

Her Seven LBG 641

Chapter 641

Liam's words were mainly spoken to tease Hanson.

"Let's just go back to what we were like before and forget about the unhappy past."

He even took up the job of a peacemaker to persuade Thomas and Vania.

Seeing that no one answered him, Liam looked at Vania and inquired, "Vanie, what do you think?"

Vania certainly knew what he meant. The interests of their families were inter-connected, so it was impossible for them to be enemies all the time.

She then nodded with a smile. "Liam is right. Let's have dinner together."

Since Vania agreed to it, Hanson couldn't just leave by himself, could he? After all, he was even more worried about letting his wife eat with them alone.

"Sure." When Hanson spoke, there was a hint of reluctance in his tone.

"That's more like it." Liam looked at the prideful Hanson as the smile on his face bloomed.

After Bryan removed his makeup, he immediately went to look for them and dragged Jennifer along with one hand. "Let's have dinner together."

Having dragged against her will, Jennifer immediately patted him with her other hand and scolded, "Let go. Who said you could hold my hand?"

Why were they holding hands like that?

"Ouch! Why would you slap me?" Bryan shook his hand, expressing his pain.

"Stop pretending. I didn't even hit that hard."

Jennifer was speaking the truth. She didn't hit him hard and all she wanted to do was just scare him.

Nevertheless, Bryan didn't want to argue with her, so he explained, "Uncle Liam came today. Let's go and meet them."

Without waiting for Jennifer's reply, he pulled her by the wrist again, as if dragging Jennifer forward.

Jennifer was a little embarrassed to be dragged around by a man in front of everyone's eyes.

Especially since there were young actors present who looked at them strangely, obviously misunderstanding them.

Jennifer struggled out of Bryan's grip and kept a distance after separating from him.

At this moment, Bryan had yet to notice her abnormality. With a smile on his face, he uttered, "Uncle Liam is a nice person. I'll introduce him to you later."

Although Bryan and Liam often bickered in private, the former would still boast about his uncle to outsiders.

Jennifer didn't know what he meant by introducing him to her, but at this time, she had already walked up to Liam and the others.

Subconsciously, she walked to Vania's side, and Bryan followed suit, naturally standing beside her.

At that moment, even Bryan did not notice what he did.

Chapter 642

Just as Jennifer was about to turn around, she was stopped by Bryan. "You didn't eat a single bite after filming for the whole afternoon. No matter how important your stuff is, you shouldn't go on an empty stomach."

As soon as he was done speaking, Liam and Thomas smiled at each other. "Oh, Bryan knows how to care for people now."

Their teasing was so obvious that it made Jennifer even more embarrassed.

She then refused, "I really do have something to do, so I won't join you guys this time."

Bryan glanced at Liam and Thomas with a complaining look. "Look what you've done! You're scaring her away!"

After speaking, he tried to hold Jennifer back again. "Don't get me wrong. They don't mean anything else. Don't leave with an empty stomach. Let's have dinner together."

Vania also looked at Jennifer and nodded slightly to indicate that it was fine. "It's just us. You don't have to be shy. I'm here with you."

As she spoke, she walked to her side and linked her arms with Jennifer's.

Jennifer trusted Vania, but in front of Liam, she was more reserved, so she said politely, "I'll be joining you guys for dinner then."

After all, Liam gave off a suave and elegant vibe, so Jennifer had to restrain her usual behavior.

Bryan patted her lightly and uttered, "Oh, don't be so serious! We are all old acquaintances. Relax and show them your usual character."

Hearing Bryan's words, Jennifer almost revealed her true nature and wanted to shove a hammer at him to shut him up.

Don't spout nonsense. Why would you expose me?! Jennifer cursed silently.

She could only warn Bryan with her eyes, as if to say, Just you wait. I'm gonna take care of you later!

Seeing her gaze, Bryan immediately shut up obediently.

"Hahaha." Thomas and Liam couldn't stifle their laughter.

Their laughter was so obvious that they made Jennifer feel bashful once again.

Naturally, she could tell that they were laughing at her.

Vania then stepped forward and warned, "Stop behaving like children. You two are grown men. Look at how embarrassed she is."

"I'm not! Don't talk nonsense," Jennifer uttered in dissatisfaction.

Vania should not have exposed her!

"Hahaha."

Everyone laughed happily and ended the topic.

As soon as the group walked into the restaurant, they bumped into Yvonne.

Jennifer immediately had her guards up.

