

Chapter 61 - His Heavenly Mate

GRAYSON'S POV

“Let me come with .” Heaven - Leigh pleads , her hands are wrapped around my arm as she tries to stop my from leaving .

“No , it’s your first day as Alpha , you have to be here .” I argue . She wants to talk to the man that was sneaking around , but he is apart of my pack , so it’s my business .

“Come on Gray , I can try identifying him .”

She pushes me . “Fine , goddess . Get dressed .” I sigh while packing the rest of my clothes into my over night bag . “Just give me a few minutes !” She yells from inside her closet . “Why are you inside your closet ?” I ask confused . “I want my white sneakers !” She groans before popping out again . I chuckle at the sight of her messy hair . “I promise I’ll be quick .”

She strips out of her pajamas and I bite my bottom lip as my eyes trail over the length of her body . My hand itches at the sight of her round ass , I want to slap it so hard , but she has to get ready .

“I’m done , I’m done .” She mutters in a hurry while shoving her feet into her white sneakers . She had put on a black skinny jean with a white tank top and she grabs a light grey denim jacket before we head down the stairs to the car my parents sent to come and fetch me .

“You have to stay out here .” I tell her and she frowns at me , shaking her head . “No , why can’t I come in with you ?” She asks demandingly . “Because you are here to identify him , remember ? This is my pack so I have to handle this .” I inform her and her eyes narrow into slits . “Excuse me ?” She scoffs .

Good goddess , what is the fucking problem now ?

“What now ?” I ask confused . “This might be your business now , but in two weeks time , it is ours — so start acting like it .” She grits out , anger swirling in her eyes . I guess she’s right , but I have absolute no clue what this guy is up to .

“You can come in , after I talked with him . He doesn’t know you , he won’t open up if a stranger is in there , asking questions .” I argue , because it is true . We as wolves have trust issues , we only trust the people in our pack and people who gained our trust .

She exhales deeply , rolling her eyes as she leans her back flat against the wall . “Fine .” She mutters uncomfortably and I get why she wants to ask questions , but we won’t get it if she is the one asking them .

“I’ll wave you in .” I smile as I walk over to her , placing a soft kiss on her temple .

I walk into the compacted room with a small table in the middle and a chair on both sides , the man sitting there is Kyle . His face is cold , his green orbs dark and his jaw tight and his eyebrows furrowed together in a deep frown . “Hi Kyle .” I nod as I sit down in front of him . “Alpha .” He grits out . “What is the matter ?” I ask concerned . He seemed angry , vengeful .. “ Nothing .” He shrugs . “ I am your alpha and you can talk to me about whatever is bothering you .” I intertwine my fingers together as I focus on him .

“There’s nothing wrong .” He grits out annoyed . “My mate said she saw you creeping around before dawn , staring up at her from the bushes .” I get straight to the point because there is no point in buttering this up . “I went for an early walk , I couldn’t sleep .” He shrugs . “And you saw her on my balcony ?” I ask .

“I did .” He nods , his expression blank . “And then you just disappeared .” I frown at him , because he’s confessing to all these things and it is a bit strange that he just disappeared , like a criminal running away .

“I had to go back home .” He shrugs . “So you weren’t following her or something like that ? Just passing by the pack house ?” I ask and he nods .

“Okay , well if you’re comfortable with it , is it okay if she comes in and ask you a few questions ?” I had to make sure he won’t have a problem with it .

“Of course .” He shrugs , but I notice his jaw ticking as he tightens it .

I turn back , waving Heaven - Leigh inside through the one way see through mirror .

The door opens as she sits down on my lap , it’s quite inappropriate but she is my mate and I will always be her throne if she needs to sit .

“I’m Heaven - Leigh .” She introduces herself . “I know .” Kyle dead pans , making me frown . She turns her head and she looks at me confused before looking back at him . “How do you know ?” She asks , raising her eyebrows at him questioningly . “People talk .” He shrugs and she nods . “I guess they do .” She sighs , rubbing her hands together . “Anything else ?” He cocks his head at her , his eyes growing darker and I am beginning to think that he is a very impatient man . “Why did you hide ?” She asks , her eyes narrowing into slits as she glares at him . “Because I don't like people looking at me ." He shrugs it off , as if that was a reasonable explanation .

"Why not ?" She asks , she is actually very good in interrogations . "Because I am ugly ." He grits out angrily . "You clearly aren't , why do you think that ?" She replies so fast that it's as if she's reading a script . "Because she thinks that ." His frown deepens , his eyes becoming glassy . "Who is she ?" Heaven - Leigh asks confused . "My .. my mate ." He croaks out as a tear slides down his cheek . "Who is your mate ?" She asks and it begins to feel like we're in a police station . His face goes numb , holding no emotion . "It doesn't matter ." He growls lowly , he's a very hurt man . "Is that why you went for a walk ? Because you're sad and hurt ?" She asks as I squeeze her hips , pulling her back against my chest and she sits up straight . "Stop it ." I whisper in her ear and she sighs , nodding . "Fine , I'm sorry for being nosy but it was very strange that you stared at me and then hided and then you plainly disappeared like someone on the run ." She explains , crossing her arms over her chest . "I get that . I apologize , but you are beautiful and I really needed to get home ." He sighs , regret forming all over his face . "You can leave , I apologize for bringing you in unnecessarily ." I smile at the man and he nods , getting up and he leaves . I let out a deep sigh , tugging my mate into my arms and I hold her . "He's just a sad man ." I sigh and she sighs too . "I noticed that ." She mutters in defeat .

Chapter 62 - His Heavenly Mate

KYLE'S POV

It was so easy to fool them , well it wasn't really fooling if it were the truth , well mostly anyways .

