

Heaven 301

Chapter 301: Shift in the World's fate. Leaving in search of the Fox!

Like that, without any more twists and turns, one of the legends of the World cut her Fate from the World's destiny, disappearing and leaving behind a legend.

However, unknown to Yasenia and Angel, her disappearance had an enormous effect on the World's destiny, changing it drastically.

The enormous shift in Fate was so big that strong Fate users around the Universe felt the change.

In an enormous gold and jade palace, a handsome middle-aged man sitting on a throne frowned, "How is this possible? The Heaven's truth Saint disappeared? She should have found and guided her inheritor, not disappeared like that. Did something go wrong? I have to send the Heaven Army to investigate."

Shortly after, millions of cultivators above the Transcendence Realm dispersed through the realms, searching for cues.

Inside a hidden misty place in the corner of the Universe, a woman was sitting on her knees above a rock. Her surroundings couldn't be perceived because of the mist covering everything in that World. When the shit in Fate happened, she opened her eyelids, only to reveal a pair of completely white eyes. She lifted her head and asked aloud, her voice sounding innocent yet having a deep feeling of mysteriousness in it. "Sister disappeared? Why? She wasn't supposed to disappear."

The woman looked down and said sadly, "I haven't been able to meet with her since then, and now, she has banished."

In a world filled with clouds and sunlight, a man so beautiful he would eclipse the Sun flapped his three pairs of snow-white wings once. His body disappeared and appeared millions of kilometers away. He looked toward the infiniteness of the Universe and said, his voice Angelical and melodic. "To think that the Heaven's Truth Saint met her end. Things will get messy in the future. We must prepare and not let those filthy creatures gain more power in the chaotic times about to come."

In an arid world, where the sky was red and the temperature so hot that mortal-level cultivators would die from heat, a woman that could make people die from a single glance smiled. Her smile was so beautiful that it had no match; calling her the most beautiful woman wouldn't be an exaggeration. "That woman died~. Things are getting interesting~."

However, her beauty was such that two of her retainers literally stopped breathing and died from energy deviation when they looked at her smile. "Oops, they died from excitement because of my smile. What a blunder, fufufu~." Her voice didn't lose with her appearance, being able to charm anything and anyone.

Like that, countless Fate-attributed cultivators felt a big change in the whole cultivation world's future. However, there was another cultivator who also felt the shift clearly thanks to her monstrous talent and comprehension abilities. Even if she was weaker, she could also feel it clearly.

In the Sky continent, a red-eyed Empress overlooking her expanding Empire frowned, "A big change in the course of Fate just happened. Who provoked it? I should speed up things and gain strength faster, or else I won't be able to protect my little Treasure. Things are moving forward a little faster than anticipated."

She looked at the Demon city being overrun by a literal wave of Undead and got thoughtful as she saw the Undead slaughtering the living. "Maybe it is time to return to the Underworld. I will need Teacher's strength shortly. I also have to expand my army... Well, let's begin with this city."

The black-haired woman slashed toward the city as she commanded, her voice carrying the dreaded law of Death. "[Perish]."

A wave of death energy flooded the entire city, and a unified scream from most Demons and many other creatures allied with them followed, dying in the next moment.

"Fufu~, hearing screams of despair as their life leaves their bodies never gets boring. Jing Yue, finish them; we've already conquered the North with this city, and they have no more utility."

"But Empress, weren't we going to spare the lives of the royal family?"

"Yeah, but I changed my mind. We will leave an Undead as the head of the city. We shall conquer the West next!"

"As fast and ruthless as always, Empress, one month and we've already conquered a quarter of the Sky Continent."

"What conquer? I'm reclaiming what was originally mine. I've let them dance enough. Now it is time to get back what was mine all along... Hmm? Ugh, those pest Long and Tang are courting death again. How many times did I already save them during this month? Little Treasure, come back fast, or your opponents will die by themselves!"

A man wearing regal clothes and with ghostly green eyes and white hair appeared beside them. "Empress, the Star Empire is besieging the Glassheart family, I've controlled the situation, but I want to know what to do next."

The red woman's eyes opened, and then her aura burst outward, warping the space around her.

"How dare they attack my dear daughter's in-laws! What if they get a bad impression of her because of that!? Destroy! Destroy the Star Empire!"

The man coughed and said, "Empress, isn't that rash...?"

"What rash!? Send Tian Long! Raze that place to the ground!"

Anyway, leaving aside the reckless Death Empress massacring millions daily for her conquest-

"What reckless!? I may be crazy, but I'm not reckless! I know very well what I'm doing!"

I was about to refocus on Yasenia. Could you let me talk?

"Oh. Sure, go ahead."

Cough.

ANYWAY, unaware that she had caused such a big commotion in the World, Yasenia sighed in relief after Fu Jing Jing disappeared. 'Finally, everything came to a conclusion.'

Yasenia turned toward the red-haired mature, tall Angel and said, "Mirror, I hope you are happy with this outcome. Will you can help Angel seriously or not?"

The Mirror looked at her sideways and then disappeared inside Angel. Yasenia frowned but suddenly heard. "I wanted to do that since the beginning, stupid lizard."

Yasenia's eyebrow twitched in annoyance. 'Stupid lizard? Heh, you did this to yourself, so don't blame me.'

"Angel dear, how about you give a name to the Mirror? Calling it mirror this Mirror that can be bothersome, right?"

Angel nodded and said, "What about Mirry? Like little Mirror."

The red-haired Mirror appeared outside and said with a horrified face, "Absolutely not! Mirry!? I'm not a pet or animal!"

An evil smile appeared on Yasenia's face as she said, "Oh~, don't overreact. It is not bad at all!"

The Mirror looked at Yasenia's smile, and something clicked in her mind. However, it was too late to stop the next sentence. "I think that it is a wonderful name~. I like it a lot."

Angel smiled and said, "Good! Then I will call her Mirry from now on."

The Mirror, or now Mirry, looked at Yasenia angrily and shouted, "Stupid lizard, I'm going to remember this!"

Then, it disappeared inside Angel again.

Yasenia internally snickered, 'That's what you get~.'

After resolving everything related to Angel, Yasenia felt her chest somewhat lighten. The weight of something happening while she was away was beginning to press on her, but now her little girl was beside her, safe and sound and stronger than ever.

Still, she didn't completely relax as Kali was still a mystery.

Yasenia and Angel left that place in search of Kali. Angel didn't forget storing the [Heaven Refining Crystal Mattress] inside her ring. However, Mirry talked to her and said, "Don't use the ring. You can store things inside me. I'm infinitely bigger than that low-quality thrash thing." Angel asked, "Will I be able to take things out fast as I do with the ring?"

Mirry snorted in Angel's head, "Are you underestimating me? With me, it will be instantaneous, with zero delays."

Angel trusted the Mirror, so she transferred everything inside her ring into it.

Yasenia saw it and suggested, "How about ordering her never to mess with your items?"

Mirry was about to complain, but Angel smiled and said, "Don't worry, Yasenia. I trust her! Although she did some bad things, I feel I can really trust her. Moreover, she will be my companion probably for the rest of my life, so trusting her is a matter of course!"

Mirry's form was floating inside Angel's spiritual sea. When she heard Angel, she blinked twice and then smiled. 'Silly brat.'

Yasenia also smiled and said, "Do as you see fit. I'm sure it will be the correct option."

They met with a group of cultivators when they left the ruined area from the Ritual and battle. One of them approached and questioned, "If I'm not wrong, you should be the Heavenly Dragoness."

Yasenia looked at the tall human man with Earth golems behind and nodded, "Do we know each other?"

The man frowned and said, "Don't you remember the person you tricked into trying the Gate trial for you?"

Yasenia blinked, unable to remember. "I'm sorry, but I don't."

Angel was surprised and said, "Yasenia, he is the one you seduced to try if pills worked on the Gates."

Yasenia frowned for a second and then remembered, "Ah! You are that man!"

The man nodded and said, scratching his head awkwardly. "Could you tell me if there is something worth inside there? You know... As compensation or something for using me as a meat shield."

Yasenia chuckled and nodded, "Sure. I can tell you that you won't find anything useful there unless you are a glass cultivator. There are only ruins of a ritual and very pure Glass energy. There is not much more there. You maybe can find materials for forging, but I'm honestly not sure."

The man got thoughtful. Yasenia looked at his weapon and saw a middle-level Earth-ranked weapon. 'Hmm, I remember having quite a good opinion of him. It was because he wasn't angry at me after what I did, right? Even though he had all the right to get mad, he controlled himself and moved on... I should give him something.'

Yasenia took a low-level Heaven-ranked hammer from her ring and threw it to him. The man caught it instinctively and asked, "What's this?"

Yasenia smirked, "Your new weapon. That weapon you are holding is already somewhat old. How about getting a new one?"

The man frowned, "I don't think I can afford it."

Yasenia chuckled, "It's free. Please take it as my thanks for becoming my meat shield. This way, there will be no more beef between us. What do you say?"

The man was surprised and then sighed. "My grandpa was right. Women as beautiful as you are like a rose. Beautiful from the outside, but filled with thorns."

He shook his head and left with the hammer. Yasenia and Angel blinked, surprised at his comment, and then laughed aloud. Angel smirked and teased, "Yasenia, you truly are like that!"

Yasenia smiled, "Am I? You will have to be careful, Angel~."

Angel snorted, "What careful? You wouldn't hurt me!"

Yasenia's smile became smaller for a second, 'Depending on how you take my story; I may hurt you, Angel...'

She recovered fast and said, "Let's go find Kali. We don't have any clues, so we should search around the forest and see if our communication devices react."

Angel looked at Yasenia for a second, 'Why did she become sad for a moment? Hmm, something happened. Will she tell us when we are together? If not, I will ask her then.'

They ignored the curious cultivators that looked at both of them as they left and reassumed their journey. Yasenia called Kali, Evelyn, Cecile, and Andrea one more time, and besides Kali, she had good news.

Evelyn, Andrea, and Cecile had finished their business and had already begun their journey to reunite with Yasenia. All of them had had monstrous gains during this month, becoming much stronger.

They all were quite eager to reunite with their dear dragoness and cure their current disease. Lack of Yasenium!

They used the night sky and other landmarks as a guide to get closer. Yasenia was extremely formidable in star reading, so she could more or less guess in which direction each of them was. As all of them communicated with the devices and used the night sky and other methods, they got closer to each other.

Chapter 302: Finding Kali, Valeria's change.

Even if the others were moving toward Yasenia, they would need some days of travel to reach her. The secret realm was honestly gigantic, to the point that even though millions had entered, you could only spot groups of five, ten, or twenty from time to time.

Believing that Kali wouldn't wander too far off, Yasenia and Angel didn't search for her outside the forest. They decided to circle the area, using the communication devices as a radar to find her.

While Yasenia and Angel walked around the forest, Angel got curious and began asking some questions. "Yasenia, I have some questions..."

Yasenia looked at Angel, and seeing her serious little face, she stopped running and looked at her. "What's wrong, Angel?"

Angel's face became strange, and she asked a little awkwardly, "W-Why did you stop calling me baby?"

Yasenia was instantly stumped, 'Right, why did I stop?'

Yasenia sighed and smiled, caressing Angel's head softly. "I don't know. It has been so long that... Sigh. Sorry, you are my precious little girl. How could I not be calling you baby, right?"

Angel blinked and said, "But it has only been two weeks. You are acting really strange. Are you okay, Yasenia? Do you want to rest?"

Yasenia felt the dissonance from those twenty years hitting her harshly, 'Two weeks... It has only been two weeks.'

Yasenia hugged Angel closer to her and surrounded her with her arms and long tail. Angel basically disappeared into Yasenia's embrace. Angel was surprised and hugged her back. She could feel clear distress from their newly acquired connection. Angel patted Yasenia's back and said, "There, there. Everything is okay."

Yasenia felt her heart squeezing and kissed Angel's head, "Yes. Now that you are here, everything is okay. I will tell you about it when we all reunite, okay, baby?"

Angel smiled at Yasenia's natural way of calling her and nodded, rubbing against those soft mounds. "Okay. It feels really good to know how you feel through the connection!"

Yasenia chuckled softly and separated slightly to look at Angel's face, "Does it? Are you happy about it?"

Angel's smile bloomed like a beautiful flower, and she nodded happily, "En! I really like it!"

Yasenia kissed her softly. "You are like a healing medicine, baby. I love you, I really do. With all my heart."

Our baby blushed and dove right inside those mounds again, sniffing Yasenia's relaxing floral scent.

After having some more cuddles together, Angel didn't insist anymore on Yasenia's strangeness and spoke about what happened to her after she left the town. Yasenia listened attentively, trying to guess where Kali would go after helping Angel to enter the Trial. Yasenia concluded, "She must have gone to search for wild flora. She seemed very interested in collecting plants along the way."

Angel exclaimed, "Smart! Should we find her tracks around the Ritual area?"

