

Her Seven LBG 1011

Chapter 1011 A Fool in Love

Thomas sighed and slammed his fist against the hospital bed after hearing all that she had to go through that day. "I want you to arrange for a group of men to water over Vania. Make sure she's safe," Thomas told his assistant. "Also, I want more people on the team searching for Yvonne."

"Got it."

"Keep an eye on the news spreading around online, too. I don't want Vania's reputation to be ruined," Thomas added.

"You sure are meticulous when it comes to matters related to Vania." Liam's voice filled that air just moments after Thomas finished his sentence. Thomas froze for a moment, but he calmed down after making sure that Hanson hadn't tagged along to visit him. "I'm afraid you haven't heard about the latest updates," Thomas uttered in an exasperated tone.

"What?" Liam didn't know anything—he had been too busy with work. Even though he was swamped with endless tasks, there wasn't a single project that was profiting him. He even had to suffer some losses. This was obviously a chain reaction that stemmed from Hanson's attacks on Liam's company overseas.

Thomas let out a long sigh. "Yvonne took action again. Everything that I'm doing now is just to make up for her faults." Liam had to agree with what Thomas said, but he also knew that he was partially involved in the whole incident. "Haha," Liam let out a dry laugh. "I'm here to visit you. How have you been feeling?" Liam asked as he placed the basket of fruits down and walked closer to Thomas.

Liam's actions made it clear that he no longer had any intention of getting in Thomas' way. Thomas was stunned for a moment—he hadn't expected such an abrupt change in Liam's behavior. "I'll probably be discharged soon," Thomas replied.

"But... Don't you think it would be safer for you to stay in the hospital?" Liam still tried to offer some suggestions. Both Thomas and Vania were Yvonne's main targets at that point. Even though they both had the capabilities to deal with any unexpected situations, it was still better to be safe than sorry.

Thomas was reminded of Vania once more. "Maybe I can find ways to reduce the harm done to Vania once I get out," he said. He wanted to take some of the attention away from Vania.

"Wouldn't both of you just end up in danger together?" Liam disagreed with Thomas. "Yvonne is practically a devil now, and I wouldn't underestimate what she and Eddie could do. They're crazy. Why don't you trust me and stay in the hospital? That way, we'll have enough time to protect Vania," Liam suggested in a gentle tone.

Chapter 1012 Our Partnership

"Don't you know the rules yet?" Yvonne looked up to glare at Eddie. "What are you doing here?" Recently, Eddie would drop by to tease and make a fool out of Yvonne, and she was losing patience with him. He continued to chuckle as if he couldn't tell that Yvonne was annoyed at him. However, it was obvious that he was sneering at her. "I heard that you failed again, Miss Kepler. As I said, you shouldn't get too impatient."

"There's no need for you to drop by just to tease me." Yvonne ignored him and looked at the paper ball in her hand. She opened it to see Bryan's name. Hah, I never paid much attention to him. Well, since the heavens chose him as my first target, I'll have to start with him. Yvonne quickly came to a decision. However, the uninvited visitor was still standing in her way. "What are you doing here?" Yvonne tried to chase Eddie off when she saw him standing in front of her.

"I'm here to offer help." A new plan began to take its form in Eddie's mind when he saw the name on the paper in Yvonne's hand. "Do you think I need help?" The young mistress of the Kepler Family had gone through a lot of changes in recent times, but she maintained the same haughty attitude as before.

"You're too talented, Miss Kepler. You don't need my help, of course." There was still a hint of sarcasm in Eddie's voice as he spoke. "You can just treat me as the icing on the cake. I figured that I would show some sincerity since we're technically partners," he said.

"Fine. You didn't succeed the last time I told you to attack Bryan. Let's go on with the plan, then. I hope you don't disappoint me," Yvonne uttered. She was secretly happy as this meant that she had one less issue to deal with. She figured that she would rather spend more of her effort and funds on Vania since Vania was her main enemy.

