

Chapter 691: Heartache

After seeing Ni Huang's tears, Old Master Tang's heart was struck. How was this acting? She was clearly a living Ni Huang!

"Those people who said that Su Bei's acting wasn't good and she delayed the progress of the entire movie, are they all blind?" Old Master Tang muttered. "Without understanding the situation first, they have no right to speak!"

After watching the video, Old Master Tang couldn't come back to his senses for a long time. He really had too many misunderstandings about Su Bei. He simply believed the slander outside and went to question his beloved granddaughter. It was really not right of him.

This child was meant for this line of work. What right did he have to interfere with her preferences and choices?

His hands trembled slightly at his own rashness.

"Inform Director Guo Feng and Su Bei to come over at once!" Old Master Tang said excitedly.

"No, no, I think I should go to the set myself." Old Master Tang stood up and asked his assistant to prepare a car.

The assistant advised, "It's already late today. I'm afraid the crew has already ended work. Let's do it tomorrow morning."

Old Master Tang had no choice but to suppress his emotions. The next morning, he couldn't wait any longer and went to the set first thing itself.

Director Guo Feng and Su Bei were talking about the movie when they saw Old Master Tang arrive. They looked at each other and their hearts sank.

Director Guo Feng nodded at Su Bei, his eyes saying that if Old Master Tang still wanted to stop Su Bei from filming the movie, then he would leave with Su Bei.

Su Bei had also made up her mind, and her eyes became determined.

"Su Bei, come to my side," Old Master Tang said gently.

Su Bei stopped in her tracks and did not move. Old Master Tang saw how guarded she was and could not help but feel sorry. He knew that she was afraid he would rashly make decisions for her again.

"Director Guo Feng, come over with Su Bei." Old Master Tang found a seat and sat down.

Director Guo Feng then touched Su Bei's arm and said, "Let's go. If anything happens, we'll shoulder it together."

Seeing them sit down, Old Master Tang stroked his beard and said with a smile, "I've already watched Su Bei's acting yesterday. I came today to apologize to you two. I was too arbitrary and delayed your filming. I'm sorry."

The old man was already in his 70s. He had a calm demeanor as he stood up and bowed respectfully.

Su Bei quickly stood up and supported him. "Grandpa, you don't have to do this."

"I feel bad for you, but I also hate those netizens on the internet. I'm afraid they'll hurt you. But thinking about what I did, how am I any different from those haters? Since I didn't know the situation well, I shouldn't have judged you. My actions were more lethal than theirs," Old Master Tang said from the bottom of his heart.

He patted Su Bei's hand and said, "I came today to tell you and Director Guo Feng to proceed as you wish and not be bothered by the gossip. In the future, I'll always support you. Let me bear the storm outside. If anyone dares to say anything bad about my granddaughter, I'll fight it out with them!"

"Grandfather." Su Bei was very touched. She did not expect Old Master Tang to be so responsible. Knowing his mistake, he changed. He openly and directly admitted his mistake to a junior.

"Old Master Tang, with your words, I'm willing to sacrifice my life for this movie!" Director Guo Feng was also very excited.

Chapter 692: A Vicious Plan

Old Master Tang looked at Su Bei and said, "Child, I don't want to hurt you or make you feel distressed. Go do your work. Come look for me if you ever feel tired."

The old man's love and protection touched Su Bei, and her eyes turned slightly red.

Old Master Tang did not disturb her any further. After speaking, he left with his assistant.

Director Guo Feng said to Su Bei, who was in a daze, "Okay, we should go film now!"

After this incident, more than half of the people in the crew who previously slandered Su Bei had disappeared. This had always been the case with people. They admired the strong. In the end, those who were truly capable remained in the crew.

However, Zhou Yao was still very unconvinced.

The character she was playing was an unruly young lady. There was nothing she could show with such a role. Therefore, when the video of Su Bei's acting was posted on the internet, there was no discussion about her. The only ones discussing her said that she deserved to be beaten up, that Ni Huang beat her up beautifully, and other such comments.

