C1046 Identity of the Spy

This sudden change of events gave Erniu a fright. Wu Tian, who was originally fine, suddenly got beaten up when he was talking to her.

Erniu's expression immediately changed, and she pounced towards Su Cancan.

"Erniu!" Wu Tian quickly shouted. He didn't want Su Cancan to hurt Erniu.

Although Wu Tian was kicked, the impact wasn't that great. It wasn't that much of a problem for him to get hit a little bit.

It just looked a little awkward.

However, things had started to get troublesome. Erniu was far more aggressive than Wu Tian had imagined.

Although she looked weak and weak, her speed and strength far exceeded that of an ordinary person's. With just a few attacks, she had managed to force Su Cancan to the side.

Su Cancan was also shocked. She had nearly been slapped by Erniu just now. Fortunately, her body was quite nimble and she managed to avoid the attack in time.

Even if the attack didn't hit her, when Erniu's hand brushed past, Su Cancan could clearly feel the strong wind pressure from her attack.

Su Cancan had no desire to fight. Therefore, after blocking for a bit, she hurriedly jumped backwards.

On the other hand, Erniu stood in front of Wu Tian. From her posture, it seemed that she wanted to use her body to protect Wu Tian.

"Erniu, it's okay, it's okay. She's not a bad person. " Wu Tian quickly explained and stretched his body to show that he was fine.

"I... Kill... Your enemy! " Although Erniu's expression was questionable, her words were very forceful, and Wu Tian could clearly feel the firmness in her tone.

Even if the words directly appeared in Wu Tian's mind.

"About that, both of you calm down. Neither of you are outsiders. If we were to fight, it would be troublesome." Wu Tian said as he gently patted Erniu's head.

"Don't worry, this sister will definitely not hurt me."

Hearing Wu Tian's words, Erniu felt slightly relieved. However, when she looked at Su Cancan, she was still very alert.

Su Cancan's expression wasn't very good either. She didn't like children to begin with. Now she disliked children even more.

However, since it was just a false alarm, she didn't need to maintain her battle state anymore.

"What the hell are you two doing? Wu Tian, were you molesting little girl just now? " Su Cancan frowned, pointed at Wu Tian's nose, and began to recite.

Wu Tian's face instantly turned red when he heard that.

When did he become such a person! Although there were only a few people around the place they were quarreling at, there were still people working there. If the employees were to hear about it, what would they think of Wu Tian in the future?

"You are sullyng my innocence out of thin air. What right do you have to say that? I just have something to discuss with Erniu!"

Of course, Wu Tian had to defend himself, but this time, the one he had to face was Su Cancan, which made him feel very pressured.

"Hmph, I don't care how you explain yourself. If you let me see something like this again, don't blame me for doing some minor surgery!" After saying that, Su Cancan made a shears gesture with her hand, shook her head and left.

Wu Tian heaved a sigh of relief. Luckily, this crazy woman had left. Otherwise, how would he explain himself?

If only he had done something, at least he would not have been framed if he had been accused of it.

But since Erniu couldn't speak to anyone right now, she definitely wouldn't be able to defend him.

Wu Tian quickly brought Erniu into his office so that they wouldn't be seen by others.

However, when Loong Yun opened the office door, she was shocked when she saw Wu Tian and Erniu sitting very close to each other on the sofa.

Her reaction wasn't as big as Su Cancan's, but it was obvious that there was some disdain on her face. After she sent a pot of tea, Loong Yun left.

She didn't hesitate at all, Wu Tian didn't even have the chance to explain it to her.

Wu Tian felt that his reputation would be ruined in a few days.

"This person." Wu Tian held his head in discomfort. Erniu didn't stop her actions, but she soon found the information about the traitor that Wu Tian needed.

Wu Tian quickly took it and saw that it was a cleaning lady in her forties.

"Are you sure it was her?"

Such a person would normally not have access to these confidential matters, so how could he become a spy? Wu Tian couldn't figure it out.

"I'm sure... Erniu ... There's no mistake. "

Seeing that Erniu was so sure, Wu Tian could only agree with the result. However, he could not figure out how this cleaning staff had overheard their conversation.

Wu Tian decided to investigate the man's course of action. There was actually such a system in the company, but very few people knew about it. Basically, only Wu Tian, Loong Yun, and Su Cancan knew about it.

Even Yu Naixin and the others didn't know that it had such a function.

Luckily, they had this chance to check if there was a problem with the cleaning staff.

