

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1026 - Bullying Wu Tian

C1026 Bullying Wu Tian

Hearing this, Wu Tian felt a little uncomfortable. It was obvious that the other party wanted to negotiate some conditions.

He really was an old fox. He would never agree to something like this so easily.

Even this sort of thing was good for him.

Lee Zhan smiled and took out a cigar from his pocket. He carefully put the cigar into his mouth and lit it up. With a puff, he created a smoke ring in the air.

"It's very simple. Right now, the resources I have are also limited. Your request is not impossible. If you want me to sign your artists, our contract has to be a big one. It's best to forget about the contracts that have lasted for several months or even half a year. It would be a waste of our efforts. "

As he spoke, his eyes carefully observed the change in Wu Tian's expression. An experienced person like him was good at negotiating, and this kind of negotiation was to rely on minor details to find the enemy's weakness.

That way, he would have the advantage and control of the entire negotiation.

However, this time, Lee Zhan still met his opponent. Wu Tian was not a fledgling kid. This kind of thing was as common as eating and sleeping to him.

"That's only natural. We also hope to find a long-term cooperative entertainment company. Since both of us have this intention, then I don't think we need to worry about it anymore. It's best to settle this matter as soon as possible."

Wu Tian obviously didn't want to give this guy any leeway. With this opportunity, he obviously wanted to grab it.

"Alright, no problem. President Wu is straightforward indeed. I admire that!" Regardless of anything else, this CEO Li still looked like he had that intention on his face.

After he finished speaking, he immediately called for his secretary to draft out the contract.

Only when he signed the contract did Wu Tian realize that the contract required three years of cooperation and a very high penalty for breach of contract.

"Isn't this penalty a little too high ..."

Wu Tian suddenly rejoiced. Luckily, he had observed it carefully, otherwise, he might have been framed for this contract.

Lee Zhan laughed. His smile was like the sun in the sky, making people feel very warm.

"President Wu, you don't know about this, this is also a guarantee to our company's interests. If the artiste we've painstakingly nurtured for half a day were to be suddenly poached, it would be a great loss to us. Also, for your company, a penalty of 300 million isn't a lot ...

At this point, Wu Tian couldn't refute anything. He was indeed not an expert in this field, so he felt that what he said made sense.

"Alright, I'm willing to believe in Director Li. This time, our cooperation is settled." Saying that, Wu Tian did not hesitate anymore. He took the pen and signed his name onto the contract.

However, he did not cheer out loud like Wu Tian had guessed after he told the news to Zhang Chi. He still wore a solemn expression. But no matter what, for the time being, artists like Xi Chengwen would not have to worry about not having any programs to do and nothing to shoot.

It had only been a few days since they signed on. Wu Tian saw his artiste Xi Chengwen appearing on some programs several times on television. Although it gave the impression that she was there, the participation rate was not high. There were even some people who purposely kept their distance from her.

Wu Tian was actually very unhappy. However, when he thought of the possibility that it was an adjustment made by the British Empire, he felt that it wasn't impossible. After all, things had to be done slowly, and the meal had to be eaten bit by bit.

However, something he was worried about still happened. Wu Tian was lying on the sofa not long after he had his meal, watching a variety show together with Liu Yueyao and the others.

This time, it was also a special occasion for Xi Chengwen. Wu Tian and the others were looking forward to it.

It was just that the front part was fine, but when it was time to play games, the small games that were originally meant to be played by both sides suddenly changed its flavor. Everyone treated Xi Chengwen as a target.

Whether it was his teammates or his opponents, they were all attacking her.

Xi Chengwen, who was originally known for her powerful strength, swayed under the encirclement of a few people and then fell to the ground. This made Wu Tian and the others break out in a cold sweat.

However, what happened next angered Wu Tian even more. Not only did the hosts and the other artists not go over to help Xi Chengwen, they instead stood to the side and teased her, thinking that she was pretending.

When Wu Tian saw this, he immediately stood up and threw a cup on the table, which gave Liu Yueyao and the other girls a fright.

