Chapter 371: Andrea's first taste of the dragoness. (R-18)

Meanwhile, Andrea carried Yasenia to one of the rooms upstairs. Holding the tiger-sized dragoness and walking around with her was a little strenuous, but our tall and strong Andrea could do it smoothly. Moreover, Yasenia had curled her long tail around Andrea's torso to secure her position further.

While they walked, Yasenia licked Andrea's face and mouth slowly.

By the time they reached the room, Andrea was already excited, and her pants began feeling tight. Yasenia's kissing method of using the tongue to explore their mouth was pleasurable and arousing as plenty of fluids were exchanged.

The bedroom Andrea chose to enter was not the main one, but it was spacious enough. The bed in the room was white and brown, big enough for three people to sleep comfortably.

Without delay, Andrea walked toward the bed and laid Yasenia on her back, trapping her below her with her arms. When Andrea looked down, she was surprised at Yasenia's reaction.

Yasenia was nervous and shy. The blue scales on her cheeks became visibly brighter, and her horns and eyes slowly changed from golden to pink. Moreover, her watery large, slit eyes were looking at her with clear bashfulness.

Andrea saw all this, and her heart almost stopped at how cute her dragoness looked. If it were on another occasion, seeing Yasenia like this would be enough for her to pounce and begin a night of wild sex.

However, since this would be Yasenia's first time in her dragon form, Andrea took it slow. Her lips quirked in a soft smile, and her long, slender fingers caressed Yasenia's bright cheek. "Are you feeling nervous, my love?"

Yasenia nodded and whined a little. "I-I don't feel too secure in my appearance."

Yasenia has always been a beauty that stole hearts with a single look. Therefore, now that she was a dragon, she felt that no matter how beautiful, her attractiveness wouldn't translate into sexual beauty for a human.

Moreover, she had doubts about how her dears would react to her privates. What if they found them ugly or something?

Andrea understood Yasenia's plight. Her face softened, and she rested her body on Yasenia's, allowing her to feel her hardened member. Then, in her deep and soothing voice, Andrea said. "Don't worry, my love. I understand why you are nervous, but trust me, okay? I really don't care how you look. Tonight, you've decided to give to me your first time, so let me guide you."

Yasenia placed her claws on Andrea's shoulders and nodded obediently. "O-Okay, darling."

Andrea kissed the dragoness's lips, relaxing her a little more. "Good girl. You are so beautiful; how could you think we wouldn't like you?"

It was a shame that her facial muscles made it difficult for Yasenia to kiss back with her lips. Therefore, she used her tongue to express her love.

Andrea didn't move forward and relaxed Yasenia's body. She pressed her waist against Yasenia's to let her feel her emotions.

Andrea felt lucky to be born with both sexes at times like these. Of course, the main reason was another one, but allowing her dear to let her discern her feelings of arousal so clearly was an advantage.

Yasenia's tail wagged, and her throat released her deep purr while she felt the rigid shat pressing on her scales. Andrea's dick was poking her, and Yasenia's heart surged with happiness after realizing she could still arouse her darling.

After feeling the nervousness in Yasenia's eyes slowly disappear, Andrea began kissing downward. Her lips left kisses across Yasenia's jawline, slowly reaching her neck. The dragoness naturally moved her head to the side, allowing Andrea to kiss her, and she sighed in comfort.

Yasenia knew Andrea liked to kiss her body until she reached down and gave her either a blowjob or a cunnilingus to begin their night.

Once she reached her neck, Andrea saw the particularly shiny and captivating scale and got thoughtful. She didn't touch it because she knew the importance of it to Dragons. Andrea asked softly. "Dear, is this your reverse scale?"

Yasenia confirmed, "Yes, avoid touching the nearby area, darling. I may react wrongly."

That was the only weakness dragons had. Andrea understood and kissed below it softly, continuing her journey as she spoke between kisses. "I will create armor to protect this area. I can't have your weakness unprotected, my love."

"Okay, darling. I'll leave it to you." Yasenia smiled and sighed comfortably, her claws carefully caressing Andrea's back. Although they were sharp, Yasenia had enough control not to hurt them.

Andrea's heart was filled with happiness when she allowed her to create armor for that part. Dragons were so against something being near that area that they usually avoided even armor. They wouldn't even be able to cry if the armor meddled with one way or another.

Yasenia's looked down and saw Andrea already kissing her chest area.

Andrea was mesmerized by Yasenia's body.

Her scales were a beautiful blue with white spots of light that appeared like stars. It was ethereal in a way. Moreover, she could see that her right side had some sun-shaped golden scales, and her left side had golden-colored moon-shaped scales.

Then, her lean underbody had glossy and soft golden scales.

After her journey that left a trail of kisses, Andrea reached the waist area but saw nothing there.

She lifted her eyebrow and looked up at the dragoness. "Why are you hiding, my love~? Are you still shy after I kissed your entire body? Hmm?"

Yasenia looked at Andrea and fidgeted a little. However, under Andrea's passionate gaze, her body gave in before her mind did.

Andrea saw Yasenia's golden scales parting in two different places. The place closer to the tail opened vertically, showing beautiful pink flesh and a pink hole.

Moreover, the scales moved the flesh in a way that created the shape of vaginal outer lips, plump and juicy. Andrea licked her lips involuntarily as it looked pretty "appetizing" for devouring.

Then, above the dragon vagina, the scales that parted let out quite a mighty member. Unlike the vagina, the penis pushed the scales back, becoming bigger at a rapid pace.

Soon, Andrea had the dragon rod before her face. 'This... It is quite the thing. Can we fit it inside?'

The shape of her pink penis was cylindrical, with a head that thinned until the tip. Unlike a human's penis, which had an ampler glans, it was more pointy.

Even then, Andrea wasn't faced with the different-looking thing. She found it endearing and, well, imposing.

Most likely, it was because it belonged to her dearest, but she honestly didn't have any resisting feelings. She looked up and saw Yasenia covering her face with her claws but clearly leaving a gap to observe her reaction. Andrea chuckled, "Both your sexes look very nice~. Why are you so insecure?"

Yasenia asked with a small and shy tone, "Really~?"

Andrea lowered her head and gave a big smooch to the penis and vagina. Yasenia's smile widened, and her tail wagged. However, she was confused as to why Andrea opened her eyes in surprise. "Is there something wrong, darling?"

Andrea licked her lips, her light-green eyes shining with a predatory light, and she muttered. "Why do you taste so good?"

Yasenia's face almost became as bright as a lamp as her cheeks blushed hard. 'Kya!! My darling says I taste good!'

Andrea curiously grabbed the penis and moved her hand up and down. Yasenia let out a growl of pleasure.

The tanned hand moved up and down on the pink member, and the texture made Andrea lift her eyebrow in surprise again. She didn't keep it to herself and commented, "It feels slimy and hot. Moreover, it is firm yet quite squishy. How does it feel, Yasenia? Is this technique good?"

Yasenia didn't expect her dick to be so sensitive, so she nodded, and even her mental transmission had a pleasure-filled tone of voice. "Good, so good, darling. Hmm~."

Andrea could've used a second hand because of its size, but she went slowly. 'She is a small dragon, but her thing is not small at all.'

Yasenia's hind legs opened as the pleasure built up quickly, her moans escaping her throat.

Andrea saw Yasenia's expression and realized that her dear was receiving a lot of joy.

She smirked and opened her mouth wide. It was hard to fit her thing, but she didn't fear it and lowered her head.

Andrea's eyes instantly widened, 'S-So delicious!'

Her tongue got to work as she licked it all around.

After Yasenia felt her penis penetrating Andrea's mouth, Yasenia's throat trembled, releasing a deep growl, and she observed Andrea devouring her penis more eagerly with each second that went by.

Her penis was sensitive, and her waist began to move, wanting to pierce Andrea's mouth deeper. "Mmm~, so good!"

Andrea felt Yasenia's eagerness, and she made a downward movement. The prominent and soft pink member pierced her throat, but she wasn't prepared for what happened next.

When Yasenia felt her member piercing something, it was as if lightning had struck her body, and her eyes rolled. However, the feeling was the same as cumming; it was softer.

Nevertheless, Yasenia released a transparent fluid through her member. It wasn't cum, but when Andrea's throat was filled with it, our heroic woman's eyes felt like a fire ignited in her very core. 'Mmm~, what's this!?'

Andrea's penis got to full mast, and her pussy started drooling as if she was starving. She hugged the dragoness's waist and moaned, "Ohhh!"

The liquid Yasenia released was similar to precum. Still, instead of releasing it slowly as humans did, she released it in large amounts at the beginning to instantly lubricate her mate.

Moreover, without their knowledge, these fluids had aphrodisiac effects that could range from mildly arousing to instant orgasms.

Yasenia had instinctively released it with mild effects.

Even then, Andrea and Yasenia didn't care at that moment because both felt terribly good. Yasenia really wanted to move, so she began fucking the tight hole she had recently penetrated.

Andrea and Yasenia began moaning. 'Fuck! At this pace, I'm going to cum from being throat fucked! I feel like she is using my sensitive holes, not my throat!'

Better yet, unlike human penises, Yasenia didn't need to move her waist to thrust her penis back and forth. Before Andrea realized what was happening, Yasenia's penis retracted and extended, reaching depths Andrea didn't know were possible.

Even then, Andrea's eyes rolled up with pleasure, and her penis twitched, approaching an orgasm rapidly. The previous fluids the dragoness smeared made the throat sexually sensitive, and the soft outside of it molded perfectly to assure a tight fit, but without forcing it to stretch to a painful width.

Yasenia was lost in pleasure as her penis fucked Andrea's mouth. Shortly after, she groaned, "I'm cumming!"

Andrea was lost in pleasure, her pants soaked because of her precum. This call from Yasenia made her understand she had underestimated Yasenia's current sexual prowess and also made her understand that she really wanted to be fucked by this dick in her real pussy.

When Yasenia felt the sensation of cumming, Yasenia's penis actually grew in length and pierced Andrea's throat even deeper, bulging the entirety of her neck slightly as she released her cum. "OH YES!"

Andrea's eyes rolled up, and she also came when the semen poured directly into her stomach. She hadn't even taken off her clothes, yet her penis and vagina ejaculated as if she had been fucked stupid, smearing her robes with her fluids.

It was a miracle Andrea didn't bite down in pleasure.

Chapter 372: Andrea's rampage. Yasenia's next prey~. (R-18)

After cumming for a while, Yasenia's penis retracted and let Andrea breathe again. She took a deep breath, filling her nostrils with the thick, sweet, and musky scent. With desire in her eyes, she continued licking Yasenia's sensitive dick until it stopped spurting cum.

The dragoness growled, and her claws almost pierced the bed. "Mmm~."

The soft moan echoed in Andrea's mind and made her look up. Their eyes met, and like a spark falling into a flammable substance, it exploded in an inferno.

Both knew their switches had turned on, so they didn't lose any more time.

Andrea instantly took off her clothes and showed her perfectly sculpted feminine body.

Her beautifully carved muscles glistened with her sweat, and her pair of standing breasts had their nipples stiff. Her lean waist, wide hips, powerful penis, and thick thighs were enough to make any woman or man drool.

Yasenia's eyes were like torches as they scanned every corner of the woman worthy of being called a war goddess.

Moreover, her exotic light chocolate-colored skin glistened with sweat, attracting people to want to lick wherever this domineering woman pointed.

Yasenia almost moaned from just seeing such a powerful body and member who were clearly about to fuck her. "Mmm~, Darling, please fuck me."

Andrea leaned above the dragoness and pinned her down, each arm beside the dragoness's head and her legs opening Yasenia's hind legs. Andrea grinned, making Yasenia's heart pound in excitement. "How about you beg me a little more lewdly, dear?"

Yasenia's heart rate quickened. "Please, Darling. Fuck my pussy until it is smeared with your cum."

Andrea's light green eyes flashed with passion and moved her waist forward. Her penis head parted the soft golden lips and pink flesh, penetrating Yasenia's dragon pussy.

Andrea instantly felt Yasenia's vaginal walls constricting around the penis and tensed, trying to squeeze the cum-smeared member that opened her pussy for the first time after being reborn.

Andrea's waist lost strength for a second because of the powerful pleasure wave that assaulted her brain. Yasenia's walls were soft, slimy, hot, and constantly spasming around the member, making the penetration ten times more pleasurable.

"Ohhhh! Your pussy is so good! Fuck!"

"Roar!" Yasenia roared in pleasure. She didn't expect to be so sensitive, just a thrust, and she felt like Andrea's dick was piercing her brain.

Andrea didn't care anymore and leaned forward to hug her dragoness's scaly but soft body. Then, her waist went berserk.

PAH! PAH! PAH! PAH!

Yasenia's reptilian eyes rolled, and her limbs locked around Andrea's body. Her wings closed in a cocoon that surrounded the mating pair. Moreover, her neck could twist enough to bite Andrea's nape as she was fucked by her.

Andrea felt the toothless jaws pressing on her neck and the tail coiling around her body as if the dragoness was trying to hold onto something not to fly away. This was like an instant burst of bliss as she realized that her dick could pleasure her dragoness.

Andrea whispered with a breathy and deep voice. "My love, my love, oh so good! I love you so much!"

Yasenia's vagina instantly clamped around the dick fucking her after Andrea's low voice caressed her hearing sense.

They didn't last long, as both felt their pleasure nerves firing signals continuously. Andrea felt the suction from the dragon's pussy, and she couldn't hold on.

Her spine straightened, her toes arched, and her arms tightened as a mind-melting orgasm rocked her body. With one last waist slam, she pierced the deepest she could. "I'm cumming!"

