

Chapter 551: Empty Words

[Su Bei actually chose the hotel where her father and stepmother are getting married to clarify it. Just how confident is she?]

When Su Huixian heard the news, she was momentarily shocked. "I wonder what evidence Su Bei has? Mom, are you sure those things have been destroyed?"

"I'm certain that there's no evidence left. I burned all the evidence myself. Now that your father is on our side, we'll definitely have the upper hand." Xu Zhiqin had already thought it through. This matter would definitely not die down so easily.

Since her and her daughter's happiness was built on stepping on Su Bei, Su Bei could only continue to be the stepping stone.

At that moment, Su Bei, who was accompanied by Yue Ze and Xiao Bai, went directly to a lounge in the hotel.

The reporters and fans had already surrounded the hotel. They wanted to know how Su Bei would clarify things today.

This matter concerned the selection of the Top Ten Models Awards. There were all sorts of scandals that Su Bei was involved in. How was she going to clear her name?

Once Su Bei entered, the reporters all started asking sharp questions. "Su Bei, what's your relationship with Jiang Hong?"

"Do you know Director Gibson personally?"

"What do you think about your past?"

"Like mother, like daughter. What do you think of this statement?"

Su Bei wore sunglasses and did not look at them nor answer any questions. Instead, she followed Yue Ze and walked straight ahead.

Outside the hotel, countless bodyguards were standing amidst the crowd. They had disguised themselves as reporters and fans. They were protecting the entire hotel while surrounding it.

Their goal was to protect Su Bei's safety. They would not attack normal reporters and true fans.

However, if someone wanted to hurt Su Bei, they would not be merciful!

Seeing this scene, someone immediately recognized him. "That's Director Gibson, the one in charge of Dream Jewelry's audition. He's the one who has a scandal with Su Bei!"

"I didn't expect him to personally come to the scene! However, even if he clarifies that there's nothing going on between him and Su Bei, how can we believe him? His words are empty!"

“That’s right. Let’s see what he has to say first. After all, there’s no evidence. Whatever he says, we won’t believe him.”

At that moment, Yue Ze finally stood up and said, “Everyone, today, Su Bei will be announcing some work matters. Thank you for coming and thank you for your attention.”

“Didn’t you say she’s going to clarify the scandals? What’s with this official announcement now?” The reporters felt like they had been fooled. If it weren’t for the chance to interview Su Bei about her scandals, they wouldn’t be so proactive. However, Yue Ze said that it was just an official announcement?

Yue Ze smiled and said, “That’s right. Su Bei is an artist. Can’t we announce our work content? Or does everyone have some misunderstanding about our work?”

Although the reporters were unhappy, they didn’t know what to say. As long as it was within the law, the other party could do whatever they wanted. What reason did they have to cause trouble?

Chapter 552: He’s Here To Announce The Results?

Furthermore, Yue Ze did not say what he wanted to clarify on Weibo. He only said that Su Bei had an event tonight. The so-called clarification was just everyone’s imagination.

“Everyone, if you’re not interested in Su Bei’s activities, you can leave now. If you’re still willing to interview Su Bei on her work, then we welcome you to stay. Thank you for your cooperation.” Yue Ze extended his hand and made an inviting gesture.

Outside, there was also staff who immediately cleared a path for them.

In any case, Yue Ze would not feel regretful if a couple of reporters stepped out. The entire event would be published online later.

A bunch of reporters felt cheated, but they were unwilling to leave. They specially made time to come over, so they naturally wanted to know how Su Bei would respond to so many rumors.

Even if they couldn’t get an interview today, it was better than returning empty-handed.

Hence, after some consideration, none of the reporters left.

Yue Ze adjusted his glasses. “Since that’s the case, let’s begin. I hope that everyone who has chosen to stay behind will show us your support.”

Su Huixian and Qiu Minxuan stood in a corner and quietly watched this scene. They had already prepared a huge gift for Su Bei.

They would only act when the event reached its peak.

A few other models also came to the scene and were quietly watching how the situation developed. The rise and fall of Su Bei’s popularity were related to their own interests. Everyone wanted Su Bei to be stepped on.

The rules of survival in the entertainment industry were that simple. The strong preyed on the weak, and it was a matter of life and death.