Yasenia shook her head, "The battle between Saintess Fu Jing Jing and me must have destroyed any tracks in the surroundings. I would be able to find her scent trail if I remember it... But it is really fuzzy in my memories. However, I'm sure that if I get a whiff, I will perfectly remember about it."

One whole day went by as they searched for Kali.

In the afternoon of that same day, Yasenia's communication device suddenly vibrated, 'Did I find her?'

Yasenia and Angel followed the signal. When they reached in front of a cave entrance made of roots, Yasenia's nose twitched and picked up a lingering aroma. 'Soft, like recently cut grass, and like recently watered earth. This is Kali's scent without a doubt.'

Yasenia's face brightened, and she said, "Follow me, baby. I picked up something."

Yasenia shot forward, and Angel ran behind her. What impressed them both was the paths they had to follow. The cave system under the trees was complex, filled with twists and turns, and with bifurcations almost every one hundred meters. Not only that, Angel picked up hidden entrances, borrows, and nests between the root walls.

If it wasn't because Yasenia's aura practically making every creature cower in fear, they could have been attacked plenty of times by now.

Were it not because the devices were set on linear distance, Yasenia wouldn't have been able to find this place. She calculated that although they had been moving for almost five minutes, they hadn't advanced a whole lot overall-position-wise.

However, with the help of the device, Angel's spiritual sense, and Yasenia's keen sense of smell, they found the correct exit.

When they exited the root caves, a place worthy of being called a paradise appeared before them. Without them knowing, they have been going lower and lower into the underground. And now, they were in a place where you could see the trees' roots hanging on the ceiling and natural light emanating from them.

The lake wasn't very big, with just five hundred meters from shore to shore. However, it was a beautiful sight to look at. Colorful trees, flowers, plants, and other vegetation surrounded the mirror-like lake.

Moreover, exotic plant-based life surrounded this water body. The creatures were extremely varied, and some Yasenia didn't even know they existed. A walking flower, a human-like cactus, a dress-wearing man-eating plant. The variety was spectacular.

All of them were looking at the center of it, observing the ongoing spectacle.

Yasenia and Angel followed their gaze to the middle of the lake, and there they saw her.

A fox woman was seated cross-legged on the middle of the lake, with a three-meter-tall voluptuous green lady sitting the same way in front of her. Below them, a lotus leaf maintained them afloat as tendrils of water danced around them, pink lotuses blossoming around them.

However, Both women had a big difference compared to the past.

Valeria was the same three-meter-tall voluptuous lady, but her normal green hair was now laced with flowers. It complemented her long floral dress and disposition, making her look like a flower spirit.

The plain wooden staff she normally summoned was floating at the side, more complex than before. Her previously green skin was now lighter, and her aura was incomparably deeper and stronger.

On the other side, Kali had a change Yasenia didn't expect.

Beside the fox tail, there was another!

Her chestnut-colored hair had a reddish glow, and the light green fur on her two tails was more fluffy and soft-looking. However, from what Yasenia remembered, the biggest change was her scars.

They were still there, but now they were the same color as her skin, a healthy rosy color.

They weren't terrifying anymore. Even though they were still somewhat strange, it wouldn't scare people just looking at her face. Moreover, her aura was filled with life-attributed energy, and even the water plants around her were growing at visible speed thanks to it.

They blossomed, lost their petals, and then those petals were carried by their combined aura in a trip around them, beautifying the spectacle even more.

The visuals were extremely beautiful and mystical. It was as if Kali and Valeria were creating plant life around them with their presence alone.

At that moment, Kali's aura spread like a gentle wind, surrounding every creature present. It wasn't violent like other people's aura burst. No, it was as if someone was placing a warm blanket on you.

Yasenia and Angel felt their feelings relax as if a gentle mother cradled them in her embrace.

However, this only lasted for an instant as her aura took a wild turn.

Below them, the water spun, creating a whirlpool, leaving Kali and Valeria sitting on top of a plant-based platform.

Their aura changed and became extremely violent as if showing that Nature, even if gentle, could also be extremely devastating and powerful.

Both of them opened their eyes at the same time, and their auras skyrocketed!

All the life energy that had accumulated in the surroundings rushed toward the pair in the middle of the lake, increasing their cultivation to the next level.

And that level was the Unification Realm.

BOOOM!

A tide-like energy wave pushed the water and made the lake's bottom visible. Grey clouds appeared above Kali and Valeria, carrying terrifying lightning.

Yasenia was surprised, "She advanced into the Unification Realm!"

Angel said with a smile, "Hehe, I was first in reaching this realm~."

Yasenia gently looked at her and softly caressed her silky blonde hair. "My little Angel is extremely talented, after all."

Valeria and Kali stood on the plant platform and took out their weapons. A wooden sword and the coiling staff. Then, they looked at the clouds, and Kali softly called, "Come."

Lightning fell right after.

Yasenia observed the Tribulation and was impressed at how easily Kali faced it. However, she was also confused about why the Tribulation seemed so soft. It wasn't that Yasenia was too strong and saw the Tribulation as weak. No, the normal feeling of "Heaven's punishment" wasn't there.

The Tribulation to enter the Unification Realm had twenty-seven lightning bolts.

A single sword swing from Kali destroyed the lightning strikes from the first to the fifteenth.

The next five lightning strikes were blasted into energy particles by Valeria's one strike, and for the last seven, Valeria and Kali combined efforts and destroyed them or blocked them, barely using any skills.

It was as if the Heavens themselves allowed them to go to the next realm as if they wanted Kali to pass the Tribulation.

After that easy display, all the particles from the lightning tribulation rushed toward them. Yasenia saw Valeria waving her staff and redirecting that Heavenly Energy inside of Kali.

After that, their aura's increased one more time, reaching the next level.

Now, the aura explosion was a combination of both traits from Nature. It was a gentle wind that carried strength.

This time, Kali's body didn't have any more changes, but Valeria's was different.

The flowers on her hair multiplied in a stunning display of natural beauty. They interlocked, changed colors, and grew on top of her head, creating a crown made of exotic flowers. Her aura didn't become stronger but deeper, making Yasenia feel pressured. At that moment, Yasenia understood that until she broke through, she wouldn't be able to beat that three-meter-tall lady. She even doubted her winning chances after activating [Day and Night].

The [Golden Crown] had evolved and became a [Golden Flower Queen]!

After the Tribulation, Kali regained her senses and breathed out, feeling extremely refreshed.

She looked at Valeria with a smile. 'All of this thanks to Valeria for finding this spot.'

Suddenly, Valeria looked back at Kali, her green eyes with slit golden pupils radiating a soft light, "Mistress, congratulations on becoming stronger."

The other three women's mouths dropped open.

Chapter 303: Valeria's Identity.

Suddenly, Valeria looked back at Kali, her green eyes with slit golden pupils radiating a soft light, "Mistress, congratulations on becoming stronger."

The other three women's mouths dropped open.

Kali felt her heart beating faster in excitement and approached Valeria with eager steps. She didn't even realize Yasenia's and Angel's presence. She tripped over her words as she hastily asked, "You can finally talk? You can understand me?"

Valeria laughed softly and nodded. Then, she spoke with a mature and gentle voice, "Yes, Mistress. This evolution finally unlocked... Or, to put it better, it made me regain my sapience."

Kali blinked, confused. "Regain?"

Valeria smiled and said, "I've always wanted to say this, but my thoughts were muddled all the time..."

The three-meter-tall Valeria sat on her knees and hugged Kali into her embrace, "You've suffered, but I'm glad you found mistress Yasenia. I'm sorry I couldn't help you more when you were lost in grief. I will protect you from now on. As long as a single breath remains in me, no harm shall befall you anymore."

As she felt Valeria's warm body surrounding her, Kali's eyes watered, and tears spilled from her eyes. It felt like a mother was hugging her, filling her heart with love for the Flower Queen.

She hugged Valeria back and sobbed, "D-Don't say that. I-I could only hold against my Heart Demons because of you. Thank you, Valeria. Thank you for being with me."

On the sides, Yasenia was smiling happily, and Angel was also emotionally crying. They didn't interrupt and let them their moment.

Valeria looked at the crying woman and felt pain in her heart. "Don't worry, Mistress. With Yasenia and I, you will only feel happiness from now on."

Kali nodded and slowly relaxed. Valeria's scent was soothing and made the body feel pure comfort. If Yasenia's scent were powerful and made you tingle and feel good, Valeria's would seep deep into you and make your muscles relax. They were like polar opposites, but neither weaker than the other.

Kali squinted as her nose twitched, her whole body buried in the very tall woman's embrace. She felt so relaxed and protected between Valeria's arms that her eyes slowly closed, and she fell asleep shortly after.

Her mouth had a satisfied smile, and her two tails tightly clung to Valeria. Valeria didn't move for half an hour, and Yasenia and Angel waited patiently. Angel asked Yasenia in a low voice, "What did she mean about regaining her sapience?"

Yasenia thought about it and said, "I can guess that Valeria is more than a summon, but until we hear it from her, we can only guess. Let's wait until she comes to us and explains things herself." Angel nodded, agreeing with Yasenia.

Yasenia took the time to place Angel before her and slowly massaged her scalp. She had been doing this every moment she could, hoping it would help Angel's problem. Angel felt Yasenia's Yin energy seeping inside her mind, and her body loosened. Yasenia had to hold her up with her long tail, or Angel may have fallen to the ground.

The Mirror inside Angel felt her body twitching defensively, 'Angel, you are too trusting. Each time you do this, you allow Yasenia to mess with your mind as she likes.'

Angel answered with a mewl, "She can do what she wants~."

Yasenia heard Angel's soft sounds of comfort and chuckled. 'Although it isn't much, I think it really helps. I will be able to tackle the problem further when we dual cultivate.'

After Valeria felt that Kali was sleeping, she slowly picked Kali up, and their size difference made Kali look like a young child cradled in a loving embrace.

Valeria looked toward Yasenia's position and jumped gently from the flower platform. Her toes pushed her body forward gently, and her body floated through the sky and landed in front of Yasenia extremely softly. Kali didn't even feel the movement and kept sleeping soundly.

Yasenia looked up at Valeria, and the first thing she said was a thank you, "Thank you, Valeria. I managed to help your Mistress because you stalled her demons enough for me to appear. Your presence alone has been reassurance when dealing with her."

Valeria nodded and crouched down to pass Kali over to Yasenia; she could practically feel Yasenia's desire to hold Kali and look at her closely. However, Yasenia said, her tone calm and collected. "Help me carry her. She is so comfortable in your embrace that I don't dare move her too much."

Valeria smiled with gratefulness. She also wanted to carry her dear Mistress in her embrace. Yasenia asked, "What is this place? Not even the communication device could connect with this place. Only Kali's alchemy resonance fluid helped us reach here."

Valeria answered, "It is a [Life Spring Lake]. They appear only in areas isolated for thousands of years from all living beings besides plants."

Valeria explained further, "This one has been untouched since the creation of this secret realm, about nine hundred thousand years, so it was a tremendous strength boost for Kali and me. Kali couldn't absorb everything; else, she would have entered the Dantian Spiritualization Realm. Therefore, I absorbed everything she couldn't absorb to awaken."

Yasenia lifted an eyebrow, "How do you know? Something you want to share, dear Valeria~."

Valeria laughed, "You are as perceptive as always. As you should have guessed, I'm not a normal summon. I'm a Unique Summon. Unless my master makes me evolve two times, I won't awaken. But once I do, I remember all my previous memories from my multiple masters. However, you don't have to worry since I existed before becoming a summon. I'm myself, and my loyalty lays with Kali."

Yasenia thought for a moment, and then her eyes widened, "You are not a summon! You are..."

Valeria nodded, "Yes. I'm a spirit. The Spirit of Nature, to be exact."

Angel had also read about it and exclaimed, forgetting about the sleeping Kali, "No way! You are the Spirit Queen!?"

Valeria reacted quickly and created a sound barrier, avoiding waking Kali up because of Angel's shout. Angel saw Valeria's movements and placed her hands on her mouth, "Sorry."

Yasenia patted her, and the Spirit Queen chuckled. Then, she answered with a smile, "Don't worry, Angel. Answering your statement... Yes, some also call me that way. However, I'd prefer it if you called me Valeria. I really like the name Mistress gave me."

The dragoness said, "I'm sure she would like for you to call her Kali, tough."

Valeria thought about it and nodded. "You are right." Then said, "Give me a moment. We can continue speaking in a second. I have to do something."

They both nodded and observed her next action.

The Spirit Queen turned and looked at all the plant-based creatures, then commanded in a soft voice. "Come to me, children. It is time to leave this place. [Mother Nature's Paradise]."

After the Queen's command, all of the dryads, alraunes, treants, plant spirits, living vines, carnivore plants, and more bowed to Valeria in unison.

Then, a green pillar surrounded each of them and shot to the sky in an incomparably majestic spectacle. The plant creatures disintegrated slowly in those pillars and transformed into green seeds the size of a nail.

Those seeds floated in the air, giving a green glow and making the surroundings seem illuminated by the light of thousands of green stars. Valeria commanded one more time, "Gather."

