

Her Revenge 191

Chapter 191

“Don’t worry about them now, Lea rejected Jason.

She knew that Matilda would definitely find a place to hide and not be easily found since it concerned the lives of her and Helen.

They had already been forced to this extent. Even if they were alive, it would not be easy for them. They would suffer and be tortured. Lea was happy to see it happen

Moreover, she did not have the time and energy to care about these things. She wanted to focus on her enemies at Iverton,

If Matilda and Helen could really make a comeback, it would be even more satisfying if Lea destroyed them again then.

“Okay, Jason replied

However, he could tell that this matter had a huge impact on Lea’s emotions. Even her behavior had become strange.

She brought Yannis to the underground boxing arena every day to practice boxing. Her style was radical, and she seemed to be going on a rampage.

Alfred had an urgent business trip these few days and was not at Vaporleon City

At night. Jason sent a message to Alfred and told him about it

Alfred replied after a while, saying that he would be back as soon as possible. Jason could feel Alfred’s silence and contemplation.

Twelve o’clock in the evening, in the Vaporleon City underground boxing arena, the most exciting match began that night

On the stage, the competition had just begun when one side was beaten to the ground by a few punches and could not stand up

Such a simple, crude, and boring competition had already lasted for a few days.

After a while, loud cheers suddenly sounded in the entire venue. “Number one!”

again.

Everyone was excited.

It was true that the competition was boring, but they knew that the number one was very strong. Ever since he returned from his previous injury. he had never lost.

His opponents were getting stronger and stronger, but the duration of the competition was getting at a speed visible to the naked eye.

People saw potential and talent in him. This was truly inspiring. The audience had always been eager to see

He took the host's microphone. Seeing that he had something to say, the entire venue fell silent. "So far, I've accumulated 6 million dollars in prize money. No matter who it is, no matter where the opponent comes from, as long as they defeat me, the prize money will be theirs.

This news was no

was not only notified to the entire venue, but also to the underground boxing arena worldwide. He was challenging the entire world.

The crowd was in an uproar because of him.

He returned the microphone to the host and left the boxing ring.

Today's boxing was over, and the boxing arena was about to close, Lea and this man left at the same time.

Ever since she started going to the boxing arena, Jason had been following her like a tail.

Along with him was the champion instructor they had saved previously, Archer Parkinson. He was now a boxing coach of Yannis

The four of them got into the car. Jason drove. Lea sat in the passenger seat. The two of them sat in the back. "Is this really okay! You guys used that Archer was a traditional boxing champion coach. He was already sixty years old, it was very suspicious.

years old. This was within the rules of his hell A

– Although it was not

Lea was the first to speak. "As long as can stimulate the strength of the human body, all the boxers from Cirfan would use drugs and stimulants train Our medicine is safe and qualified There are no prohibitions. It's within the rules:

Archer was very reserved. "But what if it's outside the rule"

"Archer, you should know the market size of the underground boxing arena, right?" It was far more profitable than the regular boxing matches. How can you be sure that the background of the boxing champions in the past few years is as you think? Only if you can be a champion of both legal and illegal boxing matches can you be worthy of a real boxing champion. Every boxer in this field is doing whatever it takes to become stronger. This is the laws of nature, As for us, we just found a better breakthrough point. If there's a good way to evolve, why not use it?"

In her previous life, Milton became the richest man in the world. The bodyguards he recruited were the boxing champions and leaders of the underground boxing arena. Their power was comparable to any mercenary, even surpassing the army of a small country.

It was a coincidence for Lea to save Yannis. She wanted to build her own force in the boxing world. This would be one of her weapons for revenge

in the future

Her hope for Yannis was to win against all the boxers in the world, including those in the underground boxing arena. Only then could Yannis do what he wanted to do.

Yannis was thinking about how to answer Archer's question. Now, there was no need to think.

Jason looked at the little girl beside him in surprise. He thought, "She looks like an innocent young girl, however, at this moment, she looks like a ruler of both the legal and underworld, What kind of soul is contained in this body?"

Archer was even more shocked than them. Lea's words were like a sharp blade that cut through his inherent perceptions and concepts.

He looked at the young boxing genius beside him. There was a familiar aura on him, similar to the aura of the legendary boxing champions Archer had trained before. This was the real reason why he followed them unconditionally.

He thought of the death of the boxing Champion who won five years consecutively in the past. The reason behind his death was very complicated.

After a long silence, he looked at the little girl in front of him in surprise and admiration. He had been in the boxing world for so long, but his vision and insight were not as good as hers. The car braked and stopped by the side of the road.

The few of them looked out and saw a few employees carrying them off the road.

They threw a few boxers out of the back door of the boxing arena and throwing them to the side

They were all boxers who had lost to Yannis tonight. They were seriously injured and were lying on the ground, unable to get up.

This boxing arena was originally an underground arena. The lost boxers were no longer of any value to them. Staying for another moment was a waste of resources for them. There were a lot of opportunities in this place, and correspondingly, it was also very cruel

Jason asked. "Miss Berry, shall we... take them back with us?"

Lea turned to look at him. Her gaze seemed to be saying, "Do you need me to tell you?"

Jason silently drove the car over. During this period of time, they had been able to pick up boxers every night. Sometimes one, sometimes two or three.

Those who could go on stage and lose to Yannis were all capable.

These people were picked up and treated. Then, they were given some medicine and trained by Yannis and Archer. After that, they would become elites who could defeat several ordinary men alone.

They had no background to begin with. Now that they were in such a situation and had nowhere to go, Lea gave them a job as bodyguards. They could not ask for more, so they obediently worked for her.

Jason suspected that this was the reason why she brought Yauinis to participate in boxing matches every day.

He packed them up in the car and drove back to the hospital.

The next morning, Archer received a message from the boxing ring. He was now both Yauinis's coach and his manager.

Then came to the boxing arena. One was from Westarads of Greta and the other was from Hastresh of Aetheris. They were very famous in the underground boxing arena and were ranked in the top 30 in the underground boxing arena world, this ranking was regarded as a god-like

Tron Fist Killer. Many famous boxers had opponents. Our provocation in the underground boxing arena for so long was not in vain" The commens of Lea's Archer was originally quite nervous. After all, the opponents Yannis had faced before were all from Vaporleon Cay. They were mostly.

However, it did not prove that Yannis would be able to beat every boxer in the world.

Hearing her words, Archer was no longer nervous.

Yannis was not nervous, only excited.

With the help of the medicine and the devilish training, not only did his strength increase, but his confidence also increased.

He needed a powerful opponent to prove his strength.

At ten o'clock in the evening, the match in the boxing ring began.

Tonight, the entire venue was packed, and the ticket price had increased by more than five times.

The black Mercedes-Benz business car drove to the entrance of the boxing arena

"I go first. The few of them looked at Lea in unison. Shannon came with them tonight.

Everyone stared at her and wondered what she meant by that

Chapter 192

Lea turned to Archer. "Call the staff and tell them that someone will go before number one.

As she spoke, she took off her windbreaker. Inside was a black boxing suit. Then, she took out a mask and put it on.

Everyone originally thought that she was dressed a little strangely today. It was such a hot day, but she was still herself from head to toe. Her hair was tied up on the top of her head, and she was meticulous, wearing a windbreaker that covered

"Miss Lea Berry, you, you Archer was so excited that he couldn't even speak clearly. The other three were also stunned.

“Don’t you know how to make a phone call?” Lea’s tone was cold and powerful.

“No, it’s not...” In the end, Archer made the call somehow. In any case, it was arranged.

Other than Lea, the group of people were still sunned when they entered the arena.

These two powerful boxers were here to challenge Yannis. They didn’t mind using the appetizer before the main dish.

others to

to practice before defeating him. They treated Lea like.

The first to go on stage was a boxer from Westarads. His ranking was higher than the other ones.

As soon as he appeared, the audience erupted. The audience’s shouts almost overturned the dome. A few fans went crazy and wanted to climb onto the stage to worship him, but they were stopped by the bodyguards at the scene. However, in the next second, the entire place fell silent....

A petite figure, quite tall, walked onto the stage and stood at the other end of the boxing ring.

She was wearing a tight-fitting boxing suit, revealing the woman’s graceful figure. She appeared very hot.

She wore a purple fox mask on her face. Her red lips were like fire, and her skin was smooth. She was sexy and elegant, mysterious and noble.

