you will pay for everything you destroyed in your bedroom with your earnings!’

Feng Yuan exclaimed, ‘But dad! I didn’t do anything wrong! I was just talking to her!’

The elder said, ‘Little Yuan, can you truly tell me that you didn’t want to make her yours forcefully? Your scent was all over her. Fly some time and relax your mind; we will discuss it deeper later. I have some things to do. Love you.’

Feng Yuan felt the connection breaking. He was still agitated, more so when the father that spoiled him took sides with another person. Therefore, he dove into the snow-filled forest, freezing everything with different attacks and venting his emotions. 'So what if I wanted to make her mine? Can't I try to take her away from her current mate? I shouldn't be much worse than him!'

He landed on a giant tree's branch and folded her wings. He looked at the horizon and then sighed, 'Maybe I should have stopped when she tried to leave the first time. But if I do that, won't I be unable to find a worthy mate? Or seduce someone I wouldn't be able to without insistence? I don't want to approach every woman as if I'm walking on thin ice...'

He let his body fall and glided until he touched the ground. While reflecting, his spiritual sense suddenly caught something on the side and turned his feathered head. He opened his wings and asked menacingly, "Who goes there!?"

The person that appeared was an extremely sexy woman with five pairs of bat-like wings and a seductive aura around her. Her voice was arousing and soul-stirring, "Hello~ Little phoenix~. Want to talk with this big sister~?"

The night passed silently, and the time for the ritual approached.

Morning came, and Clara and Cecile were in the dressing room. Clara was helping Cecile put on the dress.

It was a white and blue dress with an open back. It was sleeveless, but it had some gloves that reached Cecile's upper arm and covered the top of her hands. These open-hand gloves had two beautiful white ribbons on the wrist area.

The blue skirt reached her ankles and had white stripes going waist down. The front left her with an attractive cleavage, but not exaggerated, highlighting Cecile's perfect figure. This wear was high-leveled heaven-ranked and was a present for Cecile to solve yesterday's confrontation.

Cecile sat, and Clara began styling her hair. She decided to go for a bun with various white headpieces with phoenix carvings. She also placed a necklace with a white-blue phoenix on it.

When Clara finished, she couldn't help but appreciate the peerless beauty in front of her. Unlike Yasenja, Cecile was like an ethereal beauty untouched by the mortal world dust, making people want to look but not dare to. Clara praised wholeheartedly, "Miss Cecile, you are really beautiful."

Cecile nodded and answered with her usual cold tone, "Thanks, but just Cecile is okay, Clara."

Clara nodded with a smile.

Cecile stood up and walked with innate elegance. Her dress weaved in the wind like a beautiful water wave. Clara followed behind her, closely looking out for the surroundings. She spotted Feng Yuan, looking fixedly at Cecile, and frowned. "Cecile, Young Master Feng is looking at us."

Cecile glanced sideways and frowned slightly, "Something is off."

Clara nodded, "Would you like to take care of him? I can send him with his father."

Cecile sighed, "Let it be; I've already caused enough problems to the elder. Let's do the ritual and leave. Then we won't see him again." Clara nodded but had an eye on him.

Cecile reached below a long staircase that led to an altar with the statue of a titanic Phoenix engulfing the altar with its wings. That phoenix dwarfed even the elder surrounding it.

She looked at the six giant phoenixes perched on the stone wings. One of them was the elder, and there were another five phoenixes of similar size, three on each of the stone wings.

The scene was spectacular, to say the least. Seeing six mountain size phoenixes perched on something as if they were normal birds perching on a tree completely overturned Cecile's concept of sizes in her mind.

Cecile took a deep breath and began climbing the stairs gracefully like she was floating toward the altar. Two blue phoenixes opened their beak, sounding somewhat feminine, but imposing nonetheless.

"Today, we gather to witness the beginning."

The stone altar took a blue shade, and light snow fell around the area, giving a wintery tone to the environment.

When Cecile reached midway through the long staircase, another two spoke, sounding a lot deeper than the first two.

"Today, we gather to witness the end and the beginning."

As Cecile climbed the stairs, her steps transformed the blue stone into a blue crystal, giving the altar a mysterious and elegant atmosphere.

When Cecile reached the end of the now crystal blue staircase, Feng Yuan's father and the last phoenix spoke.

"Today, we gather to see her end, her rebirth, her transformation, and her ascension."

An ancient aura surrounded the altar, and energy gathered around, making Cecile feel as if her pores opened and were breathing, 'So comfortable.'

Cecile looked around the altar floor and walls; they were engraved with various phoenixes of different tones of blue and white color. Some danced, some fought, and others flew freely.

Cecile walked toward the middle of the enormous altar surrounded by giant stone wings, the light from the sky still shone on her because it had an open ceiling.

Countless phoenixes flew around the altar, Feng Yuan included, looking at the human about to receive the baptism.

When Cecile reached the center, the six of them opened their wings and chanted. "Witness her end!"

QYAAA!

All the phoenixes cried in unison, filling the sky with their melodic sound, as a blue and white pillar of light rose to the sky from the altar ground, surrounding Cecile.

When the pillar enveloped her, Cecile felt like her skin was being ripped off her and her muscles melting, "AAAAAAAAAAHH!!!"

As Cecile's pain-filled scream echoed around, the pillar hit a transparent dome in the sky and gathered there.

With such an amount of inhuman torment, Cecile continued screaming in agony as the beam purified her body, killing every human part of her blood, muscles, bones, organs, and soul!

Little by little, Cecile felt life leaving her body, unable to withstand such drastic transformation. The constant agony with the feeling of her life escaping through every pore was dreadful. She tried to fight against it, but the pillar continued, leaving her weaker and weaker, her consciousness fading.

After half an hour of receiving this torment, Cecile couldn't hold on to the last amount of vital energy, and it left her body.

The pillar disappeared and Cecile fell dead with a thump in the middle of the altar, with no breath, pulse, or energy.

Cecile was dead.

Chapter 144

Although the phoenixes had already warned Madeleine and Clara, they couldn't help but become anxious and focused on Cecile's dead body. 'If something goes wrong, not only Cecile but all of us are going to go on a direct visit to the underworld!'

The six mountain-sized phoenixes waited for the energy in the dome to completely gather, and they chanted, channeling their energy into the altar.

"Witness her Rebirth!"

However, at the same moment that the phoenixes were chanting, Feng Yuan, that was also flying with the other phoenixes, stealthily threw a small jar with his blood and other substances toward it!

Clara, who had been paying attention to him, shot forward speedily, trying to reach the vial. However, because of the shock of seeing Cecile die, she was just a beat slower and couldn't reach it in time before it broke and mixed with the energy!

Clara's face morphed with rage as her silver eyes locked onto Feng Yuan, 'I'm going to torture you until I'm bored of hearing your screams!'

Clara knew that she couldn't make a scene and cause something to go wrong with the ritual, or she would really lose her mistress. Therefore, she just flew beside Feng Yuan, not looking at the ceremony and focusing 100% on him so he wouldn't do anything else. On the other side, feeling Clara's overbearing spiritual sense in every feather of his body left Feng Yuan trembling with fear, 'How did she see me!? I even threw it with a flap of my wings to make it stealthier!'

What Feng Yuan didn't know was that Clara was an excellent hunter, and she had turned him into her prey the moment she found something wrong. Sadly, she wasn't able to prevent it.

Meanwhile, the six phoenixes instantly detected the anomaly! However, they couldn't stop the ceremony, or Cecile would be truly dead!

Nonetheless, all of them being enraged was putting it lightly; they were wrathful. 'WHO DARES TAMPER THE SACRED RITUAL!?'

However, they didn't lose focus. First, they had to bring Cecile back to life, then worry about side effects.

They continued the ritual, and the energy on the dome gathered into an ethereally beautiful silver phoenix with white flames surrounding it. Its icy blue phoenix eyes looked down at Cecile's dead body and dove down, leaving a white trail.

Qyaa~.

Its melodic cry echoed in the surroundings, as beautiful as nature itself, mesmerizing to all listening creatures. It transformed into a beam and landed on Cecile.

Inside Cecile's dry spiritual area, a white flame came into being and grew, forming the shape of the ethereally beautiful Phoenix. The Phoenix extended its wings, and its white flames froze everything. Cecile's spiritual space became a tundra. Then, the Phoenix gathered its wings and slowly transformed, creating the silhouette of a winged female with a beauty that could entrance even gods.

On the outside, Cecile's body was absorbing the beam, and suddenly, her aura unfurled.

BOOM!

It washed the altar with her overbearing and majestic presence, letting the world know that the Phoenix was reborn!

Cecile still didn't move from her lying position; her eyes were still closed. When the beam was completely absorbed, the Phoenixes activated the altar again, creating different formations in the sky, and shouted.

"Witness her transformation!"

Cecile's body began changing!

First, her hair changed colors, from blue to a beautiful wavy Platinum silver, with the roots of her hair raven black.

Then, her body, facial features, and skin perfected, becoming a beauty that could entrance gods and mortals alike, but seemingly so unreachable that it made people feel inferior, making them feel unworthy to sully her beauty.

Cecile opened her eyes, revealing her striking blue phoenix eyes, so piercing that they seemed to see through lies and the truths of the world.

She stood up slowly, and two bumps appeared on her back as she did. Then, a pair of beautiful silver feathered wings manifested, filling her surroundings with silver feathers. They were more two-meter-long and had white flames dancing around.

Above her perfectly round and perky butt, three long silver phoenix tails appeared, completing her transformation into a phoenix woman.

The Phoenixes chanted, pouring the rest of the energy into Cecile.

"Witness her Ascension!"

Cecile looked upward with an indifferent face that commanded respect and stole hearts alike. Then, she crouched slightly and flapped.

Woosh!

A gale blew all the silver feathers around her, and she soared to the sky.

Each time she flapped, her aura multiplied, and her foundation became sturdier, reaching monstrous levels!

With the first flap, she reached the fourth level; with the second, fifth level; with the third, sixth level. Each time she advanced, her aura made a shockwave that shook her surroundings!

However, Cecile wasn't done yet! She flapped again, passing the altar and soaring into the sky; her level advanced to the seventh level! Then, with one last effort, Cecile flapped one final time, reaching the eighth level.

BOOM!

