

Hell's Princess by Icon Chapter 28

Lucifer's Origin

LUCIFER'S POV

"Are you all fucking crazy? Did i not make myself clear enough in our earlier conversation!"

"We know Luci that's why we decided to do it ourselves since you obviously wont"

"You guys may be my brothers but I'm still the king of this place, try something so stupid again and I'll rip your fucking wings off"

"Well if your the king start acting like one!"

"I'll say this only once more. I never have and never will i betray hell nor will I sacrifice any of you" i yell rubbing my pounding forehead

Just fucking great now I'll have a headache for the rest of the day. Sometimes i really wish i could be like Sam and Cat and just go up to earth so i wont have to deal with all this shit. Everyday its something else and thanks to that waste of space Gabriel I'm sitting here arguing with the idiots i call siblings.

As we all know i was once an Angel before i became the dashing handsome devil i am today. Not only was i an angel i was an archangel, the Supreme Archangel to be exact, that means i was higher in power than even Micheal. I worked my ass off everyday to become the strongest and that training yielded some extraordinary abilities. Obviously they couldn't compared to the big man himself but amongst the Angels i was the most powerful. That is why when i went over the rails i asked lena to seal away my powers but also requesting a special seal for a certain portion of my abilities.

But now it seems that decision is coming back to bite me in the ass since the price to break the seal is something I'd never do. In order to gain that power once more I'd either have to make a great sacrifice or betray/abandon hell and i absolutely refuse to do any of them, which brings me to the predicament I'm in right now. The spell to break the seals require blood, everything in this world starts and ends with blood. If it were my blood I'd gladly do the deed but it requires blood from the people i care about the most, the ones i call family.

Yesterday the imbeciles Leviathan, Selaphiel, Azazel, Raphael, Baal, Asmodeus Astaroth, Belphagor and Uriel all tried to sacrifice themselves in my name in an attempt to release my sealed powers. Luckily it didn't work since I'm the one who has to carry out the sacrifice. Instead the idiots revived a few hours after killing themselves and i was told of their acts.

“How exactly do you plan on winning this war because obviously Gabriel has a plan or he wouldn’t be so boldly attacking us over the past few days” Asmodeus asks

“Of course i have momo I’m the Lucifer freaking Morningstar i always have a plan”

“First of all fuck you and don’t call me that. Secondly when do you plan on telling us about this awesome plan of yours”

“As soon as Dominic answers his damn phone, i swear he’s no different from Sam. This is why i miss my darling Cat she would answer her fathers call at the drop of a hat” i grumbled

“You are too attached to that damned phone use the mirror for Christ sakes” Lilith scolds walking into the throne room

“No way the last time i used that thing my eyes were violated i refuse to go through that again”

“Oh for fuck sake lucifer!”

“Alright alright sheesh no need to go all psycho bitch on me”

I extend a claw slicing my palm before wiping my blood on the giant mirror in front me. A few seconds later the blood disappears, the mirror glows and a very disturbing image pops up in it.

“Oh come on!!!” I yell covering my eyes as the others have a field day laughing at my expense including lilith might i add

The two men on the bed jumped in fright pulling away from each other and covering up with the sheets.

“Seriously dad you know you could have called first” Dominic says with a glare

“I did, you were too balls deep in Author to hear your phone” i retort

Nic stretched over to the bedside table to pick his phone up while Author tries to hide his embarrassed blush.

“Oh it seems you did call, multiple times” Nic confirmed looking at his phone sheepishly

“Damn A, for the prideful bastard you are i never pegged you for a bottom” Levi teased

“I’m not” Author replies

“Oh really, weren’t you just screaming on top of your lungs like a professional whore moments ago?” Azazel joined in on Author’s torment

“Leave the kid alone old man he’s a switch” i tell them, Authur and Nic looking at me im shock.

Ignoring them i say “Nic where is Sam I’ve been trying to get in touch with both of you”

“Last i saw him he was torturing some poor bastard he caught spying on Cat”

“WHAT!?, WHO WOULD DARE TAKE A PEEK AT MY DAUGHTER” i yelled

“Not that kind of spying sire he was surveilling her” Author corrected

“Oh.”

“Anyway mind link him and tell him to meet you guys at the office and to bring the others we need to talk”

“Sure” Nic says as his eyes rolled over signalling he was mind linking Sam

A few minutes later he bust out a laugh saying “Sam said he can’t talk right now he’s in the middle of a baby making session with Adonis”

“Baby making session my ass does Adonis looks like he can carry a child. Tell him to get his demonic backside in his office now before i come up there and rip off his baby maker”

Nic’s eyes rolled over once more before he turned back to the mirror and said

“He says he’ll be there in ten minutes”

“Ok. You two head there as well I’ll contact you via the mirror in Sam’s office” i tell him

Nic and Author disappeared as the mirror returned to its original state showing only my reflection. Twenty minutes later the mirror glowed and suddenly i could see Sam Adonis and everyone else except Alana

“Hey babygirl” i call out to Cat

“Hey dad” she greets with a smile that didn’t quite reached her eyes.

