

HEAVEN SENT 821

Chapter 821 Workplace Is A Utopia?

After getting Zhuo Liping to join, Su Bei felt much more relaxed.

When she returned, she pulled Da Bao and Gun Gun into her arms while softly humming a tune.

Lu Heting drove in front, his hands firmly gripping the steering wheel as he looked straight ahead. Occasionally, when he looked at the rear passenger seat through the rearview mirror, his heart would feel as if it was bathed in sunlight and filled with warmth.

Zhuo Liping arrived two days later with his luggage.

The restaurant that he had been working at previously was really in big trouble now. After being investigated for two to three days, there was still no end to it.

However, he had already sorted out the things he needed to provide, so he had nothing else to do. Manager Pang even tried to persuade him to stay. "Zhuo Liping, I've said what I needed to say. Are you really not staying?" "No, thank you, Manager Pang." Manager Pang stuck out his big belly and said mockingly, "Do you really think that the workplace is a utopia? What fairness and rules are you talking about? Where can you find a company like that? I heard that you're going to work in a shopping mall in the suburbs, right? Let me tell you, it's just a suburban place without any prospects. If you can make that shopping mall a success, I'll take off my head and kick it your way!"

He took a taxi that cost him 150 yuan to Jingbei Square.

He also had some doubts in his heart. Who would spend 300 yuan to come here and shop? Wouldn't it be nice to just shop in those shopping malls in the city center?

However, recalling Su Bei's confident and beautiful eyes, he still resolutely walked in.

Su Bei only had a very small office in Jingbei Shopping Mall. When Zhuo Liping entered, only Su Bei and Feng Cheng were there.

"Miss Su!" Zhuo Liping stood at the door.

"Manager Zhuo, come in," Su Bei called out to him. When she looked up, she had a brilliant smile on her face. On her fair face, her eyes were so beautiful that they were dazzling like a spring breeze. Zhuo Liping smiled, "Call me Zhuo Liping."

"No, you're already Manager Zhuo." Su Bei raised her hand and fixed a name tag on his clothes. "Let's talk about what we're going to do now."

Zhuo Liping nodded. "Okay."

Su Bei handed the proposal to him and began to explain it concisely.

Zhuo Liping originally did not have much confidence in this mall. He only came because he trusted Su Bei wholeheartedly.

However, after hearing Su Bei's explanation, he couldn't help but feel full of confidence. He had a whole new level of respect for Su Bei.

All the arrangements were so exquisite. As long as they worked hard, there would definitely be customers.

How did Su Bei do it?

"Manager Zhuo, I'll leave this square to you." Su Bei handed him the document. "I won't disappoint you." Zhuo Liping nodded seriously.

Su Bei settled the matters at Jingbei Square and returned to the set to continue filming.

Zhuo Liping shouldered the heavy responsibility of putting Su Bei's plans into practice.

Tang Yue arranged for her assistant to ask about Su Bei's situation.

"Su Bei's idea is good, but these are all big projects. How can she accomplish so many things with her little money from working as a model and actress?" Tang Yue said.

Chapter 822 What A Joke!

Tang Yue fiddled with her fingernails and said, "She hasn't even gotten paid for this film yet."

The assistant smiled and said, "That's right. Su Bei is holding a piece of cornbread thinking it's gold. When the time comes, she won't even know how to cry."

"Let's see if Young Master Du is here," Tang Yue said slowly.

Ever since Su Bei rejected Du Jinghao, Du Jinghao had been silent for a long time.

However, how could Du Guoshou and the rest watch their son fall into depravity? They quickly came to an agreement with Old Master Tang. Both families would push Du Jinghao and Tang Yue together.

Tang Yue had already gone on several dates with him alone.

Although Du Jinghao wasn't very friendly, he didn't refuse.

Tang Yue was full of confidence. Du Jinghao had even taken a fancy to Su Bei, so why would he not take a fancy to her?