Her aura skyrocketed, and Cecile felt an immense strength coursing her body, elevating all her body functions to a degree she couldn't even dream of before.

Cecile had jumped from the third to the eighth level of the Mental Nourishing realm. Her basic form was as strong as Isla's transformed state, and she hadn't even reached the half-step!

Cecile extended her wings and floated, looking at the world below her. Even after this transformation, the first thing that passed through her mind was this, 'At last, I have the strength to protect you, my love.'

At the same time that Cecile thought about this, the ritual ended, and Cecile felt her body paralyze midair. Then, an excruciating pain burned her heart, making her grunt in pain! 'What is happening!?'

Cecile felt her body forcefully trying to change something, but another part of her resisted. It was something trying to destroy her connection with Yaseenia! Then, the roar of her dragoness reached her, no matter the distance, carrying an amount of wrath that Cecile had felt only once before, 'WHO DARES TRY TO CUT MY CONNECTION WITH CECILE!? I'M GOING TO DESTROY YOUR WHOLE RACE!'

Madeleine had already realized something was wrong when Clara moved beside Feng Yuan and stayed there, looking at him as if he was a dead man walking. Therefore, the moment the ritual ended, she flashed beside Cecile at top speed and caught her paralyzed disciple.

At the same time, one elder shouted, making his voice echo through the whole mountain. "ALL OF YOU STAY WHERE YOU ARE! IF SOMEONE DARES LEAVE THE MOUNTAIN, DEATH WILL BE YOUR ONLY ENDING!"

Then, three phoenix elders unfurled their spiritual sense to the maximum distance, covering thousands of kilometers, and dispersed, trying to find an anomaly.

Feng Yuan's father and another two female phoenixes transformed and arrived beside Cecile and Madeleine. A moment later, Clara appeared, grabbing Feng Yuan by the neck in his phoenix form, making the elder sigh painfully.

Even if Clara didn't speak about Feng Yuan, the elders didn't say anything because it was clear why she had carried him here.

They immediately began analyzing Cecile. One of the females diagnosed her and said, "This is bad. A foreign substance is trying to override Cecile's link to her current soulmate."

Madeleine and Clara opened their eyes, and then their aura exploded outward without injuring Cecile. Though the same couldn't be said for Feng Yuan.

Madeleine snarled, "I better get a satisfactory answer, or I will dedicate the rest of my life to hunting [Ice Phoenixes]!"

The other phoenix woman said calmly, "Junior, even if we are in the wrong, don't be so arrogant with those statements, or you won't even know how you died. We are going to try to slow down the process, but fiddling with soul links while they are in this unstable state is not something we can do. Sadly, there isn't a fate-attributed cultivator strong enough to mess with this near us. We need a fate attributed cultivator and, ideally, her current mate to appear."

Madeleine sneered and asked, "Then what do you do when something like this happens to your juniors? Just let them die!?"

Feng Yuan's father sighed, saying, "This ritual is sacred for us. And this is the first time someone has done anything during the ritual for more than 100 000 years. We haven't needed anything like this. To think it would be my son who made such transgression...." He chuckled dispiritedly.

Meanwhile, Cecile was gritting her teeth as her body burned, 'It seems that all that Yasenias warned me to be careful about happened.'

Inside her soul, a black-red substance was attacking the silvery, golden, white cocoon that protected Cecile's core being. Cecile's spiritual core was a complete mess as the tundra was filled with the presence of the thing that was trying to take her over.

The cocoon was resisting while the substance attacked it again and again.

Meanwhile, Cecile didn't know how to use her soul, so the only thing she could do was watch passively, feeling powerless, as that substance consumed more and more of her soul. Even in this situation, Cecile smiled tenderly as she looked at the cocoon protecting her, 'Is this a reminder that no matter how strong we are, you will always be protecting us? If it weren't for you, my love. This thing would have already taken me over...'

Meanwhile, very far away from the Ice Nirvana Mountain, inside another mountain, a succubus with five pairs of fleshy wings was looking at a crystal with a very deep frown.

The crystal was silver-colored and had some black and red spots on it. However, those spots stopped growing when Yasenias and Cecile's connection counterattacked. The succubus was startled and thought, 'How is this possible? The connection should have been instantly erased, allowing me to take control of this woman! What kind of beast-human has marked her!? A dragon god!?'

The succubus bit one of her black nails anxiously, 'I targeted this woman because those children told me it would cause problems between the alliances, making our nearby invasion smoother. What do I do now? We planned to attack the Ice Nirvana Mountain first and expand from here. If this fails....’

While the succubus tried to take control over Cecile, thirty minutes passed, and a loud sound of space shattering occurred near Cecile. Then, a foreign but tyrannical spiritual sense swept the whole Ice Nirvana Mountain, carrying the presence of death with it. The elders were alarmed and were about to go out when a ship appeared above them.

Two women with long black hair descended from it, seemingly ready to slay mortals and gods alike. They were followed by another group.

One of the two leading women had a cold expression and an oppressive death aura around her; her red eyes were locked onto the Phoenix elders, making them feel pressured.

Meanwhile, the other had a wrathful expression as her red-slit eyes swept everything, searching for someone. When she found Cecile, she charged toward her without caring about anything else and not noticing Cecile’s physical changes. Knowing who these two were, they didn’t stop them.

Eve appeared before Clara, expressionless, and Tatyana appeared before the elders with glowing red eyes. Both spoke simultaneously, “Explain.”

Clara slammed her forehead onto the ground, letting her white hair cover her head, and she repeated everything from her perspective without letting a single word, action, or emotion out of her tale.

Meanwhile, the elders explained to Tatyana what had happened.

While these two were listening, Yasenias ran beside Cecile and put a hand on top of her dantian, pouring her energy while her slit eyes took a silvery tone. “Don’t worry, sweetheart. I’m going to make whoever caused this wish they were dead!”

Then, when the silver consumed her whole iris, Yasenias closed her eyes and focused on their connection; her aura exploded—having activated [Day and Night] and making her surroundings her domain.

Her presence grew exponentially, making all the present seniors look at her with wonder. Then, using her connection as a medium, Yasenias dove straight into Cecile’s soul.

This time every single senior around, including Tatyana, looked at Yasenias as if they were looking at an alien thing they had never seen in their long lives.

Chapter 145

Meanwhile, Cecile was still fighting against the pain and using her energy to keep the cocoon up. After half an hour of fight, a warm current spread from her navel to the rest of her body. Then, an overwhelmingly powerful presence manifested in the spiritual world where her soul fought against that black-red miasma.

The thing that manifested was a dragon, an enormous blue dragon that seemed to carry the firmament inside its body.

Cecile looked at the mountain dwarfing dragon that appeared, mesmerized.

Its dark blue color with white shining lights and golden scales across its navel. The head had a pair of golden horns and heterochromatic silver and gold eyes.

Along its body's right side, silver-colored moons filled it with different forms and sizes. On its left side, golden-colored Suns of different sizes occupied it. In the middle of each of the giant wings, it had one Sun and a full Moon.

It was as if a piece of the night sky had taken a draconic form and appeared before her. It was an extremely beautiful dragon. Everything about this dragon made Cecile want to surrender her everything to it.

The dragon, Yassenia's soul manifestation, looked around and saw the black and red thing that was trying to attack her mate's soul core. Enraged, Yassenia dove downward with a roar that seemed to shake the heavens.

“RROAAAR!!!”

The miasma couldn't even react before the golden claw of the dragon pierced deeply into it, not giving it a chance to fight back. Then, a pulse of chaotic Yin and Yang energies invaded the miasma from the claw. The succubus that wanted to fight back didn't even know what happened before she got ejected from the shared vision with the miasma.

Moreover, after the claw pierced the miasma, where the succubus was, an agonizing scream echoed, accompanied by the sound of crystal shattering. Feng Yuan wasn't any better as he felt a burning pain invade his soul through his weak connection with Cecile, making him release a shrill phoenix cry.

Dragon Yassenia moved her claw with the miasma impaled and opened her maw, devouring it and transferring the entirety of the miasma into her own soul.

Cecile was still awed at her mate's dominant display, but when she saw her swallow it, Cecile got frightened. “My love, what are you doing!? Spit it out! I can bear the pain; you don't need to take it for me!”

Nonetheless, Cecile was stupefied at what happened next. The mountain-sized dragon shrunk and became tiger-sized, ignoring its belly's miasma and jumping toward Cecile.

Cecile, of course, caught her, embracing her with her arms and new silver feathered wings. Then, Yassenia started licking her cheek as her dragon wings flapped happily and her tail wagged. Cecile's face melted in a gentle smile, kissing the dragoness between her arms. But then woke up from the cuteness attack, still worried. While receiving her affections, she said, putting a hand in front of her maw. “Yassenia dear, spit out the miasma! Peh! Yassenia, peh!”

Yassenia blinked her dragon eyes and complied, “Peh.”

Which made Cecile delighted, finding her dragoness extremely cute. But when she looked at what she spat, she realized how small and insignificant the miasma had become. ‘So weak, did Yassenia digest it?’

Meanwhile, on the outside, when Yassenia started entering Cecile's soul. Tatyana and the rest of the transcendent level experts present looked at Yassenia, stupefied. Tatyana asked, with an incredulous tone, “Did my little treasure just use her soul?”

Tatyana had to ask out loud because of the absurdity of the situation. Normally, late-stage Unification Realm cultivators could begin to feel their souls, much less make use of them.

It was called the Unification realm for a reason; because the cultivator starts fusing their soul with themselves in a conscious manner and also starts being perceptive of the souls of others. Cultivators that got stuck in the Unification realm for life because the cultivator could not do this weren't strange at all.

Therefore, Yasenia, who had just done what she did while being in the first level of the Mental Nourishing realm, was a complete anomaly, to say the least. It was the same as seeing a mortal child use a sword to cut a boulder expertly.

Anna, who heard Tatyana sighed in relief, "Since Lady Tatyana also saw it, it means I didn't go insane. Thank the heavens."

Eve slapped the back of her head and said, "Thank the heavens, my head! What if she is also damaged by the... Miasma... huh?"

One Phoenix elder said, stupefied, "She glomped it."

Another parroted, "She totally did."

Feng Yuan's father laughed in disbelief, "Is she destroying it inside her soul? Am I seeing this right?"