The Queen ordered, and her subjects shall comply.

Tens those thousands of light-green lights rushed toward the Spirit Queen, creating green streaks wherever they passed. Those seeds fused with Valeria's floral dress and crown, becoming part of her dress, crown, and hair. Then, flowers blossomed all over her for a second.

It was as if Valeria's beauty bloomed at that moment, showing off a gentle-looking, surreal, but powerful figure.

Angel and Yasenia were impressed but didn't know what she did.

Therefore, after Angel was sure that Valeria had finished, she asked, "What did you do?"

Valeria said, her tone carrying a firm tone that was filled with so much killing intent that even Yasenia got a chill up her spine. "Gathering an army to protect my Mistress. They will have to go over my very soul if they want to abuse her again."

Yasenia and Angel remembered that the ten thousand plant creatures were all in the peak of the third realm. Now, Yasenia was 100% sure that she wouldn't be able to win against Valeria even if she used [Day and Night]. She had already fought against plenty of summoners stronger than her, and she understood the combat effectiveness it had when you were unable to reach the summoner.

No matter how she looked, Valeria was an absolute monster against those in the same realm. Moreover, it was almost certain that she had her own skills to summon, reinforce, and multiply them.

A one-woman army was a fair definition for Valeria.

Yasenia looked at Valeria and complimented, "It's good that you can gather so much strength just after awakening. I will be more relaxed if I know you are by her side. Let's go outside; the others should be arriving soon."

Angel looked back and forth between the two voluptuous women and gulped, 'Having the Spirit Queen and Yasenia as her protector... I pity those that want to go against Kali...'

A voice was heard in her head, 'Hmph, even the Spirit Queen would bow in my presence. You are not any less than that fox woman.'

Angel blinked and praised, 'Wow! Mirry, you are so powerful!'

Mirry's eyebrow twitched, 'Can you do something about that name? I don't like it.'

Angel thought and said, 'How about Mirrory?'

Angel heard a sigh, and the Mirror answered, 'Well, it is somewhat better. Mirrory it is.'

The little girl smiled happily since she could feel that she liked it much more than the previous one. Yasenia looked around and saw many high-level plants in the surroundings. She asked Valeria, "Can we take the spiritual plants in the area for Kali? They are all low to high-level Heaven-ranked spiritual herbs."

Valeria smirked, "I've already taken the most precious ones. I don't want to take everything since it would destroy this ecosystem. Who knows if someone in the future will also need this place?"

Yasenia didn't make a fuss, and they left that place. She was sure that this overprotective Spirit Queen wouldn't let something that would benefit Kali go.

Chapter 304: Innate Skills and Reunion! Finally together again. (1)

Yasenia, Angel, and Valeria holding the sleeping Kali, slowly walked out of that place. They didn't have any haste to do so, so they didn't use anything to walk out. Valeria guided them toward the surface through a flower path, much more beautiful than the root-cave system they had entered the last time.

This tunnel was only available if a life-attributed cultivator was in the group. Suppose someone like that didn't exist in the group, the plants in the tunnel would become aggressive and devour any intruder. Yasenia was curious and asked, "How strong are they?"

Valeria got thoughtful and said, "It would be similar to fighting a group of twenty third-rank beasts led by a fourth-rank one. Of course, you must add plant-based creatures' benefits and weaknesses. But it is a close enough comparison."

Yasenia hummed, "Not that strong. I thought it would be more."

Valeria laughed softly, "You have to look at it from a common cultivator's point of view."

Yasenia shook her head, "I disagree. I rather look at things from a prodigy point of view. That way, the worst that can happen is overpreparing, never underestimating my enemy."

Valeria blinked and got thoughtful, "You are right. I should also think like that. I can't let my carelessness hurt Kali, after all."

Yasenia and Valeria kept speaking softly, and Angel listened from the side. They discussed plant creatures and their physiology. Yasenia wanted to learn since it was an area where she was very uneducated.

Valeria was explaining something when she felt the fox between her arms stirring awake. Kali yawned, showing a pair of sharp canines, and rubbed her eyes. Valeria smiled and said, "I hope you had a good rest, Kali."

Kali nodded and nuzzled her face against Valeria's soft skin. "You are very comfortable, Valeria."

Valeria said with a mysterious tone, "Kali, how about you look at the side?"

Kali looked at Valeria's face questioningly, but she obediently turned her gaze to the side. She saw a divinely beautiful Dragoness and a pure, innocent-looking girl smiling at her.

Kali's smile widened, and she excitedly called them, "Yasenia! Angel! When did you arrive?"

Yasenia opened her arms and said, "We've been here for a while. How about a hug?"

Kali didn't hold back and jumped out of Valeria's embrace toward Yasenia. Yasenia caught her dear fox and instantly coiled her long dragon tail around her two fox tails. "I missed you, Kali."

Kali separated her face and moved forward to kiss Yasenia. She also moved forward and kissed deeply. Kali said between kisses, "I've also... Missed you."

Yasenia got her fill and subconsciously released her scent all over Kali, only stopping after she was sure that Kali was marked by her one more time. She smiled to herself as she saw her misty, verdant green eyes looking at her dazedly, the fox's nose twitching happily and sniffing the dragoness at every chance she had. 'It truly feels good to be back... It fills my heart from the things I was missing.'

Yasenia commented, "I really like your new tail. With this, we can more or less confirm you will slowly regain the nine tails."

Kali nodded, "Yes, my innate skill is related to my tails, so I'm sure I will unlock all of them."

Yasenia remembered about the innate skills and asked curiously, "What are their names?"

"Well, I only know about my first and second tail skills, and I also have another domain skill unrelated to my tails. They are [First Tail: Nascent Soul], [Second Tail: Blooming Life], and [Myriad Blooming Flowers]. To be honest, they are too good to be true, so I have to practice with them."

The dragoness stopped hugging Kali and asked Angel, "What about yours, baby?"

Angel said with a smile, "I have three! An attack skill called [Illuminating Beam], a supporting skill called [Laser Carom], and a berserk skill called [Crimson Heart Surge]. They are very powerful~."

Yasenia looked at Valeria and asked, "Do you have any?"

Valeria nodded, "Yes, but they are too many to explain in a short amount of time. However, I can tell you that they are all related to creation of life, spreading of plants, and strengthening of myself through them."

Kali was confused, "Huh? Why do you have innate skills? And why do they sound terribly strong!?"

Valeria remembered that she hadn't explained her identity to her, so she spoke about it in length. After the explanation, Kali's mouth was hanging open, completely baffled, "You are the Spirit Queen and you've have previous Masters before?"

Valeria nodded. Then, thinking that her previous masters may make Kali doubt her loyalty in the future, she asked somewhat anxiously, something Yasenia didn't expect to see from such a senior, "D-Do you mind about my previous masters? You don't have to worry, Mistress. I'm only loyal to my current master!"

Kali laughed and hugged Valeria's leg, "Don't worry, Valeria. I was just surprised. I won't like you more or less. The only question I have is, are you my Valeria?"

Valeria looked at Kali's scarred face and nodded seriously, "Yes. I'm your Valeria, Kali."

Kali smiled and nodded, "Then, it's all good. I don't care who you were, Valeria. My gratefulness for you won't change even if you were an Evil Spirit that has annihilated countries and nations."

Valeria didn't say anything, but the small smile on the corner of her lips showed that she was happy.

They kept speaking and walking, reaching the end of the flower path one hour later.

After going out, they didn't have much to do, so they walked around without a clear aim. They didn't get anything more than some plants Valeria spotted.

When the following morning came, Yasenia received a call from Evelyn, "Yasenia, I'm in a forest! Where are you? Also, I couldn't contact you before for a moment. Is everything fine?"

Yasenia smiled expectantly and answered, "I will tell you when we meet. We are going in the town's direction. To reach there, you have to search for...."

Yasenia explained how to locate the town to Evelyn. After that, Yasenia said, "You've heard her; let's go to the town area."

While they moved, Yasenia called Andrea and Cecile to explain the same thing to them. Yasenia planned on waiting for them and moving afterward.

All of them were approaching, and Yasenia could feel her heart thumping with anticipation and nervousness. The moment of truth was approaching, and Yasenia was already prepared.

Their journey toward the town area was uneventful.

They reached the rock-pillar forest area, and Yasenia even had her tail wagging slightly quicker than her normal lazy swishing, showing excitement.

The other three realized, but they didn't comment. They just smiled internally, thinking that she was too cute sometimes.

Yasenia stopped and looked at the communication device, trying to look calm, but the eagerness her whole body gave was clear to any person looking at her.

After two hours, the device vibrated! Yasenia's golden eyes shone with delight, and she looked around, "They are near!"

Valeria said, "They should be coming from the right. I feel two powerful presences approaching at a fast speed."

Yasenia didn't have a spiritual sense, but she could also feel the two very powerful auras coming from her right, so she turned and looked over.

Those presences got near, and they jumped out of the forest with powerful momentum.

The creature was an enormous white wolf, eight meters tall. Her fur was sleek and soft-looking, yet her whole aura gave an incredible feeling of majesty. It was clearly a very high-level beast.

On its head, an electric-blue-haired woman was holding a silver spear. Her pose and standing were impressively noble as she looked down from the top of the enormous wolf.

The aura they gave together was like a storm as powerful as a natural electric storm that took shape into a wolf and a woman. Yellow and blue lightning coursed around them, increasing the visual shock.

Yasenia focused on Evelyn's face and her golden slit eyes crossed with Evelyn's violet ones. Her heart thumped as her body moved on her own, shooting toward them.

Sierra saw Yasenia approaching, and her natural aura made all her muscles tense, 'What kind of beast is she? Such a powerful bloodline pressure!'

Evelyn warned her, 'Don't attack her. That is my mate!'

Sierra was baffled, 'How did you seduce such a powerful creature!?!'

Evelyn was about to respond, but a blur jumped from the ground and appeared before her, arms open.

Evelyn barely reacted before her whole body sunk into the dragoness's ridiculously soft body.

Yasenia's speed shot both of them off Sierra's head, making the latter blink without understanding how her Mistress had disappeared from her head.

However, when Sierra turned her head, she saw that the powerful creature had already landed with Evelyn between her arms and was literally slobbering her.

She was kissing, nibbling, and licking Evelyn's face while growling with pure love radiating from her. Moreover, Sierra could feel her own scent being obliterated by the dragoness's scent. 'I really underestimated how much her mate loves Evelyn.'

Evelyn laughed as she felt Yasenia showering her with love. The half-closed golden slit eyes as she licked and kissed her and the rapidly wagging tail made everything Evelyn had gone through more than worth it. 'I've gained enough strength to stand side by side with you now, my love. I won't be a dead weight anymore.'

Of course, it wasn't easy entering the altar on top of the mountain, and there were more times than not that she thought she would die. However, she managed to overcome everything and become much stronger.

Moreover, the treasure Sierra used for evolving was a Natural Treasure, similar to Yasenia's [Celestial Pearl]. It was a Thunder Soul that boosted her lightning's strength and control manifold.

The Evelyn before and after absorbing the [Storm Roaring Thunder] were two completely different beings.

However, to absorb it, she had to resist her whole body being electrocuted by it for two hours straight. The torture was enough to make even some mentally trained people collapse. Thankfully, like all the other girls, Evelyn's mental strength was extraordinary.

After all of what Evelyn went through, receiving Yasenia's loving attack was as good as taking a refreshing bath on an unbearably hot day. Evelyn spoke whenever her mouth wasn't filled with Yasenia's long tongue. "I also missed you, Yasenia. Kiss Yes, yes, I know, you missed me too. You are such a cute dragoness~. Hahaha, don't tickle me!"

Yasenia realized her attitude had gone somewhat out of control, so she stopped her attack and looked at Evelyn with emotional eyes.

Evelyn looked back and smiled tenderly while caressing her cheek, "You must have gone through a lot, don't worry, we are here. When everyone is together, you can tell us everything, okay, my stupidly lovable dragoness?"

Yasenia nodded and gave her one final deep kiss for two minutes straight.

Evelyn sighed with satisfaction, and she let her body rest on Yasenia's, her head landing on one of the big breasts.

Angel, Kali, Valeria, and Sierra approached at that moment.

Angel chuckled, "I think we shouldn't stay far away from Yasenia for such a long time in the future. I fear she will die of loneliness!"

Kali looked at Angel, speechless, "Angel, aren't you the one that would die of loneliness without Yasenia? Are you saying that because you don't want to separate again?"

Angel blushed. "When did she start knowing me so well!?"

She coughed and hid her "secret" plan. "I-I'm not. I'm just worried about Yasenia."

Kali and Valeria chuckled, and this made Evelyn and Yasenia stop their reunion and look at them. Evelyn lifted her hand, pinned below the dragoness. "Yo! It has been a while, Kali. Also, I'm gladly surprised that your and Yasenia's tits have become even more lovely, Angel."

Five creatures blinked twice, and Sierra wanted to hide her head like an ostrich. "Why is my master like that!?"