Previously, he was only captivated by Su Bei's beauty in the entertainment industry. Su Bei's looks alone were simply not enough. As a true rich young master, who wouldn't know who he should choose?

"Dad, I have something to talk to you about." Lin Wenyu gathered her courage and knocked on the door of her father's study.

Lin Hancheng put down the document in his hand and smiled. "Sit down."

"Dad, I want to talk about Su Bei," Lin Wenyu bit her lip and said.

Lin Hancheng's smile suddenly disappeared. "Then you don't have to say anymore. I'm still busy."

“Dad, what do the grudges of the previous generation have to do with Su Bei? No matter how much you hate Lin Shulian, Su Bei has never done anything to harm Grandfather and Aunt. All of this has nothing to do with Su Bei. Why must we target her?” Lin Wenyu rarely had such an attitude toward her father, but she had indeed thought about it for a long time. She did not want to see such a scene continue.

Lin Hancheng said, “I’m only taking revenge on Lin Shulian alone for what she did. Who knew that she’s so cowardly to let her own daughter suffer in her place? You can see what kind of person she is just from this!”

“You said so yourself that Su Bei is innocent. Furthermore, she wasn’t by Lin Shulian’s side when she was young. She has nothing to do with these things...” “What Su Bei does has nothing to do with me. The only thing I can’t bear to see is Lin Shulian doing well. What do the others have to do with me? Do you know how your grandfather died? Do you know what your aunt endured? If you don’t know about the pain, you have no right to say these words.”

Lin Wenyu clenched her fists. “Dad, let me ask you. Since it’s so isolated, Jingbei Square definitely can’t be built, right?”

“That’s for sure,” Lin Hancheng said firmly. Originally, that piece of land would be the government’s focus in the next five years. Major funds would be invested in them, and it would become a region where the government would focus on construction. Traffic, squares, streets, and houses would all be built.

“Now that everything had been removed, no matter how beautiful the mall was, it would just be a deserted building.”

“Su Bei is now in charge of that mall. Dad, you won’t put any pressure on that piece of land, right?” Lin Hancheng snorted disdainfully. “Such a lousy piece of land, do I still need to do anything? What a joke!” Moreover, it was someone like Su Bei who was managing it. Old Master Tang was really muddle-headed!

“Then it’s settled. You can’t interfere with the matters there anymore!”

Chapter 823 Naive, Childish!

“Of course, that kind of place isn’t worth my effort. But do you think that the mall will be able to survive? What a joke!” Lin Hancheng was confident that he wouldn’t need to put a single finger on that mall and it would have no chance of succeeding.

Lin Wenyu took two steps forward, her face full of confidence. “Then let’s make a bet!”

Lin Wenyu had never been very extroverted. It was rare for Lin Hancheng to see her so lively and unreasonable, so he found her cute. He smiled and said, “What do you want to bet on?”

“Dad, if Su Bei manages to revive that mall, you can no longer target her. When you see her, you have to be polite too.”

Lin Hancheng observed his daughter and snorted. “What bewitching potion did Su Bei give you? Let me tell you, Lin Shulian’s daughter is not a good person...” “Do you dare to bet?” Lin Wenyu interrupted him.

“That’s good. I’ll bet that if Su Bei doesn’t revive that mall, you have to stop keeping in contact with her. One is marked by the company one keeps. I don’t want to see my good daughter being led astray by her.”

Lin Wenyu extended a finger. “Deal!”

Her actions were really childish. Seeing that his daughter was in a rare mood, Lin Hancheng clumsily stretched out his finger and hooked it with his daughter’s. However, he was disdainful in his heart. How could someone of Su Bei’s status be able to make a business run?

Could it be that she thought that doing business was as simple as walking on a runway and just posting a little bit of information on the Internet? Was she thinking of relying on those celebrity-chasing kids? How high is the spending power of these fans? And how long could they last?

How naive and childish!

Su Bei filmed during the day and went to the mall with Lu Heting at night. There were some things that she needed to do with him.

