

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1076 - Mix in

C1076 Mix in

Since he was going to sneak in, it would be best if he dressed exactly like the enemy. This way, he would be able to confuse the crowd.

Wu Tian took Erniu and went to get another set of clothes.

This time, he chose black suits and sunglasses.

Dressed up, he looked no different from the other men in black.

After that, Wu Tian found a nearby hotel and placed Erniu inside.

"You can stay here and wait for my good news."

As the saying goes, the most dangerous place is the safest place. Those black people definitely wouldn't investigate this place closely. In other words, they should have already investigated this place many times and felt that there shouldn't be any problems here.

Erniu was a little nervous as she grabbed Wu Tian's clothes to prevent him from leaving.

"I'm afraid ..."

Wu Tian smiled and patted Erniu's head, comforting her in this way.

"Don't be afraid, nothing will happen to me. I'll definitely come back and find you."

Perhaps it was Wu Tian's confidence that gave Erniu courage, but after hearing what he said, Erniu slowly let go of her hand.

It was still early outside, so Wu Tian didn't plan to leave immediately. Therefore, he took Erniu and started strolling around the area.

Eating, drinking and playing for hours.

When Erniu was pretty much tired of playing, Wu Tian looked at the sky and thought that it was about to become dark.

After sending Erniu back, Wu Tian squatted in a corner of the street and waited for the black-clothed people to pass by.

Just as expected, when the sky was getting hurried, a group of black-clothed men with their heads down walked toward the Brilliant Company from the outside.

It seemed like they didn't get anything, so Wu Tian quietly ran out from the side of the street and followed behind the team.

No one noticed that Wu Tian was an impostor since his attire was basically the same.

Just like this, he followed the group and even blended into the Brilliant Company. At this moment, all the lights outside the company had been turned off. However, when they entered, they found that there was a special world inside.

Just in terms of Brilliant Company, there were already over a hundred people gathered in the great hall.

These people stood in groups of three or four, quietly guarding a door that looked like a safe.

This door was two to three meters high, and it seemed like it would need several people to pull it open.

He didn't know what was behind the door, but Wu Tian's curiosity was soon satisfied. Because at this very moment, the door was slowly opening.

This really wasn't something a human could do. The door was completely motorized. Behind the door was a long corridor, which seemed to lead underground.

Wu Tian immediately understood that it was the entrance to the Brilliant Company's underground facilities. He followed the group and also wanted to follow them in, but he found that when everyone was standing at the door, there was someone nearby who would scan their faces.

Only after the scan was successful would the two people be allowed to enter. Wu Tian immediately became nervous.

If he remembered correctly, this thing should be an iris scan... This was used to scan the iris inside the eyeball to determine its identity.

Wu Tian might be able to change his appearance, but something like the fingerprint iris couldn't be changed. Everyone was the only one.

Thinking about that, Wu Tian suddenly covered his stomach, ran out from the team and leaned against the wall with his waist bent, as if his stomach was hurting.

He saw that none of the men in black beside him noticed him, so he held on to the wall while he went to find the toilet.

When no one saw him, Wu Tian directly left.

He knew that it was impossible for him to sneak in. Their door checks were too strict. It was probably the result of Wu Tian's infiltration last time.

Their security was so strict that Wu Tian didn't know how to enter at this moment.

However, if he didn't go in, he wouldn't be able to get any important information. At this moment, Wu Tian was also in a difficult position.

While he was looking for the toilet, he caught a glimpse of the ventilation duct he had used the last time.

But unfortunately, that ventilation duct now seems to have been welded to death...

Wu Tian looked around and found that there was nowhere he could go.

The key was that there were patrolling people in the Brilliant Company, and there were monitors everywhere along the corridor. It seemed that no matter where he went, he could be captured.

Since he was wearing a black suit, he didn't attract anyone's attention.

Wu Tian pretended to squat in the bathroom and didn't know what to do at first.

After all, he couldn't just squat in the bathroom forever. This place was indeed safe, but it was also very easy to be discovered.

Wu Tian even tried to swing the ventilation duct above the toilet to see if he could sneak into the underground facility.

