

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1066 - Internal Fighting

C1066 Internal Fighting

With the excessive rise in Yingdi Entertainment, it could be said that Wu Tian was happy, but Zhang Zerui and Lee Zhan were not in a very good mood.

Lee Zhan was naturally happy because his company had appreciated, but on the other hand, he started to worry.

Their original goal was to advance the plans of the film and television industry park. Once the government's money was in place, they would think of a way to bankrupt this plan and then take all the money from this investment into their own hands.

However, since their company had more and more money, the government might be more willing to lower their investment.

All of this had placed Lee Zhan on an iron plate and he was suffering continuously.

He was a little hesitant. What lay before him was a huge fortune and a huge challenge.

If he did not consider the trap that he and Zhang Zerui had set, Lee Zhan would be able to earn money now and cash out from the stock market. At the very least, he would be able to earn tens of billions.

Not to mention his current company's market value, it was already worth hundreds of billions. This was an unexpected result that Lee Zhan did not expect.

If it was before, he still needed to cooperate with Zhang Zerui and the others. But now, this situation was reversed.

Lee Zhan even felt that Zhang Zerui no longer had the power and status to talk on an equal footing with him.

Zhang Zerui was worried.

He had been on the phone with Lee Zhan almost every day, but he could feel a change in Lee Zhan's attitude from just a few words.

With money, Lee Zhan's attitude naturally became unreasonable. He even began to feel that he could try his best not to carry out his movie and television industry plan.

This almost touched Zhang Zerui's bottom line. Previously, Zhang Zerui used all of his strength to pay off that huge debt.

Right now, the debt on his body was still not reduced. It was even more than before, so Zhang Zerui had to think of a way to fill this gap quickly.

And this time, the industrial park was a good opportunity.

However, it was not a good thing for Zhang Zerui to step in. Therefore, he chose to stand behind Lee Zhan and secretly supported him.

However, no one had expected that Lee Zhan actually wanted to give up now ... It was no wonder why Zhang Zerui was so angry.

"Director Zhang, you should take a rest first. You haven't slept for two days."

The secretary looked at Zhang Zerui nervously, but it was still rare to see him looking so anxious and angry.

"There's no need to worry about that. Hurry up and prepare the car for me, I'm going to Yingdi Entertainment right now!"

Zhang Zerui thought over and over again. There was no point in worrying about it all by himself. It would be better to ask Lee Zhan in person what he really thought.

If he didn't want to quit, naturally, everything would be fine. However, if he already had the intention to retreat, Zhang Zerui had to think of a way as soon as possible.

No matter what, this hundreds of billions of dollars was going to be in his pocket soon. Zhang Zerui wouldn't let this cooked duck fly away no matter what.

The car moved back and forth amidst the neon lights of the S City night. It was quiet but filled with a sense of violence.

Since it was already late at night, there weren't many people working at Yingdi Entertainment Corporation here anymore.

However, Lee Zhan's office was still lit up. He was in the middle of discussing what would happen next with the Vice President.

At this moment, a smile had always hung on Lee Zhan's face. It could be seen that he was very satisfied with the results this time.

"Director Li, Zhang Zerui is here."

The secretary reported in a low voice. They probably didn't expect Zhang Zerui to come to them at this time.

"It's almost 3: 00 in the morning. What is he doing here?"

Lee Zhan was puzzled, but with a quick thought, he guessed Zhang Zerui's plan. This guy must be here to denounce him, otherwise he wouldn't be so attentive.

"Let him come up."

Lee Zhan was now full of confidence. Even if he faced Zhang Zerui head on, he was not afraid at all.

He was even eager to give it a try, and coincidentally, he had been feeling conflicted all this time. Now that Zhang Zerui also came over, the two of them just happened to have a good chat about it.

If the negotiation was successful, the project would continue. If the negotiation failed, then Lee Zhan couldn't be blamed.

After all, everyone had their own selfish motives. No one was willing to give up on themselves to seek benefits for others.

