C1031 Suspected Car Accidents

The bad news came one after another. For the entire night, there was basically no rest.

It was the first time Wu Tian encountered such a difficult situation. He never would have thought that his methods would be so quick. It seemed that it had already exceeded his expectations.

Lee Zhan's reaction speed was too fast, it didn't seem like he had come up with an idea on the spur of the moment.

Wu Tian sat on the sofa and fell into deep thought. As Loong Yun's messages were passed to him one by one, the confident man finally started to hesitate.

"President Wu, don't be too anxious. I think Miss Huang Lan's idea is to pay attention. Let's contact a group of directors and producers and set up an entertainment company to compete with them!"

Loong Yun, on the other hand, wasn't as sad. Since the people from the entertainment circle had started to form a good team, they didn't need to decide which ones they couldn't work with.

"Hmm, that's all we can do. It seems we can't underestimate them. By the way, Loong Yun, do a good investigation on Lee Zhan. I feel that his motive is not that simple this time!"

Wu Tian heaved a sigh of relief. There was no point in being anxious. It was better to solve the problem.

Looking at the moon hanging from the branches outside, Wu Tian saw that it was getting late. After sending Loong Yun off, he also prepared to go back to sleep.

In the middle of the night, Wu Tian was awakened from his beautiful dream by the sound of a phone ringing.

The tranquil night was torn apart by the phone call. After Wu Tian answered the phone, he put on his clothes and rushed out of the room without saying anything else.

He gritted his teeth, his face tense. He wasn't even wearing shoes.

"Where's Huang Lan? Where's Huang Lan?!"

Right now, the Flower Island medical area was brightly lit, and many of the people who had already rested were woken up at this time.

Seeing that Wu Tian was here, the staff quickly brought him here. Seeing that he wasn't even wearing shoes, they quickly found a pair for him and led him to the outside of the operation room.

"Currently, Doctor Long is already saving her ..."

"What the hell is going on?" Wu Tian's face was extremely dark. Although he didn't cry, tears still flowed from the corners of his eyes.

"She encountered a car accident on her way here. By the time our Security Team received the news and rushed over, the car was already severely injured. The car was left behind, but the driver was already nowhere to be seen."

The Security Team Elder in charge of saving others briefly described what had happened at that time.

Just these words made Wu Tian flustered and exasperated. How did things turn out like this?

A few hours ago, he was still chatting with Huang Lan on the balcony, enjoying the moonlight together.

In the blink of an eye, she was already inside the operation room. Wu Tian definitely couldn't just let this go.

"Hurry up and investigate everything, including all surveillance cameras nearby, as well as our surveillance systems. I must know what's going on!"

Wu Tian's business was very low, but he had unquestionably displayed his full courage as a man.

The events of the day were too much for Wu Tian to accept.

"Wu Tian, what happened?" By this time, Liu Yueyao and Shen Xue had already received the news and ran over in panic.

No one could believe that something really happened to Huang Lan, but the medical staff was busy at work, and coupled with Wu Tian's expression, it didn't seem like anything was wrong at all.

"I only know that no matter who attacked her, I'll make them pay with their blood!"

Wu Tian rarely acted so ruthlessly. However, the things that happened in this period of time kicked at the thing that he hated the most.

Don't say you haven't investigated anything yet. Others might believe this, but Wu Tian would never believe it.

He wasn't an idiot, he knew that there was a possibility that there was something fishy going on.

"President Wu, we have to investigate this immediately. Do you know anything?"

Loong Yun was already one step ahead of Wu Tian and had already started to investigate the problem as if it was an enemy's method.

"Just what is going on? If you know anything, just tell me!"

At this time, Liu Yueyao and the others also rushed over and surrounded Wu Tian. Everyone was very excited.

"At that time, she said that she had arranged for several directors to meet with the producers, saying that she wanted to find a solution for me. However, I didn't expect her to come back like this."

Wu Tian had already thought about it and repeated everything that Huang Lan said under that situation.