Wu Tian shouted out to the corridor outside. Liu Yueyao and the others looked at each other, but they had never seen Wu Tian so angry. For a moment, they didn't know whether they should go up to persuade him or not.

At this moment, the sound of high heels came from the corridor. Loong Yun and Huang Lan walked in.

Loong Yun glanced at the broken glass on the floor and didn't say anything. Instead, she quietly went to get a broom and prepared to clean it. Seeing this, Liu Yueyao hurried over to retrieve the item in her hand.

"Loong Yun, go and persuade him ..." Liu Yueyao winked at Loong Yun. It seemed like she was the one who was more effective at speaking at this moment.

Loong Yun nodded. She took out her cellphone from her clothes and quickly dialed a number. Then, she handed it to Wu Tian.

"It's Zhang Chi."

Wu Tian immediately took the phone and yelled into the phone without any hesitation: "Zhang Chi, explain to me, what exactly happened in the program just now? "How is Xi Chengwen now?"

"President Wu, she's resting now. She's a lot better now. She was too tired just now, so she's a bit breathless ..." Zhang Chi was also extremely anxious. He was more worried about Xi Chengwen's condition than anyone else.

At this time, Wu Tian looked coldly at the television on the wall. The hosts and artists on the television were still giggling, making people feel nauseous.

"Where are you? I will go over now! "

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1027 - Angry Breaking into the Studio

C1027 Angry Breaking into the Studio

Zhang Chi's body trembled upon hearing Wu Tian's words.

He felt that Wu Tian was a little angry this time, he probably came to stand up for them.

While he could vent his anger by doing this, it was not necessarily a good thing for Xi Chengwen's development.

"President Wu, I can take care of the things over here. You don't need to worry ..."
Zhang Chi quickly explained that if Wu Tian came, things wouldn't be so simple.

"Now where are you?" Wu Tian's tone turned cold. He was no longer joking.

Zhang Chi didn't even dare to say anything, but if he didn't say it, this news could still be easily found out.

"President Wu, it's a television station with S City." Loong Yun tapped a few times on her laptop and the result was out.

Huang Lan had been watching on the side earlier. She didn't expect Wu Tian to be serious.

"Stop messing around. This matter is nothing at all."

Huang Lan had been in the entertainment circle for a long time. With her current position, she had experienced a lot.

She had already gotten used to seeing all sorts of things. This kind of deliberate suppression was something she would often see.

"You said I was messing around?" Wu Tian suddenly glared at them. He couldn't believe it, they were all asking him to forget about it.

Wu Tian was just going to let go of the matter of getting slapped in the face. Did he really think he was a bastard?

"This kind of thing is too common, we can discuss it with Yingdi Entertainment later on. Right now, there's no need to go all out, you might not understand this Lee Zhan, he's part of the circle ..."

"I don't care who he is, but what he did was just slapping our company in the face. It's fine if I'm humiliated by myself, but I can't allow my company's face to be humiliated! Most importantly, she is my employee ... "

Wu Tian's tone was strong at first, but soon after, it began to soften and his eyes began to soften. He turned his head and looked at them affectionately, saying, "Whether it is my employees or my friends, as long as you all rely on me, I will protect you all no matter what! This is something that cannot be discussed! "

After saying that, Wu Tian turned around and left while Loong Yun followed closely behind him. At this moment, everyone present had a solemn expression on their faces.

Huang Lan was at a loss for words. Two streams of tears flowed down her cheeks and fell to the ground from the corners of her eyes.

Perhaps, this was what a responsible man should say. Perhaps, this was one of the reasons why he had always been with Wu Tian. At this moment, all of them felt an incomparable sense of security.

He was like a wild horse that had broken free, or a bull that had its eyes bloodshot as he charged straight in.

The security guards of the television station and several people at the front desk were unable to stop Wu Tian alone.

"Which floor?" Wu Tian said without turning his head. He couldn't wait to see if Xi Chengwen was alright or not.

"Fifth floor!" Loong Yun didn't waste her breath. After she opened the elevator, she didn't go in directly but pressed the button for Wu Tian. She stayed outside the elevator to deal with the security guards that came after her.

