

Chapter 651: A Mere Artist

Tang Yue snorted. So that was the case.

However, since Su Huixian was a guest, there was no need for her to show her attitude. She smiled and said, "Then, I welcome you. Miss Su, you don't have to be polite. Treat this place as your home."

"Thank you, Miss Tang." Seeing that Tang Yue was not very enthusiastic, Su Huixian used this as an excuse to return to Du Luo's side.

Today, she, Du Luo, Du Luo's uncle, aunt, and cousin were attending tonight's banquet together.

Du Luo and she were not the main guests, so there was no need for them to go around greeting each other. After chatting with the hosts for a while, Du Luo returned and stood beside Su Huixian.

Su Huixian asked softly, "I heard that Old Master Tang is going to acknowledge his granddaughter tonight. I wonder who she is? Did you hear anything from your side?"

Du Luo shook his head. "No. But no matter who it is, it's the Tang family's family matter. We just need to welcome her when the time comes. We don't need to care about things that have nothing to do with us."

"That's true. But if we know who it is, we can make more preparations."

The so-called preparations meant that they would make friends with her earlier.

However, Du Luo was a man and did not like to gossip about such things. Otherwise, he could have asked around more.

Su Huixian did not dare to order him to go find out, so she gave up.

As she was thinking, Tang Xinru walked in. She looked valiant in her formal attire. Even on such an occasion, she did not wear a dress. Her personal style was so strong that it was hard to ignore.

"President Tang is here."

"Xinru is here. She's still as beautiful as ever."

Tang Xinru walked in, and after exchanging greetings with everyone, she told her assistant, "Go see if Su Bei is here."

She was worried that Tang Yue would cause trouble for Su Bei, so she wanted to be prepared.

Su Huixian was close by and heard Tang Xinru's instructions. Jealousy and hatred flashed across her heart. "Su Bei is indeed coming tonight! It seems like Tang Xinru is really willing to support her. She's just an artist, yet she's attending a family event like this."

When Du Luo heard Su Bei's name, he couldn't help but be slightly stunned.

The things that Su Bei revealed last time, especially the things about her being sent to the orphanage, were actually things Du Luo didn't know about. It was because Su Xingfu and Xu Zhiqin used to say that Su Bei went to her maternal grandmother's house or a summer camp, which was why she wasn't home for a period of time.

Du Luo was convinced when he heard their explanations.

It was only now that he knew how much damage Su Bei's parents had done to her. He also knew that on the surface, Su Bei was elegant and unrestrained as if she didn't care about anything. However, she was an insecure person in reality.

However, he never paid it any attention back then...

Just as he was thinking about it, Su Huixian clung to his arm and leaned against him. Du Luo had no choice but to retract his thoughts. Su Huixian was not involved in Su Xingfu and Xu Zhiqin's mistakes. Su Huixian could not choose her parents, after all.

Therefore, even though he knew that he had let Su Bei down, he could not hurt the innocent Su Huixian anymore. He forced himself to stop thinking and patted the back of Su Huixian's hand.

Lu Heting drove Su Bei over and stopped the car when they were almost at the Tang family's residence.

This was her first time at the Tang family's home.. Old Master Tang wanted to arrange for a chauffeur to pick her up, but she rejected him because she wanted to spend more time with Lu Heting.

Chapter 652: The Moment Is Finally Here

She had no concept of this strange home and it was hard to describe her current feelings.

Lu Heting hugged her. He knew that she was uneasy, so he didn't rush her. He just wanted to wait until she was ready.

Su Bei finally lifted her head from his embrace and said, "I'll go in, then."

"Call me when it's almost over. I'll wait for you here." Lu Heting reassured her.

His words made Su Bei feel at ease. She nodded and took a deep breath before getting out of the car and walking toward the Tang family's home.

The Tang family's iconic house could be recognized at a glance in this neighborhood.

At this moment, the house was decorated with lanterns and colored banners. The lights were brightly lit, and guests were coming and going.