I walk out of the pack house as a free man , even though I did stalk her . I watched our alpha's mate throw rocks at his window , I watched her dance around in the dark as our alpha chased her . She had no shame to run around in just a big t - shirt , she seems so wildly spirited , free and whole . But that is because she is whole , she has her mate and I would die to have mine back .

I have a constant feeling of agony right in my heart , my mind feels like it's spinning in memories of my mate . The first time I saw her , she looked so angelic , her blonde hair . She has honey brown eyes , they had the depth of the earth in her orbs and I wish I could have made her stay with me , if she chose me , she would have been safe , she would have been alive — in my arms , in my life .

I could have made her happy , the thought of her thinking that I was not good enough makes my gut twist in a painful manner .

Her soft skin was so soft , like baby skin and we only shared one memorable moment together one night a few years ago , but we stayed in contact , in secret .

“Mate .” I mutter as my eyes land on the most beautiful woman in the entire universe . Her honey brown orbs swallow me whole as I walk over to her , her pupils dilated as she stares at me in awe . “Mine .” She growls before charging at me , she jumps into my arms , wrapping her legs around my waist and her hand lock behind my neck . Her lips crashes against mine and she began to make out with me . She slips her tongue past my parted lips and devours my mouth . Her tiny hands intertwined with my hair and I pressed her against the tree as my hands roamed down her body .

Her one hand dips into the elastic of my shorts , her palm pressing against my hardened cock , her fingers wrapping around my shaft . I groan into her mouth as she smirks against my lips .

“Kyle .” She moans as she rolls his hips forward and I put her down onto her feet , pulling back from my mate and I break the kiss . She pants , her chest heaving as she looks up at me with siren eyes .

Her seductive stare has a hold on me , as if putting me in some kind of spell . She reaches for my hand , her head snapping in every direction before pulling me deeper into the woods .

She halts in her footsteps near a rock and pulls me to the side where bushes form some type of hidden spot . She leads me inside and pulls me down onto my knees before pushing me down onto the ground where I lay flat on my back , her fingers hook into the elastic of my shorts , tugging them down and the leaves poke my behind , but I could not focus on that as she removes her top , exposing the beige see through bralette . Her round breasts form a cleavage and she tugs her shorts off , throwing it aside . Her lace underwear looks so sexy and my hands squeeze her thighs . She wraps her hand around my shaft , shoving her panties aside and she positions my harden cock to her entrance , sliding it right into her core and she moans . The electricity running through my veins at our intimacy was putting me on overdrive and I smile as she rocks her hips forward , riding me .

“Why are you just standing here ?” I turn and look at my alpha’s mate , her green eyes holding worry as she stares at me . “Just thinking .” I tell the truth and she nods . “Are you okay ?” She asks and I could tell she was actually concerned . “I am .” I lie . I am not okay , since I knew of Emily’s death , I had the biggest urge to kill this woman standing in front of me , but she is my future Luna , how do I kill her when all she wanted was her mate — I do understand that because each and every time I saw Emily with her arm hooked into my alpha’s , I wanted to kill him too .

She is all I wanted , she is all I needed but I wasn’t that for her , she had me promise to not tell anyone that she and I are mates because she chose power , title over me , her other half , her soulmate .

I felt worthless every time I saw them together , but seeing the woman who killed her — I feel enraged , but I can not kill her right here , she is stronger , more powerful and before I can kill her , I need a plan .

A plan so brilliant that no one would see her death coming , no one would suspect it was me who killed her and there has to be no way that she can survive .

The downside to this plan is that it would take time , but luckily for me , I am a very patient man because her death would be worth it .

Chapter 63 - His Heavenly Mate

HEAVEN - LEIGH'S POV

Since becoming Alpha , I had Mia help me decorate the masculine office of my father . It was all too brown and black and now the interior was white mixed with greens and plants everywhere .

“Now this is beautiful .” Mia chimes as she places the little cactus on the white bookcase that is built into the wall .

“It is .” I smile as I look around the new renovated office , my father is going to freak .

“Just open a window , the smell of paint is ..” Mia scrunches up her nose as I walk over to the window , pulling it open and fresh air blows into the office .

“Burning your nose ?” I ask and she nods , breathing in the fresh air .

“Let’s go .” I mutter as I walk to the door .

“This office needs to breathe .” She scoffs as she follows me .

It is the day before Grayson’s coronation and I am a little excited about it . He was there for me and I will be there for him .

After dinner , I climbed into bed and scrolled through my phone , watching a movie while I do so until my phone dings , Grayson’s name with a cringy amount of heart popping up on the bar on the top of my phone .

Grayson : Are you awake ?

I tap on his name , opening the chat .

Me : Yes .

Grayson : What are you doing ?

Me : Watching a movie , what are you doing ?

Grayson : Getting in my car

I frown as my eyes flick up to the time , it's ten pm . Where the hell is he going ?

Me : Where are you going ?

Grayson : I am coming to pick you up , pack your things .

My smile widens , it feels like the edges of my lips were going to tear .

Me : Yes sir .

I smirk at my use of words , because in the eyes of a normal person , it's a form of respect , to follow orders but for us it's kinky , a form of submission .

I kick my legs free of the duvet and hop out of bed , packing my clothes for the night and my grab my dresses for tomorrow .

I have two , one for the coronation and the other for well .. later .

As I wait for Grayson down stairs , I can't help but think of how far we have come . From mates that hated each other to mates who are going to join two packs .

I do feel kind of bad for only living here , at our pack , but it's logical . We have more ground , we already started to build more houses to accommodate his pack members and I decided to build a extra house , close to the pack house for just him and I , but of course it will be built last .

I smile as his black SUV pulls up in front of the pack house and he hops out in a pair of black sweatpants and a white jersey .