If she were to play the role of Ni Huang, the character itself was already so outstanding. Would she not be able to defeat Su Bei?

She pinched her palm and found Fang Yourong.

When Fang Yourong saw her coming over, she sighed helplessly. “Zhou Yao, you should’ve looked for other casts to join sooner. Su Bei’s video this time has completely crushed you and she has gained a foothold in the crew.”

Her tone was regretful, but she also felt that she was useless. She couldn’t even handle Su Bei, who was not a professional.

“Sister Yourong, can’t the investors give it a try and see if there’s still a chance?” Zhou Yao was really unwilling to lose this role.

“It’s not that I don’t want to help you. Sheng Tang is also one of the investors. You should know Su Bei’s identity, right?” Fang Yourong asked.

Zhou Yao walked out dejectedly. She had worked so hard for so long. Was she going to lose to Su Bei just because she didn’t have an investor like her grandfather? She wasn’t convinced.

Director Guo Feng’s assistant walked toward her and said, “Zhou Yao, you can leave the set now.”

“But my scenes aren’t done yet?” Zhou Yao asked.

“Director Guo Feng said that the scene with you and Su Bei yesterday was shot perfectly and can be directly sent to post-production, so there’s no need to reshoot. Hence, you’re done with your scenes.” The assistant smiled and said, “I envy you. We still have to stay in this studio for a long time.”

Zhou Yao’s expression was ugly. What was there to be envious about? For a character like that to appear in a few scenes and be scolded, she had completely become Su Bei’s foil.

She went back to pack her things and left. As she was packing, she saw the diagnosis report that Fang Yourong had received that day. She had not thrown it away. She even kept the folder that was used to pack the parcel.

She originally intended to throw it away but she carefully looked at the sender’s information. She seemed to see the word ‘Su’? Why was the handwriting so similar to Su Bei’s signature?

She carefully compared it and it was really Su Bei’s signature.

Could it be that this diagnosis was a prank sent by Su Bei to Fang Yourong?

Zhou Yao suddenly had a vicious plan.

Since Su Bei had done everything herself and presented all materials to Zhou Yao, wouldn’t she be a fool if she didn’t make use of it?

As she thought of this, Zhou Yao immediately repacked the package and sealed it before walking toward Fang Yourong’s waiting room.

“Sister Yourong, this parcel looks like a contract, so I didn’t dare to open it. I brought it over for you..” Zhou Yao handed over the parcel.

Chapter 693: Framing Su Bei

Fang Yourong reached out to take it and said, "I just contacted a film crew for you. The director said that you can play the third female lead."

After all, she was her junior. Fang Yourong wanted to help her form her own network of connections.

"Really? Thank you, Sister Yourong," Zhou Yao said happily.

Although getting a role as the third female lead was not as good as Su Bei's role, it was better to have a chance than not at all.

Fang Yourong took the package and saw that it was something like a contract, so she opened it.

Inside was a greeting card. She picked it up and opened it. Suddenly, catkins came flying out.

Fang Yourong let out a cry and tossed the card aside. She sneezed uncontrollably.

"Ah-choo, Ah-choo!" Fang Yourong's tears and snot flowed.

That was because she had a severe allergy to catkins. As long as she touched it, not only would she cough and sneeze but her skin would also become red and swollen. It would be difficult for the reaction to subside.

Therefore, she was very careful about going to places with catkins. However, she did not expect that she would be caught off guard and actually discover such a thing in the package she received.

"Sister Yourong, are you alright?" Zhou Yao quickly helped her to wash her face.

The assistant was also dumbfounded. "I'll get the doctor!"

"Wait." Fang Yourong stopped her assistant.

After Fang Yourong finished washing her face and taking the medicine, she finally stopped sneezing. However, she realized that her face had become swollen and ugly.

She shouted angrily at Zhou Yao, "Where did this package come from? Don't you know I'm allergic? Are you trying to kill me?"

"I'm sorry, Sister Yourong. I really didn't know that there were such things inside." Zhou Yao kept apologizing, her tears falling pitifully.