The human's semen shot through her penis and flooded the dragoness's insides.

Yasenia's happiness level reached new heights, happy that her Darling found her attractive even in her dragon form. Elated that she could receive Andrea's semen and euphoric about the orgasm rocking her body. 'Fuck, my muscles are twitching so much!!'

Her penis sprayed without her consent as she felt the hot semen entering her deepest parts. Her vagina was twisting and tightening involuntarily, squeezing the last drop out of Andrea's dick.

Andrea could only stop cumming after almost a minute of inhuman squeezing. Her body went limp on top of the dragoness, and she released a sigh of comfort.

She thought her lover would milk her until the last drop disappeared because Yasenia's vaginal suction power was genuinely otherworldly.

She felt her stomach area, and it was drenched.

Yasenia's cum was smearing her belly and breasts, making her want to giggle with joy. 'I made her cum~. Ah, this feeling is truly phenomenal.'

Andrea kissed Yasenia's neck softly and caressed her scaly body. As she did so, she felt Yasenia's jaw loosening and letting her neck free.

She had also bitten them when making love with them in the past. They knew that Yasenia did so only when she was extraordinarily excited and lost her usual composure.

Andrea lifted her body and looked at the dragoness's expression. Her heart almost leaped as the lovely and girly countenance entered her eyes.

Her big, pink reptile eyes were moist and coquettish, and her cheeks blushed with a beautiful light blue shine. The posture was submissive, and the meaning of that gaze was one of complete submission toward her.

Andrea's lips raised, and she moved to kiss the side of her face repeatedly, making Yasenia growl in comfort. "You are such a beautiful creature, my love. I loved it. It feels so good inside you I couldn't even hold for five minutes."

Yasenia nuzzled and licked her, growling sounds leaving her throat and the loosened tail wagged happily.

Her limbs tightened around Andrea. "More~. I want more, Darling."

Who could resist the beautiful dragoness? Not Andrea.

After some tender moment, Andrea's waist resumed the exploration of the dragoness's carnal passage.

Their mating continued until Andrea couldn't cum anymore inside her. Then, Yasenia flipped Andrea and pined her from above to explore Andrea's vagina.

Our heroic woman was reduced to a moaning mess until Yasenia was satiated with the feel of her hole.

They finished one hour later.

Andrea didn't end up fainting; her endurance had become much higher.

The tall woman hugged her dragoness's head between her breasts and caressed her long neck. Yasenia was purring as Andrea's soft mounds cushioned her head. Andrea asked with a tender and tired voice. "How was it, my love?"

Yasenia licked her neck repeatedly, and her eyes squinted with happiness. She didn't even move because she felt very comfortable. Her voice also sounded coquettish, as a satisfied little wife. "Perfect~. I love you, Darling."

Hearing the response she hoped for, Andrea's restless mind relaxed, and she allowed the tiredness to envelop her body. "That's good... to hear... my love."

Between Yasenia's wings and with her weight on top of her, Andrea closed her eyes, happy and relieved.

Yasenia felt Andrea falling asleep, but she didn't escape her embrace for ten more minutes. She felt safe and comfy between Andrea's arms as she observed her relaxed face. Her face's contours were exquisite.

After ten minutes of being mesmerized by Andrea's beauty, Yasenia slowly escaped her arms and moved her to the bath. Although she couldn't use her claws that comfortably to bathe Andrea, she was as skilled with her tail.

Andrea was clean and refreshed in no time, dressing in brown sleeping robes. She carried her to the main bedroom by walking on her hind legs and using her frontal limbs to hold her.

After tucking her darling into the bed by moving the sheets with her mouth, she nuzzled her face once last time.

Then, with renewed confidence, Yasenia left the room and went downstairs.

The others were in the living room, waiting for Yasenia, when they heard footsteps. They looked sideways and saw the dragoness opening the door and entering the living room.

They almost laughed aloud when they saw a happy dragoness skipping toward them. Yasenia smiled widely and said. "Andrea liked it very much!"

Seeing the proud look on her, they all congratulated her with amusement in their gaze.

Yasenia's smile wouldn't disappear.

With that happy look, she chose her next victim. The chosen one only felt the dragoness's tail wrapping around her waist and lifting her. By the time she blinked, she was on Yasenia's back.

The dragoness chuckled and said, her tone mellow and soothing. "Now it's your turn, honey~."

Kali blinked as she was carried away by the dragoness. She looked down and became nervous, her two fox tails surrounding Yasenia's torso.

"O-Okay, where are we going to do it?"

Yasenia went to another bedroom, not the one she used with Andrea, and said. "How about here?"

Kali nodded.

Soon both of them were on the bed. Unlike her session with Andrea, Yasenia didn't do much foreplay.

She slowly took off Kali's clothes, soon making her reveal her naked, scarred body. Yasenia's eyes became tender, and she began licking those scars, starting from the neck area.

Kali smiled and petted Yasenia's head. She was accustomed to Yasenia treating her scars like this as if her slow licks could heal her scars.

Kali leaned back and lay on the bed, closing her eyes to allow Yasenia to lick her body as she licked. The feeling of the dragoness slowly grooming her body was divine and relaxing; even her soul felt calm when the soft tongue trailed her marks.

Soon, Yasenia reached Kali's big breasts and began licking those scars. Kali's breathing became rougher as the dragoness's skillful tongue teased her nipples and stimulated her sensitive breasts.

The fox looked down and saw Yasenia opening her mouth and sucking one of them. The toothless gums squeezed it gently, sending pleasurable signals to the fox's brain. "My love, do you like them?"

Yasenia looked at Kali's flushed face and smiled. She rested her head between Kali's snow-white mountains and nodded. "Sweet and tasty~, like every other part of you, Kali."

Kali's heart skipped a beat, and she could feel the heat rushing to her cheeks. Yasenia didn't take much longer and went to Kali's vulva.

The dragoness saw Kali's two tails wagging excitedly when her eyes landed on the scarred labia. Yasenia pressed her lips with the soft flesh, giving it a loving kiss.

Kali's face was full of love. The way Yasenia expressed how precious she held her dear in bed always left her feeling as if she was the luckiest woman in the World.

Yasenia looked at Kali and said. "Honey, my penis is bigger than before, but it is also softer, so I don't know how it will fit. I'm going to lubricate you with my saliva first, alright?"

Kali was surprised. "E-Even bigger? W-Will you fit? You were already a tight fit before..." Kali was honestly worried. She had a very small vagina, after all.

Yasenia smiled reassuringly. "Definitely, I can sense that I can fit. However, I want to lubricate you first. Move to the headboard and open your legs, honey."

Kali moved to the headboard with Yasenia's words and opened her legs bashfully. Yasenia opened her maw wide and trapped Kali's butt and vulva inside it.

Kali chuckled, feeling ticklish because of Yasenia's breath. However, her giggles soon turned into gasps of pleasure.

Now that Kali's pussy was literally inside Yasenia's mouth, her long tongue could reach all the way inside and more if needed.

Yasenia didn't immediately penetrate her with her tongue. First, she licked the outer labia and clitoris, her eyes locked with Kali's.

Our fox's verdant green eyes became misty as Yasenia's expert tongue triggered every spot. "Mm~, Yasenia, ah! That place is too, mmm~, sensitive!"

Yasenia communicated mentally. "Honey, I will penetrate you deeply, okay?"

With Kali, Yasenia always liked to get her consent before doing anything. Kali nodded and lowered her hand to caress Yasenia's snout. "Go ahead, dear. But can you not make me cum? I want to reach orgasm with your penis."

Yasenia's golden eyes flashed with a pinkish light, and her horns also began changing colors from their roots. "I'm more than glad to hear that, honey~."

Then, she penetrated her. Kali's back arched as a soft moan left her mouth. "Mm~."

Yasenia slowly savored Kali's earthly taste. It was a taste that forced open the scales on her waist to reveal her penis. So fertile, so fresh, so full of life. Yasenia couldn't help and savored every corner, making Kali's eyes roll in pleasure.

After a minute, Kali began moaning aloud. "Oh my heaven! You are eating me so ravenously, AH! Yasenia, love, I'm going to cum if you don't stop!"

Yasenia's senses were brought back by Kali's shout and the squeezing of Kali's tight vagina. 'I almost made her cum to taste her Yin energy~. Fufufu, my honey is so delicious~.'

Then, she stopped moving around and retreated her tongue.

Kali had to clench her muscles to not cum as the tongue retreated from inside her. The feeling of a long tongue licking all her inner walls was something that would make any woman drawn in pleasure.

Yasenia separated her mouth from Kali and pulled her legs with her tail to lay her horizontally on the bed, leaving her below her.

Kali looked into the dragoness's pink eyes and gulped. Yasenia said with a deep tone. "Kali, my love. Look down to see my penis. If, after you see it, you give me the go-ahead, we can become one."

Kali looked down, and her eyes widened. 'Wow, s-so imposing. Will I really be penetrated by that?'

Then, she swallowed a mouthful of saliva, not because of fear but because the transparent liquid dripping from the tip made her salivate. 'I can smell that delightful sweet and strong taste from here.'

She saw the twitching and more than ready thing and looked up at Yaseenia. Then, she nodded and whispered, "B-Be gentle, Yaseenia."

Yaseenia nodded and lowered her waist.

Chapter 373: Kali's euphoric experience. Valeria's plan? Pampered Angel. (R-18)

After Kali gave her the go-ahead, Yaseenia nodded and lowered her waist.

Kali's eyes stared as the pink member gently opened her lower lips. The dragoness's girth was something that had Kali's heart racing. However, her legs opened more, and her two fox tails coiled around Yaseenia's tail.

Yaseenia felt Kali's tight entrance and pushed forward, slowly opening the pink hole.

As always, Kali had a very narrow hole, so both of them could feel the pressure.

For Yaseenia, penetrating Kali was always a pleasurable experience. How everything seemed to hug her penis was stimulating to say the least. Kali released soft moans as she felt the dragoness's dick open her.

However, to Kali's surprise, she could see how the dragoness's dick seemed more squishy than she thought. Instead of feeling like a hard rod forcefully opening her passage and electrifying her with pleasure like before, it felt like a gentle, slimy, pleasurable experience that slowly increased her elasticity.

Kali felt in heaven. "Mmm~, so good. I really like how it feels."

Yaseenia's gaze became gentle, and she continued pushing forward. Unlike the human penis, a dragon's penis was highly adaptable. At first, it would be a little squishy and push the passage to the limits. Then, the hardness and girth would continue to grow until Yaseenia felt that any more would be painful.

Moreover, there was another thing.

After Yaseenia felt that she was deep enough, the feeling from before invaded her, and she felt a rush of liquid flowing through her and rushing toward her dick.

Kali saw with opened eyes as Yaseenia's dick inflated, making her nerves electrocute her body all around with pleasure, and then, a hot fluid flooded her insides.

Yaseenia growled as her precum shot and flooded Kali's hole. She saw Kali's eyes rolling upward as her mouth opened with a loud moan. "Ohhh! My heavens, what's this feeling!?"

Kali felt like an inferno consumed her body, and her legs, arms, and tail coiled around the dragoness on top of her. Her verdant green eyes suddenly opened as she felt her body explode in the delayed orgasm Yaseenia had prepared her before.

Yaseenia grunted as Kali's pussy squeezed like a vice. Kali's voice was like a trembling sigh. "W-wow, You already came? B-But it feels different."

Yasenia chuckled and nuzzled her head with her. "That was my precum, honey. I was lubricating you."

Kali was surprised.

Then, the fox blushed. "Y-You released so much; I can still feel my womb filled with it. A-also, I feel my body is burning."

Yasenia didn't hide it and said. "Yes, it has aphrodisiac properties. Do you find it uncomfortable, dear?"

Kali's face was reddened as she looked at Yasenia and shook her head. "No, I feel my body burning, but it is delightful. It has a very gentle effect; it feels like a warm blanket around my body."

Yasenia licked her cheek and said. "I'm glad. I'm going to move now, okay? Remember that I'm insatiable, so when you want to stop, you must tell me, okay, my love?"

Kali kissed Yasenia's dragon head and nodded, her two big, fluffy tails surrounding Yasenia more. Then, Yasenia began to move back and forth.

The scene at their privates was mouthwatering as Yasenia's penis went back and forth, squelching liquids. Moreover, it was as if she had two girths, and each time the penis moved, you could see it perfectly filling Kali's entire hole but not straining it.

Kali felt in heaven. Yasenia's dragon dick was a marvel that was dominating her soul with pleasure. "Ahn~, Ah! Ah! Mmm~."

The fox's moans, the dragoness's purring, and the lewd squelching sounds filled the room as their genitals rubbed in a dance of pleasure.

Yasenia saw Kali's face flushed with pleasure and the tempting Yin energy, and her pleasure built up. When having sex with her dears, more than any feeling, their face was what pushed Yasenia's pleasure receptor the most.

The way they moaned with delight, the way they hugged her body, the way they kissed her in a trance as the pleasure she gave them filled their bodies was what provided Yasenia the most joy.

Of course, the pleasure of the act was never low, especially with those with particular constitutions like Kali and Cecile.

Yasenia breathed heavily as Kali's insides throbbed again when another orgasm overcame her body and she couldn't hold onto it anymore. The feeling climbed up her body like a wave until it reached her brain.

Then, Yasenia bit Kali's neck as she growled. "I'm cumming!"

Kali felt Yasenia's penis thrust forward and open her everything until it pushed against the cervix. The particular shape of the penis allowed the head to pierce through and poke inside the uterus. Then, Yasenia's powerful load shot through it and flooded her insides, this time with thick, hot, and nutritious semen.

