

Chapter 491: Have To Find Her No Matter How Difficult It Is

Soon, Lu Heting confirmed Feng Ze's general location and asked someone to monitor his every move.

Now that Su Bei was missing, the two men gathered almost all their manpower and resources available to look into it.

After eliminating all unlikelyhoods, there was only one possibility left.

Although Lu Heting did not know much about what had happened to Su Bei in the United States in the past five years, he was almost sure that this was not the doing of her rivals or competitors. People in the entertainment industry would not do such a thing. Besides, she was only a model in the United States. She had a lot of work, but she was not very famous.

Hence, Su Bei's disappearance could only be related to Feng Ze or his people.

In the evening, Lu Heting arrived at the border between the United States and Mexico.

According to the information he received and the surveillance footage, he managed to track Su Bei here. She was sitting in the car and had stuck her head out the window. Her face was caught by a surveillance camera.

Since Lu Heting was able to find this place, Feng Ze was naturally able to find it too.

The people from both sides finally gathered here.

Following Feng Ze, Lin Yu said, "Boss, what should we do? The car carrying Su Bei has entered Mexico. Mexico is a very messy country, especially in the city that borders the United States. All sorts of illegal activities are carried out there with no authority managing the place. If Su Bei was tossed there, then"

Anxiety flickered in the eyes of the people who were following behind Feng Ze, as well as the usually calm Gu Xifeng.

Feng Feifei said, "No matter how difficult it is, we have to find her!"

Hua Cuo, who was wearing a business suit, walked over in her high heels. "Yes, we'll definitely look for her. But how long will it take to look for her in a place like this?"

Hua Cuo was ranked fourth among this group of people. She was a famous lawyer in the United States. As a woman, she had defeated countless men. This made many people in the field of law feel fear when they saw her Asian face.

Feng Ze kept his back to them and did not say anything. He just waited.

They were waiting to catch the person who drove Su Bei into Mexico.

That was the only way to find out where Su Bei was sent to.

The air was silent.

After waiting for a long time, someone came over and said, "We've caught them."

Two strong men in black clothes were thrown at Feng Ze's feet. They were the ones who had taken Su Bei away this morning.

They did not expect that they would be caught so soon.

After completing the mission, they just wanted to go somewhere to hide for a year and a half.

But this time, it was more difficult than they had imagined. The mission was not difficult. What was difficult was that all their escape routes were blocked.

Two unusually powerful forces had appeared in the United States. They blocked all their paths of retreat, forcing them to hide and dodge. In the end, they still couldn't avoid these forces.

In the end, Feng Ze had caught them.

Of course, they knew that one of the forces was Feng Ze. But they did not understand how he managed to make a move so quickly. He was not supposed to know that Su Bei was in the United States.

As for the other force, they could not figure out who it was.

As soon as the two men in black saw Feng Ze's back, they knew that something bad was going to happen.. Panic and fear filled their faces. "B-Boss!"

Chapter 492: Chapter 502 The Only Outcome

Feng Ze turned around. He was tall and slender, and his shadow was elongated in the evening sun. He looked like the king of the night who ruled the sky and the earth.

However, his facial features were as exquisite as a woman's. Only the wickedness in his raised eyebrows made him look different from women. He was almost perfect.

The diamond earring on his left ear shone with a cold glint, but the mole under his eye was more dazzling than the earring. It made his eyes shine brightly, but he looked so cold that people would shrink back and flinch.

"Where's Su Bei?" Feng Ze asked. His voice sounded as cold and noble as a king's.

"We... We don't know..." As the two men in black spoke, their teeth were chattering.

Obviously, they knew Feng Ze's methods very well.

However, they still had a trace of hope that they could get away with it. After all, Feng Ze did not seem to care much about Su Bei—especially since the person who planned this was someone very close to Feng Ze.

Feng Ze spoke indifferently, as if he did not have a care in the world.

However, the words that came out of his mouth sent a chill down their spines. "I'll only spare one of you. The one who's last to speak up will die."

The two men in black looked at each other and suddenly realized something. They immediately rushed to say, "Boss, I'll talk! I'll talk!"

"Whoever survives, he'll get to speak." Feng Ze looked at them with a faint smile.

