

Hell's Princess by Icon Chapter 9

Consequences

After Lucifer and the children left the whole pack was in shock they couldn't believe what had taken place the actual devil himself was at their pack going head to head with the arch angel.

But what really had 90% of the pack worried was that the girl they all either bullied and abused or ignored while she was being bullied and abused, is the daughter of the devil himself which means she's more powerful than them and could take her revenge at any given time or just ask her father to do it.

"Why is everyone just standing around in a daze don't y'all see the damn forest burning down get the fire under control NOW!!" Sylvia shouted

"Umm Mrs Lockwood" a small girl said raising her hand

"Yes dear" Sylvia replied

"A-are we gonna talk about what just happened?" She asked

"Yes we are because I need to know how long all of you have been bullying Catalaya Morningstar and don't think that because she stopped Lucifer from killing all of you it means your gonna get away with it; especially you"

she says pointing at noah who gulped then nodded

"yes ma'am"

he knew not to mess with his mother when she was angry and right now she is livid.

Noah's mind was in turmoil as his thoughts were all over the place he couldn't believe he almost died at the hands of his own sister and her friends. how had she gotten so strong without him noticing. Of course Freya had done a number on him wrapping her hand around his heart and all the painful cuts she gave him plus the onslaught of attacks he had to fend off from the rest of Alana's friends but it was Alana who immobilized him completely and introduced him to a world of pain he'd never seen before, though on the outside his injuries received from the others looked life threatening it was the injuries casted on his mind that did the most damage he would never forget the look on Alana's face or the words she told him as she tortured him mentally ripping away at his mind piece by piece. The physical wounds may have healed but the scars of the torture he endured will be permanent.

Never in his life had he anticipated something like this but then again he also wasn't expecting his mate to be the girl he bullied everyday or that she would run away and his sister and their friends would follow her but what he least expected of all was that his mate or rather ex-mate is the devil's child and he rejected her.

What is he going to do what if she only spared him so she could finish him off herself after all she must have powers being the devil's daughter and all.

"Wait what am I saying I'm a pure blood Angel for heaven's sake and the top warrior of my pack and she's just the same freak she's always been only difference now is that she's the devil's freak daughter why should I be afraid of her" he asked himself.

Shaking off his fear he went to the kitchen and took a bottle of water from the fridge the pack house and everything else have now been restored to its former glory thanks to his mother, his parents had also called a meeting which every single member must be in attendance and he knew he was in for one hell of a lecture.

When everything was back in place Sylvia told the pack members to enter the meeting hall and wait for her there, as they strolled in one by one she went to find her husband, sensing him in his office she headed in that direction.

Knocking on the door she walks in to see him sitting around his desk searching through a map

"What are you doing Gabriel the meeting is about to start" Sylvia says

"I need to find her Sylvia i need to find my daughter. I'm an angel and so is she i cannot allow her to live under the influences of the devil" Gabriel replies Scoffing Sylvia says "You know you are no better than the humans none of you want to take responsibility for your actions so you blame it on the devil. This is why our daughter left and our son is a failure as an angel. Alana has made her decision you wont find her leave the child alone. Look at you Gabriel you've fallen from grace, not enough to be kicked out of heaven but still you were one of the most respected angels in the silver city and you've thrown that all away just to get back at lucifer. The rebellion is over the apocalypse has come and gone, everyone had left lucifer alone he committed his crime and he got his punishment why are you so obsessed with him.

"HE IS THE DEVIL SYLVIA AS LONG AS HE'S ALIVE AS LONG AS HE HAS ACCESS TO EARTH PEOPLE WITH NEVER BE ABLE TO LIVE IN PEACE" Gabriel yells

"HUMAN NATURE IS WHY HUMANS WILL NEVER LIVE IN PEACE EVERYONE HAS DARKNESS IN SIDE OF THEM LUCIFER HAS PROVEN THAT TIME AND TIME AGAIN I MEAN HE'S THE PERFECT EXAMPLE. IF AN ANGEL CAN COMMIT A SIN THEN NONE OF US ARE PERFECT THAT IS WHAT HE'S SHOWING BUT NONE OF YOU SEE IT THAT WAY YOU ALL JUST WANT AN OUT FOR YOUR DISCREPANCIES" Sylvia tells him