Tang Xinru's assistant quickly walked up to Su Bei. "Miss Su."

Su Bei saw someone familiar and smiled.

"President Tang asked me to pick you up. Let's go in together."

“Okay.” Su Bei followed him.

At this moment, Old Master Tang was dressed in traditional S Country attire. He appeared hale and hearty.

He was waiting for Su Bei to return. This time, her return meant that she had officially returned to the family.

He wanted to introduce Su Bei to all his relatives, family, and guests. He wanted them to know that his little granddaughter was highly regarded in the Tang family. She was the child he personally wanted to acknowledge!

Tang Jianming and Lin Shulian stood on either side of Old Master Tang. They were also very excited. They could finally see the child who had disappeared for more than 20 years. Now, she could finally return to their side.

As her parents, they had been waiting for this moment for so many years.

The child had already grown up and was completely different from before. They had only seen her appearance on television.

...

After Su Bei entered with her assistant, some people recognized her.

“Isn’t that the famous model?”

“Su Bei! She’s the most popular model now. She’s very famous.”

“Yes, yes, yes. It’s Su Bei. Why is she here?”

“She works in Sheng Tang Entertainment. If the two presidents invite her, it’s normal for her to come, right?”

“But an artist is an artist. This is the big boss’ family gathering. Why did they need to invite an artist?”

“Who knows? We’re not family members anyway. It doesn’t matter.”

A series of discussions could be heard.

Su Bei’s clothes tonight was very simple. It was just an ordinary down jacket that was mainly used to keep her warm. She wore no accessories and no makeup. Her fair and clean face looked clean and clear.

When Du Luo saw Su Bei, he subconsciously clenched his fists.

If Su Huixian was not currently clinging to him, he knew that he would not have been able to control his footsteps and walk toward Su Bei.

The assistant brought Su Bei to Tang Xinru’s side.

“Su Bei, you’re here?” Tang Xinru smiled and stood up. “Grandfather is waiting for you. Go and see him.”

“Okay.”

Tang Xinru accompanied Su Bei upstairs.

When Su Bei appeared at the door, Old Master Tang stood up from the sofa. "Su Bei!"

When Tang Jianming and his wife saw their daughter standing in front of them, their eyes couldn't help but turn red. They wanted to go up and hug her, but when they saw that their daughter, who was as exquisite as a doll, had become a big girl now, they were at a loss.. It seemed that they didn't dare to be rude to such an exquisite-looking woman.

Chapter 653: Disgusting!

Tang Yue, on the other hand, went up to hug Su Bei. "My sister is back! Welcome back! Dad and Mom have been looking forward to this day. You're finally back."

"Quick, take a seat." Lin Shulian quickly said to Su Bei, "Su Bei, do you want some fruit? Tea or coffee?"

"Tea will do, thank you," Su Bei said politely.

"Here, here. This is fruit tea. Try it and see how it tastes." Lin Shulian was very eager.

The couple in front of her looked to be in their 50s. They had taken good care of themselves and were considered to look quite young among people their age.

One could see Tang Yue's shadow on Lin Shulian's face. It had to be said that the Tang family members were all good-looking, and their looks were generally better than those of the Su family.

However, Su Bei was a little embarrassed when she suddenly saw the middle-aged couple who were her parents. She could not bring herself to call them her parents.

Su Bei held a cup of tea. Although she was usually cheerful, she turned shy in front of this family.

Lin Shulian looked at her daughter gently.

The members of the Tang family were all pretty good-looking, and Su Bei's looks were even better. Her appearance and height were outstanding, and she looked exquisite and pleasant to the eyes.

"Su Bei, don't worry. In a while, accompany Grandfather out and meet the rest of our family, okay?" Lin Shulian gently said.

"Okay, thank you." Su Bei gently nodded.

"Oh right, this is the red packet I've prepared for you." Lin Shulian stuffed a thick red packet into Su Bei's hands.