The more Fang Yourong looked at herself in the mirror, the angrier she became. As a female celebrity, she could not allow any flaws to appear on her face. But now that it was so red and swollen, what should she do?

The assistant checked the package and said, "It probably wasn't sent by a fan because we didn't announce our shooting location to the public. Also, your phone number is on it, which is also unknown to outsiders."

Zhou Yao also said, "That's right. I thought it was something important because I saw those personal details. I thought it was a contract, so I didn't dare to open it on my own. I personally gave it to Sister Yourong. I'm really sorry. I was too careless."

Fang Yourong was no longer angry. The most important thing now was to solve the problem at hand.

“Check who sent the package.” Fang Yourong gritted her teeth. If she caught this person, she would tear them into pieces.

“Sister Yourong, it seems to be Su Bei...” The assistant finished checking the parcel and found that there was actually the word ‘Su’ on it. “There are some courier services in the capital who require the sender to sign their own name. The word ‘Su’ here is very similar to Su Bei’s signature. I think she was the one who signed it.”

Zhou Yao said, “Why did Su Bei do that? Why did she leave her signature?”

“She definitely didn’t want others to know about her misdeeds, so she didn’t let her assistant do it. Hence, she had to do it herself. She had no choice but to put down her signature since the courier services required it, so she only put down one word.” The assistant analyzed and said, “How despicable of her to harm Sister Yourong like this!”

Fang Yourong gritted her teeth. “Is Su Bei crazy? She wants my role as the female lead?”

Chapter 694: Allergic Reaction...

Zhou Yao continued to fan the flames and worsen Fang Yourong’s suspicions: “But Su Bei has the Tang family backing her up. Does she still need to use such methods to snatch the role from you?”

The assistant said, “Zhou Yao, what do you know? Sister Yourong went through many auditions before she was selected to be the female lead. As for the investors, it’s not just the Sheng family. Old Master Tang can decide Su Bei’s position as the second female lead, but he can’t directly decide the female lead’s position. But if Sister Yourong quit due to allergies, wouldn’t Su Bei naturally become the female lead?”

Fang Yourong agreed with what the assistant said. This was indeed the case.

Therefore, she must not let Su Bei take away her female lead role.

“I don’t need to make a big deal about my allergies yet. Fortunately, I have my medication to stabilize the situation. I’ll see the doctor tonight.”

“But your face...” Zhou Yao reminded her.

“This kind of allergic reaction can usually go away in seven days. It just so happens that I’ll be masked for my scenes today and they’re also scenes with Su Bei. Since Su Bei wants to harm me, I don’t mind giving her a taste of her own medicine...”

Fang Yourong came up with a plan.

‘Su Bei, you want to chase me away? You’re still too inexperienced!’

Fang Yourong changed into her costume, put on her veil, and walked out.

Because she had to wear a veil for today’s scene, she didn’t attract the attention of the crowd. Director Guo Feng shouted, “Yourong, get ready to start filming!”

Fang Yourong nodded and stood with Su Bei.

Su Bei was very close to her and noticed that there seemed to be a problem with her skin under the veil. She kindly asked, "Sister Yourong, are you going to shoot now or do you want to rest for a few more minutes?"

However, Fang Yourong thought that she was provoking her. She raised her chin and said, "Of course we're filming now!"

"Okay, I'm ready too. Let's begin."

Fang Yourong coldly looked at Su Bei. 'I'll let you suffer!'

"All departments, get ready!"

"Filming is about to begin!"

"Fang Yourong, get ready!"

"Su Bei, get ready!"

"Two Phoenixes, act 17, scene 23, action!"

This scene was of Ni Huang being exposed as the princess of the Hun Nation and instantly becoming the target of public criticism.

She wanted to find out the truth behind her identity, so she had to enter the Imperial Palace to investigate. However, she was no longer the princess of the Great Xiao Empire, so she could not enter at will. Thus, she chose to barge in at night.