The two men in black looked behind Feng Ze. It seemed that the person who arranged for them to take Su Bei away had no intention to speak up for them at all.

Back then when she made the arrangements, she had said that she had a backup plan. However, if Feng Ze caught her, the only outcome would be death.

From the moment they touched the corner of Su Bei's clothes, their fate had been set in stone. But now, Feng Ze had given them their only hope.

Without any hesitation, the two men pulled out their daggers and stabbed each other.

It seemed that Feng Feifei, Lin Yu, Gu Xifeng, and Hua Cuo were used to seeing such scenes. They looked at the scene calmly without any expression on their faces.

Feng Ze did not even frown.

A moment later, a man fell to the ground and died. Another man knelt down and said to Feng Ze, "We sent Su Bei to a bar in a city on the border of Mexico. But I don't know the exact location because the other party that we dealt with brought Su Bei into a car and drove somewhere else after receiving her."

Damn it!

A cold light flashed in Feng Ze's hand, and a thin red line appeared on the man's neck. His eyes widened in disbelief. "B-Boss, why?"

He wanted to ask why he could not escape death even after stabbing and killing another person.

"Because..." There was a trace of pity and sarcasm in Feng Ze's eyes as he sighed softly. "It's Su Bei."

Whoever touched Su Bei could only be faced with one outcome.

Lin Yu panicked. "Boss, how will we find Su Bei now?"

"Lin En," Feng Ze called out her name casually.

The woman named Lin En was wearing a black leather jacket and pants.. She looked strong and energetic, but her eyes were evasive.

Chapter 493: Who Said She Can't Be Found?

When her name was called, a hint of fear flashed across her face.

"What's the name of the person who received Su Bei?"

"Boss..." Lin En said in surprise.

Lin Yu was also surprised. "Boss!"

Obviously, Lin Yu did not expect that the person who ordered those two men to hurt Su Bei was Lin En, who had been responsible for taking care of Feng Ze.

Her loyalty was unquestionable.

However, Lin En knew that Feng Ze had already named her. He was already suspicious of her loyalty to him.

In front of Feng Ze, it was useless to defend herself.

"Boss, Su Bei doesn't love you at all. She's not worth your effort. You've done so many things for her, but she has never cared about your feelings. Every time she's with you, you'll only get hurt. She's a scourge, so there's no need for her to live in this world. Since someone from Mexico has taken a fancy to her, then she..."

With a thud, a cold light flashed in Feng Ze's hand as the dagger fell to the ground next to Lin En's feet.

Lin En gritted her teeth. Since Feng Ze did not do anything to her directly, she thought that he still cared about her. Hence, she continued boldly, "She doesn't like you, but she still wants to cling to you. Now that she has returned to the United States, she wants to hurt you again. I really don't want to see you go through the pain for her. She's really not worth it! This time, you won't be able to find her."

She raised her head and looked at the sky.

She did not believe that Su Bei was more important to this man than her.

In her heart, there was nothing more important than her boss. He was a leader, a king, and the most masculine man in her heart.

"Who said we can't find her?" A voice sounded from a distance away.

Soon after, a tall man strode toward them. He was about the same height as Feng Ze, but his physique was stronger. Both of them were equally handsome. The man who had just arrived was colder, while Feng Ze was more neutral.

In comparison, one was like the blazing summer sun, making people afraid to look at him. The other was like the clear night sky, cold and oppressive.

All of a sudden, a dazzling group of people appeared in front of them. They did not know where to look.

"Lu Heting, you're here at the right time! We have information on Su Bei's whereabouts, but the scope is too big. We don't know how to start searching for her." Lin Yu had always been hostile to Lu Heting.

But Su Bei was in danger now and he could not bother so much about other things.

At this critical moment, Lu Heting was an ally.

Police officers were following behind Lu Heting. It was obvious that there were not only people from the United States but also Mexico.

Military dogs followed them. They were professional rescue dogs. They had the ability to locate the whereabouts of people by relying on smell. They were world-class rescue dogs.

While Feng Ze and the others were looking for news on Su Bei's whereabouts, Lu Heting was busy gathering as many police officers, armed forces, and military dogs as possible by relying on his years of connections in the United States and Mexico.

Seeing this, the eyes of Lin Yu and the others lit up. With such resources, it would not be difficult to find Su Bei.