Without waiting for her to reject, Tang Jianming, Grandpa Tang, and Tang Xinru all gave her one.

Even Tang Yue could not help but give her a red packet.

"You're not allowed to refuse. This is our family's custom." Tang Xinru smiled and held her hand. "You're the youngest child in the family. You should take them."

Su Bei couldn't refuse, so she accepted them all and put them in her purse.

Old Master Tang chuckled. "Let's go, Su Bei. Let's go down together. Come with me."

Su Bei went forward and held Old Master Tang's arm as she followed him.

When Old Master Tang appeared at the staircase, everyone turned to look at him.

No one expected Su Bei to appear with him and even hold his arm.

For a moment, no one thought that she was his granddaughter.

They all found it very strange. What was going on?

Su Huixian couldn't help but say in surprise, "Du Luo, look at Su Bei. How does she have the galls to do such a thing?"

Du Luo also saw this scene. Why were Su Bei and Old Master Tang appearing together?

"Don't talk nonsense. Things that haven't been confirmed are just rumors." Du Luo subconsciously defended Su Bei.

Su Huixian knew that she had misspoken, so she kept quiet.

After arriving downstairs, Tang Xinru and Su Bei walked to the side and sat down.

Tang Yue and Old Master Tang stood in the middle of the living room.

Su Huixian could not help but feel disdain in her heart. She thought about how Su Bei had gotten to join Sheng Tang Entertainment. She did not expect her to use such a method! How despicable!

Looking at Su Bei, she really didn't know any shame. How could she sit with Tang Xinru so casually? Did she really think that she was the master of the Tang family?

If such a thing was exposed, Su Bei's reputation would definitely be ruined!

Old Master Tang stood in the middle and spoke.

The crowd quietened down and looked at the old man.

Chapter 654: Su Bei Is Not Worthy

Old Master Tang was in high spirits today and appeared very vibrant. He looked at everyone and said in a loud voice, "Thank you all for coming to the Tang family's banquet tonight. Tonight is my birthday and also a joyous occasion for the Tang family. I'd like to share it with all of you.

"Everyone knows that many years ago, we lost a child in our family. She was less than two years old when she went missing.

"This matter has been a sore point for me, my son, and the entire family. We couldn't forget that child, but we couldn't find her.

"But today, I want to share my joy because my granddaughter, the lost child, is finally back!

"The heavens did not turn a deaf ear to our daily prayers and sent her back to us.

"Today, I'll let her meet everyone. I hope everyone will treat her well in the future."

Old Master Tang extended his hand toward Tang Xinru. His loving face was full of radiance and love.

Everyone saw Old Master Tang's expression and looked in that direction.

Su Huixian couldn't help looking over and saw Su Bei.

However, she didn't believe that Su Bei was a member of the Tang family, so she didn't even think in that direction as she felt that Su Bei wasn't worthy.

Therefore, she was looking forward to seeing the person. She wanted to see who was the lost child of the Tang family!

When she saw Su Bei stand up, disbelief flashed across Su Huixian's face.

No, impossible!

She bit her lip to comfort herself.

However, the more she refused to believe it, the more things were going in the opposite direction of what she hoped.

Not only did Su Bei stand up but she walked toward Old Master Tang under everyone's gazes.

Then, Su Bei stood in front of Old Master Tang and placed her hand in the old man's.

Su Huixian's mind went blank. Su Bei was that child? How was that possible?

This was a possibility that she had never thought of before. However, when she thought about the incidents that happened before and after, she slowly realized that this was the only possibility...

Su Bei was adopted, Chen Xiuzhu had brought her back from the orphanage, the adoption certificate... All these could be linked to today's events.

In other words, Su Huixian had wanted to smear Chen Xiuzhu's name but she indirectly helped Su Bei find her biological parents and her real family!

Instead of framing Su Bei, she had helped Su Bei instead!

