C1041 Stock Market Ups and Downs

At this moment, Wu Tian also felt helpless. To be honest, he didn't expect it to be like this.

"President Wu, what's going on?" Wu Zaibin felt that things might not be easy to solve now, so they might as well not go out and talk about it here.

"Don't mention it, I was thinking that she's almost fully recovered. Bring her out of the ward to play for a while, and it ended up like this."

Wu Tian looked at Huang Lan beside him and sighed.

Wu Tian didn't think much of Huang Lan sticking close to him like that. It was just that Huang Lan wouldn't let him off so easily, which would be troublesome.

He needed to go to the bathroom and take a bath.

"I don't care. Right now, you are simply not allowed to leave my side ..." As she spoke, Huang Lan's tears were about to fall and she had an aggrieved look on her face.

When the two men saw the situation unfold, they hurriedly tried to coax Huang Lan, calming her down.

In the end, the two of them sighed together. This situation couldn't be solved in a couple of days, so Wu Tian just accepted this fact.

"It's like this. I feel that our share purchase is about to end. If we were to continue buying, I'm afraid that something might go wrong ..."

This time, Wu Zaibin finally got down to business.

Actually, Wu Tian had been paying attention to the question that he raised. However, his intuition wasn't as accurate as Wu Zaibin's.

"Since that's the case, we might as well sell the shares at this time."

Taking advantage of the current price, if they were to sell these shares at this time, they might be able to make a profit.

"Are you sure?" I'll sell them all if you like. " Wu Zaibin wasn't that surprised, it was just that the stock sale wasn't that simple.

If they were to sell all the billions of shares in their possession at once, then the price of the shares would collapse in an instant.

By that time, the stocks in Wu Tian and the others would probably be unable to be sold out.

So it must not happen.

Of course, this selling had to be done with skill. It had to be eased, especially when others didn't have the time to react.

Actually, this method was to find a way to transfer the foam in their hands.

"This matter is up to you. Selling it as soon as possible is the best. "

In fact, the current stock price in Wu Tian's eyes, itself is a very big bubble.

"Alright, I understand. You better take care of yourself." While saying that, Wu Zaibin looked at Wu Tian and Huang Lan. He smiled to himself and was about to leave.

"Stop right there. What do you mean?" Wu Tian saw that this guy dared to mock him and wanted to rush over to beat him up.

However, the moment he stood up, Wu Tian found out that there was a huge pendant that weighed almost a hundred Jin on his body.

After the decision was made, Wu Tian played with Huang Lan while paying attention to the situation and progress of the stock price.

What he did not expect was that, perhaps due to Wu Zaibin's actions, Yingdi Entertainment's share price suddenly began to plummet severely.

The extent of the crash was regarded as the strongest in history.

In just one afternoon, the price of the stock had dropped from its highest point to nearly five percent.

Although the ratio was only 5%, the amount of money involved was as much as 100 billion.

Even if it was only 1%, it was still worth billions.

A rich person like Wu Tian was still able to bear the losses, but those small retail investors were very unlucky.

Especially at the peak of the stock price, people who buy stocks are the worst off.

"This isn't right ... " No matter what, Wu Tian felt that something was wrong.

They wanted to sell their shares, but Wu Tian didn't let Wu Zaibin sell them in such a way. To Wu Tian and the others, such a big drop in stock price was not beneficial at all.

He quickly picked up his phone and wanted to call Wu Zaibin, but at this moment, he coincidentally received a call from Wu Zaiyao.

"President Wu, something bad happened!"

Wu Zaiyao's tone sounded as if it was the end of the world and she was extremely shocked.

"What's wrong?" Although Wu Tian's tone was calm, he was still a bit nervous.

"There's an article online saying that our company wants to sell off a large amount of Yingdi Entertainment shares, and even released a recording!"

The moment Wu Zaiyao said that, Wu Tian was about to explode on the spot.

This was clearly a conversation between the two of them, so how could it be spread outside?

This had only happened less than half a day ago. Could it be that this article had already started spreading on the internet?