Where’s Alana?” I ask

“She’s back at the hybrid pack she still hasn’t returned” lucy answered

Looking at her i could tell her being away from Alana was causing her pain. Her eyes are red with huge bags under them, her entire demeanor screamed restless.

"If Alana is with sylvia why are you still in salt springs?" I ask lucy

"I went to see her and she said she needed some space" lucy answered

"I see" was my only reply

"Ok is no one really gonna talk about this? I mean what the fuck is her problem why is she behaving like this? So she saw Cat kill Jasmine, so what? First off Jasmine deserved it ten times over and lana's father is a homicidal homophobic bastard so how in the devil's name is she scared to be around Cat" Merlin yells

"Maybe she's just trying to process everything" Freya says

"Or maybe since she saw that side of the princess she decided her dad was right and sided with them" Eric piped in

"Alana would never do that" Aquarius defends

"I agree with aqua, after all she was the one who kept on pushing Cat to stop forgiving those who hurt her" Harlequin adds

"Sweetheart sometimes people say things and when they get what they ask for they cant handle it" Liam tells her

A silence fell between them, everyone sporting sombre expressions. I understood how they feel especially Cat, which is why Alana's reaction confused me this much and leads me into thinking if she was ever really Cat's friend or if their friendship was just something orchestrated by that conniving bastard Gabriel. I really hope its just me being paranoid and that my suspicions aren't true because if they are I'll have to add murder of a seventeen year old to my already long list of sins.

"Anyway people, i didn't call you all here to talk about this i called to discuss our battle plans and to fill in the kids on everything. After a long scolding from lilith and Sylvia I've realised i can't protect you if you guys don't know what's going on" i say

They all gave me their full attention ready to here what i have to say

"Ok I'll start from the beginning, if you're all gonna fight in this war you need to know the reason why it began"

"Isn't this about Cat?" Jace asks

“Not exactly. She has a part in it but its more about me and the reason i got Cast out of heaven”

First off i wont tell you that i was unjustly casted out, it was my own stupidity and pride that caused me to be where i am today however, i myself was manipulated.

There are two factions in the silver city. The Holy land where God resided and the land below.

We lived below the holy land and at the top of the hierarchy was the Supreme archangel, then the head archangel, regular archangels and then the normal angels who were just regular people. I was a warrior angel and i started at the bottom but since i wanted to become powerful so i could protect everyone i worked day and night to rise through the ranks. My two best friends at the time were Micheal and leviathan and even then levi was still the goofy trouble maker he is today. At the time we all knew Gabriel he was the one who always stayed by himself, he never worked with other angels on missions and he never worshipped with us.

One day he started talking to me, at first i found it strange but i figured he was tired of being alone and was trying to make friends. He, Micheal and i became fast friends but levi for some reason didn't trust him. We paid that no mind however and tried to convince levi that he was over thinking things. I especially was glad to be Gabriel's friend because turns out we had the same dream and that was to become the strongest angel but unknowing to me at the time we both wanted to be strong for different reasons and unfortunately i only realize that on the day i was casted out.

Some time past and soon Micheal became head archangel and i was appointed Supreme archangel. To explain it better i was the President and Micheal was the VP. Gabriel and i were both competing for this position and he lost to me. This made him angry and jealous and soon he began drawing away from us. One day Gabriel came to me and he uttered some blasphemous words. Questioning our father's decisions about the creation of humans. Saying the father would replace us with lesser beings and that maybe our father wasn't fit to rule. When i heard these things i immediately reprimanded him about it and sent him to pray and repent to our all seeing father.

After that conversation i hadn't seen Gabriel for some days and one day whilst i was praying God appeared to me in the form of a child and blessed me with a sword made purely of light. I was overjoyed and beyond grateful and from that day on i was known as Lucifer the light bringer. I shared this blessing with my friends and comrades who were all happy for me all except Gabriel but i was still in the dark about his true feelings.

The day before i got casted out Gabriel came to me once again while i was in a meeting. He came to tell me that he didn't consider me as his leader and that i didn't deserved my promotion. He teased me of my insecurities and questioned the strength i had worked so hard to gain. I was hurt and angry at his betrayal of our friendship but most of all he hurt my pride in front of our comrades. Gabriel challenged me to a duel and i let my pride get the best of me and accepted. I was so angry that i left the meeting and went to the training grounds to release my frustration. I ended up destroying it and a few of nature's creations.

I didn't want to accidentally hurt anyone so i flew off

While i was gone Gabriel snuck into my quarters and stole my light sword. He brought it to the garden of eden and killed the gate keeper. He picked from the fruit of the forbidden tree however he did not eat it he hid it amongst my belongings and returned the sword to its rightful place. The next day i arrived ready for my duel only to find everyone searching for me. At first i thought they were worried until levi came to me begging me to tell him that everyone was wrong and that i hadn't betrayed them. I was confused at what he meant until Micheal, Gabriel and an entire mob of angels showed up to arrest me, the only ones who stood by my side are the ones with me now.

