

HER SEVEN LITTLE BODYGUARDS

Chapter 1061 I Won't Participate in the Kepler Family's Affairs

Thomas was blocking the door. The medical staff shoved him aside.

With this push, Thomas fell back into the wheelchair.

"Young Master, is..." The assistant couldn't grasp what was happening.

Is the Old Master too excited about receiving a high offer from Galaxy Corporation?

But it doesn't look like it.

After Benjamin was taken away, a group of disinfectant cleaners followed, spraying and sprinkling the ground.

It was as if something dirty had been here.

The degree of force used was such that they seemed to want to scrub a hole in the floor.

Seeing Thomas in a daze, the assistant couldn't help but ask, "Young Master, should we go to the hospital?"

It was only then that Thomas Kepler came back to his senses. He answered in a low voice, "We're going in."

He had some questions for Vania.

At this time, the employees in the lobby also started to move, and soon the office building returned to normal.

It even looked brighter than before.

Everyone had a proud smile on their faces.

Vania sat calmly in her executive chair, leisurely drinking coffee.

It was as if nothing had ever happened.

Linda resumed her work and reported to Vania, "Boss, Thomas Kepler is here."

Vania was not surprised at all. She calmly asked, "When did he arrive?"

It's not surprising that Thomas heard the news.

But Benjamin has been rushed to the hospital. Why didn't he follow along?

Is he here to demand an explanation?

Linda replied, "He was already at the door when Benjamin Kepler was carried out."

"Better early than late. Let him in."

Linda nodded and was about to leave when Vania stopped her. "Wait. Prepare a glass of orange juice for him first."

"Okay."

Soon, Thomas was wheeled in by his assistant.

Vania looked at him with a smile, making him a little puzzled.

But when he saw the glass of orange juice already prepared on the table, even more confusion filled his eyes, and he wondered her intention.

Seeing his puzzled expression, Vania explained, "I'm in a good mood today."

Thomas, still calm and composed, asked, "Did something good happen?"

Is she so happy just to cause Father to be hospitalized?

Vania beamed. "Just acquired two secret bases. Do you think it's something to be happy about?"

Thomas's calm face suddenly turned pale.

Finally, he said, "Indeed, it is."

Vania raised an eyebrow, surprised by his answer.

Now, it was her turn to be confused.

"You must already know about the rest of the matter. Why don't you follow along to the hospital?"

"I won't participate in the Kepler Family's affairs." Thomas took a sip of orange juice and spoke with a meaningful tone.

"Hmm? I don't quite understand what you mean." Taking a sip of coffee, Vania stared at him puzzled.

Thomas smiled bitterly. "You may not know that I have already severed my ties with Benjamin Kepler."

That said, his heart still ached at the fact that Benjamin had been hospitalized.

Vania was shocked.

She had no idea about this news.

"So why did you come here?"

She really couldn't think of any other reason for him to come here other than Benjamin.

Thomas didn't try to hide it. "I heard that Galaxy Corporation was in trouble, so I hurried over.

I was worried that you might be in danger."

He was telling the truth.

"If people can threaten me on my turf, wouldn't I be a laughingstock?" Vania commented very lightly.

Chapter 1062 Benjamin's Hospitalization

Thomas pulled the corners of his mouth, his heart wrenching in pain.

He didn't know how to respond to Vania.

In the end, he said, "I'm glad you're okay."

He gestured to his assistant that it was time for them to leave. He had seen with his own eyes that Vania was okay, so he was relieved.

Vania suddenly spoke up. "You haven't truly let go, so why be so stubborn?"

She was referring to the relationship between Thomas and Benjamin.

Thomas didn't even turn his head. "Just thought you should know that I never want to target you."

This was why he couldn't stand on the same side as his father.

That was all he could do.

Vania remained silent for a long time and didn't say anything.

The smile on her face was gone.

Thomas awaited her answer but she kept her head low and did not say anything as if contemplating something.

Finally, he shook his head and smiled bitterly before leaving with his assistant.

When she heard the sound of the door closing, Vania raised her head again.

She stared at the door and allowed herself to be lost in thought.

"Thomas Kepler, you really are a surprise from the Kepler Family."

Just as she was engrossed in her thoughts, Linda rushed in without even knocking.

Vania didn't mind, and she only asked, her face emotionless, "Is he dead?"

Linda shook her head. "It's Young Master Bryan of the Jones Family. He had an accident."