Why is it a woman?”

an?” After a while, someone below the stage exclaimed.

A person said. “She’s definitely a beauty. I really want to see her face!”

Another person. “A woman actually dares to enter such a boxing ring, is she ignorant or has some ability?”

Someone else said, “She’s good-looking. She should look better in a fight. Hurry up and fight Shannon, Jason, Archer, and Yannis were waiting in the preparation room.

The few of them stared at the person on the stage. They still couldn’t believe the person

standing on the stage was Lea

She was too different from her usual appearance. If they didn’t know that it was her, they wouldn’t have been able to tell that she was Lea

On the stage, Lea ignored the clamor below the stage. Her gem-like eyes under the mask emitted penetrating power as she glanced at her opponent.

She thought, “Not bad, this man seems man secinas strong.

She looked at the judge, who was still in a daze, and gave him a look. Only then did he come back to his senses. Then he looked at the other boxer.

The other party was still in shock and even felt offended, but Lea was really too beautiful, so he felt balanced,

The referee signaled for the match to begin, and the entire venue fell silent.

the neo boxers took their positions. He took a deep breath and was about to whistle.

“Wait!” A magnetic voice sounded. Unknowingly, people could not help but listen to him.

A man walked over from the darkness. He was wearing a black silk shirt, black pants, and a silver wolf mask that completely covered his face. His figure was tall and slender, handsome and elegant, just his figure was enough to make the female audience tall head over heels for him

He walked straight up the stage and stood in front of Lea, reaching out to her.

“Hang?” Lea punched his chest. The wind from the janitor made his clothes flutter. It was obvious that she was quite strong and her punch was very

The man took two punches from her and stood on the spot without moving

Under the mask, Lea frowned. She thought. ‘Good lord, he is a professional. Then let’s fight!’

She turned around, hooked her left hand around his neck, and punched him with her right fist. Her body suddenly became light, and he carried her on his shoulder.

Lea was shocked. She grabbed

neck with

with both hands. If she wanted to twist it, she would definitely be able to break his neck “Alfred?” She suddenly retracted her hands and wrapped them around his neck.

She knew him too well so she recognized him.

Lea thought. “Why is he is he here?

What is he doing?”

Then, carrying her on his shoulder, he got out of the boxing ring and headed for the passageway, leaving directly. No one dared to stop him since he had already made arrangements.

This is kidnapping? In the preparation room, Shannon covered her mouth in shock.

Yannis was about to rush out when he heard that.

Jason stopped him. It’s Alfred”

Before he came in, Lea said that she wanted to go on stage. Jason was worried, so he sent a message to Alfred,

However, he did not expect Alfred to suddenly appear and carry her away.

He thought. When did Alfred reply to Vaporleon City Even I didn't know

Shannon and the others were also confused.

Archer patted Yannis. "It's your turn.

The audience did not know what had happened and were collectively dumbfounded

However, Number One quickly went on stage, so everyone's emotions were not affected

Alfred carried Lea out and stuffed her into his car. He drove a black Cullinan and it took him a long time to come back.

He got in the car, took the mask off his face, tossed it aside, and drove away.

Lea took off her mask and hooked it to her headband. Her long black hair loosened and poured down.

She looked out of the window and realized that the car was already on the highway. It was going as fast as it could.

She had wanted to tell him to let her go back and fight a couple of rounds since this was a rare opportunity. She had put in a lot of effort for these boxers to come

However, he saw Alfred's expression was dark as he looked straight ahead. His deep and vast eyes seemed to contain a huge storm. Ever since she was reborn, she had never seen him look so serious and terrifying that something big must have happened. She sat obediently in the passenger seat,

She realized

The car drove too fast. In less than ten minutes, they arrived at the lakeside villa.

Alfred got out of the car and went straight to the lobby.

The floor had a smart lock. It opened with his face ID, and the lights automatically turned on. Lea took her mask and followed him in.

Der sour was geile and full of concern as she asked, "Alford, what happened?"

Alfred suddenly turned around the subconsciously stepped back and leaned against the sour behind her.

Allied took a step forward. His eyes were fixed as he looked down at her. His gaze was restrained and turbulent. "What happened to your child

She suddenly looked up at him, her pupils dilated, and he was greatly shocked

Too many memories rushed into her mind uncontrollably. Her head felt like it was about to explode. She grabbed her hair tightly and covered her head.

“Please let my child go and don’t hurt him H

Helen, I’m begging you! Helen, no!!

The child’s cries stopped abruptly with a bang.

Blood seeped out from under the bag, staining Lea’s eyes red.

She screamed and suddenly rushed forward, sweeping away all the items on the table. All the expensive utensils and treasures in Alfred’s collection fell to the ground and shattered into pieces.

She grabbed the edge of the table and heaved. The heavy log table crashed to the i floor.

She had gone mad and wanted to destroy everything.

“Leaf Alfred rushed forward and hugged her tightly. Tim here! I’m here, I’m...* ”

His eyes were red and his voice was hoarse. Tears welled up uncontrollably.

Lea, who was imprisoned heard the voice and slowly raised her head. When she saw that it was him, her consciousness was regained and she collapsed in his arms.

Chapter 193

Although she was awake, her consciousness was still blurry.

In the middle of the night, Lea woke up once. Although she was

As soon as she saw Alfred, she hugged him and kept apologizing. Tm sorry, I’m sorry. I couldn’t protect our child. I’m sorry. I’m sorry. I deserve to die. He was still so young. He was definitely scared. I’m going to accompany him...

She suddenly pushed him away jumped off the bed, and slammed into the wall,

When the child died, she almost died d with him.

However, she was

was unwilling to give up, so she survived

“Leal” Alfred shouted in shock. The moment she hit the wall, he knocked her unconscious and carried her back to the bed,

The tears in his eyes fell on her face. He wiped them with his thumb, his heart aching

He thought. It turns out that she knows everything. She knows everything about her previous life.

Lea woke up a few more times in between. Her mind was in a state of breakdown and chaos. She either went to look for the child hysterically or kept shouting, “Please lei my child go. Don’t hurt him. Baby, Mommy misses you. I’ll come for you, okay? Alfred, no! No, I’m not worth it...

It was not unnl the third day that Lea completely woke up.

She slowly opened her eyes. The light in front of her was as painful as a knife. In a blur, she saw Alfred guarding the bed. She endured the pain and did not close her eyes

When she saw his face clearly, she sat up immediately. "Alfred! What happened to your

She lunged forward and reached out to touch his face. Her hand froze beside his, unable to fall

There were many scratches on Alfred's face. His eyes were red and swollen, and his face was pale. He had lost a lot of weight and looked tired and haggard.

Her hands were wrapped in gauze and her fingers were still swollen was as if he had been locked up and tortured for three days. He had completely lost his human form.

"Lea..." Alfred pinched her fingertips and pulled her into his arms. He held her back tightly and rubbed it against his chest.

The wound on his palm split open and blood seeped out, but he didn't seem to feel any pain. His throat was so hoarse as if it was filled with glass shards.

Three nights ago, she broke a lot of glassware. Afraid that she would get hurt, he carried her away in time, but his palm was full of glass.

Over the past few days, she had woken up several times in a row. Every time, she seemed to have gone crazy and was very strong,

In order to protect her, he was injured every time and even guarded her at all times. He did not even dare to blink.

Lea listened to his voice and felt his embrace. Her throat was blocked, and her swollen eyes were filled with tears. As soon as she took a breath, she smelled blood.

She realized that the wound on his hand was bleeding again.

She sobbed silently and wrapped her arms around him, burying her face in his shoulders and neck.

as something hidden in his eyes.

Le realized that it was not a coincidence that he appeared upstairs to save her at Christian's birthday bouquet right after she was reborn. He had come for her purposefully.

He had suddenly made her his girlfriend. He had spent a huge sum the sum of money to help her establish the hospital. He would always appear by her side when she was in danger, helping her and protecting her.

He even brought her to see his grandfather and gave her that crown, just like in his previous life. At the thought of this, she felt suffocated and

She looked up, tears streaming down her face. She had to sur

When she spoke, her voice was so hoarse that it sounded like she had sand in her mouth. "But Alfred, in your previous life, I caused you to end up like that. You lost everything and even lost your life. You finally got rid of me. Why did you come back for me?"