Kali's body tensed like a bow while fireworks exploded in her mind. "Ahhh!!!"

Her pussy was like a broken faucet as she squirted without control. Yasenia's penis released ropes of semen and filled her dear fox until it spilled outside.

Soon after, Yaseenia released Kali's neck to look at her dear. Kali's verdant green eyes were glazed with tears of pleasure, and her mouth was drooling. Her whole body was limp and sweaty, as if she had done the most strenuous exercise.

Yaseenia's smile deepened as she whispered, making Kali tremble in pleasure. "How was it having sex with a dragon, honey?"

Kali reacted by rubbing herself on Yaseenia's body as her two tails caressed her all over. A little more, and Kali would be purring.

Yaseenia looked at her with a pampering gaze and said. "Good girl, I see that you liked it a lot. Let's do it a little more until you are completely satisfied, okay, honey? I have to refill you of my Yang energy, after all."

Kali nodded with a shy smile. "I-I also want more."

Yaseenia nodded and then smirked. "Let's try double penetration. What do you say, honey?"

Kali's eyes moved with bashfulness. She wasn't used to using that other hole. But she nodded nonetheless.

With the confirmation, Yaseenia's dick and tail got to work for some more time, leaving Kali's insides painted with the dragoness's colors.

Yaseenia took out her members of the sleeping fox, and all the held-up semen flowed out. Yaseenia observed Kali's peaceful and smiling, sleeping face and traced her scars with her eyes.

Yaseenia didn't know when it happened, but Kali's scars began looking adorable to her instead of looking ugly. She knew that they weren't, in any way, beautiful. However, she couldn't help but love Kali and everything she had more and more as time went by.

The dragoness prepared the bathtub to clean her fox for a while. Once she stepped inside with Kali, Valeria appeared, holding both of them between her long arms. Yaseenia blinked and looked at the three-meter-tall green lady. "What's wrong, Valeria?"

Valeria smiled softly and kissed Yaseenia's head. "Nothing. I just want to bathe both of you, can I?"

Yaseenia thought for a second, but she finally nodded. Valeria's green eyes with golden slit pupils sparkled with happiness, and a gorgeous smile spread on her lips.

Then, she asked with a hopeful gaze. "Can I bathe you both after each session?"

Yaseenia looked into her eyes and said. "Sure, I can also relax a bit under your care."

And so, Valeria began bathing both of them with a gentle and caring smile on her lips.

While bathing Yaseenia, Valeria didn't shy away from any place. Although Yaseenia had her parts hidden, it wasn't long before Valeria pressed on some muscles to make her naturally open.

Yaseenia was too stupefied to react before Valeria started cleaning her penis, and her other hand gently washed her vulva.

Yaseenia didn't feel any sexual intentions, so she didn't react even after recovering from her stupefaction. However, she couldn't help but ask. "How did you do that?"

Valeria tilted her head and asked. "Do what?"

Yasenia pointed at Valeria's two hands and asked. "How did you open me without arousing me?"

Valeria understood and laughed. "Of course, I can do that. I just manipulated your nervous reaction and forcefully commanded your subconsciousness. That way, I can manipulate your body and simultaneously not bother you."

Yasenia was speechless. "Thank the heavens that she is my ally. A million-year senior can be terrifying, alright?"

Yasenia then was bathed like a child, in complete mercy of Valeria. However, Yasenia didn't resist since, well, it was very comfortable.

Yasenia's body felt incredibly light and comfortable when she walked out of the room.

Valeria carried Kali and looked at the dragoness. She saw Yasenia's languid and relaxed smile and a gentle smile spread on her own face. "Did you like the bath, Yasenia?"

Yasenia nodded, her tail wagging subconsciously. "I've learned a lot. Thank you, Valeria. I'm looking forward to the next one."

Valeria chuckled. "Fufufu, you are so cute~. I'm also looking forward to it."

The dragoness looked up and said. "I'm going to the others now. Good night."

Valeria crouched, careful not to wake up Kali, and kissed Yasenia's snout again. "Good night, Yasenia."

Yasenia didn't resist these small shows of affection. A small kiss on the nose wouldn't kill anybody. After receiving Valeria's soft kiss, she nodded and turned around to get her next prey.

Valeria smiled to herself as she saw the dragoness walk away calmly. 'Fufufu, first step to conquer dear Yasenia complete~. The next step is to lower Tatyana's resistance to me~. Just imagining rolling in the sheets with Yasenia and Kali makes me giggle with happiness~.'

Well, this super M.I.L.F. seemed quite serious. But only time will tell if she accomplishes her desires.

Yasenia then went to get Angel.

After a while, they both were in the room. Yasenia cradled her little girl softly as she moved her penis in and out.

There wasn't movement since Yasenia could control her member to lengthen and shorten about twenty percent of the total length. Not to mention, her tail was easily handled to explore the little girl's back hole.

Angel mewled and moaned as her two holes were massaged, and Yasenia's wings and limbs kept her secure. "Mmm~, Yasenia~, Yasenia~."

Hearing the soft calls of her lover, Yasenia lowered her head and softly licked her face. Yasenia's way of having sex with Angel had always been slow and very pleasurable, always trying to surround the most she could of her body around her and drown Angel in her presence.

At that moment, only Angel's feet could be seen from the back as Yasenia surrounded everything else. Her wings, limbs, tail, and neck were enough to make Angel disappear in her embrace as her penis and tail allowed them to make love.

Surrounded by Yasenia's presence, Angel was in heaven. The dragoness's penis was penetrating even her uterus, and the tail was digging so deep that she could feel both rods rubbing each other inside her.

Soon, Yasenia came and filled the little girl. Angel let out a throaty moan as her insides flooded with cum. "Ohhh!!!"

Yasenia felt her stomach being splashed by Angel's squirt. However, soon she felt another liquid hitting her. Yasenia was surprised since this hadn't happened in a while, but soon her smile became gentle. "Is my baby feeling so good that she peed herself? Such a careless little girl."

Angel felt her heart jumping around at that tone. She lifted her head and looked at the gentle dragon face looking at her. She said with a flushed face. "I-I'm sorry, mommy Yasenia."

Yasenia lowered her head and licked her mouth. "Oh baby, don't worry. You can do so as much as you want if you feel good. I won't blame you."

Angel nodded with infinite love shining in her eyes. "M-Mommy Yasenia, I want more."

Yasenia's smile became tender, and she began moving her members again. "Sure, my baby can make it with me as much as she wants."

Angel's moans sounded like kitten mewls, tickling Yasenia's heart.

Their session continued for a long time until Angel fell asleep surrounded by Yasenia's wings, scent, and presence.

Yasenia heard Angel's soft breathing and stayed still for another ten minutes, looking at her little girl for a while more.

After the typical bathing session, Yasenia went down to get her fourth victim of the night.

Chapter 374: Evelyn's sweet dreams. Cuddling with Cecile. (R-18)

After Yasenia tucked Angel into the bed with the other two, she swept the living room with her divine sense. Evelyn, Cecile, and Tatyana were sitting there together.

Yasenia went toward them to pick Evelyn.

Once she was there, they all looked at Yasenia. Evelyn stood up and smirked. "Finally! My time has come!"

Yasenia chuckled and walked toward her, allowing her to sit on her back. Then, she walked upstairs. Evelyn was so excited that she began kissing Yasenia's neck even before entering the room.

Our girl has been very eager to have a round with Yasenia.

Receiving such an enthusiastic response from Evelyn was like a stimulant that ignited Yasenia's passion.

Yasenia turned her head and bit her by the robes, throwing her onto the bed. Evelyn exclaimed and landed face-first.

Before she could even look back, Yasenia's two frontal claws appeared by the sides of her head, and the dragoness's head was before her. "You should remember all the teasing you did to me, right, dear?"

Evelyn's groins were about to catch fire with the dragoness above her and pinning her down face-first on the bed. Moreover, those predatory golden eyes carried the promise of getting back to her for all her teasing. 'M-Maybe I've provoked her too much?'

Evelyn felt a claw ripping her pants apart, and a breeze touched her naked skin. Evelyn gulped. "Yasenia, my love. Y-You can't be that petty with me, your lovely Evelyn."

Yasenia's smirk was wide, showing her fangs. "Oh~, I can't? Don't worry. You will only feel pleasure. Of course, tomorrow morning, a sore throat and hip pain are guaranteed, but sacrifices will always be made, right?"

Evelyn didn't know if her heart was pounding because of excitement or fear. However, once she felt a large rod resting between her buttocks, she knew the answer immediately. Her cheeks flushed as she felt the tip going through her butt crack and approaching her eager hole.

After the three previous people, the dragoness knew that her penis could even enter a raw vagina. Its natural lubricant and her ability to spray their insides with precum once penetrated were enough to have sex anywhere and anytime. Her dears were guaranteed to feel in heaven each time she fucked them.

Therefore, without previous warning, Yasenia opened her maw and trapped Evelyn's face, using her tongue to fill her mouth instantly, and she also lowered her waist to pierce Evelyn's pussy.

Evelyn didn't expect to be penetrated so early since usually Yasenia would ensure they were soaking wet before any action.

However, she didn't feel resistance as her hole was stuffed entirely with the dragoness's penis and opened until she felt her womb being crushed.

The electrifying feeling of the dragoness's forceful penetration made Evelyn moan inside Yasenia's mouth as her long tongue filled her mouth. "MMMMPH!"

However, Yasenia didn't have a single shred of mercy for Evelyn and began pounding her as if it was the last thing she would do today. The moment she started moving, the load of precum burst out and lubricated Evelyn's entire passage with a burning and pleasurable sensation.

Then, the dragoness could slide in and out without any problem. Of course, it didn't end there as the tail also moved, and after spraying another load of precum inside Evelyn's butthole, Yasenia began thrusting there too.

For Evelyn, this was a mind-melting experience. Her face was trapped in Yasenia's mouth, the tongue ravaging her mouth and Yasenia's breath filling her nose. Moreover, the feeling of being a chomp away from danger made it unnecessarily erotic for her.

Her pussy was being ravaged like a toy, she could feel her flesh moving as all her vaginal muscles were spasming because of the enormous thing opening her hole. She could already imagine how widened her entrance was at that moment.

Finally, last and not least, her butt was stimulated by the bumpy tail, making all the nerves there send pleasure waves to her brain one after another.

'I'm going to become stupid!'

Only thirty seconds after the beginning, Evelyn was already squirting because of a monstrous orgasm.

However, Yasenia didn't stop even when the slender girl below her was literally spasming in pleasure, her purple eyes rolling around as if they didn't know where they were, and Evelyn's throat was shouting in pure euphoria.

Yasenia was, of course, keeping an eye on her mind while she ravaged her, so she knew when it would be too much.

However, until then, Evelyn's fate was becoming the sexual plaything for the dragoness, something Evelyn had been waiting for a month straight. If you could read her mind, it would probably be a string of "YES! YES! YES! I'm being fucked by my Dragon Lover!"

Forty minutes later, Yasenia finally stopped.

Evelyn was unconscious, her stomach bloated with semen, and her face distorted in a lewd expression of pure happiness.

Yasenia unplugged her two rods, and Evelyn's pussy and butt spurted a river of cum, creating a puddle below them.

Yasenia was somewhat tired herself. She had sent Evelyn to the limit, let her rest a second, and did it again until Evelyn's mind shut down. "Although I've never broken her limit, she will probably be unable to move tomorrow."

Yasenia looked at Evelyn and laughed at her expression filled with happiness. 'My dear never ceases to amaze me with her requests. To think that she told me to treat her like a sex toy... Sigh, I must have a tender night to pamper her the next time.'

Yasenia dragged Evelyn to a part where the bed wasn't stained with their fluids. Then, she curled Evelyn in a fetal position and laid her down.

Yasenia circled Evelyn and allowed her to rest in a nest created by her body. Then, her eyes became tender, and she began cleaning Evelyn's body with her tongue.

She didn't want just to bathe her. Yasenia felt like pampering her for a while now.

Softly and slowly, Yasenia cleaned Evelyn of other fluids.

Somehow, Evelyn opened her eyes and managed to wake up for a moment. She looked at her position, curled in Yasenia's embrace. Then, she saw Yasenia cleaning her belly with her tongue, her throat making soft purring sounds, giving the ambiance a lovely and calm feeling.

Evelyn looked at those soft and tender eyes as she cleaned her and felt as if her heart was dipped in a jar of honey, so sweet and happy. However, she couldn't speak and couldn't keep her eyes open for much longer, shortly after falling asleep.

This time, our little Evelyn had a sweet smile and joyful blush adorning her face.

Yasenia didn't realize that Evelyn had awakened and realized her action.

Nevertheless, she continued pampering and cleaning Evelyn for a while more. Her tongue didn't miss any part of her dear Evelyn.

Then, she used a towel to clean her saliva and cuddled with the curled Evelyn for five more minutes. Observing Evelyn's sleeping expression and softly nuzzling her with her snout.

"It's time for you to go to bed, dear."

After carrying Evelyn and placing her on the bed, it was Cecile's turn.

Tatyana saw Cecile and Yasenia leaving the living room with a smile and turned to look at the night sky. She knew why Yasenia left her for last and also didn't pick her up first.

It was simple. Yasenia just wanted to have the most time with Tatyana, so she left her for last.

The Death Empress closed her eyes and meditated, waiting for Yasenia to come down.

Meanwhile, Yasenia and Cecile had already become entangled. Their bodies had finally completed their respective transformations, so they were pure-blooded beasts.

This made their connection even more profound and more solid.