When Yue Ze saw that it was about time, he smiled and said, “Then, let us all welcome the famous director in America, Mr. Gibson, who will announce the person chosen to be in Dream Jewelry’s commercial this year.”

All the models were stunned. Director Gibson was here to announce the news about Dream Jewelry? Why wasn’t there any news about it?

All the models here had gone to audition for Dream Jewelry’s commercial. Unfortunately, there was no news after that. Today, he was here to announce the results?

However, everyone scoffed. It seemed that the role had already been reserved for Su Bei. Unfortunately, the public had already seen photos of Director Gibson and Su Bei eating and drinking in private. Even if he were to announce it now, it would be hard for anyone to believe the legitimacy of the audition process. The public would only think that Su Bei’s methods were too brilliant.

Director Gibson was about to leave S Country and return to America before this event.

However, when he heard that their meal had caused Su Bei to be in a predicament, he agreed to stay for two more days.

He walked to the stage and opened his arms. He said to Su Bei, “Su Bei, we meet again.”

His body language was a little exaggerated as he hugged Su Bei. The hug caused another uproar in the audience.

Many reporters quickly recorded this scene. They would have a lot to write about! Things were already like this, yet Su Bei and Director Gibson weren’t doing anything to avoid suspicion. They deserved to be splashed with dirty water!

Director Gibson stood on the stage and spoke fluently in S Country’s language, “As everyone knows, more than ten days ago, I oversaw the audition for Dream Jewelry in America to select a model for Dream Jewelry’s commercial. At that time, many people came for the audition, including Su Bei. Now, I want to announce that the model chosen to be in Dream Jewelry’s commercial is—Su Bei!”

Chapter 553: Find The Answer On Your Own

“This time, I came to S Country partly to accompany Dream Jewelry’s staff to expand the market in Country S and also to get in touch with Su Bei to tell her about her successful audition. I didn’t expect to be photographed by the reporters and bring so much trouble to Su Bei. I’m really sorry.”

After Director Gibson said that, everyone remembered that Su Bei’s audition had taken place more than ten days ago. Many other local models had also gone for the audition. Recently, Su Bei and Director Gibson were photographed having a meal together. Dream Jewelry had also been promoting non-stop in the country these few days. The sequence of events was indeed not as what the outside world had guessed.

“But no one knows if they had privately met up before that. Who knows how Su Bei obtained this job?” someone in the crowd said loudly.

Obviously, there were quite a few people who weren’t satisfied with this official announcement. Director Gibson’s eyes shifted over.

There was a model standing at the spot where the voice from earlier sounded. Of course, the person who spoke up wasn't her but someone beside her. However, it was obvious who that person represented.

It was inevitable for the models to be dissatisfied with the casting decision.

A reporter also asked, "What did you see in Su Bei that you chose her, Director Gibson?"

"Can you tell us in which aspects Su Bei is superior to the others?"

The questions they asked were very conventional and did not seem to have any malicious intent. However, these reporters had many years of experience, so of course, they had some tricks up their sleeves? It could even be said that every word that came out of their mouth revealed doubt and suspicion.

Director Gibson calmly shrugged and said in fluent S Country language, "Then, everyone here should just watch Su Bei's commercial for Dream Jewelry, or you can also watch her audition tape. Find the answer on your own. They're all available to watch on Dream Jewelry's official website."

Su Bei was a little surprised. Hasn't she just auditioned? How could there be a commercial?

Director Gibson smiled and said, "Su Bei, your performance during your audition was too beautiful. I couldn't forget about the music you played, so I edited your audition tape and it went into post-production. We've made a commercial out of your audition."

Under Su Bei's surprised gaze, the big screen played Su Bei's commercial for Dream Jewelry.

At the beginning of the scene, there was a long mirror with two rows of fallen maple leaves. In the room, the silhouette of a young girl could be seen.

As the camera zoomed in, Su Bei appeared in front of everyone. She was waiting for something nervously but also happily. Her face was filled with the shyness and longing of a young girl. Her exquisite facial features and excellent bone structure were highlighted on the big screen.

What was rare was that when she was on the runway, she often had the aloofness and restraint of a model. Her aura on the runway was very strong, but looking at the commercial, she made people feel that she was just a teenage girl in love.