The elevator door opened with a ding sound. Wu Tian walked out valiantly without looking sideways. He didn't care about the gazes of the people beside him.

"What are you doing? This is the recording studio, so no one is allowed to enter!" A person wearing glasses that seemed to be a staff member rushed over at this moment, wanting to stop Wu Tian.

"Ai, I'm talking about you. What's going on with you? If you go any deeper, we'll call the police!" This staff member's attitude immediately became a lot better. Ignoring the fact that Wu Tian came for nothing, just her attitude made people feel annoyed.

He was very powerful. Although this staff member was very arrogant, he was very petite and weak. He was directly thrown out.

But in the end, this person finally found an opportunity. He immediately began shouting again and again. At this moment, everyone in the studio looked over.

"President Wu?" At this time, Zhang Chi quickly walked out of the crowd and ran towards Wu Tian. Although he said he wouldn't let Wu Tian come, he was very touched when he saw Wu Tian.

When the surrounding people saw that it was Zhang Chi and his people from Hualong Movie, they let out a sigh of relief, thinking that it was an outsider.

Zhang Chi quickly led Wu Tian to take a look. Xi Chengwen was lying on a chair, with a few assistants wiping her sweat and feeding her water.

"Aiya, how did this happen? How did you become a manager?" Wu Tian looked at Xi Chengwen's pitiful appearance and was instantly very angry. He wished he could scold Zhang Chi ruthlessly.

Zhang Chi also felt very upset. He could only listen to Wu Tian's criticism. After all, as the manager, the one who was responsible for the failure was him.

"Sorry, President Wu ..."

At this time, quite a number of people nearby had come over to watch the commotion. Some of them were artists from other companies. When they saw that Zhang Chi was scolded to the point he didn't even dare to speak, they couldn't help but laugh.

"What are you looking at? Haven't you seen it before? " Wu Tian looked around at the people around him and was immediately angered. It was these people who made Xi Chengwen faint on the spot.

When they saw Wu Tian flustered and exasperated, those people actually acted as if they were shameless and didn't move at all.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1028 - Protect Your Own People

C1028 Protect Your Own People

When they saw Wu Tian flustered and exasperated, those people actually acted as if they were shameless and didn't move at all.

He thought that he was just a dead pig that wasn't afraid of boiling water. Since he felt that Wu Tian couldn't do anything about them, he naturally didn't care.

"Isn't that Wu Tian? He's the chairman of Wu Group company!"

Someone recognized Wu Tian and immediately started to gossip in the crowd.

Wu Tian was not in the mood to pay attention to these people as he looked at Xi Chengwen.

"Are you all right?" His voice immediately became much gentler, completely different from the attitude he had when he was going back and forth with those people.

"President Wu, I'm fine now. I'll be fine after a short rest ..." Xi Chengwen's face was slightly pale, and she seemed to be struggling to speak.

"Isn't that so? It was just a fall, and it really turned out to be a real deal. Do you really think that you're a treasure?"

"You can't say that. She might be a treasure. Hehehe, who knows if there are any unspoken rules. I heard that Wu Tian and her were a little unclear back then ..."

These people did not intend to hide their mockery at all, saying that Wu Tian was worthless. Wu Tian didn't say anything in response to this criticism.

Everyone present was shocked. No one expected Wu Tian to do this.

Although there was no shooting or resting right now, there were still a lot of reporters and celebrities present ... If word of this got out, it would be a shocking piece of gossip. Under normal circumstances, all entertainment companies would try their best to avoid interaction between their own artists and bosses.

"President Wu, you are ..." At this time, Zhang Chi was unable to understand what was going on. They had yet to complete their filming mission, and if she were to leave just like that, he would be done for.

"Let's go. It's better not to do this kind of show." Wu Tian glanced coldly at the artists behind him. He spoke without any emotion and was about to leave the studio with Xi Chengwen in his arms.

Those staff did not know whether they should stop him or not.

Logically speaking, they shouldn't have let Xi Chengwen leave because this was a business contract and she had to finish filming here.

"But ..." Zhang Chi was a bit worried, but he didn't know if he should say it or not.