On Wu Tian's computer, he immediately noticed that there was something wrong with her movements, because this person had already left the Flower Island.

At such a sensitive time, she had left the Flower Island, and not long after this person had left, that piece of news was already fresh out.

No matter how one looked at it, this was too much of a coincidence.

"President Wu, we're going to arrest him now!" Loong Yun immediately frowned, because this person seemed to be suspicious.

Wu Tian wasn't that impulsive and took a deep breath.

"Wait a moment, don't rush yet!" Wu Tian stared at this message and was stunned for a moment before saying, "Call their supervisor first and ask him what's the situation! And how did she get that information? "

Loong Yun nodded and quickly walked out. Not long later, she arrived with a manager.

This person in charge was specifically responsible for the entire Flower Island cleaning. After he found out that he was called over, he thought that something was amiss, so his entire body trembled uncontrollably.

"Don't be nervous, let me ask you a question. Do you know who she is? And where is she now? "

Wu Tian didn't have much interest in this guy, so he didn't want to expand the scope of this matter. It would be best if as few people as possible knew about it.

"I know, this is one of the cleaners. She just arrived two months ago and asked for leave. She said that she was not feeling well and went to rest on the shore."

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1047 - Thirteen More

C1047 Thirteen More

If that was the case, then this matter was much clearer.

After leaving Flower Island, Wu Tian had no way to investigate her tracks. Using the satellite to search for her would take a lot of time, so it was not worth it.

"Okay, give her a call and ask when she'll be back."

Wu Tian was not in a hurry. What had happened had already happened. No matter what he did now, it would not change this outcome.

The head of the cleaning department quickly did so. Although he did not know what exactly happened, he still had a faint feeling that this matter was not small.

Otherwise, it wouldn't have alarmed the group's boss.

However, after calling for half a day, the other party was still unable to pick up the phone.

Wu Tian and Loong Yun looked at each other and immediately knew that there was no need for them to guess anymore. It was basically this person that would not be able to escape.

"Alright, you go back first." Wu Tian let the person in charge leave first, but soon after, he and Loong Yun started to prepare and make arrangements for what would happen next.

This time, it really wasn't easy to solve. It wasn't something that could be solved so easily.

"President Wu, I'll bring some people to investigate and see what exactly is going on with this person!"

Loong Yun said nothing and was ready to leave. Wu Tian just stood there and pondered for a long time with a serious expression.

"I'll go with you!"

"No, the situation now is rather complicated. You must take charge of the work here." Loong Yun retorted Wu Tian's request without hesitation. Furthermore, she didn't plan to give him the chance and directly handed the task to Azure Dragon.

Wu Tian saw that he couldn't leave, so he started to sort out the cause and effect of this matter.

In other words, this cleaning lady had actually already been at the Flower Island for the past two months, and her performance in the past two months had always been very good.

Until this time, she had seized the opportunity to send out the records of the conversation between Wu Tian and Wu Zaibin. She herself immediately retreated.

It was like a delicate set of gears, each with a loop inside. Wu Tian and the others naturally became the dinner of others.

Now that Wu Tian was tied to his chariot by Lee Zhan, it was already difficult for him to jump off the car.

However, Wu Tian couldn't believe that this was something that had already been planned.

"I mean, will they have any other spies with us, but they haven't been exposed yet?"

In any case, Wu Tian felt that if he was Lee Zhan or Zhang Zerui, he would not have to deal with just one spy.

However, this operation would result in them losing a spy. Compared to that, wasn't that a bit too much of a loss?

"That's possible, but we have no way to investigate it right now ..." Although Loong Yun didn't want to say such a depressing thing, she had no choice but to admit this fact.

First of all, they couldn't say the obvious about it and expand it.

No matter who it was, if an employee knew that their boss was suspecting them and suspecting them as spies, they would definitely feel unhappy.

Wu Group could not leave these employees, so this was definitely not possible.

The more he thought about it, the more anxious Wu Tian became. At this moment, looking at the brimming Erniu on the sofa, he suddenly came up with an idea.

"Loong Yun, go busy yourself first." Wu Tian sent Loong Yun away. Only Wu Tian could know about Erniu's situation.

Loong Yun was a very smart person. Wu Tian's action immediately made her realize something unusual. However, she was very cooperative and followed his instructions to leave the room.

However, when Loong Yun left, she did not close the door. Instead, she stood by the door and listened quietly.