"If that's the case, then I think I know. It seems that someone must have leaked the whereabouts of Miss Huang Lan. Otherwise, unless there's a traitor among us."

Loong Yun came up with two possibilities at the time, but the second was generally unrealistic.

For safety's sake, Huang Lan had left the place by car at that time, not because she was the usual driver arranged by Hualong Movie but because someone from Security Team himself drove her there.

People of Security Team usually need not worry about secrecy. Su Cancan would help Wu Tian confirm this point in advance.

Therefore, the only possibility was the first point.

"You mean, there's something wrong with the director?" Wu Tian said as he clenched his fists. That was convincing.

Originally, the entertainment circle was very dissatisfied with Wu Tian. It was possible that these directors could divulge this news.

"It's very possible, but if Miss Huang Lan hadn't woken up, we wouldn't even know if there was anyone else to attend their upcoming meeting."

Although Loong Yun had found a way out, they were once again at a loss as to what to do.

He didn't leave any clues behind at the scene of the crime, so it would be even harder to find any clues about him in this aspect.

Wu Tian looked at the lights on the door of the operation room. He suddenly squatted down and hugged his head as he cried.

His performance gave them a fright. Liu Yueyao quickly helped them to their feet.

"What's wrong with you? Don't scare me!"

"I really don't have the ability, I can't even protect all of you!" Wu Tian was now deep in self-reproach.

"This can't be blamed on you ..."

"If I had stopped her a little more, Huang Lan wouldn't have left and there wouldn't have been a car accident!"

Yes, this was all because of Lee Zhan. If it wasn't for him, Huang Lan wouldn't need to contact those directors and producers, and she wouldn't need to go out to meet up with them in order to find a solution to the current situation for Wu Tian.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1032 - Sequelae Outbreak

C1032 Sequelae Outbreak

Having understood this, Wu Tian was suddenly enlightened.

However, they still had to wait for Huang Lan to come out of the operation room. Most of the night was already gone, but no one was sleepy.

Especially Wu Tian, he stared at the door of the operation room with his eyes wide open, afraid that a corpse covered with white cloth would be pushed out.

He didn't know how much time had passed, but it was already broad daylight outside and the sun had already risen.

After a long night in the operation room, the lights in the operation room were finally extinguished.

Shortly after, the door that symbolized the difference between life and death finally opened and Loong Zaian walked out.

Wu Tian rushed forward in a panic, almost knocking Loong Zaian over.

"Doctor Long, what's the situation like?" Wu Tian asked nervously. Along with the few people behind him, they had placed their hopes on Loong Zaian.

However, Loong Zaian shook his head and sighed.

Wu Tian's heart was broken and his body was about to fall down to the ground.

"What happened to you?" Loong Zaian said in shock as he quickly held onto Wu Tian.

"Could it be that Huang Lan ..."

Wu Tian was already in tears. It wasn't that he didn't consider this possibility, but when he thought about it, he had no way to accept this grievous news.

"I haven't finished speaking, what are you all excited about!? I mean, this operation is not a big challenge at all. Huang Lan is fine now, she just needs to rest for a while. "

Loong Zaian had a relaxed expression on his face. It was as if this was just a simple entertainment to him, a feeling of casually strolling in the park.

Wu Tian immediately pushed Loong Zaian away and ran to the back to check on Huang Lan's condition.

Loong Yun glared fiercely at her father, blaming him for making a joke at such a crucial moment.

Fortunately, the result was good. If there was something wrong with this result, Loong Zaian would probably have to suffer the wrath of several people ...

Huang Lan was sent to the ward very quickly. Wu Tian and the others followed closely beside her. If it wasn't for the nurse saying that the patient needed to rest now, they would have really wished they could stay by the bed and guard it.

"Huang Lan is fine now, we can start investigating this matter now!" Seeing this, Wu Tian gathered Azure Dragon and the others.

When Azure Dragon heard about this, he was so angry that his veins almost popped out. He wanted to squash Lee Zhan into meat paste right now.

"President Wu, leave this matter to me. I promise I will definitely complete the mission!"