Tatyana thought in that instant, 'I have to tell her not to destroy it completely so that I can track down the perpetrators!'

However, she then heard Cecile saying, "Peh! Yasenia, peh!"

Tatyana almost facepalmed, 'Do you think she is a child!?'

...But she then saw her dear daughter obeying her and spitting it out with a "Peh!"

Tatyana clutched her heart and fell to her knees. "How can my little treasure be so cute!? I love her the most!"

One nearby female Phoenix asked, "Can you tell me how you raised her? I can pay whatever you want! If my next daughter can be as cute as yours, I will smile even in my sleep!"

Tatyana ignored the Phoenix and decided to intervene before Cecile destroyed what remained of it. She opened a soul link with Yasenia and Cecile, "Little treasure, Cecile, do not destroy what is left of it. I can use it to track down the one that hurt Cecile."

Tatyana then spoke to Yasenia with a gentle tone. "Love, you can exit Cecile's soul. Nothing will happen with me here."

Yasenia licked Cecile's cheek one last time and exploded in shiny particles, disappearing from Cecile's soul.

After this, Cecile's consciousness returned to her body, and she opened her blue phoenix eyes. She saw Yasenia looking at her with a worried face and Tatyana by her side. Cecile said, "What a journey it has been; who would have thought...."

Yasenia lifted Cecile in a hug, passing her arms under her wings. Then she said with a brittle voice, "I w-was so worried. I thought I was losing you."

Cecile hugged Yasenia and covered her with her big silver wings in a protective cocoon. "I'm okay now, my love. Thank you for protecting me."

Yasenia's hug became tighter, and she sobbed with her head buried in Cecile's neck. Cecile moved her three feathered tails and wrapped them around Yasenia's long tail.

Meanwhile, Tatyana placed a hand between Cecile's wings and used her energy to capture that little miasma left inside Cecile's soul. Then, she easily extracted it. It tried to destroy itself when it was out of Cecile's body; however, was Tatyana someone that would let that happen?

Tatyana coldly chanted, "[Fate Weaving]."

Threads of different colors appeared before her, and she cut a black one. The miasma stopped its destruction and stayed still in Tatyana's hand. Then Tatyana sunk her hand in the apple-sized miasma and made a grabbing motion. When she pulled back her clenched hand, she was grabbing two threads, one light blue colored and another pink-grey colored.

Tatyana then chanted, "[Origin Soul Link]."

The two threads suddenly speed toward two different places at fantastic speeds. The light blue thread linked with Feng Yuan, and the other zoomed into the horizon, disappearing from their sight. Anna and Eve didn't even waste a second, shooting like a light beam after the pink-grey thread, their auras terrifying.

Meanwhile, the succubus was breathing heavily and almost immobilized because of the pain Yasenia's retaliation caused her. She took out a jade from an earring and activated it. Breathing roughly, she said, "The plan failed... I wasn't able to... Take over the objective. We will probably be discovered-"

Cling.

She looked at the side and saw a pink-grey thread that suddenly stuck onto her. She looked at it, confused, not knowing what it was.

Even if she didn't know what it was, the succubus was alerted and looked around, trying to find what latched it onto her. However, she didn't find anything.

Meanwhile, she was hearing the answer from the jade, "Can you retreat? We are sending our forces to the phoenix mountain anyway. We will take it by force if we can't take it sneakily."

The succubus spoke with doubt, "Sir, a strange thread latched into me out of nowhere, it is grey color-"

A female voice frantically shouted, "RUN AWAY RIGHT NOW! YOU ARE-"

BOOOOOOOM!!!!!!

The succubus got blasted away by a shockwave.

BANG!

She struck against a wall and her bones cracked. Ignoring the pain, she looked up hastily, only to see two blonde women, and got scared. However, she wasn't scared because of them, but because the succubus was literally inside a mountain before, and now she could see the blue sky.

She looked up with trembling eyes and saw that the mountain had been literally blown into smithereens by an attack of one of these two women.

Anna's voice echoed around as she said, "Filthy demon, messing up with our miss was the worst thing you could think of! You will pass the rest of your days praying for the sweet release of death!"

Eve blinked beside the succubus and grabbed her head with one hand, then inserted energy in some acupuncture points, making her faint instantly. While Eve did that, Anna instantly cut off everything that had a piece of jewelry, her ears, one arm, one leg, and two of her wings. Blood splashed around.

After analyzing her, Eve said, "She is a succubus."

Anna mercilessly lowered the succubus's lower garments and used both her arms to dig up her lower entrances. Even while unconscious, the succubus trembled in pain as Anna searched for anything inside the succubus. She even cut open her cervix with her nails, searching inside her uterus. She found something there, grabbed it, and pulled it down, reversing her inside-out.

With the sound of blood splashing and flesh tearing, Anna's arm went out of her.

Anna looked at her bloody fist and opened it. Seeing the bloody bead on her hand, she smirked. "A spatial bead; these bitches are crafty. It even has a teleportation talisman and some other life-saving treasures inside... It will be a nice present for young miss... If The Lady lets me give it to her."

Eve asked calmly, as if her sister didn't just do something completely outrageous. "Is something up her rectum?"

Anna kept digging until the butt entrance reached her shoulder and said, "Nothing here."

Eve said, "Then take out your arm. You are killing her, squishing all her organs like that."

Anna took out her arm, making the succubus blood pour through her hole and carrying her intestines out through it. "I had to be sure, so I pierced her intestines to enter her stomach. There wasn't anything there. She is completely helpless now."

Eve nodded, "I will carry her to the others, search for anything useful that hasn't been destroyed, and loot it. I'm going first; I don't want her to die of blood loss."

Anna nodded and waved her bloody hand, "See ya later, sis!"

Eve disappeared with a nod. Anna took out a towel and cleaned herself. "Let's see what these demons have over here~. Oh! A teleportation formation... Hmm? What is this? A communication jade?"

Anna's smirk widened, saying, "Then, you guys must know what I did to that filthy slut, right? I overturned her whole body inside out~. However, don't worry; my sister and I are great healers. We won't let her die... Even if she wants to, hahaha!"

On the other side of the jade, some demons of different sizes and forms were listening. Some female demons had ugly faces, and some of the younger ones were directly throwing up. One general that was going to direct the attack on the phoenixes asked, unaccustomed to this brutality from outside races. “Who are they? To be able to do that... That was... I didn’t expect that.”

Chapter 146

...One general that was going to direct the attack on the phoenixes asked, unaccustomed to this brutality from outside races. “Who are they? To be able to do that... That was... I didn’t expect that.”

There was a slim succubus with six pairs of brown wings behind a voluptuous succubus with two purple wings. She was the one that shouted before and now was completely enraged, “Who cares who are they!? They dare do something like that to my daughter!? I’m going to force their whole family to be breeders and then eat their own children!”

A nearby red demon with a single pair of wings reprimanded, “Even if you are a succubus duchess under a Succubus Queen, you are in the presence of other Demon Monarchs! Control your attitude!”

That twelve-winged succubus kneeled and said, “I deeply apologize, Demon King Horux. Hearing what they did to my daughter agitated me.”

Horux nodded and said, “Since the sneaky tactic failed, pick up your weapons, we are going straight in. I don’t think that these birds will be able to win against us, 100 Demon Monarchs.”

One demon king asked, “What about the person that used a Fate Thread to locate the little girl? They must be very strong.”

Horux said, “I will take care of her myself, I reached the level nine 100 years ago, so I am stronger than a half-step transcendence human cultivator. We have information that there isn’t anyone with a higher level than half-step transcendence on this continent. Even the Heavenly sect and Demonic Sect leaders are at the peak of the half-step, unable to advance.”

The others nodded, and a ten-meter-tall Demon Queen asked, “Those birds also don’t have a hidden high-ranked phoenix, right? It isn’t abnormal for phoenixes to have incredibly old ancestors sleeping nearby, who only awaken once critical danger comes to them.”

Horux shook his head, “That ancestor perished in the heavenly cataclysm; that is why this Ice Phoenix branch only has high-level sixth-ranked phoenixes as their peak strength. If I’m not incorrect, they have used his body to make an altar, to help their youngling.”

The Succubus Queen with purple wings sighed, “What a shame, we were luckily able to find a direct descendant and tamper the ritual with the help of his blood... Who would have thought that it would fail? My poor great-great-granddaughter shall also be avenged~.”

Then she looked at the chained human male beside her and said with a smirk, “Let’s work fast before I lose my delicious meals~.”

Horux nodded and stood up at a staggering height of 20m. He looked behind at the horde of demons gathered there. His voice echoed around the wide valley where the giant army was standing, “In four hours, We are going to gain our first foothold in this continent before the other groups! Prepare for battle!”

Following this statement, countless howls and roars reverberated around, making the army’s presence known to the surrounding creatures.

Meanwhile, on top of the mountain, Yasenia had already relaxed. It was at that moment that she caught the presence of the glossy and beautiful silver wings surrounding her. Then, she looked at her tail, where she could feel the fluffy feathered tails surrounding hers. Moreover, Cecile’s presence and her refreshing scent were much stronger than before, making Yasenia’s senses tingle.

Yasenia focused on Cecile’s face and couldn’t help but blush, finding Cecile incredibly attractive. She looked at Cecile, and the young dragoness said shyly, “Sweetheart~ Y-you’ve become very beautiful....”

Cecile almost had a heart attack at Yasenia’s cuteness. ‘Thankfully, the ritual strengthened my body, or my heart would have directly exploded!’

Sadly, the others weren’t as lucky. Angel directly fainted from cuteness overload. Evelyn was barely hanging on her consciousness thanks to her will to take string after string of photos.

You could also see Andrea blushing even with her tan skin. And although you couldn’t see Kali’s face because of the veil, the red patch on it was enough to imagine her current face.

Tatyana naturally didn’t let the chance slip, taking so many photos per second that putting them together would have made a high-quality video with an impressive framerate.

Cecile directly glomped Yasenia in her embrace and started kissing her red cheeks. Yasenia blushed even more and let herself be kissed, becoming fidgety.

Cecile didn’t realize that her own eyes were becoming violet, and her tap kisses were escalating, becoming more passionate.

Tatyana knew what was happening, so she moved Cecile and Yasenia to an empty room using her superior cultivation.