After working hard for a few hours, sometimes there would be no results. But once a problem was solved, the following problem would also be solved.

Every night when she and Lu Heting got home, they would both be exhausted.

That night, she fell asleep in the passenger seat when she and Lu Heting were making their way back home.

When they reached home, Lu Heting picked her up. She was too tired to wake up, so she wrapped her arms around his neck subconsciously and asked groggily, “Hubby, are we home yet?”

“Yes,” Lu Heting replied in a low voice.

When he reached the house, Lu Weijian opened the door without waiting for Lu Heting to open it. In the past few days, knowing that Lu Heting and Su Bei were busy at night, he took the initiative to come and take care of the two munchkins. Of course, his main purpose was to see Da Bao show off in the hacker community.

“Brother, you’re back!” Lu Weijian greeted.

“Shh.” Lu Heting raised his eyebrows unhappily as if his voice had disturbed Su Bei.

Lu Weijian quickly covered his mouth. Alright, the brother was not as important as the wife. He understood everything.

Lu Heting carried Su Bei to the room. Lu Weijian soon heard the sound of water flowing from the room. It was probably Big Brother helping his sister-in-law shower.

Lu Weijian had a look of envy on his face. Sigh, his older brother had never been involved in any household chores ever since he was young. He had always been the one doing the manual labor, but who would have thought that his brother would be the laborer in a small house one day?

Chapter 824 You Don't Have To Come

After being envious for a while, he heard the water stop. Then, there was the sound of the hairdryer. Naturally, Lu Heting was helping Su Bei blow-dry her hair.

"Tsk, tsk, tsk. He even knows how to blow-dry hair." Lu Weijian felt that his big brother was becoming more and more versatile.

After a while, Lu Heting came out in a bathrobe. Seeing that Lu Weijian was still there, he raised his eyebrows. "You haven't left?"

"Gun Gun made two rice balls for you and Sister-in-law. He put them on the dining table. He repeatedly told me to personally pass them to you. How would I dare to leave without relaying you the message?"

"You've done it." Lu Heting had no intention of having his brother stay.

Lu Weijian had a puzzled look on his face. "Brother, why are you working on that crappy shopping mall when you can earn more than a hundred million yuan a minute? At most, this shopping mall will only earn a few million yuan a month."

"Yeah, is there a problem?" Lu Heting felt that the money Su Bei earned was better. The money he and Su Bei earned together would be the best.

"Not at all. Do as you please!" Lu Weijian felt that he was asking for it. He knew the answer, yet he still asked!

Seeing that there was nothing wrong with his brother, he asked, "Then I'll come again tomorrow?"

"Up to you. But Da Bao can't use his phone or computer for more than 40 minutes!" Lu Weijian nodded immediately. "Alright, alright, I understand. Little kids should take care of their eyes. What did I do previously to deserve this? I can only play for 40 minutes after helping to look after the children for four hours."

"You don't have to come." Lu Heting didn't lack people to take care of the children.

Lu Weijian hurriedly said, "Brother, that's not what I meant. I came willingly. I'm satisfied just by pinching Gun Gun's little face. Da Bao's gaming skills and hacking skills are additional bonuses!"

After saying that, he left happily. What could be more satisfying than a gaming maniac watching a top gamer's performance?

Lu Heting walked to the dining room and picked up the rice ball on the table. His lips curled up slightly. This would be Su Bei's breakfast tomorrow.

Because she was busy at night, she rested late. When Su Bei had no scenes in the day, she would take the opportunity to take a nap. She was sleeping soundly when she heard Director Guo's voice and sat up immediately. She immediately saw Lin Yu sitting beside her. "I was just helping you apply for leave from Director Guo to let you sleep a little longer." Lin Yu scrutinized Su Bei. "Where did you go at night? You look like you've been working hard for the past few days."