As if she was feeling uneasy and anxious from waiting, she subconsciously looked for something to do. Hence, she lifted the piano cover in front of her and sat down. Her slender fingers landed on the piano keys. As she imagined the arrival of her lover, she played an unfamiliar but extremely pleasant tune.

She looked out the window as if the love of her life was slowly making his way down the path.

Chapter 554: Quite Convinced

From Su Bei's expression and the music she played, the audience could feel that she was waiting to be loved.

The beautiful interpretation of love easily immersed the audience into the music and scene.

When a man walked in with a diamond ring from Dream Jewelry, Su Bei stood up with joy. The sound of the piano stopped abruptly and the camera focused on her eyes. Her eyes seemed to contain the entire sea of stars as they emitted a dazzling light.

The camera zoomed away and returned to the path that was now filled with maple leaves. Gradually, the image faded and the slogan appeared. 'Dream Jewelry. Let your love come true.'

After watching the commercial, everyone was a little stunned. Even the pickiest person would find it hard to point out any flaws in Su Bei's performance.

Even though she was a model, her acting skills were on par with professional actors. The beauty she displayed in the commercial was extraordinary.

It was a kind of beauty and sweetness that others did not know about. It matched Dream Jewelry's wedding rings perfectly.

Director Gibson smiled and said, "Everyone, what you just watched was Su Bei's commercial that was made from the scenes in her audition. It was edited by me in post-production. We were not involved with her performance, clothing, or even the script. This was her performance when she got hold of Dream Jewelry's products. You can also check the official website for the complete audition clip."

Many reporters were convinced and said in a low voice, "I've seen the audition tapes for the other models. They're indeed quite noble, but they only care about being noble the whole time. They didn't think of matching themselves to suit Dream Jewelry's pieces."

"I saw them too. To be honest, I didn't pay much attention to Su Bei before. I only looked at those models who had already gained a foothold in the entertainment industry. But their abilities are indeed inferior to Su Bei."

"Anyway, regardless of other people's auditions, I'm quite convinced by Su Bei. After watching the commercial, I want to buy my fiancée a wedding ring from Dream Jewelry."

Su Huixian secretly squeezed her fist and thought to herself, 'Damn it! Director Gibson personally clarified the matter for Su Bei. Luckily, I came prepared. Otherwise, I'd be trampled by Su Bei from now on.'

Seeing that everyone was almost done discussing, Director Gibson said, "The reason I came to S Country this time was to tell Su Bei about this. When the photos were taken, it was indeed me and my assistant. Su Bei came for the meal with her agent, Yue Ze, as well."

Since Director Gibson had already said so and the commercial was indeed quite good, naturally, no one would talk about Su Bei and Director Gibson anymore.

However, Director Gibson changed the topic and said, "That night while we were eating, an old friend of mine walked over and stopped for a moment. I didn't expect to be caught by the paparazzi. My old friend's name is Jiang Hong!"

As soon as he said this, everyone immediately understood that Director Gibson was clarifying yet another one of Su Bei's recent scandals!

Not only was he explaining himself but he also wanted to clarify Su Bei and Jiang Hong's relationship!

Director Gibson said, "I believe everyone knows that Jiang Hong and I worked together many years ago and are friends. That night, Su Bei and I were having dinner together. Jiang Hong and his family were also having dinner at the same hotel, so he came over to greet us.. Out of courtesy, Su Bei exchanged a few words with him."

Chapter 555: A Good Man

"That night was Jiang Hong's daughter's birthday. He and his wife were celebrating their daughter's birthday in the restaurant. I believe those who follow his Weibo also know this. Think about it, why would he come looking for Su Bei on the night of his daughter's birthday? That was his first and only time having a simple interaction with Su Bei." Director Gibson shook his head and sighed as he spoke, "Actually, many know that it was Jiang Hong's daughter's birthday that night, but when they saw the photos, they couldn't help but fabricate nonsense. They would rather ignore the truth and fabricate content that suits their intentions. How can the human heart be so evil?"

Director Gibson pressed a button and the big screen showed a panoramic photo of that night. Su Bei, Director Gibson, Yue Ze, and Director Gibson's assistant were sitting at a four-seater table. In the distance, Jiang Hong, his wife, and his daughter could be seen blowing candles on a birthday cake.