"Tell me, what exactly is going on? Can you find out the source of this article?"

"President Wu, now we are investigating what happened. It's exactly what I said just now, I think the current situation in the stock market was caused by this article. "It could be that someone is trying to add fuel to the fire. There are a lot of people reading this article right now."

Wu Zaiyao was nervous because if this matter were to be exposed, the entire stock market would be in turmoil.

This was also the reason why the afternoon stock price plummeted.

After Wu Tian received the call, he was stunned.

Huang Lan, who was at the side, noticed that Wu Tian was like a deflated balloon and stopped moving immediately.

"What's the matter with you?"

"Leave me alone for now ..." Wu Tian didn't want to talk to anyone right now, his mind was in chaos.

What had happened, and how had this conversation been spread?

Basically, the ones who knew about this were Wu Zaibin, him, and Huang Lan.

However, Huang Lan was always with Wu Tian, so it was impossible for her to leak this information out.

Therefore, the only possibility was Wu Zaibin.

Could it be that he leaked the news?

Wu Tian was in pain. If it was really like this, his heart would ache even more than if he was worried about his money.

Wu Zaibin had followed him for such a long time. Back then at the Wu Family meeting, he had met the two of them.

Regardless of whether he went to the Korea or what else he did, Wu Zaibin could be said to have an inseparable relationship with the Wu Group company.

Of course, Wu Tian was completely assured of him.

But this time, Wu Zaibin was the most suspicious.

No matter how Wu Tian thought about it, he felt that he was in extreme pain.

When Loong Yun found Wu Tian, he had already been lying on the ground like this, staring at the ceiling for two hours.

"President Wu, we have found Wu Zaibin's position. Should we forcefully bring him here?"

On the other hand, Loong Yun was not too shocked by this.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1042 - Check Traitor

C1042 Check Traitor

On the other hand, Loong Yun was not too shocked by this.

Actually, this was nothing, but Loong Yun had never believed anyone other than Wu Tian.

Therefore, she was not too surprised by this possible betrayal.

At this moment, Wu Tian was in extreme pain. He really didn't want to do such a thing.

If it really was Wu Zaibin, what could he do to accept such a fact?

This was too big of a blow to Wu Tian.

"Don't capture him. Bring him here."

Wu Tian said weakly. He didn't want to think about other things anymore.

Loong Yun nodded and turned to leave.

Twenty minutes later, the sound of messy footsteps returned to Wu Tian's room.

"President Wu, he's here."

Loong Yun's voice was still calm.

"President Wu, it's really not me ..."

At this time, Wu Zaibin was also stunned. To be honest, when he received the news, he was also very surprised.

Wu Zaibin spent the whole afternoon actively contacting the people in the stock market, wanting to know what was going on with this sudden collapse.

As a result, at night, he was found by Loong Yun ... Loong Yun almost tied him up.

After reading that article, Wu Zaibin finally understood what happened and it was no wonder why Loong Yun treated him with such an attitude.

No matter what, Wu Zaibin was the most suspicious person at the moment.

"I know it won't be yours. If you want to harm me, then you already have countless opportunities before."

Wu Tian stood up from the ground. His eyes were filled with pain, but he didn't inflict it on Wu Zaibin.

Hearing Wu Tian's words, Wu Zaibin immediately cried.

He knelt beside Wu Tian's feet and hugged his thigh.

"It really isn't me. President Wu, you have to believe me!"

"You get up first, I don't have any intention of doubting you."

Wu Tian quickly helped him up and asked him to sit beside him out of concern.

Actually, Wu Tian also thought the same. It was hard for him to believe that Wu Zaibin would betray him.

"Think about it carefully. Is there any place that the news might leak out?"

Wu Tian had always wondered if there was a spy among them, or if someone in the company could find out about their conversation through some channels.

"What we said in the report was true to its word. They must have found some way to know what we were talking about."

Wu Tian looked at the article again and felt mixed emotions.

Could it be that there's a bug or something in that room ... "

Wu Zaibin scratched his head. Indeed, there was a high probability that there was a flaw in his body.