After all, the incident of Jennifer's wire fall was thanks to her.

Even though the media later clarified that Yvonne was also a victim, Jennifer didn't believe it at all.

"Yvonne, why are you here?" Thomas exclaimed in surprise and immediately walked to her side. "What's the matter?"

Chapter 643

Yvonne sneered inwardly. Bryan used to help Vania deal with her, but now, he was starting to protect Jennifer. How annoying.

"Chill, it's just a joke. Why are you so worked up? Let's order. "

Yvonne looked relaxed as if she had actually made a joke.

Vania noticed that Yvonne seemed to have changed since she was released from prison.

In fact, Bryan felt the same. He then tugged on Jennifer, who was upset, and motioned her not to confront Yvonne.

Jennifer snorted coldly in her heart, knowing that Bryan was doing it for her own good, so she controlled the emotions on her face.

However, Yvonne, who was looking at the menu, saw Bryan holding Jennifer's hand from the corner of her eye.

Her gaze was scornful as she started plotting in her mind.

"Come on. Let's see what's there to eat." Liam handed everyone a menu to ease the atmosphere at the scene.

He then sat next to Yvonne, creating a barrier between her and Vania.

At that moment, Yvonne also sneered at Liam in her heart.

Was he treating her as a scourge?

Nonetheless, after she blurted that sentence just now, she no longer tried to target anyone else.

Just then, Thomas spoke up for his sister, "I apologize for Yvonne's bad behavior in the past. I hope we can be as close as before."

With that said, he downed the glass of wine in his hand.

"I agree with that idea." Liam took the lead in toasting.

Vania, Hanson, and the others naturally raised their glasses without uttering a word.

There were some things you could never pretend didn't happen when they did.

Fortunately, everyone was cheery at the dinner table, and nothing unpleasant happened.

As soon as the meal was over, Jennifer hurried back.

She was in a terrible mood tonight.

Bryan followed behind her and tried to catch up to her pace. "Wait for me! Why are you walking so fast?" he inquired while chasing. After a few steps, he caught up with her.

"Are you still upset?"

Jennifer didn't reply. Instead, she just kept moving forward.

"Don't be mad. That's how Yvonne's character is. You can't do anything anyway since there are so many people present."

Bryan persuaded her with facts.

Now, his interest in Yvonne had also declined. She was no longer the Yvonne he used to know when they were children.

Chapter 644

Bryan knew her concerns and scanned her up and down, commenting, "You already have such a good figure. You don't have to lose any more weight."

She was curvy in the right places, so all in all, her figure was proportionate.

Under his scrutinizing gaze, Jennifer immediately put her hands in front of her and warned, "Stop staring or I'll scrape your eyes out."

She was mean when she spoke.

Hearing her words, Bryan immediately laughed out loud, realizing that her anger must have dissipated now that she could talk to him like this.

He immediately covered his eyes and complied, "Alright. I'll stop staring."

However, he deliberately left a small slit between his fingers so that he could still meet her eyes.

"You..." Jennifer laughed helplessly at his mischievous appearance and reached out to hit him.

As a result, Bryan managed to dodge her attack and hollered, "Come after me! If you catch me, I'll let you hit me."

"Don't you dare run!"

"Ah... You're seriously hitting me."

"Hahaha. Of course!"

Bryan didn't expect to be caught up by Jennifer after only running a few steps.

What a failure.

After suffering several slaps on the back from her, he finally held Jennifer's hand and said, "Stop hitting me. I'll take you to the night market for some delicious food."

The night market culture near Studio City was thriving. There were all kinds of snacks on the streets, and celebrities who had shootings nearby would often visit this market.

The two laughed and joked around until they arrived at the night market.

Jennifer's depressed mood had now completely dissipated.

However, seeing the delicacies, Jennifer seemed to see fat beckoning to herself.

Looking at Bryan with a pained face, she suggested, "Why don't we just take a sniff at the food and go back?"

Hearing that, Bryan brainwashed her. "You used up a lot of physical strength for filming today and felt upset for the whole night. Shouldn't you eat some good food to make up for it?"

Jennifer hesitated, trying to control her cravings.

Whether she wanted it or not, Bryan ordered a small meat skewer and handed it to her. "This is good. Try it."

While saying that, he ate one by himself, showing how delicious it was in front of her.

Jennifer could not resist any longer, so she took one and ate it.

It was delicious!

"I want more."

While she ordered, Bryan paid for the food.

