

Her Revenge 201

Chapter 201

The students fell silent. All of them looked at Lea and wondered what kind of a person she was.

Listening to Rex's screams, they all felt in for bet

The blood drained from Abigail's face. She looked up at Lea in disbelief and thought. 'How can she be so strong? Is she crazy? She actually dared to beat Rex up like this! It's fine. The Oliver family will definitely not let her off!

At the thought of this, Abigail was overjoyed and a cold smile flashed across her face.

The ending was so unexpected that Leona, Beatrice, and the others were shocked, dumbfounded, and scared. However, when they saw the smile on Abigail's face, they instantly felt relieved and revealed cold smiles.

A nouveau riche from Vaporleon City dared to hurt Rex, they knew that the Oliver family would take revenge for Rex.

Lorenzo frowned and looked at Rex, then at the nonchalant Lea. He took out his phone and made a call. "Someone's injured here. Come and take him to the hospital"

After a while, Rex was carried away and the orientation continued.

With this incident, everyone who had been resentful previously fell silent. They continued the activities seriously.

During the break. Lea went to get water. She saw Lorenzo sitting on the grass, holding his wrist and rubbing it gently. His face was pale, and it was obvious that he was feeling pain. He looked dejected

Lea asked, "It's the hamstring, right?"

He was stunned. He turned to look at the little girl who was standing beside him. There was an irritable look in his eyes. He put his hand down and subconsciously wanted to hide his arm.

1. ed. "It can can be recovered by revascularization"

Lorenzo suddenly trembled. He had heard of this method when he was treated in the hospital when he was first injured, but it only existed in theory

Lea continued. "It's achievable, but it's a bit complicated"

Lorenzo felt that he might have gone crazy to actually hear such words from a young lady-

Seeing that Lea was talented in all aspects, he reminded her kindly, "The Oliver family won't let this go. They'll come looking for you soon"

Rex knew Lorenzo so well because the Oliver and Patton families were in the same field and were familiar with each other. He also knew a lot about the Oliver family.

Lea said, "Yeah."

He was stunned again. He stood up and looked at her. She looked like she knew what the Oliver family would do.

Lorenzo said, "Rex's father and grandfather have a high position in the military. Rex's mother is a famous entrepreneur and is in charge of several important industrial enterprises. The Oliver family has only one heir for three generations. Initially, they planned to let Rex study at university for a few years before going into the military. The road was already paved. Everyone in Iverton knows to avoid this little tyrant and not provoke him."

"Okay," Lea replied nonchalantly.

Lorenzo raised his eyebrows. It turned out that Lea still did not care after he said so much. He didn't know if Lea was ignorant or simply didn't understand it

"Tee," she added.

Lorenzo felt speechless. There was nothing she could say.

She glanced at his hand. The ten-minute break was about to end, so she had to go back first.

Sure enough, it had only been a short while since the orientation started when a woman was rushing over aggressively with an old lady in her arms, surrounded by bodyguards were not allowed to drive in. Several cars were parked outside the entrance. They were all luxury cars.

Cars were not

Abigail immediately ran out from the crowd of students and ran over to hug Beata. She was about to cry. "Rebecca, Beata, is Rex alright?"

They were Rex's grandmother, Beata Oliver, and mother, Rebecca Oliver

Abigail's question added fuel to the fire. Beata was instantly furious, but she still patted Abigail's hand and helped her stand to the side.

No matter how angry and anxious she was, she was still very polite to the daughter of the Erickson family.

Then, ignoring the fact that everyone was undergoing orientation, she shouted loudly, "Who is Lea Berry! Show yourself!"

Lorenzo was about to go over when he saw that Lea had already walked out. She didn't want to cause trouble for Lorenzo.

1. m. Let's talk over there. She didn't want to affect everyone's orientation.

Beata glared at Lea with bloodshot eyes, wishing she could tear her apart. She turned to the left and right. "Take her away?"

Two bodyguards went forward to pull Lea.

“Bang” Both of them were sent flying with a kick.

“You-“Beata was so angry that her eyes were wide open.

She thought. No wonder she could break my grandson’s leg. She is quite capable.

Lea asked. “Is self–defense against the law?”

“Self–defense?” Beata almost fainted from anger. “You broke my grandson’s leg. You’re committing assault and murder. Take this murderer away?”

The bodyguards saw how powerful she was. This time, the four of them attacked Lea together.

Lea frowned and thought, ‘No wonder Lorenzo reminded me so much, depicting the fact that he didn’t like to meddle in others business. The Oliver family is indeed difficult to deal with. They even accused me of murder?’

She clenched her fists and used her hands and feet to knock them down. Then, she ran to Beata’s side and grabbed her. An arrow was pressed against the aorta of Beata’s neck. “You are Beata, right? It’ll be murder if I stab you with this”

Everyone, including the five hundred students and instructors present, was dumbfounded.

Rebecca, who was supporting Beata, almost fell down just now. She was supported by the bodyguards and looked at Lea in disbelief.

“Lea, what are you doing? Let go of my mother?” she said in a low voice. She was wearing a black professional suit and looked dignified and domineering.

Lea looked up at her and thought, Very good. She even knows my name. It seems that she has already investigated my background‘

Lea said. “I would like to ask what are you doing?”

Rebecca asked, “You hurt my son, Is it wrong for us to come to you for an investigation?”

“Investigate!” Lea smiled coldly. “Does the Oliver family have the right to investigate in private?”

Rebecca was shocked and her face turned pale.

Before they came, they thought that this new student would definitely kneel down and beg for mercy when she saw so many of them and knew the Oliver family’s name.

Unexpectedly, in just a short while, Lea had defeated six bodyguards and held Beata hostage. She even found a leverage.

“The Oliver family doesn’t have to bother with the investigation. The police will investigate.” As soon as Lea finished speaking, the sound of cars honking could be heard from outside. Two police cars drove in Lea pushed Beata toward Rebecca and threw away the arrow.

“Mom, are you alright?” Rebecca supported Beata and asked with concern

Beata was so frightened that she broke out in a cold sweat. Her blood pressure had risen significantly.

Seeing the police car approaching, she had an idea. She ran over and grabbed the police officer who had just gotten out of the car. If not for the police officer supporting her, she would have knelt down. She seemed like a completely pitiful old lady who had been bullied and had nowhere to seek justice. “Officers, you came at the right time. Someone here hurt my grandson and even wanted to hurt me. You have to stand up for the Oliver family!”

“Mom” Rebecca immediately went over to help her up and introduced herself. The leader, Captain Knox, looked at them in shock.

He thought. Beata and Rebecca from the Oliver family have appeared together with over a dozen of bodyguards. This seems very difficult to deal

He said. That’s why we’re here

Lat

“You guys came at the right time. Beata suddenly became dignified and pointed her hand at Lea “Quickly arrest this criminal!”

Although the Oliver family couldn’t deal with Lea privately, if they sent her to the police station, they still had ways to deal with her there.

Beata shouted, “Since you dare to break my grandson’s leg. I will take your life away.

Captain Knox was stunned. “Mrs. Bears Oliver, are you saying that this young lady wants to hurt you?”

Beata answered, “Yes. You didn’t see it. Just now, she attacked me and almost hurt me

Captain Knox led a few of his men and looked at Lea

At this moment, Jason, who had rushed down from the police car behind, ran to Lea’s side. He checked her and asked with concern. “Miss Lea Berry, are you alright? Did these bodyguards hurt you?”

Before three in the afternoon, he received a message from Lea asking him to call the police. After the Oliver family came here, he followed them with the police

Seeing that there were so many bodyguards from the Oliver family and a few of them were already injured, he was almost scared to death

He knew about the Oliver Emily and how capable their bodyguards were. He had been in the bodyguard field of Iverson since he was young. Jason felt that he should have rushed over when he received her message.

He asked, “Why aren’t you injured?”

Lea’s eyelids twitched and her expression changed in a second. I asked you to call the police. Why are you so useless! Why

Why did you only come now? Those people accused me of assault and murder and even wanted to punish me....

Why did

this to have him act with her

Jason immediately understood. The real Lea would not act this way. She only Jason said. "I'm sorry I'm late. Don't worry, the police will give you justice.

Everyone in the Oliver family was dumbfounded that Lea had called the police.