How he looks this good is beyond my knowledge .

“That was fast .” I smile , because it was .

“I was already on my way .” He shrugs as he takes my dress and lays it down on the back seat while I get into the passenger seat .

We lay on the bed , eating McDonald's and I have never been happier to be pulled out of bed at night .

“You sure it's okay that you sleep here ?” He asks cautiously . “I am alpha now , it will be fine . Plus Kai is there is anything needs to be done .” I shrug while shoving a hand full of fries into my mouth . His face goes cold and I frown at him . “Really now ? Are you seriously jealous of my beta ?” I ask as I stare at him baffled . He shakes his head as he continues to eat , “I am not jealous .” He scoffs with a mouth full of food .

“Sure , then what is your problem ?” I ask . He swallows , “I just don't like him .” He mutters uninterested .

“Why ?” I ask , raising my eyebrows at him . “He likes you , I am not insecure but he has no respect for our relationship .” He shrugs and I roll my eyes . “Let's say you are right , let's say he does like me .” He frowns at me . “But he doesn't disrespect our relationship because he has done nothing to intervene .” I argue , because since Grayson and I got together , Kai hasn't said or done anything to show interest in me .

“He shouldn't look at you like you're some sort of snack to devour .” He grumbles and I choke on my fry as I start laughing .

“He doesn't .” I laugh , which makes him frown more . “He does .” He grits out , he looks pissed off .

I smile as I lean over to him , resting my chin on his shoulder as I stare at him . “He can look at me all he wants ..” his eyes narrow as he glares at me , “But I am only your snack to devour .” I whisper , my breath fanning his neck and he gulps as his eyes flick down to my lips . I hurriedly sit up and continue to eat . “So atop your crap , I love you Grayson .” I offer a small smile and he looks a little more relieved . “I love you too , I just don't like how he looks at you .” He sighs .

“Then look at me , not him .” I shrug and he sighs , “We have to be up at seven .” He changes the subject and I want to laugh , but it will set him off .

“I know .” I pick up my burger and start to eat it .

The rest of the night was relaxing as we watched a movie and fell asleep early , because I insisted that I did not want to have a day like mine , I was tired and annoyed at the end and I want to enjoy Grayson's coronation .

Chapter 64 - His Heavenly Mate

" You're alpha now ." I chime as we sway in the ballroom and he grins , his eyes flicking down to me . " I am ." he looks proud .

His coronation was beautiful and I finally saw the glow he was going on about on my coronation . I thought he was talking a load of crap , but seeing his transition into Alpha was now a core memory in my mind .

" So next week , it's us ." He smiles , kissing the top of my head . Even with my heels , he was half a head taller than I am . " It is ." I smile as I rest my head against his shoulder and as the music slows down , we bow at each other before he leads me off the dancefloor , leading me to the kitchen and he picks me up , my black dress twisting between my legs as he places me on the counter .

"What are you doing ?" I giggle as he places a kiss on my cheek . "I kissed you ." He grins before reaching for two champagne glasses above my head .

I roll my eyes , why should he be so sarcastic all the damn time ?

"What are the glasses for ?" I eye them as he places them next to me , turning his back to me . His broad shoulders stand the whole refrigerator full and I straighten my back , trying to peak over his tall frame to see what he's getting and he dramatically turns on his heel , slouching halfway as he displays the fancy bottle of rose gold champagne with pink roses on .

"Wow , pretty pink ." I grin teasingly and he scoffs , shaking his head . "I went champagne tasting and you're looking at this delicious bottle like it's water ." He looks slightly disappointed , but in a sarcastic way .

"This is the first finish step towards our future and I never want to stop having moments like this with you ." He hands me a glass and I try to smile as I pout , trying not to ruin my make up .

"I love you ." I mutter as I breathe out and his smile widens , stretching from ear to ear .

"And I love you ." He grins and I raise my glass , my feet swaying like a kid . "To us ." I beam happily , "To us ." He steps in between my legs , our glasses clicking together and I smirk as we take a sip .

His dark brown hair makes his grey eyes look so clear , especially when he stares at me in awe .

"Grayson ." I breathe out . His eyebrows raise , his grey orbs taking in the length of my body as his free hand rests on my exposed knee , the slit exposing my skin to him .

He hums in response as he takes another sip , his eyes focusing on me . I lean forward , turning my head to the shut door before I hook my legs around his middle , tugging him closer .

“Kiss me .” I grin and he smirks as he puts his champagne glass down , his hand sliding up my thigh under my dress . His lips hover against mine , brushing slightly against each other and he smiles before leaning in , crashing my lips against his .

I deepen the kiss as his fingers hook into the material of my panties and I put my glass down , wrapping my arms around his neck .

My stomach tightens as he slides my underwear to the side and I part my legs for him .

The pad of his thumb circles my soaked clit and I groan into his mouth . He smirks against my lips before he shoves one finger into my tight cunt , making me spread my legs wider . He enters another finger , stretching my walls before he slowly starts to pump me on the kitchen counter with the whole pack right behind those doors .

I rock my hips into his hand as he finger fucks me , my eyes rolling back when he scissors his fingers inside me , his middle finger hitting a hot point that has me panting against his chest . He removes his fingers , grabbing my hips as he turns me , letting me face the door and he pushes me back , my elbows resting against the marble counter top and he lifts my dress , smirking at me . “Keep an eye out and you better focus . If you don’t , we get caught and if your head falls back , you waist two champagne glasses .” He grins before dipping his head under my dress , shoving his face in between my legs . His hand keeps my panties to the side , his hot tongue flicking over my throbbing clit . “Fuck .” I groan , biting on my tongue to keep my voice low .