Chapter 305: Innate Skills and Reunion! Finally together again. (2)

Evelyn lifted her hand, pinned below the dragoness. "Yo! It has been a while, Kali. Also, I'm gladly surprised that your and Yasenia's tits have become even more lovely, Angel."

Five creatures blinked twice, and Sierra wanted to hide her head like an ostrich. "Why is my master like that!?"

Yasenia chuckled and got up, helping Evelyn stand up in the process. Evelyn blinked once, confused. "I feel like something is missing. Right, my tail slap!"

While she thought of that, Evelyn and Yasenia approached them. Angel rolled her eyes, "You keep your priorities straight, huh?"

Evelyn smirked and looked at Kali's, Angel's, Valeria's, and Yasenia's chest area blatantly, "I don't! My priorities are always curved~."

Evelyn blinked, "Speaking of which, Kali, you pack a bigger punch than it looks! Not too big, but still bigger than the average size!"

Kali raised her eyebrow, "Only now do you realize? I've never been small in that area."

Evelyn looked at Yasenia for a second, but Yasenia looked back at her with clueless eyes. "What's wrong, Evelyn?"

If their previous interchange didn't confirm that Yasenia was real, Evelyn would have thought that she was an impostor! 'Where is my tail slap!? I've been speaking about tits nonstop, to the point that my wolf has transformed into an ostrich, but I didn't receive a single love caress!'

Evelyn ignored it and looked toward Kali again. She smiled more normally and said, "It seems our dragoness has cooked you rather nicely~. I can see that you have recovered a lot. I'm happy for you, Kali."

Kali thanked her with a smile under her veil, "Thanks, Evelyn. I can also see that you have advanced with giant steps. To be able to reach the Unification Realm and get a powerful wolf as a contracted beast, you are quite good yourself."

Evelyn presented Sierra to the rest, "Well, let me get the presentation out of the way. This ostrich-Cough, Wolf, is Sierra!"

A bolt of yellow lightning slammed onto Evelyn, stunning her for a second, "Who are you calling an ostrich, Evelyn."

Evelyn patted her clean robes and continued as if Sierra didn't just electrocute her. "She was the Wolf Queen of the mountain but fell into some schemes. After seeking my help, I was able to make a contract with her."

Sierra spoke the human language; her tone was calm and elegant. "Nice to meet you. I was especially curious about Evelyn's mate; you surpassed my expectations. The Yang energy I felt must have been the weakened version."

Yasenia lifted an eyebrow, 'Did she become Evelyn's companion with other intentions? Hmm, Evelyn should have known. I see that their relationship is quite good, so they should have solved those things.'

Yasenia smiled and answered; her tone carried a mature charm that affected even this Wolf Queen. "Nice to meet you too, Sierra. Your bloodline is also not bad, so you don't have to feel inferior. With Evelyn as your master, you will increase your strength by leaps and bounds once we are outside."

Yasenia turned toward Evelyn and asked, "Evelyn, what are your innate skills?"

Evelyn smiled and puffed her non-existing chest. "Well, it's nice that you asked! I've gained a lot of things in my travel, after all."

Yasenia found her cute and used her tail to carry her before her, hugging her from behind. Evelyn blinked as she felt her head and back sink in softness and her shoulders supporting those two mountains, "They are heavy. I feel like I'm supporting the weight of the world."

Leaving aside her thoughts, Evelyn said, "Hum, hum, don't be surprised to know that this ultra-talented me has gained the inheritance of a God!"

Yasenia patted her, "Congratulations."

Evelyn saw the lack of reaction and was confused, "Why are all of you acting like I've gained something normal?"

Angel smirked and said, "I've gained the inheritance of a Saint~."

Evelyn's eyes almost popped out of her eye sockets, "WHAT!?"

Then, she made a flattering face and said, "Little Angel, no, Big Angel, no, Big Sister Angel, take care of me in the future. I will suck your tits whenever you want!"

Angel blushed and sent a glass bullet to her forehead.

Bang!

Evelyn didn't feel it since Yasenia's ridiculously soft breasts cushioned the impact. Evelyn thought with awe, 'The adjective Heavenly is not exaggerated. Yasenia's Heavenly Breasts are truly peerless.'

Kali laughed and said, "Although I haven't gained an inheritance, Valeria has evolved and is much stronger. I'm confident she can win against Yasenia nine out of ten matches."

Evelyn looked at the three-meter-tall lady that had Yasenia's proportions and nodded, "If it is by size, she wins ten out of ten times."

Valeria smirked and asked, "What about the form?"

Evelyn looked at Valeria stupidly for a second. She looked at Kali and asked incredulously, "Did the [Golden Crown] just speak?"

Kali nodded with a proud smile, "I present to you, the Spirit Queen, Valeria! Also, she has evolved to a [Golden Flower Queen]."

Evelyn looked between them and sighed, "It seems that my [Heavenly Thunder God] Inheritance is not that impressive."

Valeria exclaimed, "That's not true at all. He was one of the strongest gods before the Heavenly Cataclysm. However, the Heavens struck him down with their all-powerful lightning. In fact, the first God, Goddesses, and Immortals the Heavens targeted were those that had to do something with the firmament, sky, or lightning."

Evelyn smiled and said, "Hmph, you don't have to console me because I've gained another thing as awesome as the inheritance! A natural Thunder Soul, its name is [Storm Roaring Thunder]!"

Evelyn opened her hand and showed a Black thunder that made an extremely loud thunderous sound. Its fierceness was easy to see at a single glance.

This time all of them were impressed. Once controlled and Nurtured by a cultivator, a natural treasure from the Heavens and Earth can be extremely powerful and would accompany the cultivator on their whole journey without ever getting "Obsolete."

Evelyn saw their faces, and seeing that she finally impressed them, she continued saying. "Moreover, my three innate skills are also awesome. First, I have learned [Light and Lightning Devouring]. It is a skill that lets me absorb lightning and light attributes. Next, a domain skill called [Electric Light Disaster]. Finally, the one I like the most, [Electric Skin], a resistance skill that makes me immune to the lightning of a similar level to mine~."

Yasenia and the others were impressed at the last one. Although the others were impressive, the [Electric skin] was a monster skill against creatures of the same element.

Yasenia sincerely praised, "You've become very strong, Evelyn. I'm happy for you." Evelyn smiled and turned to hug the dragoness and bury herself in those fragrant melons. She shamelessly sniffed and licked them, nuzzling against them.

Yasenia smiled gently and let her do as she wanted. She felt at ease as Evelyn made a perverted chuckle and fondled her. She felt her half-sleeping heart become more and more active each second she spent with them.

She was also happy because she felt her attitude toward them hadn't changed much. Although Yasenia has noted that they found she acted differently, it wasn't so different that they found themselves alienated. Moreover, with Angel's remainder of her pet name, Yasenia easily remembered the rest.

Suddenly, the device on her waist vibrated again. Yasenia looked in front of her and waited expectantly. 'They are so fast~. Who will be this time? Andrea or Cecile?' No matter how much she had matured, she was still the same infatuated and pampering dragoness in front of her dears.

However, it was normal that they arrived so fast. Andrea and Cecile had been more than a month away from their dear dragoness, and they almost felt as if they had Yasenium withdrawal.

Evelyn stepped out of Yasenia's embrace. She had felt Yasenia's heart accelerating the moment the device vibrated. Evelyn thought while looking tenderly with her violet eyes at the dragoness, 'No matter how much she changed, that heart still beats loudly for us.' Then, she stepped beside the other three, waiting for the person to appear.

The person who appeared was a silvered-armored tall woman with a violet-gold one-and-a-half-meter-tall lobster behind her.

She didn't have her helmet on, showing off her beautiful and heroic face and tan skin. Her curly long brown hair waved with the wind, and her light green eyes were locked onto them. They had such a tender light that even the other three felt their hearts skipping a beat.

However, Andrea's eyes focused on the voluptuous dragoness already running toward her. Her golden slit eyes looked at her with longing and excitement; that long tail wagged so fast that Andrea was somewhat nervous it would fall off.

"Andrea!" When she heard Yasenia's choked shout, full of emotions, she felt her chest tighten.

Andrea knew her dearest had gone through something as soon as she saw Yasenia's teary eyes as she jumped into her embrace.

Andrea took off her armor for the first time since she entered the Secret Realm. She had always had it on, ready for any ambush she may receive. But how could she maintain it when the beautiful creature excitedly jumped on her? "She may hurt herself." Were Andrea's caring thoughts.

As soon as Yasenia's body came into contact with hers, Andrea closed her arms around her tightly and spun to kill their momentum. Yasenia's arms and legs went around Andrea as she felt another part of herself awakening. Andrea whispered, "My love, I missed you."

Yasenia wasn't behaving differently as she did with Evelyn. Her long tongue got to work, licking Andrea's neck, jaw, and cheeks and kissing and nibbling Andrea's mouth.

Her throat created her typical deep purring as her hands roamed Andrea's solid and beautifully defined body. Her fingers went over Andrea's carved and athletic muscles as their tongues danced. Andrea's hands weren't idle as they sunk into the soft parts of the dragoness.

Andrea didn't lose time to coo and pamper her dear dragoness to the sky and beyond. She went as far as taking an armchair and sitting there with Yasenia lying on top of her.

Then, she spoke to her with her gentle and deep voice, "Good girl, I'm here now."

"Yes, yes, I know you missed me."

"Such a good girl~. You like scratches here, right? I know, I know. No matter what, you are, my dear."

Andrea's voice and caresses made the dragoness become a pampered blob between her arms. Yasenia's cheeks were blushing, and her eyes were watery as she kissed and licked Andrea's face and neck. She felt as if she had returned, as if she didn't participate in the Trial.

Andrea's embrace, aura, scent, and caresses made Yasenia feel secure. Even if she was now older than Andrea, even if she was more experienced, Andrea's care was still something that tugged Yasenia's deepest heartstrings.

After just two minutes, Yasenia was completely relaxed all over Andrea, and her frantic show of affection had slowed down to slow and long licks on Andrea's neck as she buried her face there. Andrea sighed comfortably and gave Yasenia's cheek a soft kiss, making Yasenia look up at her. Those golden slit eyes were filled with love as they looked at her. Andrea's lips raised, "I love you."

Yasenia smiled, showing her white teeth, and answered, "I love you too."

Chapter 306: Innate Skills and Reunion! Finally together again. (3)

Like before, the others approached and exchanged greetings. This time, Yasenia didn't stand up and continued lying comfortably on Andrea's solid body. Of course, Andrea relished in the arousingly soft body resting on her as she slowly massaged the base of her tail. "How have you been, girls? Did anything interesting happen?"

Evelyn pointed at Kali's two tails and asked, "Did you become blind, Andrea?"

Andrea lifted her eyebrow teasingly and looked at Angel and Evelyn, "Hoh~, speaking like that as soon as we meet. Did someone not miss me?"

Angel and Evelyn blushed. The second person they shared a bed with the most after Yasenia was Andrea, so they were very fond of the reliable and tall woman. Evelyn scratched her cheek embarrassedly and said honestly, "En, I also missed you." Angel followed and nodded shyly.

Yasenia saw it and chuckled, "Andrea, you are quite charming, ah."

Andrea looked at the dragoness sprawled all over her and pinched her cheek domineeringly, "What? Do you have a problem?"

Yasenia's ear reddened a bit, and her body felt a fire igniting down there. Yasenia lowered her mouth and bit Andrea's finger sensually, "More than a problem. You are igniting an inferno, so you must put it out soon."

Andrea's heart skipped a beat, Yasenia's current charm had that extra maturity that seeped into her bones and made them soft. Andrea almost cursed, 'I thought she couldn't become more attractive, guess I was wrong.'

Yasenia felt something rising down there and pressing her core with eagerness. She raised her head enough to look down on Andrea and laughed seductively. Four pairs of legs almost went completely soft at her laugh as their hearts felt numb. Yasenia rotated her waist, moving that rod in circles, "So eager~. But you will have to wait a bit more."

Andrea almost went crazy. She had been without doing anything for a month, and although she didn't have lust problems, she felt her balls wanting to spurt all that had accumulated.

Kali coughed, dispersing the growing sensual atmosphere, and changed the subject, "So, would you mind presenting us to your new companion, Andrea?"

Andrea looked to the side and noticed the princess lobster looking at them curiously, her black pearly vertical eyes spinning in wonder. 'Crap, I forgot there was a child present.'

Andrea patted Yasenia's butt, giving her a cue to behave, and presented her. "This is Ebirah. She is a beast I found in the volcanic area. Her bloodline and potential are terrific, so don't look down on her for being only a high-level Third-ranked beast."

Angel asked curiously, "What's the name of her bloodline?"

"[Sun Engulfing Ore Lobster]! Quite a mouthful, right?"

"It sounds powerful."

"She looks very cute!"

"She looks deliciou-" Bang! A metal bullet hit the forehead of this person.

Yasenia looked sideways and was confused, "Isn't she more like a cra- MPH!"