With a sneer, Lin En said, "I've already thought of this. That's why when Su Bei left, I used a special drug to remove her scent. Even if all the rescue dogs in the world were brought here, they won't be able to do anything. Don't bother wasting your energy."

Chapter 494: A Dead Man From The Moment You Touched Su Bei

Lin Yu had always respected Lin En, but at this moment, he slapped her hard across the face.

Feng Feifei was also angry. "It's your own private matter that you like my brother, but it's also his private matter that he likes Su Bei. You attacked Su Xiaobei for your own selfish reasons. Are you worthy of my brother's love?"

"Yes, I'm not worthy. But neither is Su Bei. No matter what, you can't get her back..."

Lu Heting's eyes darkened. He took a few steps forward to the man who had been killed by Feng Ze. He bent down, tore his clothes open, and placed them before the nose of the military dogs.

Lin En's face darkened.

Lu Heting said in a flat voice, "You saw it yourself. A piece of the man's clothes has been torn off. Su Bei must be keeping it with her. You've removed Su Bei's scent, but you've probably forgotten to remove this man's scent."

As long as the dogs could track the scent of this man's clothes, then they could find Su Bei.

Su Bei was smart, but Lin En had ignored it.

Lu Heting ignored Lin En, turned around, and left with the people and the dogs.

"Lu Heting, I'll go with you." Lin Yu quickly followed behind him.

Feng Feifei glanced at Lin En before following Lin Yu.

Just when Lin En thought that no one would do anything to her, Feng Ze said in a calm and unhurried voice, "Since you've been with me for several years, you should end your own life."

"Boss..." Lin En did not expect Feng Ze to treat her like this.

When he threw the dagger at her, she thought that it was just a warning.

However, she did not expect that Feng Ze had already made up his mind to kill her then.

The reason why he did not do it himself was that he was taking into consideration the years she had worked for him.

“Are you really willing to do this for Su Bei?” Lin En asked bitterly.

“The moment you laid a hand on Su Bei, you were already a dead man.” With that, Feng Ze strode away.

Gu Xifeng and Hua Cuo followed behind him. Neither of them spoke up for Lin En.

From the moment she treated other people’s lives as nothing, she had already given her life to Feng Ze.

This was the most chaotic city in Mexico.

And this was the busiest street in the city.

At least half of the people here were not documented.

Murderers and wanted criminals were hiding here hiding from the police. Cases of petty thefts were even more common.

It could be said that no one here had clean hands. They were all criminals.

Lin En had sent Su Bei here.

She was sure that Su Bei would never come out of this place.

Even if she made it out alive, she would be ruined. Would Feng Ze still want her?

At this moment, Lu Heting and everyone else were searching the bar. They did not want to miss a single corner.

They were surrounded by drunkards with wine bottles in their hands. These drunkards were not afraid of anything.

When they saw Feng Feifei and Hua Cuo’s faces, they could not help but lean closer to them. It had been a long time since they had seen such youthful and beautiful faces in a place like this.

However, after taking a few punches from Feng Feifei and Hua Cuo, they restrained themselves a little.

When they saw that the people behind Lu Heting were all armed, they retreated far away. But there was still greed in their eyes and they could not suppress it.. It seemed that they were waiting to see if any of them would be left alone, even if they were men.

Chapter 495: Already In The Bag

Lu Heting strode through this hellish place.

The pain in his heart started to spread, piercing his heart strongly.

For a moment, he could not breathe.

But he still led the professional team of soldiers, policemen, and dogs to search the area.

Thinking of the difficulties and torture that Su Bei might be suffering at this moment, he quickened his pace. His thin lips pursed into a tight line, and he clenched his fists that were by his pants. He was afraid that he would lose control of himself.

“Mr. Lu, we have a lead! Several military dogs are heading to the same bar!” someone reported.

“I’ll be there in a minute!” Lu Heting said in a trembling voice.

Feng Ze and the others were also making their way there.

The lights in the bar flickered. Compared to ordinary bars, this place was more clamorous and extravagant.

Deafening music could be heard in the background. People from various countries were talking loudly in different accents.

After getting knocked out, Su Bei woke up soon after.