She hugged him tightly, but she hoped that he had never met her in his previous life or this life. Instead, she wished that he could meet a better woman who would love him, so they could have a happy ending,

"Fool!" Alfred raised his hand to cover the back of her head. The blood on his hand stained her hair. "I love you. You have no idea how much I love

His throat was badly injured. If he spoke too much, the smell of blood would surge up, but his feelings for Lea were deepened.

He had been guarding her side for three days. His mind was no longer clear. Every word and sentence came from the bottom of his heart. IEL watch you die, I'll wish I was dead. I've never regretted what happened in my previous life! I only hate myself for not being strong enough to protect you, and....

He wanted to say the child, but he didn't dare mention the child again.

Three nights ago, it was also because he mentioned the child that she broke down and fainted. She woke up at night and was about to commit suicide to look for her child.

He was really afraid. If he didn't mention it, Lea didn't even remember telling him about the child

She stood up in disbelief and distanced herself from Alfred. She looked into his eyes and understood everything.

Her heart ached so much that it was about to shatter.

She cupped his cheek. "I love you, too. Really, really..!"

The emotions buried deep in her heart stirred, and like magma erupting, she raised her head and kissed him.

Alfred had long lost control of his emotions. At this moment, he could not care less about the injuries on his hands and body. He held the back of her head and kissed her back deeply. Their love was like a tsunami, surging and lingering.

The two of them stayed in the villa for three days and chatted about some private matters.

Alfred told her that he had been reborn two years ago.

In his previous life, he had passed away two years before her

Lea did not tell

It him what happened after he passed away. She could not bear to. Neither of them mentioned anything about the child.

On the fourth day, Alfred received a message about a very important client looking for Dr. Berry.

Lea packed up

the hospital

It was Alfred who drove her there. He followed her to the hospital to settle some matters.

Jason was her driver and temporary assistant. He charged her phone and gave it to her, "Christian called. I said you were on a business trip.

She was stunned for a moment before nodding

Her phone was switched back on. There were many text messages and missed calls. Some were from Lorrain, some were from Charles, and some were from Chris. They were all work-related. Some were from Christian.

However, Jason also received a call from Christian that night. When he found out that Lea was with Alfred, he lied Alfred, he lied that she was on a business trip.

She called Christian back and said that she was back from a business trip. She was at the hospital now and asked about his situation. He was also dealing with the company's matters. They were all daily matters, so she hung up.

Shannon and Yannis were worried about her since she was suddenly taken away by Alfred for a few days, so they messaged her too.

However, a few days ago. Allied personally called them back, so they were no longer worried.

The next time they were also in the hospital, so she met with them.

"Are you injured?" Yannis asked as he stared at the mark on

Lea was stunned and her cheeks heated up around her neck. His expression was alert

Chapter 194

It was mid-August, and the summer had just passed. The weather was slightly cold, so Lea specially wore a long-sleeved dress to hide the marks on her body. She even applied a lot of powder to hide it, but her neck was still discovered.

When Shannon heard this, she also became worried. "Lea, did something happen!"

Lea couldn't help but cover her neck. In both her past and present lives, she had already lived for nearly thirty years. In her heart, she was already thirty years old. In front of these two young people who had just reached adulthood, she was still relatively calm. "It's fine. I'll get back to work."

She went to look for Lorrain.

Shannon and Yannis stood where they were.

very worried.

Chris, who was at the back, could not take it anymore. She came forward and reminded them. “Miss Berry is an adult with a boyfriend, You two are single. You should worry about yourselves.

As she spoke, she was very happy. She had seen Alfred’s sincerity towards Lea, and her heart ached for him.

Lea was the only person Chris had ever met who was worthy of Alfred,

She was genuinely happy that their relationship had made a breakthrough.

Lea had not contacted Chris for the past week. She had not replied to her messages. This was something that had never happened before. Lea had always prioritized her work,

In the past, when she was preparing for the SAT, she would still take the time to take care of the hospital’s scientific research projects and operations, Lea would often go to bed in the middle of the night and get up to work before dawn.

On the

he first night, Chris also thought that something had happened. When she found out from Jason that Alfred had brought Lea to his private villa, she immediately understood. Judging from the current situation, Lea was already Alfred’s wife.

Other than her, Jason, Craig Allen, and Eddie also knew about this.

In the past, they had thought that there was something wrong with Alfred’s method of wooing his girlfriend. However, he suddenly successfully found a girlfriend. They could not figure it out no matter how hard they thought about it.

Shannon’s face immediately turned red. “I’ll go work on the code.

After she left, Yannis finally reacted. I am going to practice boxing...”

Lea came to Lorrard’s office. He was waiting for her.

It turned out that a national leader of Crefan had been assassinated. He was seriously injured and no one could treat him. He contacted the hospital and asked Dr. Berry to treat him.

Lea asked for all the information about this leader.

Alfred returned to his office first. Craig and Eddie were on standby in his office.

The two of them were shocked to see Alfred. “Mr. Alfred, why are you so badly injured?”

| Craig was flinched and panicked. His entire body tensed up, ready to attack,

Eddie stared at Alfred and sized him up, sighing in Alfred had a band-aid on the left side of his face, the bridge of his nose, and some marks on his right cheek. There was also a scar on the corner of his mouth.

Alfred had always liked to wear than clothes. In this season, he rarely wore a suit and jacket, but now he was so well-dressed. All the signs were

Alfred smiled playfully at Craig. His face was filled with pride. "A single person like you doesn't deserve such a medal?"

Craig was so confused.

Alfred flipped through the documents on the table and said to Eddie, "You can handle these yourself. If you really can't handle them, you can loo for Chris to discuss. If you still can't handle them, hand them to me"

Eddie was shocked. This was beyond his ability and authority. Alfred was giving hi power again. It was also nurturing Chris in a way.

Eddie thought, There is actually someone who can do this in a romantic relationship? Moreover, it is happening to Alfred. In the past two month before he met Miss Lea Berry, I thought that he would be single for the rest of his life.

He obeyed. "Yes, Mr. Alfred.

With that, Alfred turned around and left.

Suddenly, she felt a weight on her shoulder. Alfred's voice rang in her ears. "Follow your heart's decision. If you don't want to go, reject it. Leave any problem to me."

Holding her s

shoulders, he walked to her and sat down. He tugged at his tie wantonly.

Lea looked up and saw this on his exposed collarbone, there were hickeys, scratches, and bruises. She thought of Shannon and Yannis asking her about her injury, and her face instantly turned red. It was so hot that she could not breathe.

She subconsciously turned her face away, not daring to look.

Although she had even given birth to a child in her previous life, this was the first time such a thing had happened. Her heart was fluctuating. Even someone as strong as her could not control it well.

“Lea. Alfred held her chin and made her look at him. “You are distracted while dealing with such an important decision.”

Lea felt speechless.

“Alfred.” She looked up with a calm expression in her gentle eyes. “Who was the one who slept for the entire day yesterday and couldn’t even be bothered to get up to cat? Who was the one who trembled even when drinking water”

Previously, she had hidden the secret of her rebirth like an inexperienced inle girl. Now that the two of them knew the secret of their rebirth, she did not hide it anymore. The temperament and aura she exuded were evenly matched with him

Alfred laughed. He loved to see her calm and elegant look while having a blushed face.

“That’s really not any level. We can try i

As De Berry, it was her duty to do her best to treat the injured.

There were less than ten days left before she left for school. There was just enough time.

Alfred nodded. "Alright, I'll go with you.

Saving people was like putting out a fire. The hospital arranged for a medical team, including Lorrard, Lea, Yannis

Alfred brought Craig and Eddie along with a few powerful bodyguards

The client immediately called a private plane for them to fly to Crefan.

In Alfred's office, there was a dedicated dressing room for Lea. She was changing her clothes, packing her things, and preparing to leave

She buttoned her shirt and accidentally scratched her neck. She hissed in pain.

Alfred came forward and gently pulled up her shirt. When he saw the hickeys left thehind him his heart ached and his eyes burned.

"Wear this. Chris just sent it over." As he spoke, he took a shirt that had yet to be unwrapped. This texture is very soft and comfortable to wear?

As he spoke, he had already removed the seal and personally helped her change into it. The soft cloth stuck to her skin, making her feel extremely comfortable.