Andrea cut her sentence with her lips. Yasenia blinked twice, not expecting the surprise attack, but the next second she became aggressive and began devouring Andrea's tasty mouth. Andrea's taste and scent had always been powerful and musky.

Yasenia remembered how much she loved sniffing and licking Andrea's every part. Now with her in front of her again, she could understand why and wanted to do it again.

Receiving another attack from the voluptuous woman pressing her assets on her, Andrea didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

Those big and soft breasts, the soft butt on her lap, the feeling of the slim waist, the arms going around her neck, and the soft feeling her penis had when pressing on the privates of the dragoness all led to blood rushing down like a stream. At this point, her pants were going to burst!

Evelyn could guess Andrea's predicament, and although she also wanted to have a wild night with the dragoness as soon as possible, Cecile was still missing. Thinking of that, she lent a hand to her friend. "Yasenia, how about you let Andrea tell us about her journey and gains?"

Yasenia remembered as she kissed Andrea, and her half-closed eyes opened, retrieving her long tongue from Andrea's mouth. The feeling of the tongue licking her mouth as it went out left Andrea breathless. 'She is so good at kissing, dear Heavens.'

Yasenia licked her lips and smiled, "Right! I was so excited about seeing you after so long that I almost forgot~. Andrea darling, how about you tell us~."

Hearing that familiar way of calling her, the tanned woman's smile became apparent. "Sure. There isn't much to tell, to be honest. With Ebrahim's help, I was able to find plenty of treasured metals. Then, we entered an inheritance-like place. It was a labyrinth, and we reached the center of it. I got a very powerful thing there~."

Andrea extended her hand, and a brilliant red flame suddenly burst on her hand. Valeria exclaimed, "A Heaven-Born flame! You girls truly hit the jackpot. Not only did Evelyn get a Thunder Soul, but Andrea also got a Heaven-Born flame. I'm honestly speechless."

Yasenia was also curious and approached her hand to it. Andrea was scared and put out the flame before Yasenia touched it. Then, she reprimanded, "What are you doing!?! Do you want to burn your hand?"

Yasenia blinked at her scolding and smiled, "Don't worry, I just wanted to feel its strength. It won't hurt me."

Andrea sighed, "It's much stronger than it appears, Yasenia. Be careful the next time, okay?"

Yasenia nodded. Angel asked, "What about your innate skills, Andrea?"

Andrea smiled, "Well, surprisingly, I got some things that follow my bloodline, [Sun Eating Tiger]. The first is a skill called [Phantom Light]. I summon something similar to a light ball that helps me raise the temperature. Quite simple but very fitting for me. The second is [Solar Skin]. A resistance skill against the Sun attribute. However, it seems to give me somewhat of a weakness against freezing attacks."

Yasenia asked, "How big is the weakness?"

Andrea waved her hand, "Don't worry, it's just that I will be more susceptible to cold. In combat is almost negligible." Yasenia nodded, and Andrea smirked, "The final one is [Light absorption]. It seems that I can naturally absorb the light element, even though I don't use it, and increase my cultivation faster."

The others got thoughtful, and Valeria said, "Remember that your current innate skills are unawakened. When you reach the seventh level, those skills will certainly change names and become what they are supposed to be. The reason they don't awaken fully is that the current coordinating between your soul, body, and mind is not that deep, and sometimes, awakening the innate skills soon can damage or even kill the cultivator."

Andrea hummed, interested. "So these skills are like the preparation for the real deal?"

Valeria nodded, "Yes."

Andrea nodded and suddenly stopped, looking at the tall green lady with wide eyes. "Since when can you talk?" Valeria laughed, "You had the same reaction as Evelyn."

Andrea's face became strange. Evelyn felt the vein in her forehead pulse, "What's the meaning of that expression, Andrea!"

Andrea sighed, "Who would've thought I fell so low."

Evelyn felt like a punch landed in her gut, making her blush... blush? "D-Don't think that insulting me is making me happy!" Everyone looked at Evelyn as if she were a lost cause, making the girl squirm more...

I can't believe it. Since when did she fall that low? Was this part of the script?

A-Anyway, the blue-haired, violet-eyed girl suddenly asked, "Yasenia, my love. Do you have anything for us?"

Evelyn was more than sure Yasenia would use most of her chances to get something for them, so she asked about it straightforwardly.

"Right! I was so excited about seeing you after so long that I almost forgot~."

The four blinked, confused. "To even forget about her presents, how much did she miss us?"

By this time, all of them had guessed that Yasenia had something to tell them, so they looked at her tenderly, knowing that as soon as Cecile arrived, they would be able to share her burden.

Yasenia saw their eyes and smiled sweetly. She truly felt glad that they were so concerned about her.

A sweet smile coming from a seductive woman like Yasenia was like an arrow to their heart, piercing that lovely smile deep in their soul. In the next second, all of them were hugging the dragoness between them.

Sierra and Valeria looked at them with smiles, and Ebrahim looked on curiously. She could feel Andrea's extreme happiness, so she was also happy.

Moreover, the dragoness's natural aura also invoked respect in the Lobster Princess. 'Andrea's mate is so powerful! Not even mom and dad can compare to her bloodline! I want to be like her when I grow up~.'

Yasenia laughed softly and felt herself returning slightly to the old days. She felt as if she was being rejuvenated by their love. 'Truly, I didn't choose wrongly. They are all excellent to the point I feel unworthy.'

When they stopped hugging her, Yasenia began searching inside her ring to give them their things. However, while Yasenia lay lazily on top of Andrea, feeling that hardness twitching on her abdomen and her tail being massaged by Andrea's big hands, Yasenia felt the communication device vibrating one more time.

Like a spring, her body straightened and looked northwest.

The absolute delight on her face was enough for the rest to know who was approaching.

The Phoenix is finally arriving.

Yasenia jumped off Andrea and looked toward the sky in the same northwest direction. The others followed the dragoness's gaze and could see a small dot speeding in the distance, leaving a silver trail behind her.

The speed of this creature was so fast that even if she was in the distance, they could see a shockwave following after her as if she a moving silver meteor.

Yasenia's heart was beating so fast again that even her legs were weakening. She didn't expect her reaction to be this big. It was as if a part of herself that had been missing for years was returning to her. Every possible feeling made Yasenia feel such turmoil that she was involuntarily trembling in delight. She could also feel the other person's emotions through their unique connection, reciprocating that same excitement.

The silver-winged woman in the distance accelerated, creating a visible silver burst. She became a silver streak and zoomed toward Yasenia.

Yasenia wasn't any better as the floor below her literally sank when she sped toward the approaching Phoenix.

The others were left behind, looking on with a smile. Jealousy? That didn't exist between them. They knew what [Interlocked Souls] meant to each other, so they were surprised that Yasenia had controlled herself until now.

At a point in the middle, they both slowed down enough for their collision to be harmless and fell into each other arms.

The dragoness saw Cecile's peerlessly beautiful face, carrying a smile as warm as spring after winter, and she felt a lump in her throat. She dove forward and kissed Cecile.

On the other hand, Cecile saw and felt how many feelings Yasenia was feeling and knew that this month of separation may not have been just a month for her dearest. When those luscious red lips landed on her, Cecile closer her eyes and let herself fall softly as they kissed.

The next instant, the two big silver wings closed around them as their tails interlocked tightly.

The others saw them fall onto the ground as their legs, arms, tails, and bodies interlocked.

The passion in them was so high that even the clothes disappeared instantly. Angel blushed and created a formation in a single second around them, blocking everyone's vision.

Andrea lifted an eyebrow, "I didn't expect they would go at it instantly."

Evelyn put her fingers on her chin and said thoughtfully, "Do you think Cecile will get pregnant?"

Kali shook her head, "I don't think so-."

BAM!* BAM! *BAM!

They shut up as they felt even the soil tremble beneath their feet. Evelyn asked again, "Are you sure?"

Kali coughed with a blush, "I-I don't know."

Andrea took out a table and some chairs and said, "Well, I guess they will go at it for hours, so let's speak about our adventures in the meantime, shall we?"

Angel skipped the chairs and went to Andrea's lap. Andrea laughed gently and kissed Angel's cheek, "Did the little girl miss me too~?"

Angel blushed and nodded, "Yes."

Andrea couldn't help but look at Angel's face tenderly. "Did you become even more beautiful, little Angel? Your features are certainly better than before."

Angel fidgeted and nodded, "Yes... When I absorbed the inheritance, my body lost the mortal imperfections."

Andrea hugged her from behind, gave her another kiss on the cheek, and praised, "En, you are now a perfect little cutie."

Angel smiled and leaned back on Andrea's tall and firm body, using the not big but not small brass as her pillows. Andrea, of course, didn't mind.

Chapter 307: Cecile and Yasenia's frantic mating. (R-18)

Meanwhile, the two beasts were going at it without care for anything in the world. Cecile's back was on the ground, and the dragoness's mouth was kissing and breathing raggedly beside her ear.

Cecile's legs were open in an "M" shape because Yasenia had used her own legs to open her wide.

Both of them were completely naked, and their bodies were sweating and releasing a potent and musky scent, filling the ambient around them in a sensual love nest. Their moist skin rubbed together, smearing their fluids together as their waist danced in sync.

The Phoenix felt the thick rod of the dragon opening her flesh tunnel and scrapping every fold with surreal accuracy, sending an electric current through her body with each thrust. Cecile felt those thrusts reaching her deepest parts as Yasenia's groans and moans of delight filled her ears.

"YES! YES! YES! FUCK ME HARDER!" Screamed the usually cool and indifferent Phoenix. The pleasure the dragoness was creating throughout her whole body made her feel as if her soul would leave in the next second.

Meanwhile, Yasenia felt the constant vaginal muscle contractions, the flooding fluids filled with electrifying energy, and the powerful mint-like musky scent from her chosen mate. Since the Phoenix fell in her arms, she could stop feeling her body with her hands.

She was feeling the act of sex not in her flesh but in her soul. Her heart pounded excitedly, her tail tightened around her mate, and her scent became the most potent possible.

It was a feeling of pleasure and connection Yasenia was starving for. She wanted more, she wanted a deeper connection, she wanted to savor everything and make the woman between her arms scream her name.

The powerful sensations led the dragoness to forget about everything else and focus on fucking the moaning female below her with everything she got. Even then, Yasenia had control over herself. She was in control of the wild self and taking control of the mating that was going on with enough finesse to send Cecile in an uninterrupted moaning and screaming euphoria.

PAH! PAH! PAH!

Their waist met with sounds of flesh hitting together and squelching sounds of fluids meshing in one. Yasenia growled with a voice that made Cecile's uterus clench. "I'm cumming. I'm going to fill you with cum until you burst!"

One, two, three thrusts, and Cecile felt Yasenia's strength in the thrust as the wide penis head pierced her last entrance with violence. The feeling of the cervix opening to welcome that rod sent her over the edge one more time, making her moan without restraint. However, that wasn't all.

Yasenia let her muscles relax as her penis gave her the electrifying feeling of cumming. That white, dense release from the rod filled the core of her mate. The sensation was otherworldly as Cecile let out a piercing phoenix cry. "QYAAA!!"

The fluid was abundant, to the point that it almost spilled with just one release. However, the love-starving dragoness would not get fed with just that. Yasenia kissed Cecile's mouth deeply and caressed her wet platinum-silver hair and wings. She said with a deep voice that would make any woman's leg soft, "Cecile, my love. I won't stop for a while, so prepare yourself."

Yasenia changed Cecile to the mating press position and slammed her waist down so hard that the sound was like a bomb.

BAM!* BAM! *BAM!

The feeling of being completely dominated into submission made Cecile blabber with delight, and her eyes rolled around with pleasure, following the rhythm of the thrusts and moans. "AH! AH! OHH! YES!"

They were creating a crater below them. However, the dragoness was far from delivering the most amount of pleasure she could. The long and thick tail moved while they were in the mating press position and pierced the twitching and lonely anus that was facing the sky. "OHHH!!"

Cecile almost roared when the thick phallus pierced her other whole to the point of crushing her womb. The sensitive place where the other member was lodged deep inside. Yasenia's predator-like pink slit eyes smiled with a sadistic expression, and she moved her waist and tail in an alternating motion, giving Cecile the feeling that she was being pierced every instant.

How could someone hold on? Cecile squirted like she was pissing herself, splashing Yasenia's navel and her own with her fluids. Yasenia's nose caught the potent smell the squirt had and wanted to slurp every drop. "You smell so good, Cecile. Do you like it? You like it so much to squirt like a broken faucet?"

"Oh, yes! I love it! I love how you are fucking me!"

The electric feeling their naked bodies rubbing together gave and the feeling of having sex with each other was so intoxicating that they had forgotten about everything around them.

Cecile felt completely dominated and could only moan as the dragoness slammed her waist down, piecing her cervix, only to lift her waist and pop out of her uterus.

The dragoness was practically fucking her pussy two times per thrust, the initial entrance and the cervix. Moreover, Yasenia's tail wasn't idle as it was so deep inside Cecile that Cecile felt her insides completely full and her nerves firing pleasure signals all over the place.