My one hand reaches for his dark locks and I grab a fist full as he dips the tip of his tongue into my cunt before dipping it fully into my entrance . “Grayson .” I moan , trying to focus my hearing on the door , silently praying to the moon goddess to keep everyone out , because I might kill someone if they enter . His tongue curls inside of me before he replaces his tongue with two fingers , his lips latching onto my clit , sucking slightly as he pumps me fast . “Faster .” I mutter breathlessly , pulling on his hair .

My spine tightens as my toes curls , my stomach knotting as my legs begin to shake and he hums as I tighten around his fingers .

“Grayson .” I screech as my orgasm hits me .

He pulls his head out from under my dress , his lips soaking wet and his cheeks red .

“Dessert was definitely my favorite meal .” He grins as he pulls me upright , licking his lips as he reaches behind me for our glasses and he hands me mine , holding out a hand and I hop off , my legs jiggly .

“We better join the rest of the party .” He leads me back out , but all I wanted was to lead him to the bed and suck his cock till he moans .

Chapter 65 - His Heavenly Mate

Turning over in bed , I frown as I don't feel Grayson's body next to me . I lift my head , turning it to look on the other side and a sigh escapes my lips as I glare at the empty bed .

I roll over , stretching for my phone on the nightstand and notice it's eight am .

Where the hell is he ?

I dial his number and grunt as his phone vibrates on the other side of the bed .

I sit up , looking around and a deep sigh escapes my lips .

He's not here .

I roll out of bed , stretching my arms up above my head before walking over to use the bathroom .

Coming out , I glance around before tugging my sweatpants on and I pad out of the room , awkwardly glancing down the hall , looking if someone might be there .

Unfortunately there wasn't , so I continue to make my way down the stairs and I find myself standing in the foyer , servants strutting past me , working .

I grab onto one's shoulder , "I'm sorry for bothering you , but have you seen Grayson ? I mean your alpha ." I correct myself , knowing that it's weird for servants to have their alpha addressed by their first names only .

The shy girl shakes her head before walking off .

"He's on a run , should be back any second ." Aunt Diane chimes and I turn around , smiling brightly as she waltzes down the stairs with so much grace that even I just want to bow to her .

She's a beautiful woman and I know where Grayson gets his handsome looks from .

“Good morning aunt Diane .” I smile sweetly and she slightly frowns at me , “Call me mom , because that is what I will be in a little than a week .” She chimes cheerfully and I fight the pout that wanted to spread on my face .

A mom , that loves and accepts me .

“Deal , mom .” I smile as I say it .

It feels weird , but it also feels right .

For the first time in my life , I have a mom - a nice mom , a mother who cares , a mother who might love me .

As if on cue , Grayson heaves as he enters the house and I whip around , looking at him agape . He’s not wearing a shirt and his body is coated in a layer of sweat , the lights giving him a slight glow .

“Hey .” He grins , padding over to me , kissing me on the cheek . “How did you sleep ?” He asks and I hum , not being to drag my eyes off his god sculpted body . “I take that as a good ?” He chuckles .

“Yep .” I mutter . “I just need to go take a shower .” I point back to the stairs and he grabs my hand , “So do I .” He leans over to him mom , kissing her on the head before he drags me up the stairs .

" How does it feel to be alpha ? " I ask him as he closes the bedroom door behind us . He hurriedly strips down naked and I forgot to move as he cocks his head at me , shooting me a million dollar grin .

" You're staring ." he chimes teasingly and I scoff at him , " Don't let your ego hit you on the way down ." I begin to strip as he chuckles , the sound of his deep voice was making my insides tingly and I wish I could jump him right here .

He strides closer to me , swaying side to side and I tilt my head back , laughing at him as I kick my clothes to the side .

"What are you doing ?" I ask , smiling ear to ear .

" Grabbing you for a shower ." he returns the smile before his chest presses against mine and he snakes his arm around my waist , hoisting me up .

Can he read minds ? Because he definitely just read mine . I giggle as I wrap my legs around his abdomen , his hard on pressing against my inner thighs and I had the urge to just slide down , just a few inches and feel him penetrate me .

" Don't worry sunshine , I'm about to give you the best shower you ever had ."

Only if you fuck me like ten times over .

"Oh really ?" I challenge him , his eyes lighting up and I take it as a approval .

I bet he's going to fuck me against the tiled glass until my screams make it crack , I could see it in his eyes .

A knock on the door makes me roll my eyes as he let's me slide down , my feet hitting the floor and I curse under my breath . " Yeah , not the best timing ." he opens the door , sticking his head into the gap and I wish I could slam that door shut and jump him .

"I'm sorry sir , there's been an incedent report that needs your immediate attention ." I listen in on the conversation . "Fuck ."Grayson mutters and I bite down on my teeth , knowing that the amazing shower he promised isn't going to happen . " I'll be right down ." he closes the door , slowly turning to look at me . "I'm sorry princess ." he pouts and it is the cutest thing ever .

" It's fine ." I shrug , bending down and picking up my clothes before walking over to the bathroom . " Where are you going ?" he asks confused , " Oh , I'm still going to take a shower . Good luck to you , smelly ." I grin as I close the bathroom door behind me , wishing he would burst in here and fuck me on the bathroom counter , but I sigh as I hear the bedroom door open and shut , knowing he's gone .

Accidental or Not

Chapter 66 - His Heavenly Mate

" This better be fucking good ." I mutter as I run down the stairs , making my way out of the pack house into the village . I see smoke coming from a few meters away and I start to jog , mind linking my warriors to come and help me . A lot of people stand away from the fire and it's a house burning , a recognizable one at that and I frown at the sight .

Is this some kind of joke ?

