Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1025 - British Emperor Entertainment

C1025 British Emperor Entertainment

Lee Zhan originally didn't want to see anyone when he heard that someone had come to see him. He told his secretary to turn the matter down.

Because he had a number of appointments behind him. Therefore, he didn't have the time to talk to people who didn't have an appointment in advance.

But the secretary was a bit hesitant and carefully said, "Director Li, the person at the front desk said that the person who came seemed to be from Wu Group Corporation."

Lee Zhan, who was indifferent before, suddenly paused and raised his head to look at his secretary.

"Wu Group company? What are they doing here? "

Although Lee Zhan was a little confused, he quickly guessed what was going on, "I know, it must be about Hualong Movie. Let them come up."

Although it was a temporary decision, Lee Zhan still decided to see what Wu Group company's people would say.

Soon, the secretary informed the front desk. little girl, who was at the front desk, was going upstairs with Wu Tian very politely.

Along the way, Wu Tian's horizons were broadened because he could almost see a famous celebrity walk past him in just a few steps.

Most of these celebrities had seven or eight people gathered around them, making them look very impressive. The most important thing was that they seemed to be artists who were contracted under the Yingdi Entertainment.

Even if Wu Tian didn't pay much attention to the entertainment industry. He couldn't help but admire, this Yingdi Entertainment actually had such a powerful strength. Just how did they manage to gather so many resources into his hands?

"Did you see that just now? Is that the currently red Chen Bing Bing ...?"

In the elevator, Wu Tian whispered to Loong Yun.

The tone of his voice, as well as that surprised expression of his, made little girl, who had let them lead the way, unable to help but secretly cover her mouth and laugh.

Because Wu Tian looked like a country bumpkin, like he was entering the city for the first time.

On the other hand, Loong Yun was much steadier and more expressionless than him. Although all of these celebrities were beautiful, Loong Yun was even more beautiful when compared to them.

This was because she had a very unique charm that none of the celebrities had.

Therefore, along the way, there were quite a few directors and producers who were constantly looking at Loong Yun.

Some people even offered their business cards to her, but of course, Loong Yun refused them all.

She was Wu Tian's only secretary. How could she be a celebrity for others and film for them?

"President Wu, you can't let our company's people hear your words. It's really damaging to our company's morale!"

Loong Yun said indifferently. She had almost made this matter clear. Don't forget that her company still had Huang Lan. She was a national celebrity, and her relationship with Wu Tian was so unclear.

Hearing Loong Yun's words, Wu Tian quickly shut his mouth and followed the elevator to open the door. They were almost there.

"Both of you, walk to the front. If you can see the door, it will be our chairman's office."

The clerk at the front desk didn't follow Wu Tian and the others out of the elevator, instead, he pointed the way and went down alone.

Before she left, she looked at Wu Tian with a mocking expression. She probably had met many people like Wu Tian before.

He was afraid that he would be ruthlessly chased out by the chairman of the board.

Wu Tian carefully observed the space on this floor. Every corner was incomparably luxurious. If one was able to use gold in a place, Lee Zhan definitely wouldn't use silver.

With every step they took, he could feel that the floor beneath their feet was filled with money. Just the decorations on this floor alone would probably cost billions of dollars.

"Excuse me, are you two from Wu Group Corporation?"

A secretary stood at the door and waited for them for a long time. When she saw Wu Tian and co. walk over, she immediately asked politely.

The smile on her face was so standard that no one could find anything bad about it.

"Yes, is your chairman here?"

Wu Tian nodded and quickly ran with Loong Yun.

"Follow me."

With that, the secretary opened the door and sent Wu Tian in. The office was unusually wide, but it was also extremely tidy and gave off an artistic feeling.

Behind a desk in the middle of the room, a figure was looking at a screen on the wall with his back facing Wu Tian.

In the middle of the screen were some of Huang Lan's recent films.

"I didn't expect the Wu Group company's people to actually come find me here. I'm really rather flattered."

At this moment, Lee Zhan turned off the TV and slowly turned his body around.

When he saw Wu Tian's face, he was clearly stunned for a moment, but his reaction was very fast. In almost an instant, the expression disappeared without a trace.

"Wu Tian?"

But he didn't expect that the person who came to visit was Wu Group Corporation's chairman, Wu Tian ... This guy is famous all over the country.

He had done so many things before, whether it was good or bad. In short, he brought Wu Tian to a state where everyone in the country knew about him.

There were even many people who admired Wu Tian and thought that he was the hope of China Enterprise.

"Director Li, please advise us when we meet for the first time."

Wu Tian said very politely. He didn't have that kind of airs, if he didn't mention his name, perhaps no one would think that he was the boss of Wu Group company.

"Please take a seat. You've come to find me this time ..."

Although Lee Zhan did not think of this, his reaction was still quite fast. He greeted Wu Tian calmly without a hint of rudeness.

Although he said those words for no reason, because he knew why Wu Tian came to find him.

"It's like this. I heard that our company's artists have no way of renewing the contract with you, so I wanted to personally come over to have a chat with you to see if there were any opportunities."

Hearing Wu Tian's words, Lee Zhan quickly smiled and nodded his head.

"Hmm, it's like this. Actually, I didn't personally ask about this matter. I also didn't expect that the people below would act in such a manner. I'm really sorry. I'll apologize to you first."

Lee Zhan spoke in a smooth and glib manner, but no one could find any breakthroughs. He always said everything perfectly.

"Then can we sign some new contracts? Artists under my command can't stay idle like this."

Wu Tian didn't waste any time with him and directly went up to talk about what they were most concerned about.

"Let's do this ..." Lee Zhan suddenly started to hesitate, as if there was something hard to say, "I'm really sorry, I'm afraid I can't do that."