Her blue eyes had become purple and were lost in pleasure, and she wouldn't mind being fucked like this for the rest of her life.

Yasenia, on the other hand, felt like her rod and tail were melting as Cecile's insides clamped, spasmed, and sucked her in. It was as if many hands were expertly milking her for all she was worth and hitting her most pleasurable spots.

Cecile's insides were literally molded for her, so having sex with Cecile was extremely stimulating.

This built up the orgasmic feeling, and she released it one more time. She felt the liquids rushing out from the organ in her tail and sped through the two canals. The white fluids gushed out from her two rods one more time, filling Cecile's insides one more time.

The potent semen lit up all her nerves at once, and the electric current climbed from her waist to her head. Cecile felt it coming and screamed in her head. 'I'm going to cum, I'm going to cum, I'm going to cum!'

Those thoughts crossed the mind of the normally indifferent Phoenix, and then the feeling exploded in her brain like a firework. Eyes rolled up again, mouth opened, and her body tensed; Cecile let out another piercing cry that even made the dome around them tremble. "AHHHH!!!"

Her bowels and uterus were moistened by the white, thick liquid, activating each and every nerve there. The potent Yang energy rushed around her limbs and made them spasm, her abdomen contracting uncontrollably.

Yasenia moaned aloud as she saw the Phoenix below her spasm with pure, unadulterated euphoria. But that didn't stop the dragon. She popped out the two members letting that pearly-white cum flow out, and sat with her legs open, breathing heavily as sweat made her voluptuous body glisten with pure seduction.

Cecile recovered her mind enough to look at Yasenia, but as soon as she looked at her, she lost it one more time. Yasenia was licking one of her special dildos with her long tongue coiling around it. Her legs were wide open, showing the drooling pussy, and her eyes looked at Cecile with an expression that begged to be fucked stupid.

Without delay, Cecile took the toy, equipped it above her vagina, and pierced the perfect pussy of the dragoness. The folds hugged the penis and guided it inside as the entrance tightened on her. There was even a small vibration that forced Cecile to lean forward in pleasure. Yasenia wasn't any better as she felt her pussy being penetrated for the first time in twenty years. Both shouted aloud in pure euphoria, "Fuuuck!"

Cecile went berserk on the dragoness, leading them to moan for two hours straight.

After fucking the dragon-pussy and ass for two hours straight in various positions, Yasenia proceeded to use Cecile's mouth for half an hour.

The rod fucked her throat without letting her properly breathe, and Cecile felt as if her brain was being fucked instead. Moreover, the dragoness wasn't done, as her tail didn't stay still, filling the Phoenix's pussy while she throat-fucked her. She squirted again and again.

Now, she had not even one place without Yasenia's presence, taste, or energy.

Her everything was marked by the dragoness one more time.

Yasenia took out her penis from the cum leaking mouth and observed Cecile's expression as she fell back, her belly bulging with cum. If one phrase could describe her expression, it would be Delirious Sexual Euphoria. However, the dragoness wasn't worried because she knew that Cecile's mind was not damaged. She was just having a trip through every corner of Pleasure Heaven, fucked and fucked so well that she almost wasn't conscious.

The face made the dragoness's weapon raise for battle one more time and pinned Cecile face down, fucking her from behind for another hour until Cecile was tired to such a degree that she couldn't move.

Her pussy had squirted dry but was flooded with white fluids.

During these three and a half hours, she lost count of how many times she had reached climax. 'My Lord, yasenia fucked me stupid.'

Yasenia breathed in and out slowly, looking down at the limp wings and tails. 'In the end... I was unable to hold myself back.'

Thinking about the possible outcomes of their incoming talk, her heart tightened. She hugged Cecile softly from behind, feeling her world complete again, her numb heart finally beating normally one more time.

Yasenia took out a bed and carried Cecile there, hugging her from the front and burying her face in her neck, waiting for Cecile to recover enough to talk.

Ten to fifteen minutes later, Cecile came back to herself. After she felt surrounded by the soft and naked embrace of the dragoness, she moved her arms with difficulty to hug Yasenia's back, sighing with emotion.

She could feel the deep turbulent emotions deep inside Yasenia's heart. With a hoarse voice, Cecile softly asked, "What happened, my love?"

They were cuddling and without moving too much. Yasenia buried her face in Cecile's neck, and some tears slipped, "I missed you so much... so much..."

Cecile felt the dragoness's hidden longing gushing out, and her heart tightened. Her voice was tired and somewhat weak, but the tenderness in it was impossible to miss. "What happened, my love? I've also missed you a lot, but just a month is not enough to make you feel like this. Tell me, Yasenia. I know you have something to tell us."

Yasenia didn't answer for some seconds, "Let's get dressed. I will tell all of you together."

Cecile didn't insist but said teasingly, trying to make Yasenia more cheerful. "My dearest, you did me so hard I can't move my legs and arms. Help me dress."

Yasenia laughed, dispelling some of those feelings and making Cecile's smile wider.

First, Yasenia dressed herself up in the [Seductive Dragoness Battle Dress]. Then, she helped Cecile wear her blue and white ceremonial robes.

After slowly dressing her up while giving kisses on her naked skin, she straightened and carried Cecile horizontally in her arms. She knocked on the barrier three times to tell Angel they were done.

Angel and the rest heard the knocks, so the barrier fell.

Yasenia suddenly remembered Sierra and Ebrahim, so she used her aura to contain the scent. "Ebrahim, Sierra. Don't come close for a second."

They didn't dare disobey and even took some steps back. Yasenia took out one of the cleaning jades to suck in most of the scent on Cecile, the surroundings, and herself.

The smell was so thick that they could see a mist floating in the surrounding. It spun in a small whirlpool and soon disappeared inside the jade. They still had some of the scents on them, but Yasenia was confident it wouldn't affect Ebrahim and Sierra.

Chapter 308: "I will never break a promise." Yasenia's confession.

The group saw Yasenia walking out while carrying Cecile in a princess hug. Cecile was limp in the embrace, her face showing tiredness. Moreover, her eyes as they looked at the dragoness shone with pure love, like a satisfied kitten.

They all understood; the powerful Phoenix had been drilled to oblivion and beyond.

Andrea smirked, "Cecile, can you talk?"

Cecile rolled her eyes and snorted, "I can." However, even that sentence came out hoarse. Clearly, Cecile had moaned her lungs out during these hours.

Evelyn acted surprised, "Impossible! Did Yasenia's skills lessen during this month? How could you talk after all of that?"

Cecile looked at Evelyn and smirked, "Wrong~. My love is much more skilled than before~. Sigh, just thinking about it is making me twitch."

Hearing the normally reserved Phoenix being so expressive, they all gulped. 'If even our strongest combatant is out of battle, what will happen to us!?'

Evelyn asked with a teary voice, "How is that possible!? If she is more skilled, we'll die!"

Then, she turned toward the still golden-eyed dragoness and pleaded, "My love, please, I want to live outside the bed! If you've become even better, I will only have the heart to be fucked by you!"

All of them laughed beside Yasenia, who was smiling awkwardly. 'Will you say the same after knowing how I became more skilled?'

She took out an armchair and sat with Cecile on her lap. Her tail could easily go through a hole in the back made especially for it. Cecile's two big wings and three soft phoenix tails didn't bother her in the slightest. Especially the phoenix tails were soft and malleable like a bird's, allowing Cecile to sit in places easily.

Yasenia saw as they all took out something to sit on and waited until they comfortably sat. Then, she went directly to the point, "Well, I should speak about what my trial was about."

All of them focused on Yasenia. Even the lazy Phoenix, who was playing with a lock of black satin-like hair, looked up attentively.

Yasenia started with a small summary. "When I entered the Trial, I met with a man. I think he is the one who created the Secret Realm. Anyway, we had a conversation, and after that, he told me that the thing I lacked the most was experience."

Andrea wondered, "Experience? He is not wrong. You are young, after all."

Cecile had a small inkling that he knew who Yasenia was talking about, so she asked, "Then what kind of Trial did he prepare for you?"

Yasenia looked at them and said, "I had to win a War."

They all frowned for a second. The experience of the Demons against the Ice Phoenix was still fresh in their minds. They understood that War was extremely brutal, much more than they had imagined.

Evelyn commented, "But... If I remember correctly, you've Won the War in two weeks, right?"

Angel smiled proudly, "As expected of Yasenia! You finished the War in just two weeks~."

Yasenia looked at Angel and smiled wryly. "The next condition was that my strength when I entered the trial would be on par with an elite soldier. But I was like a small ant in the scale of things. The strongest people felt like they were a whole realm above me."

Their mouths opened wide. Andrea frowned and deduced, "Then, if you managed to complete it in two weeks, the war should have been between thousands, right?"

Evelyn nodded, "Yes. Yasenia is currently at the ninth level, so these three levels should have been enough to be at least able to fight against the strongest ones."

Yasenia shook her head. "The battle was a whole country against another. A battle between their main armies made of millions. My band was obviously on the losing side, with a five million-strong army, and the enemy army was at least eight million. Moreover, to win the War, I had to make the other country surrender."

Evelyn frowned, "It should be impossible to win in two weeks unless your side was at an overwhelming advantage. And by what you've explained, that was clearly not the case. There are more conditions, right?"

Yasenia didn't keep them guessing anymore and said flatly, "The third condition was that a week outside the Trial was equal to ten years inside."

It was such an absurd statement that they all couldn't register it at first. Their brain froze for an instant as they looked at the wryly smiling dragoness.

Then, their eyes opened wildly, and even the relaxed Cecile turned toward Yasenia with fright in her heart. "What do you mean, my love?"

Yasenia smiled with hidden sadness and said, "I didn't win in two weeks, not even close. I spent twenty-three years trying to win the War."

"Yasenia, you..." Their hearts felt like a claw squeezed them. It was such acute pain that they physically flinched. Cecile, who was in Yasenia's arms, felt even worse as her breath got caught in her throat, making her feel a lump.

Yasenia looked at them with teary eyes and confessed, "I don't even know what I made different that you all perceived something was wrong with me. I... I don't know how much I've changed or if I've changed for the better."

After Yasenia's hidden distress finally surfaced, they felt like a claw was trying to dig out their hearts. When have they seen Yasenia this sad? Only once, when Yasenia potentially lost her first child. Since then, they swore not to let it happen again and protect Yasenia's tears like Heavenly treasures. Without Yasenia's knowledge, they had all agreed to not only be pampered by the dragoness but to pamper their lovely spouse with their whole being.

They only wanted to see Yasenia's tears when she was happy!

However, in front of them and right below their noses, Yasenia hid this pain, and they could not fully realize it was there. They felt like a failure.

They all rushed forward and hugged Yasenia. Cecile was so fast that Yasenia almost didn't feel the armchair below her changing into a sofa big enough to let all five of them embrace Yasenia between them.

Yasenia felt Kali, Evelyn, Andrea, Cecile, and Angel wrap their arms around her, and she felt like a warm shooting current flooded her veins. However, she still had to say the most important thing, not allowing her mood to become better yet.

Evelyn said with a tender voice, "Don't worry. Don't worry. It was just that you calling us by our names instead of the usual pet names was strange. Moreover, your speech pattern was less soft and cooler."

Andrea nodded as she kissed her cheek, "Yes. It is normal to change if such a long time has gone by. Especially if we compare it with how much time you have lived previously."

When she saw Yasenia looking at her, Andrea smiled, "Moreover, you've kept your feelings for us deep inside of you. I'm really glad."

Although Andrea said that when she heard that she had been twenty years apart from her, she was scared.

She was terrified that Yasenia's feelings for them had dried up.

This was not only her own fear; the other four also had it. Even Cecile, who had just had a mating session with Yasenia, felt her heart trembling with dread when she understood the significance of twenty years for them.

Even if twenty years were nothing for a cultivator, that was for experienced cultivators. For young cultivators, time passed at a similar pace as for mortals. Twenty years for a twenty-year-old cultivator was a lot.

However, there was also something about this that made them feel happy—deep and uncontrollable happiness.

This event made them all realize that, even after more time than Yasenia had previously lived, she still felt love for them. Yasenia's heart still had its cozy spots reserved and warm for them. This realization pushed their feelings into an inescapable abyss of love.

This was something that the five of them understood instantly, and they couldn't help but fall all over for the dragoness. Even after such a long time and who knows how many difficulties, she returned to their side as soon as she finished everything.

The first thing on her mind was reuniting with them!

How could they not love her?

How could they resist wanting to give their heart and soul to the dragoness?

How could they not want to pamper her?

How could they not want to keep her safe between their arms?

Such a loyal partner, such a caring lover. Even if she built a harem, she maintained her word of not loving others once she completed it.

Yasenia heard their coaxing and felt their pampering and her heart lurched. She really wanted to keep to herself whatever had happened inside the Trial. However, she remembered the promise she had made twenty years ago.

"Even if I can't be completely loyal, at least I will become crystal clear with you. I will never lie or keep important matters to myself."

Yasenia took a deep breath, 'You have to make it clear. Even if they decide to leave you, you have to tell the truth. A liar is the thing I hate the most, after all.'