The students were all dumbfounded as well that Lea had already called the police secretly.

Lorenzo thought, "No wonder she's not afraid at all. It turns out that she used this trick to wait for the Oliver family to find her.

Abigail was shocked, She thought, Lea actually called the police first""

They had spent the entire afternoon together. She didn't know that Lea had done this.

Even Shannon and Willow, who were on good terms with Lea, were under Abigail's surveillance. They didn't do anything.

Abigail thought, "Wrongfully accuse her? Using lynching on her? That petite, helpless, and pitiful look I didn't expect you to be like this, Lea!

Chapter 202

"Officer, don't be fooled by her. This young lady is simply lawless. She just injured me and held me hostage. Look. Beata looked up, craned her neck, and pointed at the major artery in her neck,

Captain Knox widened his eyes and looked again and again. "Mrs. Beata Oliver, we know you're old, but you can't fool us."

"Mom..." Rebecca pulled Beata over with a pale face.

Beata looked at her daughter-in-law. They exchanged glances to make sure that Beata wasn't hurt Beata thought, "How is that possible? I had clearly felt pain just now!

Her heart sank as she looked at Lea

Lea was standing with Jason, pretending to be pitiful, but her gaze was cold and bright, without a trace of timidity.

She knew that the police were coming, so she wouldn't leave Beata injured and give her leverage.

Beata continued, "Officer, she's the one who hurt my grandson. She hurt my bodyguard and even wanted to hurt an old lady like me."

The officer asked, "Are you saying that she, a young lady, wanted to hurt your bodyguard and even hurt you?"

He thought. Do you believe this yourself? Anyway, my subordinates and I don't believe it

He added, “Then, who can testify?”.

Everyone looked at Lorenzo and the students at the same time +

Lorenzo gave the students a book, and everyone remained silent.

It was indeed Lea who injured their bodyguards, but the Oliver family attacked first and wanted to take her away

They were not the police. From their posture, it was obvious that they were going to lynch Lea

Although Lea had defeated a few bodyguards, she was just a young lady. Even if she had some skills, the students didn’t think that she could deal with so many bodyguards. They felt that Beata was the one who was framing Lex

They were silent, but their stance was already leaning towards Lea

Beata was so angry that her blood surged and her face turned red

“Officer, Lea injured my son. My son is seriously injured and is still on the operating table in the hospital. That’s why we called the police to arrest her for assault, Rebecca said rationally.

“Yes, that’s why we’re here” Captain Knox glanced at Lea and Jason. He took out a tablet and handed it to her. “This is the evidence that they called the police.”

Rebecca frowned and took it. She didn’t really want to see it, Lea called the police, and from the looks of it, the evidence was in her favor.

Beata did not have such concerns. She took it and played the video.

The entire process of Rex’s provocation and his competition with Lea was recorded.

Shannon used her phone to record it. The software was designed by Lea. It was directly customized by a manufacturer. The recording technology and processing functions far exceeded the existing products on the market

Beata did not have the patience to watch it bit by bit. She directly pulled to the end where Rex attacked Lea with all his might

Abigail’s eyes were red and she looked extremely aggrieved and powerless to defend herself.

After thinking about it, Rebecca understood a little.

She thought, ‘Can I blame her! Rex had never hidden his feelings for her since he was young. It’s a fact that Abigail is 100 outstanding and has a good family background. The Oliver family can not match up to her.

She quickly supported Beata. “Officer, this is only evidence provided unilaterally by Lea. We don’t know how it was obtained. It doesn’t count, right?”

The officer said, “Of course, we’ll investigate further. When Rex gets off the operating table and it’s convenient, we’ll also look for him to testify”

At the mention of Rex, Brata's face turned green again.

She thought, 'My grandson is already in such a state, yet you still want to look for him!

Captain Knox said to his subordinates, "Go and find the instructor and a few students to take statements first,"

They replied. "Yes,"

"I know about the situation" Shannon and Willow stood up and participated in the statement.

Lorenzo was the neutral person present, so he naturally had to make a statement.

The other students automatically avoided it. Perjury might not benefit them in the end, and there was no need to offend the Oliver family.

However, Leona did not think so. If Lea wanted to fight the Oliver family, she felt that Lea was simply overestimating herself.

Although the Moore family was not bad, it was completely incomparable to a family like the Oliver family and the Erickson family. Leona felt that This was simply a huge benefit to be able to use this opportunity to build a relationship with the Oliver family,

Hence, she took the initiative to step forward and ask the police to take her statement.

There was no need to fake it. She just had to remove the parts of Rex and Abigail and say that it was a competition between Rex and Lea, which ended with Lea hurting Res

With her as an example, Beatrice and the others also made a statement. The content of the statement was similar to Leona's

Captain Knox said, "Mrs. Beata Oliver, Mrs. Rebecca, do you think you should go back first or follow us to the police station to assist in the investigation?"

"My grandson is so badly injured. The police must give the Oliver family an explanation!" Beata said arrogantly. Then, she held Rebecca's hand and walked to her car.

Captain Knox looked at Lea

She went to Lorenzo to ask for a leave

"Do you need help?" Lorenzo didn't want to care, but the Oliver family was powerful. He felt that she could not deal with them.

"Thanks, but no, Lea could tell that it was difficult for Lorenzo to face the Oliver family. It was already very kind to him to offer the gesture to help her. She appreciated his kindness.

He was a little worried, but he didn't care anymore.

Lea brought Jason into the police car and followed them to the police station.

“I’ll go find my father and think of a way” Willow knew that the Olivia family, especially Beata who loved her grandson so much, would take revenge on Lea. She was worried.

Shannon pulled her back. “Don’t worry, Lea will take care of it

She thought. In terms of background, who can compare to Mr. Alfred in Iverton?”

Willow looked at her and heaved a sigh of relief after confirming

Soon, the orientation ended. Shannon took Willow with her and left the dormitory with her hiking bag. She found a place far away from her peers, took out her computer, and began to get busy. Lea even gave her a mission.

When Lea and the others arrived at the police station, it was almost dark. Both parties were sent to different offices.

The door opened and Hanley Knox walked in with a cup. He pushed the door closed with a bang and came to the table with a serious expression. “Miss Berry, please have some water.”

u seen to

When the cup was placed in front of her, his attitude suddenly changed. He was respectful and enthusiastic. “How is your orientation? You be in good condition. It seems that the orientation is quite easy”

Lea felt speechless. It was only easy for her.

“Thanks” She picked up the cup and drank.

She was already very thirsty during the orientation. It took her nearly an hour to get there. She was really thirsty.

Hanley said, “You don’t have to be polite with us. Don’t worry about this. Mr. Dwayne Brown has personally seen it. It will be handled fairly

She was already surprised to see him at the base.

Chapter 203

Hanley said, “That’s right. After handling the cases in Fraley Hospital, Dwayne was promoted to Iverton. Coincidentally, his son also went to a school in Iverton, so he came here to work. My peers and came with him. His kid’s grades can’t compare to yours. He’s at Summit University. Dwayne said that this promotion was all thanks to Miss Berry’s help. He will find an opportunity in the future to thank you properly.

Whether it was the serial killer Frank Conor, Fraley’s organ transplant, or Henry Fraley’s death, Lea was the one who provided evidence. Otherwise, Dwayne would not have been able to solve those cases.

Lea though. "Dwayne is being too kind, We're all from Vaporleon City. We're from the same hometown. If you need help in the future, you can look for Dark Union Hanley thought, Dark Union! Quicksilver? She said 'we Therefore, she is also a member of Dark Union!!

Hanley was very stanked. They were able to solve the other major cases because 198 Mighty offered evidence. They realized that Lea was their best lper and their trump a

He said. "Of course,

Not to mention the evidence Lea had provided them previously, just based on their relationship as people from the same hometown, they would definitely help her.

Now, Riverview Hospital had become a leading company in Vaporleon City. Lea was also the representative of her generation in Vaporleon City. Not to mention the Berry family's background,

Hanley knew that he had to protect this important figure of Vaporleon City

Lea said, "If there's nothing else. I go back first,"

Hanley asked, "Sure. Do you want a ride!"

"No need. My driver is here with me. Jason was waiting outside

"Okay, I'll walk you out."