As expected, Old Master Tang looked at Su Bei lovingly and said to everyone, "Everyone, this is my little granddaughter, Su Bei. She left home so many years ago and has finally returned to my side. From now on, our Tang family's little princess has returned. This is the most meaningful birthday I've ever had and it's also the happiest New Year's in my life."

His words, which were filled with his love and affection, spread to everyone. Those who previously looked down on Su Bei were now humiliated. They didn't expect that she was the little princess of Sheng Tang, the most beloved child of Old Master Tang.

She appeared here tonight in an open and aboveboard manner. She wasn't here to freeload, nor was she here to rely on this kind of banquet to increase her popularity.

It was because she was already born with the aura of a princess!

Tang Jianming also said loudly, "My little daughter is back. Tonight, the Tang family has prepared a feast for everyone. Everyone, please celebrate with us.."

Chapter 655: Randomly Chose It From A Pile Of Trash

There was a burst of applause from all around as everyone congratulated the Tang family.

Du Luo also looked at everything in front of him in confusion. Su Bei had returned to the Tang family and was a member of the Tang family?

Tang Xinru smiled. "Happy birthday, Grandpa!"

"Happy birthday, Grandpa."

"Dad, I wish you a long life!"

The people around them also congratulated Old Master Tang for his birthday. In an instant, the entire place fell into a sea of joy.

Su Huixian wished she could leave, but she remembered that she had yet to give her carefully prepared gift. She did not want to admit defeat so easily.

Instead of leaving, she waited.

The Tang family and their close relatives were among the first to give the old man their gifts.

At this moment, many guests also presented their gifts.

Su Huixian walked to Old Master Tang's side and handed him the calligraphy piece that she had bought after much consideration. "Old Master Tang, this is a gift that I prepared for you. It's calligraphy, please accept it. I wish you a long and happy life!"

"Thank you!" Old Master Tang received the gift personally!

Most of the other gifts were handled by the butler. Even when he received them personally, he did not open them. He probably did not take them to heart.

However, he personally received Su Huixian's gift and opened it. He said with a smile, "Since it's a calligraphy piece, I should broaden my horizons."

Su Huixian knew that the gift had interested him. Otherwise, he wouldn't open it so happily.

Su Huixian smiled and complimented him. "Everyone knows that you love calligraphy and you're an expert in it, so this calligraphy piece is just nice for your birthday."

Grandfather Tang laughed and nodded. He opened it and said, "Not bad, not bad. It's Qiu Wan's handwriting!"

Someone immediately said, "Qiu Wan is a very famous calligrapher who recently appeared. Her works are very magical."

“It’s admirable for Miss Su Huixian to have such foresight to prepare such a gift. Old Master Tang, today is truly a joyous occasion!”

“What are the four blessings?”

“Firstly, happiness is a family reuniting during the spring festival; secondly, happiness is welcoming one’s own granddaughter; Thirdly, happiness is living longer than the South Mountain; Fourthly, happiness is obtaining these words.”

Old Master Tang was overjoyed. Although Qiu Wan was too commercial and her words were a little tacky, it was still better than other gifts.

Old Master Tang’s impression of Su Huixian changed. Although the Su family was not a good family, Su Huixian could not choose her family, after all. She was still alright.

Hearing everyone present, Su Bei remembered that she had also prepared a gift for her grandfather.

She smiled and said, “Grandpa, I’ve also prepared a gift for you.”

“Really? What is it?” Old Master Tang immediately said happily, “I’m so happy, let me see it!”

“I know that you like calligraphy as well, so I also prepared a piece,” Su Bei said.

Su Huixian couldn’t help but snort. She recalled that when Su Bei bought it, it was just a few thousand yuan. Compared to her own gift, it was a far cry. She had just randomly chosen it from a pile of trash but was giving it as a gift. How cheap.

She was so lucky to become a member of the Tang family. If it were her, she would be much better than Su Bei.

When everyone saw that Su Bei also took out a calligraphy piece, they showed disapproving faces.