I pleaded with Micheal and tried to explain that i wouldn't do such a thing but they searched my quarters and found the fruit in my belongings, this only made me look guiltier. They arrested me and brought me to the scared place of our land waiting for our father to place judgement upon me and it was in that time Gabriel came to me and revealed it was he who had done such things, this only fueled my wrath more. My best friend didn't believe me, my father who sees and knows all watched as i was wrongfully accused and i was losing everything i worked so hard for.

I escaped and gathered the few who for some reason still believed in me and we fought back against the masses. Due to our lack in numbers we lost the fight and were all kicked out by Micheal and my light sword was lost to time. Whilst i fell from the only home I'd ever known i cried out to God one last time asking why he had forsaken me.

He finally spoke to me and explained that he sees and knows all and that he has a plan for my life but i was too angry to listen. We were suppose to go to the lower realm of the humans but instead we were sent to the underworld. It was cold and dark when we arrived but my wrath brought on a heat making the place as hot as lava. In my angry state i one day transformed into a serpent and went to the garden of eden where i not only picked and ate from the tree of forbidden fruit but as an act of revenge i convinced the human known as Eve to pick from it as well but i got an even better deal when she gave the fruit to her husband too.

My father was angry with me but i didn't care i continued to tempt the humans, i even tempted Cain to the point where he killed able out of jealousy. After Cain became the first murderer and was marked i continued to rebel against my father. The day Cain died his soul came to the underworld and that's when God revealed my purpose to me. He wanted me to guide the lost souls back to him so that on the final judgement day they could be saved. Instead of doing that i rebelled once again and tortured the poor bastards.

Meanwhile i was in heaven Gabriel rose up as an archangel but he still hadn't gotten the position he wanted. Since i had the sinful souls to entertain me i lost interest in humans until they decided to start worshipping idols.

Ever heard the term imagination is more powerful than knowledge. Well that seemed to have been proven true when humans created statues of gods and the next thing i know olympus appeared. I knew it was the big man's doing but since it had nothing to do with me i ignored it. That is until Hades betrayed Zeus and was sent to the underworld. He and i fought for the right to rule and as such the underworld split in two him on one side and i on the other. After our battle i placed a barrier around my half of the underworld and created hell in my own fashion and just like earth it evolved over time.

One day one of my demons was tricked by a preacher, he was tortured and chained like some kind of animal. This pissed me off to no end so i destroyed those who dared to cross me. Micheal saw this as a threat and summoned me to earth in an attempt to warn me to stay away from the humans. In return i sent my three horsemen war, famine and pestilence to reek havoc on the earth.

(A/N) Samael aka death was not born as yet

This act brought earth to its knees and herald the age of Armageddon. Once again the angels of the silver city and i faced off in combat and after much years of battle i withdrew because lilith was pregnant with Samael and i couldn't put them in danger. Besides, i had no idea i could procreate so this shocked and amazed me to the point where my hatred for those who betrayed me didn't matter anymore so i left earth alone to be with my new found family.

However Gabriel was relentless in his attempt to destroy me because even though he took my happiness in heaven i still managed to make a comeback and be happy after losing everything i once treasured. As such from time to time he'd gather strayed souls of different species and used them to attack me and my people.

Now that he has started this holy war he has made several attempts in opening rifts in the earth in order to get to hell he's also been attacking Sam's pack and has unfortunately killed a few of his pack members. With the aide of Athena we have come to know that Gabriel is working with Aphrodite. It was revealed that it was in fact Gabriel who used the elders to go against Sylvia and the others and after that failed attempt Noah has gone missing.

We have also come to know that Gabriel has recovered my light sword that has been lost to me for centuries. This is why he's so confident that he'll win the holy war, because he had once taken an Angel's life with that very weapon. But if he thinks i'll roll over and let him kill me he is sadly mistaken because i too have a plan of my own.

This time i will truly show that bastard the real power of a devil, i'll show everyone the real power of Lucifer Morningstar.

Battle plans

LUCIFER'S POV

"Now that he has started this holy war Gabriel has made several attempts in opening rifts in the earth in order to get to hell he's also been attacking Sam's pack and has unfortunately killed a few of his pack members. But if he thinks I'll roll over and let him kill me he is sadly mistaken because i too have a plan of my own.

This time i will truly show that bastard the real power of a devil, I'll show everyone the real power of Lucifer Morningstar."

