

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1081 - Easily Infiltrate the Enemy's Interior

C1081 Easily Infiltrate the Enemy's Interior

It was unknown if it was a crosstalk performance or not, but Old Master Chu and Elder Sister Hsing were criticizing each other there and quarrelled for half an hour.

They talked about Wu Tian and the dirty stuff behind his back. In short, they told each other almost everything they knew about each other.

At this time, the sturdy men and Secret Service always crossed their arms and looked at the two of them coldly. They did not have any intention of stopping them.

"Go on ..." I want to see when you can tell me about Wu Tian. Is it good for you to hide everything here? "

The brawny man had a cold smile on his face. He was so unhurried because he was already prepared.

Just as he was speaking, several people came over with a pile of whips and a mess of torture instruments.

Other than Ye Wen and Elder Sister Hsing, everyone else was scared out of their wits when they saw the items.

"I really said everything ... If it's really impossible, we can set up a trap and use me as bait to lure him out! "

Old Master Chu couldn't care less at this moment, his only thought was to live. He had worked hard for half his life, and now he was finally on the verge of breaking free. He did not wish for himself to suddenly die at this moment.

Elder Sister Hsing quickly added, "That's right, that has nothing to do with me. I don't even know what they do ..."

Elder Sister Hsing thought she was innocent, but in the eyes of her enemies, they were all the culprits.

"Do you think I would believe all this nonsense? You are really too naive! I want to hit each of you with 20 lashes! "

The brawny man waved his hand at the men in black, and a crisp sound of a whip could be heard in the room.

Every time the whip lashed out, there would be a miserable shriek, and their flesh would instantly be lacerated, bleeding profusely.

At this moment, just the screams alone was not enough to calm the pain on their bodies. The two of them started to curse Wu Tian.

If it wasn't for him, these two would still be enjoying themselves. But now, because of Wu Tian, they became like this. The more they thought about it, the angrier Elder Sister Hsing and Old Master Chu became.

Wu Tian watched the two of them from below. There was nothing he could do but watch. Of course he knew that it was because he had harmed the two of them, but there was nothing he could do now. He could only focus on the bigger picture.

Seeing that the situation was getting better, the sturdy man extended his hand out to stop the Secret Service.

"All of you, come here and give them a whip each. If you still can't find this person within two days, all of you will end up like this!"

The brawny man looked at the black-clothed people on the stage with a cold expression. These words caused their hearts and bodies to tremble.

However, they couldn't not listen to him. Thus, more than a hundred people immediately stood up and walked over in a line.

Each person will be given a whip, and the hundred plus people will have a hundred whips. Allocating two people, one person will be given an extra fifty whips.

When Old Master Chu heard this, he was about to collapse. He thought he might die here.

However, the most terrifying thing was that Wu Tian was also a part of it and the whip was quickly handed over to him.

He took the heavy whip and saw that there were reverse hooks on the end, while Old Master Chu was wounded all over.

Wu Tian really couldn't bear to hit Old Master Chu, but if he didn't hit him, then his identity would be immediately suspected.

Just like this, Wu Tian stood there with the whip in his hand, conflicted. Old Master Chu opened his eyes with great effort. He wanted to see who was actually being kind to him at this moment.

It gave him a chance to catch his breath.

However, when he saw Wu Tian's face, he immediately opened his eyes in disbelief.

Seeing the situation, Wu Tian knew that it was bad and that Old Master Chu might have already recognized him.

As expected, Old Master Chu struggled desperately to point at Wu Tian.

Just at that moment, when Wu Tian was about to be exposed, he lashed out with his whip. The whip hit Old Master Chu's mingmen and knocked him out.

What he had wanted to say and do vanished at this moment.

Wu Tian's actions did not arouse any suspicion from others, so he immediately dodged to the side.

Soon the event here will be over... All the blacks were not in a good mood, but they had to rest.

Many people just found a bed and lay down. They were very tired after a busy day, and on top of that, they had to go on a very important mission the next day. It took a lot of mental and physical effort.

Many people fell asleep as soon as they laid down, while the sturdy man also left with his men. Old Master Chu was currently unconscious, and he had sustained such heavy injuries. He didn't know if he would be able to survive for the next few days.

As all the meetings ended, the lights in the underground facility began to turn off one by one.

Only a few dim lights were left on, while the rest were immersed in darkness.

However, at this moment, Wu Tian could not fall asleep. He heard the people around him snoring, while he took advantage of the darkness to quietly get up.

He had not forgotten his goal, which was to find the members of the secret team.

Wu Tian followed the direction that the burly man left in and found a few rooms that were brightly lit.

There seemed to be the sound of torture coming from inside. However, from the sound of this scream, it didn't sound like Old Master Chu and Elder Sister Hsing.

However, this time there weren't many guards, only two, and one of them went to the toilet.

Wu Tian saw that the clothes they wore were the same as his, so ... He rolled his eyes and came up with an idea.

He did not continue to hide but swaggered out of the darkness.

He walked straight towards the cautious guard.

His footsteps attracted the attention of the guards and he quickly stopped Wu Tian.

"What do you do?"

"I came to change shifts. You guys have been busy all day, go take a rest first. I'll take your place for a while."

What Wu Tian said was natural and did not make the guard feel anything was amiss.

"So that's how it is. It's been hard on you. I'm so tired that I'm going to die!"

The guards were also very happy. In Secret Service, there were very few people who would take the initiative to change shifts, so hearing this news, he immediately felt that he could relax tonight.