Wu Tian looked at Azure Dragon in admiration. His words were reassuring.

"Alright, after hearing what you said, I am relieved."

"Should we keep the news of Huang Lan's accident a secret from the media ..."

Loong Yun said thoughtfully at the side. All of them were either thinking about revenge or finding the real culprit.

Although this was very important, it did not solve the problems they would encounter in the future.

"That's for sure. Let's push back Huang Lan's work first. If it really doesn't work, then just say that she's going abroad for a vacation." Wu Zaiyao was well aware of the ins and outs of this situation. She knew that if the media were to find out about this, how would they publicize it?

When the time came, it would be even harder for them to control it.

"That makes sense. Don't tell anyone about this. I hope to find out who planned this within three days. I don't believe that it was a simple car accident!"

Wu Tian gave out the mission viciously in the end. At this moment, his eyes were like a wolf's as he awaited the appearance of his prey.

As the saying went, before one wave calmed down, another wave arose. After Huang Lan's incident, Hualong Movie's work had almost completely stopped, and the public opinion on the web had also stirred up a thousand ripples in an instant.

Quite a few celebrities and entertainers spread the news on the internet that they had stopped cooperating with Wu Group Corporation.

They held even more power, and for a moment, everyone thought that Wu Group Corporation was perhaps in the wrong regarding this matter.

Almost everyone was discussing such a huge fluctuation that involved the entire country.

However, this was not good news for Wu Tian.

According to Wu Zaibin's data, the amount of visitors to even the seafood TV and Odd Fish live broadcast had greatly decreased, and the spokesmen and advertisements for the Kaleidoscope had all been taken off the shelves.

These people had done all of this in a flash, but no reason was given.

The audience even thought that there was a problem with Wu Tian's products.

"Say, is this matter so serious ..."

Wu Tian looked at the stack of lawyer's letters in front of him and felt his head spinning.

"This... Our Seafood TV has suffered the most impact. Those TV series and movies that were originally in their hands, and those that have the rights to them, now need to be taken off the shelf and dealt with ... We were working with them before, so we can broadcast it on our website for free. "

As Wu Zaibin was the manager of this department, he had been extremely worried during this period of time.

"F * ck, we're really being controlled by others. If they forbid us, we won't be able to do anything ..." Wu Tian couldn't help but smile bitterly. Before this kind of thing happened, no one would have thought it would develop into this.

When the opponent didn't make a move, everyone was at peace. However, if they really were to be opposing each other, he wouldn't have any weapon to fight back.

"There's nothing we can do about that. After all, they are the majority. Lee Zhan's Yingdi Entertainment is like a flagpole, if he were to say one, the entire entertainment circle would not dare to say two. "

Hearing this, Wu Tian was a bit angry. He had never seen anyone before. Even if it was someone stronger than Lee Zhan, he was never scared.

How could he admit defeat now because of this?

"President Wu, how about we think about it now and transform this seafood TV show ..." This was the best solution Wu Zaibin could come up with right now.

Otherwise, he didn't know what else he could do. The most important thing right now was to reverse the loss on this website.

However, Wu Tian dragged his head to think about it. He had always been a person who would go against hardships. If he did that, wouldn't it be equivalent to him admitting defeat?

"No, since we fell from here, we have to stand up from here!"

Wu Tian was going to take the hardest path! What do you mean by eye for an eye, and tooth for a tooth? You have to defeat your opponent in the area that you're most adept in. That's what you call a true skill.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1033 - Self-reliance

C1033 Self-reliance

Wu Zaibin was stunned. He couldn't figure out what Wu Tian was thinking.

Looking at his expression, Wu Tian knew he got a little too excited and scared this guy a bit.

"What are you afraid of? I'm not afraid at all. Just by hearing Lee Zhan's name, all of you feel that this is no good. No, why do I feel that this Lee Zhan is also human?"

What Wu Tian said made Wu Zaibin breathless. Wu Zaibin, who was originally in a passive position, also felt that this was the case. Everyone is in this industry, why should I be afraid of you?