"I secretly went to eat hotpot." Su Bei quickly asked Xiao Bai to check her makeup and touch it up. She then stood up and walked toward Director Guo. Lin Yu's face was filled with grief and indignation. "Why didn't you bring me along?" After thinking about it, he pouted. "How is that possible? You probably did something unspeakable with Lu Heting. Tsk tsk tsk, isn't he afraid of turning infertile?"

Due to Fang Yourong's departure and Pei Chao choosing Tang Yue, the previous scenes they shot could not be used anymore. They were all refilmed by Rong Xiu and Han Feng.

Rong Xiu and Han Feng were not considered top artists in Imperial Star Entertainment. They were lucky that they had a free schedule this time and were honest people who wouldn't cause any trouble.

Even so, the two of them were very capable and had good acting skills. It was precisely because they didn't like marketing themselves that they didn't make it big.

Chapter 825 If She Doesn't Appreciate It, Then Forget It

Seeing that Su Bei had just woken up, the two of them had some opinions in their hearts. After all, the next scene they were filming was one of the highlights in this film and it was a group scene. It would be a tough scene to film.

Rong Xiu was still alright. She thought that Su Bei was on her period. She said considerately, "Su Bei, do you want to rest some more?" "It's alright." Su Bei did not want to waste everyone's time. She would only take a short nap when she was waiting. Why would she need to take a break?

Han Feng's expression was slightly cold as he said, "But I don't wish to cause others to do repetitive labor because of you alone. Why don't you rest well before coming?"

Su Bei saw his displeasure and turned her head with a smile. "I don't think I've ever had someone go through that because of my mistake, right?"

Han Feng was rebuked by her. He thought about it and realized that it was indeed the case.

He and Su Bei did not have any solo scenes. They had always been in group scenes before this, and in this scene, he and Su Bei would have a confrontation. Therefore, he was subconsciously worried that Su Bei would drag him down.

"I hope it'll be the same this time," Han Feng said coldly. In fact, there was an unexpected trace of concern in his tone. Perhaps, he just wanted Su Bei to sleep a little more. It was fine if she did not appreciate his kindness... "Then let's do it," Su Bei said immediately.

Han Feng was stunned. Although Su Bei looked tired just now, when she pulled out her sword and faced the camera, she looked exactly like Ni Huang. There wasn't even a trace of Su Bei's own person!

She was dressed in fresh clothes and had a sharp sword in her hand. Her face was filled with worry for the country and the people. She was the heroine who guarded the battlefield!

Su Bei saw his expression and said with a smile, "Senior Han, don't cause others to do repetitive labor just because of you alone."

Han Feng snorted and exuded the air of an emperor. With a wave of his hands, his sleeves fluttered loudly.

He had always liked to practice his acting skills in private and was very confident in himself. Although he hadn't received any awards yet, he knew that it was inevitable.

Therefore, he was worried that Ni Huang wouldn't be able to take on the role, which would result in a drastic downfall in his performance! This scene was a negotiation between him and the Hun Tribe. He wanted them to withdraw their troops and return peace to the people at the border.

The person who facilitated this negotiation was Ni Huang herself. Although she was the princess of the Hun Tribe, she had grown up in the Great Xiao Empire and cared for the common people of the world. She was increasingly aware that the peace brought by war was short-lived.

The world was prospering but the people were suffering. True peace could only be achieved through countless efforts. Hence, she facilitated this negotiation.

However, the Huns had planned to capture Xiao Jing alive during this negotiation. As a result, both parties fell into chaos. Ni Huang had no choice but to save Xiao Jing, but he suspected that she had ulterior motives.

"Wild ambitions!" Xiao Jing was furious and pushed her away! This was the hardest part. The camera would be directed at Han Feng and Su Bei. In Han Feng's heart, he was afraid that Su Bei wouldn't be able to handle the scene, so he let his emotions out and gave her a chance to act.

Ni Huang risked her life to save him, but he was suspicious of her. And now, the suspicions of the Hun Tribe against her had reached the peak.

She did not explain and only said, "You have no choice but to believe me, because only I can take you away, Emperor of the Great Xiao Empire!"