For them, it was something they didn’t almost realize because of the state they were entering. Cecile stole Yasenia’s lips and kissed her domineeringly. Yasenia moaned as Cecile pushed her down to the bed. “My love, I can’t take it anymore. Let’s do it.”

Yasenia nodded shyly, and her tail wagged speedily, moving Cecile’s wrapped tails with it. Cecile took off the ceremonial dress, and Yasenia did the same with her robes. Then, Cecile straddled Yasenia, sitting on her rod and placing it between her labia.

Looking down at Yasenia’s naked seductive body, Cecile’s iris turned violet, her wings flapped excitedly, and her tails caressed Yasenia’s.

She grabbed Yasenia’s breasts and fondled her while moving her waist, rubbing her wetting core through her length, and covering it with her fluids. Even without insertion, Yasenia felt electric currents going up to her brain, from her tail, breasts and massaged penis. She couldn’t help but tremble in pleasure as her eyes changed to golden-pink. “Cecile~ Cecile~ It feels so good~.”

Cecile's breath became ragged, and her tails sped up their tail job. Then, she lifted her waist, and when she felt her tip poking her entrance, she looked at the moaning dragoness below her seductively, making Yasenia whimper. "My love, do you want to be mine?"

Yasenia answered instantly, "Yes! Oh! I was always yours~, mmm~ Sweetheart; my tail feels so good!" Cecile lowered her waist slowly.

Yasenia felt her head entering her vagina and almost came because of how good it felt. The tightness and slimy feeling were divine, sending electric pleasure to her brain.

What Yasenia didn't expect was for her head to hit a membrane. Yasenia's eyes opened, surprised, and she looked at Cecile.

Cecile's smile became gentle, and she spoke, "The ritual reformed my body, so I'm pure again. My love, no matter how many times, I will always give my purity to you." Then, Cecile lowered her waist strongly.

When Yasenia broke that membrane again, her waist nerves exploded with pleasure waves, her eyes rolled up. Yasenia came hard with a dragon roar. "ROAARRR!!"

Her cum shot up continuously and strongly, making the dragoness spasm with pleasure.

The vigorous release pierced through Cecile's cervix, flooding her core with Yasenia's semen. Cecile's pleasure also went haywire, and she lost control. She convulsed and came hard with a piercing phoenix cry, "QYAAAA!!"

Cecile's new powerful primal Yin energy combined with Yasenia's Yang energy, and BANG! Their aura exploded while their souls connected to an even deeper level. Yasenia broke through directly to the third level and advanced, almost reaching the fourth.

Cecile also got a burst of energy as her body absorbed Yasenia's Yang energy greedily as if drinking a heavenly treasure after being starved for a lifetime. Cecile felt like the missing piece clicked, and she became a complete [Moon Phoenix].

Their orgasm continued, and looking at their waist area; you could see Yasenia's semen overflowing from their connected part. It was as if Yasenia was peeing semen inside of Cecile and Cecile spraying fluids on top of Yasenia.

After they finished orgasming, Cecile fell limp on top of Yasenia, covering them with her wings. Yasenia felt a refreshing presence lodge into her soul, and, realizing what it was, she became euphoric, 'She marked me!! Hahaha, so happy, so happy! Hahaha.'

Yasenia hugged Cecile and laughed out loud, filled with happiness. Cecile looked at her laughing face with her violet eyes and smiled tenderly, "Now, there isn't anyone who can mark you. You are mine, Yasenia."

Yasenia had a gleeful smile as she nodded again and again. The poor dragoness didn't know how to express this overflowing happiness, so she tap kissed Cecile repeatedly, showering her with kisses.

Receiving such a childish show of affection, Cecile fell all over again for the dragoness.

Cecile captured her mouth, starting a deep kiss, and tightened her insides, making Yasenia moan. The dragoness thrust upward and hugged Cecile close to her body without separating her mouth.

This time Yasenia didn't hold back; she didn't feel the need to hold back while having sex with someone that wasn't Tatyana for the first time.

PAH! PAH! PAH!

Yasenia and Cecile moved their waist fast, meeting with each other strongly. The phoenix tightened her tail around the dragoness's soft and squishy tail, stimulating her further. With the whole tail being massaged for the first time, Yasenia couldn't hold to this stimulation and came again from her three sexes. "MMMPH!!!"

Feeling the pleasurable semen overfilling her insides, Cecile also came. However, even while orgasming, Cecile didn't stop her waist or tails, elevating their pleasure further.

Yasenia trembled in pleasure as her sensitive members were being caressed even while cumming, 'Oh my heavens, I'm going crazy~.'

Cecile lifted her upper body, sitting on Yasenia's waist, and leaned backward, using one hand to finger Yasenia's vagina and the other as support; then, she extended her wings and moved her waist, stimulating Yasenia's rod. Yasenia saw the majestic phoenix jumping on her in her full splendor, and she became submissive again. 'My sweetheart is so domineering~ I love it~. Her fingers are touching the right spots!'

Cecile clearly felt her euphoria and submissive feelings through the connection and smiled while she moaned, "Mmm~ Do you like this, my love? How do my insides feel? Ah! Ah! Ah! Because your dick feels better than ever!"

Yasenia grabbed her waist and thrust up repeatedly, "So good~ So good~ Aahn~ Sweetheart, I want to fill you~."

Cecile sped up her fingers and waist, and her voice became sultry. "Fill me, my love. I want your seed~."

Suddenly, Yasenia felt something she didn't expect. Cecile opened her cervix, glomping her head, and then released fertile liquid that would become an egg in the future. Yasenia almost went crazy; she thrust up strongly, wanting to impregnate Cecile.

PAH! PAH! PAH! PAH!

However, looking at Cecile's face filled with ecstasy, she remembered what happened to her and managed to control herself, knowing full well what her Sweetheart was going through. This didn't make the stimulation smaller. Cecile's fertile liquid made Yasenia's penis feel in heaven, and she couldn't hold on against this stimulation. "I'm cumming!"

Cecile felt the awaited semen fill her uterus and mix with her fluids, making her reach orgasm. Her wings ruffled, her tails tightened, and her body spasmed. "AHHHH!!!"

Cecile squirted all over Yasenia, smearing her with her fluids as they trembled in pleasure, moaning loudly. After the orgasm, having a clearer head, Cecile's eyes opened in surprise, 'What did I do!?'

She hastily checked her uterus and checked for fertilization. Then, she gave a sigh when she didn't feel life energy from Yasenia's load.

Whether that sigh was of disappointment or relief, only Cecile herself knew.

Cecile looked at Yasenia, who had a little melancholic smile looking at her navel, and felt a pang of guilt in her heart. She lifted the dragoness into a sitting position and surrounded her with her wings and arms, straddling her. "I'm sorry, my love."

Yasenia buried her face in her neck and breathed in the refreshing scent. "Sweetheart..."

Cecile answered, gently moving her waist and speaking softly, "What is it, my love?"

Yasenia said, "I want to become stronger...."

Cecile tightened the hug and said, "Me too, my love. I really want to bear your children."

Wanting to cheer up her dear dragoness, she asked, chuckling, "What traits do you think they will have? Phoenix or dragon traits?"

Thanks to Cecile's waist movements, Yasenia growled comfortably as she tightened the hug on Cecile and gyrated her waist to scrap Cecile's insides. Then she answered with a loving tone, "I don't care. I will love them even if they are only mortals because they will be your children."

Cecile's smile became so gentle that Yasenia became entranced looking at her. "I love you, Yasenia. With all my heart."

Chapter 147

Wanting to cheer up her dear dragoness, she asked, chuckling, "What traits do you think they will have? Phoenix or dragon traits?"

Thanks to Cecile's waist movements, Yasenia growled comfortably as she tightened the hug on Cecile and gyrated her waist to scrap Cecile's insides. Then she answered with a loving tone, "I don't care. I will love them even if they are only mortals because they will be your children."

Cecile's smile became so gentle that Yasenia became entranced looking at her. "I love you, Yasenia. With all my heart."

Yasenia's tail wagged, and Cecile felt it through her own tails, which made her laugh. Yasenia's voice was cheery as she said, "I know~ That is why my sweetheart marked me~ So happy~."

Cecile laughed louder and separated Yasenia's head from her neck. Looking at her pink eyes, she said, "Do you want to continue, my love?"

Yasenia nodded and said shyly, "I like being inside sweetheart a lot...."

Cecile raised an eyebrow teasingly and asked, "Not the most? Only a lot?"

Yasenia became flustered and said, "I-its just that...." Yasenia said honestly with a low voice, "... Mom is always the best in my heart."

Cecile chuckled and said, "Silly Yasenia, do you think I didn't know that? I was teasing you, my love~."

Internally she was thinking, 'How can she be so childishly cute sometimes? I adore this part of her~.'

Yasenia pouted and said, "Meany~."

Cecile directly showered her in kisses, saying, "How can my dragoness be so cute!?"

Yasenia giggled and asked, “Can you penetrate me now, Sweetheart? I don’t think we will be able to control our instincts to breed....”

Cecile nodded, “I was also thinking the same; which position do you want?”

Yasenia said, “Something we didn’t do before?”

Cecile thought and smirked a little sadistically. The dragoness caught this, and a chill of excitement ran up her spine. Cecile grabbed the 35cm (14 inches) monster and put it on. Yasenia gulped.

After laying the dragoness on the bed, Cecile stood up, placed Yasenia’s legs beside her head, and made her butt look up. Cecile looked at the tail also sticking up and smirked.

Leaving Yasenia in that position, Cecile put her feet at the sides of her body, squatted, and aimed her penis at her entrance. Cecile straightened Yasenia’s tail, hugged it between her breasts, and used it as a pole for support. Then, she guided her tail tip inside her mouth.

Yasenia looked at Cecile’s butt and tails that were right above her head, and her heart rate accelerated. Her own penis was above her head, and she could see the giant penis aiming toward her dripping vagina. Yasenia swallowed dryly as this was an extremely vulnerable position, and she couldn’t help but feel completely dominated.

After aiming, Cecile penetrated Yasenia slowly. Cecile and Yasenia looked at how Yasenia’s labia spread, fitting her barbaric girth. Hot pleasure waves invaded both as Cecile’s penis penetrated deeper. Cecile’s legs trembled with pleasure, and Yasenia let out a sensual moan.