During the car ride, she had been thinking of ways to deal with them. However, she was not left with many options as she was completely tied up and these two men were professionals.

She had tried her best to buy time and leave trails behind by sticking her head out of the car window.

Even if she was going to die, she should not die without dignity!

Soon, she learned that the person behind this was one of Feng Ze’s trusted aides. She thought that Feng Ze wanted to bring her back to his side.

However, she immediately dismissed the idea. Feng Ze had thousands of ways to get her back. He would not use the most ferocious one.

It was not until she was sent to the bar and drugged that they released her hands.

It seemed that they knew this was already in the bag and she could not escape anymore.

Su Bei tore off the inside of the shirt of the man who sent her here. During the ride over, she had heard Lin En’s voice. The man told Lin En complacently that he had already used a drug on her. The scent on her body would not be detected by rescue dogs.

This was one of the few ways that Su Bei could save herself. However, she also had to rely on the help of the rescuers and hope they would be able to find her.

All she could think of was Lu Heting. She did not know why, but she believed that he would realize that she was gone and come to her rescue.

It was just like what he had done countless times before.

He was her only light and hope!

After being forced to consume another drug, Su Bei felt very uncomfortable. Fortunately, her hands and feet were no longer tied, so she could finally do something.

She was not good at fighting, so she could not compare to Feng Ze, Gu Xifeng, and the others.

Even so, she hoped that she could deal with the people in front of her.

While she was thinking, she heard a voice and a burst of malicious laughter.

Right after that, two men whose nationalities could not be determined rushed in with a bottle of wine in their hands. While muttering about who would go first, they also talked about how smooth the Asian woman's skin was.

Hearing this, Su Bei felt disgusted. She lay on the edge of the bed, looking as though she was already under the control of the drug and alcohol.

When the two men put down the bottles and came forward, she suddenly stood up and punched one of the men on the nose.

With her left hand, she raised an ashtray and hit the other man's head with it.

"What do you think you're doing?!" The two men were furious.

Chapter 496: Take Anyone You Want

Su Bei realized that although they looked very strong, they were no match for her. Their bodies had been ruined by alcohol, sex, and anger.

Now that she was confident, she replied sweetly, "Nothing. I just want to beat you to your deaths."

She was speaking in the native language of S Country. These two men could not understand her, and neither could the people outside.

They only thought that her voice sounded tender. Hence, the people outside and even the two men who were beaten up were confused. They thought to themselves, 'Is this how people from the mysterious East entertain guests?'

"Come on!" A smile appeared on Su Bei's face. Her small face looked even more charming with her long, thick hair.

The men could not resist her charm, so they pounced on her again. This time, they were greeted by Su Bei's continuous kicks and blows.

Su Bei scolded and hit them at the same time, but her voice remained soft and tender. After drinking alcohol and getting drugged, she could not get angry even if she wanted to.

When the people outside heard the noise inside, they mistook the sounds for a good thing. How could they expect that Su Bei had already gained the upper hand and was mercilessly hitting them?

The two men finally fainted.

At the same time, Lu Heting and Feng Ze arrived at the same bar.

Countless dogs were barking crazily. Obviously, there was something here.

However, the boss of the bar did not care about them at all.

Here, they were least afraid of people in uniforms.

Besides, they carried the same weapons.

Lu Heting's real identity and the team he had brought with him were enough to crush almost any forces in the world. But here, they were deemed as nothing.

There were no rules here. These people did not care about law or morality. They did not care about anyone's influence in business or politics.

At this moment, Feng Ze appeared.

His face, which was partially hidden by the shadows, was revealed to the people in the bar.

His iconic earring and mole stunned everyone.

For a moment, the music and noise stopped.

Those who were dancing and drinking collectively stopped before scattering off.

The bar owner waved his hand and shouted in a foreign language, "Take whoever you want."

There were not many people here anyway.

In this place, there was no need to talk about rules. The rules could be changed according to the situation.

After saying this, the people in the bar started packing their things and left. The bodyguards in the bar did not stop anyone from entering or leaving.

At this moment, Su Bei stumbled over to the stairwell.

In a daze, she saw Lu Heting waiting for her at the bottom of the stairs. It seemed that every time she needed him, he would appear before her.

Was she dreaming?

This was Su Bei's first thought.