Eddie was eager to accept the task this time. "Don't worry, Miss Kepler. I'll get the job done." Yvonne waved him off with a haughty flick of the wrist. "Sure. You can leave now."

Brandon felt extremely annoyed to see the way Yvonne acted, and he had the urge to speak up for Eddie. He was about to say something when Eddie stopped him. "Come on. We have important matters to handle," he told Brandon.

"Alright."

...

Meanwhile, the production team was working on the top floor of a hotel. Minnie had already stood around the entrance for a while. She had just received a text from one of the directors in the industry, and the director had asked her out for a meeting. Judging by the time and location that the director had asked to meet her, she already had an idea of what was about to happen. This wasn't her first encounter with such an incident, so she was familiar with the situation.

Chapter 1013 Take Your Clothes Off

Robert could feel himself losing control as the woman's voice echoed in his ears. However, he managed to refrain from doing anything when he thought about the third person in the room. "Let me introduce you to someone. I'm sure you'll receive a lot more jobs if you manage to please him," Robert said instead. Then, he led Minnie over to the man, who was none other than Eddie.

Eddie was a pretty decent-looking man—he had the Luke Family genes, after all. However, he had a rather sly look on his face that made him seem like a bad guy. This was the first time Minnie laid eyes on Eddie, and she didn't know who he was. She secretly observed him a little while he did the same to her. Eddie had already gone through Minnie's background, and she seemed to him like a rather insignificant individual. However, he was pleased to find that Minnie had a tendency to stick around Bryan whenever she was with the production team. I wonder if it's because she fancies him or because of something else... Well, regardless, I like a person who acts with some purpose. I'll be able to work better with her if that's the case.

"Take a seat." Eddie gave her instructions after a while, and he crossed one leg over the other while eyeing Minnie's figure. She seems decent. I guess I can have some fun with her. I don't want to meet her without doing anything. I should enjoy myself a little.

Minnie took a seat before turning to glance at Robert. She didn't know what to say. "This is Mr. Luke. He chose to invest in you! You're lucky to be the chosen one." Robert introduced her to the man, but he kept glancing at Minnie's chest as he spoke. Robert was known to be one of the most perverted men in the industry.

Minnie, on the other hand, didn't feel much discomfort despite his intrusive glances. She simply shifted her body a little. "Mm," she mumbled in a playful and high-pitched tone while running her hand through her hair. "Hey, Mr. Luke." Eddie knew that she would play along with the rules when he saw the way she acted.

"You can leave now. You'll get your share later," Eddie told Robert. In other words, Eddie wanted to have fun before leaving the woman to Robert. Robert had no choice but to gaze at Minnie longingly while walking out of the room.

After that, Eddie and Minnie were the only two people in the room. Minnie started to act and speak more flirtatiously than before. She had more than enough experience to know exactly how to please a man, and she didn't hold back while flaunting her charm. All she wanted to do was to please Eddie then. For some reason, Eddie was reminded of Vania as he looked at the woman before him.

Vania was a mesmerizing woman—she was exactly Eddie's type. If only I could have some fun with Vania, Eddie thought. He frowned at his own thoughts—he hadn't expected himself to have such desires. He often shied away from the public as he wanted to avoid being attracted by other women. He knew that infatuation would bring nothing but trouble. However, he went against his own rules that night. "Take your clothes off," he ordered Minnie.

Minnie was quick to follow his orders.

...

About one hour later, Eddie was dressed neatly in his clothes. "Do you remember everything that I told you?"

Chapter 1014 Practicing Lines

Their progress was ahead of schedule, so there was no rush for them to complete the scenes. Bryan shook his head. "I'm fine with anything, but I don't see Minnie around." He didn't have any scenes with the female lead that afternoon, and he didn't see her around that day.

"Were you looking for me, Mr. Bryan?" Minnie showed up just moments after Bryan asked about her. "I didn't have any scenes earlier, so I went back to get some rest. How were your parts?" she asked.

