"I have nothing to say." Vania felt it was best to keep her mouth shut for now.

"You have nothing to say?" Hanson deliberately spoke slowly. "I'll use my actions to express myself then."

However, even though the scandal on the internet was still growing viral, Vania and Bryan didn't bother dealing with it.

Meanwhile, Yvonne was delighted to see such a scene. The more people cursed Minnie online, the happier Yvonne was.

Minnie was flustered by the situation. Jennifer had always had a huge fanbase and a good reputation among netizens. Therefore, many netizens cursed Minnie and Bryan when this scandal erupted.

However, Bryan and Jennifer acted as if nothing had happened and didn't release an official statement to explain.

If this continued, it would mean Bryan was admitting it. In that case, Minnie would never be able to recover from the reputation damage.

"Miss Turner, what should we do?" Her assistant was also in a panic.

The vulgar hate comments online multiplied like crazy, and her haters increased by seconds. If she didn't solve this misunderstanding soon, she would probably be classified as a low-class actress.

Chapter 1022 Another Trending Video

Bryan still had scenes to film this afternoon. But, after half a day's rest, he believed he had regulated his emotions.

As for the remaining matters, he would know how to handle them after seeing Vania.

After all, he could rest assured of the way she handled things.

In the meantime, Minnie was still in shock and had yet to figure out an appropriate response.

According to their seniority in the entertainment industry, Minnie was inferior to Jennifer.

Under Jennifer and Bryan's gaze, Minnie nervously greeted, "Miss Watson."

Jennifer nodded. "What's the matter?"

She was still arrogant in front of outsiders.

It was exactly like the first time Minnie met Vania. Jennifer and Vania both had a sense of disdain toward others.

Minnie was already nervous, and under Jennifer's scrutinizing gaze, she began to stutter. "I-I'm fine."

'How can we tell from the video that it was an apology? The atmosphere doesn't feel right.'

'It's only a silent video. Can the person who posted the video also put up the sound?' At the same time, the netizens had started to investigate Bryan's background.

They were now confident that he was from the Jones Family, but his exact status in the family was still a mystery.

However, as soon as the netizens heard that he had started to file for a lawsuit, the comments they left started to switch around.

'Is he abusing his status? Or is it the truth?'

'I hope there is solid evidence. I don't want a biased statement as that will be unconvincing.'

'Someone must have exaggerated this issue with malicious intentions. It might even be Minnie herself.'

The netizens had once again started to express their opinions on the viral video.

Meanwhile, Bryan and Jennifer met up with Vania in a restaurant.

As the female protagonists in yesterday's video, Vania and Jennifer did not feel as awkward as they had imagined when they met.

I did say that, but I was just trying to appease the media. Bryan was still waiting for Vania to devise a solution for him.

"Vania, do you think that is a proper solution?"

He didn't think his threat would work because it wouldn't stop the netizens from talking. As of now, they were still accusing him of abusing his status to suppress any negative news.

"I think it will work. Go ahead and file a lawsuit. I'll provide you with evidence," Vania said nonchalantly.

Bryan was shocked for a moment. "Vania, are you telling me your brilliant idea is to ask me to file a lawsuit?"

"Use the facts to refute your scandal. Isn't that more effective than any explanation?"

Vania finally finished ordering her dishes, and she did not forget to remind the waiter to pack a portion to go.

I can't believe she ordered a takeaway too.

"Neither."

'Hah! She just got slapped in the face.'

'Stop trying to explain yourself. It's more important for you to apologize now.'

'Don't try to avoid the issue and just apologize.'

'She is totally a low-class artist. We should cancel her immediately.'

Although Minnie had some fame in the entertainment industry, she had never had a scandal of this scale before.

Besides, she had no one to rely on and was completely in a panic. She didn't know what to do anymore.

She had been continuously trying to reach Eddie on her phone.

However, at every attempt, she received a mechanical voice prompt notifying her that his phone had been turned off

Her assistant was clueless too. "What should we do, Miss Turner?"

"How would I know?"

Feeling anxious, Minnie was still tugging on her hair angrily.

She had already sold the video she used to frame Bryan to the paparazzi.

Initially, she thought Bryan's denial of the scandal would only prove that the video was fake, but she didn't expect to be exposed as well.