Even in her dream, she felt gratified to have him here.

She walked down unsteadily.

Lu Heting and Feng Ze walked toward her at the same time. "Su Bei!"

The two equally handsome and anxious men approached Su Bei at the same time while reaching out their hands.

When Su Bei saw the two of them, she was obviously biased.

Chapter 497: You Guys Have A Marriage Certificate, That's Awesome

"Lu Heting..." Su Bei staggered and threw herself at him. After falling into his arms, she fainted.

“Su Bei!” Lu Heting picked her up and saw the obvious bloodstains on her body and noticed the strong smell of alcohol on her.

Feng Ze turned his head slightly. “Gu Xifeng.”

Gu Xifeng stepped forward and reached out his hand to touch Su Bei.

Lu Heting glared at him.

Lin Yu explained, “Gu Xifeng knows some medical skills.”

After a preliminary examination, Gu Xifeng said, “It’s someone else’s blood. She doesn’t seem to be injured. But she was drugged.”

He took out a syringe and some medicine. “I’ll give her some medicine to ease her pain first.”

After the injection, Lu Heting took Su Bei to the car.

Behind her, the dogs howled.

The bar returned to its initial clamor and noise. The music was deafening.

The police quickly left the area with their dogs.

Lu Heting took Su Bei back to her apartment.

Feng Ze, Feng Feifei, Lin Yu, Gu Xifeng, and Hua Cuo followed them.

Initially, Lu Heting wanted to take Su Bei to the hospital for a quick check-up. However, the hospital that diagnosed Su Bei with gastric cancer did not have an emergency department.

The hospital would only be able to see them at eight o’clock the next morning.

Although Lu Heting was very angry, he could not do anything about it since they were in another country

Lu Heting put Su Bei on the big bed in the master bedroom. She had already been changed into a clean set of clothes. There were only slight scratches on her body. Judging from the sight of her, she had not suffered too badly from this incident.

Hua Cuo said in a low voice, “Thank God I asked her to learn some kung fu as self-defense.”

“You can go out first. Su Bei needs to rest.” Lu Heting chased them out.

The small master bedroom was filled with people.

After everyone left, Lu Heting reached out to close the door.

“Don’t close the door!” Lin Yu blocked the door. “How can a man and a woman be in the same room alone?”

He glanced at Feng Ze, who lowered his eyes and remained silent.

Lu Heting turned around. A moment later, he returned to Lin Yu and showed him two red booklets.

How embarrassing!

Lin Yu touched the tip of his nose and said, "Okay, okay. You guys have a marriage certificate, that's awesome."

Lu Heting closed the door.

"Since we're all free now, why don't we have hotpot together?" Lin Yu suggested.

Everyone rolled their eyes at him.

Feng Feifei walked up to him, put her hands on her hips, and asked bitterly, "What's wrong with Su Bei? She has late-stage gastric cancer?"

"I... I don't know. I never heard her mention it before. If it weren't for Lu Heting today, I wouldn't have known about it at all."

After being provoked by Lu Heting's words this morning, he called the hospital to inquire.

As he was Su Bei's emergency contact, the hospital told him about Su Bei's previous check-ups after repeated questioning. However, they did not say much about it.

Hua Cuo asked Gu Xifeng, "What do you think?"

"It depends on what the doctor says," Gu Xifeng replied concisely.

Everyone went to see Feng Ze again. He was just calmly sitting there. He had not moved until now. A few strands of hair across his eyes, and a shadow loomed under his eyebrows.

"Su Bei won't be so pitiful." Feng Feifei refused to believe it. "She has always been the most obedient and lovely girl. How could she have gastric cancer? It's impossible."

...

Lu Heting: "It's indeed awesome to have a marriage certificate."

Chapter 498: Don't Know How To Cherish

"She has always had gastric problems," Gu Xifeng said honestly.

"You don't have to say such things now!" Feng Feifei stopped him.

Hua Cuo frowned and thought for a while. "All of our guesses are useless. Let's go to the hospital tomorrow and wait for her check-up results."

Lin Yu had already taken out a container of self-heating instant hotpot. He opened it, stirred it with his chopsticks, and smacked his lips as he said, "This is really the greatest invention in the world. The delicious food can be heated up and eaten at any time."