Lea asked. "When did you ask Chris to prepare it?"

"When we went out in the morning," Alfred said. He pulled her long hair out of her collar, went to the front of her, and buttoned her up.

Lea rested her forehead on his chin. "I will always be in your palm."

“Yes, you’re my everything.” he said with a smile and lowered his head to kiss her. Just as he continued, Lea reminded him in a hoarse voice, “We have to take off immediately” Alfred’s hand covered her slender and soft neck. “Okay”

“Since we are going to Crefan this time. I’ve also arranged for this to be your graduation trip. In other words, the two of them could go on a trip and be alone.

“Alright, Lea agreed wholeheartedly. “I also want to travel and experience life with you.”

“Alright, I’ll leave it to you.

Lea blushed again...

Lea took the time to call Christian again. She said that something had happened at the hospital and that she would be going overseas for a few days. She would keep in touch with him by phone.

Christian felt very upset. For some reason, he felt that Lea was growing apart from him. He was still waiting to have dinner with her tonight, Victor Inder comforted him. “Lea is young, yet she has to run such a huge company. It’s normal for her to go on a business trip for a few days. In the past, warn you were on a business trip, you would be gone for a year or wat

Victor added, “Don’t you have a lot of work in deal with When you’re done, Miss Lea Berry will be back.”

Only then did Christian quickly return to his work

At the end of August and the beginning of September, it was the start of school season. The universities in Iverton became crowded.

The most exciting thing was the opening of Conrad University. Another batch of geniuses surged into this elite academia, creating history and changing the world.

Even if she couldn’t cure him, she had to face it head-on:

As a doctor, especially a top-notch surgeon, the risk of every surgery was very high. A patient of this level could be said to have a slim chance of Lea didn’t worry about whether she could succeed. She only cared about saving a life.

There were less than ten days left before she left for school. There was just enough time.

Chapter 195

“Maybe he’s here on behalf of the Andrews family, Abigail mumbled. Her mind was already occupied by other thoughts.

She had a bold guess in her heart, which was that Alfred was there for today’s most outstanding person.

She lowered her head and looked at her palm. At some point, the paper in her hand had already been crumpled into a ball. She hurriedly opened it and stared at it.

However, she was too excited and could not see the words clearly

When Rita saw this, she immediately became excited. “Abigail, you will go up and speak on behalf of the freshmen later. Mr. Alfred will definitely see your beautiful demeanor

Beatrice echoed, “That’s right, Abigail. You’re so outstanding and beautiful, and you’re the representative of this year’s freshmen at Conrad University. No one here can compare to you, Mr. Alfred will definitely see you.”

In other words, she meant that Alfred would be stunned by her and naturally have further interactions with her.

Abigail felt that only someone like her with her family background was worthy of being Alfred’s wife.

Rita and Beatrice’s words were exactly what Abigail was thinking. She was even more excited and confident. She felt that she was determined to get Alfred. She tried to calm herself down and once again recited the speech.

Fortunately, when she was at home, her mother had already hired the most professional public speaker to guide her and conducted countless rehearsals.

In a while, she felt that she would definitely be perfect at her speech. The opening ceremony soon began.

The ceremony was hosted by the head of the marketing department. The president of the university, John Brooks, who was in poor health, also made an unprecedented speech.

After the representatives of the guests finished speaking, the host went on stage. Next, it was time for the student representative to speak.

Abigail put the speech into her bag and folded her hands on her thighs. She secretly twisted them together and held her breath as she waited for the host to call her name.

The host said confidently. You guys are the most outstanding freshmen of this year. The fact that you’re sitting here already proves your talent and hard work. Among you there’s one who performed the best. She got first place. Now, let’s welcome the genius top student, who is both beautiful and intelligent, and the student representative. .

Abigail immediately stood up.

The host added, “Miss Lea Berry!”

These words were like a bolt of lightning that froze Abigail on the spot.

Chapter 196

A young girl walked over from the side of the red carpet.

She had a long high ponytail, a white T-shirt with green stripes, shorts, long white socks, and sneakers. Her facial features were exquisite like a painting, and her skin was so smooth that it reflected light. She was pure, sweet, and high-spirited.

All the students were attracted by her appearance and temperament. The entire venue was silent. ed to Lea calmly walked to the rostrum and saw Abigail standing between the seats.

Everyone was sitting and she was standing. She stood out like a crane in a flock of chickens. There was no way Lea couldn't see her.

Her eyes turned dark, and there was an undercurrent in her eyes. Her hands, which were naturally hanging by her sides, subconsciously clenched

After being reborn, this was the second time she had seen Abigail. However, she still could not control her emotions. The hatred in her heart surged and burned her internal organs until they were unbearable.

Lea turned her gaze and saw Alfred in the middle of the first row. She was stunned and her gaze softened. She suppressed the anger in her heart.

She looked up and smiled at Abigail. "Miss, what's the matter?"

Lea naturally knew why Abigail stood up. Looking at her chestnut-colored princess hairstyle, sparkling and luxurious diamond hair clip, carefully outlined eyebrows, and pink lips, she was so exquisite that there was not a single flaw on her. Even the school uniform she was wearing had been modified, making her figure look graceful and charming.

Abigail planned to show off at the opening ceremony and become the best among new students. She might even become the best in the entire Conrad University in the future,

Lea also knew that Abigail was speaking on behalf of the new students, so she agreed when John asked if she wanted to speak on behalf of the new students and intercepted Abigail's plan.

She thought, Abigail, the more you want something, the more I will not let you have it'

"I..." Abigail's brain was muddled by the bombardment and she had already lost the ability to speak

Since the last time they met, Lea had become her concern. Now, she had become a thorn in her heart

Abigail thought. What is she doing here? Why? The last time I paid attention to Lea, she was not in Conrad University's admission information system. I was clearly the first place. The school has clearly arranged for me to speak as the freshman representative. How did that happen!!

"What did you say?" Lea looked at her pale face and purposely teased her.

Abigail really wanted to ask all the questions in her heart, but in such an occasion, especially since Alfred was still around, she knew that Conrad Univeruly would not make a mistake, so Abigail said, "L... don't feel well....."

Lea thought, You don't feel well? Very well:

She unded "Do you want to go to the washroom?,"

Everyone burst into laughter.

Abigail's face turned green

Perviously, she had imagined herself to be as perfect and glamorous in front of everyone. Now, she has become the laughingstock of everyone.

She could only hate the bullet and sit back down, her heart already exploding with anger.

"Why is she here?" Hita's face was pale as she whispered to Abigail.

in a good mood after embarrassing Abigail. Looking at the rager young boys below the stage and Alfred who was looking at her, the blood in her body heated up and she became called

She thought. 'It turns out that this is the feeling of achieving my university dream. In my previous life, I had dreamed of it. From now on my dream and my life will have a new beginning. It is beautiful

She began to speak, genuinely witty and humorous, winning bursts of enthusiastic applause.

Among the students of the School of Computer Science and Information Technology, Shannon clapped like a seal without stopping.

She thought. As expected of Lea. She has ever done the speech so well. The freshmen are already excited and wish they could immediately go and explore the world'

Yannis, who was sitting beside her, felt speechless.

He was a bad student. His natural way of thinking was determined innately.

Before the Sanders family was in trouble, he had a tutor to tutor him. Later on, he focused on boxing. He felt that school life was destined to be unrelated to his life.

Shannon knew about his situation and specially brought him a school uniform to experience this kind of life.

He felt strangled to death since the clothes didn't fit.

Lea's speech made him excited. He wanted to do boxing, and his hands were itchy to the point that he could not control them.

After the opening ceremony ended, Lea snuck out of the side door of the school and saw the black Cullinan waiting at the side.

She opened the car door and got into the passenger seat. She leaned closer to Alfred. "Why are you here?"

want to see you as soon as possible. Therefore, for the first time, he represented Andrews Group to attend this opening ceremony,

He turned around, covered her little head, and kissed her. It was very sweet. He kissed her again.

"Didn't we just meet last night?" she whispered. Her red lips that had been kissed were bright and moist, and her exquisite facial features became delicate again.

They had just rushed edback from Crefan yesterday. The plane had arrived at Iverton at night

"We won't be seeing each other for the next few days since your school has a plan for you." Alfred rubbed the corner of her lips. He was already starting to feel reluctant.