"Ah...!" Minnie had just finished her sentence when she seemed to trip on something on the ground. She fell directly into Bryan's arms. Bryan was rather taken aback, but his instincts told him to reach out and hold onto her. Anyone who didn't see the entire incident would've assumed that they were just hugging one another.

"I'm sorry. I'm so sorry." Minnie was quick to apologize.

"It's fine." Bryan only held onto her for a while before he let go of her. He even took one step back just to keep some distance from the woman. Minnie glanced at her leg before letting out a light laugh.

"There was a pebble. I didn't notice it. I'm sorry about that." Then, she bowed down to the man. "Thank you for catching me."

"Don't worry about it. I'm sure you didn't mean to trip and fall. Is your leg okay?" Bryan showed some care for the woman since she was being so polite.

"I'm fine. Don't worry about me, Mr. Bryan." Minnie fixed her hair while subtly batting her eyelids at Bryan. However, Bryan didn't know what the look in her eyes meant, so he continued to question her. "Do you have an itch in your eye or something?"

My eye? Minnie was confused for a moment. Her vision had always been sharp and accurate—she never had any troubles or discomfort with her eyesight. Is he trying to be sarcastic? Minnie took a long, earnest look at the man's straight face, only to conclude that he was probably too innocent and simple-minded to understand why she had been batting her eyelids.

"No. I'm fine now." She had no choice but to play along. I don't think I can seduce this guy at all, she thought. The director came up to them then. "Are you guys ready? Shall we start filming?" The director was a gentle and caring man who often asked for everyone's opinions.

Minnie shot a thoughtful glance in Bryan's direction. "Are you ready, Mr. Bryan?"

"Yeah." Bryan was a clear-headed and focused man who found it easy to get into character whenever he needed to. "I'm ready too, then." Minnie beamed and agreed to start. She hadn't caused any trouble from the start of their filming, and Bryan had a rather decent impression of her. Both of them were quick to get into their characters.

It only took them a short while to complete their scenes, and the production team returned to the hotel after that. Minnie got herself dressed and groomed before she visited Bryan's room. She brought her assistant along with her so Bryan didn't seem too guarded when he opened the door for them. "Which part of the script would you like to practice?"

Chapter 1015 Don't Get Mad

The assistant handed the phone to Minnie. "I filmed it all," the assistant replied. "Alright. You may leave now," Minnie ordered.

"Okay."

Minnie went through the videos for a while before she sent them to an unknown number. When Eddie received the videos, he curled his lips into a sneer. "What an obedient woman." There was a rather sinister expression on his face as he handed his phone over to Brandon. "You can arrange for these videos to be released."

"Are you sure you want to go against the Jones Family, Mr. Luke?" Brandon sounded rather worried. He didn't want Eddie to mess with the Joneses just for the sake of Yvonne—he figured it was always better to avoid trouble.

Eddie, on the other hand, didn't seem too concerned. "It doesn't matter what happens. Yvonne is probably the first person anyone would suspect, after all. We should do as much as we can since there's someone around to take the blame," Eddie replied. He enjoyed remaining in the background while causing havoc.

Brandon agreed to Eddie's words after hearing his plan. "Sure. I'll arrange for the news to be released, then."

The one thing that all rookie celebrities tried to avoid was a scandal. It didn't matter if the scandal was true—their reputation would be impacted regardless. The more the public criticized and beat them down, the harder it would be for their career to develop in the industry.

After Eddie's intervention, Bryan's name ended up trending on Twitter as one of the hot topics. Other names that trended were Minnie and Jennifer's names. Even though Jennifer was known as one of the best actresses, Minnie's name trended higher on the list. 'Bryan Jones cheated on Jennifer Watson with his co-actor Minnie Turner! Watson was spotted looking glum while in the airport,' one article wrote.

The video footage of Bryan and Minnie was also released as concrete evidence of their relationship. On top of that, Jennifer had shown up at the airport that day only because she was supposed to fly over to visit Bryan. When the news reporters spotted her in the airport, they took the opportunity to enhance their stories by including pictures of Jennifer.

