

Heiress's 208

Chapter 208

"What about Salvador Corporation?" Bella pursed her lips coldly.

"As far as I know, they're also facing the same problems."

"That's good. That means we're not lagging behind, and we're still on the same starting line as them."

"It's not just us competing with Salvador Corporation. I heard that there are no less than ten luxury hotels in the country competing for the chance to host Ada Wang's wedding."

"In terms of hotels, the KS World Hotel and the Salvador Hotel have always been the benchmarks in the country. Ada Wang likes to show off, so other small brands won't be able to catch her eye."

Bella took a bite of her sandwich and narrowed her shrewd eyes. "Continue to contact her team and show her our sincerity. Ada is scheduled to come to Savrow early next month. I will meet with her in person to finalize this. That way, Salvador Corporation can give up on getting this project."

She would not let anyone steal this project from her.

At the entrance of City Hall, many young couples were waiting in line to get in. They were either hugging each other or taking selfies to commemorate their happy moment. The air was filled with joy and love. Even the clouds seemed to take on a heart shape.

At this time, the emerald-green Rolls-Royce stopped at the entrance of City Hall, attracting the envious eyes of all the young couples.

Bella was sitting in the back seat. She looked at her watch and saw that it was already 9:00 a.m.

"Hah! Justin didn't come early." Steven sneered. "I guess a president like him wants to be fashionable late."

“Forget it. Just let him be.”

Bella looked out through the privacy curtain at the smiling faces and sparkling eyes and said quietly, “Anyway, I have already waited for him for so long. This is the last time I will be waiting for him.”

Three years ago, when Bella and Justin went to get their marriage license, she waited alone at the entrance of City Hall. She was starving because she had been waiting for him for a whole day.

Just as City Hall was about to close, Justin arrived fashionably late. He did not even apologize. Then he rushed them to get their marriage license.

Even so, Bella was so happy that she could not sleep a wink that night.

Looking back at her experience, Bella felt that she was hopelessly humble. Only now did she realize that she must love herself before loving someone else.

After waiting for another half an hour, a taxi stopped at the entrance of City Hall just as Bella’s patience was gradually running out.

Bella could hardly believe her eyes when she saw Justin getting out of the taxi.

“Um... Was I mistaken? Did Mr. Salvador take a taxi here? Why? Have gas prices increased so much that he couldn’t afford to keep the Maybach?” Steven’s eyes widened.

“Maybe he wants to keep a low profile. After all, this divorce isn’t a glorious thing for him.”

Bella yawned and got out of the car with Steven.

Justin was wearing his favorite black-gray pinstriped suit with a wide collar and a matte blue shirt, paired with a dark-colored tie. He looked cold, reserved, and unapproachable, as usual.

The appearance of this extremely handsome man caused a small stir at the entrance scene. The girls were so excited that they would have screamed if their boyfriends were not around.

When Bella walked toward Justin with confident and elegant steps, all the men in the room could not hide their excitement.

“Wow... Look at her face! Her skin is so supple!”

“She seems like she’s not wearing any makeup... Her dress is so beautiful, but the price scares me off!”

“Tsk! That’s the no-makeup makeup look. She definitely is skilled in applying makeup, so she looks like she’s not wearing anything!”

“That means she has good skin! No one can achieve this look with makeup!”

These young people, who were only interested in watching dramas and reality TV, did not recognize this handsome man to be Justin Salvador, the president of Salvador Corporation.

The taxi also concealed his identity.

Bella stood in front of Justin with a cold look on her face. “Mr. Salvador, you...”

“I got delayed on the way here.”

Justin interrupted her. His thin lips twitched before he said in a deep voice, “I’m sorry.”
