C1021 Post-storm

Wu Tian originally wanted to tell them the whole story, but the moment he opened his mouth, his stomach started to churn and he felt like vomiting.

He quickly got up, rushed to the bathroom, hugged the toilet, and vomited again.

Wu Tian secretly made up his mind that he would never take a boat again for the rest of his life ...

This time, it was enough.

The situation here was not good, but the captain was also very worried.

Although the Navy had left, it was this storm that had driven them away.

However, this cargo ship did not avoid the storm and directly crashed into the storm.

Lightning flashed unceasingly within the storm, and wind and rain blew against each other. Each scene was extremely disturbing to behold.

They were afraid that the ship would be torn to pieces in this storm. There were hundreds of them up and down the ship, and their lives were now in the hands of the captain.

"Captain, can we go down like this ...?"

The sailors asked nervously. To be honest, they were not the only ones who were nervous, even the captain was.

"No problem, let's drive the engine to its maximum capacity and leave this storm as soon as possible!"

The captain wiped the sweat from his forehead. At this moment, this was probably the only decision he could make.

To be honest, this sea was not peaceful, and the seabed was not the kind of place they could stop at, so leaving this place was their only choice.

The people who were vomiting and vomiting in the cabin were in a miserable state. At this moment, a huge wave attacked the ship, almost causing it to be thrown out of the water.

Then the boat crashed again. With this, Wu Tian's head hit a hard object in the cabin and he instantly lost consciousness.

When he woke up, Wu Tian felt that the place he was at was very steady and didn't move at all.

However, his body was still in the same state as when he was in the storm, and he couldn't help but sway left and right.

"Are we out?"

Wu Tian stood up and looked outside with a puzzled expression.

The whole cabin was in chaos, and there was chaos everywhere. It could be seen that the storm's effect on the ship was not small.

The sky outside was still dark, but one could see a few specks of light, and even the moon.

Wu Tian leaned against the window and looked outside. A light sea breeze hit him and blew on his face, causing him to suddenly wake up a little.

"The storm is over?"

Wu Tian suddenly felt a burst of joy in his heart. Although he still had a bit of nausea, he couldn't spit anything out at this moment.

Where's Loong Yun and the rest? Wu Tian saw the sailors coming and going, but Loong Yun, Azure Dragon and the little girl were all missing.

He stood up and looked around. He saw them in the dining room.

These guys actually left him here by himself, and they went to eat after they woke up. Wu Tian was speechless.

He excitedly walked over. When he passed by the captain's quarters, he suddenly discovered that the people inside were all very serious, as if something had happened inside.

Wu Tian didn't care about this at first, but when he thought about what happened this time, if it wasn't for this captain, they would have had to waste a lot of time.

They can't even guarantee their lives. Thinking of this, Wu Tian decided to thank the captain again.

However, the moment they entered the captain's quarters, a few sailors looked at them sadly.

"What happened?!"

Wu Tian suddenly had a bad feeling. The atmosphere was too heavy.

These sailors were gathered around something, not knowing what was going on inside.

Wu Tian walked over step by step. His heart also started to ache.

"What's the matter!"

Wu Tian separated a few sailors and was shocked when he looked inside.

This was because the lower part of the captain's chest had been penetrated by a triangle-shaped iron, causing his clothes to be drenched in blood.

"How can this be!"

Wu Tian exclaimed. How did a good captain become like this? Could it be that someone attacked him?

"The storm was too big, the captain lost his grip on the thing in his hand, and was thrown out, in the end ..."

A nearby sailor was extremely upset. They all loved this captain very much, and they didn't want to see anything like this happen.

Wu Tian gritted his teeth. The captain was unconscious, but the sailors didn't know how to deal with such injuries. The doctors on the ship could only deal with minor injuries, but he couldn't do anything about such serious injuries.

"We need to get him to the hospital as soon as possible. Where are we now?!"

Looking at the lack of a leader, Wu Tian knew that someone had to stand up and command them at this time. Otherwise, wasting time would only cause this captain to lose his life.