Yasenia’s vagina could still wriggle, tighten, suck, and spasm even when it was this expanded, making Cecile go crazy with stimulation, ‘Her vagina is so good~ Ohh, I love burying myself inside of her.’

When she was a third of her length, she felt it hitting Yasenia’s cervix, so she pushed strongly. Cecile knew that Yasenia’s insides were very stretchy, and this forceful invasion was very stimulating for her. Therefore, she didn’t hold back.

Her cervix stretched as the giant penis opened that last entrance. Then, using Yasenia’s inner elasticity, Cecile pierced the cervix and pushed, fitting her 35cm inside Yasenia. After opening her cervix, Cecile felt her 35cm disappearing inside Yasenia with the next push, and their waist smashed together.

PAH!

Cecile heard Yasenia’s throaty moan, “OOHHH!!” Followed by her mouth being filled with Yasenia’s delicious discharge and her length being assaulted by Yasenia’s inner spasms. She swallowed delightedly, and her brain went to the pleasure realm after Yasenia’s vaginal stimulation and the cum going down her throat.

Her dick inflated and squirted inside Yasenia’s uterus, driving the dragoness crazy because of stimulation. Yasenia had her breasts and face covered with her own cum, her stomach feeling full and pleasurable.

Cecile took out her length until only the head was inside and looked from the gap between their hips to Yasenia. She saw her top smeared with her own cum, but she couldn't see her face because of the big breasts of the dragoness.

However, feeling her bliss through the connection was enough to know that she was excitedly blushing. Cecile looked at their connected genitals with her violet eyes and smiled sadistically. Then, she began pounding the dragoness into oblivion while licking the tail inside her mouth.

PAH! PAH! PAH! PAH!

This time, the dragoness was completely dominated by Cecile. The monstrous length expanding her insides mercilessly made Yasenia spasm with pleasure again and again. Moreover, Cecile's Yin energy had become extremely potent, making her nerves flare up with delight. "AH! AH! AH! OHH!!"

Cecile kept penetrating Yasenia for five minutes straight in that position. Then, she plopped her penis outside, letting her squirt pour through Yasenia's entrance, and Yasenia's waist fell onto the bed.

She turned and saw Yasenia with her eyes rolled up in a lewd smile, her face, and breasts smeared with her white, thick cum. However, the dragoness recovered quickly.

Cecile went down to the missionary position and penetrated Yasenia again, licking the semen that was on top of Yasenia. Yasenia blushed after seeing Cecile's passion for her fluids.

Cecile's penis moved in and out as she licked the cum greedily. Yasenia matched her waist and moved her tail to penetrate Cecile's backdoor. Cecile moaned, and her wings extended, "AH!"

Yasenia began moving her tail, and her insides massaged the whole length.

With her mouth filled with the dragoness cum and Yasenia's heavenly insides, Cecile reached orgasm fast. "I'm cumming!"

Yasenia had her uterus filled again, which sent an electric current through her body, making her legs and body spasm. Yasenia, completely pink-eyed, took the reins.

She pushed Cecile onto the bed and began jumping on her while her tail ravaged Cecile's insides. "It feels so good! Cecile~ Cecile~ Ah! Ah! MORE! AH! AH! AH!"

Cecile moaned as she saw the giant tits bouncing, and her length disappeared and appeared inside the dragoness.

PAH! PAH! PAH!

She thrust upward to meet their waists. "Yasenia, it feels heavenly! AH! Ahn~! Ohh!"

Cecile reached orgasm again, making Yasenia also have fireworks exploding in her mind. Yasenia came, spurting cum all over Cecile, reaching even Cecile's face with her discharge. Cecile opened her mouth, letting that semen fall into it.

Violet and pink eyes met as Cecile changed positions. She placed the dragoness face down on the bed and went above her, aiming at her butt-hole. Then penetrated downward, slamming Yasenia's hips onto the bed. Yasenia exclaimed, "So deeeep!!"

BAM! BAM! BAM!

Their crazed mating continued. Yet, at the end of the day, the improved Cecile couldn't last against the monstrous stamina of the dragoness.

However, their mating went on for three whole hours. After they finished, they were completely tangled with each other. Their tails were coiled in practically a braid; Yasenia had Cecile's resting face in the crook of her neck and her legs around Cecile's thighs, letting Cecile's twitching big member rest inside her.

Yasenia used Cecile's fluffy wings as a mattress and sheets. Their arms went around each other, closing the distance between their bodies and not leaving even a single gap between them.

Cecile said with closed eyes, tired and fulfilled from their session. "At the end of the day, it is still not enough...."

However, Yasenia said, blushing in happiness at her mate's endurance in bed. "Sweetheart, I-I've used almost 60% of my endurance with you!"

Cecile opened her eyes, even if tired. "That much?"

Yasenia put their foreheads together and nodded in happiness, "Before, I only used about 40% when finishing all of you... You've improved so much!"

Cecile's lips raised in an uncontrollable smile, and she tightened her hug on the soft and fragrant body. "You said that before we could satisfy you, so... That means that I can satisfy you alone from now on?"

Yasenia laughed and nodded. Cecile raised her head and kissed Yasenia strongly. She felt like a weight lifted off her shoulders. 'My poor love was always trying not to show it, but I could feel her struggling with her monstrous stamina from time to time. Finally, I can give my dragoness the release she needed.'

After kissing her, Cecile couldn't hold on anymore, and she fell asleep with a contented smile. Yasenia felt more and more blessed. She caressed her platinum silver hair and smiled tenderly. 'She has become so beautiful~ I'm so lucky~ A phoenix and a dragon! We are practically a match made in heaven~.'

Yasenia continued looking at Cecile's peerless facial features and ethereal charm with a foolish and happy smile. She liked everything about the new Cecile.

Meanwhile, outside, things were progressing toward a war, Tatyana didn't want to bother the pair, but something important was happening. Therefore, she decided to go to their love nest.

Tatyana appeared in the room, and a wave of potent scent hit her. Because of her cultivation, it didn't affect her, but her eyebrows raised nonetheless. 'So rich! Mmm~ Smells so good~.'

She looked around the bed and saw the sheets completely wet with their fluids, and their bodies also smeared with them; Tatyana found it funny. 'It is like they have showered in each other fluids; they've gone quite crazy...'

Seeing their position, she smiled, happy that her daughter finally found someone that could take her on. 'Even if they are some levels apart, my little treasure can finally be satisfied by someone of her level. My little treasure must be feeling over the moon~. Thanks to Cecile, I can put to rest her growing lust problem for a while.'

Tatyana approached them, and Yasenias caught her mother's presence. Tatyana saw the blissful smile and happiness radiating from Yasenias, and her lips also arched, feeling Yasenias's happiness spread to herself. "Little treasure, even if I want to let the two of you together, you must wake her up. The demons are coming, and I want all of you near me so that I can protect you."

Yasenias looked at Cecile's sleeping visage and struggled. However, knowing that this wasn't time to doubt, she whispered. her voice mellow and gentle, "Sweetheart, you have to wake up...."

Cecile mumbled and rubbed herself on Yasenias and continued sleeping. Yasenias almost squealed, 'She looks so cute~!'

Yasenias tried some more times to wake her up lightly, but Cecile didn't wake up, extremely comfortable within Yasenias's embrace. Tatyana looking from the side didn't know whether to laugh or cry, 'Little treasure, the tone you are using would put even me to sleep. How could she wake up?'

Yasenias frowned and, with a hurting heart, decided to lie to her sweetheart for the first time. "Sweetheart, help. Some bad guys want to kill me."

Cecile's aura exploded, almost destroying the surroundings and her wings enveloped Yasenias protectively. She instantly became completely alert and looked around, taking out the bow and trying to spot the fools trying to hurt her dear dragoness. "Who dares hurt my love!?"

Dear Yasenias, having the big member still inserted, moaned once and looked at Cecile shyly, "Umm... Sweetheart, t-they are still coming here, we have to Ahn~ wake up."

Cecile paused and looked around. She only saw an amused Tatyana and an awed Yasenias looking at her. Her aura relaxed, and she calmly said, "Then it is good."

Tatyana said, barely holding her laughter, "Cecile, I say, although I know that my little treasure's insides are very pleasurable... Isn't it time to take out your big penis of my daughter?"

Cecile blushed and instantly took it out, making a squelch pop sound, and making Yasenias moan, "Ahn~ So forceful~."

Cecile couldn't help but blush crimson. 'At least Tatyana is her lover beside her mother, so this isn't that embarrassing. Wait, isn't it worse? Seen while penetrating her daughter AND lover... Yes, definitely worse. Time to die and be reborn again.'

Chapter 148

...Tatyana said, barely holding her laughter, "Cecile, I say, although I know that my little treasure's insides are very pleasurable... Isn't it time to take out your big penis of my daughter?"

Cecile blushed and instantly took it out, making a squelch pop sound, and making Yasenias moan, "Ahn~ So forceful~."

Cecile couldn't help but blush crimson. 'At least Tatyana is her lover beside her mother, so this isn't that embarrassing. Wait, isn't it worse? Seen while penetrating her daughter AND lover... Yes, definitely worse. Time to die and be reborn again.'

While Cecile was going through an existential crisis, Yasenia stood up and stretched her body.

Yasenia's body was glistening because of their fluids, and her hair was damp with her sweat, combined with the sensual movement she was doing to stretch... Cecile's thought stopped as her brain only registered the voluptuous dragoness before her. Yasenia asked, sighing in comfort. "How much until they arrive, mom?"

Tatyana was also eating her with her eyes and approached with an enchanted towel. She began cleaning Yasenia's body and answered, "I want to be prepared before half an hour passes. They will probably arrive forty minutes to one hour later."

Yasenia motioned Cecile to come near, and Yasenia used another towel to dry her. First, she dried her body and then her hair. Finally, she moved to her wings and tails. Cecile's scent was very thick here, so Yasenia couldn't help but rub herself on it, trying to smear herself with the mint-like smell.

While Tatyana cleaned her tail, Yasenia rubbed herself on the wing. The feathers were super soft and silky, letting her body sink in the fragrant wing. Cecile sighed comfortably, feeling Yasenia's body through her wings. Yasenia sighed sensually, "Sweetheart, you smell so good~."