"Erniu, can you tell me if there are any other spies in this company?"

The only person who could tell him the answer was Erniu.

If she could use her ability to investigate, it would only be a matter of time before she found out.

Besides, Erniu had been wandering around the company, and now she knew what was going on with the employees.

"I know, there are thirteen more."

The words that came out from Erniu's mouth as if nothing had happened shocked Wu Tian and Loong Yun who were eavesdropping at the door.

Wu Tian thought two or three would be enough.

But now, Erniu actually told Wu Tian that there were thirteen more ... There were quite a few people here, and their Flower Island was specially built for their safety in the first place.

Every time they recruited a staff member, it would be very close by, comparable to an army's audit. It was not easy to get a job here.

Realizing that the situation was not good, Loong Yun didn't dare to eavesdrop and hurried off. She had to make some preparations.

Since Wu Tian already knew about this, then the rest must be resolved.

A single purge was inevitable. She had to find a way to find these thirteen people and expel them.

Of course, if necessary, she could even call the police and have them arrested.

What Loong Yun didn't expect was that Wu Tian didn't talk about it all night. As if nothing had happened, he didn't even mention a single word of this matter.

It was as if this had never happened.

Loong Yun thought it was strange, but she couldn't take the initiative to ask. If she did, wouldn't it mean that she had eavesdropped on his conversation with Erniu?

However, this matter had always been contained within Loong Yun's heart, making her feel extremely uncomfortable.

Taking advantage of the time Wu Tian took out the report of the investigation, Loong Yun finally couldn't help but ask.

"President Wu, we've pretty much investigated about this spy. In half a day, we might be able to find out where she is now, but I still feel that it's not safe."

Wu Tian looked at Loong Yun curiously, as if he didn't know anything.

"Then tell me, what other hidden dangers are there?"

"Don't you suspect that there are other spies in our Flower Island?"

Loong Yun said as she carefully observed Wu Tian's expression, trying to grasp every detail.

"This suggestion of yours makes a lot of sense to me."

"President Wu, how about we find these people right now!"

Loong Yun had been preparing for a long time and was waiting for Wu Tian's order.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1048 - Stratagem

C1048 Stratagem

Wu Tian's attitude was the complete opposite to Loong Yun's. Not only did he know them very well, he even knew who these thirteen people were.

However, he wasn't as anxious as Loong Yun.

"No no no, why should we attack them?"

Wu Tian suddenly asked Loong Yun, causing her to be stunned.

"They are spies. Shouldn't we be attacking them?" Loong Yun felt that this question was not a problem at all, so it was only natural for her to do so.

"That's why I said you're a little naive." Wu Tian was merciless towards Loong Yun's criticism. This time, Loong Yun actually thought about it rather simply.

Loong Yun was confused when she heard Wu Tian's words. These people were the worms here.

How could they heal their own bodies if they didn't get rid of these worms?

"Our information will be stolen by them. If they should join hands with us at that time, wouldn't our company be in danger?"

"Actually, you're just a bit anxious. The damage they cause is not that great."

Wu Tian had a smile on his face. He didn't let down his guard against those thirteen people, it was just that this wasn't the right time to attack them.

"Alright, you don't need to worry about that for now. When the time comes, I will let you do it."

Since Wu Tian had already said so, Loong Yun naturally couldn't say anything else.

She definitely wouldn't go against Wu Tian. She could only assume that Wu Tian had other intentions, which was why he had to do this.

Wu Tian frowned as he watched Loong Yun leave. Although he appeared to be very calm just now, he was actually very worried in his heart.

This time, there were thirteen spies, not only from Lee Zhan, but also from everywhere.

There were people from Zhang Zerui, people from the military, people from the police, and even people from Chang Zairong.

Wu Tian didn't touch them because he knew that he had to give some windows to government agencies to let them understand his internal situation.

After all, he had an extremely high Technology Company, and even had a military industry in his hands.

As for Chang Zairong's spy, it was fine to just ignore that. Chang Zairong had already fallen, so what use could his spy have? It was probably because he was prepared to give up his status as a spy that he did not leave.

If that was the case, Wu Tian would rather pretend that he didn't know anything.

The only ones he had to deal with were Zhang Zerui and Lee Zhan's men.

Actually, the days of enmity between Lee Zhan and Wu Tian wasn't that long, and the people he had planted were very few in number.

The remaining few were Zhang Zerui's men.