Yasenias didn't lose time penetrating her dear phoenix and flooding her with her precum. Then, they went at it like animals.

Their growls, cries, and moans filled the room as Yasenia used her waist to move inside Cecile's insides.

They came quickly, filling the room with their shout of pleasure.

"Roar!"

"QYA!~"

Cecile's insides devoured Yasenia's Yang energy as if it was nectar from the gods, and Yasenia's body mixed Cecile's Yin energy inside her too.

Cecile caressed the scaly creature above her as her mouth couldn't stop kissing her. Her wings fluttered with happiness, and her tails stroked Yasenia's tail like long arms.

Yasenias growled and moved her tail, piercing Cecile's free hole before cumming again because of Cecile's tail masturbation.

Cecile smiled as her insides received even more of Yasenia's sweet release.

They went at it for a while until Cecile finally couldn't control herself.

She flipped the dragoness and took out one of the dildos. With extreme expertise, she placed it on her vulva and then pierced Yasenia's pussy.

The dragoness's golden labia were spread open in a circle as Cecile's giant penis pierced inside her. Yasenia roared with pleasure.

However, Cecile was just getting started as her waist went up and down.

PAH! PAH! PAH!

Cecile loved fucking Yasenia with the dick.

It was her natural instinct to dominate her partner, who gave everything in their connection to her.

She wanted to make the dragoness cry in pleasure, roar and let the world know she was hers. However, Yasenia's delightful dragon-pussy constricted around her and squeezed and trembled, making Cecile almost go crazy. "Fuck! Your pussy is so good!"

Yasenia just allowed herself to be dominated, and Cecile kept going at it. She even flipped the dragoness and began doing it doggy style. Yasenia could only pierce her claws into the mattress and destroy the bed as she was pounded from behind by her mate.

Cecile hugged Yasenia's waist and moved, kissing Yasenia's back between her large wings.

Yasenia felt Cecile cumming and releasing her squirt deep inside her, and her body trembled in delight. 'Cecile's cum is so good~.'

However, it wasn't long before their initial frantic mating began evolving.

Yasenia turned around and surrounded Cecile in her arms. Her wings were large enough to hide her mate in her embrace. Cecile had already vented her desires, so she took off her dildo and allowed Yasenia's dragon rod to pierce her again.

She snuggled in Yasenia's embrace and allowed the penis inside her to do its marvelous work. The pleasure built up as they hugged each other.

Cecile looked at the dragoness face and smiled lovingly. Yasenia rubbed her face on Cecile's, growling with love.

They didn't need to speak; their feelings flowed between them naturally.

Even then, voicing them from time to time was good. Thus, Yasenia said with a soft growl as her dick moved inside Cecile. "I love you~, I love you~, mmm, it feels so good, Cecile."

Cecile answered with a soft and tender voice, one that only Yasenia was allowed to hear. "I love you too. Ahn~, you are doing it so nicely, my love."

Yasenia and Cecile soon orgasmed and finished their session.

Cecile was still between Yasenia's arms, tired but awake. Her white, naked, perfect body touched Yasenia's scales, relishing in their warmth.

Yasenia didn't move and passed her claws through Cecile's feathers. They felt cool and comfortable.

Cecile spoke softly. "Let's stop here, my love. I'm more than satisfied."

Yasenia smiled, full of love. "Don't worry, sweetheart. We can continue doing it if you really want to. I don't want you hiding your desires to allow others."

Cecile looked up and met with the gentle expression of the dragoness. "You are my precious mate, Cecile. I don't want you to hide your desires from me for others, even if that other person is Mom. Alright?"

Cecile laughed with happiness and hugged Yasenia closer. "Mn! I won't. I love you, Yasenia."

Seeing such a cute Cecile made Yasenia's heart skip a beat. Therefore, Yasenia and Cecile had one last slow round.

Cecile relished in Yasenia's love and bathed in it until she felt every part of her usually cold heart warm and fuzzy.

After their last round, Cecile was still energetic enough to bathe Yassenia and clean her. Yassenia allowed herself to be bathed for a second time this night and leaned on Cecile's body.

Fifteen minutes later, Cecile walked toward the main bedroom, and Yassenia made her way down to the living room.

Chapter 375: Diving a little deeper into Tatyana. (R-18)

After saying good night to Cecile, Yassenia walked downstairs toward the living room, her mind recalling the night she had had until now. 'My dears really enjoyed the night. I can say that it is a big success ~. Who would've thought they would be so eager even when I was in my dragon form?'

Yassenia reached the door separating the entry hall and the living room and walked inside.

Her eyes went to the large couch before the large panoramic windows, and she stilled for a moment.

Tatyana was sitting cross-legged, calmly absorbing the energy around her and regulating her body. This made it so that her long and satin-like black hair waved even without air.

Her revealing black dress showed the milky white skin that glistened with the moonlight in an enthralling image.

Yassenia saw Tatyana's eyes slowly open, revealing her ruby-like eyes, more precious than any gemstone. They had a natural calming aura, and a small smile hung on Tatyana's lips.

It was different from the usual Death Empress; she looked like a quiet and gentle woman bathing in the moonlight.

Yassenia's mind came up with a sentence. 'As beautiful as the starry night, as far away as the Moon in the water.'

Tatyana looked to the side and spotted her dear daughter looking at her from afar. Her smile turned even more gentle. "Come here, little treasure. You don't want to keep mom waiting, right?"

Yassenia felt bashful for some reason, but she walked toward Tatyana while looking at her face.

When Yassenia reached before her, Tatyana extended her hand and caressed Yassenia's head. Yassenia jumped onto the couch and circled Tatyana, resting her head on her lap.

Tatyana didn't have any haste in doing what they were about to do, so she calmly leaned on Yassenia's body and slowly caressed her.

Her fingers traced Yassenia's facial features; her finger was like a soft feather as it passed over Yassenia's eyes, horns, lips, and snout.

Yassenia took a deep breath and exhaled through her nose. After ten minutes, Tatyana smiled. "Are you more relaxed now, little treasure?"

Yassenia let out a soft hum, clearly enjoying her mother's care. Yassenia suddenly remembered Tatyana's actions with Angel in the cave and asked with doubt. "Mom, what do you think about Angel?"

Tatyana thought about it calmly. "Hmm... She is a cute and innocent girl. A bit immature, but she is also a genius formation master."

Yassenia asked with a strange tone. "Do you like her?"

Tatyana blinked and looked at Yasenia with a funny look. However, she didn't tease her and answered honestly. Her face became calm as she said something that surprised Yasenia.

"I don't. I don't like any of your lovers. I wish I could have you for myself. I wish I could kill anyone who lays their eyes on you. If your constitution didn't have the difficulties it has, all of them would've mysteriously disappeared the second they began getting romantically close to you. Now, even Valeria is slowly worming into your heart."

Yasenia was honestly stunned. She thought Tatyana didn't dislike them because of how she acted. However, it seems that everything has been her misunderstanding. Tatyana smiled and said softly. "Don't get surprised, little treasure. Which man or woman would like to share their lover?"

Yasenia's face became complicated, and she sighed. She thought that because Tatyana was willing even to share a bed and have intercourse with them, she was getting close to them, but she failed to remember that sex for Tatyana was meaningless.

For the more than one-hundred-thousand-year senior like Tatyana, sex only had meaning when she did it with the person she loved.

Why did Tatyana agree to have sex with the others? You may ask.

Of course, it was to deepen their relationship with Yasenia and make them more comfortable with her presence.

Moreover, Tatyana didn't dislike having intercourse, it was a pleasurable experience that allowed her to pass the time, so she just did it. However, Tatyana's heart for other people besides Yasenia was as cold as a one thousand-year-old ice cube.

Tatyana could see Angel and the others being slaughtered before her, and she wouldn't even bat an eye.

Yasenia looked at Tatyana and sighed. 'Right, how could I have thought that mom would be so simple? Which person with her age can be a simple being?'

However, this didn't make Yasenia's heart change for Tatyana. How could it? She had discovered what kind of person her mother was slowly but surely.

A Death Empress feared by all those who live and those who are dead.

A Demigoddess that could implement plans complicated enough to manipulate entire worlds.

A fearless woman that looked down on the most influential races like the Divines and the Demons.

A Fate Manipulator that could latch strings on anyone and make them dance at her whims.

Tatyana was a powerhouse nurtured by a World of slaughter, tragedy, and misfortune. Someone who pushed beyond her limits, who knows how many times.

Could someone like that just take a liking toward a bunch of juniors who had just begun taking their cultivation trip?

Unlike Yasenia, who Tatyana allowed to change her heart, the others would have to work much harder if they wanted to gain her affection.

Yasenia used her frontal limbs to push Tatyana down onto the couch softly and landed on top of her.

Tatyana looked at Yasenia calmly and asked. "Aren't you disappointed? I'm sure you thought I was slowly getting along with them, right?"

Yasenia chuckled. "Disappointed? No, I wouldn't use that word. I feel... Hmm. How to put it? As if a curtain that was hiding you opened to reveal a little more of yourself."

Tatyana was surprised when she saw Yasenia smile tenderly and say. "I'm not disappointed. I'm happy."

Tatyana asked, surprised. "Happy? Why?" Even this senior was confused at Yasenia's reaction.

Tatyana wouldn't have flinched if Yasenia had snapped at her angrily. She perfectly knew that what she said could create a rift between them. However, she didn't hold it back because her own heart wouldn't change.

She thought she could afford to be hated by Yasenia for a while. Her little treasure was very young, so Tatyana could always slowly coax her, even if it took ten years, a hundred years, or a thousand years.

Unlike the previous times she loved, this time she was her lover's mother, increasing their bond to a depth she could never reach before.

After seeing Tatyana's confusion, Yasenia thought that she was adorable. 'It seems she still doesn't understand how precious she is in my heart, hahaha. Her confused expression is so cute~.'

Yasenia nuzzled her head against Tatyana's face. "I've finally seen deeper into your hidden heart, which makes me very happy. Why would I feel any other way after what you said?"

Tatyana felt her heart accelerating, and a slight blush crept up her cheeks involuntarily. She looked sideways, caught off guard. "I-I see."

Yasenia saw Tatyana's reaction and felt butterflies dancing inside her. 'No way, did mom just get bashful!? Argh! My heart is going to explode!'

Tatyana recovered instantly and looked at the dragoness on top of her. Then, she laughed softly. "My little treasure, do you know what you just did?"

Yasenia shook her head, but she only felt her body flipping around. Soon, her back pressed against the sofa with the gorgeous woman in a black dress straddling her. Tatyana smiled seductively and said. "I know you don't, but it doesn't matter. Just know that you'll never be able to escape me, My little treasure."

Yasenia saw a hint of something in Tatyana's eyes, but she could not read Tatyana's emotions.

However, she soon gasped as Tatyana's hand pressed on her belly, using a similar trick to Valeria's to open her.

However, Tatyana's skill didn't just open it but triggered something deep inside her that made her body burn.

Tatyana's red eyes shone as she said with a bone-softening tone. "Now that we are on the same cultivation level, I think I can let loose some of my real skills~."

Yasenia felt her soul shiver in pleasure as a strange energy entered her genital area. Then, saw her penis harden at record speed, reaching the maximum length in just five seconds, and her pussy was secreting a slimy substance.

Yasenia was about to open her mouth, but Tatyana made her clothes disappear, revealing the perfect body below it. The words got stuck in her throat as the Empress above her showed her everything with a predatory smile.

This night, Yasenia was bound to know how much of a greenhorn she was before Tatyana.

The Empress leaned forward until she could finally place the tip of Yasenia's long member on her lower mouth. "M-Mom, be careful when-MMM!"

Tatyana didn't even hesitate when she moved her waist back and swallowed the enormous and hardened dick.

Yasenia's eyes rolled as she pierced Tatyana's first and second entrances. The cervix had opened and allowed entry. Not only that, it seemed as if Tatyana's insides could stretch infinitely as her dick was hidden entirely inside.

Until now, although she could play with her width thanks to the softness and have pleasant sex with her dears, she hadn't managed to hide her whole member inside them even once. The dragoness penis was giant for a human woman. Now, fully hardened and at full mast, Tatyana's lower lips had widened in a circle as she kissed the base of the penis.

Yasenia could even see the bulge her large dragon rod was creating on Tatyana's body. The sight of the skin being pushed by her dick made Yasenia crazy; it was the first time she had seen something like this.

Tatyana also moaned aloud as she caressed the large rod with her hand. "Mm~, so big and hard. If it weren't because of my techniques, I wouldn't have been able to eat even three-quarters of your dick."

However, Yasenia's stimulation was such that her load of precum shot uncontrollably.

Tatyana felt the hard and hot rod inflating even more, making her feel full, and then her uterus was flooded by the dragoness ridiculous load. Tatyana's eyes widened in pleasure as the fluids smeared her fleshy cave with the aphrodisiac liquid.

Tatyana's brain buzzed with pleasure as she moaned aloud. "OHH! What is this??"

Yasenia's precum smeared Tatyana's insides and started a fire in the Empress' core. Her red eyes filled with lust, and she didn't delay it anymore.

Tatyana began jumping up and down. The dragoness's rod at full mast was large enough to look as if Tatyana was doing squats instead of having sex. "OH YES! MY YASENIA'S DICK IS SO GOOD! FUCK! FUCK! FUCK!"

Even Tatyana was like that. You could imagine Yasenia at the moment.

Her penis was being squeezed inside her mother in a way that lit up every nerve. The sensitivity of her dick seemed to be tenfold the usual as she felt the fleshy walls around it stimulate her. Instead of her dick, it felt as if her brain was being fucked.