One of the crew members wiped his tears and ran over to check, then said with a hint of pleasant surprise, "We're almost at the Sea Area of S City. In another 30 minutes, we'll be able to enter the territorial sea of China."

Wu Tian was overjoyed. The captain had helped him so much, now it was finally the time for him to show off.

Without a word, he rushed out of the captain's quarters and dragged Loong Yun over to him while she was eating.

"Hurry up and arrange for the helicopter to bring the captain back for treatment, using our best method!"

No matter what, Wu Tian's words were still rather uplifting. Those sailors who were originally very sad felt reassured after hearing Wu Tian's words.

It was fortunate that they didn't hide Wu Tian's identity for nothing.

When Loong Yun saw the situation, she immediately understood the seriousness of the situation and started to prepare to deal with it without a second word.

I don't know if it was luck or misfortune, although the captain suffered such heavy injuries, they originally had to travel at sea for a few days. Now, with the help of the storm, it only took them one night to reach China.

Maybe there was some kind of heaven's will behind it, Wu Tian couldn't help but sigh in his heart.

Soon, Security Team who had received the news rushed over immediately to pick up the captain, Wu Tian and a few others.

Returning to the land of China, Wu Tian's heart was filled with emotion. However, before he could continue this feeling for too long, he saw a few cars drive into the Flower Island and drive directly towards Wu Tian's location.

Wu Tian looked at the license plate on the car and knew that this was someone from the military.

They arrived fast enough! Wu Tian remembered that he didn't inform anyone that he had returned, but how did Tieh Jun and the others know?

However, this question did not seem to be that difficult to understand.

Wu Tian was not surprised that they were so capable.

Since they were already here, Wu Tian definitely couldn't not ignore them. He quickly organized his clothing and went into the office to wait.

Sure enough, not long after he sat down, a bright and loud voice came from outside.

"Wu Tian, I heard you did pretty well this time!"

Accompanied by the loud voice, Tieh Jun pushed open the door and walked into the office with big strides.

"This is just you praising me too much, it's not that exaggerated ..." Wu Tian was actually modest for a while. He raised his head and looked at the officer in front of him. He didn't come empty-handed, but there were a few people behind him. They were carrying some boxes in their hands.

Ugh, does he need me to do something for him this time? Wu Tian muttered in his heart, but he still invited them to the sofa.

"It's like this. I was going to investigate this Zhang Zerui case, but I didn't think that I would be able to find something more useful."

"Oh, it seems like you have gained a lot this time!" Tieh Jun was also interested. The more he looked at it, the more he felt that his decision to pick Wu Tian was the right one.

Wu Tian straightforwardly told everything that had happened to him in the Britain. Of course, other than the matter of the girl who could not speak, he didn't hold back anything else.

Tieh Jun nodded as he listened. There was a man who looked like a secretary keeping notes on the side.

After hearing Wu Tian's report, Tieh Jun glanced at Wu Tian in admiration. He reached out and patted his shoulder.

"You did well this time. I feel very satisfied. According to our agreement, you can be considered to have completed a mission. As for the corresponding reward, I will also give it to you."

As Tieh Jun spoke, the people behind him quickly brought up the boxes.

"This is what I promised you before. I can now give it to you."

Looking at these boxes, Wu Tian was a little curious and didn't know what was inside. He quickly ran over to open it and saw that there were piles of thick blueprints inside.

"This is ..."

Tieh Jun smiled, "Isn't your company's spaceflight technology progressing very slowly? This is a missile body technology that has been left behind since we retired two generations ago. It's useless to leave it in the warehouse, so we can give it to you for its remaining use."

His business was really doing well. Although it was a backward technology, Wu Tian was still very happy. One must know that his rocket technology was far worse than the technology developed by the country.

Although it had retired a long time ago, it was still much better than the things that Wu Tian developed.

With this, the spaceflight department would definitely advance by leaps and bounds. With this advantage, he no longer had to worry about the Zhixing Technology Company being helped by the people from Britain.

At that time, Wu Tian would be the only one in the market!