Chapter 656: It’s Thanks To Su Bei

Qiu Wan’s calligraphy piece was already a very good gift. What else could Su Bei offer?

From the looks of it, she was indeed not a child raised by the Tang family. She was not presentable at all. She didn’t even know how to choose meaningful gifts. She was just following in the footsteps of others.

Old Master Tang took Su Bei’s gift and looked at it. He smiled and read out the words. Not bad, not bad. Su Bei did a good job of choosing a calligraphy piece!”

Someone took a look and asked, “I wonder who wrote this?”

There was no signature on Su Bei’s calligraphy piece. Although the calligraphy was good, it was completely nameless. It inevitably made some people look at it with disdain.

Compared to Su Huixian’s gift, her gift was far inferior.

Hearing other people’s doubts, Old Master Tang did not want Su Bei to be criticized. He kept the piece and said, “I like the one that Su Bei gave me. I’ll get someone to hang it up in a few days. As long as it’s good, it doesn’t matter who wrote it. It’s good stuff.”

With Old Master Tang's words, the others couldn't say anything else.

However, they couldn't help but think in their hearts, 'Su Bei is a model. Her cultural knowledge is limited. She doesn't even know how to curry favor with the old man and buy him a valuable item. She's even more inferior than an outsider.'

'This daughter raised by outsiders can never match up to the Tang family. I wonder if Old Master Tang regrets his decision.'

'It's really funny that the calligraphy piece wasn't signed. It's all thanks to Su Bei that it was even sold in the first place.'

Su Bei, on the other hand, did not think much of it. It was rare for a calligraphy piece to be this well-written. It was elegant and moving. It was also a suitable birthday gift, so she liked it. It only mattered that Grandpa liked it.

"Grandpa, I also have something to give you!" Tang Yue smiled.

Old Master Tang immediately smiled and said, "Oh, what is it? I'm really happy tonight. Good granddaughter, tell me what you're giving me."

"I wonder if you still remember Qin Yue?" Tang Yue asked with a smile.

Everyone was stunned. Who was this Qin Yue?

Before Old Master Tang could respond, a knowledgeable person smiled and said, "I'm sure Old Master Tang remembers because even I have heard of this name before."

The person who spoke was Du Luo's eldest uncle, Du Guoshou. He was the person who left the Du family and had just returned. He was rather familiar with Old Master Tang.

It was also because of him that Du Luo and Su Huixian had the chance to appear on this occasion.

Old Master Tang looked radiant as he nodded his head slightly, gesturing for Du Guoshou to continue.

Du Guoshou opened his mouth and said, "Qin Yue learned calligraphy from a calligraphy master, Wang Bochou. He started learning calligraphy at the age of three. At the age of five, he was able to copy Yan Zhenqing and Liu Gongquan's calligraphy. At the age of eight, he had his own style. At the age of 12, he became famous in the capital. At the age of 18, he was praised by everyone in the industry. His calligraphy is really good. It's noble and unparalleled. It's hard to imagine that such a young child can write such words."

"I think I've heard of this name before. Apparently, it's said that Qin Yue is quite good-looking," someone immediately responded.

There weren't many people who knew calligraphy at the venue, so there weren't many responses.

Du Guoshou continued, "What's even more unique is that he doesn't follow the commercial path and his works have never been auctioned before. His works are extremely hard to come by. As long as he writes the words, the pieces are immediately collected by experts.. In this aspect, he's the rarest and youngest calligrapher!"

Chapter 657: Uproar

Someone questioned, "It's not that easy to learn calligraphy. From what you said, he's still young but he's already so famous. Is he legitimate?"

"Who says that he's lacking in skills just because he's young? The Saint of Books, Wang Xizhi, became famous at the age of 27. The great calligrapher, Liu Gongquan, made his name known throughout the capital at the age of 12. This Qin Yue is already in his 20s. He was born in a family of calligraphers. He's both talented and works hard!" Someone in the crowd yelled.