“The moment that girl left I had a vision gabriel. Catalaya and our kids died in a car crash and Lucifer found out what happened, he declared war upon the whole world he lost control and destroyed the earth and the other realms killing us all. But all that was prevented by Catalaya I saw the way Lucifer looked at that girl and in all my years I have never seen him love anyone as much as he loved her you are too blind to see that she would be the one to bring out the best in him she is his saviour as well as ours”

“This is not lucifer’s fault gabriel its ours we failed our children and pack I was too busy going on missions and being a witch I forgot I was a parent so we have both failed and as a result our daughter has left and our son who is a candidate to take your place when you retire is known throughout all the realms as the bully who almost caused the demise of his own pack we are no longer the strongest and our allies are questioning whether or not to stick by us all we can do now is stay strong and accept the consequences of our actions and try to fix what we have broken.”

After she said her peace sylvia made her way to the meeting hall where the leaders of the clans waited for them, Gabriel following soon after. Seeing that everyone has arrived they made their way to the front and began the meeting to discuss the faith of their pack.

“Good afternoon everyone thank you for coming to this meeting I know you’re all still in shock of what happened today and those who weren’t here have heard parts of what occurred your leaders and I have called you all here to discuss what has been happening regarding Catalaya Morningstar and what took place earlier on today” Gabriel says

“We will also be discussing what the consequences of our actions are seeing as this is not something that will blow over after a couple of days” Sylvia piped in

“First of all we are aware that excluding a select few all of you have been bullying Catalaya it has also come to our attention that you forced her to do embarrassing things at school and that some teachers have even either punished her unfairly or spitefully messed with her academic achievements we also know of how the people who were supposed to be her family treated her like garbage that is excluding her brother Dominic” Sylvia continued

The crowd had a look of complete horror and surprise on their faces especially the teenagers they all knew what they had done and now their leaders did too and they were gonna be reprimanded for it severely especially noah.

Kind Adam stood up from his chair behind Gabriel and Sylvia as it was his turn to address the crowd.

“We your leaders have decided that you are all no longer fit to be apart of this pack because you have all forgotten what this pack was created for. You will all be sent back to the homelands of your species the hybrids will be going to the lands of all their species, for example if your a vampire/werewolf hybrid you will spend a part of your time with the vamps and the other part with the wolves. Those of you who your mates are of a different species will get a schedule as to when you will be allowed to see each other actually this applies whether or not you and your mate is of the same species and if any of you stray from the schedule you will be throw in Alcatraz. While you are away the pack will be temporarily disbanded as all of you will be going through rigorous training to learn what it means to be a pack”

Everyone gasped at this revelation they were not expecting this kind of punishment they will be away from their mates and they all know what kind of training goes on in their kingdoms when your in the lowest of ranks which is where they’ll be.

“While all this is happening you will also be required to continue school and work because you will be providing for yourselves and your families, everyone here knows how to do transportation spells excluding the werewolves they will be taught how to do this over the course of the Summer” Aiden says

“As for you Noah Lockwood”

Evangeline’s voice booms through out the room

“You are no longer a candidate for becoming the future Archangel this right has been stripped from you because you have been deemed unworthy of this candidacy also you will be required to train in all the kingdoms under a special regiment as well as attend school and work to provide for yourself because you will be living on your own. Seeing as you have no mate since you rejected Catalaya and jasmine is not your true mate or your second one at that the mark you placed on jasmine has been removed as it could kill her real mate. Lucifer has also asked that you stay away from his daughter.” She says

Renae then finished off with “all this will be in effect as soon as this meeting adjourns so i would suggest that after the meeting you all head to your homes and pack up your belongings then gather in groups based on your species the hybrids can decide which group they want to go with first and place themselves accordingly. Also a little note for the witches you will not be going to your kingdom Sylvia will be in charge of you all and you guys will be going to the Black forest. Meeting Adjourned!”