"I never knew you went through so much before you became the king of hell dad" Cat says

"I've been through many things over the years sweetheart but i regret nothing. I've lived, loved and lost but that's just the how life is"

"Truer words were never spoken sire" Andreas praises

"So now that we all know the real reason for the holy war its time to discuss our battle plan" Levi announces

I nod in agreement before saying

"The floor is yours levi"

"Ok maggots listen up" he says in an authoritative voice

"This war is not some random fight where they attack us and we retaliate. No, this is a holy war and it will be done in the correct way. Now that blood has been spilled from both sides the war is official and cannot be thwarted. Since this is a divine battle it will be officiated by a neutral entity, her name is lina but you all know her as the moon goddess. Since she was put in charge of the well being of all races on earth only she can decide when the battle begins"

"What do you mean by blood has been shed on both sides?" Merlin asks

"That attack by the elders was not random it was planned by Gabriel. He knew that killing elder Norris would push Cat over the edge especially if Jasmine was the one to do it. So he used Jasmine to kill Norris and in return Cat killed her heralding the beginning of the holy war"

"I see, but how will we know when the war has started"

"You'll feel when its time we all will" i tell him

"There is a massive clearing in the black forest, this is where our battle will commence since it is the most sacred of sacred grounds here on earth" Levi continues

"You mean the scary forest in Germany where Mrs Lockwood took the witches of our pack to train?" Harlequin asks

"Yes"

"But its known to be filled with mysterious creatures and lost souls" Aquarius says

"True but it is also the place where Lucifer fell when he came to earth"

"What?" The kids says in shock

"Oh yes i forgot to mention that" i chuckle

"Of all the places to fall you fell in the black forest?" Freya says

"You have it wrong young vampire he didn't fall there he created it. There was no black forest it was just a flat land. When Lucifer fell from the heavens he dropped in that region, the impact of his fall created massive craters and distorted the shape of the land but not only that, when an angel falls they loose a part of them, it is released in a form of energy; we call it their grace. When Lucifer lost his grace it was absorbed by the earth and trees sprung from it thus creating what is now known as the black forest" Levi tells her

"I think I'm about to faint, have they not been teaching us anything in school" Freya replies

"Apparently not" Asmodeus comments

"As i was saying" Levi says

"This war will take place in the black forest but until that day you will all be training with here in hell with me every weekend until the day. When you are up there on earth i expect you all to be vigilant and on your guard. Don't think that because the war will officially be in the black forest that you wont be attacked or killed before then"

"Now, as for battle strategies i didn't really come up with one because plans are boring and they never work anyways i prefer to live spontaneously"

"Seriously" i turn to look at levi with an are you kidding me expression

"What so wrong with that?" He asks and even had the nerve to look confused at my reaction

"Ok fine how about this. I'll inform the witches to create barriers so that the humans won't get caught up in this. On the day our troops will battle using the phalanx formation. It doesn't matter how we fight anyway as long as we kill those bastards. Lucifer Cat and Sam will stay behind until i know where Gabriel is then they'll join the fight since its them he's after. The rest of us can just let our beasts out and go on a killing spree"

"That's more like it" i nod in approval

"Well its all i've got so you better be pleased" he glares drawing a chuckle from me"

"Well that's all we wanted to discuss with you guys, if and when Alana decides who's side she's on you can relay the information to her" i tell everyone on the other side of the mirror

"What about the other packs aren't they taking part in this war" Cat asks

"Most have decided to join us but others have sided with Gabriel. I have made arrangements for their protection incase they are attacked and arrangements for a safe house have also been made for families of our allies who cannot fight" Sam informs

"Good thinking Son if it were up to levi alone all our allies would be dead" Lilith says

"Hey I'm a great war general" Levi retorts

"Mmhmmm" we all say in unison

"Anyway guys that's all i wanted to discuss, we'll see you guys this weekend" i say before reversing the spell watching as the mirror returned to its original state

"Ugh i need a day off" i groan leaning back into my throne

"No, what you need is to get laid. I mean how long has it been since you've seen some action, you haven't went out since liv died you've lost your game Luci" Raphael tells me

"I think that's the least of my problems" i reply

“Quit being such a geezer. Go get your evening nap because we are hitting the bars tonight”

“You do realize we are in the midst of a war right”

“All the more reason why we should enjoy ourselves now who knows what tomorrow may bring”

“Ugh fine I’ll meet you around 8”

“That’s more like it” he cheered

“Now go on go get some sleep older timer”

“Fuck you” i say flipping him the bird but still casted a spell to take me to my quarters, i really needed a nap.

NOAH’S POV

Where is he where the fuck is my dad?” I yell entering the mansion

“Please keep your voice down young master Noah, your father is in a very important meeting and doesn’t wish to be disturbed” the so called butler tells me

“Don’t tell me what to do old man i give the orders around here now take me to my fathers office before i cut your fucking head off with my sword” i seethed

“As you wish sir” he slightly bows before leading the way to dad’s office

We go up a giant winding staircase that seems almost endless.

“I know there’s an elevator somewhere around here so why the hell are walking” i ask

“Sorry sire but the elevator is currently in repair”

I nod at his reply but still not believing him, i bet he’s just making me walk as an act of revenge. I couldn’t care less though about some lowly servants petty acts. We finish the stairs and walk down a hallway that leads to two double doors. The butler who’s name i didn’t care to know knocks, when he gets the command to enter i push him aside and walk onto the office.