Seeing her eating happily, Bryan felt overjoyed, so he enjoyed his food as well.

What they did not know was that a lot of photos were taken by reporters behind them on their way to the market.

Photos of them holding hands, joking around, eating together, and more, were captured clearly.

After reading the manuscript sent to her phone, Yvonne smiled and replied, 'You may publish it now.'

Chapter 645

'His private life is so disgusting.'

'The entertainment industry is such a sketchy place. I can't bear to watch anymore.'

The anti-fans left such harsh remarks that even Vania was being condemned.

They no longer considered the identities of Hanson and Vania. At this moment, for the sake of money, they didn't even think about what kind of consequence would dawn on them in the future.

Anyway, their current job was to leave merciless comments. The more ruthless, the better.

Meanwhile, Jennifer caressed her full belly while holding a cup of milk tea in her other hand. She was extremely satisfied. "I've sinned by eating so much today. I can't do this again."

If she ate supper every night, she would definitely gain weight.

At the same time, Bryan managed to try a lot of food with her. "Just enjoy yourself and don't think too much."

With her, he felt happy.

While the two of them were chatting happily, Jennifer's manager called her non-stop.

When Jennifer saw her manager's phone number, she immediately had a bad feeling in her heart.

Did her manager have a third eye? Did she find out that she was here indulging in good food?

Thinking of that, she subconsciously shoved the milk tea into Bryan's hand. She dared not drink it...

After gulping, she answered the call guiltily, "What's wrong, Crystal?"

"Jennifer Watson... You're digging your own grave."

Crystal's roar came from the phone, and even if the loudspeaker was not turned on, it was so loud that everyone around could hear it.

Jennifer immediately covered the phone with her hand for fear that her growl would be heard by others. Was it such an unforgivable sin that she had to be scolded for?

"Crystal, I swear. I will never eat so much at night anymore. I promise. Please don't be angry."

Jennifer was so scared of her manager that she quickly apologized when she heard her roar.

"Jennifer, how dare you eat at this hour? You're really hopeless." Crystal roared once again.

Jennifer was stunned to hear her doubtful voice, so she asked, "Didn't you call to talk about that?"

What else could infuriate her?

"I might as well talk about this." Crystal's anger could not be suppressed. "Tell me, who allowed you to be in a relationship?"

For actresses who were in the rising period of their career, it was taboo to be in a relationship.

If one was not careful, not only would they lose their partner, but also their entire career.

"How many times have I told you that you must never be in a relationship? Do you take my words for granted?" Crystal was in a fit of rage right now.

Chapter 646

Jennifer, who was being hung up on, regained her senses.

She and Bryan then turned on their phones together. Immediately, they were dumbfounded when they saw the news.

"These are all nonsense!" Bryan was infuriated, but he still comforted Jennifer, "Don't worry, I will handle this matter so that it doesn't affect you."

Jennifer didn't know how to describe her current mood, so she felt quite shocked.

In the candid photos, the two of them were indeed quite intimate. Clarifying their relationship would also cause a problem. No wonder Crystal was so angry.

Seeing that she was in a bad mood, Bryan immediately reassured her, "Don't worry, just leave it to me since I am a man. Did your manager call you? I'll send you back."

Jennifer shook her head. "I'll go back by myself. I'm also involved in this case, so I'll discuss this with my manager and come up with a solution."

If Crystal saw Bryan, Jennifer was afraid that she would kick him out of the room.

"Let me solve it," Bryan emphasized.

He was a responsible man.

In the end, Jennifer couldn't win him over the argument, so she went back with him.

Walking back to the hotel room, Jennifer hesitated for a while at the door.

"What's wrong?" Bryan looked at her, a little puzzled. Was it so difficult to get in?

Jennifer let out a heavy sigh as if she was mentally preparing herself before opening the door.

As soon as the door was opened, she heard Crystal's fiery voice. "Hurry up and come in already!"

She sounded as if she was going to eat them up, especially when she saw Bryan, who was following behind Jennifer. "How dare you come here?!"

Bryan didn't expect Jennifer's manager to be so angry, so he was taken aback by what she said.

It was Jennifer who reacted first as she immediately held Crystal, for fear that she would attack Bryan. "Crystal, don't be angry. Listen to my explanation."

"What's there to explain? When I took you in, the first request I made was for you to not fall in love. Are you blinded by love now? Did you forget everything I said?"

Crystal spoke like a machine gun, leaving Jennifer no chance to interrupt her.