Du Guoshou smiled and said, "This esteemed guest is right. Qin Yue is indeed a talented person, so there is no need to doubt his strength. There are people abroad who love his calligraphy so much that they're intoxicated by his work. Even if they pay a high price, they might not be able to invite him to write for them. You can imagine his strength."

Everyone was fascinated by the explanation. What kind of talent could have such powerful abilities?

When Su Bei heard this, she couldn't help but think that this man was really powerful. To be able to reach such a pinnacle in an industry was indeed admirable. However, she hadn't practiced calligraphy for a long time and didn't know what was going on in the industry, so she had never even heard of such a famous person.

Du Guoshou looked at Tang Yue and said respectfully, "President Tang, you mentioned Qin Yue. Could it be that you want to give the old master his calligraphy?"

Tang Yue smiled, and Du Guoshou could not help but admire her. "Ah, then we're all going to have a feast for our eyes tonight! I really didn't expect to be able to see Qin Yue's writing in person. It's really a once in a lifetime chance!"

The atmosphere was completely lifted, and everyone wanted to take a look at the piece.

They really did not expect to see such treasure. This birthday party really made one feel good.

Tang Yue smiled and said, "Everyone, we're indeed going to show everyone Qin Yue's calligraphy tonight. However, we're not going to be presenting his work as he'll be writing on the spot. So, let us welcome Qin Yue!"

When Tang Yue said this, the entire venue was in an uproar!

For Qin Yue to personally appear, one could very well imagine how shocking this matter was. All the ordinary people present would get to watch an exciting show here today.

A few elders who liked calligraphy and painting, who were originally sitting calmly, couldn't help but stand up at this moment. With their juniors supporting them, they all walked forward.

Everyone quickly made way for them.

Old Master Tang was so proud!

Tang Yue's filial piety made him content.

His old friends looked at him with envy. “Old Tang, we’ve really lost to you this time! Your granddaughters are more filial than the other!”

“I look forward to it!”

“It’s thanks to you that I got to meet Qin Yue!”

Some of the ordinary people thought that Tang Yue was purposely trying to make the atmosphere more lively so as to elevate Qin Yue’s status. They did not expect that even the seniors present would say this, so none of them dared to be disrespectful.

It seemed like this Qin Yue really had some strength.

Tang Yue had a smile on her face as she looked down at the crowd and then at Su Huixian and Su Bei.

Su Bei, on the other hand, did not think much of it. She had always felt that one’s intentions were most important when giving a gift. It was fine as long as a gift met her expectations.. It did not have to be high-class or expensive.

Chapter 658: Unreasonable And Unaware

Su Huixian, on the other hand, clenched her fists. She knew that she had lost to Tang Yue.

Listening to these people, Qin Yue was many levels higher than Qiu Wan. It was hard to find a single piece of his. Moreover, Qin Yue was here at the venue. Her gift was indeed inferior.

However, no matter how inferior her gift was, it was still better than Su Bei’s. To think that she was Old Master Tang’s granddaughter yet she gave him such a gift. Su Bei couldn’t even compare to her! What was there to be proud of?

Following Tang Yue’s gaze, everyone turned to look at the door.

A young man appeared at the door. He was wearing a modified moon-white shirt and black cloth shoes. His clothes were neat and tidy. His hair was also very tidy.

His facial features were handsome and gentle, while his eyes were like the moon. He appeared noble, distant, holy, and elegant. Just by standing there, one would not dare to profane him. It was as if he existed in another world.

It was just as everyone had said. One’s handwriting was just like the person.

Su Bei was slightly surprised because she had seen this young man before. When she bought the calligraphy piece, he had also taken a fancy to the calligraphy piece she chose, but she was the one who grabbed it first.

She never thought that he was Qin Yue.

Seeing Su Bei like this, Tang Yue couldn’t help but feel happy. Even if she, Su Bei, had returned and become a little princess for the time being who was held in the palm of Old Master Tang’s hand and was loved and cared for by her parents, she wouldn’t be a little princess forever.