"If I say go, then go!"

"Isn't that President Wu? Why are you here today?" Before Zhang Chi could say anything, Lee Zhan's voice came from the entrance of the studio.

He looked over with a smile that was still full of sunshine. However, at this moment, he had already made Wu Tian feel extremely annoyed.

"I don't have time to talk to you right now. I'm taking my people with me." Wu Tian could roughly guess that this person was here to embarrass him, so he didn't try to hide anything.

"Did President Wu forget something? When we first signed the contract, that was against the contract!"

He really did take out this contract to talk. Wu Tian snorted in disdain. These people really didn't have any human sympathy at all.

"President Wu, please put me down. I can still finish filming the rest of the show ..." Xi Chengwen also knew what Wu Tian was planning to do and what the consequences would be if she brought him away.

Thus, the sensible her immediately wanted to stop Wu Tian from writing.

However, Wu Tian's arms were like two iron rods, they were too hard to push off. Xi Chengwen's body was still weak right now, so it was impossible for her to struggle free from Wu Tian's embrace.

"Really? Then what if I have to leave?" Wu Tian stared at Lee Zhan with a sharp gaze. He wanted to see if this person wanted to fight to the end with him.

No matter what, he, Wu Tian, was not some nobody. He was not someone that an ordinary person could scare.

"That's simple. We have to follow the contract."

The meaning behind his words was to demand that Wu Tian be held responsible for breach of contract.

At this time, the people on the side all laughed along with Lee Zhan. They all felt that Wu Tian couldn't back down this time.

If Wu Tian didn't say those words and didn't do those things, he could have just waited until this program was done filming before seeking justice for Xi Chengwen.

However, in order to show off, he would have to submit to Lee Zhan in public. Otherwise, he would face a huge penalty.

Even if it wasn't enough, Lee Zhan was not a good person. He was someone who always kept his word in the entertainment circle, and if he decided that someone was not good enough, then the entire China's entertainment circle would very well ban that person.

In other words, he, Lee Zhan, was the local tyrant in this field.

Wu Tian also refused to be outdone. He looked around and suddenly burst out laughing.

"Alright, let's do it according to the contract, Loong Yun!"

With Wu Tian's shout, the late Loong Yun walked in from the door. As she walked, she quietly took out the contract from her briefcase and placed it in front of Lee Zhan.

"Director Li, according to the terms of our contract, if we were to unilaterally break the treaty, we will have to pay 300 million in breach of contract fees."

Loong Yun read out the payment expressionlessly. She tore the contract into pieces in front of Lee Zhan and scattered it in the air like a snowflake.

Everyone present was dumbfounded. No one thought that Wu Tian would actually do something like breaking the contract. Was he really not afraid of offending Lee Zhan?

One had to know, as long as Lee Zhan gave the order, Wu Tian's artists would never again be able to rise to prominence in the entertainment circle.

Lee Zhan chuckled. This result was not bad for him.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1029 - Break the Contract

C1029 Break the Contract

Seeing Lee Zhan's proud smile, Wu Tian suddenly felt that he had fallen into someone else's trap.

Now that he thought about it, Wu Tian seemed to be in a very passive state from the very beginning.

"Since President Wu has already made up his mind, this time, our contract will be annulled. I believe that President Wu will definitely not avoid the responsibility of breaking the contract. " Lee Zhan squinted his eyes and looked at Wu Tian with a smile. The meaning behind his words was to watch him make a fool of himself.

As he spoke, he took out another contract from his pocket. This contract was almost exactly the same as the one he had just torn.

Why almost? Because there was one thing that was different, there was one more thing in the contract that Lee Zhan took out.

"According to our contract, if one of us defaults, we will have to pay a penalty of 300 million on the spot. If you are unable to do so, the penalty will continue to increase by 10% every hour."

This move could be said to be very sinister. Just now, Loong Yun had torn up the contract in front of him, which meant that Lee Zhan had now taken out this contract and it became the only valid version.

Therefore, even if he added this sentence on top, Wu Tian and the others wouldn't be able to say anything because they no longer had a comparable version.