Tatyana knew that right now, the two of them were extremely horny and would begin fucking at the minimum stimulation. So she grabbed Yasenia's erect penis from behind and did a handjob with extreme expertise. Yasenia moaned, and her legs trembled. Tatyana whispered to Yasenia, "Little treasure, we have to move. I know you want to do it, so I will let you cum one more time, then we go out."

Yasenia couldn't even answer as Tatyana's hand was sending electric currents through her body, making her abdomen and legs spasm. Yasenia didn't even last twenty seconds, "I'M CUMMING!"

Tatyana lowered herself, glomped the member, and suctioned, using a sexual technique to suck everything inside Yasenia's sexual organ. It was the first time Tatyana used a sexual technique, and for Yasenia, the pleasure was otherworldly; her eyes rolled up, and her body spasmed, "OOOOHH!!!!!"

Gulp! Gulp! Gulp! Gulp!

One minute later, Tatyana drank everything, leaving her dry, and let Yasenia's penis out of her mouth, licking it one last time. Cecile looked from the side, amazed, 'Yasenia out of combat after one minute? What just happened!?'

Yasenia fell onto her butt, her legs still shaking. Breathing was rough, and her mind was still in the pleasure realm. After relaxing, Yasenia took out her [Seductive Dragoness Battle Dress] without saying anything. Tatyana patted Yasenia and said, "Good girl."

Yasenia blushed, and her tail wagged speedily. Then, Tatyana began helping her put it on. Yasenia asked while being dressed, "When are we leaving the mountain?"

Tatyana raised her eyebrow and asked, "You don't want to protect the phoenixes?"

Yasenia, now completely clear-headed, sneered and moved to help Cecile put on the ceremonial robes Cecile took out previously, "They almost harmed my sweetheart irreversibly. They are lucky I'm not siding with the demons to annihilate them!"

However, Cecile felt a slight kinship toward them and didn't want to condemn the whole phoenix race because of a single bad apple. Therefore, Cecile asked, "Can we help them, my love?"

To which Yasenias answered, "So, mom. Where did you say we were fighting against the demons?"

Tatyana and Cecile looked at Yasenias and burst into laughter. Cecile asked with a smile, "You won't even ask why I asked you this?"

Yasenias finally finished putting the beautiful dress on Cecile and answered after lowering her face to kiss her once, "What is there to ask? My sweetheart wants me to help. Then I will help!"

Cecile took her hand and entangled one tail with Yasenias's as they walked outside with Tatyana at the helm. Cecile said, "Even if it is true that it almost went wrongly, at least they were willing to use that ancient altar on a stranger. Moreover, they were very hospitable while I was here, and if it weren't because of the demons, nothing would have gone wrong."

Tatyana thought to herself, 'They let you use it because they owed me something, but well. I also don't want to let the phoenixes die; they can be a big chess piece later.'

Cecile asked Tatyana, "Tatyana, will you be fine? I don't want to put you at risk because of this. If you feel that there is danger, I don't mind us leaving."

Tatyana thought and said, "Depends on what kind of demons they send. However, with the help of the phoenixes here, it shouldn't be too much trouble. Moreover, I'm confident in escaping with all of you, including the maids, without them being able to stop me."

Tatyana chuckled and said, "Even if it surprises both of you, the thing I'm best at is escaping."

They blinked, surprised. Yasenias asked, "Why are you so good at escaping, mom?"

Tatyana said, "Because it is the best way to remain alive. Imagine a cultivator one or two realms above appears before you and wants your life. If you aren't good at escaping, then your life ends there, without a chance to fight back."

Yasenias and Cecile nodded. Then, Yasenias questioned excitedly, "Will I be able to participate, mom? It would be my first war!"

Tatyana instantly denied her. "You can't. I want you to be by the side of the personal maids with the rest of your harem. Moreover, even if you can fight, you just drained Cecile. Do you think that she is in fighting conditions?"

Yasenias instantly entered protective mode. "Sweetheart, we don't move from the sides of Anna and the rest. You hear me?"

Cecile giggled and hugged Yasenias's arm. "Of course, I'm still dead tired."

Tatyana smirked, 'Cecile has become very expressive around Yasenias.'

Meanwhile, Angel, Andrea, Evelyn, and Kali were waiting on a balcony looking at the relaxing landscape with their maids behind. Evelyn said, "To think that this will become a war zone soon... What a shame."

Kali asked, a little nervous. "Do you girls think that the headmistress can protect us?"

They answered instantly, with complete confidence.

“Mommy Tatyana is the best~.”

Kali was surprised, “Why are you so confident?”

Andrea said simply, “Because Yasenia is still here.”

Kali couldn’t follow their thought process, “What does Yasenia have to do with my question?”

Evelyn said, “You see... Tatyana isn’t someone overprotective or someone that spoils Yasenia. On the contrary, Tatyana always tries to make everything as hard as possible for Yasenia. She wants to temper Yasenia to the limits and make her stronger.”

Kali nodded, and Evelyn continued, “However, she is like that until Yasenia’s life is at risk. Overprotective doesn’t do her justice if Yasenia risks dying or getting damaged irreversibly. I bet it would be the demons who had to fear Tatyana if they aimed at Yasenia’s life.”

Angel chuckled, “She probably wouldn’t blink when creating mountains of corpses and rivers of blood if Yasenia’s life is at stake.”

Leila, who was behind them, also spoke, “The misses don’t have to worry; we will protect you. Selena, Alaia, Flora, Clara, and I are very strong when fighting against cultivators under the transcendence realm. Not to mention head maid Eve and head maid Anna, who are strong against low-level transcendence cultivators.”

The girls smiled and nodded to the maids, “Thank you, girls.”

They heard steps from the side and looked over. They saw Cecile, Yasenia, Tatyana, Eve, and Clara approaching.

When they looked at Cecile and Yasenia, they couldn’t help but notice how their tails and hands interlocked while walking slowly toward them.

Angel did a little run forward and dove into Yasenia’s embrace. Yasenia chuckled and patted her, “What were your girls talking about?”

Evelyn closed on Cecile’s wings and touched them, “We talked about what Tatyana would do if your life is in danger... Whoa, Cecile, your wings are soft and the feathers super smooth~.”

Cecile at first felt uncomfortable with Evelyn touching her wings, but those feelings disappeared after sensing Yasenia’s joy when Evelyn praised them. Cecile frowned and voiced this out. She found it strange. “Just now... When Evelyn touched my wings, I felt uncomfortable. Why is that?”

Evelyn instantly retracted her hands and apologized, “Sorry, Cecile, I should have asked.”

Cecile answered with a smile and used her wing to cover her and surround her. “Evelyn, you can touch as much as you want. I just wanted to know why I would feel that way.”

Surrounded like that and with Cecile's smiling face in front of her, Evelyn actually blushed, feeling her heart-rate accelerating! 'First Yasenia, now Cecile has reached goddess class. My little heart can't take this! Oh... She also smells quite good... I can't, I can't!

Evelyn exclaimed with a high-pitched voice, "Cecile! Stop seducing me! I only love Yasenia and her heavenly ti-" Bang!

Tatyana answered Cecile, ignoring the backflipping Evelyn. "That is because you are averse to other skin ship other than Yasenia's. I suppose the feeling disappeared because you confirmed that Yasenia wasn't averse to Evelyn touching them, right?"

Cecile nodded, looking at the dizzy Evelyn, amused. Tatyana said, "Now that both of you are [Interlocked Souls], the effects that each of you will have on each other will escalate. To be honest, most of my worries about Yasenia marking you so young almost disappeared when you managed to mark her back. It seems that the compatibility between the two of you is sky-high. Only a single worry remains... But well, that is something that will always exist."

Yasenia asked, curious, "What are you talking about, mom?"

Tatyana looked at Yasenia's eyes and answered, "Death."

Yasenia and Cecile flinched, and Tatyana sighed, looking worried at her daughter. "If any of you dies, the other will receive a big backlash... Losing a [Soulmate] is harsh, but losing an [Interlocked Soul] is... Honestly, I've seen beast-humans going insane very often when this happened. Often, killing the party that remained alive is counted as mercy."

Anna appeared at this moment beside them and said, "Lady Tatyana, the fight will soon begin. The Ice Phoenix leader has told me that reinforcement from nearby beast clans will arrive in three hours... Why the heavy mood? Did something happen?"

Eve answered, "Miss Cecile has become young miss's [Interlocked Soul]."

Anna opened her eyes wide and looked at Clara, "You better put effort into cultivation and advance fast. I want you to enter the Transcendence realm as soon as you can. I will give you 300 years. I will also put this offer to the rest of the maids, the first to enter the Transcendence realm will become Miss Cecile's personal maid."

Clara bowed seriously and exclaimed, "Yes! Head maid, I won't disappoint!"

Tatyana waved her hand, levitating everyone, and flew outside the balcony. She sped up, reaching beside the gathering of giant birds. Everywhere they looked, phoenixes ranged from 500m in wingspan to a pair of blue phoenixes with an absurd 5km in height and 12km of wingspan."

Feng Yuan's father welcomed them in his Phoenix form. "Thank you, Academy headmistress, for fighting with us."

Tatyana nodded and said, "Remember the part of the deal."

The giant Phoenix nodded and said, "While our race remains alive, anyone of your bloodline, including the next three generations, will be able to participate in the [Glacial Rebirth] ritual."

Tatyana nodded, and Yasenia's eyes opened wide. She looked at her mother emotionally, and Tatyana smiled gently, "I have to prepare good resources for our future children, right?"

Yasenia directly threw herself in her embrace, “Waaah, I love mommy the most!”

Tatyana smiled and kissed the forehead of her little treasure. “I have yet to give you what I got from the dragons for you, and you already are crying with happiness. What to do with you, little treasure?”

Yasenia just buried her head in her mother’s bosom as her tail coiled around Tatyana.

Before Tatyana, our dragoness will always remain a little girl, extremely happy to get things from her and extremely happy even to be lightly praised by her.

Chapter 149

The others also got enlightened.

‘Mommy Tatyana is right! I have to prepare something for my children with Yasenia! Maybe some children’s books about learning formations? I can teach them from a young age through games!’

‘What to do... Should I forge something in the future? But I don’t want to spoil them... Ah! I know; I must create a technique that replicates Yasenia’s sword! That way, I will be able to give them growing equipment! I’m fired up!’