Chapter 826 Full Of Emotions

The words 'Emperor of the Great Xiao Empire' pulled some distance between the relationship of Xiao Jing and Ni Huang, who were actually cousins!

It brought her even more pain!

Xiao Jing carefully observed her expression. Ni Huang's eyes were filled with pain. It was the sorrow of being suspected by both parties. However, there was also determination. It was the determination she had in her heart to give everyone a peaceful and prosperous life.

Wasn't it Xiao Jing's dream to bring peace to the people? Han Feng was stunned for a moment. The current Ni Huang was either Su Bei or the real Ni Huang!

Not only had she completely grasped the essence of this scene, but she had also completely led him into the performance. This kind of carefree feeling made Han Feng involuntarily indulge in it. His mood changed, and he no longer used the external acting method. He became even more reserved and profound.

He finally reached out to Ni Huang, who grabbed his hand and led him over. They found the trail, and she escorted him to safety.

Xiao Jing got on the horse he had already prepared and extended his hand to Ni Huang. "Follow me back to the Great Xiao Empire."

"You won't be able to get far if you take me with you. I don't want to shirk my responsibility either. Please just promise me that you won't start a war."

Ni Huang's voice was very desolate as she looked at the fireworks and wolves in the distance. She also looked at the boundless desert with corpses strewn across the border.

Xiao Jing followed her gaze and was shocked for a long time.

"Go, Big Brother," Ni Huang said in a low voice. She called out the name that she hadn't heard in a long time, and her mood suddenly changed.

Xiao Jing's heart was filled with grief. He extended his hand toward her and refused to retract it for a long time. He recalled that when he was young, he had brought her everywhere to play. The person he loved the most was this cousin of his.

Now, he preferred to think of her as a warrior who fought with the rest, a general who had the same dreams and aspirations.

"Let's go!" Ni Huang lashed the mount with her whip, and the horse finally led Xiao Jing away.

"Cut!" Director Guo said with satisfaction. "Not bad, not bad. Let's do it again, Han Feng. The part where you shouted 'Wild ambitions!' was too emotional. It's different from Xiao Jing's persona. Let's do it again."

Han Feng agreed to it because he was well aware that he had not filmed that part properly.

Su Bei, on the other hand, had obviously given him a huge shock. A model-turned-actress could actually go into character so easily. She was really talented.

Su Bei smiled at him and said, "Senior Han, I still have something on tonight. Please do your best in the next round."

Han Feng replied, "Of course."

He could tell that Su Bei's ability was definitely not limited to this. She was probably really in a hurry. Otherwise, she might even suppress him in terms of acting skills and make him have a bad take.

Han Feng did not dare to underestimate Su Bei anymore. He displayed his greatest ability and reshot the scene.

As for Su Bei, she easily reshot it as well. The two actors were evenly matched. Director Guo was even more satisfied with this shoot.

As this was a group scene, Su Bei also had scenes with other actors as well as scenes with Rong Xiu. Su Bei did not screw up even once.

Rong Xiu also had a whole new level of respect for Su Bei.

When an actor who liked acting and had the ability to shoot their scenes well met people who could act with them, it was like playing a game of table tennis or something. To be able to meet someone who could rally with them was a very satisfying feeling.

Chapter 827 Anyone With Brains Would Know Which To Choose

After Su Bei left, Rong Xiu couldn't help but say, "Previously, there were rumors that Su Bei relied on Manager Li to climb up the ladder, but now, I'm convinced. With her ability, why would she need to rely on others to climb up?"

"She never needed to rely on anyone to climb up from the beginning," Han Feng said. Rong Xiu pouted. Han Feng also had such doubts before, right? He was indeed quick to change his words.

However, Rong Xiu could tell that Su Bei was definitely not an ordinary person.

As the filming of Double Phoenix came to an end, Su Bei and Tang Yue's respective shopping malls were about to open for business.