However, Wu Zaibin searched through every corner of his body and didn't find anything wrong with it.

Loong Yun interrupted him. Actually, he had already started sending people to investigate whether or not there were bugs in that room.

This was because once this kind of thing happened, the entire Flower Island would have to conduct a detailed investigation.

The company is a few meters wide, and they haven't had any particularly tight secrecy.

It was because he felt that the Flower Island itself had a powerful function of secrecy. But now, Wu Tian's words would be overheard by others, so what security does the entire Flower Island have?

"I've already investigated every inch of the room. There definitely aren't any bugs within." Loong Yun was certain that he would make the promise, since she was the one who had decided to do it herself.

Wu Tian rubbed his temples. It was meaningless to decide whose responsibility it was now, so he had to quickly find the culprit.

"Investigate the surveillance footage to see who has been in contact with you, and don't say anything about it."

Through this conversation, Wu Tian felt that Wu Zaibin was very suspicious. However, he might not even know about this and was just being used by others.

Therefore, rather than forcing Wu Zaibin, he might as well investigate who exactly Wu Zaibin came into contact with.

Because other than him, there were a total of three people in the room at that time. Wu Tian and Huang Lan had never left the Flower Island before.

Even if the opponents had this type of eavesdropping equipment on them, they definitely wouldn't be able to transmit the information inside.

The only possibility was Wu Zaibin.

"Got it, I'll go investigate."

Loong Yun nodded and turned to leave.

At this moment, Wu Zaibin also looked towards Wu Tian with gratitude. If it wasn't for Wu Tian's magnanimity and shrewdness, most people would have thought that Wu Zaibin was the number one criminal and would have arrested him first.

"President Wu, let's not talk about who did this. Now that the stock market has plummeted, what should we do?"

This was the reality. If Wu Tian and the others wanted to continue selling their stocks at this time, it would only cause the stock price to plummet further.

Under these circumstances, no matter how hard they tried, no one would buy their shares.

Therefore, it was very likely that these stocks would end up in their own hands, or even become worthless scrap paper.

That was what Wu Tian was worried about.

"What else can we do? Continue to sell our stocks."

At this moment, Wu Tian was filled with the urge to curse. He definitely couldn't bear to part with the tens of billions he had invested in the stock market, but he had to make sure that the money didn't go to waste.

Then Wu Tian would have to continue investing in it to raise the stock price. Only by doing this could he guarantee that the others would be willing to accept his challenge. Only then would Wu Tian be able to leave the stage slowly.

However, if he did that now, it would run counter to Wu Tian's original plan.

At this moment, Wu Zaibin seemed to have thought of something and became nervous.

"President Wu, there's something I don't know if I should say or not."

"Now that we are like this, no matter how bad it is, it can get worse. Say it. "

Wu Tian didn't care anymore. He just wanted to tell him that the sky had fallen, so he definitely wouldn't have any big emotional changes.

"I have an idea. This matter, could it be a result of Yingdi Entertainment? Think about it, if we announce our conversation and cause their shares to drop, who would be the one to benefit in the end?"

Wu Zaibin's idea had indeed played a role in developing his mind. Wu Tian suddenly felt that it was indeed the case.

Who would be suspicious of something like this? Of course it was the biggest beneficiary.

The share price plummeted, and Wu Tian, in order to ensure that the money they invested didn't go down the drain, would definitely think of a way to drive the share price up.

This way, Wu Tian would have to invest more money into it, and the Yingdi Entertainment would increase by leaps and bounds.

If what they did was true, then their chess game was really very high.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1043 - Gift Exchange

C1043 Gift Exchange

Originally, Wu Tian didn't think too much about it.

However, after Wu Zaibin's reminder, it did seem to make a lot of sense.

"You mean... Is this something that Lee Zhan did? "

Wu Zaibin looked left and right. This time, he didn't dare to say anything, so he used a pen to write on the paper to express his opinion.

Wu Tian finally understood. Thinking about Yingdi Entertainment's plan book, Wu Tian carefully thought about it and realized that he really had been played around by them this time.