In this family, only she knew how to be filial to her elders and how to get more attention so that she could be the real princess.

At the end of tonight, who would remember that Grandpa had acknowledged another granddaughter?

They would only remember that Tang Yue was a talented and filial child. They would remember that she had invited Qin Yue.

The only thing they would remember about Su Bei was her uncouthness and ignorance. She had casually handed a calligraphy piece without a signature to her grandfather.

Tang Yue raised her chin haughtily. Even God was helping her. She had been trying to contact Qin Yue, but unfortunately, she was never able to reach him.

However, she didn't expect that she would be able to get in touch with him so soon after using the Tang family's name. He agreed to her request without even saying anything.

In reality, Tang Yue had only wanted to ask for a piece of calligraphy; she never expected Qin Yue to take the initiative to attend the banquet.

Old Master Tang was so excited that his face turned red. He had loved calligraphy since he was young. Unfortunately, his country was not doing well when he was young. He could not even afford a pen and paper to practice calligraphy. He could only write on the ground.

Later on, he finally had money but he didn't have the time. It was only after he became old that he could make up for lost time.

This Qin Yue was one of the young scholars that he had recently taken a liking to.

He had never thought of inviting such a talented young man to his birthday banquet.

Tang Yue was too filial.

"Grandpa, Qin Yue is here," Tang Yue said with a smile.

"Yes, yes, yes." Old Master Tang went forward respectfully. "Mr. Qin."

The gentleman here was not a typical gentleman. Instead, he was a master. This was Old Master Tang's respect for the talented Qin Yue.

"Old Master Tang, nice to meet you," Qin Yue said politely.. His voice was the same as the others but it was elegant and pleasant to the ears.

Chapter 659: Can't Stump Her

Everyone was impressed by his demeanor. At this moment, there was complete silence. No one dared to speak out loud.

"It's my honor to have you here, Mr. Qin. Prepare tea, paper, and pen!" Old Master Tang's voice trembled with excitement.

After a while, an old-fashioned calligraphy table was prepared and carried over by the servants. It was the table that Old Master Tang often used to practice calligraphy.

The best brush, paper, and inkstone were all placed on the table.

“Are these okay? If they’re not, I can get someone to change them!” Old Master Tang asked.

“They’ll do,” Qin Yue said in a flat voice. He was still cold and aloof.

Excited, Tang Yue took the initiative to strike up a conversation with him. “Mr. Qin, today is my grandfather’s birthday, so please write a congratulatory message! Just do as you wish! I’ll help you grind the ink!”

With that, Tang Yue picked up the ink slab and was about to grind it.

Qin Yue looked up and signaled her to put it down.

Tang Yue was slightly taken aback. Although she was unhappy, she could only let it be. She knew that Qin Yue had many quirks, but she did not know what he wanted to do. Could it be that he wanted Grandpa to personally grind the ink?

Qin Yue looked at Su Bei and said, “Can you help me grind the ink?”

It was a question, but his cold tone sounded so certain that Su Bei could not refuse.

Su Bei could only go over and help him grind the ink. She had practiced calligraphy before, so grinding ink was not difficult for her.

Old Master Tang twirled his beard and smiled. They were both his granddaughters, so it didn’t matter who was grinding the ink.

Tang Yue, however, did not think so. Since Qin Yue was invited by her, logically speaking, she should be the one to accompany Qin Yue and not Su Bei.

However, since Qin Yue had personally spoken, she could not argue too much.

“What do you want me to write?” Qin Yue asked.

“Me?” Su Bei did not expect him to ask her.

“Yes, you.” Qin Yue smiled.

Everyone’s eyes were on Su Bei. Now that they were looking at her more seriously, Su Bei was more pleasing to the eyes than before. She did not have any makeup on her face, and her eyebrows were exquisite. Her temperament was also outstanding. When she stood next to Qin Yue, it made people realize that she also had a noble temperament as well.