At this moment, Hua Yingrong, who was already married to Xiao Jing, felt sorry for Ni Huang's plight. She felt sorry for her ruined life, so she wanted to help her. However, she was unable to make a public appearance. Hence, she could only wear a veil and quietly follow behind her.

Ni Huang noticed Hua Yingrong and immediately stopped in her tracks.

Just as the two of them were locked in a fierce battle, the guards of the palace discovered their whereabouts and came over. "It's the enemy's princess, Ni Huang! The emperor has ordered that anyone who sees Ni Huang shall kill her without mercy!"

Ni Huang's eyes flashed with hurt.

"Let's go!" Hua Yingrong whispered to Ni Huang.

"I knew it was you!" Ni Huang had already figured out her identity after the fight, but it was too late to leave now.

Hua Yingrong immediately said to Ni Huang, "Take me as a hostage."

Ni Huang immediately grabbed her throat and threatened the guards, "All of you, retreat!"

Hua Yingrong also said, "I'm Princess Consort Jing. If you dare harm a hair on my head, even ten heads won't be enough to compensate! Stand back!"

Chapter 695: Too Terrifying

The guards backed away in fear.

Just like that, Ni Huang and Hua Yingrong finally reached the corner where there was a wall. She pushed Hua Yingrong with her palm and pushed her toward the guards. Only then did she find an opportunity to turn around and escape.

The guards supported Hua Yingrong as she spat out a mouthful of blood. This proved that she had nothing to do with Ni Huang. She was only held hostage in the palace because she was no match for Ni Huang.

The scene ended there.

“Cut!” Director Guo Feng was very satisfied with Fang Yourong and Su Bei’s performance.

Fang Yourong’s acting skills were outstanding while Su Bei’s talent was outstanding. Their every move was very fascinating.

“Alright, get ready. Let’s do the scene again. Let’s change the angle for the close-up!” Director Guo Feng shouted.

“Su Bei’s push earlier was too strong. Sister Yourong is injured!”

“Quick, quick, call the doctor!”

Everyone rushed forward to help.

Su Bei was stunned. She looked at her palm and could not believe the reality in front of her.

In order to protect herself, she had indeed learned martial arts from Feng Ze and Feng Feifei, but it wasn’t enough to make someone cough up blood.

Moreover, she didn’t use much force when she pushed Fang Yourong just now. It was Fang Yourong who used her strength to charge at the guards and stop them from chasing after Ni Huang. It could be said that the two of them had a mutual appreciation for each other and Ni Huang wouldn’t kill Hua Yingrong.

Outside the movie, Su Bei was not in the position nor did she have the ability to do it.

However, the truth was that Fang Yourong was really injured. She lay on the ground crying in pain until the ambulance arrived and the nurse carried her into the vehicle.

“Sister Yourong spat out a mouthful of black blood. It’s too scary!” The staff discussed.

“Su Bei did use a little too much force. Do you still remember what happened to Zhou Yao and the others? They were kicked to the ground by Su Bei and couldn’t even get up.”

“We’re just filming. Why is Su Bei like this?”

“Don’t say that. It’s unavoidable for mistakes to happen during filming. No one wanted it to happen. Su Bei definitely didn’t do it on purpose.”

Director Guo Feng said loudly, “Are all of you very free? Have you finished your work yet? The doctors haven’t even said anything, but all of you are so capable, huh?!”

After hearing Director Guo Feng’s words, everyone dispersed and went to do their own tasks.

Director Guo Feng walked to Su Bei and said, “Su Bei, go back and rest well.”

“Director Guo Feng, I didn’t do anything to Sister Yourong. I believe you would understand.”

“Of course, I understand. What reason would you have to do that to her?” Director Guo Feng said, “So it’s not a big deal. I’ll take responsibility if anything happens.”

Su Bei nodded. She changed her clothes and went straight home because she knew that Fang Yourong was very hostile. If she went to check on her now, she was afraid that it would only anger her and not solve the problem.

Fang Yourong lay in the ambulance with a cold smile.

She would be able to recover from the allergic reaction on her face in a few days.