"How have you been, Director Zhang? It's so late at night, why aren't you sleeping? Why are you here?"

Lee Zhan was still smiling as he looked at Zhang Zerui. He could feel the anger on the man's face.

Although this expression was very subtle, Lee Zhan, who had read countless people, was still able to see it clearly.

"Boss Li, you are asking the obvious. All of you can leave now. I'll have a chat with Director Li alone."

Zhang Zerui looked at the secretaries beside him. It seemed like he didn't want others to know about their conversation.

Lee Zhan smiled faintly. Although he couldn't figure out what Zhang Zerui was up to, thinking that he was in his office, there was nothing to worry about.

Thus, he waved his hand and made the vice president, Hee Wenjia, and his secretary walk out. He and Zhang Zerui were the only two people left in the room.

"Very simple, I am here to denounce you! What do you want! "Today is the seventh time you have told me to delay the plan for the industrial park!"

Zhang Zerui's expression immediately turned grim.

"Haha, I thought you were talking about something. About this, of course I have my own considerations. Our company's capital is always going to be in trouble. Without money, how do you know how to start this project? "

"Just pretend you're poor. Do you think I don't know the market value of your company? Will you be short of money? "

Zhang Zerui sneered and then slapped the table. This guy had some skill, with that palm, Zhang Zerui's desk was about to fall apart.

He gently picked up the palm of his hand. Surprisingly, there was a palm-sized dent on the surface of the mahogany desk table.

This was already a very obvious warning.

"What are you doing? Let's discuss this properly and not make a move. Since you're acting like this, I might as well tell you that I'm indeed thinking about this matter today. At first I was hesitant, but seeing your attitude, I'll tell you directly!"

Lee Zhan was agitated by Zhang Zerui's words.

He pointed at Zhang Zerui, put his hand on his waist, and yelled in annoyance, "From now on, we will part ways! If you want to be your industrial park, then do it! I don't need these now. "

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1067 - Support Others to Ascend to a Higher Position

C1067 Support Others to Ascend to a Higher Position

Although this was within his expectations, Zhang Zerui still felt a bit uncomfortable when he heard this from Lee Zhan.

Sure enough, he would do whatever he was afraid of. Lee Zhan also made the decision for the benefit. Although this was originally the nature of a businessman, no one wanted to hear the word 'betrayal' to happen to them.

Especially Zhang Zerui, he was the only one who could betray others and not allow others to betray him.

"May I take that as your answer?"

Zhang Zerui repeated what Lee Zhan said just now in a simple manner. The two of them looked at each other and stared, as if they were going to fight a great battle.

"I, Lee Zhan, will not change my decision!" Lee Zhan also refused to be outdone. Zhang Zerui's momentum was majestic and his momentum did not decrease in the slightest.

The moment he finished, Zhang Zerui suddenly made a move and punched him on the head.

Lee Zhan never would have thought that just as he thought it was a quarrel, it suddenly became a martial arts practice.

Zhang Zerui was no ordinary person. Under his emotional state, this punch of his could pierce through an iron plate.

Lee Zhan used his head to catch the punch, but the price paid was the blood that flew in all directions and the beige white brains.

Zhang Zerui was stunned. He looked at the blood on his fist and Wu Tie, who was lying on the ground.

Almost in an instant, Lee Zhan stopped moving. The disappearance of such a fresh life in front of him made Zhang Zerui's impulse slowly calm down.

It wasn't Zhang Zerui's first time killing someone, so he didn't feel any guilt.

However, he was astonished. Without going through his brain, he actually made his move. Ever since he became an adult, Zhang Zerui had never done such a thing before.

However, killing someone was still a murder, so this sort of matter wasn't easy to deal with.

Looking at the corpse on the ground, Zhang Zerui walked towards the sink with an expressionless face. He washed the blood off his hands and tidied up his clothes.

Killing Lee Zhan was also a good thing, at least now he didn't have to worry about Lee Zhan betraying him.