“Dad you fucking liar, i thought you said she couldn’t hurt me. That bitch the next time i see her i’ll rip her head off” i yell

“Well hello to you too Noah” he says with that smug look he always has on his face

“You lied to me” i seethe pointing an accusing finger at him

“I never said she couldn't hurt you i said she couldn't kill you”

“Yeah well she almost fucking did she cursed me, if it wasn't for mom I'd have died”

“Ah Sylvia, ever the mother at heart. How is my dear wife, does she miss me”

“No she doesn't, infact she's glowing like she's happy you're gone” i say bluntly

“Meh, i never loved her anyway i just used her to get close to people” he shrugs

“You're such a bastard you know that, you used mom and now you're using me, i had to drink dogs blood for fucks sake”

“So you got it” he asks excitedly

“Yeah the bitch gave it to my mom so she could heal us, i had to swallow it though”

“That doesn't matter i have a spell that can remove it form your system”

“But wont that make me sick again”

“Of course not you idiot the curse has already been lifted”

“Fine just get this thing out of me already i feel so tainted”

“Don't worry it'll be out in a minute” he says before grabbing me by the chin and sticking his finger down my throat

Dad starts chanting as his eyes change to a golden colour i feel something rise from my stomach and painfully makes it's way up. It began with an uncomfortable feeling in my stomach that increased to a burning. By the time it reached my throat it felt like there were claws in my throat scratching away at the flesh. Tears gathered in my eyes at the painful feeling as my dad kept on chanting in a language i didn't understand, this continued for a few more minutes before he was finally done.

“Got it ” he says removing his hand from my mouth

I looked up to see a drop of intensely red blood floating in the air, it was the same drop mom gave me earlier.

"The blood of Cerberus, one of the rarest things in this world. This is harder to get than anything you can think of because that dog doesn't bleed unless he or his master wishes it"

"What are you gonna do with it?" I ask

"You will see son you will see"

He walks over to the mirror in his office that he's always talking to, and takes it off the wall

"Don't worry my dear I'll return you to your beauty once more" he says to the mirror leaving me to wonder if i backed the right parent.

"Yes it was all due to Noah's hard work i think you should reward him" dad says to the mirror once again

He then takes the drop of blood and drips it on the face of the mirror, at first nothing happens but then it starts glowing a dim light then the light got bigger and bigger illuminating the entire house. It shone so bright it was blinding. When the light fades away the mirror is gone and a beautiful woman stood beside dad. I'd never see such a beauty before, i stood frozen just staring at her, everything about her mesmerized me.

"Hello Noah" she says in an angelic voice

"H-hi" i stutter still focused on her beauty

"Noah this is Aphrodite she is the goddess of sexual love and beauty" dad tells me

"She has been aiding me for centuries now and has lent me her powers many times in my quest of riding evil from the world. She was the one who helped me figure out who Catalaya really is"

"Seriously?" I ask in shock

"Yes and now she will help us win this war"

"How?"

"She possesses the one weapon that can truly kill any supernatural creature"

"What's that?" I ask

"A sword made of pure holy light. It was given to Lucifer by God. It was that very sword that Lucifer used to kill one of our brothers and got cast out of heaven and now i will use it to kill him"

“But if the sword belonged to lucifer how does she have it?”

“The fool managed to loose it when he was cast down. When Olympus was built the sword appeared fastened in one of its pillars, Zeus removed it and kept it hidden but it was stolen by Persephone wife of Hades when her husband tried to take the lightening god’s place as ruler of Olympus. Aphrodite then in turn stole the sword from Persephone but did not get a chance to use it to kill the one she seeks revenge on because of the moon goddesses interference but she kept it with her when she sealed herself in this mirror in order to heal from her injuries”

“So she was the one in the mirror that you were talking to?”

“Yes”

“But how come i didn’t see or hear her”

“She spoke to me telepathically. She didn’t have all her powers since she use most of it to partly heal the wounds she received from lena. That’s why i needed Cerberus’s blood so it could heal her and she could finally come out of that mirror”

“You know dad for a second you had me doubting you but i was wrong you truly are a master mind. I know for sure now there is no way we can loose this war” i tell him

“Of course we cannot loose son we are the righteous ones who will purge this earth of evil. Finally i will show all those who condemned me my true power and i will finally be rid of that bastard lucifer then there will be nothing stoping me from becoming A God”

“Right you are in deed father and i will finally be able to kill that bitch and get my rightful place as Supreme archangel”

“Marcus!” Dad calls out

“Yes sire” the butler from earlier says entering the office

“Bring the girl in”

“Right away master” he replied before leaving

A few seconds later a cute blonde girl came in she was really short but she looked totally hot and she had a nice pair of racks on her too

“You called master” she says bowing her head

“Yes Anne its time to begin phase two of the plan”

“As you wish master consider it done” she replied before leaving the room

“What’s phase two?” I ask

“You will see soon enough son” was all dad said with that evil look on his face that always gave me the chills

Oh boy!