It's Emily's old home , it was abandoned so I don't worry much if anybody got hurt as I come to a halt .

" What the hell happened ?"I ask , watching the fire grow and the dark smoke goes up in cloud , fading how higher it gets .

"We don't know , nobody saw anything ." one of my warriors say and I nod , walking towards the burning building and I turn my back to it , looking at my pack who's worried eyes are glued to the house . " Everybody please remain calm , the people who lives near this house , grab your things and you are welcome to come and stay inside the pack house until the smoke has gone away and the fire is cleared . We don't want anyone harmed ." I announce and a few of them start moving , "The rest , please back away so that our fire hose can be used on the house ." I glance at my warriors and they all run off to get the hose . It's thick and heavy and it will take a few people to carry it .

" Who did this ?" someone yells from the crowd of little people . " We don't know , but we will find out ." I tell them , trying to calm them but I can guess how bad this looks . There is absolutely nothing wrong with these houses , so someone must have set the fire .

" Everybody clear out and please relax , we will figure this out and I will have more guards around the houses to make sure this does not happen again ." I announce and everyone mutters under their breaths , talking to one another and I know I have to get back to Heaven - Leigh . This is kind of her pack now too and she might have ideas .

Sometimes I think she thinks that I expect her to be luna , but she was raised differently . She has been raised to think like an alpha , she has been born to be an alpha and that is what I expect her to be . She is perfect the way she is and maybe if I hurry back , she would still be naked .

" Excuse me , I have to deal with this ." I announce before turning back and I literally jog back . I trust in my warriors to put the fire out because I have trained them to do so , even if things like this don't happen really , our warriors are trained to do everything .

I rush up the stairs and sprint towards my room , finding Heaven - Leigh in her towel .

I inwardly jump with joy , smirking at her as I kick the door shut and step on the back of my shoes to slip my feet out of them as I take off my shirt the same time .

" I already showered ." she shrugs teasingly and I scoff at her , shaking my head . If she thinks that I lost because she already showered , she's in for a hell of a surprise . " Don't be silly ." I shake my head at her as I dip my fingers into my pants before bending forward and I tug them off . My shorts drop to my ankles and I kick them aside as I step out of them .

" Hell no , you're all sweaty ." she scoffs as she walks towards her bag on the wooden table . I stride towards her , my cock standing up right and hard . " Shut up ." I mutter before coming up behind her and I snake my arms around her upper body , unhooking her towel and it drops to the floor . " Hey !" she bellows and as she tries to turn around to face me , I grab her nape and push her head down , leaning forward and I shove her bag off the table and it drops to the floor with a soft thud .

" Hush ." I grumble and her hands press down on the table , she doesn't fight me and I smirk as I use my foot to kick her feet apart and I step forward , pressing my erection against her ass and she tries to step back , I push her forward , holding her waist to keep her in place . " Stand still or I'll stop ." I tease and she finally stands still . I dip my hand in between us , flicking my fingers over her cunt and I groan at how wet she already is .

I grin as I line my erection up with her entrance and I slap her ass , she slightly winches as a moan escapes her perfect lips . "I'm going to fuck you until you scream my name ." I roll my hips forward , my erection penetrating her and I grunt as her walls clench around my hard on . Her knuckles turn white as she grips the edge of the table and I run my hand down her back before spanking her ass one more time . She stands on her tippy toes as her body tenses , a small groan escaping her lips . " Fuck ." I mutter as I repeatedly roll my hips into her , slamming into her tight cunt . Fuck she feels good .

I lean forward , pressing my front into her back before I snake my arm to the front of her , reaching in between her legs as I bury myself into her . She moans , the back of her thighs shaking against mine as I circle her soaking clit . " Say my name ." I grit out against her ear and I could feel the goosebumps erupt all over her skin . "Gray .." I begin to circle faster , rubbing against her with two fingers faster and she halts as her lips part , a sahrp moan escaping her plump lips and I grin . " My name ." I stop circling her clit , putting pressure on it and she grunts angrily , " Grayson ." she grits out and I grin before I continue to circle her pretty little cunt . Her hand goes to the back and I frown in confusion before the tips of her fingers find their way to my rock hard balls . " Fuck ." I moan as I try to concentrate on pleasuring her . " Grayson ." she moans , her body beginning to shiver underneath me . " I know baby ." I groan and I slowly rock my hips before speeding up , my spine tightening as long as my stomach and as I was about to cum inside of her , the sound of shattering glass echoes through my ears and I lean forward , covering Heaven - Leigh's head with my arms and I slip out of her . " What the fuck ?" I mutter as I stand up , looking around to see the window shattered and the glass is all over the floor .

Chapter 67 - His Heavenly Mate

I don't hesitate to rush over to the window , not caring if the glass cuts my feet - it will heal , it always does . I see Kyle running into the bushes , hiding behind a tree and I focus on his movement , hearing his walk or probably crawl since I don't see him . Why would he do this ? I turn on my heel and get fully dressed , " Get someone to clean this up , I'll be back ." I bellow at her , not angrily , but I was too shocked to realize I was using a loud tone with her . She stares at me with wide eyes and I run down the stairs , passing by guards and I demand that they find Kyle . I am heading out to find him myself , but fuck I do hope someone else finds him first because if I find him , I might knock him out before getting any answers from him . He could have hurt Heaven - Leigh and that is against the law . We might not be alpha and luna to our own huge pack , but she is still his fucking luna because she is my mate .