Su Bei had tricked her and triggered her allergy, but she wouldn’t directly tear Su Bei apart just with that. However, if the news of Su Bei injuring her was spread, millions of people would tear Su Bei apart for her.

When it came to scheming, she really wanted to tell Su Bei that she was not even fit to carry her shoes.

However, she was also a little worried about what had happened just now. She had clearly bitten the bag of blood, but what exactly was that metallic taste that suddenly came up from her stomach?

Chapter 696: Withdrawal Due To Injury

Could it be that she had lost too much weight recently and her stomach problems had worsened?

When they arrived at the hospital, the hospital examined her and said, “No external injuries.”

“My ribs hurt very much, I can’t exert any strength.” Fang Yourong gasped.

“That’s probably because you used too much force, which caused your stomach to form gas,” the doctor said. “Based on your condition, I’d suggest a stomach examination.”

Fang Yourong agreed. “Go ahead.”

In fact, the doctor did not feel optimistic about her condition because in his professional experience, Fang Yourong had vomited too much blood.

Besides, Fang Yourong’s condition was clearly not a result of external injuries.

Fang Yourong wanted to take advantage of these few days to recuperate her face. It was rare that she had the time to check her stomach.

She called her assistant over and arranged for a doctor to tell the public that she was injured. At the same time, she asked for a medical record to prove it.

The doctor started to disagree, but after the assistant said a few more words, he finally agreed.

After that, Fang Yourong's assistant posted the news of Su Bei beating Fang Yourong up during the scene and injuring her.

Although many people did not believe that Su Bei would really beat someone up, when the video and medical record were released, everyone could not help but believe it.

[Su Bei's moves were indeed heavy. Although it's just acting, in the previous scene, she was able to kick three people down till they couldn't get back up again. It can be seen that she really has that ability.]

[Yeah, Su Bei's skills are indeed quite good. However, she probably didn't do it on purpose.]

[I also believe that Su Bei didn't do it on purpose.]

Then, Fang Yourong's assistant started to use a few alternate accounts to stir up trouble. [Su Bei might not have done it on purpose, but if Fang Yourong really gets injured and withdraws, isn't Su Bei the one who gains the most? She can play the female lead.]

[Su Bei is very talented in acting, but compared to Fang Yourong's experience, she still lacks a lot. Nobody can deny this, right? She's very suitable to be the second female lead, but she might not be able to become the main female lead. Her methods of forcing the female lead away are really infuriating.]

With this, people began to believe that Su Bei did not only injure Fang Yourong but also deliberately attacked her.

[That makes sense. With Fang Yourong gone, Su Bei will be promoted to the female lead.]

[She's really a scheming b*tch. She's such a pretty young lady with so many tricks up her sleeves. You really can't judge a book by its cover.]

[Where did Su Bei go? Why didn't she visit Fang Yourong?]

[Su Bei has really gone too far. She's so proud of her talents and uses her beauty to commit murder!]

Su Bei sat at home and could not help but laugh when she saw these comments. Even when these anti-fans scolded her, they could not help but praise her for her beauty?

Should she thank them?

Old Master Tang quickly called, "Su Bei, what's going on? Why is that woman spreading slander about you?"

This time, Old Master Tang would not believe in the words of others without asking Su Bei about the situation first.

He would never make that kind of arbitrary mistake again.

Hearing Old Master Tang's words, Su Bei pursed her lips and smiled. "I don't know why for now, but I'll definitely find out."

"I'll get my assistant to investigate for you!" Old Master Tang was furious. "Who dares to touch my precious baby? Who dares to disregard me?"

Chapter 697: Find Out The Truth

"There's no need, Grandpa. I have a manager and assistant. If you do this, how should my cousin do her job? Cousin is also your granddaughter. You love me, but you can't be too biased," Su Bei said with a smile.

That was true. Tang Xinru was in charge of Su Bei's work. Tang Xinru might not be happy with Old Master Tang's interference, and Su Bei would also feel that he was interfering.

"Then just tell me whenever you need something."