UNKNOWN POV

Look at them Demiurge so confident in their measly powers so happy with their mates not knowing i could take it all away with a snap of my fingers” a smooth feminine voice says as the person looked through a crystal ball

Though the voice belonged to a beautiful person and was quite soothing to the ears its tone is filled with hatred as did the person it belongs to.

“They’re all fools if they think each other is the only opponent they have in this war but they’re in for a rude awakening for i will bring death and destruction to their lives and i will rule over all” the voice proclaimed

“That you shall” mistress Demiurge says

“Please boss i beg of you don’t do this you’re making a grave mistake” another voice pleads

“Shut up dog! Did i say you could speak” the woman hissed

“You have not seen what i have. If the child is so powerful imagine what the father can do or the brother” the voice pleaded once more

“Silence!” The woman shouts

“I sent your idiot brother to surveil our enemy and report back to me instead he faints at a little display of irrelevant power, gets himself captured and sends you, his coward of a twin what he has seen telepathically only for you nag and annoy me with your cowardice. Had i not any use for you i would have killed you a long time ago”

“Please mistress i only wish for your well being”

“One more word from you and I’ll feed you to the lions. I have more than enough power to kill those insects and i will prove it” the woman boasts

“Demiurge tell everyone to commence with the plan we have a holy war to win. Also go into town and get me a large double toppings pizza would you I’m starving”

“As you wish mistress”

“Thank you I’ll be in my room when its ready, bring it to me then and a glass of blood from my favourite human he looks rather scrumptious today”

“Consider it done mi’lady” demiurge says with a bow before leaving to carry out his orders

The beautiful woman rose from her chair her long wavy raven black hair falls down her back. The light hits her smooth caramel skin at the right angle giving it a glow. Her hips sway as she walks to her room pulling a long chain behind her, at the end of that chain was the man who pleaded with her earlier. The woman pulled the chain as she continued to her destination not caring about the man attached to it who was being dragged across the floor like an animal.

As she made her way to into her room she thinks to herself

“This time i will get my revenge on you Lucifer Morningstar

The Question

ANDREAS POV

I push the doors to the cafeteria open and walk in, for a few seconds everyone turned to look who had entered but turned their attention back to their friends when they’d seen who it was. Walking over to the servers i grabbed a tray and placed six slices of pizza on it before getting myself a drink then head over to the table where the guys sat already having lunch.

“Sup guys” i say taking a seat

“Hey Dre” they greet

“Lu still isn’t here today huh” i say noticing her absence

“Yeah she still hasn’t shown up today i feel so bad for her she’s really hurting” Harley says

“I can’t believe Alana would do something like this especially to Lucy. I mean betraying us is one thing but to allow your mate to go through such suffering, that’s just heartless” Merlin voiced

“We still don’t know if she joined up with her father or not so stop saying she betrayed us, for all we know they could have kidnapped her” Aquarius defends

“Come on aqua open your eyes its obvious by now, she disappeared three days after avoiding all of us not just Cat. Sylvia doesn’t know where she is and we can’t sense her presence anywhere just like Noah’s own disappeared. And don’t even bother with that kidnapped bullshit, its lana we’re talking about that girl is a prodigy one of if not the strongest hybrid in the world she’s the best of both worlds. It’d be one hell of a showdown before someone could kidnap her and there would be evidence of that” Freya admonishes

“Don’t be too hard on her love she’s just saying what we all hope” Jace says to freya

“I know but it’s been two weeks since she disappeared we all have to face the facts”

We all gave let out a huge sigh

Everything has been so awkward since the day they visited the hybrid pack. After witnessing Cat killing Jasmine Alana refused to talk to or go near Cat and a few days after they left her there she disappeared without a trace, not even her mother knows where she is. This has affected all of us in different ways.

Cat’s battle confidence seems to have left her, she always looks so defeated and keeps questioning her every move, the rest of her friends are stuck between believing in the bond they shared, hoping lana wouldn’t betray them and having to face the reality that she may have.

I hate to see everyone like this, we’ve all become so close over the period of time we’ve know each other and though i may not show it I’m really hoping Alana didn’t betray us. But what troubles me most of all about this situation is the toll its taking on Lucy.

She hasn’t left her room in the past two weeks that have gone by she didn’t even come to training with us. She is at the mercy of the mate bond right now especially since she and Alana hadn’t mated yet the need to be near her is way worst than if they had been. She looks like one of the undead she creates, with her pale skin and sunken eyes.

And to top it all off Gabriel’s goons keep on attacking us every other day. Turns out some of the packs that sided with Sam earlier still didn’t know he was the son of Lucifer and when they found out, they themselves turned against us and joined with Gabriel.