It was different from what people expected from a woman in the entertainment industry.

She was very skilled in grinding ink, as if she often did this kind of thing.

Tang Yue wished she could speak for Su Bei. However, it was not convenient for her to show off on such an occasion, so she could only hold it in.

Su Bei thought for a while and gave her suggestion. "Mr. Qin, what do you think?"

"Very good." Qin Yue lowered his head and picked up his pen.

An elder said, "Old Master Tang, I really envy you. Your granddaughter is talented."

"You flatter me!" Old Master Tang chuckled..

Chapter 660: I Wrote It Because Of You

The birthday celebration was even more heartwarming. Old Master Tang smiled even wider.

Qin Yue's brush was filled with thick ink, and on the paper, it was like a dragon soaring into the sky or a phoenix dancing in the air. As it moved, it left behind a few lines of elegantly written birthday wishes.

After he finished writing, he signed his name and took out the seal. He stamped it in one go. It was dazzling and pleasing to the eye. Everyone felt that time passed too quickly. After a few hurried glances, Qin Yue had finished writing the wishes. They wished Qin Yue could write more.

After Qin Yue finished writing, he picked up the paper and handed it to Su Bei.

"Mr. Qin, you're an honored guest invited by my sister. Please pass this piece of calligraphy to my sister and let her give it to my grandfather!" Su Bei did not want to receive a merit for nothing, so he kindly reminded him.

Tang Yue hurriedly reached out to receive the calligraphy piece and prepared to personally deliver it to her grandfather to wish him a happy birthday!

Qin Yue was slightly stunned. Then, he said, "I wrote it because of you."

How could he hand it to Tang Yue?

Everyone was stunned.

Everyone looked at Qin Yue in surprise, then at Tang Yue. From the moment Qin Yue was invited in, everyone knew that he was invited by Tang Yue to celebrate Old Master Tang's birthday. Naturally, he was here because of Tang Yue.

However, from the way he spoke, it seemed that he wrote the birthday wishes because of Su Bei?

Displeased, Tang Yue reminded him solemnly, "Mr. Qin, I invited you here, so leave this to me."

Qin Yue didn't move.

Su Bei nodded at him, indicating that he could hand it to Tang Yue.

Su Bei did not want to be too kind to Tang Yue, but she did not want to embarrass Old Master Tang in this situation.

Only when he saw Su Bei's gaze did Qin Yue turn around and hand the paper to Tang Yue.

Everyone could see that he was completely indifferent to Tang Yue's request, but for Su Bei, he would do anything.

Many people whispered, "I didn't expect Qin Yue to come for Su Bei."

"That's right. I really thought that Tang Yue was the one who invited him. So that's how it is."

"I really didn't expect this. Su Bei is really impressive."

Upon hearing these words, Tang Yue could only pretend that she did not hear them. She passed the calligraphy piece in her hand to Grandfather Tang and said, "Grandfather, I wish you happiness and joy. This piece of calligraphy written by Mr. Qin is for you."

"Good, very good!" Old Master Tang twirled his beard and reached out to take it. "We need to frame this up properly and hang it in the main hall to be admired every day."

Seeing that Su Bei had stolen her limelight, Tang Yue said, "Didn't you say that you want to hang the one Su Bei got for you? Why don't you hang Mr. Qin's piece in the study? The study is more suitable for Mr. Qin's bright and clear style."

She deliberately reminded Old Master Tang that the calligraphy Su Bei gave him was worlds apart from the one she gave him.

Old Master Tang smiled and said, "That's good, that's good too. I like the things you and Su Bei gave me. I also like Xinru and Guan Yu's gifts."

Tang Guanyu was Tang Xinru's elder brother and Su Bei's cousin.

"These two calligraphy pieces are pretty good." Someone praised. "Old Master Tang, you're really lucky."

"With granddaughters and a grandson like them, what more can I ask for?"

Old Master Tang laughed, "Both calligraphy pieces are good.. I'll keep them well and hang them."