I almost have every guard looking for him and then I spot him going towards the burned house , he turns , seeing me running towards him and just as I think he might run , he sits down , pulling his knees up to his chest , his arms locking around his legs . " Why did you do that ?" I grit out , trying to control myself before I just tackle him to the floor he's already sitting on and punch his lights out . " Do what ?" he asks oblivious and that irks me even more . " Break my window ." I grit out . " Oh . It was an accident ." he shrugs and I come and stand in front of him , his eyes glancing up at me . " Then why did you run ?" I glare down at him . " Isn't it obvious ?" he scoffs , raising a brow at me . " Clearly not ." I deadpan . " You already suspect me of something , when the rock hit the tree and it bounces off it to the window , I ran because I didn't want to be labeled as someone you have to keep an eye on , but now you obviously are going to do just that ." he sighs , shaking his head .

This is one heart broken troubled man . I want to call him out on his bullshit because if he threw the rock so hard that it would bounce off , it would have cut the tree and stayed in there . " Kyle , what happened with your mate ?" I ask him , maybe if he talks about it , then he would feel better . Maybe I should make an appointment with the therapist for this guy . " She left me , for someone better ." he mutters sarcastically and I could tell that he didn't think the other guy was better . " Why not get her back ?" I ask , " The mate bond is powerful , you can easily win her over again ." I try to encourage him , but his expression stays blank , no sign of hope in his eyes . " She's gone ." he shrugs , " And I will never get her back ." he sighs .

Well he won't get her back with that fucking attitude . " Alright , well why not socialize ? Second chance mates are rare , but they are there ." I squat down in front of him and he stares right past me to the burned house . " It was a beautiful house ." He mutters , his eyes now flicking back to me . " You knew Emily ?" I ask curiously and he nods , his eyes getting more sad . " Yeah ." he breathes out . " How did you know her ?" I ask , she never mentioned the guy . " She was my mate ." he breathes out , as if he couldn't breathe . His eyes lock on mine , " And your bitch killed her ." my eyes widen at the information . Emily had a mate ? She never told me that she had met her mate , nor said that she rejected him . The deal was that when we found our mates , we would break the deal and be with them .. but it looks like she thought I was the better man . " I'm sorry , she never told me ." I frown at him , sitting down across from him because it felt like the thing I needed to do . " Of course not , she made me promise not to claim her , we had sex all the time and she hid it from you because even if you had the stupid title , she loved me .." his voice cracks , his eyes tearing up . " She should have chosen you ." I nod , I can't even imagine living without Heaven - Leigh . " Yes , she should have ." he grits out . " Please don't be angry with me , I honestly didn't know ." I sigh , frowning at him . " I'm not mad at you , you didn't know your chosen mate was screwing her real one ." the way his words are laced with anger has me on edge , if he's not angry at me .. then who is he angry at ? " But your mate will pay , a life for a life ." he scoffs , a small relieved smile crossing his face . Guards approach from behind , but I don't glance at them , I don't want him to know about them standing there . " You can't hurt your luna ." I shake my head at him . " First off , she is not my luna .." he shrugs and it makes my blood boil to hear those words coming from his mouth .. " And second off , " his eyes flick down to his watch on his wrist , " It's a second before it's too little too fucking late ." I frown at him before I hear a big explosion going off , the ground shaking and I hurriedly get to my feet , " What the fuck did you do ?" I bellow as I see smoke coming from the packhouse from afar . " Arrest him !" I bellow before my feet practically flies back home . " I would never hurt my alpha !" he bellows from behind but I lock him out of my ears as I focus on Heaven - Leigh , hoping that she is alright . Everyone's running out of the pack house , smoke coming from the top floor , my floor and my breath hitches in my throat as I yell at everyone to move as I brush past them . I yell her name out , which felt like a trillion times as I run up the stairs , covering my mouth and nose with my arm and my eyes finch from the amount of smoke . I dart past the small fires that are everywhere and I run to my room , seeing that it's completely blown up and the fire is everywhere here too . I notice the closed bathroom door that are hanging off the hinges and I bust it open , the mirror cracked , the smoke everywhere and the shower is running with the door also off . I dart towards it , seeing Heaven - Leigh completely naked laying on the floor , her head dented in from the blow and blood swirls down the drain along with the water . I close the faucet before wrapping Heaven - Leigh into a towel in my arms , covering her face with a wet cloth before I hurriedly carry her through fire and smoke down the stairs . Warriors waiting down stairs , one telling me the fire department is on it's way and the other telling me that Kyle is locked up . I wish I could lock kyle in that burning room and watch him burn and suffocate from the lack of oxygen , but nontheless , he will be punished worse .

Chapter 68 - His Heavenly Mate

The look on the alpha's face made me want to drown myself in misery , but I don't give a shit about what I did because that fucking bitch deserved everything that was coming her way . I remember the day Emily died , the mere seconds before her life was taken .

Hearing the pack members mutter about Emily being taken has my eyes almost popping out of their sockets .

What ?

Who took her ?

Why did they take her ?

Who took her ?

I walk around everywhere , hearing them talk about the alpha's true mate who took her and I find out where their pack is , listening to the alpha's family speaking inside the kitchen and I am hiding below the window outside . The Argent Pack . I hear them saying that they are going to leave and I run towards the woods , shifting when I leave the boarder , the sound of my bones cracking rings through my ears as it echoes off the trees . I groan at the slight pain , but push through it as I stand on all fours , kicking off into speed as I race through the woods , side stepping bushes , jumping over fallen trees and broken branches and the run feels forever until I smell the Argent pack . I could tell that Alpha Grayson has run this trail to get to the pack . I could smell his faint scent and it is calming , knowing my alpha has run this trail , it meant I was on the right track . Seeing some wolves patrol , some in human form and other in canine form . I stay put , watching as my alpha's car drives towards their pack house .