Lea was us touched. Alfred fastened her seatbelt and the car drove away.

An hour later, the car arrived at the West District of Iverton and stopped in front of a building.

"Let's go take a look" Alfred got out of the car first out of the car and followed him into the building. They took the elevator to the top floor of the building

Lea got out of

The building was 20 stories high and could overlook the entire district

There were more than ten buildings in the area, and most of them were below the tenth floor. The layout was reasonable and orderly.

Under the clear sky, rows of high-rise buildings spread in all directions. The Inge Iverton was like the sea, boundless.

An idea flashed through her mind, and she couldn't help but ask, "What is this?"

Alfred hugged her from behind and lowered his head to rest his chin on her shoulder. "It's my gift for you to enter the college?"

She was stunned. She thought, "Didn't he give me a gift along with my birthday present?"

gift for you to find a boyfriend. It's also a gift for me to have my girlfriend. There was great satisfaction in Alfred's pleasant voice.

She smiled. "Mr. Alfred, congratulations?"

"Congratulations, Miss Berry!"

A wave of excitement surged in her hand. She looked up and saw two small buildings surrounded at the corner of the area. 'Do those two buildings belong to Fraley Group?' she asked.

Yes, from now on, this will be the Iverton branch of Riverview Hospital.

Although she had already guessed it, she still felt excited.

After taking down Fraley Group, she saw those two buildings on her asset list,

They were were bought ten years ago by Nixon and Matilda. They originally planned to open a branch of Fraley Hospital in Iverton.

If there were no accidents, they would be able to open a hospital here recently. Lea felt that these two people were capable and ambitious.

She also wanted to bring Riverview Hospital to Iverton. When she saw these two buildings, she had an idea. According to her plan, it would take at least half a year. Unexpectedly, it was achieved as soon as school started.

Moreover, the scale was something that she did not even dare to think about previously. Alfred's plan and arrangements were exactly as she had thought.

Lea asked. "When did you buy these buildings? It cost you a fortune, didn't it?"

More than a month ago, when you were planning to buy Fraley Group, I sold a building in downtown Iverton. There was still money left over to buy mechanical equipment."

In the past two years, the price of real estate had skyrocketed. The price of buildings in Iverton was rising every day. Those buildings downtown were even priceless. A building was worth billions of dollars.

The district they were in was relatively new, and the buildings there were not special. The price was less than one-tenth of the building that Alfred sold.

However, Lea knew that in a few years, the price of these buildings could double several times.

Moreover, the geographical location of this building was very good. The surrounding roads and subways were well-built. It was her first choice of address to build a hospital. Lea thought about it and understood.

The Andrews family did not have a good-for-nothing. Alfred was a genius among geniuses. His business talent was astonishing. Since he had the opportunity to be reborn, it was easy for him to earn money.

She thought. "No wonder I had the feeling from the beginning that he had endless money to spend.

Knowing what she was thinking, she was thinking. Alfred held her hand lovingly and said, "Do whatever you want. I have plenty of money."

“Yes” Lea smiled contentedly. “I realized that having a rich boyfriend can make me so happy!

I can make you happier, he said, running his hand down her arm and cupping her cheek. He bent his head and kissed her on the lips, Lea held her breath and endured his strength Her face gradually turned red.

An hour later, Alfred drove her out of the park and to a high-end apartment 20 minutes away.

The apartment had been built in the past two years. It used modern technology and had good privacy. As soon door opened, she was drawn

It was a loft. The two floors added up to more than 2000 square meters, It had a dark design, a simple style, and the latest mart appliances. It was comfortable and very suitable for living and working

Alfred said, “You can stay here. It’s convenient for you to go to the hospital and school”

Studying was only a small part of Lea’s life. Her focus was on hospitals and scientific research.

Although she had a dorm on campus, she still needed to find a place outside of campus.

The Elysium Hotel opposite Conrad University could also be used, but her things were all highly confidential, In the long her own private prudence.

Alfred added. “If you don’t like it, we can buy another house,”

She wasn’t talking about melt. He was talking about dar in of them.

Lea said. “There’s no need it’s good here. I like it very much.”

To her, this was already a high-end residence. Coincidentally, his style was exactly what she liked. Moreover, she could feel his presence there “Alright, then you will stay here from now on. I stay here too” As he spoke, he looked at her with a burning gaze.

She could not help but blush again.

I won’t interfere with your work or your studies” Knowing the worry in her heart, he dismissed it with a sentence “Okay. Even her voice sounded a little hoarse.

The two of them could be considered to be moving in together.

The refrigerator in the apartment was full. It was arranged by Craig. It was all the ingredients that Lea liked. Alfred had given him this order previously,

In his previous life, he already knew the details of Lea's habits like the back of his hand.

It happened to be noon. Lea made lunch for the both of them.

After lunch, she went to catch up on her nap:

The apartment was very spacious, and she had a separate study and bedroom

When she woke up in the afternoon, Jason had already sent her computer and other items over and placed them in the study. Alfred personally arranged them.

Eddie passed all the building blueprints and materials of the hospital campus to her, and she began to plan and design for the hospital. She had an advanced and perfect hospital blueprint and an intelligent application system. It had already been used in Riverview Hospital of Vaporleon City.

Now, it only needed to be modified according to the campus of Everton.

Once she got to work, she went into a trance.

Craig entered Alfred's study, "Mr. Alfred, Thomas sent Miss Berry a gift for the start of school

Thomas Cox was Milton Andrews's confidant

Alfred felt that Milton's gift car came at the right time.

He frowned and his expression darkened.

Chapter 197

Jason was now Lea's assistant. He was in charge of all her daily affairs. He was the one who stopped this gift and finally transferred it to Craig

Alfred asked, "What is it?"

Jason handed over a document

Alfred took it and saw that it was a villa near Conrad University. It was worth 100 million dollars and came with a van.

In the beginning, Alfred wanted to give Lea a villa in this area, but he felt that this was not suitable for her. That was why he brought her here to stay

Jason asked, "Mr. Alfred, what should we do now?"

Alfred thought for a moment. "Go ahead. I have my own arrangements"

Jason nodded. "Okay"

After Craig left, Alfred went out of the study and saw that the study door opposite him was half-closed. There was the sound of typing on the keyboard.

He gently pushed open the door and saw Lea working at the desk. She was wearing a white T-shirt, and her long hair fell gently on her shoulders. She was calm, as if she had entered the zone.

After programming on the computer, Lea plugged in the mouse and began to draw. Her actions were smooth and extremely efficient, like an advanced and perfect work machine

His gaze became gentler and more affectionate, and his heart calmed down.

At night, Lea was pulled out of work by Alfred for dinner, Shannon sent her a link. She clicked on it and saw that it was a post from Conrad University's forum.

The title wrote: [She must be the prettiest girl of the freshmen this year.] Below the title was a set of photos of Abigail.

She was wearing her school uniform today. It was taken at school. It looked like it was taken secretly, but it was actually a pose. There were all kinds of pictures. Her entire body was curvaceous in those. Her facial features were emphasized.

As soon as the photos were posted, they attracted the attention of a large number of students, and the number of comments and reposts was rapidly increasing.

Someone dug out Abigail's background. Her family was Iverton's second most powerful family. She had always been best at what she did since she was young and had never been second. This made her directly become popular among her peers.

her

The thread also rushed to the top of the school forum. Below, there were already students voting to be the prettiest girl of freshmen

In just a few hours. there were already more than 200 votes. There were only 300 freshmen. This number of votes was already very high.

These tricks might be able to fool other students, but Lea and Shannon could not be fooled.

Lea held the phone and frowned.

She thought, 'Abigail's failure to shine at the opening ceremony today probably encouraged her to do this. No, 2, this is probably supposed to be her plan. However, her first step had been ruined by me?

In Lea's previous life, as soon as Abigail entered Conrad University, she became the prettiest girl and kept getting first p place. She became a legend at Conrad University and graduated with outstanding results

That was why Milton took a fancy to her and recruited her into Andrews Group. She was placed in an important position and successfully got close to the Anderwa family's man most outstanding and powerful talents

In the beginning, she found an opportunity to pursue Allied

At that time. Lea also felt that Abigail was very outstanding and even found an opportunity to matchmaker them, Later. Alfred did not give Abigail a chance, so she changed her larger to Million.