And the timing was just uncanny. They had chosen the same day!

When Tang Yue saw the date Su Bei chose, she couldn't help but laugh. "Su Bei is really brainless. Isn't she going to think about it? Must she clash with me and hold the opening on the same day? Does she think she's deliberately setting me up?" "She probably wants to borrow your popularity," the assistant said with a smile. "After all, she doesn't have much popularity there. No matter what, she wants to take advantage of you."

"Then let her do it. I want to see how embarrassed she'll get," Tang Yue said. "Let every artist from Sheng Tang Entertainment attend the opening ceremony."

"Okay."

The assistant quickly informed them.

Although Tang Xinru also invited celebrities from Sheng Tang Entertainment on behalf of Su Bei, many celebrities rejected Su Bei and chose Tang Yue instead.

After all, this was Tang Yue's own business, while Tang Xinru only invited them on behalf of Su Bei. After weighing the pros and cons, everyone felt that they would rather offend Su Bei than Tang Yue.

Moreover, Tang Yue had grown up in the Tang family. Her friends were all wealthy young ladies, socialites, and all sorts of young masters from prestigious families. The event would definitely be lively that day. Anyone with brains would know which to choose.

Were they supposed to take a taxi to the dusty suburbs for the ribbon-cutting ceremony?

Soon, the assistant reported back to Tang Yue. "More than 80% of the artists have agreed to come to Central Square to show their support. The rest are not very popular stubborn people. It doesn't matter if they come or not."

Tang Yue blew at her nails. "It's fine if they don't come, we don't need them. Did you invite the Du family?"

“Every one of them has been invited.”

“What about Grandpa’s friends?”

“They all said they would be there,” the assistant replied.

Tang Yue had a smug smile on her face as she said, “Grandpa, Mom, and Dad probably won’t go to either mall to avoid arousing suspicion. It’s a pity that they can’t witness the stark contrast between their two daughters.”

“But that doesn’t matter. How could these things not reach their ears? When the time comes, we’ll hire a professional photography team to record everything that happens at the scene. Not only will they be able to see it but even the fans on Weibo and everyone else will also be able to see it.” The assistant had already made arrangements. All of this was to Tang Yue’s liking.

“Okay, that’s something I didn’t think of either. It’s a good thing you reminded me,” Tang Yue said to her assistant. This time, she must step on Su Bei!

The Tang family was very worried about Su

Bei.

However, he had promised to be fair, so Old Master Tang didn’t interfere.

Lin Shulian was especially worried. “I wonder if Su Bei will do a good job this time?”

Chapter 828 Exploding With Publicity

Tang Jianming said, “As long as one-tenth of the shops can be rented out on the day she opens for business and one-tenth of the shops are active, she’ll win if she can attract some of the surrounding residents. After all, it’s really too hard.”

Lin Shulian nodded. “Yes. As long as it’s not too quiet that day, I won’t worry.” Old Master Tang muttered to himself. He could see that Su Bei was about to lose, but it was not an unjust loss. A clever housewife could not cook without rice.

Not to mention the project was being suppressed by the Lin family.

Lin Shulian cried out, “It’s all my fault. I’m sorry, Su Bei. If it weren’t for me...”

“Stop it. It’s useless to talk about it. It’s our child’s business anyway. If she fails, we can pretend that we didn’t have the land or the money,” Old Master Tang said.

In the blink of an eye, it was the day when the two shopping malls would open for business. Tang Yue’s shopping mall carried out a lot of promotional events. Early that morning, as soon as the mall opened, many customers came in.

Since it was the weekend, many people would come out for a stroll. They might not buy anything, but they liked to go to lively places.

Naturally, Central Square, which was bustling with activity, became their first choice.

Moreover, once some couples entered the mall, they would definitely watch a movie or buy some dolls. When it was time to eat, they would also dine in. After a whole day, the money spent per person would not be a small sum.

On the other hand, some families with children would spend even more money. They would let their children play at the amusement park, buy some arcade coins, shop at the supermarket for a meal, buy some snacks, and so on. It was all expenses.