I need to find her , but where do I even start ? I probably won't even get past the patrolling guards at this point . Why is everyone so on high alert ? About ten minutes of observing goes by and I notice how they drag someone towards the other end of the ground and I round the boarder , following them from a safe distance and I notice a crowd of people gathering together too . What the fuck is this ? I watch as they drag her body up a big stump , her eyes hollow like there's no emotion , her skin pale and she looks sick .

I watch as they kill her , my heart feeling like it stopped as pain courses through me , my mind spiraling in rage and before I could even attempt to run towards them , to kill everyone around her but the pain my body goes through makes everything shut down and I shift back to human , my knees buckling under me as I drop to the floor and everything goes black as I pass out .

I woke up in the dark , dry crunchy leaves and little sticks stuck in my hair and as I lay there , feeling numb and my heart slowly tearing out of my chest . I lay there for what feels like hours until I gather my strength to walk back home , tears rolling down my cheeks as I cry .

It still breaks my heart everytime I think of it . It's what I have nightmares about every single night and now my alpha is going to feel what I fucking felt . I smile as they lock me up , putting me in a cell in the basement and I couldn't stop feeling proud of myself . I did it , I finally did it . That bitch couldn't have survived that bomb , it took me about a week to set up , making sure no one was around and the packhouse was so dead at night that anyone could come and go as they pleased . I just had to make a distraction that the alpha was safe and out of way's harm and I did . The way his face went blank and his eyes went wild , it was estatic to see , but I couldn't smile in front of him because it wasn't my intention to hurt him , he's just what is called collateral damage .

The alpha's father comes down , his face serious , his eyes dark as fury flashes through them . " You bastard ." he grits out . My smile falters , his alpha aura having me a little scared . " Sir ." I mutter , my voice cracking in fear . " You blew up our house ." now he sounds really angry , " And you hurt your Luna !" he bellows , his voice bouncing off the walls . " She's not my luna ." I deadpan , which makes his eyes grow dark with fury . " She is !" he yells . Is ? Is she still fucking alive ? Has my plan not worked ? " Well was ." he cocks his head at me . Now that sounds more like it , she's dead ! Joy rushes through my body and I want to scream out in excitement . " Because you will be or dead or fucking disowned from this pack you fucking disgrace of a man

" he grits out , leaving me confused . " Is she dead or not ?" I ask annoyed and his eyes widen in shock . " You lunatic ." he shakes his head . " Put the silver chains on him !" he bellows and my eyes widen in fear . Silver chains are heavy , they burn the skin and if you have them on for longer than three weeks , the silver gets into your system and then you are poisoned beyond saving . " You can't do that !" I grit out and he chuckles , look who the lunatic is now . " I fucking can . I am in charge while your alpha is at the hospital with his mate ." he grins before turning on his heel and he strides away , two guards stride in , gloves on their hands as they drag thick silver chains inside , cuffing me before chaining them to the wall .

Chapter 69 - His Heavenly Mate

My mind is slowly unhinging as I wait for Heaven - Leigh to get out of surgery . In no pack is there surgeries unless it's serious . The body heals itself so quickly that we don't need it , even if we break our bones and slice ourselves open . But Heaven - Leigh smashed her head in hard , there's still blood all over me and the fact that I had to hand her over to a male doctor naked was making me slowly lose my mind even more . Seeing her naked wasn't my problem , having his hands on her .. well that was , but she needed to be saved and I would die before I let her suffer because of my jealousy .

I impatiently wait for about two hours , sitting on the chair with my foot tapping uncontrollably against the white tiled floor , pacing up and down in the hall while tugging my hair .. everything felt like it was going so slow , like the world had stopped around me just to spite me .

I freeze as a shriek sound echoes down the hall , multiple people running towards the exits . Nurses , doctors all hiding into room and I could smell her on them , I could sense her . I stand upright , my gaze focused on the corner until I inhale a deep breath as shock runs through my body . She's slowly walking towards me , her eyes a bright neon pink , I could feel her angry aura around her like she was yelling it outloud . Her hair had a glow of it's own , her copper hair almost looking like a shade of pink . " Heaven - Leigh ?" I mutter as she stands in front of me . " Where is he ?" is all she asks . Her aura makes me want to drop to my knees and obey every fucking order she throws at me .

" Locked away ." I mutter , I knew who she meant , but how she knew it was him who blew up our room and a part of the packhouse is beyond my knowledge . " Where ?" she asks and I shut my eyes . I have to focus on defying her , even if every fiber of my body wants to bow down to her .

" Heaven - Leigh ." I breathe out , my eyes flicked to the floor . Her hand cups my cheek as she stands on her toes , " Yes Grayson ." my eyes flick up to her and she smiles , " What is going on with you ?" I ask , my hands slightly trembling in fear as she frowns . " What do you mean ?" her eyes aren't neon anymore , her aura dialed down a bit , but her eyes don't go back to her normal forest eyes , they are now a pale pink , like the streaks in her hair .

I grab her arm , pulling her into the closest room and into the bathroom and she gasps as she stares at herself . Her fingers picking pink strands of hair up as she inspects them . " What the hell ?" she mutters confused , leaning over the sink as she stares at her pale pink eyes .

" Grayson , what's happening ?" she whips around , her eyes flicking neon and then back to pale pink . " Calm down ." I grab her shoulders , the sparks erupting all over my body as it runs through my arms . " Look at me !" she begins to freak out , her heart hammering in her chest so loudly it felt like my own heart rate hammering in my ears . " You look beautiful ." I tell her , it's not a lie , even if does look strange , it suits her . " People are scared of me Grayson ." her tears swell up and I sigh , " We'll explain , it's fine ." I tell her and I pull her into my chest .

A few moments of silence pass , her heart calming down before she pushes me back . " Where is he locked up ?" she asks , this time her wolf side didn't command me to answer . " He's getting what he deserves ." I tell her and she pushes me back with force and my back hits the wall . She stares down at me with wide eyes before she darts out of the bathroom .