However, after Wu Tian climbed inside for a long time, he realized that the ventilation ducts in the rooms outside seemed to be independent and had nothing to do with the underground facilities.

With his face covered in dust, he had no choice but to crawl back to the toilet he had used earlier.

Wu Tian washed his face with cold water, hoping this would stimulate his skin and make it more awake.

However, the good news didn't last long before the sound of footsteps came from outside the toilet. Wu Tian wanted to hide but realized that it was too late. He pushed open the bathroom door and walked in.

"Why is there another one here? They've already entered! Why are you still here!"

Wu Tian turned his head to take a look, and the person who spoke was the Brilliant Company's patrolling security guard. They all seemed to have black clothed people like Wu Tian, so they were very curious to be outside at this time.

Wu Tian didn't know how to reply as he was constantly pointing his flashlight at him. If he said something wrong, it would be very easy for it to be exposed.

But luckily, in a moment of desperation, he recalled the matter of his own stomach. He covered his stomach with his hands, cried out, and dove into the bathroom while squatting.

Although he didn't communicate with the guard, after seeing the situation, the security guard immediately understood what was going on.

Could it be that this bro was having a stomachache ...

The two of them laughed and left after going to the toilet. They didn't observe Wu Tian any further.

However, he definitely couldn't stay in this toilet anymore. Looking at the ventilation duct above, Wu Tian suddenly remembered that when he went in to check, he seemed to have seen a control room.

There seemed to be a monitoring screen inside, and there shouldn't be any surveillance cameras in that place!

Thinking about this, Wu Tian immediately went back into the ventilation duct.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1077 - Fighting in the Control Room

C1077 Fighting in the Control Room

As the saying goes, the most dangerous place is also the safest place. I'm afraid there aren't many companies in the world that would install surveillance in the control room.

Furthermore, the control room was mostly empty now. There was no need for anyone to keep an eye on it. The control room in this place was also empty. There were wires everywhere on the messy floor and rows and rows of screens on the walls.

These screens covered almost every inch of the buildings on the surface of the entire Brilliant Company.

He could clearly see the scenes on the screen.

After Wu Tian came in, he first hid in a dark corner. He was not in a hurry to move, but instead, he wanted to check if there were any movements.

The patrols outside had already gone through two or three rounds. Although they knew how to patrol outside, they did not seem to enter this room at all.

Wu Tian was relieved, so he focused his attention on the monitors.

If he had known earlier, he would have brought one more person with him. Leaving one person here to check on the surveillance, while the other person's movements might have been more convenient.

After fiddling with the monitor computer here, Wu Tian found that he could investigate the situation of the surveillance video a few days ago.

According to Tieh Jun, the previous operation seemed to have been carried out a few days ago.

Wu Tian quickly turned back and realized that something was wrong.

There were a lot of cleaners coming to clean up the images in the monitor.

It was pitch black inside the monitor, which lasted for several hours.

After linking all of these together, Wu Tian found that there were actually some clues.

When the agents attacked, the first thing they did was spray the monitors with black paint.

This was equivalent to destroying their eyes, but at the back, even though the scene was dark, Wu Tian could still hear the sounds from some of the surveillance cameras.

The attack of the secret service team seemed to have been severely obstructed, as miserable shrieks could be heard from time to time.

Two or three hours later, Wu Tian heard the sound of the door opening and closing. He knew that someone must have taken these agents underground.

It was unknown if they were still alive or dead ...

After a few hours, everything had calmed down and the monitoring system was once again cleaned. The entire Brilliant Company was still normal, as if nothing had happened.

"This is going to be difficult ..."

Wu Tian sighed. He still didn't know what to do with a worried face.

The other party had made him look like an iron bucket. With such an entrance, how could he sneak in?

Just as he said that, a black shadow pounced over from the corner of the control room like a cheetah pouncing on its prey.

Caught off guard, Wu Tian was grabbed by the person behind his neck and head. Wu Tian immediately realized that things were not going well, so he tensed up his muscles and grabbed the other person's arm tightly with his hands.