"Great!" Wu Tian could barely contain his excitement and kissed Tieh Jun. After sending off the military, Loong Yun started to worry.

After all, they did not tell the whole truth. If this had been known by the military, they would not have been treated like how they were now.

"President Wu, what do we do about the girl?" Loong Yun felt that it was impossible to hide this matter for the rest of her life. After all, she was a living person and wasn't some random cat or dog.

Wu Tian put away the boxes with a smile on his face. After listening to what Loong Yun said, he wasn't in a hurry at this moment.

The reason why he didn't want to talk about this matter was because the girl's unique ability really made Wu Tian feel weird.

"Let's send her to another place first. I feel that our Flower Island is still a little too easily exposed right now." Back then, it was for safety that he had built this Flower Island. But now, it was as transparent as a piece of glass in front of the military.

"Got it, leave this matter to me." Loong Yun's attitude made people feel more at ease. With her here, he usually didn't have to worry about anything.

Wu Tian nodded, but gave another instruction.

"Don't let her expose her identity, we have to protect her well right now!"

As for what he was going to do in the future, Wu Tian didn't think too much about it right now. It would be great if he could figure it out, but if he couldn't figure it out, he didn't want to hurt the girl that he had brought out with great difficulty.

This matter finally came to an end. Wu Tian immediately focused his attention on the company.

Over the next few days, due to the information provided by the military, Hong Xiangtai's rocket had progressed very quickly. Now, a large number of young technical backbone had been developed at the launch site, and these were all the engineers Wu Tian relied on.

Within a short period of time, Wu Tian completed some of the missions he had previously detained. In a short period of time, Wu Group Corporation, which was already quiet, began to return to the front pages of the newspapers and television stations.

As a result, Time Company came over to negotiate cooperation with Wu Tian.

It was just that this time, it was their CEO, Cui Yongji, who came to visit.

This surprised Wu Tian, because it was the first time Cui Yongji had taken the initiative. Wu Tian couldn't help but suspect if Cui Yongji had something to ask of him.

When Cui Yongji saw the grand scale of Flower Island, his expression did not change greatly. Instead, it became even more solemn, as if there was something on his mind.

Wu Tian looked at his expression from the side. Since he was in a bad mood, there wasn't much point in continuing to visit Flower Island.

"Director Cui, if possible, why don't we go to my office and have a nice chat?"

Wu Tian waved to the driver to stop their sightseeing car and lead Cui Yongji upstairs.

Cui Yongji just nodded. There was a huge difference between him and before. Even though he wasn't young anymore, his hair used to be thick and black, so it was hard to tell that he was old.

But this time, it was different when he appeared in front of Wu Tian. His white hair was about to occupy the top of his head.

C1023 To Empathize with Each Other Because of a Common Experience

Cui Yongji finally let out a sigh of relief after they sat down in the office.

Loong Yun chased out the unrelated people, leaving the three of them in the office.

"Director Cui, this office is completely soundproof. If you have anything to say, feel free to say it."

Wu Tian said with a smile. At the same time, he nodded at Loong Yun. She quickly brought him a pot of tea. She poured tea for both of them.

"President Wu knows me better. If only there were more people like you in my company, I wouldn't be so worried." Cui Yongji was very emotional, but this time, he probably met with some trouble.

"Actually, I need your help. Do you know the relationship between our Korea and Britain? Back then, they initiated a patent lawsuit against you?"

Cui Yongji's expression started to become very unsatisfied. Before this incident, Wu Tian would try his best to avoid mentioning it. After all, this person could be considered as one of the knots in the hearts of the Korea people.

Britain had always controlled their Korea's government. On the surface, but the relationship between the two parties behind the scenes was actually very deep. Most of the time, the Korea Governments would listen to the arrangements made by the Britain.

If it was in the past, this would have been fine. But this time, something was wrong.

Something that had never happened before had actually happened to his Time Company.

"Wait a minute, you mean they're prosecuting your company now?"

Wu Tian's mouth was wide open in disbelief.