Wu Tian was not surprised to have someone with him. On the contrary, if he didn't send someone to his place, Wu Tian would be confused.

Zhang Zerui was such a smart person, how could he let go of such an opportunity?

However, he could not continue to give these people important work. As long as the secret was not involved, there did not seem to be much of a problem with his continuing appointment.

Wu Tian was not a decadent person, so his way of looking at things would naturally be more long-term.

Not long after Loong Yun left, the cleaners' results were basically out.

Wu Group Corporation's satellite basically didn't need too much time to lock onto this person's location.

Loong Yun initially thought that she would capture this person and interrogate him properly. However, Wu Tian felt that with such a good opportunity, he might as well treat her like a chess piece.

They could also use this spy to provide false information to the enemy.

In order to play the trick to make it more realistic, even Loong Yun and the others were strictly ordered to keep their mouths shut. Even the person in charge who might know something was at this moment, Wu Tian specially prepared a month's vacation for him.

This way, as long as the spy came back, she wouldn't think that she would be found out.

Sure enough, the situation began to develop as Wu Tian had imagined.

The cleaning lady realized that she had not been discovered, so she bravely came back.

Logically speaking, she shouldn't have done this, because it would have been very easy for her to be discovered, even to the point of being completely exposed. But commercial espionage, compared with other spies, lacks one of the biggest features: the lack of cost.

Commercial espionage is paid, so employers prefer to spend less money and get more information.

Seeing that the cleaning lady still had some value, Lee Zhan immediately told her to return and continue hiding.

Whether or not there was a better opportunity in the future, this would allow Lee Zhan to play one more card in his hand.

Moreover, the cleaning lady also wanted to return to work. After all, Flower Island's wages were very high, who wouldn't want a good job?

Sure enough, within a day or two, that cleaning lady returned.

Although she was very careful, but when she noticed that the company didn't do anything to her, she immediately let down her guard.

Wu Tian saw that this was an opportunity and called Wu Zaibin into his office.

His general meaning was to prepare for the rest of the work. This time, however, the cleaning lady was in the vicinity cleaning the place.

When Wu Tian and Loong Yun passed by her, they purposely said that to let her hear it.

"President Wu, why did you call me over so urgently?" Wu Zaibin, who didn't know the real situation, had a face full of panic. He always thought something big had happened again.

Recently, he had been busy dealing with the stock market, extremely busy.

Seeing Wu Zaibin so nervous, Wu Tian smiled and his expression immediately changed.

"Don't you know the situation now? The company doesn't have any cash now. How do you expect me to pay the employees this month?"

Faced with Wu Tian's sudden question, Wu Zaibin looked wronged. This was because the decision wasn't made by him, but was made by Wu Tian.

Logically speaking, the responsibility wasn't Wu Zaibin's. Wasn't the boss deliberately bullying him?

"I ..."

"That's enough, you don't need to say it. If we can't take back the money from the stock market, then we'll just wait to go bankrupt. Although my family is huge, my cash is too little. Just watch. If the military knows that I'm about to fall, they'll definitely come and take over."

Wu Tian was just spouting nonsense anyway.

As for whether it was real or not, he did not care. His goal was to give the people outside a signal to let them think that Wu Group Corporation was not doing well.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1049 - Barter

C1049 Barter

Normally speaking, if Lee Zhan and the others could believe this news, they would definitely continue to strengthen their control over the stock, thinking that Wu Tian had no way to sell the stock.

They even let their shares continue to plummet.

If he could defeat Wu Tian in this way, it would be a piece of cake for Zhang Zerui.

However, doing so would conflict with Lee Zhan's interests. Actually, Lee Zhan and Wu Tian didn't necessarily have such a deep feeling for confrontation.

The constant fall in the share price was originally a form of overdraft on Lee Zhan's credibility and ability. If it could continue to be so low, then Lee Zhan would also be greatly shocked.

Therefore, the astute Lee Zhan would definitely not allow the stock price to fall any further. Only by rising would he be able to match his efforts for such a long time.

However, how could Zhang Zerui let go of such an opportunity when he saw one? There was bound to be a conflict between the two sides, so this was only a small conspiracy of Wu Tian.

Let them have internal conflicts, this way Wu Tian can deal with them more easily.

However, this alone was far from enough. Wu Tian started to think otherwise.

In order to truly defeat his opponent, he had to have a strong ability of his own. Right now, Wu Tian's group's only advantage in the entertainment circle was that they had gradually grasped the copyright of the movies outside of the country.

