

After losing her memory, she abandoned her husband who cheated on her.

Chapter 21 Not Satisfied with the Actress

The afternoon sunlight was warm. Hellen picked up the cup of coffee, took a sip, and stretched lazily.

A voice came from the TV in the cafe.

The host said, "Recently, Kenny Lee, the famous director, released a post on Twitter, announcing that the most classic martial arts novel in recent years, The Journey to the Moon, is about to be filmed. The main character of the show will be played by Natalie, the newly promoted actress, and Popular Karim"

Hellen held a cup of coffee and frowned.

She looked up at the TV not far away, on which were the makeup photos of the male and female lead.

Natalie smiled brightly and dressed in red, which was the dress of the female lead in Thousands of Miles.

"She could be the female lead?" Hellen licked her lips.

Her lips curled into a smile. Natalie was excitedly facing the interview on television.

The makeup and hair were exquisite and her smile was brighter than usual.

Recently, Hellen had read a lot of news about Natalie.

She used to be a D-list celebrity, but luckily, she was adopted by a rich man in Jena City. From then on, she became a lady.

Three years after she was adopted, the rich man died suddenly, and Natalie inherited thousands of assets and studied abroad.

After coming back, her resources had soared, and recently she had been especially popular.

Hellen's fingers swirled around her neck as she narrowed her eyes.

Her resources must have been secretly provided by her ex-husband.

Since she had lost her memory, she didn't want to argue with the adulterous couple anymore. However, she felt disgusted to have Natalie play the role of her female lead.

Hellen picked up her phone and made a call.

"I'm not satisfied with the female lead. Yes, I must change her."

The sun shines on Hellen's face through the glass. Her skin was so white that it seemed to be shining, and her black eyes looked amber under the sunlight.

Hellen said absent-mindedly, "Can't change? You can't film this drama anymore."

On the other side of the line, Kenny's voice sounded helpless. "Don't! Change! I'll change right away!"

Hellen laughed and politely said, "OK, I'll invite you to dinner when I have time."

Kenny said, "I haven't seen you yet. You are too polite."

He was an honorary director who held major awards. He was in his forties and met Hellen on the Internet by chance. They got along well with each other.

But they never met each other in reality.

In the early years, Hellen loved reading martial arts novels, but there were not many excellent martial arts novels in recent years, so she was in the mood to write them herself.

In a few years, "Thousands of Miles" had become one of the martial arts classics. Everyone thought that the author was a middle-aged man with a life full of vicissitudes.

Hellen didn't want others to know her identity, so she didn't refute it. Except for Kenny, no one else in the world knew her identity.

Star Media -

When Natalie returned from her interview, she saw the director and male lead discussing something with each other.

She walked to Kenny with a smile and sat down beside him. "Director-"

She wanted to have a good relationship with him.

Although it was rumored that Director Lee had a strange temper, she could tolerate it based on his ability to win awards.

Kenny looked back and said coldly, "Miss Susan, I have something to inform you."

"What?"

"The heroine may be replaced."

Natalie stood up. "What?"

She had just finished the interview in high spirits, and now someone else had taken her place?!

Wasn't this a slap in her face?

"Why?"

Kenny's attitude was cold. "It's the request of the author of Thousands of Miles."

"Author? Bobby?" Natalie was shocked. "Does he have the right to decide the male and female lead?"

Kenny didn't like Natalie at all, but the Grant Group was the biggest investor in this drama. And because they recommended Natalie, he reluctantly agreed.

Now that he could replace her role, he was in a much better mood. "Bobby is our business partner. He said that if we don't change the heroine, he will cancel the cooperation."

If they couldn't reach an agreement on the patent, he wouldn't even be able to shoot the drama!

In comparison, even if the Grant Group withdrew funds, he had to change the heroine!

Natalie gritted her teeth and said, "Now that the entire internet has been announced, are you trying to make a fool of me on purpose?"

Unfortunately, her protest was invalid. Kenny and Karim left.

The manager held Natalie's hand and told her not to catch up.

"It's no use looking for Director Lee. He's the general director of the entertainment industry. Don't offend him! He's not the one who wants to change you!"

Natalie clutched her hands. "If they don't let me be the female lead, don't even think about filming properly! I will ask Hans to withdraw his investment. I want to see how they're going to film without money!"

The manager wanted to say something but stopped on second thought.

The Grant Group's investment in this drama would bring huge benefits.

Natalie was recommended just by the way.

Mr. Grant might not agree to withdraw the investment...

The Jovano family -

During these three days, Hellen's makeup became famous online and her fans increased exponentially.

She had set up a studio on the first floor of her house and Luz would come every afternoon.

Hellen smiles brilliantly at the camera: "After going through everyone's strong request, today I'll teach you how to make up for your first love."

Netizens had seen the makeup change. After being amazed by her craftsmanship, a large number of people began to want to learn daily makeup.

As for this first love makeup, it required the feeling of first love and youth.

Luz was carrying a professional camera. Under the super-clear camera, Hellen's face could already see the smallest fuzz, but she was still pretty.

He adjusted the angle, turned on the light, stared at the person on the screen in the best shooting state, and was infatuated.

Hellen was twenty-four years old, but she only looked eighteen or nineteen.

Now that make-up was closer to the sense of youth. After putting on the makeup, she looked like a 16 or 17-year-old.

She teased Luz, "How am I? Do I have the feeling of first love?"

The young man blushed. "Yes."

His voice was so low that it sounded like he was guilty.

When they were done filming, Luz was editing and Hellen was sitting by the side, scrolling through the comments on her phone.

She lay paralyzed on the sofa, chewing an apple in her mouth.

Everyone had been very interested in the person who often talked to her.

Someone left a message asking if Luz was her boyfriend.

She replied straightforwardly, "No, he is my assistant, a handsome man."

Now, she had nearly a million fans. In addition to replying, she also found some negative comments.

-This really don't makeup usually relies on a special post process.

-I really don't understand why this woman became so popular so quickly. Are we all blind? Could she close her beauty and come out?"

Some were looking for trouble, while others were personal attacks.

Hellen sneered and didn't pay attention to them.

However, Luz saw them when he uploaded the video. He could not accept others attacking his goddess.

He immediately uploaded a lot of edited tidbits and high-definition versions of Hellen's makeup picture.

The quality was so high that her hair was clearly visible.

With the high-purity camera, Hellen's entire body was extremely beautiful, which made people unable to move their eyes.

The camera was put closer, and her skin was as delicate and smooth as jade.

Luz and Hellen didn't expect that as soon as this video was posted, it was directly on