Besides, her secret supporter said he would handle the issue for her. However, she couldn't contact him at all. How was he going to handle this for her now?

Not to mention, Eddie had no intentions of helping her deal with the scandal in the first place. He just wanted to build up Yvonne's anger to the point where the Kepler Family would take action against Hanson and the Jones Family for hurting their daughter. When that time came, he could benefit from it.

Why should he be bothered when he had only lost one pawn?

When Yvonne saw the news, she kicked Eddie's study door open.

"Miss Kepler, what amazing strength you have."

After staring at the swaying door, Eddie looked at her dissatisfiedly. "If you continue to destroy my place, you should find another place to live. My place might not be suitable to accommodate a strong young lady like you."

"Are you trying to kick me out?" Yvonne looked at him with the same disdainful gaze.

"I need like-minded partners, not someone who casually destroys things."

Eddie was not afraid of Yvonne leaving anymore. He wanted to anger her as much as possible because the angrier she got, the better it was for him.

"Do you think we can work together whenever, just as you please?"

Yvonne had decided to stay, and no one could make her leave.

Then, she accused him. "Is this how you dealt with Bryan's matter? Are you trying to make him more popular?"

Yvonne was almost seething with rage. "I want him to disappear forever. And what are you doing?"

"Is your brain still working well? No wonder you've never been able to win Hanson."

So what if Bryan and Minnie received hate online? They were still unscathed, after all.

Yvonne didn't want to play the waiting game anymore and wanted to end their career as soon as possible.

The more cruel the means to get what she wanted, the better.

Chapter 1026 A Bad Loser

"Still holding a grudge?" Vania couldn't think of any other things to say after seeing Hanson do that.

She couldn't understand why he would do this if it was not because of a grudge.

Hanson only rubbed her hair. "Am I that bad in your eyes?"

Vania shook her head and denied it. But, she silently thought that he wasn't exactly a kind person either.

"Hmm?"

Hanson hummed curiously as he wanted to know what was in her mind at that moment.

"Isn't your public image kind of negative—that you're a cold-blooded and heartless person?"

Vania slowly revealed as she pointed both of her index fingers at each other after observing his expression.

Hanson was amused by her cautious expression. "How is your husband the way you see him?"

"Excellent."

Vania expressed her satisfaction in a single word.

Hanson was pleased, and he explained, "I sent a photo to Bryan to thank him for the lunch."

"Are you sure?"

It didn't look like it.

Why didn't she see him thanking anyone before if he was someone so grateful?

He must be holding a grudge because Bryan showed off by sending him a sweet video yesterday. So, he deliberately retaliated today.

Hanson showed that he really wasn't the kind of person who would accept defeat in any aspect.

"Of course, I'm sure of it." Hanson looked at his phone and noticed that it had yet to receive a reply. So, he took another photo with Vania before sending it over.

However, Bryan was busy with filming, and he did not check his phone.

His assistant saw the messages from President Luke and immediately handed him the phone during his break time.

"What the..."

Bryan was about to curse when he saw what Hanson had sent him.

Didn't he beat me yesterday? Why is he provoking me again today?

Hanson was truly a villain. He wouldn't even spare his own family by the looks of it.

Bryan sighed as he felt that he couldn't beat Hanson, and he immediately surrendered.

"You win, Hanson. You and Vania are the most loving couple ever. You are a perfect match."

He couldn't help but sigh as he replied to the message. How could Hanson be so cruel and bully him after eating the lunch he brought him?

Bryan knew someone had to be the unlucky guy on the receiving end in front of Hanson.

Hanson was satisfied after seeing Bryan's reply, and he sent one back. "I'm glad you know."

Bryan was left completely speechless at that point.

How is he so childish? His children are five years old!

Chapter 1027 A Mother's Love

Jasmine didn't even hesitate for a second considering that it was such a large amount of money. "Okay, I'll transfer it to you right away."

Then, she immediately transferred the sum to Yvonne.

She had no bottom line when it came to supporting her daughter, and she would do it no matter the cost.

She had some concerns about the future of the Kepler Family at the beginning. But, she had been worn out after such a long time.

Moreover, Thomas was not around to persuade her otherwise.