Furthermore, the online playback was beginning to dominate everything in the world. After the other party had banned the Seafood TV, he had instead relied on this advantage to suddenly emerge.

Although this transformation was painful, Wu Tian still managed to survive.

Wu Tian's mood improved a lot as he watched the data report in his hands get better and better.

"President Wu, Seafood TV is starting to make a profit now. It's basically a loss. This is good news, but our other departments' performance has been declining very badly ..."

Loong Yun knew that this was not a good thing and pressed down on the gourd.

"Got it. It seems like the impact from the previous incident was still too great." Wu Tian never thought that in this confrontation, the most terrible thing would be the sales of Kaleidoscope. This was originally a game machine, but in the end, it was boycotted by the big television stations and the celebrities.

They say that this stuff affects the children's education... Even if they didn't have Kaleidoscope s, children who didn't want to go to school could still find other things to play with.

Although it was indeed like that, there were still people who would listen. Many parents now strictly forbade their children to buy or use Wu Tian's Kaleidoscope. Even those with Kaleidoscope began to be treated as psychopaths by others.

This was a huge problem. Now that the Kaleidoscope sales had stopped, even the game development department had been greatly affected.

This was a huge amount of money. Kaleidoscope usually contributed more than half of the company's profits, but now that this was gone, the company was in a tight spot.

Just like Wu Tian said, this time the company really became a prop and couldn't hold on much longer.

"We are working on this and are looking for some government departments to coordinate with us. However, we will not be able to get this sales volume back in a short period of time."

Loong Yun obviously looked at Wu Tian with wrinkles on his face.

"Then the only way is to increase the profits of seafood TV as soon as possible. It seems like the film source provided by Blanche is still a little weak."

At this moment, Wu Tian couldn't help but focus on the seafood TV set.

He had to find a way to introduce something else.

"What do young people like to see these days? I'm going to introduce them to something. "

Wu Tian looked at Loong Yun. He was out of touch with society now, so he didn't know much about normal people.

Loong Yun thought for a moment. Although she didn't usually read about it, she still frequently surfed the internet and knew a bit about it.

"It's a television series from Korea, and their movies are also very popular."

"Country of Korea?" Wu Tian was stunned for a moment and suddenly remembered. This seemed to be the case.

Back then, people on the streets had watched Korea television dramas, which had once led to an extremely strong situation.

It was just that even though there were less today, the amount of people left at the bottom would definitely not be small.

Thinking about this, Wu Tian immediately had a plan.

"Hurry up and prepare for me. I'll go to Korea. For this matter, we still need to go get rid of Cui Yongji."

Hearing Wu Tian's words, Loong Yun immediately went to prepare it. This was indeed a good plan, but Loong Yun did not always have a good impression of Cui Yongji.

This guy isn't a good person. If you get him to help, then he'll definitely ask you to return the favor.

By then, this might not be a small matter. It would be a huge price to pay.

For example, the reason why Cui Yongji's relationship with Wu Tian was so good, was because of Wu Tian's Sect Leader, he was able to become the number one company in Korea.

Therefore, Cui Yongji felt that if Wu Tian didn't have any value to him anymore, then the two of them would instantly turn from their current state into strangers.

Fortunately, Cui Yongji was still very enthusiastic this time. He treated Wu Tian with a very dignified standard.

"As soon as you arrived, I knew what you were going to do." Before Wu Tian could say anything, Cui Yongji spoke first. He then called the few people beside him and brought out a stack of documents.

"Director Cui is truly well-informed, so I won't hide it anymore. This time, I'm here to buy the copyright for your company's movies and TV dramas."

Wu Tian looked at the stack of papers in front of their table and smiled. If there were no surprises, that was the authorization document.

Yes, it's like this, we don't have any objections to this cooperation, and I also know that you are not doing well recently, so our company has a suggestion, don't use cash for this transaction, we want your company's exoskeleton armor.

This time, Cui Yongji played his cunning foe to the extreme.

Wu Tian immediately frowned when he heard that.

"exoskeleton armor?" Wu Tian was stunned for a moment. This thing cannot be sold casually, and could be considered by other nations. The key was this Korea nation, and strictly speaking, he was an ally of Britain.

If his exoskeleton armor were to leak to the enemy countries, then he would lose his advantage very quickly.

This time, Cui Yongji was certain that Wu Tian had a request from him, which was why he said those words.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1050 - Not Optimistic