She couldn't hold on to this stimulation and came without control. "I'M CUMMING!"

Yasenia shot her load into Tatyana with so much force that it deformed Tatyana's uterus walls. Tatyana's red eyes rolled, and she made a downward motion, making a fleshy sound.

PAH!

Then, she threw her head up, and as the semen flooded her insides, she squirted all over Yasenia. "YESS!!!"

It reached so far that even Yasenia's head was splashed with Tatyana's squirt. However, this was just the beginning.

Yasenia growled and hugged the woman into her embrace, claws almost piercing her skin, and then she began moving as much as possible.

Tatyana also moved her waist, and the sound of wet liquids splashing as flesh met with scales filled the living room.

Yasenia opened her mouth and trapped Tatyana's face inside, using her tongue to fill her mouth with it. Tatyana didn't lose out as she activated a skill to make her insides vibrate.

Yasenia's eyes almost rolled to the back of her skull as the micro-vibrations stimulated her even further. Another load of semen spurted out of Yasenia's penis.

As Tatyana squirted again because of Yasenia's powerful cum, she sucked Yasenia's tongue deeper inside her and used her throat to stimulate it.

Yasenia thought that her mother was out of tricks only to have her tongue converted into another sensitive member and be fucked by her throat. "OOHHH!!!"

Yasenia's tail was even faster than her current pleasure-filled thoughts as it rushed to Tatyana's back hole and pierced inside.

Tatyana uttered a muffled grunt as the long tail opened her asshole and explored her insides. 'So deep! Oh fuck, I'm cumming again!'

The pleasure was enormous, and her arms went around Yasenia's body in a tight hug. So tight that some of Yasenia's scales cracked under Tatyana's orgasmic strength.

However, this little pain was another stimulant, and Yasenia's throat released a roar of pleasure even when she was almost devouring her mother's face.

Yasenia's large wings enveloped them in their world, and they fucked each other like beasts for almost an hour straight.

Yasenia was milked like she never expected, and her pleasure senses were constantly firing. If she was the previous self, she might have been mentally wounded.

Tatyana, on the other side, was gladly surprised. Who would've thought that having her body nourished by Yasenia at the same level of cultivation made her instantly reach a muscle-spasming orgasm?

It was as if the dick had pierced her brain and cummed there, directly stimulating her nerves. Then, the hot Yang energy spread across her meridians, making her body burn with the flames of pleasure.

Yasenia had already allowed Tatyana's face to be free, but after one hour of being trapped there, Tatyana's senses of smell and taste were filled with Yasenia's flavor.

The couch below them was ruined, and Tatyana was currently lying on top of the dragoness's body. The giant dragon dick was still lodged inside her, and the tail was similarly widening her butt. However, they both had relaxed by now.

Well, more like Yasenia was almost out of combat.

You could see her body twitching, the tail doing strange shapes because of involuntary muscle spasms, the eyes glazed with pleasure, and her maw drooling so much that the couch beside her head had a puddle.

Speaking of puddles, there was a white one below their waist area.

Tatyana's red eyes scanned the limp and twitching dragoness and smirked. The member inside her was still twitching and spurting cum whenever a tiny bit recharged in an involuntary reaction. 'Will her body not stop cumming if I don't unplug her? Hmm~, well, whatever. I really like it, and her mind can support these minor and occasional orgasms.'

It was clear that the winner by an absolute advantage was Tatyana.

She had vanished Yasenia's mind to who knows what level of the Pleasure Heavens.

Tatyana asked softly. "Little treasure, are you here with me?"

Yasenia answered in a stupid voice. "Yesh, mommy~."

Tatyana chuckled in amusement. "Sleep, dear. It is already late."

Yasenia's mind was already on the brink of unconsciousness, so as soon as she heard her mother's order, even when her two rods were deeply lodged inside her, her eyes closed, and she fell asleep.

Tatyana smiled again. Then, she closed her eyes for a second and activated one last skill. This skill made her insides softly massage the member inside her but did not stimulate her sexually. It would only feel calming and satisfying.

Yasenia's body seemed to soften as soon as she cast the skill, and Tatyana smiled, satisfied. 'This is the first time I use this skill, but I'm glad it worked well. Good night, my little treasure.'

Chapter 376: The morning after. (R-15)

Morning came, and the sun began lighting up the sky.

In the main bedroom, our girls woke up one by one. Although their previous night was tiring in a way, cultivators at their level needed not much rest.

However, they all were feeling lazy.

It was undeniable that Yasenia had done an excellent job of satisfying their desire for her. Nevertheless, when they didn't spot their dear dragoness on the bed, they all decided to wake up.

Evelyn moved to the side of the bed, and when her feet touched the ground, she yelped. The others looked at Evelyn with confusion. Andrea asked, "What's wrong?"

Evelyn's face had a slight blush as she said. "Yasenia got my waist to work yesterday night, and I'm feeling the after-effects."

They had various reactions while looking at Evelyn rubbing her waist. Andrea chuckled. "You've finally got the night you wanted."

Evelyn nodded. "I didn't expect to be so good. Although I prefer her human form, I almost lost my mind while the dragoness fucked me."

Andrea laughed and asked. "Do you need help?"

Evelyn rolled her eyes and stood up. "I can deal with this bit of pain."

The others saw Evelyn's wobbly legs and didn't know how to react. Evelyn circulated her energy, and shortly after, the trembling stopped. "Tsk, what a shame. I didn't want to heal and feel the pain all day. But I can't walk if I do so."

The rest of the girls wanted to bow down to this... "Warrior."

Evelyn saw their stunned faces and laughed. Then, she asked them, "So, how was it? Did you girls like it?"

Andrea smiled and said, "Loved it. Her gestures, her growls, the feeling of her genitals, everything was incredible."

Angel asked shyly, "Y-You were the first. How did Yasenia react?"

Andrea smiled softly. "Very cute. She was shy and eager at the same time. I really will remember this night for a long time. How about all of you?"

They looked at each other and began exchanging experiences.

They couldn't help but marvel at their dragoness's drive. Kali concluded. "Although her lust has grown, we have also become more formidable. All of us together are more than enough to satisfy her needs."

They all nodded. Angel then said. "Also, we have mommy Tatyana. Even at this level, I'm sure she can squeeze Yasenia dry only by herself..."

They couldn't help but nod. Cecile asked. "Speaking of them, where are they?"

After getting dressed in their cultivation robes in seconds, they looked around the rooms on the second floor. Andrea spotted Ebirah sleeping in one of the rooms they didn't use, but she decided not to wake her up yet.

They met at the stairs and shook their head. Evelyn commented, "They are not on the second floor."

Kali placed a hand on her mouth and chuckled. "Maybe, they were so eager that they did it in the living room."

Andrea nodded. "I wouldn't be surprised. Yasenia had been away from Tatyana for twenty years, after all."

They walked down the stairs to find them. Evelyn looked outside the window and saw a small white hill of fur curled and sleeping soundly. "I hope Sierra wasn't uncomfortable."

Cecile commented. "She is a wild wolf; I think she is accustomed to sleeping outside. Moreover, she can't enter the house."

Evelyn looked at Andrea and asked. "Andrea, can you build her a small hut?"

Andrea nodded with a smile and patted her head. "Don't worry. I'll do it when I can."

Cecile looked at Angel, making the little girl a little nervous. "What's wrong, Cecile?"

"Wasn't Senior Mirrory going to teach us something? Is she awake?"

Mirrory's lazy voice reached their ears. "I don't sleep. Also, there isn't any haste in knowing that. You'll need years to refine it, after all."

Evelyn smirked. "Oh~, so senior Mirrory spectates Angel's night?"

Mirrory snorted. "As if I would be affected by that. However, little Angel, you should control yourself more next time. Peeing yourself is not very good, after all."

Angel's face exploded in red, and she covered her face with her hands, embarrassed sounds leaving her mouth.

The others almost tripped at Mirrory's "betrayal." Kali mumbled, "Valeria, you are not allowed to discuss my nights without my permission..."

"Oh my~, then I won't say how loud you moaned and screamed Yassenia's name~."

Kali was the second victim of the seniors.

With a flushed face, Kali covered her face with the large two fox-tails, joining Angel in the embarrassment melody.

The others laughed but didn't say anything. They weren't any better than them in any aspect, so they didn't want these seniors to target them.

Who knew if their powerful spiritual sense also caught their act? They didn't want to tease these two, only to become victim number three!

During their talk, they reached the door to the living room and opened it.

However, once they opened the door, their legs almost failed them as a wave of powerful, divine-smelling scent hit their olfactory sense.

A small moan escaped their mouths as their bodies reacted to Yassenia's powerful mating scent. They had practically been accustomed to entering in heat once they smelled this scent.

Even then, they could control their small impulse with a little bit of willpower.

Andrea's voice was shaky for a moment, recovering mid-sentence. "Sigh, how can something that smells so well exist." Then, she felt lucky. "Thankfully, I didn't wake Ebrahim up and make her come with us. Who knows what would've happened if this powerful scent hit her?"

Evelyn involuntarily took in a deep breath and said in a dreamy voice. "Why does she smell so good? I could practically masturbate to just her scent."

As always, they couldn't refute Evelyn's words even if they wanted.

Evelyn chuckled. "If Sierra was here, she might have been unable to find a mate in the future. Her instincts would probably force her to have only Yassenia's progeny, hahaha."

Kali's two tails were dancing rapidly, and her cheeks were blushed, "I think that it isn't only the scent. Her pheromones should be able to trigger ours, making the smell divine and pleasant for us."

Then, she added. "Of course, any female or male would become as excited since Yaseenia's presence is just too arousing."

Angel stuttered because of embarrassment and pointed at the middle of the... War zone? "Wow, look at them. They really didn't hold back."

Their eyes followed Angel's finger and saw the two individuals' state.

In the middle of the room, the dragoness and the Death Empress were entangled and connected almost in a single entity.

Their body fluids covered everything around them, creating quite a messy view. It was clear that they didn't address the surroundings before falling asleep.

Yaseenia circled Tatyana's entire body, using herself as a full-body pillow. She was on her back, and the wings and tail wrapped around the woman in her embrace.

They could see Tatyana's perfect long legs circling Yaseenia's waist, but they also spotted some cracks. It seemed that the orgasms the Death Empress experienced made her hug her dear so tightly that some of her scales broke. Of course, they were mostly regenerated, but they could still observe the damage.

Moreover, Yaseenia's tail was curled, clearly going toward Tatyana's waist area. Since they couldn't spot the golden tail tip, it was clear where it was hiding.

Cecile said with a deadpan expression. "They fucked each other to sleep."

Andrea laughed, "That's a good summary of the wild events that may have happened here."

Evelyn commented, "Well, it isn't strange after considering how much Yaseenia missed Tatyana. I wouldn't have been surprised if I had found them still going at it this morning. The fact that they have stopped is probably because either of them has "lost" the battle."

Angel muttered. "It is strange to see mommy Tatyana tired. Is she okay?"

Kali thought, "It should be that her current body isn't as resilient as her main body. Although she has massive soul power, she can still get physically tired. Taking Yaseenia head-on isn't easy, no matter how experienced you are."

Valeria commented. "Kali is right. Yaseenia's energy transference during dual cultivation can make any person below the Dantian Spiritualization Realm climax by just being injected by it. Even if the dual cultivation is not a sexual one, the pleasure would still be immense."

Cecile raised an eyebrow. "How do you know?"

Valeria chuckled, her voice sounding mischievous. "Well, I can connect my senses with Kali for a short time, so I have experienced it indirectly~. You girls are so lucky in this aspect."

They were speechless. These seniors are really sneaky!

Andrea took out a [Body Scent Absorbing Pearl] and activated it.

There was a soft pulse of energy that evaporated everything in the room. Then a powerful suction force absorbed everything. They all took a deep breath, and besides the lingering scent in their nostrils, they could now breathe fresh air.

Angel looked at the fist-sized blue crystal in Andrea's hand with awe. "The formation is incredibly complex even if the effect is simple. It must realize what things it can vaporize and what it shouldn't. Even the current me would have to spend a month or two to create one item. It would also have a hundredth of its current quality."

The others were speechless.

Evelyn sighed, impressed. "I heard Tatyana created six hundred in ten minutes or so. That is a cleaning pearl per second. It truly puts things into perspective."

Two months against a second, it was truly incomparable. Cecile asked, curious. "By the way, how many do we have left?"

Andrea answered. "We still have around six hundred. Yasenias have only used twenty of them or so. Remember that they can be reused until the space inside is filled."

Evelyn suddenly asked. "Say, couldn't we use them like a weapon? You know, throwing them toward an enemy and making it explode. I think that our enemies would instantly lose strength."

They looked at the blue crystal ball in Andrea's hand and got thoughtful. Andrea saved it in her spatial ring and commented. "Well, we'll see if we use it in the future. Don't throw them away if you use them. Yasenias should have given all of you twenty of them, right?"

They nodded.

Then, Andrea closed the door, leaving the mother-daughter pair in the living room.

Evelyn asked. "So, what should we do? Yasenias and Tatyana will probably be with each other for the whole day. We should do something in the meantime."

Kali said softly. "We should build our alchemy, formation, tailoring, and blacksmithing rooms on the third floor. Then, hear about what Mirrory has to say about cultivation. After that... I don't know. What do you girls think?"

Cecile commented, "How about exploring the city? We can gather information about it."

Angel commented. "Won't it be dangerous?"

Mirrory spoke. "What are you afraid of? You all have life-saving treasures, so you can escape if something happens. Moreover, with Valeria and me around, you should be safe."