"I know, Grandpa." After Su Bei hung up, Yue Ze called.

When something like this happened to Su Bei, he, as her manager, had to take care of it.

Su Bei originally wanted Yue Ze to investigate the matter, but she changed his mind and said, "My husband is already looking into things. You don't have to do anything for now, Brother Yue Ze."

"I'm sorry. I was so busy with my mother's health that I couldn't be there when you did the scene in front of the media."

"The person you should feel sorry for isn't me. I won't be working for the next two months. You should accompany the mother and son well," said Su Bei. Right now, Lv Shan and her son were the ones who needed to be taken care of the most.

Yue Ze was stunned for a moment. He knew that Su Bei was right. Lv Shan had given birth but he wasn't by her side. In the next few days, he had to put in more effort.

After Su Bei finished speaking, she had already made up her mind to investigate the matter thoroughly.

Besides, she already had some clues.

Lu Heting also saw the news and immediately called Lu Hang over. "Prepare the car. We're going to the set!"

"Mr. Lu, I just found out that the production team of Young Madam's movie has stopped work."

"Have you checked who the injured person is?" Lu Heting picked up his clothes with a frown.

"It's confirmed that the injured person is Fang Yourong. Young Madam is fine and has already gone home."

Knowing that it was Fang Yourong who was injured and Su Bei was unharmed, Lu Heting's tightly knitted brows relaxed.

What mattered was that Su Bei was fine.

When something happened, there would always be a solution.

Lu Hang stood at the side and thought to himself that it was fortunate that he wasn't Young Madam's opponent. Looking at Mr. Lu's attitude, it didn't matter if someone died. However, Young Madam losing even a strand of hair would make Mr. Lu's heart ache for a long time.

When Lu Heting returned home, Su Bei was on the phone with Xiao Bai.

After she finished her call, Lu Heting reached out and checked her shoulders and arms. Su Bei could not help but laugh. "What are you doing?"

"Seeing if you're hurt."

"No, I'm fine!" Su Bei smiled and looked at him. "I didn't expect you to have time to look at Weibo."

"Of course. But I only read your news. What's up with that woman?"

Su Bei told Lu Heting, "I didn't hit her, but Director Guo Feng says that she needed seven days to recover from her injuries. So I asked Xiao Bai to help me find out why she was admitted to the hospital. When we were filming previously, I saw that there was something wrong with the skin on her face. Maybe she was admitted for that reason..."

"In other words, she might have needed to take leave since the start but the production team obviously couldn't wait that long for her, so she used you to achieve her goal?" Lu Heting easily summarized Fang Yourong's motive from Su Bei's words.

"You're so smart. That's exactly what I'm trying to say."

"In that case, she'll definitely bribe the doctor.. It might not be easy to investigate."

Chapter 698: Just Stay Out of It

Lu Heting muttered, "But since she did something like this, there must be some clues."

"That's why I want to find out the truth. The outside world's discussions are nothing, but the investors will definitely put a lot of pressure on Director Guo Feng." Su Bei looked up at Lu Heting. "I've asked Yue Ze to take care of Lv Shan, so during this period, if you have time, can you help me?"

"Gladly." Lu Heting smiled.

After discussing it, the two of them decided to go to the hospital to verify it.

Su Bei changed into a male outfit and went to the hospital with Lu Heting.

As Fang Yourong was hospitalized here, many paparazzi and reporters were circling around.

Su Bei had changed into a male outfit and did not stand out. These people did not pay too much attention to her and Lu Heting.

After arriving at the hospital, she took out a doctor's uniform and said, "I'll go over."

“I’ll wait outside.” Seeing how mischievous she was, Lu Heting didn’t want to ruin her mood.

Anyway, no matter what she wanted to do, he would bear the consequences.

Su Bei put on her white coat and mask before entering the ward. Fang Yourong was lying in the VIP ward and only her assistant was taking care of her.

The real doctors and nurses had already been sent away by Lu Heting, so Su Bei had no difficulty going in.