There was nothing the dead could say or do. The dead were the easiest to reassure.

"Director Zhang, what's wrong?"

"Come in, I have something to talk to you about."

Zhang Zerui did not change his expression at all, which made it impossible for people to tell that he had just killed someone.

Hee Wenjia naturally did not know anything and followed him into the room. Hee Wenjia had a puzzled expression on his face, but he didn't know what Zhang Zerui was up to.

However, when he looked around the room, he found that Lee Zhan was not there. This made Hee Wenjia feel very strange.

"Director Zhang, where's Director Li?"

Hee Wenjia asked. He stopped because he felt that there seemed to be some viscous liquid on the carpet ...

"Lee Zhan is here."

With that, he moved his body away and showed Lee Zhan to Hee Wenjia.

Hee Wenjia immediately covered his mouth in shock, afraid that he would scream from being too shocked.

Zhang Zerui was very satisfied with this point. This guy had reduced a lot of trouble for him.

"The matter was very simple. I killed it."

Zhang Zerui admitted it. Actually, it didn't matter much whether he admitted it or not. There were only the two of them in the room.

If one of them dies, then the other is the killer.

"But you ..."

Hee Wenjia stammered, but he couldn't explain it clearly. He couldn't tell what kind of feeling he was in. It couldn't even be said that he was sad.

Lee Zhan usually didn't have a close relationship with these executives, and he mainly used money to maintain the relationship between them.

Working for money and spending money was the only difference between them.

Now that Hee Wenjia's employer was dead, he could just find another one.

"He betrayed me, and I hate people like that the most."

Zhang Zerui said indifferently and even kicked Lee Zhan's body with his foot, showing a very disdainful expression.

"Then what do you need me to do?"

Hee Wenjia had already taken a deep breath to calm the waves in his chest and started to face reality.

"It's very simple. The Yingdi Entertainment has to be managed by someone, and I don't really understand this, so I have to find someone who understands it. I'm afraid you're the one who understands it the best in this place."

Hee Wenjia immediately understood his words. This was a good opportunity.

According to his previous career plans, becoming a vice president was the end of his life.

Because if Lee Zhan didn't die, he definitely wouldn't think about what other thoughts and plans he could have.

But now that the chance had come and Lee Zhan was dead, Yingdi Entertainment's chairman seat had become vacant. Someone needs to be a leader here now.

And as the vice president, he was just like the crown prince. It would be perfect if he could take over the job.

"You mean you want me to become the chairman of Yingdi Entertainment?" Hee Wenjia had a different expression. Although this was his dream, the difficulty to achieve it was indeed a little low.

"That's right. I feel that you are a material that can be created. The most important thing is that you are legitimate and you even have ambition."

Zhang Zerui had only taken a few glances, but he had already figured out the vice president's psychological state.

The two men shook hands beside his body. They were truly colluding together.

When dawn arrived, a notice suddenly came, saying that Director Li had suddenly flown to Britain in the middle of the night and would not be coming back for a short period of time.

Although the people from the Yingdi Entertainment were more or less suspicious of this news, once they saw that the person signing it was Hee Wenjia, they had no choice but to believe it even if they couldn't.

After solving this problem, the only obstacle left was how Hee Wenjia would become the chairman, and that could only be accomplished with the approval of the shareholders' meeting.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1068 - Board Event

C1068 Board Event

This night was bound to not be that peaceful.

On the second day, Lee Zhan had already disappeared without a trace. Many people said that he had decided to go out to play last night.

As a result, he left behind a document of instructions and disappeared. Even his personal secretary was not with him. There was only a legend that he went to the Britain with Zhang Zerui.

At this time, the person in charge of the company had changed to Hee Wenjia. Luckily, he was the vice president and was very attentive in managing the work, so the company didn't have any problems because of Lee Zhan's disappearance.

However, the people on the board of directors were not so easy to deal with. These big shareholders were all sly foxes that could not be easily dealt with in a few words.