This posture was very easy for him to be killed by others. Once his head and neck were grabbed, the other party would only need to twist it and the neck would be broken.

However, Wu Tian wasn't an idiot. He wouldn't just stand there and get beaten up like that.

Therefore, he tried his best to resist. Wu Tian even grabbed onto the person's clothes and hooked his neck with his foot, then used all his strength to move forward.

Others were thrown onto the ground in this kind of posture, but he still didn't let go of Wu Tian's head.

The two of them twisted on the ground in an awkward position, as if they were going to use their brute force to fight to the death.

The main thing was that Wu Tian was very surprised. He had also trained in it before, especially in Alien Fist, which he had mastered to the peak of perfection.

In front of this person, his strength was not only unable to take advantage of him, but he was also unable to break free from his shackles.

The opponent's face was probably full of surprise, because he never would have thought that Wu Tian would be so tough. Normally, he would kill the opponent in one move, but now, it became a tug of war with Wu Tian.

Who was this person? The Biochemical Man of Brilliant Company?

Wu Tian started to guess this person's identity with what little ability of thinking he had left.

Had he been discovered? However, this was not very likely. This person appeared soundlessly, and even someone as sensitive as Wu Tian did not hear his movements.

If Brilliant Company found Wu Tian, they definitely wouldn't use such a small force to capture him.

But if it wasn't someone from the Brilliant Company, then who was this person?

At this moment, Wu Tian was so tired that he couldn't breathe. His face was red and his neck was thick. He used the last bit of energy he had in his body and shouted fiercely at the enemy: "F * ck you!"

The other party was clearly stunned for a moment. Wu Tian didn't know if he was shocked by his curse or not, but he seized this opportunity.

Taking advantage of the other party being stunned, Wu Tian's punch landed on his face, and Wu Tian immediately followed up with a kick to get out of the control of this person.

Wu Tian kicked him again with his fists. Right now, the other side only had the ability to defend and had no way of fighting back.

"I thought he was a powerful figure, but he got me to break free so easily!"

Wu Tian was also very excited. Although he didn't understand why, but at least he knew that the current situation was good news for him.

"China person? Or an Englishman? "

The other party's voice was very low, but the words that came out of his mouth were China. This time, Wu Tian was also stunned. To be able to speak the language of China, are they from China or do they live in England?

"Who the hell are you?"

Wu Tian asked vigilantly. The two of them didn't dare to act rashly now. Both of them knew each other's identities were not that simple.

In order to not expose himself, Wu Tian definitely wouldn't reveal his identity first.

"None of your business!"

The other side was adamant on not saying anything, but the two of them continued to stand against each other.

They stared at each other for almost an hour. At this moment, Wu Tian sighed.

"Alright, I lose ..."

He really didn't think that the other party could actually hold on more than him. They stared at each other without even blinking.

The key point was that Wu Tian looked at this person's clothes. He looked dirty and torn. He looked like a homeless person, but a homeless person definitely didn't have such skills.

"My name is Wu Tian, I'm from China."

As for what he came here for, Wu Tian obviously wouldn't say anything about it.

It was enough for him to reveal so much information. The other person squinted his eyes and looked Wu Tian up and down, then finally stopped on his face.

"So Wu Tian is you!"

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1078 - Sole Survivor

C1078 Sole Survivor

He seemed to know his own name.

Wu Tian was also starting to get interested, because he had already retracted his fists and kicks. It was clear that he wasn't too wary of Wu Tian. Since that was the case, Wu Tian also acted courteously towards them. The two of them shook hands.

"I can't tell you my name or my identity."

Originally, Wu Tian was looking forward to him saying his name, but Wu Tian ended up with this result ...

"Are you playing with me?"

Wu Tian was very angry, but he couldn't do anything about how this person acted shamelessly like that.

"Secrets!"

His explanation was also very simple.

But even if he didn't say it, Wu Tian felt that he would definitely find some clues.

He carefully sized up the clothes on his body. They looked very similar to commoners.

There was nothing special about the things that normal people wore on the street outside.

Moreover, his appearance was also very ordinary. He was neither handsome nor ugly. In short, he could not be found if he was thrown into the crowd.