He had just sent Lea to the hall. Seeing that Lea was about to leave, Beata stopped them and said in disbelief, "You actually want to let this criminal

"Mrs. Beata Oliver, please be careful with your words. After many investigations, we have strictly followed the procedures. Miss Berry has already assisted us in our investigation. She may leave now, Hanley said righteously.

Lea could not be bothered with Beata and walked away.

Beau rushed forward and blocked the middle of the door. "You can't leave!"

When the Oliver family's bodyguards saw Beata like this, they were afraid that something would happen to her again and immediately surrounded her to protect her.

Hence, Beata led a group of powerful bodyguards and blocked the entrance of the police station,

It was rare to see someone show off so much at the police station. Immediately, people surrounded them to watch.

Lea sneered. "Tell me, why won't you let me go?"

Beata said, "You hurt my grandson."

"He tried to hurt me. I defended myself.

You

The police have found out the truth”

“With me here, don’t even think about leaving today!”

“So the police’s words don’t count?”

Beata’s expression changed and she said firmly, “Don’t even think about leaving this place.”

“Isn’t that Mrs. Beata Oliver from the Oliver family?” In the crowd, a clear but pretentious voice identified Heata.

A petite female figure blended into the crowd. Her long hair covered her face, and her facial features were ordinary and unremarkable.

An onlooker said, “Yes, I haven’t seen her in public for a long time. I didn’t expect her to still be so strong at such an old age. She’s still strong despite her age!”

Another person asked, “But why is she blocking the door with her bodyguards? This is the police station. Don’t we have to listen to the police!”

Someone else said, “No matter where you are, you should listen to public officials. They are fair and just and serve the public”

Another onlooker added, “That’s right, the police have already said that this young lady can leave. Not only is she using her power to bully the young lady, but she’s also bullying the police. I’ve long heard that the Oliver family abused their power. So it’s true.”

Beata’s expression changed when she heard that. She had to care about her family’s image in public.

She immediately explained, “It’s this young lady who injured my grandson. My grandson’s leg is broken and he’s s murderer, a criminal!”

When everyone heard this, their attitudes immediately changed.

Lea said. “It was Rex Oliver who challenged me to a competition for his girlfriend. He’s well trained in combat, yet he wants to compete with a girl me in archery and shooting. Additionally, he couldn’t accept the fact that he lost. He even wants to compete with me in combat with the intention of seriously injuring me. Look, everyone, here is the video!”

She raised her phone and showed everyone the scene of Rex attacking her in an attempt to severely injure her.

She thought, ‘Since Beata keeps saying that I am a murderer and a criminal, I will show everyone the evidence. If you want to make a scene, I will make it worse for you. Although you are an elder you are so pampered and lawless

The onlookers said. I’ve long heard that Rex is lawless. So it’s true.

A person said, “How could he bully such a weak little girl?”

Someone else said. "Look at Beata's conceited appearance. No wonder her grandson would do such a thing. It's all her fault."

Beata said, "What are you talking about? What do you people know? What right do you have to talk about me.. and my grandson? Arrest them. Call a lawyer and sue them for defamation."

There were not many onlookers to begin with, even fewer than her bodyguards, so they were so frightened that they ran away.

However, someone had already recorded all of this on their phone and uploaded it online.

came out of the office upstairs. Seeing this, she immediately helped Beata sit down and asked the bodyguards to wait

At this moment, Rebecca.co outside.

Before she could speak, Beata pulled her and asked, "How is Rebecca shook her head. She didn't look happy. The new chief won't be persuaded by force or bribery"

Beata was stunned to find out that the chief was that kind of person

"I'll call my husband." Beata wasn't afraid of the mere chief of the police

"Mom," Rebecca pulled her back. There's no need to do this for a little girl
Let's wait and see!

A dark look flashed across Beata's eyes, but she did not say anything

Rebecca added, "Then let's go to the hospital to see Rex first,"

At the mention of visiting her grandson, Beata stood up first and walked straight out,

She got into the car, and the five cars of the bodyguards left with them

The sky was completely dark. Under the night sky, the city was like a monster, swallowing and spitting everything

After the car left the police station, Beata instructed, "Go after that little bitch and break her leg first!"

She wanted Lea to repay her grandson first and deal with the rest later,

The bodyguards behind drove forward. Previously, someone had noticed Lea and Jason had hailed a taxi to leave. They memorized the license plate number.

The car drove forward several hundred yards. On the bridge above, a black Mercedes-Benz business car was parked by the roadie.

In the car, Lea looked through the window and saw three cars surrounding the taxi they had taken previously. The taxi was forced to stop, and a few bodyguards went forward and turned it upside down. In the end, the group of cars fell in exasperation Beata didn't get what she wanted at the police station, so she came to play dirty. However, they had to find her first.

“Miss Berry, are we going back to the base now?” Jason asked.

Initially, she thought that she could only leave after the orientation ended. Now that she was out, she wanted to go home and see Alfred.

Chapter 204

The car stopped at the apartment building. Lea got out of the car and walked towards the lobby. Her footsteps became more and more hurried. It was the first time she felt this way. After exiting the elevator and arriving at the door, the electronic lock swept across her face and opened with a click.

She went through the door, heard movement in the kitchen, took off her shoes, and walked over barefoot.

The person in the kitchen heard the noise and came out. The two of them bumped into each other.

“Alfred?” She looked at Alfred in surprise,

He was holding a spoon and wearing an apron. His face was stained with soot and starch. He was dusty and covered in soup stains

He couldn’t hold it in. He choked and coughed. His face was flushed, and the back of his hand covered his mouth. Her eyes curved and she smiled.

Lea felt that Alfred looked very good in such a mess. He was also a little cute.

Alfred looked at her. She was wearing a short-sleeved camouflage uniform, long pants, boots, and a high ponytail. She was beautiful and valiant. and his eyes could not help but light up.

“You’re cooking? She rushed into the kitchen and was dumbfounded.

The high-end kitchen had already become the scene of a car accident. The utensils were all over the place, and there were water stains on the ground. There were ruined ingredients in the sink and plates everywhere. From the looks of it, he had done it many times.

The soup simmering in the pot gave off a burnt smell. She quickly turned off the fire.

Alfred had already followed her in. I am making cod soup. I thought that you could have some after your orientation ended.”

He did not expect her to come back now,

He touched his nose. His handsome face was dusty and red. A warm feeling welled up in her heart, and the smile on her face deepened.

“Lea, you look really good dressed like this. You look so valiant and beautiful.” Alfred came forward, pulled her thin and fair wrist, and raised it to kiss the back of her hand.

“You’re so..” Lea looked up and sized him up. Her eyes were filled with light. “You’re quite sexy”

As soon as she finished speaking, his hands had already clasped her waist. With a turn, he pressed her against the stove and lowered his head to kiss

After a while, Lea’s tender little face was dyed black by the soot on his face.

Time was tight. The kitchen which looked like a scene of a car accident was not very comfortable. Alfred was done in an hour.

After helping her pull up her clothes, he stared at her with an unsatisfied expression. “You haven’t had dinner yet, right?”

“No, I’ll just make some

There were ingredients at home. There were still leftovers from the dinner that Craig made for him in the afternoon.

“Now!” Alfred stared at her. “Aren’t you tired?”

Lea looked at him with a smile. “You’re the one who’s been putting in the effort”

Alfred liked her calm and serious look while blushing. His eyes turned red, and he wished he could hold her waist again. However, they didn’t have enough time that time.

He lifted the belt around his waist and went forward to help.

“No need” Lea pressed his wrist. “It’s edible.”

“Is this edible?” He looked dubious

She heated up the leftovers, added fish soup, and ate.

Alfred sat at the dining table with her.

What’s the matter Alfred new th the base would not let anyone out until the orientation ended.

“It’s just a small intercolle with my classmate and went to the police station. It’s already been sceded”

Some netizens began to study this matter in depth. Soon, they found information on the school forum of Conrad University and uploaded it online. They also dugout Abigail.

Lea, you encountered such a thing when you went to the police station” Willow looked at her worriedly

The Olivia family had come looking for Lea aggressively and had already frightened Willow. In the end, when they arrived at the police station, Beata was still so mean to Lea Willow found this hateful and became worried.

“It’s alright, everything is settled, Lea comforted her.

The phone rang in her hand. It was Willow’s mom Lea handed it back. “Someone is calling you.”