Hee Wenjia slightly frowned. He knew that this person would be hard to deal with, as this person was from a consortium called China. His temper was never good, and Hee Wenjia had tried his best to avoid this person in the past.

"This is something our Director Li left behind, I don't know why he suddenly did it, but I can't contact him now. To be honest, I also want to call the police, but the documents also said that we shouldn't go find him, at least give him a week's time."

Hee Wenjia had a puzzled expression on his face to show that he was completely unaware of this matter.

"Are you really going to do it this way? Isn't this a joke? "The company is currently in a period of growth, so there are a lot of things that need to be decided by him!"

"Are we going to do it or not?"

The voices of doubt that rose and fell at the same time started to sound out, chattering to the point of drowning Hee Wenjia out.

"You guys definitely didn't have the requirements to watch it properly. It's clearly written on there that the company will do the same as before, and the projects in the film and television industries will steadily advance."

Hee Wenjia was in no hurry. If he wanted to achieve something big, he had to hold it in at this moment.

"I still feel that something is amiss. Why did something like this suddenly happen?" That's not how he was before. " Some people didn't quite approve of the document and felt that it wasn't very credible.

Hee Wenjia didn't reply this time. After all, he was just a vice president, so in theory, he couldn't lead things here.

"In my opinion, since the chairman is not here, but our company can't do without someone in charge. So, I suggest that we quickly select someone to represent the company!"

At this moment, the shareholder who had been leading the way to cause trouble stood up and said in a crafty voice. His intention was obvious. He wanted to take advantage of this opportunity to see if he could gain any advantage in this matter.

"You brat, don't talk here. You clearly don't have a lot of shares, why? Do you still want to command me? "

Very soon, someone stood up to object. Clearly, in the board of directors, shares were an important representative of authority.

In fact, this was the same everywhere. Those who wanted to stand out must have done so because they didn't have the right to speak. Even if the majority of the shareholders didn't try to snatch such a position, his words would still carry weight.

"You can't say that. We can't just find a random person to do this sort of thing. We must first familiarize ourselves with the company's business, otherwise, what if he takes the company astray?" When that happens, Boss Li will definitely be angry. "

What he said made sense. Many people began to think about this question carefully. Maybe they really should choose someone.

"Besides, if something really happens in the company, why don't we all make a decision together, or should one of us make a decision?"

At this moment, Hee Wenjia suddenly said something. With his simple explanation, the astute shareholders in the board of directors immediately understood what Hee Wenjia meant.

To put it bluntly, this matter had to be handled by someone.

If there was a problem with the company, then Lee Zhan would definitely find someone to take the blame if he started to investigate. And this man was the one they had to choose.

"If you say so, then I have no objections! I am willing to listen to the arrangements of our board of directors! " The minority shareholders who wanted to show off just now all expressed their agreement with Hee Wenjia's suggestion.

"Alright, let's choose a temporary chairman. He might not have any shares, but he has to be in charge of the company's business and situation."

When the majority of the shareholders saw this situation, they felt that it would be best if they didn't get too involved in it. Professional matters still had to be left to the professionals.

Since this suggestion was made by Hee Wenjia, it was only natural for many people to focus on Hee Wenjia.

"How about this? You will be the acting chairman of Director He."

Although Hee Wenjia was currently in charge of the entire Yingdi Entertainment, he still hadn't been approved by the board of directors.

When Hee Wenjia heard them say that, he revealed a look of disbelief.

"Is what you said true? But I'm just a vice president... "In terms of qualifications and ability, I am far inferior to everyone here ..."

"Don't say it like that, this is also a chance for you to train. Perhaps after your performance, Director Li will come back and give you a promotion. "

The majority of the shareholders laughed while laughing. They sent a few glances and basically finalized this matter. Soon, the board of directors unanimously voted to approve the decision to appoint Hee Wenjia as the acting chairman.

After obtaining this result, Hee Wenjia finally revealed a smile. Everything that happened was exactly what he expected.