"This photo was provided by Jiang Hong's wife, Mrs. Jiang. At the time, she got a waiter to help her take a family photo when they were blowing out the candles, so this entire scene was captured. Because of this incident, Mrs. Jiang was also troubled. She wishes to clear her husband's name as soon as possible, so she got someone to send the photo to me."

In the photo, apart from the little girl, everyone's face could be seen clearly. It was definitive proof that Jiang Hong did not eat with Su Bei. Everything that happened that night was a coincidence.

The video that was taken also showed that Jiang Hong was constantly chatting with his daughter. Occasionally, he would hold his wife's hand and smile at her. He didn't have the bad habit of looking at his phone while eating either. He was also very patient with his wife and daughter. He listened to them talk and deboned fish for them. His attitude was gentle, and his family was harmonious.

When Jiang Hong got up to go to the washroom, he bumped into Director Gibson. He stayed for a while before going back.

He was indeed the man who was known for loving his family and wife.

The reporters quickly recorded everything shown on the big screen as evidence.

They also expressed their shame. "So, everything was taken out of context."

"The paparazzi and marketing accounts are really malignant tumors in the industry. They always cause a lot of trouble. Even our journalism industry has been stained by them!"

"I wonder which paparazzi did this?! The next time I see them, I'll kick them hard!"

"Sorry for misunderstanding Su Bei and Jiang Hong."

After Director Gibson finished speaking, he didn't stay on the stage any longer.

He did not take the reporters' apology to heart. America's entertainment industry was not inferior to S Country's. He was already used to it.

He said to Su Bei, "Su Bei, the road ahead won't be easy, but you'll definitely have a good journey."

"Thank you, Director."

"I should be the one thanking you. You have no idea how successful my commercial is! Hahaha!"

Su Bei's two scandals had been clarified. Not only did they not cause her any lasting harm, but with the official announcement from Dream Jewelry, her popularity and fame would rise to another level after tonight. She would also stand more firmly in the modeling industry and her position would be more secure.

Many of the models who were present were feeling upset.

However, someone suddenly broke the atmosphere and shouted—

Chapter 556: Su Bei Is Not Innocent

It was a middle-aged woman in her 50s. She looked depressed and miserable. It was Madam Wang who had posted on Weibo about Su Bei's mother.

She walked past the crowd and strode over. She stood in front of the stage and shouted, "Su Bei, you're a b*tch's daughter. Even if you didn't do those things, it can't change your lowly background!"

Su Huixian and Qiu Minxuan retreated slightly. They did not want to look like they had anything to do with this matter.

In reality, Madam Wang was the person they had arranged for. Otherwise, how could she have been able to walk over to the front of the stage and speak so arrogantly despite the presence of so many bodyguards?

This time, Su Bei was finished.

However, Su Huixian did not expect Yue Ze to have the event here. In fact, under the watchful eyes of the public, he did not ask anyone to chase Madam Wang away. He even deliberately let Madam Wang into the venue. It did not seem to be a mistake either.

In fact, without Yue Ze's instructions and arrangements, Su Huixian would not have been able to bring Madam Wang in.

Su Huixian had fallen into the trap without realizing it. Yue Ze and Su Bei would make sure she paid for everything she did!

The reporters originally thought that there wouldn't be any more shocking news tonight. They didn't expect such a huge piece of news to suddenly appear. It was as if everyone had been injected with stimulants. They immediately focused their attention on this piece of news.

"Isn't this Madam Wang? The one who said her husband cheated with Su Bei's mother?"

"Could it be true? Why isn't Yue Ze making her leave?"

“This is going to be a good show! Did you guys see that? Director Gibson’s face changed! If Su Bei is really the product of an affair, will Dream Jewelry still keep her?”

“Oh my God, I really didn’t expect such explosive news. With so much content being exposed tonight, I’ll definitely have a good bonus this year.”

“Shh, everyone stop fooling around and listen to what Madam Wang has to say!”

Madam Wang was in her 50s. Her shrewd eyes shone as she cried in front of everyone. “Su Bei’s mother is Chen Xiuzhu. Back then, she had an affair with my husband, causing our relationship to break and me to miscarry a few times. Now, although my husband has already left, every time I think about what I experienced back then, it makes me deeply pained.