Vania sprang to her feet and grabbed her coat. "Explain."

Behind her, Linda followed anxiously. "News said that there was a sudden fire on set. Young Master Bryan was hit by a falling piece of wood and lost consciousness on the spot. He has been sent to the hospital."

Vania was seething. "Who did it?"

"The suspects have all been caught and are being interrogated—"

Vania interrupted her, "What is the official result?"

"Fire caused by old wiring." This was the conclusion from the on-site investigation.

Vania scoffed. "What do you think?"

Linda voiced her suspicion, "It's probably Yvonne Kepler."

"No, it was Eddie Luke this time." Benjamin had just caused trouble with her, so Yvonne wouldn't have taken action alone.

"He couldn't hold back anymore, huh? How should we deal with it, Boss?" Linda's face was also cold.

"Let's go to the hospital first."

The waiting room outside the hospital's emergency room was crowded with people.

Even Eddie, who had just left her company, was there.

Upon seeing Vania approaching, Hanson immediately walked up to her.

He gave her a look, indicating that Bryan was fine.

Vania nodded, knowing that Hanson would already have people interrogate those staff members.

She asked, "Sent out the news yet?"

She was referring to Benjamin's hospitalization.

Hanson knew that his wife was thinking what he was thinking.

He replied, "Of course. This is the first step in drawing the snake out of its hole."

Shifting her gaze to the tightly closed emergency room door, Vania said, "This is the second step."

Hanson nodded in agreement. "Next, we just need to watch the show."

Meanwhile, Yvonne came up to Eddie in a rage. She was enraged. "Is this what you call a plan, Eddie Luke? You are digging your own grave."

Yvonne had the urge to rush forward to strangle Eddie to death.

Eddie didn't know about the news about Benjamin yet.

He only knew that Bryan had been admitted to the hospital after his intervention.

At this moment, facing Yvonne's anger, he appeared upset. "Will you only be satisfied when someone dies?"

Chapter 1063 Stop Acting Innocent With Me

His words showed no mercy.

To Yvonne, he sounded like he was cursing her father.

She gritted her teeth and scolded, "I think you're sick and can't distinguish right from wrong."

Eddie slapped away her finger that was pointing at his face. "Did you develop feelings for Bryan Jones after abusing him? So you start feeling sorry for him now that he's hospitalized?"

He thought that Yvonne was standing up for Bryan.

"Hey, don't change the topic. I asked you to deal with Bryan Jones, but why did you target the Kepler Family?"

Eddie was stunned. "When did I target the Kepler Family?"

His face suddenly turned dark—he was framed!

He was still unaware that such a big thing had happened.

He immediately turned to Brandon. "What happened?"

Brandon didn't know what happened either. He didn't receive any information about Benjamin at all.

The informants on Vania and Hanson's sides did not send any feedback.

At this point, he could only apologize, "My apologies, sir, for being incompetent."

"Good that you know." Eddie was infuriated.

One missed message could ruin everything for him.

To Yvonne, Eddie and Brandon looked like they were putting on an act.

Fuming, she interrupted their conversation. "Stop acting innocent with me."

Someone had already reported to her that Eddie had been using her name to gain Benjamin's trust.

Apparently, he had swindled more than 150 million out of the Kepler Family, as well as countless underground manpower.

This was what caused Bryan to be hospitalized.

Now, the Jones Family had shifted the blame to the Kepler Family. When Benjamin learned the truth, he was so infuriated that he fell ill and was now in critical condition.

Fortunately, he was rescued in time and managed to escape death.

Yvonne stared at Eddie with bloodshot eyes.

"Don't fall for their trap. I didn't do it," he said. Yvonne usually wouldn't listen to his persuasion, let alone now.

She sneered. "You're killing someone by another's hand. Now you're just sitting back waiting to reap the benefits, aren't you? I'm telling you, it's not going to happen."

This was a tactic to drive a wedge.

Eddie's face turned dark. "Vania Greyson, Hanson Luke, you two are really good at playing this game."

He was caught off guard by this move.

Little did he know, this was not Vania's scheme whatsoever. Benjamin brought it upon himself, and Vania only beat him at his own game.

Eddie knew he had lost this round.

He and Yvonne were already in an irreparable situation.

After such a long time of planning, he finally earned the support of the Kepler Family, but everything was now ruined.

Resentment almost swallowed Eddie. The veins on his forehead bulged.