Willow went to answer the call

Shannon walked closer. "Jason did this?"

The content was so concise that it became a trending topic so quickly. She felt that it was not a coincidence.

Chapter 205

Lea shook her head. "It's a newcomer who wants to enter the Dark Union. I gave her the assessment content"

Shannon's eyes lit up. "Is even an interviewer so amazing?"

Previously, because of her hacking skills. Quicksilver had sent her a message asking if she wanted to join. Shannon rejected it on the grounds that she wanted to help Lea build a system for the hospital and maintain security. She still had to go to school and didn't have that much time.

She added, "I've changed my mind. I want to join."

After entering Conrad University, her horizons broadened, With such a place filled with talent, she could not help but want to go and see it.

Lea smiled. Shannon felt a little more at ease. "This way, even if the Oliver family wants to mess around, they have to be wary of the public opinion

Lea nodded and thought. That's one of the reasons I did it

She said, "If they want to play tricks in the future, they have to consider if their reputation will be implicated."

A sharp glint flashed across Lea's eyes,

Dealing with the Oliver family was just a matter of convenience. Her goal was to use this matter to ruin Abigail's reputation

Now, in everyone's eyes, Rex and Abigail were already in a relationship. Because she was jealous of the first place, she let her boyfriend provoke and hurt Lea.

Taking advantage of others and being jealous was the new label Abigail had been given.

Lea knew that the current Abigail would never date anyone other than Alfred. Even if it was just a rumor, she could not accept it. Moreover, the rumors were so true and flawless Lea felt that Abigail was probably furious at the moment.

Shannon's pupils dilated as realization dawned on her. She looked at Lea in awe

Among her peers, she was already considered outstanding and talented. However, she had only thought of one step, but Lea had already thought of ten steps ahead of her.

She felt that she had to learn from Lea. Even if she could learn a little more, she would be able to benefit from it for life. That's right. Otherwise, how could such a person not have a bad reputation and have such a perfect image?"

After interacting with people at Conrad University, she realized that Abigail had a very high reputation among her peers. It was the same in society. But she was clearly a hypocritical and sinister villain. She was as sinister and vicious as Helen. They were the same kind of people.

However, Helen was not good at hiding and beautifying herself. Compared to Abigail, Helen was simply a noob.

If Abigail's target was not Lea, but someone else, that person would be chased out of Conrad University and crippled for life. Shannon felt that Abigail was too terrifying.

"I'm going to the washroom Lea ran towards the washroom.

Shannon waited outside.

After a 1

a while, Lea came back. "I have to go again."

She came back again. "I still have to go."

When she came back again, Shannon asked worriedly, "Do you have a stomach?"

Lea nodded, white-faced.

"Where did you eat

"At home.

"It couldn't have been your man, could it?"

Shannon knew about them living together.

Lea nodded.

Shannon was surprised. She thought, Is Mr. Alfred trying to murder his wife?

She said, "I'll go find the dormitory manager and buy you medicine"

"There's no need? In this situation, taking medicine wouldn't have much effect. Lea said, I'm going to the washroom"

Shannon felt speechless.

In the dormitory, Abigail sat on her bed and read the contents of the forum on her phone. Her face was pale and she turned red. Her blood surged and she was about to vomit.

so angry that her face

She thought, I am not Rex's girlfriend! I am not in a relationship! I am still so young and do not have such a messy relationship. I am pure and innocent. If Mr. Alfred saw this news, what would he think of me? What would the people from the Andrews family think if they found out about this in the future? This will prevent me from marrying into the Andrews family. I have to delete them all, delete them all. It is not enough to delete it. I have to think of a way to salvage my reputation. But what should I do?'

Her brain was almost twisted together.

"Abigal, this is your night essence Beatrice prepared the skincare products Abigail needed before going to bed and handed them to her. "You're still reading the forum. What's there to see? They're all framing you. I suspect that Lea and the others did it."

Abigail was not sure, because the content of the post was the truth and there was no deliberate hype or guidance. However, she felt that she should push the bad things to Lea and the others

She was jealous of Lea, Shannon, and Willow who came from families that were inferior to hers. She looked forward to her making them suffer Abigail's pupils dilated. Her red eyes were sharp, ruthless, and vicious.

She recalled the first time she saw Lea and thought, That's right it has to be her. She deliberately frames me and steps on me to climb up the ranks. She wants to make a name for herself in Iverton. However, she is wrong. I am born to be a winner and no one can compare to me.

"Abigail, there's news online too. It's... it's news about the Oliver family Leona came in with a mask on her face, not daring to go forward.

Abigail got up and snatched her phone impatiently. She felt that Beata must have already dealt with Lea since the police station was under the control of the Oliver family.

She took a closer look, and the color that had only appeared on her face quickly faded.

She thought, "How did that happen?"

Not only did the Oliver family not do anything to Lea, but they also fell into a storm of public opinion. Abigail was involved again.

Once the Oliver family suffered a setback, they would definitely hate Abigail for implicating Rex. The development of the matter far exceeded her expectations.

The internet was different from the school forum. The number of people who were paying attention to this incident was ten thousand times more.

Abigail thought, "What would the netizens think of me and say about me?"

Tears streamed down her face. She threw the phone aside and ran out of the dormitory

Leona immediately picked up her phone and chased after her. The others also chased after Abigail and surrounded her to comfort her.

One of them said, "That Lea is too much. She made Abigail cry

Another said, "Exactly."

Someone else said, "She must have done it. She's spreading rumors online"

When Lea and the others returned, they saw them.

Willow was dumbfounded. "You didn't cry, but she cried first!"

Lea felt speechless.

Shannon said, "Stupid woman"

Abigail cried for a while before making a call. "Delete the post on the school forum and deal with the information online.

In just ten minutes, the post on the forum was deleted with the excuse that promoting such content would lead to a bad atmosphere.

However, the main character involved in the rumor on the Internet was the Oliver family, so it was not easy for her to make a move.

Iverion was the best private hospital, Vanguard Hospital. The operating theater door only opened at midnight.

Beata went forward with the help of a servant "Doctor, how's my grandson?"

The doctor replied, The surgery has been completed, but the patient's bones are crushed. There will be aftereffects.

Rebecca was shocked. "You mean my son's leg?"

The attending doctor knew about them and was in a difficult position, but he could only answer, "His leg... will be crippled in the future

Beata collapsed on the spot.

"Mrs. Beata Oliver. The servants hurriedly supported her.

"My grandson... Beata screamed. Tea, you little bitch, I want you dead!"

Her gaze was sharp and vicious, and she was filled with hostility.

Rebecca was about to continue asking about the situation when her phone rang. She picked up the call. "When are you coming to see your son!"

It was her husband, Neal Oliver.

The other party did not answer her. Instead, he questioned, "Rebecca, what are you and Mom doing! What's with the news online!"

There was anger and disappointment in his authoritative tone.

Chapter 207

Half a month passed by quickly, and the orientation ended. On the last day, there was an activity in the morning and a summary meeting in the afternoon.

Les got first place in the entire orientation. According to everyone's predictions, this first place originally belonged to Res.

Some people heard that he was still lying in the hospital for treatment,

After the meeting ended, it was only three in the afternoon. The sun was shining brightly and the sky was clear.

The hundreds of freshmen were like wild horses that had broken free from their reins. Their cheers resounded in the sky above the base, shocking the birds flying in the sky and scattering in all directions

Most of the freshmen were from Iverton.

After the orientation, it happened to be the weekend, and there were already many luxury cars parked outside. There were many people who came to pick up the students.

Shannon carried a hiking bag and waited with Willow on the grass not far from the gate. He posted these photos on the forum. The entire school will be amazed by our valiant Lea

She tapped on her phone a few times and added new content under the post for Lea to run for the title of the premiest girl. There were photos and gifs.

Lea was wearing a uniform. She was shooting, shooting, and receiving awards. Every scene was very impressive.

Willow immediately took out her phone and browsed the forum. "Wow! Lea is too amazing. My heart is beating so fast!"

Lea walked out with her hiking bag. When she saw that Lorenzo was also packing his things, she threw her bag over her shoulder and walked over. Her gaze landed on his wrist. "If you want to treat it one day, go to Riverview Hospital in the West District and look for the director Lorrard Phoenix. Tell him that I asked you to go

Ever since she mentioned it to him last time, he did not care at all. Other than not believing her, Lea felt that he must have become hopeless after many tries.