They nodded, and Valeria spoke with a calming tone. "Don't worry, children. Tatyana, Mirrory, and I have scouted the whole city for strong people, and the strongest in the city right now is an expert with early Dantian Spiritualization strength."

Andrea was surprised. "There are people who cultivate energy instead of body cultivation?"

Valeria chuckled. "No, silly. I mean that their strength level is in that area. They should be in the Epoch Core Body Cultivation Realm. Or they may be a super talented person that can surmount levels in cultivation, or on the contrary, someone on higher levels but much less talented. Who knows?"

Evelyn got thoughtful, "Should I call Sierra?"

Andrea shook her head, "We will leave Sierra at home to protect Ebrahim, Yasenias, and Tatyana."

Evelyn looked at Andrea weirdly. Andrea looked at her and asked, "What's wrong?"

Evelyn said, "I just feel that "Tatyana" and "protect" don't belong in the same sentence."

The other four looked at her weirdly, wanting to respond something but not being able to deny her claim.

Andrea nodded, "Let's carry Sierra with us. However, I rather let Ebirah here. Since she is a princess, people may recognize her if we carry her around too much."

And so, after building their labs and a hut for Sierra, they all left the house to explore outside.

In the meantime, Andrea had spoken with Ebirah and told her to wait at home. She didn't hide concerns, so Ebirah was understanding and stayed in the house while absorbing minerals to increase her strength.

Chapter 377: City Lord of Koran City.

Rumors about powerful humans arriving in the Koran City had already spread, reaching the City Lord's ears.

It wasn't strange because a thing like this was as rare as it could be. Humans in the Distancia Continent were scarce, weak, and easy to bully.

Learning that a powerful human existed generated two different thoughts. The first was a sense of danger. However, most people wouldn't take it seriously. After so many years, the generations that lived when humans roamed the Continent freely were already gone.

The other reaction was curiosity. How did a weak race like humans manage to nurture a mighty warrior? It was indeed a mystery for them.

If the City's slave owners weren't sure they could catch them, they would've probably tried to get their hands on them already. However, Jorey, one of the most prominent merchants, didn't try to take them by force, so they became careful in the matter.

In a building near the middle of Koran City, the City Lord looked at papers when this news reached him. He was a mix between a wolf and a human. His skin was on the darker side, and his fur was black. His head was in the middle between a wolf and a human, but his body was entirely that of a human. His legs were muscular, and a short and bristly tail was behind him.

He was part of the [Steel Back Wolf Clan], a strong clan even between the plethora of families in the Distancia Continent.

He read the reports and asked the common-looking female, brown-feathered harpy on his side. "I received reports about a strange group with high strength. Are they that strong? Do we need to be wary of them? Although they seem like merchants, the reports about strong humans are quite problematic."

Like almost all variants of her race, the harpy was naked with a stack of papers on her claws. Her arms and wings were attached into one, but her fingers were separated and looked agile enough to work with in delicate work.

Despite her nakedness, she didn't act out of turn and answered formally. "We've failed to observe them in detail. However, I received a report five minutes ago that most of them had left the house. I told one of our spies from the [Phantasmal Night Owl] race to watch over them. I believe they can do their job well and inform us as long as there is trouble."

The City Lord's facial expression was not good. He looked into the eyes of the harpy with disdain and asked coldly. "Are all of you slacking? How did you not gain any information after a whole night went by? You could've infiltrated their house or tried to guess from which family they are!"

The City Lord had a low growl in his voice while he spoke. "The only thing I've got after ignoring all the useless flattery in the report is that they have a powerful human, a dragon, a two-tailed fox woman, a phoenix woman, a young crustacean, and a wolf from an unknown giant race! I can fill a report like this after looking a single time! Useless!"

The harpy's feathers ruffled in fear. Although she was not weak, the aura of the City Lord was much stronger than hers. Therefore, she hastily explained before something went out of control. "City Lord, calm your anger. They have a mighty formation master. All the people I sent to inspect it couldn't even look inside at what was happening. Even the wolf seemed to have popped out of the house once they walked outside. Clearly, their vision disrupting formation is of an extremely high level."

The City Lord's wild facial features scrunched as he looked at the trembling harpy. However, he didn't do anything in the end. "You are lucky you have some backing, or else you would've already lost your head. And what if they have a formation master? Don't we have a lot of them too? Unless they are from the [Sky Formation Palace], I don't believe our experts can't beat theirs."

The harpy sighed in relief after the City Lord calmed down. Then, she straightened and explained. "We tried contacting the Senior that is currently allocated in the City. However, he told us to wait some days before he could do something about it. It seems he is speaking with the people from the Nine sects currently in the City."

The City Lord pondered about it for a second and didn't insist.

His Koran City wasn't strong, after all. In the whole Continent, they could be counted as a small power. If he weren't from the [Steel Back Wold Clan], many would have already tried to push him out of his current position.

After reading the documents for a while more, he was doubtful of the description of the Dragon. "Did you hire a poet to write the description of this Dragon? The Moon and the Sun in their wings, scales as beautiful as a starry night... This should be exaggerated."

The harpy shrugged; she was also curious when she received the text. "Leader Fu, I've confirmed with the person who saw the dragon directly, but he said that this text doesn't do justice to the actual beauty of the creature."

The City Lord scanned the document again with a raised eyebrow. "Did we discover which race it is from? I'm getting interested, to be honest."

The harpy shook her head with a sigh. "No. This dragon species is unknown! Not even the librarian could find out about it. After she ensured that the Dragon we described existed, she even went to the house's surroundings to look at it with her own eyes."

Leader Fu nodded. "I see. What about its bloodline? Is it grown up? Speak to me about it a little more."

The harpy moved to the side and bend to pick up a document. The City Lord's eyes couldn't help but land on the plump butt.

After she straightened and turned around, she came back to him. He recovered his gaze and listened to her explanation. "With the limited information we have, we can guess this creature is young. After all, the Merchant Jorey from the [Mountain Traveling Merchants] treated it as such. The Dragon didn't resist her hugs, treats, or other gestures."

The City Lord nodded. "Well, if it were an adult dragon, there is no way they would allow others to humiliate them like that."

The harpy nodded. "We've also learned that it is a female dragon. One of our spies caught one of the women calling her "My beautiful dragoness." I think this is enough to confirm her gender."

The City Lord's eyes shone with interest. "A female dragon of an unknown race? That's even rarer than the powerful humans. What about her bloodline? Is it strong enough?"

The harpy's gaze became serious. "We've tried reading her bloodline with our skills and items, but we didn't manage to read any of them."

Leader Fu frowned. "None of them? That's impossible, right?"

The harpy sighed. "Leader Fu, this is my speculation, but I'm ninety percent certain that the formation master has created a disruptive layer. If they are strong enough to hide an entire mansion, they should be able to create a low-scale, moving formation that hides their traits."

The City Lord nodded. "That's reasonable. Tell me more."

She continued. "However, although we couldn't directly measure their bloodline, it can't be low. Have you read the characteristics of the Phoenix woman, City Lord?"

He nodded. The harpy said seriously. "We think she is a descendant of the [Moon Phoenixes]. Although that's a mythical change, all the traits shown by them appear in her. Indifferent, aloof, with silver wings and blue eyes. She has three phoenix tails, and her beauty is catastrophic. Her face alone can make Kings and Queens wage war to gain a smile from her."

The City Lord was surprised. The Harpy race was beautiful by nature, his secretary didn't look bad, but she could be considered ugly among those in her race. For someone like her, standards were set high since birth. Therefore, to speak like that only meant that this Phoenix Woman was a peerless beauty.

Still, he was the most interested in the Dragon. The harpy didn't leave him hanging and spoke. "Taking into account this, and seeing like this Phoenix Woman was very careful with the dragoness, we can assume that the dragoness is at least in the Divine Level bloodline-wise."

"Divine level!? Only leaders of an entire race can reach such heights. That's impressive."

The harpy nodded. "We can only guess that a new clan is emerging to the surface. Our Continent's hidden clans are many, and although most of them are weak, some rival the leading powers of our Continent."

The City Lord got thoughtful and stood up, walking toward the window and looking outside. Then, he said. "Try getting into contact with them. Remember to be friendly. Also, if you get into their good books, try to dig for information on why they came to our City."

"Although we don't fear anyone, we also can't afford to offend a powerful family. Also, when you are near, try to measure their bloodline. I'll lend you the most powerful bloodline detector we have. It is very precious, so don't you dare lose it."

The harpy was petrified. She didn't want to get close to these people. What if they thought that she came to harm and killed her? They looked like people you wouldn't want to mess with, even from a distance!

However, she was unable to go against most of his orders. She was here to increase the alliance between their clans, after all. Although they hadn't had any intimate contact until now, she could feel his eyes all over her while she worked.

Usually, this was something to feel prideful of for harpies, but she was brought up in a family with other races, so even if she was naked because of culture, tradition, and necessity, she didn't like people ogling her body.

She answered with a sigh. "Understood, City Lord. Is there anything more you want to discuss?"

He turned around with a smile that looked quite ferocious and nodded. "Good. By the way, Ghana, when will you let me mate with you? Aren't we here to create bonds between our clans?"

Ghana's feathers stood up in fear, and she answered. "City Lord, please remember that I'm not interested in starting any relationship. I would like for you to get me out of our thoughts. We've been working together for decades, so I hope to clarify this."

He stared at her up and down for seconds, forcing Ghana to use her wings to cover her body, and then snorted. "You are so ugly, so I wanted to be magnanimous after you didn't find a husband for such a long time. Who would've thought that you would answer like that? Anyway, speak to me about the strange things around us lately."

Ghana frowned, but she didn't answer his mocking remarks. She went back to take other documents and then began reporting. "The horrifying screech of pain that resonated throughout the Continent is confirmed to be Heaven's scream of pain. The forest in the area has basically died. From the focal point, it is estimated that more than ten thousand kilometers in radius died because of powerful Death Energy. The person who challenged the Heavens probably died after hurting them."

The City Lord's expression darkened. "That forest was a good spot to gather resources. Anything more?"

The harpy nodded. "There are reports of people seeing cracks in the sky and people falling through them. What should I do about this?"

The City Lord laughed and waved his hand. "Mark them as rambling lunatics. Cracks in the sky? If that happened after the Heavens were attacked, I would take them seriously, but the reports are from before, so they are probably a group trying to gather attention. If there isn't anything more, please go meet with the group in our City."

Ghana nodded, and after grabbing the air below her waist area, she walked away.

Chapter 378: Intent, the first step toward law attainment. Commotion in the Smithy.

Meanwhile, Angel, Andrea, Evelyn, Ebirah, Cecile, Kali, and Sierra were walking down the street and looking at the foreign architecture.

Sierra's huge body would generally be an inconvenience and very eye-catching. However, there were plenty of giant races and beasts in this Continent full of exotic variety.

From time to time, they could even spot creatures larger than her, humanoid people that would make Sierra look small, and flying beasts that glided above their heads with massive wingspans.

Angel couldn't help but mutter, her voice laced with awe. "This place is impressive. So many races and creatures. It is very different from our cities."

Evelyn commented. "Visually, it is enjoyable for the eye. However, I'm unsure how the establishments in this city work with such discrepancies in size."

The others were also curious. Even though they'd walked the city before and entered some shops, they had only entered normal-sized stores.

Andrea commented. "How about we enter one of the giant buildings? I'm rather curious. Also, it would be interesting to see a master in our professions to compare with our work. What do you say, girls?"

Kali nodded, her tails swaying as she walked. "I thought we would receive Mirrory's guidance today, but I didn't expect Yasenya and Tatyana to fall asleep like that. Seeing workers in action is a good thing."

Mirrory commented. "I want Tatyana to be present in the demonstration. However, I can tell you that now that you are in the Unification Realm, you will have to work in the soul aspect a lot more, and consequently, you will begin your understanding of the laws."

Cecile raised an eyebrow, interested. "Laws? We'll learn laws soon?"

Thankfully, Mirrory wasn't materialized, or Cecile would have received a glare full of disdain. However, her tone could actually make them imagine her current expression. "Laws? Youngsters like you learning laws? Not even Tatyana's main body has a real understanding of the laws. What can juniors like you do?"

Cecile wasn't offended; this archaic mirror had all the right to be as arrogant as it wanted since its real strength was something unimaginable to them. "Then, what do you mean?"

Valeria took the conversation, explaining more patiently and gently. "You girls have to remember that understanding a law entirely is similar to becoming a god. If you comprehend a law perfectly, everything that doesn't understand them is like an insect in front of you. A thought, and they are gone."

Their face became serious. Such a terrifying power was scary. Valeria chuckled. "Don't worry; only creatures in a high-rank world, stronger than even the Sky Continent, can comprehend complete laws."

Angel suddenly asked. "But I heard senior Tian Long using them before."

Valeria asked Kali. "Can you show me that memory, Kali?"

Kali did so, and Valeria observed the eternal chains attack. Then, she commented. "That's bending the laws, not using them. If that dragon had known how to use the Death Law, he wouldn't have had to materialize to deal with those Demon Monarchs."

They were somewhat speechless but nodded in acceptance. Valeria continued. "However, laws are not learned so easily. There are various steps to take."

"You first must understand an [Intent]. This can channel some concepts into your attacks. For example, if someone had learned about the [Wind Intent], that person would be able to control all wind around them to a certain degree. A person with an Intent is also much more powerful than one without it since Intent is the first step toward learning a law."

Andrea asked. "How much stronger?"

Valeria thought for a second. "Following the previous example, if someone without an initial level of Wind Intent attacks a rock and can cut a tenth with wind blades, someone with it can at least cut one or two of those rocks with the same strength."