"Lin Stone!" Feng Feifei shouted angrily. "Su Bei is about to die, yet you still have the mood to eat hotpot?"

"Even if Su Bei is seriously ill, I know she'll happily tell me, 'Lin Stone, even if I die, you have to live happily.' If something really happens to Su Bei, I'll starve myself to death. Let's see if she can rest in peace then."

“You’ll be stuffed to death!” Feng Feifei pouted.

Lin Yu wanted to ask Feng Ze if he wanted to eat, but seeing how unapproachable he looked, he knew that it was useless to ask.

In the master bedroom.

Su Bei was still lying on the bed.

Sitting beside her, Lu Heting looked down at her pale face.

The hospital had informed Su Bei to go for a check-up tomorrow, but he did not know what the result would be.

He hated himself for not knowing that Su Bei was sick.

When she invited him to travel to the United States, he had wondered if she wanted to leave. He did not expect her to be sick and had no choice but to leave.

Lu Heting held her hand tightly.

On the desk was a letter left by Su Bei. ‘Lu Heting, you deserve a better woman. Get married soon. Good luck!’

When Lu Heting picked it up, his eyes darkened. He was already married, so he would always be loyal to this marriage. He would never marry another woman.

Nothing was better than the one he had chosen.

He lowered his eyes and suddenly saw countless crumpled-up balls of paper in the rubbish bin.

It seemed that Su Bei had thrown all of them in there.

He picked one up and opened it. It was a long letter, but for some reason, Su Bei threw it away.

He read it from beginning to end.

‘Lu Heting, you asked me if I had wanted to come back to you when I found out I was pregnant with Da Bao. Actually, I did. You don’t know how stubborn you are. You always occupied my mind and I couldn’t get rid of you. Sometimes, I even dreamt of you.

‘But that seems to make sense. I’ve seen so many drivers but I only remember you alone. I still chose you in the end and you became Da Bao’s father.

‘After Da Bao was born, you became even more stubborn. You gave Da Bao a god-like face, and your influence was everywhere in his life. It’s strange. I had only seen you a few times and we only knew each other for a short while, but you occupied my mind so often.

‘But at that time, I didn’t choose to come back. I really didn’t know how to describe my family to you. It was also a word that confuses me. I didn’t know how to get along with my family or you. So please forgive me for being too young at that time and not knowing how to cherish these things...’

That was the end of the letter. A part of it was erased, then she threw it away.

Chapter 499: A Woman Who Seriously Loves You

Lu Heting could imagine what she had looked like when she wrote these letters. She had always been free and easy. Perhaps she did not want to be hypocritical.

It turned out that she had given him a position in her heart all along. In the past five years, she often thought of him.

He looked at every word on the letter and slowly calmed himself down. He understood the fear she had for her family because he had personally experienced it when she was confronted with the Su family.

He did not blame her for the five years of separation. He only felt sorry for her because she had to endure the sharp swords of her family alone.

Holding the letter in his hand, Lu Heting froze like a statue on this dark night for a long time before finally putting it down.

Lu Heting sat down and picked up another letter.

'Lu Heting, I'm sorry. I didn't tell you about my illness because I was afraid that you would worry. I was also afraid that I would make Gun Gun and Da Bao sad. I just don't want you to worry about me.

'In the future, I'll entrust Da Bao and Gun Gun to you, especially Da Bao. He's exactly like you. On the surface, he looks very powerful and seems to know everything.

'In reality, he also has a fragile side to him. He needs someone to love him and take care of his emotions. He needs you. I hope that you two will be a loving pair of father and son.'

Su Bei had also tried to erase this letter with an eraser before throwing it away. Perhaps she thought that Lu Heting already knew Da Bao very well, so she did not need to remind him.

It turned out that she had always understood him just like she understood Da Bao.

It was just that she did not express it...

Lu Heting's well-defined fingers pinched the letter, leaving imprints on the material. The piercing sound that followed brought Lu Heting back to his senses.

There were too many crumpled-up letters. Lu Heting did not have the heart to read them all. The feeling of having one less letter after reading each one was heart-wrenching.

However, he could not help himself from reading them. After all, these letters contained her thoughts.

Lu Heting picked up another letter.