‘I should save all my battle techniques and ways of evolving them to advise with my current perspective in the future. Our children must be the strongest so that they can protect themselves!’

‘I can’t do anything special... Maybe I should try another profession? Since Kali is excellent in alchemy... Should I become a spirit tailor? But there aren’t classes in the Academy for that... However, I’m quite deft with my hands; I always make Yasenia moan, massaging her peerless tits!’

‘Their children? Do they have a way to become pregnant that I don’t know about? However, Yasenia’s children... Why do I find it absolutely adorable? Seeing a mini Yasenia... I may as well die of cuteness. I should research pills to help children’s development... Just in case.’

Tatyana suddenly looked at the horizon of the snowy landscape. The high-ranked phoenixes also looked over.

The Phoenix had 57 sixth-ranked Phoenix, with the leading couple on the verge of entering the seventh rank. Both of them appeared beside Tatyana in human form, a handsome man and woman of ethereal beauty and elegance. The woman asked, “Little Tatyana, are you sure we don’t have to begin retreating? I can feel a lot of Demon Monarchs; there are at least 90. One of them is on the verge of advancing to peak Demon Monarch.”

Tatyana said, “We are defending, so with the help of the formation, we should be able to resist until reinforcements arrive... Well, I don’t really know how strong your formation is.”

The Phoenix Matriarch said, “It should last for a while; I’m also not sure since we haven’t been attacked for a lot of time...”

Tatyana frowned slightly, but her face returned to normal right after. ‘How could you not know the defensive capacities of your own formation? Is she still hiding things when I’m here helping her? You are lucky I have something to gain from this, or I would have left.’

The Phoenix Matriarch said, “By the way, little Tatyana, I can’t feel your cultivation level... Are you using a technique or something?”

Tatyana smirked but didn’t answer. ‘To think that the technique is strong enough to confuse her... The technique must be nearing the Supreme rank, Lucky~.’

Tatyana said, looking at one of the phoenix elders. “I hope grandpa Feng Guoshi can stay beside Yasenias and protect her.”

Feng Yuan’s father, Feng Guoshi, nodded. “Don’t worry, child; your chick will be fine with me.”

Tatyana nodded and said, “If you protect my little treasure well enough, I will think about letting your son alive.”

His football-sized eyes locked onto Tatyana, and then bowed his head, “Thank you, I will protect her with my life.”

Tatyana nodded, satisfied, ‘What is revenge in front of absolute protection for my little treasure? A little Phoenix isn’t worth endangering Yasenias.’

Yasenias looked up from Tatyana’s arms, wanting to speak, but sighed, “I’m sure mom is thinking the best for me. I will just let it be....”

Tatyana kissed Yasenias’s forehead and smiled, proud that she could make that decision and leave hatred apart. The Phoenix matriarch said, impressed. “A young dragon that can honestly let go of her hatred. Little Tatyana, you raised her well.”

Tatyana smiled and scratched Yasenias under her chin, “But of course~ My little treasure is the most beautiful~.”

Grrr~.

“You like it here, right~.”

Grrrrr~.

Even if it wasn’t the time nor the moment, the mama phoenixes around got jealous! ‘I also want a daughter like that! I want a cuddly daughter like that!!’

The Patriarch said, “Eira, prepare yourself. They are already here.”

The Matriarch stopped looking at Yasenias with a cough and said, “Boreas, this will be a hard fight, don’t hold back.”

Before the flock of phoenixes, a mass of demons appeared on the expansive snowy landscape, hiding the white floor and sky with their numbers. Howls of different demons resounded as creatures of all sizes and colors advanced from air and land.

In front of the mass of more than 100 million demons, 100 demons that had especially strong auras flew. The leading demon, Horux, spoke with a rumbling voice, making avalanches fall from nearby mountains. “Ice Phoenix Matriarch and Patriarch, if you deactivate the formation, we won’t have to slaughter and forcefully capture all of you! Surrender and thrive; resist and perish!”

The Ice Phoenix Matriarch and Patriarch appeared before the demon army in their Phoenix forms. With their sky-shrouding wingspan of 12 kilometers and the Sun behind them, they cast a shadow on a big part of the demon army. The Patriarch spoke with a voice that could freeze hell itself.

“Disgusting creature. Do you think that we, Ice Phoenix, are so gutless? We rather die than fall into demon hands!”

Horux shook his head, completely unfazed by the aura of the two phoenixes. “What a shame, and here I thought I could add a high-level phoenix to my breeders.”

The Matriarch sneered, “An ant wanting to have intercourse with me? It seems that the intelligence of demons has dropped sharply over the years. Retreat before you meet your end; we are not as helpless as you think.”

At that moment, Tatyana appeared between the demon army and the phoenixes. Even if she was the smallest, the same couldn’t be said for her aura. Her aura unfurled and washed over all the demons. Her voice echoed with a regal tone, “Foolish creatures, you decided to target someone loved by this Eminence. Retreat, and live on, fight... And become part of my army!”

The demons felt like a dense wave of energy washed over them, making some Demon Monarchs feel like an enormous weight pressed on their backs, forcing some to descend to the snowy ground, unable to maintain flight.

Horux looked at Tatyana directly, trying to measure her strength. However, he couldn’t, ‘Red-eyed, long black hair, otherworldly beauty, and an imposing death and fate aura... She should be Tatyana, the headmistress of the Academy. Why can’t I measure her strength...? A technique? It must be.’

Tatyana concentrated her current aura release on Horux, making him feel constricted. “Have you finished trying to analyze me? Since you found nothing, speak.”

Horux acted calm and laughed, “Why are you so sure I found nothing? However, are you sure you want to fight us? I think we make better allies than them.”

Tatyana smiled disdainfully, “I know it because you are still standing before me. Moreover, ally with you? Do you think I don’t know what you were trying to do? That little succubus spilled everything quite fast, hahaha! To be fair, not many can resist the agony of dying continuously in different manners for a long time.”

The previous Succubus Queen appeared beside Horux; she chuckled mischievously and said, adding seduction skills to her voice, “I say, could you let my great-great granddaughter free? I would looove~ If she could return to my side~.”

Tatyana looked at her, completely unfazed, “Cheap tactics inferior to that of a sex slave. If that technique was supposed to make your voice enticing, I might as well have sex with a rock; it would be more pleasurable than to do it with you.”

Before the Succubus Queen could retort, Horux yelled, “Shut up! Is that cheap woman that important to interrupt our conversation? Retreat!”

Horux looked at Tatyana and said, "I will ask one last time, Tatyana. Do you truly want to become our enemy? We don't fear making your Academy the first target when the main forces come!"

Tatyana chuckled and moved her hand, summoning a humanoid... thing. Since Horux and the others didn't feel much energy, they didn't move and let it appear. The humanoid figure that emerged was gruesome, to say the least.

The general form was that of a succubus, but her flesh was rotting and regrowing constantly; her lower two orifices had heated poles with a thigh-width buried that sent painful energy waves inside of her. Her lower part was so deformed because of them that she didn't appear like a woman anymore. The worst thing was that the Succubus... Or what remained of her, was convulsing, clearly awake, and feeling all that pain even now.

Tatyana looked at the Succubus Queen and said, imitating her previous tone, "I say~, you wanted your progeny, right? Here she is. Isn't she niicely~ groomed?"

Behind the Demon Monarchs, the mother of the succubus couldn't process what she was seeing. Still, when she understood that the thing brutally impaled and rotting was her only daughter, something snapped, and she went crazy, "YOU FUCKING WHORE HOW DARE YOU DO THAT TO MY DAUGHTER!? I'M GOING TO-"

"Die."

After Tatyana spoke that word, the world laws seemed to bent just with the strength of her voice. Without anything fancy happening, the succubus duchess froze, and then she fell to the ground, dead.

This time, Horux opened his eyes wide, 'Her voice carried world laws! Impossible, only Demigods or Law Creator realm cultivators can do this!'

Horux frowned and asked, "Have you entered the Law Creator realm? You shouldn't be able to do so on this continent! The energy purity isn't high enough! Moreover, only 1500 years ago, you were just at the eighth level of the Transcendence realm! Even if you were strong, you couldn't manipulate world laws!"

Tatyana looked at the twenty-meter-tall demon and opened her mouth one last time. "Surrender, and live; Resist, and live for eternity under my command. Choose."

The Phoenix Matriarch and Patriarch didn't speak. For them, it would be ideal if the fight was avoided.

Horux and the Succubus Queen returned to the demon ranks. Time slowed as they communicated through soul communication. Horux asked, "Do you think she is in the Law Creator Realm?"

Another Demon King said with a ridiculing tone, "Are you suggesting that she is a demigoddess? She would have killed all of us if she was in that realm."

The succubus Queen didn't want to go without fighting, so she said, "She is probably at the peak of the Transcendence realm and has seen some insights from the next realm. We shouldn't worry."

Another Demon Queen nodded along, "I also think so; getting this mountain will be extremely useful for us."

One Demon King said something that interested all of them, “Lord Jurtok would be delighted if we manage to capture Tatyana. Isn’t he addicted to red-eyed women?”

Horux nodded, “Reasonable.”

Only a second passed when their communication ended, and all the Demon Monarchs blinked into the air and unfurled their aura at full strength. The space seemed to inflate with their combined auras and exploded powerfully, carrying all that strength toward the phoenix flock.

Tatyana looked with a raised eyebrow, ‘They didn’t retreat?’

All the phoenixes screeched and summoned the formation. A blue and white semitransparent dome enveloped the main mountain and blocked the aura attack of the Demon Monarchs.

BOOOOM!!

What followed was a catastrophic explosion that made the ground tremble and the clouds disperse. Horux commanded, “Change of plans, the thirty strongest Demon Monarchs come with me and attack the headmistress, send ten for each of the phoenix leaders, and the rest resist against the other sixth-ranked phoenixes. When we or the other groups deal with their target, we will join all of you.”

Chapter 150

Horux commanded, “Change of plans, the thirty strongest Demon Monarchs come with me and attack the headmistress, send ten for each of the phoenix leaders, and the rest resist against the other sixth-ranked phoenixes. We will join all of you when the other groups or we deal with their target.”

Meanwhile, Yasenia and the rest saw all of this unfolding from a safe distance, protected mainly by Anna, Eve, and Feng Guoshi in his phoenix form. Feng Guoshi hummed, “So three main battlefields, Tatyana’s, our leaders’, and the rest...”