They were surprised. Such a high advantage was not a joke.

Valeria commented with a chuckle. "Your dear dragoness already understands an intent, but she hasn't used it actively ever because she didn't reach the Unification Realm."

They were stunned. "Which Intent did she learn?"

Valeria said. "More than one. The one I can actively sense is Sword Intent. However, I don't know when or where she did learn it because she already had it when she met Kali for the first time."

Their expressions became heavy. Yasenia had once again taken a giant step forward before they could realize it. Moreover, it had been a long time ago. 'Wasn't Yasenia a level one Mental Nourishing Realm at that time? How could it be?'

While Cecile thought about it, a scene flashed in her mind.

She remembered that after Yasenia got [Draconic Heart] for the first time, their master Madeleine took them on a training journey. At that time, Yasenia was very unused to the giant sword and kept failing to cast her skills.

However, one morning, Yasenia's aura seemed to change as Madeleine and Cecile observed her. Her cumbersome swordplay felt like it had taken a giant leap forward, and her movements became smooth like water.

She also remembered Madeleine's shocked expression when Yasenia broke through that invisible barrier. Cecile's heart became even heavier. "I think I know when it happened."

Cecile explained the situation, and Valeria and Mirrory nodded. Valeria said. "It must have been. Sword skills can't be suddenly increased without learning the essence of the sword [Sword Intent]. What level was she at that time?"

Cecile said. "Body Modification Realm."

Valeria and Mirrory became silent. Then, Mirrory said. "I will be blunt, so don't take it badly. But the only ones that can compare in raw talent to Yasenia are Cecile, Kali, and Angel."

Andrea and Evelyn nodded. Andrea smirked and said. "I knew about that. That's why I'm always trying to improve. Moreover, Evelyn has inherited a Thunder God's legacy, so she isn't that far away from the others. If it weren't for the Heaven-born flame I got, I would have probably been unable to keep up. Even with Yasenia's nourishment."

Andrea clenched her fist and said. "However, I won't give up. Even if the world doesn't want me to become someone exceptional, I'll carve a path myself. I refuse to be left behind by her."

The others saw Andrea's light green eyes shining with determination and felt admiration. Even before the abnormal Yasenia, Andrea's will to improve and be a step before Yasenia had only been strengthened, resulting in her being the person with the highest Cultivation Level.

Valeria and Mirrory looked at Andrea thoughtfully for a second. However, they didn't say anything more.

Mirrory commented. "Speaking is easy. You'll have to probe those words with actions."

Andrea nodded, her back straight and with a fearless smile on her charming face. "I know."

Valeria explained a bit more about the path toward understanding laws. "Well, intents also have different levels, and after perfecting an Intent, you must comprehend domains. Only after perfecting domains will you be able to start trying to understand laws."

They couldn't help but clench their fists; the path of cultivation was very long. When they feel they've reached a small height, an enormous mountain appears every time on the horizon.

Valeria saw their expressions, so she said. "The path is long. I won't explain more of it for now. We'll continue the conversation when we return to the house and Tatyana is present."

They didn't have any objections and continued walking around. Although, at first, they were a bit distracted by their thoughts, they soon became calmer.

After a while, they decided to enter a smithy. However, the doors were almost twenty meters tall.

The building was truly imposing, making them feel truly small. If it weren't because the readable sign on the side of the building, it wouldn't have been possible to know it was a smithy.

Andrea stepped forward and placed her hand on the door. However, a humanoid giant with four arms looked at them with a sneer and mocked aloud. "What are you little ants doing here? Do you think you can open these doors? Hahaha, you should go to one of the small smithies at the side."

They all looked up at the fifteen-meter-tall man and blinked.

Sierra placed them below her and growled, lightning coursing around her white. The man saw the lightning and frowned, but he wasn't too afraid.

However, Angel scrunched her nose and walked forward.

The people around looked at the pouting cutie walking out of the protection of the beast and shook their heads. 'Does she think those doors are made of hay? What can she do with that little body?'

However, their eyes were bound to almost pop out of their skulls with Angel's following action.

BANG!

The door opened like a cannonball struck it when Angel kicked it with her short leg. Our group members chuckled and looked at the shocked faces at the sides.

"Sierra, relax. Let's walk inside." Kali walked forward after reminding them about their current identities via spiritual sense communication.

Sierra's expression returned to a cold and aloof one, standing behind them again.

Meanwhile, Angel blinked, having forgotten completely. However, she was quick-witted enough to say with a cute smile. "Master, you can go inside now~."

Kali and Cecile nodded and patted her head one after another. "Good job, little slave."

Angel nodded with a smile.

Then, Angel looked at the giant man, making him flinch with lingering fear. "S-Sorry, miss, I was blind and failed to see your greatness."

Angel snorted and walked inside with a cutely proud expression.

Andrea couldn't resist pinching her gelatinous cheeks.

Meanwhile, outside the smithy, a certain brown-feathered harpy was hiding between the stunned crowd while sweating buckets. 'Fuck my life. I have to approach those monsters!'

Shaking her head, she decided to try later. 'What if they are still annoyed? I don't want to become a punching bag!'

Inside the building, our girls looked around with interest. The ceiling was as tall as twenty-five meters. Many weapons, armor, and other items made for giants hung on the walls, and there was a counter in the far right corner of the room.

The counter was like a four-story tall building, and to their surprise, the side facing them was transparent, showing two floors inside. This counter was like a building inside a building, strange and innovative.

The creature standing on the counter was neither too small nor too big relative to the place.

It was a red-furred bear kin with a height of four meters. His similarities to a common bear were abundant, but his body was better suited for walking on two legs since the legs were longer and more muscular.

He was quite an intimidating creature.

However, our girls didn't fear him in the slightest.

Angel commented. "I feel like I'm in the lands of giants! Won't it be very cumbersome for people to jump onto the counter if they want to speak with him?"

Evelyn chuckled, "Look, there are stairs at the side. The shop is very customer-friendly if they have common-sized items. Should we take notes for our future shops?"

Andrea commented with interest, "We really should. Look, there aren't only stairs. Aren't the two counters on display like building floors?"

They focused on them, and Kali muttered with wonder. "They've got a building inside a building. I guess that guest of normal size can find their items there too. I just spotted a common-sized sword there."

While discussing the intriguing shop, the bear-kin jumped from the counter, landing in front of them with a loud bang.

He was a Low-level Spiritual King realm body cultivator, equivalent to a Mental Nourishing Realm cultivator, so that kind of feat was nothing.

He looked at our girls with an unfriendly gaze. Then, he spoke with his gruff voice while pointing with his claw. "Our [Father Bear Blacksmith] does not welcome humans. Less so those that damage doors in their entry!"

They looked at the door he was pointing at and saw a dent in the closed door. It seems that Angel's kick was a little stronger than she expected.

The blonde cutie couldn't help but blush. She generously said. "H-Here, mister bear, ten low-level Parus, this should be enough for the door, right?"

The bear sneered and clawed toward Angel.

Their faces fell, but thankfully, the speed of the attack was too slow for them.

Angel observed the claw getting closer with a confused look. 'Why did he attack me?'

Sierra calmly said. 'Don't counterattack. Leave it to me.'

Angel nodded obediently and waited in place as the claw approached her.

Sierra's body blurred when the claw was thirty centimeters away and didn't seem to have lost momentum, and her paw descended on the bear-kin with monstrous strength.

The bear-kin's eyes widened, and he jumped backward, dodging Sierra's attack. Of course, Sierra allowed him to dodge.

However, when the bear-kin had dodged the strike, Sierra didn't stop the descent of her paw and increased her strength.

BANG!

The smithy trembled under the Wolf Queen's monstrous strength, and the floor below her paw cracked. Then, she growled toward the scared bear-kin.

Cecile stepped forward and released her bloodline pressure on top of him.

If he wasn't scared enough before, when the low-level Ancient-ranked bloodline pressure slammed onto him, he almost pissed himself in fear.

Cecile's voice entered his ears with a tone that could freeze hell. "How dare you attack my person, scum!"

Chapter 379: Value of Transmuted metals. Searching Information.

The tall bear-kin almost couldn't control his bladder.

Sierra's horrifying attack, which managed to crack the floor of his smithy, was scary enough, but now the bloodline pressure from this woman seemed to be as crushing as a mountain. Moreover, he had the instinctual urge to kneel in front of her. 'W-What kind of seniors did I provoke!?'

Cecile flapped her large silver wings and flew forward, landing in front of the four-meter-tall bear kin. Her blue eyes were as cold as the Moon and so piercing that they seemed to freeze the soul. "You dare swing your dirty paw in front of me? Why did you attack my person? Think carefully before you answer, or you will lose that arm."

The bear kin didn't care anymore about honor and directly lay flat before Cecile. "S-Senior, please forgive this junior! I didn't think the slave would be so significant for your esteemed self; this one thought the human was annoying because she almost destroyed the door and wanted to eliminate her! I don't have any ill feelings toward senior!"

Cecile's eyes became emotionless. How could Cecile not know how much Yasenia loved and pampered Angel? Wanting to eliminate Angel was something stepping a bottom line for the Phoenix. Therefore, she summoned her [Crystal Blue] bow with the intention to shoot at the bear kin.

The large bear's eyes were filled with despair.

However, a soft and calming furry tail wrapped around Cecile's arm before she could tense the bow. Cecile felt her anger dissipate and looked to the side. She saw Kali looking at her and shaking her head softly. "Don't kill him, Cecile. Remember where we are."

Cecile frowned but soon relaxed. She stored the bow in her ring again and stepped back, allowing Kali to walk forward. The bear kin sighed in relief after the suffocating pressure disappeared. 'I-I'm saved...'

Kali smiled under her veil, making her eyes look gentle, and she asked. "Mister, we don't want to cause trouble. We are new in Koran City and wanted to gain some knowledge and maybe create some connections."

Kali stopped for a moment, 'Hm? Now that I think about it, we don't have a name for our clan... I should ask Yasenia later.'

Kali continued. "Stand up. I know this is all a misunderstanding, so there is no need to be so submissive."

The red-furred bear-kin felt that this two-tailed fox woman was a saint and hastily stood up. 'Such a delicate woman! I would want her to be my wife if she were a little taller!'

Kali asked softly. "Are you occupied now, mister? We hope to talk to you about selling a small part of our special merchandise."

The bear kin shook his head rapidly. "Not busy, not busy. What does the beautiful lady want to sell? I'm the best blacksmith in this area, so I guarantee to give good prices."

Kali nodded and looked back. "Andrea, step forward. Discuss with this gentleman about it."

Andrea walked forward after paying respects to Kali and stood before the bear kin. "I want to sell this metal. How precious do you think it is?"

The blacksmith's eyes widened when she saw the lustrous purple metal with a natural aura around it. It was a transmuted metal, and Andrea wanted to see how this bear kin would react. 'As expected, this thing can also catch the eye of the blacksmiths in this Continent. Now, as long as he gives me an honest price for this metal, I will be able to evaluate our items.'

The bear kin asked with a tremble in his voice. "Can I hold it?"

Andrea threw it toward him. After catching it, he observed it closely and asked with an incredulous tone. "This material seems to be in the middle rank of the Earth realm. However, the aura around it and the purity are truly exceptional. It doesn't lose at all when compared to high-level Earth-rank materials!"

He turned toward Kali and asked respectfully. "Senior, where did you get this? This is one of the best metals I've ever seen!"

Andrea interrupted and said coldly. "The master has told you to do business with me; why are you looking at her? You are lucky to have heard their voice once; stop looking for trouble!"

The bear kin looked at Andrea for two seconds and then turned toward Kali with a frown. "Lady Fox, is it okay for your slave to talk like this? I don't mean to say anything, but you shouldn't allow these creatures to gain so much freedom."

Cecile looked coldly at him, making the bear shiver. Even the fur puffed up because of fright. However, he was more stubborn than they thought and didn't retract his words and kept looking at the tranquil Kali. It seemed that his guts were big.

Andrea sneered and said. "Do you think you are worthy of speaking to our lady directly? It seems that those ears on top of your head are for decoration! Let's say this clearly, okay? The only reason she spoke previously is for you to understand your place! The only thing you have to speak about now is the material's price."

Although he feared Cecile and Sierra, the bear-kin wasn't a pushover. Now that he had regained some of his previous calm, he looked at Andrea with a frown and said. "Little human, my smithy is backed by one of the thirty-three clans! Don't get too arrogant!"

Andrea didn't back off. "After feeling master's bloodline pressure, you still think you can open your mouth!? My mistress has the bloodline of the legendary [Moon Phoenix]! Do you think she has to be afraid of anything?"

The bear-kin froze and looked at Cecile only to meet two piercing icy-blue eyes. "I-Impossible. [Moon Phoenix] are only beasts from the legends! There is no evidence they've ever even existed."

Andrea sneered, "Just a little shopkeeper. Do you think you know the actual depths of the Distancia Continent? Let's get to business before our miss gets too annoyed even to make a trade with you."

The bear-kin decided to lower his head this time. With the name of the legendary [Moon Phoenix] in the line, he dared not speak back. Just Cecile's presence was already a big enough deterrent to know that they were not a bunch he could provoke!

Moreover, the thing in his hand looked very precious. He didn't want to miss this chance because of the unreasonable brown-skinned human.

Then, he scratched his head with his paw and sighed. "Follow me. I will have to evaluate the things you want to sell inside. This item is too exotic to give it a price directly."

They followed the bear kin and approached a six-meter-tall door on the left. It was the door to his forge.