He turned to look at her. The bag on her shoulder was very light. Shannon had taken most of her things. After half a month of orientation, Lea looked much more energetic and bright. She was valiant and stunning. She was calm and composed, but there was also a hint of profound determination.

If she joined the army and became a female soldier, Lorenzo felt that she would definitely be able to take the top spot in the army. However, she was also very outstanding in school. She was a dazzling figure no matter where she went.

Under his scrutiny, she smiled faintly. "I'm leaving."

She turned around and met up with Shannon and Willow.

He stared at her back in a daze until she blended in with her classmates. After thinking for a moment, he took out his phone and opened the webpage. He searched Riverview Hospital in West District and found nothing.

He thought. There is no such thing.

He had thought that she was extraordinary and had believed her a little after she mentioned it twice, but now he felt that Lea was too unreliable.

Although there were many related contents about Riverview Hospital, Lorenzo didn't want to look at them and closed the tab.

"Lea, over here?" Shannon called out to Lea. Willow waved at her as well.

She walked over and the three of them went out together,

"Lea" She had only taken two steps when she heard someone call her. She turned around and saw that it was Zed Jarvan

Seeing her stop, he quickened his pace and came to her. "Shall we go back to school together?"

“No, I have something on. I’m not going back to school.” Alfred was coming to pick her up.

“I see.” Disappointment flashed across Zed’s face. “Then the Oliver family won’t cause trouble for you, right?”

I take care of it myself. Her face grew a few degrees colder.

It had been so long since this incident happened. Zed only came to care now because he wanted to talk to her more and get close to her.

When she was in Vaporleon City, she had already made it clear many times that she would not be friends with someone like Zed. She did not expect him to still want to get close to her and not give up. She could only take a stand with this attitude,

“Okay.” He nodded stiffly. “By the way, our school has a club filled with students from Vaporleon City. There’s a welcoming party tomorrow afternoon, so we booked a private room in the hotel. Let’s have a meal and get to know each other. The other students have been asking about you recently. Everyone wants to get to know you. Shall I pick you and Shannon up tomorrow!”

Conrad University had a club that every new student would join by default. This was an unwritten rule.

There were not many students at Conrad University, to begin with, and there were even fewer people from regions other than Iverton. The relationship between people from the same hometown was even closer at this place

As soon as they reported to the school, a member of this organization had come to look for them.

Shannon looked at Lea indicating that she would listen to her.

She had endless things to do. She wouldn’t socialize unnecessarily. Being from the same hometown meant nothing to her.

“Lea!” His face was pale, and there was a hint of anger in his anxiousness. “The students from this organization, including the president, care about us a lot. This is a tradition. It’s not good not to go. He was vaguely forcing her.

“I am not going. Lea’s expression was cold and firm.

She felt that this kind of organization was no different from other organizations owned by students from wealthy families. They were all for the sake of mutual benefits

The people from that organization cared about her so much because of the Berry family’s status in Vaporleon City, as well as the resources in her hands. She was famous for being first place among her peers and for her future development in the school

Most of the students in this organization had a strong family. They had been in Conrad University and Iverton for so long. They had a lot of resources and connections, but they could not compare to her Zed's face turned completely pale. He secretly clenched his fists and restrained his anger.

It was true that she was outstanding, but he felt that her attitude of looking down on him and her fellow countrymen was too arrogant,

Deep down, he felt jealous and wanted to conquer Lea.

He suppressed his displeasure and said, "Alright, I'll talk to the president and the others

Lea didn't even look at him anymore and left

Abigail and the others came out later and saw this scene.

"That Lea is so arrogant. Zed is talking to her. Look at how arrogant and indifferent expression. Who does she think she is?" Leona said sarcastically. Her cone was a little sour.

Rita said, "She is such a show-off What a bitch."

During this period of orientation, Lea had been in the limelight. All the boys were looking at her and cheering for her. Rita could not stand it anymore.

Daisy said. "Zed looks so hurt."

Their tone was very sour.

Zed's family background was not good enough for Iverton

However, he was handsome and a little feminine. He happened to be the image that most young people liked now. In this hatch of new students, he was ranked in the top ten most handsome boys.

Ever since Lea competed with Rex, her fame spread among the students and she became the focus of attention. Almost all the boys liked her for being beautiful, capable, and good at her studies.

Although she never paid attention to anyone, she was still very popular with everyone.

Even Abigail could not help but bite her lips tightly. She felt jealous of Lea

Even with her status, she had to lower herself to be friends with those lowly classmates she used to look down on. However, Lea was still more popular than she was. She was filled with hatred.

Les completely ignored those gazes and went straight out. The number of luxury cars outside surprised her.

She looked around but didn't see Alfred's car. She held her phone and waited for his call as she walked out.

"That's..." Some girls' screams suddenly sounded around them.

A Lincoln parked behind the gate, followed by a few other cars. They were all custom-made luxury cars. Among the luxury cars, they stood out and looked very impressive.

The car door opened and a man in a black business suit got out. He was holding a large bouquet of bright red roses. It was the world's top rose. It was beautiful, eye-catching, and fragrant

A girl asked, "Is this a rich man who wants to confess?"

Another person said, "Whose boyfriend is this? He is so rich!"

Someone else said, "Isn't that Milton Andrews's car? Oh, my God, he's in the car!"

A girl screamed. Her brain was deprived of oxygen and she collapsed

Almost everyone had yet to leave. Hundreds of people blocked the entrance and stood around the surrounding lawn. The crowd surged

There were less than 200 girls. Now, almost all of them had gone crazy.

Mihon was the most talented young man in the business at Iverton. He entered Andrews Group at the age of 14 and made record-breaking sales at the age of 13. At the age of 20, he became the CEO of the corporation.

At the age of 24, he had already made the Andrews Group the most powerful company in this country and one of the top five in Aetheris.

Unlike Alfred, he grew up under the spotlight. He was a genius in the business world and was the center of attention.

Morcower, because of his handsome face, he captured the hearts of countless girls and became the man that the socialites in Iverton wanted to marry the most. His nickname was the National Husband.

He was twenty-four years old now and never had been in scandals. He had never been seen interacting with women.

In an interview, the host asked him about his marriage, and he said directly that no one was worthy of him.

It was impossible for normal people to meet such a person, However, he had appeared here. That was the reason that those girls had gone crazy-

The female students from other provinces who didn't know what was going on were also affected by the atmosphere and became excited.

A girl said. "The one holding the flowers is his assistant. Thomas Cox!"

Another girl asked, "Is this a confession? Does Mihon want to confess? Didn't he say that all the rich young ladies at Iverton couldn't catch his eye! Who is he looking for? Who did he take a fancy to? Who is so outstanding that he has taken a fancy to her?"

Chapter 208

All the girls squeezed together, Lea Shannon, and Willow were separated by the sudden crowd.

Lea saw the black Lincoln from afar. Her ga gaze was like a knife, and the anger in her heart surged like magma,

It was Milton. It was his custom-made car. In her previous life, she had sat in it countless times and could recognize it at a glance.

Lea suddenly squeezed forward with all her might, wanting to pounce on him and tear him apart

After squeezing a few times, she realized that she could not move forward at all. She was blocked by the crowd.

After a moment of silence, she clenched her fists and slowly suppressed her emotions.

She had a partner and a family now. For the sake of Alfred, she could not be impulsive and act on impulse. She had to take her revenge slowly.

“Bang Suddenly, someone bumped into her. She staggered and leaned to the side. A refined fragrance wafted out of her nose. She turned around and saw that it was Abigail

The orientation did not allow them to put on makeup, but Abigail and her group secretly put on makeup. They even applied layers of sunscreen.

They were all people from families who did not lack money. In terms of cosmetics, they were extremely extravagant and used high-end goods. Coupled with professional cosmetic skills, one would not be able to tell that they used makeup if they did not look carefully.

Abigail had been wearing this high-end perfume all this time. As soon as she approached, Lea could smell the fragrance.