"President Wu, I know. If that's the case, then we will have a real fight in the entertainment circle against this Lee Zhan. But, what are we going to do?"

Although the words were very beautiful, but to return to reality, he couldn't ignore the pain in front of him.

Seafood TV had nothing to broadcast, which was their biggest problem at the moment.

"It's just that there's no content and no movies. If we do it ourselves, doesn't Hualong Movie have its own film and television crew?!" Wu Tian waved his hand. If this was in the past, he would have thought it was a waste of money, so he didn't approve of it.

However, it was different now. Wu Tian had green lights on.

"There's not much of a problem with that. The broadcast platform can also be shown on our own seafood TV, so we might as well stop using the traditional platforms. "However, this cycle is rather long. No matter how fast it is, it will take at least half a year before one can see the results ..."

Wu Zaibin's intention was very clear. Doing this wouldn't solve their problem. If there wasn't a good way, they would have to spend a lot of money to maintain these companies and bear their losses for half a year.

"Can we buy it?" Wu Tian saw that this was no good, that was no good, in the end, that was the only way he could do it.

"That's possible, but the origin of many movies from overseas has been monopolized by Lee Zhan and the others. It's a bit difficult for us to import them ..."

Since the other party had the ability to surround Wu Tian, it wasn't because he didn't have the ability to stir up trouble, it was because he had this diamond in his hand.

"Then wouldn't we be at a loss?"

"That's not it ..." Wu Zaibin quickly checked his phone and opened a news report. It said that he seemed to have won a lot of awards for his country's movies.

"Char Country?"

Wu Tian immediately recognized the national emblem when he saw it.

"That's right, their country's movies are very developed and rated very high in the industry. It's just that they have a problem, that's why they have never exported their movies before ..."

Wu Zaibin didn't have any expectations for this matter. He was only going to use this example as an example to signal them to think of a way to deal with foreign countries.

However, the one who said it was unintentional and the listener intentionally. Wu Tian had remembered this matter in his heart.

Others couldn't do anything, but that didn't mean Wu Tian couldn't.

"Don't be in such a hurry. Wait for my news!" As he said that, Wu Tian threw Wu Zaibin down. He ran to the room beside and quickly dialed a number.

He was so familiar with Blanche, and if he were to properly ask her for help, she definitely wouldn't just stand by and watch without doing anything.

He called for a long time, but Wu Tian couldn't get through ...

He was so angry that he threw his phone on the sofa.

If there was not a good solution to this matter, Wu Group Corporation might really suffer a heavy blow because of the huge loss.

Wu Tian had always thought that Zhang Zerui was his biggest opponent, so he had always been focusing on that direction.

But looking at it now, he was really thinking too simply.

He held his head with a look of regret on his face and sat there at a loss.

At this moment, the phone suddenly rang. Wu Tian jumped up like a robot with a good wind-up and rushed over at lightning speed.

It was Blanche!

Wu Tian's dark mood immediately became bright.

The sunlight outside also became more brilliant at this time.

"I say, do you know what time it is for me here? Three in the morning! What do you mean by calling! "

Blanche's voice wasn't loud, but Wu Tian could tell that she was really pissed right now.

"I'm sorry ..." Wu Tian stuck out his tongue. He was too anxious and had forgotten about this matter.

"Tell me, what is it? If there's nothing else, I'll go to sleep. Ah, I haven't slept for two days. I'm so tired."

Blanche yawned as she spoke. It looked like she was really sleepy.

"What are you busy with? Why are you so tired ..."

"Isn't it that movie festival? We sent a lot of movies this time to evaluate the event. There are a lot of things in that movie. Alright, let's not talk about me anymore. Let's talk about you, exactly why are you looking for me? "

Wu Tian cleared his throat. It's better to be more formal about it.

"It's like this. I have an idea. I don't know if you're willing or not, but can you export your country's movies to me ..."

Wu Tian knew they didn't have such a precedent, so he wasn't sure about it.

"Huh?" As expected, Blanche had a face full of doubt. She felt that she still hadn't heard it clearly.