Evelyn transmitted to Andrea with amusement. 'You are quite good at acting like a clown, so convincing I almost wanted to slap you. Arrogant, overbearing, and with lines that would infuriate almost anyone.'

Andrea had to contain her laughter. 'I must have done it extremely well if even you wanted to hit me.'

Evelyn frowned. 'What do you mean?'

Andrea snickered. 'Well, normally, you are begging to be hit, not the other way around.'

Evelyn almost tripped.

After following the bear kin, they arrived at a place with a lot of furnaces and items to do forging.

There were weapons, armor, and other armaments in the middle of their creation. Andrea observed the items for a second, trying to guess their quality. However, she soon frowned. 'This method is different from the Lost Town's and Sky Continent's methods.'

She got thoughtful. 'I'll have to get books for professionals while we are here. Maybe I can create a new forging method...'

While Andrea and the others looked around, the bear kin returned from picking his tools. "Seniors, please come here."

They approached a large desk and tried to look at it, but it was too tall. However, after the bear-kin waved his hand, he took out a set of chairs for them to stand up on.

Andrea spotted a green base linked with a transparent vertical crystal.

The red bear said, "I'll toss the item here. To know its price, I have to measure its purity and rank it accurately."

Andrea nodded. Then, they tossed the lump of metal inside the recipient and observed the vertical crystal.

They saw currents of energy going through the item and entering the mineral. Then, those currents retreated and were absorbed by the crystal. The crystal lit up with very pure and beautiful white light.

They decided to observe his expression, and although he tried to remain calm, it was clear that he couldn't contain his shock. Andrea smirked. "Well, now that you've seen how valuable it truly is, I believe you won't disappoint me."

The bear kin got thoughtful. Then he said. "This metal should be able to fetch from one to five mid-level Parus depending on where you sell it. It is quite precious."

They lifted an eyebrow. 'The previous mid-level Earth-ranked metals they sold could only fetch between ten to twenty low-level Parus for the same amount. That was one hundred times less!'

Andrea mostly understood why this metal would be more precious, but she felt that there was something she didn't understand. Therefore, she asked. "Master Smith, why would it cost one hundred times more than other metals in the same rank?"

The bear-kin sneered. "As expected of a human, completely uncivilized. This metal has gone through an unknown procedure that allows it to carry energy around it easier. This allows formations and other enchantments to be ingrained much easier."

Andrea frowned. 'Material energy conductivity does not affect the effective range of enchantments. Usually, it only depends on the material's rank because that factor limits the quality of the spirit veins ingrained in weapons. Spirit veins are like the veins and arteries of the treasures. However, what he just spoke makes it seem like energy flows through the whole weapon at once.'

Andrea's thoughts raced for just one or two seconds, so she didn't delay too much answering.

"Master Smith, you've been accommodating. How about giving you this piece of metal as a sign of honesty? Although we've had our differences, I can feel we can become good partners in the future. My name is Andrea."

The bear kin snorted. He didn't like this arrogant human. However, knowing who was standing behind her, she answered on cue. "Well, I'm Herian."

Then he said, looking at the piece of metal. "This is undoubtedly precious. I'll accept the gift. If you want to ask anything, you can come to me. Our [Father Bear Blacksmith] is one of the best throughout the Continent without considering the major powers, so I hope to see you as customers in the future."

Although he disliked Andrea, he found Kali very pleasant to the eye. The aura she gave was as soft as Nature and very pleasant. He didn't mind becoming acquaintances with them, and, who knows, he might be able to talk to the mysterious-looking fox-kin.

The veil hiding her face only made her more mysterious and attractive to the bear-kin.

Now that her bloodline was becoming purer, she also released a charming aura toward any beast-related creature. After all, a bloodline named [Life's Origin Nine-Tailed Fox] could not be simple.

Andrea smirked and said. "Well, then, we won't be courteous. We arrived in this city not long ago, so we would love to hear information about auction houses and other businesses worth visiting."

He thought for a second and nodded. "Sure, I can tell you about something like that."

They decided to ask him and not an information broker because this was one of the most famous smithies in this town. Moreover, going to an information broker could also mean danger as who knows what kind of experts hid there to monitor activities.

There was a chance for them to catch the attention of someone they couldn't afford to offend. On the other hand, this smithy would not cause too much trouble as long as they didn't damage it too much. The piece of metal they gave him was enough to fix the broken door and floor, and he would still have extra money.

Chapter 380: Koran City's Powers. Brilliant Auction event.

At first, the bear kin began explaining a little about which powers were allocated in the Koran City. There were plenty, so Andrea decided to make a list.

Between all the names he told them, they kept their attention on the major ones. "The city has plenty of influential people. The main reason is that this city, although quite distant from the consequential areas, is a trading point between two outer cities of two of the Three Empires."

The bear kin guided them to a room and sat on an oversized couch. Our girls took their own from the spatial ring and sat before him. "Of all the powers here, you should pay attention to the elders from the Nine sects, generals from the Empires, and influential families from the thirty-three clans. Relationships between them are tense, but if another power begins to rise, it is known and quite common that they would cooperate for a while and eliminate that power unless it becomes part of one of the three large factions."

Andrea smiled. "That's interesting. We would like to know a little more in-depth since there isn't such a delicate power balance in our hometown."

Herian was doubtful. "So you do truly come from a far-away place. I thought that you were kidding. Who would expect something like a [Moon Phoenix] would be birthed in such a remote place."

Andrea shrugged. "Our master is a chosen one, favored by the heavens! Her parents had a small ancestry with the Moon Phoenix, but it was diluted. However, thanks to fate, she was chosen and her blood purified. Thankfully, it was possible to keep it a secret until the master gained enough strength. Now we want to spread our influence slowly."

The bear kin nodded. Andrea continued. "After hearing what you said, we've decided to create a shop in this city and expand from there. Would you be interested in cooperation?"

The bear kin nodded. "Sure, if you can provide a cubic meter of that material per year, we can have a deal. Where are you going to open the shop?"

Andrea shook her head. "We don't know yet. We have to consult it with our matriarch. Although master Cecile and master Kali has plenty of influence, we are still under our matriarch's rule, after all."

Herian's eyebrows twitched. "There is something more terrifying-Ehem! More dignified than miss Phoenix here?"

Andrea smiled mysteriously. "There is. Even master Cecile has to lower her head before our matriarch's bloodline."

The bear kin couldn't help but sweat. 'I almost fainted with the Phoenix's Bloodline pressure. I can't imagine what kind of monster can make this indifferent and aloof Phoenix obey them.'

Andrea suddenly asked. "By the way, master Herian. Do you know a way to make a lot of money fast? We would like to have a good foundation for our shop."

The bear kin rolled his eyes. "If there was such a method, do you think I would easily share it with you?"

However, he suddenly stopped speaking and got thoughtful. Then, he said. "Well, now that I remember, you have a chance to gain a lot of Parus quickly and easily."

They got interested. Andrea had asked randomly, but it seemed it wasn't in vain. Herian said. "Our city's most prestigious auction house will soon open for the yearly auction. I've also heard they've got their hands into a mighty treasure this year, and plenty of powers are coming from across the continent to bid for it."

Herian snorted a laugh. "Moreover, they are lengthening this year's event from one to three days. I heard they accept all kinds of treasures, and depending on the quality, they'll expose them on the first, second, or third day. The later, the better, of course. If your matriarch has something interesting she can sell, she will be able to participate in this event and make quite a lot of money. Moreover, as long as they are good with words, creating alliances and other connections won't be too hard."

Andrea asked curiously. "Master Herian, will the aquatic races also come?"

The red-furred bear kin nodded. "Some of them will surely come. Of course, not many can live outside the ocean, so not many will appear."

Andrea didn't want to ask blatantly about the [Sun Engulfing Ore Lobsters], so she didn't probe further. "Where do we submit our treasures?"

Herian placed his bear head on his paw and said. "You must go to the [Brilliance Auction House] before two weeks go by. It will be for the best if you can go with your matriarch. So many people are registering, and unless you have an imposing momentum and bearing, it will be hard to receive good attention. Maybe your treasures even get devaluated if you make a bad impression."

His eyes turned toward Cecile, and he said. "Well, even if only Lady Cecile goes by herself, it shouldn't be a problem. However, I'm going to be blunt, Lady Cecile. You are too beautiful. I would use something to cover the face if I were you. Also, try to control your temper when people deal with your slaves. Even if they have importance to you, some people will get very offended if they are slighted because of a human."

Cecile nodded and said curtly. "Thanks, I'll keep it in mind."

Herian released a sigh of relief inside. "Thankfully, she didn't glare at me as if I were a dead person this time."

Kali stored a vial she had on her sleeve into her ring.

He didn't know it, but the bear kin had been very close to death this whole time. Thankfully, he managed to calm our girls by telling them handy information.

Although attacking the pampered little girl was a sin hard to forgive, he showed his value enough to make our girls hold onto the decision.

The conversation continued for a while, and they learned about another five influential powers in the Koran City other than the Intercontinental ones.

Herian's deep voice spread in the room. "Well, besides the powers I mentioned earlier, there are some you have to keep an eye on."

"First, the [Lotus Alchemy Valley]. Although less significant than the Nine sect dedicated to alchemy, they are one of the continent's largest providers."

"Then, our smithy. I've been respectful this time around because of Lady Cecile's presence. However, our Father Bear Blacksmith is ubiquitous around the continent. We are the largest subsidiary to the Nine Sect dedicated to Blacksmithing."

"Next, we have the [Silk Weaver Tower], [Perfect Formation Gate], and the [Mountain Traveling Merchants]. All of them have quite a bit of influence, so be careful when dealing with them."

Kali asked softly. "Oh? Are the Mountain Traveling Merchants that influential?"

The bear kin was excited to hear Kali speaking to him, so he nodded quickly and answered in detail. "Yes. Moreover, I've heard that there has been a large commotion."

"One of the powerful merchants has mysteriously died, and Jorey, a fox kin, has gained a lot of influence. If nothing goes badly, the Mountain Traveler Merchants will be unified for the first time since creation."

The bear kin saw an odd expression appearing on their face and asked. "Is there something wrong?"

Kali shook her head and stood up. "Nothing. Thanks a lot for your cooperation, master Herian. I hope that we have a pleasant cooperation in the future."

The bear kin stood up and lifted his paw to grab the air. Kali smiled under her veil and reciprocated the gesture. Cecile turned around and said. "Let's go home. The matriarch may have woken up from her nap."

The others hastily followed behind. Herian sighed. "Such a pure flower, a shame she is so small. I would've asked Father to propose marriage to their clan if she had at least half my height like that brown-skinned human."

Then, he walked toward the counter and began helping the other workers with the customers.

After exiting the smithy, they decided to return to their house and see if Tatyana and Yassenia had woken up. They've gained more than enough information to make solid plans.

As they walked with Sierra behind them, no one dared to bother them. Each time someone approached, Sierra would growl at them and scare them away so they could return home quickly.

They saw their dear dragoness sitting at the entrance when they reached the house. She was looking around, waiting for them with worried eyes. They couldn't help but feel a warm current entering their hearts.

When Yassenia saw them, she hastily ran toward them. "Where did you go? I know you are strong, but remember that we are in an unknown city! We don't know what danger lurks under the surface. Remember that Valeria, Mirrory, or Tatyana aren't omnipotent. What if someone they couldn't detect appeared?"

They looked at Yassenia and almost rolled their eyes. 'If someone like that appeared, would having you there make any difference?'

However, they knew their dear dragoness was worried, so they didn't correct her ramblings.

Andrea patted her head and kissed her snout, "Don't worry, dear. We went out to gather information. Since you were still entangled with Tatyana, we decided not to bother both of you and make something productive in the meantime. We've learned quite a few things. Let's go inside so you can listen."

As they crossed the door, Yassenia sniffed around their body and looked closely to see if they were injured. They didn't resist the inspection and even returned hugs and kisses as they went inside.

By the time they crossed the door, Yassenia's tail was wagging happily with her mouth arched in a beautiful smile, and if they had lipstick, the dragoness's face would be covered with kiss marks.

Tatyana sauntered toward them. "Leave a note or something next time. Little treasure was feeling frantic for a while." They were about to nod when Tatyana said with an annoyed tone. "She even stopped mid-intercourse because she was worried. I've been blue-balled by my little treasure for the first time!"

They tripped and almost fell face-first.

However, seeing the annoyance on Tatyana's face, they didn't dare comment and pleaded for forgiveness in their minds. 'Sorry, mother-in-law!'

Yasenia slapped Tatyana's butt with her tail and snorted. "So greedy, we were doing it for almost all the previous night and all morning. I bet that even if we kept at it, we would be caught "mid-intercourse" a week later!"

Their mouths opened. 'The mother-daughter duo are too mighty!'

Tatyana coaxed with a smile and a hug. "Oh, little treasure, don't be like that. How could I guess it would be so pleasant to have sex with you? Feeling everything so clearly is truly a delight. You have to become strong soon so you can fuck my real body like that too!"

They decided not to comment.

Andrea turned to the side and started speaking with Ebirah. The lobster princess smiled and asked about the city. Although she was originally from this continent, her birthplace was underwater, so it was her first time in a land city.

Each on their own, they walked toward the living room and sat around.

Yasenia laid her body across Cecile's and Angel's lap, her long tail resting on Kali's and Andrea's lap and her head on Evelyn's legs.

The five women didn't lose a second to start pampering their dear dragoness.

Tatyana just sat across them with a smile, observing Yasenia's happy expression.

With Yasenia's soft and deep purring sounds, they began speaking about what they'd heard from Herian.