But in Yvonne's eyes, his response represented an admission of guilt.

"Arghh!!!" Yvonne screamed and rushed forward, squeezing Eddie's neck with all her might.

"I'll make you pay with your life!" Anger fueled her strength.

Eddie's face turned white due to a lack of oxygen.

However, this was Eddie's territory, so Yvonne couldn't just have had her way.

Brandon had immediately ordered his men to pull her away.

"Young Master, are you okay?"

Brandon checked on Eddie with concern.

"This is not what you should be concerned about. Get rid of her."

Since things had come to this, he didn't want Vania or Hanson to benefit from it either.

Of course, Yvonne wouldn't continue to stay here.

The moment Eddie gave the order, she fled.

She ran all the way to the hospital.

But as soon as she entered the hospital gates, she was caught.

"Let go of me! Let me in." Yvonne struggled.

The person who had passed on the message to her said that Benjamin's condition was critical and he could go at any time.

Her Seven Little Bodyguards - Chapter 1064

Chapter 1064 Where's My Daughter?

At this moment, Yvonne just wanted to go in and take a look at her father.

She felt bound by family ties no matter how she disregarded them.

"Dad, Dad... I'm sorry! Let me go! Let me in..."

Despite shouting at the top of her lungs, Yvonne felt no remorse in her heart.

A police officer approached Hanson and reported the situation to him. "President Luke, what shall we do?"

Hanson didn't even bat an eye, as he had long since had control over the situation.

Emotionless, he said, "Since she's here, let her see him."

The officer nodded. "Yes, sir."

He immediately brought Yvonne to Benjamin.

Benjamin had just regained consciousness.

As soon as he saw his daughter surrounded by police officers, he fainted again before he could say anything.

Jasmine also suffered a series of blows. Upon seeing her beloved daughter, she was overwhelmed with emotions and fainted as well.

Helplessness and exasperation overcame Yvonne when she saw the state of her parents.

At the police station.

No one bothered to question Yvonne anymore.

She was locked up in a room with a relatively decent facility

She was to spend the rest of her life here.

After all, Thomas had arranged everything, and this was considered the best outcome for her. However, Yvonne still felt discontented and hoped to be able to go out one day.

In another place, Eddie was sitting dejectedly in a chair, having been thrown off balance by the case made publicly known.

Seeing that things were not good, Brandon asked worriedly, "Young Master, what should we do next?"

Eddie said, "What else can we do? We can only look for new people."

With his current power, he couldn't possibly confront the united forces of Hanson Luke and the Jones Family.

Wanting to take a break from talking about this matter, he waved his hand to signal Brandon to leave.

Bryan had already woken up by this time.

Before he could ask anything, Vania told him the latest news about Yvonne.

Bryan glanced instinctively at Thomas.

Seeing that Thomas was not saying anything, he kept quiet as well.

Fortunately, Bryan was fine. He wasn't sure why he was admitted to the hospital in the first place.

Seeing Jennifer Watson crying sadly, Bryan asked to be left alone with her.

Her Seven Little Bodyguards - Chapter 1065

Chapter 1065 Heading to Sunderland

The group chuckled knowingly and left.

...

"Darling, things have come to an end for now. Should we go out to have a relaxing time?" Hanson didn't want Vania to be too couped up. With all the recent events, he hoped she could relax herself and leave the rest to him.

Vania glanced at him and said, "Don't you remember? I'm participating in the Flute Competition tomorrow."

Hanson asked, "Where is it being held?"

"They're holding it in Sunderland this year."

The city where the competition was held changed every year.

"Then it's perfect. We can visit the city for a few days." Hanson was excited. He whispered in Vania's ear, "Just the two of us, no kids."

Although Hanson often went to Sunderland, he had never really explored its touristy spots and local culture.

After all, he wasn't interested in these things before.

But now that he had a wife, everything was different

Too shy to approach them directly for autographs and photos, the fans took photos of them from afar.

The hashtag #HansonLukeVaniaGreysonAtSunderlandAirport took the internet by storm.

'What god-like looks! They must have descended from heaven.'

'Looks like they're filming a big production.'

'Please, where can I get these outfits?'

Netizens were fascinated by the two's attire. Recently, retro makeup had become popular, and the two's high popularity managed to push the industry's development.

Upon requests from netizens, famous e-commerce websites immediately stocked the same clothes, which were then sold out in the blink of an eye.