Both Jennifer and Bryan had no idea about the articles at first. Meanwhile, Minnie, who was part of the plan, didn't mind getting involved in such scandals. Good fame or bad fame... As long as it's fame! A person can't call themselves famous without getting into a few scandals. This is fake news, anyway. I can just clarify myself eventually. I'm sure Bryan and Jennifer will not allow the news to spread, either. They can handle the issue, and I'll just go along with whatever they say. Minnie had already come up with a whole plan for herself.

When Minnie saw the increase in her popularity and exposure, she spread her lips into a pleased smile. She had even gained more than 100,000 new fans.

Chapter 1016 Who Was It?

Bryan told Jennifer all about the news on the Internet. "You have to trust me, darling. All of the things written online are fake." Jennifer was shocked to hear about this at first, but she quickly searched through the news articles before glancing through them. "I trust you," she replied after that. The news was obviously fake—it was common for such scandals to surface in the entertainment industry. Bryan was relieved to hear that Jennifer believed his words. "You can wait for me in the hotel. I'll handle this," he assured.

If Jennifer showed up at the filming site at a time like this, the public would only create more gossip from there. They would probably come up with ridiculous rumors. 'Bryan Jones' ex-lover Jennifer Watson causes havoc on their filming site,' or 'Jennifer Watson slaps Minnie Turner on the face' would probably become the next headline.

"Sure." Jennifer understood the meaning of Bryan's arrangement. "I trust that you'll handle everything. See you tonight."

"Alright. I can't wait to see you," he said. It was then that Bryan realized how much he liked Jennifer. She was a smart and mature woman, and she knew not to cause more trouble during crucial moments like this. Bryan felt a lot more at ease when he went through the videos once more. Someone had recorded the accidental hug that happened between him and Minnie, and there was also footage of Minnie walking over to his hotel room to practice her lines.

The person had recorded every detail of their interaction, and the angle at which the recording had been taken made Bryan and Minnie seem especially close to each other. Furthermore, Minnie's hair and clothes were messy when she left his hotel room, which only evoked more inappropriate assumptions coming from the public. Did Minnie plan all of this? Bryan couldn't help but wonder. How would she benefit from it, though? An article like this would only affect her career. Who else could it be, then? Is it Yvonne?

Bryan had been suspicious of Yvonne from the start. Things would be a lot more troublesome if Yvonne was the one behind this, as it would mean that one of Yvonne's people had managed to infiltrate their production team. In other words, Bryan would be in direct contact with danger. He wouldn't know when he'd end up dead, just like that. "Send this to Mrs. Luke," he told his assistant. "I've already sent her a copy." His assistant was thoughtful and experienced enough to know what to do in such situations.

"Do you guys need half a day off?" The director heard about the news, and he was genuinely concerned about Bryan. The director felt bad for him as he had encountered multiple mishaps ever since he first started the filming. Indeed, Bryan was no longer in the mood to shoot any scenes after what happened, so he nodded in response to the director's offer. "Thanks."

Bryan had always been an earnest actor, and the rest of the production team admired him greatly. They were, therefore, eager to support him when this issue arose. Bryan was just about to leave when Minnie stopped him in his tracks. She was sobbing and panicking as if she had lost her mind over what had happened. "I'm so sorry, Mr. Bryan. This wouldn't have happened if I hadn't gone over to practice my lines with you. This was all my fault," she cried.

Chapter 1017 Jennifer's Analysis

Minnie dried her tears immediately after Bryan walked off. "Let's go," she muttered.

Bryan hurried off to the hotel, and he saw Jennifer rushing toward him from the moment he opened the room door. "Give me a hug! I missed you so much." He reached out for a hug. Jennifer cuddled up tightly against him like an obedient little kitten.

"It feels like I haven't seen you in forever. I missed you so much," Bryan whispered. They had only been apart for a few days, but they had already missed each other desperately. After Jennifer arrived at the hotel, she went through all of the videos that were uploaded online. Based on her years of experience in the industry, she made an analysis of the situation. "I think Minnie might be the one who staged this entire thing."