“As soon as I see Su Bei’s face on the TV in front of me, I can’t help but feel uncomfortable. I just want to know if just about anyone can enter the entertainment industry now? How can someone like Su Bei also be an artist? Why does everyone have such low standards for artists?”

Although she looked like she was in pain, the reporters couldn’t help but speak up for Su Bei. “The grudges and disputes of the previous generation are separate matters. None of it was Su Bei’s fault.”

“That’s right. Even if Chen Xiuzhu did something like that, it’s all in the past. It’s useless for you to look for Su Bei now.”

Madam Wang angrily shouted, “How is it unrelated? My husband spent a lot of money on the mother and daughter. If it weren’t for my husband’s money, how could Su Bei have come this far? Su Bei is not innocent. She even came looking for me in private and insulted me. This is intolerable. If it were you, can you tolerate something like this happening to you?”

Chapter 557: The Sisters Have Always Had A Bad Relationship

“Su Bei went looking for Madam Wang and even insulted her? If that’s the case, Su Bei is indeed too much!” said a reporter.

“Everything depends on evidence. Madam Wang has no evidence. Is it really okay for her to talk about Su Bei like this?”

Su Bei stood on the stage. She had already taken off her sunglasses. At this moment, she was just standing there calmly. She was neither surprised nor unhappy, neither worried nor angry. Her flawless fair face was covered by her thick seaweed-like hair. She looked at ease, as if she had nothing to do with what was going on.

However, deep down, she was experiencing turbulent waves.

Her mother was the only family member she cared about and missed dearly. Now, her mother was being used by Su Huixian to such an extent. If she did not reveal the truth this time, she would be unworthy of being her mother’s daughter!

Madam Wang pointed at her own face, which was covered in wounds and scars. “Isn’t this enough? Isn’t it enough that I was beaten up by Su Bei? What more evidence do you need? I’m just an ordinary person. Of course, I can't be compared to you people in the entertainment industry who have all sorts of tricks up your sleeves and dare to do anything. What else can a person like me do?"

Her crying aroused the crowd's sympathy.

The main reason was that she had come looking for Su Bei and revealed her painful past. She would not benefit in any way from doing this. Moreover, if the matter was true, then her actions were worthy of forgiveness.

However, there were still some reporters who did not believe that Su Bei would be that stupid and cause trouble for herself.

At this moment, a middle-aged man in his 50s appeared.

Someone recognized him. "It's Su Bei's father, Su Xingfu!"

"He's also Su Huixian's father! Don't you know that Su Bei and Su Huixian are sisters?"

"I know, but I heard that they weren't born by the same mother, so the two sisters never got along well."

"So what is Su Xingfu doing here? Why do I have a bad feeling about this?"

"Hurry, hurry, let Su Xingfu talk."

Everyone quickly backed away and made way for Su Xingfu. They even wanted to hand him the microphone so that he could speak. They wanted to hear what he had to say.

This was simply a large-scale TV drama setting.

Reporters loved to watch families fight with each other, especially when it involved two female celebrities in the entertainment industry.

Su Xingfu came to the front of the stage and looked at Su Bei with a deep gaze.

Su Bei calmly looked back at him. In her heart, she had already guessed what he was here for.

If it were in the past, she would definitely nip his actions in the bud and not let him hurt her mother's reputation in the slightest. But now, the Su family had already stirred up trouble and exposed this matter to the public. If that was the case, then it was only right that everything was resolved in public!

She would certainly protect her mother.

There was even a faint smile on her face. Her eyes were as cold as ice, making Su Xingfu shudder involuntarily.

He clenched his fist. Why was he afraid of Su Bei? He was her elder and everything was under his control! As for Su Bei, even if she knew many things, she had no evidence. How could he be afraid of Su Bei?

There was no need for him to be afraid or panic.. Su Xingfu consoled himself that what he was doing now was to protect his entire family.

Chapter 558: DNA Test Report

“Don’t you need to greet your elders? Is this what you’ve learned from the entertainment industry? Where’s your respect?” Su Xingfu said seriously.

Su Bei slowly smiled and looked at him calmly. “Aren’t you here to announce something? When you make your announcement, I’ll then know if you’re worthy of my respect.”