“Lucy is strong guys she’ll get through this” i tell them

“Yeah we know bro but it still doesn’t make this sucks any less” Eric says

“This is so messed up everytime i look at her or Cat i can see the pain radiating from them lana meant the world to them and she basically abandoned them” brooke says

Speaking of Cat where is she?” I ask

"She said she'd meet us here she stopped to talk to some girl from our class, it seems the girl was new or something" Aqua shrugs

"She seems so preoccupied lately how are you guys doing?" Merlin asks

"We're good i guess but i just feel like our relationship isn't quite there yet. I don't know maybe me just need an extra push" i stated honestly

"Maybe you should try taking her on a date" harley suggests

"Uh how does that work again?"

"Holy hell you're not serious are you?" Aqua asks while brooke chokes on her drink

Don't judge me ok all i've been doing for the past couple centuries is going on missions and fighting wars besides there was no such thing as dating when i had a mate so excuse me if i don't know what it is"

"Ok you do have a point there. A date is where you take someone to get to know them better. Grab a bite to eat and have some fun while throwing in a few romantic gestures" Freya explains

"Hmm, i think a date is exactly what Cat and i need especially with all that's going on right now"

"Alright people i need ideas, spill"

"Get your own ideas your not the boss of us" jace says

"Uh technically i am"

"Oh please we all know Cat runs this show even yours" Eric says

"Whatever just give me some ideas for crying out loud"

"Fine fine. The beach is nice this time of year maybe you guys could have a dinner under the stars"

"That's too cliché there's this really cool karaoke bar in town that harley and i went to the other day it has this aesthetic vibe to it you should take her there" Liam says

"Interesting"

"Wait wait i have the perfect idea" Aqua announces

"What's the one thing Cat has always love ever since she was a kid?"

“Carnivals” they all say at the same time

“Exactly!”

“But there aren’t any carnivals in town” i say

“True but there will be one in the next town over tommorow night”

“That’s a great idea Cat is obsessed with carnivals ever since the Freeman’s went to one when she was a kid and didn’t bring her, then jasmine came back boasting about how fun it was. She always wanted to go but didn’t get to” Merlin says

“Cool now you just have to ask her. You don’t need help doing that do you?” Jace teased

“No i don’t i know how to ask a girl out ok”

“Sure” he drawls

I look up when the cafeteria doors opened and in walked Cat. She smiled and walked over to us after getting her lunch.

“Hey y’all” she greets

“Hey Cat” they responded

“Hey babe, are you ok?” She asks

“I missed you” i pout

“Sorry i was talking to Anne then i went to pee” she says giving me a peck on the lips

“Is that the girl you were talking to when i left class” Aqua asks

“Yeah, ever since the first day of school i kept seeing this glowing aura around her. I couldn’t quite tell what she was so that’s what i went to talk to her about”

“And did you find out?”

“She’s like Adonis she comes from a long line of ancestral witches and she’s the last of her kind. She says she lives in the neutral zone and disguises herself as a human so she wouldn’t be found”

“Well that explains why she’s always by herself” Freya says

"Yeah. I tried inviting her to our table but she was too shy so she decided to come over another time. But she did give me this amazing brooch though" Cat says showing us the accessory in her hair

"Its so beautiful" harley compliments

"I know right"

The brooch was indeed beautiful and it complimented cat's hair perfectly, when i looked at it i felt something strange come over me but it went as quickly as it came so i paid it no mind, probably just the light rays bouncing off it.

"You may wanna hurry and eat Cat lunch ends in like fifteen minutes" Brooke tells Cat

"Oh uh by the way Cat i have something to ask you"

"What is it" she says giving me her undivided attention

I got up from my chair and went to stand before her then i held her hand and got on one knee. Everyone had shocked faces except jace who was laughing his ass off.

"Uh Dre wha-what are you doing" Cat asks confused

"Cat will you go on a date with me?" I ask confidently

"What?"

"Will you go on a date with me" i repeat

She immediately bust out a laugh. I was confused a a bit hurt i mean why would she laugh does that mean she doesn't want to go out with me?

"Oh my gosh Dre who told you- hahaha i cant- wait give me a minute"

I continued to look at her as she laughed her heart out. A couple more seconds and she finally calms down before saying

"I'm so sorry Dre you caught me off guard"

"Anyway i would love to go on a date with you" she smiles

"Huh!?"

"I said I'd live to go on a date with you"

"So why were you laughing?"

“Because you went down on one knee and i don’t know which of these idiots told you that’s how its done but they’re just pranking you. You didn’t have to go that far you could have asked from your seat but i appreciate the gesture” she tells me before planting a chaste kiss on my lips

“Oh.....” I say getting up from the ground as everyone tries to hold in their laughter. Luckily no one outed me on the fact that the didn’t trick me into going on one knee

I feel so stupid but at least she said yes

Soon after the bell rings signalling the end of our lunch, we immediately start packing up our trash to throw away. As we left the cafeteria i say to Cat

“Can i come to class with you?”