Jennifer's tone was firm, and Bryan believed the same idea as well. "How did you come to that conclusion?" he asked.

Jennifer showed him her phone. "Look at how her popularity doubled within such a short time. She has obviously gained a lot of followers, too. This is what she gets from it."

"But doesn't this impact her reputation as well?" Bryan voiced his suspicions. "Since all of this was fake, she probably knows that you'll deal with it. So, she leveraged this fact to boost her popularity without hurting her reputation. It's a win-win situation for her," Jennifer replied firmly. This was a commonly seen tactic in the entertainment industry.

Bryan nodded in agreement. "I thought Yvonne might be the one behind this," he suggested. Jennifer felt annoyed the moment she heard Yvonne's name. "Don't you think Yvonne could've teamed up with Jennifer to do this?"

Jennifer's words reminded Bryan of something. "I'm sure Yvonne would've offered Minnie some benefits if she managed to get in touch with her." He pondered. Jennifer went through the news once more. "She just signed agreements for two new shows." Jennifer had been in the industry for a longer time, so she had more sources to provide her with the latest information.

Minnie's name was written in bold on the list of actors for two new shows. Jennifer explained, "The initial plan wasn't for Minnie to be the female lead for both these shows. It seems like there may have been some last-minute changes."

"Well, everything makes sense now." Bryan clenched his fists when he thought about how Yvonne went through such a hassle just to hurt him. He desperately wanted to catch her red-handed right then. He had just been about to call Vania when he received a call from her. "Hey Vania, what do you think about the videos?" he was the first to ask her.

"Don't worry about the production team. I've made the necessary arrangements for you. I also have ideas on how to deal with Yvonne, so you should just focus on your shooting." Vania shared her thoughts.

Bryan's expression darkened. "Do you think Yvonne is responsible for this, Vania?"

Chapter 1018 My Skills

Vania figured that she would be able to mediate their conflict if they had fought over this incident. Bryan let out a laugh upon hearing Jennifer's name. "I don't need help with that. I can handle it on my own." He returned to his usual, confident self as he pulled Jennifer close against his chest.

"It seems like you're pretty confident," Vania said with an eyebrow raised.

"Well, of course. My woman is in my arms right now." The man sounded complacent as he spoke. "Well, I don't want to watch you showing your love off." Vania ended the call after that.

"Hehe." Bryan let out a naughty laugh. "I don't usually show you off, do I? Let's film a video for her, my wifey. She'll have no choice but to watch it."

Jennifer blushed before giving Bryan a playful push. "What are you calling me? We're not married yet." They were only dating.

"I'm going to marry you eventually, so I thought I'd practice calling you my wife first." Bryan planted a kiss on Jennifer's lips while holding his phone up in his hand. He recorded the precious moment before sending it to Vania.

Vania rolled her eyes after receiving the video. "You're promoting inappropriate behavior. I'm going to report you."

"Heartless... You're so heartless, Vania." Why do I always lose in comparison to Vania and Hanson? Bryan thought to himself. When will I be able to show my love off as shamelessly as they do?

"Why are you smiling at your phone, darling?" Hanson lowered the documents in his hand and walked over in search of Vania's attention. He didn't have a clear view of Vania's phone, and all he saw was a video of two people kissing. The smile on Hanson's face faded immediately. "What are you doing? Is that man as good-looking as I am?" Hanson assumed that Vania was watching some explicit content.

Vania could immediately tell that he had misunderstood her, so she teased him a little more. "Other guys may not be as handsome as you are, but I figured that I could learn some skills from these videos."

"Skills?" Hanson's voice went a few octaves higher. "Are you not satisfied with my skills?" Vania shook her head. "No... I'm just not satisfied with myself." She regretted her words right after finishing her sentence. I shouldn't have said that. He's definitely going to seize his opportunity now that I handed it to him.