It was only 7.5 million to her, and she could take it even without Benjamin's approval.

Jasmine called Yvonne after transferring the money.

The phone call was quickly connected. "Do you need anything else, Yvonne? I will take care of whatever it is right away."

At that moment, she didn't care about anything but Yvonne. She only hoped that her daughter could live well.

"I don't need anything for now. I'll call you if there's anything else."

The way Yvonne spoke was not affectionate at all. She acted like she was only using Jasmine.

It seemed that she no longer had any family affection in her heart.

"I'm still hoping that you will come back to me someday, Yvonne."

Jasmine cried once again as she spoke. The only difference was she had no tears left in her eyes after crying so much.

She missed Yvonne very badly.

Jasmine was also angry at the thought that their separation was caused by Vania. But, she didn't dare to say that in front of Yvonne because she was worried about agitating her daughter.

It was already rare enough to be able to get in touch with Yvonne.

Yvonne replied unkindly when she heard Jasmine wanted her to come back, "You think I don't want to go back? There are people everywhere looking for me out there. What else can I do?"

Every word she spoke was full of deep resentment toward Vania.

She didn't want to live a life of hiding and running away anymore, nor did she want to stay indoors every day.

She continued viciously after that, "I'll be back after I bring Vania down."

Jasmine immediately showed her support after hearing that Yvonne also wanted to come back to her and not run away from home again. "Okay, sweetie. I will help you deal with her."

Yvonne deliberately made the situation emotional when she heard that, and she said in a weak tone, "Thomas and Benjamin are already leaning toward Vania's side, especially Thomas who's completely charmed and controlled by Vania. Only you still stand by my side now, Mom."

She burst into tears as she spoke, and it was as if she was letting out her grievances.

Jasmine completely lost the sense to know what was right or wrong when she heard Yvonne crying, and she needlessly became even more anxious.

She replied viciously, "We don't need them. I can help you through this just fine."

Jasmine was not married to Benjamin without a good reason. She had financial strength from her family to make her worthy of the marriage.

Chapter 1028 A Spoiled Lady

It was better this way for Eddie. She saved him a lot of trouble.

He felt even more relieved, especially after hearing that Jasmine had agreed to help Yvonne.

Brandon rejoiced. "Congratulations, Young Master Eddie. You're one step closer to your goal."

Eddie stood up proudly as he replied, "Save it for after I've succeeded."

"Certainly."

Meanwhile, in Hammond International Hospital...

Thomas was still lying on the sick bed, looking worried.

His assistant had just finished reporting to him.

However, Thomas noticed that he appeared reluctant to tell him about something.

"You have been following me for so long, you should know better and tell me everything.

"Spit it out already. There is nothing to worry about," Thomas reassured.

The assistant nodded and reported his findings. "7.5 million was suddenly transferred from Old Mrs. Kepler's account just now."

There were always small transactions happening in Jasmine's bank account, but this was the first time such a large sum was transferred in one go.

The assistant had a feeling that something was wrong, so he paid extra attention to it and investigated by himself.

Unfortunately, he couldn't find any clue regarding the transaction.

However, Thomas instantly realized what had happened from the seemingly unknown transaction.

It suggested that Yvonne had made contact with her family.

Then, Thomas immediately sat up and said, "Arrange for me to be discharged."

But, he was advised to stay in the hospital for another month according to the doctor.

His physical condition hadn't recovered to the point where he could be discharged.

The assistant dared not act, and he persuaded, "You are still recovering from a serious injury, Young Master Thomas. It will be wise to follow the doctor's advice for now."

Thomas only waved his hand as he replied, "There are things that I must handle personally. I know my body better than anyone else. Just get it done."

"Are you worried about Old Mrs. Kepler's transaction?"

"Why not leave it to us? We'll investigate thoroughly and you won't need to be discharged," the assistant continued to persuade.

"No need to investigate, I know what's going on." Then, Thomas sighed before looking at his assistant. "I need to be discharged from the hospital now and head home. Otherwise, she will make an even bigger mistake."

The assistant gave up persuading him, and he nodded. "I'll take care of it right away, sir."

Thomas took out his phone after the assistant left.

He stopped just as he was about to dial Vania's number.