"Is it possible for you to bring your movies to my country for the sake of old friends ..."

Wu Tian emphasized it again.

At this time, Blanche yawned several times. Her mind was blank. Actually, she didn't pay much attention to what Wu Tian said. She only listened to the gist of it.

"I don't know what you're talking about, but if you want anything, just take it. I'm going to sleep first!"

"Wait, you mean, you agreed?"

Although Blanche was grumbling and her words weren't very clear, Wu Tian seemed to have heard the permission from her mouth.

However, before he could receive a reply, Wu Tian felt that the other party's phone had dropped and a sound of breathing came from beside it.

This guy really said he fell asleep just like that ...

When Blanche woke up from her sleep, she felt as if something was wrong, as if she had said something that she shouldn't have said.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1034 - Equity Exchange Copyright

C1034 Equity Exchange Copyright

When Blanche woke up from her sleep, she felt as if something was wrong, as if she had said something that she shouldn't have said.

Blanche mulled over it for a long time, but still couldn't figure out what was wrong.

It wasn't until Wu Tian called her again that Blanche realized the seriousness of the situation.

"Wait! What did you say? When did I agree to sell the movie to your country?!"

Blanche exclaimed in astonishment. There had never been such a precedent in her country. They had never allowed such a thing to happen.

"No, you clearly agreed to it on the phone, how can you turn hostile just like that!"

Wu Tian also felt that it was strange. She clearly agreed to it on the phone ... Could it be that this fellow didn't care about face at all? What about the dignity of the royal family?

"Who promised you? How come I don't know ..."

Blanche wasn't a merciful person. She wouldn't admit it even if she died at this time. Wu Tian didn't have any other way to deal with her.

"My princess, you can't just stand by and watch me die ..."

Wu Tian knew that there wasn't much point in forcing her, it might even arouse the other party's displeasure. Thus, he changed his mind and prepared to complain.

He told her everything that had happened to his Hualong Movie with a runny nose and tears in his eyes.

All in all, if Blanche didn't help him, his Wu Group company would immediately close down ...

At this point, Blanche was also sweating profusely.

"Is it as exaggerated as you say ..."

"Of course there is! You don't want no one to help you produce exoskeleton armor in the future, even if it breaks, no one will be able to repair it. Also, we also have so many products produced by our company, we will need to do business in the future. "

Wu Tian immediately started this sugar garment offensive, using other benefits to attract Blanche to give in.

Actually, it's strange, since their country's movies are so good, why aren't they willing to sell them to someone else ...

"Aiyo, but ..."

Blanche was still a bit hesitant. Wu Tian's words did have a certain attractiveness to her, but their tradition was still a huge hindrance.

"Don't worry, I definitely won't let your movie be shown in the cinema, so you don't need to worry about others asking you guys to buy a movie."

When Wu Tian heard Blanche's words, he felt relieved. He quickly continued to take advantage of the victory to pursue her. His greatest advantage was that this time, he planned on using all of his resources to broadcast on seafood TV.

"But ..."

Blanche was still hesitant. She didn't want to make a decision earlier, she just wanted to continue to see what other benefits Wu Tian could give her.

Wu Tian probably understood what Blanche meant and decided to grit his teeth.

"So it's like this! I will separate the Seafood TV and ... I'll give you 49% of the shares! "

Wu Tian could be said to have spent a lot of money. If even Blanche wasn't willing to agree to it, then there was nothing he could do.

"Haha ..."

Blanche laughed out loud. She didn't expect Wu Tian to be so persistent about this matter.

"Why are you laughing? Are you going to agree or not!"

Wu Tian didn't have the time to joke around with Blanche at this time.

"I agree with your second proposal, but I won't offer a single cent. I will use my movie to exchange for your shares."

This time, Blanche finally agreed to Wu Tian's proposal.

This plan could be said to be killing two birds with one stone. On the one hand, it satisfied Wu Tian's desire for the copyright in the movie, and on the other hand, Blanche could avoid destroying their tradition of not selling their movies to others.

Because once Blanche had a stake in Seafood TV, it was only natural for them to put their own movies on it ...