When the reporters below the stage saw the father and daughter appearing in public, they became even more excited. Tonight was really going to be a good show!

Why didn’t they know that the Su family had so many things going on behind the scenes?

Su Xingfu harrumphed and said to the crowd, “Everyone, you can all see how Su Bei treats me, her father. As her father, I’m really suffering in my heart. I worked so hard for over 20 years, only to have my daughter treat me with such coldness. It’s already like this in public, so you can imagine how Su Bei treats me and the other elders in private.”

The reporters agreed with him. “This is indeed too much. She doesn’t even have basic filial piety.”

“Su Bei really has to be criticized for this.”

Su Xingfu continued, “Initially, I didn’t want to announce this matter, but since Su Bei has always been heartless and unfilial, I have no choice but to be honest with the outside world. Su Bei is not my biological daughter!”

The crowd broke into an uproar. “Mr. Su, what do you mean by not being your biological daughter?”

“Are you saying that what Madam Wang said is true?”

“Did Su Bei’s mother really cheat?”

Su Bei was already mentally prepared, but when she heard this, she couldn’t help but purse her lips tightly. Su Xingfu, Xu Zhiqin, and the rest had once again allowed her to see how evil humans could be.

Indeed, they were a family that was willing to do anything for benefits.

“I didn’t want to talk about this at first. After all, this is a huge scandal. As a man, my first wife actually gave birth to a daughter who isn’t my own flesh and blood. This has always been a huge scar in my heart. Moreover, my first wife jumped off a building to commit suicide out of guilt. I shouldn’t be ruining her reputation after her death, but this daughter of mine has no feelings for me at all. She doesn’t even respect me.

“Everyone here can clearly see what kind of attitude she has toward me. If you check, you’ll also know that she ran away from home as soon as she reached adulthood. She never intended to acknowledge me as her father...

“And just like that, she continued to slander my current wife and daughter. As a husband and a father, I really can’t continue to see Su Bei destroy our family while hurting my wife and daughter. Hence, I’m here today to expose my family’s disgraceful history and cut ties with Su Bei. In the future, she won’t be my daughter and I won’t be her father. We will no longer have any relationship with each other.

“The DNA test report is proof. Everyone, please forgive me for taking up your time. I was forced to make this choice when I was pushed into a corner.

“Su Bei, you’re already an adult and you don’t need me as your father anymore. However, I once really treated you as my daughter. I hope that you can behave yourself in the future and stop being so willful and making mistakes!”

Chapter 559: What A Benevolent Person

Su Xingfu’s words not only caused an uproar but also sent waves of shock!

The DNA test report that was revealed confirmed that Su Bei was indeed the product of Chen Xiuzhu’s affair. It also confirmed that Chen Xiuzhu committed adultery. This meant that what Madam Wang said was true.

“Then this means that what Mr. Su said is true. Su Bei often disrespects her father and doesn’t have a good relationship with her family. Everything is her own doing...”

After he was done with his speech, Su Xingfu looked at Su Bei. At this moment, he no longer had much feelings for Su Bei. She was not his biological daughter anyway.

He was about to leave.

Su Bei opened her mouth. Her voice was cold and indifferent. “Mr. Su, please wait.”

Mr. Su...

Everyone looked at Su Bei.

Su Xingfu stopped in his tracks. “Su Bei, what else do you have to say?”

“You said that my mother cheated on you and I’m the product of her affair?” Su Bei walked toward him step by step. There was no change in her expression, but her eyes were filled with shattered emotions. This man in front of her was not worthy of her mother, her forbearance, and her kindness.

Su Xingfu braced himself. Once he thought of Xu Zhiqin and Su Huixian, he hardened his heart. “I already have the DNA report with me. What else do you have to say?”

“Then what about you and your current wife, Xu Zhiqin? My mother was still alive when you got yourself a new lover. This happened before you two were divorced. How do you explain that?” Su Bei asked word by word.

Many people knew that Su Xingfu’s current wife was Xu Zhiqin and that Su Huixian was her child.

However, apart from close friends, no one else knew that when Xu Zhiqin and Su Xingfu were together, Su Xingfu had not divorced yet.