Thinking of how Abigail was dressed up today and the way she was looking at Alfred, Lea squeezed her phone so hard that it kept squeaking.

What happened?" Alfred saw that she was so angry that her cheeks were pulled up like a little pufferfish. She was extremely cute, so he reached out and pinched her cheeks.

he came back to her senses and looked up at her boyfriend. "I'm fine Killing intent flashed in her eyes.

Cat up" Alfred picked up a chicken drumstick for her,

Okay, Lea replied and sent a message to Shannon. Put my picture up there ince Abigail wanted to be famous, Lea would not let her have her way.

Alright!] Shannon replied with a single word before disappearing. This was also what she wanted to do.

The already knew what kind of person Abigail was during the interview.

he thought. How dare Abigail try to be famous Only 1,ca deserves to be the prettiest girl of our class.

Loon, she registered an account on the school forum and posted: [! only accept this person to be the e prettiest girl. Her grades are the best, and her ooks are the best as well.]

There were two photos of Lea speaking at the opening ceremony today.

This

was like a challenge to Abigail.

der grades were the best among her peers. She was three inches taller than Abigail. She had a nice body and a better look than Abigails. There were many students at Conrad University who came from powerful families. So Abigail's family was not that impressive,

Under the popularity of Abigail's thread, Shannon's thread quickly attracted everyone's attention. Lea also obtained dozens of votes. Abigail's votes Dasically did not increase.

At this moment, another post about the same topic appeared. I think she's the prettiest girl.]

Then, a set of photos was attached to it. The girl in the photos was the complete opposite. Her makeup was gorgeous, and her clothes were revealing, showing off her figure. She was doing all kinds of splits in the photos. She was sexy and beautiful.

This style was extremely lethal to young people, especially male students. Soon, this girl received a lot of attention and obtained dozens of votes. She was Leona Moore, a freshman from the acting major.

The vote for the prettiest girl became a hot topic

Not only were the freshmen were fighting for it, but even the rest of the school joined in.

In a couple of days. Abigail and Leona had received a lot of votes. They had already left Lea far behind.

What was even more surprising was. Leona took first place for the moment.

Dea didn't care anymore. Anyway, as long as Abigail was not the first place, she would be fine with in.

or freshmen began.

Three days later, the orientation for

The location of the orientation was a military base in the suburbs. The intensity of the training was also stricter than other schools.

Lea rushed to the training base and met up with her classmates.

When she arrived, it was already seven o'clock in the evening. The base was in the foothills. The grassland was vast and the forest was lush. The environment was very good. The evening sun filled the sky and it was beautiful.

Alfred drove her there personally, and the car was parked at the entrance. "I'll pick you up when the orientation is over"

"Okay" Shu

Shu Irated forward, kissed him on the cheek, slung her bag over her shoulder, and got out of the car

Seeing that he was still not leaving and wanted to see her enter, she leaned against the car window and said. "Hurry up and go

"If they saw you, we wouldn't be able to date in the future? She only wanted to keep a low profile and focus on her

"Alright" Lea watched him drive away before heading for the gate.

The gate of the base was very wide, about 30 feet wide, allowing two large military vehicles to enter and exit at the same time.

She took out her student ID and was about to scan the code when Shannon came up to her with a girl.

"Lea, you're finally here. I was worried that you would be late. As she spoke, she pulled her classmate beside her and introduced her. "This is our roommate, Willow Alvarez."

Lea looked at this thin and small girl and was stunned.

In her previous life, she was locked up in a mental hospital with those real mental patients. She was also injected with medicine and tortured in various ways. Many times, she almost lost her life. It was a patient called Willow who saved her and helped her. In the end. Willow was the one who helped Lex escape from the mental hospital

At that time, Lea told her that she would definitely go back and save her.

Willow said that she would definitely wait for her.

But Lea couldn't go back.

In the end, Willow did not see Lea come for her.

Lea did not know what would happen to her after that.

The girl in front of Lea was a completely different person from the one who was in the mental hospital.

However, her small oval face, willowy eyebrows, classical and gentle appearance and temperament were the same.

Lea knew that she was the same Willow.

Her eyes instantly became sore and swollen.

Willow said. "Hello, I'm your roommate, Willow Alvarez. I already know you at the opening ceremony, Lea!"

Lea was held by her. Willow's hand was soft and warm, and tears almost flowed out of Lea's eyes

"Hello..." A lump formed in her throat and she lowered her voice to notice.

Then, she raised her head and smiled warmly at Willow. Her turbulent emotions were concealed and her two roommates did not

Willow was stunned and then smiled.

She thought. "As expected of the first place. Lea is so outstanding, so beautiful, and so good-looking when she smiles, I almost feel attracted to her

"How did you get here!" Shannon asked.

Lea said. "My family drove me here"

Alfred was her most important family member.

She said to Willow, "I'll introduce you to them next time.""

"Alright" Willow nodded.

She admired people who had good grades the most. Additionally. Lea was so approachable and easy to get along with

Let's go. We're about to have a gathering Shannon led her to where they were staying

They had to gather at eight in the evening to take attendance and start orientation tomorrow morning-

The orientation went very smoothly. For university students like them, this kind of activity was overloaded, especially for girls.

However, Lea was very strong. It was very easy for her.

On the third day, at two o'clock in the afternoon, the sun was at its hottest. Although it was already autumn, the sun was still hot. After having outdoor activities for a while, almost all the girls had been sunburnt.

As soon as the activity ended, all the students sat down and panted. Some students even lay down.

"Lea, drink some water." Willow handed her a bottle of mineral water and opened the lid for her.

"Thank you." Lea took it and was about to drink when a shadow fell over her.

She looked up and saw a boy who was about six feet tall. He had already taken off his hat. He had a buzz cut and a strong body. Under his uniform, his muscles were full of strength and he looked domineering.

He said, "Lea, let's compete. Shooting, archery, and combat, you pick. If you lose, you have to automatically withdraw from Conrad University."

Everyone was silent as they looked at them in surprise.

Willow jumped up. "Rex, are you crazy! You want a girl to compete with you in those activities?"

Rex Oliver only glared at her and stared at Lea. Ruthlessness surged in his eyes. He wished he could defeat Lea immediately and expel her from Conrad University.

"Lea: before he could see that he was so bold, Willow quickly protected Lea."

She came from Vaporleon City and did not know these people from Iverton.

However, the other Res had been classmates since they were young.

Her understanding of him.

He had always been a troublemaker. He was talented in those activities. He was recruited by Conrad University by his physical talent.

"Why?" Lira asked with a frown.

He turned around and took a look, he followed her gaze and saw Abigail.

As usual, she was accompanied by Rita and Beatrice. Now, there was also Leona Moore and her sidekick, Daisy Moss. They all sat on the ground and looked at her calmly.

Chapter 198

They did not greet each other during the three days of orientation, but everyone trained, ate, and lived together, and observed each other clearly.

Originally, the two of them were fiercely competing for the title of the prettiest girl. Now, Lea realized that they had formed an alliance to fight against her.

Rex had already turned around and looked down at Lea aggressively. "Aren't you number one in Conrad University? Are you a genius? If you are sad at PE how can you be number one? You're just a cripple

Initially, everyone felt that it was shameful for him to challenge a girl in sports, but after hearing what he said, they fell silent.

Regardless of whether it was

was a boy or a girl, if they wanted to be number one, they had to show their strength

Rex, you're despicable and shameless Willow was furious.

Sharmon also stood up and looked at him angrily. "Why does a moron like you get to decide who can be the first place?"

If Lea refused, she would be labeled as a cripple. From then on, her image in the eyes of her peers would just be a weak girl who happened to get the best grades academically. From now on, she would become the laughingstock of her peers. In the future, she would also be obstructed in many ways in school and be criticized by others.

She would even be disqualified to participate in the competition for the title of the prettiest girl.

If she agreed, she could only quit Conrad University,

Shannon suddenly realized that someone was targeting Lea.

Rex glared fiercely at these two people who were in his way. His eyes were filled with ruthlessness. Then, he stared at Lea, who was still sitting on the ground and drinking water. "Does that mean you don't dare to accept my challenge? You're just a good-for-nothing who only cares about academics. That's fine too. As long as you lower your head to me and admit that you're inferior to me in this aspect, I'll let you off."