After Crystal was done venting, Bryan frowned and explained, "We aren't in a relationship yet. You've misunderstood."

Crystal was just about to say something before she decided against it and questioned, "What... What do you mean?"

"Let me explain." At this time, Jennifer stepped forward. "I was still hungry after dinner, so he accompanied me to the night market."

The news was just a product of the media spreading unsubstantiated rumors.

Chapter 647

This time, Bryan uttered, "As a manager, you shouldn't be so furious before you find out the truth."

Facing the manager, Bryan was indifferent and did not behave like a rookie at all.

Since Crystal recently joined the crew, she didn't know of his identity at all. However, she disliked Bryan because he affected Jennifer's image.

"Are you trying to ride the wave?"

Many rookies were willing to create scandals just to increase their popularity.

"I'm the future best actor, alright? I don't need to ride the wave!"

Bryan was disdainful of the words, 'riding the wave'.

"Hah..." Crystal's expression changed when she looked at Bryan.

She had never met a rookie who dared to speak to her like this.

After all, Crystal was a capable manager in the entertainment industry. She had successfully trained many great actors and movie stars.

Of course, it was also easy if she wanted to ruin a rookie's reputation.

Crystal snorted coldly, "Judging by your tone, do you have a solution to this matter?"

Bryan didn't seem to place much importance on this trivial matter at all as he answered, "Of course."

He spoke ever so confidently without a hint of worry.

It was true that in the entertainment industry, netizens were more tolerant of male stars than female stars.

However, someone like him was not common. Crystal couldn't help scrutinizing him again before questioning, "Who is your manager?"

She wanted to know who gave this rookie such confidence.

Bryan was embarrassed.

He signed a contract under Vania and joined the crew. He did not have his own team yet, not even a small assistant.

Hence, he replied, "It doesn't matter who my manager is. I can solve this matter."

This trivial matter would definitely not trouble him. If he could not solve it himself, then Liam could help him figure it out.

Seeing Crystal's disbelief, Bryan immediately took out his phone and made a call.

The content of the call was clearly focused on how he would deal with this matter.

However, Crystal and Jennifer couldn't understand the specific details discussed over the phone.

Crystal glanced at Jennifer and inquired, "He..."

She wanted to ask if Bryan came from an influential family.

Jennifer nodded in response. "Yes."

To be able to talk to Hanson and Vania on a first-name basis meant that his identity was not simple.

Crystal murmured in a low voice, "What a show-off."

Chapter 648

Crystal took her phone out and shoved the news article to Jennifer's face. "Did you see? All these are anti-fans posting hate comments. Someone is obviously hiring trolls to bring you down."

"Isn't it normal? Many people are jealous of my position as the best actress."

Indeed, many people were dissatisfied with her after she won the award.

Her competitors were probably overjoyed to see anti-fans bashing her without limit.

The competition in the entertainment industry was truly cruel.

Although everyone looked friendly on the surface, behind the scenes, no one knew what kind of person they were. If one were not careful, they might even be framed by their best friend.

"I don't agree." Crystal's thoughts were different from Jennifer's. "Netizens are currently posting hate comments about you, Bryan, and Vania!"

No one would actually dare to bash the three of them in the entertainment industry.

After all, if they dared to be so blatant and ridiculed Vania and Hanson, then they would not be able to hang around in the entertainment industry anymore.

"Are keyboard warriors so vicious?"

Jennifer scrolled through the comments on the Internet, knitting her brows together as she read them. The words they used were nasty to the point it was unbearable for one to read.

It really did not seem like an argument between celebrities.

At this moment, Jennifer was suspicious of one person.

Could it be her?

However, she was not certain about anything yet, so she dared not say it out loud.

Thus, she had no choice but to continue discussing a solution with Crystal. "If that's the case, we will simply not respond and wait for this news to die down by itself."

"If you don't respond, you're basically admitting to it. Are you going to declare that you're in a relationship now?"

If a celebrity's private life was known to the public, it would definitely affect the actors themselves.

One misstep could ruin their entire career.

While the two were hesitating, Bryan walked over. "Okay, I have a solution."

Crystal's face was puzzled as she looked at him in disbelief.

"Tell us about it. You are also involved in this matter anyway. If you don't handle it well, your career will also be affected."

It was not beneficial for a rookie to have scandals before the film he starred in was released.

"I have sent someone to investigate the mastermind behind it, and a conclusion will be reached soon. As for the news on the Internet, I will take the initiative to clarify the situation, so you don't have to worry."