“Why do you wanna come with me besides i don’t think my teacher will let you in”

“I could care less about some insignificant bugs opinion”

“Behave” she reprimand

“But i didn’t do anything”

“Can i please come with you math is boring and i miss you” i pout

“Alright come on you big baby” she rolls her eyes

“Who you calling a baby I’m a man” i say flexing my muscles

“Mmhmm, sure”

“You wound me babe” i say dramatically holding my chest

“Get a grip you too” Eric says rolling his eyes

“Shut up your just jealous because i have the most beautiful girl in the world” i smile and pushed a hair behind cat’s ear as a blushed creped up on her cheeks. It always amazes me how she can be so bold and yet so shy at the same time

“Uh first of all that is highly inaccurate, no offense Cat” Eric replies

“None taken” Cat shrugs

“Whatever, i know what am talking about” i say

“Whatever makes you sleep at night dude. Anyways we gotta get to class. See you guys later”

We all separated heading into different directions

Cat and i walk into her science class and took our seats. As always the idiots who unfortunately survived my siblings massacre on the hybrid pack stared at us, the fear in their eyes evident.

By now everyone knows of the war and its details, while some are willing to fight others have decided not to, but like i said either way we don't need them. All kingdoms are on lock down at this point especially the fairy kings forest. Word is, Cole has some type of powerful weapon in his possession, somehow Aphrodite found out about it and has been terrorizing the fairy kingdom for some time now but let's just say the fairy king doesn't take well to trespassers.

The staring of these pests starts getting annoying so i pulled down my shades and flashed my red eyes at them making them all turn around in their seats quickly.

“Oh how the mighty have fallen” i think to myself

If it were around this time last year they'd all be laughing and talking with their friends forcing Cat to sit beside the garbage bin while they threw paper and thrash at her. Now whenever we enter the class its all silence and the scent of fear reeks in the air. Whenever the class ends and the teacher leaves everyone else stays put until we've collected our things and walk through the door before they make a move. I guess these peasants have finally learnt their place.

“Good morning everyone sorry I'm late” the teacher says walking into the class room

I have no idea what's his name since i don't care to know. I don't even want to be here if it wasn't for Cat I'd have stayed home, binge movies and stuff my face with junk food. His mouth continues to move but I'm blocking out the words. Everyone starts taking out their books as the teachers speaks and writes on the board, i turn to see Cat doing the same as well. This goes on for another half hour until i couldn't take it any more

“Cat” i called out in a whisper but she ignores me

“Caaaaaaaattt” i tried again

Once again I'm ignored

I huff in defeat, then almost instantly an idea pops up in my head. I smirk devilishly to myself as i took a note book and pen from my bag. Ripping off a small piece of paper and wrote a note on it.

“I’m horny give me attention”

Yeah that’ll do, i smirk to myself and crumbled the paper into a ball before throwing it over to her table. It bounces off her head and falls into her lap, she paused writing to give me a death glare but still picked up the paper. She opened up the paper and read it, her cheeks turned pink despite her skin colour. She still didn’t budge so i proceeded to send mental images of myself naked to her. Her blush got more intense with each image but she tried to play it off by rolling her eyes. Eventually she gave up and pulled her seat closer to mine

“Whatcha dooing?” I ask with an innocent smile on my face

“Nothing but am about to whoop your ass if you don’t behave”

“What did i do” i feign innocence

“You know that doesn’t work on me you little devil stop sending me dirty notes and images I’m trying to focus”

“I didn’t send you any dirty notes or send anything i just stated a fact in my note don’t blame me for where that smutty mind of yours takes you after you read my note that’s all on you”

“Is that so?”

“Yeah” i reply

She smiled at me before leaning over and i kid you not, she moaned erotically into my ear! I couldn’t believe it i was frozen for a few seconds as my brain rebooted itself to process what just happened. Not to mention little Dre immediately stood at attention like the good soldier he is. She fought to hold back a laugh seeing my reaction as she pulled her chair away but i grabbed on to it

“Uh uh you’re not going anywhere”

She smirked before saying out loud

“Mr harris may i please go to the bathroom”

“Are you finished with your work?” The teacher asks

“Yes i am sir”

“Bring it to me and you may go”

I thought she'd get up and go instead she leaned over closer than before and licked the path from my neck to my ear then nibbled on said ear before getting up grabbing her book and walked away. She placed the book on the teachers desk and gave me a wink before leaving the class.

"Uh Mr harris may i go to the bathroom as well" i say to the teacher

"No i only allow one person to leave my class at a time young man" he replies without looking up

Damn old geezer

"Hahaha, did i forget to mention that my science teacher is very strict" i heard cat's voice in my head as she laughed at me

"Have fun keeping your soldier down Dre. Oh and i wouldn't leave my chair if i were you" she laughs

Damn! She got me good

"I'll get you back for this you little minx"