'Lu Heting, I'm so selfish. I knew that I was sick, so I brought Da Bao back to see you. I'm sorry that I left you such a big responsibility without discussing it with you.

'Please find a woman who loves Da Bao, Gun Gun, and you in the future...'

She did not finish the letter either, but there seemed to be tear stains on it. Ultimately, Su Bei also threw this letter away.

It was as if Lu Heting could see her tears rolling down her cheeks. She was not a crybaby. She usually smiled at him every day.

When she wrote this letter, however, it was unknown how much pain she felt or how many tears she shed.

Lu Heting's eyes were also red. He clenched his teeth tightly, and the muscles on his handsome face were pulled tight.

He could not take it anymore. He held Su Bei's hand and said in a low voice, "Su Bei, no one loves Da Bao more than you, Gun Gun, and me."

More importantly, she was the only person he loved the most.

The night passed.

The people sitting in the living room had a sleepless night.

Lu Heting, who was standing next to Su Bei, did not manage to get any sleep either.

It was only when the sun was about to rise and she was sleeping soundly that he held his forehead with one hand and took a short nap.

Su Bei opened her eyes and blinked hard.. As she recollected her thoughts, she gradually remembered what had happened yesterday.

Chapter 500: Don't Be Childish

Su Bei remembered that she was taken away by Feng Ze's men yesterday and sent to a very chaotic place in Mexico.

Then, someone drugged her and forced her to have alcohol. She had forced herself to hang on and wait for Lu Heting to come get her.

She knew that Lu Heting would come no matter where she was.

Su Bei opened her eyes and saw the familiar ceiling. It was the master bedroom of her apartment in the United States.

It turned out that she had succeeded in defeating the bad guys in the bar until Lu Heting found her.

In front of her, Lu Heting's handsome face was magnified. Su Bei was still lost in thought when Lu Heting opened his eyes and asked in a low hoarse voice, "Su Bei, are you awake?"

"You came to get me last night?" Su Bei asked with a bright smile on her face. Her dazzling eyes were filled with a rare glint of innocence.

Very few people were as beautiful as her. Very few had eyes as pure and innocent.

She was both feminine and naive.

“Yeah,” Lu Heting replied in a low voice. He then held her finger.

“I knew you’d come.” Su Bei’s smile widened. “I was right.”

Although she did not know how he came to that place or how he found her whereabouts, a voice in her heart had told her from the start that Lu Heting would come for her.

Of course, she knew that Feng Ze was there too. It was because Lin En was Feng Ze’s trusted aide.

She only knew that Lin En had always been hostile to her, but she did not expect her to try to get rid of her. She had already told Lin En that she had no feelings for Feng Ze.

Su Bei had suffered so much, but she was still smiling happily. Lu Heting could not help but hold her cheek.

Sitting up, Su Bei leaned close to him and asked in a low voice, “What’s wrong? Look, I’m fine now, aren’t I?”

Lu Heting said in a low voice, “I made an appointment with your doctor this morning to check your illness.”

Su Bei was stunned. She knew that he must have seen her medical records.

She did not keep them and left them on her desk yesterday because she had already planned to tell him about it.

Now, he knew everything.

“Lu Heting, I’ll leave Da Bao and Gun Gun to you in the future,” Su Bei said softly, not daring to meet his eyes.

“That’s impossible. Medicine is so advanced nowadays. Nothing will happen to you.” Lu Heting held her shoulders and looked at her seriously. “Su Bei, don’t think about getting rid of your responsibilities so soon. Da Bao and Gun Gun still need your care.”

Su Bei smiled, and her eyes lit up. “I hope so too. But as you know, there are still many problems that medical technology can’t solve. You have to work harder in the future, okay?”

“No.” Lu Heting refused stubbornly, his eyes dimming.

His thin lips were pursed into a straight line, and his refusal was very strong.

Su Bei leaned on his shoulder and patted it gently. “It’s okay, Lu Heting.”

“Su Bei, don’t you dare leave the two children to me. If you leave, I won’t care about them. You can compete with me to see which one of us is crueler.”

Su Bei could not help laughing. Tears welled up in her eyes as she patted him gently. “Don’t be childish.”

‘Don’t be childish, Lu Heting. I don’t want to leave either.. But I don’t have a say in this matter.’