"If that's the case, I'll understand ..."

For the first time, Wu Tian felt like a fool in front of others.

What he did seemed to have been predicted by the enemy, and it was in the hands of the enemy.

Now, he had invested tens of billions of dollars into it... It was almost impossible for him to get the money out.

And the enemy, at least for a while, will not worry about their share price suddenly plummeting again.

"You can go back first, I'll think of a way to solve this problem. As for the matter with the stock market, you should try to think of a way to get as much money as possible back as we can."

Wu Tian no longer had any hopes of making money. Right now, he only wanted to make sure he lost as little as possible.

But they might not even be able to meet such a small requirement.

After sending Wu Zaibin off, Wu Tian fell into deep thought.

At this moment, Huang Lan walked out from the room and brought a glass of wine to Wu Tian.

"Don't be in such a hurry to get angry. There will be a way to resolve this sooner or later."

Wu Tian smiled helplessly. Even though he said that, how could Wu Tian sleep before coming up with a solution?

"Is this Lee Zhan really that powerful?" Wu Tian was surprised by Lee Zhan's thinking. It was not something an ordinary person could think of.

Although the shopping mall was like a battlefield, there weren't many schemes and tricks inside the shopping mall. The rules were relatively more transparent.

And this Lee Zhan, in these few confrontations, although he did not really confront Wu Tian in terms of finance, but he cleverly used all kinds of advantages to let Wu Tian become his driving force. With the investment of tens of billions of dollars, his Yingdi Entertainment had become much stronger now.

This was basically using the opponent's supply to increase his own strength.

"He is indeed very powerful. I have seen him a few times before. On the surface, he seems to be very smooth, but in his heart, he is actually very shrewd."

Huang Lan was certain that she had never liked to exaggerate, nor did she like to lie.

"The entertainment circle is already very complicated. Since he was able to survive in there to such an extent, he is naturally not an ordinary person."

Actually, Huang Lan had told Wu Tian these words a long time ago, but at that time, Wu Tian didn't think highly of this Lee Zhan.

He didn't think he was that big of a deal. After all, Wu Tian had met all sorts of challenges and people.

But now, he really fell down and was in a lot of pain.

"Huang Lan, then do you think I can do anything about it? If this goes on, my company might be seriously affected too."

Wu Tian took out a large amount of the company's funds, he originally wanted to earn a large sum of money. But now that he had invested that money, he could no longer afford to spend it.

"I don't know as much about finance as you do ... However, if you're talking about the things in the entertainment circle, I might be able to think of something. "

Huang Lan thought for a moment and took out the photos of the several people on her phone.

There were simply too many people in the entertainment circle. It was hard for her to remember everyone just by relying on her own memories.

Therefore, Huang Lan counted a lot of people's information on her phone.

She rummaged through it for a long time before she found a picture that looked like a small star.

"This person is called Chen Shijie. He used to be a celebrity but has now been hidden away in the snow. He grew up together with Lee Zhan and is a very good friend. Maybe we can think of something from him."

Wu Tian quickly took the phone and carefully observed the person in the photo.

Honestly speaking, this Chen Shijie had a very classical appearance and had the feeling of a pop star from 20 to 30 years ago.

However, Wu Tian had never heard of this person before, so he felt that he wasn't very famous.

"Do you know where he is now?"

"Don't ask me this kind of question, I think you should be able to solve it yourself."

Huang Lan waved her hand. If she knew everything, she wouldn't have to stay here anymore.

However, with this hint, Wu Tian finally knew which direction he should go in.

Loong Yun was currently investigating whether there were spies in the company, so he couldn't count on her.

Wu Tian just took the photo and went to find Su Cancan, hoping that she could help.

Su Cancan had already heard about the scum that Wu Tian had caused during this period of time. She even scolded Wu Tian when he came.

"When I was at Wu Group company, this kind of thing had never happened before."

"Right, right. You were indeed a very good general manager back then, but were we not getting along well at that time ..."

Su Cancan glared at him, and the two of them started to hurt each other.