Tang Yue sat in the office of Central Square and listened to her assistant's report. She was in a good mood.

In the blink of an eye, it was eight o'clock in the evening, which was when Tang Yue had decided to do the ribbon-cutting ceremony.

Her good friends and most of the celebrities from Sheng Tang Entertainment were present. They even posted on Weibo for publicity.

With so many celebrities and socialites appearing at the same time, the appeal was truly impressive.

After a while, this topic entered the hot search rankings. Many fans were excited. (This mall isn't far from where I work. I'm very familiar with it. I'll go take a look after work.)

[The children's amusement park isn't bad either. I'll bring my nephew along to take a look later.]

(There's an online influencer that I like attending the event. Ahhhh, I'm so jealous.)

(Oh my God, most of the artists in Sheng Tang are there too. I want to go, I want to go!)

At night, another wave of fans arrived. The entire mall was bustling with activity.

Tang Yue asked her assistant, "How's the situation on Su Bei's end? I want to hear every word about the situation."

"There aren't many people on Su Bei's side. However, she has mobilized a low-cost shuttle bus to bring customers to Jingbei Square. Even so, it's so far away. Despite low prices, not many people will go.

"Su Bei also planted a lot of flowers and trees along the way. She must think that this would alleviate the fatigue of traveling. It's too funny. Using such methods is simply senseless of her.

"However, there are some celebrities who went to support her, so I heard that there are quite a lot of fans." Tang Yue smiled. "How long can she last just by relying on fans? In order to do business, you have to rely on the crowd."

Chapter 829 You're The Best

"Of course." The assistant smiled. "Hence, Su Bei will definitely lose this time."

"Alright, get the makeup artist to help me touch up my makeup. I'm going on stage to cut the ribbon. By the way, is Miss Liao here?" Tang Yue smiled at her reflection in the mirror.

"She's already here."

Tang Yue was referring to Liao Xintong.

Although the Liao family was a rising star in the business world, it was rumored that they had a strong backing. Otherwise, they would not have been able to shoot up and obtain so many resources to develop.

Liao Xintong had been in the limelight recently, so Tang Yue wanted to befriend her. As soon as they hit it off, Tang Yue invited Liao Xintong to the event and Liao Xintong also opened a shop in her mall.

When the two of them met, they complimented each other. Liao Xintong got someone to give her a generous gift. "President Tang, it's a good day to open for business! Wealth will be rolling in."

"Thank you, Miss Liao. Miss Liao, please come on stage with me."

In Central Square, there was an event going on. The host was a professional, and many celebrities from Sheng Tang Entertainment came on stage as guests. The scene was very lively.

"Today is the grand opening of Sheng Tang Central Square. We welcome family and friends to the grand opening. All of this is made possible by the management of an outstanding woman who is both capable and beautiful. She is... Sheng Tang's Miss Tang Yue! We welcome Miss Tang to the ribbon-cutting ceremony! Miss Tang is also with Miss Liao Xintong. Both are rare talents in the business industry. Please come on stage!"

Tang Yue had already changed into a charismatic, slim-fitting suit. She looked capable yet charming.

Liao Xintong was also dressed in the same way. When the two of them appeared, they gave off a very professional feeling.

After the two of them got on stage, they did not say much and carried out the ribbon-cutting ceremony.

However, their appearance pushed the ribbon-cutting ceremony to its climax.

Moreover, many people had also seen Tang Yue's potential. She was able to work with the Liao family, a rising star, so it was not too much to judge her ability just by this alone.

After Tang Yue left the stage, many friends and artists came forward to congratulate her.

"Congratulations, Tang Yue. You're the best."

"Congratulations, President Tang. Central Square will definitely succeed!"

"President Tang, you're indeed capable."

"Thank you, everyone." Tang Yue held her wine glass and clinked glasses with everyone before returning to her office and sending Liao Xintong off.