Now, Abigail was standing beside Lea and looking ahead eagerly. Her hands were folded tightly in front of her chest, and her eyes were red. She was so excited that she could not control herself,

Lea frowned and thought, ‘Could it be that Milton is here to confess to Abigail That shouldn’t be the case. In my previous life, the two of them only got together several years after, and it was through me. Could it be some butterfly effect? In this life, this adulterous couple had gotten together so quickly? This is not good news. If they joined forces, it would be difficult for me to deal with them.

Lea stood where she was, wanting to see what was going on Abigail became even more excited. Her body trembled slightly, and her eyes were already wet with tears.

“She thought, “Who else in the entire Iverton and the entire Conrad University has a background, beauty, talent, reputation, and status worthy of Milton? Other than me, who else can it be? Therefore, he must have come to confess to me and find the Erickson family for a marriage alliance. It would be great if the person in the car was Alfred! Although he is not as famous and popular as Milton, such an outstanding man can make people unable to take their eyes off him as long as he appears in the spotlight. He has hidden his talents well. As long as he wants to make a move, he will Instantly shine. Moreover, he is going to inherit the Andrews family in the future.

‘But now, even if it is Milton, it is still very good! Look, everyone is going crazy because of him. When the flowers are delivered to me, will definitely be jealous. Lea is only worthy of looking up to me and being jealous of me these girls

Thomas walked forward with the flowers in his arms. The boys and girls blocking the road, including the parents and servants, all made way in the middle.

Thomas was born with facial paralysis and had been with Milton for a long time. Usually, he was serious and cold and could scare children to tears. Now, he was gentle.

It wasn't easy for Milton to take a fancy to a young lady, and he was so diligent. Since Thomas had to send flowers on Milton's behalf, he felt that he must not scare the young lady and win her favor.

Everyone quietened down and held their breaths, waiting to witness this moment. They wanted to see which lucky and outstanding girl had been chosen by the Andrews family's current leader.

Abigail looked at the eye-catching rose that passed through the crowd and approached her step by step. Her trembling became more and more intense.

Not far behind her was Leona and the others. Their eyes were red as they covered their mouths. They were waiting for Abigail to hold the flowers before screaming.

They felt that it was lucky for them to be friends with Abigail.

If Abigail became Milton's girlfriend, in the future, she would marry him and become Mrs. Andrews. They were her best friends. Any resources they could get from Abigail would be a huge benefit to their families. Even the title of "Mrs. Andrews's friend" could bring them great benefits.

Thomas had already walked up to Abigail. She took a step forward and reached out to hold the bouquet. Thomas' Her voice was choked and tears spilled out.

Suddenly, her arms were empty. Thomas had already walked past her and placed the flower in front of Lea.

“Miss Lea Berry, Mr. Milton Andrews has reserved the entire place on the top floor of the Empire State Building. He invites you to dine with him.”

The Empire Suite Building was Iverion's landmark building. It was a top-notch restaurant and was known as the number-one restaurant in the world. It was very famous worldwide. It was very difficult to book it even with money and status, let alone book the entire place.

Leona and the others screamed. However, their originally surprised screams turned into terrified screams. Then, they fell silent, embarrassed and at a loss

Abigail's hand was still frozen in mid-air. Her face was pale and the blood had drained from her face. She felt as if she had fallen into an icehouse The blood in her body had frozen.

She thought, “Why is it Lea and not me? Even if her studies are better than mine and she got first place, she was born in Vaporleon City. In my eyes, that kind of place is just a remote village. As for the Berry family, they are just nouveau richer. How can the Berry family be worthy of the Andrews family? Is it because of her look? I look perfect. How am I inferior to her?"

She would never admit that she was not as good-looking as Lea. However, she couldn't understand why Milton had chosen Lea. Abigail could not understand and could not accept it. Large droplets of tears fell from her eyes, and she looked extremely aggrieved.

The others looked at Len in shock. However, she looked like a goddess and was unbelievably beautiful. She was also the first place of freshmen and her results were not bad. She was very good in all aspects. Among the girls present, other than Lea's family background, there was indeed no one more eye-catching than her.

If they knew Lea's career and net worth, they wouldn't think that way,

In the car. Milton was also looking of Lea. He deliberately sat by the window so that he could see her better.

She was wearing a short-sleeved uniform, camouflage pants, boots, and a high ponytail. She was tall and beautiful. Her face was a work of art by the creator, and her skin was very smooth.

Under her long eyelashes. her clear and beautiful eyes were clear and deep, as if there was a vast world hidden inside, attracting people to investigate

Just like the other students, who had been undergoing orientation for fifteen days in such weather. Most of the time, they were exposed to the sun. and all the students had turned tanned. Some of them even lost the feeling of youth. Lea was the only one who seemed to not be affected. It made Abigail and the others extremely jealous.

However, these were not what Milton cared about the most. If he only cared about a girl's appearance, he would have gotten married long ago.

It was because such a beautiful and valiant girl had developed a second-generation artificial brain and was a genius that was rarely seen.

Not only that, but Lea also established Riverview Hospital and displayed powerful and sharp business talent.

Then, she defeated Marilda and Helen, kicked them out of the house, and even annexed the Fraley Group.

Milton had been in the business world for ten years and no one could compare to him in terms of wisdom and courage.

He had taken a fancy to Lea and was deeply in love with her. He felt that she was the one who was worthy of him.

The corners of his mouth lifted slightly, revealing a faint smile. With a rare sweetness, he waited for her to take the flowers, get in the car, and take her to the restaurant.

Chapter 209

Lea's face darkened and she took the bouquet.

With all her strength, she threw the flowers to the ground. They broke, scattering petals. All the girls were dumbfounded.

They thought that Lea would take the bouquet, cry with gratitude, and agree to Milton's date.

He was the person in charge of the Andrews family. Everyone felt that Lea was so lucky to have such an outstanding man take a fancy to her

They thought that Lea was so excited that she had gone crazy.

Shannon was also stunned. She had never seen Lea so furious. Even when Matilda and Helen wanted to kill her, Lea had never been like this.

In the car. Milton's smile froze on his face. He had never thought and could not believe that Lea would have such a reaction

Lea raised her eyes and looked at Milton. That sharp gaze seemed to have substance as it pierced through the car window and stared at him. He was instantly shocked

"Tell him that it's impossible between him and me!" Lea's tone was filled with determination.

Why why Thomas couldn't help but ask.

This was also the question in everyone's hearts.

Lea stared at the Lincoln. She could feel Milton's gaze. "I don't like him!"

In her previous life, among her many enemies, Milton was the one who disappointed her the most.

He had pursued her for many years and had won her heart through lies. He had also trampled on her and destroyed her. There was no way Lea would take a fancy to such a dirty person. He was ranked first on her revenge list.

Everyone was stunned again. They choked for a moment and could not say a word. Their hearts were already exploding.

A student said. "Lea, you're surely impressive!"

Another person said, "No, she is like a badass. She will be our boss in the future!"

Someone else said, "That's Milton. He's a man who once publicly said that no woman was worthy of him. I can't believe she doesn't like him..."

Thomas had seen all kinds of storms. At this moment, he was petrified on the spot. His expression changed again and again, and he was at a loss..

In the bulged.

Milton felt as if his heart had been stabbed. His hands gripped the armrests of the seat tightly, and the veins on the back of his hands

He thought, "She doesn't like me. For the first time in my life, someone dares to speak to me like this?"

“Lea!” Abigail grabbed her and pulled her hard, facing her. “What right do you have to look down on Milton! Who do you think you are? Do you think you’re so great just because you got first place once! There are many people with good grades who often get full marks at Conrad University. Is it your insignificant background! It’s your good fortune that a person like Mr. Andrews likes you. How dare you insult him?” Lea’s eyes were red as she said righteously.

It could be seen how outstanding and noble Milton was in Abigail’s heart. She could not allow him to be blasphemed.

Abigail’s heart was filled with jealousy. She was so jealous that she wished she could destroy Lea on the spot

She thought, “What right does someone like Lea have to surpass me and win Milton’s appreciation? What right does she have to step on everything? Is she crazy!

Abigail couldn’t take it and was going crazy.

Lea’s eyes darkened as she looked at her. She realized that Abigail had long liked Milton. However, she wondered when exactly did Abigail fall in love with Milton. She realized that she indeed knew too little about the matters of these wealthy families in Iverton.

Her classmates looked at her eagerly, wondering the same thing. In the car, Milton was the same.