No one was willing to back down after their own words. In the end, they decided not to reveal the other party's weakness at the same time.

"Why are you looking for me?"

Su Cancan's expression was stern. She seemed to be angry.

"Very simple. I hope you can help me investigate someone!"

With that, he sent over Chen Shijie's photo. As Su Cancan was mainly responsible for the Security Team, he didn't know if her previous intelligence sources were useful or not.

"That's all?"

Su Cancan didn't say that she agreed, but neither did she say that she couldn't. She just silently took the photo.

"Just this one thing. I hope that after I find him, I can understand what kind of person Lee Zhan is. Only by knowing yourself and knowing your enemy will you be able to survive a hundred battles. "

"Since you've finished, hurry up and leave."

Su Cancan immediately sent out the order to expel the guest, as if Wu Tian wasn't welcome here.

Even so, Wu Tian was quite satisfied. After all, if things could be resolved, that would be for the best.

He hummed a little tune all the way, and put on a very happy expression.

After strolling around the company, Wu Tian suddenly felt a gaze behind him that had been fixed on him for a long time.

He was already rather sensitive to the situation, and at this moment, all the hairs on his body stood up. He immediately thought of a scene where spies were at loggerheads with each other.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1044 - Nothing

C1044 Nothing

Wu Tian couldn't be wrong about this feeling. Someone was definitely monitoring him.

But since it's like this, Wu Tian also planned to use this opportunity to get his opponent into his hands.

Since this person had yet to appear, Wu Tian pretended not to know. He still did whatever he wanted, but he didn't go back to his office. Instead, he wandered around the entire Flower Island.

He looked around, talking to some employees, and even playing badminton with them for a while.

The person who was monitoring them from behind was also there all along, and he never drove behind Wu Tian.

However, a huge net had already begun to fall from the sky.

At this time, Security Team had already received Wu Tian's message, and they were quietly starting to surround him from the outside.

Wu Tian followed suit and walked into the cafeteria. This place was very spacious and there were few people.

If something had really happened, it wouldn't have much of an impact.

Standing at the window, Wu Tian looked at the sea not far away and said leisurely: "I'm the only one here, come out. Don't be so sneaky anymore, I've already discovered you."

At this time, the person behind him who had been hiding all this time seemed to be frightened by Wu Tian and fell down.

Wu Tian heard a smack and turned around with a smile, but there was still no one behind him. He only saw that there seemed to be some movement in the corner far away.

He slowly walked over, step by step. In his heart, he felt that this guy was a bit funny, because he actually didn't even consider running away?

However, even if he wanted to run, it would be impossible, because by this time, Security Team had already rushed into the great dining hall from all directions.

A group of people holding shields quickly ran towards that place.

The crowd blocked the guy in the corner and waited for Wu Tian to check on him.

What Wu Tian did not expect was that, at first, he thought it was some suspicious spy that snuck in, but upon closer inspection, wasn't this the little girl that he brought back from the Britain that could communicate with her consciousness?

At the end of the day, after Wu Tian brought her back, he didn't ask for any specific details because he was really busy.

"Why is it you? What are you doing here? Could it be that the person who has been staring at me is you? " Wu Tian kept asking questions, mainly because he couldn't think of any reason for this guy to follow him.

The little girl nodded. She was only about ten years old. After a period of recuperation, her body seemed to have recovered a lot. He also seemed to be in high spirits.

However, it seemed that she still did not speak, and the way she communicated with others was the same as before.

"I want to see you ..."

The girl's voice appeared in Wu Tian's mind. He knew that this guy was not a threat. Thus, the people from the Security Team left.

He, on the other hand, brought her to the canteen and ordered some food.

Because the girl's stomach began to growl.

Very soon, the woman in charge of the canteen brought out two servings of noodles. This was the first time that the little girl had seen such food. It looked very novel.

As she was a foreigner, Wu Tian knew that she probably wouldn't eat this kind of food. Thus, he opened his chopsticks and prepared to give it to her for testing.

Wu Tian really wanted to laugh when he saw how hungry she was and then how hungry she was at the moment.