It was truly an absurd day. Hee Wenjia never would have thought that such a huge change would happen in just one day.

If it were in the past, he would not even dare to imagine becoming the controller of Yingdi Entertainment.

Although someone doubted the authenticity of the document, they still pressed Lee Zhan's fingerprint on it. This thing couldn't be faked, and even if the people in doubt had doubts, they could only hide these things in their hearts.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1069 - Nova Plan

C1069 Nova Plan

On one side, they had succeeded in seizing power, while on the other side, they were extremely busy.

Most of them were people who didn't have much cooperation with Yingdi Entertainment Corporation, and many of them were talented directors who were very young.

Because it did not conform to the capital concept advocated by the Yingdi Entertainment, they were always in a state where no one could understand, and no one was willing to invest in them.

After Huang Lan ran out of the olive branch, these people immediately ran over to meet Wu Tian like fish in water.

No matter what, Wu Tian was a famous entrepreneur in the country. If he said that he wanted to prepare a film and television company, then this matter would definitely be reliable.

Wu Tian never thought that the decision he made would bring him so much trouble. Because, on average, he would meet dozens of people a day ...

As he did not expect to be so popular, Wu Tian did not stop for a moment for the past two to three days.

At the end of the conversation, Wu Tian's tongue felt numb. He didn't know what to say anymore. However, he was still in a good mood. All the various circumstances indicated that the path he had chosen was the right one.

As the saying goes, there will be more support on the side of justice, but no support on the side of injustice. At this moment, Wu Tian was the one who got a lot of rewards.

Seeing that Wu Tian had finally finished his day's work, Huang Lan hurried over and rubbed his shoulders.

"How have you been chatting recently? If there's someone you like, or if there's someone you think is talented, we can stay. " Huang Lan's lily-white hands moved back and forth on Wu Tian's shoulders, making him feel extremely happy and comfortable.

Wu Tian nodded slightly. He couldn't make a decision this early.

"I took a rough look. It's a bit too general. I can't say for sure, but I feel that it's not appropriate to continue like this." Wu Tian's words were not unreasonable. With the way he received guests, he couldn't get any answers out of them.

"Huang Lan smiled, not really paying attention to this matter." I gave you a chance to choose, but you didn't know how to choose anymore. How about this, I'll give you a suggestion. "

With that, Huang Lan lightly patted Wu Tian's shoulder and made him lie on the sofa. Then, Huang Lan and the others knelt on Wu Tian's body, forming fists and massaging Wu Tian's shoulders.

Huang Lan's technique was very comfortable. It was Wu Tian's first time experiencing such a wonderful service.

"Sure, I'll definitely listen to the advice given by our great star Huang!" Wu Tian agreed without a second thought.

"I haven't said anything yet." Huang Lan lightly patted Wu Tian's shoulder, then leaned over and whispered into his ear: "You can do this, using Hualong Movie's money ah, and start a Star Creation Project. For example, if a director comes over and he wants to make a movie, you can invest in him. "However, you have to guarantee that every step of this investment will be around 1 million, even if there are losses, there will definitely be some places that can make money."

Wu Tian's eyes immediately lit up when he heard Huang Lan's words. This method was indeed good.

"Makes sense!" Wu Tian said as he took out his cellphone and called Loong Yun to come over to take care of this.

However, Wu Tian forgot that Huang Lan was still massaging his body. In the end, a few minutes later, Loong Yun came in and saw the two of them sitting on the sofa, one up and the other down.

Although Wu Tian was facing the sky with his back to the sky, this posture of the two of them really made it easy for people to think of other indecent things.

Loong Yun stood by the door and coughed lightly, reminding the people inside to move quickly.

"She's here, Loong Yun. I have something to tell you." Wu Tian was so excited that he didn't even notice what had happened between him and Huang Lan.

"Please speak, President Wu." Seeing that Huang Lan had already walked away from Wu Tian, Loong Yun didn't care anymore and walked into the room with big strides.