Wu Tian suddenly realized that this was probably the person Wu Tian was looking for.

Generally speaking, in many places, agents would choose the kind of person that would attract attention.

Especially they couldn't be too handsome or too ugly. Ordinary people were their best disguise.

Furthermore, the clothes this person was wearing were also very ordinary, and it just happened to meet the requirements of the previous secret service team.

This was an away game, and it was impossible for the special forces to act here in their uniforms. Thus, they could only choose to wear ordinary clothing, as it would be easier for them to conceal their identities.

Wu Tian decided to test him and see if he was right.

"I got it. You failed your quest, so you're hiding in this place. Where are your teammates?"

Wu Tian wasn't in a hurry to confirm this person's identity. On the contrary, he said this.

His face was full of shock, but soon after, his expression sank into pain, as if Wu Tian had stabbed into something in his heart.

"How do you know ..."

Wu Tian knew that his plan worked. He had such a reaction. Needless to say, he was the person in the secret team that he was looking for.

"I was personally sent by Tieh Jun."

Wu Tian did not say much. When he mentioned Tieh Jun, he already understood what was going on.

It was as if they had met an old friend in a foreign land. Tears welled up in their eyes as they embraced each other.

He was on the verge of breaking down, so he held Wu Tian's arm tightly.

"Why did you only just arrive ..."

As he spoke, he cried. It was obvious that he was truly pitiful.

"I haven't had anything to eat or drink for two days. All of this doesn't matter, but those brothers of mine are the most important! "

Hearing this survivor's sad words, Wu Tian quickly pulled him to the side and tried to comfort him.

"Don't be in such a hurry, if there's anything, you can slowly figure it out." Wu Tian took out his cell phone and pressed the record button. He had to record what happened earlier. That way, if anything happened to them, he could also send out this information and let Tieh Jun know.

It turned out that this survivor was indeed a member of the secret team, his name was Zhao Hui. They originally were twelve people, and decided to completely destroy this base that housed the Brilliant Company.

Zhao Hui was one of them. After the operation began, he was responsible for installing the explosives at various places on the Brilliant Company, but after he finished installing all of these, he found that his companions had all disappeared.

The places where they fought left behind puddles of blood. Looking at this scene, Zhang Wei immediately understood that his companions had all been captured.

Hence, he immediately hid himself and came to the control room.

During this process, Zhao Hui was accidentally injured. Although he wanted to find his companions, he didn't have the strength to do so.

It should have been two days later, Zhao Hui no longer had any expectations for this matter.

He couldn't contact his superior, so he felt that he would die here. He decided that after tonight, regardless of success or failure, he would go out and give it a try. Even if he died, he would die on the road to save his teammates.

At this time, Wu Tian suddenly appeared. Originally, when Wu Tian came in, Zhao Hui didn't notice Wu Tian.

Because he was already asleep, but when he woke up, he found a person sitting in front of the screen, fiddling with his computer.

He thought it was someone from the Brilliant Company, but he realized that something wasn't right, because no matter how he looked at it, this fellow seemed to be the face of someone from the China.

Zhao Hui, who had doubts in his heart, decided that he would not care about all that much. First, he had to deal with this person. If his identity was exposed, there would be no way to save his teammates.

Thus, the matter of him suddenly attacking Wu Tian appeared.

At this point, everyone understood what was going on.

Wu Tian was also deeply moved in his heart. He didn't expect that they would meet in such a way.

"Thank goodness it was me. Otherwise, if it had been someone else, they would have died ..." Wu Tian was still touching his neck, and he still felt uncomfortable.

"I'm rather sorry, my attack just now was too heavy ..."

Zhao Hui scratched his head. Luckily, they were all fine, otherwise ...

Although the two of them were happy for a while, they immediately fell into a deep worry.

Judging from what Zhao Hui said just now, the situation of these special agents was probably not a good one.

There was such a huge pool of blood on the ground. There was definitely someone who was injured and taken away by him.

Now, after two days, who knew what the situation was with these secret teams below?