Lea exerted force and shook off Abigail’s hand. A mocking sneer appeared on her lips. “If you think he’s good, go find him. Don’t block my way.”

Her expression was sharp, and her eyes were dark red. Fury surged in her eyes, and she was about to burn her.

Abigail felt a chill all over her body. She could not help but take two steps back to distance herself from her.

Thomas knocked on the car window. “Mr. Andrews.”

The car window rolled down a bit, and the girls opposite could see a corner of Milton’s handsome face. They covered their mouths with their hands, and their hearts were about to jump out,

“Please invite Miss Berry in the car. I want to talk to her. Milton’s face was pale and his tone was weak. This was the first time he had been hurt like this

“Yes,” Thomas came to Lea again. “Miss Berry, Mr. Andrews invites you to the car for a conversation “There’s no need for that? Lea immediately rejected him. There was no room for negotiation.

“Miss Berry.” Thomas’s expression darkened. Please.”

Behind him, more than ten bodyguards had already lined up. If she didn’t get into the car, they would use force.

Milton was sincere. That was why he went through so much trouble, sent flowers to confess, and lowered her stance to invite Lea

If she didn't take the soft approach, they could use the hard approach.

Knowing what they were going to do, Les looked up with a sharp gaze.

After a moment of confrontation, Thomas gestured to the two bodyguards beside him. The two of them understood and came forward from the left and right

"Miss Berry, I'm sorry." They reached out, but before they could touch her

"Bang!" The two of them flew out and crashed into the car. Then, they fell to the ground, unable to get up

Beside Lea, there was already a young man who was close to six feet four. He was muscular and exuded vigor. He had sharp eyebrows and bright eyes. His eyes were clear and pure. He looked like a teenager. There were bruises on his face, forehead, and eyebrows. Not only did they not weaken his aura, but they also gave off resilience and strength. His fists were covered in wounds, but they exuded a deterrent aura. It was Yannis,

Shannon heaved a sigh of relief when she saw him

After they came to the orientation, Yannis went to the underground arena with Archer. On the one hand, it was for training, and on the other hand, it was for achievements.

Unlike Vaporleon City, the boxers at Iverion were all experts from all over the world. The benefits involved were also world-class.

It took him half a month to complete a round of training and gain a foothold in the underground boxing arena.

On his way to come to pick them up today, Yannis happened to see this scene.

Looking at Lea's expression, he knew that she did not want to see these people and directly attacked them.

Everyone was dumbfounded again, including Milton in the car

Thomas's palms were covered in cold sweat, but seeing that there was no

as no movement in the car, he understood his boss's intentions. He then looked at Lea and the young man who suddenly appeared in front of him.

After confirming their attitude, he stepped back to make way for the bodyguards.

Lea also moved two steps to the side to make room for Yannis.

A bodyguard came up. "Bang""

Another bodyguard came up. "Rang!"

The bodyguards couldn't care less. Everyone attacked Yannis together.

Lea watched from the side as Yannis attacked. She narrowed her eyes slightly and was stunned. In the past half a month, his improvement had exceeded her expectations. As expected of the descendant of a boxing champion, his talent was outstanding.

In an instant, more than ten bodyguards of Milton fell to the ground. Some of them were seriously injured and could not get up at all. All the students were already numb from shock.

The Andrews family's extraordinary leader had suddenly descended to the mortal world to confess his love. Not only had he been rejected, but his bodyguards also been beaten up. The bodyguards had fallen to the ground. Everyone present felt that this was a lucid dream. It was impossible for that to happen.

In the car. Milton's face was ashen. He knew very well that his subordinates were the best among the bodyguards of Iverton.

Lea's face darkened and she took the bouquet.

With all her strength, she threw the flowers to the ground. They broke, scattering petals. All the girls were dumbfounded.

They thought that Lea would take the bouquet, cry with gratitude, and agree to Milton's date.

He was the person in charge of the Andrews family. Everyone felt that Lea was so lucky to have such an outstanding man take a fancy to her

They thought that Lea was so excited that she had gone crazy.

Shannon was also stunned. She had never seen Lea so furious. Even when Matilda and Helen wanted to kill her, Lea had never been like this.

In the car. Milton's smile froze on his face. He had never thought and could not believe that Lea would have such a reaction

Lea raised her eyes and looked at Milton. That sharp gaze seemed to have substance as it pierced through the car window and stared at him. He was instantly shocked

"Tell him that it's impossible between him and me!" Lea's tone was filled with determination.

Why why Thomas couldn't help but ask.

This was also the question in everyone's hearts.

Lea stared at the Lincoln. She could feel Milton's gaze. "I don't like him!"

In her previous life, among her many enemies, Milton was the one who disappointed her the most.

He had pursued her for many years and had won her heart through lies. He had also trampled on her and destroyed her. There was no way Lea would take a fancy to such a dirty person. He was ranked first on her revenge list.

Everyone was stunned again. They choked for a moment and could not say a word. Their hearts were already exploding.

A student said. "Lea, you're surely impressive!"

Another person said, "No, she is like a badass. She will be our boss in the future!"

Someone else said, "That's Milton. He's a man who once publicly said that no woman was worthy of him. I can't believe she doesn't like him..."

Thomas had seen all kinds of storms. At this moment, he was petrified on the spot. His expression changed again and again, and he was at a loss..

In the
bulged.

Milton felt as if his heart had been stabbed. His hands gripped the armrests of the seat tightly, and the veins on the back of his hands

He thought, "She doesn't like me. For the first time in my life, someone dares to speak to me like this?

"Lea!" Abigail grabbed her and pulled her hard, facing her. "What right do you have to look down on Milton! Who do you think you are? Do you think you're so great just because you got first place once! There are many people with good grades who often get full marks at Conrad University. Is it your insignificant background! It's your good fortune that a person like Mr. Andrews likes you. How dare you insult him?" Lea's eyes were red as she said righteously.

It could be seen how outstanding and noble Milton was in Abigail's heart. She could not allow him to be blasphemed.

Abigail's heart was filled with jealousy. She was so jealous that she wished she could destroy Lea on the spot

She thought, "What right does someone like Lea have to surpass me and win Milton's appreciation? What right does she have to step on everything? Is she crazy!

Abigail couldn't take it and was going crazy.

Lea's eyes darkened as she looked at her. She realized that Abigail had long liked Milton. However, she wondered when exactly did Abigail fall in love with Milton. She realized that she indeed knew too little about the matters of these wealthy families in Iverson.

Her classmates looked at her eagerly, wondering the same thing. In the car, Milton was the same.

Lea exerted force and shook off Abigail's hand. A mocking sneer appeared on her lips. "If you think he's good, go find him. Don't block my way."

Her expression was sharp, and her eyes were dark red. Fury surged in her eyes, and she was about to burn her.

Abigail felt a chill all over her body. She could not help but take two steps back to distance herself from her.

Thomas knocked on the car window. "Mr. Andrews."

The car window rolled down a bit, and the girls opposite could see a corner of Milton's handsome face. They covered their mouths with their hands, and their hearts were about to jump out,

“Please invite Miss Berry in the car. I want to talk to her. Milton’s face was pale and his tone was weak. This was the first time he had been hurt like this

“Yes,” Thomas came to Lea again. “Miss Berry, Mr. Andrews invites you to the car for a conversation “There’s no need for that? Les immediately rejected him. There was no room for negotiation.

“Miss Berry.” Tahoma’s expression darkened. Please.”

Behind him, more than ten bodyguards had already lined up. If she didn’t get into the car, they would use force.

Milton was sincere. That was why he went through so much trouble, sent flowers to confess, and lowered her stance to invite Lea

If she didn’t take the soft approach, they could use the hard approach.

Knowing what they were going to do, Les looked up with a sharp gaze.

After a moment of confrontation, Thomas gestured to the two bodyguards beside him. The two of them understood and came forward from the left and right

“Miss Berry, I’m sorry.” They reached out, but before they could touch her

“Bang!” The two of them flew out and crashed into the car. Then, they fell to the ground, unable to get up

Beside Lea, there was already a young man who was close to six feet four. He was muscular and exuded vigor. He had sharp eyebrows and bright eyes. His eyes were clear and pure. He looked like a teenager. There were bruises on his face, forehead, and eyebrows. Not only did they not weaken his aura, but they also gave off resilience and strength. His fists were covered in wounds, but they exuded a deterrent aura. It was Yannis,

Shannon heaved a sigh of relief when she saw him

After they came to the orientation, Yannis went to the underground arena with Archer. On the one hand, it was for training, and on the other hand, it was for achievements.