Everyone stared at Lea

at Lea to see what she would do. Lea frowned.

She thought. 'Crippled, useless, and inferior. He plans to label me with so many things at once. He is very greedy.

"Rex..." Willow stomped her feet anxiously.

She suddenly saw an instructor walking over and ran over.

"Lorenzo!" When she shouted his name, her eyes turned red.

The young man was shocked and looked at her in shock. His eyes could not help but turn red. He thought that Willow would never forgive him and ignore him for the rest of her life.

Willow was also stunned, but the situation was critical and she could not care less. She turned her body to avoid Lorenzo Patton's gaze and did not look at him directly. Instead, she ordered in a domineering tone. There's a student over there who's bullying a girl

She thought. "Don't disappoint me again.

Lorenzo looked up and saw L.

He knew that Rex was bullying her and hurried over. "What's going on?"

The students were silent. It was obvious that they did not want him to meddle in this matter.

Leona stood up and sashayed over, "Mr. Patton, here's what happened."

Her gaze swept past the three girls in front of her and thought, Forget about Willow. Her parents are important researchers. However, Shamon is a peer from a single parent family. Her mother is even a joke. How can such a person be worthy of being in the same school as I and still dare

Shannon felt suffocated by her gaze. A chill crept into her heart and she felt uncomfortable all over

This was not the first time she had seen such disdainful and daunting gazes. When she first arrived at Conrad University for the interview, she met Abigail and the others. This was how they looked at

However, Leona's gaze was the only thing that made her feel so uncomfortable.

Leona retracted her gaze and explained to Lorenzo in a different tone, "but Leona's first place in freshman Rex wants to compete with her in sports to see her strength as the first place. It's not allowed for students to carry undeserved reputation in Conrad University. Furthermore, the evaluation of strength now depends on comprehensive ability Academic resilience and so on are too one-sided"

She spoke eloquently and made sense.

"It's not like that. They want Leona to quit Conrad University Willow directly exposed the truth.

"Willow" Leona's tone became serious and threatening. "Why are you involved in this matter? If you have the energy, why don't you care about your brother? I heard that Joez has been lying in bed for half a year and hasn't woken up. He's in a vegetative state, right?"

Willow's face turned pale and bloodless. She could not help but take two steps back. Her hands were tightly clenched into fists, and her petite body was trembling.

Leona was sitting on the grass behind her. If Willow took another step back, she would step on her. Leona saw her reaction and her eyes darkened.

Chapter 199

Lorenzo's expression turned cold as he looked at Leona. His eyes were sharp, and his blood surged with killing intent.

Leona was so shocked that she took two steps back and almost fell

Rex shivered at the murderous aura on Lorenzo's body and muttered, "Tasked Leona in pick what to compete for She just has to admit that she is inferior to me,"

Lorenzo was already 23 years old, and his experience was completely incomparable to these young people who had just entered university. He saw through their intentions at a glance, and his voice was cold. "If you have any opinions about the first place, go find the executives of the school, If you came trouble during my orientation, I can't guarantee that you will leave here safely.

"Lorenza, don't be shameless!" Rex was furious. Among the rich second-generation heirs in Iverton, no one had dared to provoke him since he was young. "Do you still think you're the captain of Team Seven You're a defeated soldier who caused the death of your teammates and couldn't even. complete the mission. Conrad University invited you here for orientation only because you are a part of the Patton family. Don't tell me you don't even know your place

Everyone was shocked. What Rex

ex mentioned were all absolute secrets. Even the students from Iverton, other than them, had never heard of them.

Lorenzo's eyes turned red. He clenched his fist and smashed it down at Rex's head. A figure suddenly blocked in front of him.

It was Lea

She looked at Rex slowly. "What if you lose?"

Rex was stunned for a moment, then turned to look at Abigail. He turned.

said resolutely, "If I lose, I'll quit Conrad University

In order to get into Conrad University, every student and the family behind them had put in many years of effort Quitting Conrad University meant giving up their own and their family's plans for their future. Even if they were willing to give up, the family behind them was unwilling. The stakes were too high

"Alright." Lea smiled faintly and looked into the distance. She glanced at Abigail and then looked at Rex again. She wondered if Rex's sacrifice would earn any sympathy from Abigail.

In her previous life, Abigail had no lack of friends who stood up for her and sacrificed themselves for her like Rex.

It was not until the end that Lea realized how good Abigail was at making use of the people around her.

Abigail crawled to Milton's side and finally became his wife. In order to achieve that, she had made many descendants of rich families sacrifice themselves for her. It was the same for Lea.

“Lear” Willow was still very worried. “Rex is...

Shannon shook her head at Willow again and gave her a reassuring look.

After the opening ceremo

Lra had indeed been accepted by Conrad University. She was the first place in the written test and interview. Those higher-ups from Contad

Abigail then contacted Helen. However, Helen was out of reach

Abigail got her subordinates to investigate again and found our what had happened to the Berry family in Vaporleon City.

She realized that it turned out that the dignified Matilda and Helen had been sent to Lea, who was the illegitimate daughter, became the only child of the Berry family. The entire family would belong to her in the future. Abigail had to admit that Lea had some means and ability.

However, the number one family in Vaporleon was insignificant to her.

Additionally, Lea had indeed affected Abigail’s position in school and her future development.

Therefore, Abigail had to get rid of her. That was why she came up with this trick.

She thought Lea was smart, but she didn’t expect that in order to save her face and reputation. Lea would lose her mind and agree to Rex’s challenge

She had originally planned to guide the public opinion online after Lea admitted defeat to make everyone in the school despise her.

Now, since Lea had given her such a good opportunity. Abigail would make her get out of Conrad University and tverton and make her live the rest of her life in regret and pain, Abigail laughed, and then a few of her best friends around her laughit.

Leona walked back. The corners of her mouth curled up into a smile. Her mouth was naturally a little slanted. When she smiled, her mouth was Crooked. However, she liked to smile that way.

Lea completely ignored the students who were watching the show and asked Rex. "What should we compete first?"

"Let's compete in archery first. Fighting was his forte. If he attacked directly, it would be too sudden and too showy. He was afraid that his peers would think that he was bullying Lea.

Although he was indeed bullying her, he felt that it was better to start it slow,

"Let's go." Leagestured to him.

Rex brought her to the shooting range. The students stood up one after another and scrambled to follow.

The base had everything. There were ready-made archery ranges, shooting ranges, and even other special training grounds.

The two of them arrived at the archery venue. Les said to him, "You first."

He thought that she was afraid, so she asked h him to shoot first and accepted it happily.

He picked up his bow and nocked an arrow

The three arrows shot out one a out one after another, hining the bullseye, the first ring, and the second ring-

A wave of exclamations erupted from the surroundings. The students applauded and cheered, their gazes filled with respect. They all realized how capable Rex was and became respectful of him.

Ites turned around and gave Lea a contemptuous smile. "It's not too late to admit defeat"

She walked up and picked the bow on the other archery platform. She pocked an arrow and pulled the bow

The students suddenly burst into laughter.

way shur's holding the bow. It can't be the first time she's hield it, right

Another person said. "I can do better than her. I bet she can't aliout an arrow

Someone else said, "Lea, it's better to admit defeat. Archery is different from doing schoolwork. You can't learn it so fast?"

Lorenzo walked over and raised the bow in her hand. “Hold it like this. Pull your arm out a little more?”

Then he turned to look at her. “You’ve shot an arrow before, right?”

Lea answered, “No, this is my first time”

Lorenzo slipped and almost fell.

He thought, Willow, what kind of friend is this? Why were you so protective of her! You’re still too young.

“Is this correct?” Lea asked him when he stopped talking.

He pursed his thin lips and held his breath. He told himself to remain calm.

Seeing that he did not say anything, Lea pulled the bow. Her arm twisted outwards and inwards. Then, she went to aim at the bullseye.

“Lea, your arrow is pointing downwards. The arrow is in the wrong position, Raise the bow a little. Her peers could not help but criticize her.

Lea felt speechless.

She successfully made Lorenzo agitated. He gritted his teeth and endured it. He straightened her arm, pulled her arm back, and patted the back of her hand.

Unable to take it anymore, he took the bow and arrow and personally demonstrated it to her. “It’s like this.

The bow made a sound, and his hand suddenly trembled. His face was pale, and bean-sized beads of sweat rolled down his forehead.