He wasn't a good person either. If a person was forced to confess under torture, it would already be pretty good for the average person to last for more than 24 hours.

It had been almost three days now ...

Thinking of this, Wu Tian's heart couldn't help but tighten.

"Hurry up and tell me the details of their movements. What did you do before? What's the route they took?"

Wu Tian grabbed Zhao Hui and was about to get to the bottom of the matter. He had to get to the bottom of this. Otherwise, things would get troublesome.

"Are you going to save them?" Zhao Hui looked at Wu Tian with his mouth wide open in surprise. He was happy to see such a thing but Wu Tian was the only one.

"That's for sure. Since they are your companions, then they are also my companions. How can I just watch our own people roam about like that?"

Wu Tian's words were resolute and decisive without the slightest hesitation.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1079 - It Is too Easy to Get Messages

C1079 It Is too Easy to Get Messages

Zhao Hui stared at Wu Tian and realized that the man in front of him was not joking.

He gritted his teeth and looked at the place where he was injured. Then, he punched the ground.

"Alright, since you have the guts, then I won't admit defeat!"

Zhao Hui said viciously. Originally, he was looking to die, but now that Wu Tian appeared, he wanted to save his companion even more.

He was willing to go and help him!

"With your current condition, you should rest up here. I need someone to help me."

Wu Tian looked at Zhao Hui. The attack just now was probably the last of his strength. Now, if he suddenly attacked again, it would definitely not work.

At this moment, Wu Tian regretted not bringing some food and water with him. Otherwise, Zhao Hui would have been able to recover even better.

"But how can you go in alone?"

Zhao Hui could not help but to ask worriedly. Actually, Wu Tian had not solved this problem even now.

He shook his head, sighed and said, "I can only find a way to sneak in and see if I can pass the iris test."

This kind of thing... To be honest, Wu Tian didn't have any confidence at all, but from the current situation, he didn't have any other chances.

At this moment, Zhao Hui lowered his head and thought for a moment, then suddenly grabbed Wu Tian and excitedly said.

"I know of a way! You should have seen their door. When I was loading the explosives, I had a look at their circuit. As long as this facility has no electricity, that door can be opened manually. "

Hearing Zhao Hui's words, Wu Tian's face was immediately filled with surprise and joy.

No matter what, there was no way to stop me.

"Are you sure? If you're sure, we'll do it! "

Zhao Hui nodded. He did not do nothing these past two days and also found some information.

"I've already installed an explosive in the power facility. It can be detonated remotely, but they have backup power. Switching would only take three to five minutes, so I can only buy you five minutes at most."

Five minutes wasn't a long time and Wu Tian wasn't picky about it at that time. It was already good to have five minutes now.

"Alright, just five minutes!"

As the situation in the underground facility was not very clear, it was best if Wu Tian sneaked into the deepest part of the facility within these five minutes.

Once inside, Wu Tian and Zhao Hui would lose contact and he would have to rely on himself for the rest.

However, Wu Tian had already mentally prepared himself for this, so there was nothing for him to worry about.

This was not the first time he went to the underground facilities, so this time, it would be much easier to disguise himself as a man in black.

It was already very dark outside. The two of them waited until midnight before deciding to start their operation.

The explosive that Zhao Hui had installed at the power facility was a very small explosive, so it wouldn't produce much light or noise.

Wu Tian had run out ahead of time and hid near the door.

Zhao Hui could see Wu Tian through the monitor. He made an OK gesture towards the monitor, and immediately pressed the button to detonate.

In almost an instant, all the electricity in the facility was paralyzed.

The lights had all been extinguished, and even the guards who were patrolling back and forth on Brilliant Company were also stunned at this time, as they hurriedly ran towards the backup power installation.

Wu Tian grabbed the handle on the other side of the door. It was like a boat pulling off. The lock was moving towards a certain direction.

This thing was dead heavy, if he didn't have a bit of strength, he really wouldn't be able to move it.

Just tormenting Wu Tian took two minutes, and during that time, he had to be careful not to let anyone discover him.

If there was a sound, all this would have been in vain.