Unlike Vaporleon City, the boxers at Iverion were all experts from all over the world. The benefits involved were also world–class.

It took him half a month to complete a round of training and gain a foothold in the underground boxing arena.

On his way to come to pick them up today, Yannis happened to see this scene.

Looking at Lea’s expression, he knew that she did not want to see these people and directly attacked them.

Everyone was dumbfounded again, including Milton in the car

Thomas’s palms were covered in cold sweat, but seeing that there was no

as no movement in the car, he understood his boss's intentions. He then looked at Lea and the young man who suddenly appeared in front of him.

After confirming their attitude, he stepped back to make way for the bodyguards.

Lea also moved two steps to the side to make room for Yannis.

A bodyguard came up. "Bang"

Another bodyguard came up. "Rang!"

The bodyguards couldn't care less. Everyone attacked Yannis together.

Lea watched from the side as Yannis attacked. She narrowed her eyes slightly and was stunned. In the past half a month, his improvement had exceeded her expectations. As expected of the descendant of a boxing champion, his talent was outstanding.

young man beside Lea. No one could withstand his punch. None of this mattered. The crux of the problem was that Lea had actually attacked his people without mercy. Once again, she made her stance clear. It was impossible for her to be with him. She looked down on him

Ever since he was born, he had been at his peak. Milton's life had been smooth-sailing, and he had never experienced defeat. He did not know what failure was. At that moment, he had lost so thoroughly. His heart felt like it was about to be crushed and shattered. He could not breathe and was about to suffocate. It was extremely uncomfortable.

Chapter 210

"Miss Berry." Thomas was the first to react. He spoke slowly with grievance and resentment. "Mr. Andrews is sincere to you. What you're doing is too unreasonable."

His words were already very polite.

Lea looked up at the Lincoln. Her gaze was cold and sharp. Then, she walked over.

In the car, Milton suddenly paused when he saw her walking towards him. He subconsciously touched his collar, adjusted his cuffs, and reached out to open the door.

Lea bent down and entered the car. The two of them sat opposite each other.

“Bang. The car door closed, separating it from the outside world.

The gray business interior space was extremely luxurious and elegant. The driver’s seat was separated by a partition, and it was absolutely private Lea looked at Milton. This was the first time the two of them had officially met in this life, three years earlier than in her previous life.

His facial features were younger and more handsome. The wrinkles between his eyebrows were lighter, and his eyes were much cleaner. The sharpness around him had yet to be restrained. He was wearing a black and ironed high-end suit, a tie of the same color, and a black and gold button brooch. He looked luxurious and dazzling. He was really like a figure of god.

This private arrangement of combining office and travel had already reached the highest level in the world in terms of space.

However, she only felt that her surroundings were pressing down on her. The air seemed to have been sucked dry, and she could not breathe

Every cell in her body was roaring and every nerve was expanding. She felt like she was about to explode.

She tried her best to control herself and looked at him calmly. Her clear eyes seemed to be tempered with ice and contained poison.

The last time when he caught a glimpse of her figure in Knetside Garden, Milton was already stunned by Lea

Now that he was looking at her at such a close distance, her facial features were even more exquisite, and her temperament was even more dignified. Amidst her elegance and nobility, she was domineering and calm.

“Mikon thought, “What kind of experience did she have to have such a powerful aura?

He instantly submitted to her. However, her gaze made his heart sink, “Miss Berry, I’m sorry for being rude. I apologize Milion had a sincere and gentle expression on his face. In his twenty-four years of living in this world, he had never shown such a posture and expression. Even he did not realize that he would have such a sincere side. “I was too full of myself and thought that girls liked these things. It’s also because I’ve admired you for a long ume. Since the last time I caught a glimpse of you at the Kentisde Garden, two months had gone by. I have been unable to let go of you!

Lea's fingertips trembled. She was shocked by him and felt more anger,

She thought, "He fell in love with me so randomly?"

Lea's gaze was like a scalpel. It went straight into his heart from his face and dissected him from the inside out.

Although he was a very successful businessman, he did not put on any airs and was full of sincerity. He expressed his adoration honestly, his eyes filled with sincerity

He was such a gentleman and so perfect that she couldn't find any falsehood in him. Lea did not doubt his sincerity. She only felt that it was ridiculous.

She thought, "No wonder he was so willing in my previous life and worked so hard for me, which resulted in me being set up by him in the end. In the beginning, he was very sincere to me, like this

For a person who was trapped in the darkness and about to suffocate, even a faint light would make them scramble for it. Moreover, Milton had come to Lea with all his affection and radiance.

However, he couldn't keep it up to the end.

A mocking smile appeared on Lea's face. "Mr. Andrews, may I ask what you admire about me?"

Milton took a deep breath and calmed his nerves. He said patiently, "Miss Berry is smart, beautiful, talented, and hardworking. I can't find a reason not to like you"

"Extremely talented and hardworking? It turns out that Mr. Andrews has taken a fancy to my value."

Lea thought, "It is the same in both my past and present lives. For my value, he did not hesitate to use his feelings to win me over:

Lea, Milton said earnestly, "I know you are young and have your own thoughts and dreams about love, Lea understand that."

He was five years older than her, and he felt that he had much more experience than Lea did.

He continued. "But I can give you everything you want, whether it's schoolwork, career, or the care and companionship you deserve. With my conditions, we can cultivate the best love."

Milton's eyes were shining with confidence.

There was no change in Lea's beautiful face. "I got into the car to tell you that I will never like you in my life, let alone talk about love. It's impossible between you and me. You don't have to do this again in the future, Mr. Andrews"

Lea's expression was so cold and firm. Milton looked at her carefully. Even though she tried her best to hide it, he could still see overwhelming resentment and anger in her. She was filled with hatred. It was so strong and fierce, although they had never met before. It was as if Lea was born with a hatred for Milton. Milton found this absolutely ridiculous.

Lea turned around and was about to get out of the car. Milton grabbed her wrist.

She felt that the place where he grabbed her seemed to have been branded with a branding iron, and she shook him off. Milton was shocked again. He realized that it was really hatred, not an illusion.

“Lea, why? You have to tell me the reason.” He was always so patient with her that he surprised himself.

“Why?” Lea suppressed the discomfort in her heart and sat upright again. She looked at him and asked, “Why should I like you! Could it be that since you were born, everyone in the world should like you, admire you, and submit to you?””

“Leaf Milton’s tone became heavier and his expression darkened.

No matter how patient he was, it would be painful, sad, and temperamental to be slapped in the face by her time and time again,

“Is it because of Alfred?” He didn’t believe what she was saying, Instinct told him there were other reasons.

He had investigated her, so he naturally found out about Alfred’s relationship with Lea.

Alfred had stayed in Vaporlean City for her for so long and brought her to the Kentside Garden to see Blake. Of course, Milton knew what Alfred was thinking. It was the same as his, however, Alfred moved faster than he did.

Milton’s thin lips moved. He wanted to say something, but he changed his words. “I know you’re an extraordinary woman. Otherwise, I wouldn’t ~have taken a fancy to you. You deserve better treatment. Previously, on your birthday, I couldn’t personally deliver the gift to you because I had an important acquisition case. I was overseas and couldn’t come back. I should have picked up to settle you down when you came to Iverton for school. I should first understand your preferences before picking a gift for you instead of picking someone on my own.”

Lea was shocked. It turned out that not only did he do these things today, but he had already started to take action on Lea’s birthday.

She thought of something and her eyes flashed. She then remained calm and cold.

Lea said, “Milton, listen carefully. Even without Alfred, I will never be with you in this life. Give up on this idea now

With that, she pushed the door open and got out of the car. She did not want to stay for a second longer.

He looked at her determined back and his eyes turned completely cold without any emotion. Originally, he was an unscrupulous person. Everything in the world was not worth his attention. He only cared about his goal and would do anything to achieve his goal.

Only Lea was an exception to Milton For Lea, he could develop patient, endurance, sacrifice, and even affection