While Bryan spoke, he sounded like a responsible man, which was a stark difference from his usual cheeky image.

In his heart, these things should have been done by a man.

At this moment, Crystal questioned in disbelief, "Y-You already sent someone to investigate the situation?"

She didn't expect that a rookie would have such powers.

"Crystal, he is like a younger brother to Director Greyson and President Luke," Jennifer explained Bryan's identity to Crystal.

Chapter 649

In fact, Jennifer hoped to declare that they were in a relationship.

However, it was still too early for that. After all, the two of them were not completely certain about their feelings yet.

"I've already drafted a tweet and will send a post on Twitter to clarify the situation later."

Bryan tapped the Twitter app on his phone and showed the draft to Vania.

Vania shook her head. "You've just entered the industry, and you don't have many fans yet. I'm afraid no one will read the tweet you sent."

She then asked, "Have you found who the mastermind is?"

Bryan glanced at his phone and answered, "There is no news yet so far."

But there should be soon.

"I've checked it out for you." Vania grabbed her phone and sent him a file through WhatsApp. "It's true that someone has been stalking the two of you, and their purpose was to take your photos and post them on the Internet to start a fight."

This approach was obviously used to destroy an actor's career.

Jennifer and Crystal were both surprised upon hearing that. As expected, someone did this on purpose!

"Who is it?" Jennifer inquired eagerly.

Would it be the same person she imagined? Jennifer was even more confident about her guess now.

Bryan also looked at Vania inquiringly. He wanted to know who was targeting Jennifer and him.

Once he found out who they were, he would never let them go because he didn't want Jennifer to be unhappy.

Crystal, too, had her own assumptions. "Is it Jennifer's competitor, Blaire?"

Blaire White was an A-lister in the entertainment industry as well and she had always been Jennifer's rival. Ever since she lost to Jennifer in the competition for best actress, she had been attempting to bring Jennifer down.

Vania did not directly answer Crystal's question, but said to Bryan, "You two were indeed quite intimate. Otherwise, they wouldn't have published such an article along with your photos."

She spoke in a relaxed tone, not at all worried about the seriousness of the problem.

Moreover, she deliberately let her eyes roam back and forth between the two of them.

Bryan rubbed his nose, feeling a little embarrassed. "Isn't this normal? Who knew the media's imagination was so wild?"

However, Jennifer felt awkward after being stared at by Vania's meaningful gaze. She avoided Vania's gaze and answered, "We just accidentally brushed against each other."

It was not an intimate act.

Chapter 650

Bryan was really impressed by Yvonne's rude means to bash him.

Currently, he raised his head in disbelief and looked at Vania with disappointment and disorientation as he asked, "Vania, is this true?"

Vania nodded. "This is what Hanson found out."

Bryan believed in Hanson's hacking skills.

At this time, however, he stared at Hanson in disbelief.

Hanson raised his eyebrows and questioned, "Do you not believe in my skills anymore?"

"I just can't believe the results." Bryan couldn't accept it for a while.

After taking some time to calm down, he said to Vania, "Vania, no matter how you decide to solve this issue, I will not stop you."

Yvonne had crossed the line. How could she do such a thing to hurt him when they grew up together?

Vania patted his shoulder in reassurance. "I know you're in a bad mood right now, but she's no longer who she used to be. You should be more careful."

Bryan showed a rare gloomy expression and answered, "Okay."

At this moment, he also received the same message on his phone. The mastermind behind the incident was indeed Yvonne.

Though the conversation between them did not mention Yvonne's name, Jennifer and Crystal had been curiously observing the conversation.

Now, Bryan reassured Jennifer with a cold face. "Don't worry, Jennifer. I will never let you be hurt by anyone."

She was shocked by his words and felt emotional.

This time, Vania got up and urged, "It's getting late. Let's go back and rest. Come on, Bryan."

Once all of them left, Jennifer suddenly realized what happened. The mastermind must have been Yvonne. Her words at the dinner table today were actually a hint that she was going to launch an attack on her.

In that case, she would definitely seek her revenge if there was a chance in the future.

Crystal was still unaware of what was going on. Looking at Jennifer, she inquired, "Do you know who it is?"

Jennifer told the whole thing to her, leaving Crystal shocked.

At the same time, she managed to confirm Bryan's identity. He was indeed from the Jones Family.

As soon as Vania returned to her room, she sat on the sofa and fiddled with her phone, thinking about how to draft the tweet she was going to post later.