Although this guy was a little strange, from every angle, he looked very cute.

"Right, what's your name?" Wu Tian asked while eating. One of the benefits of the communication between the two of them was that they could talk and do other things at the same time without delaying them.

"I don't have a name, my number is 762 ..."

The little girl's voice sounded a little sad, which also made Wu Tian stunned for a moment.

She didn't even have a name, so wasn't that person from Brilliant Company a bit too lacking?

At the very least, he had to give others some human rights.

"If you don't have a name, then I'll give you one." Wu Tian said casually.

However, the little girl's expression began to turn excited. As she ate the noodles, she gazed at Wu Tian with deep emotions.

This made Wu Tian speechless ... This feeling was a little strange.

"I want a name!"

Wu Tian pondered over the name. To be honest, all he could think of were Lee Qiang, Wang Hong, Zhang Li, and the like.

This name – there was no sense of beauty to it. Rather, there was no meaning to it.

Right now, his identity was no longer the same. He could not use this kind of method to give a name to someone, which was too low a standard.

"You have to come up with a lower name so that you can support it!" Wu Tian made up his mind. Since he couldn't come up with a good name, he decided to give it a more popular name.

As long as the name can highlight the characteristics, it is not so vulgar.

"I've decided. I'll call you Erniu. It's very popular ..."

Wu Tian didn't even need to think for one minute before deciding on this girl's name.

"Erniu?" Although the girl could understand the meaning behind the name, she was, after all, a person of Britain. The people she had interacted with since she was young were all people of Britain, so she could not actually feel how ordinary this name was.

On the contrary, she happily agreed and could not stop laughing at her own name.

Erniu ate quickly, as if she hadn't eaten her fill in decades. Like a whirlwind, she wiped the bowl clean of food in front of her.

Then he looked at the bowl of noodles that Wu Tian didn't eat with anticipation.

"What do you think? Are you used to eating it? It should be difficult for you guys to eat such authentic noodles in Britain, right? All of these are just hand-rolled noodles!" At this time, Wu Tian didn't notice Erniu's expectant gaze. He was staring at the bowl in front of Wu Tian with burning eyes.

Wu Tian chatted with her while looking at his phone. Right now, he couldn't miss out on the stock market's intelligence, so he had to keep a close eye on her.

Perhaps because she felt that Wu Tian wouldn't care about it, Erniu directly snatched Wu Tian's bowl of noodles from him in the blink of an eye. However, she finished it in just half a minute.

When Wu Tian saw this scene, he was shocked.

He quickly called for the chefs in the cafeteria to come over and watch the commotion, then got them to quickly make a few more bowls.

Facing this kind of scene, everyone was so frightened that they didn't dare to speak.

Everyone was afraid that this fellow's stomach would burst whenever he walked.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1045 - Bad Reputation

C1045 Bad Reputation

Facing this kind of scene, everyone was so frightened that they didn't dare to speak.

Everyone was afraid that this fellow's stomach would burst whenever he walked.

"Are you alright ..." Wu Tian asked out of concern. To be honest, he didn't have any confidence at all.

This guy could eat so much, who knows if she would die from eating it.

Wu Tian had heard of it before — a person who had been starving for a long time would eat a lot of food if someone suddenly gave him a lot of food, but the result was that he died from eating.

He didn't want Erniu to die the same way, so Wu Tian held the phone nervously, preparing to notify the infirmary to come and save her.

"Erniu usually eats a lot ..."

Erniu smiled at Wu Tian and directly told him with her mind that she was fine. Only then did he give up on the idea of being afraid.

However, this matter still made him very afraid. Who could do such a thing?

"Oh right, why are you following me?" Wu Tian put this question to the side and started to walk around Flower Island with Erniu.

Due to Erniu's relatively good-natured personality and her obedient nature, she could move freely within the Flower Island.

Sometimes, many employees would give her a lot of things. Although she didn't say anything, they could tell from her expression that she was very happy.

She was already about to become a mascot for Wu Group Corporation.

No one knew where this girl came from and why she didn't say anything. Loong Zaiian had investigated a lot, but he didn't know the reason.