As there was only her assistant in the room, Fang Yourong did not wear a veil or a mask. Su Bei saw that her face was red and purple from being severely swollen. There was also antimicrobial medicine on the bedside table.

“Doctor, how long will it take for the patient to recover?”

“Seven days will do,” Su Bei replied.

The assistant drew the curtain, separating Su Bei and Fang Yourong. The doctor who was in charge of treating Fang Yourong was someone specializing in allergies, external injuries, and stomach diseases. However, there was only one attending physician. The assistant clearly did not trust Su Bei.

Su Bei asked the assistant about Fang Yourong’s condition before leaving.

When she came out, her heart was still pounding because she had seen the assistant’s suspicious look.

After she came out, she held Lu Heting’s hand and quickly left this place.

“I saw it. She’s indeed having an allergic reaction. Also, she was prescribed medication for her reaction but there’s no medicine to treat external injuries. I think this is enough evidence.” Su Bei shook the mini-camera in front of her chest. “As long as the outside world knows the truth, the matter of her being ‘injured’ has nothing to do with me.”

Lu Heting nodded. “We don’t need to announce this matter personally. Let the doctor announce it. It would be best if other busybodies find out as well. Let’s just stay out of it.”

“Yeah.”

Lu Heting and Su Bei went straight to the office door of Fang Yourong’s doctor-in-charge, Dr. Hu.

Dr. Hu saw two unfamiliar men enter and could not help but ask, “What are you doing? Why are you entering the doctor’s office so casually? Leave quickly or I’ll call security!”

“Dr. Hu, did you write Fang Yourong’s medical report?” Lu Heting asked directly.

Dr. Hu looked at the man in front of him who looked cheerful and did not know what to say. The other party’s aura was too strong, and he was immediately suppressed to the point of being unable to speak.

Dr. Hu could sense that the other party wasn’t a paparazzo or a reporter, because his aura wasn’t like that.. The man’s hawk-like eyes were slightly curved, yet the terrifying look in his eyes could envelop the entire office.

Chapter 699: What Magic Did He Use?

“I... You... You guys...”

“I want to know what exactly Fang Yourong’s injury is.” Lu Heting’s voice was calm and did not sound threatening.

However, Dr. Hu had long forgotten to call the security guards because he felt that he could only submit to this man.

Su Bei thought that they would need to go through a lot of trouble before this doctor would speak. Just as she was about to take out the evidence she had just taken, Doctor Hu unexpectedly opened his mouth. “Fang Yourong has no external injuries, only an allergic reaction as well as a gastric illness that she’s undergoing examinations for. Her gastric illness has yet to be diagnosed...”

Su Bei looked at Lu Heting in surprise. What magic did he use to make Dr. Hu speak?

As expected, Lu Heting was the best.

“Then why did you come up with that fake medical report?” Lu Heting asked. “Do you know that your actions are damaging to other parties?”

Doctor Hu held his head in guilt. Although he did not pay attention to the entertainment industry, he knew that because of the medical report he provided, an innocent actress named Su Bei was being suspected and scolded online.

“Why?” Lu Heting asked.

His unhurried tone cast a suffocating shadow over the office.

Su Bei couldn’t feel it because Lu Heting had always been gentle toward her.

Others would not be able to last long under such pressure.

“I’ll talk, I’ll talk. I have a daughter who’s in the late stages of her illness and is about to pass away. She doesn’t like anything, but she likes Fang Yourong and treats her as her idol. Fang Yourong promised me that as long as I can give her the fake report as per her request, she can accompany my daughter for a few days while she’s on her deathbed...” Doctor Hu said painfully.

He didn’t want to do this either. If he gave a false report, it would ruin his career.

However, he could not ignore his daughter’s final wish. What Fang Yourong could provide was too tempting.

“My wife has already passed away. She’s the only family I have left. I want her to be happy in her last moments and leave happily...” Doctor Hu held his face with both hands as tears streamed down his face.