Wu Tian told Loong Yun the original plan that Huang Lan had mentioned earlier.

Loong Yun listened to what Wu Tian said expressionlessly. Looking at Wu Tian looking at her expectantly, she knew that this guy was waiting for her to come to a conclusion.

As long as Loong Yun said this could work, Wu Tian would probably push it forward immediately.

"In a sense, this is good for us. So many directors don't have the money, so if we put forward this plan, we can certainly help them to a certain extent. " Loong Yun was the first to confirm that Wu Tian's idea was indeed feasible and had a great positive significance.

However, before Wu Tian could become happy, Loong Yun immediately changed the topic and started to complain.

"But don't you think this project is a bit too expensive? If a single movie costs 1 million, and there are dozens of directors who have already met you in the past few days, wouldn't that cost tens of millions or even hundreds of millions? "

Even though the cost of a movie wasn't a lot, 1 million was just the price of a normal exoskeleton Battle Mecha for Wu Tian. However, when all of this was accumulated, it was not a small amount.

"This is a long-term strategy. Although some will lose money, some will still earn money!" Wu Tian blinked his eyes. He fantasized about making Loong Yun agree to the approval of the fund by acting cute this time.

Since Loong Yun had no other way to deal with Wu Tian, she sighed and said, "Alright then, but I can only give you 100 million! Any more and our company may have problems. "

Right now the Wu Group company was in need of money everywhere, so Loong Yun would become very careful in everything she did. She couldn't let the company stop because of money again.

"Great!" Wu Tian took advantage of her excitement and quickly called Wu Zaiyao over. He told her to quickly report this matter into a few articles.

Very quickly, New Star Project who specialized in supporting young directors with Hualong Movie appeared on stage. For a moment, the entire movie scene burst into an intense discussion.

In the past, in China's film industry and entertainment circle, anything that they wanted to make a movie or film, they had to have a relationship. They can only make movies if they can get an investment.

However, they didn't have to worry about that anymore. As long as they had a good work, they could apply for a million or even more from Wu Tian.

Although this amount of money was not a lot, to many young directors who were short on money, it was already a huge help to them.

All of a sudden, the public opinion on the internet began to change.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1070 - The Mind of the Bureau of Culture

C1070 The Mind of the Bureau of Culture

The sudden turn of public opinion was like a butterfly in the Pacific, flapping its wings.

In the whole field of film and television, created a storm, a change of ideas and a violent conflict of old ideas, and so began to erupt.

Gradually, the companies, celebrities, and even the people from the television stations that were criticizing Wu Group companies began to talk Wu Tian's good words.

Of course, those who were angry were also truly angry. Some of the older school's people felt that Wu Tian was going to change their old rules and swallow their benefits.

All of a sudden, the two voices started to argue on the internet. No one could persuade anyone.

And Wu Group Corporation, the center of public opinion, began to silently make a fortune in the process.

When the information regarding the New Star Project was spread out, a director immediately started requesting for the investment of 1 million.

Wu Tian was also straightforward and accepted the application. Of course, the money wasn't given to him for free, it had to be counted as shares.

When the movie was shown in a movie theater or on the internet, the 45% of the profit he earned was from Wu Group Corporation.

This percentage was indeed very high, but compared to the former Yingdi Entertainment company, this was already a lot more.

All kinds of directors had split up and arrived at this moment, as if they were about to break through the threshold of Hualong Entertainment. Wu Tian was very sharp and felt that this was a hard work, so after he dealt with a few cases, he immediately let it go.

At the same time, Wu Tian's stocks soared, while Yingdi Entertainment's stock price fell on the other side.

The capital people probably felt that Wu Tian's method was more promising, so they all sold off Yingdi Entertainment's shares. The shareholders on the board were full of regret.

Their market value of over a hundred billion had just entered their hands, and it hadn't even been a few days before it had all dropped.

It was like a gambler betting all of their wealth and losing everything.