This was actually quite easy to understand. If she were to broadcast her own movie on her website, there wouldn't be any problems at all for the entire world.

Even if others were jealous, he could only stare blankly.

"Is that true? Let's sign the contract now!"

Wu Tian was so excited that he was about to crush the phone. He finally got such good news!

Both parties immediately signed the contract on the internet. After the confirmation through signature, from this moment onwards, the 49% share of Seafood TV belonged to Blanche.

"The rest, I will let Wu Zaibin contact your people as soon as possible."

Wu Tian had already started planning. Should he get Wu Zaiyao to post a few announcements and then write a few more articles?

This was a major event, not to mention that recently, Char Country movies had won an international prize and this matter was being discussed everywhere. Taking advantage of this heat would definitely set their movie on a new level.

"Let them talk about the rest themselves. If there's anything else you need help with, I'll definitely help you."

Blanche smiled faintly. She remembered Wu Tian's panicked tone from before, but she felt it was funny. It was a pity that she couldn't see it for herself.

After finishing this point, Wu Tian could be considered to have the support of the movie industry with complete Char Country.

It was like a bomb that forcefully pushed back the public opinion attack that had been one-sided.

No one would have thought that Wu Group company would actually be able to do something that no one could.

"Seafood TV is about to broadcast Char Country Awards work!"

Wu Tian looked at the headlines printed on the newspaper and laughed.

This was probably the happiest thing that had happened since Huang Lan woke up.

"President Wu, I don't know how many people regret doing that to us now!"

Wu Zaibin also laughed to his heart's content. Previously, the Seafood TV's viewership ratings had dropped to the freezing point, but after this event, the amount of playback not only increased back then, it was even several times more than before.

"Now that you mention it, I really want to see Lee Zhan's current expression. I've said it before, an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth. I will definitely do what I say!"

Wu Tian was also in the limelight for a moment, which was also a rare moment for him to be in high spirits.

Good news came one after another. Not only was the release of these movies, but Xi Chengwen had signed a contract with a director from another country to make a movie. There was also the success of Wu Group Corporation's new rocket launch ...

All the good news rushed towards Wu Tian like a tide.

Not only did he sweep away his current decadence, he even felt as if he was going to force his opponent to death with a single step.

The heavy ashtray collided with the marble floor in an intimate manner, and was smashed to smithereens by the violent impact.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1035 - The Night Before the Storm

C1035 The Night Before the Storm

He heard a crack.

The heavy ashtray clashed intimately with the marble floor. The ashtray shattered under the impact.

The flying debris washed over every nook and cranny of the floor. It was like an intense drumbeat that struck the hearts of everyone present.

Lee Zhan's expression was extremely dark. He lowered his head and stared at the people in front of him. He was truly furious.

"Director Li, we followed your instructions and prepared everything we needed to do, but no one expected him to do something like this ..."

"That's right, Director Li. Right now, all the entertainment companies and television stations in the country are basically cooperating with us, but we are the only ones who don't have this kind of ability on the internet ..."

Actually, Lee Zhan was clear about these things. He wasn't an idiot, he knew where his strengths were, and he also knew where his weaknesses were.

"As long as you have problems, you can solve them. Are we just going to close our eyes and pretend that we can't see? "

Lee Zhan's voice was extremely cold. Although he didn't particularly criticize them, it still frightened his subordinates quite a bit.

"Director Li, what do you think we should do next?"

"The plan continues! "Also, did you take care of the person who did the work that day?"

Lee Zhan looked at one of them and asked without batting an eyelid.

"Don't worry about that, I was the one who faked the accident. The accident driver is like a stone sinking into the ocean now, they won't be able to find any clues!"

Although this was a little too cruel, they had killed the people who helped them. However, at this moment, they didn't have any better methods.

In a battle between experts, as long as they made a move, they had to take into account all aspects of the situation, especially the fact that they couldn't leave any clues for their opponents.