Hanson took her phone away. "I can teach you whatever you want to learn—I don't want you to watch these videos." Then, he spoke to her as if he were lecturing a child. "These videos are toxic, do you understand?"

Vania blinked at the man. What nonsense are you talking about? Hanson held back a little after that as he thought she was displeased. "Well, if you really want to watch these things, then I'll record some videos for you."

Chapter 1019 We Won

"They're showing off, huh?" Hanson stopped everything else that he was doing to play the video. "And he said that you're the one who's shameless about these things?"

"Yeah," Vania replied with a nod.

Hanson ran his fingers across Vania's cheek. "Let's do something more shameless, then." All men were the same—they simply couldn't stand the idea of being defeated. "I'm afraid we might actually have to film explicit content if you want to do that," Vania replied. She felt like Hanson's idea sounded a little too inappropriate. A kiss is fine, but if we were to start feeling each other up, wouldn't that be too much? Wouldn't our accounts be banned if we sent such videos?

"Do you think anyone would have the guts to ban or report my account?" Hanson didn't seem bothered at all.

heart. Hanson had already recorded a video and sent it over at this point. Meanwhile, Bryan, who still had his girlfriend in his arms, heard the

He was especially thuggish when he was in a good mood. "Damn it..." He couldn't help but swear after looking at his phone. "He's too much. Hanson is from her. "You're too innocent to witness such content." He was she was curious. "Ah!" Moments later, she let out a cry before covering her hands over her eyes. "Take it away! Take it away! It burns my eyes!"

at Bryan. "I didn't know President Luke had held onto his phone and glanced at it thoughtfully for a while. "What should we send videos, so he figured that he should be the one to end it all. "Are you going to reply more to this?!"

Jennifer let out a loud cry. "Our accounts might be banned if we continue sending videos like these." She was worried that Bryan might request to do a live

Chapter 1020 The More You Resist

Vania didn't say anything for a while. Did we really win? Or did we shock them a little too much with that video? How am I supposed to interact with Jennifer in the future? I've always seemed all high and mighty in front of Jennifer, but it now seems like my majestic front has collapsed in her eyes. Ugh... Vania thought about it for a while more. I wonder if that's how Jennifer would describe me...

Hanson was still immersed in the joy of his victory. "You should tell me the next time such things happen again," he uttered.

"Next time?" Vania asked. Can he stop being so pointlessly competitive? However, she could only keep such thoughts to herself. "Bryan's a sore loser, so we'll have to be prepared for his next move at all times," Hanson replied in a firm tone. Do we have to prepare ourselves for such things? This... competition... is just in their heads, isn't it? Vania struggled to make sense of the man's logic.

I wonder if Bryan thinks the same. Perhaps I should have a talk with Jennifer about this. Despite having such thoughts, Vania kept a composed look on her face. "Sure," she replied with a nod. Deep down, she hoped that there wasn't going to be a next time.

"That's my good girl," Hanson said with his lips curled into a smirk. Then, he raised an eyebrow to question her. "Should we handle the issues between us now that we're done with them?" he asked.

"Are there any issues we have to deal with?" Vania gazed at him. She desperately wanted to avoid certain things, and she could sense that Hanson was talking about the things she had wanted to avoid. So, her best bet was to play dumb.

beamed at her. "Well, shouldn't we try to nonchalant about it as possible. "But... Why did you say that you weren't too pleased with your skills earlier?" The just had a sudden realization, and I just decided that my skills are really good." Vania gave him a firm nod without a hint out so that I can witness your skills first-hand, then?" Hanson's eyes twinkled as his hands began to

I just realized that there may be certain things I have to work on. There's no rush! Give me some time." Vania gulped. Hanson is clearly like you don't even know how well and polished your skills are, darling." Hanson edged his face closer to hers. "Perhaps we should get some action so that we can was speechless. I've never heard of an idea as ridiculous heard of this concept, darling?" Hanson asked all of a read his mind, so she couldn't tell what he was trying