The shareholders were all as anxious as ants on a hot pan, but the Yingdi Entertainment leader Hee Wenjia was not anxious at all.

Zhang Zerui had completely told Hee Wenjia of their plan, and now Hee Wenjia was an extension of Zhang Zerui's will.

He knew clearly in his heart that since Zhang Zerui was able to kill Lee Zhan, he would definitely be able to kill him as well. Since he had already waded into this muddy water, he had to finish this matter.

Of course, the more stocks fall, the better. Only by doing this could it be considered to be in the interest of Zhang Zerui and the others.

Similarly anxious was the Cultural Bureau that developed the film and television industry park together with Yingdi Entertainment Corporation.

Currently, the head of the Cultural Affairs Bureau was extremely anxious. When he heard that Yingdi Entertainment company's share price had plummeted, he immediately realized that their project might have the possibility of a miscarriage.

"Director General Wang, the Finance Department said that they want us to quickly come up with a plan for the film and television industries' area. Otherwise, we will have to reconsider this project."

The secretary held onto an official document and walked into the office of the Director of Cultural Affairs.

He passed the document in front of Director General Wang. Seeing his worried look, he asked worriedly: "Director General Wang, are you still worried about the Yingdi Entertainment?"

"Yeah, they said they would send a message to us very soon, but this Lee Zhan actually didn't answer my call and called their company. He also said he wasn't here!" Thinking about this, Director General Wang felt a bit of annoyance.

This project was originally pretty good, but it was a very promising project. Director General Wang also wanted to do a good job and win some fame.

But who would have thought that everything was done so well, just waiting for the approval of the project? In the end, there were no longer any movements from the Yingdi Entertainment ... You say this is infuriating.

When the secretary saw Director General Wang being so persistent, he didn't know if he should say something.

Seeing that he was hesitating, Director General Wang waved at him, "Just say whatever you want to say, there's no need to hide it."

"Director General Wang, it's possible that you haven't paid attention to the news online recently. The Hualong Entertainment of our S City, it's said that they've got some kind of New Star Project, and many people are flattering them! I think it's a big challenge for our project. "

The secretary also said whatever he wanted to say. Now that the public opinion on the Internet had changed very quickly, it was time for their project to go online. It seemed like they were going against the flow of the water.

"There's such a thing?"

Director General Wang looked at his secretary in disbelief. He quickly turned on his computer and looked at the latest news.

"If that's the case... and we shouldn't give up on this project! "

Not only did Director General Wang not suffer any setbacks because of this news, he even became more resolute in his belief.

"What do you mean?" The secretary found it a bit hard to understand. Logically, he should have waited for a moment to see if it was the right choice.

"You don't understand, the more it is like this, the more it means that the Yingdi Entertainment is in need of us. Our Culture Bureau will cooperate with them, we can definitely make this project very popular!" At that time, the entire nation will cast their gaze at our S City. "

As he said that, Director General Wang's eyes lit up. It was obvious that he was very, very concerned about this matter.

Although the secretary did not particularly agree with him, he felt that it was not suitable for him to say anything else. Thus, he just nodded his head and did not say anything.

Just then, someone knocked on the door. The secretary opened it and was surprised to find a tall and thin man in a suit standing outside.

He had a briefcase in his hand and was looking inside.

"Hello... "May I ask who you are?"

the secretary asked tentatively. He thought the man must be from some company.

"Hello hello, let me introduce myself. I'm the Acting Chairman of Yingdi Entertainment, my name is Hee Wenjia."

Hearing this, Director General Wang, who was walking at the back, suddenly jumped up and ran over excitedly.

"Are you guys here to sign the contract!?" I have been waiting for you guys for too long!

Director General Wang shook hands with Hee Wenjia excitedly. His tears were about to fall. He was looking forward to the stars and the moon. Finally, he had looked forward to the people from Yingdi Entertainment company.

It seemed like they had indeed felt the huge threat outside and knew that they had to find him for cooperation. That was the only solution.