Yasenia slowly separated from them and sat alone on the sofa, looking nervous.

They all knew she still had something to say, so they waited patiently.

Yasenia took another deep breath. She looked at them into their eyes to leave no room for misunderstanding and said loud and clear. "I cheated on all of you."

Five women became like a statue, looking at Yasenia with pure confusion.

Andrea was the first to wake up from her stupor and asked, "Explain yourself, my love. Those words are easily misunderstood. How did you cheat on us?"

Yasenia tightened her fists and said, her tone unwavering. "It isn't a misunderstanding. I had a Harem inside the Trial and cheated on all of you."

They all instantly frowned as they looked at Yasenia.

The dragoness's heart tightened, especially when she felt Cecile's and Angel's turbulent emotions through their connection. However, she didn't move or make excuses. She could explain why, and she could ask for forgiveness, but she didn't do that.

No matter the excuse, cheating is cheating.

Even if her heart never moved for her partners during the Trial, even if the Trial wasn't a real place and those women were just imaginary. She did what she did when she was in control, it was a decision, not an inevitability, and she would own to her actions.

Until the end, Yasenia swore to remain honest to her dears. This was her heart for them, her love for them, and her promise.

A dragon's promise toward her most precious treasures.

Therefore, the dragoness sat still, looking at them and waiting for the verdict. Her attitude made it clear that she would be only truthful toward them.

"I will never break my promise!" This was what her current self was seemingly shouting.

At first, they all frowned, feeling uncomfortable for a second. No matter how truthful, hearing that their dearest had cheated hurt them at a soul level.

However, unlike what Yasenia thought, this feeling didn't last more than some reflection time.

Their faces eased up almost at the same time as their minds reached a conclusion. 'It is impossible for Yasenia to hold on to her lust for twenty years. Naturally, she should have developed relationships to help her deal with those problems. The question is, did she love any of them?'

Cecile asked, her tone purposely cold and indifferent. "Did you fall in love with any of them?"

Cecile's way of asking made Yasenia feel her heart tremble and her body shook. She really didn't like those cold-looking, piercing blue eyes. However, she calmly denied it with her head and answered with a truthful statement. Not a half-truth, but a full truth. "I developed fondness but never fell in love with them."

They looked at each other and saw the same understanding in each other's eyes. They had fast communication through the spiritual sense, and all of them reached the same conclusion. 'Good. Although we forgive her, let's tease her a little bit. As a small punishment for her actions.'

Therefore, thinking like that, Evelyn laughed and asked teasingly, "How big?"

A stupid sound left Yasenia's mouth, "Eh?"

Seeing her cutely stupefied expression, they all laughed.

Kali asked this time, her tone imitating Cecile's cold one to the point that the others thought Kali was really angry. "Evelyn asked about how big your harem was. I'm actually quite curious. Did you also follow the same rule of loving a small group?"

Yasenia instantly answered, "NO!"

They were startled at her firm answer and resolute golden slit eyes. Yasenia clearly stated, "My lovers are, and will be, only the five of you and Mother. Only a very, very rare exception will be able to enter my heart! Moreover, that exception will have first to be liked by all of you. No matter how many sexual partners I have in the future, I will only love you!"

Their hearts skipped a beat, and their cheeks felt hot. 'Crap, we wanted to tease her, but she attacked us right in our soft spot.'

Yasenia said, her tone subconsciously returning to her serious mature self. It sounded imposing and commanding. "I created the harem to take care of my lust problems and also create an elite group of women. With them, I climbed the ranks until I became the general. Then, I swept the whole enemy country to the ground!" Yasenia waved her hand as she finished her statement.

An authoritarian and imperial feeling flowed out of her subconsciously, leaving them breathless. The current her was not only attractive on a carnal level but in a more abstract way. They truly felt like anyone who looked at the current Yasenia would want to give their hearts to her.

Yasenia relaxed and looked at them guiltily, "Umm, the harem size was... was..."

Seeing her hesitating, they all got intrigued. Angel said impatiently, "Say it already, Yasenia!"

Yasenia muttered, "...y six."

"Hmm? Say it louder."

Yasenia shouted, "Five hundred and fifty-six!"

Chapter 309: Curiosity about Yasenia's harem. Cecile's innate skills.

After Yasenia confessed her harem's size, they didn't know what to think. The number was so ridiculous that they didn't feel anything about it.

Even with twenty years, with such a big harem, it would be impossible to create actual bonds with any of those girls.

Their faces turned strange, thinking that Yasenia's "strength" might have been far stronger than they thought. To maintain five-hundred-and-fifty-six women "satiated," Yasenia's prowess would have to be nothing more than a goddess in that aspect.

'Did we not satisfy her enough? Has she been holding back for us?' Their faces turned for the worse as they looked at Yasenia, feeling guilty for their dearest dragoness.

However, when Yasenia saw their expression, her guilt increased, thinking that they were feeling bad in the heart. She said with an apologetic tone, "I'm sorry... I-I wanted to know my limits, so I gathered under my wing every woman I found pleasing to the eye and had a decent personality."

Cecile looked at Yasenia's guilty expression and found it unbearably cute. If Yasenia had animal ears, they would have probably been plastered on her head because of the guilt. 'Thankfully, she doesn't have any, or my heart would not last.'

Cecile kissed Yasenia's cheek and asked curiously, "How was managing such a big Harem?"

Yasenia blinked and looked at Cecile. She used their connection and only felt amusement and understanding. Yasenia asked cautiously, "A-Are you not mad?"

Andrea answered, letting out an amused chuckle, "That number is so absurd that I actually feel nothing."

Evelyn continued Cecile's question line, "I'm also curious about the Harem managing; how did it go?"

Yasenia observed all of them, and to her surprise, she saw only curious eyes looking at her. She felt as if the weather brightened, as if those curious eyes warmed her heart and body. The heart of the dragoness beat loudly, becoming somewhat bashful.

Her previously numb feelings were not only returning but becoming much stronger than before. After experiencing so many things, the dragoness understood how precious it was the relationship she had with them. This led the more mature Yasenia to want to give her everything to them and everything else they wanted. Even if they asked for the Moon or the Stars, Yasenia wouldn't mind becoming strong enough to fulfill their dreams.

'Ah... This is how I felt. This is what it felt like to love. This is how I became so crazy for them.' The only thing Yasenia felt missing was the person she loved the most. That person that, even after all these years, had never left her mind. Even when Yasenia began losing a bit of herself inside the Trial, her feelings for this person never diminished, and right at this moment, she really wanted for her to be beside them.

The five of them saw in real-time as the somewhat distant presence Yasenia gave melted slowly, her golden-slit eyes regaining that previous lovely look they showed whenever she looked at them.

They all felt their heart becoming hot as Yasenia's tempting red lips raised in a smile and moved to utter one sentence. "I love you."

A simple and direct sentence that made their cheeks feel hot. They didn't understand why asking about her harem made Yasenia change so much, but they knew from the bottom of their heart that the lovely dragoness they all knew was slowly returning.

Yasenia leaned back on the couch, and her idle tail circled around the five of them. They were close enough that her long tail could wrap around them once. Yasenia then began speaking about her harem a bit, not in detail. "Well, it was not easy managing so many women. They all wanted a piece of me, so I set prizes. Depending on the contribution in battles, they would receive more or less from me. I mainly focused on the War efforts; therefore, besides some filtering here and there, I didn't interact with them a whole lot."

Angel blinked, surprised, "That's quite... Hmm... I don't know how to express it."

Evelyn proposed, "Cold? Detached?"

Angel nodded and exclaimed, "Right! Who would've thought that Yasenia would treat her interactions as something that could be bought?"

Yasenia chuckled, "I never planned to become invested with any of them, so I always tried to maintain an invisible line. I think this is what created the most problems. All of them felt that although I had some affection for them, there was a wall between my heart and theirs. Before I continue speaking, let me sit with all of you better."

They didn't complain and moved around. Andrea sat behind Yasenia, hugging her waist. Angel on Yasenia's lap, Cecile at her right, Kali at her left, and Evelyn before her, facing Yasenia. Yasenia's long legs went around Evelyn's waist, and her tail circled their waists in a loop around Kali, Cecile, and Evelyn.

The position was very intimate with everyone. They all squinted happily, feeling Yasenia's presence one way or another. Evelyn played with Yasenia's calves and asked, "Yasenia, what kind of problems did you have?"

Yasenia sighed and rested her back on Andrea's firm body, "Well, betrayal, cheating, backstabbing, loss... Everything in general."

Andrea suddenly realized something and asked carefully, "Did any of them... Die?"

Yasenia answered calmly, "Yes. The final number of them when I finished conquering the other country was fifty-two. Most of them sacrificed themselves, betrayed me, or just left the army. However, those that went against me were only thirty-four."

The others were surprised. Angel looked up at Yasenia and asked, "How is it possible for someone to betray you?"

Yasenia kissed her nose and smiled, "Those that betrayed me were those that loved me the most. Although most of them were happy with a carnal relationship, a lot of them wanted to become something more. However, I always evaded those problems. In the end, crazed by love for me, they wanted to kill, destroy, or make all my efforts fail."

Cecile asked next, "How did you manage that?"

"The first five or six times it happened, it made me realize that carnal relationships won't last. You need something more. You need love. However, even if I was the one at fault, I became a demon and killed all of those who betrayed me with my own hands."

They opened their eyes, completely surprised. Yasenia saw their expressions and said, "My nickname in the War was Ruthless Dragon General. To win a battle, I wouldn't mind sacrificing one thousand to kill five thousand. At the end of the War, from the five and eight million troops, only six hundred thousand remained on my side and two hundred thousand on the enemy country. The devastation of land was absurd, to the point that winning or losing almost didn't matter."

Yasenia commented with a calm face, "To make our country win, I even sacrificed harem members... Although they knew they didn't have my love, they were very loyal and always did their best for me.... I used everything in my power to win as fast as possible, and even then, I took twenty-three years."

Their heart felt like a claw was gripping it and squeezing blood. They knew that Yasenia was decisive, but they also knew that she treated those close to her extremely well.

Just looking at her interactions with the maids, they all had an inkling that the maids would become something more than maids in the future. Maybe not as close as lovers, but there will be some interactions with Yasenia. However, they had accepted it because they understood that Yasenia was extremely grateful to them, and giving in to some of their deepest wishes would be inevitable.

'How often had she experienced losing someone she considered close to her? How often had Yasenia steeled her heart to make the hardest decisions? How often had she sent those she considered close to their deaths with an order coming from her mouth?'

Those questions couldn't help but appear in their minds, leading them to hug Yasenia and get closer to them. They wanted to soak the dragoness in their warmth, to make her forget the coldness of those days.

Yasenia knew what they were thinking, so she said, her voice calm. "I got over it a long time ago. Although the first time, I went somewhat... berserk. I managed to control myself in the end. Thankfully, I didn't invest many feelings. Even then, I almost lost my life more times than I would like to admit, hahaha."

Evelyn lifted one of Yasenia's legs and kissed it, "Let's stop here. I bet there are plenty of stories you could tell us... Especially your big orgies with five hundred women. We must move now."

Yasenia looked at Evelyn with a lifted eyebrow and laughed, "Are you curious?"

Imagining their dragoness dominating large groups of women, they all felt something burning inside of them. They somewhat wanted to see that scene, at least once, to know how Yasenia took on those situations.

Yasenia saw their expression and teased them a bit, earning some eye-rolls and heated glances from her dears. "We can speak about this in the future, but I can tell you that the biggest one was me against seventy-three..., and I won~." Yasenia laughed after seeing their flustered faces.

She felt extremely relieved after having this conversation, like a stone pressing on her heart lifted.

Feeling liberated, Yasenia asked, "I still want to know one last thing before we depart. How strong are all of you? Although I've somewhat heard about it, I still don't know Cecile's innate skills and the current spiritual sense reach."

Evelyn smirked and said, "I reached the first level of the Unification Realm~. I currently can feel up to two-hundred meters around me! I'm impressive or what? Hahaha!"

Andrea crossed her arms and said lightly, "Not bad, Evelyn. However, I'm already in the second level of the Unification realm. My spiritual sense is at the two-hundred-and-fifty mark."

Evelyn exclaimed, "How!? I feel like I will need at least a year to reach the second level, even with Yasenia's assistance!"

Andrea smirked and patted Ebirah, who was resting beside her calmly. "Thanks to her. After I absorbed the Heaven-born flame, my cultivation leaped to the next level."

The others were impressed. Andrea said, "It was at the end of the labyrinth I entered. Ebirah found the powerful minerals created by its heat. We followed after them, and we entered that place. We found an altar with this thing on it. After absorbing it, I broke through the Unification Realm second level. The name of the flame is [Star Born Searing Flame]."

They frowned, and Yasenia said, "I've never heard or read that name in the ranking of the natural flames."