Du Guoshou and Ou Huanwei also came. They had prepared gifts for Tang Yue. "Tang Yue, you're really amazing. Even Uncle and I can't help but sigh. You're really able to thrive and succeed even when you're on your own. As expected of someone personally trained by Old Master Tang."

"Uncle, Aunt, you flatter me," Tang Yue said politely.

Ou Huanwei took her hand and said, "I asked Jinghao to come over tomorrow to accompany you. I wonder if he'll disturb you."

"Of course not. I'm more than happy to spend time with him." Tang Yue smiled.

The more Ou Huanwei looked at Tang Yue, the happier she became. She felt that Tang Yue was more suitable for her son.

She had finally managed to convince her son and he had already gone out with Tang Yue a few times. If they went out a few more times, everything would be fine.

Tang Yue was also very satisfied with Du Jinghao. Ever since she was young, she had always been self-centered and would never give anything that she liked to others. Her parents' feelings, her family business, and Du Jinghao were especially the case.

Chapter 830 What Can You Make Me Shop For?

When Su Bei was not around, she often fought with Tang Xinru. After Su Bei returned, she realized that fighting with Su Bei was more fun.

Perhaps she was destined to be aggressive and predatory.

Of course, she had taken a fancy to the Du family. It was also because she thought Du Guoshou had helped to resolve the dispute between the Tang family and the Ou family. Old Master Tang never had the opportunity to mention that matter. It was because of the small gift from Lu Heting that the matter was resolved, not because of Du Guoshou.

Tang Yue thought that it was because of Du Guoshou, and so did Du Guoshou.

Su Bei's Jingbei Square was obviously not as lively as Central Square. The geographical location had already determined things. It was impossible for it to have so many customers who could casually stroll around.

However, this did not mean that the customers here did not have enough spending power.

On the opening day, just with Feng Cheng's craftsmanship alone that could repair all kinds of jade and jewelry, he had attracted countless rich ladies and socialites.

They had already found out that they could repair their beloved jewelry in Ruyi Studio. They couldn't wait any longer.

To them, time was nothing. The most important thing was to repair the jewelry that was most important to them.

When they arrived at Ruyi Studio, they were shocked by the jade jewelry in front of them.

During this period of time, Feng Cheng had opened up all the raw stones that he previously bought. Most of them produced the best jade. Using his unique crafting and designing skills, the jewelry that he made was all of good quality. It made the eyes of these high and mighty women light up as they browsed through the selection and inquired about the price.

Feng Cheng was still unable to speak, so Zhuo Liping had found two young attendants who were smooth talkers. They could make the wealthy ladies extremely happy.

On the other hand, Su Bei was sitting in her office. Lin Yu appeared out of nowhere and sat down in front of her. "Su Bei, you have so few people outside. It's so quiet. I went shopping at Ruyi Studio just now and found two pretty good pieces of jade. But where else can I go after shopping there? Those rich ladies and young mistresses can't possibly just come to this studio when coming here to shop, right?"

"Then I'll accompany you out for a walk." Su Bei stood up and made an inviting gesture.

"Okay, let's see what you can make me shop for." Lin Yu followed Su Bei and walked out.

Without waiting for Su Bei to introduce the place to him, he said, "On the left are all the luxury brands. Not bad, there'll be people shopping here, but there may not be people shopping here every day.

"The right side is filled with skincare and cosmetics brands. Customers could come here to buy them, but there's no need to.

"And downstairs, there are all sorts of clothing and cosmetic brands that are pricier. But who will buy them?"

As he walked, he commented, "I'm not trying to criticize you, Su Bei. It's not that simple to the guests stay. F*ck, what is this?" "The vegetables here are all organic. They were planted naturally and are being specially taken care of. We don't use fertilizer or artificial chemicals. They are natural and safe. They're the best ingredients to cook hotpot with. The taste is also very good."

This was the outer area of the square. Everything here was planted to produce the freshest vegetables and fruits.