Lea’s pupils constricted Her gaze landed on his right wrist. There were a few scars on it. It was obvious that his wrist was seriously injured. Once he exerted too much strength, the pain would be unbearable

She thought, “No wonder itex said that about him”

He handed her the bow and arrow, his gaze fixed ahead as if nothing had happened. He thought no one would notice.

In a place like this, he felt that these carefree youngsters who had nothing better to do would not be able to understand him.

Lea pulled the bow and nocked an arrow according to his demonstration. She asked him, “Is this okay?”

He turned his head and pulled her shoulder back again, pulling her arm out “That’s enough” He turned around.

She nodded and nocked another arrow.

“Bang!” The arrow left the bow. It was nailed to the target “Holy shit” Exclamations erupted from the students.

Lorenzo turned around abruptly and cursed in his heart, Fuck!

Chapter 200

Lorenzo looked at Lea, who was still holding the bow. Her long ponytail had just been lifted by the strong wind and was falling

Then, he looked at the target. The three arrows shot down the arrows that were originally nailed to the bullseye and nailed to the bullseye

Lea was standing in a position where the target was shot from the side, further away than Rex.

A person asked. "How is that possible! Could she have cheated?"

Another person asked, "Did you see how she shot it?"

Someone else said, "That's impossible. She must have cheated"

Many students had been forced to practice archery when they were young. They had never seen three arrows hit the bullseye consecutively. They didn't believe that a girl like her could do it Lea listened to their discussion and walked to the archery platform at the side without changing her expression. She picked drew her low to shoot.

up three arrows and

She then shot nine times in a row. Coupled with the first one, it was ten times. Every time, she fired three arrows at the same time and hit the bullseye.

At this moment, no one among the five hundred students who were watching made a sound of deadbt. Even their breathing was lowered, and their suspicious gazes nimed into admiration and submission

"Lea won! Lea won!" Willow shouted happily.

Shannan was also surprised. She knew that Lea would not be inferior to Rex since she dared to take the challenge. However, she did not expect her to crush him so easily. Only then did the students realize that Lea won first place with true ability.

Abigail's face was pale. Her fingers that we Soon, the corners of her lips curled up and a sinister smile flashed across her face. She would wait and see.

Leora and the others beside her could not hold it in anymore. Their faces comorted.

"I don't believe you can beat me in shooting!" Rex reacted and went to the shooting platform in exasperation. Lea followed him. Lorenzo followed. He lo

Lorenzo was stunned.

He had no choice but to pick up the gun and seriously introduce it to her. Then, he demonstrated, "Watch carefully."

Lea nodded and watched carefully. When he was shooting, he exerted strength on his right wrist and his shoulder shook. I the patti.

Rex finished all ten slots in or breath and put the gun on the stage. The muzzle was still smoking. He smiled colally at her, waiting for her to

Lea did not even look at him. She rated the gun and pressed it again her almulder

After ten shots, everyone looked over and could not help but suck in a breath of cold air

The ten bullets circled around the central ring line. The distance was equal Lorenzo was so surprised that he forgot to breathe. He had rarely seen such an outstanding shooter.

"Is she a demon!" A wave of exclamations erupted from the students.

Lea turned around and looked at Rex, who looked like he had seen a ghost. Do you still want to competet

Rex had already lost. His eyes were bloodshot and he was filled with hostility. He was angry about losing to her and did not fulfill his expectations, He looked at Abigail and saw her pale face staring at g at him.

Ever since she was young, she had been proud. She had never suffered such grievances

"Of course, we have to competer He could not forget how Abigail looked like as she sat under the street lamp on the street, secretly crying, It turned out that it was because Lea had snatched Abigail's chance to speak at the opening ceremony.

Rex thought, 'Didn't she just get first place? How dare she actually use her connections to change the student representative that the school had already decided on! Abigal had been preparing for it for a long time. If such a scheming and greedy person continued to stay in Conrad University. she would only snatch the charm and honor that belonged to Abigail. No matter what, I have to get rid of her‘

Now that he had lost, he could not kick her out of Conrad University. He would use his combat skill to cripple her. Rex felt that his goal could also be achieved that way

He was indeed a simple minded and brawny person. He did not have any shrewdness, and almost all his thoughts were written over his face. Lea easily saw through his intentions.

She said, “Rex, is this worth it?”

She thought, ‘I have already displayed my extraordinary archery and shooting skills. Does he really think that he can defeat me in combat?’

In this life, she had indeed never come into contact with such things. However, in her previous life, in order to accompany Milton to rope in those big shots, she had learned everything, including archery, shooting, fencing, golf, horse riding, skydiving, bungee jumping, and so on.

Due to overdrafting her body, she had once used the drug she had developed to stimulate one’s body’s potential, allowing her bodily functions to improve completely. Hence, she was not weak in these aspects.

After being locked up in the mental hospital, in order to escape, she secretly trained herself, In this life, when she gave Yannis the medicine, she also gave it to herself,

It was only later on that Alfred stopped her from continuing that she stopped training herself further, However, she was still confident in dealing with the person in front of her.

Rex was stunned and looked at Lea in surprise.

Lea asked, “In what capacity did you stand up for her, boyfriend? Did she really see you as a boyfriend? Do you want to go over and ask her now and see if she dares to treat you as her boyfriend?”

As the questioned him, Rex suddenly looked at Abigail. The students followed his gaze and saw Abigail’s group. All of them suddenly understood. Abigail was the center of attention in verion. After what happened on the school forum, everyone knew about her.

She had a powerful family, a beautiful face, and an outstanding resume. She even went to Cretan during the holidays and received the hospitality of the royal family. This was the hot topic of a lot of people’s daily conversation

Compared to her, although Lea came in first place, her influence in all aspects was indeed far inferior to l

to hers

People realized that Abigad had arranged for all of this to happen.

Shannon thought for a moment and looked at Lea before saying to IteX, “No wonder you want to cluse Lea out of Conrad University in such a way even though puarve ever fort her before. It turns out that Lea has blocked the path of the second place, your girlfriend. It’s not easy for you to come up with such a bony excuse! From the looks of it, you’re about to be kicked out of Conrad University. Yet Abigail doesn’t kinduria: Are you sure you’re not thinking too much!”

She could only bite the ladies and act as if it had nothing to do with her. As long as she didn't admit it, everything had nothing to do with her.

Lea looked at her and a cold smile appeared on her lips,

Of course, Lea knew that Abigail would not admit that she was only interested in Alfred. Even Milton was not worthy of her attention. She would definitely not have a relationship with someone like Rex. Abigail thought that she could use Rex to get rid of Lea without anyone knowing.

Even though he had already lost to Lea, Abigail would not do a thing. If Lea caused Rex to quit school. The Oliver family would do whatever it took o take revenge on Lea. Abigail would be glad to see that happen.

Therefore, Lea directly mentioned Abigal in public and tore apart her relationship with Rex.

In the future, when the Oliver family came looking for Lea, she would reveal that Abigail was the instigator. Lea would not let Abigail's wish come

At this moment, Abigail realized that she was involved and began to be afraid. Her fingertips grabbed the plastic bottle and trembled violently. However, she did not intend to stop Rex,

It wasn't easy for her to have such an opportunity. She hoped that Rex could use his most powerful combat technique to cripple Lea as planned. Even if she provoked the Oliver family because of this, she was willing to pay a price. She stared at them, her gaze fixed,

Abigail thought, 'Rex, cripple her

Willow also reacted. "Rex, give up. If you really stand up for your girlfriend, we would respect you as a man, but are you?"

"Shut up!" Rex was furious. After being called Abigail's boyfriend again and again, his face was already red. "It's not what you're talking about. I just want to compete with Leat

In the eyes of his classmates, his thoughts had been exposed. He flew into a rage out of humiliation and was in a hurry to hide it.

Lea, let's fight. I haven't lost yet" As he spoke, he attacked Lea like a tiger.

“Be careful!” Lorenzo, who was the closest, felt the power and shouted in surprise.

The students were also stunned. They felt that Rex was committing a murder.

“Bang!”

Just as

Everyone saw Lea dodge and knock Rex down from the side. She suddenly raised her leg and stepped on his left thigh, as Bex and Abigail had planned to break one of Lea’s legs, Lea had broken one of his.

After a while, Rex let out a scream.