Only then did he realize that he couldn't reach Vania's phone anymore.

So, he had to call Liam instead.

Chapter 1029 No Time For Games

They couldn't get Vania last time around. So, Yvonne doubled the number of people this time. She wouldn't accept defeat no matter what.

However, Yvonne was too occupied to get the latest update on Vania, and she completely ignored the fact that Vania could hire bodyguards as well.

If she could have more manpower, so could Vania have more bodyguards to protect herself.

Yvonne was still too naive.

How could a person like Vania only have one or two people protecting her?

Not only that, Thomas and Liam also secretly sent people to protect Vania. They wanted to make sure she would be completely safe.

Vania was already protected by skilled professionals, and coupled with her own extraordinary capabilities, it would be no easy feat for Yvonne to get her.

Early in the morning...

Vania was on the way to work as usual.

Just then, she found herself being followed again.

"Heh... How boring."

Yvonne didn't come up with any new tactic by the looks of it as it was the same as last time out.

Yvonne always liked to play games with her, but she didn't have time for that today.

Vania drove at a moderate speed after that, just enough to keep those hooligans hooked, and followed her.

She stopped when she arrived at a sparsely populated and wide area.

Just as those hooligans were about to surround her, they got surrounded by Vania's people before they could try anything.

It happened in the blink of an eye.

"Freeze. Stand still."

Where did they come from? How did they appear out of thin air? The hooligans couldn't help but wonder.

There were three times as many people as they had. Didn't Vania Greyson come out all by herself?

But, we have been following her from the villa all the way here. How could we not see these people?

The hooligans quickly surrendered with their hands up. They only wondered how Vania had so many people at her side in such a short time.

At that moment, the door of Vania's car slowly opened.

The first thing that the hooligans noticed was her long and slender legs. They were instantly charmed just by looking at them.

"There are so many of you today."

Vania spoke as she got out of the car lazily.

The hooligans were then forced to line up.

Vania walked in front of them as if she was their leader evaluating them.

She sneered in front of the shocked hooligans. "Don't look at me with such surprised eyes.

"The people who looked at me with eyes like those are already in jail."

Chapter 1030 The Star Of The Show

In the car, Linda mocked, unimpressed, "Yvonne really underestimated you, didn't she, Boss?

"How could she expect to take you down with just a few people?"

Yvonne really was clueless.

"She's always been biting off more than she can chew, hasn't she?" Then, Vania sneered. "Send her the video now."

Yvonne didn't expect to receive the video of the hooligans so soon.

So, she was rather dubious.

There was no excitement as before when she clicked on the video this time.

Did I really Vania this time? Or is it just another one of her tricks?

When she finally saw the video, she flew into a rage.

Vania's bodyguards had taken away all of the men she sent to get her.

There was no telling where they were sent to.

When did Vania have so many people around her?

"It seems even you are afraid of death too."

Yvonne only gritted her teeth angrily as the video indicated that her plan had failed again.

She received another message on her phone before she could cook up another plan.

She could feel Vania's pride and provocation in the message.

"Aren't you tired of the same plot over and over, Miss Kepler?"

"It's not interesting to play along anymore. I think you will be better off changing up your plan to something more attention-grabbing."

A change of plan? It is easier said than done.

Yvonne didn't think that Vania would be able to get lucky and escape from her every time.

She immediately replied, "Talk while you can. Just wait and see."

"I will definitely tear you apart."

Vania only raised her eyebrows after seeing Yvonne's message, and she replied, "Sure, I'll wait for you."

She put away her phone after that.

Then, she instructed Linda, her assistant, "Take me straight to the recording studio of 'The Four Arts.'"

"Right away, Boss."

The TV program "The Four Arts" had already entered its second phase.

The theme of this phase was painting.

The contestants could showcase their works in various ways.

In this round, the contestants presented relatively basic paintings. After all, it would take a lot of time for someone to learn and master the complicated ones.

However, Vania took a different approach from the rest of the contestants.

The TV program was quickly postedited after it was filmed, and it was broadcasted on time.

The order of contestants' appearances for the new round of competition was determined by drawing lots.

As a result, Vania was placed last because it was intentionally arranged by the TV program team behind the scene.