I could smell the fear on her , she's afraid of herself .

Almost dying triggered something in her , something powerful and something unique .

I hurriedly get to my feet , trailing her scent to the outside of her hospital . I curse , knowing that she's wearing a hospital gown that could rip easily .

I follow her scent up to the pack house and as I enter , I knew exactly where she went .

I run towards the cells , finding the door open , a few guards dropped to the floor , their backs against the wall like I was mere minutes ago . " Where is she ?" I ask them and they all point towards the end of the basement .

Catching up to her , she's frowning at the sight of Kyle slouched against the cold cell wall , his arms in silver chains . " Alpha , please ." he mutters as he sees me , he tries to lift his wrists , but he's already too weak to do just that .

" You imbecile ." Heaven - Leigh mutters , glaring at him with so much hatred . " You lived ?" he frowns as he glances at her and she leaped forward and I snake my arms around her waist , holding her back before she breaks the cell bars and kill him on the spot .

" Calm down , calm down ." I whisper into her ear , the contact of my body calms her as she relaxes in my arms . " There are a few things you should know first ." I confess and she raises her eyebrows at me , " Then tell me ." She grits out and I feel like I shouldn't tell her that he was avenging his mate's death , but the thing about relationships are that they all need the two t's .

Truth and trust .

It's a deal

Chapter 70 - His Heavenly Mate

The energy flowing through me is powerful , I could tell by the way my nerves were on fire , every fiber of my body felt like it is in overdrive . I could feel everything without touching it , I could feel where Isaac's hand were going to touch me before he even did .

I can feel whenever someone is looking at me , I can feel their breaths breathing into the air , making the air hotter where he breathed .

"Come on ." Grayson drags me from the basement of the cells , the guards dusting themselves off , staring at me wide - eyed .

" I'm sorry ." Is all I could mutter as we walk past them . " Stop it ." I rip my arm out of his tight grasp , spinning to face him .

His gray orbs staring at me with confusion , " Just spit it out !" I demand , my chest heaving as my eyes flick between his .

" Not here ." he grits out as his eyes flick around the basement . " Why ? Because he might hear us ?" I bellow , shaking my head as guilt creeps up his face .

" I am going back with you ." I demand , " I just need to grab clothes ." he glances at me , frowning , " You can't .", " You aren't the fucking person he tried to kill Grayson , I will deal with him !" I bellow . " He's my pack member ." he shrugs me off and I stare at him agape . " He tried to kill me , me , Grayson , not you ." I grit out and he sighs , " And I will deal with it ." he shrugs , looking at me with those shiny eyes of his , " Don't you trust me ?"

The fuck not .

" I do , but ..", " Then no buts , he won't live Heaven - Leigh . Trying to kill his luna is already a death sentence , but trying to kill my mate , he doesn't live another second and that is why you are going to stay at home until I sort things out ." He insists and I want to argue , but I am already tired of fighting with him . " Fine ." I sigh , giving up since he won't .

" But afterwards , I want to start building houses for your pack members ." I stare at him and I see the slight smile tugging at his lips .

" It's a deal ." he gives my thigh a squeeze .

It's about time we unite as one pack , so that people like Kyle would tremble before thinking of hurting us .

" Unbelievable , he tries to kill me and you are afraid of hurting his feelings ?" I yell , slamming my fists into his chest and he stumbles back .

I could feel his fingers wrapping around my wrist before he tries and I slap it away , glaring at him .

" You don't get to touch me ." I grit out , my eyes flicking pink once more as anger rushes through me . " You don't understand ." he whispers and I stare at him with wide eyes , " Oh really ?" I ask sarcastically , crossing my arms in front of my chest , " You don't love me , I understand that ." I raise my eyebrows in question and he rolls his eyes , " I do love you , but you killed someone he loved ." He deadpans and my face goes blank .

" Who ? His mate ?" I scoff , shaking my head , " I didn't kill anyone except for ..." I freeze as I realize who his mate was .

" Goddess , do you still care about that dead meat ?" I bellow , my hands fisting next to my sides .

" No , but if she had killed you and I was in his shoes , I would do the same ." He mutters and I roll my eyes , " Well then go save him , rip those chains off him and let him out into this world . While you're at it , give him a silver knife , let him kill me while you watch ." I grit out , scoffing before I turn and leave him standing there baffled .

His eyes were wide and I guess I know that he wouldn't do that , but the anger inside me feels so strong , it's controlling me in some way that makes me even angrier .

His voice echoes through my ears as he calls out for me , but my walking pace speeds up until I am running up the stairs and out of the house , inhaling a deep breath before looking around .

Kyle blew up Grayson's house , his mate blew up my life and look at me now , I almost died and came back from the edge pink .

What the hell is up with that ?

It doesn't take Grayson long to find me , his eyes boring into the back of my head as he approaches , " I'm not taking his side , but he is allowed to feel what he feels until he dies , alright ?" He lets out a shaky breath and I nod , " I don't have clothes ." I mutter , changing the subject . " I'll take you back to the Argent pack . " he sighs , his hand rubbing circles on my back and the warmth is relaxing .

His touch instantly calms my racing heart and it feels like I can breathe again .

Grayson's large hand rests on my thigh , his thumb stroking my skin as his grey eyes are fixed on the dull road .

" You don't have any clothes either . " I sigh and he chuckles , " I guess not . " he shrugs and I roll my eyes .

I can't fathom how he is busy laughing , it's not a joke .

" When I drop you off , I have to head back . " he murmurs and my head snaps into his direction , my now pinkish hair flowing over my shoulder to the front .