Soon, the door was finally opened by him. Wu Tian pushed open the door with all his might. This gap was only big enough for him to get in by himself.

Now that the lights in the underground city had turned dark, it seemed like their shops were connected together.

Wu Tian took the opportunity to close the door again. With a "kacha" sound, the door was closed. It was at this moment that the backup power installation was activated.

The lights suddenly lit up. Zhao Hui quickly looked at the screen inside the monitor screen and found that the door was completely intact and tightly shut without anything wrong.

Wu Tian had already disappeared. It seemed like he went in.

"Brother, I hope you're okay!"

Zhao Hui was sweating profusely. What really worried him was what happened afterwards.

Wu Tian, on the other hand, took a glance around and found that there seemed to be no monitors in the corridor. He let out a sigh of relief and leaned against the wall, step by step.

On both sides of the corridor, there were some junk piled up in the room. Wu Tian originally wanted to go in and hide, but the door was locked.

He had no choice but to bite the bullet and continue walking forward.

At this moment, there seemed to be someone talking. Wu Tian quickly straightened his body and walked out with the elegance of a man in black.

So there were two people wearing white coats mumbling to themselves. They were probably wondering why the electricity went off just now.

When they saw Wu Tian, they were stunned for a moment, but did not say anything. He walked past Wu Tian.

These words scared Wu Tian. He thought he had been found out.

"Why are there people from the Secret Service here at this time? Didn't they already gather? "

"I don't know. Let's just ignore them."

The two people wearing white gowns grumbled. After saying a few words, they hurriedly left.

Wu Tian rolled his eyes. He suddenly felt that this was a good opportunity. Didn't he worry about not having any information?

He turned back and patted the shoulders of the two men in white.

"Wait a minute!"

The two of them looked at Wu Tian in confusion. They didn't know what he meant by stopping the two of them.

"Is this yours? I picked it up for you when it fell to the ground just now."

Wu Tian handed over a badge in his hand.

When he looked at his chest, it was empty. Only then did he realize that his badge had fallen to the ground.

He immediately expressed his gratitude to Wu Tian.

"Thank you so much. If it wasn't for that, we wouldn't even know how we would have been reprimanded ..."

"Nothing, by the way, I just transferred here recently. I just went to the toilet and got lost. Can you tell me where I should go?"

Wu Tian said embarrassedly, but this action made him relax his vigilance.

"No wonder I said how come I saw the Secret Service at such a place. So you were actually lost, and just needed to follow this path to get there. Of course, there's a living quarters at the very front, and that place is yours."

Wu Tian thanked them profusely and turned around to go, but after thinking for a while he turned back and asked: "There's still more, I heard I'm going to take on the interrogation mission, do you know where they are locked up? "It's just that there's almost eleven people ..."

"You're talking about that, right in your camp!"

Wu Tian never thought that information would come so easily. With just a few words, he stupidly gave him all the information.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1080 - Torture

C1080 Torture

After receiving the intelligence, Wu Tian's infiltration became much easier. There was basically no one to be seen anymore.

The glass jars that had been filled with liquid everywhere before were now almost gone. There were great changes everywhere now.

Wu Tian relied on his memory and groped his way forward. Although he was careful, this time Wu Tian wasn't that nervous and wasn't afraid of encountering people.

He felt that his identity and disguise were perfect. It seemed that it wouldn't be so easy for others to recognize him.

It seemed that the working hours were about the same as the rest time in the outside world. It seemed that those people had started to rest.

Wu Tian followed the information he got just now and walked inside. Soon, he saw the camp that those people were talking about.

There were indeed many black-clothed people inside. They seemed to be heading somewhere in a hurry, and all of them had a tired expression on their faces.

"Hurry up, the meeting is about to begin!" Someone saw Wu Tian and quickly waved at him.

Wu Tian did not dare to reply, afraid that he would say something wrong, so he quickly nodded and ran over. He found a secluded place in the crowd to do his job, and waited for something to happen.

However, he did not have to wait for too long. A man wearing a military uniform with several knife scars on his face appeared in their line of sight.

He had a well-built body and solid muscles that bulged like rocks. He didn't look like someone who was easy to mess with.