As the members of the pack left the hall to go gather their things they all now regret what they had done to Catalaya, well mostly because they are being punished. But what they aren’t aware of yet is that what they are about to go through will be unlike anything they have ever faced and this will either make or break them.

The leaders remained in the halls after everyone else left as they needed to discuss one final matter amongst themselves

“Really Sylvia the black forest? Isn’t that too dangerous for them?” Gabriel asks

"Then they'll just have to learn to work together to survive now wont they?" Sylvia retorted

"Besides i need as much time away from you as possible"

"Whatever you say, I'll be taking the angels back to the silver city"

"Oh you wont be doing anything of that sort brother or have you forgotten you're to be punished as well" a powerful voice says

Turning around surprised Gabriel spins onto someone, he looks up to see the one person he wished he would never see again.

"Hello Micheal" he says trying to hide the fear with distaste

In heaven there are seven Arch angels but there is one who governs over them all and that is the Head arch angel and heavens strongest warrior, Micheal. He had sent Gabriel to earth some many years ago to aid its inhabitants in the war against a great dark sorcerer who had killed one of the lesser gods of olympus to gain his power. The sorcerer greedy for more power started dabbling in the dark arts and killing other species and stealing their powers or enslaving them to fight for him. Normally angel's never involve themselves with the affairs of earth but when the threat became too much and entire species began disappearing they had to take action. It was then micheal tasked Gabriel with the mission of aiding earth in their war. When it was over Gabriel proposed the idea to micheal to create a pack with their allies so in order to have the strength necessary to fight incase history was to ever repeat itself. The proposal was a good one and so Micheal granted his request.

Sighing micheal says "I'm so disappointed in you Gabriel how could you have stooped so low she is an innocent girl how could you have done such a thing no matter what lucifer had done to you in the past his daughter has never caused you harm you have brought the name of angels to shame"

"All of you are so blind cant you see what is happening lucifer is procreating he's bringing more evil into the world with his demon spawns and yet I'm the one being reprimanded you are all fools and you will come to regret this action some day" gabriel yells

Casting a spell micheal cuffed him then turned to the others and say "I'll leave you to deal with this as you please and I'll be back for your decision as to whether you want to keep this pack intact or not, as well as to pick up the all the other angels for their punishment. They are young so they can repent and be saved, I'd like to also apologize on behalf of all the angels, Gabriel has truly brought shame upon us"

"Thank you Micheal and we have decided to keep the pack and once your charges have been reformed they are welcome to come back if they choose to" Cole says

After their brief meeting Micheal took Gabriel and the other angels to the silver city while the other leaders exited the hall to gather what they will need as well. This mission will be the most important they have ever carried out and its success or failure depends solely on their guidance.

When everything was set and all groups have gathered and everyone was accounted for the leaders got ready to depart heading to the group of their respective species. When Adam found his group a young man asked a question

“Mr waters how long is this punishment scheduled to last?”

Everyone murmured in wonder when the boy voiced his question seeing as no one had given them a time line as to when their punishment would be over

“Good question young man, as for the answer the timeline of your punishment depends on all of you when you have proven to us that have truly changed and that we can trust you then your punishment will be over and don’t think you can pretend we will know if you guys are truly ready or not” Adam reply

Frustrated groans could be heard throughout the whole group as Adam created a portal to his undersea kingdom of Atlantis.

Renaë who was the advocate on earth for her mate Zeus was in charge of the humans who had joined the pack due to mateship or being born from a bond between a supernatural being and a human seeing as their is no Demi god group because Merlin is the only one of his kind and he was under the protection of Lucifer. She decided to take her group to a navy base that her brother was in charge of.

“What better way to learn team work than to join the army” she thought

Aiden took the vampires back to new Orleans with him to endure a wrath they have never felt before.

All the faires went to the fairy king forest with Cole.

Sylvia took the witches to the black forest

Titus the king of werewolves took the wolves to his palace, by sunset everyone had already left.

Different species

Different leaders

Different locations

One thing they all have in common; they are in for a world of pain they have never known.