Seeing thirty of those overpowering demons floating in front of Tatyana, Yasenia asked, frowning, “Will Mom be ok? Those are thirty Demon Monarchs, right?”

Anna and Eve floated beside her and patted her with gentle smiles. Anna said. “Look closely, young miss. Lady Tatyana will have to use some of her real strength to overcome this. This will be the first time Lady Tatyana uses her strength in public since she returned from the Ancient Tomb.”

Yasenia and the rest were eager and scared to see Tatyana fight. However, they didn’t know that not only Tatyana’s fight but this whole event they were about to witness would change their perspective of the world and become one hurdle to overcome.

All the Transcendence level experts flew high into the air, almost disappearing from the sights of the cultivators below.

These actions marked the beginning of the battle of demons against phoenixes and the war in which Tatyana’s might will become clear to the other powers.

Without waiting anymore, the two Kilometric Ice Phoenix leaders flapped and charged mercilessly toward the mass of lower-level demons with absurd speed, with the intent of destroying them.

However, as Horux commanded, twenty Demon Monarchs appeared in front of them, with weapons of various forms and sizes already out. Eira’s and Boreas’ eyes flashed coldly as they extended their giant wings, coming to an abrupt stop that seemed to break the laws of motion, “[Eternal Ice Age].”

They used their previous enormous momentum to channel the skill simultaneously and sent a titanic wave of Ice energy in front of them. The energy waves covered Hundreds of kilometers in width!

The Demons activated different defensive skills, creating shields, domes, walls, and other defensive measures in front of the army. Attack and defense collided in a catastrophic explosion that changed the surroundings.

However, the demons managed to stop the energy waves from decimating a big part of their army. Then they charged with their weapons toward Eira and Boreas.

Five of them raised their sword, summoning giant phantom fire and magma swords that dwarfed Eira and Boreas and lowered them, leaving only scorched air behind.

Eira and Boreas used their wing to slice toward them fearlessly while a domain expanded from them, enveloping the whole battlefield with a snowstorm. The wings and weapons collided, exploding violently, and making space tremble. The scorch marks disappeared instantly, showcasing the absurd regeneration factor of the phoenix race.

The other fifteen Demon Monarchs unfurled their scorching domains, fighting off against Boreas' and Eira's. Domains crashed, and they literally divided the entire battlefield, creating an area with a snowstorm behind the Phoenix and a burning landscape behind the Demon Monarchs.

Eira's voice echoed with a bone-chilling tone, "Now that greetings are exchanged, let's take it seriously. [Protection Of The Great Ice Phoenix Ancestor]." Eira's phoenix body became covered in crystal blue armor, giving her an imposing and profound presence, as stable as a mountain.

Boreas also used his own elemental coat. "[Offensive Of The Great Ice Phoenix Ancestor]" His wings started to burn with blue flames, and his presence became bigger manifold, washing over the Demon Monarchs.

The Demons weren't left behind as they summoned their advanced elemental coats, making their group's presence soar and become on par with the two peak-level phoenixes.

Eira and Boreas initiated the assault, charging directly into the twenty Demons with their enormous body. The demons sent countless fire projectiles, and Eira flashed before Boreas, tanking all of them.

BOOM!* BOOM! BOOM! *BOOM!

The sky got engulfed with the scorching explosions, but right after, a titanic wind gale blew everything away, revealing Eira's pristine armor and body. Boreas didn't lose the chance and was already on top of the Demons, shrouding them with his shadow.

He flapped his wings, and a sky full of blue flames seemed to fall over the Demons. Most of them used defensive measures again, and Eira ignored Boreas' attack, charging directly in. BANG!

Eira rammed six Demon Monarchs, sending them flying hundred of kilometers backward. The ones that blocked Boreas' recent attack turned and used their skills, sending myriad phantom attacks toward her. BOOM!

Eira's giant body flew back, but she was practically unhurt, thanks to her resilient body and armor. Her regeneration kicked in before she even realized she had been hurt. With a single flap of her wings, she came to a stop and recovered. Then, she charged in again, her voice reverberating with battle intent. “THIS ONLY TICKLES ME, DEMONS!”

BAAANG!

Eira’s giant body sent even more demons flying back with broken bones. This way, Eira harassed them from a melee range, and Boreas kept sending devastating attacks toward them. Then, they started moving at excessive speeds and clashed, making explosions reverberate around continuously.

The shockwaves were literally land-changing, but thankfully they fought high in the air, avoiding damage to the ground. Not because they were nature friendly, but because everyone feared retaliation from the heavens for destroying too much land.

Meanwhile, the place where the 55 ice phoenixes fought against the 50 Demon Monarchs was mainly dominated by the strength of the phoenixes.

Even if demons were stronger than their human or beast-human counterparts, they were attacking a high-ranking beast right now! Beasts are always stronger than their humanoid counterpart. However, they are always a lot less intelligent. Therefore, the battle is normally in favor of the humanoid cultivator.

However, this changes when they reach the Legendary realm (Sixth Rank) or are descendants of one Legendary beast. Their intelligence becomes as high as a humanoid’s, yet their physical advantages remain. The only reason that beasts don’t rule all the continents is that reaching the Legendary realm is very hard for beasts, not to mention further, because the tribulation is stronger than normal.

An explosion echoed around.

BOOOM!

High up in the sky, the two groups exchanged ice, fire, magma, and wind attacks. The attacks and defense were coordinated from both sides, only leaving some small apertures for the phoenixes to deal damage. One of the male Elders ordered, “Maintain them occupied! Let’s see what they do when we deploy the battle formation!”

Unlike normal formations, battle formations needed people as a base. They could be used in battle after the ones doing it practiced it for a very long time. The effects were varied and could make a group’s strength rise a lot.

However, the same as formations, it wasn’t widely used in lower ranks because of the complexity. Not only do you need an extremely strong mind, but you must also memorize extremely delicate energy flows.

After some minutes of back and forth, the phoenixes managed to force most of the Demons to the middle of them, and that elder chanted, “Chilling the air and freezing the world unyieldingly. [Winter Ballade Battle Formation]!”

All the phoenixes’ speed increased and moved into action, attacking the Demons that weren’t still in the middle. Their giant bodies left the demons helpless and forced them to gather in the middle.

However, the Succubus Queen leading the group didn't seem too preoccupied and ordered aloud, "Get out of the battle formation!"

However, the speed of the phoenixes increased yet again, and they became a blue blur that was speeding around them. The Demons gasped as they saw a titanic hurricane of wind, ice, and spatial energies surrounding them. Worse, from the vortex, countless attacks rained on them, creating an absolute death zone.

The demons instantly tried to charge outside the battle formation. But when they tried, they were tackled by the phoenixes inside of it again, receiving serious bludgeoning damage.

The Succubus Queen tsked and began giving orders, "Let's show these birds hell! Use the [Fire Demon Emperor formation]!"

They began putting themselves in position, but the phoenixes weren't letting them! The Succubus Queen looked toward one of the weaker Demon Kings and said mercilessly, "Buy time."

The Demon King didn't even blink as he charged toward the vortex without caring about anything else. When They were about to tackle him again, he smiled crazily and chanted, "[Self Explosion]!"

The Phoenix charging toward him, opened her eyes and placed her wings in the front, using all the defensive spells she could. Layers upon layers of ice covered the space between the demon and the Phoenix, but...

BBBOOOOOOMM!!!!

The demon inflated and exploded instantly, creating a giant fire sphere that consumed all the Phoenix defenses! The explosion landed on the Phoenix, her wings completely charred, and she was sent backward, crashing through the [Winter Ballade Battle Formation], destabilizing it.

In the time that the explosion rocked the formation, the remaining forty-nine Demon Monarch placed themselves, creating the outline of a winged humanoid creature, and unfurled their auras. The Succubus Queen chanted, "Show our foes your might, oh great Emperor, and consume the world with your burning rage! [Fire Demon Emperor formation]."

The auras of the Demons solidified, forming the creature's silhouette, and then their aura skyrocketed.

BOOM!

Their auras spread, filling the silhouette of a red phantom demon of 40km in height in the middle of the vortex. It had a pair of wings that dwarfed Eira and Boreas and wore an imposing black armor. Moreover, It held a 30km demonic red sword with a fire burning through the whole length, spreading scorching temperatures around.

The phoenixes accelerated even more, trying to damage the enormous demon that had just appeared. However, to the phoenixes' dismay, their attacks literally burnt before even reaching the giant demon! Then, the demon swung his sword, igniting the sky with it.

WOOSH!

BOOOM!

The enormous fire wave dispersed the hurricane, sending all Ice Phoenixes flying backward with badly burnt bodies. This was just a single sword swing! Nonetheless, this formation only left them to make three attacks with this strength. More than that, they would all die because of the backlash.

After the vortex was destroyed, sending the Phoenix flying hundreds of kilometers away. The Giant Demon disappeared and reappeared before the formation. Then, it swung its sword toward the blue dome at full strength.

Yasenia and the rest saw the enormous sword crashing against the formation with a giant explosion.

BOOOOM!

CRRRACK!!

The formation bent and cracked everywhere as the explosion shook the earth, opening fissures all around that spurted magma. The sword swing was so strong that the snowstorm created by Eira and Boreas completely dispersed around the Demon Emperor.

The phoenixes recovered fast and charged toward the giant demon fearlessly; they couldn't let that demon destroy the formation protecting the rest of the phoenixes!

However, their faces despaired because they weren't able to reach! All they could do was watch as the demon made a second swing at full strength!

BOOOOM!

Another explosion occurred, rocking the world. But thankfully, it was completely absorbed by the formation before it was obliterated. Then, CRASH! The formation shattered like glass! It only could receive two sword strikes from the phantom Demon Emperor!

However, after those three strikes, the Demon Monarch couldn't maintain the battle formation any longer. The Succubus Queen smirked and said, "Channel all your energy; let's make the formation explode and cook some chickens!"

The demon began inflating, and the sixth-ranked phoenixes used that time window to appear before the unguarded mortal cultivators.

After ballooning, the demon burst into a catastrophic fire nova that consumed everything around it. The sky changed colors as the nova advanced, consuming the surroundings in a world of scorching flames!