Su Bei could not bear it and said, “Dr. Hu, it’s clear that you love your daughter. But are you willing to have your daughter see her idol become a liar who deceives the world? I’m sure she won’t be happy knowing the truth, right?”

Dr. Hu sobbed. “I promise you that I’ll correct this mistake, but my daughter...”

He felt extremely terrible and did not know what to do.

“Dr. Hu, you have to continue working hard in the future. Don’t become a doctor who’s criticized for his medical ethics. This way, I believe your daughter will be even more proud of you,” Su Bei said softly. After speaking, she held Lu Heting’s hand and turned to leave.

Lu Heting originally wanted to force Dr. Hu to reveal the truth immediately, but he could sense Su Bei’s gentleness. She was already giving Dr. Hu a chance, so he could not be more forceful.

“Let Dr. Hu handle this himself.” Su Bei took his hand. “He’s a great father, so I’m sure he won’t continue walking on the wrong path.”

“I hope so..” Lu Heting narrowed his eyes.

Chapter 700: Becoming A Coward

If Dr. Hu did not take action, he would do it for him.

After returning home from the hospital, Su Bei changed her shoes and clothes and went straight to the kitchen.

“Let Aunt Chen do it.” Lu Heting hugged her.

“It’s rare for me to have time to rest. How can I not personally cook to reward my temporary manager?” Su Bei smiled at him.

Lu Heting buried his head in her shoulder. “Then I’ll accompany you.”

“Okay, but stand here obediently and don’t move.” Su Bei took his hand. “I’ll show off my skills to you today!”

Looking at the radiance in the woman’s eyes, Lu Heting could not help but smile. It seemed like nothing was difficult for her. She was full of passion and confidence, just like how she treated everything in life.

This made him want to love her even more.

Su Bei felt her waist being hugged by the man and pouted. “I told you not to disturb me... Mhm...”

The man lowered his head and kissed her.

Compared to food, he felt that she was more delicious.

...

Fang Yourong was lying in the VIP ward, enjoying the warmth and care. She had worked hard for many years, and there were not many times she could relax like this.

In the outside world, the blame was naturally pushed to Su Bei.

The production team would not rush her. Instead, they could only visit and show their concern for her.

At this moment, however, everything was changing.

Dr. Hu stood in front of the paparazzi and reporters near the hospital and bravely admitted his mistake. “Previously, the report that Fang Yourong received was wrong. She doesn’t have any external injuries, only gastric problems and an allergic reaction.

“As her attending physician, I’ve made a grave mistake. I hereby solemnly apologize to her and everyone else. I’m willing to answer all of your questions.”

Dr. Hu’s words undoubtedly overturned all the misconceptions from before.

The paparazzi and reporters immediately released the news and obtained more evidence from the hospital, such as Fang Yourong’s medication and her actual diagnosis.

Suddenly, Weibo was in an uproar.

[So Su Bei didn’t injure Fang Yourong? Su Bei didn’t hurt anyone?]

[Where are the people who swore that Su Bei was going around hurting people? They were loud when they scolded others, but now they’re hiding like turtles?]

[It turns out that the doctor made a wrong diagnosis. I was just saying that no one can push someone to the point of vomiting blood. That doesn’t even happen in fantasy novels.]

[It seems that we have wronged Su Bei. I wonder what Fang Yourong will say about this?]

[Could it be that Fang Yourong did it on purpose? She’s old, so it’s normal for her to be jealous of Su Bei.]

[Fang Yourong is a victim too. Don’t be suspicious of others.]

But no matter what, the tables had turned.

Su Bei was no longer accused of beating someone up. The insults and doubts crumbled when placed in front of the correct medical record.

Director Guo Feng personally went to the hospital.

At this moment, Fang Yourong and her assistant had yet to find out that Dr. Hu had made a clarification to the reporters.

“Director Guo Feng!” Seeing Director Guo Feng coming over, the assistant hurriedly put a mask on Fang Yourong’s face.

Fang Yourong also smiled and said, “What brings you here? I’m a little scared.”

“I came to see if the injury Su Bei gave you is really that serious.”