Korea and Britain were the allies, how could this kind of operation occur?

"Believe it or not, their summons has already been delivered to me. If I don't want to be sued, I will have to pay a sky-high patent fee!" Cui Yongji sighed. He moved his mouth and wanted to say something, but when he saw Loong Yun, he didn't say anything.

Wu Tian saw through his worry and explained with a smile, "This is Loong Yun, she's my secretary. Don't worry, she knows everything that I know. You can tell us whatever it is without any worries."

After hearing Wu Tian's words, Cui Yongji didn't have much to worry about.

"It's like this. I want to take off the hook with them. I definitely can't pay the money, but if I do that, then it's impossible in my country. I can't do that, the administration will come looking for me. So I was hoping I could get some technical support from you. "

Cui Yongji said in a very sincere manner. He knew that Wu Tian also encountered this kind of situation before. However, he had relied on his own strength to solve this problem.

Of course, this was only because Wu Group companies were powerful. Although Time Company were also powerful, they did not possess that many high-tech technologies.

He kept begging, but in the end, he could only beg Wu Tian.

"About this ..." Wu Tian took a sip of the tea and said leisurely, "It's actually easy to do. As long as you don't use their stuff, I can help you in some areas, but it's impossible to transfer technology. I can't do that."

Technology was Wu Tian's core interest. In the past, they had spent a lot of effort to develop those servers, and they also used the materials from the meteorite. Therefore, these servers were definitely not for sale.

"President Wu, don't just stand there and watch me die. If I really can't solve this problem, then I really have to pay a huge sum of money."

The price was too high. Otherwise, Cui Yongji wouldn't have come to Wu Tian asking for help so hysterically.

"Boss Cui, this is my secret, server and such, I definitely can't give it to you. However, you can just place all of your computing services on my server and pay a certain rent. "

Wu Tian thought for a moment and gave him a compromise. There were both good and bad aspects to this plan, but the specific considerations would depend on what Cui Yongji was thinking.

"This ..." Cui Yongji began to feel troubled. In fact, these data were all confidential to most companies. Of course, they wouldn't put the data in the server of Wu Tian.

In that case, wasn't it equivalent to them being transparent in front of Wu Tian?

"Director Cui, I know what you are worried about, but I can give you a guarantee. I will absolutely not ask about this. I don't think there is a need to look at your data, our business areas are all different."

What Wu Tian said was the truth. Time Company involved all kinds of industries, but Wu Group Company was mainly in the high-tech field, so the two were not really related.

No matter how he thought about it, Cui Yongji couldn't come up with a better solution. Furthermore, from Wu Tian's point of view, it seemed like this solution was the most perfect one.

If he were to pay a rent and connect it to Wu Tian's server, then Time Company would no longer need to care about Britain's patent litigation.

However, he was putting the egg in his hand from one basket to the other.

The similarity was that both baskets were not in his hands.

It was just that Wu Tian's face looked kind and kind, while the people from Britain were glaring at him, looking extremely fierce.

"Let me go back and think about it. After all, this is a very important matter." Cui Yongji didn't want to make up his mind right now.

"It's alright, I'm not in a hurry right now. I have plenty of time. I am very curious, in your Korea, could it be that only your company has received a lawsuit? "

One must know that at that time, many other large enterprises with great China had also received a blow from the United Kingdom.

"Yes." Speaking of this, Cui Yongji started to get angry again, as if this was one of his angry points.

"This time, the ones who attacked me were the Shuangxing Company Group, and they were the ones who colluded with the Britain."

If he did not mention it, Wu Tian would have almost forgotten about the Shuangxing Company Group.

"Didn't he already ..." Back then, when Wu Tian was fighting against Shuangxing Company Group, he had already made a complete mess of their company. Could it be that after not seeing them for a period of time, this guy had already recovered?

"Right now, he has obtained a large amount of money out of who knows where. It seems that he is going to surpass me by a little now."

Cui Yongji's expression started to turn dark. It could be seen that he had been in a hurry recently because of this matter.