However, something Lee Zhan didn't expect happened. He thought Wu Tian would be very surprised and shocked, but this guy didn't show the state he was expecting. Instead, he looked indifferent.

Wu Tian sighed softly. Luckily, he was a bit more skillful, otherwise, he might really have died here today.

"President Wu, why don't we ..." Xi Chengwen looked at Wu Tian worriedly. She did not want to cause Wu Tian any great losses because of such a small matter.

Wu Tian didn't say anything. Of course, he didn't put Xi Chengwen down. He just raised his head and puffed out his chest, admitting it leisurely.

"Here is 300 million in cash, we will directly pay the penalty!"

When they saw this, everyone exclaimed. No one expected Wu Tian to come with a penalty fee. In other words, Wu Tian was already prepared at the beginning of his freshman year. He knew that Lee Zhan would make things difficult for him.

All of a sudden, everyone's eyes were focused on Wu Tian. With these two words, it was very easy to tell who was stronger and who was weaker.

"Do you want to send someone to count them?" Loong Yun passed the money box to Lee Zhan. She spoke very politely but her eyes were filled with disdain, as if looking at him was an insult to her.

At this moment, Wu Tie was trembling in anger. He did not expect Wu Tian to be able to do this much. He originally wanted to use this opportunity to make Wu Tian lower his head.

However, he did not expect Wu Tian to be well-prepared.

Lee Zhan looked at the three boxes of money and didn't know what to say. He originally wanted to take advantage of the situation, but he ended up suffering a loss? However, to Lee Zhan, he did not pay anything and instead took three hundred million for free. This should be a good thing.

Xi Chengwen was sobbing in Wu Tian's arms at this moment. She didn't expect Wu Tian to have made up his mind to take her away even if it meant breaking the contract.

Ever since she was young, this was the first time she had felt such concern towards her.

"What are you crying for? You're my employee, aren't I supposed to do this? Don't tell me you don't want me to treat you better?"

"Sorry, President Wu, I gave you trouble." Zhang Chi, who was at the side, also wiped away his tears. This guy could cry even more than a woman.

Seeing these people like this, Wu Tian didn't know whether to laugh or cry. He just wanted to do what he should have done, and they were already moved. How bad was he before?

"Alright, don't cry anymore. This won't do. Let's think of another way, we can't just hang ourselves from a tree."

After dealing with this matter, they still had to focus on their current problems.

Since this contract was now invalid, Wu Tian had to think of another way to find resources for the artists under his banner.

After returning to the company, Wu Tian immediately started to gather people to discuss this issue.

Huang Lan, as the senior among them, was also one of them, so of course she had a say.

"We have completely offended the British Empire this time. Since that's the case, we might as well put an end to this matter."

Wu Tian looked at Huang Lan with interest. He was looking forward to what Huang Lan would say.

"You think the same as me. I feel that we can't be restrained by such a group of vile people. We have to find a way out of this predicament."

Wu Tian's fingers tapped the table as he started to ponder.

Seeing that no one said anything, Wu Zaiyao took the initiative to raise her hand, wanting to speak.

"Everyone, allow me to interrupt. I'm from the press, and I'm from this media field as well. I feel that what we did just now was not without effect. For example, now is a good opportunity, we should take the initiative to issue a statement condemning them for treating Xi Chengwen as such. "

It had to be said that the media people had a keen sense of smell, and they immediately felt that there was something they could do.

If they were to spread the news about this matter first, and if they were to occupy the dominant position in the public opinion, the enemies would definitely be put into a passive position. At that time, it was uncertain who would win.

"What you said makes sense!" Wu Tian nodded and agreed with Wu Zaiyao's suggestion without any hesitation. He immediately settled this matter.

Not even ten minutes had passed when a letter of announcement by Hualong Movie and Wu Group companies that they would never cooperate with Yingdi Entertainment appeared on the web.

This news quickly set off waves on the internet.

At the same time, Lee Zhan, who got the news, smiled sinisterly and clenched his fists.

"It seems like you want to play with me for real. Who cares who you are or how famous you are? In the entertainment circle, only I, Lee Zhan, have the final say! "