Some fervent fans even dressed in the same attire in hopes to meet them at Sunderland Airport. Many also went to the airport just to pose for photos for social media.

In no time, Sunderland Airport became a popular tourist destination.

There was even a shortage of tickets due to the increase in passenger flow.

Meanwhile, the Luke couple was completely oblivious to the social media buzz.

After dropping off their luggage, they went to a local restaurant for a meal.

Vania and Hanson chose a unique local restaurant named "Dream and Dine." This restaurant only served customers in retro attire and did not have private rooms.

Her Seven Little Bodyguards - Chapter 1066

Chapter 1066 He Might Fool Others but Not Us

There was a stage in the middle, with dining tables on both sides.

It was a great pleasure to dine while watching the performance.

"Look, are they President Luke and Vania Greyson?"

"I think so. The news just said they are in Sunderland. I can't believe we bump into them. I'm taking a photo for Instagram."

"Post it on Twitter too."

The posts would definitely bring in followers.

The hashtag #HansonLukeVaniaGreysonAtDreamAndDine was added.

With the latest news about Hanson and Vania, fans who were just concentrated at the airport rushed to the restaurant.

Although this restaurant was already popular, it was more crowded than ever before today.

The owner even worked as a waiter himself.

At the dining table.

"Darling, you are so beautiful today." Hanson looked at Vania with admiration in his eyes

How embarrassing!

Before she could dodge, Hanson kissed her on the lips.

"Oh, my god! They kissed!" The fans at the next table almost jumped up in excitement.

The live broadcast was getting heated!

Someone had recorded a video just for posting on Twitter.

Although they didn't know what the two were talking about, the kiss they shared was exclusive enough as a piece of juicy news.

There was no time to edit the video; it was posted online raw.

The new hashtag said #HansonLukeVaniaGreysonSharingAKissAtRestaurant.

'Sharing a kiss? More like stealing a kiss! Look at President Luke's smirk!'

'Are the fans planning to live broadcast the whole thing today?'

'Ah! Such exclusive news! I'm blinded by their PDA!'

'President Luke is so hot. Look at his pose. Feels like he did it on purpose.'

Now, in addition to fans, various news paparazzi had also gathered in Sunderland just so they could encounter Vania and Hanson and be the first to report the hottest news today.

Reading the news, James and the other children pouted with disdain.

This must have been intentionally planned by Daddy. He might fool others but not us!

Her Seven Little Bodyguards - Chapter 1067

Chapter 1067 Group Photo

To provide better material for the fans who were following them, Hanson decided to take a walk with his wife and enjoy the night view after dinner. One couldn't go wrong with walking by the river on a date.

At first, the fans followed the two cautiously. But when they found that Hanson didn't ask them to delete the photos they took even after noticing them, they became more unrestrained.

Gradually, a crowd formed, with Hanson and Vania at the front.

The people behind them walked in a neat formation, with cheerful smiles on their faces and phones in their hands. The whole thing looked a bit funny.

Some fans even started live-streaming, capturing everything in real time.

Hanson had been in high spirits, but Vania seemed a bit helpless. The president's sense of humor was getting more and more peculiar.

Finally, after walking back and forth by the river twice, Hanson turned around and said to the fans, "It must be tiring for you today. Let's take a group photo and call it a day."

As soon as Hanson turned around, the fans who were secretly taking photos felt like running away out of guilt. But there were too many people, and they couldn't just escape

But Hanson's speech surprised them, and they turned back around.

Then, he added, "Keep your phones. I'll just use mine."

Otherwise, fans would be competing to hand over their phones, and he would be left to make a multiple-choice question. Worse, some fans who were not selected might even get upset.

"Okay, President Luke!" Fortunately, their fans were very cooperative. Like taking a class photo, a group of fans surrounded Hanson and Vania neatly.

But here came the problem came—who was going to take the photo?

Just as Vania wanted to offer herself as tribute, suddenly a fan raised his hand and said, 'I have a tripod with me!'

Hearing that, she could only hold her forehead, feeling dejected at how the fans even had the materials and equipment ready.

It was a smooth photo session, and the group photo was taken successfully.

Hanson posted the photo on Twitter as promised.

The netizens followed the two's itinerary online like binge-watching a TV drama.

When they saw the update from the couple and clicked on it, they felt bitter for not being able to be in Sunderland, as the update turned out to be a group photo of Hanson Luke, Vania Greyson, and a group of fans.