Valeria entered the conversation. She had been observing from the side, quietly seeing Kali's reaction. Now that everything more or less came to a conclusion, she didn't mind speaking aloud. "That's normal, Yasenia. This flame is superior to mortal flames. The name isn't an exaggeration, as this flame was literally born in the center of a star. However, it is very weakened right now. As Andrea increases her strength, the power of this flame will also increase. If I'm correct, your Sun attribute will have a mutation in the future, Andrea. Although the name may be different, it should transform into something along the lines of [Star-core Sunfire]."

Cecile was stupefied and asked aloud. "Since when did the [Golden crown] speak?"

They all looked at her and laughed.

All of them put Cecile up to speed; they forgot that Cecile only had the time to get filled by Yasenia and then listen to her story.

Cecile, of course, was impressed by everybody's increase. "So, all of you have also entered the Unification Realm?"

Andrea stood up and nodded, "That's right... Wait, are you also in the Unification Realm?"

Cecile nodded, making everyone stumped. Cecile was clearly the strongest before, so they thought that they would be able to create a distance between them. However, now the powerful Moon Phoenix was also inside the Unification realm. "The place I cultivated into was extremely powerful. Although I didn't receive any inheritances, I've become a complete Moon Phoenix. Moreover, my cultivation is completely stable."

Yasenia asked with frowned eyebrows, "How was the tribulation?"

Cecile explained, "It was difficult. However, don't worry. I asked the senior that sent me there, and since I had reached the middle of the lake and cultivated there for a week, I had refined my body enough to resist it. I received the fifty-four strikes, and with the Tear-lake's help, I was able to remain alive. When you called me. I was recuperating from my injuries. That's why I couldn't rush toward you right away."

Angel exclaimed, "Fifty-four strikes!? That's double the number a person normally receives!"

Cecile patted Angel and said, "Well, I'm here perfectly fine and in one piece, right? No need to worry."

Yasenia sighed, relieved. "That's good to hear. I've always been very worried about this tribulation since I'm influencing you into increasing the difficulty; being my mate is not something easy."

Cecile kissed Yasenia's cheek and smiled, full of love. "Don't worry, my love. I welcome these challenges. They will only make me stronger, allowing me to protect you with my all."

Yaseinia smiled and pecked her lips, "I'm happy to hear that."

Cecile finished by saying, her cool voice like a pleasant stream in the mountain. "My innate skills are four. I won't go into much detail. First, [Frosted Skin] is a resistance skill that protects me against Ice, wind, and water. Then, I learned [Phoenix Plumage], a transformation skill. I can now become a phoenix at will, I'm still amateurish, so I need some time, but it is within my capabilities. Next, [Chilling ashes] is a domain that uses Moon and Space attributes. Finally, [Moon Phoenix's lonesome elegance] is a battle dance that increases my strength with any weapon or fighting in my beast form."

They all looked on with their mouths agape. 'Monster! Absolute Monster! How is her strength even fair!?'

Chapter 310: Reentering the Lost Town for a short vacation.

Now that they knew about everything they gained. They began planning what to do for the remaining less than two months.

Andrea kissed Yasenia's ear and asked, "Do you remember about the shield, dear?"

Yasenia thought for a second, somewhat confused. Then, her eyes widened. "Right! The tournament shield is still in that man's..."

Evelyn smirked, "Jaxon."

Yasenia smiled back and nodded, "Jaxon's hands. We should search for him and kill him to take it from him."

Angel looked up at Yasenia and smiled sweetly, 'Even if she has changed, her wishes to give us the best seems not to have changed.'

Yasenia looked at their rings, thoughtful. "By the way, dears. You have your rings quite full, right? How about I keep the treasures in mine?"

They all nodded without a problem. Allowing Yasenia to guard their things came naturally to all of them. Yasenia saw their readiness to comply and felt fluffy inside. "They trust me so much? Even after all I've said?"

Yasenia said before getting the treasures, "Remember to leave at least enough resources with you to be ready if we separate again."

Evelyn and the others let out an affirmative sound.

They spend the next three hours giving Yasenia all the things they gained. Tens of thousands of heaven-ranked spiritual plants, literal tons of minerals, alchemy products, formation materials, fuel for blacksmithing and alchemy, and sewing materials. Item after item flowed inside Yasenia's ring.

However, Yasenia's ring was tremendously big and also had an auto-ordering function, making the process easier. When Yasenia entered the Unification realm, she would be able to place low-level life inside the ring.

Its name, [Five Realm Spatial Ring], was not exaggerated. It had been Tatyana's previous ring, after all.

After giving Yasenia their things, they saw Yasenia taking out a small booklet. Each of them had a name on them.

On the "Evelyn" booklet, there were many names of materials. Evelyn asked, curious, "What's this, Yasenia?"

Yasenia rubbed her sides with her feet, softly tickling her, and said, "I wrote what I picked for all of you at the beginning of the War. I didn't want to forget what I gained in the Lost Town for each of you."

Evelyn giggled and caught Yasenia's feet, tickling her back. Yasenia leaned on Andrea and laughed aloud, "Sorry, sorry~. Forgive me, Evelyn!"

Evelyn stopped, but her hands kept Yasenia's dainty and beautiful feet on her hands. "I will restart if you don't call me another way~."

Yasenia blinked twice and then remembered Angel's wish back then. Her smile became gentle, and she called her softly. "Dear, sorry for not calling you that way since the beginning."

Evelyn's smile widened, and she lifted one of the feet to kiss it. "Don't worry, Yasenia. I just wanted to remind you." Yasenia playfully pinched her cheek with her toes, and both played a little bit like that.

The others looked on with smiles. They felt as if, slowly but surely, the playful and lovely dragoness was fusing with the current mature one.

Yasenia looked at Cecile and smirked, "Sweetheart, why didn't you ask me to call you this way?"

Cecile lifted an eyebrow and said, "I was hoping you would remember."

Yasenia sighed and pulled her close to kiss her softly. "Sorry, my head had always been in how all of you would react, and I didn't have time to recall many other things."

Cecile nodded with a teasing smile, "I know. That's why I'm not spanking you right now."

The dragoness felt that maybe she should have held on to the pet names for a bit longer. Angel and Cecile felt the direction of her thoughts and blinked twice. The Phoenix's lips raised and transmitted, "Tonight, you will receive the punishment. Don't worry about it."

The blonde girl felt a bulge growing between her buttocks, and a rosy color tainted her cheeks.

While playing and teasing each other, Yasenia gave Andrea, Cecile, and Evelyn everything she had gained in Lost Town for them. As said previously, it was utilities for their profession, some rare materials, and other similar things. Nothing that would help them increase their combat strength.

The three of them gave Yasenia rewards in the form of caresses, kisses, and cuddles, making the tail wag in ways it wouldn't bother the person sitting behind her.

The six of them were so comfortable that they didn't want to move. Therefore, while feeling their dear dragoness's body and presence they've missed so much, they made some casual conversation.

The place where they were was not hidden, but also not in the open, so they didn't have any haste. Ebrahim, Valeria, and Sierra waited on the sides patiently.

The soft breeze of the forest rustled the leaves, creating sounds that relaxed their mind. The time was past noon, so the sun was warming up the surroundings enough to become comfortable.

However, no matter how comfortable they were, they had to move sooner or later.

Since Yasenia still had 200,000 Trial Points left, she asked if they wanted to do a lap in the Town. Cecile, Andrea, and Evelyn agreed. They were curious about it.

Therefore, they slowly stood up, and their group went toward the Town.

There were always people in the surroundings, selling goods from the Town to those that couldn't enter. Of course, the prices were over the top, and only desperate people would buy them. However, plenty of such people walked the Secret Realm.

When these people saw the six heavenly beauties accompanied by a giant and majestic wolf, they thought that they would be able to make a big gain.

Cecile and the others frowned slightly when they saw people approaching. However, the next events were out of their expectations. Yasenia unfurled her [Dragon Authority] and commanded with a single word, "Scram."

The word was softly spoken, yet it seemed like a hammer hit their heads. Some of them fainted, and others threw up a mouthful of blood.

However, the dragoness continued walking toward the Town as if she didn't see it. Our girls blinked and felt that this domineering attitude truly fitted her.

The other people that wanted to approach halted their steps as they saw the seductive goddess slowly sashaying toward the Heaven Gate.

Following Yasenia's swaying wide hips and lazily swishing tail, they arrived before the Heaven Gate shortly after. Yasenia warned, "Dear, Sweetheart, Darling, the three strikes should not be a problem, but do not get overconfident, just in case it increases the strength for Unification Realm cultivators is higher."

The three of them nodded and stepped forward. Unlike what Yasenia expected, the strength was constant with what Yasenia and the others experienced. Cecile, Andrea, and Evelyn almost didn't have to block as they smashed those lightning bolts into pieces.

The people looking from the outside almost turned into stone from the shock. The dragoness ignored the surroundings and smiled, "Good, that was easy. Let's go inside." And so, they reentered the Town.

The entry gate was tall enough for Sierra, so she had no problems entering. Moreover, the lighting was not strong enough to threaten her or Ebirah. Ebirah had some difficulties, but her strong shell allowed her to block most of the damage. After Kali and Valeria used their healing arts, her wounds healed even before entering the Town.

However, since they didn't exactly hide, all the forces that were interested in Yasenia began receiving communications about her whereabouts.

The number of powers after her increased after she took the strange black sphere at the bottom of the hall and completely disregarded Tang Xian and Long Baidi's threat.

Without Yasenia's knowledge, a big army slowly gathered outside the Lost Town, waiting for them to step out.

Meanwhile, our girls made a tour of the Lost Town for the rest of the day, ignoring the gazes they received. They were very eye-catching for more than one reason.

Yasenia asked, "Do you want to try any trials here?"

Andrea thought about it and said, "Since we are already here, we should spend a short time accessing the treasury. How many times can we enter?"

Angel Answered, "Six times!"

The three nodded and decided to complete those Trials. However, Yasenia stopped them, "Wait. Before you go to those Trials, there is something more important to do."

They looked at Yasenia, confused. Still, the moment they saw Yasenia's seductive lips raising in a smile and her aura becoming as alluring as a dancing lust spirit, five gulps followed in unison. "You have to overcome my Trial first~. Come with me."

They saw Yasenia turning around and walking toward an inn at the side. Hypnotized by those hips and the tail, they followed after her. Yasenia spoke for a minute or two with the receptionist, and they managed to get a place for Ebirah and Sierra to rest. She also got five different rooms.

Andrea asked, "Five rooms?"

Yasenia nodded, "I want to have a one-on-one with each of you for a while, at least a month."

They looked at Yasenia silently and then nodded. They didn't mind at all, and they were eager to recapture more and more of the dragoness's heart.

After paying an expensive 1,000 Trial Points for a week in residence, they moved up. The reason she spent so much was to have the surrounding rooms empty and for the owners to take good care of Ebirah and Sierra.

They walked in silence toward the rooms, waiting for Yasenia to speak. Yasenia reached the hallway that had their rooms and asked Angel, "Baby, can you create a formation around all the rooms and around each of the rooms?"

Without any actual effort, Angel waved her hand, and six formations appeared out of nowhere. Those formations shone for two seconds and then disappeared. Yasenia was satisfied with them, "Good job, as a reward, you are first~."

A bewildered sound left Angel's mouth. "Eh?" Only to be dragged by a dragoness toward one room. The others only saw the door closing with a bang. They chuckled, and Evelyn commented, "We'll have trouble walking tomorrow."

Andrea sighed, "I hope I don't shrivel to the point of no return."

Kali blushed and said, "This will be my second time..."

"Hoh? The second time?" Evelyn asked, curious.

Kali nodded, and her two tails wagged, "Yes..." Andrea and the others smirked and became curious, "How about you recount us your first time?"

Meanwhile, Angel was swept off her feet, her head higher than Yasenia's, and a long and sweet tongue was invading her mouth. "Yasenia~. Yasenia~. Mmph~."

Yasenia eagerly roamed her hands on Angel's body as she held her up. They still had their robes, but the way their hands moved was as if there was nothing between them. Yasenia carried her toward the bed and pinned her down.

Her normally golden slit eyes had a pink tone, and her bulging erection completely lifted her skirt. Angel felt Yasenia's heavy breasts and her hard rod through the robes and shuddered in anticipation.

Yasenia danced their tongues together, and her hands slowly inched inside Angel's robes and squeezed her big breasts. Angel moaned, and the dragoness's claws got to work, molding those breasts like an artisan, and sending electric currents across Angel's body. Yasenia asked between kisses, "Baby, tell me, what do you want to do?"

Angel got her nipple pinched and moaned. Then, with shyness shining through her misty blue eyes, she mumbled, "I want to drink your milk~. I-I missed drinking a lot..."

Yasenia stopped kissing and looked at Angel with a soft smile. Her smile was so tender that Angel almost became a puddle. "It's been more than twenty years since I used that technique. Give me a second, baby."

Yasenia stripped off the top robes and closed her eyes for a second.

Angel's eyes locked on those big breasts that bounced up and down for a second after becoming free of the bindings and gulped. They were a work of art. A delicious piece of fleshy art.