The final conclusion was that this Erniu probably didn't want to talk because her organs function normally.

Strangely, no one else mentioned that Erniu had a way to communicate with her mind. All the researchers were guessing what she meant. It was a very difficult task, and the progress was very slow.

"You're very good ..."

Erniu spoke very little, but she still expressed her true feelings. Wu Tian was deeply moved after hearing it.

He raised so many people that few felt he was a good man. It was still Erniu who was honest!

Thinking of this, Wu Tian liked Erniu even more.

After Wu Tian asked the reason, he realized that Erniu was looking at him.

Because Wu Tian never went to see Erniu ever since he brought her here, she thought that Wu Tian might hate her. Thus, she didn't dare to take the initiative to go up and secretly followed him.

"I thought there was a spy... I didn't think that this person would be you, and I don't really hope that there's a traitor within the Flower Island either. " After all, the employees here had all followed him for such a long time, and Wu Tian also provided them with very generous treatment.

If he was so good to his employees and they betrayed him, then Wu Tian really raised a bunch of ingrate.

"There are traitors here ..."

Erniu's voice suddenly appeared in Wu Tian's mind like a warning bell.

"What do you mean?" Wu Tian suddenly stared at Erniu. He felt that there was something in Erniu's words.

"Someone betrayed you ..."

"You mean, you know someone who wants to betray me?"

Erniu nodded, admitting this point simply.

Now, it was Wu Tian's turn to be agitated. What the hell was going on? Why did Erniu know about this?

"How do you know?"

Wu Tian looked at Erniu nervously. He had a feeling that this Erniu might still have some tricks up her sleeve. It was just that Wu Tian hadn't noticed this yet.

"I heard what he said."

Such a simple sentence completely dispelled Wu Tian's doubts. His guess was real!

"You must not mention this to anyone! Other than me, you must not use this ability on others! "

Wu Tian immediately realized the seriousness of the situation.

Her ability was indeed very powerful, but it was also Pandora's ink box.

Wu Tian could use this method to let himself know what others were thinking, but this thing would make people addicted.

If she let other people know about her ability, no matter who they were, they would risk their lives to come and snatch Erniu.

At that time, there would be no guarantee for Erniu's life.

Therefore, he might as well let her hide this ability forever.

This was also one of the keys to her survival.

Although Erniu didn't really understand why Wu Tian was so nervous, she felt that Wu Tian definitely wouldn't lie to her, so she nodded happily.

At this time, Wu Tian had mixed feelings. However, he could talk about Erniu's matter in the future. Currently, the most important thing was to solve the problem of the traitor.

A thousand miles of dike is destroyed by an ant's nest. No matter how strong Wu Tian's Wu Group company was, if there was a problem within the company, the company would close.

Only by finding this so-called traitor would he be able to solve the problem.

He pulled Erniu to a more secluded place, ready to ask her a good question.

As it turned out, Su Cancan saw it in a moment of carelessness, and they did look like Wu Tian was doing something to a teenage little girl...

Upon seeing this, Su Cancan was instantly enraged.

She had always wondered why this guy had spent so much effort from abroad, to only bring back a woman from Britain.

So this guy was trying to satisfy his lust! Poor little girl, Su Cancan had heard that she still couldn't talk — didn't that make it easier for Wu Tian to do something bad, because this girl couldn't even call for help, so she was definitely powerless to resist.

The more she thought about it, the angrier Su Cancan became. Without saying anything further, she followed them over, intending to teach Wu Tian a lesson.

Wu Tian looked around to see that there was no one outside, so he pulled Erniu to a corner.

He took out a cell phone from his pants pocket and held it in front of Erniu, wanting her to find a traitor for him.

Unexpectedly, his action looked as if he was pressing Erniu against the wall and wanted to forcefully kiss her. Su Cancan was far away, and when she saw this scene, she dashed over and kicked towards Wu Tian.

Wu Tian didn't expect that there would be a sneak attack. He couldn't dodge in time and was kicked away by Su Cancan's accurate kick.