The few people who knew Xu Zhiqin well knew that she was a mistress and viewed her, as well as her daughter, with disdain. It was obvious how much Xu Zhiqin and Su Huixian wanted to turn the tables.

Su Xingfu sighed and said, "I admit that when I met Huixian's mother, I wasn't divorced yet. However, your mother had already betrayed me and made me suffer for so many years. She even wanted to raise a daughter who didn't belong to me. Therefore, I don't think it was wrong of me to have fallen in love with Huixian's mother! I've already been extremely benevolent toward you and your mother!"

"What a great way of doing things! Mr. Su, you sure were determined to cheat on your wife, marry your mistress, and force your wife to commit suicide. Are you determined to protect your mistress all the way to the end?" Su Bei asked loudly.

The more her heart ached and the more anxious she was, the more stable her tone became. Her voice forced Su Xingfu into a corner.

Su Xingfu said loudly, "Su Bei, you're slandering me! Do you have any evidence for what you said? And the fact that you're not my biological daughter is irrefutable evidence!

"I've never let you and your mother down. On the other hand, after Huixian and her mother joined the Su family, they were constantly bullied and pushed aside by you.. They tolerated everything and didn't want to become enemies with you, but you just wouldn't let them off! I just want to give them justice now. You don't have the right to interfere!"

Chapter 560: If I'm Lying, I'll Get Struck By Lightning

Su Xingfu's words were filled with emotions. His face was brimming with regret, heartache, and conflict. He looked like an innocent father who had suffered through many hardships for the sake of his family, only to raise an ungrateful daughter. He beat his chest and stomped his feet, unable to hide his sadness and discomfort.

His emotions swayed many people, making them feel that life had not been easy for him.

"Yes, he raised you without any regard for the past. How can you treat him like this?"

Su Bei turned around and looked at them seriously. "I don't blame you for not knowing the truth. But if you know the whole story and can still say that, I'll truly admire you.

"Su Xingfu, do you dare to swear that my mother cheated on you and I'm the product of her affair? Do you dare to swear that you have never done anything to let my mother down?"

Su Xingfu immediately shouted, "Of course, I dare! If I lie, I'll get struck by lightning!"

"Then please explain why Su Huixian is four years older than me." Su Bei looked at Su Xingfu coldly.

"This..." Su Xingfu was at a loss for words.

In the public's understanding, Su Bei was the elder sister while Su Huixian was the younger sister. There was a one-year age difference between the two. The information stated on both their identity cards and the official website was the same.

However, the truth was that Su Huixian was four years older than Su Bei. When Su Bei's mother, Chen Xiuzhu, found out about this, she was so angry that she fainted and it caused her to suffer a heart attack. Later on, she was plagued by depression.

Since young, Su Bei had always known that Su Huixian was the elder sister but she was forced to be the elder sister. Therefore, Su Bei had never liked the mother and daughter pair. She had no feelings for them at all. She had always looked at them with a superior gaze because they were simply not worthy of any respect!

Su Xingfu calmed himself down. "These are just your words. It's not the first time you've slandered Huixian. I never held it against you on account of your mother's early death. Now, you're still making irresponsible remarks and dare to lie about everything!"

He had already made up his mind to stand on Xu Zhiqin and Su Huixian's side. He also knew that there was no evidence of what had happened back then. The office that changed Su Huixian's age had already moved elsewhere, so there was no way Su Bei could get any evidence!

Su Huixian and Qiu Minxuan stood in a corner. They were not afraid. After all, it was just a casual statement without any evidence. Someone had to believe in Su Bei's words for it to have any effect.

The DNA test report that Su Xingfu took out was solid evidence. What could Su Bei bring out?

Su Bei looked at everyone. Traces of sadness could be seen on her beautiful face but she still held herself up well.

"Let me tell everyone a story. Back then when Xu Zhiqin came to my house, my mother committed suicide due to depression and passed away. I was four years old then. When Su Huixian came, she was already eight years old!

"However, Su Xingfu and Xu Zhiqin changed her age to make her be three years younger than me in order to hide the truth.

"Later on, in order to reflect the change, they spent money to make Su Huixian change grades. Eventually, this matter was forgotten.

"However, I'll never forget this, and many people around me will also not forget this! I'll never forget how desperate my mother was back then when she endured the pain of her illness and walked to the rooftop!"