"En, this is for the best! We don't need to do anything else. We'll just watch! "

Lee Zhan did not have too many reactions to Wu Tian spending money to bring in a movie, the masses could not watch a movie every day, ultimately it would have to return to their traditional field of entertainment.

At that time, it would be clear how much foam there would be in the midst of this grand celebration, and who would be bare-chested. When the tide receded, everything would be clear.

After the meeting was over, Lee Zhan did not stop to rest. He immediately dialed a number.

"It's just as you imagined. He's survived once again."

Lee Zhan seemed to have expected this to happen, so he didn't have much of a reaction.

"He won't be defeated that easily. Even after fighting against him for so long, we are still unable to determine the victor."

And the person talking to Li Jun on the phone would have been very surprised if Wu Tian had been there, because the person who spoke was Zhang Zerui.

The two of them were together probably because the enemy of the enemy was a friend. Even if they didn't have much interaction before, they could join hands to fight against Wu Tian.

"Then now is the best time for me to carry out my plan!"

Lee Zhan was a bit excited. His eyes revealed some information, as if he was expecting something.

"If you need funds, just tell me directly! I will fully support you! "

Of course, Zhang Zerui was not vague either. Their targets were actually the same, so it was only natural for them to use their strength in one place.

"With your words, I am relieved. We will work together more in the future. There will be a long time to come."

The happy phone conversation soon ended. After Lee Zhan put down the phone, he immediately started to gather his financial department's people.

However, this time, Lee Zhan did not want to attack Wu Tian. He had other motives.

At that moment, Wu Tian was in Huang Lan's ward, holding her hand and tears fell from his eyes.

"You're a man, can you not always look like you're going to cry?"

Su Cancan said in a bad mood. She knew Wu Tian was sad and touched, but she did not stop teasing him.

"Enough, don't mock him. If something like that happened to your good friend, I think you would do it even more crazily than he did."

Su Wenxin mocked from the side. How could she not understand what kind of person her disciple was?

Wu Tian obviously ignored Su Cancan's words. At this moment, he was most concerned about Huang Lan's situation.

He didn't know if it was luck or misfortune. Although she was in a car accident, Huang Lan's most important face didn't get hurt.

She had only suffered some minor injuries. After resting for a period of time, she would be able to leave the hospital. At that time, she would still be able to engage in recreational work.

"I didn't think that so many of you would come to see me ..."

Huang Lan was so excited that she started crying. To be honest, as a celebrity, she was lonely most of the time. She was either on the set or on her way there.

Normally, everyone just took the money to do some work, so they didn't have much human feelings towards each other.

"Your biggest task right now is to take good care of your illness. We also have some medicine that can help you heal your skin. When the time comes, we can give you some."

Su Wenxin gave her a faint smile. That warm smile made Huang Lan feel extremely warm.

At this moment, Loong Yun walked in from the outside. Looking at the harmony within, she couldn't bear to disturb it.

However, she still went close to Wu Tian's ear and said something.

"What did you say?"

Wu Tian looked at Loong Yun in disbelief.

"It's true!"

Loong Yun nodded and the two of them quickly left the ward.

"You said that Li Yao is currently buying up other entertainment companies? What is he doing!?"

Wu Tian was confused. This Lee Zhan was clearly fighting with him, why did he suddenly attack his accomplices?

Nowadays, as a result of Wu Tian's introduction of foreign films, many entertainment companies in China have suffered great losses.

Very soon, no one was going to watch any of the movies that they had filmed.

After all, there were better quality pieces to watch in the Seafood TV. Therefore, no one would go and look at works that were roughly made and had poor acting skills.

Wu Tian originally thought that Lee Zhan would think of a way to help these companies, but he never thought that this guy would take advantage of their crisis to buy them over.

He was now making a big purchase in the country. He spent tens of billions of dollars to buy dozens of entertainment companies and even some shares in television stations.

"President Wu, we have reason to suspect that this Lee Zhan is going to integrate with the strength of their circle. If they were to fight against us now, it might not be that simple."

Loong Yun raised her head and looked into the distance. Although it was a sunny day, she could already see a large black cloud heading her way.