After this person came over, he did not speak, but used his eyes to scan the people below and nodded his head.

"I seem to have discovered something today, but I heard that none of you found anything. How did you Secret Service become?"

Wu Tian originally thought that he would say something else, but he immediately scolded him.

After being scolded for more than ten minutes, the Secret Service s, who numbered in the hundreds, did not even dare to take a deep breath as they sat there obediently and were scolded.

No matter how much he cursed, there would always be a time when he finished.

After venting his anger, he quickly waved at a few people not too far away.

Wu Tian looked over and saw a few men in black holding an old man walking over.

The old man's face was full of frustration and sadness. In front of these big and tall Secret Service, his small body was like a little chick.

He was easily lifted up. There was no room for resistance at all.

Of course, this old man knew there was no way for him to escape, so he simply chose to resign himself to fate.

"Say it, do you know where that damned Wu Tian is hiding?"

The brawny man said viciously to the old man and almost knocked the old man out with a slap.

When Wu Tian looked again, this old man was none other than Old Master Chu.

No wonder, no wonder why Old Master Chu was in such a bad mood when he called him. It turned out that he had already been caught ...

Thinking that he must have forced Wu Tian to call him, Wu Tian's heart started to ache.

What does all this have to do with Old Master Chu?

He didn't actually know much, but the enemy had found him and even threatened him with such a method.

Wu Tian clenched his fist tightly. However, he didn't have any way to save Old Master Chu.

"I don't know, I really don't know ..."

Old Master Chu shook his head. He had told these people everything he could know at this moment. There was no need to bring trouble onto himself at his age.

"I think that even if you get beaten up, it won't be enough!"

The brawny man had a face full of viciousness and was about to fight again, but at this time, he knew that he could not hold on any longer and quickly begged for mercy.

"Just let me try a few more times, okay? I really don't know. Maybe if I can get through to the next time, I'll still be able to get through to the second time!"

Old Master Chu had no other choice at this moment. Other than surrendering to his enemy, he had no other choice if he wanted to live.

After thinking for a while, the robust man nodded at the people beside him and told them to bring the phone over and give it to Old Master Chu.

"The item is in your hands. You can use it however you want. I hope you can give me a satisfactory answer scroll!"

The stocky man handed his phone to Old Master Chu. It was obvious that he would be disappointed if he didn't succeed this time.

Since he was forced to do so, he could only nod in agreement with tears in his eyes. At this very moment, he was only a weakling.

He called Wu Tian's number several times in a row, but how could Wu Tian, at that moment, pick up the phone?

He had already switched off the battery in his phone just now, so that even if someone called, they wouldn't call him here.

There wouldn't be any signal being sent out either. The method they relied on was completely ineffective. Especially when Wu Tian already knew everything.

"I can't get through ..."

Old Master Chu was on the verge of tears. Honestly speaking, what does this have to do with him? He was just introducing him here.

"I think you're courting death!"

"Don't hit me, I really didn't do anything. I do know this person, but he just asked me to do a favor for him and recommend him over here. That's what I did ..." "I don't know what happened after that. You should ask Elder Sister Hsing."

Old Master Chu sounded like he was about to cry, making people want to believe him.

The brawny man seemed to think that it made sense, and he sent someone to bring Elder Sister Hsing back.

Looks like they aren't idiots. Elder Sister Hsing, of course, bears the brunt of all the contacts that I have with this PR company.

If Elder Sister Hsing was in no better condition than Old Master Chu at this moment, then she must have suffered a lot.

"Smelly old man, don't slander us!"

The moment Elder Sister Hsing came out, she pointed at Old Master and swore. As for why she was so angry and excited, Wu Tian could understand. After all, if it was anyone else who was involved in such a matter, they would not even feel good about it.

"I'm handing the person over to you. What does what he did have anything to do with me?"

Of course, Old Master Chu didn't want to be outdone. The two of them immediately started at each other, revealing their weaknesses.

Just pull one person into the water, and then the other one will be able to get away unscathed. This point of view had long since become deeply rooted in their hearts.
